"Cookie lady"

Postmaster McDonald retiring after 34 years

A smiling face, a helping hand, a friend, a member of the family. Owendale Postmaster Jeannette McDonald has tried to be all of these things and more to her customers.

To the youngest of post office patrons, she's known simply as the "cookie lady." After this week, McDonald will carry another label: retired.

Friday will be the last day on the job for the Owendale native, who after 34 years of service, including 16 years as postmaster, is ready to trade paperwork and mail sorting for family, Mozart and leisure.

"It has been fun. I'm very satisfied, but it's time to retire," she remarked Thursday.

"It's really gotten quite stressful, having to rush and get things done," she said. "The duties have increased;

I'm the janitor, I'm the supply clerk, I'm the payroll clerk. In the winter you shovel snow. You're responsible for every phase of the office."

"I still like to do 100 percent, and I'm getting worn out."

Despite the length of her tenure, McDonald's years with the postal service could be compared to a roller coaster ride.

She was hired as a 30-day temporary clerk in 1959. After that, she began working as a substitute clerk and in 1965, she was hired as a permanent clerk and was working 30 hours a week. But postal service cutbacks in the years that followed left her with only 3 hours a week as a fill-in postmaster by 1976.

APPLIED 3 TIMES

Times were tough, and

McDonald was looking for another job when she learned she had been chosen as the new postmaster — a position she had applied for 3 times.

"I remember they called me from Saginaw. They said, 'congratulations, you're the new postmaster of Owendale,'" McDonald said, adding she was asked not to tell anyone until the other candidates were notified.

"I wanted to go outside and yell, hip, hip, huray, I got a full-time job after 17 years."

McDonald brought her own personal touch to the office, including a cookie jar shaped like a street letter box. The tradition of handing cookies out began after a woman came into the office with an upset child.

"I had some crackers on the table, and the little child was crying while the mother was filling out a money order," she said. So, McDonald offered the child one of her crackers. "I got a great big smile," she added. "I even got a hug."

Now, school-age children make the post office a regular stop to say hello to McDonald and to bring her some flowers or other little gift, or to show her their report cards.

The people who walk in the office are like family, according to the 1952 Owendale Community School graduate and valedictorian, who married her high school sweetheart (football co-captain Bud McDonald) a year after graduation and raised 3 children in the community.

4 injured in 2-vehicle crash

A 15-year-old Deford area girl remains in critical condition at St. Mary's Medical Center, Saginaw, following a 2-vehicle collision that occurred in heavy fog Saturday morning about 6 miles southeast of Cass City.

Kristy L. Wood, 1405 Crawford Rd., underwent surgery Saturday to repair a spleen injury. The Cass City High School sophomore also suffered a bruised lung and broken pelvis.

A friend said Wood and Pamela S. Broyles, 17, a senior at Cass City High School, were on their way to gymnastics practice at the high school when the accident occurred. The pair are co-captains of the team.

According to Tuscola County Sheriff deputies, Broyles, 6842 Severance Rd., Cass City, who was driving, was northbound on Crawford Road at 8:54 a.m. when she failed to stop at the Deckerville Road intersection and was struck broadside by a westbound pickup truck driven by Larry E. Tuttle Jr., 25, of Saginaw.

Broyles told deputies it was too late to stop by the time she saw the stop sign.

After impact, one of the vehicles struck a Detroit Edison pole. The pickup ended up in a ditch on the north side of the road and the car came to rest about 50 feet to the north in a corn field.

Broyles, Wood and a passenger in Tuttle's vehicle, Thomas L. Peruski, 41, 4163 Maple St., Cass City, were transported by Cass City-Mercy Ambulance to Hills and Dales General Hospital, Cass City. Tuttle sought his own treatment.

A hospital spokeswoman said Broyles and Peruski were treated and released, while Wood was transferred to St. Mary's. Neither Broyles nor Wood was wearing a seat belt at the time of the accident, according to reports, which state both Tuttle and Peruski were.

ONE HURT

A Cass City motorist sustained minor injuries in a 2-vehicle accident in Cass City last week.

Cass City police reported Alexander E. Robles, 42, of Cass City, was southbound on Brooker Street north of Houghton Street last Wednesday when he struck another southbound vehicle from behind.

Reports state the driver of the other vehicle, Stephen R. Wallace, 19, Cass City, had stopped in the street to talk to a pedestrian just prior to the 3:30 p.m. accident. Robles told police he briefly took his eyes off the road to watch a bicyclist.

Robles was transported to Hills and Dales General Hospital, where he was treated and then released.

Police said Wallace was wearing a seat belt and Robles was not.

Bow hunters open 4th best deer season Thursday

Michigan deer hunters could enjoy the fourth best harvest on record this season, DNR officials say.

Archers will get the first crack at the state's deer herd next week as the 1992-93 bow season gets underway Thursday.

The archery season will continue through Nov. 14, then resume Dec. 1-Jan. 1. The traditional firearm season is set for Nov. 15-30 and the muzzleloading season will be Dec. 11-20.

Hunters should find decent deer numbers both on private and state land in the Thumb, according to Bud Jarvis, a wildlife biologist at the DNR's Cass City Field Office. However, he added, field conditions this year are very different from a year ago.

