

Gee whiz — Mrs. Gee ponders fire department application

MRS. DANNY GEE is considering applying for membership in the Elkland Township Fire Department. She says she enjoys helping people and would see it as a unique experience. She is shown with son Dean.

Who says a woman's place is in the home? It could be on the business end of a fire hose, according to Mrs. Danny Gee of Cass City.

Mrs. Gee, 26, says she's seriously considering applying for a position on the Elkland Township Fire Department. She hasn't made up her mind yet and says it may be two or three months before she decides.

"I would very much like to be a member of the department," Mrs. Gee, whose husband is already a member of the department, told the Chronicle last week. "I enjoy helping people and this is one way to do it."

Mrs. Gee says the fact that she's a woman should have nothing to do with whether or not she's accepted.

"I feel if a woman is capable of doing something, she should do it," Mrs. Gee says. "I think it could be a unique experience."

Since her husband is already a department member, she says she's already familiar with some of the equipment. She's helped, for instance, when department equipment was used to fill swimming pools.

She also understands some of the risks involved, she says, because of her husband's experience.

"I haven't decided for sure yet," Mrs. Gee says. "because we have two small children at home. One is nine and the other is a baby. It would be hard to find someone to stay with the kids if a fire call came in during the middle of the night."

If she decides to apply, Mrs. Gee says she wants the same screening process used for any male applicant. They shouldn't make me take a physical because they don't make the rest of them take physicals, she says.

What would happen if she applied and was turned down? She'd fight.

"If they said I couldn't join, I would take it to the Civil Rights Commission or the Labor Relations Board," Mrs. Gee says. "I've been through it before in the shop."

She admits there's probably some feeling against having a woman on the fire department but that times are changing.

One person who isn't crazy about the idea of having a woman on the department is Fire Chief Jim Jezewski. "I just don't know about having a woman on the department," he says.

"It's downright dirty, hard work," he says. "It's strenuous. After you work with a hose or an ax at a grass fire or a barn fire, it takes a lot out of you."

Jezewski says right now there are no openings on his 23-man department. He does have one man on the auxiliary force where new prospects are placed until a slot opens up on the main staff.

He says when someone applies for membership, he interviews the candidate, who is then introduced at a fireman's meeting. The person's background is checked and if he qualifies, he joins the auxiliary where he stays for a year before he's ready for membership in the main department.

There's also a 66-hour fire-fighting course required for full-time firemen.

Mrs. Gee says she grew up on a farm and isn't afraid of physical labor. I've done it all my life, she says.

Elkland Township Supervisor Edwin Karr says no woman has yet applied for membership on the department and if she did now, there wouldn't be room on the main firefighting force.

Owen-Gage dissidents move to stop bond sale

Another lawsuit has been filed to stop the sale of Owen-Gage School District bonds.

Four of the six dissident property owners who lost an earlier attempt to stop the bond sale have filed a claim of appeal with the Michigan Court of Appeals.

The group seeks to have a Dec. 17 decision by Huron County Circuit Court Judge Allen Keyes thrown out. The decision granted a summary judgment in favor of the district and allowed the bond sale to proceed.

The four who filed the suit are Delmar Miller, Bernard Neister, Barbara Burton and Joyce Loeffler.

According to H. Dale Cubitt, Bad Axe attorney representing the group, the basic question revolves around the district itself.

"My clients contend that the bond sale should be delayed and no building should take place until all litigation involving the district has been settled," Cubitt told the Chronicle Monday.

Under the law, the group had 20 days to file a claim of appeal of Keyes' decision. That claim was reportedly filed last Thursday. Cubitt said the group then has 60 days to file an appeal and the school district has 60 days in which to respond.

The case will then be heard in the Court of Appeals.

Cubitt said the intent of the latest action is to reverse Keyes' decision and bring the case back to Huron county where the case can be heard and tried.

He said it's possible the district's attorneys could short-circuit the procedure by filing an emergency plea with the appeals court and force the case directly into the Michigan Supreme Court for an early decision.

Cubitt declined to say whether or not the latest action would stop the bond sale again. School officials had eyed a late January sale date.

According to the law, the school bonds may not be sold as long as there is any pending litigation against them.

"Basically what we're saying is don't build until you know what you are and where you are," Cubitt said.

He denied the group he represents is attempting to destroy the Owen-Gage district. "They seem to think all the various groups are tied together somehow," he said. "This isn't true. I wouldn't know this Kleeb (Robert Kleeb, Howell attorney representing another group of dissidents) if I met him on the street." Cubitt said his clients believe their suit will ultimately show Owen-Gage will not be able to support a $1.675 million bond issue to construct a new high school building.

He said transfers to other districts are not an issue in this case.

Owen-Gage Supt. Ronald Erickson said Monday he had no information on the latest suit.

Sunday fire destroys rural Uibly farmhouse

Fire believed started by an overheated oil heater destroyed the Harry Pyonk residence on Cumber Road, seven miles southwest of Uibly, Sunday morning.

Assistant Uibly Fire Chief Earl Longuski said no one was at home when the fire broke out. A neighbor reportedly spotted flames and called the fire department at 9:45 a.m.

The structure was engulfed in flames by the time firemen arrived, Longuski said. A nearby building containing a number of chickens and pigs was saved. Elkland township firemen were called to assist at 10:00 a.m.

Both departments remained at the scene for nearly three hours.

Loss on the home and contents was estimated at $11,000.

Longuski urged area residents to exercise caution with oil heaters, especially in extremely cold weather. He said persons should put on an extra sweater before turning a heater as high as it will go.

"If there's a weak spot (in the heater) that's when you'll find it," he said.

Elsewhere, Elkland firemen battled a blaze that broke out in a wall behind a fireplace at the Charles Tuckey at 4681 Schwegler Rd., Sunday night.

Fire Chief Jim Jezewski said studding in back of the fireplace ignited after sparks apparently passed through a hole left by a missing brick in the chimney.

Jezewski said firemen were forced to cut a hole in the wall and dismantle half the fireplace in order to extinguish the blaze.

Damage was estimated at $2,000. Firemen remained at the scene for about 45 minutes.

Damage was estimated at $2,500 in a fire that broke out Tuesday morning in a barn at the Don DeLong farm on Kelly Road, three miles southeast of Cass City.

Jezewski said a four-wheeled mechanized manure loader backfired, setting engine wiring and hydraulic lines on fire. No one was injured.

Elkland township firemen responded to the alarm at 9:45 a.m.

MAYNARD McCONKEY, Cass City, takes his seat as Chairman of the Tuscola County Board of Commissioners. McConkey was elected to the post Tuesday by fellow commissioners at their organizational meeting in Caro. Standing with McConkey is Cmmr. Paul Nagy, Fairgrove, chosen vice-chairman of the board.

McConkey named to chair Tuscola Commissioners

Maynard McConkey, Cass City, a veteran of township and county politics, was elected Chairman of the Tuscola County Board of Commissioners at the board's organizational meeting Tuesday at the courthouse in Caro.

McConkey succeeds Charles Woodcock, Vassar, who retired at the end of 1976.

McConkey has served on the county board since 1973 and was Chairman of the important county personnel committee last year.

The Cass City native is a former Elkland Township Supervisor. He was elected to the board in 1972, succeeding Edward Golding, Cass City.

The board chose Paul Nagy, Fairgrove, as vice-chairman, succeeding Kenneth Kennedy, Millington. Nagy began his second term on the board this year.

