Carter gets life

Robert McPhail sentenced to 20 to 40 years in prison

A Mayville man convicted of raping and murdering a child was sentenced to life in prison last week in Tuscola County Circuit Court.

In a separate case, a Cass City man was ordered to serve a lengthy prison term for his role in a plot to rob and kill an elderly Novesta Township man early this year.

Aside from life in prison, Timothy D. Carter, 23, Mayville, was sentenced to 40 to 80 years in prison for first degree criminal sexual assault, and 10 to 15 years for first degree child abuse.

A jury deliberated for less than 20 minutes before convicting Carter on all 3 counts following a full week of testimony last month.

The charges stem from the death of 13-month-old Cheyenne L. Irvine. Investigators said Carter raped and killed the child while baby sitting her in her Indianfields Township home Sept. 10. Carter claimed he was playing with the child and she accidentally struck her head, causing the fatal injuries.

In other sentences, Robert D. McPhail Jr., 20, Cass City, was sentenced to 20 to 40 years in prison for his plea of guilty to conspiracy to commit armed robbery between Jan. 1 and Feb. 3 in Novesta Township.

Investigators said McPhail along with Richard L. Lesoski, 17, Cass City, and Dean Austin McBride, 15, Cass City, conspired to rob an elderly Novesta Township resident. The trio also discussed possibly killing the victim.

All 3 defendants pleaded guilty to conspiracy to commit armed robbery.

Lesoski was sentenced to 60 months probation and one year in jail, and McBride was made a permanent ward of the state and placed in a juvenile detention facility until the age of 21.

In other court proceedings last week:

•Michael C. Plodzien, 45, Caro, pleaded guilty but mentally ill to third degree criminal sexual conduct stemming from an incident involving a victim under the age of 13 years July 5, 6 or 7 in Denmark Township.

Bond in the case was continued at $20,000 and a presentence investigation was ordered. Sentencing was scheduled for July 31 at 8:30 a.m.

•Jeffrey J. Osborn, 26, Reese, was found innocent of a charge of third degree criminal sexual conduct. He had been charged in connection with an alleged incident involving someone at least 13 years of age but under 16 years between March and May 1997 in Reese.

A jury returned the innocent verdict on the second day of the trial, according to court records.

Clean-up continues

Some area homes still without power Tuesday

Power was expected to be restored in the Thumb by sometime Tuesday following violent storms that raked mid-Michigan early Sunday, causing 3 deaths and thousands of dollars in property damage.

The storm, packing winds of more than 85 miles per hour, roared into the Thumb during the early morning hours, downing countless trees and power lines, and damaging homes, barns and other structures.

Statewide, the storm was blamed for 3 deaths, including a 31-year-old Sterling Heights man who was camping at Port Crescent State Park near Port Austin when a tree crashed through the roof of his tent.

Property damage was reported throughout the Thumb, including Cass City, where fallen trees struck some vehicles and residences.

Tuscola County Emergency Management Coordinator Patrick H. Finn said he received scattered reports of property damage in the county. However, he had no dollar estimate, saying many people simply contact their insurance companies to process claims.

Finn noted the Tuscola Courthouse Annex in Caro was damaged when a tree fell through the roof.

Thousands lost power in the Thumb, prompting a host of school districts, including Bad Axe, USA, Lakers and Marlette schools, to cancel classes Monday.

Also affected was the Tuscola County Sheriff's Department, which was still depending on auxiliary power Monday morning.

Detroit Edison officials reported a total of 217,000 customers affected by the storm in southeast Michigan. About 74,000 were still without electricity Monday morning, Lorie N. Kessler, Edison media representative, said.

Kessler said Oakland and Macomb counties, along with portions of the Thumb, were hardest hit.

In the Thumb, 9,000 customers were affected in Tuscola County, with 7,300 still without power Monday morning; 10,500 customers lost power in Huron County, and 8,700 were still without power Monday morning, and 7,300 customers were affected in Sanilac County, with 5,500 still without power Monday morning.

"We hope to have the vast majority of customers back on tonight (Monday), but we will continue our restoration efforts into Tuesday," Kessler said.

She noted Edison brought in 60 utility crews from Ohio, Illinois and Pennsylvania in an effort to restore power as quickly as possible.

Consumers Power officials, meanwhile, reported some 400,000 of their customers affected by the storm in the middle third of the Lower Peninsula.

Locally, village crews and Elkland Township fire fighters put in a full day Sunday and remained busy into Monday morning.

Fire Chief Ron Pawloski said he was first paged Sunday at 12:30 a.m. for a severe thunderstorm warning, then again at 3:30 a.m. for a tornado watch and at 6:30 a.m. for another severe thunderstorm warning. The fire department remained on duty until about 4 a.m. Monday, responding to at least 14 incidents of downed and arcing electric wires, he said.

Cass City DPW Supt. Gary Barnes said crews would continue clean-up efforts Monday, but "it will probably take until Wednesday or Thursday, most of the week, to get things cleaned up."

School elections Monday

Competition in Owen-Gage and Kingston

Thumb area residents will be heading to the polls for annual school elections next week.

The elections will be held Monday, June 8. The polls will open at 7 a.m. and remain open until 8 p.m.

In the Cass City area, races are set for trustee seats in the Owen-Gage and Kingston School districts. There is no competition in the Cass City School District, where Board of Education President Randy Severance is seeking reelection unopposed.

In the Owen-Gage School District, incumbent board President Paul Hunter and incumbent Trustee Jack Brinkman are seeking reelection to 4-year terms. Also vying for one of the 2 seats is challenger Randy Howard.

Also expiring is a 2-year term now held by Trustee Mary Ann Abbe. She is seeking reelection and faces a challenge from Jeff Faist. Abbe was appointed to the seat following the resignation of James Albrecht last year.

In the Kingston Community Schools, incumbents Richard Zyrowski and Sherri Diegel along with challenger Lyle Curry filed nominating petitions to seek a pair of available 4-year terms on the school board.

In the Uby Community Schools, only the incumbents are seeking board seats. Board Secretary Kenneth Dekoski and Treasurer A. James Philp are both seeking reelection to 4-year terms.

Fire destroys home

Fire destroyed a ranch-style home and garage about 6 miles southeast of Cass City late Friday afternoon.

Lamotte Township fire fighters were called to the residence, located on Deckerville Road about a half-mile west of Lamton Road, at 5:02 p.m.

The house was fully engulfed in flames when the department arrived, according to Fire Chief Tim Bower, who said the blaze was apparently started by a gas grill in the garage.

Bower said the homeowner, Bob Marker, suffered a minor burn to one of his arms when he attempted to extinguish the blaze with a fire extinguisher. He was treated at the scene by fire fighters. Bower added that Marker's wife and granddaughter escaped unharmed.

The fire chief estimated the value of the house and garage at $75,000 to $80,000, not including contents.

