CASS CITY CHRONICLE

VOL. 21, NO. 20. CASS CITY, MICHIGAN, FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 25, 1925. 8 PAGES.

BOULEVARD LIGHTS TO BE INSTALLED

FIVE TO A BLOCK WILL BE PLACED ON MAIN STREET THIS FALL.

Cass City's Broad Main Street to Be Enhanced in Beauty by New Lighting System.

The village council agreed to enter into a contract with the Michigan Electric Power Co. on Monday evening for the erection of 22 boulevard lights on Main Street, and President Caldwell and Clerk DeWitt were authorized to enter into a 10-year contract with that company for street lighting at the following rates: Post boulevard lights at $45.00 each a year, overhead lights at $30 each, and traffic lamp at $15.70. These rates are subject to a discount of 15 per cent and street lights are to be discontinued at 1:00 a. m., except traffic lamp.

The staggering system of boulevard lighting will be used, five lamps to a block, three on one side and two on the other. The company is to paint the boulevard posts once a year and do the necessary washing and repairing.

The council had two propositions in consideration, the one outlined above and one in which the village installed the equipment and then purchased current from the company.

The Michigan Electric Power Co. agreed to order the material at once and expect to commence the work of installation within a few weeks.

With the removal of the unsightly poles from Main Street and the installation of the new street lighting system, Cass City's broad business street will be the finest in the Thumb district.

The council, at the meeting Monday night, decided to make quite extensive repairs on some of the side streets of the village this fall.

Paragraphs Concerning Michigan

(By Ed. A. Nowack).

Lansing—Bird life has been given the most serious setback in the state's history this year due to forest fires that claimed innumerable birds. Rabbits and other small game suffered likewise, entailing a loss that hundreds of thousands of dollars in conservation money taxation cannot replace.

There are fifteen active mines now operating in the copper country in the northern peninsula of Michigan.

Senator Frank P. Bohn, on his summer home at Whitefish Lake, near Newberry, has sunk an artesian well 107 feet deep, that supplies the drinking water for his place.

At the direction of Gov. Alex J. Groesbeck the German brown trout in the Otter river, in northern Michigan—only stream in the state to possess them—will be transplanted in other streams in a final effort to help the fish stage a come back.

Two of the largest copper mines in the upper peninsula have suffered an annual loss of about $350,000 due to the theft of silver that was mined along with the copper. One upper peninsula man is reputed to have made a fortune of $250,000 out of dealing in stolen silver.

Senator James Wilcox, dean of the Michigan State Senate, spends his summers on Lake Superior shores in Ontonagon county where he has fitted an unused school room with hand made rustic furniture.

A sign board at the city limits, Ann Arbor, tells the tourist that is the city where "Commerce and Education Meet."

The Ionia Free Fair that is boosted so ardently by Fred Keister is being studied from every angle by many counties that are thinking of adopting the same kind of fair.

There is enough trap rock in Marquette county to build five million miles of splendid highway, according to students of geology.

Finger prints identified 17 persons in Detroit this year who met violent death, either through design or accident.

For the fiscal year now closed Michigan has cared for 9,761 insane persons in her institutions, 802 deaf mutes, 765 blind persons, 154 idiots, 3,143 feeble minded, 936 epileptics and 358 persons who were either deaf or dumb.

The Michigan National Forest between the Soo and Newberry is showing the state conservation department a new wrinkle in real conservation in the manner in which warning signs are erected and protected from the elements.

Copper mines on Michigan's copper range now are engaged in re-grinding the copper from the stamp sand that has been run through the mills in the last quarter of a century. About six percent of copper is recovered.

NEW $100,000 RESORT COLONY.

Preliminary projects for improvements amounting to $100,000 in plans for a modern resort colony on the Huron Shore east of Grindstone City in the Thumb have been completed by G. E. Burkett, of Monroe. Burkett has purchased 160 acres of the Frank Kinch farm. The plans include a nine-hole golf course.

The property covers one-half mile of shore frontage and is covered with hardwood trees. A water system to supply 50 cottages has been installed, roads and trails have been surfaced with gravel and shade trees set out.

GOLDEN RULE KEY TO GAINING CREDIT

PAYING YOUR BILLS PROMPTLY GIVES MERCHANTS CONFIDENCE.

Anybody owe you money?

If so, you expect them to pay it as soon as their ability permits—a part of it, at least. And if you owe anybody a dollar, as an upright and square person, you make it a point to pay up the first chance you get. That's only human nature. The "golden rule of life," as it were.

Such is the gist of the message Cass City's business interests give you today in their educational campaign for a better and greater community. You'll find their talk, well emphasized by considerable sound logic, on page 3 of this issue. Read it carefully. If everybody practices what these men preach, all Cass City will be a great deal better off for it.

"Do unto others as you would have them do unto you" was taught to all of us on our mothers' knees. But, insofar as human nature varies considerably, none of us can truthfully say that we have always practiced that rule. We should however, make a special effort to live up to it in doing business—namely, paying our bills and expecting others to do likewise.

Without "cash on hand," no business can exist. And where can that cash come from, except that you and I pay up promptly—either when the goods are delivered to us or when the bill falls due. It takes money to make money and the business man must figure out where he's going to get his money to cover the cost of future production and overhead.

But, if you and I—and sometimes, through mere negligence, we have done it—fail to pay up our just bills, that business man will soon be worrying as to how he can continue to serve us and give us the quality of goods to which we have been accustomed. And, worst of all, if we keep him worrying about getting his cash, he'll soon lose interest in Cass City and its residents and seek a better paying field elsewhere. Thus, not only you but the whole town would lose a good friend and neighbor.

Paid up bills, indeed, add to the good name of Cass City. The best feather we can have in our hat is to have the reputation that we're "square shooters"—always willing to do the right thing by others. And that includes—promptly making good the debts we contract!

SCHOOL HEADS MET AT CASS CITY

ONE OF LARGEST MEETS OF SUPERINTENDENTS EVER HELD IN THE THUMB.

Speeches and Informal Discussions Made Meet a Profitable One to Educators.

