

JOANNE SATTELBERG has resigned as Elmwood Township clerk after 15 years.

Clerk retires

Joanne Sattelberg looks back at 15 years serving township

Joanne Sattelberg paused, reflected for a moment, and said that the changes in the work and the possible retirement of her husband, Vincent, were the reasons that she decided to end her career as Elmwood Township clerk.

She will be hard to replace, declared Supervisor Jim Turner, who has worked with Sattelberg for the 15 years she devoted to the affairs of the township. She will be missed, that's for sure, he said.

The rest of the town board evidently shares his feeling as they adopted and published a resolution commending her for her work.

I took this job, Sattelberg explained, because I like to be involved and to help. Certainly, not for the money, said the mother of 3 as she sat at the table in the spacious kitchen that looks out at the obviously prosperous spick-and-span farm on Dickerson Road.

She was appointed to fill a vacancy in June 1976 and at the time the salary was $600 a year. Now it is $3,500. Normally, Sattelberg estimated, the job takes about 8 hours a month except when elections are held and long hours are required to get the vote tally completed.

Over the last several years the retiring clerk had considered giving up the job, but stayed because she enjoyed it. It was nice being on the inside, knowing what was going on, being part of it, she said. Sattelberg also explained that she enjoys helping out. That's why I spend from 12 to 16 hours a week doing volunteer work in the stock room at Hills and Dales Hospital.

What pushed her into retirement was the state-mandated conversion to computer operation. That would take additional training and

Vandals strike Rolling Hills

Thefts continue to plague Rolling Hills, according to Tuscola County Sheriff's deputies, who reported another incident of larceny at the Cass City golf course early last week.

Owner John Maharg told deputies 6 flag poles were taken off the first 6 greens along with 7 sets of tee markers and new netting placed between 2 holes.

Total value of the items is estimated at $688.

Maharg has been the victim of several larcenies, including a recent break-in and theft of a cash register, which was later recovered.

Also recently, deputies investigated the theft of a VCR from a Cass City area residence.

Augusta B. Gillespie, 4892 Green Rd., said the theft occurred April 22 between 2 and 6 p.m. Estimated value of the item is $225.

Council okays parking lot $100,000 purchase

A vote in favor of purchasing a parking lot in Cass City and a request for annexation highlighted a brief Village Council meeting Monday night.

The council unanimously voted to buy the parking lot, located south of Church Street between Seeger and Leach streets, from Thomas H. Jackson and Kathleen A. Jackson for a total price of $100,000.

Terms of the purchase are no down payment and a 10-year land contract at an interest rate of 9 percent.

The village has leased the lot for the past several years, according to village officials, who were also presented Monday with proposed renewal of a 3-year lease.

The lease calls for a per month rate of $500, a $30 per month increase over 1989, and stipulates that the village re-surface the lot by Oct. 30, 1991.

Council members, including village President Protem K. Michael Weaver, indicated buying the land would be a good move towards continuing to offer customers downtown parking not available in other communities.

Weaver and village Manager Lou S. LaPonsie pointed out the village could have just about purchased the parking lot with the combined amount spent renting the property since 1976 ($80,486). And, they added, the village would spend about $93,842 in lease payments over the next 10 years if the lease arrange-

LaPonsie added that another $6,600 can be added to that figure to cover the cost of re-surfacing the lot.

Turning to the annexation, 3 representatives of the Cass City-Gagetown Knights of Columbus requested that the council approve annexation of a 7 1/2-acre parcel located west of Cemetery Road, just north of the Union 76 gas station, for the purpose of building a lodge.

The intended uses of the building would include meetings, weekly bingo and small parties, such as for weddings and showers.

K of C representative LaVern Rutkoski told the council that the land, which is contiguous to the village by virtue of a village-owned railroad right-of-way, has not yet been purchased because of concerns regarding annexation, including use of village sewer and water.

Council members indicated they have no problem with the proposed annexation, but that the request must first go to the village Planning Commission, which will make a recommendation to the council within 3 months.

In other business during the 35-minute monthly meeting, the council:

*Gave final approval to a rezoning request made by C.R. Hunt Construction Co., 4452 West St.

The rezoning, from Office-Service to General Business, involves 4 lots bordering Pine Street, between West and Leach streets.

*Re-scheduled its next monthly meeting from May 28 (Memorial Day) to May 29 at 7 p.m.

*Continued the long tradition of appointing the newest council trustee (Leslie Karr) as Memorial Day Parade chairperson. Trustee Matt Prieskorn will serve as Karr's assistant.

Evergreen School closing

Little concern in Deford

There appeared to be little concern among the estimated 40 persons who attended the second of 2 meetings exploring the closing of Evergreen School, Monday night at Deford School.

Probably because the plan called for closing Evergreen rather than Deford, the talk centered around what the proposal would mean in terms of class size in Deford and in Cass City.

There appeared to be no objection to the plan of transporting all fourth and fifth graders to Cass City.

Supt. Ken Micklash was closely questioned about the plan for erecting a new building to house the automobile repair garage. When asked if it would be less expensive to farm out the work, he said that the fleet with a mechanic hired full time has proven to be much less costly than it was when the bus work was done in local shops. In addition, he continued, we do not have the 3 major franchises that we had when the work was hired.

It is expected that the new garage and the conversion of the present shop for classrooms would cost some $60,000. Many persons at the Deford meeting and at the Evergreen meeting the previous week felt that this cost estimate was too low.

Trustee Fred Mathews was asked what he felt was the sentiment about the Evergreen closing in the Evergreen area. He said that he felt that the majority was against it.

The reason for the suggested closing is excess capacity due to declining enrollment. What the school board must consider at its next meeting the third Monday in May is balancing the effect of the closing on district residents against savings of $50,000 a year or more and the elimination of split classes. As he did in the previous meeting, Micklash outlined the savings, the bus plan and what he felt were the pros and cons of the program.

Urge caution

Cass City police are urging area residents to exercise caution regarding door-to-door solicitations.

The word of caution stems from several calls recently received by police from residents questioning the validity of students soliciting funds in the area for the Muscular Dystrophy Association.

Police Chief Gene Wilson said members of the Tri-County Student Council, composed of representatives from student councils in Tuscola, Sanilac and Huron counties, is conducting a legitimate fund raising campaign under the sponsorship of the MDA.

Still, residents should be cautious when approached by someone asking for a donation, Wilson pointed out.

"Any person donating should get a receipt on the spot with the collector's (signature) on it," he said, adding persons who donate with a check should make it out to the Muscular Dystrophy Association.

National Honor Society

Outstanding Cass City students recognized

Nineteen students from Cass City High School were inducted into membership of the National Honor Society in a ceremony held Tuesday evening, April 24. The induction program, planned by Karen Wallace and Kathleen Jackson, honor society advisors, was held in the Cass City High School gymnasium.

National Honor Society recognizes outstanding students who are very much involved in the life of the school and community. Students with consistent, above average performance gain this acknowledgement. Additions to the Society's membership are made each spring by a faculty council from a list of students who meet the requirements.

To be eligible sophomores, juniors and seniors must have at least a 3.0 average. Additionally, potential members must meet high standards in leadership, service and character.

Leadership is based on the student's participation in 2 or more community or school activities or election to an office. To meet the service requirement, the student must be active in 3 or more service projects to the school or community. Character is measured in terms of integrity, behavior, ethics, and cooperation with both students and

National Honor Society membership certificates were presented to the new members by counselor, Wayne Dillon. High school principal, Russell Biefer, presented Michael Bills, Steven Bills, Janet Eria and Kenneth Micklash with an honor award recognizing their 4,000 grade point average compiled over the past 4 years. This average represents perfect academic achievement in their high school career.

The National Honor Society ranks as one of the oldest and most prestigious national organizations for high school students. Chapters exist in three-fourths of the nation's schools, and since 1921 more than 12 million students have been selected to membership. Millions of dollars in scholarships have been awarded to senior members since 1972 by the sponsoring organization, the National Association of Secondary School Principals.

WAYNE DILLON, school counselor, leads the applause during the annual installation of students into the National Honor Society.

Engaged

Kathy Tuckey Dave Collins

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Tuckey announce the engagement of their daughter, Kathy, to Dave Collins, of Scottsdale, AZ.

