KINGSTON WILL HAVE an ample water supply for the foreseeable future following the installation of a new water storage tank Monday. The 100,000 gallon tank replaces a 15,000 gallon tank. The new unit cost $119,000 and was paid from funds accumulated.

Farm land up 11.53%

County valuation zooms 8.25%

As expected, land values in Tuscola County will increase in 1991 for the third consecutive year, continuing a trend of recovery that began in 1989.

But the numbers aren't rising as quickly as they fell during the previous 3 years.

County commissioners approved the county's 1991 Equalization Report Friday. Overall, the report sets the state equalized valuation (half the true cash value) of all real and personal property in the county at $667,772,822, an increase of $50,898,124, or 8.25 percent, over 1990.

The hike follows overall land value increases of 5.5 percent in 1990 and 4 percent in 1989.

In contrast, the years 1986 through 1988 saw a trend of falling land values driven by record drops in the value of farm land.

The county's total SEV peaked at $700 million in 1985. In the 3 years that followed, the SEV fell by a combined $138 million, or more than 21 percent, to $562 million in 1988. During the same period, the value of agricultural land plummeted by some 60 percent.

Farm land has since begun to recover. This year's overall increase in county land values was bolstered by stronger sales of agricultural land, the value of which also increased for the third straight year.

AG VALUES UP

Agricultural land in 1991 is equalized at $223.8 million, up by $23.1 million, or 11.53 percent, over 1990. Farm land also represents a bigger piece of the total county land value pie—33.5174 percent, compared to 32.5 percent last year and 32.1 percent in 1989.

Residential land, meanwhile, is equalized at $323.3 million, up by $23,982,164 million, or 8.01 percent, and makes up 48.4162 percent of the county total (down from 48.5 percent in 1990 and 48.9 percent in 1989).

Other land classifications are equalized as follows:

streets.

The lots, measuring a combined 198 feet by 132 feet, will provide an additional 75 parking spaces.

The purchase will be made through Kelly & Co. Realty, Cass City. Under the agreement, removal of an existing building on the property will be the responsibility of property owner Dick Turner.

Council members said the new lot will offer picnickers and others who frequent the southwest corner of the village's recreation park an alternative to parking along streets in that area.

Village President L.E. Althaver remarked the purchase will also preserve the park border from commercial development, which would otherwise be allowed based on the zoning of the property.

In addition, village Manager Lou S. LaPonsie said Jordan College officials have indicated they may be interested in leasing a portion of the lot.

Council members indicated improvements to the lot will have to wait, due to budget constraints, but suggested the property will be stripped of sod and graveled when funding becomes available.

Monday's purchase brings the number of village-owned parking lots to 3. The others are located west of Rawson Memorial Library (one lot) and behind Sutter's Bakery (3 1/2 lots).

ROAD BIDS

In other business during the 50-minute session, the council awarded bids for the village's 1991 street projects.

The work will consist of paving and installing curb and gutter on Hill Street, from Church Street to Dale Street, and on Rose Street, from Ale Street to Oak Street. In addition, new sidewalk will be installed in front of Campbell Elementary School.

The council approved a low paving bid of $25,912 submitted by PTI of Oakley, Mich. The low bid for the curb and gutter work also was approved. The bid, $37,575, was submitted by J. Pomranky Inc., Midland.

Approval of both companies' bids was recommended by the village's engineering firm, Hubbell, Roth & Clark, Inc., Bloomfield Hills.

The bids came in about as expected, according to LaPonsie, who said the projects are expected to be completed at the combined estimated cost of some $134,000.

In a related matter, council members formally approved a resolution to split the $8,000 cost for the new sidewalk with the school district, and to give a portion of an existing fence along Ale Street to the district for use at the elementary school.

The village plans to re-install a small section of the fence next to the newly renovated basketball courts to prevent balls from rolling onto Ale Street.

IN OTHER BUSINESS

Also Monday, the council: Briefly discussed the question of liability regarding the longtime practice of solicitations by various groups at the intersection of Main and Seeger streets.

Trustee Joanne Hopper, chairman of the council's Rules Committee, reported on an opinion received from village attorney Clinton C. House, who indicated the village would not be liable for failing to prohibit such solicitations as a violation of village ordinances.

Hopper, who pointed out the village doesn't authorize the solicitations, said no action by the council is necessary.

•Approved a high bid of $1,500 from Donna Rockwell, Snover, for the purchase of a village-owned car.

•Designated LaPonsie as the village's authorized coordinator in the Federal Property Assistance Program.

LaPonsie, who explained the village can purchase equipment at greatly reduced costs through the program, said officials hope to buy an emergency electrical Traffic accidents claimed the lives of 2 Thumb area residents, including a 14-year-old Ubyly girl, last week.

Chandra L. Koglin, 14, Huron Line Road, Ubyly, was fatally injured Thursday when the pickup truck she was riding in left a roadway in Huron County's Sheridan Township and rolled over, pinning her underneath the wreckage.

Michigan State Police from the Bad Axe post said Koglin and her brother, Donald E. Koglin Jr., 16, the driver of the vehicle, were on their way to school when the 7:55 a.m. crash occurred.

The pair were northbound on Barrie Road about 4 miles west of Ubyly when their vehicle crested the second of 2 small hills and Donald Koglin's foot slipped from the brake pedal to the accelerator, causing him to lose control on the muddy roadway, according to reports. Troopers said the pickup left the west side of the road, slid into a ditch and rolled over completely, landing on its top.

Donald was able to crawl out of the wreckage and go for help, but his sister was pinned underneath, troopers said.

Troopers freed Chandra, and she was transported to Huron Memorial Hospital, Bad Axe, where she later died.

Donald Koglin was treated and released at Huron Memorial, according to reports, which indicate both he and his sister were wearing seat belts at the time of the accident.