A company of 41 was entertained at the Gordon Tavern Monday evening in the largest get-together of school superintendents and their wives ever held in the Thumb. Dinner was served at six o'clock, after which Supt. H. W. Holmes of the Cass City schools acted as toastmaster for the evening's program.

In the address of welcome, Supt. B. H. VandenBelt of Bad Axe stressed the splendid cooperation among the school men present. This friendly spirit, which is strengthened by the get-together meetings, is of great service and help to the new men.

Supt. L. D. Randall of Sebewaing responded to the toast. As one of the new men in the Thumb, he said that he had been well received in every way. In the short time that he had been here, he said that he had received many helpful suggestions and useful advice.

The third speaker of the evening was Supt. F. R. Phillips of Croswell, president of the Round Table of the Thumb. Mr. Phillips explained the purpose and the meaning of the Round Table, which meets periodically during the year. Some of the plans for the ensuing year were explained, and all of the school men were invited to join.

The remainder of the evening was devoted to an informal discussion of the problems confronting the school men of the day. Plans were made for another get-together to be held in Bad Axe in November, and a third meeting some time in the spring.

The following is a list of the guests present Monday evening: Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Holmes, Mr. and Mrs. W. Campbell, Harry E. Duke, all of Cass City; Mr. and Mrs. B. H. VandenBelt of Bad Axe; Mr .and Mrs. L. D. Randall, Sebewaing; Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Adler, Pigeon; Mr. and Mrs. L. E. DuVall, Deckerville; Mr. and Mrs. B. H. McComb, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Wilber, Caro; Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Phillips, Croswell; Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Hutchinson, Port Austin; Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Olney, Sandusky; Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Baker, Ubly; Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Bush, Kinde; Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Sparling, Bad Axe; Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Davis, Mayville; Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Clay, Vassar; O. D. Backus, Port Huron; Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Kline, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Wyse, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Truemner, and Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Bell.

Children to Swell P. T. A. Attendance

A get-together meeting of the Parent-Teachers Association was held at the high school Wednesday evening. Although not very largely attended, a very pleasant and interesting time was experienced.

The session was opened by the president, Mrs. A. J. Knapp, with appropriate remarks, and Rev. Newberry was called upon to offer prayer. The musical numbers on the program included a vocal solo by G. W. Landon, a piano solo by Mrs. I. D. McCoy and community singing. Both soloists responded to encores.

H. W. Holmes, Rev. Cargo, Rev. Newberry and Rev. Schnug gave impromptu talks when called upon by the president.

During the business session it was decided to hold the next meeting on Monday evening, Oct. 26, to which all patrons of the school are invited, whether parents of children attending school or not. Having no children in school should not lessen any one's interest in this important community institution. In order to encourage attendance at P. T. A. meetings, it was decided to present a picture to the grade or room that is instrumental in mustering out the greatest number of parents.

HADSALL-SECORE.

Mr. Clifford Secore and Miss Marie Hadsall of Springfield, Illinois, niece of Mrs. L. E. Dickinson, were quietly married at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Bergen at Flint on Saturday, September 19. On Sunday, they attended a reunion at Five Lakes.

Mrs. Secore attended school in Petersburg, Ill. She is a teacher of several years' experience, having taught in Illinois and at the Brown school in Novesta, Michigan. Mr. Secore is employed at the Standard Oil Company filling station here. Mr. and Mrs. Secore will make their home in Cass City.

TUSCOLA GETS SUPPLY OF LICENSE PLATES

CO. TREASURER HOOVER IN RECEIPT OF 7,200 PAIRS FOR 1926 USE.

County Treasurer Burdeen Hoover received last week 800 pairs of commercial automobile license plates for 1926 to be sold to Tuscola county truck owners. Passenger car license plates to the number of 6,400 pairs were received by Mrs. Hoover several weeks ago. The passenger license plates run from 538-701 to 545-100, while the numbers of the commercial plates run from 74-101 to 74-900. The plates are black and white—a black background with white letters and numerals.

The plates, as for the past several years, are manufactured at Jackson prison. Secretary of State Charles J. DeLand has placed an order for 950,000 which it is certain will have to be supplemented with a second but smaller order.

In 1926 there will be issued for the first time two styles of license plates, one for passenger cars, and one for commercial. By commercial is meant trucks, busses, jitneys and other types of vehicles that carry passengers or goods for hire. The plates for cars not carrying passengers for hire will be, except as to color, the same as the 1925 plates. Commercial car plates will be nearly an inch wider than passenger car plates, and, in addition to the numerals and the monogram of the state and year, will be at the bottom in letters large enough to be easily read the word, "Commercial." Although passenger and commercial plates will be different there will be no duplication of numbers. The numbers for commercial cars will start at 50,001 and run to 150,000. When these 100,000 plates have been issued more probably will be needed, inasmuch as, in 1924, there were issued plates to about 80,000 commercial cars, and the number of applications are increasing by tens of thousands annually.

Mrs. D. Lane of Bad Axe spent Sunday at the home of Mrs. Lane's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cleland. Mr. Cleland returned with her and spent several days in Bad Axe.

REV. CARGO RETURNED TO CASS CITY CHURCH

NEW PASTORS AT DECKER, CARO, DECKERVILLE AND OWENDALE.

Twelve Made Elders and 11 Deacons at Conference Session at Flint Sunday.

Rev. I. W. Cargo has been returned to the Cass City charge, according to the ministerial appointments of the Detroit M. E. conference which were made public at the closing session Monday morning. During the three years which Rev. and Mrs. Cargo have spent in Cass City, they have endeared themselves very closely to the people of the Methodist church and others of the town by their splendid co-operation and kindly service. All who know them express themselves as sincerely pleased with the re-appointment for their fourth year in Cass City. At the fourth quarterly conference of the M. E. church, held a short time ago, Rev. Cargo was officially invited to return.

At the Sunday afternoon session of the annual conference held this year in Flint, ordination services were held for twelve men who were made elders, ten men and one woman who were made deacons and two women who were consecrated as deaconesses. Bishop Francis J. McConnell officiated at the service, assisted by the six district superintendents.

