

School board starts quest for extra funds

The Cass City School Board took initial steps Monday night in the opening salvo of a campaign for more funds deemed necessary to get the school on a sound financial basis.

President Horace Bolen appointed members to special committees to determine how much extra money would be needed and when the election will be held.

Figuring the finances will be Trustees Mrs. Gerald Prieskorn, Gerald Hicks and Don Koepfen. Setting a date will be Trustees Elwyn Helwig, Donald Reid and Arthur Severance.

The school is presently operating at a deficit estimated to be $30,000 for the 1968-69 school year.

With its current valuation of over $21 million, a mill will raise about $21,000. Money will be needed to pay back the debt and to take care of future inevitable increases in the cost of the school's operation.

No one is talking, but don't be surprised if the special vote asks for a levy in the neighborhood of five mills.

Currently the school is operating on 14 mills. Nine from the county allocation and five on a special voted tax that runs out at the end of the 1969-70 school year.

In addition to the 14 mills operating the school is obligated for 5.8 mills for debt service. Five mills runs for 25 years and .8 mills has been authorized for 23 years.

The total tax bill today is 19.8 mills or $19.80 for each $1,000 of assessed property valuation.

NO CHARGE
The school presently has some 30 students who live out of the district and pay no tuition charges.

This year it is legal for the school to charge up to $36.41 for elementary and up to $54.30 for high school tuition students.

Students at St. Agatha School will use the Intermediate School gym Wednesday evenings for basketball practice without charge, the board decided.

The students formerly used the Gagetown gym, but it has been divided into classrooms this year.

Council reaffirms stand for Kennebec lights

A petition signed by four of nine property owners failed to deter the Cass City Village Council from its avowed aim of providing lights on Kennebec Drive. The decision was reached in a special meeting held Tuesday night at the Municipal Building.

Atwell and Mr. and Mrs. Geraldine Prieskorn. The main concern of the petition signers concerning the lights was the unsightly poles that the lights would require.

It was agreed that lights are needed on the street, but it was suggested that property owners on the street could install yard lights that would be adequate to light the street.

Top area prospects for deer

Deer season opens in Michigan Friday, Nov. 15, and prospects state-wide are estimated to be better than in 1967. Much will depend on the weather during the crucial first three days of the season when the majority of the deer are shot, authorities for the Michigan Department of Conservation said.

President Lambert Althaver said that Detroit Edison would not review the lights on the street without a signed order. He explained that the original plan called for four lights on the street, but throughout the village we cut Edison's recommended lighting and it is undoubtedly true that four lights aren't necessary on Kennebec.

Bowles reports that he will handle the magistrate's duties in addition to his work as news director. "Most of my work is completed in the morning before we are on the air," he said.

THE AMERICAN LEGION is 50 years old and these two past commanders have been members since it was formed. Holding the birthday cake are Vern McConnell, left, and Arthur Little.

ALTHOUGH THE CAR doesn't appear badly damaged, Mrs. Lois Ann Jochim of Caro lost her life in it Saturday afternoon.

Lois Jochim county's 36th traffic fatality in 1968

Mrs. Lois Ann Jochim, 21, of Caro became Tuscola County's thirty-sixth traffic fatality when she was killed in an automobile accident on Cemetery Road Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Jochim, traveling alone, lost control of her car near Delong Road, three miles south of Cass City. According to the report of the Tuscola County Sheriff's Department, Mrs. Jochim's car left the highway, struck a mailbox, rolled over and stopped near a tree.

Services for Mrs. Jochim were held Tuesday at Huston Funeral Home. She was born in McCaysville, Ga., and moved to Tuscola county from Taylor, Mich., five months ago. Surviving are her husband, Lyle, one daughter, Debbie, both of Caro, and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Harrison of Melvindale. Also surviving is one brother. Burial was in Caro Cemetery.

Kennedy benefit nets over $610 Saturday

Not all of the money has been collected from the Ken Kennedy benefit Saturday night at Austin Center but already $610 is ready to be given to the family, Ed Deering, spokesman for the Sanilac NFO which staged the event, said Wednesday morning.

The estimated cost for service at St. Mary's Hospital for 9 1/2 weeks was quoted between $10,000 and $15,000. It costs $45 a day to stay at the rehabilitation center in addition to $18 per hour for the four hours daily therapy and $5 per visit by a doctor.

OTHER ACCIDENTS
Four persons were shaken up in a car-truck crash last week on M-81, about a mile west of Cass City. A car driven by Donald Ray Puskus, 20, of Cass City collided with a pickup truck driven by Elmer Maurice Rayl, 37, of Akron, Puskus was passing when Rayl attempted a left turn into Turkey Concrete Block Co.

Legion observance only Veterans' Day activity

Monday was Veterans' Day in Cass City and the nation, but virtually nobody cared. There were no parades, no speeches and almost no flags flying on Main Street.

will toss in a couple of pennies instead of trying to help. Fortunately, over the 50 years the Legion has been operating these incidents have been comparatively rare and the celebration of Veterans' Day has changed little in the community.

It was business as usual across the land. When the veterans donned civilian clothes, they immediately joined the American Legion.

Board reveals future plans to Owen-gage

If Owendale-Gagetown school district taxpayers vote to dissolve next year, the property owners who transfer to Cass City should find themselves in enviable positions. Monday night the Cass City School Board outlined its position in answer to a questionnaire from the Owen-gage district.

The board also sent a copy of the rental fees for school buildings; agreed to operate the Gagetown School; explained that no new buildings were contemplated in the near future, and said that all students involved in the transfer vote would be allowed to continue at Owen-Gage until the cut of the current year.

