There are more newspapers published in Iowa, in proportion to its population, than in any other state of the Union.

There is a terrible coercion in our deeds which may first turn the honest man into a deceiver, and then reconcile him to the change.

Show me the man you honor. I know by that symptom better than any other what kind of a man you yourself are; for you show me there what your ideal of manhood is, what kind of a man you long inexpressibly to be.—Ben Johnson.

Mrs. Catherine Babcock of Washington, D. C., widow of Colonel Babcock, who was a member of General Grant's staff, was committed to the Government Insane Asylum recently, to await an investigation by the court as to her sanity. Mrs. Babcock has the idea that some one is going to steal the body of her daughter, buried in Baltimore, Md., and hold it for ransom.

Some Austrians living in Geneva conceived the project of placing a memorial tablet in the Quai du Leman, where the Empress Elizabeth was assassinated. The authorities, however, refused their permission on the ground that it would be improper to commemorate the deed of a madman and help to preserve his name. In place of the tablet, it is now proposed to erect a chapel in honor of the Empress.

Seventy-six vacancies exist in the Medical Department of the United States Army, for which there are comparatively few candidates. Young doctors on entering have the rank and pay of a first lieutenant, and generally promotion is more rapid than in the line of the service. It is surprising that more applications should not be received, considering the salary and rank attaching to the places. The same trouble is experienced with vacancies in the medical corps of the navy.

It is a familiar example of irony in the degradation of words that "what a man is worth" has come to mean how much money he possesses; and there seems a deeper and more melancholy irony in the shrunken meaning that popular or polite speech assigns to "morality" and "morals." The poor part these words are made to play recalls the fates of those pagan divinities who, after being understood to rule the powers of the air and the destinies of men, came down to the level of insignificant demons, or were even made the farcical show for amusement of the multitude.

Although without knowledge of surgery, Theodore Austin, aged sixteen, probably saved his own life the other day by the application of a little practical knowledge. The boy was working at home in Philadelphia, when he ran his hand through a pane of glass and severed an artery in his wrist. He started for the hospital, but had not gone far before he realized that it would not do to wait for the flow of blood stopped. He bound his handkerchief tightly around his wrist, above the cut, and by sticking a pencil through the knot, improvised a tourniquet by which he succeeded in twisting the handkerchief until the end of the severed artery was closed.

Dr. E. W. Allen, assistant superintendent of experiment stations, conducted by the Agricultural Department, has returned to Washington, after a ten weeks' tour of inspection of the stations in Alaska. Dr. Allen reports that all the hardy vegetables are being grown there and he predicts that the time will come when Alaska will grow a sufficient supply of them. He also says that wheat, oats, barley and rye have been matured at the stations, and he thinks it practicable to raise beef for the home market. He says there is considerable inquiry for land along the coast from people living in Northern Europe, and thinks the time will come when many of them will find more comfortable homes there than they now have.

According to Dr. Rijnhart, the medical attentions lavished on invalids in Thibet are of a very primitive character. For headache, large sticking plasters are applied to the patient's head and forehead; for rheumatism, a needle is often buried in the arm or shoulder; a tooth is extracted by tying a string to it and jerking it out, sometimes bringing out a part of the jaw at the same time; a sufferer with stomach ache may be subjected to a good pounding, or to the application of a piece of wet soaked in burning butter grease, or, if medicine is to be taken internally, it will consist probably of a piece of paper on which a prayer is written, rolled in the form of a pellet; and, if this fails to produce the desired effect, another pellet is administered composed of the bones of some pious priest.

At a demonstration held on Lumberton Common a resolution was passed calling upon Colonel Lockwood and others to remove the obstructions to the public right of way on about 100 acres of forest land. A procession numbering about 500 persons was afterwards formed and the fences on Colonel Lockwood's land were forcibly removed. About thirty of the Essex police, under Supt. Wm. Clark, were present, but showed great forbearance, and the object of the demonstration was accomplished. Proceedings will be taken for damages and trespass.

