Police probe Cass City thefts

Cass City police are investigating the recent burglary of a local business. According to reports, someone broke into the Cass Tavern, 6448 Main St., during the evening hours of Oct. 9.

Owner Donna Zagorski told police she discovered a number of items missing from the basement, including several cases of beer and some wine and liquor, valued at a combined $100. Also taken was $69 in cash from a cash register.

Police believe the culprit(s) entered the building through a second-story window.

The incident took place just 2 months after Zagorski reported the theft of $4,290 in cash from a file cabinet drawer in an office at the tavern.

In other reports, Grant Glaspie, 4663 Huron St., told police someone entered his yard, removed some glass panels and stole the light bulb from a driveway light. The glass column covering the light was broken.

The missing property and damage were estimated at $75.

Glaspie said the incident took place during the evening hours Friday or early morning Saturday, according to reports, which note several pumpkins were smashed on the street and some neighboring houses were draped in toilet paper during the same time period.

At special program

Drug dangers outlined at O-G

"David" graduated as salutatorian from a Huron County high school, went on to become an honor student at Michigan State University and later served as an assistant football coach for the Spartans.

Then, one day, police responded to a call in Port Austin, where they found David laughing as he demolished his parents' brand new car with a sledge hammer.

It was later learned that David had a brush with drugs 7 to 10 years earlier, and had tried LSD just once.

"You know where (he's) at today? He's living in a mental institution and he has the mental abilities of a 3- or 4-year-old child," Sgt. Brent Woodward told a group of Owen-Gage students Friday at Owendale High School.

"It only takes one time, folks."

Woodward, director of safety education for the Huron County Sheriff's Department, related the story during a special drug awareness program.

Students listened as Huron County Prosecutor Leslie Hagen described the penalties for drug possession and delivery, and talked about student rights in school.

They also saw firsthand just how quickly a specially-trained dog can locate hidden drugs.

The program was designed by school officials and Thumb law enforcement, high school Principal Joanne Hopper explained. The goal, she said, is prevention.

"We just want students to be aware" of the tools available to deal with students involved in drugs, she added. "We haven't had any major problems, but we don't want them, either."

The students in attendance Friday, representing grades 6 through 12, listened intently as Hagen discussed treatment of young offenders.

First-time offenses typically bring a sentence of probation, but additional convictions can lead to a teen's removal from home and placement in a detention center or other program until age 19, or 21 if it's deemed necessary.

"The focus in the probate court is rehabilitation," Hagen said, noting some youths are placed in substance abuse treatment. "Once you become 17, the focus then shifts to punishment. At 17, you can be looking at prison."

Hagen told students they could be caught with 2 ounces of marijuana or a whole bushel basketful, and the worst they would face is up to 4 years in prison.

However, the penalties are much harsher for cocaine, she said. Possession of less than 50 grams is punishable by one to 20 years; 50 to 225 grams equals a mandatory 10 to 20 years; 225 grams to 650 grams means a mandatory prison term of 20 to 30 years, and possession of over 650 grams is punishable by mandatory life in prison without parole.

Hagen said sentencing for drug offenses is also harsher in that prison terms are served consecutively.

And expect double trouble if caught selling drugs near "Drug-Free School Zones" established by a number of area schools, including Owen-Gage, she added.

"If you're caught in possession of narcotics with intent to deliver within 500 feet of school property, the penalty is doubled."

Hagen, who noted students' drivers licenses can be suspended for a drug use or possession conviction, also talked about state forfeiture laws, which allow police to seize cars, houses, businesses — anything being used in conjunction with drug sales. Even selling fake drugs is a crime, according to the prosecutor, who explained the penalties range from 2 to 10 years in prison along with a fine of $2,000 to $10,000.

As for search and seizure, schools aren't held to the same standard as police officers, who must have probable cause to search a student, a car or a locker. School officials, Hagen said, need only have "reasonable suspicion" to conduct a search.

"Yes, you do have rights," she added, "but the rights you have here are relaxed compared to what they are at home."

Students later watched as a certified narcotics dog, guided by handler Deputy Jim Wagester of the Sanilac County Sheriff's Department's K-9 Unit, sniffed out methamphetamine, known on the street as "crank", and marijuana from a cardboard box and a locker. They also heard from an undercover narcotics officer.

Woodward offered some parting thoughts, including the true story of a 15-year-old boy who attended a party in which everyone dropped some form of drug into a punch bowl, and then randomly picked one out to swallow.

Keith Smith killed in early Sunday crash

A Unionville man died early Sunday morning after losing control of his vehicle about 6 miles west of Cass City in Elmwood Township.

Tuscola County Sheriff's Deputies identified the victim as Keith Owen Smith, 19, 2365 E. Dickerson Rd.

Smith, a 1992 Cass City High School graduate, was driving west on Dickerson Road about a half-mile west of Hurds Corner Road when he ran off the north side of the road, according to investigators, who said Smith then attempted to come back onto the road too quickly, causing his vehicle to roll over several times.

Smith, who was not wearing a seat belt at the time of the 1:51 a.m. accident, was thrown from the vehicle.

Deputies were assisted at the scene by Cass City-Mercy Ambulance personnel.

Thumb pheasant population down

Pheasant hunters planning to bag a ringneck in the Thumb this fall may have to work a lot harder for success than they did a year ago.

Bird numbers are down, according to DNR wildlife biologist Bud Jarvis, who says a severe winter and/or wet summer conditions apparently are to blame for the reduction in population.

The pheasant season opens Thursday and concludes Nov. 14.

The 1994 hunting regulations are about the same as 1993, including a bag limit of 2 birds per day, with an 8-bird season limit. There are no land closures or restrictions in the Thumb this year.

"I don't believe the number of birds is nearly as good as it has been the past 2 years. I think it's (harvest) going to be down 30 to 50 percent," said Jarvis, who works out of the DNR's Cass City field office.

