PLANTING SEASON is just getting underway for Allan Hartwick of Cass City. Hartwick and his grandson, Brian, took advantage of the pause in precipitation last week to get some of this year's corn crop planted.

Cool weather hurts

Rain slows planting, area farmers up to 10 days late

by Marjory Raymer
Staff Writer

Area farmers will use a predicted dry spell this week to catch up on the backlog of planting created by an overabundance of rain during the past 3 weeks.

Dry, warm weather in late April gave many farmers the opportunity to plant crops ahead of schedule, but recently the area has been a "bull's-eye as far as precipitation is concerned," according to Jeff Andresen, Michigan State University Extension agricultural meteorologist.

He explained precipitation is at least one to 2 inches above average. And because water evaporates more slowly in cool weather,

Township cracks down on violator

Elkland Township officials will pursue legal action against an area resident in violation of the local junk ordinance.

The action was approved by the Township Board during its May 9 monthly meeting.

Clerk Norma Wallace reported the zoning administrator recommended legal action against the owner of property at 5032 Schwegler Rd. after attempts to get the individual to comply with the ordinance failed.

In other business, the board approved drafting a letter in support of the Thumb Octagon Barn Committee and its effort to repair and preserve the octagon barn at its present location near Gagetown.

Wallace, a member of the committee, explained similar letters are being sought from various organizations in the area in preparation for an upcoming meeting with the DNR, which owns the barn along with the surrounding state game area.

Although preservation is ultimate goal, the committee's immediate focus is on badly needed repairs of the barn, according to Wallace, who noted bids for the work are being sought.

when coupled with temperatures 3-4 degrees below normal, the rain caused exceptionally long delays.

Dennis Stein, Tuscola County Extension agricultural agent, said the weather pushed farmers one week to 10 days behind schedule in the Cass City area. But, with the right weather conditions farmers could be "back on track" by the end of the week.

About 75 percent of the corn crop has been planted in Tuscola County, Stein added. In neighboring Huron County, 35-40 percent of planting has been completed, according to Jim LeCureux, Huron County Extension agricultural agent.

Ideally, Sanilac County Cooperative Extension Director Martin Nagelkirk commented, all of the corn would be planted before May 15. "It's never ideal though, because we're farmers," he said. "It's always a crap shoot."

Fortunately, Andresen predicts mother nature, for the most part, will be cooperative this week.

The remainder of the week should be dry enough to allow farmers to finish planting corn, Andresen said. Also, the extended forecast calls for an increase in temperature as a warmer front, which is causing 80-degree weather in Iowa, heads into Michigan. Andresen added, however, "I'm not going to hold my breath."

Temperature is the most questionable weather factor at this point, according to the specialist, because Michigan sits between 2 contrasting weather conditions in the United States.

Due to a large blocking pattern, which is a jet stream that remains stationary longer than normal, the extreme east and west coasts are experiencing far below normal temperatures while the middle states are flourishing in above average temperatures, Andresen explained.

"I'd say the best bet (on Michigan weather) is probably a little to the colder side," he said.

And as soil temperature stays below the desired 50-degree point, crop maturation will probably slow and further hinder farmers' progress.

This late in the season, farmers should consider using shorter-season hybrids if crops are not planted soon, Andresen said. LeCureux agreed that farmers who have not completed planting at the end of the week should use shorter-season varieties.

Another important factor in farmers' success is the expected market and price index for their crops. Nagelkirk said no consensus has been reached as to whether corn prices will be high or low this year.

Much of the corn belt appears to be preparing for a high-yield year, which would lower prices, he noted. However, because last season's disastrous floods left a short supply of corn in storage, prices could be higher.

Nagelkirk added, "The market is about as predictable as the weather."

Program ends after 16 years

Final adult graduation set

by Marjory Raymer
Staff Writer

As the final graduating class of Cass City Adult Education prepares to march out of the program, uncertainty surrounding how to meet future Cass City adult learners' needs is mounting.

Dorland Kuntz, director of Cass City Community Education, said of the adult education program, "It's been the tool that turned a lot of people around to be contributing members of society."

This semester, 20 students will receive their diplomas during commencement exercises scheduled for 8 p.m. May 26 in the high school gymnasium.

The adult education program, which has graduated 284 students over the past 16 years, was eliminated by the Cass City School Board during its March 28 meeting due to state funding cuts. At the same meeting, the board acted to build a consortium with Caro Community Schools to continue offering an adult education program in the village.

Through the agreement with Caro, which is about two-thirds completed, adult education courses will be offered in Cass City toward a diploma from Caro Community Schools.

Kuntz said he expects the consortium to provide a "very limited program," which could mean changing from 3 course offerings per night to one.

"I think until Caro's program is established, (the consortium) will have an adverse effect on the students. But, we're glad to be able to offer them something," Kuntz said. "It's better than just abandoning them."

When addressing current Cass City Adult Education students Thursday, the director of Caro Community Education, Quentin Levitte, said some changes in program structure will occur because of the consortium, which has yet to be approved by the Caro School Board.

Changes could include using Caro school district teachers, more instruction through learning labs and limiting the program to night classes.

But, he also hopes to offer students little change in their graduation requirements.

Levitte will propose to the Caro School Board that any students enrolled in the Cass City program be able to graduate using its requirements while gaining a Caro diploma. To be eligible, however, students would need to continually be taking classes toward their diploma, at least one course every semester.

"The Cass City board seems very eager to (form a consortium)," Levitte said,

3 seek Hicks' county commissioner post

Three Cass City Republicans have thrown their hats into the race for the Tuscola County Board of Commissioners District 2 seat. Races are also set for county board seats in 4 other districts.

The deadline for candidates to file nominating petitions was 4 p.m. May 10.

The primary election will be held Aug. 2, with July 5 the last day to register to vote. The general election is scheduled for Nov. 8.

In District 2, which represents Elkland, Elmwood, Kingston and Novesta townships, the candidates are Richard (Dick) Erla, Elwyn L. Helwig and Edward C. Scollon.

Erla, 69, has been on the ballot before, including 2 years ago when he launched an unsuccessful bid to unseat incumbent Elsie Hicks of Deford.

A retired owner of Erla's Packing and Food Center in Cass City, he is a past president of the Cass City Rotary Club and Chamber of Commerce, a former American Legion Post commander, past chairman of the Democratic party and former president of the Michigan Meat Association. He is also a former longtime member of the St. Pancratius Catholic Church board.

Helwig, 62, is a retired Cass City businessman whose 37-year career at Croft Clara Lumber included serving as board president, CEO and general manager of the corporation.