Jack Esau told Cass City Rotarians the reasons why the Cass City Hospital was unable to continue operation in the village, Tuesday noon at the club's luncheon meeting at the New Garden Hotel.

But this is nothing at all to just what might be. I thought it was all a pipe dream... but it just might happen, Drews said, exhilarated by the G-T bash. Could you imagine opening your newspaper and reading that this week Notre Dame's varsity football team had a game scheduled with the Illinois Cycling Club, or that next week Notre Dame was going to play South Bend High School in a regular game...

Instead of having 7 men on the line and 4 in the backfield, could a football team line up with, say, 6 men on the line and 5 men in the backfield when they have the ball to confuse the opposition?

Ever wonder how many plays a team gets in a football game? In the average game, a team gets a chance to run off about 70 different plays.

He said at the time that the hospital closed its doors and filed bankruptcy in Federal Court in Bay City, the hospital owed $109,000 to an out-of-town bank on a first mortgage and $40,000 to Mrs. Bertha Hildinger on a second mortgage.

He said that there was a lack of communication in the community in the health field and that a lesson could be learned for future community projects from the failure of the hospital.

ACCIDENTS

Elwood C. Morell, 22, went to sleep at the wheel early Sunday but escaped with minor cuts and bruises as his car was wrecked.

Morell was driving on Cass City Road, near Leslie Road, eight miles east of Cass City, at about 50 miles per hour when he lost control of his car.

The car traveled 268 feet after leaving the highway, overturned and came to rest on its wheels on the road.

AAUW lists Cass City's problems

The American Association of University Women will hold its regular meeting Wednesday, Nov. 20, at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Ivan MacIaeson Huron Avenue. Mrs. Gerald Miller is cohostess.

A tape by Barbara Ward, British economist, on an economic policy for a free world will be presented. The program will be conducted by Mrs. Stanley Kira Sr. and Miss Gertrude McWebb.

At the last meeting ideas from a brain storming session on needs in the Cass City area to help form a unified society were discussed. They included:

1. We overlook world problems and are glad to be able to do so.
2. Alienation of youth and drug problem.
3. Lack of recreational facilities.
4. Lack of proper counseling in kindergarten through 8th grade.
5. Lack of motivation to participate in events in the village (even free events).
6. Intolerance of people who are different.
7. Non involvement of persons with each other and youth.
8. How much real poverty in immediate area? What constitutes poverty?
9. Is there economic education for the poor? Does O.E.O. provide this type of help?
10. What is the situation of the migrant workers in our area.

Gen-Tel reveals expansion plan

General Telephone will spend an estimated $3.5 million in 1969 for expansion of service in the Thumb area, but practically none of it will be spent in the Cass City exchange, it was announced this week by A. T. Jones, eastern division manager for the company.

Just $27,500 has been allotted here for capital improvements. The money will be spent for long distance circuits to Saginaw.

Local Manager Dick Drews pointed out that Cass City has received large allotments in previous years.

In 1968 we were granted $180,000 and erected the new modern phone building that was only opened a few weeks ago, he said.

For this reason, Drews explained, the budget calls for just token capital improvements in 1969. It is probable that 1970 will be another expansion year for Cass City, Drews said.

In all of the Cass City district which includes exchanges at North Branch, Minden City, Harbor Beach, Elkton, Decker-ville, Clifford, Cass City and Caseville a total of $242,200 will be spent.

The lion's share of the allotment will be spent in Clifford ($63,900), Decker-ville ($69,100) and Minden City ($58,600).

arraignment instead of at a later date because of the crowded docket.

The trial of Lloyd Alex Rayner, Caro, who stood mute when accused of breaking and entering the National Light Metals Co. in Caro will be held Jan. 8. A plea of innocent was entered for him.

Two Silverwood men stood mute on charges of breaking and entering the Gamble Store in Mayville. Pleas of innocent were entered for Albert Benjamin and Charles Perkins. Their trial will be held Jan. 9.

John Wesley Metzberg and David B. Freeman, both of Holly, stood mute when charged with breaking and entering the Frutchey Bean Co. elevator in Vassar.

A plea of innocent was entered and the pair will be tried Feb. 19.

Charges against a third person allegedly involved in the crime were dropped, William Scott Freeman died before his case appeared in court.

TWO SENTENCED

Two persons were sentenced Tuesday. Ezequiel Ramos Balboa was placed on probation for two years, fined $200 and ordered to pay court costs of $200 all at $50 per month. In addition he will spend 90 days in the Tuscola County Jail.

Earl J. Scott Jr. of Caro was sentenced to 60 days in jail with credit for 12 days served. He pleaded guilty to breaking and entering without intent to steal.

Verlan Accord, on probation for larceny from a building, pleaded guilty to breaking the terms of his parole. He is $150 behind in court ordered payments and failed to report to his parole office in July, August or September. He will be sentenced Nov. 19.

Thomas Lee Brown, Vassar, pleaded guilty of breaking and entering the Club 24 at Caro. A pre-sentence investigation was ordered and sentence will be passed Dec. 10.

A warrant for the arrest of Donald Eckles of Saginaw was issued when he failed to appear in court for examination. He was free on bail. He is charged with transporting and selling unlicensed cigarettes with a value of over $50.

CASS CITY CHRONICLE

VOLUME 62, NUMBER 31

CASS CITY, MICHIGAN-THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 14, 1968

Neil MacCallum most valuable Hawk griddier

This year's most valuable player of the 1968 Hawk grid squad is a good football player and a good student. He won the most valuable honors with the credentials that please coaches and are appreciated by teammates. He was the leading tackler and outstanding blocker on the team. He played both ways and was noted as a team player. The co-captain of the club, he was voted best blocker and best defensive player in three of the nine games this fall. MacCallum will have two letters in football when he graduates next spring. Beside football, MacCallum was active in many school activities. He is the parliamentarian of the student council and a member of the National Honor Society. He serves as secretary of the Varsity Club. He plans to enter college next fall. He is applying at the University of Michigan but would prefer the U. S. Naval Academy if he can secure an appointment.

