An idea that began months ago is quickly spreading across the United States, and Thumb area farmers are playing a key role.

On May 3, 2 identical Ford F-150 XLT pickup trucks, one using commercial oil and the other using a biodegradable crankcase oil, left from Los Angeles, making stops in states across the country in what is being called the InterSTATE 2000 Performance Challenge. The trip is scheduled to end May 21 with the trucks' arrival in Washington, D.C.

The trucks stopped at 3 Thumb locations Saturday for brief programs; at the Tuscola County Courthouse in Caro, the county building in Sanilac County, and just north of Ubly at the Thumb Oilseed Producers' Cooperative facility.

The cooperative was formed about a year ago by 185 Saginaw Valley and Thumb Area soybean producers. Since last June, the Cooperative hired a general manager, designed a processing facility and signed an agreement with an established feed company to market the high-energy soybean meal. They also entered into an agreement to license technology to manufacture industrial oil products.

Campaign targets child safety

Cops: buckle up or pay up

The Tuscola County law enforcement community has a message for parents who don't ensure their children are in compliance with Michigan scat belt laws: buckle up or pay up.

"Tuscola County police agencies all agree it's time for zero tolerance for drivers with unbuckled children," said First Lt. Doug Lautner, commander of the Michigan State Police post in Caro.

Lautner along with Tuscola County Sheriff Tom Kern and local police chiefs gathered at the Tuscola Technology Center in Caro last Wednesday to kick off a mobilization of forces to save children's lives through Operation ABC (America Buckles Up Children).

"Traffic crashes are the leading cause of death for American children of all up. We should be using evraces," Lautner said. "It has been the law in that children must be buckled up. But because adults are breaking the law, children are being crippled and killed in car crashes every day.

"It is a fact that 6 out of 10 children who die in traffic crashes are not buckled up at all," Lautner added. "Of those, it is estimated that onehalf would be alive today if they had just been buckled announcements and events planned to help caring individuals become aware of the need to safeguard children," Lautner said.

Among the planned activities is an event slated for May 26 from 2 to 6 p.m. in the parking lot at Wal-Mart in

"Police officers from Tuscola County agencies will be on hand to answer questions about buckling up children and to assist people with proper installation of child safety seats in their vehicles," Lautner explained. Beginning Monday, May 24, he continued, the strict wave of the program will begin. "Drivers who do not obey the Michigan child passenger safety law will be stopped and enforcement action will be taken.

"Our officers will also be stepping up enforcement of adult seat belt laws because it's a proven fact that most adults who don't buckle up themselves, don't buckle up kids," Lautner said. "Recent studies have found that a buckled up driver is 3 times more likely to buckle up a

"Nothing can be more devastating to a police officer than breaking the news to parents that their child has been killed or critically injured. In the past we have found that strict enforcement of traffic laws gets out the message of traffic safety. We must declare zero tolerance on this violation to save children and spare families a lifetime of pain and regret."

Forum will take teen into real-life 'ER'

By Jolene Schultz Staff Writer

For 2 weeks in July, Lindsey Mills will be the shadow of a doctor.

In a hospital more than a thousand miles away, this 17year-old will watch open heart surgery, experience the 24-hour work shift, and learn what it takes to help others. It may seem like an episode from the television drama ER, but for Mills, it's real ---

The forum on medicine, a non-profit, educational organization, selects high school juniors and seniors after nomination by a teacher. Participants must also have a grade point average of "B+".

"I'm looking forward to seeing surgeries and just getting a feel of being in a really big hospital," Mills said. She selected the Houston-

Galveston hospital in Texas from 6 choices because the facility specializes in heart surgeries. Her interest in medicine stems from a tragic event that occurred when Mills was 5 years old. Her brother, Acron Mills, 3, passed away during open heart surgery.

"He was born with heart problems." Mills recalled. "He spent quite a few hours in surgery.

Mills' father, Scott, now runs a support group for parents who have lost children.