Troopers were assisted at the scene by the Bingham Township and Huron Central ambulance services, fire departments from Ubyly and Bad Axe, and a Huron County Sheriff's Department detective.

WEEKEND FATAL

A 32-year-old Tuscola County man died of injuries sustained in a weekend motorcycle accident on North Lake Road in Watertown Township.

State police at the Caro post identified the victim as Robert R. Arnold of Mayville.

Arnold was riding north on North Lake Road at about 6 a.m. Saturday when he failed to negotiate a curve near Brown Road, according to reports, which state Arnold struck a sign and continued northbound before coming to rest in a grassy area north of Brown Road.

Arnold was transported by Mayville Ambulance to St. Luke's Hospital, Saginaw, where he died Sunday afternoon.

Alcohol was involved in the fatal crash, according to troopers, who said the accident remains under investigation.

Decker teens suspected in wave of area burglaries

The arrests of 2 Decker area teens last week helped the Tuscola County Sheriff's Department solve a rash of burglary, larceny and breaking and entering complaints in the Thumb.

The incidents include at least 14 incidents of breaking and entering and attempted breaking and entering, and larceny from autos and at businesses in Cass City, Kingston and Caro, as well as burglaries to churches and businesses in Sanilac County over the past 6 weeks.

In addition, several newspaper boxes have been reported stolen across Tuscola County.

In response to the crimes, the Tuscola County Sheriff's Department rearranged work assignments in order to conduct surveillance operations in an effort to apprehend the suspect(s).

The effort paid off early last Wednesday morning, when sheriff's department Det./Sgt. Larry Walker stopped a vehicle with 2 subjects he believed had just broken into the Kingswood Inn near Kingston. The car was stopped at about 3:45 a.m. near the intersection of Cemetery and Mushroom roads.

Items taken from the bar were located in the vehicle and the 2 suspects were taken into custody and lodged at the Tuscola County Jail.

Arrested were Dennis Henry King Jr., 17, 2143 N. Decker Rd., and Peter Lawrence Sadler, 18, 2406

Lampton Rd. Both teens appeared before Magistrate Jonathan Miller and were released on personal recognizance bonds. Each faces charges of breaking and entering a building with intent to commit larceny, larceny in a building and malicious destruction of property over $100.

According to Walker, it's believed Sadler was involved in all of the incidences, while King is suspected of taking part in several of them.

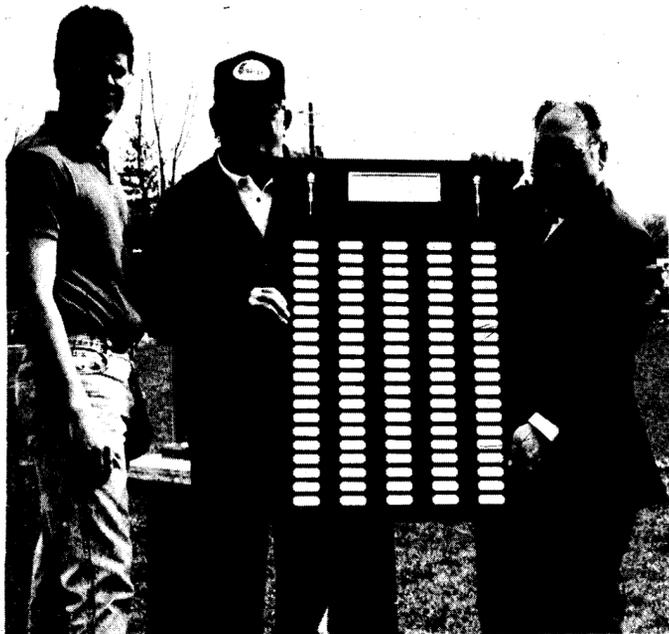

Walker said most of the larcenies, break-ins and attempted break-ins took place in Tuscola County.

They include 2 burglaries at the Kingswood Inn and another at a Kingston area auto parts store; 2 break-in attempts (one of them successful) at Thumb Pawn and Loan, Caro, and a break-in at another Caro area business; break-in attempts at the Quaker Maid Dairy Store, Cass City Car Wash and Anthony's Party Store, all in the Cass City area; larceny of parts from 2 vehicles in the Caro area, and the larceny of a radar detector from a car at Hills and Dales General Hospital, Cass City.

The incidences in Sanilac County include the theft of a 4-wheeled ORV and break-ins at 2 churches.

Walker said police expect to recover more property and make additional arrests as the investigation, conducted with the cooperation of detectives from Sanilac County and the Village of Caro, continues.

THE NEWTRACK at Cass City High school was dedicated Saturday. Presenting a plaque to the school and the village was Ken Jensen, president of the Cass City Boosters Club. Jensen stressed the role played by club member Bob Tuckey. The plaque shows the names of the persons and organizations who donated to the project. It will be shared and displayed at the Cass City Municipal Building and Cass City High School. Representing the school was Ben Hobart, school board president, and councilman Matt Prieskorn represented the village.

Novesta to host Day of Prayer

Members of the Novesta Church of Christ, 2896 N. Cemetery Rd., invite area residents who desire to pray on the National Day of Prayer, Thursday, to use their building.

The church doors will be open from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m.

"Each May people gather across the land to voice their concern about the condition of their city and nation. Instead of carrying signs and shouting slogans, they ask for God's help—they pray on the National Day of Prayer," the Rev. Charles Emmert, pastor of the Cass City area church, said.

"The Bible states, moral confusion topples a nation, but with honest leadership, there is stability," he added. "This year, you, too, can join with millions of Americans who will pray together as 'one nation under God'."

The National Day of Prayer, observed on the first Thursday in May, was established May 5, 1988, when President Ronald Reagan signed a bill that was passed unanimously by Congress.