In contrast to an early crop harvest last fall, this year's late harvest means whitetails will have plenty of cornfields to hide in throughout the bow season and probably well into the gun season, he said.

As for the herd, deer numbers in the Thumb aren't what they used to be, but there are still plenty of chances for success, Jarvis indicated.

DNR management practices in recent years have reduced the size of the state's deer herd. In the Thumb, the focus has been on reducing damage to crops.

With a few exceptions, Jarvis said, that objective has been met, with crop damage complaints down 10 to 15 percent this year.

"I think now...the landowners are a little more satisfied," he added. "The story I'm hearing is we've got (deer numbers) about where we want (them) and we want to keep it that way."

"On the other hand, we've got hunters out there who are unhappy because they're not going to see as many deer. But I think we're seeing fair numbers of deer and I think we're going to have a good season."

STILL NOT RIGHT

Ed Langenau, the DNR's big game expert, agreed. He noted, however, that deer numbers in the Thumb still aren't quite where the DNR would like to see them.

In 1985 the herd was too big and there was significant crop damage, so more antlerless permits were issued. Last year deer numbers were too low, he said, so the herd is being allowed to build back up a little.

Keeping the deer population and crop damage in check is a challenge in the Thumb, according to Langenau, who noted private land is a predominant feature, with an increasing number of people buying land for the purpose of recreation.

Ideally, managing the area's deer herd should be a cooperative effort with landowners, but in many cases they can't agree on the best approach, he said.

People need to sit down together in search of compromise, he added, instead of one guy doing everything he can to attract and keep deer on his property, while his farming neighbor does everything he can to get rid of the animals that are eating away his profits.

MAINTENANCE

With deer numbers at near-target levels in the Lower Peninsula, the DNR has opted for a "maintenance harvest" this year, Langenau said.

A reduced bag limit implemented last year remains in effect. Hunters are allowed to take no more than 4 deer — including no more than 2 bucks — during the combined hunting seasons.

In addition, fewer antlerless permits are being issued. In the Thumb, the number of permits was slashed by 40 percent last year, and by another 20 percent this year. As a whole, Michigan's deer herd is smaller than in the past, but with a higher percentage of bucks, which is what the DNR has been shooting for, Langenau said. One problem that remains, however, is there aren't enough hunters willing to travel to the Upper Peninsula, where "we have about twice as many deer as we should have," he added. In some years, Langenau said, more deer starved to death than were taken during the combined hunting seasons.

STATEWIDE

Statewide this year, hunters are expected to bag some 400,000 deer; 105,000 (including 46,000 bucks) during the bow season, 274,000 (184,000 bucks) during the firearms season and 21,000 (10,000 bucks) during the muzzleloading season.

Last year, Michigan hunters took an estimated 434,340 whitetails, the second biggest harvest on record and an increase from 432,690 in 1990. The record was set in 1989, with a harvest of 452,490 whitetails.

Hunters: The Chronicle will publish the picture of the first deer brought into the office for the bow and gun seasons, and any other trophy animals. All hunters are encouraged to call the office at 872-2010 to report their success for publishing in our Deer Tales column.

Distress call

Agricultural scientists have discovered that a chemical released by plants when caterpillars begin to feed can be used to train wasps to remain in an area and protect the plants. The plant "distress call" is a combination of volatile chemicals that parasitic wasps use as a beacon to lead them to caterpillars that are eating the plant.

Yvonne Burleson and Lucille Ostrander went to Marlette to attend their 50th class reunion. There were 48 classmates and one teacher present. The class now meets every other year, so will meet again in 1994. Next year is the all school reunion and the class of 1942 will be honored.

The Brian Gaeths of Unionville entertained grandparents and relatives at their new home Sunday afternoon. After a tour of the home, birthday cake and ice cream were served in honor of their son Shawn's 5th birthday. Great-grandmothers attending were Mrs. Irene Geiger of Ubyly and Mrs. Helen MacCallum of Owendale, and grandparents, the Clarence Gaeths of Owendale. Other guests were from Ubyly, Bay Port, Sandusky and Vassar.

Bloodmobile to be at hospital Oct. 6

The Red Cross Bloodmobile will be at Hills an Dales General Hospital Oct. 6 from 1 to 7 p.m.

The blood bank is sponsored by the hospital auxiliary and the hospital. New donors are needed. No appointment is necessary.

"When someone needs a blood transfusion, it isn't miraculously produced by the hospital," Jane Mitchell, R.N., said.

"In order for the blood to be available, it would have been donated a few days earlier then tested and produced by the Red Cross Center in Flint. Then an ample supply is provided to our community hospitals as needed. Red Cross provides all the blood needed by our community."

"Without help from people in each community, it wouldn't be able to do so and our hospital would have to find its own blood for patients," Mitchell added.

Curious facts

by Melva E. Guinther

My kids keep me supplied with books of interesting, if not essential, facts and oddities. Here are a few of the assorted tidbits garnered from them.

>>Etiquette is the French word for "ticket." It originally referred to the written order indicating the quarters where a soldier was to be lodged. In time, large etiquettes were posted around the camp listing all orders of the day, or "things to do."