"The hunters are going to be disappointed, I think." Jarvis said he's heard some predictions that hunters will bag 200,000 birds statewide this fall — an increase from last year's harvest of 180,000 to 190,000 pheasants — "but I don't think it will happen. 'We've got a good breeding population, but it hasn't materialized into good reproduction. We just haven't seen Please turn to back page.

$100 offered for lead to vandals

A $100 reward has been offered for information leading to the apprehension of the vandals who have been defacing village and private property with graffiti, some of it obscene.

Last week the vandals defaced the structure that extends the walking trail over the Cass River and the west wall of the building located just north of the basketball courts in the Cass City Recreational Park.

Chief Gene Wilson said that he does not think that it is the work of gangs, but irresponsible individuals.

In any case, anyone providing information to the Cass City police will be assured of complete anonymity.

Women and men help

Shabbona's fresh pie making spree at 1,000--and counting

Shabbona may not be the pie capital of Michigan, but it could be.

Especially in the fall, when the leaves turn, the frost is on the pumpkin, and the Shabbona United Methodist women roll up their sleeves to fill orders for their homemade apple pies.

Lots of orders.

"We made 300 (pies) yesterday, we're hoping for 400 today, and then we work next Tuesday and Wednesday again," Shabbona United Methodist Women's President Janet Severance remarked last week.

Severance talked about the project, now in its fourth year, as she prepared pie crust in the basement of the church Wednesday.

She had plenty of company, as a dozen and half women and men, stood at nearby tables, peeling apples, rolling dough and filling pie crusts with assembly line precision.

The room was filled with friendly chatter and the unmistakable scent of cinnamon and apples.

"The first year we made 345 pies in 2 days," Severance said. "The second year we went to 645, and last year we went 819. But those have all been 2-day (projects)."

"The way it's going right now, we'll probably have 1,100 this year."

Broken down, that's 48 bushels of apples, 540 pounds of flour, 420 pounds of sugar, 300 pounds of shortening, 36 pounds of butter, 27 dozen eggs and 8 pounds of cinnamon.

Despite the growing popularity of the pies, Severance said there's no secret recipe involved, just homemade crust and tart, Cortland apples purchased each year from an orchard in Scottville, located east of Ludington.

Severance credits the success of the project — the group made more than $2,400 last year — to the volunteers who make it happen.

In all, some 40 men and women, ranging in age from 20 to 80-something, are involved this year in nearly every aspect of the project, from mixing ingredients to delivering pies.

When it's all said and done, the group's efforts benefit missions and children.

AAUW gets ready for carnival

The major item of business at the October AAUW meeting was the planning of games and food for the October 29 Halloween carnival for children through 6th grade. This year there will also be a spook house.

Bob Townsend, Regional Media Center director, spoke to the group about Thumb area television, including an explanation of the possibilities available in education telecommunication.

Living in a rural area, most of us have at least an elemental knowledge of "Farmerese" and can chuckle over this article by Judy Doyle, a city girl who met and married a "real live farmer."

It was passed on to me by Lois Moslander, who got it from Tom Montgomery, who got it from Lloyd Severance.

He found it in a publication by New Holland farm equipment.

Claiming Farmerese is akin to learning a new language, Doyle came up with this "City Slicker/Farmer Dictionary for the benefit of other "brave city girls who have taken on the challenge of a farm-country husband."

The Cass City Red Hawks will be making their second appearance at the Palace Friday, Nov. 4. This time it will be the girls' basketball team that will make the trip to play the Marlette Red Raiders.

The game is at 4:30 p.m. and will precede the Detroit Pistons' season opener against the Los Angeles Lakers at 8 p.m., when a capacity crowd is expected.

Fans can buy tickets for both games for $15. They are available at both the high school and the middle school offices.

Notes about a quick 7-day tour of Maine, New Brunswick, New Hampshire and Nova Scotia following a plane trip to Boston on a half fare deal, ($336 round trip for 2 from Metro Airport.)

I don't know if the fish served along the coast is fresher and better tasting than that served in Michigan or I just think that it was because that's the way it's supposed to be. What is sure is that if you like clam chowder or any of its variations, it's available in almost any restaurant, including a Chinese restaurant we visited.

The color in the area lives up to its billing...simply spectacular. Maine is a state that must have to import food. Travelling along the coast and back through the middle of the state, farms were as few and far between as woodlands are in the Thumb.

Augusta, the capital of Maine, is really a small town that happens to have the state offices in it. St. Johns, New Brunswick, does a capable job of promoting its tourist attractions, including the Reversible Falls, where the rising tide makes the river run backwards. At one of the seaports in the area the boast is that the highest tide in the world occurs. If memory serves, it reaches 54 feet.

Bar Harbor and vicinity is tourist country with prices to match. Premium gas there last week cost $1.41 per gallon. That's good news if you live in Canada, where it costs over $2 a gallon, but bad news if you live in the US, outside the tourist area, where the Boston price was $1.28.

Commissioners renew funding for courts

Tuscola County's courts won't run out of funding next week, following recent action by county commissioners.

The board last week ordered funding to resume, with the understanding that the state will comply with a public act requiring it to fund 31.5 percent of court expenses.

Commissioners, who have joined other Michigan counties in a class-action suit demanding that the state fulfill its financial obligation to courts under Public Act 189 of 1993, voted in August to slash local court funding by 31.5 percent, or about $254,000. The measure would have forced the county's courts to close next week.

More than 40 other Michigan counties also reduced appropriations to their courts in an attempt to force the state to take action. Last week's decision to restore local court funding was based on recent court decisions in other counties, county Controller Mike Hoagland said.

On the advice of legal counsel, commissioners acted, in part, on a stipulation and interim funding order issued in a Saginaw County class action suit in which that county was ordered to fund its courts on a non-voluntary basis through Nov. 5, Hoagland explained. He added the order allowed the county to seek reimbursement in the future if the state fails to fund courts.

