In the Ovid Department of The St. Johns news, we notice the following: "One of the most successful revivals ever held in Ovid has been aided by Evangelist Morehouse, who preached his last sermon to Ovid people on Sunday evening. As rough as the weather was the church was nearly filled. Twenty-three were received on probation and a few made a start for a better life. Mr. Morehouse has gained many friends while in Ovid and has done a wonderful amount of good."

As we go to press, the sad news arrives of the death of J. L. Hitchcock, of this place, at San Francisco, Calif. The entire community mourns the loss of this highly respected citizen. A quiet wedding occurred to-day at noon at the home of Mrs. Eliza Wright, corner of Seegar and Pine Streets, the contracting parties being Miss Eliza A. Both boys are well but looking forward anxiously to the time when they shall return home. They send regards to all inquiring friends.

Mrs. Hector McDermott, who died at her home in Grant township, Huron county, was born at Appin, Middlesex County, Ont., Nov. 19, 1871, died Feb. 10, 1901, aged 29 years, two months and twenty-two days. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Patterson moved to Michigan in 1878 and settled in Grant township. For a number of years before her marriage she was engaged in teaching school. She was married Oct. 5th 1893. She was a member of the United Presbyterian Church for several years previous to her death. Her mother, two sisters and three brothers survive her. She leaves a husband and two small children, one aged six years and one nine months, to mourn her departure.

On Wednesday, our Board of Education closed a contract with Prof. D. H. Kyes, of Albion, to officiate as principal of our schools for the balance of this term. He has had years of experience as teacher and has just finished a special course at Albion College. The members of the board have every confidence in Prof. Kyes, and while regretting the departure of Prof. Weaver, are much pleased to secure a successor so highly recommended. He will be here to begin work next week.

About thirty-five members of the Caro Oddfellow lodge visited the Cass City lodge on Wednesday evening and pronounced it one of the most enjoyable occasions of the kind they had been privileged to attend. The Caro degree team exemplified the first and second degrees, the candidates being H. C. Monroe and Wesley Falls, and the work was done in the usual excellent style which the Caro team is noted for. At the conclusion a sumptuous repast was spread in the Town Hall, under the management of the Daughters of Rebekeh, which was most heartily enjoyed by all. Come again, boys!

During the past few weeks there has been all kinds of reports in circulation regarding the extension of the Michigan Central railroad from Caro and the building of a second sugar refinery by the Peninsular Co. We have refrained from printing such reports as there appeared to be a great deal of uncertainty connected therewith, but Cass City has not been asleep by any means. Her interests have been properly kept to the front. Sebewaing has been doing lot of creditable hustling and reports had it that they had secured the extension and factory, but the last issue of the Sebewaing Review stated that the local committee had just received a telegram from Mr. Lee, of the Peninsular Co. to the effect that they would not build a factory there this year. As a result of this decision Sebewaing is endeavoring to interest other capitalists. The Michigan Central has evidently refused to build the extension and an independent company has been organized to take the matter in hand. Electric lines are also being agitated.

A Powerful Religious Awakening.

The first week of the revival meetings at the Methodist Church has resulted in a spiritual awakening of great power which is stirring the whole community. Evangelist Morehouse struck fire from the start. His sermons search out sin in all its forms in the hearts of church members as well as outsiders, in a plain, straightforward way, with out fear or favor, yet with a big tender sympathy that often shows itself in tearful utterance. He applies the truth of Scripture and leads his hearers to a full surrender to Christ. Sunday morning he brought out with remarkable clearness and force the Bible teaching on Christian Perfection, and the altar was filled with seekers. In the evening the church was crowded to its full capacity, and the evangelist made it plain that all who are saved can know it, and described in a most interesting manner how he entered the way of salvation. There were a number of seekers and testimonies. Since that time the meetings have shown increasing attendance and interest. If our citizens enjoy a manly speaker who uses no claptrap but hits straight from the shoulder, they should hear Rev. Morehouse and "do it to-day," for on account of his pressing engagements his stay here will be brief. There will be an afternoon meeting at the parsonage Saturday at 2:00 p. m. Sunday morning Mr. Morehouse will give an illustrated sermon on "The Highway and Way." At 3:00 p. m. there will be a mass meeting of the children and an illustrated sermon. All children under ninety are invited. At 7:00 p. m. an evangelistic service.

Flagged.

A very pleasant reception was tendered Samuel Gettgy, lately returned from the Philippines, on Saturday evening, by the members of Milo Warner Post, No. 232, G. A. R., and the Mary DeWitt Circle, Ladies of the G. A. R. The "boys" marched to his home on Fourth Street, in the early evening, and escorted him to the G. A. R. Hall, giving him as a marching comrade, Dick S. Landon, also an ex-Philippine soldier. After refreshments were served, D. M. Houghton, as commander of the Post, presented Private Gettgy with a handsome flag, donated by the business men of the town as a mark of their appreciation of his services.

CASS CITY, MICHIGAN.

A certain city official who refused to give up his job at the request of the mayor gave as an excuse that he did not possess the virtue of resignation.

Several members of a church in Kutztown, Pa., having fallen far behind with their fall dues, the board of trustees has decided that in future the bell shall not be tolled for a funeral in any family which has not paid up its indebtedness and a year in advance besides.

The French telegraph department proposes to institute a series of experiments with wireless telegraphy for subterranean communications. The possibility of the scheme was first suggested by one of the inspectors of the department, who found his primitive trials to give satisfaction. The department intends to develop the idea upon a larger scale.

Almost anything made in the steel, iron or copper mills can now be had at Pittsburgh. A company there has booked orders for 5,000 tons of a high grade of open-heart steel wire for use on the new East river bridge at New York. The company took the contract from Swedish producers, who heretofore have been regarded the only interests able to supply the grade of wire required.

It is reported that the clam is in danger of extermination. We hope not. Who would wish to pass the summer on a clamless coast? A shore whereon no merry digger seeks his unferocious prey would seem lonely. The table will be inhospitable which is ungraced by dishes in which the clam holds the place of honor. The lobster has its sturdy protectors. Shall the clam lack defenders?

The expression "Rob Peter to pay Paul" had its origin in the rivalry which once existed between Westminster abbey, dedicated to St. Peter, and St. Paul's cathedral. In 1550 there was a deficiency in the treasury of St. Paul's and to cover this deficiency money belonging to St. Peter's was appropriated. The people who objected to this action asked the question, "Why rob St. Peter's to pay St. Paul's?"

The wires of the Postal Telegraph company were publicly sold in Union Hill, N. J., on account of unpaid taxes for $1. The purchaser had the wires examined by an expert, who says they are worth at least $1,500. The company will now be called upon to pay rent for the use of its own wires and the case will be carried into court if it refuses. As yet, the company has paid the whole matter no attention.

John Hartman, justice of the peace at Millville, N. J., got into a wordy war with some visitors at his office and used language of the sulphurous variety. After the fuss was all over he asked the mayor for a warrant for his own arrest on the charge of disorderly conduct. "I caught myself rehanding," he said, "and why shouldn't I pay a fine just like any other citizen? I'm an honest man even if I am justice of the peace." A small fine was imposed.

While a large oak log was being sawed into lumber at L. C. Beem's mill, Richwood, Ohio, the circular saw ran into an obstruction in the log, which completely wrecked the saw and endangered the lives of the workmen. The log was chopped into and almost in its heart was found the steel bit of an ax, which must have been broken off there at least thirty years ago, as indicated by that number of concentric growth rings surrounding it as a center.