THE NEWS IN MICHIGAN.

Corunna a Sufferer by a Costly Blaze.

FIREMEN VERY BADLY INJURED

A Farmer Loses His Life Trying to Save His Stock—Cyclones Work Havoc and Destroy Property—A Pittable Case Near Mendon—Other News.

A Blow to Corunna. Corunna was visited Wednesday night by a fire causing a heavy loss of property and serious injury to three firemen. The furniture factory of Fox & Martin was totally destroyed, the fire being first discovered in the varnish room, possibly caused by spontaneous combustion. The blaze had twenty minutes' start of the fire department. An explosion while the firemen were fighting the flames resulted in the injury of Chief Charles Wilcox. He will probably die. George Brands and William S. Eveleveth were seriously injured. The men were a ladder throwing a stream into the second story window when the wall suddenly flew into a thousand pieces from an explosion within. Wilcox was buried beneath tons of brick, and was taken out bleeding and unconscious. Doctors give but little hope for his recovery. Brands was badly cut on the head by flying brick, and Eveleveth was cut and bruised. The senior member of the firm, S. C. Fox, is in England, where the firm conducts a wholesale business. Geo. D. Mason, the junior member, says the factory will probably not be rebuilt until spring, which is a hard blow to Corunna, as 125 men will be out of employment. The factory burned four years ago, and was rebuilt by the aid of a bonus. Corunna has no water works, and a poorly equipped fire department. The loss is placed at $40,000, insurance $19,000.

Butts Got the Limit. William M. Butts, bookkeeper for the Worden Grocery Co., convicted a year ago of embezzlement of funds amounting to $9,000, returned from Cleveland voluntarily in response to summons from the court and received sentence of five years at Jackson. Butts was formerly one of the best-known men of the city. He was a high flyer, but his arrest caused a great sensation as he was said to be one of the late Justice Chamblin, and every effort was made to clear him. Further investigation into Butts' methods showed that he had made away with $9,000 of the firm's money during his riotous career, but he was tried and convicted on the charge of embezzling but $9,000 of it. He has given the most scathing lecture ever heard in this city, the judge telling him he was a disgrace to the city and to his family, ending by giving him the limit. Butts thanked the court sarcastically, and was led away to jail.

Cyclones do Damage. A cyclone struck Ed. Hubbard's clover mill, on Sam Allen's farm, four miles west of Middleville, picked it up and turned it over and a half mile, and struck the ground completely demolished it. The wind was overturned and teams ran away. A barn in the neighborhood was unroofed. The top was torn from a passing carriage, the horse ran away and the occupants thrown out. A heavy shower accompanied the wind. A heavy rain and terrific wind storm struck Turner, wrecking buildings and scattering lumber and staves for a long distance. The roof of D. Dolan's house was carried away and some of the furniture cannot be found. At Mendon several barns were unroofed and part of one house destroyed.

Burned to Death. John Dillon, aged 60, was burned to death in the barn on his farm in Morristown, nine miles southeast of Bay City, and it is supposed a lantern exploded and set fire to the building, and that he died while trying to lead the cattle to safety. After the fire the neighbors found his charred body in the ruins. Dillon is survived by his widow and two small children. The fire destroyed nearly all of Dillon's stock and well filled grain barns. The loss will amount to several thousand dollars.

A Triple Funeral. The principal business streets of Kalamazoo were the scene of an impressive funeral procession Wednesday, when three funeral cars abreast moved slowly on their way to Riverside cemetery. The cars contained the remains of Isaac Van Hout, Mrs. Peter Kromlyk and Edith Ward, the victims of the street accident on West lake last Sunday. The center hearse was white and the other two were black. No cars were run while the procession passed through the streets. There were hundreds of mourners in carriages.

