Five injured

Two killed in separate auto crashes Friday

Two persons were killed and several injured in separate accidents Friday afternoon and evening.

A 2-car crash at the intersection of M-53 and Snover Road, in Lamotte Township, south of Hemans, claimed the life of Michael George Palmer, 26, of 233 N. Elk Street, Sandusky, and injured 5 others, 2 seriously.

Palmer was a passenger in a car driven by Regina Lynn Moran, 21, of 636 Sleepy Hollow, Sandusky. She was treated and released at Marlette Hospital.

Moran was driving east on Snover Road and failed to stop for the M-53 intersection. Kimberly Ann Cory, 25, 1851 Van Dyke Road, Decker, travelling north on M-53, struck the Moran vehicle broadside.

LOSES CONTROL

The second fatal crash Friday was reported by the Tuscola County Sheriff's Department. Zachary James Rice, 16, of 1374 E. Dayton Road, Caro, lost control of his car driving eastbound on Deckerville Road in Ellington Township and skidded into a ditch while trying to pass a car.

The car went through the ditch and hit a tree. Two passengers in the car were treated at Caro Community Hospital and released.

OTHER ACCIDENTS

A car driven by Heather Lynn Murdick, 17, 3890 Downington Road, Snover, was attempting to turn left onto Comment Drive from

Main Street Saturday at 1:00 p.m. Harold James Mosack, 29, of Bad Axe, driving east on Main Street, hit the Murdick vehicle. Murdick was ticketed for failure to yield to approaching traffic, by the investigating officer from the Cass City Police Department.

DOG KILL — Veteran Cass City hunter Mike Otulakowski kneels near the remains of a yearling killed recently by dogs about 2 1/2 miles southeast of Cass City. Dog attacks on young deer have been a big problem in the area this fall, according to Otulakowski.

Wild dog packs increase in county, deer suffer

Veteran hunter Mike Otulakowski has seen it before; the remains of young deer that have been savagely attacked, partially eaten and then left to rot.

But this fall has been particularly bad, the Cass City area resident says.

It's no mystery, he's quick to point out. "We've got a big, big problem with dogs." "We've always had a bit of a problem in the past; we've found an occasional deer. It seems we can't go anywhere around this area (without seeing or hearing dogs chase deer)," he said. "It's really gotten bad this last year."

"I don't know if people are dumping them off, or people don't want to take responsibility for their dogs. Some of them are local, some of them would very well be strays."

Otulakowski said he's found the remains of at least 5 deer taken down by dogs in recent weeks on land his family owns near the Cass City State Game Area, about 2 1/2 miles southeast of Cass City.

The attacks generally fit the same pattern, he explained, adding dogs usually get young deer.

"They'll run it right down and kill it, and they'll eat mainly the hind quarters and then leave the rest."

Otulakowski knows of at least 2 eyewitness accounts of such attacks, one of which he and 2 companions witnessed earlier this month.

Two dogs had been running a deer, but lost its scent at the Cass River, he recalled, adding 4 other dogs — 2 labs, a mixed terrier and a beagle — appeared and caught up with the animal in the river.

The dogs were jumping on the deer's head and face, and snapping at its hind legs. "One of the dogs was literally on the deer's back," he continued.

MORE ATTACKS

Tuscola County Conservation Officer Jim Gorno confirmed such attacks appear to be on the rise this fall.

"This year I think it's a little higher than in years past. I don't remember this many calls on dogs and deer," he remarked Friday.

It's a year-round problem that's accentuated in the fall, when hunters are in the field, according to the DNR officer. He pointed out that cats, which hunt down small game animals and birds, are a problem, too.

As for attacks on deer, the dogs involved aren't simply stray animals that have become wild. "A lot of them are family pets," Gorno said, adding attacks occur when these pets are allowed to run loose.

The problem is compounded by individuals who have several dogs that are allowed to come and go as they please. "That's my biggest problem right now," he noted.

"I've got several people right now who will get tickets pretty soon if they don't chain their dog. There is a county law — you have to keep your dog chained up — they refer to it as a leash law."

FAMILY PET

Gorno explained that a friendly family pet becomes a different animal in the wild. "Once they're on a track, and especially when other dogs join in — packs are the worst," he added.

Otulakowski agreed, saying the attacks he's aware of in past years generally have involved more than one dog — usually 2 or 3 at a time. What he's seen this fall, however, disturbs him.

"This year, we're experiencing 4 to 8 dogs in a pack, and when you start getting a larger pack, that's when they can get really mean."

That translates into a real threat to hunters as well as to the area's population of fawns, Otulakowski believes. The resident said he usually sees 50 to 60 yearlings during an average hunting season, but to date this year, he's seen only 2.

"I think what (the dogs) are doing is killing all the young fawns."

Otulakowski, who has 3 dogs of his own, commented that irresponsible pet owners — not their pets — are to blame.

"It's only instinct for a dog to hunt out on its own. I'm a firm believer that if you have an animal, you take care of it. You assume responsibility."

According to Gorno, pet owners who don't share that belief may lose their pets.

"People just don't chain up their dogs, and I'll tell you, they're going to lose them," he remarked. "I'll shoot a dog that's running a deer in a second."

Gorno pointed out that hunters don't have legal authority to kill dogs that are chasing deer. He acknowledged, however, that conservation officers aren't responsible for all dogs that come up missing in the county.

"There are a lot of people in this area who wouldn't think twice about shooting a dog," he said.

Edison eyes last 2 industrial park sites

Cass City officials may have to post a no vacancy sign at the village's 35-acre industrial park.

As expected, the Village Council last week formally approved the sale of 13 acres of industrial park property to the Detroit Edison Company, as well as a motion to abandon Industrial and Park streets where the roadways about the land to be sold.

But the council also learned Edison officials are interested in buying another 5 acres — the 2 remaining vacant lots — in the park.

Village Manager Lou S. LaPonsie indicated the council was willing to immediately approve sale of the additional acreage.

However, officials first sought a legal opinion, which confirmed that the village will be required to hold a separate public hearing on sale of the 2 lots. LaPonsie indicated the hearing will be scheduled as soon as possible.

Provided the sale is consummated, the industrial park, currently home to Marshall Distributing, UPS, Huron Industrial Supply and an Edison storage facility, will be at capacity. However, the village has another 30.5 acres of land, slated for future industrial use, just west of the existing park across Doerr Road.

Aside from village officials, no citizens attended last Wednesday's public hearing, which was conducted to hear comments on the proposed sale of the original 13 acres sought by Edison officials.