The Northern Pacific Railroad company has substituted a long-distance telephone system for the telegraph service formerly used along its lines. Probably the most complete private telephone system owned and operated by a railroad company is that of the New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad, by which it is possible to transmit orders and communications to the most remote points on the company's lines.

A judge in Crawfordsville, Ind., has disfranchised fifty voters who were found guilty of selling their votes at the last election. "It is a fundamental principle of law," said the judge, "that an agent who has betrayed his trust can be removed and the power invested in him revoked. The voter is the agent of the government for the purpose of carrying into effect its principles, and the moment he offers to sell himself out he becomes false to his trust and an enemy to his country. If a man steals ten cents' worth of property he may be convicted of petit larceny and disfranchised. Is vote selling a crime of less magnitude? A righteous and wholesome ruling, which deserves all possible publicity.

Horace Greeley, speaking of the big trees of California, said that some of them have been "serenely growing ever since Jesus was on the earth." But on the island of Kos, off the coast of Asia Minor, stands an oak twenty-five feet in diameter, which a German scientist believes to be two thousand five hundred years old. In that case, it must have been a vigorous sapling in the days when King Solomon "spoke of trees, from the cedar tree that is in Lebanon even unto the hyssop that springeth out of the wall."

ELECTRIC WONDERS

Unparalleled Display at the Pan-American Exposition.

Progress in Electrical Science Will Be Illustrated in a Most Comprehensive Manner at the Great Show Next Summer.

Electrical illuminations and electrical exhibits will form conspicuous features at the Pan-American exposition as is eminently fitting in view of the marvelous progress made in electrical science during the past decade and in view of the proximity to the exposition grounds of the great plants at Niagara Falls from which the electric power is generated.

The electrical illuminations of the exposition will be achieved in connection with the Electric Tower, the fountains and other hydraulic displays and in the outlining of the different buildings by rows of incandescent lamps. There will be combined water and electric effects and the central figure of the whole setting will, of course, be the Electric Tower, with its most wonderful and beautiful electrical display. The Electricity Building itself has most appropriately been located adjoining the Electric Tower. From its eastern end an excellent opportunity will be afforded for viewing the splendid illuminations of the tower during the night displays. The location of the building is also fortunate in view of the fact that just across the mall, the broad avenue upon the southern side of the Electricity Building, stand the Machinery and with the means to this end. On this account it is hoped to illustrate them at the Exposition in such a manner that the inter-relation of the various elements will be quite apparent. The utilization of electricity in various forms of manufacturing industries will also be illustrated. This utilization of electricity is destined to be one of the greatest of its fields and the Niagara frontier is now an object lesson in this respect, for the development of Niagara power is almost every day drawing new industries to this region because the proximity and the availability of this power render the manufacturing opportunities so exceptional.

Exposition Sculpture. No exposition of the past possessed such elaborate sculptural adornment as will be a leading characteristic of the Pan-American Exposition. The buildings and grounds of the Exposition at Buffalo will be embellished profusely with most artistic creations from the hands of some thirty-five of the best known sculptors on the American continent.

Cycling at Exposition. The Pan-American Exposition will extend a welcoming hand to the millions of Cyclists and Automoblilists of the Americas during the summer of 1901.

The automobile exhibit, it is promised, will be the finest ever seen at any exposition. There will also be a large and complete display of bicycles, representing all stages of progress from the heavy and clumsy iron-tired velocipedes to the finest pneumatic-tired modern machines, including the "good old ordinary" or high wheel bicycle fitted with small solid rubber tires which was first exhibited in this country twenty-five years ago, at Philadelphia.

A grand carnival of cycle races will be held in the magnificent Stadium which is now being erected on the Pan-American grounds. This vast arena will be in many respects equal the famous old Colosseum at Rome.

Horticulture at Exposition. Horticultural exhibits at the Pan-American Exposition have a beautiful setting in and about an exceedingly handsome building 420 feet square. The height of the building is 236 feet to the top of the lantern, and the general proportions are of commanding grandeur.

Fruits of all kinds will be placed on exhibition during the summer. Much of the fruit will be preserved in cold storage, though the exhibit will change as the season advances and the different varieties ripen. A number of states have made arrangements to provide collective exhibits that will properly represent the horticultural products of their particular section. California is arranging for a special exhibit of the wonderfully diversified fruit productions of that state. Other states are taking the matter up with the prospect of making the horticultural exhibit the most complete ever attempted. The same care that characterizes other sections of the Exposition will be given the Horticultural division.

Duty of Orders? Railroad men in Atchison, Kan., are puzzled over a question of duty or orders. On one of its sections near Atchison a railroad has just two men, the foreman and one hand. The printed rules of the company require that in case a rail should be found broken, one section hand must go in one direction and another in the other, for the purpose of flagging trains. Now, the question troubling Atchison is, how could the rail be mended with the entire force away flagging trains?

The Weekly Panorama.

A New Bonanza King. College professor, railroad brakeman, gold digger, adventurer, railroad builder, mine superintendent and mud driver—these are some of the occupations followed by Letson Balliet, who is today the most talked-of man on the Pacific slope. Balliet is a mining magnate, railroad promoter and financial genius at the present time, with offices in San Francisco, Baker City, Ore., and other places. Letson was born in Iowa 27 years ago. In what is known as the "Anaconda of Oregon," a mining-district in the northern part of the state, he owns 21 copper and gold mines. His interests in industrials include a large ownership in refrigerating and brick making plants and saw-mills. The future apparently holds boundless possibilities for this rising financier.

LETSON BALLIET.

Kind of Men Needed. Cornelius R. Parsons, whose death at his home in Rochester, N. Y., occurred on Wednesday, served as mayor of Rochester for fourteen years, exceeding by eleven years the term of service of any other mayor of the city. The general excellence and soundness of his administration were such that at the close of each term it was taken for granted he would be his own successor. He served in the state assembly and senate after quitting the mayor's office.

Negro to Confederate Veterans. Robert R. Church of Memphis contributed $1,000 to the fund for entertainment of the Confederate veterans in that city in May next. Church is a negro, born a slave.

In these two sentences is epitomized a whole volume of the history of the African race in the South. These sentences contain an exhaustive dissertation on the race problem. They tell what the negro has accomplished in the few years of his freedom; they tell of what he is capable; they tell of his opportunities and his possibilities here in the South, and they tell of the relations between the races more eloquently than the most talented orator or the most graphic writer could cover the same ground, remarks the Memphis Scimitar.

Robert Church's contribution is bona fide, as are all the checks presented for this cause. No contributions are accepted that have strings attached to them.

Ought to Be Divided. The duke of Devonshire owns almost 200,000 acres of land in England, but not an acre in the county from which he derived his title. The earl of Derby owns 70,000 acres; but possesses no land in the county of Derby, and the duke of Fife is the proprietor of 250,000 acres of land in Scotland, but has no property in Fife.

Shipping Out Gold. Within the last few weeks considerable shipments of gold have been made from this country to Europe. Further shipments are expected this week. The price of sterling exchange is such that there is a profit on shipments of gold to London. We are told also that gold shipments to Paris are expected.

Export Civilization. Civilization has gone into the far east with a whisky bottle. In China civilization has looted private residences, temples, palaces and public buildings. The heathens of the earth will come to have a high opinion of civilization by and by—Cleveland Leader.

DON'T BE DUPED

There has been placed upon the market several cheap reprints of an obsolete edition of Webster's Dictionary. They are being offered under various names at a low price.