A Pittable Case. Undertaker Schonmaker, of Mendon, was called upon Wednesday to fulfill his duty in a very sad case. It was at a farmer's home, a few miles from here, the residence of Edward Eathing. He had called together in a miserable little shanty, 12x16 feet, he found the father and two children, all into death with typhoid fever. In the other corner lay the corpse of the wife and another of the family was ill with the same disease.

The Lost Aeronaut. Rather than be branded as a fakir, Mrs. A. L. Seeley, the aeronaut of Reed City, made an ascension Wednesday evening at LaSalle, Ill., just at dusk. She was warned that it was dangerous, but the blow of the crowd obliged her and she determined to go up. Since that time she has not been seen, although the balloon was found in a field near Ozlesby. Her husband followed in a buggy with the intention of picking her up, but owing to the darkness the parachute and the aeronaut were lost sight of. Her fate is still a mystery.

Shockingly Mangled by Hogs.

Mrs. Ansel Green, of Sebeva township, was attacked by hogs and so frightfully mangled she will die. Mrs. Green was hunting for eggs in the barnyard, when three hogs suddenly turned upon her and knocked her down. The animals apparently became frenzied and began to tear at the woman's arms and body. Mrs. Green became unconscious, and then the hogs moved away. When she regained consciousness Mrs. Green managed to get to her feet and started to run for the gate. She had taken only a few steps when she was again attacked and knocked down. Her screams finally brought help and the hogs were driven away by her son. The flesh was stripped from Mrs. Green's right arm and it had to be amputated. Her left arm and hand was also terribly torn. One side of her face was torn to shreds. The unfortunate woman's body was also shockingly mutilated. There is no hope for her recovery. Mrs. Green is the sister of Mrs. Green, in going to the latter's bedside, was thrown from a buggy and seriously injured.

He Painted It All Right. An aged Port Huron woman named Mrs. Emma Hastings called on Prof. Wyman. He had recently been convicted of practicing palmistry and fined, but appealed the case. Mrs. Hastings had heard of the wonderful things that Wyman was accredited with accomplishing, and asked him to do her fortune for her. She says he told her that she would be necessary to bring ten $20 bills to him. She did so and seated herself at a table with the professor. He insisted that she place the money in an envelope; then he placed five stamps on it, and after a few mysterious passes under the table handed the package to her, telling her to take it home and place it in the family Bible, letting it remain there until Wednesday of this week. But Mrs. Hastings' womanly curiosity got the better of her and she opened the package, only to find a number of pieces of brown paper where her money should have been. Wyman's whereabouts is unknown.