BOMBED OUT
It sometimes happens that Pop spends a great deal of time downtown just because their is no place like home.

RECEIVING CONGRATULATIONS from Coach John Bifoss after he was elected the Hawks' most valuable player by his teammates is Neil MacCallum, Cass City senior.

Error prone Hawks tie Broncos in final game

Cass City won everything but the game in the final outing of the season Friday against North Branch. Despite a huge statistical advantage, the Hawks were forced to settle for a tie in the game played at Cass City Recreational Park.

Both teams scored in the second quarter after recovering fumbles and both missed the extra point in the 6-6 stand-off.

The Broncos started the scoring when Chuck Snoblen recovered a fumble at mid-field.

Six plays later, Bob Ma-berry broke off tackle for 35 yards and the touchdown.

Late in the same period, Tom Fulcher recovered a fumble on the 35-yard line of North Branch. Three plays moved the ball to the 35 from where Fulcher stanted off tackle to paydirt.

That ended the touchdown action. Cass City moved freely up and down the field but every drive was halted by misplays.

Like Michigan State, Cass City wasted away opportunities. Just when the team appeared ready to drive for the winning touchdown a penalty or fumble stopped them short.

Cass City had no monopoly on sloppy ball handling. Both teams fumbled seven times and lost five of them.

But Cass City gained a total of 215 yards while North Branch picked up just 80.

Team season's statistics

Tom Fulcher - 63 carries for 301 yards, 5 yard average.
Larry McClorey - 56 carries for 274 yards, 5 yard average.
Rob Alexander - 29 carries for 113 yards, 4 yard average.

Tom Guinther - 59 passes with 19 completions for 146 yards.
Rob Alexander - 27 passes with 7 completions for 103 yards.
Tony Davis - 8 passes with 5 completions for 44 yards.

Scott Guernsey - 29 punts for 1081 yards, 37 yard average.

Larry McClorey - 3 touchdowns for 18 points
Tom Fulcher - 3 touchdowns for 18 points
Rob Alexander - 2 touchdowns - 2 extra points for 14 points
Tom Guinther - 1 touchdown for 6 points

Considering the statistics, the tie was a moral victory for the visitors.

Coach John Bifoss singled out Tom Fulcher as the best player Friday on both offense and defense. Neil MacCallum was the best blocker. Fulcher recovered three fumbles and MacCallum and John Bifoss each snared one. Fulcher also intercepted a pass.

Others include Mick Miracle, Fulcher, Terry Brinkman, Bill Spencer and Tom Kolb.

Things should be brighter for the Hawks next year. There will be 17 lettermen returning including a hard core of regulars who should have picked up valuable game experience this year.

The statistics:

	NB	CC
First downs	4	10
Passes complete	0/8	9/24
Yards passing	-	94
Yards rushing	80	121
Total offense	80	215
Punts, average	6/28	2/35
Fumbles lost	5/7	5/7
Penalty yards	4/40	6/70

Hold services for Mrs. E. Schultz

Mrs. Clara I. Schultz, 57, of Bad Axe died Nov. 7 at her home. She was born Oct. 28, 1911, in Bad Axe, the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Otto Zabel. Funeral services were held Monday, Nov. 11, at the Mac-Alpine Funeral Home. The Rev. Carl Schinnerer officiated. Burial was in Colfax cemetery. She and Elmer Schultz, who survives, were married May 10, 1930, at Owendale. The couple moved from Caro about 10 years ago to make their home in Bad Axe.

Also surviving are: one son, Arnold, with the Navy at Adak, Alaska; three sisters and three brothers, including Mrs. Minnie Hojpe of Cass City.

TRIFLES

It takes a real storm in any man's life to make him realize how much worrying he has done over squalls.

"If It Fitz..."

The only son has one advantage

BY JIM FITZGERALD

Everytime our son complains about having 2 sisters and no brothers, I tell him there are worse things that could happen to a kid.

For instance, I remind him, I have 4 sisters and no brothers. "Gee," he always says, "how did you ever stand it?"

There will be a renewed discussion about how I stood it this Saturday when the Fitz sisters and brother have one of their rare get-togethers. The occasion is the 44th birthday of Terrible Jean, my older sister who will probably beat me up for the 167th time for telling the world she is not 39.

Close students of this nonsense may recall that I have written before about Jean's birthday parties. Our mother is giving this one in Port Huron. Last year Aunt Florence was the hostess, and Aunt Madeline has done her share, too. No one ever gives me a birthday party. A sympathetic neighbor dubbed me "The Forgotten Man" when I was 10 years old and nothing has changed since. At family reunions I often wear a name tag so relatives will quit asking me which one of the Fitzgerald girls I married.

When a person is invited to a birthday party for Jean, he is always told "Oh don't bother bringing a gift. Unless you really want to." This means bring a gift or you can't get in. Jean and her husband usually rent a haul-away trailer to accommodate the loot.

Actually, only 2 of the 4 sisters will be at Saturday's party. Lynda, the youngest, is too far away. She lives in San Francisco where she is a secretary, her mother thinks. But everytime a newspaper publishes a picture of west coast hippies, Mother peeks at it from between her fingers. And Nancy, the second youngest, is pregnant and immobile in Cincinnati.