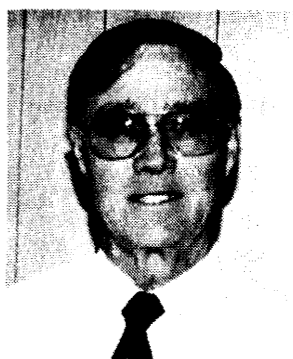

Helwig has served on the Cass City Village Council for 18 years and on the Cass City School Board for 12 years. He is a member of the county Zoning Board of Appeals and has spent more than 30 years on the Elkland Township Election Commission. The former volunteer fireman has also been active as a little league coach and high school basketball and football officiator.

Scollon, 58, is a longtime Cass City veterinarian who served on the local school board for 20 years, including 8 as president, before retiring 3 years ago.

He is a life member of the American Veterinary Association as well as the Michigan and Thumb veterinary associations.

Richard Erla

Elwyn Helwig

Edward Scollon

Scollon has served on the Tuscola County Board of Health for 7 years, including 2 years as chairman and currently as a trustee. He has been active in the Cass City Lions Club, Knights of Columbus, little league and 4-H. He attends St. Pancratius Catholic Church, and has been a member of the Parish Council.

Hicks, a Republican, did not seek re-election to the District 2 post. She previously was appointed to the board twice, including in 1992 after Mary Lou Burns resigned to accept the job of county friend of the court.

Hicks, who went on to win a full 2-year term as a commissioner, retires from a long and distinguished public service career totalling 32 years, including 18 years as county clerk.

OTHER RACES

In other county board races, incumbent Commissioner James D. Schafer, a Unionville Republican, faces a challenge from Democrat Tracey L. Seath, Caro, in District 1, which represents Wisner, Akron, Columbia, Almer and Ellington townships.

In District 4, composed of Indianfields and Wells townships, incumbent Democrat Norma J. Bates, Caro, is being challenged by Republican Susan A. Osborne, also of Caro.

Two candidates are also vying for the District 6 seat representing Tuscola and Vassar townships. They are incumbent Robert Russell, a Vassar Democrat, and Republican Gerald C. Peterson, also of Vassar.

In District 7, which represents Arbel and Millington townships, 2 Republicans and 2 Democrats are battling for the seat being vacated by longtime Commissioner

Caro woman faces murder charge

A Caro woman was charged with open murder last week after allegedly fatally clubbing a neighbor she had been feuding with for some time.

Linda Mae Howell, 37, 2865 Rossman Rd., is being held without bond in the Tuscola County Jail. She was arraigned Friday in Tuscola County District Court. A preliminary examination is scheduled for 9 a.m. May 27.

According to reports, troopers from the Michigan State Police post in Caro were dispatched to a Wells Township residence shortly after 9 p.m. May 10 to investigate an assault complaint. Upon arrival, they found the victim, Michael John Smith, 40, of Caro, seriously injured and lying on the ground near the roadway in front of his home.

Smith was transported by Caro EMS to Caro Community Hospital. He was then transferred by Flightcare helicopter to St. Mary's Medical Center in Saginaw, where he died Thursday from injuries he suffered in the attack.

Investigators said Howell's alleged attack on Smith stemmed from an on-going feud between the pair, who lived next door to one another.

On the day of the assault,

Smith was standing in his front yard, videotaping a pickup truck occupied by Howell and her live-in boyfriend, whom Smith reportedly felt was driving in a reckless manner.

The assault occurred at the end of Smith's driveway, according to Det./Sgt. Allan Ogg, who said the pickup stopped, both occupants got out and the boyfriend and Smith got into a verbal confrontation. At some point, he said, Howell allegedly struck Smith with an anti-theft steering wheel locking bar.

No charges have been filed against the driver. Troopers are continuing their investigation.

TUSCOLA COUNTY Commissioners Norma Bates of Caro (left) and Elsie Hicks of Deford visited with Gov. John Engler Friday during a tour of the courthouse, sheriff's department and jail in Caro. Earlier in the day, the governor met with area sheriffs in Bad Axe to discuss law enforcement issues.

Lowell Mason to speak at Novesta Church of Christ

Inspirational speaker and singer Lowell Mason, of Joplin, Mo., will present a special program at Novesta Church of Christ, 2896 N. Cemetery Road, Wednesday, May 18, at 7:00 p.m.

Mason has been called "The Singing Midget" because of his unique height of only 46 inches. At the age of 9, Mason joined the staff of "The Children's Bible Hour" radio broadcast out of Grand Rapids, and for 7 years was a regular featured soloist on that weekly coast to coast program.

During his teenage years he appeared in many Youth for Christ rallies around the United States and in recent years appeared on NBC's "Real People" and "Hard Copy."

His message and his music bring a thrill and genuine blessing to all who have heard him.

The public is invited.

The seminar is free of charge and open to the public.

Set tea party at library

A dress-up tea party, based on events from the "American Girl" Samantha and Molly books, will be held at Rawson Memorial Library for students in first grade and up and adult guests. The party will be Wednesday, May 25, at 6:30 p.m. and repeated Thursday, May 26, at 4:30 p.m.

The Samantha stories take place in the early 1900's and the Molly books are set in the World War II era. Students and guests will enjoy the food and activities of these earlier times. Books and other items related to the "American Girl" books will be given away as door prizes. Any students having an "American Girl" doll may bring it. Those who don't have a doll may bring a teddy bear, which will be used for an activity.

Students must be accompanied by an adult and it is necessary to have a ticket, as attendance will be limited to 25 students and guests at each session. Tickets may be purchased at the library with a non-perishable food item, which will be donated to the Cass City Food Closet.

The dolls and accessories from the popular "American Girls" Collection will be displayed at Rawson Memorial Library Friday and Saturday, May 27 and 28. They will be in the display case at Campbell Elementary School the first part of the week. The dolls, representing girls from 5 different periods in American history, are written about in a series of books published by Pleasant Company, which provides the display.

Drink water

Nutrition experts say we should drink about 2 1/2 quarts of water a day. But that doesn't all need to be tap water. Milk, as well as many fruits and vegetables, contains at least 85 percent water and can make a big contribution to our daily water needs.

Debbie and Patti Timmons were Monday night dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Gaylord LaPeer.

Jan Moore of Cass City will present an organ, piano, voice and sax recital Saturday, May 21, at 6:30 p.m. at Jordan College. The public is invited to attend.

Retired persons air May 12 meet

Photos of mothers in years past decorated the table as the Cass City Retired Persons held their May 12 meeting at Hills and Dales Hospital.

President Edna Simcox brought the meeting to order by having the group recite the pledge to the flag and sing a stanza of "America The Beautiful."

After the business meeting, poems relating to mothers were read by Yvonne Burleson, Deloris Fleming and Lillian Hanby. Pictures of members' mothers were passed around and resemblances were noted.