Minor Michigan Matters. Charlotte has voted to bond for $50,000 for public improvements. The Eleventh Michigan cavalry will hold its annual reunion at Howard City this year Oct. 5 and 10. Smith, Thornydyke & Brown Co.'s big warehouse at Marinette was destroyed by fire. Loss $70,000. An effort is being made to organize a clerks' union in Houghton and Hancock. Early closing is the object. Dowagiac has a mad dog scare, and the city council has ordered every canine in the place tied up for 12 days. Snow fell in both peninsulas of this state Thursday. It is the general in Berrien, Kalamazoo, Eaton and several other counties. Robert Barber, a farmer living near Schoolcraft, was attacked by a vicious bull and so badly injured that he died a few hours later. A company has been organized to drill for oil at Berrien Springs, where indications of the existence of the fluid have been found. John Carner, aged 66 years, a farmer living north of Plattsburg, dropped dead. He attended the fair and was just leaving for home. Charles Hinson, colored, of Big Rapids, waived examination on the charge of criminal assault, and was remanded to jail in default of $5,000 bail. The heavy gate destroyed the Bay City detention hospital on the outskirts. Luckily there is no smallpox in the city at the present time. The house of Ed Laura, a farmer of Sumpter township, Monroe county, was burned. Loss about $800. Insured for $350 in Farmers' Mutual. The unprecedented industrial activity at Flint has created a veritable house famine, workmen being unable to find shelter for their families. M. R. Wood, general manager of the Port Huron Salt Co. has resigned and it is rumored will start a soda ash plant just south of the salt block. Mrs. James K. Paul, aged 86, a pioneer of Ontonagon, is dead. She was the last Michigan woman pensioner of the Blackhawk war of 1832. Judge A. J. Mills, mayor of Kalamazoo, admits that he has gubernatorial aspirations and will be in the race for the nomination next year against Gov. Bliss. Mrs. John D. French, of Leslie, who has long been a food addict, was adjudged insane in the Circuit Court and committed to the state asylum at Ionia. Judge Mills, of Kalamazoo, denies that he announced himself a candidate to succeed Gov. Bliss. He declares he wouldn't accept the nomination even if it were tendered him. James Murphy, of Jackson, was arrested in Toledo. He had a valise filled with tools in his possession, and could not explain in a satisfactory manner how he came by them. A. V. Freeman, of Menominee, under arrest upon a charge of embezzling $20,000, has been rearrested on a second charge of embezzling funds belonging to Raber & Wilson. The Mason fair is a winner. The Leslie Midway Co. was simply coming wealth and an investigation of its show by the association officials caused them to order its doors closed. Blythe Honey, aged 8, daughter of W. N. Honey, of Standish, fell through a skylight in her father's store, striking on the edge of a large barrel. The chances are against her living. The Washburn County Goosevelt club was organized Tuesday at Ann Arbor to boom Roosevelt's candidacy for the presidency in 1904. About 70 names are on the rolls. Officers are: President, Horace G. Fretzinger; vice-president, John W. Bennett; secretary, A. F. Smith; treasurer, J. J. Goodyear. W. N. Glendon, of Eaton Rapids, while crazed with drink, went home late at night and is alleged to have attacked his wife and babe with a razor, threatening to cut their throats. Her cries brought the neighbors to her rescue. Glendon fled and no trace of him can be found. A warrant has been issued.

John Graham, the burglar who died of wounds received while attempting to rob the postoffice at Armada was buried in Potter's field at Richmond, Thursday, no one claiming his body.

A farmer near Burr Oak rented a farm for $4 an acre and thought he was paying too big a price for the land. He has just sold his crop of potatoes for $1,200 and has 200 bushels left.

Baptiste Viola, an Italian miner, employed at the Calumet & Hecla mine, met instant death by falling 500 feet from the club house on the river. Viola left a widow and several children.

A handcar was abandoned on the Michigan Central railroad at Battle Creek Monday, and it is believed it was used by the two Armada postoffice robbers who escaped from the Macomb county officers.

NEWS FROM ALL POINTS.

The Horrors of the Samar Island Slaughter.

THAT CUP TO REMAIN WITH US.

Happenings at Home and abroad of interest to all Readers Briefly Summarized for these Busy October Days.—The Columbia Wins First and Second Race.

Columbia Wins First Race. In the closest and most soul stirring race ever sailed for the old America's cup, the white flyer Columbia beat the British challenger over a windward and leeward course of 30 nautical miles by the narrow margin of 39 seconds. As Lipton's latest aspirant for cup honors must allow the defender 43 seconds on account of the extra 833 square feet of canvas in her sail area, the official record, under the rules, gives her the victory by 1 minute and 22 seconds. As a spectacle for about a quarter of a third of the time the two sky-scraping racers crossed the starting line until they fled across the finish line four and a half hours later the result was in doubt, and the excitement aboard the excursion fleet increased until the men became frenzied and women almost hysterical.

