Sanilac County Sheriff's deputies are seeking arrest warrants for a pair of Ubly area residents for allegedly dumping dozens of tires in roadside ditches.

The suspects' names were not released pending their arraignment in Sanilac County District Court.

Investigators said citizens' tips and assistance from the Huron County Sheriff's Department and Ubly Police Department led police to the suspects Thursday.

The investigation began 3 days earlier when Sanilac deputies received a complaint that someone had dumped a large number of tires in several locations along road ditches in Wheatland, Minden and Delaware townships.

Witnesses reported they saw an early 1980s Ford pickup truck, powder blue in color with a white stripe, pulling a utility trailer loaded with tires, and that the pickup was

Council okays curb assessment

Cass City officials Monday paved the way for completion of improvements to Scotty McCullough Drive this summer.

The village Council, during a brief monthly meeting, approved a special assessment district for curb and gutter construction, which is slated to get underway this week.

Paving of the street is scheduled to be completed in July.

The assessment district, approved following a brief public hearing, enables the village to spread the cost of the curb and gutter among affected property owners, which include the Thumb Dialysis Center ($1,300.64), Charles Nemeth ($1,661.72) and Robert Bliss ($1,661.72).

The assessment is based on an estimated cost, including a portion of engineering costs, of $11.19 per foot for Nemeth and Bliss, and $14.78 per foot for the dialysis center.

Property owners will have up to 5 years to pay their share at an interest rate of 5 percent per year, although no interest will be charged if full payment is made within 90 days of the assessment.

In other business, the council approved the village's 1999 millage rates, which remain the same as in 1998 at: 12.4625 mills for general operations, 3.5 mills for streets and 2.5 mills for debt retirement.

The levy, applied to this year's combined taxable property value of $51,239,886, is expected to generate $989,921.53. Compared to the 1999 village budget, tax revenue should exceed budgeted expenses by $855.53.

Committee to iron out new school bus policy

A group of interested parents in the Cass City School District attended the regular meeting of the Cass City School Board Monday to air concerns about rules for riding school busses and the presentation of violent films to students in classes.

It was the second month in a row that the board was quizzed on proposed riding regulations presented by bus director Bob Kozan. Discussion between the board and the spectators cleared the air and defined the issues, but no solutions have yet emerged.

A committee was formed to iron out bus riding policy. What the committee faces is developing a policy that will accommodate students who need to change buses for a day or more at the request of parents and yet not overload the bus.

Rules also need to be established, superintendent Ken Micklash said, to define what may be carried on buses.

To come to grips with these issues a committee was formed. It includes 3 board members, Dave Knight, Jim Turner and Randy Severance. Kris Milligan from the teaching staff and Karen Nicol will also serve. It is expected that the group will report a plan at the next board meeting in June.

Ray and Bonnie Ferris showed portions of a film depicting Romeo and Juliet in today's society where the characters use guns instead of swords. The film was shown in a literature class and notes were sent to parents to give them an opportunity to have their children excused from seeing the film.

After viewing the film the Ferrises had their daughter excused. While the film was shown she was required to read the play and then answer questions about it.

The parents felt that making the student do busy work was not appropriate unless everyone who saw the film also had written tests about it. Better to have her doing her home work, Bonnie Ferris told the board.

After the excerpts from the film were shown to the board, there was discussion of whether violent films should be shown in classes, considering the school environment today.

The suggestion of the teaching staff is that following board policy the parents should talk with the teacher involved, then the administration and finally the school board.

Micklash said that he would review the procedure the school followed in the past and present suggestions at the next board meeting.

STAFF CHANGES

The board approved the hiring of 2 new teachers and accepted the resignation of 2 members of the staff.

Hired was Penelope Walworth, a Central Michigan University graduate, to teach middle school instrumental music.

She was to assist director Jason Smigell, but Smigell resigned (see story) and will need to be replaced.

Hired for an 8th grade social studies teaching position was Ryan Walker of Kingston. He was well known to the staff as he practiced teaching at the school.

A review of the payment made to debate coaches revealed that Chad Daniels was underpaid compared to coaches in other area schools. His previous salary was $690 a year it was raised to 9.5 percent of his wages which this year amounts to $2,800. The new salary is in line with payments made in neighboring districts, Micklash said.

In addition an assistant coach, if needed, will be paid 3 percent of salary, the board decided.

Valley Lutheran conference member

Valley Lutheran Seminary of Saginaw is now a member of the Greater Thumb Conference following a vote by the schools in the conference.

It is expected that the newest member of the conference will be a member of the Greater Thumb West division which would bring its membership to 8 teams, the same as there are in the GTE division.

To be accepted a school must receive approval of at least two-thirds of the member schools. Valley Lutheran received 11 of the 14 votes available.

Cass City was one of the schools that voted with the minority, declining to approve the application at a previous board meeting.

The addition of the school will make scheduling easier, athletic director Russ Biefer feels.

Memorial Day rites set

Ride or walk, all Thumb area veterans are encouraged to participate in this year's Cass City Memorial Day parade.

With Memorial Day programs already in the planning, Dale McIntosh, parade coordinator, and Jack Esau, in his 40th year as Master of Ceremony, said they would like to see more veterans in the parade.

"Last year, there weren't as many veterans in the parade," said McIntosh.

Esau said that whether V.F.W. members or not, all veterans of all ages are encouraged to join the fun.

The Memorial Day parade will begin at 10:00 a.m. The parade will line up at 9:30 a.m. in the Chemical Bank parking lot, Esau said.

Cass City Fire Department and Ambulance Service will lead the Memorial Day parade. Also appearing in the parade will be the V.F.W. participants, boys and girls little league, boy scouts, cub scouts, soccer club, Cass City marching band, Junior Wranglers and the tee-ball group.

"We would also like to have a few classic or antique cars and antique tractors in the parade," McIntosh said. For those interested in entering the parade, contact McIntosh at 872-4264 or 872-4311. Everyone is welcome. Deadline for registration is Friday, May 28.

A ceremony will follow the parade at 10:30 a.m. at the Elkland Township Cemetery. The V.F.W. will conduct the Memorial Day honors, including a firing squad, a bugler playing taps and placing a wreath on the memorial of the unknown soldier. Last role call honors for departed V.F.W. members will also be part of the ceremony. A ship's bell will be tolled for the members of the V.F.W. that passed away last year.

The Memorial Day address will be given by Rev. Brain Cuddie from Calvary Bible Fellowship. Esau added that in the past 40 years, the Memorial Day programs have never been rained out. "We've been rained on, but not rained out."

Weather permitting, the V.F.W. will also put up a memorial flag display. Divided between the Elkland Township Cemetery, downtown Gagetown and Novesta Township Cemetery, the flags will number 214.

Setup begins Memorial day at 7:00 a.m. by the V.F.W., but Esau said all help will be appreciated.

"We can use all the help we can get," Esau commented.

A Memorial Day service will also be held, in conjunction with the Novesta Old Time Settlers Meeting, at 1:00 p.m. at the Novesta Township Cemetery.

GRANT CEMETERY

The 60th Grant Township Memorial Day Service will be held Sunday starting at 2 p.m. at the Grant Township Cemetery on Bach Road, Gagetown.

"The first Memorial Day Service was held in May 1940. It was organized by several of the area churches," said Sharon Cummins, Grant Township Cemetery sexton.

"These services have continued for 60 years. Many folks look forward to returning to the cemetery each year to have a reunion with others. It's a time of renewing past friendships and remembering loved ones that have passed on."