The new chairman also made committee assignments for the year. They are: Finance—Chairman Kenneth Kennedy; members J. Benson Collon, Caro, and Paul Nagy.

County Affairs—Chairman Robert Russell, Vassar; members Kennedy and Mrs. Donna Rayl, Unionville.

Health—Chairman Mrs. Margaret Wenta, Fostoria; members Kennedy and Collon.

Personnel — Chairman

Nagy; members Rayl and Russell. Public Affairs—Chairman Collon; members Russell and Wenta.

Departmental Control — Chairman Rayl; members Nagy and Wenta.

In other business, the board began its week-long session with a report from Thumb Area Consortium Executive Director Frank Lenard who reported on Title VI CETA funds.

Lenard said a total of $1,196,572 has been earmarked for Tuscola, Huron and Sanilac counties, or about half what planners expected.

He said Tuscola county's share of the funding amounts to $491,924, while Huron county will receive $370,555 and Sanilac county is set to receive $310,163.

Lenard said the cut in funding could place the jobs of 128 CETA workers in the three counties in jeopardy. In Sanilac county alone, he said, layoffs could begin as early as April.

The funding is due to run through the end of September.

He said there's a chance the incoming Carter administration might come up with extra money for the program, but it's too early to tell.

The Consortium is scheduled to meet next week to discuss the projected Title VI grant in detail.

OTHER BUSINESS

In other business, representatives of Continental Telephone Co. appeared before the board to explain a proposed central switchboard system for the courthouse.

Presently, each office has as many as three telephone numbers each at an average cost of $1,414 per month. Under the proposal, the courthouse, Sheriff's department and annex calls would be routed through a switchboard.

Estimated cost of the new system is $1,311. The proposal was referred to committee.

Gerald Polk, Circuit Court probation officer, told commissioners the state is supplying his office with another person to handle the increased work load. The state will pay the worker's salary and provide a desk and chair.

This raises the problem of finding space, McConkey said. Last year, the board took over the former offices of the Intermediate School District to relieve the courthouse.

The board will reconvene Thursday to hear departmental reports.

JON ZDROJEWSKI, 10, didn't mind missing two days of school this week. He decided to make the most of his free time and build a fort in a snowbank. The snow kept Cass City area students away from classes both Monday and Tuesday.

Snow snarls schools, roads

Winter arrived in full force Monday as snow, buffeted by high winds snarled traffic and forced wholesale cancellation of schools and governmental meetings.

Unofficially, Cass City received between eight and nine inches of snow, according to Nelson Willy, Wastewater Treatment Plant Superintendent. Willy said wind and the lightness of the snow produced about four inches on the average.

Snow began falling late Sunday night. Tuscola County Road Commission crews were called out at 11:00 p.m. and battled the storm for the next 12 hours.

Road Commission Engineer Robert Wellington said the trucks were called in for about two hours late Monday morning as roads filled with snow as fast as they were opened. State highways were kept passable throughout the storm, he said.

He said crews were making a new assault Tuesday with an eye to having all county roads reopened by Wednesday night.

Officials at Detroit Edison Co. and General Telephone reported no problems resulting from Monday's storm.

The storm forced cancellation of school in nearly all districts in Tuscola, Huron and Sanilac counties, including Cass City. Most schools were still closed Tuesday.

At Cass City, the Board of Education meeting scheduled Monday night will be held next Monday, Jan. 17, at 7:30 p.m.

The Owen-Gage School Board will also meet next Monday at 8:00 p.m. at Owendale. Their regularly-scheduled meeting was also cancelled Monday.

Widespread cancellation of church and club activities was also reported.

Cass City village crews hit the streets at 5:00 a.m. Monday and continued plowing snow throughout the day. They returned again before dawn Tuesday.

Village Supt. Lou LaPonsie said snow removal was expected to be completed Tuesday afternoon.

(And anyone else he can get to help)

It's gratifying that nearly 40 of you took the time to fill in our questionnaire about what you like or dislike about the Chronicle.

On the last page of the second section this week the questionnaire is reprinted. If you planned on helping us out by telling us what you want in the paper and just didn't get around to it, do it now, won't you?

After we receive them all we'll compile them and let you know the results. An advance peek... the most frequently read single item in the paper is going to be letters to the editor.

With school out and the year's biggest snowfall Monday, I saw just two snowmobiles racing around town.

The interest has definitely lessened here. But folks that hit the trail north on week ends tell me that a car without a snow-bug or a pair of skis means it's a local yokel driving to town.

It's human nature. Now that Cass City is winning it's common to hear one fan tell another how well Cass City follows its team in comparison to the opponents. When you hear that it's almost certain that the opposition is losing more games than it is winning.

Nothing like a winner to make a great sports town. I can remember when the visitors were sorry for us. That was the year we won just one game.

Don't infer by this that I don't feel we do as well as our neighbors in the booster department. We do. Community pride keeps us all going.

Question: Do they report all of those stories about families in other states huddled together in a central building because there isn't enough fuel to go around just to cheer us up when the fuel bill is presented every month?

I get some queer stares when I say that I really kind of enjoyed the blizzard of white that came our way Monday.

I'll say it again. The snow is beautiful. In January. It's those sudden storms in late March (or early April, heaven forbid) that really turn me off.

When that happens I temporarily regret that I'm a Michigander (Michigianian).

That last sentence was written that way so I could get it past the proofreader. (See letter to editor). And I vow, I vow, I vow, that's the last you hear about that from this corner.

"If It Fitz..." The great tomato race

BY JIM FITZGERALD

Because I like mustard pickles on ham, my wife insisted I accompany her to the supermarket. Which is how I ended up in the great tomato race.

My mother always served mustard pickles with ham. So did my wife, in the early years of our marriage. But

BPW votes hospital pledge

Business and Professional Women of Cass City have pledged its contribution to the Hills and Dales General Hospital Building Fund, according to Clara Gaffney, president.

The gift, voted upon at the regular monthly meeting of the organization, is the fourth from the Cass City civic groups. Zonta, Rotary, and Lions having made their pledges earlier. Contributions from the four groups total $12,000.

The hospital Building Fund Campaign, now in the final weeks of intensive solicitation, seeks $500,000 to retain licensing and accreditation for Hills and Dales Hospital.

With the campaign total nearing 90 per cent, individuals and organizations are invited to support the effort with pledges or contributions. The Building Fund office is located at 6367 Main Street, telephone 872-4045.

For several years now, I've been forced to eat ham without mustard pickles. This irks my palate and prompts me to scream a little.

"Screaming won't do any good," my wife always says. "The stores do not sell mustard pickles anymore."

I refused to believe that all those huge supermarkets could not find room for a few jars of mustard pickles. Last week I finally accused her of sloppy shopping. This was not the smartest thing I have ever done.

The next thing I knew, I was inside the nearest Farmer Jack's. My wife sometimes moves so swiftly, I actually cannot feel the leash being attached.

I have always been a corner-grocery person. When I was a boy, I went to the store and handed the man a list written by my mother. The grocer did all the work while I stood around and watched for opportunities to sneak something out of the candy jars. This is the intelligent way to buy food.

Supermarkets are too big. I can never find anything. Mostly, I can never find a clerk who will take my list and do my shopping for me. It is probably easier to swipe candy, but I can never find the jar of law-breakers.