To D

by Melva E. Guinther

The Chronicle staff remains in a state of shock, following the unexpected death last Tuesday of Dorothy Haire.

It's just impossible to consider the Chronicle without her. It was always John and Dorothy, never just John, when we referred to the boss, although she seemed more of a friend and co-worker than an employer.

On inter-office memos, she was D. Not D.H., just D. Dorothy was not a flashy person, didn't command a lot of attention, never sought the spotlight. She was an unsung, dependable, steady influence that you just kind of took for granted. You knew she was always going to be there when you needed her, to work things out.

When I first came to work at the Chronicle in 1954, the Haires lived upstairs over the office. Who knows how many times Dorothy was called downstairs to answer a question or solve a problem? She was just always there. And I don't think it ever occurred to any of us that it wouldn't forever be so.

Dorothy had often said that she had no desire to live to be old and incapacitated. She no doubt would have chosen to go the way she did.

But for those who remain, stunned, there are things we wish we'd done, feelings we would have expressed, had we known we had so little time.

If anything positive could come from grief, maybe it would be a determination to say and do those things and express those thoughts to others now, before it's too late.

Dorothy would be embarrassed by a lot of sentimentality and eulogies. Nevertheless, we miss you, D, more than we can say.

The Haire
Net

Lots of times when out golfing on a Thursday afternoon, the boys would get out the needle and tell me it must be nice to get out and have the real boss take charge of things.

They were kidding, mostly. They never realized just how close they were to the truth.

Where they were off base is saying "boss." The last thing that Dorothy Haire wanted was that. When I spent 2 months in the hospital, she ran this place, never missing a beat while taking care of 3 kids, one of them too young to know what was going on.

All of that doesn't amount to a hill of beans. And you can't be blamed if you hang it up here and switch to reading something else. If you didn't, I'm going to get to the real important matters in just a second.

But first, let me tell you that Dorothy was not a boss, she was the rudder of this outfit, at home and away. Using her insight to people and events that led to stories that bring the paper and the community together.

Jim Keichum was an editor here maybe 20 years ago and he writes about Dorothy, "We enjoyed some good laughs together and she was always a source of a good story idea when I needed one."

Another editor that many remember, Mike Eliasohn, gone for maybe 7 years now, wrote and called saying essentially the same thing.

On those same Thursday afternoons when the conversation concerned the cost of food or taxes and I was asked how much my taxes were at home or in the business, they always looked at me queerly when I honestly couldn't say. She handled the money and the only trouble we ever had was that she wouldn't spent enough on herself.

All that doesn't really amount to a hill of beans, either. But just bear with me. I'm coming to what does after this.

You won't read anything about Dorothy as a chairman of this group or a member of any popular organization. If you don't count me, she would be the last to be selected the citizen of the year. And frankly all of that stuff doesn't amount to a hill of beans.

Finally, I'm getting down to what does. From her little corner of the world she had an effect, she made a difference to scores of folks around this town, folks who know and remember and folks you would never learn about from her.

It isn't necessary for you to know the real Dorothy, no reason why you should, but if you did want to find out about what was really important about her, ask the people she worked with for a quarter of a century. Ask Melva Guinther, ask Linda Leeson, ask Betty Ball, ask Mary Damm, ask Joanne Asher, ask anyone who worked here. They will tell you she was a GOOD PERSON.

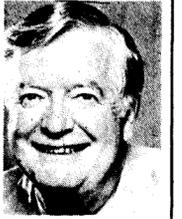

The kids will tell you she was a great mother. I'll tell you that she was a great wife.

Nobody can say that that isn't worth more than a hill of beans.

"If It Fitz...."

Big news

By Jim Fitzgerald

Let's see if I've got everything straight. Big news events have been occurring in rapid succession the last few days, sometimes simultaneously, and a disinterested bystander can become confused. So I could be wrong, but I think the following is what's been happening:

Mayor Coleman Young asked the City Council for $150,000 to pay the legal fees of Tom Monaghan if he is sued by the Tiger Stadium Fan Club for breaking the 30-year lease that explicitly requires his Detroit Tigers to play in the present Tiger Stadium until 2008.

Wayne County Executive Ed McNamara asked Young to please withdraw his kiss-of-death support from the plan to build the Tigers a new stadium over which Tigers President Bo Schembechler would have full control just as long as he agreed that the opening-day first pitch be thrown by Gov. Ed McNamara.

McNamara said he was afraid voters would suspect that Young would tear down the ancient Renaissance Center, already 15 years old, and replace it with the new stadium because, according to Young, the only place to fully understand the infield fly rule is on the riverfront.

In a speech to the Economic Club of Detroit, Schembechler said "more than half the seats at Tiger Stadium have an obstructed view." That was a surprise to thousands of fans who for years have been told by Tigers executives that there were only a few bad seats and no one should complain about paying full price to sit where they could see all the action except maybe for what happened in the batter's box and right field. Their refunds are in the mail.

Economic Club members voted that, the next time Schembechler speaks to them, a long white sideline should be painted on the floor in front of the speakers table. It was obviously awkward for Schembechler to rant and scold, demand and proclaim, and put and whine without a sideline to stomp his little booties on.

CAPITOL IDEA FOR RIVERFRONT

Mayor Young called a press conference to announce that the U.S. government would begin a feasibility study aimed at determining the practicality of moving the nation's capitol building from Washington to the downtown Detroit riverfront, if only Ford Auditorium weren't there.

Singer Anita Baker said if old Tiger Stadium is abandoned, she will buy it and tear it down at midnight next Christmas Eve. The Young administration said it would declare the former stadium site an Enterprise Zone, excusing Baker from paying any property tax, if Baker promised to build a parking garage there and allow former Police Chief William Hart and his family to park in it free in perpetuity.