(It's still not clear to me who has the authority, or how they get it, to make up the etiquette list mandating the "things to be done and how" on the social scene.)

>>Scot, as in "scotfree", was a tax assigned to residents of a municipality back in the 12th century. Later it came to mean a payment for entertainment in a tavern. So to go "scotfree" meant not having to pay one's share.

>>Martha Washington's bathing suit looked a lot like a nightgown. It had elbow-length sleeves, a high neck and lead weights sewn into the hem at the ankles. How times and fashions change!

>>The handshake originated as a means of showing that neither party involved was about to use a weapon. Presumably the open hand, plus the shaking to dislodge anything concealed up one's sleeve, was a sign of peaceful intentions.

>>The song, "Happy Birthday To You", was written by sisters Mildred and Patty Smith Hill in 1893. They were both school teachers. Patty taught at Columbia University from 1905 to 1935 and was named professor emerita after her retirement.

The original title was "Good Morning To You", and the authors successfully sued the producers of a 1921 Broadway play for using it without permission.

>>The C.W. Post cereal company offered the first cents-off manufacturer's coupon. Actually it was a penny-off coupon back in 1895. What a trend they started!

Possibly the mother of all couponers is Susan Samtur. She reportedly bought $130 worth of groceries, handed the clerk a $10 bill and a handful of coupons, and got $3.00 in change.

And I feel smug if I get a few dollars off my grocery bill!

>>Levi Strauss was a young dry goods peddler who followed the "49ers" to California in 1850 to sell them tent canvas. He soon saw that they needed sturdy pants more than tents and began making "waist overalls" from the canvas.

In the 1860s he added the now traditional reinforcing rivets and began dyeing the pants blue with indigo dye. He replaced the canvas with a sturdy cotton fabric called "serge de Nimes" (for the town in France where it originated). The "de Nimes" eventually became "denim", and the rest is history.

So much so that the Smithsonian Institution keeps several pairs of blue jeans as part of its permanent collection. (The article didn't say how they came to be called jeans.)

>>There is scientific evidence that gentle rocking stimulates a baby's cerebellum, the part of the brain that controls coordination. It develops faster in relationship to how much a baby is rocked. Rocking also reportedly improves vision, sleep cycles and growth rate.

>>In almost every language in the world, the word for mother begins with the "M" sound, possibly because it's the sound babies all over the world learn first.

Atkinson completes training

Marine Pfc. Willis L. Atkinson, son of Willis L. Atkinson Sr. of Decker, recently completed recruit training and was promoted to his present rank.

During the training cycle at Marine Corps Recruit Depot, Parris Island, S.C., recruits are taught the basics of battlefield survival, introduced to typical military daily routine and personal and professional standards.

All recruits participate in an active physical conditioning program and gain proficiency in a variety of military skills including first aid, rifle marksmanship and close-order drill. Teamwork and self-discipline are emphasized throughout the cycle.

Atkinson, a 1991 graduate of Carman Ainsworth High School, Flint, joined the Marine Corps in May 1992.

Thanks to fund raisers

Firemen get smoke ejector

Elkland Township fire fighters recently accepted delivery of a new piece of equipment designed to clear buildings of smoke.

The equipment is a smoke ejector, or positive pressure fan, which was purchased with $1,000 in proceeds earned at several fund raisers sponsored by the Cass City Fire Department Women's Auxiliary.

Over the past several weeks, a committee of 7 auxiliary and fire department members organized 2 car washes, a bake sale, cotton candy sale and garage sale.

"This fan will enable our fire fighters to ventilate a smoke-filled building, thereby helping them to find the source of the fire and extinguish it," said auxiliary member Sue Pawloski. "It is also helpful to rid a building of toxic gases which could be hazardous to the firemen's health."

"A demonstration was put on to prove the efficiency of the fan and the department was pleased with the results," Pawloski added.

If this were a perfect world....

Every candidate for president would tell us what he proposed to do instead of what the polls say we want to hear. Political commercials would be cut 90 percent and limited to telling about the candidate's program and nothing about the character or programs of the other candidates.

Michigan State would no longer book games with Central Michigan University.

Cass City would win a conference football crown at least once every decade.

Sweet corn, pancakes and syrup, candy, ice cream sundaes, pizza and prime rib would have the same calory count as celery.

A black and a white couple could walk down the Main Street sidewalk in Cass City and not raise a single eyebrow.

I would not need to wonder why the water in Michigan, the "water wonderland", is too cold to swim in. Water temperature would remain a balmy 72 degrees.

Reception on my car radio would be as clear and uncluttered with competing stations at night as it is during the day. Radio call-in shows would be barred. Listening to someone talk just to hear themselves talk....ugh.

Shabbona ladies would make those pies more than once a year. Pies, bread, rolls and cookies would have celery calory counts.

Politicians who say they will cut governmental costs would really mean it and more importantly, really do it.

There would be adequate health care for all and reasonable restraint on malpractice settlements.

It would be possible to have a fender-bender and not have the damage come to just under what the deductible is on the insurance policy.

No fault insurance would have accomplished what it set out to do....reduce costs by reducing the number of damage suits, instead of doing nothing to curb rapidly rising insurance premiums.