Fire fighters, who remained at the scene for about 3 hours, were assisted by the Elkland Township Fire Department, which sent a pumper, tanker and man-power, and by the Moore Township Fire Department, which sent a tanker.

$1 million for area students

Ethel Collier scholarships keep on helping

"If you have a college education, the good things in life will follow."

-Ethel C. Collier

Ethel Collier may not be a household name in the Thumb, but for a growing number of young people, the name stands for opportunity and generosity.

Doctors, teachers, nurses, ministers, CPAs, and dozens more have received a financial helping hand thanks to the educational scholarship foundation established nearly a decade ago by the Snover native, who died in Cass City in 1987.

In fact, an estimated 180 Sanilac and Tuscola County students pursuing higher education have benefitted from Collier's legacy.

Foundation Trustee Gerald Hicks, Collier's nephew, recently presented a scholarship check boosting the foundation's total distributions to-date to $1 million.

That check went to Joenie Remsing of Cass City, a recent graduate of Ferris State University who earned an associate's degree in the college's medical laboratory technology program.

Remsing, whose Collier Scholarship has been renewed during her college career, is now completing an internship at Huron Memorial Hospital, Bad Axe.

PERFECT FIT

Remsing's name brings a quick smile to Hicks.

"She exactly fit the mold that Ethel Collier was looking for," he said, adding Remsing is a dedicated student who values education and truly appreciates the Collier Foundation scholarship. "She fits, and she's such a nice girl, too."

Remsing is one of 60 students who received Collier Scholarships this year totaling some $120,000.

Hicks noted the scholarships are awarded each spring and fall to students from Sanilac and Tuscola counties following a selection process. Interested students must fill out an application, available from high school counselors, and they must intend to use their scholarship to pursue higher education full-time, whether their goal is to attend college or a trade school.

Applicants are selected based on their grade point average, character and need.

"We look at all 3 and put all 3 together, and we're getting just top-notch kids," Hicks said.

The scholarship awards total $1,000 and they are renewable, provided the student maintains his or her eligibility. "It's a potential $8,000 scholarship and it can go on to graduate school," he added.

In keeping with Collier's wishes, the scholarship amounts were set with the idea of assisting promising young men and women. She didn't want to meet all of a student's education expenses, Hicks pointed out. "She thought the kid who had to dig, made a better kid."

DEVOTED

Collier, who devoted much of her 95 years to teaching, knew the meaning of work as well as hard times, having lived through the Great Depression.

She was born April 17, 1892, to William and Ada Collier on a Germania Road farm near Snover.

One of 14 children, she attended Snover and Marlette schools. After graduating from Sanilac County Normal, she began teaching at Burnside School No. 3 in Lapeer County.

In 1916 she moved to California, where she was employed as a private tutor. She graduated from Munson School of Private Secretaries in San Francisco in 1921, then entered State Teachers College and graduated in 1925.

She was hired by San Francisco Schools that same year, retiring 31 years later in 1956. During that time, she completed her Master's Degree and all study credits for her Ph.D. at Leland Stanford University in California.

Collier, who spent the final years of her life in the Cass City area, never earned more than $12,000 a year as a teacher. But upon her death at the age of 95, she left an estate worth nearly $4.5 million.

According to Hicks, Collier's fortune was the result of a keen sense for stock

McGee receives award

The MEEMIC Foundation for the Future of Education recently announced that Carrie L. McGee, daughter of Patrick L. and Jeanine M. McGee, has been awarded a $1,000 scholarship.

The Foundation recognizes top high school students in Michigan whose parents are in the field of education. Jeanine M. McGee is a teacher at Cass City Public Schools.

Carrie McGee was the captain of the synchronized swim team at Caro High School. She was a 4-year member of the varsity swim team and earned both an academic letter and an academic pin for her achievements.

She was also a volunteer for the Big Brother/Big Sister program, has participated in several leadership conferences and has earned a national science award.

McGee participated in Youth in Government for 3 years and was an MJP finalist. Her photographs have been published in MOSAIC magazine. She will attend the University of Michigan and pursue a degree in business.

The MEEMIC Foundation for the Future of Education was founded in March of 1992 by the Michigan Educational Employees Mutual Insurance Company (MEEMIC). The mission of the Foundation is to support Michigan's education community and their families in the furtherance of their education.

McGee was one of 16 recipients in Michigan. There were nearly 900 applicants statewide this year.

While getting acquainted with people from various parts of Illinois, Indiana, Ohio and Michigan at a senior retreat last week, we met a very pleasant lady who graduated from Cass City High School in 1932. Her name is Viola Collins and she now lives in Kalamazoo. Her maiden name was Bruce.

She graduated before I was born, and it's encouraging to note that she's still going strong.

A bonus at the retreat for us "youngsters" just reaching retirement age, in addition to the spiritual uplift, relaxation, great food and a lot of fun, was seeing folks considerably older still enjoying life to the fullest.

How far over the hill you are may depend a lot upon your attitude.

Speaking of aging, this apt description of the process came from the Just For Laughs Internet web page:

Do you realize that the only time in our lives that we like to get old is when we're kids?

If you're less than 10 years old, you're so excited about aging that you think in fractions.

"How old are you?" "I'm 4 1/2." You're never 36 1/2...you're 4 1/2 going on 5!

That's the key. You get into your teens, now they can't hold you back. You jump to the next number.

"How old are you?" "I'm gonna be 16."

You could be 12, but you're gonna be 16.

And then the greatest day of your life happens...you become 21. Even the words sound like a ceremony...you BECOME 21! Yes!

But then you turn 30. Ooohhh! What happened there? Makes you sound like bad milk.

He TURNED, we had to throw him out. There's no fun now.

What's wrong? What changed? You BECOME 21, you TURN 30, then you're PUSHING 40. "Stay over there, it's all slipping away..."

You BECOME 21, you TURN 30, you're PUSHING 40, you REACH 50...and your dreams are gone.

Then you MAKE IT to 60. You didn't think you'd make it!

So you BECOME 21, you TURN 30, you're PUSHING 40, you REACH 50, you MAKE IT to 60. Then you build up so much speed you HIT 70!

After that, it's a day by day thing. After that, you hit Wednesday.

You get into your 80s, you HIT lunch. You TURN 4:30.

My grandmother won't even buy green bananas. It's an investment, you know, and maybe a bad one.

And it doesn't end there. Into the 90s, you start going backwards. "I was JUST 92..."

Then a strange thing happens. If you make it over 100, you become a kid again.

"I'm 100 1/2!!!"

It's a girl!

Rabbit Tracks

by John Haire

(And anyone else he can get to help.)

For a couple of years now, on the back burner was a visit to the Big Buck Brewery & Steakhouse in Gaylord. Friday of the Memorial Day holiday it was convenient to visit. So I did.