After Lee Iacocca expressed concern, mayoral spokesman Bob Berg announced that a perpetuity is not a low-mileage car made in Japan.

At the invitation of General Motors, Ford and Chrysler, 50 members of Congress came to Detroit to be told that the American economy would be destroyed if Congress required the Big Three to build cars that didn't waste gas, pollute the air and blow up when bumped. The Keating Five resigned in embarrassment, saying they felt like nothing compared to the Big Three Fifty.

An accused bank robber, appearing before Recorder's Court Judge Dominick Carnovale, explained that he didn't spend the stolen money, he only "misused" it. After ascertaining that the accused man was a paid-up member of the Auto Club, Carnovale sentenced him to 2 weeks at Disney World.

The Detroit Police Department announced it is no longer investigating the possible theft of police money by police. Deputy Executive Police Chief James Bannon said it was OK to drop the probe because, due to budget cuts, there are no more chickens left in the coop, anyway.

Annivory Calvert, the mother of Coleman Young's son, said she quit her job in California so she'd have time for other pursuits, including some writing. Upon hearing this news, Young said what the hell and gave himself up to Kitty Kelley.

If anything written above isn't true, I'm sorry. I usually get things straight. Upward and Onward.

tougher. The sudden loss of Dorothy Haire last week made me realize just how easy it is to take a good friendship for Granted. And how easy it is to expect it to go on forever. In many ways, I don't feel qualified to write about Dorothy; my few years at the Chronicle don't compare with the lengthy tenures of most of the staffers here.

Still, you didn't need to be around Dorothy for 10, 20 or more years to know she was kind, or that she had a great sense of humor, or that she was the kind of office manager many companies would die for.

I'd like to share a few of the things that made this lady one of the best friends an editor ever had:

Almost without exception, whether she felt like it or not, Dorothy greeted me every morning for the past 5 years with a warm smile and a truly sincere, "Good morning, how are you?" as I entered the office we shared. (I can't describe how much I already miss that).

Dorothy was a marvel to watch in the office, easily handling billing, customers and screening phone calls and mail while at the same time looking up a price quote for any one of countless printing jobs done in the past, or offering John or me the correct spelling of a word or name. (She was a treasure of local information—names, places, families, history).

She appreciated simple gifts the same way many people react to extravagant offerings. An occasional handful of tomatoes and cucumbers brought to the office from my garden never failed to make me feel as if I had just handed her the world.

Dorothy often said she "just didn't have the talent" for writing, although she turned out and edited more copy than I probably ever will.

She held a lot of job titles at the Chronicle. Assignment editor wasn't one of them, but few people realize just how many stories originated from ideas she picked up here and there.

Everyone is welcome; persons do not have to be a member to attend. Membership is open to poets, fiction and non-fiction writers.

money for a lot of extras at my house, especially around the holidays, Dorothy occasionally slipped me a few extra dollars, telling me she appreciated my efforts and suggesting I get a baby sitter and take my wife out to dinner.

If there's any way to sum it up, Dorothy's friendship was the kind that was easy to take for granted—it was always there. Unconditionally. She quietly, effectively handled her duties day in and day out, shying away from any sort of recognition for all she did.

I'm sure I've missed a lot. And I'm certain there are many others who could have put it more eloquently.

But I'm also sure of something else; I know Dorothy did about as much as any of us can hope to on Earth. She left a host of warm memories that many of us will cherish for the rest of our days.

Owendale benefit a success

An April 19 benefit variety show held for the purpose of raising funds for a community bulletin board in Owendale was a success, members of the Brookfield Township Board and Owendale Village Council learned at a recent joint meeting.

Various community residents took part in the activities. A soup supper also realized a profit for the summer recreation program.

Several former veterans in the audience stood and were honored during the evening. Among them was Steven Czup, who recently returned home from duty with Operation Desert Shield/Storm forces in the Middle East.

Other Owen-Gage graduates who took part in the operation were also named and honored. They are Dawn Dorsch, Dennis Czup, Matthew Bolzman, Marion Murawski Baker, Michael Flores, Scott Norcross and Richard Badgley.

Discussion was held on where to place the community bulletin board, and it was noted more funds are needed to complete the project.

Other fund raisers, including a community picnic tentatively planned for July 28, were discussed.

Soil & Water Stewardship Week is April 28 - May 5

Emphasizing everyone's role in protecting soil and water resources for future generations, the Tuscola Soil Conservation District is encouraging local churches, organizations and individuals to join the nationwide observance of Soil and Water Stewardship Week, April 28 through May 5.

The soil conservation district, which worked throughout the year on soil and water conservation measures, is providing literature that highlights man's responsibility to be active stewards of soil and water resources.

Tom Hess, chairman of the Tuscola Soil Conservation District, said everyone needs to learn about the impact of their actions and the actions of others.

"Recognizing that, we commit ourselves to individual and community action," he said. "By using good erosion prevention practices, conserving water or simply planting a tree, we'll each help make the world a better place for our children's children."

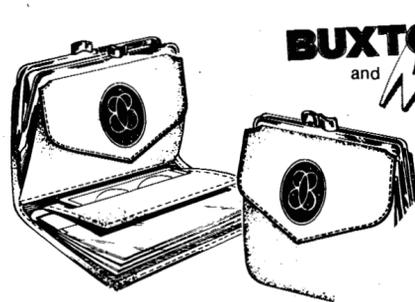

Since 1955, the National Association of Conservation Districts has sponsored Soil and Water Stewardship Week, in cooperation with nearly 3,000 local districts nationwide, as one way to emphasize the importance of good stewardship of basic soil and water resources.