Miss Tuckey, who moved to Phoenix in 1984, is employed at Squaw Peak Medical. Collins, who also moved to the Phoenix area in 1984, is working at famous restaurants in Scottsdale. The wedding date has been set for Sept. 1.

Regular readers will recall that a few months ago I single-handedly took on the herculean task of organizing the 1,750,000 snapshots that had accumulated in our window seat over a 25-year period.

On either side of that window seat are built-in book shelves, covering the whole east wall.

Second only to our passion for taking pictures, is our love of books.

We don't read all that much, but we love books!

The book shelves reached their capacity in 1971, and we've been cramming them in there ever since.

Sorting those books has been my latest project.

The hardest part was getting started. I finally mustered all my determination and hauled all the books out onto the floor, on the premise that if I once got them out, I'd have to do something with them. You can only ignore a room with books all over the floor for so long.

I looked at them for a day and a half, then took the plunge and started sorting.

Reference books seemed like a good place to begin.

We got rid of our set of encyclopedias 2 garage sales ago, contending that on the rare occasion we might use them, there's a magnificent library a block away. However, we have enough Bible commentaries, dictionaries and study books to start our own church.

Some of the books were here when we moved in, including a 2-volume set called "Great Men and Famous Women." Of course, I had to leaf through them to see what great and famous people were listed back in 1894.

An old "Roget's Treasury of Words" copyrighted 1922, begged to be compared with the modern thesaurus.

The old, beat-up "New English Reader" was definitely going to be tossed...until I opened it to "Elegy Written in a Country Churchyard." I hadn't read that in ages.

That took care of the first day.

The second day, I came across an old "Guinness Book of World Records." No doubt the record's been broken since 1974, but it's certainly interesting to know that at that time it was held by Ronald Hamilton of Australia, who carried an 8-1/2 pound brick 40 miles without dropping or resting.

Another Australian (Those Aussies know how to have a good time) balanced continuously on one foot for 6-1/2 hours.

I also checked records for clapping, being buried alive and coin balancing, to name a few. Fascinating stuff!

My progress was admittedly slow that day, too.

Eventually the books were all sorted and we had 2 large boxes full of volumes that we could live without.

I kept reminding myself that if we hadn't looked at it in 20 years, chances are good that we really don't need it. Besides, the library is still down the street.

The big question on everyone's mind now is how long it will take us to refill those empty shelves.

VILLAGE OF CASS CITY

Rabbit Tracks

by John Haire
(And anyone else he can get to help.)

There is a new 8-division alignment dividing Michigan schools by size for competition in football, replacing the former system with 4 classes. Previously classes were A-B-C-D. Added to this now are AA-BB-CC-DD. Within the various classes, the schools with the largest numbers in their class will receive a double letter designation. Because Cass City is a large C under the old system, it will be a CC under the new.

Practically, what does it mean? It's probable that schools like Deckerville will not be required to play Cass City. It also allows twice as many schools into the tournament.

Under the system it's likely that a school with just one defeat would make it into the playoffs, maybe with more than one.

Off the top of my head I can remember at least 2 years when Cass City would have waltzed into the tournament under the new system, something that we never have been able to accomplish under the old.

Here's another gem from that booklet of predictions for the year 2001.

"A minuscule transistor will increase computer chip processing speed 100 times. Too tiny to be seen with even the most powerful light microscope, it will be able to switch on and off in a trillionth of a second."

Won't it be great when those things malfunction?

Tuesday was law day in Michigan. According to a report from the State Bar of Michigan, many events have been sponsored by law groups to celebrate. This year's theme is "Generations of Justice."

No special observance has been announced in Tuscola County or Sanilac County. Huron County is holding a people's law school. Although not in progress now, the Tuscola County Bar Association sponsored a school earlier in the year.

A wedding reception on Saturday and a turkey dinner on Sunday add up to a lost (diet) weekend.

FOR THE FOURTH time the Cass City-Gagetown Knights of Columbus have made a donation to the Rawson Memorial Library. Presenting a check to Barbara Hutchinson, librarian, is Ron Rutkoski, grand knight of the council. The money, $180, will be used to pay for postage for the library newsletter.

Over 9 days Firemen respond to 4 fires

Elkland Township fire fighters responded to 4 fires over the past 9 days, including a blaze that destroyed a 1980 Chevrolet Citation at the Tendecare nursing home in Cass City.

The car fire was reported Saturday at about 2:30 p.m., fire Chief Dick Root said.

The owner, Janet Marker, 5505 Shabbona Rd., Decker, an employee of Tendecare, indicated she heard a noise as she pulled into the parking lot. Root said she acted quickly, parking away from other vehicles in the lot.

Firemen were called to 3 grass fires April 23.

The first was reported at 4:10 p.m. at the Robert Wiederhold residence, 4664 Williamson Rd., Gagetown, according to Root, who said grass and leaf burning near the residence had sparked a small grass fire. The blaze was out when firemen arrived, he said.

About 2 hours later and a half-mile away, fire fighters were called to the intersection of McAlpin and Williamson roads to assist the Elmwood-Gagetown Fire Department and the DNR in extinguishing a grass fire.

The fire scorched a little over 4 acres, according to

4 inducted into CMU honorary

Four area residents attending Central Michigan University are among those who were inducted Saturday into Sigma Iota Epsilon, a scholastic business administration and management honorary.

Sigma Iota Epsilon awards membership to students who demonstrate outstanding academic achievement.

The local students are Jude Patnaude, a graduate student from Cass City; Michelle McPhail, a junior from Owendale, and Rochelle Puvalowski and Pamela Briolat, a pair of juniors from Ubyly.

DNR officials, who said the cause has not been determined.

Another call followed at 8:47 p.m., Root said, adding fire burned about 3/4 of an acre near the Paul Dow residence, 6259 Seeger Rd., Cass City. Cause of the fire is unknown, he said.

The school in Pinconning, which featured a brand new gym when I was a freshman, was torn down and now is a motel-restaurant and has been for perhaps 25 years or more.

So? Nothing, really. There was no nostalgia when the hammering ball did its work. It was inevitable at the time.

I thought of that when the meeting was held to determine the fate of the Evergreen School. The difference, I admitted to myself, was that as a kid none of my hard earned dollars went into the building.

Regardless of what reasons are advanced, the principal objection to the proposal was that "you are trying to take our school away from us."

There is no way of knowing if the sentiment for closing is as strong among all residents in the Evergreen service area as it was at the meeting. There is evidently a softening of the resentment. One life-long resident told me "we sweated and sacrificed to get that school and I certainly hate to see it go, but times change...."

What won't go away is that operating the 3 schools in the district is an unnecessary expense and will continue to grow as teachers' salaries escalate and inflation continues. Running an extra building costs a half mill in taxes now and that's just a start.

It was suggested that Deford school be closed and Evergreen remain open. If Evergreen is closed, it's argued, the property reverts back to the heirs of the original owners. If Deford closes, the school retains the property.

The trouble is, many believe, that there is no market for the building in the rural Shabbona area.

One suggestion that came up deserves careful consideration when a school building is abandoned. That is the bus routes. Routes are essentially the same as they were when the districts consolidated with Cass City.

It was pointed out that some students living closer to Cass City went to Deford and to Evergreen.

Makes sense to me to bus the children to the nearest available building.

Sure, it will cause more trouble for the board. They promise to have plenty of it if plans for closing progress beyond the talk stage. What's a little more?

Given the population trends, it appears inevitable that the district will need to address the problem sooner or later.

In fairness, a careful documentation of the reason for selecting Evergreen rather than Deford should be clearly spelled out.

Perhaps a straw ballot district-wide to see if the support for closing is widespread.

I suppose Deford will be for closing Evergreen and vice versa.

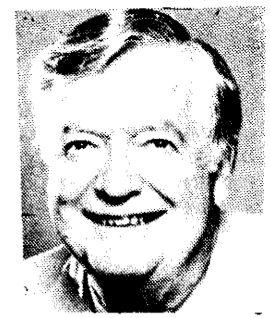

It's sure that 100 percent will be for saving $50,000 or more every year, and sooner or later that will result in the closing of a building in the district.

I see no good reason to wait.

"If It Fitz..."

Rotten racist?

By Jim Fitzgerald

The woman on the phone called me a "rotten racist." It happened April 9, 1990. I wrote down the date because it is memorable. I also wrote: "Cousin Al will get a kick out of this."