By dealers, agents, etc. and in a few instances as a premium for subscriptions to papers. Announcements of such cheaply reprinted copies are very misleading. They are advertised to be the substantial equivalent of a higher-priced book, while they are all reprints of a book of over fifty years ago, which was sold for about $5.00, and which was much superior to these imitations, being a work of some merit instead of a

QUEER TILES FOR SERMONS

That eccentric preacher, Lorenzo Dow, once preached to thoughtless young women who with their gorgeous bonnets had taken the highest seats in the room, from the text, "Topknot, Come Down." One of the most brilliant preachers of a generation ago, now a "castaway," preached to young people from the text, "Let Her Drive." Several years ago a bright preacher advertised to enlighten his people on Sunday morning by "Lessons from Croquet." Last year it was "Lessons from Golf." "Born too Late; the World Has the Start of Him," is the form of an offer of enlightenment to young men. "A Love Song," "A Love Adventure," and "Lessons in Courtship," of course attracted instant attention.

DREAMLAND

Where sunless rivers weep
Their waves into the deep
She sleeps a charmed sleep;
Awake her not.

She left the rosy morn.
She left the fields of corn
For twilight cold and lorn
And water springs.

Rest, rest, a perfect rest
Shed over brow and breast
Her face is toward the west
The purple land.

Rest, rest, for evermore
Upon mossy shore;
Rest, rest, at the heart's core
'Till time shall cease;

Romance of a Sleigh Ride.

BY G. H. HOWARD.
It was the universal sentiment of the country side that Nancy Simmons was the belle of Valley Edge, a village in which every girl was pretty.

twenty thousand dollars, and was the rich man of the neighborhood.
Just then the sleigh passed, and Nancy saw that its occupants were Tiny Colson and John Pearson!

Threw herself into the arms of her benefactor.

"What a lovely girl!" she murmured, believing her eyes.
"Good morning, Nancy," came from John in his cheery, hearty voice.

"Come, come, Nancy," said John, laughing; "don't be angry. Tiny has nothing to tell you here—haven't you, Tiny?"

"Yes, if she'll only listen to me. I thought you and John wanted to get married, and that I'd try to help you—that's all."

"Help us to get married?" she gaped. "What do you mean, Tiny?"

"Simply that as Uncle Tom sent me a thousand dollars, John and I went to see him last night, and I asked him whether I might lend John four hundred to take up the mortgage until the store pays. That's all."

"And what did he say?" she asked between her sobs.
"Why Uncle Tom said I was a tramp; but that there was no need of that; for he'd known you and John all your lives, he'd give you four hundred dollars, Nancy, for a wedding present. So you and John may get married at once—unless," she added slyly, "before you do you and he would like to stand for Lee and Tom Bradley."

But this arrangement couldn't be made; for three months later, when the lilac blossoms began to put out in the yards along the village street, there was a double wedding at the old church at Valley Edge; and John's brother, just licensed to preach, officiated.

Brought Up Astor with a Round Turn.
A story is going the rounds of William Waldorf Astor and the venerable Duchess of Cleveland. On the occasion of the opening of the new offices on the Thames Embankment of Mr.
Astor's newspaper and magazine enterprises he invited a large and distinguished company to see them and their splendor. Among others who came was Her Grace of Cleveland, Mr.
Astor took especial pains to show the duchess about, and with an embarrassing minuteness pointed out to her the fittings of the establishment. He called her particular attention to the great staircase, and, wearied out, the duchess said: "Very grand indeed, Mr. Astor.
So much finer than mine at Battle Abbey. But that, you know, has been so much spoiled by the mailed heels of the Crusaders tramping up and down."

Coasting in Hawaii.

The hillside at Pacific Heights facing Nuuanu valley is becoming a great resort for youngsters of all colors and of many conditions of prosperity, says the Honolulu Republican. The "kids" flock to place in droves. In emulation of the example set by their brothers of a colder clime these children, who probably have never seen snow, have constructed a coasting place down the steep incline. A sled is not necessary, and they don't have to wait for snow. Nature has provided the hillside, and the long grass which grows on it, as well as the sled which is used. The latter is a palm leaf which has been dried by the sun

CHINA WAR NEWS.

Reports received at Peking from Singapu and all agree that the famine in the provinces of Shansi and Shensi is one of the worst in the history of China.
The population of Shansi is 12,000,000 and of Shensi 9,000,000. All information on the subject is necessarily from Chinese sources and is fragmentary, but the stories are all to the same effect, picturing a condition of affairs that is calculated to arouse the sympathy of the world for the stricken people. It is estimated that two-thirds of the people are without sufficient food or the means of obtaining it. The weather is bitterly cold, and this adds to the misery of starvation.

The Chinese plenipotentiaries, Prince Ching and Li Hung Chang, had a protracted meeting on the 5th with the foreign envoys. Twelve names of prominent Chinese officials were submitted with the request that China keep faith with the powers and punish the persons named commensurately with their offenses. The Chinese plenipotentiaries replied that China's earnest hope was to carry out fully the demands of the powers and that she felt sure the punishment which would be inflicted would be satisfactory. It was discovered that two out of 12 of the persons named were already dead.

Many Troubles of Her Own.
Loren P. Merrill of Paris tells the story of the particular old woman, and he makes her a resident of Livermore.
She was not only old, but she was of the worrying, fretting species of antiquity. She had fretted away her friends and relatives, until she was at length living alone in a small house in the outskirts of the town. Just as she was retiring one bitter cold night, she discovered that but one unlighted match remained in the house. She lay awake until almost daylight, worrying and disturbing herself with wondering if the match was good. At last she got up and hunted up the match and struck it to see if it would light her kindlings in the morning.—Lewiston (Me.) Jour-

ONE DOLLAR PER PILL.
Miss Nettie Hixon Says the Remedy That Cured Her Would Be Cheap at This Price.

Cincinnati, O., Feb. 11, 1901.—(Special.)—Miss Nettie Hixon is Sergeant-at-Arms of Camp No. 1, Patriotic Order of America. Her home is at No. 1117 Hughes street, this city. She is a very popular and influential lady. For three years she has been ill. Now she is well. She says: "I cannot praise Dodd's Kidney Pills too highly for what they have done for me. I was troubled for three years with weakness, and often had dizzy spells, so that I dared not go out alone. My head would ache continually for four or five days at a time, until life became simply a burden."

"All the medicine I took did me no good, until my physician advised me to try Dodd's Kidney Pills. I secured a box, and soon found that my headache was leaving me. I felt encouraged and kept on taking them and getting stronger. The pains gradually diminished, until I had used four boxes, and all trace of pain had gone.
I am today a strong and well woman, thanks to Dodd's Kidney Pills. If the price was one dollar per pill, instead of 50c a box, they would be cheap, compared with other so-called medicines placed before a suffering public.
This is but a sample of the letters received every day by the hundred. They all tell the same story of sickness and soreness, changed into health and vigor by the use of Dodd's Kidney Pills. They never fail. 50c a box, six boxes for $2.50. Buy them from your local druggist if you can. If he can't supply you, send to the Dodd's Medicine Co., Buffalo, N. Y."

A Moonshiner's Knowledge of Law.
"After having supplied a moonshiner in a South Carolina jail with a month's supply of smoking tobacco," said a government surveyor the other day,
"I presumed upon the deed to ask:
'Didn't you know it was against the law to manufacture moonshine whisky?' 'I heard that was a law once,' he replied. 'What do you mean by 'once'?' 'Why, Juba French told me that was such a law, but when I asked Jim Truman about it, he says that Juba is such a liar that nobody kin believe him under oath, and so I reconsidered I was safe to go ahead. Shoo, but I wonder how Juba come to tell the truth for that one time!'"