Columbia Wins Second Race. The second race for the coveted cup between Columbia and Shamrock II. was sailed Thursday, and won by the Columbia by two minutes and one second corrected time. The course was taken twice, the first a magnificent and blood-stirring race to the first mark. They lifted the first turn as though the stakeboat itself was coming to meet them, the Shamrock still holding the lead. Both swung away on the starboard tack, Shamrock leading by about a quarter of a mile. Still sailing in the strong wind, the big white racers fetched the second mark, Shamrock rounding it first, and with flattening sheets. It was the first windward work of the race, and the result of the contest depended on the respective merits of the two boats in the thrash to windward, at the end of which was the finish line. The wind was all that yachtsmen could wish, and a fair test of the merits of the two boats was made.

The Third Race Won. That silver cup is to remain in these United States unless Lipton or some other English yachtsman can bring over a better boat to contest for it. That the Columbia defeated the Shamrock II. in three straight races, added to the fact that this is the second time she has saved the cup does not soften the hearts of the Englishmen who had real and great hopes of winning this year. The races were close, the yacht well handled, and the Columbia proved for a second time the better yacht.

The first part of the race was a hammer with a good wind, and the outer race was won by the Shamrock. It was first, but when the last half was sailed the admirable handling of the Columbia, in a slightly lighter wind, 6:11 against her competitor. There was all the excitement in this third and final race that yachtsmen could wish. It was in the first part of the race that the Shamrock did her best, turning the outer mark first. Then began the beat to windward, and superb work with the Columbia on this home stretch did the business.

Horrible Details Given. The latest news from the Island of Samar gives harrowing details of the slaughter of the members of Company C, Ninth United States Infantry, at Balanzaga. It seems that the president of the town, claiming to be friendly, led the assault on the person. The fight was long and premeditated and the Filipinos were called to commit the slaughter by the ringing of church bells at daylight. They got between the soldiers, who were breakfasting, and their quarters. The hearing of the slaughter of Isaac D. Derosier, of the Eleventh Infantry, started for the scene immediately with a battalion.

The body of Capt. Connel had been saturated with kerosene and partly burned. Forty-five bottles have been buried in a trench, leaving seven unaccounted for. The charred remains of many were recovered. In numerous instances the bodies had been badly mutilated. Three hundred Macabebes will also be dispatched to the scene of the massacre on board the Legaspi, which is delayed by a typhoon.

The London Standard says: The Boers are fighting with a determination and a contempt for their own lives such as were seldom shown in the early period of the war. Their plan is to keep Kitchener's army busy in the north and to give the roving commandos of Cape Colony an opportunity to raise the Cape Dutch against Britain.

It is believed that the government at last recognizes the necessity of meeting the renewed Boer activity. Preparations are being made to replace Kitchener's exhausted men by fresh drafts. An order has been issued rendering it impossible to obtain discharge by purchase from any of the army reserves, sections of which are being prepared for mobilization.

Ed. Deforest, of Battle Creek, who is charged with sending poisoned peaches to Mrs. Clara Wandell, is in further trouble, his wife having covered a complaint for adultery against him and Mrs. Wandell.

Richard Sallis, lineal descendant of Robert Morris, financier of the revolution, abandoned his refined home to become a tramp. He is being examined as to his sanity.

The largest floating dry dock in the world will start for Baltimore on the 15th of this month on a hazardous trip down the Atlantic and around through the gulf, and up the Mississippi river to the new station at Algiers, La. This dock, belonging to the United States government, is a great marvel of steel, inclosed on all sides; is longer, wider and deeper than the greatest warship ever built and cost the government over $1,000,000.

Foreign Notes.

The Boer war, in two weeks more, will have lasted two years. Dr. Uribe, Colombian minister of foreign affairs, has resigned. Disorders have arisen in the Yangtze valley of China, resultant upon the floods.

The Cuban constitutional convention has notified Gov.-Gen. Wood that it is ready to adjourn. Venezuela is guarding her frontiers against Colombia, and has put Colombian revolutionists in charge. Colombia is doing the same on her side of the border.

No official return has been made for a long time of the numerical strength of the British army in South Africa. It is customary to estimate it at 20,000, but these figures, it is claimed, are grossly exaggerated.