After lunch, bingo was played. Prizes went to Dorothy Smith, Nellie Shagena and Deloris Fleming.

For the June meeting, members are to bring graduation pictures or anything relating to their school days.

May flowers

by Melva E. Guinther

This is absolutely the best time of the year, when the earth is waking up, greening up and bursting forth with new life. It's the time for flowers.

Last year's efforts in my little backyard flower jungle were less than a howling success.

The plants that emerged from seeds sown in July, after the first batch failed to come up, made a valiant effort, but really didn't have enough warm weather to amount to much.

So, I decided to give them another chance this year. Just wait and see what comes up of its own accord. There are a lot of green things growing in my 10x10 patch. Unfortunately, it's hard to know which are flowers and which are weeds.

Isn't there something in the Bible about letting the wheat and the tares grow up together and separating them later?

At any rate, May is the month of greening and blossoming. Here are the names of some common flowers, uncommonly scrambled. See if you can unscramble them.

May 22-28 is arson prevention week and the state fire marshal is using it to outline the problem in Michigan. Arson or suspected arson resulted in 102 injuries, 31 deaths and damage in excess of $116 million in 1993. With those figures in mind, it is easy to see why rewards of up to $5,000 are available for information leading to the arrest of an arsonist. Informants may remain anonymous. The 24-hour number to call is free: 1-800-44-ARSON.

Scarcely a week goes by that is not designated a week for something or other. The entire month of May has been designated mailbox improvement month.

Postal authorities are asking patrons to check mailboxes and keep them in good repair. Rural boxes should be between 38 and 42 inches from the roadway to the bottom of the box and numbers should be plainly visible from the road. There are 12 items on the postal mailbox check list, but the most important is to see that the mailman can drive to and from the box without trouble.

That new face at the Chronicle that you will be seeing around town is Marjory Raymer. She will be a senior this fall at Central Michigan University and is our summer intern. You'll find her byline on numerous stories while she is here. The small town atmosphere of Cass City should not be strange for Raymer. She comes from DeWitt, a small town near Lansing.

Suspect electrical problem

Damage $6,000-8,000 in fire

An electrical problem is suspected in a blaze that caused an estimated $6,000 to $8,000 in damage to a Cass City area residence Thursday.

The Elkland Township Fire Department was called to the home at 7492 Daus Rd. at 2 p.m.

The fire remains under investigation. The apparent cause is an electrical box in the basement of the house, according to Fire Chief Milt Connolly, who noted resident Susan Wright was awakened by a smoke alarm.

Flames had gotten up in between the walls, but fire fighters quickly contained the blaze, preventing extensive damage, Connolly said. "The fire fighters did an excellent job — got right in and knocked it right down," he added. "Excellent teamwork."

There were no injuries.

Elkland Township firemen were assisted at the scene with manpower and equipment from the Elmwood-Gagetown, Owendale, Kingston and Caro fire departments.

The Haire Net

You can still get away from it all in northern Michigan, but it takes a lot more effort than it did 25 years or so ago.

In days gone by it was a lead pipe certainty that you could trek north during the midweek days before school vacations start and enjoy the outdoors with no people distractions.

Those days are gone. The real small town flavor of northern communities has been long lost on the west side as the fast food restaurants and tourist-trap businesses sprouted like mushrooms after a warm spring rain.

Major chains anchor shopping centers in the large cities and the smaller towns scramble to meet the competition just as happens at home.

While it's been difficult to escape the big city syndrome for more than 25 years, it was still possible to easily enjoy Michigan's great outdoors without intrusion.

Last Thursday we returned to the Jordan River to flail the water for trout. That's the excuse. The real reason was to enjoy the wild, scenic country the stream meanders through.

With the heavy storm the previous day and temperatures in the morning in the 40's, we expected to be one of the few on the river. Ha! There were cars and people up and down the river. Many not fishing, but hunting for mushrooms.

Add to that no action at all from the fish. We packed it in after a couple of hours and headed for the Pigeon River Forest area west of Vanderbilt.

On the way out from the river a flock of turkeys and an almost tame woodcock (you can't shoot them there) were spotted.

I blamed it on the rain after a couple of hours on the beautiful Black River produced nary a strike.

Since it's been a few years now since I toured the area, a return trip was appealing. Outside of a few roads created for oil drilling and trucks, the vast area remains almost like it was 40 years or so ago.

Michiganians are lucky that such a vast area of virtually unspoiled wilderness (it stretches for probably 30 miles) is available to them. Another bonus was a return to the east side of the state to return home on M-33 via Atlanta and Mio to I-75.

While the west side of the state is well developed, the east side is just beginning to change.

There are signs that it is beginning to catch up with the west. One of them is more golf courses.

So if it's rustic Michigan that turns you on, better hurry or you'll miss out. The chains and fast food restaurants are on their way.

"If It Fitz...."

Mickey Mouse has no shame

By Jim Fitzgerald

The unbelievably dreadful TV movie about skaters Tonya Harding and Nancy Kerrigan, which I watched sporadically and incredulously over the top of my newspaper, reminded me of something I did while vacationing in Florida in March. I read (and clipped) a Miami Herald column by Carl Hiaasen, a fine journalist and novelist. And I felt way ahead of my time, which is to say smug.

"God bless Nancy Kerrigan," Hiaasen wrote. "She looked Mickey Mouse square in his polymer eyeballs and muttered: 'This is so corny. This is so dumb. I hate it.'"

"Finally, somebody got the nerve to say so," Hiaasen declared.

He declared wrong. I said so 19 years ago.

Hiaasen put it like this: Mickey Mouse has no shame. Once upon a time, he was a harmless cartoon critter. Today he's an insufferable corporate logo, a hyperthyroid rat with a mission. He has forsaken Willie's steamboat for Madison Avenue."

In a 1975 column, written after a visit to Disney World, I put it something like this:

I never feel more un-American than when in the presence of Mickey Mouse. The family that reveres Walt Disney together is the family that stays together, prays together, and flees together from an R-rated world. Everyone knows that.

But I never saw a Walt Disney movie I liked. And the same goes for Disney World.

The Disney people grab you while you're still on the highway. They come on your car radio and suck you through the gate. The mammoth parking lot is divided into sections named after dwarfs, and the attendants warn you to remember the name of your section or spend the rest of your life on foot.

"We're in Dopey," my wife said.

"Certainly," I said. After paying our life savings, we entered the world's largest combination gift shop and hot dog stand. Everywhere I looked, someone wanted to sell me something to eat or something to take home to prove to my neighbors I'd been robbed.