The forum in Texas isn't the only medical experience Mills can add to her list of credentials. While a freshman in high school, her father invited a doctor to his home so Mills could have the unique opportunity to learn about the medical field.

"I asked him questions about school requirements and about physical therapy,"

A year later she had the chance to shadow a physical therapist. She is now considering a career in physical athletic trainer for Cass City High School, where she helps the sports teams. "I enjoy working with people and making them feel better," Mills said. Pointing to her heel, Mills added, "I had injuries myself so I see what they can do." Mills Please turn to back page.

A Huron County woman was injured in a one-vehicle roll-over accident about 4 miles northeast of Cass City last Wednesday morning.

According to Sanilac County Sheriff's deputies, Kimberly A. Bucholtz, 31, of Harbor Beach, was driving west on Bay City-Forestville Road, just west of M-53, when her vehicle crossed the road centerline and entered a ditch, hitting 2 trees, rolling over and coming to rest in a field.

Deputies, who noted there were no skid marks, said it isn't certain what caused the driver to lose control.

This "Bill of No Rights", which was passed along to us, has been attributed to State Representative Mitchell Kaye from Georgia. If a politician actually wrote it, perhaps all is not lost.

We, the sensible people of the United States, in an attempt to help everyone get along, restore some semblance of justice, avoid any more riots, keep our nation safe, promote positive behavior, and secure the blessings of debt free liberty to ourselves and our great-greatgreat-grandchildren, hereby try one more time to ordain and establish some common sense guidelines for the terminally whiny, guilt-ridden, delusional, and other liberal bed wetters. We hold these truths to be self-evident: that a whole lot of people are confused by the Bill of Rights and are so dim that they require a Bill of No Rights:

ARTICLE I: You do not have the right to a new car, big screen TV or any other form of wealth. More power to you if you can legally acquire them, but no one is guaranteeing anything.

ARTICLE II: You do not have the right to never be offended. This country is based on freedom, and that means freedom for everyone - not just you! You may leave the room, turn the channel, express a different opinion, etc., but the world is full of idiots, and probably always ARTICLE III: You do not have the right to be free from harm. If you stick a screwdriver in your eye, learn to be more careful. Do not expect the tool manufacturer to make you and all your relatives independently wealthy.

ARTICLE IV: You do not have the right to free food and housing. Americans are

ARTICLE VII: You do not have the right to the possessions of others. If you rob, cheat or coerce away the goods or services of other citizens, don't be surprised if the rest of us get together and lock you away in a place where you still won't have the right to a big screen color TV or a life of leisure. ARTICLE VIII: You don't have the right to demand that our children risk their lives in foreign wars to soothe your aching conscience. We hate oppressive governments and won't lift a finger to stop you from going to fight if you'd like. However, we do not enjoy parenting the entire world and do not want to spend so much of our time battling each and every little tyrant with a military uni-you to make yourself useful. ARTICLE X: You do not have the right to happiness. Being an American means that you have the right to pursue happiness — which by the way, is a lot easier if you are unencumbered by an over abundance of idiotic laws created by those of you who were confused by the Bill of Rights.

If you agree, we strongly urge you to forward this to as many people as you can. No, you don't have to, and nothing tragic will befall you should you not forward it. We just think it is about time common sense is allowed to flourish. Call it the age of reason revisited.

There will be zero tolerance for drivers with unbuckled children. The campaign includes high-visibility enforcement of restraint laws. Stepped-up enforcement activities (Translation: you'll get a ticket, for sure) are set and there will be vehicle check-up clinics established in the 3 counties.

It's interesting to note that this year police are unable to stop a driver simply because he isn't wearing a seat belt. They can if a child is observed not properly safetyrestrained.

The odds are great that next year at this time, not wearing seat belts will be a primary code violation that can be used to stop and ticket

The change in the law was approved in the house last week and is expected to go through the senate easily. Gov. John Engler has indicated he will approve it. It would go into effect in April

The new law isn't being adopted without protest. The American Civil Liberties Union is protesting because they say that the law unnecessarily expands police power and is unfair to minorities. It gives police another reason for stopping a car for "driving while black."