Among the outstanding changes of appointments this year were the appointment of Rev. Edgar J. Warren as superintendent of the newly-created Methodist Union of Greater Detroit, of Rev. Howard A. Field to succeed Dr. Warren as superintendent of the Detroit district, of Rev. John E. Martin, formerly in charge of Detroit city parish to succeed Rev. H. A. Leason as superintendent of the Ann Arbor district, of Rev. R. H. Bready to the First M. E. church of Port Huron, of Rev. Tredinnick to Preston M. E. church, Detroit, of Rev. H. S. Hubbard to Mills Memorial M. E. church, Port Huron.

Rev. J. D. Young is returned to Lapeer, Rev. Wm. Richards is returned to Northville, and Rev. W. A. Gregory to Williamston. Rev. O. R. Grattan, of the Michigan conference, was transferred to Niles from Kalamazoo.

Other appointments of neighboring towns follow: Avoca, Andrew Wood, from Imlay City; Bad Axe, W. E. Marvin; Bay Port, F. Merle Townsend, from Memphis; Clifford, W. H. Harris, from New Haven; Croswell, F. N. Miner; Decker, J. A. Sherlock, from Clifford; Deckerville, W. L. Jones, from Decker; Deford, C. W. Scott; Elkton, H. H. Young; Imlay City, H. E. Davis, from Deckerville; Kingston, Edward Hocking; Melvin, J. H. Williams, from Owendale; Owendale, J. J. Pearson, from Minden City; Caro, J. V. M. Stephens; Sandusky, H. A. Manahan.

Pageant Was Creditably Presented

The first meeting of the Woman's Study club held at the Presbyterian church Tuesday evening was well attended by members of the society. Following a short business session, the retiring president, Mrs. A. D. Gillies, presented the new president, Mrs. H. F. Lenzner, who responded in a few remarks.

After community singing a pageant entitled "Woman's Garden" was presented by club members under the leadership of Mrs. J. H. Holcomb. This pageant was written by Mrs. F. L. Brandes, associate editor of "The Club Woman" of Detroit, and presented at the 30th anniversary celebration of the Detroit Federation of Women's Clubs. It portrays the purpose and object of women's clubs in a beautiful way. The characters were creditably interpreted by the ladies, special mention being due to Mrs. Holcomb and Mrs. Bailey, who carried leading parts. The following was the cast of characters:

Voice, Mrs. Chas. Wilsey.
Great Heart, Mrs. L. Bailey.
Woman, Mrs. J. H. Holcomb.
Culture, Mrs. G. H. Burke.
Lady Bountiful, Mrs. E. Pinney.
Self Interest, Mrs. E. Hunter.
Visions, Mrs. A. C. Atwell.
Power, Mrs. Z. Stafford.
Public Welfare, Mrs. E. Croft.
Peace, Mrs. H. F. Lenzner.
Organist, Mrs. I. D. McCoy.

A reception for the teachers of the public schools will be given at the next meeting of the club on Oct. 6 at the M. E. church. Mrs. W. R. Alvord of Detroit, an ex-president of the state federation, will deliver an address on "The American Home."

FARM AUCTION SEASON IS HERE

Next week the season for farm auctions opens in this section of the Thumb district and today's issue of the Chronicle contains two auction advertisements.

E. E. Dewey will have a sale 4 miles south of Cass City, on the Ashnellor farm, on Tuesday, Sept. 29, with R. N. McCullough as auctioneer.

On Wednesday, Sept. 30, Alex Vervies and Mrs. Andy Mate will have an auction 2 miles north and 2 miles west of Hemans, with T. B. Tyrell in charge. Page 7 contains further particulars regarding both sales.

J. Wells Spencer of Novesta township will hold a farm sale on Tuesday, Oct. 6. The full announcement will appear next week.

The Chronicle's advertising columns will be of particular interest to farmers for the next seven months because of the auction advertisements. Both sale proprietors and auctioneers have come to realize the importance of advertising in getting out a large crowd of bidders and have found that the newspaper is a far better medium than the old-fashioned method of printed hand bills.

Sale announcements today differ considerably from those back in '49. The following item from the Wallace Farmer gives the announcement of a sale of the early days which appeared in the Anderson (Ky.) News in 1849:

"Having sold my farm and am leaving for Oregon Territory by ox team, will offer on March 1, 1849, all my personal property, to-wit: All ox teams except two teams, Buck and Ben and Tom and Jerry; 2 milch cows; 1 gray mare and colt; pair of oxen and yoke; 1 baby yoke; 2 ox carts; 1 iron plow with wood mole boards; 800 feet of poplar weather boards; 1,500 ten-foot fence rails; 1 sixty gallon soap kettle; 85 sugar troughs made of white ash timber; 10 gallons of maple syrup; 2 spinning wheels; 30 pounds of mutton tallow; 1 large loom made by Jerry Wilson; 300 hoop pones; 100 split hoops; 100 empty barrels; 1 thirty-two gallon barrel of Johnson-Miller whiskey 7 years old; 20 gallons of apple brandy; 1 forty-gallon copper still; oak ton leather; 1 dozen reel hooks; 3 scythes and cradles; 1 doz. wooden pitch-forks; one-half interest in tan yard; 1 32-caliber rifle; bullet mould and powder horn; rifle made by Ben Miller; 50 gallons of soft soap; hams, bacon and lard; 40 gallons of sorghum molasses; 6 head of fox hounds, all soft-mouthed except one.

"At the same time I will sell my six negro slaves—two men, 35 and 50 years old, two boys, mulatto wenches 40 and 30 years old. Will sell all together to same party as will not separate them.

"Terms of sale, cash in hand, or note to draw 4 per cent interest with Bob McConnell as security.

"My home is two miles south of Versailles, Kentucky, on McCoons ferry pike. Sale will begin at 8:00 a. m. Plenty of eats and drink."

Need Any Help in Home?

Miss Alvina Lang, dean of girls, has been authorized to arrange with housewives of Cass City for the exchange of work by high school girls for their room and board. Those who desire to secure the services of girls at odd times to help in the home should also call Miss Lang. She has a list of girls willing to work and will be glad to make necessary arrangements for both parties.—Adv1

SHOW RECOGNIZES BOYS AND GIRLS

PREMIUMS FOR SHOWING, JUDGING AND WRITING ESSAYS TO BE GIVEN.