CHEAPER, MORE ENTERTAINING

We'd purchased admission to 8 of the "special attractions," all of which were easy to find. Because each one was at the Florida end of a line of people stretching to Utah. I wouldn't stand in a line that long if it led to Sophia Loren playing Snow White as a nymphomaniac flirting with every man parked in Dopey's section.

We did sneak into the theater where life-size replicas of Cinderella, Mickey and the gang sang songs and told jokes. It's amazing how those inanimate dolls talk and move and appear just as human as the people in the audience (especially the zonked-out father with 3 kids who has been looking for his car for 3 weeks).

It must cost a million dollars to make a 6-foot doll that can tap dance and sing "Some Day My Prince Will Come." Only a jerk would point out that a real live girl would be cheaper and more entertaining.

"You're a jerk," my wife said.

I came away from magic land with tremendous respect for the precision and efficiency of the Disney people. They handle gigantic crowds without wasting a movement or a minute. Endless railings keep you in line (please don't sit on the rails; they're for herding, not comfort).

Recorded voices continually tell you to face right, turn right, and leave by the exits on the right. I wouldn't dare turn left for fear a giant neon sign would flash "TILT" and I would be banished from the kingdom forever for clotting Mickey Mouse's digestive tract.

As we drove out of Dopey's section, the same sonorous voice was on the radio, still urging us to come to Disney World and telling us how to park.

Disney won't be programmed to say good-bye until Mickey Mouse figures a way to freeze farewells on a stick and sell them for $5 a lick.

Mark Battel named 'technician of the year'

Mark Battel of Cass City was recently designated the 1994 Michigan Dairy Herd Improvement Association (DHIA) Technician of the Year.

The award was presented at the association's in-service conference last month in Lansing.

Battel is providing service to 34 herds with a total of 3,032 cows.

"He enrolled 5 new herds in 1993 and always shows an excellent interval for the herds in his unit," DHIA officials said. "His herd owners appreciate the good service he provides."

CMU graduates include 3 from area

Scott King

Linda Volz

Three Cass City residents were part of the December graduation at Central Michigan University last year. Linda Volz received a master's degree in community development. Volz plans to use her degree as she continues to work as the director of Great Lakes Junior College's Bad Axe campus. Volz is the wife of Charles Volz and mother to Jocelyn and Aaron, all of Cass City. Scott King completed a Bachelor of Applied Arts degree in graphic design with a minor in industrial engineering and a computer science concentration. He is working in the graphic arts department at Wolohan Lumber in Saginaw. King, a 1989 Cass City High School graduate, is the son of Terry and Joyce King of Cass City. Jeremy Brown also earned a Bachelor of Science degree in education during the December ceremony, which included about 1,800 students.

JOSEPHINE ANTHERS, who still lives in the home built by her great-grandfather, received a centennial farm marker from Detroit Edison representative Barbara J. Hoover. Anthes' farm has remained in her family for 125 years.

Centennial farm markers presented to Anthes, Beach

Michigan Centennial Farm markers were presented recently to a pair of area residents whose farms have been in the same families for at least 100 years.

The Michigan Historical Commission has certified the farms of Leslie Beach, Gagetown, and Josephine Marie Anthes, Cass City, as centennial farms.

The Centennial Farm Program was begun in 1948, with support from Detroit Edison Company, Consumers Power Company, local electric cooperatives and farm groups. It is intended to recognize working farms of 10 or more acres that have remained in the same family for generations, and to highlight the family farm's contributions to Michigan's development.

The 105-acre Beach farm, located about one mile south of Gagetown at 5938 Walsh Rd., has been owned by the Beach family since 1893.

The farm originally totaled 80 acres, according to Beach, 85, who lives in the original farmhouse built by his grandfather, Charles, the summer after the land was purchased.

"I put the fourth roof on it since it's been built. It's in pretty good shape," said Beach, who was born in a house across the road.

"My grandfather bought this 80 for $1,600. He bought it from an uncle of his wife's," he explained. Beach, whose roots have been traced all the way to England, said his family migrated to Michigan from the east coast of the United States.

Like his grandfather and father before him, Beach has farmed the land and tapped trees in the spring for sap to make maple syrup, something he still enjoys doing.

He said his grandfather was a crop farmer, "but when I was a boy, every farmer had a few cows, and he raised a few hogs."

Beach added dairy cattle to the operation and milked about 25 head. He later went to work at General Cable Co. in Cass City, where was employed for about 8 years. He sold his cows in 1965, but continued growing crops for another 2 years.

Beach, whose wife died 7 years ago, has 2 sons, Stanley, a retired naval chaplain now living in Florida, and Ross, a missionary in Africa. Both married Cass City girls, Beach said, adding he has 3 grandchildren.

125 YEARS

The 40-acre farm owned by Anthes, located about 4 1/2 miles northeast of Cass City at 6357 Wright Rd., has been owned by the same family for 125 years.

Anthes has spent nearly her entire 81 years on the homestead, purchased by her grandfather, Philip Wright, in 1868. At one time, the farm included another 80 acres, according to Anthes, who said her grandfather was a crop farmer. "He owned a lot of land. He owned a good half dozen farms all through here," she added.

Anthes, whose mother died 3 days after her birth, was only 30 days old when she and her youngest brother were adopted by John and Ida (Hubbel) Wright.

The original farmhouse is gone, Anthes said, and the existing home was built around 1909 or 1910. She observed that little, including the dirt road in front of the house, has changed over the years.

Anthes recalled walking a quarter mile to M-53, then south one mile to attend the McConnell School. "I only went to the eighth grade myself, and my brother, too."

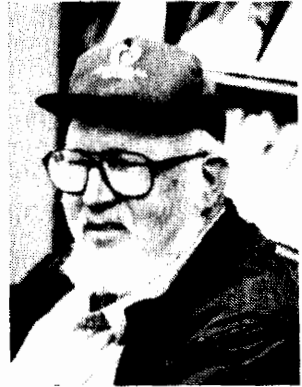

Finished with school at the age of 13, Anthes helped out on the farm. Later, she worked part-time in Cass City, cleaning and painting homes for several residents.

She married Roy Anthes in 1940. He was a cement mason for many years, and he worked at General Cable Co., Cass City, after the couple was married. He died nearly 2 years ago. Anthes noted the couple's adopted son, Lawrence, died in 1986.

Your neighbor says

Donahue wrong

Phil Donahue, TV host, has announced that he would like to show an execution live on TV. Why not?, he asks. Hugh James, Mayville, says that Donahue is wrong. An execution has no place on TV, he feels. What might be good is showing a canning like the man received for marking up cars. It might serve as a lesson for people here, he adds, and it's a form of punishment that our country could do well to adopt.

When it comes to capital punishment, the grizzled retired mail carrier feels a 2-tier system would be best. In this country's history there have been 48 innocent people executed and most death sentences are reached through circumstantial evidence. I know what it is to be falsely accused, he said grimly.