This year's speaker will be Ellis Gardner of the Reorganized Latter Day Saints Church, Owendale.

Cummins said a community choir will be on hand, as will the Owen-Gage band and area scouts who will march through the cemetery. Josh Error will play taps and there will be a gun salute by Bud McDonald, she added.

"Everyone is welcome."

Sweeney 'surfing' for a scholarship

By Jolene Schultz
Staff Writer

Marissa Sweeney has the chance at a 4-year scholarship to Florida State University (FSU), and all she has to do is surf the net.

Sweeney, a Cass City High School senior, recently entered the Florida State University Online Scholar Challenge (FSUOSC) and after completing round one of 3, she is among 100 finalists out of 12,000 entries.

From the comfort of her own home, the 18-year-old completed round one and 2 of the competition in the beginning of May. By logging onto the FSUOSC website, Sweeney had an hour to answer trivia questions, listed on the site, by surfing the net. At the end of the given hour, the site automatically closed.

Sponsored by FSU and Lexis-Nexis, the Challenge is available to all full-time high school students in the United States. Students must also be a member of the graduating class of 1999 or 2000 to participate.

After the semifinal round, 5 teams, which include one to 2 individuals per team, will advance to the final round in Tallahassee, Fla., at FSU. Air travel, lodging and meal costs for the teams competing in the final round, and for their chaperons, will be paid by the sponsors.

And at the end of the road, there will be a 4-year scholarship to FSU.

So far, Sweeney said the competition has been easy. She has been using the Internet for many years.

"I like playing around with it," she said. "It helps a lot with homework. I'm always on the Internet."

Sweeney added that her Computer Tech class at Cass City High School, taught by George Bushong, has helped her gain computer knowledge, including the Internet.

"We made a web page in here," she said. "In fact, I just got mine up, so I'm pretty happy."

The student council president and member of the National Honor Society said she didn't know a whole lot about computers before she enrolled in the computer class, but now she feels confident of her ability in the competition.

Those moving into the final round will compete June 4.

Ready to party!

'99 may be swan song for biker bash

The unique rumble of Harley Davidson motorcycles will once again fill the air at Evergreen Park June 11, 12 and 13.

Members of the American Bikers Aiming Towards Education (ABATE) Region 7 are gearing up to host their 6th annual fund raiser to benefit the Sanilac County park.

Organizers hope this year's event will be the most successful yet. Unfortunately, they say, it may also mark the end of a tradition.

"This may be our last year at Evergreen Park," said Sharon Swalwell, secretary of ABATE Region 7.

"Plans are being made by the county to revamp the county park and possibly add up to 150 camp sites, electric and water/sewer hook-ups. It is unclear at this time if there will be an opportunity to have any more benefits at this park," she explained. "But ABATE Region 7 is proud to have kept it open to the public since it was in danger of closing a few years ago, and help make improvements every year since by donating a portion of the proceeds to the parks board specifically for Evergreen Park."

The planned improvements rest on hopes that state officials will approve a $610,000 grant application.

If that happens, the park, located on M-53, would be transformed into a modern camping facility. Subsequently, park officials would not be able to close the park for the annual ABATE fund raiser.

"We're going to miss it if we can't have it next year," commented Swalwell, who indicated ABATE members will wait and see what happens.

Regardless of the future, Swalwell lauded county officials for allowing ABATE to take over the park for a weekend each summer. The county took a chance, she said, and ABATE members have worked hard to earn officials' trust by running a trouble-free event, and by striving to leave the park with little, if any, sign that a weekend party had just been held there — no small task considering attendance has averaged some 700 people in recent years.

Of course, the county has benefited by the bikers' efforts, which have generated a combined estimated $12,400 for the park over the past 5 years.

(And anyone else he can get to help.)

In April Matt Jones, a former resident of Cass City who lives in the metro Detroit area, wrote to clue me in on some of his favorite restaurants in the Detroit suburbs. One of them was the Appetizer in downtown Milford. We got there on a Saturday night. Esther's choice was lobster served in a special sauce, salad with the house dressing and the usual trimmings.

Mine was the special for the day, prime rib, with twice baked potato and the usual trimmings. Also ordered was a cup of lam chowder which for my taste gets a 10 rating. Beverages were a beer and coffee. The service was friendly, but not outstanding, the ambience top rate.

Total cost was $49.25, plus tip. On the one-10 scale, give it a 7.5. I'd be happy to go again.

I'll bet that not many of the athletes who Larry Robinson has coached this spring know that he was a star athlete at Cass City High School in his high school days.

Always extremely competitive, he was fun to watch. He has also been a pleasure for the newspaper to deal with as a coach. Always cooperative, win or lose, he saw to it that the paper not only got the results to us in a very timely fashion but also saw to it that the kids under his direction got every bit of credit they earned while competing.

Thank-you, Mr. Smigell

by Tom Montgomery
Editor

Say it ain't so, Jason. You're leaving?

The news left me feeling a little depressed. I'm a big marching band fan and the Red Hawk program has improved by leaps and bounds under Jason Smigell's leadership over the past 3 years. I also have a daughter in the middle school band who never hesitates to put Smigell at the top of her list of favorite teachers.

She isn't alone.

For those who haven't heard, Smigell won't be returning next fall as director of the Cass City School bands. In a nutshell, teachers are required to earn a certain number of post-graduate credits within their first 5 years of teaching, and U-M has offered Smigell an opportunity to meet that requirement through a fellowship in which he'll pursue his master's degree in music education. He will also be working with the U-M Marching Band.

In Smigell's words, leaving is one of the toughest decisions he's had to make, but the opportunity is simply too good to pass up.

To say Smigell is popular is like saying the internet has had some sort of impact on the way the world communicates.

And for good reason. Smigell has a real gift for motivating young people without the need for harsh words and a big stick. His students respect him, embrace his humor and share his enthusiasm for music. Anyone who has attended a home Cass City football or basketball game, or a concert in the high school gym could tell you that.

Want some real proof? Take a look at the numbers.

During Smigell's tenure in Cass City, the number of band students has increased by nearly 69 percent — from 160 students to a whopping 270 district-wide. At the high school, Smigell started out with about 40 kids. This year's band boasted 80 musicians.

There's more; Smigell has doubled the number of concerts held each year and started a jazz program and a girls' basketball pep band program. His students have earned top ratings at local and state festivals, and earlier this year the band took third place in a national competition held in New York.

More recently, Smigell's students joined with Caro students to form an honors jazz ensemble that opened for jazz trumpet legend

Maynard Ferguson.

There's no shortage of studies that show music education helps students excel in other academic subjects and in life in general.

One thing's for sure, area young people who embrace music, whether it be performing a half-time show or presenting a classical piece in a concert setting, are learning lessons that will stay with them far beyond their school years.

They have Smigell to thank for that, and I suspect when many of these students look back on their education, he will stand out in their memories as one of those special teachers who really made a difference in their lives.

In the end, we all benefit from what Jason Smigell has accomplished in our community.

He deserves a big thank-you.

Looking at the passing parade from the corner of Oak and Main Streets. The way it is and the way it should be.

Okay, its admitted that I am a gun-control hard liner, but the Michigan legislature's attempt to liberalize gun control law is simply incredulous.

One standard refrain from the anti gun control is that guns don't kill people, people kill people. Tell me how that 13-year-old in a Georgia school could have seriously wounded 6 schoolmates with any knife, club or what have you or committed that massacre in Colorado any way but with a gun.

The recent school shootings in Georgia has at least temporarily stalled the loosening of gun laws in the Michigan senate, but it could be just a temporary reprieve.

