Plan $2-$3 million complex

The first step in the development of a $2 to $3-million, 30-unit senior living community was taken last week with the purchase of 18 acres by Kolb & Associates from Herron Builders, Inc.

The property is located west of the Northwood Shores Golf Course. It fronts on Koepfgen Road and ends along the line of the former railroad right-of-

The new units will feature assisted care with activities of daily living.

John Kolb, president, said the development is designed for persons who need care with housing and domestic services. It is not a unit for long-term nursing home care.

We'll provide the amount of assistance needed to sustain independent living, Kolb points out.

If residents need housekeeping help, and someone to prepare and serve meals, depends on the need. We can offer help in bathing and dressing and the administering of medication.

In addition to the services for the new units, Kolb said, it will be provided. The the services will be available amount of help provided to persons needing it in the

While the amount of state aid per pupil varies from district to district based on the amount of local taxes raised, each student in area districts will generate a minimum of $3,500 from the state. There will be an increased cost for districts, which will now pay for Federal Insurance Contributions Act for the first time.

Cass City continued to show a slight increase in enrollment for the second straight year, but over the last several years enrollment has remained constant. This year the total was 1,674, up from 1,652 recorded last year. In 1985 the enrollment was 1,658.

Most of the enrollment increase was in the high school, which jumped from 448 to 466. Other enrollment figures with this year's enrollment listed first and then compared with the previous year: Campbell Elementary, 546-545; Deford, 98-98: Middle School, 526-527; adult education, 38-38. # Cut village rates for trash pick-up

Cass City residents will see a slight decrease in the fee they pay for waste pick-up and disposal.

The Village Council last week approved a one-year contract extension with Waste Management of Michigan-Mideast, Almont, which offered a rate reduction of 63 cents per household per month, from $11.08 to $10.45.

The new rate, which goes into effect Jan. 1, includes a 10-cent savings offered in exchange for the council's agreement to waive reimbursement from the company of proceeds from the sale of recyclables collected

In addition, Waste Management offered to immediately reduce by 10 cents the current charge of $11.08 per household per month if the village would agree to eliminate the reimbursement pro-

The offer, which was accepted by the council, is a break-even proposition, village Manager Lou S. LaPonsie said.

"We've been tracking (the reimbursements) for 3 years, and it's about $900 per year," he said. "It just about balances out" with the 10-cent savings. Les Karr, chairman of the council's Public Services Committee, recommended approval of the one-year contract extension, particularly in light of uncertainty surrounding a new law prohibiting the dumping of other yard wastes in landfills beginning in March 1995.

Ray Hayes, division manager-sales for Waste Management, told the council no one is certain yet how the However, he cautioned, 11

Currently, Cass City workers burn brush collected in the village, and leaves swept up in the fall are dumped and composted on a vacant parcel in the industrial park.

"It's an ideal way to generate rich soil for backfill" used in various construction jobs, village President L.E. Althaver commented. '(But) if we have to create a mini landfill, there's no wav.'

Hayes suggested the council begin a promotion effort of some sort in an effort to Please turn to back page.

40 days in hospital

Judge Glaspie returning to work after 3 brain operations

Things were going smoothly for Tuscola County District Court Judge Kim Glaspie as the new year started. After all, he had earned the respect of his peers and plaudits of the citizens he served from the courthouse in Caro.

But what started as a banner year quickly turned into one full of trauma for him, for Jackie, his wife, and their 3 children, Alyssa, 12, Zack, 10, and Sammy, 7.

It all started in January when the then 37-year-old Glaspie went to a specialist for treatment for a persistent "sinus" infection under his left eye. After several sinus treatments and weeks of continuous pain and tests that showed nothing, an MRI exam disclosed the problem. A brain tumor.

That was the beginning and before it ended there were 3 major operations and a total of 40 days in University of Michigan Hospital at Ann Arbor.