Judging Contestants Will Be Required to Identify the Various Types.

The Thumb of Michigan Potato Show which is to be held at Mayville on November 11, 12 and 13 will, after careful consideration by the directors, give a prominent part of the show to work done by boys and girls.

There will be classes offered for exhibits by boys and girls, for judging done by them and for essays written on the subject "How I Would Grow Potatoes."

There are two phases of boys' and girls' work in Michigan. One the boys and girls potato clubs under the Club Department of the Michigan State College and the other under the teachers of Smith-Hughes agriculture in high school work with their boys and girls in potato project work. The members of either of these two groups will be given opportunity to exhibit peck samples (32 potatoes) of their crop at the Thumb of Michigan Show and the management has provided for the winners.

These same boys and girls together with any other boys and girls under eighteen years of age may enter a judging contest. Here they will be required to identify the various types of potatoes and place several samples. Appropriate premiums have also been provided for the ones doing this the most nearly correct.

The essay contest is given consideration to interest the boys and girls who are in school under the 9th grade. These essays are to be written on the subject of "How I Would Grow Potatoes". They are to be from five hundred to one thousand words in length, and in the hands of County School Commissioner, B. H. McComb of Caro, not later than Nov. 5th. Commissioner McComb will act as chairman of a committee of three who will judge the essays.

As cash prizes for the above boys' and girls' work the management has appropriated more than one hundred dollars. Any boy or girl interested can get particulars by writing their County Agricultural Agent or the Secretary of the Thumb of Michigan Potato Show at Mayville.

County Road Signs Posted in Tuscola

Posting of county road signs in Tuscola county through co-operation of the Automobile Club of Northern Michigan and the Tuscola county road commission has been finished. The signs are placed at every intersection of two improved county roads. Similar signs were placed in Saginaw county some time ago, and eventually the club hopes to have them in every one of the 23 Northeastern Michigan counties in its territory.

There are 42 of these signs in Tuscola county.

The next step in highway marking to be attempted by the Automobile Club will be to secure the co-operation of the county boards and the townships boards to place signs at the intersection of township and county roads.

The road signs are of great convenience to the traveling public, and especially to tourists. Officials of the club estimate that the number of tourists in the Thumb this season was 300% over that of 1924.

To Study Corn Borer Conditions in State

Michigan sections infested with the European corn borer will be included in a special inspection trip sponsored jointly by the United States and Canadian departments of agriculture on Sept. 29 and 30 and Oct. 1, according to announcement made this week by Prof. R. H. Pettit, head of the entomology department at the Michigan State College.

While corn borer infestations have been heavier in Ohio and Ontario than they have in Michigan, the situation in the southeastern section of the state is serious enough to demand close attention from all who are interested in Michigan's corn crop. A quarantine has been in force this summer in an effort to prevent spread of the pests, which in some sections of Ontario are said to have resulted this year in virtual destruction of the crop.

Prominent government and state authorities will unite on the inspection trip in an effort to determine the exact situation and to make plans for future steps to control the corn borer.

STOP THAT BACKACHE!

Many Cass City Folks Have Found the Way.

Is a dull, nerve-racking backache wearing you out? Do you feel older and slower than you should? Are you tired, weak and nervous; find it impossible to be happy, or enjoy the good times around you? Then there's something wrong and likely it's your kidneys. Why not get at the cause? Use Doan's Pills—a stimulant diuretic to the kidneys. Thousands recommend Doan's. Read what a resident of this locality says:

Wesley Gotts, electrician, 235 S. Buffalo St., Bad Axe, Mich., says: "My back was lame and a heavy, pressing feeling across my kidneys kept me on pins and needles. When I stooped and tried to straighten, I winced with pain and mornings I felt tired out. Frequent dizzy spells would confuse me, too. I used Doan's Pills and they took away that ache, put my kidneys in good shape and rid me of the dizzy spells."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Pills—the same that Mr. Gotts had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.—Advertisement 6.

Bigger Poultry Profits

No hen ever made an egg record in a damp, drafty hen house. To yield greatest profits, she needs proper shelter—a dry rat-proof, sunny, sanitary hennery.

Modern construction calls for concrete, at least for foundation, floor and lower walls to keep out moisture, rats and weasels, and to make the poultry house easy to clean and keep clean.

We'll be glad to talk over your building problems with you, to estimate the cost of modern improvements, and to recommend the most economical materials to use. Your inquiry incurs no obligation.

Do Unto Others---

First---in fairness to the merchant or professional man who has invested cash and time in the merchandise or service you have received, you should reciprocate the favor of credit by taking care of your obligations in reasonable time.

Your merchant or professional man does not require security. He demands no interest ---yet he is actually loaning you cash.

Second---in fairness to your own good name and reputation, your bills should be paid on time.

You are granted credit according to your past record. Your character is the basis for confidence in your ability to pay.

Do your part. Pay your bills promptly. If you can't pay all at once, pay half or whatever you can and see to it that your creditor knows you are playing the game square.

That's one way we can all add to the good name of Cass City.

Mrs. B. F. Hill of Greenleaf township, on Saturday, brought to the Chronicle office two small branches from an Everbearing strawberry plant which contained 25 berries. Strawberry shortcakes and pies have been served frequently in the Hill home in recent weeks and Mrs. Hill has canned several quarts of the berries picked this month. Black and red raspberries on the Hill farm looked promising for heavy picking the last of the month, but early frosts will probably end the prospects.

DEATH'S HARVEST.

James Masters.

James Masters answered the final summons Wednesday morning, Sept. 16, after an illness of nearly three weeks. Up to this time, Mr. Masters had always been free from ill health.

He was born in Manchester, township of Leach, Ont., on Jan. 16, 1855. He came to Michigan about 1882, settling near Gagetown, where he was united in marriage with Miss Clara Lemunyon. Two children were born to them. They are Earl P. Masters and Mrs. Lloyd Reagh. The family moved to Greenleaf township 13 years ago.

Mr. Masters was a good father, a loving companion and a real neighbor and friend.

Funeral services were held at the residence Friday, Rev. A. G. Newberry officiating. Burial was made in Elkland cemetery.