I've never before been called a racist to my face. Not individually, all by my little old self. When Mayor Coleman Young and his sycophants call the local news media racist, I understand I'm probably included. But that's not the same as a one-on-one, in-your-face insult.

Group insults are diluted by their very nature. They are often blanket judgments based on handkerchief-sized offenses, spread recklessly, covering far more people than could possibly be guilty. They are often unfair, not worth a response, and, well... racist.

The phone caller was responding to something I'd written about Mayor Young. She said I criticized him because he's black and I'm not. I was sorely stung, and surprised. All my adult life, often because of my written opinions, I've been called something very different, a word so offensive that this newspaper deletes most of it: "N—lover."

STARTING FIGHT AGAINST RACISM

In my desk there is a bulging file folder labeled "Racism." It contains almost 40 years' worth of columns that earned me that epithet-deleted description. One of them, written in 1963 for the Lapeer County Press, explains how it all started:

"It was during World War II. I was a chaplain's assistant, of all things, in the Army. Before then, I'd been an ignorant teenager, probably aware that a man could get shortchanged because of his color, but not really caring much because, well, I was an ignorant teenager."

"It was at Camp Polk, La. Part of my job was to drive the chaplain, about one Sunday a month, across the tracks to the other side of the camp where the Negroes were segregated by the government they were defending.

"The Negro soldiers had their own chapel, their own barracks, their own PX and their own buses to take them to town where they had their own theater entrance, their own drinking fountains and their own USO. And all of their own facilities were several cuts below that available to the white soldiers.

"To me, it was obviously an immoral, illegal, un-Christian—and uneconomical—setup. My fellow soldiers, many of them Southern, disagreed. We argued loudly, and for the first hundreds of times, I was called a—lover."

I've never stopped arguing against racism, blatantly institutionalized or politely covert. In 1967, when my oldest daughter was in college, she was asked out by a young black man. She sought my advice, and I put it in a column:

"There is no way I can advise her to pick a husband, or a date, by the color of his skin. I defy anyone to explain to me how and why a man should be automatically disqualified from ANY pursuit because his skin is black, white, yellow, red or green. Try to shake off the prejudices; forget the emotions. Just tell me, logically, how such a thing can be justified. It is as easy to justify the murder of 6 million Jews for being Jewish.

"Jerks come in all colors. So do the good guys. None of them wear labels. If you try to judge them at a glance, you'll make as many mistakes as a clerk filing papers in a dark closet."

End of old quotes. Today, they sound sophomoric, patronizing, and I blush. But they were pretty strong stuff 45 years ago, when shouted at white soldiers, or 30 years ago, when written for an all-white readership. Cousin Al was only one of many who said if I felt that way, I should leave my little all-Caucasian city and go live with "them" in Detroit.

Eventually I did, and now, 15 years later, I've been called a racist for rapping Mayor Young. Oh my, I can hear Cousin Al laughing 65 miles away.

I deny the charge. There was a time when I believed—and wrote—that Young was the best possible mayor for Detroit. But in recent years his arrogance has overcome his judgment. His only reaction to justified criticism is to holler "racism." Mayor Young is now hurting Detroit as much as he used to help it.

I would say exactly the same thing if he were white. Anyone who calls me a racist is full of another word this newspaper won't print.

CHEMICALS

ENVIRONMENT

BIG FEARS - LITTLE RISKS

CONSIDER THESE FACTS ABOUT THE USE OF FARM CHEMICALS.

- ★ We have the best health protection from pests among all nations, the least percentage of property damage, and the lowest post-crop food losses in the world.
- ★ The quality, quantity and variety of foods we enjoy today contribute to longevity. Since 1900, the average life span of a child born in the United States has increased from 47.3 years to 74.7 years, according to the National Center for Health Statistics.
- ★ Natural carcinogens are present in such common foods as mushrooms, parsley, basil, celery, cola, wine, beer, mustard, peanut butter, bread, lima beans and hundreds of others.
- ★ The amount of carcinogenic pesticides consumed in our daily diet is one-twentieth of the amount of naturally occurring carcinogens in a single cup of coffee.
- ★ The amount of carcinogens in the browned and burned food we eat is hundreds of times greater than the carcinogens contained in severely polluted air.
- ★ Due to efficiency of agriculture in the USA, 2% of the population produces food for the remaining 98%, plus an additional 35 billion of commodities to other countries.
- ★ Food is a necessity - not a luxury.
- ★ Pesticides are the least understood and most controversial chemicals in use in our society. Their value is questioned by many people, who perceive them as unsafe and unnecessary chemicals.
- ★ Farm chemicals protect crops from insects, weeds and diseases. Without crop protection, food prices would jump 40 to 75 percent, according to university studies. Shortages, lower quality would be common.
- ★ The saccharin in a diet cola is 45 times less risky than the risk from the amount of formaldehyde (a natural carcinogen) in the same beverage.
- ★ The risk from consuming all major pesticides in a typical diet is 30 times less than the risk from drinking ordinary tap water, 100 times less than the risk from natural carcinogens in raw mushrooms, 400 times less than the risk of eating a typical sandwich, and thousands of times less than the risk of natural carcinogens in beer, wine, and cola drinks.
- ★ The risk of getting cancer from drinking tap water for a year is less than the risk of cancer from increased exposure to cosmic radiation during two round trip flights between Los Angeles and New York.
- ★ Fruit juices have varying amounts of carcinogenic mold toxins, depending on how many moldy fruits were processed. The level of these carcinogens would increase substantially if fungicides were not available.
- ★ The average life expectancy in the United States was 47 years in 1900; by 1930 it had increased to 60 years; that figure climbed to 70 years by 1960. Today's life expectancy is 75 years. A primary reason for this 37% increase has been an adequate supply of healthy food.
- ★ America has the best food protection system in the world. The Food and Drug Administration, the Environmental Protection Agency, and the Department of Agriculture all play a vital role in ensuring that American consumers have plentiful, quality foods. Pesticides, which protect crops against harmful insects and diseases, are a vital component of the best food production system in the world today.
- ★ The pesticide ethylene dibromide (EDB) was recently banned because it had been shown to cause cancer in rodents. Yet the average amount of EDB in a normal diet was 1,000 times less risky than the natural carcinogens in two slices of bread. EDB is still one of the safest ways known to combat molds, which produce some of the most potent carcinogens in all of nature.
- ★ Without pest control services, over 50 percent of our food crops would be destroyed each year.

Turkey time!

40-year tradition continues at Lutheran church

The smart ones, the hungry ones and all those that appreciate good food were waiting for an annual rite of spring in Cass City, the turkey dinner at the Good Shepherd Lutheran Church.

When it arrived Sunday they were not disappointed. It was all there. The succulent turkey and dressing, the mashed potatoes and gravy, the corn, the cranberry and gelatin salad, the homemade rolls and the homemade pies. It was there just as it has been for 40 years, an integral part of the fabric of the congregation as well as a way to meet the financial obligations of the church.

It started before the first church building was erected at the corner of Maple and Garfield in 1948 when nearly every denomination held one or more dinners yearly.

Mrs. Helen Avery recalled the first dinner sponsored by the Lutherans. It was held in the Home Restaurant (where the Coin Shop is now on Main Street) because Mrs. Orval Hutchinson, a member, owned the business. In 1949 it moved to Cass City High School and then into the various church buildings.

With that first dinner the sponsors didn't know what to expect and it showed. We had people lined up outside waiting to get in. We ran out of turkey and charged across the street to Fort's to get some ham, Mrs. Avery said. We ran out of vegetables and bread and just about everything and went to Hartwick's Grocery (owned by Arlan Hartwick, still an active member) to buy what we could. After it was over, the men went across the street and had a beer.

Over the years major problems like this have been cured, but there is a variance in the demand from year-to-year for reasons no one has been able to figure out. Some years everything is sold, others there is enough remaining to be auctioned to church members.

Just once in the last 40 years has a year gone by without the dinner. That came when a pastor, the Rev. Richard Eyer, felt that holding a dinner and charging for it was not the thing to do.

It caused a minor storm of protest, and the dinner was revived the next year. The people felt that holding the dinner was something that was good for the congregation, in addition to helping meet expenses.

Now in the spirit of Christian fellowship, 10 percent of the profits is donated to a worthy charity instead of using all of it to pay local church obligations.

It doesn't amount to a magnificent amount in today's economy considering the work it entails. Last year the net was a little over $2,000.