The initial purchase price of industrial park property is $5,000 per acre, but the actual cost to Edison will be significantly less due to an incentive that provides for a reduction in the price tied to employment brought to the village.

Although the deal has not been finalized yet, Edison has submitted an option agreement to the village, according to LaPonsie, who stated the utility is looking at constructing a 50,000 square foot building.

The building site, located south and east of Edison's storage facility, will be home to the utility's new

Visiting expert tells group

Develop tourism with market strategy

The first step toward a unified campaign to develop the tourist industry in Tuscola County was taken Friday noon when a group of about 20 interested Tuscola County business and professional people attended a luncheon at Caro.

Dr. Ed Mahoney, extension specialist from Michigan State University Parks and Recreation Department, told the group what it takes to be successful.

The one thing that you must have at the beginning is a market strategy, he says. That's different from sitting down and composing a brochure asking everyone to come to Tuscola County, he points out.

What a market strategy entails is deciding where you want to be 10 years from now and going after the market segments to fit the objective. It's "a comprehensive and objective examination of the environment which will influence what type of community and county you can become," said Mahoney.

Two broad goals must be included in any strategy if it is to succeed, Mahoney feels. The first is that the results must benefit small business and the second is that it must improve the quality of life for residents.

IMPORTANT

Mahoney cited figures to show the importance of tourists to the economy. In Tuscola County, 629 workers were employed in the private sector in tourist-related businesses, 8 percent of the work force.

In Huron County, 815 jobs are created and in Sanilac, 493 jobs. We define tourist business as anyone getting into his car and going somewhere to spend money, Mahoney said.

One of the areas in which tourism growth will expand is with ethnic groups, Afro-Americans, Hispanics, and single women. These people have money to spend, he says, and are the wave of the future.

ACTION

Police plan patrols for Halloween

Although Halloween escapes have been comparatively minor in recent years, Cass City Police Chief Gene Wilson is preparing to have special patrols on duty on Wednesday (Devils' Night) and Halloween night, Thursday.

There will be 4 officers on duty both nights, Wilson said. We have a few incidents every year, but hopefully this year will continue to be one where major damage is avoided.

People sometimes ask where I get ideas for columns. The answer is wherever I can find them.

Just watching everyday events and people supplies a lot of grist for the column mill. And some kind reader always sends along something just when it's needed most.

I used to worry about running out of topics, so I became an avid clipper. Every time something in a newspaper or magazine gave me an idea, it was clipped and filed.

At first, it was a very neatly organized affair. Every item was filed and labeled by subject matter, date, etc. Isn't that how it always starts?

Later it evolved into drawers and boxes jammed with scraps of torn paper clippings, note pads, envelopes and unidentifiable objects that never again saw the light of day.

In an effort to reorganize, I went through one of the desk drawers the other day and found some things of interest. One was a neatly folded paper towel with figures and letters that looked suspiciously like some kind of test. Under A, B, C, D, were "Wellah, Willah, Willah" and something scratched out. Under the numbers 1-10 were such items as Greece, Rice, Waterspout and Spelunking.

I have no idea where it came from or what it means, and it would take a lot of imagination to make a column out of it.

Among the items that did have possibilities were the following:

It's not a good idea to dry your money in the microwave.

A worker in the Treasury Department's Office of Currency Standards, whose responsibility it is to salvage damaged currency for hopeful owners, says that microwaving wet bills produces crispy, blackened currency.

She reported that the department gets a lot of blackened greenbacks that people have put in the microwave to dry out.

They have also received money that was fried by battery acid after being hidden under the hood of a car, $52,000 worth of $20 bills that were buried years ago in plastic bags and were as hard as bricks, and even a cow's stomach with a man's wallet still in it.

It's a little known right of Americans to have their damaged currency redeemed by the government. As long as the people in the Treasury office can resurrect 51% of a bill, it's redeemable.

ASSE offers exchange program

Qualified high school students are offered a unique opportunity to spend an academic year or summer holiday in Scandinavia, Germany, France, Italy, Switzerland, Britain, Holland, Spain, Mexico, New Zealand or Canada (French or English speaking) as part of the ASSE International Student Exchange Program, according to Corinne Channing, Midwestern Regional director of ASSE.

"Until a few years ago, only a fortunate few could afford to spend a school year or summer abroad. Now, ASSE has changed all that," continued Channing.

Students 15 to 18 years old qualify on the basis of academic performance, character references and a genuine desire to experience life abroad with a volunteer host family from Europe, Canada, New Zealand or Mexico.

ASSE also provides international opportunities for families to host students from Scandinavia, Germany, France, Switzerland, Britain, Italy, Holland, Mexico, Spain, New Zealand, Canada and Japan. These select students are 15 to 18 years old and will attend the local school for an academic year.

Students or families interested in more information about the ASSE program can contact Kathy Mitchell at (517) 843-5834, or call toll-free 1-800-736-1760.

McNeil, Cass City, recently enlisted in the United States Army Reserve for an 8-year tour of duty as a motor transport operator. He is assigned to the 38th Field Artillery Battalion, Saginaw. McNeil is scheduled to report for active duty January 21, 1992, and is slated to receive basic and advanced training at Fort Leonard Wood, Missouri.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Cooley

Dana Michelle Zdrojewski, formerly of Cass City, currently residing in Sterling Heights, became the bride of Martin Allan Cooley, Sterling Heights, July 20 at St. Pancratius Catholic Church in Cass City.

Ken and Michelle Zdrojewski of Cass City are Dana's parents and Martin and Barbara Cooley of Detroit are Marty's parents.

The Rev. Julius Spleet performed the double ring ceremony, with Aaron Hewitt, friend of the bride's family, serving at the altar. Connie Iwankovitch provided vocals and music throughout the ceremony. The bride's mother sang the communion song. Dana's uncle, Guy McGladdery of Negaunee, and Marty's godfather, Al Gross of Detroit, read the scripture readings.

The groom was escorted to the altar by his parents followed by his brother, Steve Cooley of Detroit, as best man, and Tena LaPratt of Cass City, close friend of the bride, as matron of honor. Next were Jon and Deirda Zdrojewski of Gageton, brother and sister-in-law of the bride.

Douglas Zdrojewski of Cass City, the bride's brother, and Lorie Riley of East Detroit, friend of the bride, and Bobby Cooley of Detroit, the groom's brother, and Kristy Zdrojewski of Minden City, cousin of the bride, were the other attendants. The bride walked to the altar with her parents.

The altar was decorated with fresh carnations, pink snapdragons and baby's breath. The Unity Candle had a fresh flower ring of garden flowers encircling its base.