"I will find all the food," my wife explained this fateful afternoon in Farmer Jack's. "You have to look for only one thing - mustard pickles. If you find any, I will eat each pickle while standing on the check-out counter."

I spent 30 minutes in the pickle row. I relocated jars so I could see to the back of every shelf. I asked a clerk and he handed me some mustard relish which is not the same thing at all.

Real mustard pickles do not come minced for hotdogs. They are whole, like dill or sweet pickles, and they come swimming in a mustard sauce accompanied by little round onions, red peppers and hunks of cauliflower.

I couldn't find any. There are dozens of other types of pickles, especially prepared for everything from cocktail parties to bar mitzvahs. But no mustard pickles.

I found my wife in Health Products, fondling anti-acids, and confessed my failure. She is not one of those gracious winners who will not say "I told you so."

"I told you so," she said. An hour later, still groveling, I helped her pile $50 worth of groceries before one of those friendly check-out women who call everyone "Sweetie."

"You do not want this tomato, Sweetie," she said, pointing out a large bruise that my wife hadn't seen because she was so worried I would find some mustard pickles. "Your husband can take it back and get another tomato. I'll wait, but hurry."

More than half of our pile had already been rung up. There was a long line waiting behind us. Those people might get unruly if forced to wait too long while I fumbled through the store looking for an unbruised tomato. It was more responsibility than I felt equipped to handle.

I have never been in this store before. I have no idea where the tomatoes are. My experience has been limited to the pickle section. I told my wife, loud enough so that Sweetie could hear me. "Sweetie, the tomatoes are right over there," the check-out woman said, pointing toward Canada. "Just take a shortcut through that check-out lane, and hurry, Sweetie."

She was referring to the next check-out lane which was not being used at that time. My wife says most check-out lanes in Detroit supermarkets are not being used at any time. The same thing is true of teller windows in downtown banks. This is to promote everlasting friendliness. A town that stands in line together, grows old together.

Anyway, there were "Closed" chains hanging across both ends of the check-out lane through which I had been dispatched. I stooped under the first chain and it caught my coat collar, almost forcing me to hit the floor with my face. So I leaped over the second chain and it caught my foot, this time putting my face even closer to the floor.

"I am a grown man. I cannot believe I am doing this," I said to myself. But I was. And after racing to the produce counter and switching tomatoes on the run, much like a relay man grabbing the baton. I was faced with those two chains again. To avoid that staggering delay, I tossed the tomato across the counter to my wife. A perfect throw.

But she did not catch it. We went home with a bruised tomato and no mustard pickles.

Onward and upward, and every word is true, I swear to Sweetie.

Crop agent resigns

Dr. Samuel J. Woods, Area Crops Agent of the Thumb area, has resigned his post. The resignation took effect Jan. 1.

Woods has accepted a teaching assignment with Ohio State University at Wooster, Ohio.

County Extension Director Bill Bortel said a new crops agent should be hired by spring. Woods held the position for two and a half years.

FROM THE Editor's Corner

If I were going on a fishing trip I'd rather have brother, Bill, than President Jimmy as my companion. Bill's the guy most of us common folks would feel most comfortable with... as a fishing companion. I don't know as I'd want to trust him to administer the family fortune. Maybe that's why he couldn't get elected in Plains. Bill doesn't have the aura of a president. He's too friendly. Too outspoken. Too direct. He might be the guy that you go to the football game with. President Carter projects sincerity. He smiles readily but retains a reserve that's clearly visible behind the toothy grin. He has the chief executive demeanor.

It's the suspicion here that if any of us really knew the men who receive our votes for the presidency, we'd look elsewhere for our chief executive. Americans want their chief on a pedestal. It's hard to keep him there when you know that he puts his pants on one leg at a time, just like everyone else. Has his periods of elation. Of doubt. Of uncertainty. And if you judge by the record, very human sexual weaknesses, too.

Maybe you and I don't want to own up to this. The thought of the president as a man with human foibles in this atomic age is enough for us to order a stock of aspirin in the giant sized bottle. In foreign affairs the president can whip us into war easier than any other man. In domestic affairs it may be another story.

I'm certain that it would be easier to find that needle in the hay stack than to find anyone that wouldn't applaud the president-elect when he vows to streamline the Washington bureaucracy.

Man, do we need that. We also need less spending on military preparedness. We need a solution to the growing crime problem. Lower taxes. We need... why go on? Everyone knows what utopia is.

The question has always been, how much difference can the president really make in those fields? There is a school that teaches that presidents have little effect on the prosperity of the country anyway. Rather it's the basic economic factors that tell the tale.

Who can say if that's really the case? I don't feel that we can expect much from Mr. Carter in changing the basic economy of this country. That's asking too much. Personally, I'd regard him as a miracle worker if he could reduce the bureaucracy by even one per cent.

But I'll give two to one that at the end of the first four years it will be larger than ever despite his most sincere and skilled efforts. I'd like to be proven wrong.

THE TIME IS NOW Worry less about the future and more about the present and our progress can be doubled.

MS. MARY LOU BETZ, a former Cass City area resident, poses with President-elect Jimmy Carter. Ms. Betz, now a resident of Clio, will be attending the Inaugural Party Jan. 20 in Washington.

Jimmy who?

Ex-Cass Cityan headed for Carter Inaugural Party

A former Cass City area resident is on her way to the Inaugural Party for the next President of the United States—Jimmy Carter.

She's Mary Lou Betz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Crawford of Shabbona Road, Deford, and if you'd told her a year and a half ago she would be in Washington for the inauguration, she'd probably never have believed it.

Ms. Betz, who lives in Clio and works for Flint City Council, first heard of the former Georgia governor in mid-1975 when her fiancé, Thomas J. Sedgewick, a Flint architect, said he was going to invite a Presidential candidate to Flint for a rally.

Sedgewick had already signed up to work in Carter's campaign in early May while attending an architectural conference in Atlanta.

He told Ms. Betz the candidate's name was Jimmy Carter, to which she replied, "Jimmy, who?"

She thought Sedgewick was "out of his mind", but went along with it. At the gathering, Sedgewick brought together, just a handful of people showed up but Ms. Betz had the opportunity to meet Carter.

The following day, Sedgewick took Carter to meet various persons in Flint and Detroit, and invited Ms. Betz to go along. She refused, thinking it was not worth missing a day's work.

As Carter's fame grew, Ms. Betz became more involved with the campaign and met the candidate on several more occasions.

She participated in a ceremony welcoming Carter to Detroit, April 10, 1976. She was one of 10 persons cleared through security to greet Carter when he got off the plane. From the plane, the group went to Cobo Hall for the annual Jefferson-Jackson banquet where Ms. Betz was busy filling green and white bags with peanuts for Carter supporters to pass out.

She met Carter's "Aunt Sissy" at the annual State Democratic Senate banquet in Lansing, April 29, and the candidate himself at a Flint rally May 13.

"Someone was smoking at the (Bishop) airport," she recalled, "and a young person came up and said security says we can't smoke here. This just happened to be Jeff Carter, Jimmy's son."

Ms. Betz met Rosalyn Carter at a Flint rally just before the state primary election. "Above and beyond meeting and talking with her husband, this would have to be the highlight of the whole campaign—talking with Mrs. Carter," she said.

Following the Democratic National Convention, which Ms. Betz attended in July, the big moment came when Carter and Senator Walter Mondale attended an election eve rally in Flint.

