SPLENDIDLY EQUIPPED.

Young & Benkelman Better Able Than Before to Care for Meats and Please Customers.

Young & Benkelman, of the Cass City Meat Market, have occupied their new brick block for some time, but a press of work has prevented us giving a proper mention of the building and its equipment. The site of the new block is the same as that occupied by the old market, operated for many years by Joseph Winegar, deceased, and later by Schwaderer Bros., who some five years ago sold the same to W. C. Janks and Harry Young, both of whom came here from Detroit. Mr. Janks went to Caro three years ago, and J. A. Benkelman, an old-time resident, and well known throughout this entire community, then formed a partnership with Mr. Young, and the business has prospered under their management. Last summer they let the contract for a new two-story brick block to Landon, Eno & Keating, who, notwithstanding a rush of other contract work, were able to have the first story ready for occupancy about the time cold weather set in. The brick used was from the yards of Chas. Hall, at this place, and the building is 20x60 in size. It required a car load of furnishings for the meat market, including a large modern refrigerator with mirror-paneled front, marble-top counters, meat racks, poultry and sausage racks, meat blocks, and shelving for the complete line of bottled and canned goods, which they now carry. The ceiling is of steel and the artistic decoration is the handiwork of Jas. W. Armstrong. It is quite difficult to get a good photo graph of an interior, which will include all, but, thanks to Photographer J. Maier, we are able to give our readers the above good view of the principal counters and refrigerator in the background. Messrs. Young & Benkelman are to be congratulated upon their complete equipment and the enterprising spirit which prompted its installation. The second story of the block is now being finished off for residence rooms and will be occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Young as soon as it is ready.

Chemical Plant a Sure Go.

Sebawaing Blade.

John Faulkner, the promoter of the proposed chemical plant to be erected here in town Wednesday after an absence of a few weeks, during which time he has been in Chicago and various other points interesting outside capital in the matter.

From what Mr. Faulkner says we have every reason to believe that Sebawaing is assured of getting the works. He says he has promises of a number of monied men to take all the stock outside of the amount that will be taken by Sebawaing capital and could get more if he wanted.

Mr. Faulkner left Wednesday evening for Lansing and articles of incorporation will be put on file before the end of the week.

In Memoriam.

Mary Karr, wife of Rev. Parmer Karr, or as we knew her and she was known to almost everyone, "Aunt Mary," is gone! I have just read it in the Michigan Christian Advocate and cannot resist the impulse to add a brief testimonial of my high regard for one of God's best women whom I so well knew and respected, and whose home I so many times visited while her pastor for five years.

Our departed sister was quiet and unobtrusive, but as true and firm in all her purposes of life as the saints of old. She had a rich and abiding experience. It sustained her and made her a potential factor in her home, the community and church. None came in contact with Aunt Mary without feeling that she had a grasp on the unseen, and was busy translating Divine truth into beautiful human conduct. I am sorry for the passing of such a woman. She and her life are not readily spared, but I want to pay this humble tribute to a good woman, a devout Christian mother and a sterling member of God's Church. Her works follow her, and I wish publicly to say that her home was ever a benediction to me. What a legacy she has left to her sorrowing ones—husband and sons!

Obituary.

Mrs. Jas. M. Tracy departed this life Jan. 31st, 1905, aged forty-four years, nine months and five days. Her maiden name was Florence Maria Downing. She was born in Saybrook, Astabula County, Ohio, and came to Cass City, Mich., with her parents. She was married to Jas. M. Tracy October, 1876, and leaves besides her husband, six children, an aged mother, five sisters and one brother, to mourn her departure.

"Dearest sister, thou hast left us, Here thy God we deeply feel; But 'tis God that has bereft us— He can all our sorrow heal. Yet again we hope to meet thee, When the day of life is fled; Then in Heaven with joy to greet thee, Where no farewell tear is shed."—ALICE.

Sebawaing Fire.

The plant of the Sebawaing Lumber and Manufacturing Company was destroyed by fire at an early hour on Sunday morning. All avenues for a water supply were frozen and the fire department were unable to do any effective work. The loss is variously estimated at from $10,000 to $45,000, and the insurance at from $2,500 to $4,000. The company will probably rebuild a smaller plant.