Consumption

is destruction of lung by a growing germ, precisely as mouldy cheese is destruction of cheese by a growing germ.

If you kill the germ, you stop the consumption. You can or can't, according to when you begin.

Take Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil: take a little at first.

It acts as a food; it is the easiest food. Seems not to be food; makes you hungry; eating is comfortable.

You grow stronger. Take more; not too much; enough is as much as you like and agrees with you. Satisfy hunger with usual food; whatever you like and agrees with you.

When you are strong again, have recovered your strength—the germs are dead; you have killed them.

If you have not tried it, send for free sample, its agreeable taste will surprise you.

School Dis. No. 6, Kingston, is located on the east side of section 4 in said township. The scholars of the said district are not numerous so outsiders are allowed to come in for a price. Chas. Powell, of the Wilmot school, has been sending his offspring to said school and this opens up our narrative. The present teacher's name is Miss Irma Sweet and the Powell family think there is some mistake about the Sweet part of her name. So I must tell you for why. On the last Thursday of January John Wesley Powell, who is well up in his twelfth year and considers himself "no twiter," had a slight misunderstanding with the teacher made a break to leave the room at the same time telling her what she could do, a proposition that would have done credit to a New York slum tough, (that she could kiss the basement of his corporal structure) and she being educated at the Columbiaville high school considered such an offer out of place for a youth of such tender years laid upon him the hand of chastisement to such an extent that he went home with bumps on his cranium unknown to phrenology and a mammoth tear in the corner of his eye. Then anger swelled up in the bosom of the parents and they called aloud for law. Wrapping the kid that bore the honored name of the man of Epworth in a blanket they hid away to the director of the school (who by the way was an old country man) for his inspection. The director after hearing the matter in full decided that the teacher should have struck the "piggie" again where she missed him before. It was then the anger of the elder Powell knew no bounds and he declared there was law and justice at the county hub if there was none in this neck of woods. He cared not if it took his country seat he would shove the matter to a finish. Then he headed westward shattering the commandment that forbids the taking of the Lord's name in vain to such an extent that the director trembled like an aspen leaf.

WARNER'S ANNUAL REPORT.

In it Farmers are Urged to Enrich the Soil.

FEED THEIR HAY AND GRAIN.

Stop Robbing the Soil by Adopting Methods That Deplete It—In 10 Years the Number of Horses, Hogs and Sheep Have Decreased Thousands.

Farmers Urged to Enrich the Soil.

In his annual address to the State Dairymen's association, President Fred M. Warner stated that in the 28 counties in the southern four tiers of counties, 63 per cent of the farms and 70 per cent of the improved land in the state are found. In this section 85 per cent of the wheat, 78 per cent of the corn, and 65 per cent of the oats of the state are grown. It contains 60 per cent of the population of the state. In 10 of these counties the population has decreased during the past 10 years, and in all but four of them the increase in the cities is balanced by the decrease in the townships and unincorporated villages. The total loss in population in these 28 counties is 40,000. Gains are noticed in Monroe, Berrien, Ottawa and Wayne, and are ascribed to local causes.

These figures apparently show that there has been a migration of people from the farms because of the lack of profit in farming. While there has been an increase of 15,000 milch cows and of 8,000 cattle other than milch cows in the last 10 years, there has been a loss of 15,000 horses, 125,000 hogs and 540,000 sheep in the same period. The land, becoming poorer each year, furnishes subsistence for a less amount of stock. The farmers were urged to make the soil richer by feeding their hay and grain on their farms rather than robbing the soil by adopting methods that deplete it. The fertility of the farms should be restored.

A Great Peach County.

Berrien county is the greatest peach growing section in the world and St. Joseph and Benton townships are the greatest peach growing townships in the county. This section reached that distinction, according to the recent compilation of figures, by the enormous shipments of last season. The county broke all records last season and the name of the Berrien peach is world wide. During the year 1900 Berrien county grew over one-half the Michigan crop of peaches. The number of acres cultivated was 4,753 and the total yield was 140,992 bushels.

May be Obligated to do It Over.

Delta county voted $25,000 bonds for the erection of a new county jail, advertised the bonds for sale and let the contract for the construction of the building, and then found that the whole thing may have to be done over again. It seems that a state law provides that plans for jails must be approved by the state board of corrections and charities before the contracts for building them are let, the contracts not being binding unless this requirement is complied with.

Annual Meeting of State Press.

The annual meeting of the Michigan State Press association will be held at Lansing on March 14 and 15. ### Altho has a Curiosity.

An Althens man has a curiosity in the shape of two interlocked deer heads, which were found in the upper peninsula. The heads are those of full-grown bucks, and the battle that ended in death for both must have been fierce indeed.

New Judicial District.

Crying out that drugs were the agents of the devil, a half dozen women followers of Dowie, the faith cure leader, adopted the tactics of Mrs. Carrie Nation, at Chicago one the 6th, and wrecked a number of drug stores on the west side. In some instances there were hand-to-hand fights with the druggists. Armed as they were with pitchforks, umbrellas and canes, the women came out the victors in nearly every encounter and succeeded in destroying property wherever they went. Policemen saw them, but attached no significance to their actions and no arrests were made.

Fear an Epidemic of Rabies.

The people of northern Muskingum and southern Coshocton counties, Ohio, are worried with apprehension of an epidemic of rabies. Last November a band of gypsies traversed the country, having with them a savage dog which fought with the village and farm dogs, wounding many. While passing through Dresden the dog attacked Howard Stuller, a boy, lacerating his face. It was thought at that time that the dog was mad and the citizens raised a purse and sent the boy and his parents to the Pasteur institute at Chicago, where the lad was thoroughly treated and discharged as cured. Despite the Pasteur treatment, however, the boy was attacked by the rabies a few weeks ago and after three days of terrible suffering died in convulsions. So great is the fear that the other dogs will go mad and more deaths result that the killing of all the dogs along the route traversed by the gypsies is being strongly agitated and will probably be done.

Minister Shot by a Man He Wounded.

On the 4th Thomas G. Barker shot and seriously wounded Rev. John Keller, secretary of the Rev. Bishop Starkey, pastor of Trinity Episcopal mission, in Arlington, N. J., and chaplain of the First New Jersey regiment. The shooting was the result of an assault committed by Keller upon Mr. Barker's wife. The assault, it is alleged, was committed after a hard struggle, during which Mrs. Barker became unconscious. The Barkers and the minister were apparently friendly for some time after the assault, but when Barker heard his wife's story he waited until morning and then lay in wait for the minister and shot him.

Yontsey Sentenced.

Henry E. Yontsey, stenographer to Gov. Taylor during his incumbency, and who was tried as a principal in the shooting of Gov. William Goebel, of Kentucky, and found guilty, was arraigned before Judge Cantrill on the 5th and sentenced to life imprisonment. When sentence was pronounced Yontsey exclaimed: "I am innocent. I have been convicted by base and infamous subornations of perjury." No appeal will be taken and the prisoner will be taken to state's prison shortly.

Twenty fresh cases of smallpox and nine deaths from that disease were reported at Glasgow on the 5th. There at present 433 cases in the hospitals at that place.

An election will be held in the 4th congressional district of Maine, April 8, to choose a successor to Congressman C. A. Boutelle, resigned.

The Indiana senate on the 25th by a vote of 37 to 9 passed a bill making electrocution the mode of inflicting the death penalty in Indiana.

TRANSVAAL WAR ITEMS.