The first surgery required 12 hours to remove an acoustic neuroma (tumor) about the size of a fingernail and a cyst that was double that size. The good news was that there was no malig-

One good thing, Kim said wryly, is that today 99 percent of these operations are not fatal, and 10 years or so ago there was a 50 percent chance of not surviving the

In 7 percent of the cases there is a cerebral spinal fluid leak and after returning home, headaches developed and he was back in Ann Arbor for treatment. Before his second surgery, doctors attempted to cure the problem with a 7-day spinal tap drain. All that did was cause extreme nausea.

The second operation, Aug. 5, took 5 hours. He returned home after 5 more days in the hospital and then 5 days later returned to the hospital for another surgery that lasted 3 hours.

INVERTED C

You need to look closely to see the scar. It's an inverted C shape behind the left ear. The surgeons, Dr. Steven Telian, head of neuro otology, and Dr. Huff, head neuro surgeon, at the University Hospital, entered the skull at precisely the same spot each time.

To get to the tumor, the ear drum and inner ear bones were removed. After each procedure a piece of fat was taken from Glaspie's stomach to plug the hole.

Doctors couldn't predict what might happen after the third operation, Glaspie said, because a third operation had never been necessary at the hospital.

During the 40 days that he was in the hospital, his head was never allowed to be below his heart. The ordeal resulted in a loss of 50 pounds, 20 of which he has regained.

THE PROBLEMS

To the casual observer he is now a picture of health. But that's deceiving.

He lost hearing in his left ear and that's gone for good. There are other effects that are expected to be corrected with time. One is a lack of feeling in one side of his mouth. I cannot feel hot or cold, he explained. Another is lack of balance and control of facial muscles.

Since it has been a month and a half with no leaks, the worst is over. Yet, Kim will require a yearly check-up for 5 years and one every 2 years for the 5 years after that.

You know, I used to get a charge out of returning to the university, but right now I don't care if I ever see it again, Glaspie said with a

FRIENDS HELP

While Jackie was in Ann Arbor, relatives and friends rallied to help care for the children. At one time, I didn't even know where they were, she said, but knew they were in good

My mother, Dorothy Byrd, Kim's parents, the Grant Glaspies, and many, many friends were there for us when we needed them, they said with obvious appreciation.

This week, if things go as planned, Judge Glaspie will return to the bench. All we want to do now, he concluded, is put this behind us and get on with our lives.

JUDGE KIM GLASPIE is on the road to recovery after 3 brain surgeries.

Lambert excited about

taking fall color tour

The color in Michigan's northern lower peninsula will be at or near its peak this weekend and one person who is expecting to take it all in is Kelley Lambert of Gagetown. Interviewed Friday, she said she planned to see the colors at Lake City near Cadillac.

Lambert will be joining a host of other tourists who are trekking to the north on weekends during the color season. Motel owners traditionally are as busy, or busier, on weekends during the color season as they are at any other time of the year.

I'm excited about it, too, she confided, as I have never had an opportunity to tour in the north during the color season.

Originally from the Saginaw area, Lambert moved to the Thumb 6 years ago.

Lambert is the divorced mother of 2 children. A daughter, Jennifer is 15 and a son, Austin is 6 years old.

Program on China slated at library

Local resident, Janet Bryant, RN, will share the experiences of her recent trip to China Wednesday, Oct. 6, at 7:00 p.m. at and Mrs. Jack Hollenbeck of Rawson Memorial Library.

Bryant, a master's in nursing candidate, was part of a group of 7 nurses and nursing students from Saginaw Valley State University who left May 9 for a month long course at the University of Jinan in Guargzhou, China. She had a special interest in multicultural medicine and wanted to see first hand the differences between traditional western medicine and eastern methods.

She will discuss techniques used that are quite different from traditional medicine. Those methods are quite successful, especially in treating chronic pain, Parkinson's disease and paralysis. Acupuncture and medicines made from herbs are widely used.