The answer, according to Dr. John B. Waller, an African-American, is that the racist officers, not a well-intentioned law, should be criticized and rooted out.

There is also a vocal minority that just doesn't want to buckle up and feels that the law is a violation of their individual liberties.

But the growing majority now accepts seat belt use as a sensible safety precaution.

The back forty

by Roger Pond o 1999 Roger Pond

Here's a sad story for you. A report from the Associated Press says 2 New Zealand farm dogs were disinherited by a judge of the High Court.

The dogs' owner died in 1996 and willed his pooches $530,000 from his estate of $2.5 million. The remainder of the estate went to the gentleman's third wife and 2 sons of his friends.

The 3 humans took the dogs to court, and now 3 years later judge Sylvia Cartwright has ruled the will was totally unjustified "even for the most aristocratically raised dogs." Plaintiffs argued dogs have no appreciation for money and would probably waste it on bones or chew

Some folks might agree with judge Cartwright and the plaintiffs, but I tend to side with the dogs. There's plenty of case law showing dogs have just as much respect for money as third wives do.

Besides, the dogs were only anticipating 20 percent of the purse. The humans should have been happy the deceased left them the lion's share — instead of the dog's share.

I'm shocked the judge took so long to issue a ruling. Humans are used to waiting 2 or 3 years for a court decree but imagine what that's like for a dog. That's 21 years to a dog!

Contrast this with a recent story from Eugene, Oregon. There a man stole a cat and wound up in jail on first-degree theft charges. Bail was set for $30,000.

Police reports say the suspect in this case was looking for his ex-girlfriend, but the girlfriend's roommate wouldn't tell him where she was. A short time later the roommate got a call from the suspect saying he had taken her cat, Buddy, and wouldn't give the cat back until she told him where his ex-girlfriend was Cops were called and found the cat in the suspect's Firebird. I don't know how the whole thing played out on the police scanner, but I'm glad they got it done without anybody calling 911.

On the surface this looks like a cut-and-dried case of catnapping, but it's more complicated than that. The suspect claims the cat, Buddy, was part his - because his ex-girlfriend had given the cat to its present owner. This implies the exgirlfriend was part his, too; and that's going to be a tough

Readers might be asking, What does 3 dogs losing their inheritance have to do with someone stealing a cat?" I've been wondering the same thing, but there must be a common thread. These are both sad stories for one thing. Sometimes one sad story isn't enough, so we have to use 2.

Also, these stories contrast the way dogs are treated as opposed to cats. In the first case a judge named "Sylvia" (Obviously a cat person) deprives 2 farm dogs of their inheritance and tosses them out in the cold.

In the second case a guy kidnaps a cat, and winds up in jail on $30,000 bail. They can't tell me the cat people aren't behind this in some

Tiffin receives prison sentence

A Mayville man convicted by a jury last March of third degree criminal sexual conduct was sentenced Friday to 3 to 15 years in prison. The defendant, Earl W. Tiffin III, 23, was remanded to the custody of the sheriff's department following his sentencing in Tuscola County Circuit Court.

The charge stems from an incident in November/December 1997 in Mayville involving a victim at least 13 years of age but under 16 years, according to court records.

Tiffin's brother and parents also face court dates in the county on various charges.

Dennis C. Tiffin, 19, faces 31 counts of third degree criminal sexual conduct allegedly involving victims at least 13 years of age but under 16 years between 1994 and May 1998 in the Fremont Township and Mayville areas. He is also charged with 5 counts of sodomy, delivery of marijuana to a minor, selling/furnishing al-

The Tiffin brothers' parents Earl W. Tiffin Jr., 49, and Sandra M. Tiffin, 47, who operate a funeral home in Mayville, have each been charged with obstruction of justice. Prosecutors alleged the couple contacted or otherwise tampered with witnesses in their sons' cases. Earl Tiffin Jr. faces trial July 6, while Sandra Tiffin is scheduled to be tried Aug.

