Rouget said there are a few bright spots in the local agricultural picture. Aside from the weather, farmers are reporting unusually low corn moisture levels, enabling them to save on drying costs. However, Rouget noted, "Prices for corn and soybeans are just terrible. They're really the lowest they've been in a long time. "And that's what really hurts," he said, adding farmers have faced low yields in the past, but higher prices in previous years have enabled them to at least come close to making up the difference. This year, farmers are facing below average yields and low prices. "Combine those 2... and that's the killer."

In Huron County, Agricultural agent Angela Eichorn reported the dry bean harvest completed a week ago, with good yields and prices for navy and black beans.

New books at the library

No Safe Place by Richard North Patterson: In the year 2000 Senator Kerry Kilcannon's campaign against vice president Dick Mason is winding down with just 7 days left before the California primary election. Whoever wins this primary is likely to be the Democratic candidate for president. Mason is determined to stop Kerry from winning at any cost. The story dips into Kilcannon's past which includes the death of his brother while he was a presidential candidate, an abusive father and an affair with reporter Lara Costello while he was still married. These things blend together to create a climate that makes him wonder if the presidency is worth the terrible price he must pay to win.

Jade Island by Elizabeth Lowell: Kyle Donovan left his father's business empire and set up his own company, Donovan Gems and Minerals, to prove he could make it on his own. Lianne Blakely has spent years studying the art of ancient jade and works in the Tang family business in Hong Kong. When she is accused of stealing the valuable "Jade Emperor," Kyle becomes involved in helping the beautifu woman because he believes her story. Together they set out to find the real thief and clear Lianne's name.

An American Killing by Mary-Ann Tirone Smith: Denise Burke, best selling author of true-crime books, has a great life - 2 hip kids, a marriage which allows maximum freedom for both parties with a husband in the middle of Bill Clinton's inner circle in Washington and a congressman for a lover. When her lover asks her to check into an old murder in his district and just as suddenly tells her to drop the investigation, she digs in her heels and continues the probe. Then the congressman dies in suspicious circumstances and Denise's life is threatened. Someone doesn't want this old murder reinvestigated and now Denise is the target.

Rabbit Tracks

by John Haire

(And anyone else he can get to help.)

Michigan's 42 commercial trout operations sold 538,000 pounds of trout in the year ending Aug. 31 at an average price of $2.59 per pound, and total sales were $1.44 million. It's idle to speculate, I guess, if all the people who consumed these trout ever were fortunate to eat and compare these commercial fish to wild ones caught in streams.

Wild trout taste different and better. However, it's been a while since the non-commercial trout have been on my dinner plate. If you want to have fun catching them in the streams, consider joining the hordes of stream trout fishermen who catch and release wild trout to have a chance of catching them again.

Fishing for stream trout for meat on the table has to be a thing of the past if the sport is to flourish. Stick to salmon. They die anyway.

The Chronicle's first look at the new $20 bill came our way Monday. It was brought in by Aletha Fox of Cass City. An attempt was made to compare the new $20 with the new $50 and $100 bills.

That plan fizzled when none of the larger bills was available at the Chronicle for the comparison. But if memory serves they are similar in design to that of the new larger bills.

Rotary is taking over the "Christmas for Kids" (formerly the Toys for Tots) program and they have exceedingly big shoes to fill. For about a decade, Sue Werschky has directed the volunteer organization to see that area kids will have gifts

at Christmas.

The club learned last week that there is a lot more to the program than sorting a few toys and getting them to needy families. Werschky estimated that she spent about 6 hours a day for about a month ramrodding the program, starting immediately after Thanksgiving.

Over the years the program has helped from 50 to 500 kids at Christmas with toys ranging in value from $7 at the start to $40 last year.

The reason for the wide variation is that at the start, families were selected from the Social Services list and some 500 names were on the gift list.

Now the program is directed to families in the low income category who are not eligible for Social Services help. The kids who would have a very bleak Christmas because there are not enough dollars for gifts and food on the table.

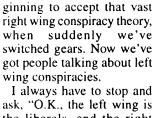

Part of the pre-gift distribution is identifying the families and sending them a postcard informing them that toys will be available.

A lot of time is spent bird dogging the various bazaars and the toy bargains available in local stores. We have received lots of cooperation in discounts from local stores, Werschky says.