She will show slides taken at the University of Jinan that emphasize Chinese culture and medicine. Bryant also has wonderful shots of the countryside taken during a weekend side trip. She will leave time to answer ques-

URINARY TRACT

INFECTIONS

Urinary tract, or bladder, infections are very common, but there are times when they need further evaluation.

Since men get fewer infections than women, due to the length of the urethra up to the bladder, any infection in a male is more likely to be related to an underlying problem.

In children, most urologists recommend an evaluation after one confirmed infection. This evaluation usually consists of an ultrasound of the kidneys, or an IVP (an x-ray study of the urinary system using dyes) or both. It is also important to culture the urine after treatment to make sure

In young children, one of the common causes is reflux of older men, obstruction from an enlarged prostate is very common and may need treatment. Other causes of poor

Chances are you aren't old enough to remember when the first automatic shift came in. Crude affairs they were, too. We owned a 1936 Terreplane (commonly known as a terrible-pain and if you owned one, you knew why) that had one on it. Well, not really an automatic. The shift was on the steering column, much like automatics are today. Only you shifted each gear with your fingers instead of a stick on the floor. Tucked away under the seat was a regular stick shift that could be attached in case the newfangled steering column shift failed to work, a regular occurrence.

Maybe that's why when the first genuine automatic shift appeared, most of my friends and I agreed that we could do a lot of shifting for the number of dollars that an automatic cost at the time.

That same reaction came when power steering first appeared (Why would anyone want that?) and power brakes (Who needs it?) Or air conditioning (I can roll down a lot of windows for the bucks that costs).

In the same category, place power windows, power seats, power door locks and special light packages. Buying a car radio was just gilding the lily.

All of these goodies are on the car I drive now and most of them standard, not extracost options.

Ask me and I'll tell you that no way will I spend extra bucks for these latest gadgets for cars. But given my track record, I probably will. And, I suspect, so will you.

It's too late now

By Jim Fitzgerald

The year Don Riegle first won elective office for himself, he also won a set of golf clubs for me. Thereafter, whenever we met, for no political reason, I felt like hitting him in the head with the driver.

It was 1966. I edited a newspaper in the congressional district — Lapeer and Genesee counties — that Riegle wanted to represent. He often stopped by my office, wrinkled and pooped from campaigning, in soiled white shirtsleeves, with his blue serge suit coat draped over his shoulder and his hair falling over his forehead. He looked like a loser, which is what all the experts said he was. Nobody had ever heard of Riegle. He wanted to bump Democrat John Mackie out of Congress. Mackie had been state highway commissioner for many years and built roads through every backyard in Michigan. Everyone knew Mackie.

Riegle had never held public office. He was a skinny youngster who had studied at Harvard Business College and then worked for IBM in New York. His father was an ex-mayor of Flint. One day Riegle flew out of the East and landed in Flint with an airport announcement:

He was a Republican candidate for Congress — and he had the support of Richard Nixon.

INTO THE SWING OF THINGS

The reaction to Riegle's candidacy ranged from hohum to hilarious. Who was archaic seniority system, he kidding? Flint, by far the which allowed fossils to largest city in the district, control Congress. And Riwas a Democratic factory egle won my heart when he town. No one could dislodge split with Ol' Buddy Nixon Mackie, especially not a over the Vietnam War. Harvard smartie (second in his class) who bragged about listening to Riegle so elohis relationship with Nixon quently preach un-Republi-cently proved he couldn't get elected governor of California, let alone president. But Riegle was too dumb to know he didn't have a prayer. He just kept campaigning, every day and everywhere. He took his pitch to an Optimist Club stag day at the Lapeer Country Club. And, as the most famous visitor present (the local coroner had been delayed), Riegle was asked to star in the doorprize raffle. He stuck in his hand and pulled out the name of the winner of $200 worth of golf clubs. Me. And an acid friendship was born.

At that time, I had been golfing spasmodically truly the correct adverb with some wooden-shafted clubs rescued from my father's trash. It was obvious that those old clubs would never last another season, and I'd promised myself to retire with them.