Ms. Betz says she'd like to take all the credit for the experience, but says "I just had to listen to Tom (Sedgewick) and follow him, which seemed to be endless hours and talking nothing but Carter, strategies of the campaign and so forth.

"If I had it to do all over, I don't know if I could stand it," she says.

Ms. Betz was originally due to be in Mexico City Inauguration Day, but when asked if she would like to cancel her plans and accept an invitation to the Inaugural Party, she quickly agreed.

"You can always go to Mexico City," she said.

Politics is nothing new for Mrs. Betz. Besides working for Flint City Council, she also worked in the office of the Flint City Manager.

A 1961 graduate of Cass City High School, she has two children, Rhonda, 11, and Ronnie, 7.

Following Mrs. Carter's lead, Ms. Betz is considering sewing her own dress for the Inaugural Party.

When she told Sedgewick and said she'd probably be the only woman there in a homemade dress, he replied, "You and Rosalyn".

KETCHUM'S KNAPSACK

The worst commercials

By Jim Ketchum

This is the time of year when the ten best and worst of everything is noted by an authority who remains obscure the rest of the year. From movies, books, plays and records down to dressed (or in some cases, undressed) men and women, somebody manages to rate them.

I'm not sure if there's a rating for newspaper reporters. Maybe that's just as well. Sometimes, I wish there was some way to rate the top 10 critics. The problem is, no one can find them until after they've rated something.

Now it's my turn. I could rate the 10 best-dressed women who've walked by my office window in 1976, but I'd probably wind up getting my face slapped and maybe costing my boss a few subscriptions.

I could rate local politicians, but again, I'd like to have a few of my teeth left for all those peanut butter sandwiches I'll probably be eating the next four years.

Instead, I've decided to rate the four worst television commercials of 1976.

One of my all-time un-favorites involves two women who meet in a portable library. As the dutiful librarian is busily cataloging "The Heartbreak of Prickly Heat", the heroine enters and exchanges pleasantries.

"Everything's fine," she moans. "Except, I need a book on biology. Truth is, I need to know about laxatives."

The helpful librarian looks up, smiles and whips out a package of the product from her desk. The heroine takes it and proceeds to excuse herself.

This is wild. My wife is a trained librarian (as unopposed to an untrained one) and she never kept anything like that in her desk. If someone asked, she sent them to a friend of hers who ran a drug store. She got a commission.

Then there's the one where the dumb blonde opens a piece of junk mail to find an entry form for a magazine sweepstakes. She hugs the envelope as if it were the will of rich uncle Herkimer leaving her all his estate.

She fills out the form, drops it in the mailbox and then hugs and kisses the mailbox. I've kissed 14 mailboxes and I haven't won a thing. The last time was on a day when the temperature was about zero. It took four firemen and a hook and ladder truck to pry my lips from the mailbox door.

Then there's the one where the cat sings "meow, meow, meow, meow, meow" ad nauseum over his favorite food. I'd rather hear a song for the kind of food you give laughing hyenas.

But the one my wife hates most is the one where the half-naked Frenchman sells cologne. It's the only time she's ever asked me to fetch the throw-up pot.

I tried his approach once and was nearly arrested. My wife thought I was a mugger.

Dillon faces sentencing

Bernard John Dillon, 24, Cass City, is free on $2,500 bond while awaiting a presentence investigation following "no contest" pleas to manslaughter and felonious driving in Roscommon County Circuit Court.

Dillon was charged in the death of Mrs. Nancy Loudon, 32, of Naubinway, Oct. 27.

Mrs. Loudon was killed when a car Dillon was driving slammed into the rear of the auto in which she was a passenger. The accident took place on U.S. 27 near Higgins Lake.

According to testimony taken in late December, Dillon claimed no recollection of the accident. He entered "no contest" pleas to the manslaughter charge and three counts of felonious driving.

Dillon could face up to 15 years in prison and a maximum fine of $7,500 on the manslaughter charge and a maximum of two years and a $1,000 fine for each of the three felonious driving counts.

Michiganian proofreader responds

1-7-77

To the editor:

Dear John,
A lowly proofreader's only recourse after making "Rabbit Tracks" two weeks in a row seems to be a letter to the editor.

I am not really so staunchly in favor of "Michiganian" as I am staunchly opposed to "Michigander". Frankly I think it has a foul sound. As Mr. Ackerman suggested, how can you have a Michigander without a Michigoose? Besides simply not liking the term, I can't see any logic behind it. Are people from Oregon, Oregonians? Or are there Wisconsiners or Washingtoners? There is just no sane reason for adding a "d" to Michigan and tacking on ers!

I wonder what choice the persons in the survey were given. I have no objection to Michiganite or even Michigander, although I still think Michiganian sounds best. (Right now I think most of us would gladly forget the whole issue in exchange for "Floridian".)

Regarding Mr. Ackerman's influence on my thinking, I really did learn a lot from him in American history. He is one of the finest teachers I've known, and I'm sorry he retired before my kids had the opportunity of sitting in his classroom. He was tough, and every student who knew his reputation trembled a little before attending the "Horrors of History" the first time. But he was really quite human and has a keen sense of humor. Anyone who wanted to learn and was willing to cooperate had no trouble getting along with him. Everybody knew at the outset that in his class, he was in charge. And that's as it should be. We could use a few more Dave Ackermans today, although we do have some really good teachers at CCHS.

Your humble employee,
Fellow Cass Cityan and Michiganian,
Melva Guinther

Apartments should be used

January 5, 1977

Letter to the Editor
Cass City Chronicle

Dear John,
In the past couple of weeks in reading your paper, I read where it is an ordinance or rule of our village council that if an apartment over a business is unoccupied for six months, it cannot be rented or lived in again. Why was this done? Perhaps there was a valid reason a few years ago but it seems to me, that each business place would have more protection from vandalism and breaking and entering if owners, or renters, lived above their business place. A main street with no people after 5:30 p.m. is asking for problems.

Last week in Caro, two jewelry store windows were broken and thefts resulted. The young culprit was caught because someone lived over their store across the street from the one jewelry store and saw it. This person was a minor and shouldn't have been out at 4:00 a.m. and 5:00 a.m. but let's face it, some parents do not supervise their youngsters. The police on duty can't be everywhere and the kids seem to know where they are before they act.

When we had a business on Main Street, we lived over it for a few years. We knew when the kids "dragged on the Main street". We heard many things, especially in the summer time!! I wonder if our council shouldn't consider that in this type of rule. They may be creating some serious side effects. Today the citizen must be involved and concerned with helping protect his neighbor's property if he wants his own protected.

A Concerned Citizen

P.S. I read somewhere that some architects are planning new shopping center malls with apartments above the mall. I wonder if their rationale hasn't something to do

ASK DR. ELIZABETH

By Dr. J. Elizabeth Morgan, M.D.

Widespread use of the pill to prevent, delay or space the arrival of babies has resulted in much research on the side effects of this dramatic drug.

We have acquired a lot of medical data about the pill, but there also are a lot of wives' tales, old and new, floating about. One such has to do with the pill's effect on the sex of children born to mothers who take it regularly.

Dear Doctor Morgan: My husband and I have two girls and are thinking about a third child. We really want a boy.

BPW hears hospital fund plea

Twenty-one attended the Jan. 5 meeting of the Business and Professional Women's club, held at Veronica's.