It's a massive barn-like place and the odor of beer permeates the building. I arrived at about 5 p.m. and the place was jumping. The kitchen is separated only by a waist-high counter and I watched 6 chefs filling the orders.

Mine was a mixed grill (bite-sized portions of chicken, shrimp and steak). It included a generous salad and bread. Also ordered, a small draft beer ($2.83). Total cost, without tip, $22.03. The service was good.

All-in-all it was satisfactory. Give it a 6 on the 1-10 rating.

At a recent area used tires collection campaign, Sharon Mika, recycling coordinator, reports that 2 truckloads of tires were collected and 1,350 were ground up for use as landfill cover in Saginaw.

A new use for used tires is to burn them in cement plants. Holnan Inc. of Dundee Township will burn up to 4 million tires. The rubber tires burn cleaner than coal and the plant will substitute up to 18 percent of the present fuel mixture with tires for a 50 percent reduction in sulfur dioxide emissions.

The company shouldn't run out of fuel in the near future. Michigan generates about 9 million tires a year and stockpiles of used tires are loaded.

Traffic fatalities in Michigan declined from 1,505 in 1996 to 1,446 in 1997.

Percentage-wise, few counties did as well as Tuscola, which had 21 traffic fatalities in 1996 and 6 in 1997. The 21 deaths were an abnormally high number for the county.

In Huron County there were 7 deaths recorded each year and in Sanilac County deaths declined from 15 in 1996 to 12 in 1997.

Chappel to study at Interlochen

Amanda Chappel, 17, of Cass City, will attend Interlochen Arts Camp, this country's premier fine arts camp.

Chappel, the daughter of Dr. Paul and Suzanne Chappel, will study visual arts at the camp. This will be her first time as a camper at Interlochen.

Established in 1928, Interlochen Arts Camp is the nation's oldest and most successful summer arts program. It offers intensive training in dance, theatre arts, music, creative writing and visual art. The campers, ages 8 to 18, attend the programs for 8 weeks. The camp attracts its 2,000 students from all 50 states and 29 other countries.

Throughout the course of the summer, over 500 events are presented at the camp by students, faculty, staff and guest artists such as comedian Bill Cosby, world-renowned violinist Itzhak Perlman, Ohio Ballet, Chicago and cellist Yo-Yo Ma.

For the second time, Interlochen Arts Camp has been named one of the top 25 camps in the nation. The announcement was made by Family Life magazine in their March 1998 edition, and Interlochen was the only arts camp to be honored.

Show Kids You Care

In a couple of more days, school will be out for summer break. School personnel, parents and community members can all reflect upon the many positive experiences that our children participated in throughout the year. It has been a positive and productive year. But, our work with children is never done. At last week's Board of Education meeting one of our guidance counselors and social workers presented a brochure to the Board which listed 150 ways to show kids you care. As we move into summer I want to share with you several of these, sometimes overlooked, but common sense ideas.

Smile a lot.
Remember their birthdays.
Play with them.
Hide surprises for them to find.
Be honest.
Play outside together.
Read aloud together.
Laugh at their jokes.
Love them, no matter what.

Look in their eyes when you talk to them.
Listen to them.
Stay with them when they're afraid.
Tell them their feelings are OK.
Hug them.
Surprise them.
Be nice.
Answer their questions.

Have a safe and happy summer. See you in late summer for the beginning of a new school year.

Questions can be sent to me at 4868 N. Seeger St., Cass City, MI 48726. Thank you.

AIRBRUSHING by area artists is among the activities planned during the fifth annual Evergreen Park Benefit organized by the American Bikers Aiming Towards Education (ABATE). This year's event is scheduled for June 5-7.

Annual fund raiser
ABATE plans park bash

The American Bikers Aiming Towards Education (ABATE) will be hosting its fifth annual Evergreen Park Benefit June 5-7.

The event was initially organized as a fund raiser to keep the Sanilac County recreation area open. To-date, the event has generated $9,600 in park funding, some of which has been used to improve the facility.

Evergreen Park is located on M-53 between M-81 and M-46, and is a rustic campground bordered by the Cass River.

The upcoming benefit will kick-off Friday, June 5, at 6 p.m. Entertainment will be provided by the "Garage Boys" band.

Saturday's event will include a bike show, followed by bike games and then a women's fashion show. The evening's entertainment will be provided by the area band, "Method X." SalGaul Productions are handling all sound system equipment.

Available at the park throughout the weekend will be a food wagon, ice, pop and rustic camping, a tattoo booth, airbrushing, motorcycle parts and ABATE products.

Admission is a $10 donation per person at the gate. The public is welcome, but visitors must be over 21 years of age. Pets and fireworks will not be allowed, and no alcohol will be provided.

ABATE is a non-profit organization that promotes motorcycle safety and education, and works closely with legislators on motorcycle issues.

Rotary has collected millions of dollars from its members world-wide to combat polio in less developed countries. The Cass City club dug deep to do its share.

The campaign has been an outstanding success, and when the results are posted showing the kids that were subject to the ravages of the disease before the medical crews moved in and how it was eradicated, everyone connected with the campaign is justly proud.

Who wouldn't be happy when the lives of kids anywhere are made better with our help?

A polio eradication project is one that every member can latch on to and the results are immediate.

Rotary or any other international service club would have an impossible task ahead if it adopted a plan to foster birth control to curb earth's expanding population.

Yet the same kids that we are saving from polio are starving, not because there is not enough food but because it never reaches many underdeveloped countries.

If the folks who study these things are right, you ain't seen nothin' yet. Last year the global population increased by 225,000 people a day.

In 2025 the prediction is that population will increase from today's 5.8 billion to about 8 billion.

That increase comes despite the fact that 2 of 5 deaths world-wide will be among persons 50 or younger. Among these 20 million deaths, half will be children under the age of 5. It is estimated that at least 2 million could be prevented through vaccines.

Who knows how many of these under age 5 deaths included tots that the Rotary polio eradication plan included? Or the quality of life of those that escaped polio but not the fruits of over population in the area where they live.

Long term, the most humanitarian project would be to use Rotary's considerable financial and membership clout to tackle population control in underdeveloped

This must be a good year for birds. All kinds of birds: hummingbirds, bluebirds, little, brown birds and big birds with green beaks and funny heads.

You can see I'm quite an expert on birds. Through years of practice I have learned to identify nearly any bird that shows up.

My wife will see a bird in the yard and say, "Oh, come look! What kind of bird is this?"

I glance out the window, and tell her, "That's a whiffle bird. You can hear its wings when it flies. They go 'whiffle, whiffle, whiffle'."

I'm sure Connie finds my ornithological knowledge intimidating, but she still asks once in awhile. This year is different, though. We have so many birds, even I can't identify them all.

I think it's because of the bluebird houses we've placed around the premises. Nearly all the houses are inhabited by wrens, but we call them bluebird houses just the same.