Our representative Mike Green has endorsed the liberal gun law legislation, saying it's just the way he feels.

I suggest to Green that he should vote, instead, to represent the wishes of the majority of his constituents.

The way to do that is to put the issue before the voters. The issue is that important. See if the majority want school kids, or disturbed persons, to have more opportunities to come up with a gun than they already have.

Authorities at the Elkton-Pigeon-Bay Port school district are in the throes of trying to close a school building.

The Cass City District went through that several years ago. Although our problem here may not have been as gut-wrenching as that in Laker country, it still was potentially a dynamite situation that was handled without an explosion.

Credit for that has to go to Ken Micklash, superintendent, he did not proceed until he had the support of not only the board, but influential electors who led in the area. Add to that a public relations campaign that preceded it and the job was accomplished.

Some days I wonder what sort of business I'm running here. This morning I got 2 calls with no response when I picked up the phone. Then, I got a message from the telephone company, asking if my service is O.K.. Finally, I got a call from a man who had the wrong number.

I like the wrong numbers best. At least I get to talk to someone that way.

Does this happen to folks who use the internet? Do you get E-mail from folks you don't know — and messages from people who aren't really there?

It's hard to beat a wrong number call, in my opinion. I remember a fellow who called this winter. "Hi! How ya doin'?" he asked.

"Just fine," I said. "How are you?"

"Oh, I'm pretty good," he replied. "But I've got the wrong number, don't I?"

"I wouldn't be at all surprised," I said, and we both hung up. We could have talked longer, but it seems that feeling pretty good was about the only thing we had in common.

I wish I had a slick, snappy answer for all of my phone calls. Then, callers could immediately decide if this was some kind of kook or the guy they intended to call.

The old trick of answering the phone, "Joe's Bar and Grill", isn't as popular as it used to be. My wife tried that once when she was expecting a return call from her sister.

The caller turned out to be the nunister. He was looking for someone to play the piano on Sunday.

My favorite telephone replies are the practiced responses to questions like "How ya doin'?" If you call the local General Store and ask "How are you?" Erick says, "Finer than a frog hair, split 4 ways."

An old county agent friend used to reply, "Still able to sit up and take liquids."

When I call a certain news-

I passed along the clever response the fellow in Tennessee gives to that question. She said, "There's a guy who calls here, and when you ask him how he's doing, he says, 'If it was raining soup, I'd be out there with a fork.'"

That reminded me of a saying I noticed in Ohio business planner Ron Eberhard's newsletter. The saying goes, "You have to accept that some days you are the pigeon, and some days you are the statue."

How am I doing? Just keeping my eyes closed and my hat pulled low.

Farewell

Writing for the Cass City Chronicle has been a great joy all of my senior year. It has taught me a lot about myself and my community. I can't believe that it is all coming to an end. I would like to thank you all as a community for giving me so much encouragement through all of the weeks. There were times that I was so busy with activities that the last thing I had time to do was sit down at my computer and write for an hour. I found that that was just what I needed. It has helped me collect my thoughts and opinions.

Everywhere I go it seems that someone recognizes me and then tells me how much they enjoy my article. Mrs. Kathy Tuckey is the Close Up Organizer at the high school. After writing an article on the Close Up program I received a note from Mrs. Tuckey reading, "Dear Amanda, I want you to know how much I appreciate the nice article you wrote about Close Up in the Chronicle. I was very well written and a wonderful advertisement for my program. You're the best!" That stuff brightens my day. All of the administration and staff at the high school were always happy to answer any of my questions. I would really like to thank Mr. George Bushong for formatting several disks for me on the day of my deadline. Mrs. Debbie Binder helped me think of topics when I was stumped. At basketball games I would hear numerous remarks about my articles as well. Mr. and Mrs. Russ Hillaker always had a hug for me and some words of wisdom. It appeared as though I had many faithful readers. That is awesome.

My writing has matured greatly over the year in my opinion. My favorite articles were about our generation and the Kosovo Crisis and Pennies From Heaven. I love talking to people. The young kids were always a riot.

Week after week I had to drop my disk off at the Chronicle. I usually hung around and chatted with Tom Montgomery and co-op student Emily Bennett. The staff down there is always friendly. Clarke Haire was a great guy to work for. He was so laid back and gave me a lot of freedom in my writing. He was never discouraging. The only problem I ever had was the week my article got lost but I got an apology so that was cool. It has also opened up many career possibilities. I'm still not sure what I would like to do in college though. This job really helped me become more informed on our community and it was my pleasure to help inform you.

JASON SMIGELL, music instructor, is presented with a certificate from Rebecca Oesch. Smigell, who taught for 3 years at CCHS, will be leaving for a position as co-director of the University of Michigan marching band.

Walsh gearing up for medicine forum in June

A Cass City High School junior has been selected to participate in a medical forum this summer in Philadelphia.

Andrea M. Walsh is scheduled to participate in the 1999 National Youth Leadership Forum on Medicine, June 20-30.

Andrea M. Walsh

Walsh will be among a select group of outstanding high school juniors and seniors from across America and around the world who have met the qualifications required to participate in the forum. She was selected based on outstanding academic achievements and her interest in the profession of medicine.

The daughter of Bryan and Susan Walsh, she is a Student Council junior class representative at Cass City High School. Walsh, an avid basketball player for the past 7 years, is employed as a hostess at Uby Heights Golf and Country Club.

She is considering a career in sports medicine, but is also exploring other options in the medical field.

Beginning June 20, Walsh will join her fellow students for 11 days of discovery and mentorship at some of America's most prominent and technologically advanced medical institutions. The students will visit prestigious medical establishments, including Jefferson Medical College, Temple University School of Medicine, University of Pennsylvania School of Medicine, the Philadelphia VA Medical Center, Fox Chase Cancer Center and the Philadelphia College of Physicians.

Intensive day-long concentrations at these and other institutions will allow students to examine state-of-the-art diagnostic tools and future medical specialties in detail.

Students will also have an opportunity to study and learn from some of this country's most distinguished medical leaders, including F. William Sunderman, M.D., America's oldest worker; Brian McDonough, M.D., associate director of residency programs, St. Francis Hospital; and Estelle Richman, health commissioner, City of Philadelphia.

Topics to be discussed include breakthroughs in genetic research, cancer research, AIDS, sports medicine, neonatal and pediatric research, computers in the world of medicine, public health, clinical decision-making and bioethics.

"During the 11 days of firsthand experiences in a motivating and challenging environment, participants see the world of medicine from a perspective unlike any other. They leave having gained a valuable head start toward the careers and successes they dream of achieving," said Dr. William Levin, president emeritus of the University of Texas Medical Branch at Galveston.

The National Youth Leadership Forum is a non-profit educational organization that sponsors highly specialized, career-oriented programs for outstanding secondary youth with demonstrated leadership abilities. The forum conducts annual forums on medicine, law, and defense, intelligence and diplomacy.

CITIZEN OF THE YEAR, Katie Jackson, was presented with a plaque by village president, Lambert Althaver last Thursday during a reception at Rawson Memorial Library. Jackson was unable to attend the annual chamber dinner May 1, where she was honored as citizen of the year, because of travel reasons.

Cass City debaters off to good 'start'

Don't try to tell Chad Daniels that his best years are behind him as coach of the Cass City High School Debate program.

He won't believe it. Daniels was all smiles Monday following a 3-day debate tournament featuring 42 teams on Mackinac Island, where the Cass City team of Anand and Manisha Raythatha went undefeated. The pair will be juniors next school year as well as the heart of the 1999-00 Red Hawk Varsity Debate Team.