Cameras would always be loaded with film and flash attachments would work right every time.

Movies with sad endings would be forever barred.

You could enjoy the trees without the leaves.

It would be impossible for anyone to make more money than it is possible to spend in a lifetime.

Spelling would come as easy to me as writing.

Everyone would become a winner in the $10 million lotto and no one would spend money buying tickets with money needed to meet family obligations.

"If It Fitz...."

Better hurry

By Jim Fitzgerald

A suburban resident, who asked that her name be withheld, wants to know if she should move to Detroit. She wrote:

"I have a dilemma which might prove the basis for a column. My husband and I currently live in the northern suburbs. We are contemplating a move into Detroit — near your neck of the woods, Lafayette Park — to be closer to my husband's work. What advice, if any, would you offer to someone thinking of moving into Detroit?"

"At the risk of sounding racist, we worry about personal safety as well as for the safety of our property. Since we both like to walk a lot, I wonder if we will feel 'trapped' — especially after dark — when it is not 'safe' to go out.

"Obviously, however, Detroit has a lot to offer. You write well of Lafayette Park. Others I have met who live in the area say they love it. Should we move into the city? Why or why not?"

OK. To begin with, this woman who doesn't want to sound racist didn't reveal her race. She assumes we'll assume she's white, and that black people are the threat to safe living in Detroit. Wouldn't it be a kick if she moved to Detroit and was mugged by a white Protestant banker who had wearied of stealing by embezzling?"

One of them happened to glance through a door into the kitchen just as a hand reached around a corner and grabbed a purse off the top of the refrigerator. My friends yelled and the thief ran out the unlocked front door through which he had entered. Police subsequently caught him. He was a white teenage neighbor. And the incident happened in Southfield.

The moral is beware of geographical stereotyping, even when the population figures are lopsided in favor of assuming "they" are always the bad guys. And lock your doors no matter where you live.

I love living in Lafayette Park, where — I would guess — at least half my neighbors are black (in case you can't tell from my picture, I'm ruddy). I appreciate being able to walk downtown to work — it takes about 20 minutes — because I need the exercise, but I hate the idea of walking aimlessly, just because it's healthy. I need a specific required destination, or I'm not moving.

In 16 years of almost daily walking between home and office, I've never felt threatened or frightened. But that's daylight walking. At night, I feel safe in nearby Greektown, because there are always lots of cops around (some of them probably should be in the neighborhoods, fighting crime, instead of reassuring visitors from the suburbs).

I don't recommend walking alone in the dark in Lafayette Park, where the many trees and bushes are beautiful, but also ambush. I know of a few muggings and break-ins there, and many stolen cars. It's like living in many other cities — you should be street smart, and park in a garage.

EYESORES STILL EXIST

Downtown shopping is lousy and the best restaurants — except for Opus One — have closed. For mall shopping, we have to drive to the suburbs. But so what? Suburbanites have to drive here to see the Tigers and Red Wings, enjoy the splendid Fox, Gem and Fisher theaters, hear great classical music at Orchestra Hall, visit the art museum, and so on.

Detroit boasts several nice neighborhoods like Lafayette Park. If you can afford to live in them, you're more fortunate than the thousands of inner-city residents who must put up with crack houses, shootings, incredibly screwed-up public housing, and acres of boarded up storefronts and crumbling houses. I worry about the safety of those people, but I feel perfectly safe myself.

I live in a high-rise with a marvelous view of the river and Canada. The people I love most are a short drive away. Mayor Coleman Young may well be serving his last term, and my children are far beyond school age. I'm lucky and I know it. Everybody should be so lucky.

Of course, there's not room for everybody in Lafayette Park. Better hurry.

Nerve Entrapment/ Morton's Neuroma

Frequently I hear complaints regarding sudden, sharp, stabbing pain in the toes. This condition, known as "Morton's Neuroma," is an inflammation of a nerve usually between the third and fourth metatarsal bones which produces agonizing pain into the webspace or toward the tips of the toes.

Continuous compression of a small nerve between two metatarsal bones is the culprit. Inflammation occurs when the head of one displaced bone presses against another and catches the nerve between them. With each step, the nerve is irritated. Consequently, the nerve enlarges with a sheath of scar tissue that forms to protect it. Shoes that are too tight will aggravate the condition. The underlying problem however, is a structural deficiency related to imbalance in walking.

Treatment involves re-toes. This condition, known as "Morton's Neuroma," is an inflammation of a nerve usually between the third and fourth metatarsal bones which produces agonizing pain into the webspace or toward the tips of the toes.

When irritation has been present a long time, the scar tissue around the nerve may develop into a tumor. This non-invasive growth should be removed surgically. Before surgery is attempted, we utilize every available method of relief. Complete cooperation between you and your doctor concerning this condition is essential for a satisfactory result. The 1991-92 audit reflects a General Fund surplus of $69,161. This amount added to the previous year's fund balance brings the current fund balance to $711,141. This represents approximately 11% of the district's budget. The total of bus notes payable at the conclusion of the 1991-92 year was $10,242. The final bus note will be paid during the 1992-93 school year. The school's hot lunch account showed a profit of $19,688, which continued the past three year trend of operating in the black.