Friends and relatives from a distance in attendance at the funeral included Mr. and Mrs. Henry Masters of Silverwood, Randall Masters of Sears, Mrs. Emma Tanner, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Woda and Miss Ethel Tanner, all of Detroit, Geo. Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Robinson, Mrs. Helen Stevens and Mrs. Grace Bennett, all of Plymouth, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Karr of Ortonville, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Tanner of Almont, John Lemunyon of Gagetown and Jackson Masters of Ontonagon.

Wm. H. McPherson.

William H. McPherson was born in Burlington township, Lapeer county, August 14, 1859, and passed to his eternal reward from his home at Evergreen on Sunday, September 20, 1925. In 1894 he married Miss Ida Congdon and they settled in Burnside. Two years later they moved back to Burlington, and in 1902 they moved to Evergreen township. Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at two o'clock at the Hay Creek Free Methodist church, Rev. A. A. Davis, assisted by Rev. Bertha Davis, officiating. Burial was in Elkland cemetery.

Mr. McPherson is survived by his wife and six brothers, Walter, Hiram and Peter of Clifford, John of Nashville, Joseph of Reese, and Oscar of Pontiac.

Relatives from a distance in attendance at the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. Joseph McPherson and daughters of Reese, Mr. and Mrs. Peter McPherson and daughter, Dorothy, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Congdon and two daughters, Florence and Inez, Hiram and Walter McPherson, all of Clifford, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar McPherson of Pontiac, John McPherson of Nashville, Mr. and Mrs. G. G. McKee, James McPherson, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Bradby, Samuel Dunlap, all of Detroit, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. McKee and Mrs. Edward Sheffer of Marlette.

SOFT WORDS

By THOMAS ARKLE CLARK
Dean of Men, University of Illinois.

"A SOFT answer turneth away wrath," the wise man wrote centuries ago, "but grievous words stir up anger."

It is true with animals as it is with men. They respond quickly to the soft kind word; they recognize composure and self control in human beings and come under its spell as we ourselves do, while bluster and loud angry talking stir them up instantly.

Gregg had a deadly fear of dogs. The most harmless, inoffensive cur that crossed his path threw him into a state of terror at once, and even if the animal had at first had no sinister intentions, when Gregg began to shout angrily at him and to brandish his cane or whatever missile he could possess himself of, the cur was more likely than not to leap upon Gregg in self-defense, and bite him. If he could have brought himself to speak gently to the innocent brute Gregg could have had him licking his hand and fawning about his feet in an ecstasy of joy and friendliness.

Horses yield to soft pleasant words more readily than any other animals with which I have been associated. I owned a high strung temperamental little mare once who could be calmed instantly by a soft encouraging word or a gentle pat on the neck, but who would tear herself loose from whatever she was attached to if she were scolded or spoken to roughly or angrily. She was as sensitive as a child. Strength had nothing like the power of control over her that kindness had.

I read a story not long ago of a young fellow who ran away from home and became a cowboy down in Texas. He had a number of interesting experiences before he reached success, and one of these he told about very appealingly, and since it illustrates my point I shall quote from it here.

"Sometimes when I was watching the cattle at night there would begin an uneasy movement among them which I knew might spread and grow till it culminated in a stampede. I had learned that it always steadied them if they heard the sound of the human voice. I could have sworn or shouted at them as we usually did, and it would have had the calming effect. But I thought if I had got to make my voice heard through the night it might as well be heard in something pleasant as something unpleasant. So, many a night, listeners might have heard the strange sound of a cowboy singing the solos from the Messiah and Tannhauser and all the other fine music which I had learned at home. It satisfied my sense of beauty, and it calmed the cattle just as effectively as shouting abuse at them."

First Game Law

The Bible furnishes the first game law. For the protection of doves, pigeons, sparrows, quail, lark, and such birds used by the Israelites as food, Deuteronomy 22:6 says: "If a bird's nest chance to be before thee in any tree, or on the ground. . . thou shalt not take the dam with the young . . . but shall let the dam go and take the young."

HOSPITAL NOTES.

Mrs. Martin Wilcox of Elkton entered the hospital Thursday and underwent an operation Friday morning.

Mrs. Augusta Siewart of Bay Port entered the hospital Sunday and underwent an operation Monday morning for appendicitis and adhesions.

J. C. Grenel of Sebewaing was operated on Saturday for removal of tonsils.

Herman Kumaus of Elkton, who underwent an operation Saturday, September 12, for peritonitis following a ruptured appendix, is still a patient at the hospital and is critically ill.

The state has taken over the maintenance of the bridge over the Portage river between Hancock and Houghton and has made it a part of trunk lines M-12 and M-26.

The new pier at the state owned ferry at Mackinaw City is composed of huge boulders that were freighted from Drummond Island by lighter. Hundreds of thousands of tons of rock were thus procured for the pier.

FLAYS MICHIGAN'S PRISON METHODS

HIRAM JOHNSON, WELL KNOWN ANTI-GROESBECK VOTER, TAKES ISSUE WITH GOV.

Centralizing Authority Idea of Chief Executive Assailed by Country Editor.

(By Hiram Johnson, Saranac Advertiser).

This table, taken from the report of the commissioner of pardons and paroles for the years 1923 and 1924:

This shows the number of inmates in the prisons on December 31st of each of the years given:

	Jackson	Ionia	Marquette	D. H. C.
1921	1,379	705	439	464
1922	1,913	1,237	484	296
1923	1,883	1,026	491	88
1924	2,131	1,276	626	170

Following shows number of prisoners sent to the institutions for the two years—1923-1924—for the crimes mentioned. The other crimes of lesser notice are not given in detail. The total prisoners sent to these institutions in 1923 were 1,971 and the total in 1924 was 2,772, an increase of 801. If you will go over this list you will notice that breaking and entering, assault, burglary, larceny, rape, robbery, taking automobiles, violation of liquor law show the big increase in 1924. This big increase in these crimes was in the fourth year of Governor Groesbeck's reign and absolute control of these institutions, and the methods of conducting them.