The bride wore a romantic gown of white bridal satin with a bead and sequin embroidered organza overlay with a chapel length train. The princess neckline was trimmed with beaded and sequined atencion motifs with a basque waistline and long tapered sleeves. A fabric bow in the back held her train of satin and organza. Her headpiece was an arrangement of flowers and sprays of pearls, with a fingertip veil and pouf. She carried a bouquet of white and light pink carnations and roses.

The 4 bridesmaids wore fuchsia taffeta street length dresses with straight skirts, basque bodices and off the shoulder short sleeves. The back of the dresses were accented with a large bow. They each carried round bouquets of light pink carnations.

The bride's mother wore a 3-piece suit. The fitted jacket, with long tapered sleeves, and street length straight skirt were a peacock moire taffeta. The jacket was highlighted with a large, soft white collar, sequin buttons and a white shell top. The groom's mother wore a mint green street length sheath dress with a shimmering lace overlay of the same color.

The reception was held at the Caro Knights of Columbus Hall, with 300 guests attending from Cass City, Minden City, Palms, Negaunee, Sterling Heights, Columbus, Ohio, and the Detroit area.

The newlyweds went to the Smoky Mountains and Myrtle Beach, S.C., for a wedding trip. They currently live in Sterling Heights, where Marty is employed at Norbert Industries and Dana, a graduate of Ferris State University, is a secretary at Harper Hospital in Detroit.

If you enjoy food on the hot, spicy side, try Bosley's on Pierson Road in Flint. There's a variety of blackened fish available. The tuna I had was enjoyable. Another in our family group of 15 had blackened prime rib, also good.

Prices are about average for an up-scale restaurant, perhaps an average of $13 each. A bonus was that we dined in a room by ourselves and the service was good. And I always feel it's a plus when the meal is served on fine linen tablecloths.

Anyway the balmy unseasonably warm days we all enjoyed the last 2 weeks sparks a reminder of that year when there was virtually no snow all winter and groups of golfers played a round in reasonable comfort the day after Christmas.

TREAT LYME DISEASE EARLY

Deer ticks have increased in recent years, both in number and in their range. These small ticks are very hard to pull out once they have become attached -- often the mouthparts break off in the skin and need to be removed by your doctor. But worse than this inconvenience is that they occasionally transmit Lyme Disease.

Lyme Disease is a bacterial infection that can cause a rash, swollen joints, fevers, fatigue, and even symptoms related to the nerves, brain and heart.

The first and most common symptom is the rash which consists of a large, red patch of skin which may or may not be painful and will usually fade over several days to a couple weeks.

If Lyme Disease progresses to the secondary stages, a person may develop an arthritis, especially of the larger joints like the knees and shoulders. The joint may be quite swollen and red or just painful.

When the infection is first suspected it should be treated with tetracycline or penicillin, which greatly helps prevent the arthritis and subsequent symptoms. If the more serious secondary stages develop, antibiotics may have to be given intravenously and for a longer time.

Most cases develop in June and July but it can occur almost any time of the year. Tick repellents such as DEET or permethrin are quite useful in keeping the tick away, but the most important thing to do is check for ticks after being in tall grass and brush.

To prevent the unnecessary complications with the joints and neurological symptoms, it is very important to treat Lyme Disease early.

CASS CITY SCHOOL NEWS

Since the beginning of Public Act 25, there has been a great amount of work completed at Cass City High School. The staff's concern is to improve our school system so that our students receive the best possible education.

Some of the changes made to date are having a positive impact. Passing time between classes has been adjusted and has dramatically reduced student tardies. A new social studies block has been added to the curriculum and it is our hope that the drop out rate will be reduced for at-risk students. The entire science curriculum is being reviewed. Our staff's goal is to have a complete Kindergarten through 12th grade updated science curriculum by the end of this school year.

Another notable change was made with parent-teacher conferences. In the past, the high school's parent-teacher conferences were held during the normal school day period. This year we altered the time for conferences to include evening sessions. Our hope was that this would offer more parents an opportunity to attend conferences. We feel this modification has proved to be successful. Our attendance at this year's teacher conferences was up by more than 16%. Over 130 conferences were held. One favorable result of the evening conferences was that it appeared more fathers were able to attend.

We want to thank all of those who attended this year's conferences. To those parents who were unable to attend, we welcome and encourage you to schedule an appointment with your child's teachers.

The next marking period ends November 22, 1991. We hope that you always feel welcome at Cass City High School.

Grant funding approved

Huron Extension officials announce 2 new programs

The Huron County Cooperative Extension Service received a 3-year grant from the W.K. Kellogg Foundation in April to develop 2 new programs for Huron County.

A 2-year leadership development program has been initiated and participants for the program are currently being identified. The purpose of the leadership program is to help individuals develop personal leadership skills, learn to deal with conflict resolution, learn how to work with the media, and learn how to interact with policy makers on the state level.

The second program is entitled "Environomics '92". It is an integrated crop management program sponsored by the Huron County Cooperative Extension Service.

As part of the program, a Crop Management Association (CMA) will be developed. The CMA will be an organization led by farmers. The tentative goal of the organization would be to promote economical, efficient and environmentally sound crop production practices on its members' farms.

For the past several years, the Huron County Cooperative Extension Service, in cooperation with the Huron County Corn Growers, Huron Farm Service Corp., MSU specialists and others, has been conducting an extensive farm-scale plot program.

The CMA would provide an opportunity for more grower input into what needs to be looked at in the plot program. Each plot would not only look at the production techniques (planting rate, row width, yields, etc.), it would also look at the economic returns from utilizing the practice.

In addition, the environmental impact would be assessed. Water quality is an important issue in the Huron County area and the impact of each practice on water quality needs to be considered.

The first meeting for this project will be held in mid-December. The purpose will be to review the results of this year's demonstration plots. Plots were conducted this year to look at nitrogen applications following soil testing, narrow row production, subirrigation, overhead irrigation vs. no irrigation, using rootworm insecticide on first and second year corn, and variety trials on corn, soybeans, dry beans, oats and barley. At this first meeting, plans will be set for organizing the CMA and ideas for next year's plots will also be gathered.

Crop Management Associations and Crop Improvement Associations have been developed in many other states and in Ontario. Growers have utilized the organization to look at new production techniques, compare ideas with other growers and organize trips to study how growers in other areas are applying new technology.

Everyone is invited to attend the organizational meeting. Further information is available by contacting Jim LeCureux at the Huron County Cooperative Extension office in Bad Axe.

The Haire Net

Where do you get your ideas for columns?, a friend asked the other day and, is it hard to think of topics?