During the school year some of the needed maintenance and capital improvements included:

1. Completion of the High School re-roofing project.
2. Installation of burglar alarm systems at Campbell and Deford Elementary Schools.
3. Replacing first floor lockers in the Middle School.
4. Replacing three classrooms of furniture (desks, chairs, tables).
5. Replacing the High School gym lighting with energy efficient metal halide lighting.
6. Lowering ceilings and adding fluorescent lighting in all hallways of the Middle School.

Our school district's enrollment remained stable, at the 1,645 student range. This is the approximate level of enrollment that our district has maintained for the past seven years.

Ondrajka scores career high in Bulldog win over Eagles

Backcourt partners Lori Ondrajka and Michelle Tkacz combined for 36 points Thursday to lead the Owen-Gage Bulldogs past winless Caseville, 62-26.

Ondrajka, who scored a career high 18 tallies, helped the Bulldogs to a 6-zip start as she was able to penetrate the Eagle defense for 2 quick hoops in the lane.

Sharpshooter Tkacz, the area's leading point producer, opened her scoring night with an old-fashioned 3 point play near the 5 minute mark that spotted the hosts to a 10-2 advantage.

From that point, the duet added 10 more baskets and 4 free throws before the intermission, when the winners enjoyed a 41-12 margin.

The 'Dogs, now 6-1 on the season, will be put to the test this week as they were to meet North Huron Tuesday, before traveling to Akron-Fairgrove on Thursday.

Both schools are 2-2 in the NCTL, one game back of Coach Dean Roller's cagers. Sophomore Angie Wildman continued her assault on both the offensive and defensive boards, hauling in a team high 13 rebounds to go along with six 3rd period points that matched the losers' point total in the frame.

Also contributing to the Owen-Gage cause was senior Carli Salcido, who finished the night with 2 field goals and 4 charity tosses despite sitting out the final stanza. Besides Tkacz's customary 18 points, the spunky point guard was credited with 7 steals and 5 assists.

Caseville, hampered by a full court Bulldog press in the early going, was led by Missy Thick's 6 points.

OWEN-GAGE: L. Ondrajka 9 (0) 18; P. Timmons 1 (0-2) 2; M. Tkacz 7 (4-5) 18; B. Parks 1 (0) 2; A. Wildman 3 (0-4) 6; C. Salcido 2 (4-7) 8; A. Martindale 1 (0) 2; J. Susalla 3 (0) 6. TOTALS: 28 (8-18) 62.

CASEVILLE: M. Bailey 1 (0) 2; T. LaFontaine 1 (1-3) 3; M. Fritz 2 (1-5) 5; M. Thick 3 (0-1) 6; Zlotkowski 1 (3-6) 5; C. Leach 2 (1-2) 5. TOTALS: 10 (6-21) 26.

RYAN RADABAUGH PLUNGES for Owen-Gage's 3rd touchdown of Friday's homecoming game with CPS, spotting the hosts to a 20-0 lead. It wasn't enough, however, as the Tigers recorded a 28-20 NCTL win.

Akron-Fairgrove next

Bulldogs squander 20 point homecoming lead

The Owen-Gage homecoming crowd must have thought things couldn't get much better for Coach Arnie Besonen and the Bulldog football team Friday after they spurted out 20-0 against Carsonville-Port Sanilac.

They were right. The Bulldogs suffered their first setback in 4 games when the Tigers scored 28 unanswered points, including 2 touchdowns by Steve Bopra, who scored on runs of 53 and 6 yards.

Bopra, playing in his first game since breaking his hand during the pre-season, rushed for 120 yards in the NCTL contest. The Bulldogs will now have to put Friday's disappointing loss behind them if they hope to be successful this week at Akron-Fairgrove.

stalled without Susalla's services. Without Eric, we couldn't execute our trap play, stated a bewildered Besonen on Monday.

It didn't take long for Owen-Gage to benefit from Tiger turnovers Friday, as a fumble recovery and pass interception led to the losers' first 2 scores.

On the first play from scrimmage, Owen-Gage's Bryan Metzger recovered a Tiger miscue and 4 plays later Matt Mandich hauled in Ryan Radabaugh's first career touchdown pass from the 10-yard line.

The Bulldogs capitalized on another Tiger miscue in the 1st period when Matt Mandich hit pay dirt, after a Wade Teitel interception, on a 2-yard run.

Owen-Gage seemed to put the game away in the 2nd period when Ryan Radabaugh opened the quarter by capping a 46 yard drive with a one yard run.

However, instead of icing the game, Owen-Gage let this one slip away.

Bopra sprinted 53 yards on the visitors' next possession and Larry Carter connected with Larry Smafield shortly after to draw the Tigers to within 4 at the half, 20-16.

The Tigers took the lead for good in the 3rd period, when Bopra scored his 2nd marker of the game.

Scott Nichol accounted for the game's final marker, with 4:28 remaining, that sealed victory for the Tigers, now 1-3 on the year.

Defensively, Owen-Gage was led by Gary Emmons' 11 tackles and Susalla, who recorded 7 stops and one fumble recovery before sustaining his injury.