How much the dinner would have lost if anyone received any money for the work is hard to estimate. Certainly the dinner would end in the red.

Work on the dinner starts in the home of most of the members of the congregation the day before when the turkeys are baked. Saturday they are taken to the church and carved from the bone.

It was a little easier this year because the turkeys were boneless. Another work lightener was the purchase of the rolls instead of home baking them.

When the dinner was held at the school in 1948 the charge for adults was $1.50 and for children $1.00. It was a real bargain then, but nothing compared to the inflation fighting price today.

Sunday adults were charged $5 and children $2.50, making this old-fashioned dinner a real old-fashioned bargain.

One that promises to be available next year and in the years that follow in the foreseeable future.

much more work, and she decided that with retirement in mind it would be better for her replacement to become acquainted with the new system.

There have certainly been more ups than downs in the 15 years that she served, Sattelberg points out. One of the downs was during the decade-long fight over the division of land between Owen-Gage and Cass City schools. We were in the "Goslin" parcel that transferred to Cass City, Sattelberg said. However, we never got harassed too much, possibly because we have a Caro phone. Still it was a trying time for us and everyone else.

The Sattelbergs have lived at their present home since 1966 and owned land in the area since 1958, when 120 acres was purchased.

The Sattelbergs have 3 children, Margie White, 36; Jim, 35, and Richard, 30.

OVER 600 DINNERS WERE served at the annual turkey dinner sponsored by the Good Shepherd Lutheran Church in Cass City. Some of the patrons waited an hour to be served.

Blind, visually impaired services aired

U.S. Senator Donald Riegle is pleased to announce several new services now available through the U.S. Senate designed to help blind and visually impaired constituents. Brochures, maps of the capitol, and information about special services available in Washington can now be provided either in braille or large print. These services will also enable Riegle to reply to correspondences, assist those in need with government related problems, and offer up-to-date information on current issues.

Riegle's Michigan offices are also equipped with a telecommunication device for the deaf to assist hearing impaired constituents. The TDD telephone number is (517) 337-1899.

Fox resigns after alleged incident

The Cass City School Board accepted the resignation of Jim Fox, custodian and bus driver superintendent, last week because of his alleged relations with a student.

Fox had been an employee of the school for 14 years. He will remain on the school payroll until May 26, when his vacation time expires. His post will temporarily be filled by Clayton Sawdon until a replacement is hired.

Supt. Ken Micklash said that the job was to have been posted Monday to give interested persons an opportunity to apply as required in the school union contract.

In addition to his regular duties, Fox served as girls' softball coach and also as golf coach, although he held neither job when he resigned.

His work at the school was his second career job. He served in the United States Army and rose to the rank of colonel before retiring.

His 14 years in the school system leaves him fully vested for retirement benefits.

ONE OF THE DELICACIES is the wide array of pies baked in the homes of the church members. Serving are Pat Easton, front, and Iva Peterson, right.

Christian Mothering Day to be held in Pigeon

Area women are invited to a Christian Mothering Day May 12 at Cross Lutheran Church in Pigeon.

Emphasis will be on learning to apply Biblical principles to the profession of motherhood. The day long event will feature 2 keynote addresses and 6 smaller learning sessions, which will include group participation.

Keynote sessions "As For Me . . ." (morning) "And My House . . ." (afternoon) will be presented by Matilda Kipfer, well-known speaker from Phoenix, Ariz. She ministers to women around the world, as well as being a retreat leader and speaker for many church groups in the United States.

Christian mothers air meet

The April meeting of St. Columbkille's Christian Mothers was conducted by President Carolyn Mandich. Fifteen members were present.

Special thanks was given to those who helped clean the church for Easter, Charlotte Baker for purchasing Easter flowers for the altar and the ladies who have been working on the quilt for the barbecue raffle.

The committee chairmen for upcoming receptions are: First Communion - Paulette Maurer, Confirmation - Kay Sweeney and Graduation - Helen Morley.

Next month's meeting will start at 7:00 p.m. with an 8:00 Mass following. Pat Heleski will be Eucharistic minister.

A parish Mother/Daughter banquet has been set for May 23 at 6:00 p.m.

A list was distributed for volunteers to bake extra cookies for the Confirmation reception.

At next month's meeting, election of officers will be held.

The hostesses for the May meeting will be Glenda Cielinski, Jean and Augustine Gretch.

The gift winners at the April meeting were Catherine Willing and Pat Heleski.

Burns wins national award

Lucielle Burns of Ubyly was one of 150 Stanley salespersons nationally who recently received the "All Star Fund Raising Award" in recognition of outstanding achievement as a fund raising specialist.

Burns has been with Stanley Home Products for 3 years, and works with local organizations such as the T.V.O. Women's Auxiliary, Senior Girls' Softball, Caro Eagles Club and various other groups, helping them raise funds for programs and activities.

Burns was presented the award at a recent sales rally, and has also won other awards.

Mothers have a choice of attending 2 of the following sessions: "Devotional Life for Mothers" by Joan Nosal, a young mother of 5 small children from Cleveland Heights, Ohio; "New Life . . . New Love!" (the infant) by Sheri Lynn Essian, a Bad Axe mother of a new infant and 2 preschoolers; "Preparing Your Child for School" by Susan Hass, mother and teacher from Bad Axe; "Older Women as Mentors to Younger Women" by Matilda Kipfer; "Godly Submission" by Matilda Kipfer, and "Attitudes . . . Servant or Slave?" by Bernice Shupe, mother of 7 sons from Elkton.

Fathers are also welcome to attend this ninth annual event. There have been congregations represented from all over the state of Michigan in past years.

Child care will be provided and hot lunch will be available for purchase.

Pre-registration is available by contacting Eleanor Schadd at 269-7920.

Filing deadline for candidates moved to May 15

Candidates seeking public office in the Aug. 7 primary election will need to file nominating petitions 3 weeks earlier than originally planned under a new Michigan law.

Public Act 7 (House Bill 4974) moves the filing deadlines for partisan and non-partisan candidates to Tuesday, May 15, at 4 p.m. The new law also moves the filing deadline for persons seeking to become precinct delegates to May 8 at 4 p.m.

Secretary of State Richard Austin said his department initiated the change in law so Michigan will comply with changes in the federal Uniformed and Overseas Absentee Voting Act, which provides franchise protections to overseas voters in primary elections.

"By moving the filing deadlines ahead 3 weeks, clerks will be able to make absent voter ballots available June 23, 1990, which is 25 days earlier than in past election years," Austin explained. "This will allow sufficient time for those absent voter ballots to be mailed overseas and returned in time for the Aug. 7 primary election."

In addition to moving the filing deadlines for partisan and non-partisan candidates and precinct delegate candidates ahead, the legislation also requires that local ballot proposals be filed with local clerks no later than May 15 for the August primary election. Certification of proposal wording must occur no later than May 29, 1990.

The change in state law will also move the availability of absent voter ballots for the Nov. 6 general election ahead 3 days. This year, absentee ballots for the November election must be available 45 days prior to the Nov. 6 election.

Public Act 7 affects anyone who plans to file as a Democrat or Republican for one of the following offices this year - governor, U.S. senator, representative in Congress, state senator, state representative, or any county, city or township office - to be nominated at the Aug. 7 primary election.

It also affects anyone filing a petition for appeals court judge, circuit court judge, district court judge, probate judge or any other judicial office to be nominated at the Aug. 7 primary.

The law does not affect the filing deadlines for candidates without a political party affiliation who wish to seek a partisan office in the November general election.

A WREATH FOR THE BRIDE by Lillian O'Donnell (mystery). Gwenn Ramadge, private detective, is hired to investigate the mysterious death of a young bride, Mary Langner, during her honeymoon at sea. The bride's mother maintains that Mary was pushed overboard by her new husband, Clark, but New York police are not willing to press the case due to lack of evidence. After Gwenn clears Clark, she hears of the death of another bride, in which the husband also is the chief suspect. Although the backgrounds of the 2 victims are quite different, Gwenn scents a connection and manages to convince the officer in charge of the second case to let her help in that investigation. After a third murder, this time of a bride-to-be, Gwenn discovers a tie to a dying millionaire.