Count Tolstol says on the Franco-Russian alliance that the true Russian people do not know of the existence of the alliance. Count Tolstol says the object of such alliances is war or to menace war; that their influence must be mischievous generally and that they can produce only the greatest mischief to the nations forming them.

There is talk of naming the Philippines McKinley Isles. Three thousand students have registered at the U. of M. this year. Clayton, Iowa, has been nearly wiped out by fire which started in a hotel.

It is now said that if Prince Chun visits the United States it will be unofficially. Jacob A. Blodt, of Cleveland, in hiding in Chicago under a charge of embezzlement, committed suicide. The McKinley will have been predated at Canton. It disposes of an estate aggregating about $200,000.

The new oil "gusher" near Welsh, La., throws up rocks, oil and debris to the height of 250 feet. It is claimed. Gov. Durbin, of Indiana, it is said, will again refuse to allow ex-Gov. Taylor, of Kentucky, to be extradited. Postmaster General Smith will ask congress to appropriate $6,250,000 for the extension of the rural free mail service.

Reports to the marine hospital service from all parts of the world show a continued spread of the bubonic plague in most sections. Mrs. Louise Nostz, 60 years old, of Astoria, L. I., killed herself and her grandson, Willie Colletti, 6 years old, some time Wednesday night.

William Slade, once called to Nice by appointment of Abraham Lincoln, was buried at Cleveland, a common dray carrying his body to the grave. Miss Caro Clancy and William McAlpine were among the lion-tamers at the Buffalo exposition. Two trainers in the cage kept the animals subdued.

The body of Arthur Venville, one of Lieut. Gilmore's ill-fated troop, has been found near Manila and will be sent home to Portland, Ore., for burial. John Nevills, of New York, the man who invented the international cable and telegraphic code, in use the world over, was killed by a freight train at Elmira, N. Y.

As a tribute to the memory of the late President McKinley, the common council of Bay City has changed the name of Eighth street in that city to McKinley avenue. The steamer Humboldt has arrived at Seattle from Skagway with 216 passengers and over 1,000,000 in gold. It is the second largest shipment of the season from the Klondike.

Two fatalities resulted from the destruction by fire of the state insane hospital at Norfolk, Neb. The victims were Victor Casper and Jans Jasper, son of Cheyenne county, patients. Former United States Senator Chas. B. Farwell, has submitted to a critical surgical operation at St. Luke's hospital, Chicago. He is resting easily.

MaJ.-Gen. Otis is of the opinion that there really was an assault committed on the gear at the midnight prowlers were escaped prisoners from the Canton jail. T. Charles Vincent fell 200 feet down a mountain side near Meriden, Conn., and lodged head downward in a tree, his ankle caught in the crotch of a limb. There he hung till rescued, and later died of his injuries.

Look This Synopsis Over Carefully Before Shooting.

Sportsmen Who Enjoy Hunting and Fishing will Find the Following Synopsis of the Law Worth a Careful Study that no Mistakes be Made.

Children's Fertilizer.

That's a good name for Scott's Emulsion. Children are like young plants. Some will grow in ordinary soil. Others need fertilizers.

The nature of some children prevents them from thriving on ordinary food. Such children grow right if treated right.

All they need is a little fertilizer—a little extra richness. Scott's Emulsion is the right treatment.

Fertilizers make things grow. That's just what Scott's Emulsion does. It makes children grow in flesh, grow in strength, grow rich blood, grow in mind, grow happy. That's what we make it for.

Send for free sample. SCOTT & BOWNE, Chemists, 409 Pearl St., N. Y. 5c and 25c. all druggists.

Pingree and Mosby.

When Hazen S. Pingree was coming into prominence in Michigan politics, he was in Washington one night and strolled through the corridors of Willard's hotel, which he had not visited since war times, when it was the popular rendezvous of the city, political, military and otherwise. A friend introduced him to Colonel Mosby, the old guerrilla chieftain.