HDC sets fall housing workshop

The Human Development Commission (HDC) has announced that plans are now underway for its fall housing workshop offered through the Michigan Initiative. The date for this workshop is Monday, Oct. 19, from 7 p.m. until 9:30 p.m. at HDC's main office at 429 Montague Avenue, Caro.

This workshop is an educational, informative experience offered especially for (but not limited to) first-time home buyers, featuring guest speakers such as local lenders, real estate agents and budget counselors. Income limits for qualification in the program are $46,920 per year (except in Lapeer and Genesee Counties, which are $51,865 and $48,070, respectively).

Because of scheduling for these speakers, as well as preparation time required, advanced notice of intention to attend is required. Call Dawn Billington Cubitt at HDC at 1-800-843-6394 (673-4121 in Caro) by Tuesday, Oct. 13.

HDC has issued over 100 completion certificates in the past year to prior attendees of Michigan Initiative workshops. The certificate allows potential buyers to seek 30 year fixed-rate mortgages from participating lenders, with only a 5 percent down payment required. Funds for the loans are derived from the Federal Home Mortgage Association (Freddie Mac).

Additives

The Senate Agriculture Committee in Lansing approved a bill that will make it easier for food processors to add healthful ingredients to hot dogs, sausage and bologna. New products could contain additives like cherries that add flavor without extra fat.

Hawks need upset of Lakers for share in Blue Bay League title

Cass City's best chance for a share of a conference title in a dozen years rests on the outcome of the homecoming game Friday with the rough and ready Lakers of Elkton-Pigeon-Bay Port. The last time the Hawks were in the title chase, they finished co-champions with North Branch in the Thumb B Association in 1980. Cass City will enter the key game with a 2-1 conference record and a 3-1 record in all games. That's not shabby unless you compare it with the Lakers, who are undefeated in 4 games and will meet Cass City after posting a pulverizing, 40-6 win over Bad Axe. The Hawks lost the opening game between the schools on the Lakers' field, but it was a close, one-touchdown defeat and for the first time in years there is a chance for a Hawk upset victory. While the Lakers were rolling over the Hatchets, Cass City tuned up for the coming game with a decisive victory over Marlette, 34-14. Cass City scored the first two times it had the ball and only a fumble on the Marlette 8-yard line kept it from being 3 touchdowns in as many possessions. Starting in their own territory, Cass City pounded along on the ground for the first touchdown of the game. Brandon Toner accounted for most of the yardage with 22 yards on the first run and then scored a few plays later from 17 yards out. A pass from Ben Schott to John Phillips scored the extra points. Cass City scored the second touchdown in the opening quarter moving from the Marlette 35 after Jason Walther recovered a fumble. The Hawks took just 2 plays to score. Big play was a 29-yard pass from Schott to John Gibson. From there Jason Morgan powered over from the 6. Walther ran for the extra points.

LeValley, who rammed over from the 2. After that it was a matter of playing out the game. Marlette scored with 2:28 left on a 5-yard pass from Mark Lefler to Tim Willis. The extra points were scored on a pass to Ron Anderson. Top ground gainer for Cass City was Toner, with 89 yards in 10 attempts. Walther's 83 yards in 9 tries was good for a 9.2-yard average per carry. Schott passed only 3 times all night and converted them all, good for 38 yards. LeValley had a big night defensively with 10 tackles, 9 unassisted.

JV WINS

The Hawk junior varsity posted a narrow 14-12 decision over the Marlette junior varsity.

JASON WALTHER broke loose and rambled for 27 yards to score Cass City's third touchdown midway through the second quarter as the Hawks easily defeated Marlette.

COMPETITION UNDER THE BASKET was fierce as Marlette and Cass City battled for the lead in the Blue Bay League. Jodi LaRoche is sandwiched between Carrie Ross, left, and Therese Fromwiller, waiting for a possible rebound.

Just before the quarter ended Cass City marched to the Marlette 8 before losing the ball on a fumble. Cass City made it 22-0 midway through the quarter when a steady march down the field was capped by Walther's 22-yard touchdown gallop. The try for extra points failed when Cass City fumbled. Coach Don Markel was able to use everyone suited and the bench started to get valuable playing time in the second period. Sparked by a 34-yard run by Brent Kelly, the Raiders moved to the 7 yard line and 2 plays later, Dave Pitts went over from the 2. The extra point try failed. Starting the third quarter, the Marlette defense stopped the Hawks for one of the few times during the night and took over on their own 45. The respite from the Hawk assault didn't last long as the Raiders fumbled and Cass City took over on the Marlette 45. A pass to Lyle Severance covered 20 yards and Toner went 25 yards to score. The final Hawk score of the game was netted by Greg

This fall last for yard waste disposal

This fall will be the last time that government facilities at all levels will be able to dispose of yard wastes at landfills and municipal incinerators in Michigan. Under Michigan Act 264 of 1990, the disposal of yard wastes from all governmental facilities (federal, state, county, township and municipal) into landfills and municipal incinerators will be banned after March 27, 1993. The same ban on disposal of yard wastes will take effect for homeowners, businesses and other property owners in the private sector March 27, 1995. The law describes yard wastes as weeds, grass clippings, leaves, shrubs and branches. "Operators of some landfills reaching capacity are already refusing to accept yard wastes at their facilities," said Department of Natural Resources resource recovery specialist Wayne Koser. "We'd like to see everyone begin now to use mulching mowers and develop backyard composting methods before the situation becomes critical."