KEEP THE CHANGE by Thomas McGuane (fiction). Once an artist of some promise, Joe Starling has abandoned his paints and easel out of a clawing need to find some sense of who he is and where he belongs in the world. His search takes him to Key West, New York City, and, ultimately, his boyhood home in Montana, where he thinks he may make a go of it as a cowboy. The author's descriptions of the empty Montana landscape (which serves as an apt metaphor for the emptiness Joe feels within himself) are typically evocative, his dialogue is funny, and his supporting characters of beautiful women, eccentric relatives, and oddball friends is thoroughly engaging.

FANTASIES by Beverly Sasso (fiction). Gorgeous California girl Sloane Taylor breaks free of her domineering mother and runs for New York City. There she launches an international modeling career and marries a business tycoon, whose ex-lover Layla Bronz, editor of the outrageous glossy Realto, gnashes her teeth in fury. Layla sets hungry freelance writer Melon Tuft loose on Sloane, and what rich loam she digs up! Sloane has a kinky addiction to sex with strangers - the Bad Girl Game - that escalates dangerously until she winds up in bed with Mexico's hottest matador, who likes his women rich and bruised.

Hawks, Lakers split doubleheader

Although the Cass City Red Hawks have split the first 4 games played in Thumb B Association baseball competition this season, Coach Doug Hall has to be pleased with the results.

The splits have come against 2 of the stronger schools in the conference, Caro and the Lakers.

Thursday at Laker High the Hawks bounced back to win the second game, 6-3, after losing a tough one in the opener, 8-6.

In the first game Cass City bounced back from a 4-0 deficit to score 6 times. The Lakers scored the first 4 runs in the second, with 3 of them coming on a circuit clout by Esch.

In the 6-run splurge Mark Irner, Greg Graham, Al Dadacki, Jason Robertson, Troy Benitez and Brent Sturtevant singled. Robertson, Benitez and Dadacki each drove in 2 runs.

That was the only bad inning that Bill McLellan had. He allowed only 2 hits and no runs other than those in the third.

Meanwhile, his teammates got to Sturtevant, who was relieved by Mike Francis in the third. Francis took the loss as the Lakers scored twice in the fourth on 3 hits.

SECOND GAME

The win in the second game was doubly satisfying to Cass City fans. Not only did it keep the Hawks in the middle of the title chase, it marked the return of Robertson as a starter.

Plagued by an injured knee, it was doubtful if he was going to play this season, let alone pitch. He was a surprise reliever against Caro and then went the distance for the win against the Lakers.

What's more, he got better as the game progressed. He was touched for 3 hits and 2 runs in the first and another hit and a run in the second, after which he slammed the door, allowing not another hit or run.

Meanwhile, his teammates scored a pair of runs in the first as Graham and Robertson received a life through Laker errors and rode home on a hit by Scott Dillon and a ground out by Benitez.

The Hawks went ahead to stay in the fourth on a single by Graham that drove in a pair of tallies.

Cass City added a pair of insurance runs in the fifth on Sturtevant's single that drove in Dillon, who doubled, and Benitez, who walked.

Robertson was charged with one earned run and struck out 6. Esch took the loss and was touched for 7 hits.

A PAIR OF WRESTLING coaches from the University of Michigan completed a successful recruiting trip Wednesday when Mike Ellsworth, of Caro, signed a letter of intent. While in the area, the coaches stopped to visit Dr. H. T. Donahue, Cass City, a member of the school's wrestling hall of fame and an avid U of M supporter. The group and Dr. Robert Green later had dinner together. From left, coach Dale Bahr, Donahue and assistant coach Joe Wells.

Santos paces Cass City in first league win

Cass City High School girls registered the first win of the year in the Thumb B Association Thursday when visiting Laker High was defeated 94-56.

The Hawks were paced by Keri Santos who won the long jump, 100-meter hurdles, 100-meter dash and ran a leg on the 800 relay team.

She did not run her specialty, 300-meter hurdles, due to her duties on the softball team, but was capably replaced by Amy Ross who took the event. A triple winner for the Lakers was Tracey Henne who won the shot, high jump and 400-meter run.

Cass City won valuable points by winning the 800-meter relay with Jennifer Romstead, Jennifer Nye, Amy Ross and Keri Santos and the 3200 meter relay with Lori Ypma, Tanna Wills, Amy Osantoski and Tina Wills. The girls also won the 200-meter relay with Romstead, Monica Rockwell, Sheila Lesoski and Crystal Leffler.

The winners and the times or distances were:

- Shot - Henne, L, 30'4".
- Discus - Ellenbaum, L, 73'6 1/2".
- Long jump - Santos, CC, 14'9".
- High jump - Henne, L, 4'6".
- 200 relay - Cass City, 13:51-46.
- 100 hurdles - Santos, CC, 17.68.
- 100 M - Santos, CC, 15.04.
- 800 M relay - Cass City, 1:58.20.
- 600 M - Leffler, CC, 6:29.
- 400 M relay - Lakers, 59.24.
- 400 M - Henne, L, 1:07.12.
- 300 M hurdles - Ross, CC, 53.31.
- 800 meter - Barry, L, 2:52.
- 200 meter - Romstead, CC, 26.37.
- 3200 meter - Osantoski, CC, 16.24.

1600 meter relay - Lakers, 5:03.04.

VASSAR MEET

The Hawks lost the opening dual conference meet of the year Tuesday, April 24, to the visiting Vassar Vulcans, 86 1/2 to 65 1/2. It was one of those meets, coach Larry Robinson said, that turned on just a few events which we could have won, but didn't. The Hawks lost 3 out of 4 relay events which are major point producers for the teams.

Santos won 4 events, the long jump, the 200-meter run and the 100 and 300 hurdles.

The Hawks won 9 of the 16 events, but Vassar's strength in the relays and superior depth proved to be decisive.

The winners and the times or distances were:

- Shot - Knoll, V, 31'8".
- Long - Santos, CC, 14'6".
- Discus - Knowlton, CC, 74'8 1/2".
- High jump - Guile, V, 4'6".
- 200 relay - Romstead, Rockwell, Lesoski, Leffler, 11:33.25.
- 100 hurdles - Santos, CC, 18.08.
- 100 M - Hipkins, V, 14.98.
- 1600 M - Leffler, CC, 6:11.82.
- 300 relay - Romstead, Nye, Rutkowski, Ross, CC, 2:04.24.
- 100 M relay - Vanwarner, Vagenski, Brown, Hipkins, V, 57.24.
- 100 M - Romstead, CC, 1:10.36.
- 300 M hurdles - Santos, CC, 52.56.
- 800 M - Withers, V, 2:44.57.
- 200 M - Santos, CC, 29.29.
- 3200 M - Bissle, V, 14:28.
- 1600 M relay - Vassar, 4:50.

Cass City bats offset pitching woes

What Coach Dave Hoard and the Cass City Red Hawks need is a second pitcher to go with Beth Powell to push the Hawk softball team to the top in the rugged Thumb B Association race.

Vandals break windows

Vandals are being blamed for 2 broken windows at the rear of a Main Street business building in Cass City.

Cass City police reported the windows were broken with rocks at 6422 Main St. The property is owned by B.A. Calka of Cass City. Damage is estimated at a total of $75.

The Hawks split Thursday's twin bill with Laker High, winning the first game, 14-4, and losing the second, 17-16.

Because the team desperately needs another pitcher, Hoard is going a long way with Terri Gibson. Gibson can bring the ball with the best of them and when she gets the ball over the plate, can simply overpower a batter.

But she can't find the plate with any consistency while throwing her best stuff.

The Cass City win in the first game wasn't nearly as easy as might be expected by a 14-4 score. The score was tied at 4-all going into the last inning, when Cass City pushed 10 counters across the plate. The Lakers were in front, 1-0, going into the fifth.

Cass City broke out in the fifth with 4 runs on 2 walks, Sue Papp's double and a single by Powell. The Lakers tied that game with a 3-run splurge in their half of the inning, keyed by a triple by Esch.

Cass City banged out 11 hits in the 10-run last inning rampage. Among the hits were home runs by Gibson and Powell.

SECOND GAME

Big innings were the rule rather than the exception in the Laker games. The Hawks nearly made an unbelievable comeback in a bid to pull the game from the fire.

Gibson's wildness, coupled with some shoddy defense and some key base knocks, pushed the Lakers into a 17-0 lead. Gibson was relieved by Powell after being charged with 13 runs. Powell was nicked for 4 runs in the big inning before she settled down and shut out the winners the rest of the way.