At the regular business meeting of the Epworth League, held at the parsonage on Tuesday evening, the members of that organization were assigned to the various departments.

Liste Bailey, of Ellington, is stopping in town, receiving treatment from Dr. M. M. Wickware, it having been found necessary to operate for the removal of a bony growth from the nose.

Harry Crandall, of Strathburn, Ont., who has been visiting friends here, was called home the latter part of last week, owing to the death of his mother, Mrs. Anna Crandall, formerly a resident here.

A Lincoln Memorial and Freedman's Aid Society service will be held in the M. E. Church on Sunday morning, Feb. 12th. An address on Abraham Lincoln will be given and patriotic songs will be sung.

Evangelist Martin, of the Free Methodist Church, who was recently conducting meetings at the McConnell schoolhouse, is seriously ill at the home of Geo. Kivel, Holbrook, and refuses to have a physician.

Miss Adah Ashley, of Northeast Kingston, who has served as domestic in the editor's home for the past five months, returned to her home on Saturday. Her place is filled by Miss Florence Mann, of Holbrook.

The Superintendent of Police at Detroit has written Marshal C. D. Striffler, of this place, that the suspects, Good and Jefferson, arrested there, were both in duration vile at the time of the Hendrick robbery here in 1900.

W. A. Heller, formerly of this place, but for some time a merchant at Mayville, has found it necessary to enlarge his quarters, and has leased the building adjoining his present quarters. The two stores are being remodelled into one.

Miss Kate Buchanan, who committed suicide in Detroit last week, was the daughter of Duncan Buchanan, of Sheridan township, Huron County. As far as can be learned she was highly esteemed and no reason can be given for the rash act.

The conundrum supper given by the Junior Epworth League on Friday evening, in the basement of the church, proved even a greater success than had been hoped for. The attendance was excellent, so that the net proceeds amounted to about $12.

We understand a valentine party is to be given at the Opera House next Tuesday evening, when dancing will form the principle feature of the program, the music to be furnished by a Caro orchestra.

Malcolm Morrison, who has been employed at Unionville for several years, has been in town this week, visiting his father, and goes to Gage-town in a day or so, where he buys the blacksmith shop and business of his brother, Norman Morrison.

The contest between the Cedar Run and Leach schools in Elmwood township has been completed, the former school winning in arithmetic by quite a number of points and the Leach school winning in spelling by one point. The football contest was not completed.

We learn that the Moore Telephone System is preparing to extend service to many of the farmers of this locality as soon as the weather will permit work. Some fifteen farmers between here and Greenleaf have become subscribers which will secure a line to that point, and two lines in other directions are assured.

Messrs. A. H. Muck and J. H. Striffler have recently purchased the blacksmith and other shops formerly operated by H. S. Wickware, at the east end of Main Street, and latterly operated through a lease by Hewson & Schneider. The latter's lease did not expire until May, but they were given a reasonable consideration for their stock and interest and Mr. Muck took control this morning. His ability as a workman is well known throughout the entire section and his old customers will be pleased to see him at the front again.

We have received a few lines from Rev. S. M. Gilchrist, a former pastor of the M. E. Church here, now stationed at Negaunee, in which he says they are having a fairly mild winter with lots of snow—four feet on the level and still falling. The business outlook for the mines is bright, and yet he advises all who have a living in Lower Michigan to stay here. Butter is 34c., meat 18c. to 22c., eggs 28c., etc. The churches are prosperous and well attended. He sends kind regards to all Cass City friends and a few lines regarding Mrs. Parmer Karr, recently deceased, which we publish in another column.

BISHOP OWES HEALTH AND LIFE TO PE-RU-NA.

Ministers of All Denominations Join in Recommending Pe-ru-na to the People.

Public speaking especially exposes the throat and bronchial tubes to catarrhal affections. Breathing the air of crowded assemblies, and the necessary exposure to night air which many preachers must face, makes catarrh especially prevalent among their class. Pe-ru-na has become justly popular among them.

The Friends of Pe-ru-na.

Despite the prejudices of the medical profession against proprietary medicines, the clergy have always maintained a strong confidence and friendship for Pe-ru-na. They have discovered by personal experience that Pe-ru-na does all that is claimed for it.

BISHOP L.H. HALSEY.

The Bishop's Strong Tribute to Pe-ru-na.