Also key is a decision in Ingham County, where a judge has ruled the state must pay its share of court costs or face possible fines.

Recent lower and appeals court decisions already back the counties involved the class-action suit, Hoagland pointed out. He noted officials are now waiting for the Michigan Supreme Court to hear the case.

The Haire Net

was allowed in the United States.

Last month the first Boron Neutron Capture Therapy treatment was administered at the Brookhaven National Laboratory's nuclear reactor.

Dr. Werner was one of a handful of patients to receive the nuclear treatment in Japan. How they fared was not revealed in the article about Dr. Werner.

Since Dr. Werner died, it's safe to say that nuclear treatment is at best a chancy procedure.

Still there must be at least a small chance that the results will be positive. Otherwise a qualified person such as Dr. Werner wouldn't go to Japan to try to find a cure.

The only negative in trying has to be the remote chance that researchers will come up with a new miracle cure that persons taking untried cures would not be able to receive. So it boils down to trying a procedure that has only a chance of working against waiting to see if one is found that does work, at least most of the time.

It seems to me that terminally ill patients should be granted the freedom of trying experimental cures if they desire and that the regulatory bodies should confine themselves to protecting patients from treatments from unscrupulous operators seeking to enrich themselves.

"If It Fitz...."

Now it can be told

By Jim Fitzgerald

Because I'm a conscientiously accurate columnist who writes only verifiable facts, and because I never clean out my desk, it's not surprising that I still have the scribbled notes I made during a 1992 phone conversation with Darrien Iacocca.

Lee's third wife called to politely complain that a lot of the stuff written and broadcast about her was not true and "so degrading and negative." Darrien cited a couple of examples, and I magnanimously offered to tell the truth as she saw it.

After all, as Darrien pointed out, I was guilty of repeating some of the inaccurate gossip about her. So I figured the least I could do, as a conscientiously accurate columnist, also noble and fair-minded, was write some positive suck-up stuff that might get me in good with one of the wealthiest and most powerful men in American industry, who might someday want to enrich a pleasantly pliable publicist.

Darrien said thanks, but no thanks. "Lee doesn't like me to talk to the press." So my notes never got into my column.

Until now, two years later. Darrien wants to divorce Lee in California, and he wants to divorce her in Michigan. And I want to say it most likely no longer matters to Darrien if Lee doesn't like her to talk to the press about her accurate age.

SOME TASTY TIDBITS

What I'd written about the Iacoccas, soon after their wedding, was that I'd read in the newspaper that "grilled chicken with a lemon herb sauce and twice-blanching garlic" was served at their reception. At the time, I didn't know garlic could be blanching twice, or even once.

When I was a little boy, I was taught that Blanche was the first name of the woman next door, last name Higgins. My mother's name was Gertrude and her sisters were Madeline and Florence. No woman in the world was named Traci or Muffy.

It certainly would never have occurred to me to ask Gertrude if she blanching garlic.

So naturally, and intellectually, I couldn't help writing that Blanche and Herb sounded less likely to be listed on a menu than Darrien did, because Darrien sounded like a lite dairy product, maybe twice-skimmed milk.

Less understandable was my compulsion to also include this gossipy paragraph:

"It was reported that Darrien's wedding dress cost $23,000. It also was reported that she claims to be 42 and has a 28-year-old son. It was not reported that she will appear in a Chrysler TV commercial advertising backseat air bags for the protection of pregnant people not old enough to drive."

A CHRONOLOGICAL GAFFE

That age claim was apparently the biggest reason Darrien called me. "I'm now 48," she said, "and my son is now 30."

Remember, Darrien phoned in 1992. I haven't seen her age given in any of the recent divorce articles, but it seems safe to assume she's now around 50, if she doesn't lie about her age, and her son is still 18 years younger.

Also, when she was pregnant with him, Darrien was old enough to drive, and a certain smart-aleck columnist should be ashamed of himself.

According to my old notes, Darrien also complained that most news reports made it appear as though she didn't amount to much until she married Lee. She said she'd been a successful restaurateur, responsible for as many as 24 dining places, and she'd owned a condo that wasn't very much smaller than the one where she and Lee then were living.

Interestingly, Darrien Iacocca also said, "Lee is a very simple man."

When he's not behind the wheel, anyway.

The herring is the world's most widely-eaten fish.

Gospel Bears

Greetings in our Lord and Saviour:

The Lord is still blessing our little Church as we move ahead by faith in His promises.

On Sept. 12th, we just completed our 1st year of opening our new Church, and over the year we have been blessed, along with souls being saved, baptized, and new members being added.

This month on Oct. 13th at 12 noon we will be with Harry our Animated Friend at the American Legion Hall to put on a program. The American Legion is located on M-25, Sebawaing, Michigan.

On Oct. 15th, there will be a marriage of two of our members, Scott Plonta to Carol Thompson. This union will take place at the Farver Road Baptist Church at twelve noon with reception to follow in the Bears Den.

Oct. 28th, we are invited to share in a live program with Harry, our animated friend, and songs by Duane Plonta. We will be live on TV channel 49 at 11:30 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. from Saginaw, Michigan.

Services are Sunday School 10:00 a.m., worship 11:00 a.m. Mid-week services 6:30 p.m., Thursday.

Looking forward to another Blessed Month in the LORD.

Yours in the LORD

Marianna Gabbi to guest conduct at Bach Festival

Marianna Gabbi will be guest conductor for Don Jaeger at the Village Bach Festival during the opening concert in Cass City, Friday, Nov. 25, at the First Presbyterian Church.

Under Gabbi's direction, Jaeger and Elizabeth Tomorsky will perform with the Festival Orchestra in Federico Fiorillo's "Sinfonia Concertante for Two Oboes." As music director and conductor of the Las Cruces Symphony at New Mexico State University and the Chamber Players de Las Cruces, Gabbi maintains a busy schedule conducting, teaching and organizing musical support. She is recognized as one of the leading conductors throughout the world today.