Cass City got back in the game with a 7-run third inning and an 8-run splurge in the last inning. Cass City had the tying run on second when the game ended. Kim Morley led the Hawk stickers with 4 hits in 4 tries.

Like Boston, New Jersey had a "tea party" during the mounting friction between the colonies and Great Britain. At Greenwich, near Delaware Bay, young men in Indian costume burned a shipload of tea from England in 1774.

REPRESENTATIVE DICK ALLEN (R-Caro), left, recently took time to view the official "Lake Huron Circle Tour" green and white sign with James Pitz, Director of the Michigan Department of Transportation, and Tracy Weber, director of the East Michigan Tourist Association.

The 1400-mile driving route utilizes the State or Provincial trunk line closest to the Lake Huron shore, and is marked by these green and white signs every ten miles. Although travelers may begin the route at any location, a completed trip would go through two nations: Canada and the United States with the province of Ontario and the state of Michigan sharing friendly borders at Sarnia-Port Huron and the northern twins of Sault Ste. Marie in Michigan's upper peninsula. A guidebook highlighting the attractions, lodging, dining, and unique geographical formations along the route is available by contacting the Michigan Travel Bureau, P.O. Box 30226, Lansing, Michigan 48909, or by calling the tollfree number 1-800-543-2937.

Damms star for O-G

McLaughlins lead Kingston to triangular track win

The good news for the Owen-Gage track teams can be summed up in 2 words. Damm and Damm.

The pair, Andre' and Maelin, who are brother and sister, highlighted the Bulldogs' performance at Kingston last Tuesday in a triangular meet that included Bay City All Saints.

In the boys' competition Kingston's 79 points topped Owen-Gage and All Saints who scored 45 and 40 points respectively.

For the lady thinclads All Saints recorded 85 tallies to best Owen-Gage (36.5) and Kingston (33.5).

The Bulldogs recorded only 5 first place finishes in the meet, 2 each by the Damms in the 100 and 200 yard dash.

The other first place finish for the Bulldogs was posted by Chad Stirrett in the long jump with a leap of 17' 6".

The Damms weren't the only family act of the afternoon, however, as the McLaughlins of Kingston registered 6 first places.

Mike McLaughlin topped the field in the high jump and both the hurdle dashes, while brother Jim finished first in the pole vault with a jump of 10' 6".

Erin McLaughlin, a cousin, took top honors in both the mile and 2 mile run

A complete list of winners and their times and distances are:

Record setter

If speed kills, Owen-Gage's Andre' Damm is one deadly man.

Damm proved that Friday by winning the 100 meter dash at the CMU Relays held in Mount Pleasant.

Damm's time of 10.9 is a new Bulldog school record.

Coach Arnie Besonen, who noted Damm's time was .2 of a second faster than the winning time in Class B competition, was tickled over his thinclad's showing at the meet. "Andre' should do quite well in the state meet," says Besonen.

The Bulldog thinclads also won medals in the 400 (47.4) and 800 (1:38.9) meter relays, finishing 4th and 5th, respectively.

It was the 'Dogs' best showing in a big meet in many years.

Members of the 400 and 800 meter relay teams are Graham Besonen, Mickey Parks, Chad Stirrett and Damm.

LORI ONDRAJKA, Owen-Gage's 3rd baseman, reaches for a ball during the first inning of Thursday's contest with Akron-Fairgrove. The Vikings swept the North Central Thumb League twin bill.

O-G girls fall to A-F, win Caseville twin bill

The Owen-Gage softball team, defending champions of the North Central Thumb League, suffered their worst defeats in 2 years, being blasted by the Akron-Fairgrove Vikings, 17-0 and 21-3.

The losses even the Bulldogs' record at 2-2, as Coach Judy Campbell's squad opened the season Monday on a positive note, downing Caseville, 7-4 and 12-10.

If Thursday's contest with Akron-Fairgrove is any indications, the Bulldogs will have their hands full with any opponent in the NCTL, including North Huron, whom the 'Dogs' face Thursday in their first road game of the season.

Lori Townsend was assigned the pitching duties for the visiting Vikings and responded by going the distance in both games and notching the wins. Townsend bested Bulldog Vicki Ricker in the first game, while Lisa Dorsch took the loss in the late meeting.

In the opener the Bulldogs stayed reasonably close until the 4th inning, when the Vikings capitalized on some shoddy fielding to break open a 7-0 game. Owen-Gage committed 11 errors in defeat.

In the 4th, the Vikings scored 10 times to end the contest, according to the state's 10-run mercy rule.

The Bulldogs were limited to just 3 hits by Townsend, one each by Ricker, Jill Susalla and Aimee Merchant. Townsend fanned 5.

In the 2nd game of the day, Akron-Fairgrove posted 12 runs in a big first inning, then coasted to a lopsided 21-3 win.

Again Townsend allowed but 3 hits. Again it was Ricker, Merchant and Susalla who tagged the veteran hurler, each collecting one single in 2 official at bats.

Although the Bulldog fielding improved in the nightcap (6 errors), the hosts gave up 10 free passes that led to several of the winners' tallies.

O-G off to good start in North Central title chase

In the first week of the 1990 baseball campaign, Coach Harvey Billy's Owen-Gage baseball team is only 2 victories short of equalling last year's win total.

After splitting a twin bill with Caseville in the 'Dogs' home opener, Billy's diamond 9 swept Akron-Fairgrove Thursday to go 3-1 in North Central Thumb League play.

Owen-Gage will take their show on the road for the first time this season Thursday, when they travel to North Huron. According to Coach Billy, a good showing on the road is vital to entertaining NCTL title thoughts.

The Bulldogs rode the strong arm of Kevin Koch to victory in the first game with Akron-Fairgrove, besting Peter Volk 1-0.

Koch, 2-0 on the season, was untouchable by the Vikings, recording 12 strikeouts and allowing just one hit, a single by Volk, to lead off the 4th inning.

Volk was the last Viking batter to board a base. Volk pitched a gem of a game for the Vikings in a losing effort, matching Koch's performance until the Bulldogs' last at bats, when lead-off hitter Jason Torres scored the winning tally.

Volk whiffed 9 and was touched for only 3 hits.

The Bulldogs' winning run came with 2 outs in the final frame.

After Torres singled to open the inning, Volk walked 2 batters to load the bases in between fanning 2 Bulldog hitters.

Ironically, it was now Koch's bat instead of his arm that could decide the game as he came to the plate in a dream situation - - 2 outs, bases loaded, and the game on the line.

Volk walked Koch to end the contest.

In the nightcap, Bulldog senior Chad Stirrett topped Viking hurler Brian Greenia to earn his first win of the season, 9-4.

The Bulldogs wasted no time getting on the board in this contest as they sent 10 batters to the plate in the opening inning and scored 4 times.

Owen-Gage iced the game in their next at bats when they added 4 runs to take an 8-1 advantage into the game's halfway point.

That would be all the runs Stirrett would need as he limited the visitors to 2 hits, while striking out 13.

Mike Kady and Bryan Abbe led the Bulldogs at the plate in the late game with 2 hits each. The pair also touched home 4 times before the 3rd inning.

CASEVILLE CONTEST

The Bulldogs pounded out 13 hits and scored 16 runs against the Eagles in the season opener for both squads Monday, and came away with a 16-6 triumph.

Unfortunately, the 'Dogs' bat turned sour in the late game and they were turned back, 4-2.

Koch was the benefactor of the Bulldog hit parade in the opener and earned the win. Stirrett handled the mound duties for the 'Dogs in the late game and suffered the defeat.

Torres and Abbe picked up 3 hits apiece for the winners in the first game, while Haldane helped the Bulldog cause with 2 hits in 3 trips to the plate.

Owen-Gage was never seriously challenged in the opener as they enjoyed a 7-1 lead after the 2nd inning.

In the nightcap, the Eagles scored all their runs in the first inning and then rode the arm of Colby Cottick to victory.

Mike Error was the only Bulldog batter to collect more than one hit in the loss, singling in both the 4th and 6th innings.

Your neighbor says

Enjoys warm weather

If there is any consistency to Michigan's weather, it would have to be its inconsistency.

Last week's high temperatures broke into the upper 80's. The week before, on Tuesday, jackets were required as the thermostat reached no higher than 37 degrees.

Terri Coleman, a Cass City resident, says she enjoyed last week's unseasonable weather.