Over the weekend, the Cass City students blanked debate squads from 4 Class A schools; Eisenhower High School, Utica, Martin Luther King High School in Detroit, Lake Orion High School and Portage Central High School. Daniels noted Anand and Manisha Raythatha, both second-year debaters, competed against more experienced teams.

"It's a real good sign for what we may have for next year," said Daniels.

Cass City debate teams earlier this year broke into the elimination rounds of all 3 state tournaments — novice, junior varsity and varsity — something no other Michigan high school program can claim.

During the 1998-99 season, Daniels' charges brought home a combined 75 trophies, including a Class B district title.

Dairy production up 1.6%

Dairy herds in Michigan produced 453 million pounds of milk during April, up 1.6 percent from a year ago, according to the Federal/State Michigan Agricultural Statistics Service.

The daily rate per cow was 51.3 pounds, an increase of 1.5 pounds from 1998. The dairy herd was estimated at 294,000 head for April, down from 295,000 head last month and 4,000 head below the herd size in April 1998.

Milk production in the 20 major states during April was 12.0 billion pounds, up 3.4 percent from 1998. Daily production per cow was 51.8 pounds, 1.8 pounds higher than in April 1998. The number of milk cows on farms in the 20 major states was 7.71 million head, 1,000 less than April 1998, but 4,000 more head than March 1999.

Predict heavy holiday travel

Nearly 2 million Michiganians will travel during the Memorial Day weekend. AAA Michigan predicts. Almost 80 percent of travelers will go more than 100 miles and half will be headed out of the state, according to an Auto Club Survey.

Memorial Day travelers will be the vanguard of a 4-percent increase in summer pleasure travel projected by AAA National and the Travel Industry Association of America (TIA), and that projected increase follows a 4-percent increase last year in Michigan.

Based on a survey of 1,500 people nationwide, AAA predicts 33.3 million Americans will travel over the Memorial Day weekend and there will be 271 million person-trips by Americans between Memorial Day and Labor Day.

Gas prices also may be a factor. Even though prices in Michigan have recently been up from last year, the overall average price for 1999 to date is 6 cents per gallon lower than the comparable period last year.

During Memorial Day weekend in 1998, 17 people were killed in 15 fatal crashes in Michigan, an increase from the 16 killed in 14 crashes in 1997. Forty-seven percent of the 1998 victims were not wearing seat belts. Alcohol was a factor in 3 of the fatal crashes (20 percent).

The Memorial Day weekend will see resumption of AAA Michigan's "Bring 'Em Back Alive!" Holiday News Service broadcasts to more than 100 radio stations throughout the state.

The service, now in its 35th year, provides updated reports to alert motorists to traffic problems. "Bring 'Em Back Alive" signs will be posted at dozens of Operation Care rest areas statewide, where complimentary coffee and refreshments will be available.

The Auto Club advises motorists to plan ahead and allow extra time to get through the numerous construction areas on the state's freeways and roads.

For detour information, motorists should call 1-800-AAA-MICH (222-6424) to receive traffic reports that will be updated hourly throughout the weekend. Or, before leaving, check the Auto Club's Web site, <http://www.aaamich.com/information/newswire/index.html>, for updated traffic information.

For additional travel information, call the state tourism office at 1-888-78-GREAT.

Hawks topped 7-4 by host Yale

A scheduled busy Cass City High School baseball schedule dwindled down to just one abbreviated game due to cancellations and the weather. Cancelled were games with Brown City and Akron-Fairgrove and a double header with Yale was called by the umpires after 5 1/2 innings.

The changes leave just Thursday's game at the Lakers before the pre-districts and district tournaments. By calling the game, Cass City lost any chance it had to win the game. The Bulldogs won, 7-4, and 2 of the runs were scored in the top of the sixth. Nathan Fritz went the distance, allowing 8 hits and walking 4. Thierry hurled the win, allowing 5 hits, including a home run by Fritz, while walking 2.

Fritz led the attack with 3 hits in 3 at-bats.

Calling the game because of the weather was unfortunate for Cass City as 15 minutes later the sun came out, coach Chad Daniels reported.

Cass City splits twin bill at Yale

The Cass City Red Hawk softball team split a double header at Yale last week as the regular season winds down leaving only games at Lakers left on the schedule.

The Hawks need a double win with the Lakers to end the regular season at .500 percent. The overall record is 13-15 and the league mark, 4-6.

In the first game, Cass City bounced back after Becky Dore was touched for 5 runs in the first inning to tie the game before finally bowing, 7-5.

Key to the Cass City rally was a base-loaded triple by Carrie Wentworth in the third inning. Doerr allowed 12 hits, struck out 4, walked one. Six of the runs she allowed were earned. Shelly Ulfig and Nicolette Zawilinski each collected 2 hits.

Ulfig went 10 long innings on the mound as the Hawks won the nightcap, 9-8. She allowed 12 hits, struck out 11 and walked 6.

The winning run came when Brooke Ouvry was hit by the pitcher and scored on a hit by Lindsay Gaszczynski.

Kara Mellendorf and Zawilinski each had 3 hits for the Hawks. Johnson had 3 hits and 3 RBIs for Yale. Gerlach allowed 13 hits and was the loser.

Hawks draw USA in pre-district tilts

Drawings were held Monday for the pre-district and district baseball and softball tournaments and Cass City will be facing the tournament favorite in the pre-district. All games are in Harbor Beach.

The Hawks meet Unionville-Sebewaing in the pre-district Tuesday, June 1, at 4:30 p.m.

The baseball winners will face Harbor Beach in the morning game at 10 a.m. Saturday, June 5, with the Bad Axe-Laker game starting 30 minutes after the first contest and the championship game starting 30 minutes after the second semi-final game of the day.

The softball competition opens with Bad Axe against Lakers in the 10 a.m. game followed by Harbor Beach against the pre-district winner starting 30 minutes later. The finals will start 30 minutes after the last semi-final game.

Wheat crop review planned

The current status of the wheat crop in 5 mid-Michigan counties will be reviewed June 15 with growers and agribusiness representatives who wish to discuss agronomic practices and the crop's outlook.

Michigan State University wheat breeder Rich Ward and MSU plant pathologist Pat Hart will be accompanied by agronomic technicians and MSU Extension agricultural agents at each of the stops.