The answer is yes and no. Topics are easy. Finding one that makes me want to write about it sometimes is frustrating.

In every issue of the newspaper there are many stories that tickle the nerve, spark a reaction. Many could be used for a complete column if there were time and sources to research the facts. Here's a sample from the Oct. 23 issue of the Detroit News.

The story: Deep trouble ahead for the Big 3 as losses mount.

A peg for a column about Japanese imports and should they be restricted, if there ever was one.

The story: House adopts anti-crime bill that includes the death penalty for more than 50 federal crimes.

A bill passed despite the fact that statistics show the death penalty is not a deterrent to crime.

The story: Chief dismisses critics questioning wildfire strategy. (Did he wait too long to get help?)

The story: Signs of ancient rainstorms indicate Egypt's Great Sphinx may be as much as 4,000 years older than believed - which could rewrite the history of civilization, a group of scientists said.

That's a natural for a column, along the lines of it may be true, it may not be, and that it's a guess at best. And who really cares?

I could list probably 25 more that invite comment and could be of interest in this one paper, including the late start of the World Series and the family that plans a warm reunion for Jesse Turner, the ex-hostage.

By now you can see that finding topics for columns is not the problem. The problem is finding one that the reader relates to and for which enough information is easily available to defend whatever position is taken. There are hard columns and easy columns to write. Not surprising, I guess, is that the easy ones, the ones that take the less time to write, often are the ones that generate the most interest.

The easy ones are those about local people and local issues. Not always the one best accepted. That depends on the viewpoint of the reader. I can't count the number of times that readers have said to me, that was a great column you had last week and others say it was one of the poorest. True.

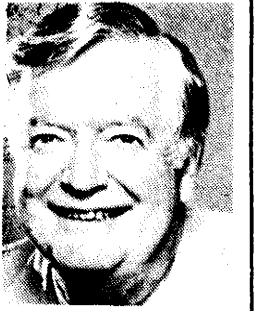

The thing is that those reactions are common when the columns are about local issues that hit where we live.

Opposed to that are columns like this that never spark a reader comment. But I publish them anyway.

"If It Fitz..."

Unromantic twerp

By Jim Fitzgerald

My wife and I watched as the 1991 World Series TV camera turned toward the grandstand crowd and showed Ted Turner, owner of the Atlanta Braves, in the grasp of actress Jane Fonda.

She didn't have one arm draped casually around his shoulders. She was sitting mostly sideways and had both arms wrapped tightly around his upper body, with her hands clasped on the far side. It looked as if Fonda were afraid Turner would leave to get a beer and never come back and she would have to walk home.

Then the camera panned to the right and revealed that Fonda and Turner were sharing box seats with Jimmy and Rosalyn Carter. The Carters weren't even holding hands. Suddenly, it was nostalgia time, circa 1977, when my wife and I were new big-city dwellers and often left the car at home and walked downtown so we could enjoy sneering at parking meters and snarling at parking lots.

JIMMY SETS STANDARD

During one January stroll, she asked why I didn't hold her hand. My response was that it would look silly for people our age to be holding hands in public, especially with me wearing mittens.

Jimmy Carter's inauguration was the next day, and the nation watched on TV as he shunned his limousine and walked a mile down Pennsylvania Avenue, from the Capitol to the White House, holding Rosalyn's hand all the way. The big showboat.

"Jimmy Carter is older than you are," my wife said, "and he holds his wife's hand while millions of people are watching. He loves his wife and doesn't care who knows it. She is lucky she didn't marry an unromantic twerp."

"I'm sorry I'm reluctant to make a public display of my affection," I said. "But I assure you that, in my heart, I lust for your hand."

SEE THE HAPPY COUPLE

I've always been wary of such visible physical exhibitions of lust as demonstrated by Fonda and Turner between innings instead of sheets. I suspect phoinness, a desire for approving, see-the-happy-couple attention. Me thinketh they huggeth too mucheth.

So, 14 years later at the ballpark, I was smug about noting that Jimmy and Rosalyn didn't posture gropingly like Ted and Jane did. "See, Carter isn't holding her hand because he's no longer running for public office," I said. "He only did it during the inauguration to attract the romantic vote."

My wife's response indicated she remained favorably impressed by love in the afternoon in the park in the middle of a sold-out concert. So, to make her happy, I may yet implement a plan that originally occurred to me several years ago during a contagiously noxious period when many idiot men gained nationwide publicity by hiring skywriters to scribble "I love Susie Glutz" across a cloud, or by buying $5,000 newspaper ads thanking a wife for 25 years of rampant rapture.

Pat is my wife's name and she enjoys watching lake freighters pass on the Detroit River. My first idea was to print this message along the side of the biggest boat on the Great Lakes: "I'll Always Stand Pat."

But an erudite drama critic suggested it would be classier if I quoted Shakespeare: "Now might I do it, Pat?" from "Hamlet."

Or, from "A Midsummer Night's Dream": "Pat, Pat...here's a marvelous convenient place for our rehearsal."

What do you think? I think if we're going to rehearse it and do it on a freighter in the middle of the river, I'd better wear my mittens.

On the farm
By Dennis Stein
Tuscola County Cooperative Extension Director

With the corn harvest well underway, producers are seeing just how much European corn borer damage is present this year. Given the heavy populations of ECB, some producers are considering stalk shredding or fall tillage in an attempt to reduce next year's population. Several factors should be considered before deciding to invest time, fuel and labor in these practices. European corn borers overwinter in corn stalks as mature fifth instar larvae. While destroying stalks in the fall will kill some corn borers, these practices will not prevent ECB damage next year. Destroying stalks on individual fields or farms may have no noticeable effect on ECB populations. The moths are quite mobile and will fly several miles. Some entomologists believe that stalk shredding by many producers in a given area can lower the spring flight the following year. However, even this amount of effort may not result in significantly lower damage. The major factors that determine how serious ECB will be in a given year are the environmental conditions that occur during moth flight and egg hatch. Favorable conditions such as warm, calm evenings and lack of hard rainfall, will allow high egg laying and larval survival. In 1991 near ideal conditions for ECB occurred and the populations exploded. The bottom line is that while stalk shredding does have a limited benefit if practiced on an area wide basis, it is very unlikely that the benefit will exceed the cost. Fall tillage, particularly if it increases risk of soil erosion, is also not an economically viable option. I believe that producers would be money ahead to channel their enthusiasm for ECB management into scouting next spring, when we know that sound economic decisions can be made.