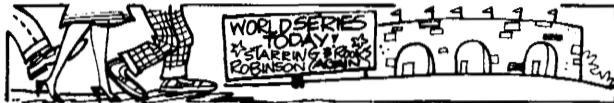

The only quarters Not occupied are the Amish bird house Connie bought several years ago. "Why won't the bluebirds use my Amish bird house," she asks.

"Because there aren't any Amish birds in this part of the country," I tell her. "They've all become Menonites."

The real reason nobody uses the little Amish house is that it hangs from its top and swings in the wind. Any bird living there would be sick in a matter of hours, like a little cuckoo that sticks his head out and throws-up in the yard.

Whoever makes bird houses that hang from their tops should be required to clean them once a day. A bird can't live in a place like that!

We have other bird attractors besides houses, things like hummingbird feeders and bird baths. We lived here for 20 years with-

Trail's Edge offers kids special camping experience

By Leah Nixon
Staff Writer

Ventilator-dependent children enjoy summer camp experiences through attending a week long camp called Trail's Edge.

Located at Camp Fowler in Mayville, Trail's Edge is held each year during the first week of June.

"There are only 3 camps for kids on ventilators in the U.S.," said Sally Peters, a Cass City High School graduate, Mott Hospital rehab trauma nurse and camp volunteer. "It is hard at regular camps because special medical needs children cannot be provided for."

Camp Fowler was made for children with special medical needs 41 years ago in Dryden by Jack Fowler, a special education teacher, and has been in Mayville for the past 21 years.

There are paved trails and no stairs or steps so children can go into every room and building. "These are kids who are like Christopher Reeves is now," explained Peters.

"Fowler created the camp because kids had nowhere to go," she added. "It also gives parents a break because caring for these children is a round the clock job. Parents usually have to stay up all night with kids."

"We (camp volunteers) don't get very much sleep," Peters added, saying, "Who wants to sleep during the day when all the activities are going on?"

Activities for the 25 or so kids who attend camp each year include boating, fishing, horseback riding, remote control toy boats in the lake, skits and swimming.

"Kids also play earthball where they hit a big ball with their electric wheelchairs," Peters said. "It's like soccer."

Activities also include arts and crafts, a campfire with S'mores, petting zoo and a visit from the sheriff. "We want to provide kids with a week of fun."

"This is their camp," she added. "There are a lot of the same activities you would see at a regular camp just adapted for wheelchairs."

"There are also not many wheelchair accessible boats," Peters said. "We have a pontoon which kids can go straight from the dock to the boat."

Camp is made possible for the kids ranging in ages from 4 to 20 by about 100 to 120 volunteers each summer. "There are 3 volunteers for each camper," Peters said.

Each camper has a partner who is with them during the day, she explained, and kids also need people to stay up at night and run the ventilators and any medical care needed.

Volunteers are nurses, therapists, social workers, pathologists, specialists and physicians taking over camp positions such as partners, cabin leaders and nurses and activity staff.

"We also have cooking staff," Peters added. "When you're asking people to give up a week of their life you had better feed them well."

Untrained individuals who are interested in helping at Trail's Edge can go through a spring training and then have the opportunity to visit with a camper at their home, said Peters.

"The person gets to know the kid and talk to the parents." There is also a training the Saturday before the camp.

"There will always be somebody around because each camper has to be with 2 people (volunteers) at a time," she said.

At the same time, Peters added, after campers graduate from high school they can be peer counselors. There is a male and female peer counselor at each camp.

Volunteer work and donations are what make Trail's Edge possible. There is no cost to the campers or their families, explained Peters. "We depend on donations."

Through various donations from small organizations and people who hear about the camp, campers' supplies can be taken care of. "If somebody had to pay for the camp," Peters said, "no one could afford to go because it would cost at least a couple of thousand dollars."

Starting this Sunday campers will enjoy the ninth year of Trail's Edge. A volunteer at the camp for eight years, Peters said the campers are from Michigan because most travel by campers is done by car because wheelchairs do not fit on planes.

"The kids hear about the camp from U of M clinics," she added.

As well as youth camps, Peters said, group homes, retreats, churches and learning and recreational services also use Camp Fowler.

SALLY PETERS and camper Anthony Burton take time to cool off in the hot summer weather by taking an afternoon swim at Trail's Edge Camp, which is held at Camp Fowler in Mayville.

Tuscola receives FEMA grant

U.S. Congressman Jim Barcia (D. Bay City) recently announced that Tuscola County will receive a $112,500 grant from the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA).

The grant will fund the Coleman Drain Project, located in Juniata Township, to lessen the effects of future flooding and to increase protection from losses of Tuscola County residents. Total project cost is $150,000.

The Michigan Department of State Police Emergency Management Division will administer the project.

"This area of Tuscola County often experiences flood damage as a result of drainage overflow," Barcia said. "This grant will specifically address this problem by removing sediments that block the drain's flow, remove trees and brush and reestablish the flowline. The end result for residents will be less personal, agricultural and property damage, not to mention a greater peace of mind every time it rains."

"This project is in keeping with FEMA's national initiative, PROJECT IMPACT, which challenges the country to undertake actions that protect families, businesses and communities by reducing the effects of natural disasters," James Lee Witt, FEMA's director, said. "We believe mitigation is a long-term local issue best addressed by a local partnership that involves government, business and private citizens."

This project will protect over 1,320 acres of farmland, and bring residential and wooded areas to the 10-year flood design.

Grant received to help children

Public agencies and community members are working together in Tuscola County to create solutions to help families that are in need.

Wraparound (WA) is an example of this. It is a service funded by Strong Families/Safe Children in conjunction with a grant from the state of Michigan.

WA works with a family's strengths to meet their specific needs. The goal of WA is to prevent out-of-home placements, while assuring the safety net and the well-being of the children involved. Families are eligible when they have high-needs children who may be at risk of removal from their homes.

Often, families have been involved with many agencies and their needs have gone unmet. The issues that Wraparound families are typically facing include abuse, neglect, mental health, physiological impairment, behavioral concerns, and legal involvement.

It is important to note that, many times, the parents who are raising the child did not inflict the abuse, but are dealing with the aftermath of abuse or neglect suffered at the hands of past caretakers.

Referrals to the Wraparound Coordinator on behalf of families may come from numerous sources, including schools, county agencies, community members, and families themselves. All referrals are presented to the Community Team (CT), which consists of 2 community members and 12 agency representatives.

Referrals which are not accepted are either returned to the referral worker for further interventions or placed in "Pre-Wrap", where the coordinator ensures that services are provided to the family without the long-term commitment required by Wraparound. If the referral is accepted, the WA process begins as soon as possible.

The first few meetings with the family are spent discovering family strengths, learning what worked and what did not previously, and assembling the Child and Family Team (CFT). The CFT is chosen by the family, and includes a few people they trust and feel comfortable with. Typical members include extended family members, neighbors, school personnel, counselors, and agency staff.