L. H. Halsey, Bishop C. M. E. Church, Atlanta, Ga., writes: "I have found Pe-ru-na to be a great remedy for catarrh. I have suffered with this terrible disease for more than twenty years, until since I have been using Pe-ru-na, which has relieved me of the trouble. I have tried many remedies and spent a great deal of hard-earned money for them, but I found nothing so effectual in the cure of catarrh as the great medicine, Pe-ru-na. I feel sure that Pe-ru-na is not only a triumph of medical science, but it is also a blessing to suffering humanity. Every individual who suffers with respiratory diseases will find Pe-ru-na a magnificent and sovereign remedy."—L. H. Halsey, Bp. C. M. E. Church.

Pe-ru-na is the most prompt and sure remedy for catarrh that can be taken. Many a preacher has been able to meet his engagements only because he keeps on hand a bottle of Pe-ru-na, ready to meet any emergency that may arise.

LINCOLN'S SUMMER HOME.

House in Which the President Spent the Summer Months Still Stands Near Washington.

Rumors that the Anderson house, at Soldiers' home, Washington, known as "President Lincoln's summer home," was to be torn down to make room for new buildings provided for at the last session of congress, brought forth protests from all over the country. Persons familiar with the history of the splendid old residence were earnest in their wishes that it be not disturbed, and so strong was this feeling that it was determined by the commission that should be found advisable and necessary to utilize a portion or all of the site on which the building stands, the building itself will be moved to another part of the grounds, which include 503 acres.

Anderson house was on the tract of land when it was purchased, and it was remodelled and fitted up for a summer residence for the president, it being first occupied by President Buchanan during his administration. All the other presidents down to Mr. Cleveland lived there during the summer months, but the last named chief executive did not like the idea of making his home there, and built a residence in another section of the district.

It was Mr. Lincoln who most enjoyed his sojourns at the home during the heated seasons, and there are a number of veterans at the home who delight in relating stories of the great and good president. One day, it is related, Mr. Lincoln was riding out to the home in the early fall, having as his guest a foreign minister. The latter noticed a persimmon tree laden with fruit. The frost had not yet touched the tree, but the fruit had a very beautiful yellow tinge. The minister asked Mr. Lincoln to tell him the name of the "beautiful yellow plums."

The Anderson House.

Then, as now, too, the grounds of the home were the feeding place of thousands of crows, and it is said that Mr. Lincoln delighted in feeding the birds, many of them being so tame that they would eat from his hands. One day a visitor asked him where so many crows came from. "They come over here from Virginia to get something to eat," was the reply of the president. "I have heard it said that if the crows remained in Virginia they would starve to death. Over there the people tie knots in the tails of their pigs to keep them from getting through the cracks in the pens. I suppose the pigs would come over here, too, if they could swim the Potomac."

A large painted sign on the Anderson house bears these words:

In this house President Lincoln spent his summer months, including July, 1864, during the siege of Washington.

Congress has appropriated $700,000 for improvements and repairs at the Soldiers' home—new mess hall and dormitories, $300,000; addition to hospital, $200,000, and $50,000 for the administration building.

GRANT LOYAL TO LINCOLN.

Would Not Let His Name Be Used for President in 1864.

Col. James Matlock Scovel of New Jersey contributes to the National Magazine of Boston a paper entitled "Sidelights on Lincoln." Col. Scovel, who enjoyed close personal relations with President Lincoln during the civil war period, says that Lincoln was seriously afraid Grant would allow his name to be used in the republican national convention of 1864. Lincoln sent Scovel to learn Grant's intentions. Scovel saw Gen. William Hillyer of Grant's staff. Hillyer said:

"Colonel, you can go and tell the president that there is no power on this earth that could drag Ulysses S. Grant's name into this presidential canvass. McClellan's career was a lesson to him. The latter tried to cap and close the incident by giving him a pardon, and from here the story skips some thirty-eight years."

In December last the pension department received an application for a pension from David Levy. In looking up the records in the adjutant general's office it was discovered that David Levy was carried with the word "deserter" opposite his name. He was informed by the pension officials that his pensions were not for deserters. He replied that it was true that he had been a deserter, but that he had been pardoned by the president and had served faithfully until the end of the war. The pension authorities answered in turn that if he had a pardon he must produce it, as the records bore no evidence of the existence of such a document. And thereupon Levy sent the pardon, just as written by the president.