Because of a conflict with the Marine Corps, which runs the "Toys for Tots" program, cash was not raised last year and only donated toys used. In the past, as much as $6,000 was raised with donations from business, industry, United Way and the Pinney Foundation.

With the change in name, it's sure that Rotary will be seeking financial help again this year. The club will inherit 9 big boxes of toys left over from the 1997 program. The reason is that toys were accepted right until Christmas time after the distribution was already made. It made a nice start for the next year, the former director ex-

I always have to stop and ask, "O.K., the left wing is the liberals, and the right wing is conservative, but which ones are the communists?"

The whole thing reminds me of a cattle rancher I used to see quite often. This fellow (we'll call him Albert) knew the left wingers from the right wingers better than anyone I've ever known.

If Albert were here today he would say, "Those liberals we send to Washington, D.C., wouldn't know a vast conspiracy if they saw one. This isn't half of that. This is more like a half-vast conspiracy."

I bumped into Albert many years ago when I stopped at the grocery to buy a newspaper. Our little town had a local paper, and we had 2 major dailies delivered from out of town. One of the daily papers was large and liberal, while the other was small and more conservative.

Albert noticed I was buying the liberal paper and nearly fainted. "How far left can you get?" he asked. "Oh?! I don't plan to read

"Oh?! I don't plan to read it. I just use it for starting fires," I told him.

I should confess I always buy the bigger newspaper. That's one of the paradoxes of my conservatism: I don't like the liberal paper, but I buy it because it weighs more. It seems like a better value.

Albert was more strict in his conservatism. He wasn't very fond of environmentalists, and someone who writes a newspaper column, as I do, might be termed a "syndicated communist."

He was a good-natured fellow, though, and nobody was ever offended. I should say nobody except the sheriff's deputies. They might have been offended once or twice.

Albert had a tenuous relationship with the sheriff's office. His cattle roamed over large tracts of timberland and they were constantly getting lost, shot, and/or butchered.

Then, he would call the sheriff's office, and they would send someone out to investigate. The sheriff's deputies did their best, but solving these cow mysteries was no easy task.

A deputy's inability to find the culprit would cause Albert to remark, "Those sheriff's deputies couldn't track an elephant with a nosebleed in 2 feet of snow." One night I was sitting with a group of ranchers around a meeting table, when Albert said, "Somebody butchered another one of my calves the

Sign ordinance ridiculous

Why is village hassling businesses?

Dear Residents of Cass City, ners on and around party

Many of the businesses in Cass City are "family owned business" that have been serving us for up to 75 years. They are what has kept Cass City alive.

Because of our businessmen and Civic Organizations our community is richer and has much to be thankful for. Without them we would not have a park, swimming pool, library, track, football field, diamonds, baseball scoreboards, or a walking trail. How many of us, or our children, have been sponsored by them for a team sport? I know of many things that business owners do for those who are down on their luck and need one kind of help or another. None of which is publicized. They do it because they genuinely care, not for the glory if would bring them. These are iust a few of the things we as a community need to Thank

With more and more of our businesses closing their doors and leaving empty buildings to line our streets. it seems to me that we need to rally behind and support those that remain! So why then, is our "Village Government" trying instead to hassle our businesses?

This ridiculous new Village Ordinance about the use of banners and portable signs. How else are our businesses supposed to advertise what they are all about, or what specials they are offering us? In fact McDonald's often uses their "portable sign" to thank us publicly for helping to support them. All Season Video lets us know when they receive New Releases that we have been waiting for. Our banks let us know when they are offering low interest loans. Our grocery stores let us know special sales they are having on our food. Schneeberger's let us know about special furniture sales. And who among us doesn't EXPECT to see ban-stores and gas stations??? It seems to me that as long as those banners are in good shape and not all tattered, they should be considered a selling tool. Who is going to reimburse these businesses that have invested their money into buying these portable signs? The village?? I hardly think so!!! I certainly DO NOT think either one of these advertising tools is an

Cass City look tacky! Our businesses were told to come in and talk to our Village Manager, to help get this worked out. What happened? They were basically told, you do it our way, or you'll get a ticket! A lot of good that did! Friday night 4 businesses were given tickets for having banners or portable signs!! I ask you does this make any eye sore or that they make