For that reason, he explained, the only time capital punishment should be allowed is when the murderer is caught red handed in the act.

Persons convicted with circumstantial evidence should be sent to prison so that if an error is made it can be at least partially rectified.

Although he is retired as a mail carrier, James works as a part-time courier for Chemical Bank.

He and his wife, Noralean, have 3 children and 2 grandchildren.

AN HISTORICAL marker was presented recently to Leslie Beach of Gagetown, whose farm has been certified as a Michigan Centennial Farm. Presenting the marker was Barbara J. Hoover, a staff assistant in marketing and sales for Detroit Edison.

O-G softball team loses to Peck, A-F

Coach Dean Roller's young Owen-Gage softball team proved to him last week something the veteran mentor has known for years while being swept in NCTL twin bills with Peck and Akron-Fairgrove.

Consistency comes with age.

"Against Peck we got good pitching and defense but no hitting in the opener. In game 2 our defense let us down," said Roller, whose Bulldogs lost by the scores of 6-4 and 17-15.

Roller's squad will now try to come of age and return to its winning ways on Monday, May 23, at Port Hope in their next scheduled contest.

Freshman Kate Powers handled the pitching duties for the hosts Thursday and suffered the loss. Powers went the distance, allowing 10 hits, fanning 5 and giving up 3 walks.

Tracy Kosal picked up the win for the Pirates. She walked 6, struck out 2 and surrendered 9 hits.

Owen-Gage drew first blood in the contest, scoring 3 times in their first at bats.

Kosal settled down after the initial frame and held the hosts scoreless until Powers scored the Bulldogs' final run in the bottom of the 6th frame, slicing the visitor's advantage to 6-4.

The Pirates scored twice in the 2nd inning, once in the 3rd, and struck for 2 more in the 4th to gain their first lead at 5-3.

Crystal Durand added an insurance tally for the winners after walking to lead off the 5th inning. Durand led the Pirates with 3 singles and was the only Pirate to score twice. Shannon Johnston and Carrie Miller split 4 singles for Peck.

Owen-Gage got 5 safeties from freshman Powers and Susie Roemer.

In the nightcap, the bats were booming. And when the dust settled, Peck escaped with a 17-15 extra inning decision.

Powers worked 2 2/3 innings for the hosts before being relieved by Amanda Salcido, who suffered the loss.

Owen-Gage led after one frame, thanks to a 3-run blast by shortstop Angie Wildman.

The 'Dogs added 4 more tallies during the 5th inning that sliced Peck's lead to 9-7. Again Wildman delivered the big blow, doubling home Powers.

Owen-Gage sent the game into extra innings when they scored 2 times in the 6th frame bringing the score to a 9-all deadlock.

Both teams scored twice in the 8th frame before the visitors outscored Owen-Gage, 6-4, in the ninth to grab the win.

Wildman had a brilliant day at the plate hitting for the circuit that included 2 doubles, a single, triple and home run that accounted for 5 RBIs. Powers went 6-6 at the plate, while teammate Melody Abfalter collected 3 singles.

Peck was led at the plate by Jessica Affer and Johnston, with 2 hits apiece.

AKRON-FAIRGROVE

Earlier in the week on Monday, Owen-Gage entertained the Vikings and was soundly defeated, 19-9 and 25-12, in North Central Thumb League action.

"Walks and errors were the order of the day. Not too many good things happened" (against A-F), stated Roller.

Owen-Gage used 3 pitchers in the opener, with Melody Abfalter being the pitcher of record.

Denise McGuire went all 5 innings for the winners, striking out 7 and allowing just 4 hits.

The Vikings opened the scoring with a 5 run third inning, then added 12 more tallies in their next at bats.

No Bulldog collected more than one hit. Shana Adkins' double in the 4th frame, that produced 3 RBIs, was the only extra base hit for the hosts.

In the nightcap, A-F scored 13 times in the 2nd frame to remove all doubts on the game's outcome.

MaGuire went the distance for the winners, fanning 7 and allowing 6 hits.

Powers and Adkins collected 2 hits each for the hosts.

OWEN-GAGE 2ND baseman Michelle Pisarek and outfielder Amanda Salcido converge on a fly ball Thursday against visiting Peck. The Pirates swept the Bulldogs in the NCTL twin bill.

Hawk girls lose key Marlette tilts

Coach Dave Hoard's Cass City High School softball team fell into second place in the Blue Bay League last week behind Marlette as the Red Raiders won both games played with the Hawks to take over the lead. Marlette's league record is 4-2 and Cass City is 3-3, with games with the Lakers and Marlette still to play. Bad Axe (4-4) could tie for the title.

The Hawks were to have played the Lakers Tuesday and the key Marlette games are scheduled tonight (Wednesday) at Marlette. The Hawks can't afford to lose any of these games and still be able to successfully defend their league title. A game with USA is slated Thursday, but will have no bearing on the race.

Cass City ended the week with a double loss to visiting Mayville. Cass City lost the opener, 9-6, but the game was closer than the score indicated. The Hawks had battled back in the sixth inning with a 4-run rally to tie the game at 6-all going into the last inning.

But a single combined with 2 errors netted the Wildcats 3 runs and salted away the win. Darcie Monroe pitched the distance and yielded 12 hits and 2 walks. Bukowski also gave up a dozen safeties and walked 3 to get the victory for Mayville.

The loss in the nightcap, 11-10, was especially tough for Hawk fans to take. Cass City was coasting along with an 8-4 lead behind Lisa Burns going into the last inning, when the Wildcats exploded with 7 runs to win. Monroe relieved with nobody out and allowed a run before the Wildcats were finally retired.

Stacey Klinkman had a banner game with 4 hits in 4 plate appearances, driving in 2 runs.

MARLETTE GAMES

Cass City lost a pair of games to visiting Marlette by different routes. In the opener the Hawks dropped a pitching duel between Monroe and McQuarrie, 3-1.

Monroe allowed 8 hits and walked 3. McQuarrie allowed just 2 hits and walked 4. One of the hits was a home run by Monroe to account for the Hawks' lone score. Marlette was behind 1-0 going into the sixth, when they tied it on a hit and an error. Two runs in the last inning after 2 were out clinched it for the Raiders.

The nightcap was an entirely different affair, but the results were the same. The Hawks lost a slugfest, 15-12. Burns pitched the distance for the Hawks and allowed 13 hits and walked 3. She was hurt by 18 Hawk errors.

Marlette tried to use McQuarrie for both games, but she tired and allowed 18 hits, but still went the distance to win.

Jodi LaRoche had 3 hits in 5 at bats and Klinkman, a home run, double and single in 5 trips with 2 RBIs.