(My 3 married sisters will soon have a total of 14 kids, none old enough to vote for the president of the freshman class. I think the girls exchange weekly encyclopedias with the Pope).

But Terrible Jean and Worse Mary Lou will be present and that will be more than enough to remind me of the deprivations of my childhood.

I have often related how muscular Jean abused me physically to the point where I grew up with an Amazonian complex. I remember, as a small boy, how surprised I was to learn that Joe Louis was not short for Joan Louis.

Mary Lou was a different problem. She was 2 years younger than I, so my job was to take care of her while Mother played bridge. Mary Lou was continually walking in front of cars or falling down riverbanks. She had so many narrow squeaks she turned grey when she was 8 years old. And everytime Mary Lou skinned a knee or shed a tear, I was in trouble for "not watching your little sister." Even today, when she stumbles

Uncle Tim From Tyre Says:

Dear Mister Editor:

Ed Doolittle told the fellows at the country store Saturday night that the new administration coming in reminds him of a baseball story from away back. This manager got so mad at this shortstop for making errors he went out to show the shortstop how to play. The manager dropped the first ball hit to him and got madder than ever with his player. "You got this position so messed up that nobody can play it," he said.

Ed allowed as how our next President was going to be in the same fix that manager was in. He said the Federal Government was in such a mess he's afraid nobody can run it. For instant, said Ed, if our new President don't cut back on Federal spending, he'll be called ever name in the book. But if he cuts back on any Federal services and benefits he'll be called the same names. All in all, said Ed, he'd as soon be elected guest of honor at a hanging as to have to step into Johnson's job in January. Even the new President's problems has got problems, was Ed's words.

Zeke Grubb got the floor and announced they was one critical issue the politicians didn't bring up during the campaign. One issue that ain't been give near the attention it needs, said Zeke, is lead. He was of the opinion too many people in this country was suffering from lead settled in the seat of their pants. We was getting to the place, he said, we can't recognize our lead problem as old fashion laziness. We call it by a whole string of polite names but all the time more and more people was catching the disease. The Government has now got the country divided into the givers and the takers and the takers was fast getting into the majority. Zeke allowed it was time the new administration started to even up the lead.

Ed got control of the floor

All-New 1969 DODGE POLARA

A buck never bought so much before at the Dodge Boys' SO MUCH BEAUTY

SO MUCH LUXURY

SO MUCH ROOMINESS

SO MANY NEW IDEAS

Take a look at Dodge Polara. It's all-new from top to bottom. Clean. Low. Handsome. And Polara doesn't just look longer. It is longer than other low-priced cars. See for yourself. At the Dodge Boys'.

For years, Polara's given you much more room inside than other cars. This year's Polara's even better. With more shoulder room, hiproom and rear legroom. You get big-car room without a big-car's price.

How many low-priced cars give you carpeting and big, foam-padded seats as standard equipment? Or concealed wipers and a big, handsome instrument panel? Plus a big, 230-hp V8? Polara does.

Exclusive with Dodge is the optional, turnpike Super-Lite. It lights the road far beyond the normal low beams without offending oncoming drivers.

NO WONDER THE DODGE BOYS ARE HAVING THEIR BIGGEST TURNOUT IN HISTORY.

WOMEN'S STUDY CLUB

Monday, Nov. 4, 10 members of the Gagetown Women's Study Club met at the home of the president, Mrs. James England.

Mrs. Leslie Deach gave a report on "The Economics of South America." Mrs. Clare Comment was accepted as a new member. The group voted to give $10 to the teen ranch near Kingston; $10 to the retarded children's fund; $5 to Boys Town; $5 to Star Common-wealth; $22 to Girl's Town, and to give $200.00 for scholarships to two persons.

The club launched a project to raise money to help with the purchase of another piece of property and the building of a new home for Girl's Town at Belleville, Mich. This will be the second building which the Michigan Federation will be managing at Girl's Town.

All clubs of the Michigan Federation have been asked to raise money for this project. The Gagetown club decided to let each member raise her portion in her own way.

The Monday, Dec. 2, meeting will be at the public school and members are requested to bring a man's or woman's gift for patients in the County Medical Facility. The hostess served dessert and coffee.

Duane Hurd left Wednesday for a hunting trip to Munising. Mrs. Hurd and Yvette will visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Jeans, in Bay City while he is away.

George Russell and Leo were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jutson Corby in Port Huron.

Sr. Marie Climacus Donovan of Cincinnati, Ohio, and Tony Carolan and Patti Craig of Bay City were Wednesday luncheon guests of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Carolan and called on Mr. and Mrs. Sherwood Rice, Mr. and Mrs. Roy LaFave and visited Miss Emma Purdy at the nursing home in Pigeon.

Michigan State University conducts a number of wide-ranging courses, but its most unusual program is held each summer on the Juneau Icefield in Alaska. Last summer, about two dozen students participated in the eight-week institute in glacier science.

FROM THE FILES OF THE CHRONICLE

FIVE YEARS AGO

Baseball in November may seem a little out of place, but Cass City Little League officials are trying to create interest in the coming season with a $866.50 drive to purchase new uniforms and catchers' gear for five teams.

The Methodist Church was dedicated Sunday, marking the final payments on the improvements to the church completed several years ago. Fifteen memorial gifts were also dedicated.

Mr. and Mrs. John Masten, Shabbona, will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary with an open house Sunday, Nov. 17, at the Shabbona Hall from 1:00 to 4:30 p.m.

The annual community Thanksgiving service sponsored by the Cass City Council of Churches is slated for Wednesday, Nov. 27, at 8 p.m. at the Methodist Church, authorities announced.