As far as the village utilizing the Police Dept. to hand out and enforce these citations, plus next year looking at staffing levels when they prepare their budget. Do they really think that our Police Dept. needs to be tied up enforcing something like this? How LUDICROUS!!! What kind of sense does this make to attack and hassle our business owners like criminals? They are not doing anything any differently than they have for years! What have they done so wrong? Try to inform us and help their business?? I thought the purpose of the Police Dept. was to protect and serve the people!!! Once again, who are these businesses hurting

I think our Police Dept. is trying to do the best that they can. If the Village wants to add more money for staffing, that would be wonderful! Maybe then they could protect our park, churches, walking trail, and our personal property from vandalism! Wouldn't that be wonderful?! One other concern I have is that I thought that in order for a Police Officer to issue a ticket he had to witness the violation. Not get a phone call from the Village Manager telling him to issue one, and giving the officer the wrong information at that!!!

I think that there are many more important issues that our Village Government ought to be concerned with. One of which is how to welcome new businesses into Cass City! For heaven sakes, DON'T hassle the few that are left into moving on and leaving their stores sit empty

Our businesses need our help and our support! Let's not let them down! Maybe next time we're in a business we could say "Thanks for all City be what it is today"!! Thank you for your time and you've done to help Cass thank my bosses for all that they and their family have done for both Cass City and comcern on this issue. I myself, and also that I am would also like to publicly very proud of them for the stand that they are taking on this!!!

Sincerely, Kim Hawley

Althaver: work with village

Dear Editor:

At a recent council meeting concerns about blighted conditions in our community were raised. We also had a discussion about our new sign ordinance - the ultimate purpose of which is to allow our merchants to advertise their goods and services in an uncluttered and aesthetically pleasing manner. Furthermore, we all read your editorial about vandalism on the walking trail and (years ago) in the village park.

I am reminded of the original survey done by the Village's planning consultants years ago preparatory to developing the first master plan and the first zoning ordinance. The consultants were amazed to find almost no blighted or deteriorated commercial or residential buildings in the community. Citizens of our Village have always taken great pride in munity!

All of these comments are a preamble to a plea on the part of village government for all citizens to work with your elected and appointed representatives to continue to make the Village of Cass City the shining example of fine small town living that it has always been. Come to our meetings (all are posted and most are advertised) and give us your input. Then when decisions are made by the majority, work with us to implement them. If some are too onerous to live with, then seek to change them through the democratic process.

On this last point a citizen expressed surprise in a council meeting last spring that the council had changed a certain amount that was to be charged for a service at the park from one meeting to the next. When asked why the amount was lowered, council replied that we had listened to community concerns that we felt were proper and had acted accordingly. Daytime Torch 'trotter of year'

Letter to Editor.

Having bred horses in Cass City for 15 years with my "franchise" stallion BLOW-TORCH, and being named "Breeder of the Year" four times, the enclosed letter was especially gratifying. This is the second year 1996-1997 in a row "Daytime Torch" was honored as Michigan's best. The first two-time winner of this award was also a son of Blowtorch, when "Egyptian Torch" won in 1985-1986.

Back then the owners, breeders, trainers of all the separate racing associations (Thoroughbred, Standardbred, Quarter and Arabian) were feted at a banquet in our State's capital.

It appears we are returning to that graceful era. It's a nice way to go out.

Sincerely,

Ed Fleming

Dear Mr. Fleming:

It is my pleasure to inform you that Daytime Torch has been selected by the Office of Racing Commissioner as the 1997 Michigan Standardbred Trotter of the Year.

Michigan-Bred Horse of the Year winners are selected in 4 categories each year, to honor horse racing excellence in Michigan. Selections are based on the horses' achievements in pari-mutual racing, including money earned and the level of competition. All winners are Michigan-bred horses which have performed with distinction, and have had a majority of their starts, or the majority of their money earned, at Michigan race tracks.