CONGRESSMAN JIM BARCIA looks at more than 30,000 petitions that have been received in support of the Social Security Trust Fund. Barcia has pledged his support to the Social Security Preservation Act, which would stop the current practice of using money in the Trust Fund to hide the real size of the federal deficit. Barcia believes this money should only be used for Social Security recipients.

Campaign finance information on Internet

Secretary of State Candice S. Miller announced that anyone interested in knowing who is attempting to influence Michigan's electoral process through campaign contributions now has easy access to that information on the Internet.

The Secretary of State is posting campaign finance statements for all candidates, political, independent, political party and ballot proposal committees on its Internet site at: www.sos.state.mi.us/cfr/cfonl.html

"The Internet has revolutionized the way people access information," Miller said. "We are using the Internet to revolutionize Michigan's Campaign Finance Act by making the disclosure of campaign finance information readily accessible."

"The Campaign Finance Act is, essentially, a disclosure law that gives the public access to information about who is contributing money to campaigns and who is trying to influence the electoral process," Miller added. "However, disclosure is only effective when people have easy access to information. By making campaign finance records available on the Internet, we are giving people access to those records from any personal computer with Internet access."

The state's chief elections officer noted that individuals without access to a personal computer can use personal computers available at the Bureau of Elections.

Many earn honors

Hawks live up to track expectations

The theme for the Cass City Red Hawk track teams this year was "catch the vision" and Coach Larry Robinson said that as a team and as individuals, the athletes lived up to the theme.

It was a cooperative effort, Robinson said. We thank all the athletes, parents and others who officiated at our home meets for making it a successful year.

We were a fairly young team, Robinson continued, and with a fine group of athletes from the 8th grade, we could be even more successful next year.

These athletes will have some very big shoes to fill. Start with Ryan Brinkman. Look at his achievements:

•All conference Greater Thumb West first team 100 and 200-meter sprints and 300-meter hurdles.

•Caro meet of champs second places in the 300-meter hurdles and 200 meter sprint.

•Ran a leg on the 800-meter school record-setting team.

•Class (senior) record in the 100 meter (11 seconds).

Also graduating is Andrea Rea. She won the shot put at the Caro meet of champs, finished 10th in the state and set a Cass City class record in the event with a 36 feet, 6-inch toss. She earned all-conference honorable mention in the shot put.

There are plenty of key performers returning.

All conference honors were earned by Holli Cooper, 400 meters; Jamie Fluegge (freshman), long jump, and honorable mention, 200 meters.

At Caro Meet of Champs other medalists were: Cooper, second in 800-meter and fifth in 400 meter. Other fifth places finishes were recorded by 3 Hawks, Niah Hosner, discus; Fluegge, 100 and 200-meter; Lindsey Others to place were Craig Emmert, third, high jump; Adam Dorland, fourth, pole vault; Jason Wright, Craig Emmert, Chad Lenhard and Heath Zawilinski, third, 1,600-meter relay.

STATE MEET

In the state meet, in addition to Brinkman, Emmert was seventh, high jump, and Dorland, eighth, pole vault.

Other Hawk participants who were not medal winners were: Rea, shot put, 10th; Cooper, 400-meter, 20th; Fluegge, long jump, 21st; Hosner, discus, 20th; 800-meter relay team of Brinkman, James Taylor, Lenhard and Zawilinski, 11th, and 1,600-meter relay team of Zawilinski, Emmert, Wright and Brinkman, 18th.

RECORDS SET

Four new school records were set. The 800-meter relay squad of Brinkman, Taylor, Lenhard and Zawilinski with a time of 1:33.35; Dorland's leap of 13-feet, 3 inches in the pole vault, and Fluegge's marks of 12.67 in the 100-meter and 26.48 in the 200-meter.

New class records were set, in addition to those set by Brinkman and Rea, by CASS CITY'S BEST chance to score came in the third inning against power-pitching Jamie Stahl of USA. Melissa Heinlein singled and advanced to third but the Hawks failed to come up with the key hit to send her across the plate.

Wins in pre-district

Baseball team bows to hot-hitting Patriots

The Cass City Red Hawks' season came to an end Saturday when the Hawks bowed to the USA Patriots, 13-1, in the opening district tournament game at Laker High. The game was called after 6 innings. The Hawks had qualified for the district competition by winning a pre-district game at Laker High.

USA supported winning pitcher Koel with a 12-hit attack but he didn't need it. He limited Cass City to 2 hits and faced just 20 batters in the 6-inning game.

Koel's home run with 2 on base was all the offense necessary for him to chalk up the win. Matt Irrer singled to drive in a run and Nathan Haag's single was the only other Cass City hit.

PRE-DISTRICT

The Cass City Red Hawks qualified for district baseball play at Laker High with an 11-8 victory over the Lakers in pre-district play Tuesday, May 26.

Cass City had a banner day at the plate, hammering out 16 hits to make it easy for Tim Micklash to pick up the win in relief. He replaced starter Nathan Klein in the third.

The Hawks soared out to a 6-2 lead in the first inning only to have the Lakers rally to tie the score with 4 runs in the second and take the lead, 8-6, with a pair of tallies in the fifth.

Although the Hawks out hit the Lakers 16-7, the Lakers countered with the long ball as Voss and Tomas both slammed home runs.

Cass City staged its winning rally in the sixth, scoring 3 runs on consecutive base hits by Dan Cuddie, Craig Swiderski, Matt Irrer and Nathan Fritz.

The Hawks added 2 insurance runs in the last inning, but they weren't needed as the Lakers bowed out without getting another hit.

There were a host of Hawks with multiple hits in the game, led by Aaron Barrigar with 4, including a pair of doubles. Hawks with 3 hits were Cuddie, Swiderski and Irrer.

Defeat Lakers in pre-district

Hawk girls bow to potent Patriots

The Cass City Red Hawks were eliminated in the opening district tournament game Saturday by the USA Patriots, who used the shutout pitching of Jamie Stahl to register a 9-0 win.

USA then went on to defeat Bad Axe in the title game, 11-2.

The Hawks qualified for the districts by defeating Laker High, 10-7, in the pre-district.

While the Patriots dominated the Hawks behind Stahl's 3-hit pitching, Coach Dave Hoard was pleased with the play of his squad, which finished 12-19. In a regular season game Stahl pitched a no-hitter and struck out 16.

The Hawk strikeout total was reduced to 8 Saturday and the Hawks threatened to score in 2 of the first 3 innings.

Kara Mellendorf hit a line drive double to left field with one out in the second only to die on third, and Melissa Heinlein and Katie Hacker singled in the third inning only to be stranded when the Hawks failed to collect the key hit. That was Cass City's last chance to score as the Hawks went down in order the rest of the way.