The Tuscola SCD Board has provided more than 7,000 bulletin inserts and booklets especially designed to convey the 1991 theme, "As You Sow," to over 30 churches throughout the county.

O-G teams 5th at Invitational

The Owen-Gage boys' track team came in fifth among the 6 teams in the Harbor Beach Invitational, but it wasn't the fault of Mickey Parks. The Bulldog speedster won the long jump, finished third in the 100-meter and helped win points with the relay teams, accounting for over half of the Bulldogs' 30 points. The meet was strictly a Deckerville exhibition as the Eagles won with 202 1/2 points. A distant second was Carsonville-Port Sanilac with 103 1/2 points. Other teams finished in the following order: Peck, 80; Harbor Beach, 68; Owen-Gage, 30, and Caseville, 14.

GIRL'S RESULTS

The Bulldogs duplicated their 30-point results in the girls' competition, but Harbor Beach replaced Deckerville in the winner's circle. The Pirates scored 163 points to finish second. Other results were: C-PS, 111; Peck, 40; Owen-Gage, 30, and Caseville, 0.

Best effort by a Bulldog was a second place finish by Renee Murawski in the 100-meter dash.

OWEN-GAGE PITCHER VICKI RICKER tags out Deckerville's Tracey Morten in the first inning of Thursday's NCTL contest. The Bulldogs, however, suffered a 4-1 defeat.

O-G softball team tops Kingston and bows to Deckerville

Coach Judy Campbell's Owen-Gage softball team opened its NCTL schedule in splendid form last Monday, sweeping a twin bill from visiting Kingston, but were on the other end of the broom Thursday as league favorite Deckerville handed the Bulldogs their first 2 NCTL defeats.

In the Bulldogs' home opener, Carli Salcido held the Cardinals to 3 runs on just 5 hits to earn the sophomore her first career NCTL win, 6-3. Jill Zyrowski was handed the loss for the visitors.

The hosts got all the runs they would need in their first at bats when they sent 10 batters to the plate and scored 4 times. Owen-Gage also added one insurance run in both the 4th and 5th frames.

Lori Ondrajka, who drove in the 'Dogs' final tally with a 2-out double, was the only Bulldog player to register more than one hit, as she also lashed out a single during the hosts' 4-run outburst.

In the nightcap, senior Vicki Ricker blanked the Cardinals on 3 hits, while her teammates exploded for 10 runs in a 5-inning mercy ruling game. Ricker recorded a personal best 8 strikeouts in the victory.

Ricker also helped her own cause at the plate, where she tagged RBI singles in both the 2nd and 3rd innings, where the winners crossed home 8 times.

In Thursday's games Owen-Gage bats turned cold as they were held to 4 hits and one run in the opener, a 4-1 setback, and 5 hits and 6 runs in the nightcap, a 9-6 loss.

Ricker went the distance for the hosts in the opener, as did sophomore Michelle Tkacz in the late game, and were handed the losses. The 'Dogs' only run was accounted for by Aimee Merchant, who rode home on a Lori Radabaugh single in the 5th stanza, where the visitors enjoyed a 4-0 lead.

It would be too little, too late for Bulldogs.

Campbell praised her team's effort in the late game, where they battled back to tie the contest at 6-all before Deckerville scored 3 runs in their final at bats to post a 9-6 win. The 'Dogs' next game is slated for Thursday at Akron.

Bulldogs split double bills

The Owen-Gage Bulldogs split opening doubleheaders in the North Central League last week with Kingston and Deckerville.

In the league opener Monday, April 22, the Bulldogs bowed to Kingston, 10-7. The Cardinals broke open a very close game with a big 5-run rally in the fourth when Bob Haldane lost control, walking 5 and giving up just one hit. The rally broke a 3-all tie. In the game Haldane gave up 4 hits and walked 10. J. Fricke was the winner.

Haldane picked up 2 hits in 4 tries for the Bulldogs, while no Cardinal gathered more than a single safety.

It looked as if Owen-Gage would be starting the season with a pair of losses as Kingston opened with a 4-run first inning off the slants of Mike Kady in the nightcap.

That all changed in the second inning, when the Bulldogs sent 11 men to the plate and scored 7 times on 3 hits on the way to a close 10-9 victory.

The Bulldogs needed every one of those runs as the Cards pecked away at the 7-4 lead with a pair of counters in the second and third innings.

The Bulldogs scored what proved to be the decisive runs in the fourth on 2 walks and a hit by Greg Smith.

Kingston threatened in the last inning, scoring a run and placing the tying run on base with one out. Kady turned on the heat to fan the last 2 batters and preserve the victory.

DECKERVILLE GAMES

The Bulldogs dropped the opening game Thursday with Deckerville and the game can be summed up in a sentence: Outstanding pitching by the Eagles' Lenny Day. Deckerville won, 8-0, as Day pitched a 5-hitter. The Eagles scored more than enough to win in the first inning, crossing the plate 5 times to saddle Haldane with the loss.

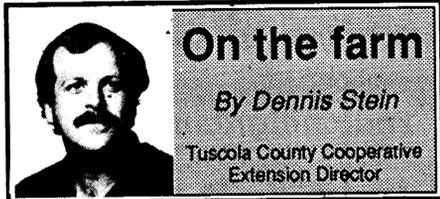

Day had little trouble with Bulldog stickers with the exception of Greg Smith, for whom he was no puzzle at all as he banged out 3 hits in as many tries. Day struck out 9, and walked 2.

Owen-Gage evened its record for the season with a victory in the nightcap, 5-3, behind the 3-hit pitching of Kady. John Karges was nearly as effective for Deckerville as he tossed a 2-hitter.

Owen-Gage was forced to come from behind to win. After edging out in front with a run in the second, the Bulldogs fell behind as the Eagles scored their only 3 runs of the game. Two hits, an error and a hit batter turned the trick.