The winners' names will be added to the special trophies on permanent display at the Office of Racing Commissioner in Livonia. As the breeder of Daytime Torch, you will also be recognized

Price tag the bait in Michild program

Dear Editor,

state usually disguises their programs, particularly concerning our children, with nonthreatening words! Michild, the health care program that is being advertised excessively (like overkill) on radio and T.V. commercials, and is pronounced my child, is exactly what the word implies! If your child attends the local school which is run totally by government, the state already has complete control over what your child thinks, says and does! In other words complete power over his mind and soul! The body is up for grabs now, with an 800 toll free number to call and a mere $5 monthly! I cannot believe parents intentionally would be willing to turn over their God given responsibility of their children to the state regarding all medical decisions. This is Hillary's Health Care Program, rejected overwhelmingly by the citizens of this country, yet being slipped in the backdoor, through the STATE'S SCHOOL SYS-TEM! This reminds me of UNICEF'S slogan "EVERY CHILD IS OUR CHILD"! The VILLAGE (a partnership means equal rights and jurisdiction) will be in total charge!

The price tag is the bait!

Please consider the results!

Goal line stands lift Bulldogs over Vikings 14-6 Friday

Owen-Gage used a pair of goal line stands during the final minutes of Friday's homecoming tilt in Akron to spoil the Vikings' day.

Coach Joe Candela's Bulldogs improved to 2-1 in North Central Thumb League play with a thrilling 14-6 victory that wasn't decided until the game's final

"Our defense came up big," said Candela. "We used the bend, don't break, thing. I was very pleased with the Owen-Gage will need another big defensive effort this Friday when North Huron travels to Owendale for a significant NCTL meeting with the Bulldogs.

"North Huron will come in hungry. They've lost 3 in a row. A (Bulldog) win Friday could set up a league title game (for the Bulldogs) with Kingston," noted Candela, who will face the Cardinals next week.

Kingston will host Peck Friday in their weekly NCTL match-up. Both squads will enter the contest with perfect records in conference play.

At Akron, fans from both sides remained on the edge of their seats until the final whistle. Trailing 14-6, the Vikings marched to a first down on the Bulldog 12-yard line with under 2 minutes remaining on the clock.

That set up the Bulldog defense's first goal line effort. The Vikings went to the air 4 consecutive times but couldn't advance the ball.

Owen-Gage took over procession on downs and needed one first down to run out the clock as the hosts had used up their time-outs.

But this time the Viking defense answered the call and forced a Bulldog punt.

That gave the Vikings another chance to put the game into overtime. Mike Lawson blocked the Bulldog punt, enough for 2 scoring plays from inside the 15-yard line. The Bulldog secondary, however, snuffed 2 pass attempts and the guests came away victorious. The winners used a pair of one-yard runs from Joel Bolzman to grab a 14-0 margin at the intermission.

Bolzman was able to capitalize on a Viking fumble for the game's first score. Chad Mellendorf added his first of 2 point-after kicks, which gave the visitors a 7-0 lead heading into the 2nd period.

The Vikings mounted their best drive of the opening period following Bolzman's touchdown.

The Vikings drove to the Bulldog 2-yard line but came up empty as Bolzman broke through the middle of the Vikings' offensive line and recorded a quarterback sack that foiled the hosts' scoring opportunity.

Owen-Gage, however, failed to move the chains and was forced to punt from their own end zone. The Vikings returned the punt deep into Bulldog territory but 2 costly 15-yard penalties spoiled the Vikings' field position. The hosts wouldn't threaten again in the maiden half.

Bolzman, who rushed for 139 yards on 20 carries, extended the Bulldog lead on a 4th down run around the right end with just seconds left in the opening half. The touchdown was set up by a halfback pass from Bolzman to Joey Salcido that covered 40 yards.

Also contributing to the Owen-Gage rushing attack were Rick Salcido and Nathan Kain. Salcido collected 27 yards on 11 totes, while Kain added 25 yards

The Vikings narrowed the Bulldog advantage to 14-6 at the 8:43 mark of the 3rd stanza. Quarterback Kyle Brink accounted for the ers in the frame before the giving the Vikings time hosts' only score on a 24- break.

Neither team did much through the air. Bulldog quarterback Derek Howard didn't complete a pass in 5 attempts. Brink completed just 2 of 11 tosses that resulted in 23 yards.

Defensively, Owen-Gage held Viking running backs to a combined 77 yards on 25 carries.

Part of the credit for the Bulldog defense's success lies in senior Chad Mellendorf. Mellendorf compiled impressive numbers for the winners that included 12 tackles. Bolzman added 11 stops, while Joey Salcido chipped in with 3 Matt Erdody and Brent Dost solo tackles and 8 assists.