"Why, hello, colonel," said Pingree in his bluff, offhanded way. Just as if he was in the habit of meeting Mosby every day. "I have not seen you for 25 years, but I remember very well the last occasion when we met."

"Ah," said the Virginian politely, "what incident recalls it to your mind? I really fail to remember you, much to my regret."

"Oh, well," said Pingree, "you would not be so apt at it to remember the day. I was captured by your men, and, hap- pening to be wearing a very good, nearly new uniform, you confiscated it on the spot and gave me your old ragged buttoned. But that's all right. All's fair in love and war, I know. Let's have a cigar."

Without a word of protest Mosby accepted, and a long friendly chat followed.

She Was the Ghost.

"A curious lady and her family," says Sir Mountstuart Grant-Duff in his "Diary," "lived in a place in Scotland which was haunted by the ghost of a woman who was to be seen constantly at night wandering through the rooms and passages. When the family arrived, the lady was much struck with the place and said, 'I must have been here before, for I know this place so well, and there is only one.'"

"The agent replied that within a few weeks the owner had caused a partition to be taken down and made the two rooms into one. Still the lady was puzzled at her knowledge of the place, till she remembered that it was a house she used to go to in her dreams."

"Well, some time passed, and the agent was up at the house again, when the lady complained that one part of the contract had not been fulfilled. They had hired a house and a ghost for the summer, and no ghost had seen. The agent replied: 'Of course not, because you are the ghost. We recognized you the moment we saw you.'"

Short and Sweet.

Perhaps one of the shortest courtships was that of an eminent jurist. He was on his way to hold court in a town when he met a young woman returning from market.

"How deep is the creek and what did you get for your butter?" asked the jurist.

"Up to the knee and ninepence," was the answer as the girl walked on.

The jurist pondered over the sensible brevity of the reply, turned his horse, rode back and overtook her.

"I liked your answer just now," he said, "and I like you. I think you would make a good wife. Will you marry me?"

She looked him over and said, "Yes."

"Then get up behind me, and we will ride to town and be married."

She did get up behind, and they rode to the courthouse and were made one. It is recorded that, brief though the courtship had been, the marriage proved a pre-eminently happy one.

A Remarkable Suicide.

One of the most remarkable cases of suicide was that of the king of Falaba, on the west coast of Africa.

The king was attacked by a Mohammedan force, and, finding resistance impossible, he assembled his family and principal officers, and after addressing them and intimating his determination never to accept Mohammedanism and inviting those who did not agree with him to go away he applied a light to a large quantity of gunpowder collected for the purpose and blew into atoms the palace and all who were in it.

Bottles.

In using bottles these two hints ought to be so borne in mind that the practice of them becomes habitual:

Always keep the label uppermost when pouring from a bottle, so that if any liquid trickles down the side the label misses it. Result—your labels keep clean and legible for much longer.

Secondly, if you want to deliver drops (or a very small quantity) of liquid just moisten the lip of the bottle with the finger.—Exchange.

Trouble Either Way.

Mrs. De Good—Why aren't you going to church?

Mr. De Good—Last Sunday the roof leaked, and three or four drops went down my back.

Mrs. De Good—The roof has been repaired since then.

Mr. De Good—Huh! Then they'll be wanting money to pay for the repairs.—New York Weekly.

Steered Straight.

"If I thought that any girl would accept me," casually remarked the bashful Mr. Dolyers, "I'd propose tomorrow."

"Why not this evening?" asked Miss Fosdick coyly.

The affair will take place in about a month.—Detroit Free Press.

First Public Pianist.

Of all the myriads who play the piano how many know that "Tom Blowing" Dibdin was the first man who played the instrument in public? That was in 1767, and the feat was performed at the first night of "The Beggar's Opera."—Invention.