The Bulldogs tied the score in the third, scoring twice after 2 were out as Kady walked, Haldane cracked a double and the shortstop made an error on a ball hit by Smith.

The score remained tied until the fifth, when the Bulldogs scored twice without benefit of a hit as Deckerville committed 3 errors.

On the farm

By Dennis Stein

Tuscola County Cooperative Extension Director

by Dennis Stein

Most farms have undertaken the process of developing a good on-farm record keeping system.

Today, farms need to keep not only good financial accounts, but also reliable pesticide use information. Simple record sheets are often available at local agri-businesses and at cooperative extension service offices.

With increased public concern over pesticide use, a good set of records is a farm's best justification.

Don't forget to clean out your sprayers to insure that last year's chemicals do not hurt this year's crop. Calibration, each season and from time to time during the planting season, is very important to keep chemical application on target and working properly.

The Growing Degree Day, so far this year, has been 6 to 10 days ahead of historic averages. This means that even with wet conditions, the temperatures are ahead of normal. Most farms should be ready to roll when field conditions improve with some drying.

Farms need to take advantage of this delay in getting planting season started by getting all equipment ready, which means fewer breakdowns later.

Safety is another important consideration. Good pre-season planning should include making sure all shields, guards and devices are in place and functioning properly.

Dairy production up slightly in March

Dairy herds in Michigan produced 453 million pounds of milk during March, one percent more than a year ago, according to the Federal/State Michigan Agricultural Statistics Service.

Milk production rates averaged 1,320 pounds per cow, increasing 20 pounds. The Michigan dairy herd was estimated at 343,000 head, 1,000 fewer than last March.

The preliminary value of milk sold averaged $11.80 per hundredweight (cwt.) in March, $2.60 less than last year. March mid-month slaughter cow prices averaged $51.50 per cwt., 50 cents less than the previous year and 70 cents more than last month.

Milk in the 21 selected states totaled 11.1 billion pounds, one percent above production in these same states in March 1990. Production per cow averaged 1,315 pounds for March, 23 pounds more than March 1990. The number of cows on farms was 8.47 million head in March, 22,000 less than February 1991 and 35,000 less than March 1990.

Dairy manufacturing plants in Michigan produced 1.65 million pounds of butter in February, 22 percent more than a year ago. American cheese production, 1.96 million pounds, increased 75 percent over the previous year. Ice cream output totaled 1.55 million gallons, 20 percent less than last February.

Chemical offers special loans

The 10 Chemical Bank affiliates of Chemical Financial Corporation will offer businesses in every community where the Chemical organization has offices 7 percent interest rates on loans to finance exterior improvements and maintenance of their buildings.

Under the "Project Pride" program announced last week, the banks will lend a business up to $5,000 amortized over 36 months at only 7 percent annual interest.

Alan W. Ott, president and chief executive officer of Chemical Financial Corporation and chairman and chief executive officer of its lead bank, Chemical Bank and Trust, announced the project.

"From time to time, our banks are asked by local chambers of commerce and merchants associations to participate in this type of financing program," he said.

"Typically, the programs are designed to help members spruce up their places of business and make their commercial districts more attractive places to shop and work. It has been our general policy to agree to such requests because we want to support the communities where we do business in every way that we can.

"This year, however, we have decided that we will offer $5 million of these 7 percent loans all over the 19 Mid-Michigan counties where we operate instead of just participating in scattered local programs as we have in the past," Ott continued. "We want our friends and customers in every one of the cities and towns where we have branches to do well. We think that this special loan program is a good way to help them do that."

The 7 percent loans may be used to finance projects such as painting, store front remodeling, new signs, installation of awnings and the like. If a business owner desires to finance exterior remodeling and improvement work that will cost more than $5,000, the balance of the money needed will be made available at regular interest rates on the banks' normal terms and conditions.

In a double dual meet at Marlette Tuesday the Hawk boys defeated Marlette, 88 1/2 to 73 1/2, and Kingston, 108 to 53.

Coach Don Markel said that he was pleased with the performance of his young team so far this year and the many freshmen and sophomores were showing steady improvement.

However, it was a senior who showed the way for Cass City. Englehart won the long jump, high jump and the 100-meter dash against both schools.

Undefeated in league

Hawk girls off to flying start

The Cass City Red Hawk softball team is breathing the rarefied atmosphere of first place in the Thumb B Association after chalking up a pair of doubleheader wins last week over Bad Axe and Caro.

Coach Dave Hoard's charges exhibited some lusty hitting and adequate pitching to post the wins.

In the league opener Monday, April 22, against Bad Axe the Hawks took the first game, 12-7, behind 8-hit pitching of sophomore Jennifer Freundt, Cass City backed her hurling with 12 hits, led by Sharie DeLong, who banged out 3 hits in 4 tries and drove in 4 runs.

The game was closer than the final score indicates. Cass City trailed 7-5 going into the fifth inning, when the girls scored 7 runs to salt away the victory.

The Hawks took the nightcap, 22-11, behind DeLong. The Hawk chucker allowed only 6 hits but was plagued by wildness, issuing 12 walks. Gavitt took the loss as she allowed 20 hits.

Jandi Hillaker, with 3 hits and 3 runs batted in in 5 tries, and Kim Morley, with 3 hits and 4 runs batted in in 5 at bats, led the Hawk offense.

CARO GAMES

DeLong had a little trouble getting started against Caro Thursday, but she settled down after a rocky first inning to post a 16-7 win keeping the Hawk league record unblemished.

Five of the Tiger runs were scored in the first. The Hawks pushed across 3 runs in their half of the first, added a single counter in the second and went ahead to stay in the third with another 2 counters.