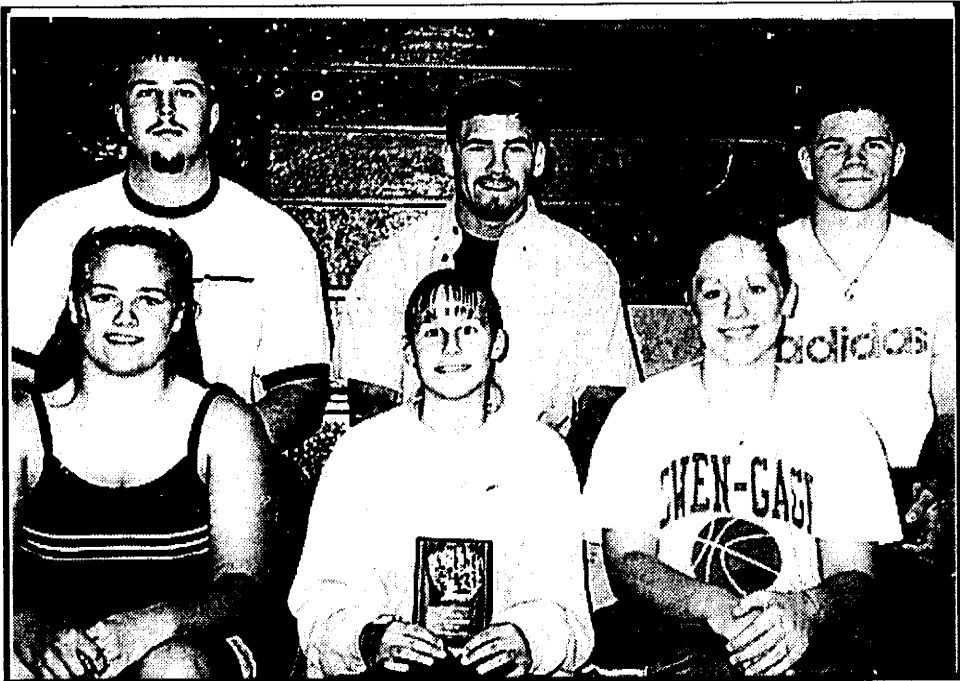

— Saginaw County, beginning at 1 p.m. at the MSU variety trials on the Wayne Reinhold Farm near the intersection of Janes Road and North Bever Road. The site is 1 1/2 miles west and about 1 1/2 miles south of the M-15 and M-81 junction.

— Huron County, beginning at 3:30 p.m. at the MSU variety trials on Wadsworth Road 1/4 mile east of M-53 (about 4 miles south of Bad Axe).

— Sanilac County, beginning at 6:30 p.m. at the MSU variety trials on the Al Stoutenberg farm 1 mile east of Sandusky on M-46.

More information about the stops can be obtained from Mark Seamon, MSU Extension agricultural agent in Saginaw County, by calling 517-799-2233.

Driving costs increase slightly

The cost of driving a car in 1999 will be 47 cents-per-mile on average, .9 of a cent-per-mile higher than last year, according to AAA Michigan. This is the smallest increase since 1994, when driving costs rose by only .7 of a cent.

The auto club's annual "Your Driving Costs" study reports motorists driving 15,000 miles this year will spend an average of $7,050 on auto-related expenses, up $142 since 1998.

The increase is mainly due to higher ownership costs such as insurance, depreciation, license and registration. Operating costs -- gas and oil, maintenance and tires -- decreased .1 if a cent to 10.6 cents per mile as a result of lower prices at the gas pump. This marks the second straight year that operating costs have dropped.

AAA Michigan's cost estimates are based on computations made by Runzheimer International of Rochester, Wis., a management consulting firm specializing in transportation, travel and living costs.

The auto club's cost figures are based on a composite national average of 3 domestically built 1999 cars -- a subcompact Chevrolet Cavalier LS, a mid-size Ford Taurus SE and a full-size Mercury Grand Marquis GS.

These similarly equipped vehicles include air conditioning, automatic transmission, power steering, AM/FM stereo, dual air bags, antilock brakes, cruise control, tilt steering wheel, tinted glass and a rear-window defogger. The costs are based on a 4-year/60,000 miles ownership period.

The study also included driving costs for sport-utility vehicles and minivans. AAA Michigan says the cost to drive a 1999 Chevrolet Blazer is 53.8 cents per mile, up .5 of a cent from last year and 6.8 cents more than the composite average for passenger cars. The driving costs for a Dodge Caravan SE are 48.8 cents per mile, unchanged from last year and 1.8 cents more than for passenger cars.

Driving costs in the study are reflective of personal driving and are significantly different from costs typically used to determine reimbursement for business-related use of a personal vehicle.

The information on the Chevrolet Blazer and Dodge Caravan is not used to determine the composite national average, but is included in the report to help buyers estimate driving costs for these vehicles.

A pamphlet, "Your Driving Costs," is available at all AAA Michigan branches statewide. Single copies also can be obtained by sending a self-addressed stamped business envelope to: AAA Michigan, Public Relations Department, 1 Auto Club Drive, Dearborn, MI 48126.

Bulldog bats ring in double header split

Scoring runs has seldom been a problem for Coach Barb Adams' Owen-Gage softball crew.

The Bulldogs' bats pounded out 27 runs Wednesday night at Carsonville-Port Sanilac during a non-conference twin bill, but would only split tilts with the Tigers.

Owen-Gage had a easy time in the opener as hurler Andrea Ziehm recorded a 16-5 win on the hill.

Ziehm fanned 6 and walked 4, while holding the hosts scoreless over the final 4 innings.

The Bulldogs slugged out 20 hits in the win, led by Dee Fritz with 5 knocks. Erin Salcido recorded 3 hits and 6 RBIs, while Kristie Radabaugh added 3 hits and 2 RBIs for the winners.

"We came out hitting the ball and my offense did very well," said Adams.

In the nightcap, the Bulldogs surrendered 6 runs in the 5th frame to allow the hosts to escape with a 13-11 win.

Melissa Ziehm handled the pitching chores for the guests and was tagged with the loss, Ziehm struck out 2 and walked 9.

At the plate Salcido led Owen-Gage's 18 hit assault with 4 safeties. Radabaugh added 3 hits, while Dawn Enderle, Melissa Ziehm and Andrea Ziehm each chipped in with 2 hits.

Owen-Gage, 12-13 overall, will end its regular season tonight (Wednesday) in Caseville.

Williams 'student of month'

Students feted at annual awards ceremony

KARA MELLENDORF is the winner of the Outstanding Woman Athlete Award and Heath Zawilinski is this year's recipient of the Paul Smarks Award.

PAUL KRUSE was presented with the Fred, Iris & Robert McEachern Scholarship Award.

REBECCA OESCH was presented with the Harold Ferguson Band Award by music instructor, Jason Smigell.

Special recognition for Mellendorf, Zawilinski, Oesch

By Jolene Schultz
Staff Writer

On May 19, Cass City High School students learned that their hard work does off.

During the annual CCHS Awards Assembly, numerous awards were presented. Among the top awards are the Harold Ferguson Band Award, presented to Rebecca Oesch; the Outstanding Woman Athlete Award, received by Kara Mellendorf; the Paul Smarks Award, won by Heath Zawilinski; and new to this year, the Fred, Iris & Robert McEachern Scholarship Award, presented to Paul Kruse.

Rebecca Oesch, winner of the Harold Ferguson Band Award, is also one of the 10 Valedictorian's of the CCHS graduating class of 1999. With a 4.0 grade point average, Oesch, 17, will also be one of the 2 valedictorians selected to speak during graduation ceremonies.

Oesch, daughter of Tom and Mary Oesch, played the clarinet until her sophomore year when she switched to trumpet. She has played with the University of Michigan Marching Band, teaches band to Junior High students through a band program co-op and has played in the Cass City band.

Although music is her favorite pastime, Oesch also is active in debate, receiving the Spirit of Debate Award this year.

Along with music and debate, Oesch also has helped her community through blood drives, Project Feed Everyone This Christmas Holiday (F.E.T.C.H) and as a founding member of the Youth Advisor Council, where she has also served as president.

This valedictorian plans to attend U of M in the fall where she will major in music education. She would eventually like to teach music in a small town.

ATHLETIC AWARD

Kara Mellendorf, daughter of Connie Mellendorf, received the Outstanding Woman Athlete Award. This award is equally weighed among four criteria, consisting of athletic ability, sportsmanship, scholarship and citizenship.

The 19-year-old salutatorian, with a 3.976 g.p.a, has been involved with basketball, volleyball and softball throughout her four-year high school career. In basketball, some of her many honors include All Conference-1st team, highest percentage of field goals, Americas Champion Athlete and Who's Who in Sports. Mellendorf was also the team captain her senior year.