Dr. Gabbi is a native born Philadelphian of Italian heritage and received her early training at the Settlement Music School and the Philadelphia School of the Performing Arts. An accomplished violinist, she continued her studies at the Ecole Normale de Musique, Paris, France, through a grant from the French government. In 1970, she returned to the United States and since then has devoted her musical career to conducting, coached by Dr. Richard Burgin of the Boston Symphony.

In 1988, Dr. Gabbi received the NMSU President's Service Award for Excellence in Teaching. In October of 1988, Maestro Gabbi was the first American woman to conduct in China at the Beijing Conservatory of Music with the Beijing Central Orchestra. She returned to China in March of 1994 to conduct in Beijing and Tianjin.

In the summer of 1989, she was guest conductor at the National Music Camp at Interlochen, Michigan.

At the Cass City Village Bach Festival, Dr. Gabbi will guest conduct for Maestro Don Jaeger, as he joins the Bach Festival Orchestra for the first time as oboe soloist. An oboist of international reputation, Jaeger was a bronze medalist in the Prague Spring International Competition for Woodwinds in Czechoslovakia and recipient of a Fulbright Scholarship for graduate study in Amsterdam, The Netherlands. More information may be obtained by calling 517-872-

2131 ext. 269, or by mail to the Village Bach Festival P.O. Box 27, Cass City, MI 48726

The Village Bach Festival is supported, in part, by the Michigan Council for Arts and Cultural Affairs.

New firm signed to provide counseling for mental health

The Tuscola County Community Mental Health Services Board has announced that it will contract with List Psychological Services of Caro to provide Outpatient Counseling. Effective Oct. 1, the shift will affect those consumers experiencing emotional difficulties traditionally treated in an outpatient setting. Tuscola County Community Mental Health Executive Director Robert Chadwick sees positive effects from the transfer, commenting that, "This move will allow our counseling services to partner with a community-based provider of high-quality, while delivering those services on a cost-effective basis. Our goal is to provide continuity of service, so that our consumers will notice absolutely no interruption in their treatments other than the new setting."

Community Mental Health (CMH) outpatient consumers will continue to be screened by that agency and will be referred to List Psychological whenever appropriate. While the List Organization will provide actual treatment, CMH will retain its monitoring and evaluation functions. The move is seen as a step in the direction of managed care, a growing concept in the mental health arenas across the state and the country. Chadwick further stated that, "It is not our business to compete directly with private providers when they can offer these services to the benefit of the entire community."

List Psychological Services is a full-service counseling agency with a staff of 28. The Caro site is located at 443 N. State Street, from where services are provided from 8:00 a.m. until 9:00 p.m., Monday through Friday.

Those persons who desire more information about the change, or who would like a brochure about any of the other services offered by CMH, may contact that agency during normal business hours at (517) 673-6191 or toll-free 1-800-462-6814.

DAV information meet set

Detailed explanations of the full range of benefits available to disabled veterans and their families will be presented at an upcoming Disabled American Veterans (DAV) Veterans Information Seminar.

Like all services provided by the nonprofit DAV, there will be no charge for this informative seminar, which will be hosted by DAV Mathew Larabee Chapter No. 50. It will be presented from 10 a.m.-1 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 5, at the Tuscola

Caro Jail, 420 Court Street, Caro.

A highly trained National Service Officer from the DAV's Detroit office will conduct the seminar. "This veterans' benefits expert offers you the best counseling and claim filing assistance you and your family can get," said Arthur H. Wilson, executive director of the DAV's Washington headquarters, in a letter inviting local veterans and their families to the seminar.

That's important, he said, because, "So many disabled veterans feel confused about benefits and services they've earned. There's so much to know...and so many changes from one year to the next."

Veterans and members of their families need not be DAV or DAV Auxiliary members to take advantage of this free DAV service. They should bring their Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) claim number and Social Security number to the DAV Veterans Information Seminar.

For 9-month period

Walbro reports record sales; income up 11 percent

L.E. Althaver, chairman, president and chief executive officer, Walbro Corporation, reported sales of $75,251,000 for the quarter ended Sept. 30, 1994, compared with $64,374,000 for the third quarter of 1993. Third quarter income was $2,974,000 compared with $3,112,000 for the same period in 1993.

Income per share was $.35 for the third quarter of 1994, compared with $.36 for the same period in 1993. Average shares outstanding were 8,599,219 for the third quarter of 1994 and 8,586,326 for the same period in 1993.

For the 9 month period, Walbro reported record sales of $241,433,000, a 19.1 percent increase over the sales of $202,748,000 for the first 9 months of 1993. Income for the 9 month period increased 11.0 percent to $11,934,000. Income per share was $1.39 compared with $1.26 (before accounting change) for the same period in 1993, an increase of 10.3 percent. Althaver noted that continued strength of auto sales in North America in the third quarter resulted in strong demand for Walbro's automotive original equipment products for that market.

"Vehicle sales in Europe are gradually improving, to the benefit of Marwal Systems, our joint venture in France," Althaver added. "Products manufactured by Marwal are used on several fast-selling European vehicles. In addition, production efficiency at Marwal continues to improve and the outlook remains good for solid growth as the European economy recovers."

"Marwal do Brazil, our automotive joint venture in Sao Paulo, is also progressing well and shows strong growth potential in the active South American automotive arena," he said.

"As part of Walbro's growth philosophy, we are pursuing a number of approaches aimed at expanding our automotive product offerings. We expect to announce developments in this area in the near future," the chief executive said.

"In the small engine market, sales of diaphragm carburetors were down somewhat in the third quarter, due to the usual seasonal drop in demand. However, sales of float feed carburetors for small engine applications remained strong during the quarter," Althaver said.

"Sales of automotive aftermarket products continued to grow during the third quarter, largely due to the success of our new lines of replacement fuel modules," he said.