Slow start fatal for Cass City as Red Raiders post one-point win

The Cass City Red Hawk tendency to start games slowly finally caught up with the defending Blue Bay League champions and they fell before a good Marlette quintet Friday, 38-37. In a meet Tuesday, Sept. 22, the Hawks came from behind to top Ubyly, 33-30. Coach Marty Daniel's charges were to have played Tuesday at Mayville, which doesn't have the talent to defeat Cass City this year, and then will be tested again when Lakers come to town. The Lakers have a strong rebounding team and will give Cass City plenty of trouble...especially if the team plays like it did in the first quarter and a half at Marlette. The Raiders came out in a full court zone press and it baffled Cass City for a quarter and a half. Time after time the Hawks threw the ball away and never beat the press for easy baskets until late in the first half. Meanwhile Marlette was rebounding ferociously and shooting well. The vaunted Cass City defense allowed several uncontested lay-ups. Marlette ran up a 10-2 lead in the first 4 minutes and was ahead 18-6 at the quarter. After that the Hawks spent the rest of the night trying to catch up and almost did it. The teams played on even terms in the second quarter as Cass City came alive defensively. After allowing Marlette 18 points in the first quarter, Cass City limited the winners to just 20 points in the last 3 periods. Daniel said that the team played tentatively all night until the final 14 minutes of the game. That last period rally was not quite enough. The Hawks closed the gap to 27-21 with 4:53 left in the third quarter as the team solved the Marlette press. The Raiders traded baskets from that point to the end of the period and were ahead 31-25 going into the final 8 minutes. With 2 minutes to go in the game, Cass City trailed by just 3 points, 36-33. Carrie Ross converted 2 clutch free throws to move her team ahead 38-33. Cass City responded with baskets by Darcie Monroe and Jodi LaRoche and suddenly it was a one-point game. Marlette's Nicole Ruggles was fouled with 18 seconds left and when the shot missed, Cass City had a chance to win after being behind all night. A shot by Darcie Monroe, who led the Hawks with 12 points, bounded off the rim and the game was over. Marlette was led by Christel Dudek, who not only was the Raiders' top scorer with 13 points, but also the floor general and played a very strong defensive game. One bright note for Hawk fans was improved free throw shooting by the team, which converted 14 of 24, including 3 of 4 during the last period crunch time.

The Hawk win over Ubyly was a struggle between 2 strong defenses. Cass City was limited to a single basket in the opening quarter by Jodi LaRoche and the home team went in front 5-2. The Hawks retaliated in the second period by blanking the Bearcats in the second quarter to take an 11-5 lead. Cass City added a point to the margin in the third quarter and then staved off an Ubyly rally in the final quarter to win. Daniel said that it was the kind of game that could be expected from 2 schools with the best defensive record in the Thumb the last 3 years. The coach cited LaRoche's strong rebounding and key rebounding and offense from Barb Kelley, along with ball handling of Jodi Schember as keys to the victory.

MOST IMPOTENCE IS TREATABLE

Following a full medical evaluation for impotence, the treatment alternatives may be clear-cut, or there may be choices to be made.

If the cause is hormonal, the treatment is replacement of the testosterone or deficient hormones. If there is a tumor in the pituitary gland, it can be suppressed with medicines which will usually restore normal function. A high or low thyroid would be treated accordingly.

Diabetes, which is one of the most common causes of impotence, needs to be controlled and then good results are usually obtained.

Circulation problems can be treated in a variety of ways. Sometimes, medicines can be taken that will improve the circulation. A new and popular method, mainly for younger men, is using an injectable medicine called papaverine.

Surgical repair of the arteries and veins yields benefits for many men. Obstructed arteries can be repaired at many levels, and good results have been obtained in about 50-60% of men. In young men who do not have diabetes, hypertension, or other chronic illnesses, surgery on the veins has given improvement to 40-70% of men.

Several types of prosthesis have been developed and they are often the simplest and most effective means of establishing erections. External devices are often useful and do not prevent later use of other methods.

Finally, changes in life style such as stopping use of alcohol or tobacco, reducing stress, and maintaining an ideal body weight are wise.

Officers elected at women's club meet

The September meeting of the Owendale Women's Club was held at the home of Faith Fahrner last week. After a short business meeting, conducted by President Fahrner, the group planned various activities for the coming year.

The ladies will further study the needs regarding the Karen Kretzschmer benefit at a future meeting. Kretzschmer will undergo serious surgery later this fall. Several benefits have been conducted in Owendale and around the Thumb already this summer and early fall.

The ladies plan to entertain their children, grandchildren, neighbors and the Brownies and Girl Scouts at their October meeting. A trip to a pumpkin farm is on the agenda.

The ladies enjoyed an afternoon and evening with hostess Mary Lou Lorenco, at her sister-in-law's cottage near Pt. Austin in August. A few braved the cooler temperature and went swimming or walking on the beach.