The Rev. Dave Smith remembers passing through Cass City nearly 10 years ago while serving as a pastor in Deckerville. It was February 1982, and as he drove through town, he recalls, "I can remember thinking to myself, I wonder if there's a Presbyterian church here." Smith, 41, couldn't have known it at the time, but 9 years later, he would be chosen to serve as pastor of the First Presbyterian Church in Cass City. And although the new pastor has been in Cass City only a short time, he indicated he couldn't be more satisfied with the way things have turned out. Smith said he and his wife, Betty, feel as comfortable here as they did while serving their first church several years ago in the Thumb. "It's very much like the experience (we) had in Deckerville," he remarked, adding the couple, who have 2 daughters, Kim, 18, a student at Grand Valley State University, and Becky, 14, an eighth grader, have received "a down-to-Earth and warm kind of response."

The family comes to Cass City from a church in Stockbridge, located between Ann Arbor and Lansing, where Smith had served as pastor since 1984. Prior to that, he spent 2 years in Greene, Iowa, after ministering in Deckerville — his first church — from 1979 to 1982. Originally from Roseville, a suburb of Detroit, Smith attended the University of Detroit after graduating from Roseville High School. Completion of his undergraduate studies was delayed, however, when he was drafted by the Army. Smith served 31 months in Germany as an MP, then returned home to graduate in 1976. He went on to earn his master of divinity degree, graduating in 1979 from the Louisville Presbyterian Theological Seminary, Louisville, Ky. Since then, the pastor has served his churches. And his country. A chaplain in the Army Reserves, he was called to duty in January to serve in Operation Desert Storm. He reported with his unit, the First Brigade, 70th Division of Inkster, Mich., to Ft. Benning, Ga., the unit's mobilization site. There, Smith worked primarily with basic trainees during his 2 months of duty. Basic training is very intense, and for a lot of trainees, the war was definitely on their minds, he recalled. "Almost all of the unit I served with had no hesitation about going," he continued. "When the mobilization order came, it was a relief." Smith pointed out the demand for chaplains — who worked to uplift the morale and spirits of soldiers — was very high both overseas and state-side during the war. The whole experience was very satisfying, he said. Now, the pastor is focusing his attention on serving in Cass City. Judging by his comments, it's a challenge he's already enjoying. "The church has a fantastic music program and I left a church that has a fantastic music program, so I'm looking forward to continuing that." Smith, who noted his wife is very active in women's functions and associations in the church, as well as being a substitute teacher, remarked he's also looking forward to participating and having some fun in his new ministry. "To me, it's quite enjoyable to share in the ministry and have some moments of laughter together," he concluded.

Parks sparks 16-14 win Owen-Gage bounces back with victory over CPS

After 4 straight losses, 3 without tallying a point, it would have been easy for Coach Arnie Besonen's gridders to roll over and play dead at Carsonville Saturday when the hosts took a 14-6 lead late in the second half.
However, Bulldog senior Mickey Parks had other ideas.
Parks, who rushed for a game high 156 yards on 16 carries, scored the game's final 2 markers to help lift the 'Dogs to a 16-14 come-from-behind win.

"It was nice to find the end zone again," said head mentor Besonen.

The visitors used a splendid opening kickoff return from Curtis Garza to set up their first score in their last 13 quarters of play.
Shane Martindale accounted for the marker when he crossed the goal line from 2 yards out. Martindale's touchdown would end the scoring in the initial stanza, putting the Bulldogs in front 6-0.

Bulldogs down AuGres, CPS; record now 11-4

Coach Dean Roller's Owen-Gage Bulldogs picked up 2 more victories last week, defeating AuGres and CPS to improve their record to 11-4.

Both wins were extremely pleasing to the veteran mentor.
Tuesday's 52-42 victory at home over AuGres re-venge the 'Dogs' first loss of the year, a 59-52 overtime defeat on the Wolverines' home floor in early September.

Thursday the Bulldogs traveled to CPS and came away with not only a 51-39 triumph, but with something that has been missing most of the season.
"Our inside game came to life, finally," commented Roller.

And it couldn't have come at a better time. The Bulldogs will travel to face league leading Peck Thursday.
Against AuGres, Michelle Tkacz, the area's leading scorer, showcased her talents as she burned the nets for 28 points, including 14 in the final stanza, where the Bulldogs outscored the visitors 21-12 to win going away.

Although Tkacz accounted for most of the hosts' offense, Coach Roller praised a team defense for the win. "Defense won this game. We did a good job stopping Dittenber inside."
Dittenber, a 6' 1" center who burned the Bulldogs for 25 points in the 2 schools' first meeting, was held to 13 points and only 2 charity tosses down the stretch.

Deadlocked at 7 after the opening quarter, Owen-Gage spurred to a 23-15 lead at the intermission as a balanced offensive attack saw 5 different Bulldogs enter the score book.
The Wolverines used a 7-0 advantage on the foul line in the third quarter to close the hosts' advantage to a single point, 31-30, heading into the contest's final stanza, where Tkacz caught fire.

The lightning quick guard poured in 5 baskets, including one behind the 3-point arc, to go along with 3 free throws to single-handedly outscore the visitors, 14-12, in the final and deciding stanza.
Thursday the Bulldogs traveled to CPS and defeated the Tigers for the second time this year, coasting to a 51-39 decision.

What pleased Roller most in the win was the inside play of Jill Susalla and Lisa Dorsch.

Susalla and Dorsch combined for 24 points in the contest, that helped combat some sloppy ball handling by the visitors. Owen-Gage was charged with 29 turnovers on the night.
CPS's Karla Stacer and Owen-Gage's Carli Salcido traded buckets for most of the opening quarter, as each player recorded 3 buckets for their respective teams. The quarter ended with the Bulldogs in front 14-9.

Although the Bulldogs never trailed, it was Dorsch's and Susalla's efforts in the final quarter that preserved the win.
Susalla, who had a team high 14 points, as did Tkacz, nailed 3 jumpers from the box in the final stanza, while Dorsch went a perfect 4-4 from the foul line to keep the Tigers at a safe distance in the game's final 8 minutes.

That's when Parks took things into his own hands. The Bulldogs marched 75 yards on only 3 plays, all rushes by Parks, to pull within 2 points of the Tigers heading into the final quarter.

Parks then notched the game winning touchdown on a one-yard dive with 5:51 remaining on the clock.
CPS had one chance late in the game to pull out the win but a fine interception by Mike Merchant, who returned the errant pass to the Tigers' own 30 yard line preserved the victory.

Coach Besonen praised the defensive efforts of G. Emmons, who continues to show improvement. He had the winners with 17 tackles. Matt Mandich also turned in a solid defensive performance, recording 14 stops.
The 'Dogs' final game of the year is slated for Saturday at North Branch Wesleyan. Kickoff is scheduled for 1:00 p.m.