During the business meeting with Mrs. Clara Gaffney presiding, members heard from Renee Presley, working on the current hospital fund drive and pledged $1,000.00 to the fund to be paid over a three year period.

Girl Scout leader, Mrs. Kathleen Iseler, gave a history of Girl Scouting.

The president asked for suggestions from the members for the spring outing.

A White Elephant sale will be held in connection with the February meeting.

I've been on birth control pills for a while. Will taking the pill change my chances of having a boy or a girl?

A. Your chances of having a boy are probably not changed by taking the pill. Recent research has not shown any differences in the number of boys or girls born to mothers who had been on the pill.

For you to have a boy, your egg must be fertilized by a sperm from your husband carrying the male "Y" chromosome. Both your sex chromosomes are female, or "X". Your husband carries "X" and "Y". When "X" sperm fertilizes you, the baby is a girl. When "Y" sperm fertilizes you, it's a boy.

Your own body temperature may favor the development of a male or female baby.

Your body temperature is highest at the time you ovulate -- about two weeks before menstruation, and your chances of having a boy seem to be lowest -- about 43 per cent -- if you conceive at this time.

Your body temperature is lower between six and nine days prior to ovulation, and your chances of having a boy climb to about 68 per cent if you conceive at low-temperature time. Your gynecologist may be able to help you map out your temperature shifts to find the intercourse time most likely to give you a boy.

Dear Doctor Morgan: A year ago I was in a car accident and went into the windshield. Now I have scars all over my forehead. Is there any way I can get rid of these scars?

A. Scars, alas, are permanent. Even the greatest surgeon can't make them vanish entirely. But you can be helped greatly with reconstructive surgery on your forehead to change the scars so they are not so noticeable. Here's how:

1. The direction of a scar crossing crease lines in your skin can be changed so it falls on a crease line, or it may be moved up to your hair line.

2. A long straight scar, which tends to be more obvious than an irregular one, can be molded so it falls in a broken line, blending with natural lines of expression.

3. A rough scar or a collection of scars can be smoothed with dermabrasion -- sanded down to the same level as the rest of your skin.

4. Broad, wide scars can be cut out, leaving just a narrow scar line.

The only way the body has of healing is by making permanent scar tissue, but some scars can be concealed so well that only your doctor can detect them.

Dear Doctor Morgan: I know that smoking cigarettes can give you lung cancer, but not every smoker gets lung cancer. I'm willing to accept that risk. Why does my doctor have to keep badgering me to stop my pack-a-day?

A. Lung cancer is only one of several ways that cigarettes can damage your body.

Cigarette smoking also is definitely associated with:

Emphysema, a disease in which lung tissue is destroyed and the flow of air in the lung is partially blocked, making you a lung-cripple. In extreme cases, patients have to keep oxygen tanks at home and are breathless just walking around the house.

Cancer of the lip, the mouth, the throat, the voice box (larynx) and the bladder. Hardening of the arteries (atherosclerosis), where blood vessels become clogged with lumps of fat and calcium, like a rusty old drainpipe. Results may be a stroke, a heart attack, gangrene of a leg or even impotence, depending on which blood vessels are blocked the worst.

Your doctors grouch about your smoking because they want to keep you healthy. If you want to smoke, they can't stop you. But it's not impossible to quit. I used to smoke two packs a day and I stopped. So can you.

+++++

(Readers may send questions to Dr. J. Elizabeth Morgan, M.D., Box 4994, Des Moines, Ia. 50306. She will be unable to provide individual replies, but inquiries of general interest will be answered here.)

Try to remember to give your neighbor a boost -- you'll find it's a hitch ahead for you.

PLAY WIN UP TO $1000

Rules for Playing Gamerama Series # 44

- Get a FREE Gamerama Master Card on request at the end of the checkout or at store office. Get one FREE Game Ticket every time you visit a participating IGA or affiliated food store. No purchase necessary to participate. Adults only eligible to play.
- On each Game Ticket there are four Gamerama Markers. To reveal the Markers, simply punch out the perforated portions of the Game Ticket, then separate the punched out portions and you will have four Markers. Each Marker corresponds to a square in one of the Games on your Master Game Card.
- When you have revealed the Gamerama Markers carefully place them in their appropriate squares on your Master Game Card. EXAMPLE: If one of your Game Markers is an Ace of Clubs in the $1,000.00 Game, insert that Marker in the square numbered Ace of Clubs in the $1,000.00 Game. When you complete any row in a game, you may have a winner. In some games, you will find squares marked FREE and it is unnecessary to collect a Marker to be placed in such FREE squares. FREE squares are not transferable. Only one winner per card.
- When you have a winning card which has been verified by authorized personnel, you will, after furnishing your name and address, be awarded your prize. A Federal Trade Commission rule requires that the names and addresses of all winners be posted in all participating stores. When turning in your winning card all your Gamerama Markers which are not part of the winning row may be removed and transferred to a new card. Only one prize will be awarded per game on any one Master Game Card. All Gamerama Markers in a winning row must be included on the back by the customer in the presence of authorized personnel. The liability on prizes is the responsibility of the prize winners.
- All game materials will be rejected and judged void if not obtained from and verified by authorized personnel or if any part of any of the game pieces is illegible, altered, mutilated, defaced, tampered with, forged, contains printing or other errors, or is irregular in any way. Game material void where taxed or prohibited by law.

- Game will end upon distribution of all Game Tickets. All prizes must be claimed within five (5) days after announcement of termination or they are forfeited. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, at such time as the verified claims for prizes in any category equals the number of prizes advertised for that category, then the game as it relates to that specific prize category shall immediately terminate without notice, and any unverified claims at or after that time shall be automatically rejected.
- Game materials valid only for this game. All Game Tickets, Gamerama Markers and Game Cards must have the same series number. EXAMPLE: If you have Master Game Card Series No. 44, all of your game pieces must have Series No. 44.
- Employees lend their IGA's (used dependent of Super Food Services, Inc., IGA or affiliated food stores, Domestic Associates, their advertising agency and any other companies engaged in the development and production of these game materials are not eligible to win.
- Gamerama Marker void if it does not have on it:
 - Gamerama spelled out.
 - Series #44.
 - Value of game.
 - Single symbol or card and suit symbol.
 - Single symbol or card and suit symbol spelled out.
- GAMERAMA MARKER VOID IF ABOVE SIX (6) ITEMS ARE NOT CLEARLY VISIBLE.
- Gamerama Series No. 44 Marker must conform in size, shape and detail to the example illustrated above, and must contain the six (6) items of authentication described in Rule No. 4.

GUYS & GALS 4-H CLUB

The Evergreen Guys and Gals 4-H Club meeting was held Monday, Jan. 3.

Leaders who have completed their first year were presented with leader pins. During the general business, it was voted to change the meeting date from the first Monday to the third Monday of each month.

The next meeting will be a box social Feb. 21.

EXTRAVAGANCE

Trying to keep up with the Joneses has drowned many a man in a sea of red ink.

Egad! Phone bills to drop

General Telephone customers will save an estimated $1,142,000 in 1977 as a result of a further reduction of one per cent in the Federal Excise Tax (FET) on telephone service.

The FET was reduced to five per cent Jan. 1, the fifth in a scheduled series of nine annual reductions calculated to eliminate by 1982 the World War II-imposed "temporary" tax.