The pardon is written on a bit of pasteboard about the size of an ordinary visiting card. The writing, though dimmed by age, is clearly legible, and would be recognized at once by those familiar with the angular hand of the martyred president. There is no circumlocution or legal verbiage about it. It goes straight to the point, as follows:

"If David Levy shall enlist and serve faithfully for one year, or until otherwise honorably discharged, I will pardon him for the past. A. Lincoln. "January 12, 1865."

It will be observed that technically considered this is not a pardon, but only the promise of a pardon. However, David Levy was able to show that he had faithfully carried out the conditions fixed by the president, and the pension department corrected the records and granted him a pension.

The Too Strenuous Life. "I am willing to go to jail or fishing with you if you can find my store without a customer from six to six any day in the year," said a merchant to a drummer, who asked for a moment of his time. But it is not well to live a life too strenuous—better hire another man or two and pass prosperously down the line rather than go to jail or die before your time. It is wise to fish occasionally. Dollars afford little consolation when aches fill your bones and there is no pleasure in meat or drink either.

Freaks of Fortune. In January of last year a murderer named Helfert had just been sentenced in Moravia to penal servitude for life when he learned that he had won a prize of $10,000 in the state lottery, and a few weeks earlier Ernesto Hijar was buried in a pauper's grave at Barcelona on the very day on which a ticket found in his possession won a prize of $40,000 in the Spanish national lottery.

Sterilized Water for Navy. Dr. Le Mehaute suggests that on French war vessels water that has been sterilized by heat should be substituted for the distilled water at present used, which, in his opinion, is open to many grave objections, including excessive costliness.

Armored Motor Car. Heavy haulage work, such as that of stores, munitions and even heavy guns, is already done by motor in the Austrian army. Now the Austrians are going to have armored motor cars, each carrying a quick-firing gun.

Little Destitution in Japan. There is said to be no real destitution in Japan. Though some are very poor, yet all seem to be well fed, clothed and housed and are invariably cheerful and what is more surprising invariably clean.

Dodd's Kidney Pills build up Run-down People. They make healthy Kidneys and that means healthy people. What Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Duffey say:

Nora, Ind., Feb. 6th.—(Special)—That the sure way of building up run-down men and women is to put their kidneys in good working order is shown by the experience of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph L. Duffey of this place. Both were weak and worn and dispirited. They used Dodd's Kidney Pills and to-day both enjoy the best of health.

Mr. Duffey says: "I was very weak and almost past going. I tried everything which people said was good but got no benefit till I tried Dodd's Kidney Pills. They helped me in every way and I am strong and well now."

Mrs. Duffey says: "I was so bad that if anybody would lay down a string I felt I could not step over it. Since taking Dodd's Kidney Pills I can run and jump fences."

Healthy kidneys insure pure blood; Dodd's Kidney Pills insure healthy kidneys.

Women in Our Hospitals

Appalling Increase in the Number of Operations Performed Each Year—How Women May Avoid Them.

Going through the hospitals in our large cities one is surprised to find such a large proportion of the patients lying on those snow-white beds women and girls, who are either awaiting or recovering from serious operations.

Why should this be the case? Simply because they have neglected themselves. Ovarian and womb troubles are certainly on the increase among the women of this country—they creep upon them unawares, but every one of those patients in the hospital beds had plenty of warning in that bearing-down feeling, pain at left or right of the womb, nervous exhaustion, pain in the small of the back, leucorrhoea, dizziness, faintness, displacements of the womb or irregularities. All of these symptoms are indications of an unhealthy condition of the ovaries or womb, and if not heeded the penalty must be paid by a dangerous operation. When these symptoms manifest themselves, do not drag along until you are obliged to go to the hospital and submit to an operation—but remember that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has saved thousands of women from surgical operations.

When women are troubled with irregular, suppressed or painful menstruation, weakness, leucorrhoea, displacement or ulceration of the womb, that bearing-down feeling, inflammation of the ovaries, backache, bloating (or flatulency), general debility, indigestion, and nervous prostration, or are beset with such symptoms as dizziness, lassitude, excitability, irritability, nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, "all-gone" and "want-to-be-left-alone" feelings, they should remember there is one tried and true remedy.