Hawks win 2, Marlette here Thursday with title at stake

It's hard to beat a team 4 times in one season, especially a team that has proven talent and is in the hunt for a championship. But if the Hawks are to become the undisputed champions of the Blue Bay League, that's what the Cass City basketball team must do Thursday when Marlette comes to town.

With a pair of wins, the Hawks moved their season's record to 12-2 overall and 7-2 in the league with a non-league decision over Deckerville, 51-29, Tuesday, Oct. 22, and a conference victory over Bad Axe, 46-31, Thursday.

Since Marlette did Cass City a favor by defeating the Lakers this week, Cass City now holds a game lead over Marlette (7-3) and 2 games over Lakers (6-4).

A win over Marlette would virtually assure a league title for the Hawks as, with only 2 games left, the girls would have a 2-game lead over the field.

The road to the title would be much easier if Jodi Schember could bomb the nets every night as she did in the easy win over Deckerville.

The sophomore forward was 6 for 8 from 3-point range, added a pair of 2-pointers and converted 4 of 4 free throws for a career-high 28 points for the night.

With the offensive explosion and some tight defense by Jodi Hillaker and Jenny Storm on Melanie Mosure and Michelle Meissner, the Hawks won easily. Helping out on the defense were Jennifer Freundt and Darcie Monroe.

The game was decided in the second quarter when the Hawks broke open a close game. Schember ripped in 12 points in the period and Barb Kelley came off the bench to notch a pair of buckets while the Eagles were held to a pair of free throws by Paula Nutzman. At the intermission Cass City was in front 25-8.

Schember notched 3 3-pointers in the third quarter and Hillaker added 5 points to widen the margin to 43-23 going into the final period.

CASS CITY - box scores: Schember 3-6-4-4-28; Hillaker 2-0-1-5-5; Monroe 1-0-4-12-6; Leiterman 0-0-3-4-3; Freundt 1-0-1-2-3; B. Kelley 3-0-0-0-6. TOTALS: 10-6-13-27-51

DECKERVILLE - box scores: Brinker 0-0-2-2-2; Mosure 2-1-2-5-9; Nutzman 1-0-2-2-4; Kelke 0-0-2-2-2; Bartsch 1-0-0-2-2; Meissner 3-0-4-8-10. TOTALS: 7-1-12-22-29.

BAD AXE GAME

Cass City's big 3 in the scoring column, Schember, Hillaker and Storm, all were on target against the Hatchets and, as a result, the Hawks posted an easy win over the Bad Axe Hatchets, who are cellar dwellers in the Blue Bay League.

Cass City jumped off to a 12-6 lead as the trio accounted for all the first quarter points, 5 of them by Storm.

Cass City posted margins in each of the next 3 periods, but Bad Axe stayed reasonably close until the final quarter. Going into the final period the Hawk margin was only 6 points, 31-25. Heidi Reimann kept her team close with 13 points scored in the middle 2 periods.

Although the team won with comparative ease, it was not the best of shooting nights as Cass City hit just 37 percent from the floor and a miserable 5 of 13 from the free throw line. Hawks in double figures were Storm, 15, Schember, 13, and Hillaker, 12.

JV RESULTS

In junior varsity competition the Hawks split, defeating Bad Axe, 47-43, and losing to Deckerville, 53-45.

CASS CITY - box scores: Schember 2-3-0-0-13; Hillaker 6-0-0-1-12; Monroe 2-0-0-6-4; Storm 5-0-5-6-15; Leiterman 1-0-0-0-2. TOTALS: 16-3-5-13-46.

BAD AXE - box scores: Grigg 2-0-0-0-4; Moore 3-0-0-0-6; Polega 2-0-0-0-4; H. Reimann 7-0-3-3-17. TOTALS: 14-0-3-3-31.

CASS CITY'S JODI HILLAKER beats Deckerville's Monica Spranger off the dribble in the Hawks' 51-29 nonconference win.

Pair earn cross-country honors

For the second straight Romstad qualified for the state finals in cross country, Cass City's Jennifer track, by finishing 17th in the regionals held Saturday at Bad Axe. Hawk girls trailed the field in the 13-team competition with 284 points. Capac, with 77 points, topped the field, edging second place Frankenthum, which finished with 79 points.

Other runners for the girls' team were: Jeanie Clor (25.56.03), Tara Charboneau (28.25.88), Tina Pallas (29.14.29) and Kristy Gnagy (30.28.44).

Coach Dennis Meck was pleased with the showings of the boys' team, which finished eighth with 255 points. Mayville won with 86 points, followed by Sandusky with 92 points.

Top runner for Cass City was Barry Hornbacher, who finished 25th with a time of 17.56.29. Other results were: Jeff Schember (18.33.03), Noel Hornbacher (18.44.99), Joe

Eason completes training

Pvt. 2 Brandelyn D. Eason has completed her basic training and AIT.

Brandelyn Eason

She is an Oct. 16 graduate of the U.S. Army Military Police School at Fort McClellan, Ala.

Eason has been assigned to the 572nd M.P. Co. at Fort Ritchie, Md.

She is a 1991 graduate of Cass City High School.

For the second time this year, the Cass City Red Hawks came from behind to defeat Marlette Friday in a Blue Bay League battle, 30-29.

The win keeps Cass City out of the league basement with a 2-4 record, above the Red Raiders, who are 1-5 in conference play. The game marked the end of conference action and the Hawks will wind up the season this Friday when they host Brown City.

It was a see-saw game all the way. Marlette opened the scoring with a touchdown on a 4-yard run by Shane Hunter at the 8:26 mark in the opening period. Cass City got that marker back just before the end of the quarter on a one-yard pass to Domonick Vargo. Both extra points tries were missed.

In the second period it looked as if Marlette was taking control of the game. Phil Motz scored twice and was successful in one of 2 tries for extra points. The first score came on a 3-yard run with 4:13 left. A minute and 4 seconds later he ran for another touchdown on a 15-yard burst.

There was just 2:56 left in the half and the Hawks trailed, 20-6. But that was time enough for Cass City to get back in the game. The Hawks struck through the air with a touchdown on a pass from Brad Gray to Lyle Severance that covered 11 yards. A pass from Gray to Vargo accounted for the extra points.

The Hawks went ahead for the first time in the game in the third period when Brandon Toner capped a drive with a 5-yard touchdown run. Toner ran for the extra points and the Hawks were ahead, 22-20, going into the final period.