After allowing the runs in the first, DeLong pitched shutout ball until the last inning, when the game was already decided.

Keri Santos ripped out 3 hits in 5 tries and drove in 3 runs. Jodi Hillaker also collected 3 hits in 5 attempts.

DeLong was charged with 8 walks and just 2 hits while picking up the win.

in the the 9-3 Tiger win. LeValley relieved him, but the Tigers scored 4 times, enough for the win as Jeremy Blaylock hurled a nifty 4-hitter.

LeValley went 4 innings and Hall hurled the final 2 for Cass City.

JV GAMES

The Junior Varsity played 6 games last week starting Monday with a tough 4-2 loss to Bad Axe. Bill Graham suffered the loss. Cass City had only one hit, a 2-run homer by Dan Muska. Cass City came back in the second game and defeated Bad Axe 5-1. Al Proowski was the winning pitcher. Jason Walther had 3 hits.

Tuesday the Hawks swept a doubleheader at Ubyly. Cass City won the first game 11-1. Muska pitched the entire game and picked up the win. Cass City won the second game 5-0. John Phillips was the winning pitcher. Ben Schott relieved Phillips in the late innings. Phillips and Schott combined for a one hitter. The Hawks avoided a rally by Ubyly in the third when Ubyly had runners at second and third with no outs and Kris Repshinska made a fine running catch that started an inning ending triple play.

Friday, the JV split a doubleheader with Caro. Cass City squeaked out an 8-7 victory in the first game. Cass City was behind 7-3 going into the bottom half of the last inning. A walk and 3 Caro errors preceded a Mark Kubacki hit that knotted the score at 7-7. With 2 outs, Schott singled to knock in Kubacki for the winning run. Phillips was the winning pitcher. Cass City lost the second game 6-3. Graham took the loss. Muska had 2 hits, including a triple.

CARO GAMES

The Hawks bounced back from the dismal beginning to split a double bill at Caro Friday.

In the opener Troy Benitez went the distance with a 4-hitter, striking out 4. Scott Frick took the loss. Cass City jumped off in front in the first inning on a pair of hits by Gray and Greg Graham and a 2-RBI single by Benitez. Caro answered with a single run in their half of the first on a walk and an error. It stayed that way until the fifth, when Cass City scored 3 times to salt away the win. Graham hit a key double in the rally. The Tigers scored a pair of meaningless runs in the last inning.

Graham started on the mound in the nightcap, but developed a sore arm and was unable to retire a batter until the third when the Hatchets scored 4 times on 4 hits, a walk and an error. The Hatchets increased the margin in the next inning with another 5-run spurge.

Bart Hall came on in relief to finish the game. Mike added a single counter in the second and went ahead to stay in the third with another 2 counters.

After allowing the runs in the first, DeLong pitched shutout ball until the last inning, when the game was already decided.

Keri Santos ripped out 3 hits in 5 tries and drove in 3 runs. Jodi Hillaker also collected 3 hits in 5 attempts.

DeLong was charged with 8 walks and just 2 hits while picking up the win.

Jordan students visit Allen, DeGrow

Political science students from Jordan College recently met with State Rep. Dick Allen and Sen. Dan DeGrow in Lansing.

The primary goal of the field trip was to allow students the opportunity to observe first hand the workings of government. Since federal budget cuts will have an impact on their educational careers, they also felt the need to share these concerns with those in Lansing.

The students were also able to discuss the school-of-choice proposal. Rep. Allen has promised to keep them updated on the legislation as well as the impact of any proposed new laws.

While in Lansing, they attended a session of the House and toured both the Capitol and the campus of Michigan State University, according to instructor Linda Volz, who plans to make this tour an annual event.

Letters to the Editor

By outrageous awards

Rural health care threatened

Dear Mr. Haire:

I read, with interest, your comments in "Rabbit Tracks" in the April 16 edition of The Chronicle regarding physicians' incomes in Michigan. You mention that lawyers like to talk about how much doctors make and about how they "protect" the poor with malpractice suits. You also mention the rising cost of health care which increases "faster than the rate of inflation" and is "sparkled in part...by new, very expensive techniques that save more lives."

Having worked in acute care hospitals for more than 10 years, I see very clearly, almost on a daily basis, all the "good" lawyers do and how much they contribute to keeping health care costs under control. Even in the small facility I work in now, our Medical Record Department receives hundreds of requests a year for information from lawyers representing "injured" clients and countless subpoenas and court orders to take medical information to court to strengthen or weaken a law suit.

Granted, some cases are very legitimate, but too many outrageous monetary awards have been given out in the last 10-20 years. It has become a catastrophic problem that does not just involve the medical community any longer.

There are 2 sides to every story. Ever ask a lawyer what his/her gross income or take home pay is or what percentage of an award a lawyer specializing in personal injury gets?

My biggest concern is what all of this is doing to the small, rural communities and their respective hospitals. We can no longer entice or retain physicians to begin or maintain family practices or do even basic surgeries. Hospitals throughout the Thumb are feeling the pinch and are forced to compete, many times unsuccessfully, with the cities and major medical centers for a few good practitioners. Ask your family physician, if you have the luxury of having one, what he paid in malpractice insurance last year. The amount will likely astound you.

There are 2 sides to every story. There are good/not-so-good doctors and lawyers. However, if the trend towards outrageous awards and increasing malpractice insurance does not stop soon, neither will the exodus to the city hospitals. The quality of health care and its availability to everyone, not just the poor, at a reasonable cost is declining and is sparked by more than just the new, very expensive techniques available.

Faced with a medical emergency and given the choice of life or death, isn't every penny spent to retain access to an adequate medical staff and hospital facility in our communities worth it?

Write to your legislators and let them know how you feel.