REESE GAMES

The week started well Monday, May 9, as the Hawks won both ends of the doubleheader with Reese.

In the first game the Hawks scored early to take a 7-3 lead after 4 innings and then

Bulldogs can't put offense, defense together in 4 losses

You'd have a hard time selling the idea that good defense wins games to Owen-Gage head baseball Coach Arnie Besonen after Thursday's North Central Thumb League games with Peck.

The Bulldogs lost both ends of the home twin bill as they spread 3 runs over 2 games, resulting in losses of 4-1 and 6-2.

The Bulldogs will look to improve on their offensive attack next Monday when they travel to Port Hope to tangle with the Blue Stars.

In the opener, Peck scored twice out of the gate as Jeremy Stafford tripled home Chris Stafford, then rode home on a Jeremy Abrego single.

Chris Curry went the distance for the winners, besting Jason Anthes, who whiffed 4 and allowed 8 hits.

Curry fanned 14 and walked one for the Pirates, who added solo runs in both the 6th and 7th innings.

Owen-Gage spoiled Curry's bid for a shutout when Mike Tkacz scored in the 'Dogs' final at bats.

Abrego led Peck at the plate, going 3-3. Joe Tkacz had a triple and single to lead the losers.

In game two, Owen-Gage kept it close until the visitors scored 3 times in the 6th frame to escape with a 6-2 triumph.

On the mound, Derek Kita bested Mike Tkacz, who suffered the loss for the hosts. Tkacz tossed a 7 hitter and struck out 4 over 7 innings of work.

At the plate, Nathan Forro had a triple to lead the Bulldogs, while teammate Austin Brinkman added a 2 base hit.

AKRON-FAIRGROVE

Monday, Akron-Fairgrove had little trouble with the Bulldogs, downing the hosts 15-4 and 20-12 in North Central Thumb League tilts. John Streeter led the winners on the mound and at the plate, accounting for 7 RBIs while fanning 13 and tossing a 4 hitter.

Jason Anthes was on the mound for the Bulldogs and suffered the loss.

Streeter, who homered, tripled and doubled, got all the runs he needed during the visitors' second at bats, when they rallied for 8 runs.

Mike Tkacz led the hosts with 2 hits in 3 official trips to the plate.

In game 2, Tim Czelada struck out 7 and walked 4 to receive credit for the win. Austin Brinkman suffered the loss for the hosts.

Owen-Gage led 4-0 after 3 innings, but the visitors scored 12 times in the 4th to take their first lead at 12-8. The Vikings then outscored the Bulldogs 8-4 the rest of the way to register the twin bill sweep.

Again Streeter was the big bat for the winners, collecting 6 RBIs on 2 trips and a single.

Mike Tkacz had 2 doubles for Owen-Gage.

BULLDOG 3RD BASEMAN Austin Brinkman applies the tag to Peck's Michael Webb to end the 3rd inning of Thursday's NCTL contest. Webb was caught trying to stretch an extra base after doubling in the nightcap, which Peck won, 6-2.

Kenneth Micklash II, a 1990 Cass City High School graduate, completed a Bachelor of Science degree in mechanical engineering from the College of Engineering.

Ken Micklash II

The magna cum laude graduate accepted a position with the Saturn Corporation. Micklash plans to begin working June 1 at the company's headquarters in Troy.

He is the son of Kenneth and Theresa Micklash of Cass City.

Scott Mellendorf earned a master's degree in information and library science from the university's Horace H. Rackham School of Graduate Studies after three years of study.

He plans to continue working at Saginaw Valley State University where he is a reference librarian.

Mellendorf graduated from Cass City High School in 1975. He continues to live in the city with his family, which includes his wife, Mary, and their son, David. Angela Ricciardi, also a Cass City resident, graduated with a Bachelor of Arts degree from the College of Literature Science and the Arts.

Hawks stay in race for baseball title

The Cass City Red Hawks won just 3 of 7 games played during the week, but 2 of the victories and none of the losses were in Blue Bay League competition.

The wins came over the Marlette Red Raiders and the losses were to 2 of the better teams in the Thumb C League.

Monday, May 9, the Reese Rockets rolled over the visiting Hawks, winning the opener, 9-5, and the nightcap, 12-6.

Cass City rolled up a 4-run lead in the first 3 innings in the opener, highlighted by a circuit clout by John Phillips. Reese got to loser Paul Ulfig in the fourth with a 6-run rally to ice the game. Hits relieved Sigelko in the third to get credit for the win.

History repeated itself in the second game. Cass City scored 3 times in the top of the first. Jason Morgan blasted a home run with Rob Gnagey on base to key the rally.

After that it was all Reese. The Hawks attempted to get back in the game with a 2-run rally in the sixth to move within 2 runs, but the Rockets countered that with 4 runs in their half of the inning to cement the win. Jim Hempton took the loss, allowing 6 hits and walking 8.

MAYVILLE GAMES

Cass City split the doubleheader with the Mayville Wildcats. The Hawks won the opener Thursday at Cass City, 7-5, behind the 6-hit hurling of Ulfig. Cass City led all the way and had a commanding lead, 5-2, at the end of 5 innings. Mayville scored 3 times in the top of the seventh, but all that did was make the final a little closer.

Matt Anthony had a big game at the plate with 3 hits in 4 tries, the only Hawk to get more than one hit. Mayville earned a split with a 9-4 decision in the nightcap. Terbusch went the distance for the winners, allowing 6 hits while walking 6. Storm started and took the loss, allowing 6 hits and walking 5. Hempton pitched the final 2 innings and allowed one hit and no runs. Phillips had 2 hits.

Cass City bowed out of the Tuscola County tournament Saturday, May 7, with losses to Reese and Brandon. The Hawk bats were in cold storage and the team scored just one run in each game, losing 2-1 to Brandon and 8-1 to Reese.

Cass City's record is now 5-2 in the Blue Bay League and 14-10 overall.

Meanwhile, Cass City had little trouble solving the slants of Joe Conroy and Tony Shaw, who pitched the last inning for the Raiders.

Hempton, Phillips, Gnagey, Brian Graichen and Tavis Osentoski each collected 2 hits.

MARLETTE GAMES

The Hawks broke a 4-game losing streak with a 5-4 decision over Marlette, but it wasn't easy. Cass City won in an extra inning, 5-4, in what Coach Doug Hall called a well-played game by both sides.

Cass City used a 3-run rally in the third to move ahead 4-2, but the Red Raiders bounced back in the last inning with 2 runs to tie the game. Hits by Kevin Storm and Ulfig, coupled with an error, pushed across the winning marker.