But suddenly, thanks to Riegle, I had new clubs, and I was too cheap to quit. The raffle ticket cost 50 cents, and I had to get my money's worth out of it.

So I kept on playing, lousy as ever, losing my money and my temper, spoiling my summers. And every time I saw Riegle, I wanted to slice him into the woods.

A FEW CHANGES OVER THE YEARS

Riegle slipped into congress while Mackie slept. He quickly won my admiration by leading a reform of the

After one long session of the loser. This was 1966, can liberalism, I even wrote remember, Nixon had re- a front-page article predicting that someday he would president — if he switched to the Democratic Party where he belonged.

My motive was selfish, of course. I figured if Riegle won the White House, those golf clubs would become part of history and worth more money when I finally got smart enough to auction them at an Optimist Club stag day.

Riegle became a Democrat, a senator, and a good friend to the savings and loan industry. I became a big-city columnist who eventually wrote that Riegle's most super achievement was "somehow managing to squeeze 8 pictures of himself into one 4-page newsletter printed and mailed at complete cost to taxpayers."

Twenty-seven years later, I'm still using those same golf clubs futilely, but Riegle is giving up on the Senate. The message is clear: I should quit, too. Neither one of us broke par. and it's too late now.

Hills and Dales General Hospital employees, as well as other area emergency personnel, were tested during a mock accident held south of Cass City earlier

The simulation, called "Operation '93," was one of 2 disaster drills organized this year by the hospital's Disaster Committee in an effort to provide hands-on training for physicians, employees and volunteers.

The 2-hour mock disaster was held Sept. 13 at the Novesta Church of Christ, where a church van, loaded with youth group members leaving on their way to a roller skating party in Sandusky, was "struck" by a fuel gas truck at 6:30 p.m.

Among the agencies responding to the scene were Cass City-Mercy Ambulance and the Elkland Township Fire Department.

Emergency response personnel treated and transported the accident's 11 victims to the hospital, where more than 30 employees were tested on their ability to deal with a large number of injured people at one

ANKLE SPRAINS

Ankle sprains result in a stretch or tear to the ligaments and are very common in sports or recreation activities. They are generally caused by a sudden twist of the foot and ankle, as when you step in a hole or come down from getting a rebound. The inversion sprain, in which the foot turns inward, is the most common type. A sprain can cause damage to the ligaments on the outside part of the ankle. Sprains can be graded 1, 2, or 3 depending on the severity and are generally characterized by pain, swelling, and bruising, sometimes making it difficult or impossible to walk on the injured foot.

Foot and ankle strength are generally ignored during an exercise program and the result can lead to an injury. An ankle sprain can be prevented by a thorough program of strengthening the ankle muscles, stretching the Achilles tendon, making sure you're wearing the proper shoes, and possibly taping the ankle or wearing a brace if you have had a previous injury or are in the process of rehabilitating an injured ankle. See your doctor, then an athletic trainer or physical therapist for a complete strengthening program.

The 4-day, 13th annual Tuscola County Pumpkin Festival kicks off Thursday and before the final event is staged there will have been 35,000 visitors enjoying the event, Maureen Johnson, one of the coordinators of the event this year,

In addition to 3,000 free pumpkins for school children there will be free live entertainment and a variety of shows offered. Thursday night at 6 p.m., the prince and princess of the Festival will be crowned.

Two major events are planned for Saturday and Sunday. State Street (M-81) will be closed for 4 blocks (Frank to Grant streets) from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. and classic cars will be displayed. 20 different categories of cars will be judged.

On the streets adjoining the car display some 70 crafters will display and sell a variety of hand-crafted

Sunday at 1:30 a giant parade with 150 entries will cap the celebration. Included will be 15 bands, including the Cass City, Kingston, Ubly and Owen-Gage high school bands.

Rep. Allen frowns on sales tax jump

Rep. Dick Allen, Republican, 77th district, of Caro, talked briefly about the current crisis in education in a phone interview last

Rep. Dick Allen

Of course, he pointed out at the start, we'll all have a clearer view of the suggested remedies when Gov. (John) Engler reveals his plan Oct. 5.