That lead didn't last long as Marlette went ahead by a point on a 31-yard field goal by Nathan Hager with 11:42 left.

The lead stretched to 7 points when Motz broke loose for 56 yards and the final Raider touchdown of the night. The crucial extra point was missed.

The Hawks scored the winning points with 6:25 left. Dirk DeLong capped a drive with a 4-yard run and Toner ran in the extra points to give Cass City the one-point victory.

The DeLongs had a big night for Cass City. Dirk carried the ball 6 times for 46 yards, a 7.7 average. Dana was credited with 21 tackles on defense, 4 of which were unassisted.

AAA Michigan reports Deer-vehicle accidents down

An estimated 735,000 deer hunters are expected to head to favorite Michigan hunting spots between Nov. 15-30 and spend $350 million - $476 per hunter - on arms, ammunition, licenses, transportation, food and lodging, AAA Michigan reports.

There's more good news to report as this hunting season gets underway. Last year, Michigan deer/vehicle crashes dropped for the first time since 1982, down 1.8 percent from the 46,784 crashes in 1989.

"While that shows improvement, the number is still up 60 percent from 1985," said Robert V. Cullen, AAA Michigan manager of Community Safety Services.

Cullen said there is a direct relationship between the size of the deer herd and the number of crashes per million miles of travel. "Generally, more deer/vehicle crashes occur when deer populations within a county are higher than average or when the number of miles traveled within that county are higher than average," he said.

The highest number of accidents last year were reported in Kent County with 1,613, followed by Calhoun with 1,368 and Montcalm with 1,268.

Statewide, deer/vehicle crashes peaked in 1989 when the deer herd was 2 million strong. In 1990, the herd was 1.8 million. This year's herd estimate is 1.7 million, which could cause a further decline in deer/vehicle crashes.

Last year these crashes resulted in one death, down from 5 in 1989. However, injuries were up 9 percent, from 1,800 to 1,957. Car repair bills for deer-vehicle crashes generally average $1,200 per vehicle.

This season, AAA Michigan advises motorists to always wear a safety belt and heed the following tips:

- * Drive cautiously in "Deer Crossing" areas but also be alert on all highways and local roads, since deer may cross anywhere. Most accidents happen on paved local roads with fewer reported on interstates or unpaved roads.
- * Be alert for shining eyes at night. Motionless deer on the roadside can be "frozen" by activating the vehicle's high beams.
- * Drive slowly after spotting a deer. Assume more deer are nearby. Don't try to dodge a moving deer. Most injuries and deaths occur when the driver swerves to miss the deer, loses vehicle control and strikes another object or rolls over.
- * Report all accidents to local police, Department of Natural Resources or the sheriff's office and your insurance company.

High school floats deserved coverage

Dear Editor:
As a representative of Cass City High School's Student Council, I wish to express

Production declined

Between 1975 and 1983, the U.S. share of world steel production declined from 16 to 12 percent; for autos, the drop in volume was 22 percent, according to "Workshop 2000," a U.S. Labor Department publication.

the disappointment that we felt when we anxiously read the Chronicle and did not see any acknowledgement of the high school's floats. Many students and parents put hours of planning and hard work into making a display of creative floats. This is an important part of the homecoming activities and we felt it deserved some recognition.

Yours truly,

Mutual Savings Bank airs 3rd quarter profit

Mutual Savings Bank posted a $1,044,000 profit for the third quarter ending Sept. 30, according to Wendell L. Evans Jr., president and board chairman. During the same quarter one year ago the bank earned $138,574.

Year-to-date profits for 1991 amount to $5,756,147 as compared to the same period in 1990 of $1,392,120.

The institution's retail deposit base has increased over $21 million in the 25 offices across the State this year. Total retail deposits amounted to $519 million. "The increases in deposits from families and individuals can be attributed to Mutual's very popular certificate of deposit which has no penalty for early withdrawal," Evans said. Most savings certificates penalize the depositor if the proceeds are withdrawn prior to maturity.

More than 1,000 mortgage loans amounting to $50,648,904 were made during the first 9 months of the year, compared to 250 loans totalling $12,807,123 during the same period the year before.

Mutual Savings Bank has 25 offices located throughout Michigan and has total footings of $695,956,731.

Your neighbor says

See Fred E. Krueger at JayCees' spook house

Whenever old friends stop by to say hello, a good feeling usually follows. However, that's not the case for Cass City resident, and your neighbor, Joel Palmateer.

Visiting the Cass City Hills & Dales Hospital employee over the past couple of days was none other than Fred E. Krueger.

Krueger says he's in town this week to help make the Cass City JayCees' 1991 spook house the best ever. "If everyone in this town doesn't come to see me and my friends (Wednesday and Thursday at the Cultural Center between 8:00 p.m. and 10:30 p.m.) I may decide to move to Cass City for good."

Palmateer, a 1978 graduate of Cass City High School and acting president of the JayCee Club, says he was pleased that some 650 kids attended the spook house over the past weekend during its opening 2 nights.

"Freddie" says that isn't good enough and invites parents and children to stop by and help him answer a question he's dying to find out.

"Is there an Elm Street in this village?"

Edison offers mini-grants to Michigan teachers

Thousands of students in Southeastern Michigan will discover the power of science this school year through $25,000 in grants provided by the Detroit Edison Foundation for teachers who develop projects on energy and the environment.

The grants, averaging $250 each, can help teachers offer creative, original projects that school budgets typically cannot afford. Now in its third year, the mini-grant program has awarded more than $30,000 to 76 area teachers since 1990.

"In a time when school funds are very tight, this program has given new life to teachers who enjoy and see the benefits of students applying scientific methods by working with many materials and resources, asking questions, identifying problems and developing skills that will be the basis of life-long learning," said LaMoine L. Motz, director of science, health and outdoor education, Oakland Schools.

"The mini-grant program is making a difference in helping students develop critical-thinking and problem-solving skills through identifying and solving real problems in their environment," he said.

The grants will be awarded in early 1992 to elementary and secondary school teachers in 10 Southeastern Michigan counties. Proposals will be judged by personnel from the intermediate school districts in Huron, Lapeer, Macomb, Monroe, Oakland, Sandusky, St. Clair, Tuscola, Washtenaw and Wayne counties.

Application forms and further information are available by contacting the local intermediate school district or calling Detroit Edison at 237-7187. Applications must be postmarked by Dec. 2.

Booster Club sells fruit

The Booster Club of the Deford Christian Academy announced recently that their members will conduct a fund-raising sale of fresh Indian River grapefruit and oranges from Florida. The sale began Oct. 25 and ends Nov. 4. The fruit will not be packed until the order is placed and will be shipped immediately, thereby making it the freshest that can possibly be purchased outside of Florida.