Morgan went the distance, allowing 8 hits and no walks. The attack was led by Mark Kubacki with 2 hits and 2 RBIs and Storm with 3 hits in 4 tries.

The Hawks moved their league record to 5-2 in the nightcap with a 7-0 victory behind the 3-hit hurling of Kubacki. Kubacki walked just one.

Meanwhile, Cass City had little trouble solving the slants of Joe Conroy and Tony Shaw, who pitched the last inning for the Raiders.

Hempton, Phillips, Gnagey, Brian Graichen and Tavis Osentoski each collected 2 hits.

Boys lose, girls win at Marlette

Stretching for Fitness

Can you touch your toes? Do you get cramps in your calves at night? You may be getting enough exercise but perhaps not enough stretching.

Stretching lengthens the muscles. This lengthening is needed to keep the muscles healthy and the joints more flexible. The more muscles are worked, the more they tighten up. If the muscles are not brought back to their normal length by stretching, they stay short and tight, making them susceptible to injuries, soreness, and night cramps.

If a person moves too quickly or strains a tight muscle, it can easily tear. This causes pain and swelling and the muscle becomes more stiff and sore. Recovery may take a few weeks and prevents exercise and stretching during this time.

It is important to stretch both before and after exercise. Beforehand, stretching helps loosen and warm up the muscles, and afterwards it stretches the muscles to help prevent cramping, spasms, and stiffness. Excessive stretching, however, may increase the chances of an injury--do not overdo it.

Muscles should be stretched slowly--for 30-60 seconds at a time--and repeated several times. This slow, gentle stretching is the most effective and most comfortable way to stretch. In fact, stretching quickly by bouncing is wrong and can actually be harmful.

For each muscle, there is an opposing muscle; when one muscle works, the other relaxes. This can be used to aid in stretching. By partially flexing the muscle opposite to the one you want stretched it tells the muscle to relax which allows it to stretch more easily.

THE ANNUAL ROTARY bottle campaign Saturday netted the Cass City club some $650 to be used for civic projects. Helping the club collect returnable cans were members of the Cass City Little and Minor Leagues. There were fewer cans and bottles collected in the annual event this year than there were in 1993. However, expenses were reduced because of donations by members and businesses, including Erla's Food Center, which handled the cans for the refund. Last year the net was $605. Ball players helping out included Chris Hyatt, left, and Jeremy Schulz.

tions are invited to participate in the event and share in the profits. An organizational meeting will be held May 26 at 7 p.m. at the Gagetown Village Hall. Additional information is available by contacting Putnam at 673-1100, or Norma Wallace at 872-2657.

THE TOWNSHIP OF NOVESTA Tuscola County FRANCHISE Granted to the SOUTHEASTERN MICHIGAN GAS COMPANY

An Ordinance granting a franchise to Southeastern Michigan Gas Company to construct, operate, and maintain in the public streets, highways, alleys and other public places in the Township of Novesta, Tuscola County, Michigan, all needful and proper gas pipes, mains, conductors, service pipes and other apparatus requisite for the manufacture, transmission and distribution of gas for public and private use and to conduct a local business therein.

The Township of Novesta Ordains:

Section 1. Grant of Franchise. Permission is hereby granted to Southeastern Michigan Gas Company, a Michigan Corporation, and to its successors and assigns, to construct, operate and maintain in the public streets, highways, alleys and other public places in the Township of Novesta, Tuscola County, Michigan, all needful and proper gas pipes, mains, conductors, service pipes and other apparatus and facilities requisite for the manufacture, transmission and distribution of gas for all purposes to the Township of Novesta, and the inhabitants thereof, and for conducting gas elsewhere to supply neighboring cities, villages and other territories supplied with gas by said Grantee, subject, however, to all conditions and restrictions hereinafter contained.

Section 2. Conditions. The conditions of the foregoing grant are as follows:

- a) The Grantee shall do no injury to any street, highway, alley or other public place, or to any shade tree, or in any manner disturb or interfere with any water transmission and distribution lines or with any public or private sewer now or hereafter laid or constructed by any authorized person or corporation.
- b) All construction work done under this grant shall be under the supervision of the designated representative of the Grantee and shall be subject to inspection and approval by the designated representative of the Township of Novesta as to location within the right-of-way. The Grantee shall pay cost of such inspection and approval.
- c) The Grantee, before entering upon any street, alley, easements for public utility purposes or other public place to install pipes, mains, or other apparatus, shall notify the Township of Novesta or its designated representative of the proposed construction and shall, if the Township of Novesta so requires, file with the Township of Novesta a sufficient plan or map and shall obtain the representative's approval thereof before beginning construction.
- d) No street, alley, highway or public place shall be allowed to remain obstructed or encumbered by the construction work of said Grantee for a longer period than shall be reasonably necessary to execute said work, and the Grantee shall, at all times, conform to all applicable ordinances and regulations of the Township of Novesta now or hereafter in force.
- e) The Grantee shall indemnify, hold the Township of Novesta harmless and defend it against any claim, action or demand that may be asserted against the Township of Novesta by reason of wrongdoing or negligence of the Grantee in the construction or maintenance of its gas mains, pipes or other apparatus, or any claim or actionable consequence resulting from this nonexclusive grant of Franchise.

Section 3. Rules, Regulations and Rates. The rules and regulations applicable to the service, the quality of the gas furnished, and the rates charged therefor by the Grantee herein, its successors and assigns, shall be as fixed from time to time by the Michigan Public Service Commission or other such state authority as shall have jurisdiction of the subject matter, reserving, however, the right of the Township of Novesta to object thereto.

Section 4. Regulation of Streets, Alleys and Public Places. Nothing in this grant shall be construed to alienate the title of the public in and to any street, highway, alley or public place, or any portion thereof, neither shall anything herein be construed in any manner as a surrender by the Township of Novesta of its legislative power with respect to the subject matter hereof, or with respect to any other matter whatsoever; nor as in any manner limiting the right of said Township to regulate the use of any street, avenue, highway or public place within its jurisdiction.

Section 5. Assignment of Franchise. The Grantee shall not assign this Franchise to any person, firm or corporation without the prior approval of the Novesta Township Council and unless the assignee is, in the opinion of the management of Southeastern Michigan Gas Company, financially able to carry out the Grantee's obligations under this Franchise and is authorized by the Michigan Public Service Commission, or such other State authority as shall then have jurisdiction of the subject matter so to do.

Section 6. Effective Date. This Ordinance shall take effect upon its publication and the filing of Grantee's written acceptance with the Township of Novesta Clerk and shall remain in effect for a period of thirty (30) years following its confirmation by a majority of the electors of the Township of Novesta voting thereon.

OWEN-GAGE STUDENTS held a car wash Saturday, in the Hardee's parking lot, to raise money for the MDA.