The following letters cannot fail to bring hope to despairing women.

Mrs. Fred Seydel, 413 N. 54th Street, West Philadelphia, Pa., writes: Dear Mrs. Pinkham: "I was in a very serious condition when I wrote to you for advice. I had a serious womb and ovarian trouble and I could not carry a child to maturity, and was advised that an operation was my only hope of recovery. I could not bear to think of going to the hospital, so wrote you for advice. Had you instructed me and took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I am not only a well woman to-day, but have a beautiful baby girl six months old. I advise all sick and suffering women to write you for advice, as you have done so much for me."

Miss Ruby Mushrush, of Chicago, Ill., writes: Dear Mrs. Pinkham: "I have been a great sufferer with irregular menstruation and ovarian trouble, and about three months ago the doctor, after using the X-Ray on me, said I had an abscess on the ovaries and would have to have an operation. My mother wanted me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound as a last resort, and it not only saved me from an operation but made me entirely well."

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, at once removes such troubles, and you need the best. Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. Her advice and medicine have restored thousands to health. Address, Lynn, Mass.

All Run Down

THIS is a common expression we hear on every side. Unless there is some organic trouble, the condition can doubtless be remedied. Your doctor is the best adviser. Do not dose yourself with all kinds of advertised remedies—get his opinion. More than likely you need a concentrated fat food to enrich your blood and tone up the system.

Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil is just such a food in its best form. It will build up the weakened and wasted body when all other foods fail to nourish. If you are run down or emaciated, give it a trial: it cannot hurt you. It is essentially the best possible nourishment for delicate children and pale, anaemic girls. We will send you a sample free.

Be sure that this picture in the form of a label is on the wrapper of every bottle of Emulsion you buy.

Fraud Exposed.
A few counterfeiters have lately been making and trying to sell imitations of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, and other medicines, thereby defrauding the public.

This is to warn you to beware of such people, who seek to profit, through stealing the reputation of remedies which have been successfully curing disease, for over 35 years. A sure protection, to you, is our name on the wrapper. Look for it on all Dr. King's, or Bucklen's, remedies, as all others are mere imitations. H. R. BUCKLEN & CO., Chicago, Ill., and Windsor, Canada. T. H. Fritz, Cass City; F. A. Francis, Kingston.

SHALL WE DISPUTE

The Statements of Scores of Michigan Citizens.

The people of Michigan, like other American citizens, desire to "get at the bottom" of everything. They want to know the whys and wherefores. When investigation leads to the most positive proof it is hard to dispute the evidence.

Doan's is born of experience, and conviction should follow the evidence of people we know. The testimony of friends and neighbors can be easily proven and vouched for. There are many cases like the following, all from people here at home, and if the reader is still a skeptic why not investigate further, the way is open.

Mrs. E. S. Kimbell, of 514 West Kalamazoo street, Lansing, says: "For years I was a sufferer with pains across my back, frequently radiating up under the shoulder blades. In the early morning, long before my rising hour, across my loins became so lame and sore that I was unable to sleep and was compelled to get up. A weakness of the kidney secretions existed and my limbs and hands have been puffed and swelled and felt as if they were on fire. I obtained Doan's Kidney Pills at Gardner & Robertson's drug store and though they have not radically cured me, whenever I noticed an attack of kidney complaint I took a box or so and up to the present time they have never failed to bring relief. In this way I have taken four or five boxes during the past two years."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name, Doan's, and take no substitute.

CURES STOMACH TROUBLES

THE body gets its life from food properly digested. Healthy digestion means pure blood for the body, but stomach troubles arise from carelessness in eating and stomach disorders upset the entire system. Improperly masticated food sours on the stomach, causing distressing pains, belching and nausea.

When over-eating is persisted in the stomach becomes weakened and worn out and dyspepsia claims the victim.

Doan's Black-Draught cures dyspepsia. It frees the stomach and bowels of congested matter and gives the stomach invigorated and the natural stimulation results in a good appetite, with the power to thoroughly digest food.

You can build up your stomach with this mild and natural remedy. Try Doan's Black-Draught today. You can buy a package from your dealer for 25c. If he does not keep it, send the money to The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn., and a package will be mailed you.