The following was received from Lord Kitchener from Pretoria under date of the 3d: "Our casualties at Modersfontein were two officers killed and two wounded. It appears that the post was rushed on a pitch dark night, during a heavy rain, the enemy numbering 1,400 with two guns. Campbell, south of Middleburg, engaged 500 Boers, who were driven back with loss. Our casualties were 20 killed or wounded. In view of the possibility of a Boer raid, all the ammunition surrendered by burghers at Komatiport has been loaded on lighters and moored in the bay."

A special dispatch from Cape Town, dated the 6th, says that Gen. De Wet, according to Cape Town reports, intends to annex various districts of Cape Colony and then to commandeer men and supplies, although he is now urging the colonists not to join him. Two meetings of the cabinet in three days have given rise to reports that important developments in the South African situation may be looked for.

At a meeting of the Boer sympathizers held at Frankfurt, Germany, on the 5th, and attended by some 5,000 people, a resolution was adopted appealing to Great Britain to stop the war in South Africa. Christian De Wet, a nephew of the Boer commander, who was present, was carried around the hall on the shoulders of the promoters of the meeting.

A report from Lord Kitchener, dated Pretoria, Feb. 7, says the British destroyed supplies at Petrusburg and took 3,500 horses and cattle. Methuen reports that he scattered the Boers at Lillfontein, east of Vryburg.

A dispatch from Havana, dated the 6th, says that a lumber yard, saw mill and 14 houses near El Cerro have been destroyed by fire with a total loss of $700,000.

In view of the recent Boer activity in various directions the British government has decided to reinforce Lord Kitchener with 30,000 mounted troops.

Tom L. Johnson, the street railway magnate, has formally announced himself a candidate for the mayoralty of Cleveland.

On the 5th Piet DeWet, chairman of the peace commission, sent a passionate appeal to his brother, Christian, to surrender.

A dispatch from Lorenzo Marquez, dated the 6th, says the Boers have cut the railroad 53 kilometers from that place.

It is reported that Envoy Morgendael was shot at Gen. DeWet's suggestion.

PHILIPPINE NEWS.

Natives have reported at Bantanga that a week ago the natives of Mindoro rose against the insurgents and killed the insurgent governor. There are no troops on Mindoro. The federal party of Bataan province, including the presidents of each pueblo, held a big meeting at Orani on the 3d and resolved to notify the insurgents of Bataan that they must cease operations within a week or the people will assist the Americans to capture them.

The first general order issued by the war department in execution of the provisions of the army reorganization act directs the discontinuance of the sale of beer, wine and intoxicating liquors on all military reservations and army transports. The order was issued on the 4th and is very terse and concise in its terms.

CONGRESSIONAL NOTES.

At the day session of the senate on the 6th two important measures were disposed of, the military academy appropriation bill and the war revenue reduction measure. The former was under consideration less than an hour. The only change made on it was the strengthening of the provision against hazing at West Point. An amendment substituting an income tax for the war revenue measure offered by Mr. Morgan, of Alabama, was rejected by a party vote, 21 to 38.

Among the subjects discussed at the cabinet meeting on the 8th were Cuban conscription and the possibly necessary for an extra session of congress. Persons in a position to be well-informed as to the President's purposes believe that an extra session will be inevitable without congress shall take some action with respect to Cuba and its relation in this country. With that matter disposed of there is good reason to believe that an extra session will be avoided.

The army appropriation bill making provision for the army under the plan of reorganization recently enacted, was completed on the 4th by the house committee and the possibly necessary for an extra session to consider Cuban affairs is that the time is not ripe yet for congress to take action looking to some kind of a protectorate over Cuba. However, the President is anxious that early action be taken.

The house on the 4th passed the senate bill for a commission to adjudicate the Spanish war claims with an amendment to refer the claims to the court of claims. The vote stood 123 to 88.

John Marshall, of Virginia, was installed as chief justice of the U. S. 100 years ago—Feb. 4, 1801—and on the 4th inst. the centennial anniversary of that event was commemorated with impressive ceremonies in the hall of representatives at the capitol.

The President signed the bill for the reorganization of the army at 12:40 p. m. on the 2d. It is now a law.

There is a good prospect for the location of a large canning factory at Shelby. Located as it would be, right in the midst of a fine fruit region, such an institution surely ought to pay.

Of National Reputation Are the Men Who Recommend Peruna to Fellow Sufferers

A Remarkable Case Reported from the State of New York

CONGRESSMAN HOWARD OF ALABAMA

House of Representatives, Washington, Feb. 4, 1899. The Peruna Medicine Co., Columbus, Ohio.

Gentlemen—I have taken Peruna now for two weeks, and find I am very much relieved. I feel that my cure will be permanent. I have a sore taken it for the grippe, and I take pleasure in recommending Peruna as an excellent remedy to all fellow sufferers."—M. W. Howard.

Congressman Howard's home address is Fort Payne, Ala.

MOST people think that catarrh is a disease confined to the head and nose. Nothing is farther from the truth. It may be that the nose and throat is the disease affected by catarrh, but if this is so it is so only because these parts are more exposed to the vicissitudes of the climate than the other parts of the body.

Every organ, every duct, every cavity of the human body is liable to catarrh. A multitude of ailments depend on catarrh. This is true winter and summer. Catarrh causes many cases of chronic disease, where the victim has not the slightest suspicion that catarrh has anything to do with it.

The following letter which gives the experience of Mr. A. C. Lockhart is a case in point:

Mr. A. C. Lockhart, West Henletta, N. Y., Box 58, in a letter written to Dr. Hartman says the following of Peruna:

"About fifteen years ago I commenced to be ailing, and consulted a physician. He pronounced my trouble a species of dyspepsia, and advised me, after he had treated me about six months, to get a leave of absence from my business and go into the country. I did so and got temporary relief. I went back to work again, but was

"I was nearly dead with catarrhal dyspepsia and am now a well man, better, in fact, than I have been for twenty years or more.

"Since I got cured by your Peruna I have been consulted by a great many people."

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case, and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

Address, Dr. Hartman, President of The Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, Ohio.

WASHINGTON'S BOOK-PLATE

HE ancient and dignified Athenaeum at Boston contains one collection of relics which will always excite reverence in the heart of every citizen.

It is a public-spirited Bostonian who determined that the Stevens collection of George Washington's books, largely composed of books bequeathed to Bushrod Washington, should not go to the British Museum, and subscribed enough to secure this part of the Mt. Vernon library to their city and library.