Thirty-two members and two guests attended the monthly meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary Monday evening in the Legion Hall.

The revitalized Elmwood United Fund campaign has gone over its goal, Mrs. William Ashmore Jr. announced this week.

A program of Civil Defense will be featured at the regular meeting of the Zonta Club Tuesday evening, Nov. 19, at the New Gordon Hotel. The director and coordinator of Civil Defense for Tuscola County will be the speaker.

Despite a five-month delay for revision of the architect's plans, work on the Cass City Community Hospital is progressing rapidly. A date has not been set as yet for the completion of the new facility.

TEN YEARS AGO

Fifty-five 4-H clothing club leaders attended a workshop recently at the Wilber Memorial 4-H building. Many area women were present.

There will be a Girl Scout leadership training course at the Methodist Church in Vassar Thursday and Friday, Nov. 13-14.

With an awesome display of offensive and defensive power, Cass City rolled over Bad Axe 38-0 in the championship tilt Friday night at the Cass City Recreational Park before a record crowd estimated at 2,000 persons.

Two Cass City residents were among the 14 industrial supervisors to complete a one-week course Friday in Wittenberg College's Management Development Program. Receiving diplomas at the end of the one-week course were Howard Bacon and James Wallace.

One of the oldest buildings in the community is being moved this week to make room for a new parking lot at the east end of the alley north of Main Street, between Oak and Seeger Streets.

Incomplete returns in the annual Elkland-Novesta Township Community Chest Drive reveal that the drive is lagging this year, Chairman Willis Campbell reported this week.

The assistant secretary of agriculture addressed the 14th annual meeting of Farm Bureau Women at East Lansing Monday. Many area women attended.

Officers of the Tuscola County unit of the American Cancer Society met at the courthouse at Caro Tuesday evening, Oct. 21.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

Cass City again marched through an opponent undaunted, this time trouncing Bad Axe by a score of 19-15 here Thursday.

About 170 attended the 47th annual Eastern Star Thumb Association meeting held in the Masonic Temple in Caro Saturday. Many Cass City area residents attended.

Loss of ration books will mean a wait of 15 days after filing application for duplicates by Tuscola County residents, the Tuscola County War Price and Ration Board announced.

Ladies and friends of the Baptist Church attended a tea in the church parlors Wednesday afternoon which was sponsored by the Missionary Circle of the church.

THIRTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

In a game that featured nearly every kind of football known, the Maroon and Grey fighting eleven ran wild at Marlette to score their sixth straight victory by the score of 48-0. The blocking and tackling of the Hilltoppers was not quite equal to that seen in the games here against Vassar and Sandusky,

BET SUGAR INDUSTRY OF MICHIGAN

AGRI-BUSINESS IN ACTION...

Sugarbeet growers in Michigan's Saginaw Valley have played a vital role in the agri-business economy of our state since the turn of the century. Their progressive efforts combined with those of the state's two processing companies have boosted the dollar value of the sugarbeet crop to nearly $35 million dollars annually. In 1968 farmers in 17 Michigan counties harvested over 84,000 acres of beets. A crop that will produce nearly 350 million pounds of sugar for the Michigan market.

If you live in the Saginaw Valley-Thumb area of Michigan, you no doubt know someone that helps fill Michigan's "sugar bowl" each year. It makes good sense to buy a Michigan grown product. Help yourself to Michigan Made Pure Sugar the next time you shop. Ask for it by name—Pioneer or Big Chief. These brands in the red, white and blue bags represent the finest that Michigan agri-business has to offer.

Monday afternoon Cass City's debate team went to its first contest, which was held in Frankenmuth. Schools which are members of the Lower Thumb Debate League attended.

Cass City won one and lost three. Lorna Kidney and Rick Ross, affirmatives, defeated Bad Axe. Other teams debated were Lakers, Frankenmuth, and Mt. Morris. Those who attended from C. C. H. S. are: Terry Brinkman and Carole Clarke, negatives, Rainell Chisholm, Susan Koepfen, Jean Butler, Lorna Kidney, Rick Ross, Bradley Uhl, timer, and Mr. William Crouch, coach.

Wednesday Mr. Crouch's sociology class visited Lapeer State Home. On the way to Lapeer, stories flew of "human vegetables" and barred windows, and the class was a little nervous as to how they would react.

Upon arrival the class was divided into two groups, each group having its own guide. Areas visited in the hour long tour were: the wards of the mildly and severely retarded boys of ages 5-18, classrooms, the nursery, a physical therapy department, and the mildly retarded women's dormitory.

Worthy Patron Howard Helwig was escorted to the East by Mrs. Francis Withey as Knight Templars from the Bad Axe chapter formed a crossed sword arch.

Installing officers were Marilyn Craig, Maxine Profit, Cecil Loomis, Lucille Wotton and Leo Tracy, soloist.

Mrs. Sarosky and Mrs. Ruth Ann Hendershot, daughter-in-law of the worthy matron, attended the tea table, which was decorated with a centerpiece of red roses and white chrysanthemums, presented by employees of Hills and Dales Hospital.

Guests were present from OES chapters in Caro, Cass City, Kingston, Uby and Elkton. Also attending were Job's Daughters and Knight Templars.

Mrs. Clarence Terrill, Bay Port, was elected vice-president and Mrs. Gaylord LaPeer, Uby, treasurer of the Area Extension Homemakers' Council at a meeting held in the home of Council Chairman Mrs. Walter Moderow, Reese. The Council, which plans and promotes educational opportunities under the direction of the Cooperative Extension Service Family Living Program, has representatives from Huron, Sanilac and Tuscola counties.