It was a tight, well-played game for 6 innings when USA led 4-0 at the end of 6 innings. The winners scored a pair in the first on 3 hits, 2 of them seeing-eye ground balls through the infield. The Patriots also scored a run on one hit, a single in the third, with the run scoring on a stolen base, passed ball and a ground out. USA made it 4-0 when Cohrs lashed a triple and scored on a single by Schafer.

The Patriots broke the game wide open in the last inning with a 4-run splurge capped by a triple by Becky Sweetman.

Becky Dore was charged with the loss, giving up 13 hits, walking one and striking out 6.

PRE-DISTRICT

The Hawks spotted the Lakers 5 runs in the first inning in the pre-district but Dore survived the storm and allowed just 2 runs the rest of the way as her teammates rallied for the 10-7 decision. Collision was charged with the loss.

Cass City scored a run in each of the first 2 innings and went ahead for the first time with 5 runs in the third. A pair of runs in the fifth and another in the seventh iced the victory.

Heinlein and Janis Mastie, with 2 hits each, led the Cass City attack.

Fine Vassar firm for EPA violations

A Tuscola County recycling firm must pay more than $14,000 in fines and costs following a Department of Environmental Quality investigation that revealed violations of Michigan's hazardous waste laws.

Michigan Recycling Inc., 551 Birch Rd., Vassar, was ordered by Tuscola County District Court to reimburse the DEQ's investigative costs of $13,441.50 and pay a total of $900 in fines.

Company president Gary Pickercell of Lapeer pleaded guilty to 3 counts of violating the Natural Resources and Environmental Protection Act. The violations were:

- * Failure to maintain records regarding the quantities of hazardous waste generated.

- * Failure to properly label and contain hazardous waste.

- * Failure to ensure that hazardous waste accumulation is conducted so that it does not escape.

"The protection of Michigan's resources and residents cannot be compromised," said DEQ Director Russell Harding. "Owners and operators of Michigan Recycling must understand their environmental responsibilities. Thanks to the commitment of our DEQ staff and Tuscola County authorities, violations at this site will be addressed."

Michigan Recycling Inc. is an auto and metal salvage yard. It purchases scrap metal and smelts automatic transmissions on site.

Samples taken of material left over from the smelting process showed regulated amounts of lead, making it hazardous waste. The waste material had been used as fill or piled with other scrap through much of the salvage yard rather than landfilled or recycled.

The environmental impact has not been fully assessed. An undetermined amount of automotive oils and fluids has been released to the ground, and the hazardous nature of the smelter waste has not been completely established.

The case was launched by DEQ's Criminal Investigations Section following site inspections conducted by the department's Waste Management Division.

Top mulch

Which mulch is best for your landscaping project? In most cases, it depends what you want for color, texture and price. Each mulch requires different management, too. Your best bet — apply what you like then manage it appropriately. The recommended depth for most mulches is 2 to 3 inches. Put your mulch down after the soil has dried and warmed sufficiently to avoid root and plant decay.

Council proceedings

The regular meeting of the Cass City Village Council was held May 18, 1998, at 7:00 p.m. All Trustees were present.

Minutes of the regular April meeting were approved as presented.

April Financial Statement was reviewed.

Citizens made the following comments:

Rob Hartwick - Fee changes for the use of the Park and Arts and Crafts, why this year and why so much? Commended the council on their dedication and inquired on future maintenance for the tennis and basketball courts being there are no fees for their use.

Dave Knight - Consider allowing a card for village taxpayers for reduced rates. Request to rescind the fees. What were the improvements to the arts and crafts program patterned after? Also the expense of the new downtown village clock and new municipal building.

Karen Spencer - How would transportation be arranged for special field trips? Does not feel that the increased rates will support the pool or arts and crafts.

Cris Grover - Moved here mainly for the park and recreation facilities and agreed that $25.00 per season at arts and crafts was reasonable, possibly such an ambitious program is not necessary. Felt that card I.D. for Village residents would not be difficult to police.

Denise Hallwood and Rita Lovejoy - Public must be made aware that assistance will be given to any family that cannot afford to use the recreation facilities.

Susan Dyer - The removal of diving boards be replaced with something for next year, lockers in bad shape and needed security of passes. Ventilation of pool building is very poor and would the arts and crafts program need day care license.

Rose Martin - Agrees that the Park and Recreation programs are probably the best in the area and to maintain these the citizens must become involved in raising revenues to support them.

Matt Prieskorn, Jane Downing and President Althaver gave the following responses:

Revenues must be generated for our parks and recreation program to be able to maintain them at the present level without raising village taxes. Fees for the use of the basketball and tennis courts are not charged because there is no daily preparation for personnel needed for the use of these facilities. Identification for village residents would be very difficult and costly to police. The downtown park and village clock are supported by the Downtown Development fund and contributions. The municipal building was necessary due to the condition of the old municipal building and lack of storage space. Assistance for children that cannot afford the fees will be advertised and be kept completely confidential. Contributions will be sought for support of the parks recreation from surrounding townships and local clubs and individuals. The Parks and Recreation Plan was last updated and adopted in 1995. Public hearings were held and very little response was received from the public. The council would gratefully accept any input from the public. The parks committee is very willing to meet with residents to formulate a plan for future support of the programs.

Kids to benefit from new counseling program

By Leah Nixon
Staff Writer

A new guidance counseling program is going to be implemented next school year at Cass City Middle School.

Joan Helwig, middle school guidance counselor, explained the program tailored to serve students will be tied into the curriculum in conjunction with the school's interdisciplinary learning concept. "We will implement it instead of dropping it in on the kids," she said.

Programs covering 3 content areas — knowledge of yourself and others, career planning and exploration, and educational and career technical development — are going to fit in with what students are discussing in their classes, she added.

"They will reinforce each other," Helwig explained. "Students might talk about personal responsibility, decision making, study skills or friendship."

"We will focus on one or two so we do a good job," she included. "This will teach kids lifetime coping skills they need."

Students will work with problem solving, peer mediation and dealing with conflict, she said, adding kids don't have a good handle on these things.

The programs will last about 30 minutes, 2 times a week for 4 to 6 weeks.

Currently, Helwig said the old counseling program, called Student Services, could be described as "trouble shooting."

"Dealing with kids on an as-needed basis, we work with kids as problems arise. It is not a comprehensive program."

At the same time, the program also provides for other needs of kids, including clean clothing and shoes. "The whole philosophy behind a program is to service the student."

"The new program was not just something I made up," Helwig said, adding, "We are following the counselor's guide approved by the state department of education."

Michigan's Comprehensive Guidance Counseling Program, adopted by the Michigan School Counselors Association, combines years of meetings and research into a model for all counselors in the state, not just middle school.

Revised into a new 1997-98 edition, the program was recently presented to the Cass City Board of Education.