The Tigers regained their shooting eyes and used a 13-6 run to the intermission to gain a 19-13 lead at the break. Angela Noelke caught fire for the guests and totaled 10 of her team high 19 mark-

Big week on tap for

Starting this afternoon (Wednesday), the Cass City Red Hawk golf team enters the biggest week of the season, one in which the league championship will be decided and also the start of the state tournament trail Saturday with the regionals at Bird Creek in Port Austin.

The Hawks trail Bay City All Saints by a point and must finish first to win at least a share of the league title. When the teams played at Rolling Hills, the Hawks won-the stroke play, but lost the match play competition. Adding to the challenge is that the league meet is on the All Saints' home course this Cass City had little trouble staying on the heels of All Saints with a sweep over the visiting Mayville Wildcats last Wednesday. In stroke play, the Hawks won 163-173 and in match play, posted a 4 1/2 to 1 1/2 win. Dave Hobbs, with a 37, was medalist. Other Hawk scores were:

Ryan Downing, 42; Brent Goslin, 44, and Nick Chappel, 40.

For Mayville, 3 golfers, Jake Raleigh, Jamie Buhler and Joe Russell, posted 43s and Corey Bryant, 44.

In the match play, the first 3 matches were even while Chappel, Joel Brinkman and Matt Ender each won to enable the Hawks to win the match competition.

AT VASSAR

The Hawks finished fifth in a 20-team tourney at Vassar Friday. Hobbs and Downing carded 75 while Chappel and Goslin shot 80. Brinkman and Ender shot 95. Only the top 2 scores counted in the tourney.

The Hawks' 155 total trailed the winning Saginaw Nouvel Catholic team's total of 148 by 7 strokes. The next 3 top finishers ahead of the Hawks were: Bay City Garber, 151; Lakeville, 153, and Freeland, 155.

UNBEATEN USA posted a 31-0 shutout over Cass City Friday night, but the Red Hawk defense, including Nick King (45), Nick Anthony (54) and Bill Goodall (20), forced the Patriots to earn every yard.

Cass City offense missing at USA Friday in gridiron tilt

When a team loses by the score of 31-0, it's hard to believe that the defense played well, but that was the assessment of Coach Tom Oesch and many of the fans that attended last Friday's game between undefeated (5-0) USA Patriots and the Cass City Red Hawks (1-5).

It was a hard-fought game, especially in the first half, as the Patriots pounded their way for a touchdown in the first quarter, capped by a 3yard run into the end zone by Troy Vermeersch. Joe Hahn added the first of his 2 extra points runs and the Hawks trailed 8-0.

The Hawks made a valiant effort to get back in the game late in the second quarter. After Adam Dorland intercepted a USA pass, Cass City moved to the Patriot 4-yard line before being stopped by the half-time clock.

A pair of turnovers ruined whatever chance the Hawks had of upsetting the Greater Thumb West co-league leaders. The first came on a blocked punt by Curtis Vargo, giving the Patriots the ball on the Hawk 20. Kevin Vermeersch chalked up the score on a 17-yard run. A pass to Chuck Arnold added the extra points. A fumble by Cass City deep in their own territory set up the first of 2 last quarter touchdowns by the winners. Troy Vermeersch scored from a yard out.

The final tally was scored by Steve Gruehn from 2 yards out. Extra points were scored on both touchdowns, one on Hahn's run and the last on a kick by Kevin Vermeersch. Although the final score would have been much closer if the Hawk turnovers were eliminated, USA clearly deserved to win. The game was decided by the Patriots' power running. The winners picked up a hefty 304 yards in 55 running plays while the Hawks were held to 84 yards in 31 at-

Offensively the Hawks were led by Nick King with 71 yards in 17 carries. Dan Cuddie caught 2 passes for Defense was led by junior Grant Gould with 13 tackles; Bill Goodall, 12 tackles and a recovered fumble, and Dorland, 9 tackles and an interception.

The Hawks missed injured Bryce VanVliet and Ben Zimba. Zimba is out for the year following surgery and VanVliet is listed as doubtful for this Friday's game with Byron.

Oesch says that Byron is similar to Cass City this year with a 2-win, 3-loss record and is looking to get their team on track for the remainder of the season.