In volleyball, Mellendorf has had the honors of All Conference-Honorable Mention, most tips, and All Area Tuscola County Team Honorable Mention, among others.

Softball honors include Academic All-State and Athlete of the Week.

As well as academic involvement, Mellendorf has also participated in Student Council, Natural Helper, F.E.T.C.H. and the Muscular Dystrophy Telethon.

Upon graduation, Mellendorf plans to be pre-law, attending Saginaw Valley State University for her first four years of college. She then plans to attend Cooley School of Law in Lansing.

PAUL SMARKS AWARD

Receiving the Paul Smarks

Award for outstanding male athlete is Heath Zawilinski, son of Martin and Sean Zawilinski. This 18-year-old has participated in football, basketball, track and baseball during his 4 years at CCHS.

During his junior year, Zawilinski was football first team All Conference, basketball 2nd team All Conference, first team Huron Daily Tribune, team most valuable player, All State Class C Honorable Mention and Tribune athlete of the week.

Zawilinski also received many honors during his senior year. Among these awards and honors, he was football team captain and most valuable player. The basketball team captain, Zawilinski was also most valuable player as well as receiving the Mr. Red Hawk award.

Zawilinski has also worked on Project F.E.T.C.H and will be this year's assistant coach in the Little League.

Upon graduation, he plans to attend Central Michigan University where he will major in sports medicine.

FIRST AWARD

Receiving the Fred, Iris & Robert McEachern Scholarship Award, new this year, is Paul Kruse. The scholarship is in memory of Robert McEachern. This first recipient of the award, Kruse has also received the American Welding Society Scholarship. Kruse, son of Cindy and Dean Kruse, has also excelled in American Government, where he received this year's American Government pin.

Steel where he is gaining hands on experience for his future career.

MISCONCEPTION OF OWA (Outstanding Woman Athlete) AWARD

To Whom It May Concern about Cass City High School's Athletics especially future parents and athletes. My concern deals with the Cass City High School's "Outstanding Female/Male Athlete Award" and its criteria. When you read the title of this certain award "Outstanding Woman Athlete" you would generally come to the conclusion that the recipient would be the school's best athlete, but in this year and years past this hasn't always been the case. The "Outstanding Female/Male Athlete" includes 4 parts: Sportsmanship, Citizenship, Scholarship, and Athleticism. Which means only 25% of this award is based on athletics. In my case, there were a total of 10 votes; 3 administrative (Superintendent, Principal, and Athletic Director) and 7 Varsity coaches. Mr. Kuntz and Mr. Biefer very rarely attend athletic functions, so why should they and the other coaches who haven't coached a nomination athlete have a vote. One of my concerns is that no one athlete can possibly play 7 sports, so somewhere down the line you are being voted upon by coaches who have never had you as a player. So that basically says that 4 years of hard work and achievements are being judged upon by, "word of mouth reputation!"

I'm not going to list all of my achievements as they are too numerous to mention! A partial list includes:

Basketball: 4) Varsity letters
2) First Team All Conferences
2) Second Team All Conferences
4) All Tribune Picks
4) All Area Picks
Honorable Mention All State
Bay City Times Dream Team Selection
3 years All Area Scoring Leader
3 years All Area Rebounding Leader
Cass City Girl's Basketball Records that I hold:
Most points in a career (1223)
Most rebounds in a career (821)
Most rebounds in a game (22)
Most points in a game (33)
Most free-throws attempted in a career (680)
Volleyball: 2 Varsity letters
First Team All Conference
All Area Pick
All Tribune Pick
Honorable Mention All Conference
Most Valuable Player
Most Blocks/Kills in a season
Track: 1 Varsity letter
Second Team All Conference
Softball: 2 Varsity letters
Most Home runs (4)
As a pitcher, Most Strike-outs (68)
Academic All State

It's kind of funny that area coaches and sports writers have backed me more than my own school's athletic faculty. To prove my point: I challenge any of the nominees to compete with those athletic accomplishments, not to mention that I am an honor student that is involved in National Honor's Society, and has held reputable citizenship!

I think the downfall with Cass City's athletic program starts with Russell Biefer, our "so-called" Athletic Director. Another main concern of mine is our coaching staff; we have way too many coaches that have no desire or energy to better our programs, they are more interested in "padding their pension!" If you are going to give an award that states "Outstanding Woman Athlete" then the award should be based 100% on Athleticism and not on who kisses who's butt! Just because a person is aggressive and outspoken and doesn't kiss up to people doesn't mean they should be denied an award that is rightfully theirs! I would like to thank Beth Howard for dragging our volleyball program out of the basement and for making our program a competitive and respectable one. I would also like to thank Mr. Maharg and Mr. Chappel for what they have done for the basketball program. I also don't want to leave these important people out either: Thank you Mr. Robinson, Mr. Micklash, Kenny Martin and area coaches and sports writers for all of your support that you have given me, without you none of my accomplishments would have happened. To sum up my last 4 years of playing with aggressive determination and pouring my heart out for the Cass City Red Hawks. I'm leaving this system on a negative note. My sports may be done at Cass City, but I will be continuing my athletic ability at the Varsity level playing volleyball and basketball at Alma College.

P.S. Any future parents and or athletes that are not happy with our athletic program please feel free to give me a call; maybe as a group we could have some changes made! (517) 872-2702.

Cass City resident enter pleas

A Cass City resident charged with 4 counts of larceny in a building pleaded guilty to 2 of the charges Friday in Tuscola County Circuit Court.

A pre-sentence investigation was ordered for the defendant, Jason W. Reese, 19, and bond was continued at $1,000. Sentencing is to be scheduled.

Larceny in a building is punishable by up to 4 years imprisonment and/or a $2,000 fine.

Reese pleaded to charges stemming from the theft of cash April 3-5 from an adult foster care home in Cass City.

The other 2 counts, which would be dismissed under a plea agreement, alleged Reese stole cash from Wash King Laundry & Dry Cleaning, Cass City, March 3, and from the Cass Theatre March 27.

ALPACA IN FULL FLEECE: The animals are sheered in spring, with each providing about 5 pounds of wool. The fine cashmere-like fleece was once reserved for only Incan royalty. At present, the fleece sells for about $2 to $3 per ounce.

Ubly ranch unique
Alpacas tops with Maurers

By Jolene Schultz
Staff Writer

They came from the highlands of Peru, from the high Andean Plateau and the mountains of South America. These animals traveled across land and ocean to come to America.

They're Alpacas, and they're here to stay. For Mary Maurer, life-long resident of the Thumb area, nothing could be better.

Mary and Ben Maurer, owners of Maurer Alpacas, 1-mile South of Ubly on M-19, bought their first 2 alpacas in 1997. Since then, the couple has not only watched their animals and their business grow to 13 animals, but they have also felt their hearts grow as well for these beautiful creatures.

Curious and gentle, the alpacas were a cherished treasure of the ancient Inca civilization. They played a central part in the Incan culture. The fine cashmere-like fleece produced by the alpaca was once reserved for only Incan royalty. The alpaca, along with its cousin, the llama, provided food, fuel, clothing and transportation.

Domesticated for some 6,000 years, the alpaca had only recently been introduced into the United States, beginning in 1984.

For Maurer, who left the road commission after 23-years, alpaca ranching was the perfect opportunity.

"I wanted to find something that I could do from home, use my skills and make the same money as I did working outside the home," she said. "That's what led me to the alpacas after a long search."

Maurer added, "I traded in nylons, suits and dresses for casual clothes and jeans."