Proceeds from the sale will be used for sending students to A.C.E. International Student Convention in May 1992. For more information, call the Deford Community Church (517) 872-4055.

Tomatoes

Molecular biologists say they have produced a tomato that can be stored several months without spoiling because they blocked the gene that triggers natural ripening. The tomatoes can be ripened when needed by exposing them to ethylene gas.

TIPS FOR SAFE TRICK-OR-TREATING

- Trick-or-treat before dark.
- A mask obstructs vision so use makeup instead.
- Wear bright costumes with reflective tape so drivers can see you.
- Plan your route with your parents and select streets that are well-lighted.
- Cross streets at corners and look both ways before stepping off the curb. Never cross between parked cars or in the middle of the block.
- If there is no sidewalk, walk facing traffic well off the road.
- Parents or older children should chaperone young trick-or-treaters. Others should travel in groups.
- Adults should inspect all candy before it is eaten.
- Carry a flashlight so you can see and be seen.

age is avoided. Meanwhile, plans for trick or treaters were announced. Official trick or treat hours will be from 5:30 to 7 p.m. Home owners are asked to turn on porch lights. The annual Cass City Jay-Cee spook house returned to the basement of the Cass City Cultural Center on Main Street. It operated Friday and Saturday and will be open Wednesday from 8 to 10:30 p.m. and Thursday from 7:30 to 10:30 p.m.

SAFETY FIRST

Meanwhile, parents and motorists are reminded that Halloween can be very dangerous for children. Children must be cautioned to cross streets at corners and look for traffic in all directions before stepping off a curb. Drivers should be extra vigilant and limit speed in residential areas to 15 miles per hour during trick or treat hours.

Machine cuts bruised fruit

A new fruit bagging machine may make the journey from orchard to supermarket a less bruising experience for apples. Research has shown that the bagging operation causes more apple bruises than any other apple handling operation between the orchard and grocery store. The new machine reduces the amount of bruising in Golden Delicious apples by 93 percent.

Strategy needed to boost tourism

outlined. The first move will be to combine the groups working on tourism into one. Mahoney said it's been his experience that more than one never works.

Betty Patullo, tourism chairperson, Tuscola Economic Development Corporation, said the groups would be combined. Besides the EDC, a group under the direction of Carol Brown, tourism chairman Tuscola 2001, Inc., has been formed to promote the industry.

When the groups are combined, Mahoney promised to lead a one-day seminar on how to develop a marketing strategy. Tuscola County and Arenac County are the only 2 among 6 that are in the Saginaw Bay area that will receive the instruction.

The tourism promoters also have meetings set Nov. 4 with area legislators and members of the Department of Natural Resources and the Department of Commerce.

There doesn't appear to be any money from the state to fund the program, so Patullo told the group that a campaign to raise funds will be staged. We'll seek small donations from individuals of $10 and varying amounts from business and industry, she added.

DICK ALLEN

One of the legislators was at the meeting. Rep. Dick Allen introduced Mahoney, with whom he had worked previously to make bed and breakfast businesses legal. That business has grown since 1984 from 65 to about 450 businesses.

Allen said that one of the good things about the meeting is that it brought together persons county-wide.

I can remember, he said, when every community fought with one another. A little spirited competition is fine, but to achieve as much as possible, a united effort is needed. This is good to see, he concluded.

centralized Thumb office complex.

The project is the result of a restructuring and centralizing of regional offices and service centers in the northern 3 counties of the Edison's 5-county Thumb Division.

A total of 6 offices and service centers, now operating in Caro, Bad Axe and Sandusky, will be combined under the plan. It's hoped the restructuring will enable the company to tailor services to the Thumb community as well as improve service installation and service restoration.

Edison officials say the project will result in smoother day-to-day operations as well as an annual savings in operations costs, which will be passed on to customers in the form of future rate adjustments.

Kingston Camp supporters seek zoning amendments

The Koylton Township Zoning Board was scheduled to continue hearing testimony today (Wednesday) on proposed zoning ordinance amendments that would legalize operation of Pioneer Work and Learn Center in the township.

The meeting, which was continued from Oct. 15, was scheduled to begin at 7:30 p.m. at the Koylton Township Office, 3655 Ross St., Kingston.

Pioneer Work and Learn Center officials are requesting the following amendments:

1) That the ordinance be amended by repealing a 1988 amendment that prohibits camps, adult and/or juvenile detention or correction facilities.

2) That a section entitled Agricultural and Residential Districts, Uses and Buildings Permitted, be amended to allow by special use permit foster and juvenile care camp residential and educational facilities of the type currently being operated on the property by Pioneer Work and Learn Center, and other forms of year-round camping activities whether or not for profit.

Pioneer Work and Learn Center is a rehabilitation program for male juvenile delinquents who are first time wards of the state. The program is operated at Kingston Hills Camp under contract with the Department of Social Services.

Up to 50 youths undergo 6-month training sessions at the camp that combine outdoor wilderness experiences with schooling and vocational training. The youths then enter a 6-month "after-care" program at home.

The zoning ordinance amendments are being sought because use of Kingston Hills Camp by the Pioneer program has been ruled in violation of township zoning laws.

Pioneer officials, who have been ordered to vacate the property by Jan. 4, have announced plans to build a new program facility in Vassar, with plans to continue operating in Koylton Township provided the necessary zoning changes are approved.

Following today's hearing, the township Zoning Board is expected to make a recommendation, which will then be reviewed by the Tuscola County Planning Commission. Final action will be up to the Koylton Township Board.

A car driven by Janice L. Miller, 48, of 6173 Cedar Drive, Cass City, was unable to stop because of the wet pavement and collided with the rear of the Lovejoy vehicle.

Another 2-car mishap was reported by Cass City Police Thursday at 7:06 p.m. Charles Arthur Reed, 57, 6297 Lakeside Dr., Cass City, headed east on Main Street, stopped prior to turning left onto Nestles Street.

His vehicle was hit in the rear by one driven by Lyle David Severance, 16, 5899 Severance Rd., Decker. Severance told police he was adjusting his radio and didn't see the Reed car in time to stop. He was ticketed for failure to stop in an assured clear distance ahead.

A car parked on Oak Street, owned by Dolores Anne LeFond of Glennie, Mich., was hit Friday by a car driven by Lenora Lois Field, 57, 7796 Deckerville Road, Deford.

John Wayne Finkbeiner, 27, reported that he hit a deer early Wednesday morning while driving on Cemetery Road near Elmwood Road.