Regardless of what plan is finally adopted, Allen says, by the end of the year or soon after, school districts will be receiving between $4,000 and $5,000 per student for education.

Allen doesn't see a voucher system gaining enough support to be a payment method. He's a little dubious about "choice" plans, too. That may fly in the urban areas, he explained, but in rural districts like mine, there are problems. What do you do about transportation, if a student who lives in, say, Caro, and wants to attend Cass City?

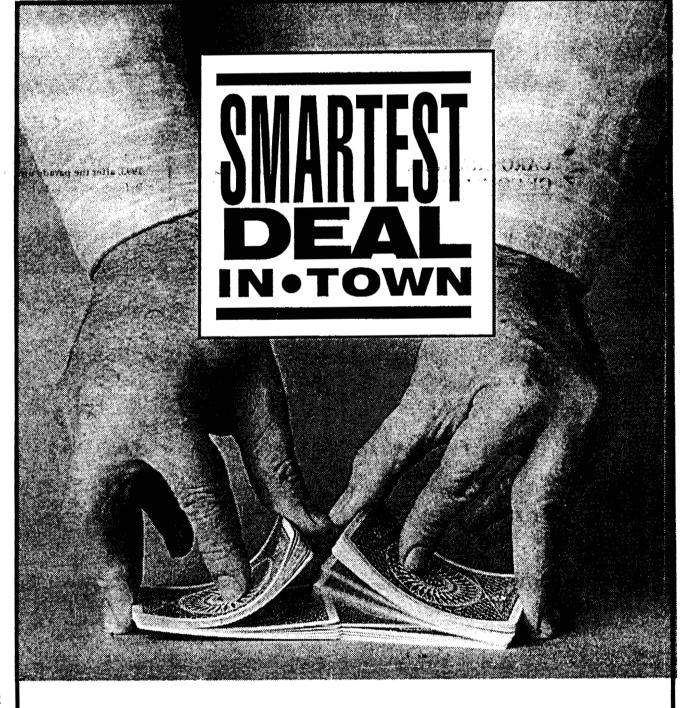

Allen is also doubtful about paying for education through an increase in sales tax. It's a slap in the face, he feels, to ask the people to approve a sales tax increase right after they turned an increase down.

There is some talk swirling around, he confides, in presenting a sales tax increase proposal to the people with the alternative of an income tax increase if it is turned down. (An income tax jump can be accomplished without a vote.)

It may well be, Allen said, that some sort of property tax will be reinstated. It's sure, he points out, that the final plan will be some sort of compromise between the plan of the Democrats and the Republicans.

It's not going to be easy, he sighed, but in the end it will get done. That's a certainty.

Coach Dean Roller's cagers were to have completed the first half of the season Tuesday when they traveled to tangle with Carsonville-Port Sanilac.

One might think that the veteran mentor, who will start the 2nd half of his campaign entertaining Au Gres Thursday, is getting a bit discouraged.

Hawks take Blue Bay lead as unbeaten Marlette bows 38-26

It was a game that might well decide the championship of the Blue Bay League or at least give the winner a giant leg up on the title and it was apparent Thursday night that both teams knew

The battle was between. undefeated Cass City and undefeated Marlette and both teams entered the game as tight as bow strings, missing shot after shot in the first 2 1/2 quarters.

Cass City scored a convincing victory, 38-26, to reign supreme, at least until the Laker game at home that was to have been played Tuesday, followed by a road trip to Mayville Thursday.

Tight, aggressive defense may have had much to do with the lack of offense for both teams, but not all. Cass City blew 3 uncontested layups in the first quarter and the Red Raiders matched that.

That's the way it continued until midway in the second quarter. At the 4:19 mark in the first quarter, Cass City led 4-2 and the team's entire point production in the first period was 3 field goals by Jodi LaRoche. But that was enough to maintain a lead as the Raiders could manage only a bucket by Nicole Ruggles and a free toss by Diane Aldridge.