In other circuit court pro ceedings last week:

•John L. Woolworth, 38, Vassar, was sentenced to 60 months probation and 365 days in the county jail, with work release, for his pleas of guilty to operating a motor vehicle while under the influence of liquor, third offense, and possession of marijuana Feb. 6 in Tuscola Township.

Woolworth was ordered to pay $1,210 in court costs and fines plus $85 in restitution.

•James T. Proulx, 32, Swartz Creek, pleaded guilty to operating a motor vehicle while under the influence of liquor, third offense, April 3 in Arbela Township.

A pre-sentence investigation was ordered, bond was continued and sentencing was scheduled for July 9.

Bulldogs take green division title Saturday

Coach Barb Adams' Owen-Gage softball team went a long way Saturday in redeeming an average season

The Bulldogs (11-12) won the green division trophy at the Viking Invitational tourney with wins over Akron and Elkton-Pigeon-Bay Port, before bowing in the tournament finals to champion Ubly by the score of 15-3.

Adams had to be pleased with her team's showing on the day, recording a pair of quality wins en route to the green division trophy.

The Bulldogs rallied from a 3-0 deficit in the tourney opener with host Akron, sending home 9 runners in the 5th frame, which resulted in a 10-7 win.

Andrea Ziehm racked up the win on the mound for Owen-Gage, going the distance and fanning 3. Ziehm surrendered 6 hits and Viking hurler Andrea Adams was tagged with the loss. Adams fanned 9 and walked 2.

Sophomore Erin Salcido tripled home 3 runs during the Bulldog 5th inning rally, while teammates Kelly Tomich and Kristie Radabaugh added RBI safe-

Leading 9-5, Dee Fritz gave the Bulldogs an extra run in the 6th inning when she tripled and then stole home for the winners' final tally.

"We started out slow but in the 5th inning they came alive and played ball like I know the girls can play," said Adams.

The tournament victory, because of scheduling prob-- lems, will also count as 2 , NCTL wins for the Bulldogs.

In Owen-Gage's other green division match-up, the Bulldogs whipped Greater Thumb Conference foe Lakers, 11-3, to advance into the championship game with

NCTL GAMES

The Bulldogs could do no better than split NCTL games at Caseville Thursday, which followed a league split with visiting Carsonville-Port Sanilac Monday.

Near the bay, the hosts earned a 6-4 win in the opener, but were mercied in the nightcap, 16-6.

Eagle hurler Katie Quinn and Bulldog ace Andrea Ziehm were the pitchers of record in each game.

Quinn held the Bulldogs to just 3 hits in game one, 2 by Bulldog Melanie Lemanski and a solo knock by Melissa Ziehm.

Game 2 saw Owen-Gage explode for 6 runs in the game's final inning.

Owen-Gage's 12 hit assault had Fritz and Radabaugh with 3 knocks each. Tomich homered for the winners.

Monday, Owen-Gage captured the initial game, 11-3, against the Blue Stars, but fell short in the slugfest nightcap, 18-13.

Andrea Ziehm issued 7 hits, walked one and fanned 5 to earn the win on the rubber for the hosts.

At the plate, Tomich paced the winners with 4 hits. In game 2, Owen-Gage's 15 hit attack wasn't enough to turn back the Blue Stars.

Fritz had 4 hits and 3 RBIs to lead the Bulldog offense

Hawk softball team completes busy week

The Cass City Red Hawks waded through the busiest stretch of the softball season last week as the team played 8 games in just 6 days, winning 3 and losing 5.

The good news was that all of the losses were in nonleague play as the only Greater Thumb West games were against Mayville, where Cass City swept the doubleheader.

Saturday the Hawks played in a double elimination tournament at Akron-Fairgrove, losing 1-0 to Ubly and 6-5 to Arenac Eastern.