"Fujian Hualong Carburetor Company, a new Walbro joint venture which produces carburetors in China for 2-wheeled vehicles and replacement carburetors for automobiles, is already profitable. This venture promises continued progress in the fast-growing Chinese economy," Althaver concluded.

Bulldogs hand Kingston 59-34 defeat

The Owen-Gage Bulldogs halted a 4-game losing streak Thursday by holding visiting Kingston to just nine second half points during a North Central Thumb League encounter.

Coach Dean Roller's cagers (7-6 overall, 4-4) will now entertain Akron-Fairgrove Thursday following a Tuesday tilt at North Huron.

"It's good to get a win, it's been awhile," said Coach Roller following Thursday's 59-34 victory. "The last 3 quarters our defense picked up."

Megan Roland scored 6 of the Cardinals' first 10 tallies that helped the visitors stake an early 10-4 edge.

Rebecca Kostanko, who scored all 8 of her tallies in the maiden half, gave the visitors their biggest lead of the night at 12-4 on a short jump shot with just over a minute remaining in the stanza. Devin Kelly's 15' jumper ended the scoring for the visitors in the opening period at 14-7.

The Cardinals (2-9 overall, 1-8) got the second quarter's first field goal on a basket by Danielle Corlis but were outscored 21-9 to enter the intermission trailing 28-25.

Owen-Gage drew even with the Cardinals at 16-all on a Melody Abfalter lay-in and took their first lead, 19-18, on an Abfalter charity toss with 3:45 remaining till the break.

Kingston regained the lead at 22-21 as Kostanko converted 4 of 4 tries from the foul stripe. But following a Bulldog basket by freshman Tonya Smith, senior Angie Wildman scored 3 straight points for the winners that saw them entering the final half leading 28-25.

The hosts put the game away in the third period as Smith and Wildman led a 19-5 run for the winners.

While Smith and Wildman were hot from the floor, each scoring 4 field goals, Kingston could manage only 2 hoops, both from Dana Mock, and a Meredith Roland freebie.

Owen-Gage closed out the conquest with a 12-4 spurt in the game's closing 8 minutes.

Wildman led all scorers with 24 points. She tallied 8 points in the final period. Wildman was credited with 3 assists. Smith chipped in 13 points through the first 3 quarters of play.

Kate Powers, who registered 8 points, was a big factor in the Bulldog defense, recording 6 blocks.

Kingston got 10 from Megan Roland and 8 from Kostanko.

NBW GAME

Earlier in the week on Tuesday, O-G traveled to North Branch Wesleyan and were hammered 59-28.

The visitors were outscored in every period.

NBW built a 14-8 lead out of the gate as Wildman was the only Bulldog to score from the field in the game's first 8 minutes.

Wesleyan extended its advantage to 27-18 by the half as the Bulldogs would never find their shooting eye on the evening.

"We shot only 7-64 from the floor," said a dejected Roller afterwards.

The Bulldogs were outscored 32-10 after the intermission.

Wildman tallied 11 for the losers. Smith finished with 7, while Jennifer Winchester added 6.

NBW got a game high 16 points from Valerie Correll. Caray Curell chipped in 10 as did teammate Katie Lewis.

Back Pain

Most back pain occurs in the lower part of the back. You can see the reasons for this when you understand the way this area of the body is constructed. The spinal column is actually a series of individual bones that are stacked like blocks, with a cartilage cushion or disk between each block. This column of vertebral blocks must not only anchor the weight of your body, but must also be able to bend and twist in any direction. Most of this flexibility is provided by the neck and the curved portion of the lower back, and so these areas are especially vulnerable to strain.

Simple ordinary every day tasks, performed incorrectly are enough to cause a back strain. Proper techniques in standing, sitting, lifting, stooping and stretching are essential in the prevention of low back strains. Consult your physician or local health care official for proper instruction in these techniques.

Hawks face All Saints Friday in clash for league title share

For the first time in many, many years the Cass City Red Hawks are in position to share a league title following the team's homecoming win against Marlette, 22-12.

Perennial champions Lakers have already clinched a share of the National Division Thumb C League title and the winner of this Friday's contest with Bay City All Saints in Cass City will determine who will share league honors.

At half time Jason Morgan was crowned homecoming king and on the gridiron the king also reigned. The senior fullback-linebacker scored 2 touchdowns and rushed for 178 yards. He also intercepted a pass in the fourth quarter to ruin whatever chance the Raiders had of getting back in the ball game.

While the ending was sweet for Hawk fans, the beginning stunned the homecoming crowd. On the second play from scrimmage Brian Sweet went around his right end behind a bevy of blockers for a 64-yard touchdown. The extra point try was missed.

The Hawks started a drive after that touchdown, moving to the Marlette 31, where a Morgan fumble was recovered by the Raiders.

Cass City's defense came to life after the turnover. After the Raiders passed for a first on their 46, 3 plays lost 28 yards and Marlette was forced to punt.

Taking the ball on the Marlette 46, the Hawks marched to the end zone. A pair of first downs moved the ball to the 21. Morgan then rammed off tackle to the 2 and then scored the touchdown. A pass from Chad Diegel to Kevin Storm put the Hawks in front 8-6.

The Raiders were far from through. A 72-yard touchdown run by Brian Niebauer was called back by a holding penalty.

After an intercepted pass halted a Hawk drive late in the second quarter, the visitors marched 56 yards in 2 minutes to take the lead at the half, 12-8.

The Raiders had a first down on the Cass City one-yard line but 3 plays lost 4 yards and it appeared as if Cass City might escape. But the Raiders went into a spread formation and Paul Roley hit Niebauer for the score and the Raiders led 12-8 at the half.

The Hawks went ahead to stay, driving 73 yards after taking the opening third quarter kickoff. Aron Romstad had a key run in the drive when he ran around his right end on a reverse for 36 yards. Morgan capped the drive, scoring from the one.

Diegel passed again to Storm for the extra points.