The following slate of officers were re-elected: President Faith Fahrner, vice-president Arlene Enderle, secretary Jeannette McDonald and treasurer Bonnie Gaeth.

Janet Retford won the door prize and the auction item was purchased by Jeannette McDonald.

The hostess and co-hostess, Jean Hughes, served veggie pizza and a dessert. The club will again undertake their annual cheese ball project, with the profits going to community projects. Anyone who would like one can contact any club member to place an order.

Our 40th year serving Sanilac, Tuscola & Huron Counties

VILLAGE PRESIDENT Lambert Althaver told about 100 persons who attended the dedication ceremony Friday the steps leading to the creation of the walking trail and overlook on the Cass River. Several members of the village council attended. Included was Matt Prieskorn, not pictured because he was working in the river, who had much to do with the project as a member of the Parks and Recreation Committee. From left are Althaver, Nat Tuttle, Mike Weaver and Elwyn Helwig.

RETIRING OWENDALE Postmaster Jeannette McDonald, known as the "cookie lady" to young postal patrons, offers a treat to John Babbitt, 3, the son of Laura Babbitt of Owendale.

Owendale postmaster retiring after 34 years

The loss of 3 children, all born premature, recalled receiving 150 cards after the birth of her daughter, Dena. "Everybody knew I wanted a little girl," she noted. That caring has gone both ways.

"Whenever a family is hurting, I kind of share it with them, show a little personal interest," she said. "When they're in need, I try to help. That's the part I'm going to miss the most."

Cass City School menu

OCT. 5-9

Monday - Ravioli, green beans, fruit, milk, dinner roll.

Tuesday - Tuna on bun, coleslaw, fruit, milk, potato chips.

Wednesday - Barbecued pork on bun, French fries, fruit, milk.

Thursday - Nachos & cheese w/meat, corn, fruit, milk.

Friday - Cheese & pepperoni pizza, carrots, fruit, milk.

2nd Entree - Hoagie w/ bun.

At the same time, McDonald is looking forward to all the free time she'll have to spend with her family, including her daughter, sons Darren and Mark, and the light of her life — granddaughter Katelyn Marie, 2.

She also has a number of hobbies. She's been collecting commemorative stamps issued by the postal service since 1950 and has filled 10 photo albums. "I have a lot of those to catch up on, and I'm also a photographer," she said.

McDonald, who also hopes to spend some time listening to Mozart and read a book or 2, confided she's always wanted to write a book depicting the fond memories she has of growing up with her twin, Jeannine, a long-time clerk at the Pigeon Post Office.

"You know what's ironic? When we were young my mother would give us the mail she didn't want, and we would play post office with it," she remarked. "We're very close."

Regardless of what she does in retirement, McDonald indicated she plans to make the most of every minute. "I want to enjoy life a little bit," she said.

Your neighbor says

Doesn't have a favorite dish

John Tomczak, 77, says that, unlike most folks, he just doesn't have a favorite meal. I like most things to eat. Maybe that's because my wife is such a great cook, he adds sincerely.

When it comes to a favorite dish, Tomczak says that he doesn't have a single favorite, but tops on his personal favorite list are soups. Vegetable, bean, tomato, it doesn't make much difference, I like them all. What's more, he adds, I have soup at least every other day, winter and summer. Desserts? Naw, they don't do much for me, he says.

Tomczak has been a Cass City resident since 1977. He retired 3 years earlier while living in Detroit.

That he was around able to answer the Chronicle's question is somewhat amazing in itself. Tomczak suffered from a stomach ailment that required so much surgery that a permanent screen was placed in his stomach to do what the stomach muscles usually do. In addition, he needed surgery for a tumor in his head. The illness resulted in his resignation from the Cass City Rotary Club, where he was an active member for several years.

I wouldn't be here today, Tomczak is quick to say, if it hadn't been for my wife, Dorothy, who pulled me through during those 3 bad years.

Soil care

Many remember old photos from the 1930's, when farmers fought the Dust Bowl, caused by massive soil erosion. But modern farmers are careful to conserve the soil. They maintain 170,000 miles of windbreaks and use reduced tillage practices on more than 72 million acres.

DID YOU KNOW...

In the course of three months, we Americans could build a commercial air fleet with all the aluminum we throw away?

FACT:

All the recyclable trash we Americans throw away every day would fill the New Orleans Super Dome from top to bottom.

DID YOU KNOW...

At the present rate of disposal of garbage, we would need 500 new dumps every year?

FACT:

What we waste in recyclable products per year is: (1) per person on earth - 10 lbs. of plastic, (2) per family in America - 100 lbs. of trash, (3) our country - 500 million disposable lighters, (4) in our water bodies - 14 billion lbs. of trash, (5) of our metals - 70% used once and discarded.

The types of things that can be recycled are: newsprint, glass, aluminum, tin cans, plastic, phone books and cardboard. By recycling tin alone, we save 74% in energy cost, 98% in solid waste, 76% in water pollution and 85% in air pollution. Can you imagine the impact on our environment if everything were recycled, either by proper disposal at recycling stations or reuse?

There is a recycling station near your community in Caro, MI at the intersection of Butler and Montague.