"At this time, we wanted to inform the school board of our plans to implement the program into the middle school in stages," Helwig said. "I just recently got the new edition of the program and some people may not know about it."

"We want to share what the program is about and educate parents and staff," she added. "It is now a process of getting parents and staff on board."

There is still a lot to do, Helwig included. "We're looking at 3 years to implement the program."

Three years is a good time span to look back at what the program has done and make changes, she explained. "We will be at a point where we are comfortable. It is not going to happen overnight."

A comprehensive program has been a goal for the middle school, said Jeanne Lohela, Cass City Middle School principal. "It is a goal we set in the school improvement plan."

"I am 100 percent in favor of the new program," she added. "This program will be excellent."

No concerns were expressed by parents after they were surveyed about the changes and new ideas, Lohela said. "Parents have been very positive. We are just at the beginning of the program and we will educate the parents as we go along."

In Tuscola County

Families focus of effort

Public agencies and community members are working together in Tuscola County to expand, improve, and help fund human service programs for children and families in the community.

The Human Services Coordinating Council (HSCC) is an example of this. The council sponsors a work group called the Strong Families/Safe Children Community Planning Team (CPT). Both groups consist of community members and agency staff members.

Tuscola County's HSCC began meeting in 1994, and has been involved in many projects, including transportation services and Wrap-around.

The Community Planning Team (CPT) began in 1996 when federal funds became available to create Strong Families/Safe Children. Its goals include reducing out-of-home placements, increasing adoptions, increasing immunization rates, and increasing support to families who are raising children of their relatives.

When the HSCC became involved in this new initiative, a community plan was written and approved, which included the idea of the Community Planning Team. The CPT is responsible for making recommendations to the HSCC about the use of Strong Families/Safe Children funds, and how to best coordinate the programs and services.

Tuscola County's CPT has 2 community representatives and 15 agency representatives. They have been involved with many projects since April of 1996, including Wrap-around, the Adoption Mentor, Immunizations, Kinship Care, Parenting Education and Child Care.

Governor Engler has announced that funding for Strong Families/Safe Children has been renewed for Fiscal Years 1999-2001. Its Community Planning Team members want the community to know more about what the CPT is working on and whom to contact if they want to get involved.

For more information about becoming a member of the community planning team or details about Strong Families/Safe Children projects, please contact Lisa K. Jolly at (517) 673-6191.

Letter to the editor

Saddened by fee hikes at park

Dear Editor,

I was saddened and very disappointed to read about the huge increases in pool fees and the summer programs offered at the park.

I grew up in Cass City and most of my family still lives there. My nieces and nephews benefit from these summer programs and the use of the Cass City pool. I have maintained a subscription to the Cass City Chronicle because it is important to me to keep up with what is going on in my home town.

As you know, Cass City is not a big metropolis. Cass City is a small village. Cass City is a very rural community. There are not many high paying executive positions available to many citizens of this fine village. Many people work hard for minimum wage or not much more and it is impossible for them to pay these high fees. These rate hikes are ridiculous and many children are going to miss out on their only source of recreation for the summer.

There are so many unpleasant things that children can get involved in when they are not provided with something to do with their idle time. Three months is a long time to have nothing to do. Our children need these programs! Without programs like these to keep our children busy with good clean fun, they may get involved in things such as drugs, drinking, smoking and breaking the law. These are not easy times for our children to grow up in and we all need to work harder to help our children grow up headed on the right path.

Why not organize some fund raisers if additional money is needed to keep the fees down? I am sure that there are a lot of parents and children who would be happy to help with this if it will save their summer programs and make the pool fees affordable. I say that the entire community should get involved!

Remember, it really does take a village to raise a child...Cass City is that village!

Sincerely,

Jennifer Harmer Bruyneel
Houston, Texas

Your neighbor says

It's all politics

Bill Clinton and his personal life have been the hot topic of conversation among many Americans.

"In my personal opinion, it's all politics," said J.E. Smith, Cass City resident. "I think the Republican party is trying to gain points."

"I think the media is blowing the whole situation out of proportion," he added.

In addition, Smith said he does not see how the media can continue to cover Clinton's personal life once he is out of the presidency.

"If things go the way they are now," he explained, "coverage of Clinton's personal life will die out of the media."

"With the economy the way it is, if a person has a fat wallet they don't complain."

The women who have accused Clinton are just looking for money and publicity, according to Smith. "I don't think they will bother him once he is out of office."

If Clinton continues to do what he is doing now, Smith said, he will leave office with a fairly good political record. "Most people accept the fact that he is doing a good job. Prosperity is up." Accusations are not affecting Clinton and his ability to do his job, according to Smith.

As for Mrs. Clinton, Smith said, "She should just keep her mouth shut." She should not comment about the accusations and so-called "affairs" her husband had.

THANK YOU!

We would like to take this opportunity to thank our customers for their understanding and patience during both the Beanie Babie extravaganza and the recent power outages in the Caro and Cass City area. We would like to also thank all of our employees and the members of our management teams. Last week our Caro restaurant had equipment that was struck by lightning and we were forced to close temporarily. Sunday, with the storms, our Cass City restaurant was closed for a short period of time. The power outages created an unexpected, but welcomed customer flow at both restaurants. Without hesitation, many of our off-duty employees and managers came in and stayed late to assist. Of course we were busier than normal and all but a few customers understood that we were working as fast and diligently as possible. We appreciated the kind words of encouragement and the patience displayed today and throughout the Beanie craze. For those who left not satisfied, we apologize and will keep working on continued improvements in all of our restaurants. Our employees are truly number one in our eyes. Many could have used the power outage as an excuse to not be at work. Some could have even said they were sick. They didn't, they came in to service you, the best they could. Hats off to our employees of Caro and Cass City. Bless our customers who exhibited patience and left our employees feeling good about themselves. We know our employees appreciated it too. Next time when you get good service, a friendly smile or great food, let our employees know. They would love the feedback. They will be thrilled that you noticed and even more thrilled that you took time to tell them.

Again thanks to all our customers and employees, and thanks for understanding.

She was born in Cass City April 14, 1937, the daughter of Clifton and Lily Mae (Nicholas) Rockefeller. Jan.

HDC set to celebrate June 6-13

The Human Development Commission (HDC) and its housing department will be celebrating National Homeownership Week, June 6 through June 13.

During the week, HDC's housing department will focus on the importance of homeownership to individuals and communities, and promote the success of rural homeownership.

HDC's housing department works closely with U.S.D.A.'s Rural Development an Independent Bank East Michigan to help low-income and first time homebuyers secure conventional financing to fund the purchase of safe and affordable housing. HDC's housing staff may also provide individuals with homeownership counseling on issues such as planning, budgets, mortgages, and property maintenance.

The MSHDA Single-Family Purchase Program has allowed HDC to purchase homes in the Caro and Sandusky areas. Through this program houses are renovated and made available at affordable prices to low-income and first time homebuyers.