Cass City scored the clinching touchdown with 9:44 left in the game. Mixing a pass with runs, Cass City moved for 4 first downs to the 13-yard line. From here Diegel found Tim Warneck all alone in the left flat and he ran over untouched for the final score of the game.

Morgan led the defense with 8 tackles, 3 unassisted. Warneck had 7 tackles, 4 unassisted, and John Rea, 7 tackles, 5 unassisted.

JV WINS

The Cass City junior varsity defeated Marlette, 24-6. The win evens the season's record for the teams. Marlette was 5 wins, one loss going into the game and Cass City was 4-2.

Hawks stone cold in loss to Hatchets

When the ball fails to go through the hoop it's tough to win basketball games and the Cass City Red Hawks learned that Saturday when visiting Bad Axe turned the tables on the Hawks with a 40-26 decision. Cass City won the first game between the teams, 35-29.

The loss followed a non-league win over Unionville-Sebewaing Tuesday, Oct. 11, 54-47.

The Hawks lost the game in the first quarter against the Hatchets. The team just could not remove the lid over the basket. The girls worked the ball for good shots, several virtually unopposed 5 feet from the basket only to have them roll around the rim and out.

When the first quarter ended Cass City trailed, 10-0. When the scoring drought finally ended in the second quarter, Kelli VanVliet found the range to score 8 points and reduce the deficit to 7 points at the half.

But in the third period the roof fell in for Cass City. Using balanced scoring, the Hatchets whipped in 7 field goals while Cass City netted just 8 points, 6 by Jaime Caister, and going into the last 8 minutes the game was all but decided with Bad Axe ahead, 31-18.

VanVliet, with 12 points, was the only Hawk in double figures. Bad Axe was led by Chrissy Prill, 12 points, and Farrah Walsh, 10.

USA GAME

Coach Marty Daniel said that the Hawks played one of their better games of the season to top USA. The team operated on all cylinders both offensively and defensively to rack up the second win of the season over the Patriots.

Jill Wright, Peyton Daniel and VanVliet played significant roles in the win, Coach Daniel said.

The Hawks used a big second quarter to rack up the victory. With 6 players sharing in the scoring in the quarter, Cass City turned a 13-8, 5-point deficit into an 8-point lead, 27-19, at the intermission.

The 2 teams played on even terms in the third period. Linda Davila caught fire in the last quarter with 12 points on her way to a 22-point night to lead all scorers.

Her point barrage was answered by Daniel, who scored 6 of her 19 points in the last quarter, and VanVliet, who scored 6 of her 10 points, to preserve the victory.

Land owner says

Leave the Cass River alone

In the Cass City Chronicle (Oct. 5, 1994) I read your article of your plans for the Cass River...3 times in ten minutes as a matter of fact! I kept saying to myself, "Why can't people let well enough alone?" I hope on your Oct. 22 canoe trip you will discover that the Cass River is readily available to anyone who has the time, and an adventurous spirit to canoe, fish or walk along its bank. Sports people and nature-lovers do not need you to "Disneyland" the river and the surrounding land for us to enjoy its usage, and beauty! If you have to "fix it up" to coax and coddle people to check it out, you'll get people, I'll guarantee you that. More than likely the kind that leave their litter and garbage for someone else to pick up! Is that $15,000 grant going to last forever to clean up your trails, and how about the cans and broken glass bottles in the river???

How much will it cost to continually clean the walking trail between Caro and Cass City? And who will do it? Myself and many other land-owners by the river and near it can tell you much about these roadside sightseers. By the trash left you can tell where their car stopped, and by picking up the styro-foam cups and beer cans, you can just about tell how many nature-lovers were in the vehicle! Also, let's not forget that your rural area between Caro and Cass City is no stranger to crime problems, such as assault, thievery, vandalism, rape and most recently, attempted kidnapping. The Cass City Chronicle does an excellent job of informing its community about goings on. Who is going to patrol that stretch of trail? Who is going to pay for it? That $15,000 grant? What is to stop some punk(s) or thug(s) from harming individuals or families trying to enjoy your parks? I think you might be opening a "Pandora's Box."

There are two parks already on the Cass River, one with camping facilities near M-53 (Van Dyke), and the other just south of Caro itself. None of these ever bust at the seams for usage! What's wrong with taking school children on canoe trips and hikes along the river the way it is? Almost like it was in, as you said, "early Indian days." The river and surrounding woodlands are what mostly bring visitors and newcomers to the Cass

City area. Throw away your trump card and what else do you have to offer that other small towns and cities can't match or even top! It's not your downtown shopping that brings them in. I can assure you that!

I was born in Cass City and lived there a few years before moving to Detroit with my parents. I come back on a regular basis to tend to our property and visit with my relatives who reside in the area. My family roots go back over 70 years in Tuscola County, so I feel I have some say in this matter.

In closing I would like to say, "It's time we quit worrying about rain forest or foreign continents and start worrying about OUR forest, which is disappearing as fast as our vanishing farmland."

Vote No on Proposal "C"

Dear Sir:

"Speak for those who cannot speak for themselves."

This advice was given thousands of years ago by a very wise man. My son needed someone to speak for him after his auto accident left him speechless. Thank God for our No-Fault law that paid for him to get speech therapy.

"He is just a very small minority," the insurance company tells you. A minority is a majority when it is your son, your daughter, your husband, or your wife.

Before you pull that lever, think:

1. We now have the best medical coverage in the nation; if someone gets injured in an auto accident, they will have the resources for recovery.

2. Proposal "C" does not guarantee a rollback in your premium. If they do roll it back, it will only be for six months.

Vote NO on Proposal "C".

Thank you for your time.

Sincerely,

Down's Syndrome (Mongolism)

Down's syndrome is a genetic abnormality where there has been an incorrect division of the genes in the cells; it gives the infant an extra chromosome.