Ants can stand extremes of heat and cold. Forty-eight hours' exposure to frost will not kill them, and one sort has been observed to build its nest in sinks in a blacksmith's forge.

Process Too Expensive.

Warts are curious things. They come and go mysteriously, although their going is frequently marked by exasperating delays, and there are almost as many infallible cures as there are warts, the only trouble with these cures being that they are useless when applied to the particular wart soon happen to have. They are only good for other people's.

"In my opinion," said a clubman who was discussing the subject with a friend one day, "a wart is merely the outward correspondence of some mental excrement. Get rid of that, and it goes away."

"Let me give you a bit of my own experience," he continued. "Last year I went to Europe. For about three years I had had a wart on my little finger, on which I had tried everything I could hear of, but without effect. It only grew larger."

"Well, in the excitement of preparing for the trip and of the journey itself I forgot all about my wart, and when I looked for it about six weeks later it had vanished without leaving the slightest mark. I simply forgot it, and it had no mental condition to feed on. I see you have one on the back of your hand. Forget all about it for a few weeks, and it will go away of itself."

"Yes," said the other clubman, shrugging his shoulders, "but I can't afford to take a trip to Europe for the sake of curing one wart."

The World's Space.

A statistician asserts that when 350 years shall have passed the density of the earth's population will be so great that each person will have only two-thirds of an acre, which space will have to suffice for all purposes—agriculture, roads, houses, parks, railways, etc. He estimates the present population of the earth at 1,600,000,000 and says that in 2250 it will be 52,073,000,000.

A Useful Mother-in-law.

"After all, a mother-in-law is a pretty good thing to have sometimes."

"What wonderful experience have you been having lately?"

"My wife was afraid to discharge our cook, and she wouldn't go for me, so we sent for Birdie's mother and turned her loose in the kitchen. They smashed over the furniture, but the cook's gone."

Running the Gauntlet.

Running the gauntlet as a military punishment was, it is said, originated by Gustavus Adolphus to punish thieves in his army. It was borrowed by the English from the Germans, who copied it from Gustavus, and, being employed in the British regiments in America, was readily taken up by the Indians of this country.

Trees Older Than the Pyramids.

A wonder of longevity is the so called dragon's blood tree of Tenerife. Rostin obtained from this tree has been found in sepulchers, where it had been used for embalming the dead. Trees of this species are now standing which are estimated as being older than the Egyptian pyramids.

Never praise a woman's cake unless you are prepared to eat every slice on the plate.—Atchison Globe.

The Peanut.

In Tennessee and Georgia the peanut is known as a goober. In Alabama and the western gulf states a ground pea. In the southeast of the United States and in the West Indies a pindar or pidlar and in various parts of England a jurnut, an earth nut or a manilla nut.

Mr. Larson says: "I am favored with the custom of farmers within a radius of thirty miles to many of whom I have supplied Chamberlain's remedies. All testify to their value in household where a doctor's advice is almost out of the question. Within one mile of my store the population is perhaps sixty. Of these, within the past twelve months, no less than fourteen have been absolutely cured by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. This must surely be a record." For sale at A. Bond's, Cass City; F. A. ## Women and Jewels.

Jewels, candy, flowers, men—that is the order of a woman's preferences. Jewels form a magnet of mighty power to the average woman. Even that greatest of all jewels, health, is often ruined in the strenuous efforts to make or save the money to purchase them. If a woman will risk her health to get a coveted gem then let her fortify herself against the insidious consequences of coughs, colds and bronchial affections by the regular use of Dr. Boesche's German Syrup. It will promptly arrest consumption in its early stages and heal the affected lungs and bronchial tubes and drive the dread disease from the system. It is not a cure-all, but it is a certain cure for coughs, colds and all bronchial troubles. You can get Dr. G. G. Green's reliable remedies at Fritz's Drug Store, Cass City; or Francis Drug Store, Kingston. Get Green's Prizes Almanac.