Termed a "luxury tax" when it was enacted, the FET on telephone service was originally established at 10 per cent. Congress reduced the tax to three per cent in January, 1966, but restored it to the 10 per cent level three months later.

The present one-per-cent-per-year reductions began in 1973.

In 1976, General Telephone collected approximately $6.8 million in Federal Excise Taxes from its customers for the U.S. Government.

Your Neighbor says Ability should count

A Cass City area woman has said she's considering applying for membership on the Elkland Township Fire Department. Women in other parts of the country have also sought membership on police departments and in other public service jobs formerly held down exclusively by men.

Mrs. Bill Sattelberg of 6734 Church St. says she approves.

"If they (women applicants) qualify, then why not," she says. "It's really what they want to do and can do it, I think it's all right."

Mrs. Sattelberg says she's never encountered sex discrimination when applying for a job but does remember when she went to school, boys and girls could not compete against each other in certain sports.

"If I was better than a boy, I couldn't take his place on a team because I was a girl," she says.

"I won't say I can do everything a man can do, but I think if a woman qualifies for a job, she should get it," she says. "It should be based on what a person can do."

Mrs. Sattelberg was born in Roseville and has lived in the Cass City area since 1962. Her husband is employed at General Cable. The couple has two children.

Slate rabbit show

In cooperation with Michigan State University 4-H youth programs, the Michigan State Rabbit Breeders Association is again sponsoring a State 4-H Rabbit Show. It will be part of Farmers Week at Michigan State University Wednesday, March 23.

The show will be held in Demonstration Hall on the campus of Michigan State University at 9:30 a.m. All entries must be postmarked not later than midnight, March 10. All 4-H youth with rabbit projects are invited to participate in the show.

For more information contact the 4-H office or Carl Persails, G-5493 W. Frances Rd., Clio 48420.

AROUND THE FARM Swine clinic reviewed

By Don Kebler

I had a most pleasurable day Jan. 5 with 71 area swine producers at the Swine Disease Clinic.

We met at the Michigan Livestock Exchange Sale Yard east of Cass City and heard presentations by Drs. Edward Scollon of Cass City, Wayne Miller, D.V.M., of Pigeon and Dr. Dave Ellis, Michigan State University Extension Veterinarian. One of the highlights was watching these veterinarians post-mortem hogs.

This clinic was a first for this area with only one other held in the state.

A second swine educational event coming soon is a Regional Short Course. Here again we're holding one of only three such programs in the state. Five Michigan State University specialists will present the materials at the three 10-3:30 sessions.

The first session, Jan. 19, will be on basic swine nutrition, needs, ration formulation and disease related problems. Jan. 26, the general format relates up-to-date swine buildings and waste management. Feb. 2, we'll hear about evaluating new swine facility investments, production standards and total herd management.

Noon dinner reservations are being taken at $3.50 per person per each session attended and we'll meet at the Masonic Temple, two blocks east and four blocks south of the Cass City stop light.

+++++

The first of three monthly Thumb Poultry Short Course meetings will be Jan. 13, in the Log Cabin Inn at Sebawaing. The following two will be Feb. 3 and March 3 respectively. The program begins at 5:00 p.m. with a dinner at 6:00 p.m. and ends at 9:00 p.m. Both spouses have attended prior years' short courses.

The latest word I have from Gene Wenzloff of the Michigan Department of Agriculture Plant Inspection Division on Private Applicator Certification examination is "as the need arises applicants will receive notices of exam date." So if private applicators do not take their exam in Caro Jan. 13, additional exam dates will be scheduled in Caro as future demand occurs. I will receive exam locations, dates and time for the entire state so exams can be taken by anyone anywhere in Michigan on assigned dates.

Not too long ago we read in the paper where farm land values have really increased in assessed valuation. This increase in real estate value is occurring elsewhere, too. As this trend continues, the purchaser - owner's estate value increases, too. People who had estates large enough to qualify for Federal Estate Taxes before the 1976 changes, and do not now, may reach that taxable estate size sooner than they think.

So to determine where you stand, what's your estate, how to transfer before death, estate taxes, gift allowances, probate, wills, estate ownerships, making funeral arrangements, trusts, insurance plus more we offer free a three session seminar this winter. The dates are Feb. 17, 24 and March 3 at the Caro High School, 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. For detailed program, contact me.

County records second 1977 traffic fatality

1977 is less than two weeks old and already two persons have died on Tuscola county highways.

Roger James Frank, 41, Fairgrove, became the second fatality of the year Friday night when the car he was driving east on Fairgrove Road failed to stop at Unionville Road.

The car careened across the three-way intersection, slammed into a ditch bank and landed on the east side of the ditch about 30 feet from the point of impact, Tuscola

County Sheriff's deputies reported.

Frank was pronounced dead on arrival at Caro Community Hospital. The accident took place at 9:30 p.m.

Four persons were injured, none seriously, in a rash of area traffic accidents during the past week.

Deborah J. Prough, 23, Tacoma, Wash., and her passenger, Barbara Mitchell, of Greenland Rd., Cass City, were shaken up Sunday night when the car in which they were riding ran off Kelly Road, two miles south of Cass City and ran into a ditch.

Caro State Police said the Prough car skidded on snow and ice and rolled over as it entered the ditch. The pair were treated at Hills and Dales General Hospital.

Cheryl Lynn O'Harris, 19, Unionville, sought treatment for injuries suffered when her car went out of control and ran into a ditch along M-81, 2 1/2 miles west of Cass City, Saturday.

Caro State Police reported Ms. O'Harris was westbound when she said a horse ran from the north side of the highway into the path of her car. She attempted to miss the animal, lost control and ran off the road.

Ricky Jay Bradley, 22, Sandusky, was shaken up Saturday when the car he was driving slid out of control and struck a house along Bay City-Forestville Road, seven miles west of Gagetown.

Caro State Police said Bradley was eastbound and tried to stop, lost control and slid into the home of Al Goslin of Bay City-Forestville Rd., Unionville.

Bradley was cited for having no driver's license, no proof of insurance and traveling too fast for conditions.

The accident took place at 2:15 a.m.

OTHER ACCIDENTS

Area police also investigated a series of property damage accidents in which drivers and passengers were uninjured.

Cars driven by Roger Allen Koch, 25, of 5526 Dodge Rd., Cass City and Robert Daniel Torrez, 22, of 6482 Cleaver St., Gagetown, collided Saturday afternoon on Dodge Road, five miles northwest of Cass City.

Sheriff's deputies said Koch was attempting to leave the driveway at his home when he pulled into the path of the northbound Torrez vehicle.

Officers noted visibility was poor due to snow at the time of the accident, 12:35 p.m.

Seven persons came away without injuries when three cars collided at the intersection of Kingston and Decker-ville Roads in Deford Saturday afternoon.

According to a Sheriff's report, a car driven north on Kingston Road by Madeline Marie Sabo, 18, of 7710 E. Bevens Rd., Deford, failed to stop at the intersection, striking an eastbound car driven by Raymond Duane Lamont, 37, of Decker-ville.

The force of the impact drove the Lamont auto into a westbound car driven by Laverne Raymond Barrons, 49, of 3443 Pine St., Kingston.

Four passengers, two each in the Lamont and Barrons vehicles, were uninjured.

Ms. Sabo was ticketed for disregarding a stop sign. The accident took place at 1:25 p.m.