Born and raised on a farm near Ubly, Maurer knew she loved animals and she knew how to care for them. The alpacas fit the criteria she was looking for.

"I enjoy the business part of it- putting out flyers on the breeding of our males and answering inquiries on babies born."

Her husband, Ben, plant manager at Gemini Plastics in Ubly, also helps care for the alpacas, which Mary Maurer said is a very simple task.

"He helps with monthly toe nail trimming, shots and sheering whenever it's needed to be done," she said.

EXPENSIVE ANIMALS

But, according to Maurer, these beautiful animals are worth every penny-and that means quite a bit! Females can be sold for a price ranging between $12,500 to $40,000, depending on the animal. Although males don't sell for the same price as females, they do go for $7,500 to $25,000, also depending on the animal.

Price depends on a number of factors, including sex, the color of the animal, age and quantity and quality of the fleece.

The animals are sheered in the spring. Approximately 5 pounds of wool are sheered from each animal per year. And with going prices for fleece at $2 to $3 per ounce, Maurer said the sale of the fleece alone pays for the animals food for the entire year.

"The fleece is warmer, lighter and stronger than sheep's wool," Maurer said.

But the business aspect of the industry, which is currently based on the sale of breeding stock, isn't the only benefit of owning and raising alpacas. Maurer can vouch for that. Although it only takes a matter of minutes to feed the animals on her 4-acre ranch, she's with them for hours.

"And I like the fact that they're in a small area where I can keep track of them," she added, referring to the five separate pastures encompassing 2 1/2 acres.

She also enjoys their curious nature. These curious creatures don't miss a beat-or a dog for that matter. As a large dog crossed the Maurers' yard at quite a distance from the alpacas, they saw it-and they let everyone else know too.

Sounding a warning alarm, these alpacas call attention to anything that shouldn't be there, including a dog. With their low, repetitive cry, resembling a honking horn from a child's bicycle, these alpacas tell the Maurers when something isn't right.

Each have large, dark eyes, and they like to stare. Their tranquilizing eyes tempt an individual to stay with them, so it's no wonder Maurer loves to spend so much time with the animals. The Maurers have even had a few trees removed from their back yard.

"The trees blocked the view of the animals from the dining room," she said.

Maurer has also had the chance to visit other alpaca breeders in Michigan, as well as Ohio, and participates in the annual October Michigan AlpacaFest in Armada, where she has served as Fleece Chairperson for the past two years.

"This year, I'll have my own fleece entered so I won't judge," she said. "The reason I'd helped out was to learn how fleeces were judged and the pros and cons of particular fleece."

Maurer is also a member of the Alpaca Owners and Breeders Association (AOBA).

Maurer previously focused on building her herd and now with 13 animals, 8 of which are female, she said it is time to open the market. For the first time, Maurer will offer 4 young offspring for sale this year. And with 8 females, each able to reproduce 1 offspring a year, Maurer has great hope that her business and her hobby will continue successfully for decades to come.

Time for lunch!

MAURER enjoys spending hours with her alpacas, although it takes only a short time to feed them. They eat a grassy-hay mix that includes 25 percent alfalfa. They also enjoy pellets, pasture grass, and minerals. With 3 stomachs, they utilize their food efficiently.

Want to compost? Earth Machines are still available

What can save you money while helping Mother Nature? Composting can, and residents can order an Earth Machine between now and May 31.

Tuscola County residents will be able to purchase the easy to use Earth Machine at a discount, thanks to a program being sponsored by the Multi-County Solid Waste Task Force, serving Huron, Lapeer, Sanilac and Tuscola counties.

Dear John,

Although Jason Smigell has been the band director only 3 years, we feel he should be applauded for his positive impact on the students and

Cass City students praised

Dear Editor,

I just wanted to tell all the Cass City School students how proud I am of you. With all the surrounding area schools having students call in bomb threats, and some even twice, our students showed their maturity and class and remained cool about the whole media coverage. I guess they didn't let what you'd call peer pressure from other schools and students drag them into this mess. Cass City, you are awesome. Parents, thank you for raising up these great kids. Teachers, you've done a super job. I hope everyone has a great and safe summer. If we keep the faith, and our pride in our schools, Cass City will always be number one.

Thank you,

Bonnie Marker

Cable plant gets reprieve

General Cable Corporation officials last week announced they plan to continue manufacturing operations at the company's Montoursville, Penn., cordset assembly plant.

Last July, the company said operations at the plant would be phased out over the next 9 to 18 months and would be replaced with production from a new manufacturing facility located outside of the United States.

Over the last 10 months, General Cable has explored opportunities for the manufacture of extension cords, appliance cords, power supply cords and related products in Mexico, Latin America and South America through joint ventures and acquisitions. During that time, General Cable's cordset net sales rose 26 percent and Montoursville's operating performance has improved substantially.

"Our cordset business is an important part of General Cable's Power of One strategy with retail and distributor customers," said Stephen Rabinowitz, chairman, and chief executive officer of General Cable Corporation.

"Our strong brand recognition and award-winning packaging and merchandising continue to grow our share of the market through existing and new customers. Through challenging circumstances the Montoursville team has made significant improvement in productivity and has demonstrated the commitment to continue to pursue continuous improvement initiatives in order to remain competitive. Therefore, we intend to continue manufacturing cordsets and related products at our Montoursville facility for the foreseeable future to meet the product and service excellence demands of key customers."

"Our associates at the Montoursville plant have made good progress in the last 10 months to improve operating efficiencies, increase productivity and reduce costs," added Montoursville plant manager, Dave Byrne, who joined the company in March of 1999. "I believe the associates at Montoursville, and people in the local community join me when I say this is a great opportunity for a US-based manufacturing facility to show they can become a cost-competitive, best-in-class manufacturing location."

Down Memory Lane

From the files of the Chronicle

5 YEARS AGO

Jordan College officials stated, "We are not closing," last week after a number of daily newspapers reported the school was in danger of being shut down by the U.S. Department of Education.

Salem United Methodist Church honored 6 graduates in the Sunday worship service. They were guests at a breakfast preceding the 11 a.m. service. The graduates were Sarah Lovejoy, Wendy Hurley, Trudi Malthouse, Darcie Monroe, Brian Seeley and Amie White.

Alan Moody will be the new assistant pastor of the First Baptist Church permanently after filling the position temporarily since former Assistant Pastor Jim Howard moved to Portland to accept a senior pastorage.

James Nichol, Decker, is sold on organic farming. Nichol's soy and navy beans have been raised chemical-free for 6 years, and he will grow corn organically this year as he moves towards certification as an organic farm.

Nicole Doerr, 11, of Cass City, has been selected for a Joeffery Ballet Company dance training session to be held at Saginaw Valley State University and the Midland Center for the Performing Arts. The ballet company is based in New York. Former President Ronald Reagan's son, Ron Jr., is a dancer with the company.

Feted for 40 years on the Chronicle staff were Melva Guinther and Thelma Jackson. The entire staff of the paper recently attended a dinner at the Franklin Inn in Bad Axe to pay homage to the long-time staff members.

10 YEARS AGO

Cass City is one of 6 stops in 2 states and Canada that will be visited by a high school choir and orchestra

Republicans schedule meeting

The Tuscola County Republican Party will hold its next meeting Thursday, June 17, at 7 p.m. at the Brentwood Restaurant in Caro.

This meeting will focus on the membership, the party's community involvement and on upcoming fundraisers. All interested and potential Republicans are welcome to attend.