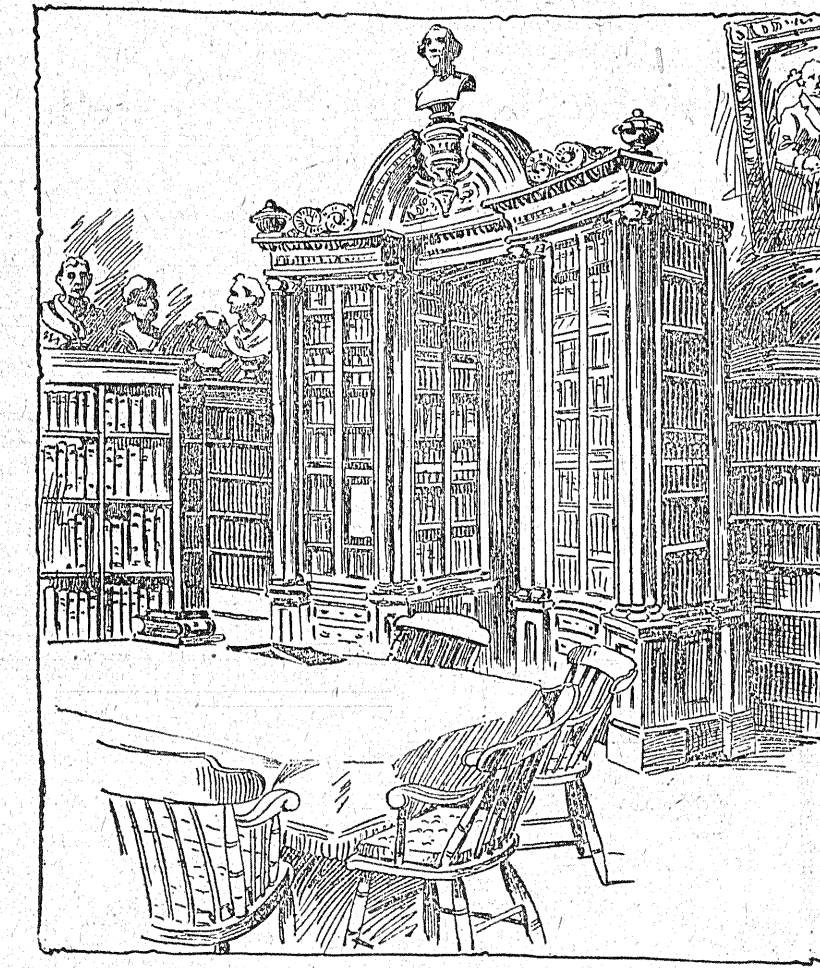

In the fine explanatory catalogue, which was made possible by the generous bequest of $1,000 from Mr. Thomas Dowse, the entire collection is classified as follows by Mr. Lane:

1 to 239—Books mentioned in the inventory of Washington's estate, with a few volumes not in inventory, but given grower, agriculturist and fruit grower, the first president of the United States has never been duly presented to the reading public. The introduction of mules instead of horses in the south for agricultural work was largely due to Washington's suggestion.

That Washington's mind anticipated the great questions of the nineteenth century is amply attested by his will, viz., a due regard for his wife's property rights and of her wish in regard to freeing the "dower negroes," as he calls them; a wish to free all his own slaves; to see the old and decrepit provided for and the young educated in their new found freedom, the very problems that the United States of today is trying to solve.

The library of Washington was large for its time, although in these days of immense public libraries, the department devoted to these volumes seems small indeed. But the books are great in interest, and reveal the many sided ing evidence that Washington owned them.

300 to 362—Pamphlets bearing Washington's signature or known from correspondence to have belonged to him, except those mentioned in inventory, which are arranged with first division.

400 to 414—Volumes assigned to Washington by Mr. Griffin, but bearing no evidence of Washington's ownership.

500 to 603—Pamphlets before 1800 bearing no evidence of ownership, but may have been Washington's.

600 to 687—Pamphlets bearing the names of others, but included by Mr. Griffin.

To purchase these books $4,250 was raised, the Athenaeum subscribing $500. Part of this was expended for a book plate—a vignette of the interior of the library—and the paper for the catalogues. A collection of books was also purchased from S. G. Drake.

The acquisition of this valuable library was largely due to the efforts of Mr. George Livermore and 79 well-known Bostonians who subscribed $50 each.

It may be a surprise to many to learn that so large a part of Washington's library is owned in Boston.

The library is housed in the trustees' room, where other rare volumes owned by this corporation are installed. The visitor is conducted by a courteous attendant up stairways and through corridors until confronted by a grated iron door. The door locks behind the visitor, who then may commune with the past.

This place is only visited by students of history and collectors of Washington. It is not sought by the busy man of the street.

Of the varied and interesting character of the volumes in Washington's library it is difficult to speak in limited space, and opinions differ as to what constitutes interest and value. The bibliomaniac, used to the interminable and argumentative titles, the italicized and long-sid type and the quaint diction, will seem quite iconoclastic, doubtless, to the young student, who is just discovering the wealth of information at first hand which lies in these self-same volumes.

Washington unflinchingly and unflinchingly to the gaze of future generations.

Every mother and father will think of the great and stalwart Washington with a new tenderness for the little scrawls his childish hands traced on convenient material, mainly on the title pages of his father's books.

Tradition does not state whether he owned up to this detachment as bravely as he did to the cutting down of the cherry tree. But the series of signatures there, one written when he was surely under nine years of age, and the others written when he was 13 and 17 years of age, appeal with singular tenacity to the mind, as do even the love-lorn ditties of his later boyhood when he extolled the charms of "the lowland beauty" in verse. The grandeur and the dignity and the complexity which revelation in General and of the Scripture Revelation in Particular. Both as to the Matter of It, and as to the Proof of It" and that New Revelation Cannot Reasonably be Desired and Would Probably be Unsuccessful," by Offspring Blackall, Late Lord Bishop of Exeter, which tempted the infantile hand of George Washington. His autograph is written twice upon the title page. The names of Robert Wickoff and Samuel Bowman appear as owners of the book at various times. On the last page and immediately after the collect for the second Sunday in Advent is the following quaint certificate of ownership evidently written in the hand of Bowman:

"This book I lent to me by the owner, he being dead I believe it mine forever."

The margins of the volume are worn eaten, and the title page is defaced by marks which suggest that the boy might have attempted drawing also, but as this book bears the earliest specimens of Washington's writing extant, it is of untold value to the antiquarian.

"Short Discourses upon the Whole Common Prayer," by Thomas Comber, the dean of Durham, was selected by the 13-year-old Washington, upon which to write his own and his mother's name.

Against the former his nephew, George C. Washington, has written: "The above is General Washington's autograph written at 13 years of age," and under the latter he writes: "The above name of his mother is in the handwriting of Washington at 13 years of age, as will be seen by comparison with his writings of that date in Sparks's work."

The same flyleaf contains the autograph of Washington's father and mother—August Washington, his brother, 1727, and "Mary Washington."

On Fair Potomac's Sloping Shore.

Mount Vernon! who can tell the charm Of life on that Virginian farm Before our country's birth? For there was simple godly fear, And woman's grace, and royal cheer, High thoughts, and tempered mirth.

At twilight, when the chimney glowed, What wit and wisdom freely flowed, Laughter and quick retorts! And then the old-time games—what fun When George and Lady Washington Joined in the youthful sports!

And when the night grew dark without, What mighty themes they talked about In those historic days! Or how their souls with rapture soared When Nelly at her harpsichord Sang gay and gallant lays!

Oh, brave and bold were women then And pure as women were the men— For that was long ago; The old then felt the zest of youth, The young were sober, and in truth It ever should be so.

On fair Potomac's sloping shore, Mt. Vernon, as in days of yore, Is still a lovely place; But they are gone that gave that scene Its air domestic and serene, Its joyous life and grace.

AS THE WORLD REVOLVES

Young Men for Judges.

In choosing federal judges President McKinley has shown an unwillingness to appoint men who have passed the age of 50, and has ever expressed a preference for men under 40 whenever available ones can be found. The reasons he gives are sensible and practical. He thinks the judges on the federal bench should be men in the prime of life when appointed, so as to insure physical as well as mental strength for the duties of the office and to allow a reasonable number of years of active service before retirement. Experience adds to the usefulness of a judge, and the public is deprived of this benefit when the appointee is an old man and his term of service short.

Towne's Sharp Retort.

At the conclusion of Mr. Towne's notable speech in the senate on the Philippines question he received many congratulations. Chauncey Depew said: "I congratulate you, Mr. Towne. Your delivery was fine, your diction elegant, your peroration superb and your argument damnable." "Mr. Depew," replied Senator Towne, instantly, "I am delighted to know you approve of the only features of it you could comprehend."