Nephew of former Chronicle publisher looking for cousins

Dear Editor,

Perhaps, by publishing this letter in the Chronicle, you can help me. I am 66 years old and live in Virginia. My mother's brother was Herbert F. Lenzner, who published the Chronicle for nearly 50 years and lived above the printing presses. His father was Oscar Lenzner who, with his brother, Franklin, ran the Lenzner Furniture Store. Oscar came to Cass City in 1873 and died in 1927. He belonged to the United Brethren Church and was the church organist for 25 years.

My "Uncle Herb" and his wife, Molly, had 2 daughters, Phyllis and Shirley. I believe they lived in Cass City as late as the 50s or 60s. I have been trying to locate them for years. They would be close to 70 by now and I have no idea where they live or what happened to them. As I recall my "Uncle Herb" was one of the important influences in the history of Cass City. I'm sure he and Molly are gone, and I'm sure they would have gone to heaven. They were fine people.

I would be thrilled if anyone in Cass City could put me on the trail of my 2 lost cousins. The only other clue I have is that we many times travelled from Algonac, Mich., to Cass City for the Benkleman reunion. I also have a picture of Oscar Lenzner's home and another of the old furniture store. If it might help, my mother, Clara Lenzner, married Lee Pocklington and moved to Algonac.

I would appreciate any help from the Cass City Chronicle or any Cass City citizen who can shed some light on the subject.

Sincerely,

Robert R. Pocklington

Arson costs $$

Each year, arson costs Michigan taxpayers millions of dollars. In 1990, arson and suspicious fires destroyed more than $80 million of property, according to figures recently released by the state fire marshal.

The figures don't include indirect costs, including medical care, funeral expenses, temporary shelter, business interruption, demolition, fire investigations, prosecutions, jailings and increased insurance premiums.

Churchill to be honored Saturday

Former Tuscola County Circuit Judge James P. Churchill will be honored as a Doctor of Laws during Saginaw Valley State University's 26th annual spring commencement exercises, slated for Saturday. A long-time resident of the Thumb area and former chief jurist of the U.S. District Court for Eastern Michigan, Churchill began his legal career in the Thumb after earning a juris doctor degree from the University of Michigan Law School in 1950.

He practiced law in Vassar until 1965, when he was elected circuit judge of Tuscola and Lapeer counties.

In 1974, Churchill was appointed U.S. District Judge for the Eastern District of Michigan by President Gerald Ford. He presided in Detroit for 10 years before transferring his place of holding court to Bay City in 1984.

Before his "retirement" in 1989, he was chief judge of the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan and represented the federal judges of the Sixth Circuit, consisting of Michigan, Ohio, Kentucky and Tennessee on the Judicial Conference of the United States.

Churchill, who also represented judges of the Eastern District on the Sixth Circuit Judicial Council, has accepted numerous assignments to preside at trials elsewhere within the Sixth Circuit and to serve on the Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit.

He currently is a senior U.S. District Judge with chambers and an active civil caseload in Bay City.

Churchill and his wife, Ann, have 3 children and reside in northern Michigan.

Stolen Kidney car found abandoned, vandalized

A Cass City couple's car was stolen, damaged and recovered over the weekend, village police reported.

Susan Kidney, 3446 N. Phillips Rd., reported her 1984 Mercury Cougar stolen Saturday while parked at 4355 Leach St., Cass City. The keys had been left in the vehicle, which was taken between 9:30 and 10:30 p.m., reports state.

The next day, police observed the vehicle parked on the west side of Chemical Bank.

The windshield had been broken and the front bumper and grill smashed, apparently the result of hitting a 2 by 4 board which was still imbedded beneath the engine. In addition, police said, the left quarter panel was dented and several small items, including a tool box in the trunk, were missing.

The case remains under investigation.

THEFT AT CHURCH

Also last week, police were dispatched to the St. Pancratius Catholic Church, 4292 S. Seeger St., last Wednesday to investigate complaints involving the theft of cash.

Nina D. Davis reported $220 was taken from her purse and Jamea McKnight reported $50 missing from her purse. Both women told police they had left their purses in the basement kitchen of the parish hall.

Raise income limits for loans

The Michigan Initiative program for potential first-time home buyers has announced higher state-wide income limits for loan eligibility. The new level has been set at $46,345, up from $43,470.

The program is a 30-year, fixed rate mortgage with a 5 percent down payment through the (Freddie Mac) Federal Home Mortgage Corporation.

Before applying for a Freddie Mac loan, potential home buyers are required to attend a housing workshop, which will entitle them to apply for the 5 percent down payment loan. Those interested in attending a workshop can call the Human Development Commission at (517) 673-4121 for reservations or further details.

County valuations up

The 1991 equalization figures revealed all townships experienced an overall hike in land values, with Novesta Township boasting the smallest increase (1.13 percent) and Wells Township the biggest jump (19.59 percent).

A chart showing the 1991 SEV increases for area townships accompanies this story.

Equalization Director Ed Karr pointed out that while increasing land values translate into bigger tax bills, tax increases are limited to the inflation rate of 5.4 percent on real property plus new construction, meaning a number of taxing units will have to hold Truth in Taxation hearings in order to collect additional revenue generated by the valuation increases.

Council approves 3 lot purchase

*Approved appointments of committees and board members.

There were no changes in council committees. Reappointed to 6-year terms on the Economic Development Corporation were Althaver, William Krizman, Gary Jones and Scott Kelley, while Kelly Smith and Roger Little were reappointed to 3-year terms on the village Planning Commission. Also reappointed was Bob Stickle, to a 3-year term on the Zoning Board of Appeals.

*Rescheduled its next regular monthly meeting, which falls on Memorial Day. The regular session was moved to May 28 at 7 p.m.

*Appointed Les Karr as Memorial Day Parade chairman.