The chance of Down's increases as the age of the mother increases. At age 25, the risk is one in 500, but at age 45 it is one in 18. When the chance of having a Down's baby is increased, amniocentesis can be done to tell if the mother is carrying a baby with Down's. Amniocentesis is a procedure where fluid is withdrawn from the uterus to determine the genetic makeup of the infant.

Babies with Down's have many health problems. They all have mental retardation, which can vary from mild to quite severe.

They also have many physical problems. In the first few years, they have frequent respiratory infections which can be serious or even life-threatening. They very often have heart defects which may need surgery or medicines, and they get leukemia more often than normal children.

Down's children are normal in size at birth, but they grow slowly and have short stature. They have slow development both physically and mentally.

If a couple has one child with Down's they may have an increased chance of future children also having Down's. It is valuable to do a genetic study of the parents to make sure that one isn't a carrier. The most important test to do is amniocentesis early in the pregnancy to find if an infant carries the defect.

Joslyn decision is affirmed

The Michigan Supreme Court recently affirmed Tuscola County Circuit Court Judge Patrick R. Joslyn in the cases of People vs. Brian Keith Bables and People vs. Perry Edgar McConnell.

Bables pleaded guilty to breaking and entering an occupied dwelling with intent to commit a felony and habitual third offender. He was sentenced by Joslyn to 9 to 25 years imprisonment.

McConnell pleaded no contest to one count of first degree criminal sexual conduct and was sentenced by Joslyn to 10 to 30 years in prison.

In both cases, the defendants' appeals were denied by the Michigan Court of Appeals.

In affirming Joslyn's rulings, the Supreme Court ruled both appeals were denied "because they were not persuaded that the questions presented should be reviewed by the court."

Launch campaign for 4-H center

Tuscola County Farm Bureau has announced the creation of a local committee to assist the 4-H/Vision 2021 campaign. Thirty-three years ago, Farm Bureau members organized a campaign to build a dormitory at a 4-H camp near Tustin, Mich. The dream of the organizers became a reality with the completion of Camp Kett. The facility became the nation's prototype adult and youth leadership training center and Aspen Lodge is a tribute to the dedicated effort of those Farm Bureau volunteers who raised the funds to build it.

In 1994, with over 250,000 young people enrolled in 4-H programs across Michigan, the need to provide well-trained leaders is even greater. Based on this need, the Michigan 4-H foundation has launched VISION 2021, a campaign to update and improve Kettunen Center. After discussion by state and county Farm Bureau leadership, the MFB organization has joined the effort by pledging $150,000 to renovate Aspen Lodge, the original gift to the Foundation.

Recently, the Tuscola County Farm Bureau Board of Directors confirmed their commitment to the project by pledging to raise $5,000. The intent is to coordinate the efforts of Tuscola county residents and Farm Bureau members in pledging support for the project.

During the recent Aspen Lodge "Kickoff" fundraiser dinner, over 200 people learned that over $80,000 has already been raised. Tuscola County Farm Bureau was recognized as a "Pacesetter" county for its pledge. One of the rooms will be named after Tuscola County and decorated with artwork that is representative of the area.

Locally, the campaign is coordinated by Ben Hobart, Dave Milligan, Bill Kuechenmeister, Ginny McLaren, Wes Raven and Vic Verchereau. For additional information, contact the 4-H office at 673-5999 ext. 228, or the County Farm Bureau Office at 673-4155.

Sunday at Colony House

Celebration of Life set

October has been declared Breast Cancer Awareness

Month by Governor John Engler. To promote awareness, hospitals and health departments in the Thumb are sponsoring a country music Celebration of Life.

The event is scheduled for Sunday from 2 to 8 p.m. at the Colony House, M-53, Cass City.

Admission is free, with live music provided by several bands. Crossfire will be the host band, with appearances by Ambush, Willie & Friends, Eagle River and possibly more. Several times throughout the day, partner and line dances will be taught by professional instructors.

Soft drinks and snacks may be purchased and a chicken dinner will be served from 5-7 p.m. for $4.

One in 8 women will develop breast cancer during her lifetime. With early detection and diagnosis, this cancer may be up to 97% curable. The best methods of early detection are 3 exams that work together, BSE (breast self-exam), CBE (clinical breast exam) and mammography (an examination of the breast by X-ray). All women should do a BSE every month and get a CBE every year. Beginning at age 40, a woman should have a mammogram every one to 2 years, and one every year after age 50.

A woman should get a CBE from her doctor or health professional, who will then schedule her mammogram at an area hospital. All Thumb area hospitals offer mammography. If a woman has no insurance, or her insurance doesn't cover mammography, she may qualify for a free mammogram through the health departments.

A Celebration of Life is being held to remind everyone how important early detection is in preventing deaths from cancer. Everyone is invited to the Colony House to enjoy country music, and an afternoon of learning and dancing.

Supporting sponsors are the Associated Health Departments of Huron, Sanilac, and Tuscola counties, Caro Community Hospital, The Colony House, Deckerville Hospital, Harbor Beach Hospital, Hills and Dales Hospital, Huron Memorial Hospital, Marlette Community Hospital, McKenzie Hospital, Minden City Herald, Northern Lights Dance Club and Scheurer Hospital.

For more information on breast cancer and mammography, call your doctor, hospital or the department at 1-800-833-8550.

Shabbona pie count at 1,100

Women supports 4 mission families, and we have our pledges that we give to the Methodist missions," Severance explained. "We also support the Guardian Angel project (at United Methodist Children's Home), and we just started supporting Sunshine Acres, a camp in Florida for terminally ill children."

Pies aren't the group's only fund raiser — some 200 dozen cookies will be baked and taken to the Lamotte Fire Department Auxiliary Bazaar later this month.

But the pie project is in a class by itself.

Orders for the next year "start as soon as we deliver them (pies)," Severance said.

"It's been remarkable for us," she concluded. "We never thought when we started that it would mushroom into something like this."