Mrs. Walter Jackson, Caro; Mrs. Stanley Kohn, Sandusky, and Mrs. Jay Mihm, Bay Port, were assisted by Mrs. Chester Stone, Fairgrove, Mrs. Leonard Russell, Akron, and Mrs. Moberow in selecting classes for an Area College Day to be held in the Cass City High School Saturday, Feb. 15. Michigan State University instructors will now be confirmed for these class offerings.

Eight of the council members tabulated and correlated the evaluation sheets from the Area Leadership Day held recently in Bad Axe. Results showed that the classes assisted leadership development in far-reaching ways. The evaluation forms will be turned over to the Thumb Catholic Deanery Council which co-sponsored the event.

Mrs. Russell reported on a state safety meeting and encouraged the counties to participate in an effort to encourage cycle and pedestrian safety through the use of reflector tape.

Michigan's teachers among best paid in nation

SALARIES RISE

Final figures from 1968-69 contract negotiating sessions show Michigan teachers this year are among the best paid in the Midwest and the nation. Only five years ago, a teacher armed with a bachelor's degree could expect to collect $4,985 the first year on the job. This year the average beginning salary is around $6,600. Detroit claims the highest paid starting teachers in Michigan: $7,500 per year. By contrast, Lake Linden in the Upper Peninsula starts its teachers at $5,855.

The beginning salaries still fall short of the goal set by the 80,000-member Michigan Education Association. It is striving for a starting point of $8,000 a year.

The MEA also wants $16,000 in 10 years for teachers with master's degrees. Presently Dearborn's District No. 8 pays the most in the maximum salary category: $13,210 per year.

But MEA officials say starting salaries aren't the only areas they're interested in. The big teacher organization says it also wants better compensation for experienced hands.

"We're trying to keep teachers in the profession," said Kai Erickson, assistant MEA secretary. "I'm sure the biggest gains this year will be in the middle levels." Erickson said a large number of teachers are lost to industry and business in the third and fourth years because of the pay difference.

Figures show that Erickson is right about the salary boosts for experienced teachers.

Van Dyke School District is an example of the move to retain teachers. Last year, teachers there with bachelor degrees could expect no more than $10,600 a year. This year, they were given a $816 raise, to $11,417.

Throughout Michigan in 1967-68, experienced teachers were getting a maximum average of $9,589 for a bachelor's degree. They can expect about $10,100 on the average this year.

What gains this year will mean to next year's negotiating sessions is hard to say. A legislative study committee is delving into ways to prevent contract disputes in Michigan.

HOUSE CODE CHECKED

"Outdated, confusing and unduly restrictive" is the way Gov. George Romney describes Michigan's housing code. He wants it revised and has appointed a 20-member blue-ribbon commission to do just that.

The commission includes local housing officials, architects, engineers, builders, trade unionists and attorneys. It also contains the state fire marshal, chairman of the board of plumbing, and chief of the environmental health planning unit.

Romney is hopeful the commission will come up with some recommendations for presentation to the 1969 legislature.

"A modern, uniform code oriented toward performance standards is necessary if we are to be receptive to the technological changes and improvements which are rapidly occurring in the housing industry," he said.

GRAND RIVER COHO

Southern Michigan's Grand River which snakes some 140 miles from near Jackson to Grand Haven, will be stocked with salmon next year, according to the State Conservation Department.

Fisheries officials say they will decide soon on exactly how many salmon will be planted and where the fish will be released.

They said it appears, however, that about 100,000 young salmon, probably coho, will be stocked in the Grand upstream from the dam at Lyons.

They said this would provide just enough salmon for sport fishing in the stream itself and contribute to off-shore action in the Grand Haven area.

The releases would bring the first runs of "jack" salmon to the river next fall. The fish would weigh about two to three pounds. The adult runs would follow in the fall of 1970, offering fishermen catches in the 15 to 20-pound category.

Letter to Editor

Mr. John Haire
Cass City Chronicle

Dear Editor:

This coming Monday evening, Nov. 18, the Cass City Layman's Club, is happy, to again sponsor the Channel 5 TV rally in this area.

We feel that the Cathedral of Tomorrow program shown every Sunday morning at 8:30 to 9:30 is a very necessary to the "Thumb Area." The program itself, under Rex Hubbard's leadership, reaches many people who are not in morning services, and cannot attend for various reasons. They find this program a demonstration of present day faith in God, and the manifestation of a "Working" Gospel of Jesus Christ. Many church goers of this area have come to us and told us how they always listen to the Hubbard preaching before going to their respective place of worship on Sunday mornings.

We as laymen of Cass City urge everyone who possibly can to attend this rally and personally show your appreciation to Rex and his staff for the great work of faith which they are venturing, and under God's blessing are carrying out. Their programs now cover the entire United States and Canada, having added another hundred stations this year.

Lets give them a big welcome, we are so happy to have them in this area for a one night stand.

Sincerely,
Bill O'Dell, Secretary

BPW Club holds monthly meeting

The monthly meeting of the Cass City Business and Professional Women's Club was held Nov. 6 at the New Gordon Hotel. After dinner Betty Jo Agar, personal development chairman, introduced Helen Agar, who, with her helpers, gave a demonstration of wigs and hairpieces.

President Sheryl Seeley presided at the meeting. Betty Carmer presented the club with a check for $183.82, net proceeds from the fall rummage sale.

Verna May MacRae reported the community calendars project appears to have been a success.

A letter was read from the Leesburg, Fla., club asking for a transfer for Irene Stafford, who has moved to Florida and will now be a member of their club.

Mrs. Vina Kelly is a new member of the Cass City club. The group voted to buy new road signs and a banner for the club room.