In another accident at the same intersection, cars driven by Robert Earl Veldman, 29, Deford, and Karen Lynn Munch, 20, of English Rd., Kingston, collided Saturday at 12:35 p.m.

Caro State Police said the Veldman vehicle was northbound and failed to stop at the intersection, colliding with the westbound Munch auto which was in the process of making a left turn.

Howard John Gross, 29, of 4195 West St., was uninjured Friday when his car went out of control and landed in a ditch on Cemetery Rd., three miles south of Cass City.

According to a Cass City Police report, Gross was northbound when he swerved to miss a deer, lost control and went into a ditch on the west side of the road.

The accident took place at 12:30 a.m.

No one was injured when two cars collided at the intersection of Main and West Streets in Cass City Friday afternoon.

Cass City Police reported a car driven in the left-hand westbound lane of Main Street by Elizabeth Loraine Woodward, 75, of Ubyly, struck another westbound vehicle driven in the right-hand lane by Wayne Charles Wood, 17, of 3075 E. Caro Rd., Cass City.

Police said the Woodward vehicle attempted a right hand turn from the left lane, striking the Wood vehicle in the left side.

The accident took place at 4:15 p.m.

Storm cancels court docket

Monday's driving snowstorm forced postponement of the regularly scheduled motion day in Tuscola County Circuit Court. The cases, which were to have been heard before Judge Norman Baguley are expected to be rescheduled for Jan. 24.

Several motions were heard in a special court session Friday before Judge Martin E. Clements.

Ronald Fritz, Mayville, was sentenced to a year's probation and fines and costs totaling $400 after pleading guilty to attempting to conceal stolen property.

Fritz was ordered to pay the levies at a rate of $40 per month.

He was arrested in October, 1975, in Dayton township.

Louis C. Gouine, 54, Vassar, stood mute during his arraignment on charges of fraud and uttering and publishing (bad check). An innocent plea was entered in his behalf and pre-trial examination was set for July 24. Personal recognizance bond was set at $1,000.

Gouine was arrested July 24 in Fostoria after allegedly attempting to pass a bad check in a super market.

Youth injured

A fifth-grade student at Cass City Intermediate School was injured Thursday, Jan. 6, in what school officials described as a "playground accident."

Joe Peters, 10, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Peters of Cass City suffered the injury to his back during a recess period.

Intermediate Principal Robert Stickle denied the youth had been attacked.

Mrs. Peters told the Chronicle her son was admitted for treatment at Hills and Dales General Hospital and released the following day when he returned to class.

She said her son was hurt when several other students "piled on him" after he slipped and fell on ice.

Police probe thefts

Tuscola County Sheriff's deputies are continuing their investigation of a theft in which more than $380 in property was taken from the Johnny Lee Spencer home at 1560 Cemetery Rd., Deford, last week.

Deputies said entry was gained by breaking a lock off the door to the home. Among items missing were a tool box, two shotguns and a rifle and a quantity of clothing.

Officers said they followed tracks leading from the scene into a nearby wooded area. They suspect two or three persons may have been involved in the theft.

No suspects have been arrested.

Gary Stratton, of 6012 State St., Kingston, reported the theft of a .16 gauge shotgun from his car Friday.

The weapon was taken from the vehicle while it was parked overnight in his driveway. Caro State Police investigated.

Dennis Sweet of 6360 Houghton St., told Cass City Police someone stole an AM-FM radio and a pair of snowmobile boots from his apartment while he was away Friday.

Police said no suspects have been arrested but added juveniles may have been involved.

Another case of attempted shoplifting was reported in Cass City last week. This time, a juvenile allegedly attempted to take a portable hair curler valued at $16 from Coach Light Pharmacy.

Police were called and the youth was returned to the custody of his parents pending probate action.

File lawsuit against JNR

For the second time in less than a month, a lawsuit has been filed in Tuscola County Circuit Court against the owners and operators of Eggs by JNR of Deford.

A suit filed this week by Diamond International Corp., charges JNR failed to pay for over $10,000 worth of goods and services purchased between March 2 and March 24, 1976.

The suit demands total payment of $11,427.78 plus interest.

The case will be heard before Judge Norman Baguley.

In December, two Columbia township men filed suit against JNR for what it claimed were payments owed by the firm for over 2,000 eggs purchased last summer.

Their suit demands $35,000 and was filed against the company and owners Norbert and Rita Kapala.

Wiles sees cultural clash slowing Turkish relief efforts

By Jim Ketchum

East meets west in Turkey and the clash of cultures is one reason for the misery and suffering following last month's devastating earthquake which struck the eastern part of the country.

That's the view of Air Force Staff Sgt. Hazen Wiles, son of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Wiles of rural Cass City.

Wiles has been stationed in Turkey the past two years with the Sixth Allied Tactical Force and works in communications for NATO in the city of Izmir on the Aegean coast.

When the earthquake struck, his NATO unit helped raise $15,000 to aid the victims, along with sending spare clothing and the necessities of life. But, Wiles, 30, said during a two-week vacation at his parents' home, it's not that easy.

"The reason the earthquake was so devastating was that most of the villages were built of mud and straw—the same as they were centuries ago," Wiles said.

"They use cow manure for insulation and grow vines and roots for a roof. When the earthquake came, their houses fell in like a pile of dirt."

Wiles said the unofficial death toll is around 5,000.

The problems didn't end there. Since most of the eastern half of Turkey lives much as it did 4,000 years ago, accepting outside help was almost impossible.

"They don't want to change," Wiles says. "That's why Turkey is a poor nation. Many of the people who lived in Kar, where the earthquake struck, have an annual income of $35."

Since the people are bound so tightly to ancient customs, they're suspicious of foreigners, Wiles said, as well as their technology.

"Most of them won't get into a car," he said. "When help arrived, they brought in snowmobiles and trucks to take the injured out. They walked instead. They wouldn't ride."

Wiles said tents and canned food sent in were refused by most of the people. They were suspicious of the tents and thought the food was poisoned.

"They're mostly shepherds," Wiles said. "They can't do much farming because the land isn't good. They have no electricity, no telephone and no television. You really can't go in and educate them or help them because they're so bound by custom."

"One man was asked why he wouldn't leave. He said his father had been there and his grandfather had been there so he had to stay there."

CULTURAL BARRIERS PERSIST

Not only is the way of life different in eastern Turkey but so is the language.

"I remember once I was in that area and since I can speak some Turkish, I tried speaking to one man," Wiles said. "He didn't know what I was saying and I couldn't understand him."

"A friend of mine told me not to feel bad because they speak a different dialect from the rest of the country."

Another impediment to helping earthquake victims has been the theft of supplies by Turkish officials. Wiles estimates only 40 per cent of all the earthquake aid sent to Turkey has actually reached the people.

"Blue jeans are considered a prize," he said. "The Americans in Turkey were sending old blue jeans and those were being taken by the soldiers." One Turkish official combined black marketeering with earthquake relief, Wiles said.

Many people were donating electrical appliances as relief, but they couldn't be used because there's no electricity in the area. So the official would steal all the electrically operated goods, sell them on the black market and donate the money, which was tax free, to help the earthquake victims, Wiles said.

"He was one of the good ones," he said. "It's hard to say how many would sell the stuff and keep the money."

Since the earthquake, there's been a large influx of orphaned children into Izmir and the western part of the country. They've been accepted because Turkey is a nationalistic country, Wiles said. They're nationalistic for their nation, not their government.