Hawks trounce Mayville 46-25,

remain on top of cage standings

The Cass City Red Hawks stayed on top of the Greater Thumb West league hoop race with a half game lead over Lakers and Bay City All Saints after easily disposing of Mayville, 46-25, on the Wildcats' home floor.

The win came after a close loss to Sandusky at home last Tuesday, 53-46.

It was the second loss in a row for the Hawks by a team from the east division of the Greater Thumb. Deckerville also holds a win over Cass Cass City will have a chance to even the score with the east teams. They were favored over Yale, scheduled Tuesday, Oct. 6, and Brown City next Tuesday.

There was little doubt about the outcome of the Mayville game. The Hawks jumped off to a 16-8 lead in the first quarter and Coach Jim Mastie was able to give his bench valuable playing time through much of the second and final quarters.

The Hawks used balanced scoring to charge to the first quarter lead. Becky Dore contributed a 3-pointer and Nicolette Zawilinski added a 3 and a 2. Kara Mellendorf added 5 points and Shelly Ulfig, a basket and a free

With Ulfig leading the way with 11 of the Hawks' 13 points in the third period while the Wildcats were able to net only a basket and a charity toss, Cass City ran the lead to 39-18.

From there the Cass City reserves played almost exclusively and both teams scored 7 points.

Flu vaccine clinics set

The Greater Thumb Community Health Department, Sanilac Office Flu Vaccine Clinics will be held at various locations and times in October and November.

The clinics include one slated for Wednesday, Oct. 21, from 1 to 3 p.m. at St. Joseph's Catholic Hall, 4960 N. Ubly Rd., Argyle.

Flu vaccines cost $10 per dose and are available to anyone, although a doctor's order is needed for children ages 8 years and younger.

Pneumonia vaccines cost $20 per dose and are also available to anyone, but strongly recommended for those over the age of 65 years and for those who are at risk for contracting pneumonia. Persons who are 18 years old and younger, and pregnant and breast-feeding women need a doctor's order.

Vaccines for Td (Tetanus and Diphtheria) are $5 per dose and are available to anyone not immunized or those needing 10-year boosters.

Medicare and Medicaid will cover the costs for flu and pneumonia vaccines.

It was a well-played game with the winners edging out in front in the middle 2 quarters and then protecting a narrow lead for the win.

Both teams used balanced scoring to end the first quarter knotted at 12-all. Four players shared the scoring load for the visitors with Marie Hazzard chalking up 5 points on a 3 and a 2-point hoop. Ulfig, on her way to a game high 18 points, netted 6 for Cass City.

The Redskins edged in front by half time by 2 points. The Hawks stayed in the game as Becky Dore cashed 2 of her 3 treys for the night in the quarter to account for half of the Hawks' points in the period.

The winners outscored Cass City 15-9 in the third period with balanced scoring led by Julie Guttowsky's 6 points. Ulfig continued to help the Hawks' cause with 5 points in the third and an equal output in the last quarter, but it wasn't enough to turn the Cuddie said members of the Calvary congregation have demonstrated real leadership and a willingness to work together to get things done.

"It's a great group to work with," he added, noting the church is looking forward to growing and reaching out to others in the community.

"We're looking to minister to people who don't have a church," he said. "We certainly want to be a part of the community. We have some good programs."

Cuddie invites the community to attend a special dedication service Sunday. Oct. 25, at 4 p.m. A luncheon will follow.

Regular church services will be held on Sundays, with Sunday school at 9:45 a.m., morning worship at 11 a.m. and an evening service at 6 p.m. Wednesday services are also planned, from 7 to 8

John Knoerr, president of Thumb Oilseed Producers' Cooperative, stated, "Bruce has a lot of managerial experience in the feed and food industry, and should be a real asset to the TOPC membership as we move forward with our new cooperative."

Until the processing facility is built, Knudson will be working out of the MSU Extension-Project Office in Bad Axe. Groundbreaking on the new facility is expected within the next few weeks. The board intends to start full operations in Mid-1999.

No damage in blazes

Elkland Township fire fighters responded to a pair of blazes over the weekend. An 11:30 p.m. alarm Saturday sent firemen to the David H. Johnson residence, 5757 E. Deckerville Rd., Deford, where several tires had been set on fire in field.