	1923	1924
Arson and attempted arson	7	6
Assault—intent to murder	14	16
Assault—intent to rob—being armed	6	7
Assault—intent to rob	13	15
Assault to do great harm—less than murder	19	7
Assault to rape	11	15
Assault	8	25
Bank robbery	2	4
Breaking and entering	188	260
Breaking and entering attempt	7	7
Burglary	78	99
Carrying concealed weapons	66	58
Drunkard	17	17
Embezzlement	37	35
Felonious assault	35	35
Forgery	81	117
Indecency	24	22
Indecent liberties	21	31
Larceny	293	455
Manslaughter	35	36
Murder	27	32
Murder—second degree	13	22
Rape	64	101
Robbery	30	64
Robbery, armed	84	149
Taking automobiles	100	124
Violation drug law	50	23
Violation liquor law	456	745

After studying the above tables and noting the big increase in total prison population of our state, let us analyze the proposition from the governor's standpoint as expressed in his recent interview published in the Grand Rapids Herald, when he says, "We have got to organize the business of combatting the organized business of crime. We have got to organize and centralize the authority for catching the criminal." First let us ask, have not the authorities done a fairly good job of catching them? But on the other hand, with your absolute centralized authority over the prisons and how they shall be conducted, has your records equaled the officers' record? You as governor have had no restriction, that you have recognized in the expenditure of thousands upon thousands of dollars upon our prisons and as M. E. Brugan recently expressed it, have made our prisons "model hotels and amusement centers for convicts." You have housed a large number in dormitories, which are nothing more or less than schools of crime. These prisoners are better housed, better clothed, have better medical attention and are surrounded with better conditions than half of the people of the state. They are paid better wages, considering the work they do on the road, than the average laboring man. These conditions have existed for four years and the past year has seen the biggest increase in the prison population of all the years. This is not the case in other states, where the prisons adhere to the old-fashioned and yet to be disproved idea that the chief function of prisons consists in confining and punishing, but certainly not in coddling, the criminals within their walls. It is not to amuse or give the prisoners a good time that our courts send men to prison for, but to receive a corrective and preventive punishment—in other words, so that when he leaves the prison he never wants to be sent back there again. We believe that the way our prisons are being conducted is an inducement for the professional criminals to operate in Michigan—believing that if they do get caught that they will have a splendid place to serve their prison term in.

We challenge the statement that what is needed is centralizing of authority to catch more prisoners. What we want is to demand that the "sob sisters" and those who believe as they do, step aside—that wardens of prisons be given to understand it is their business to run these prisons and to do so in such a way that it will not be necessary to continue to enlarge the prisons year by year—now if the governor wants to combat crime, let him turn over a new leaf and return the prisons to the good old-fashioned and effective sort that he found in Michigan when he became governor.

Fall Blouses Promote the Two-Piece Mode

Jumper dresses, blouses and sweaters (to be worn with separate skirts) help to maintain the prestige of the two-piece mode in apparel for ordinary daily wear. The return of navy to favor this fall is another factor that contributes much to the success of blouses. This conservative but spirited color, is the best of all selections for utility wear and makes a fine background for enlivening trimmings. A blouse of navy canton crepe is shown in the picture with bandings of Persian crepe. It is very simple to make and very pleasing in design. Worn with navy worsted skirt, with inverted plaits at the front and sides, it makes an irreproachable costume for business or day-time wear.

Fourth Link in the Tuller Chain

Another important step in the development of Park avenue, Detroit was realized Saturday with the opening of the $2,000,000 Park Avenue hotel, the fourth unit in the Tuller chain system, representing in all an investment of approximately $13,000,000, starting with Tuller hotel, Park avenue and Adams avenue; Royal Palm, Park avenue and Montcalm street, and ending with the Eddystone and Park Avenue hotels, Park avenue and Sproat street.

The latest addition to the Tuller chain is a 13-story edifice, with 250 outside rooms and baths. The appointments are ultra modern throughout, designed to provide the utmost in luxurious home comfort at very moderate price. Mr. Tuller said. Each room contains, besides bath and shower, in-a-door beds, which fold into a dressing room equipped with clothes presses. This leaves the drawing room undisturbed until bedtime, with their davenports, easy chairs, floor lamps and rich furnishings contributing to the homey atmosphere.

"The Park Avenue, although larger than the other two residential hotels, combines all the features of a downtown home, designed to meet the requirements of the thousands of business men and women who want home-like surroundings, and yet be within a stone's throw of the office and theatrical district," stated V. A. Conover, property manager of the Tuller interests.

Roy Taylor, Editor

If you want to be the center of attraction, get a small pup and walk around town with him.

This week we unloaded a car of Oyster Shells and Meat Scraps and next week will have another car of Cream of Wheat Flour. This flour is hard to beat and our price is right. Wheat seems to be in a strong position and it seems like a good time to buy that flour.

Yesterday we saw a horse shy at an automobile. Where's that horse been for the past ten years?

The gardener trims back the rosebush to improve the flowers. Do you suppose we are giving our trimmings for a similar reason?

Another thing we saw yesterday,—a lady trip on a raised place in the sidewalk and then say something under her breath.

Can you tell the number of your car license without looking?

A great many beans were taken care of this week.

"It's embarassing when somebody comes up to you and says he's been away, when you haven't even missed him," says Jim.

Every sack of Cream of Wheat flour is sold under a guarantee. Yes, we know that word guarantee is overworked but it certainly isn't in this case. We'll make good if you say Cream of Wheat Flour doesn't.

"Gimme a round trip ticket."
"Where to?"
"Back here, you blamed idiot!"

GRADE MARKED Old Faithful HEMLOCK GOOD LUMBER

How to Read the Hemlock Grade-Mark
The initials N and H of the design signify that the lumber is Northern Hemlock—your native building lumber. The numeral within the diamond is the grade of the piece on which it is stamped by the expert grader at the mill.

Northern Hemlock, as an all-round construction lumber, has long been favorably known for its immunity to dry-rot, an important factor in the service life of your buildings. Being free of resin, it takes and holds paints and stains perfectly.