Saving a Town.

Two weeks ago, Rev. R. M. Williams, a Southerner, started a revival in the town of Hiawatha, Kan. Since then the people have been carried away by the subject of religion. There are twelve churches in the place, and revivals are being held in ten of them. Stores are closed on alternate afternoons in order that the proprietors

REV. R. M. WILLIAMS, and clerks may attend, and when a special service is held all business stops and the whole town takes a half holiday to attend.

Grand Old Man Is Stern.

President Kruger, though able to speak German and English, has confined himself to his native tongue since leaving Africa, having declared his intention of speaking nothing but "taal." So literally does he keep his vow that when addressed by his granddaughter in German (she knows not a word of the language of the South African republic) he invariably replies through an interpreter.

Kind of Man Needed.

George H. Stevens was elected city clerk of Newburyport, Mass., recently for the thirty-second consecutive time. He is now 72 years old, but is still in the enjoyment of good health and all his mental vigor. He is a beautiful penman and his records are said to be models of transcribing.

Merely a General Remark.

Judging by the charges that are being made against Wilcox, the Hawaiian representative in congress, the Sandwich Islanders are no more judicious in their selection of congressmen than the people of some districts in the United States.—Pittsburg Times.

Merritt and the Hazers.

When Gen. Merritt had charge of the military school he did all in his power GEN. WESLEY MERRITT, to check the nefarious practice and succeeded to some extent, but the authorities refrained from supporting him and he was compelled to permit hazing in a modified form. He is strongly in favor of suppressing it and expresses the hope that congress will legislate it out of existence.

Sore Hands

Red, Rough Hands, Itching, Burning Palms, and Painful Finger Ends.

Soak the hands on retiring in a strong, hot, creamy lather of CUTICURA SOAP. Dry, and anoint freely with CUTICURA, the great skin cure and purest of emollients. Wear, during the night, old, loose kid gloves, with the finger ends cut off and air holes cut in the palms. For red, rough, chapped hands, dry, fissured, itching, feverish palms, with shapeless nails and painful finger ends, this treatment is simply wonderful, and points to a speedy cure of the most distressing cases when physicians and all else fail.

Cured by Cuticura

I WAS troubled with hands so sore that when I put them in water the pain would near set me crazy, the skin would peel off, and the flesh would get hard and break; then the blood would flow from at least fifty places on each hand. Words never can tell the suffering I endured for three years.

I tried at least eight doctors, but my hands were worse than when I commenced doctoring. I tried every old granny remedy that was ever thought of without one cent's worth of good and could not even get relief.

I would feel so badly mornings when I got up, to think that I had to go to work and stand pain for eight or nine hours, that I often felt like giving up my job, which was in the bottling works of Mr. E. L. Kerns, the leading bottler of Trenton, N. J., who will vouch for the truth of my sufferings.

Before I could start to work, I would have to wrap each finger on both hands, and then wear gloves, which I hated to do, for when I came to take them off, it would take two hours and the flesh would break and bleed. Some of my friends who had seen my hands would say, "If they had such hands they would have them amputated"; others would say, "they would never work," and more would turn away in disgust. But thanks to Cuticura, the greatest of skin cures, it ended all my sufferings.

Just to think, after doctoring three years, and spending dollar after dollar during that time, Cuticura cured me. It has now been two years since I used it and I do not know what sore hands are. I never lost a day's work while I was using it or since, and I have been working at the same business, and in acids, etc.

Does it Pay?

The following article is contributed to the Fairgrove Enterprise by Rev. S. P. Todd:

Dear Sir: Through the medium of your paper, I desire to call the attention of the voters of Fairgrove township to the fact, that the question of local option is to be voted upon at the spring election, in other words every voter in Tuscola county, will have the privilege of voting for or against the saloon at that time. It is my purpose therefore, in this article, to discuss the question of local option, or county prohibition.

In voting upon this question, we will be influenced more or less, by a study of it from three new points, the Legal the Moral and the Commercial. Allow me to speak from the Commercial stand point leaving to others the treatment of it from the Moral and Legal point of view.

The Commercial world enters upon the investigation of every question, with the one query, does it pay? Let us apply it to the subject in hand, does the saloon pay? I am aware that the township of Fairgrove has practically answered that question in the negative by refusing to grant a license to conduct such an institution within her borders, and the town of Fairgrove is to-day a living monument to the wisdom of the men who have comprised her town board, as we view her large and commodious places, her excellent school and beautiful churches, and the neat and tasty homes of her people, or as we hear her praises mentioned by men of distinction in commercial life, from the larger cities we may well be proud to be called citizens of Fairgrove.

In reading a list of the inmates of the poorhouse for this county, in one of the Caro papers a few weeks ago, this very significant fact was noted, that not one of them hailed from this township. Only two criminal cases have been before the Circuit Court from this township in the last fifteen months, one for illegal liquor selling, the other for a crime committed, we are told, while the person was under the influence of liquor, procured in another town.

Such are some of the evidences, that to keep a saloon out of town does pay. However not everyone concedes that these are the reasons for Fairgrove's eminence among the towns of the county. If we can demonstrate our position that, the prohibition of the traffic in our town, produces such results, then we have proven our point, that prohibition will result in good to the county of Tuscola, and that every loyal citizen, should vote no license, at the coming election.

Let us view some of the arguments that will be brought forth to combat our theory, that prohibition produces peace and plenty in a town or county. We are told that this town prospers because of her natural advantages, but we have to find yet that she possesses those advantages, and indeed a careful study will reveal that the opposite is true; she has prospered in spite of the absence of natural advantages; we have no water, and we are not a railroad centre.

But, our opponents say, the saloon brings business into a town, men who want a glass of beer or whiskey, will trade in the town where they can get it. We will admit that there is a show of wisdom, from the commercial point of view, in this argument, but we will not admit that the good thus done, will outweigh the losses suffered in other ways. If so then a few saloons doing the work of slaking the thirst of the poor farmer, in Fairgrove, would have caused us to outstrip even Akron, in the race for commercial supremacy.

Is it not true that the man who is so far gone in his desire for drink, that he will go out of his way to get it, becomes less able to purchase other commodities, and his trade will become less profitable, and on general principles not the most desirable. A man enters the town with one dollar in his pocket. If there are no saloons, he spends it for groceries, drygoods, etc, or pays his subscription to the Enterprise. On the other hand if he be of that undiscovered class of farmers who seeks the town to quench his appetite, the saloon gets all or the greater part of the dollar and the merchant or editor a fair but unkept promise. To offset this class, if such exist, is the large and very desirable class who seek a place for their family to trade free from the temptations and dangers of the saloon.

In the township of Merritt in Bay county the second saloon is now seeking a license, using this as a basis from which to figure, and saying that this township also, had two such institutions, (to draw trade) what would be the cost. Now we are not to say a word, about morals, degraded lives, ruined homes, blighted manhood and lost souls, for that will be treated in time, nor are we to deal with, the cost of taking care of the finished product of the saloon in jails, almshouses, asylums, etc, for the same reason, but simply from the commercial side of the question, what will the advertising of our town cost in dollars, let us see. Licenses $1,050, liquor (purchased outside of the town) $1,000, living expenses of two families, say $500, the last item alone being credited to the business of the town, the two saloons therefore, from purely a commercial view point, must bring into the town from that mythical class of farmers, who just want one drink you know, first $2,050 before they have added one cent to the general welfare or business of the place. I ask any fair minded man if he thinks for a moment it would pay, and over against this again, and the dollars now spent for the necessities and comforts of life, that if the saloon was here to do business, and I have never heard of its being a missionary or charitable institution, would surely be diverted from the channels of trade, into her own treasury.