The Hawks took control of the game midway through the second period, outscoring the visitors on runs of 5-2 and 5-1. At the half the lead was a comfortable 10 points.

The win must have been very gratifying to coach Marty Daniel because it came against a very good team and was notched despite 3 quarters of very cold shooting for scoring ace Jodi Schember.

The Hawks rolled in front on fine defensive play while Schember was held to a pair of free throws in the first 3 quarters. She missed 7 straight shots from outside. But the veteran all-star was there at crunch time in the last period. The Red Raiders had cut the Cass City lead to 7 points and LaRoche left the game with an injury with 7 minutes left.

While the Hawk fans were squirming in their seats, Schember took charge. A jumper from the key stopped the Marlette surge and then, boom!, 3 outside shots found nothing but net and the game point range. Cass City also was history.

The board of directors of ganization has enjoyed a tradition of successfully meeting its goals over the years, and board President Dale McIntosh indicated 1993 should be no different.

"The board is comfortable with that (goal)," he recently commented. "I'm real positive that we can attain our goal. I'm confident we can get there.'

McIntosh noted the area United Way's name change, first discussed in 1992, was officially approved by state officials earlier this year.

"The reason we did that is the success of our collections, the success of our campaigns, (has been) basically in the Cass City area," he explained.

In keeping with tradition, last year's goal of $17,500 was easily surpassed, with campaign is administered contributions from individuals and businesses totaling $18,744.

A host of area groups and projects benefit when local United Way monies are allocated each spring.

Among this year's recipients were Christmas baskets, Rawson Memorial Library, Cass City Pony League, Cass City Cub Scouts, Village Bach Festival, Girl Scouts, girls' softball, American Association of University Women RIF and math-science programs, Village of Cass City, Cass City Food Closet, Cass City Literacy Council, Tom Thumb Singers, Toys for Tots and the Tuscola United land quartet, will be seem red Cass City playing Antonin Dvorak's Romance for Violin. The Bach Magnificat with chorus and orchestra, a work heard at the first Festival, will also be performed. Nov. 23, Marilyn Mason, chairman of the organ department of the University of Michigan, returns to Caro to perform Bach organ works on the Aeolian Skinner pipe organ of the First Presbyterian Church, Mason will be accompanied by Elizabeth Tomorsky, oboist, New York City, in works for oboe and organ.

"This is music making of the highest order," said Holly Althaver, chairman of the festival. "It is ever a feast of music for those who come to share their talent and dedication." Ticket information may be obtained by calling 872-2131, extension 269, or by mail to the Village Bach Festival, P.O. Box 27, Cass City, Michigan 48726.

Board members receive no pay, McIntosh pointed out. noting the board in recent years has done away with its. kick-off dinner, opting instead to donate those funds'.' directly to the campaign.

McIntosh said board members plan to become more involved in the campaign this year. They and other volunteers will be out in force, soliciting contributions from individuals and businesses.

Residents willing to help out as volunteers, as well as those who would like to make a contribution but aren't contacted by a United Way volunteer, are asked to call McIntosh at 872-4311, or Prieskorn at 872-2131.

FRANCHISE Granted to the Village of Cass City

SOUTHEASTERN MICHIGAN GAS COMPANY

Ordinance No. 133

An Ordinance granting a franchise to Southeastern Michigan Gas Company to construct, operate, and maintain in the public streets, highways, alleys and other public places in the Village of Cass City, Tuscola County, Michigan, all needful and proper gas pipes, mains, conductors, service pipes and other apparatus requisite for the manufacture, transmission and distribution of gas for public and private use and to conduct a local business therein.