Add to these natural qualities of native Hemlock, the guarantees of the Grade-Mark—responsible manufacture and rigid, uniform grading at the mill with every piece plainly identified; that Northern Hemlock lumber is full standard size; that Northern Hemlock studding, rafters and joists are extra standard size, more wood and greater strength to the piece, assuring greater strength and rigidity to your buildings—and you'll appreciate the many advantages and investment value in Northern Hemlock construction.

Also, when you utilize the products of home industry, you contribute to the prosperity of your State and community upon which your income directly or indirectly depends. Prosperity, likewise, enhances property values.

Yes, any practical way you figure it, it pays to use Northern Hemlock. BUT—BUY BY THE GRADE-MARK. SAVE MONEY. Your Lumber Dealer will gladly assist you in selecting the right grade for the right purpose.

Honor State Men in New Hort Building

Michigan's leading figures in the horticultural industry are to be given place in a special "hall of fame" in the new horticultural building at Michigan State College. Bronze tablets, suitably placed ,will carry the names of these pioneers in one of the state's most important professions.

The new horticultural building, which is being opened formally this fall, is regarded as the most modern and completely equipped structure of its kind in the country. Every facility for experimental and instructional work is provided in the main building and the adjoining greenhouses.

Honoring leading horticulturists by setting their names out before the students who use the building is expected to help in developing a distinctly horticultural atmosphere for the work of the division, according to Prof. V. R. Gardner, head of the M. S. C. hort. department.

Among Michigan men whose names will appear on the state list are: Charles William Garfield, Grand Rapids; Roland Morrill, Benton Harbor; Levi Rawson Taft, Lansing; Eugene Davis, Grand Rapids; Theodatus Timothy Lyon, South Haven; Theodore Austin Farrand, Eaton Rapids; Robert Darwin Graham, Grand Rapids; Elmer Denison Smith, Adrian; Jonathan Gannett Randall, Traverse City; Charles Jay Monroe, South Haven; John Brietmeyer, Detroit.

Newberry for his kindness and sympathetic words. The Children and Grandchildren.

I WISH to thank my many friends, who sent me beautiful flowers during my stay in the hospital; also the nurses for their many kindnesses. Miss Belle Irvine.

Michigan Happenings

Petitions demanding the recall of Mayor Judson L. Transue have been circulated among residents in the western part of Flint. Mayor Transue is accused of incompetency and indifference toward the public welfare. It is charged in the petitions that he violated the state constitution by entering into a day-to-day agreement with the D. U. R. permitting railway company to charge a higher rate of street car fare than is provided in its original franchise and has shown partiality in granting city contracts to others than the lowest bidders.

The state public utilities commission has authorized the Ford-Hydro-Electric company to incorporate and do business in Michigan. The company, which is one of the Ford string of Hydro-electric projects, has its headquarters in Wisconsin. The Michigan company is capitalized at $25,000, all of which is taken up by the Ford interests. A power plant is being developed on the Menominee river near Iron Mountain. Property owners in the vicinity of the project may protest the use and condemnation of flowage land.

Another step to save White Lake harbor from abandonment by the government was taken by the Muskegon chamber of commerce when it authorized Secretary John Beukema to go to Washington to make overtures for continuance of harbor aid should Major Gilbert Wilkes not withdraw his recommendation that the harbor be abandoned. White Lake harbor is of great importance in the resort and tourist development of western Michigan.

The state government will proceed at once to purchase and condemn land necessary for a 200-foot right-of-way on Gratiot avenue, from Mt. Clemens to Eight-Mile road, a 200-foot right-of-way on Grand River avenue, from Redford west to the Farmington cut-off, and a 120-foot right-of-way on Grand River avenue, from the Farmington cut-off to the village of Farmington. Recommendations for these purchases have been approved by the state administrative board.

The city commission of Owosso will within a few weeks pass an ordinance putting into effect the zoning plan which has been prepared by Irving C. Root, Flint city planning expert. The decision was reached following a hearing in which virtually no changes were suggested. Under the plan the city will be divided into zones for one family and two-family dwellings, apartments, business houses and industrial plants.

Classes were put under way at Alma college with an enrollment in the four classes that is close to the 300 mark, and is approximately the same as attendance figures of a year ago. An exact check is not possible yet, but it is believed that the record of last year when over 62 per cent of the students enrolled were men, is even exceeded this year. It is a record that few co-educational institutions in the country show.

Muskegon has quit furnishing fire protection to North Muskegon and the suburb has purchased a new fire truck. The city hall was remodeled at considerable expense to accommodate the truck. The truck arrived recently and the entire populace turned out to see the truck driven into its new home. Then it was discovered that the truck was so large it could not be put inside the city hall.

Potato prices are expected to be much higher this season, according to George Wager, sales manager of the Michigan Potato Growers' Exchange of Cadillac. Home grown potatoes near the large markets are about exhausted, Mr. Wager said, and this will tend to hasten the demand for shipments.

One of the first steps in the general campaign to lengthen the summer tourist season has been taken by the Pere Marquette railway in providing through Pullman service out of Petoskey until October 31. In other years the closing of the tourist season usually was set for late September.

William Koffman, Algoma township farmer, was just $25 poorer and considerably wiser when he lost his temper because his neighbor's cows ignored a fence and over-ran his crops. He maimed several of the cattle with buckshot from his shotgun. He pleaded guilty in Circuit Judge Perkins' court.

Paul Payne, 9-year-old son of Daniel J. Payne, of Hampton township, owes his life to the persence of mind of his younger brother, who pushed him into a cistern when his clothes caught fire following a gasoline explosion.

At a special election held in Jonesville, voters cast an overwhelming majority granting a 20-year franchise to the Southern Michigan Light and Power Company to furnish light and power to that village.

Prosecuting Attorney Bookwalter, of Benton Harbor, announced that Ruth Bamford Reed, of Detroit, had written him a letter asking that her charges against the fugitive Benjamin Purnell be withdrawn. It was on the strength of this girl's charges, together with those of her sister, Gladys Bamford Rubel, that a warrant was issued by Circuit Judge White more than two years ago, for "King" Benjamin, charging him with criminal assault. The prosecutor said the girl did not withdraw the charges but merely asked them dismissed for the sake of her family.