Please call (517) 823-7808 with any questions.

from Schweinfurt, West Germany, during a 2-week tour that began last Wednesday. The 41-member Olympia-Morata Gymnasium choir and orchestra will be hosted by 4 churches - St. Pancratius, Salem United Methodist, Trinity United Methodist and First Presbyterian. The group will be in Cass City Thursday through Monday.

A dispute regarding office copy machines has erupted among county government agencies. Tuscola County commissioners, circuit court Judge Patrick R. Joslyn, Friend of the Court Nancy Moriarty and Sheriff Tom Kern have been involved in one way or another in the feud.

Maurice Hagg of Cass City, a volunteer archeological field surveyor, recently discovered the burial of a prehistoric man after the bones were plowed up by a Thumb area farmer.

Each year the Cass City High School band members pick an outstanding senior band member. Winning the Harold Ferguson Award this year is Marla Zmierski.

25 YEARS AGO

Suzanne Lanette Brown, 4, of Uby, died early Friday afternoon from injuries sustained in a farm tractor accident in Greenleaf Township. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Keith Brown of Cumber Road.

Severe thunderstorms, marked by a reported tornado, lashed the Cass City and tri-county area late Thursday night, dumping nearly 2 inches of rain and leaving uprooted trees, downed power lines, damaged house trailers and a flattened barn. The barn belonging to Harold Polega was located on Bay City-Forestville Road, just east of M-53. Lost were a steer, 200 chickens and several ducks. Machinery stored in the barn was damaged.

A crowd of about 2,500 jammed the Meadowbrook Trout Ranch 4 miles east of Caro to hear 13 rock bands blast their way through Saturday night and into Sunday while State Police, Tuscola County Sheriff's deputies and local police stood by. Police reported little trouble, the worst apparently involving traffic in and out of the area, and reports from neighbors in the area regarding noise.

Edward Harmon Smith, 29, of Bay City, formerly of the Shabbona area, was killed Saturday afternoon when his motorcycle struck the front right wheel of an oncoming tractor, on Bay City-Forestville Road.

Many friends of Mrs. Esther Kinn attended a tea Sunday afternoon at Rawson Memorial Library, given by members of the library board. Mrs. Kinn, who is leaving Cass City, started work as a cataloguer in the public library in 1967.

35 YEARS AGO

Mrs. William Donnelly became the first president of the newly formed Cass City Hospital Inc. Auxiliary Tuesday night during an election at the hospital. Other officers named were Mrs. Dan Toner, historian; Mrs. Maurice Taylor, vice-president; Mrs. Dean Lowe, treasurer, and Mrs. Arthur Severance, secretary.

Two young Cass City girls, Kelly Gee and Cathy Benkelman, were the youngest persons aboard the S.S. South American as it cruised for 600 miles on a Detroit to Mackinac Island jaunt. Some 500 high school graduates were also aboard.

Six high school students, 2 boys and 4 girls, made the annual climb to the top of the old village water tower, where they painted their graduating class year numbers. They did likewise to the new Farm Produce Co. elevator. Cass City Police Chief Carl Palmateer reported that he has since contacted the youths and explained the error of their ways. Restitution for the damage is still being considered.

A car driven by Miss Alice Wright, 75, of Cass City, jumped the curb when the brakes failed, and rammed into Woods Drug Store at the corner of Main and Seeger, smashing the window. Miss Wright and her passenger, Gertrude Goertsen, 76, were uninjured.

A protest movement over the color of the new water tower has resulted in scheduling of an open meeting. Also it has been decided not to have lights on the tower unless required by law and to eliminate lettering the village's name on the side of the tank.

Piano students shine

Local student honored

More than 110 Alma College students participated in Alma College's third annual Honor's Day program April 8.

This day provides a form when traditional classes are canceled and students share their original research, creativity and talents with an audience of their peers.

In sessions spanning 9 hours, students perform in music, theatre and dance productions, give oral presentations of scholarly research, and lead poster discussions. With almost 8 percent of the student body participating, other students are encouraged to attend as many presentations as possible both to support their fellow students and to learn from them.

Local student presenters and titles of their work include Lisa Wallace, a 1995 graduate of Cass City High School and daughter of Richard and Judith Wallace of Cass City, who presented a poster titled "Background Matching in the Lizard, Anolis Valencienni."

Kingston aides recognized

Student aides at the Jacquelin E. Opperman Memorial Library, Kingston, were recently recognized at an awards assembly held at Kingston High School.

The aides are Sean Astley, Alan Coffey, Laura Collins, Alan Coffey, Laura Collins, Amber Myers and Starla Stark. Although not officially a library student aide, Jerry VanderPool was also recognized. Laura Collins was singled out for near perfect attendance during her assigned library hour.

House passes new bill

The state House of Representatives last week approved bipartisan legislation, sponsored by Rep. Mike Green, which reforms Michigan's concealed weapon laws and makes it easier for law-abiding citizens to defend themselves and their families.

"This is a victory for decent, honest citizens across the state," said Green, R-Mayville. "Michigan families will be safer."

House Bill 4530 is part of a multi-bill package that addresses the concerns of law enforcement agencies as well as gun-rights advocates.

"The facts are clear: Law-abiding citizens who carry firearms in their own defense stop crime and present no danger to the rest of society," Green said. "Every major academic study has confirmed this."

The legislative package toughens penalties for criminals, and implements training requirements and background checks for all permit applicants.

"People convicted of felonies, violent misdemeanors, or with a history of mental illness will be denied permits," Green said. "This legislation is for the good guys."

If the package is signed into law, Michigan would join 31 states in allowing citizens to carry arms in defense of themselves and their families.

6th biker fund-raiser slated

This year's fund raiser will kick off Friday at 6 p.m. with entertainment by the band "Healers". Saturday's activities will feature a motorcycle show, motorcycle games, a women's fashion show in the evening and entertainment by the band "Joker".

A food wagon will be set up at the park, and ice and pop will be available. Also on hand will be a tattoo booth, airbrushing, motorcycle parts and ABATE products for sale. A medic will be available at the park throughout the weekend.

There will be a $10 donation per person over 21 years of age accepted at the gate. Anyone 18 to 20 years of age must be an ABATE member to enter the park, which offers rustic camping along the Cass River. No pets or fireworks are allowed.

The public is welcome to attend, but those who are not camping at the park are asked to park in the front to cut down on traffic driving through the crowds.

Additional information about the park benefit is available by calling Butch Brown, regional coordinator, at (517) 673-4743, or Swalwell at (517) 872-8087.

isting plat maps and aerial photographs available to village officials.

Mellendorf was told a land survey would have to be conducted at his expense to determine the exact location of the property lines. If a survey reveals the fence is on the wrong property line, it will have to be moved, Downing said.

•Approved the recommendation of Charles Beyette to fill a 3-year term on the Cass City Planning Commission. Beyette and his wife, Mary, are residents of Northwood Lake Condominiums.

•Learned no village residents have inquired about the annual sidewalk construction program.

The village annually offers to arrange for sidewalk improvements for residents, who are responsible for 50 percent of the cost. Some 1,000 of feet of sidewalk was replaced last summer in conjunction with the program.

"We'd like to see more done this year, but we haven't had any takers yet," Downing told the council.

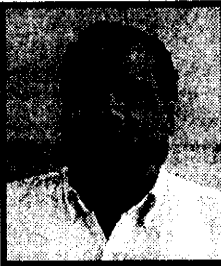

•Acknowledged receipt of a thank-you note from the Cass City AYSO Board, which lauded the village for use of village storage space for AYSO equipment and uniforms.