The Village of Cass City Ordains:

Section 1. Grant of Franchise. Permission is hereby granted to Southeastern Michigan Gas Company, a Michigan Corporation, and to its successors and assigns, to construct, operate and maintain in the public streets, highways, alleys and other public places in the Village of Cass City, Tuscola County, Michigan, all needful and proper gas pipes, mains, conductors, service pipes and other apparatus and facilities requisite for the manufacture, transmission and distribution of gas for all purposes to the Village of Cass City, and the inhabitants thereof, and for conducting gas elsewhere to supply neighboring cities, villages and other territories supplied with gas by said Grantee, subject, however, to all conditions and restrictions hereinafter contained.

Section 2. Conditions. The conditions of the foregoing grant are as follows:

- The Grantee shall do no injury to any street, highway, alley or other public place, or to any shade tree, or in any manner disturb or interfere with any water transmission and distribution lines or with any public or private sewer now or hereafter laid or constructed by any authorized person or corporation.
- b) All construction work done under this grant shall be under the supervision of the designated representative of the Grantee and shall be subject to inspection and approval by the designated representative of the Village of Cass City as to location within the rightof-way. The Grantee shall pay cost of such inspection and approval.
- The Grantee, before entering upon any street, alley, easements for public utility purposes or other public place to install pipes, mains, or other apparatus, shall notify the Village of Cass City or its designated representative of the proposed construction and shall, if the Village of Cass City so requires, file with the Village of Cass City a sufficient plan or map and shall obtain the representative's approval thereof before beginning construction.
- No street, alley, highway or public place shall be allowed to remain obstructed or encumbered by the construction work of said Grantee for a longer period than shall be reasonably necessary to execute said work, and the Grantee shall, at all times, conform to all applicable ordinances and regulations of the Village of Cass City now or hereafter in force.

The Grantee shall indemnify, hold the Village of Cass City harmless and defend it against any claim, action or demand that may be asserted against the Village of Cass City by reason of wrongdoing or negligence of the Grantee in the construction or maintenance of its gas mains, pipes or other apparatus, or any claim or actionable consequence resulting from this nonexclusive grant of Franchise.

Section 3. Rules, Regulations and Rates. The rules and regulations applicable to the service, the quality of the gas furnished, and the rates charged therefor by the Grantee herein, its successors and assigns, shall be as fixed from time to time by the Michigan Public Service Commission or other such state authority as shall have jurisdiction of the subject matter, reserving, however, the right of the Village of Cass City to object thereto.

Section 4. Regulation of Streets, Alleys and Public Places. Nothing in this grant shall be construed to alienate the title of the public in and to any street, highway, alley or public place, or any portion thereof, neither shall anything herein be construed in any manner as a surrender by the Village of Cass City of its legislative power with respect to the subject matter hereof, or with respect to any other matter whatsoever; nor as in any manner limiting the right of said Village to regulate the use of any street, avenue, highway or public place within its jurisdiction.

Section 5. Assignment of Franchise. The Grantee shall not assign this Franchise to any person, firm or corporation without the prior approval of the Cass City Village Council and unless the assignee is, in the opinion of the management of Southeastern Michigan Gas Company, financially able to carry out the Grantee's obligations under this Franchise and is authori-id by the Michigan Public Service Commission, or such other State authority as shall then have jurisdiction of the subject matter so to do.

Section 6. Term. The franchise granted shall remain in effect for a period of thirty (30) years.

Section 7. Effective Date. This Ordinance shall take effect upon the filing of Grantee's written acceptance with the Village of Cass City Clerk and its confirmation by a three fifths (3/5) majority vote of the electors of the Village of Cass City voting thereon.

Enacted by the Village Council of Cass City, Tuscola County, Michigan, this 28th. day of September, 1993.

The doors will open at 12 noon and musical numbers start at 1 p.m. Sandwiches and beverages will be available from noon to 5 p.m. and dinner will be served at 5:00.

Residents planning to buy a new mower in the near future might consider getting one of the mulching models, he said, adding mulch adapter kits can be purchased for $20 to $40 for use on standard mowers. Distributing information on backyard composting also would be a good idea, he said.