The next meeting will be the Christmas party with a $1.00 gift exchange. The committee for the party includes Helen Bartie, Laura Bryant and Enid Craig.

One For The Road Highlights of a lengthy trip

By Dan Marlowe

A few facts, figures, and fancies on a recently completed 5697 mile automobile trip.

States traversed included Michigan, Indiana, Illinois, Iowa, Kansas, Missouri, Arkansas, Louisiana, Mississippi, Alabama, Florida, Georgia, No. Carolina, Tennessee, Kentucky, Ohio, and back to Michigan.

Gasoline used on the trip totaled 253 gallons. Plus I quart of oil. And I know just where I left the oil. It amalgamated with the atmosphere on one 5-mile stretch of the Kansas Turnpike (no speed limit). Known in the trade as blowing it out the tailpipe. The car chickened out at 112. Well, it couldn't have been the driver, could it?

Total cost of gasoline was $84.09. Plus 77¢ for the oil. Michigan's gas is among the most expensive, alas. Gas in Arkansas was the cheapest.

Average cost per gallon during the trip was 33.2¢. High- or low-point of the trip was Hurricane Gladys. I played leapfrog with it for 3 days on Florida's west coast trying to get to Key West without getting blown off the Overseas Highway. My judgement—or—luck turned out to be excellent. Just as I headed for Key West the hurricane turned inland where I'd been.

Gladys brought lots of rain, not that Florida needed it. Even pre-Gladys, every river and creek I saw was bank-full. The natives admitted that Florida had never been so green at this time of the year. A few months ago the Everglades were drying up. Now they're afloat and the alligators are learning the bread stroke.

I visited Ernest Hemingway's home in Key West. He did some of his best (which is to say his earliest) writing there. He raised his family there. Plenty of Hemingway memorabilia are still present. These range from the sublime (handwritten manuscript) to the ridiculous (household accounts and tax bills). The home (actually 3 buildings) is scrupulously maintained. Among the pictures I took were a couple of the lineal descendants of Hemingway's 20 cats.

Other box scores on the trip: Editors visited, 1 (Hitchcock Magazine, in Riviera Beach, Fla.); Racetracks visited, 1 (Keeneland, in Kentucky); Writers' Conferences visited, 1 (Oakland University in Rochester, Mich.) on the way home.

Signs seen en route: In Missouri small town on florist truck: "We Sell Every Bloomin' Thing." On a dry cleaner's in Hattiesburg, Mississippi: "Our pressers are all steamed up." On an automobile wash in just-married decorations: "Members of the Harper Valley P.T.A."

The south is a very special place to eat. As a life-long early riser, I had many breakfasts at truck stops. Some of these restaurants serve the truckers an eye-opener breakfast. This consists of a bottle of beer and corn flakes. Grits come with all orders. There is no shortage of sausages. I don't know how those southerners stay so thin.

More on the trip when the multiple impressions gained have marinated and risen to the surface to be skimmed off.

4-H'ers honored at fall achievement

Many 4-H youth from throughout Tuscola County were honored for their 1968 project achievements during Monday evening's annual 4-H County Fall Achievement Program.

The coveted State Awards went to Allan Herman of Jolly Jokers for his Soil and Water Conservation project leadership, Judy Campbell of the Hemliners for her safety project work and Deborah Ortner of the Busy Beavers for her Food Preservation project work. The District Award in Foods-Nutrition was presented to Deborah Ortner.

The Key Club Awards went to George Russell, Debby Rohlf, Patsy Louis, Andrea Stoll and Judy Campbell.

The following 4-H members were recognized for their awards as District Project Winners: Kathy Jickling, swine; Judy Campbell, safety; Deborah Ortner, food preservation; Vicky Rohlf, dairy foods; Allan Herman, conservation; George Russell, agriculture and Margie Clarke, horticulture.

The Danforth Leadership Award went to Allan Herman and Judy Campbell.

The entertainment for the evening was furnished by Joanne Wentta and Kay Wildner who gave short talks and showed slides on their trip last summer to El Salvador that was sponsored by the National 4-H Club Foundation. Also, Vicky Rohlf gave a short report on the trip to the National Citizenship Short-course session at Washington, D. C. this past summer.

Refreshments were served by the compliments of the Tuscola County 4-H Mothers Club and County 4-H Service Club. Mrs. Keith Russell was chairman of the refreshments committee and was assisted by teen leaders Margie Clarke and Margaret Bittel.

Agent's Corner

It's difficult but still possible to have a well-rounded family life even if it is a one-parent family.

Naturally it's best for children to live with two happy parents, but when this is impossible, the remaining parent can help himself and his children to adapt as well as possible.