Events benefit charities

O-G students have heart

Students at Owen-Gage Junior/Senior High School are demonstrating that the size of their school doesn't necessarily indicate the size of their hearts. Since last fall, students have raised donations for 7 charities. This past weekend was no exception. Student Council members held a car wash at Hardee's in Cass City. Their goal - a minimum of $140 - to bring their collection for Muscular Dystrophy Association to $1000.

Supported by family and community members, shamrock sales in March netted $860 for MDA. Muscular Dystrophy Association officials indicate that this amount is exceptional. Collections at larger schools reportedly do not often reach the $1000 mark. Other charitable efforts organized by O-G students throughout the school year included a Thanksgiving food drive, Coats for Kids and Toys for Tots collections, Walk for Warmth participation and tee shirt sales for cystic fibrosis. Giving also took on a more personal note when students 17 and older gave blood in a recent Red Cross blood drive held at the school.

Rutkowski aspires to be a general practitioner and is waiting for replies to applications from Wayne State University and the University of Michigan medical schools. Rutkowski graduated from Cass City High School in 1990 and is the son of Herb and Kay Rutkoski of Cass City. Janel Sweeney completed a Bachelor of Arts degree in criminal justice and wants to pursue a career as a probation officer for youths in a correctional institute. Sweeney, a 1990 graduate of Cass City High School, is the daughter of Edward and Janet Sweeney of Cass City.

Cholesterol and Heart Disease

Cholesterol is used by your body, among other things, to make cell walls and hormones. The amount of cholesterol in your blood is affected by the amount of cholesterol your body produces as well as the saturated fat and cholesterol in the foods you eat. The higher your blood cholesterol levels, the greater your chances of developing heart disease. When a lot of cholesterol is carried in your blood, it builds up on the artery walls and the opening in the artery begins to narrow. Over time, it can narrow so much that the heart does not get enough blood to stay healthy. Your total cholesterol levels include all the cholesterol in your blood, including HDL's and LDL's. LDL's or low-density lipoproteins are the so-called "bad" cholesterol. This is the substance that builds up on the artery walls. HDL's or high-density lipoproteins are the "good" cholesterol. HDL's help to remove cholesterol from the body, preventing buildup on the artery walls.

Robert Barnes announces candidacy

Lexington attorney Robert W. Barnes has announced his candidacy for Sanilac County Probate Judge.

Robert W. Barnes

Barnes stated that he felt the people of Sanilac County desired a probate judge who would be decisive and firm with juvenile offenders but be willing to work with school administrators, counselors and parents as well as the Department of Social Services and local law enforcement officers to find a fair resolution for each one of the many juvenile cases that come before the court.

Barnes, a lifelong Sanilac County resident, holds a bachelor of arts degree in business administration from Michigan State University and a Juris Doctorate from the University of Tulsa, Tulsa, Okla. He worked as an assistant prosecuting attorney from 1977 through 1978, primarily handling probate court matters during that time.

He is active in the Crosswell Rotary Club, Sanilac County United Way, Crosswell Cub Scout Program, McKenzie Memorial Hospital Development Council and Lexington Downtown Development Authority. He is a member of the Sanilac County Gideons as well as the First United Methodist Church of Crosswell, where he has served as organist for the past 13 years.

Barnes and his wife, Ruth, who teaches second grade, live in Crosswell with their 3 children, Chuck, Sarah and Anna.

Local DARE students receive their "degrees"

Sixth graders at Cass City Middle School graduated to a new level of understanding about drug abuse Thursday, with the help of the local DARE program.

This year, 135 students from 5 classrooms completed the Drug Abuse Resistance Education program. Now in its third year in Cass City, DARE includes weekly, 45-minute classroom visits from Cass City Police Officer Craig Haynes, who teaches the children alternatives to drug use, how to say no and the consequences of drug abuse through a 17-step program.

Although the national program is not a miracle worker, it is legitimate, helpful and needed, said middle school Principal Donald Schelke. But, both Haynes and Schelke admit they cannot measure the success of DARE.

"I can't give them a test with this," Haynes said. "But at least the school and I can say, 'Hey, we're doing something.'"

Ryan McIntosh, a 1994 DARE graduate, said "I learned what drugs can do to you." Plus, he said, the program was fun.

"It's a total program that hopefully reinforces what they're learning at home," said Ed Pasant, a sixth-grade teacher who has welcomed Haynes into his classroom every week. "DARE is an educational tool for them to take out into society."

The graduation ceremony's guest speaker, Dennis Mitin, a prevention specialist from the Tuscola County Substance Abuse told the children to continue learning about substance abuse. "Keep up the good work. Don't let your prevention education end with DARE."

Schelke said Haynes, who has worked with 425 students through the program's 3-year history, deserves recognition for his efforts. He added the officer creates a special relationship with every DARE class by eating lunches with students, chaperoning dances and talking to students openly.

Students win state award

A group of Cass City students were recently named first division winners in the 1994 Annual Michigan Student Film and Video Festival.

Eleven students in grades 4 through 8, and their teacher, Nesa Orth, received their award during the film and video festival, held May 7 in the Film Theater at the Detroit Institute of Arts museum.

The group also received a certificate of recognition from Gov. John Engler.

Orth's students were recognized for a 16-minute narrated video they put together as part of a study unit on South America. The students created their own paper rain forest, complete with imitation native vegetation and wildlife, based on a book entitled "The Great Kapok Tree - A Tale of the Amazon Forest." Michigan Student Film and Video Festival officials received more than 350 entries, making this the biggest festival in its 25-year history.

The event is conducted by Detroit Area Film and Television, and is open to Michigan students in grade K-12. The major focus of the festival is to positively reinforce student participation in film and video.

Final adult graduation set stopped going to school in the seventh grade but is graduating this semester after 5 years of adult education, said he is now considering going to college.

He hopes his fellow students who are not graduating go on to earn their diplomas from Caro Community Schools. "I hope they do it. I hope they still come to class. It'll be harder, but they'll just have to work a lot harder."

About 14 students still are actively taking classes toward a diploma from Cass City Adult Education.

Students in adult education often find their struggle towards obtaining a diploma more difficult than traditional students, according to community education secretary Michelle Zdrojewski, who has served as mentor to students from 10 graduating classes. Jobs, families and illnesses often limit the time adult students can dedicate to their education, she said.

"There are a lot of roadblocks for these students," Zdrojewski concluded, adding that an elimination of the Cass City Adult Education program is yet another hurdle students must overcome.

Caro already has consortium agreements with 3 other area school districts, according to Levitte, who said the policy change doesn't worry him, although students concerns do.

"We're not trying to make it any different than it is. Actually we're trying to make it as simple as possible."