As she has many times this season. Becky Dore lost despite pitching a strong 3-hitter. The Hawks could do nothing against Peruski, who faced just 21 batters in the 6inning game. The winning run came in the fourth when Kubacki led off with a triple and later scored.

The nightcap was close all the way. Tied at 4 all going into the final inning, Cass City scored a run, but Akron-Fairgrove countered with a pair to take the decision.

Ulfig was the loser, allowing 9 hits and walking 3. Hacker. Wentworth and Nicolette Zawilinski each had 2 hits for Cass City. Machalis and Ulrich had 2 hits each for A-E.

SANDUSKY GAME

The tournament losses ended the grueling stretch of games on a sad note, the same way the stretch of games started, with a doubleheader loss.

The Sandusky Redskins won the first game, 10-1, behind the 3-hit pitching of Meyers. Becky Dore was touched for 10 hits and took

The Redskins continued hummering the ball in the nighteup with 9 hits on their way to a 10-3 decision. Shelly Ulfig took the loss and Bradley picked up the win. Katie Hacker had 2 hits for Cass City while Bulgrien and Meyer each had 2 hits in 4 trips for the winners.

PRESCOTT

The Hawk bats were silent for most of the afternoon against Whittemore-Prescott but some fine pitching by Ulfig enabled Cass City to emerge with a split of the double bill. The Hawks won the opener 2-1 as Ulfig tossed a 3-hitter. Harrison was charged with the loss.

The teams each scored in the first inning as Hacker opened with a single and came around on Ulfig's single with 2 out.

The Hawks' winning run came in the fourth on a game-deciding home run by Kayla Wentworth.

W-P took the nightcap behind Noffsinger, who scattered 4 hits for a 4-1 decision. Dore allowed just 5 hits but was victimized by the feeble Hawk attack.

The Hawks' lone tally came in the fifth as Hacker, who had 2 of Cass City's 4 hits, singled and later scored on as error. Elkins had 2 hits for

MAYVILLE GAMES

The Hawks broke open a scoreless tie in the fourth with 4 runs, scored another in the 5th and then added the final 3 runs in the last inning. Six Hawks each collected one hit, with Lindsay Gaszczynski's hit driving in a pair of runs. Good pitching and sound defense keyed the Hawks' sweep of the doubleheader with Mayville. Ulfig pitched a 2-hitter, striking out 13, as Cass City notched a 4-1 de-

Red Hawk varsity basketball coach Jeff Hartel has stepped down as head of the Cass City program.

Hartel submitted his resignation last week after 8 years at the helm, where he compiled a 116-64 record. Hartel's accomplishments include 2 league titles, 2 district championships and one regional crown. Hartel's 1994 squad tied the school record for wins in a season at 23.

"I feel it's the right time to

Dollar and More store now open

> By Jolene Schultz Staff Writer

J&J's Dollar and More, 6545 Main St., opened its doors April 9.

Owned by Veronica Fenningsdorf, this 3,000 square-foot business carries mainly dollar items ranging from books to mylar balloons. Other items include food, toys, household supplies and baby items, among many others.

This family-operated business celebrated its grand opening April 16-17. During the grand opening, cake, coffee and punch were available at no charge and balloons were given away.

"I opened here so I could be closer to my kids at school," Fenningsdorf said, "and to help the community."

Fenningsdorf said the community was in need of a dollar store.

Fenningsdorf, a member of the Chamber of Commerce, said that after school, her children, Justin, 13, and Jerica, 10, help out at the store. Her husband, Jerry, assists on the weekends and her parents, Joyce and Eugene Fisher, also help operate the store.

The Roth IRA: Is it right for you?

The new-for-'98 Roth IRA might just be a good match for you. It's different because it offers special tax advantages. And there's an incredible window of opportunity if you're considering rolling over your Traditional IRA to a Roth IRA in 1998. That's because of a special tax rule that lets you spread out any tax payments over four years-but only if the conversion takes place within the 1998 window. It's a benefit you won't want to miss!