JAN SMITH arranges pies on a table in preparation for delivery throughout the Cass City area as well as Marlette and Sandusky.

Tuscola County awarded $281,060 for flood damage

Tuscola County has been awarded $281,060.28 in emergency funds for damage caused by widespread flooding damage to primary and local roads and drains, that will be divided among 21 townships and the county. The county's share is $30,000.

Elkland Township and Cass City received no aid. Area townships to receive aid included: Elmwood, $12,877; Ellington, $15,405; Novesta, $5,647, and Indianfields, $17,672.

Lapeer County receives $55,072 and Sanilac county, $39,814.53. In Sanilac the county's share was $30,000 with the remainder of $9,814.53 going to the village of Marlette.

Green earns endorsement

Mike Green earned the Small Business Association of Michigan (SBAM) endorsement for his strong commitment to small business.

"Green's contributions will benefit the small business community," said Gary M. Woodbury, SBAM president.

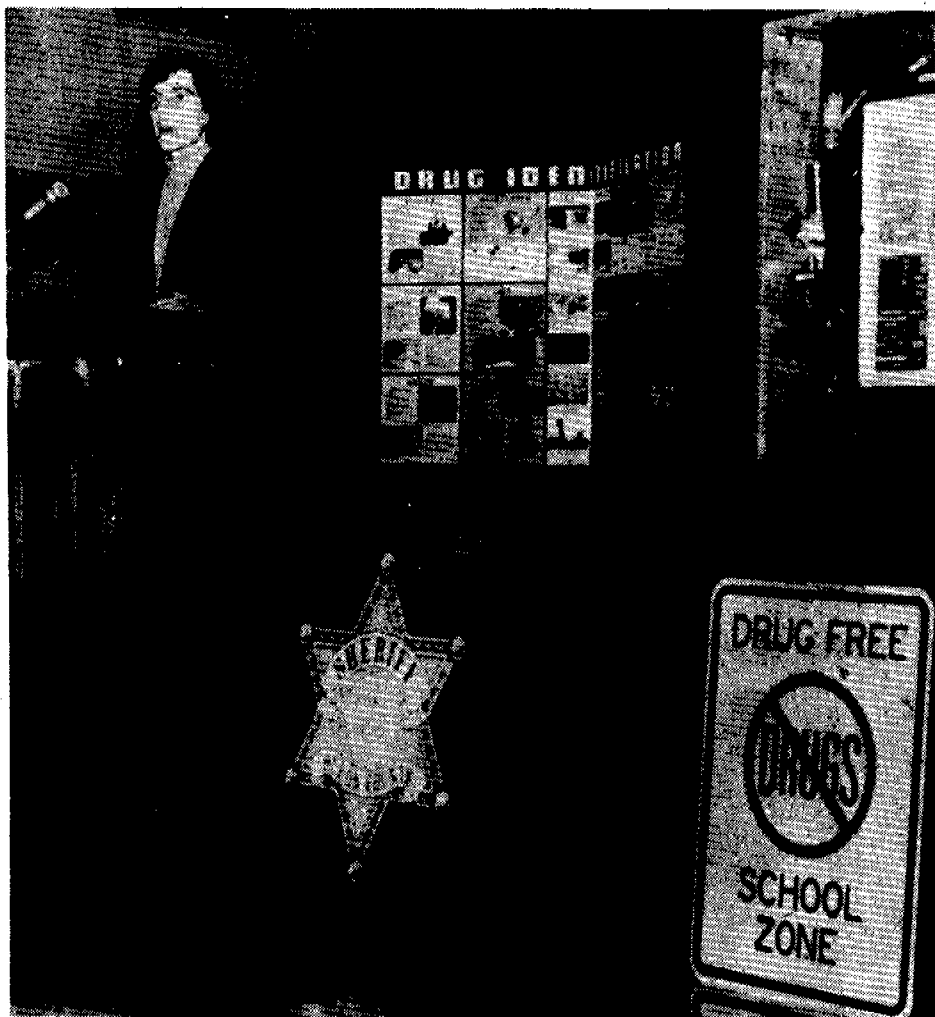

"His understanding of the problems faced by Michigan small businesses and support of laws reducing taxes and needless government intervention will enhance the state's business environment."

IT TAKES many hands to make the Shabbona United Methodist Women's pie fund raiser a big and growing success. Above, Sue Smith puts the finishing touches on a pair of pies.

22 cents on the dollar

How much of the food dollar do you think the farmer gets? On average: about 22 cents. Thirty-five cents of every food dollar goes to marketing, and 8 cents is spent on packaging.

HURON COUNTY Prosecutor Leslie Hagen explained the penalties for drug-related convictions, search and seizure on school property and other topics during a special drug safety awareness program Friday at Owendale High School.

Fewer pheasants this fall, DNR biologist says

a lot of brood," he added. "I think it was the severe winter (last year), or it could have been the heavy rains we received in July."

"It's the first big setback we've had in 8 years," Jarvis noted, referring to the steady increase in pheasant numbers since the mid-1980s.

Michigan pheasant population peaked in the mid-1940s. In the years that followed, the numbers fluctuated in cycles, but remained relatively high. In the late 1960s and early 1970s, a typical pheasant season resulted in 300,000 to 400,000 hunters harvesting a combined 400,000-plus birds.

Gradually, however, the peak years saw fewer and fewer pheasants, and as their numbers dropped, hunter interest and participation plummeted.

But pheasant hunting has experienced a rebirth of sorts in recent years, thanks to careful management, improved habitat provided through the Conservation Reserve Program, and the efforts of individuals and groups such as Pheasants Forever.

Some 84,000 hunters took to Michigan fields in search of pheasants in 1987, according to statistics compiled by the DNR, which reported the number had grown to 120,000 by 1993.

If DNR observations in the field are any indication, hunter success this fall may not do much to increase those numbers. But the long-term outlook remains good. "It's a temporary setback," Jarvis said.