Modern efficiency methods made possible the removal of the old Michigan Central Railroad bridge over the Kalamazoo river and the installation of a new bridge, all within a period of six minutes. There was no interruption of traffic. The new bridge was constructed just north of the old one. As the old bridge was lifted by four cranes to waiting flat cars the new bridge attached by cables to a locomotive, was hauled into position. It was the work of but a few minutes to add the capping.

The possibilities of a state-wide probation service will be discussed at the Michigan State Conference of Social work, to be held at Grand Rapids Sept. 30 to Oct. 2, Charles L. Chute, general secretary of the National Association and Judge Henry S. Hulbert, of the Wayne County Juvenile Court, will be among the chief speakers. The meeting is to be attended by judges, probation officers and social workers from all parts of the state.

Given up as dead by his friends for nearly 10 years, John Kemp, a former Kalamazoo blacksmith, surprised old acquaintances by dropping in on them for a visit. Since leaving Kalamazoo in 1912 he has been engaged in business in Kansas and Nebraska. A search of Probate Courts records was made for the record of an action by which he was declared legally dead several years ago.

Voters of Lincoln Park have refused to ratify bond issues of $290,000 for city improvements. George Shanley, president of the city council, expressed disappointment over the result of the vote. A $140,000 bond issue to finance construction of new sewers was defeated by 12 votes. The small margin of two votes beat a $150,000 issue for extension of water mains.

The English ship, Erington Dunsford, loaded with clay, is due to arrive at South Haven October 5. Former shipments of clay for use by Kalamazoo paper mills have been docked at Michigan City, but through efforts of the Chamber of Commerce cargoes hereafter will be unloaded there. The Dunsford will be the first ocean-going vessel to dock at this port.

The old familiar clubs police officers of Jackson have carried on their beats for many years have been discarded. Officers now are equipped with blackjacks. It is the belief of Chief of Police Charles Phelps that carrying a club hinders an officer in the use of his hands in an emergency. It also appears as if he were looking for trouble, the chief stated.

Work has started on the new $100,000 Mercywood Sanitarium west of Ann Arbor on the Jackson road. The hospital will be operated by the Sisters of Mercy, as the psychiatric unit of the local St. Joseph's Mercy Hospital. The institution will consist of an attractive urban structure entirely fireproof and capable of housing 50 patients.

School children must be taught to walk on the left side of country roads and to look to both right and left before crossing every thoroughfare, Thomas E. Johnson, superintendent of public instruction, and Frank F. Rogers, state highway commissioner said in a joint letter to school teachers at Lansing.

Frank S. O'Grady, a gateman at Battle Creek for the Michigan Central railroad, lays modest claim to the smallest farm in the world. His ranch is about a yard square, and contains a corn crop of one six-foot stalk with a single ear on it. O'Grady says he hopes the ear is red.

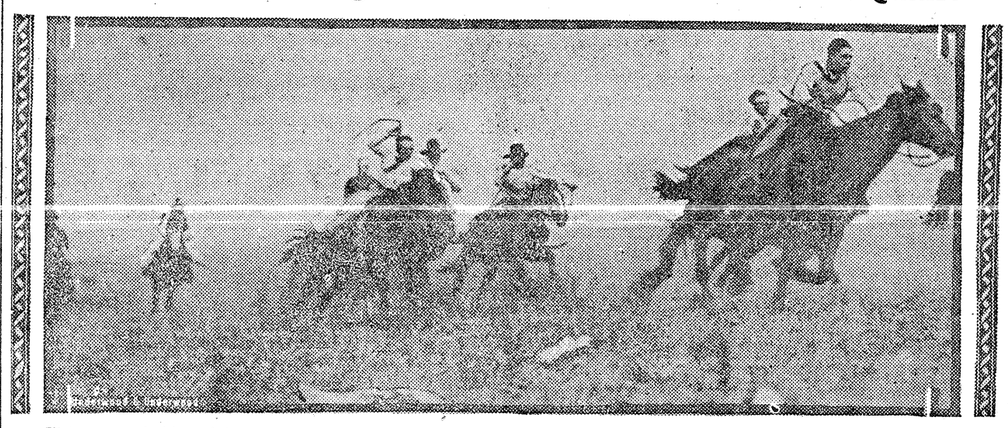
James R. Davis, former head of Federal prohibition activities in Michigan, operated upon a few days ago for chronic appendicitis and gall stones, is making a good recovery according to his physicians. It is believed he will be able to leave the hospital in a few days.

William Stoffer, postmaster of Dexter, was instantaneously killed when his automobile stalled on the railroad tracks near the station and was struck by a freight train. Stoffer was about 30 years old and was a World War veteran.

John Johnson, of Escanaba, an immigrant, applied for American citizenship and was given his examination. 'Of whom are you a subject and to whom do you renounce allegiance?" the examiner asked Johnson. "My wife," Johnson replied.

The funeral of former Rep. Patrick H. Kelley, of Lansing, was held at the Central Methodist Temple House. Burial was in Mt. Hope cemetery. The body arrived from Washington where Mr. Kelley died after a long illness.

Ranchers Fleeing From Storm That Preceded Quake



This remarkable picture, made about 6:30 p. m., shows the actual rush of a lot of cowboys and ranchers who were fleeing for their lives before the terrible wind and sand storm that preceded the earthquakes in Montana and Wyoming.

Effects of Praise

Praise has different effects, according to the mind it meets with; it makes a wise man modest, but a fool more arrogant, turning his weak brain giddy.

Knowledge Is Power

Long and Costly Work

More than 300,000 miles of spirit-level lines have been run in the United States to discover the exact elevation of ground above sea level.

Many New Styles
of Corsets Received This Week

Let our salesladies show you the corset which will not only wear, but will give you the comfort and lines which you have been looking for.

We have added to our Henderson corset line the well known Gossard corset and brassiere. There isn't anything that we could say that would be exaggerating about this line for the Gossard ranks with the highest in service, fit and comfort.

A Very Large Assortment of both the Henderson and Gossard Awaits You.

We make stout ladies' corsets a specialty.

We have several stout models to select from, and in some we carry them in sizes up to 41.

The stout woman who has been going from one store to another to get a proper corset, and then was compelled to go out of town, can be released of all that trouble if she will come to Zemke's.