"I laid out every day," claimed the 27-year-old mother of 2.

She added, "I get out a lot more in the summer than in the winter."

Coleman, who moved to the area 10 years ago from the west side of Detroit, told us that getting a tan makes you look and feel better about yourself.

Married for 8 years, Terri claims that she wasn't the only family member enjoying last week's warming spell.

Tom (Terri's husband) has been jogging and we took our kids on a couple of strolls.

Last week's warming trend also enabled the Colemans to get some other activities in.

"We did some landscaping around the house," admits Terri.

The Colemans have 2 children, both boys. Tyler, their oldest, is 4 years old. Tristen is 9 months.

Cass City woman enters guilty plea to drug charge

A Cass City woman is among several persons who were sentenced or entered pleas Friday in Tuscola County Circuit Court.

Karen Kelly, 40, 6730 Pine St., Cass City, entered a plea of guilty to aiding and abetting delivery of cocaine (less than 50 grams) Dec. 13 in Mayville.

Sentencing is to be scheduled for the defendant, whose bond was continued at $20,000.

Kingston area resident Ronald L. Dibble II, 6700 McAlpine Rd., entered a plea of guilty to breaking and entering an unoccupied dwelling.

Sentencing is to be scheduled for Dibble, 22, according to court records, which state the Nov. 29 offense involved a house at 7653 Rossman Rd., Kingston. Denece Holden, 19, Caro, pleaded guilty to a charge of joy riding.

Her sentencing also is to be scheduled. Bond was continued at $5,000.

Records state Holden used without permission a vehicle belonging to Melinda Aymer Feb. 24 in Caro.

Also Friday, Teddy L. Craft, 31, of Caro, was sentenced to one year in the county jail for his March 5 plea of guilty to operating a motor vehicle while under the influence of liquor, third offense.

He also was ordered to serve 5 years probation and pay a $30 per month oversight fee, a $1,000 fine, $500 in court costs and restitution of $40.

Craft's offense occurred June 3 in Vassar, records state.

Cass City area resident Edward E. Mark, 46, 3756 Elmwood Rd., was sentenced for a Jan. 26 plea of guilty to unlawfully driving away an automobile.

He was ordered to serve 240 days in jail.

According to court records, Mark's offense occurred Aug. 13 in Fairgrove and involved a vehicle belonging to Sharon S. Carlisle. Sentenced on the same charge was Robert H. Avery, 19, of Caro, who was ordered to serve one year in the county jail and 5 years probation, and pay a $30 per month oversight fee and fines and costs totalling $450 plus attorneys fees. Restitution is to be determined.

Avery, who pleaded guilty to the charge March 9, was granted permission to participate in the work site program.

His offense occurred Nov. 9 in Caro and involved a vehicle belonging to Robert D. Spencer, records state.

John T. Howden, 23, Caro, was sentenced for his Jan. 26 plea of guilty to a charge of attempted uttering and publishing.

He was sentenced to 6 months in jail and 5 years probation, and ordered to pay a $30 per month oversight fee, fines and costs totalling $400 and restitution, which is to be determined. Howden will be allowed to take part in the work site program.

Court records state he attempted to illegally cash an $80 check drawn on Citizens National Bank (Mackinaw Branch).

In other proceedings Friday, a case against Jerry J. Joseph, 20, was dismissed after a delayed sentencing.

Joseph, who was ordered to make restitution, pleaded guilty March 10 to a charge of breaking and entering an unoccupied dwelling with intent to commit larceny.

The offense occurred Feb. 25 at a house at 3030 Phelps Lake Rd., Mayville, records state.

Ubly seniors receive scholar merit awards

The University of Michigan has selected 508 top high school seniors from 375 schools throughout the state to receive Regents-Alumni Scholar Merit Awards for "outstanding academic achievement, scholarly promise and potential contribution to the university community."

The winners include Ubly High School students Darlene Bailey and Becky Mazure.

A total of 1,287 students were nominated for the merit award (financial need is not a consideration) based on the grades, class ranking and test scores.

Nominees were interviewed by U-M alumni representatives in their hometown area and final decisions were made by the University Regents-Alumni Award Committee.

Students selected as Regents-Alumni Scholars will receive a $1,000 non-renewable scholarship when they enroll in the U-M at Ann Arbor in the fall of 1990. In addition, recognition certificates have been provided to the recipients' high schools for presentation at spring awards convocations.

Approximately 500 U-M alumni participated in the Regents-Alumni Scholars Program this year. The program is administered by the Alumni Association of the U-M in cooperation with the Office of Undergraduate Admissions.

Mime set to perform in Caro

The Tuscola Gifted and Talented Consortium and Caro Arts Society will be sponsoring an evening of mime with Michael Lee of Ann Arbor, May 5 at 7 p.m. at the Caro Arts Society, 102 Joy St., Caro.

Lee is a student of World Master of Mime, Marcel Marceau, and Stefan Niedzialkowski, renowned Polish mime.

He has also studied the art of ballet, European clowning and creative movement with the use of masks and improvisational theater.

Lee, who has worked as a preschool teacher and child care supervisor, presented workshops in the area for the Tuscola Gifted and Talented Consortium's "Super Saturday" program in Kingston Feb. 24.

Library to host local art exhibit

During Michigan Week, May 18-26, Rawson Memorial Library officials plan to host an exhibit of paintings by local artists.

This display will be set up in the meeting room of the library.

Thus far, 7 area artists are scheduled to display their paintings. Anyone in the area who would like to exhibit their work is urged to contact the library no later than May 14.

Taking stock

By Bill Myers

It's a rare day I don't get a phone call from a broker telling of a hot deal on bonds. Definition of a hot deal is something a full percentage point above the market.

People whose money I invest (and I hope that's the right term) often get similar calls and then they ask me if I'm overlooking some good buys. Here is a reply I sent to a client we'll call Charley:

Dear Charley:

I get these phone calls all the time from brokers peddling bonds, and I don't mind because I get an idea every now and then. I also find out you can't believe everything they tell you.

For example, this fellow from Merrill Lynch calls yesterday. The conversation goes like this:

Salesman: "How would you like some tax exempt bonds paying 8.6%?"

Myers: You mean that's the coupon. What's the maturity and what's the real yield? What's the dollar price?

Salesman: Uh... Well, it's a little over par. 107. Maturity in 2004.

Myers: What month? Salesman: I'll have to ask the trader.

Myers: Ask him, too, what's the call provision? Salesman: Oh, I think they're non-callable.

Myers: I doubt it, at that price. Go back and find out. So 15 minutes later the salesman calls back.

"Well, yes, they do have a call."

The yield to the call in 1995 turns out to be 7.24%. That's a lot different from the 8.6% the Merrill Lynch boy was touting them at originally.

If I'm not boring the devil out of you, I want to now make my point.

In this business of parting with your money, let it be done with someone you've known for some time, someone you've learned to trust. Whether it's a financial advisor or whether it's directly with a broker, don't deal with strangers.

The man I do most of my business with I've known for 25 years. Before that I dealt with his former bosses, and there has been a straight line of integrity from one to the next.

Here's another example that happened just today. The caller started off:

"How would you like a AAA-rated unit trust paying 8.75%?"

"What's the price and maturity?"

"Price is 110; maturity is around 2020."

After some conversation, it develops that the trust came onto the market at around 100, or par. The 110 is thus a premium price that will shrink to 100 as the bonds mature. At 110 the current yield could well be 8.75% as the caller said. But the real yield - that to maturity - would be a lot less. The yield at the time of pay-off would more likely be around 7.5%.

Putting it another way, part of the big yield now is coming out of the principal - your own money, that is.

As the ancients have said, let the buyer beware.

Bill Myers is a retired editor and investment counselor.

Recovery continues Tuscola land values up 5.5%

Tuscola County's 1990 Equalization Report should be welcomed by county government and other local taxing units willing to hold Truth in Taxation hearings; bad news for taxpayers.

The report, approved by county commissioners last week, confirmed what county officials have been predicting - a continued upward trend in land values, which began recovering last year after falling more than 20 percent during the previous 3 years.

Overall, the 1990 report establishes real and personal property values in the county at $1,233,749,360, an increase of $64.7 million, or 5.5 percent, over 1989.