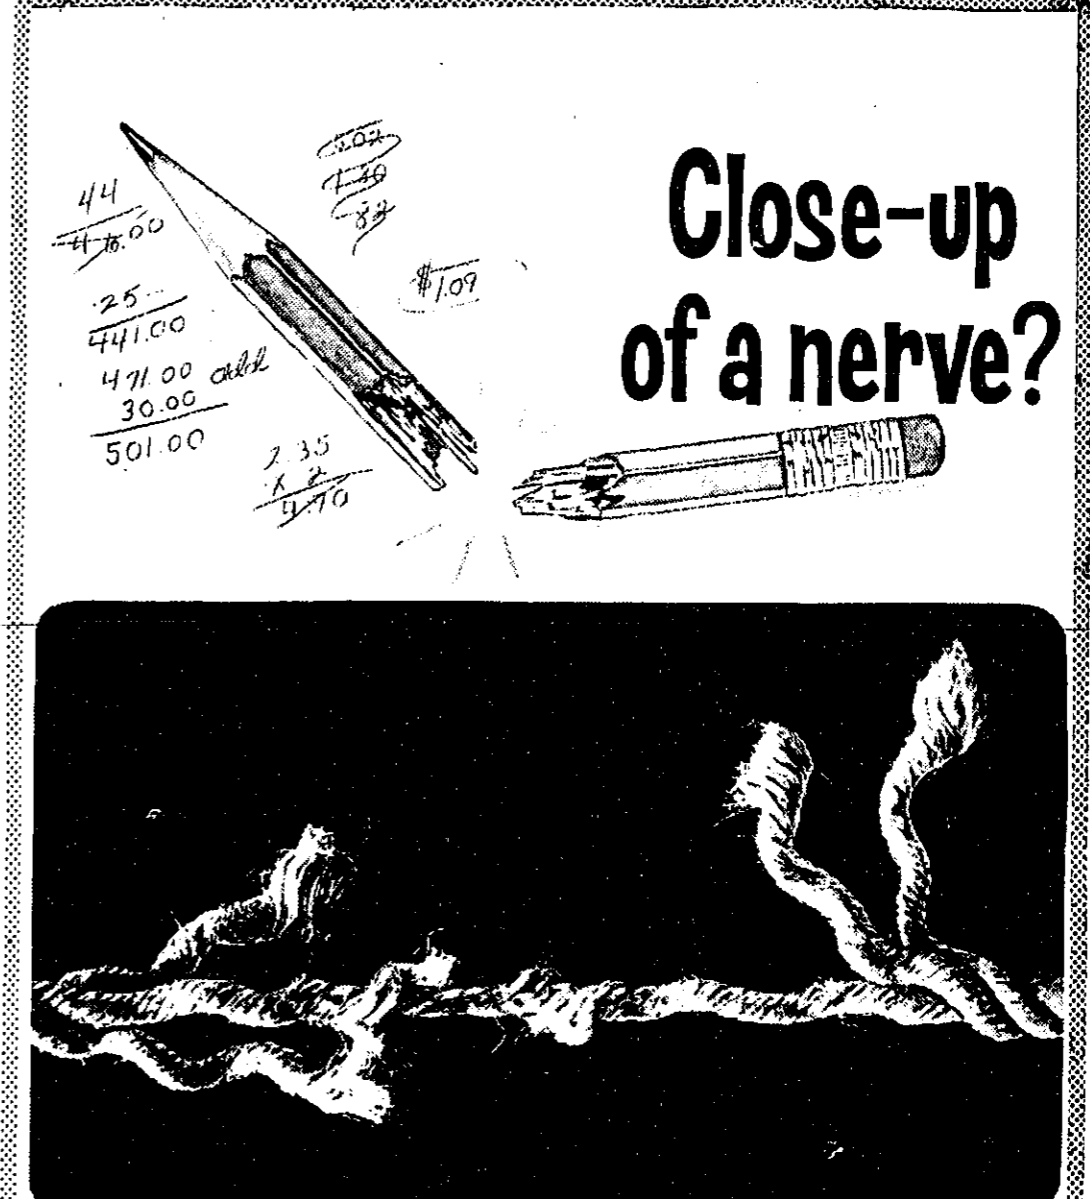

The parent who is acting mother and father needs to find others of the opposite sex who can offer his children relationships they now lack. This might be uncles, aunts, family friends, grandparents, school teachers or even college students who come regularly to take the children out to play. It's important, though, that these persons are conscious of the children's trust and the roles they are playing in the children's lives.

Some parents, when they have lost the companionship of the other parent, attempt to be both mother and father when they can't adequately assume both roles. In their eagerness to make up for what they feel the child is lacking, they often plan too many activities so that the child has no time to himself and often forget about the things that only they can do best for their children. By taking on both roles they may only confuse the child and exhaust themselves.

In cases of prolonged or permanent absence because of death, delinquency or other reasons, children should gradually be presented both the good and bad points about their absent parent. A child who visualizes his absent parent as a "no-good-bum" or a "saint" may grow up with unhealthy attitudes. How much of the truth he should be told depends on his maturity.

When parents are separated or divorced, and the absent parent is still available to the children, parents need to work together to provide a normal home for their youngsters. This can be done if parents keep their personal dislikes to the background and continue to act together in their children's best interests.

Children shouldn't be constantly reminded of sacrifices and labors the remaining or absent parent must make for them -- otherwise they may grow up feeling resentful. They also need to feel that both parents are glad to do things for them even though they all can't live together. In addition, children should feel that both parents have a sincere interest in them that goes beyond monetary gifts.

Close-up of a nerve?

No, it's just a rope... at the breaking point. But, frankly, it's a good illustration of how a man feels when his nerves are "worn to a frazzle."

The Church has never claimed that religion is a cure for frazzled nerves. But a man's Christian faith does this for him:

It shows him a Purpose in life more important than mere existence. It shows him a Power more effective than his own strength. It shows him a Future more rewarding than selfish gain. And it gives him courage more lasting than the sheer force of his human will.

With these spiritual resources, founded in the certainty that God understands and helps, a man never reaches "the breaking point." For when his human reserve is exhausted... he has only begun to tap the vast reservoir of Divine Strength.

Is your home going to turn into a desert this winter?

A lot of homes will.

In wintertime, people in homes with flame-type heaters wake up mornings with a stiff and ached-up feeling. With no heat, their furniture dries out and their clothing shrinks.

An Edison Approved Electric Heating Contractor will be glad to help you get all about comfortable electric heat. He'll figure your operating cost, and explain the guarantee. And now, your contract is offering a $100 trade-in on your old heater system.