Fellow citizens, the saloon does not pay in town, city, county, state or nation. The hotel bar, is no more desirable than a joint or dive. Terms do not change conditions in mathematics, science, morals or religion. Hell is hell, whether spelled HELL or HADES. The saloon is death dealing and costly, whether called Hotel or saloon. Then I appeal to you to aid in this effort to make Tuscola county in the future what Fairgrove is in the present, a model of good citizenship, and a place of prosperity.

Bay City — Port Huron.

At Caro it is stated that the air is again full of railroad rumors. For some time past people of that place have been subscribing for an electric railroad and it now seems probable that the cherished dream will be realized in a railroad from Bay City to Port Huron. The Times understands that a company composed of Charles Montague, of Caro, Fred S. Wheat, and other capitalists have secured the right of way for a railway from Bay City to Sanilac Center, Crosswell, Lexington and to the city limits of Port Huron. It is also understood that this company will soon petition the common council for a franchise through the streets of Port Huron and to the tunnel depot. The ordinance is already framed and it is probable will go before the common council on the same day as the Canham railway ordinance. A dispatch from Lexington says: "The president and vice president and two gentlemen from Detroit of the new company, have been in Caro and if the necessary franchise can be secured the road will be a sure go. There is plenty of money behind parties and it is proposed to build a good road. It seems that this is only part of an electric road that will cover the whole thumb of Michigan."—Port Huron Times.

State Round-up Farmers' Institute.

If you will buy your ticket on Monday, February 25th, you can get passage to Lansing and return for one fare for the round trip. The State Round-up Farmers' Institute occurs the last three days of February, at the Agricultural College. The program is a novel one. In the forenoon the crowd is divided into three sections. The women go to the Women's Building, where for three days instruction is given in domestic art, cooking and sewing. The fruit men have a section by themselves each forenoon, with a program that would do justice to any fruit convention. In the general farm section a drill is given every day in stock judging, taking up horses on Tuesday, cattle on Wednesday, and swine on Thursday. The best talent available is secured for training the people attending in the art of stock judging. Every day at nine o'clock instruction is given on veterinary topics, and at ten on stock feeding. The after noons and evenings are given up to more general topics. The Institute is thus in itself a college education in brief. No farmer who can possibly leave his business can afford to miss this opportunity.

Programs will be sent to all who request them.

C. D. Smith,
Superintendent Farmers'
Institutes. Agricultural College, Michigan.

Getting Even With Spooner

From The Saturday Evening Post.

Senator John C. Spooner, of Wisconsin, when a young man, was attorney for two men charged with stealing.

The prisoners stated that they had been strolling along the river bank, when they spied a boat, and for a little amusement jumped in and rowed out into the stream. The owner of the boat saw them and hurried for a constable, who arrested them as soon as they returned.

There had been taken from the men a well-worn Bible and a drawer. On the fly-leaf of the Bible was the inscription: "To my darling boy, from Mother."

The trial was held the next day and the future Senator made a brilliant speech to the jury. He exhibited the Bible and pointed to the inscription, and without leaving their seats the jury rendered a verdict of "Not guilty."

After the trial the young men gave the lawyer fifty dollars. "Boys," said Mr. Spooner, as they were about to separate, "I am curious to know why you carry that Bible and that empty drawer." Then the Senator listened with astonishment to the history of his clients.

"We are professional safe-blowers and have been for five years. This Bible has a double cover and opens like this" (here the self-confessed criminal pressed a hidden spring in the thick cover and disclosed a hollow in which there lay two steel files and a small saw); "and this drawer has a secret bottom where we keep our tools."

The future Senator confiscated the Bible and the drawer.

One of the thieves shouted angrily; "We'll get those things back yet; you mark my words!"

Several years passed and then the incident was brought back to Mr. Spooner's recollection in the following manner. One evening he and his family attended an entertainment, and no one was left at the house. When they returned at a late hour they found that the house had been entered by burglars and ransacked, but that nothing, apparently, was missing. The next day's mail brought a letter which read:

Dear Sir: Please excuse the way we came in last night, but the door was locked. We never did think you treated us square by swiping our outfit, and we came back after it and found you were not at home. We always keep our word.

Yours truly,
Jack and Jim.

The stockholders of the Unionville Creamery Association held their annual meeting Monday evening Jan. 28. The following officers were elected: Secretary, H. G. Sprine; treasurer, Eustace Kolb; directors for three years, Adam Stoll, J. C. Purdy; auditing committee, J. H. Kemp, James Pengra. The company has paid to farmers for milk the past year nearly $7,000 and a dividend of 5 per cent was given to the stockholders, with about $200 in the treasury. A new churn and other improvements were added to the plant during the year. The factory will run all winter, and is receiving at the present time 4,000 pounds of milk daily.—Unionville Crescent.

The Wallace & Orr company has leased the picnic grounds at Bay Port for five years and will make extensive improvements including a pavilion at the grounds, more bath houses, and the sinking of another deep well. Capt. George S. Farrar will be in charge of the hotel.—Akron Argus.

Mrs. Etta Rowley wishes to inform our readers that she is prepared to attend to calls as nurse, having had considerable experience in that important work. She is at present employed at the home of Mrs. Turner, of Gageton. Cass City will be Mrs. Rowley's home address.

Franchise Wanted.

N. M. Richardson, of Caro, is in town to-day, for the purpose of making application to the township board for an electric line franchise, good for thirty years, work on the line to be started within two years. Franchisees are being asked for along a line from Caro, through Ellington and Elmwood to Cass City or Gageton, or both, and thence northeast towards Bad Axe or Harbor Beach. Petitions are now in circulation amongst the ratepayers of the township, and the same will be considered at a meeting of the township board on Saturday.

Mr. Carruthers, of Argyle township, in this county, purchased a ticket last Monday morning at Crosswell depot for Port Huron, intending to make visit to his old home in Canada. After getting on train he missed his pocket book containing $34.40 and after a diligent search through his pockets was unable to find same. Mr. Carruthers after discovering his loss insisted on continuing his journey without money but conductor John Madden, persuaded him to get off at Jeddo and telegraph back to Crosswell of his misfortune. He took the conductor's advice and returned to Crosswell where he found his money which had been picked up by Malcolm Douglass.—Crosswell Democrat.

At a meeting of Imlay City's common council it was decided to submit the subject of municipal ownership of the electric light plant to the voters of the village at the coming spring election. It is thought that the city water works and electric lighting plant can be operated together at a saving to the city of many dollars and better electric light service secured.

A dozen of the wealthiest capitalists in the country men who wield absolute control over immense business enterprises will tell the readers of The Saturday Evening Post Feb. 16 why they remain in the race which they have already won. Each of them writes frankly whether he makes money for its own sake, for the mere joy of working, or to gain the power with which vast capital invests itself.

On Saturday G. W. Kent, late of the Vassar Times, leased the printing office of D. L. Ballentine, at Port Huron; and will take possession on March 1. Mr. Kent announces that he will launch a weekly newspaper in Port Huron with Charles J. Seely, late of the Port Huron Republican, as editor and himself as business manager. The paper will be strictly independent in all matters politically and will make its appearance some time during March.

August Schabaneski, aged 43, hanged himself in John C. Liken's barn at Sebewaing owing to domestic troubles. He leaves a widow and three children in Saginaw.