As expected, agricultural land values have increased for the second consecutive year. The land classification in 1990 is equalized (set at one-half the market value) at $200.7 million, up by $13.2 million or 7 percent over 1989. Farm land also makes up more of the total county's value (32.5 percent) compared to 1989 (32.1 percent).

Residential land, meanwhile, is equalized at $299.3 million, up by $13.3 million or 4.6 percent, and makes up 48.5 percent of the county total (down from 48.9 percent in 1989); commercial land is equalized at $45.3 million, up by $2 million or 4.5 percent, and makes up 7.3 percent of the county total (down from 7.4 percent), and industrial land is equalized at $8.9 million, down by $112,000 or 1.2 percent, and makes up 1.4 percent of the county total (down from 1.5 percent).

The average overall increase in land values among the county's 23 townships and the City of Vassar is about 5.7 percent compared to about 4 percent in 1989, when the range was minus .33 percent in Koylton Township (the only township to show declining land values overall in 1989) to an increase of 13.4 percent in Novesta Township.

In 1990, all townships experienced an overall hike in land values, with Novesta Township boasting the smallest increase (.6 percent) and Tuscola Township the biggest jump (11.8 percent).

A chart showing the 1990 equalized land values in area townships accompanies this story.

County Equalization Director Ed Karr, who presented the report to commissioners, remarked he believes land values will continue to recover in the near future, hopefully at a gradual, steady pace.

Agricultural land as well as residential properties continue to gain strength in the market, he added.

While rising land values translate into bigger tax bills, Karr noted the allowable inflation rate under the Headlee Amendment is 4.8 percent, meaning most taxing units will have to hold Truth in Taxation hearings in order to collect additional revenue generated by the valuation increases.

Those increases will be reflected on tax bills sent out this summer by villages and in December by most other taxing units.

Police report several mishaps, few injuries

A Deford teen was injured in one of several vehicle accidents reported in the Cass City area over the past 9 days.

The 16-year-old youth was injured April 23, according to Tuscola County Sheriff's deputies, who reported he was westbound on Shabbona Road west of Crawford Road at 4:35 p.m. when he lost control on the gravel roadway.

Reports state the vehicle entered a ditch, went airborne and landed on its roof.

The teen was transported by Cass City-Mercy Ambulance personnel to Hills and Dales General Hospital, where he was treated and then released.

The youth had been traveling at a speed of 70 to 80 miles per hour when the mishap occurred, according to reports, which indicate he was not wearing a seat belt.

He was cited for violation of the basic speed law.

No injuries were reported in a 2-vehicle accident Thursday in Novesta Township.

Reports state Elizabeth G. Crandall, 2171 Englehart Rd., Deford, was southbound on Englehart Road at about 10:10 a.m. when she stopped at the intersection with Deckerville Road and then turned into the path of a westbound vehicle driven by Philip J. Talaski of Harbor Beach.

Both vehicles sustained minor damage, according to deputies, who cited Crandall for failing to yield the right-of-way.

Two one-vehicle crashes were reported over the weekend.

Deputies discovered an accident, but no driver, Saturday evening near the intersection of Kingston and Marlette roads in Koylton Township.

The driver apparently was southbound on Kingston Road when his vehicle left the road, struck a sign and traveled another 80 feet, rolling onto its side.

Reports state no registration plate or papers were found in the vehicle.

A vehicle driven by Kim A. Bitzer, 6047 Hurds Corner Rd., Gageton, hit a ditch Sunday near the intersection of Hoppe and Hurds Corner roads.

Bitzer, who was northbound on Hurds Corner Road, told deputies she attempted to turn onto Hoppe Road at about 6:50 p.m. when her accelerator became stuck.

Deputies also handled a pair of car-deer accidents in the area.

Nancy C. Hicks, 259 Crawford Rd., Deford, reported hitting a deer April 23 at about 7:50 a.m. while driving west on Deckerville Road east of Hurds Corner Road.

A deer ran into a vehicle driven by Penny J. Ware, 4315 Doerr Rd., Cass City, April 24 on M-81 west of Schwegler Road.

Ware stated she was westbound at about 6 a.m. when the accident occurred.

CASS CITY POLICE

Cass City police reported minor damage and no injuries in a 2-vehicle collision that occurred at about 6:55 p.m. April 23 on Church Street near Ale Street.

Reports state a southbound vehicle driven by Angela L. Reitz of Caro failed to yield the right of way to and was struck by a westbound vehicle, driven by Darlene L. Monroe, 3560 Phillips Rd., Cass City.

Also, minor damage was reported Saturday evening, when a vehicle driven by Barbara L. Jamieson, 6727 Pine St., Cass City, backed into a parked vehicle on Houghton Street east of Brooker Street.

We're Proud of the Hometown Mothers Who Make An Effort To Be Well-Informed When Planning Healthy Meals For Their Families

You are what you eat is more true than you may think. Mothers who take the time to plan their menus from the 4 basic food groups are doing their children a favor that will last a lifetime. Eating habits are acquired and children can be taught good nutrition at a very young age. And...good nutrition helps promote strong, healthy bodies that are resistant to colds, flu and other illnesses. So, you can easily see why we are proud of the mothers who attend nutrition classes, read food labels and keep well-informed...and we're proud of our hometown.

SWAN water systems™

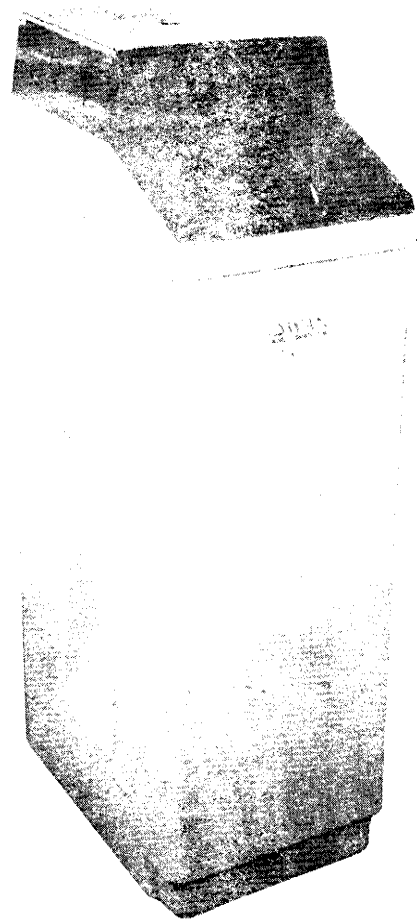

How much money do you spend every month on products to improve your water quality?

If you added them up, you'd probably be shocked!

The Swan Water System saves you money in many ways. It removes iron and lime. It leaves your water 97% clean so you'll use a lot less soaps. Because it runs on water pressure and uses no electricity, you'll use less salt because the system only regenerates when the water is actually used.

There is nothing on the market today that compares to the Swan Water System. It's quiet, compact and attractive.

If you suspect the water in your home isn't as pure as you originally thought, CALL OUR TOLL-FREE NUMBER NOW to arrange a FREE home demonstration of the Swan Water System.

There is nothing on the market today that compares to the Swan Water System!

A totally new concept in Water Treatment . . .

SWAN water systems™

10 YEARS OF INTENSIVE RESEARCH AND MAJOR TECHNICAL DEVELOPMENT HAVE RESULTED IN THE REVOLUTIONARY SWAN WATER SYSTEM™.

The Swan Water System™ is such a breakthrough, that it will revolutionize the way all of us think of water in the future.

Because of its unique filtering system, there is nothing on the market today that compares. Other water systems simply condition your water - that means they make hard water soft. The Swan Water System™ not only softens your water, it removes Lead, Iron, Lime, Pesticides, Chloride, Sulphur, and other odors.

If you suspect that the water in your home is not as clean as you originally thought, call the Toll-Free Number NOW to arrange a FREE Home Water Analysis.

Clean Water is Vital to you and your family's health so, don't take your water for granted.

REGENERATION: Swan Water Systems™ use up to 90% less salt. Meters in just 1 lb. of salt each time the proper amount of clean water has been used.

IRON: The iron in your water produces rust. That yellowish residue on your showers and toilets, and those awful-looking white clothes. The Swan Water System™ removes five times as much iron as any other water softener system on the market today Without Additives.

ENERGY EFFICIENT: Swan Water System™ operates completely without electricity; no timers to set or adjust. Depends solely on the kinetic energy of water pressure eliminating unnecessary regenerations during vacations or lengthy absences.