Fire Chief Ron Pawloski said fire fighters extinguished the illegal blaze and cleared the scene after about 30 minutes.

The Cass City department responded to a small shed fire Sunday at 2:12 p.m.

Pawloski reported the shed, located at the Marie Glasco residence, 5159 Pringle Rd., Decker, was old and had apparently been blown down. The cause of the fire remains under investigation.

Fire fighters, who were assisted by the Argyle Fire Department, remained at the scene for about an hour.

Hogs need salt

Hog producers who wean early and want healthier, faster-growing and more consistently sized pigs should be saying, "pass the salt." Sodium chloride, commonly known as table salt, helps break down protein and prevent the growth of harmful bacteria in the stomachs of newly weaned pigs. The chloride helps digest food proteins and keep stomach acid levels high.

Sweet potatoes were unknown in Europe until Columbus found them in the West Indies and took them back with him. They have turned into one of the world's cheapest food crops.

County eyes courthouse project

unchallenged during Monday's press conference. Caro resident Janine Ewald suggested the county could pursue less expensive alternatives to solve the space and security problems.

She also expressed concern over the possible loss of the existing courthouse's historical designation, despite assurances from officials that that won't happen.

Ewald asked why the county isn't looking at existing, vacant buildings, including one across the street from the courthouse in Caro.

County board Chairman Ken Hess responded, saying the building cited by Ewald totals 12,000 square feet, and the county needs 32,000 square feet. "That would be one-third of a solution," he

Hess added that money spent on any existing building would do nothing to make the existing courthouse barrier-free, and there would be additional cost in terms of providing adequate security at a separate location(s).

The county's thought was to create a facility where all departments would be under one roof and protected by one security system, resulting in a more efficient and safer county operation, according to Hess, who said threats and incidents of assault have and do occur in the courthouse.

Asked why adequate security measures are not in place now, Hess said the design of the existing courthouse makes it virtually impossible to implement an effective security system.

BARRIER FREE

The same is true for providing barrier-free access, Hoagland said. He noted it will cost roughly $1.7 million to make the courthouse barrier-free by building the new addition. Trying to make the existing courthouse barrier-free, he said, would cost a great deal more.

Officials noted the county has leased and purchased additional property in the Caro area and relocated departments out of the courthouse to these off-site locations. Examples are MSU Extension and the friend of the court office on Green overcrowding and a lack of

Border Patrol Training

Palmateer completes course

Cass City native James A. Palmateer graduated from the Border Patrol Training Academy in Charleston, S.C., after completing a 20week course that included Spanish, immigration law, firearms, tactics and roughterrain driving. Palmateer, 31, has been assigned to the McAllen, Texas, Border Patrol sector. A 1985 graduate of Cass City High School, Palmateer is the son of Carl and Joyce Palmateer of Cass City. He earned a bachelor's degree in

in 1994. The U.S. Border Patrol is a criminal justice from Ferris

State University, Big Rapids,

branch of the U.S. Immigration and Naturalization Service. Border patrol agents apprehend illegal aliens and interdict narcotics entering the United States. The patrol has jurisdiction throughout the country but operates primarily along the U.S. borders between ports of entry with Canada and Mexico.

Snack foods

Easy, quick snack foods are becoming a major part of our diet. According to data from Information Resources Inc. in Chicago, sales of frozen appetizers and snacks jumped 10.6 percent to $373 million for 1997, while sales of hand-held foods such as sandwiches increased 2.7 percent to $754 million in the same period.

Sheckles is one of more than 5,000 sailors and marines aboard the ship, which departed its home port of NO HUNTING SIGNS Everett, Wash., to lead the USS Abraham Lincoln Battle 5 for $1.00 > ants and 2 submarines. During the deployment, Sheckles and crew members have had the opportunity to visit Hong Kong, Singapore and the United Arab Emir-

Group. The battle group is comprised of 10 tactical air squadrons, 5 surface combat-

aboard the aircraft carrier

USS Abraham Lincoln.

While in Hong Kong, sailors and marines from Sheckles' ship participated in Project Handelasp, providing humanitarian aid to a disaster relief organization, a school for the mentally handicapped and an international Christian school. In addition to providing food, hygienic items, toys, books and paper to the recipients, members of Sheckles' ship cleaned, repaired and painted buildings.