Currently, HDC's Housing Department is in the process of selling one house in Caro. The department will have 3 additional homes available for purchase in Caro, and one in Sandusky, within the next few weeks. The Housing Department of HDC is also working with Rural Development in selling a home near Pigeon.

For additional information, please contact HDC's Housing Department locally at (517) 673-4121, or toll free at 1-800-843-6394.

General Cable plant manager

Zurbuch replaces Valdez

General Cable Corporation officials announced Tuesday the promotion of Jeff Zurbuch to plant manager of its Cass City plant.

Zurbuch replaces Jesus Valdez, who has served as plant manager for the past 10 years. Company officials did not say what led to the change in plant leadership. Zurbuch joined General Cable, headquartered in Highland Heights, Ky., in June 1995 as a process engineering manager at the company's Bonham, Texas, plant, which produces data communications and telecommunications cable.

He most recently served as manufacturing engineering manager and was the project coordinator of a recently-completed major capacity expansion at the Bonham facility that increased output of its Plastic Insulated Cable (PIC) telecommunications cable by 48 percent.

Zurbuch holds a chemical engineering degree from Purdue University and will complete his MBA degree at Indiana University in June. He and his family will relocate to the Cass City area this summer.

"Jeff has been instrumental in leading the Bonham, Texas, plant's cycle time management and process improvement efforts," said Larry Davis, vice-president, manufacturing-communications products. "His strong, demonstrated leadership skills will be valuable in our challenge to bring the Cass City facility to the technological forefront."

General Cable's Cass City facility manufactures communications wire and cable products and employs 198 people.

Distinctly German

American beer may soon have a distinctly German taste. The Agricultural Research Service has come out with a new hops variety called Santam, which provides beer drinkers with the aroma and taste found previously only in hops from Germany's Tettang region. The Tettang hops can be grown in the United States, but its yield is much lower. The new hops yields twice as much as its predecessor and is the world's first naturally seedless hops.

Coller Foundation keeps on giving market investments, and an ultra frugal lifestyle.

"There was nobody more patriotic than she was, or more honest," Hicks said. "She never drew one cent of Social Security. She said, 'I didn't need it, so I never applied.'"

Hicks recalled the idea for an educational scholarship foundation was made to Coller by longtime family attorney Leonard Patterson of Sandusky.

"She liked the idea," he added. "He wrote the will and he and his son probated the estate."

$3 MILLION

Included in the will was a $3 million gift to the University of Michigan Medical Center in honor of Coller's cousin, Dr. Fred Coller, who served as head of surgery at the facility for some 30 years. A new surgical ward with 21 operating suites now bears his name.

As for the scholarships, the Coller Foundation was established with $1.6 million. And, despite the loss of around $300,000 when the stock market took a nose dive in 1987, the foundation has since grown to $1.8 million, with $1,013,000 distributed in scholarship awards over the past 9 years.

Hicks noted each scholarship check represents not only a helping hand, but a reminder of Ether Coller's strong faith in God.

He explained that when he and Patterson began going through Coller's private papers after her death, they found 3 separate handwritten copies of Coller's personal testimony. The confession of faith simply reads: "Romans 10:13 Jesus, I know I'm a sinner and I believe you died for my sins and I want you to come into my life and save me."

Patterson suggested that the testimony be printed on every scholarship check. It took a little doing, but every check was imprinted with the message in Coller's handwriting, Hicks said.

He's quick to credit Patterson as the architect of the Coller Foundation, and for years of support. But he said scholarship recipients also owe a debt of gratitude to his mother, the late Gladys Hicks.

Gerald said he and his mother, and her brother, Donald Coller, all helped to care for Ethel during the last 8 years of her life. But it was Gladys who literally saved Ethel's life, making it possible for her to include the scholarship foundation in her will.

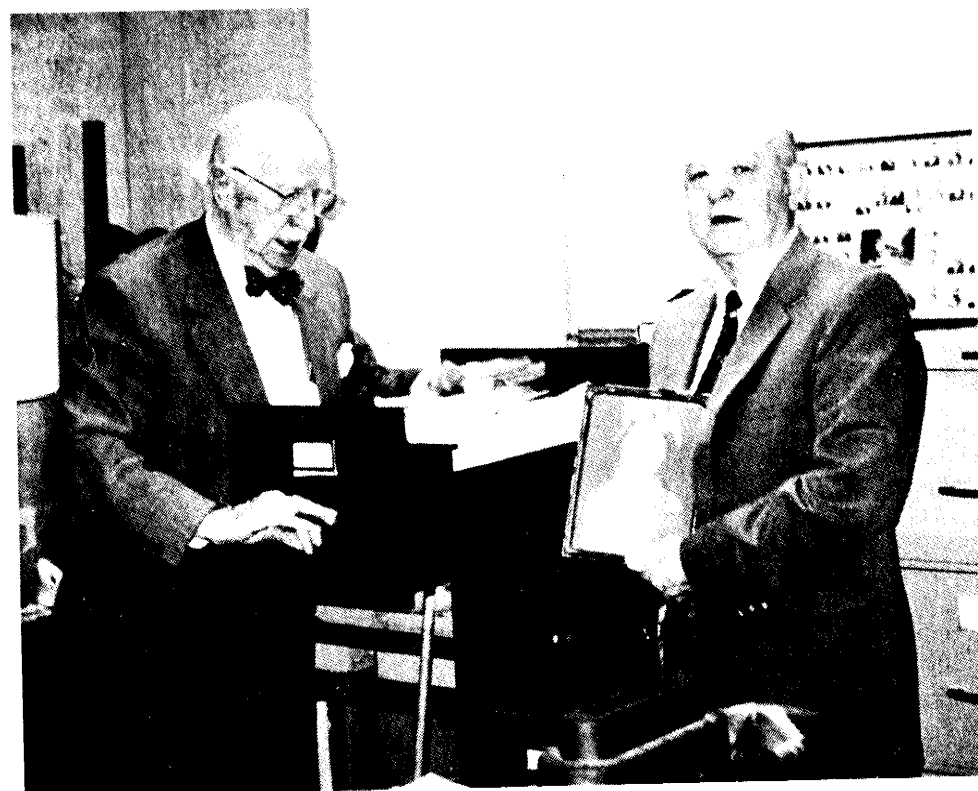

Gerald explained Ethel underwent routine cataract surgery, but there were problems with the care she received, resulting in an infection.

Ethel subsequently went into a coma. She laid there for 75 days and the doctor had given up all hope, he recalled. "Mother had her brought over here and laid her on the davenport."

For the next several weeks, Gladys nursed Ethel back to health. "Mother worked with her every day," Hicks said. "If it hadn't been for my mother, there wouldn't have been a will and there wouldn't be a scholarship fund."

"To me she's the unsung hero of this whole thing."