LIKES TURKEY

Since coming to Turkey two years ago, Wiles says he's come to love the country and the people. His best friends are Turks and he's found

Frankenmuth is waiting

Wow! Hawks whip Caro — fly to loop lead

It figured to be a run and gun shoot out and it was. The first meeting of the season between undefeated Caro and undefeated in the Thumb B Conference Cass City, Tuesday. And when it was all over the host Hawks were all alone at the top of the standings with a perfect record. The score was 84-72.

But the lead might not last long. Waiting in the wings Friday is Frankenmuth and the Eagles' coach Whit Wilson was on hand to scout the game. 'Muth has only a loss to Caro marring its conference record. To beat them on their home court is always tough.

But for at least three days Cass City can bask in the rarefied air of first place. Cass City was actually never behind in the game. But the game was so close that the fans remained glued in their chairs until the final whistle.

Cass City broke out from a 4-4 tie midway in the first quarter and spurred to a 10-point lead. Clarke Haire, hitting from outside and Rick Richards and Paul Battel converting on the inside led the attack. Mark Green kept the Hawks from blowing the Tigers off the floor with three buckets of his own.

Caro showed why they were undefeated in the second period as they came charging back behind balanced scoring by Mark LaFave, Dave Freville and Bill Stevenson to post a 21-14 second period advantage. At the intermission the Hawks led 34-33 and many Hawk fans were afraid that the Tiger power was starting to purr.

But the complexion of the game changed after the intermission.

With Haire pumping in buckets from the side to go with some good shooting by Chuck Hendrick and Mike Richards the Hawks raced into a commanding lead. Early in the fourth quarter Cass City was in front by as many as 14 points.

Caro went into a full court press and started to chip away at the Hawk margin.

With two minutes to go the Hawks led by just five points. But Battel sunk two clutch free throws to move the margin back to seven and that ended the visitors' last serious challenge to win.

The league's two leading scorers showed the way on offense. Green whipped in 25 points for Caro while Haire countered with 27 points for Cass City.

But it was far from a one-man scoring show for either team. Caro had three other players in double figures. Stevenson hit for 15; Mark LaFave, 11, and Dave Freville, 11.

For the Hawks, Hendrick netted 15; Battel, 18, and Rick Richards, 16.

JV GAME

The Hawk varsity is not the only Cass City team that is leading the league. The Hawk JV squad is also undefeated putting away the little Tigers, 66-56.

And like the varsity, the JV's face a tough test when they meet Frankenmuth Friday.

LAKERS GAME

Cass City rolled to its fifth straight Thumb B Conference victory Friday, nipping the Lakers in a game even closer than the final, 83-75, score indicated.

The loss dropped the Lakers to 1-4 and placed them in the unenviable position of being probably the finest team with that poor a record in the history of the conference.

The Lakers appear good enough to stay in every game, but not good enough to win against the league powers.

The Lakers never led in the game after five minutes were gone in the second quarter. But they closed within one point, 72-71, with 1:15 left in the game.

The green and white battled back from a 10-point deficit early in the fourth quarter. But Clarke Haire converted both ends of a one and one foul situation and from there Cass City rolled to victory.

The host team started strong and the team traded baskets through the first eight minutes. Todd Gunden paced the early attack with 7 of his 13 points in the first period.

The Hawks were held in by Jeff Hartel with six points and Haire with five. At the end of the initial stanza the score was 19-17, Lakers.

The Hawks went ahead to stay in the second quarter. Paced by Haire with 10 points and Paul Battel with seven the Hawks ran up 23 points while the Lakers hit the meshes for just seven points.

Battel and Mike Richards carried the scoring load in the third period with 8 and 7 points respectively. Doug Wissner kept the Lakers in the game with 13 points in the last half including a half dozen in the third quarter.

The Hawks' scoring continued to be more balanced than it was earlier in the season. Against the Lakers five players were in double figures. Haire with 25 and Battel with 19 were the leaders. For the Lakers Wissner netted 18 and Farver posted 14.

The Lakers kept the game close with some extra fine free throw shooting. The team hit 81 per cent of its tries. Both clubs shot 42 per cent from the field.

Cass City dominated the boards behind its bigger front line and that proved decisive in the game.

JUNIOR VARSITY

The Hawks' JV squad played another close game in league competition and won. Still undefeated in the loop the Little Hawks pulled from behind early in the last quarter and hung on to win, 63-55.

Hawk girls split matches

Cass City High School's Girls' Volleyball squad split a double-header match with Mayville in a non-league contest played Jan. 5 at Cass City.

The Hawks won the first match with consecutive 15-1 and 15-10 games as Lisa Zimba and Beth Erla were strong at the serving line.

In the second match, Mayville drew first blood with a 15-10 win in the first game.

The Hawks came back to tie the contest at one game each with a 15-8 tally, only to watch Mayville squeak through to a 15-13 win in the final game.

A volleyball match consists of three games with the winner taking the best two out of three.

The Hawks will take on Essexville in a home contest Monday, beginning at 6:00 p.m.

SHORE IT UP

Make it a habit — find the weak spot in your character and then start work on the levee.

LACKS AMBITION

Too often a man with ability fails to reach the top because it's easier to slide than climb.

TWO BIG REASONS for Cass City's success this season have been the work of Paul Battel, shooting over Leipprandt, and Rick Richards (42) waiting for a rebound. Number 43 is Mike Byarski.

IT'S NOT A ballet. It's part of the action in the Cass City-Laker game. Joel Leipprandt goes high to try and block a shot by Jeff Hartel but the Hawk guard scored anyway. Trying to get into the action is Doug Wissner.

SUE KEYSER is Cass City's entry in the race for Queen of the Caro 150 snowmobile race slated for Feb. 6. She is sponsored by the Tuscola County Association for Retarded Citizens. The winner will receive a $75 savings bond, with prizes of $50 and $25 savings bonds for runners-up.

Free senior citizens tax information book available

More than 20 years ago, Michigan adopted the first senior citizen homestead tax exemption law.

Today, Michigan's tax credit laws for senior citizens are "the most progressive in the nation," says Sen. Joseph M. Snyder, D-St. Clair Shores, chairman of the legislature's Special Committee on Aging.

Snyder has prepared a booklet, "Tax Credits for Senior Citizens," which details what seniors need to know to find out if they qualify for property tax relief obtained through a tax credit. Copies of the booklet are available from the Senator's office, Room 330, State Capitol, Lansing, MI 48909.

NOVESTA TOWNSHIP ZONING ORDINANCE

SECTION ONE - TITLE

This ordinance shall be known and may be cited as "The Zoning Ordinance of Novesta Township."

SECTION TWO - Purpose

In the interest of the public health, safety, and general welfare, the purpose of this zoning ordinance is to prevent the overcrowding of land and buildings, avoid undue concentration of population, provide adequate light and air with due consideration to the character of the zone and its peculiar suitability for particular uses, and with the objective of conserving the value of property and encouraging the most appropriate use of the land.

An ordinance enacted to establish zoning districts within which districts the use of land for agriculture, recreation, residence, industry, trade, soil conservation and additional uses of land may be encouraged, regulated, or prohibited, and for such purposes may divide portions of Novesta Township into districts of such number, shape and area as may be deemed best suited to carry out the provisions of the Act; and to adopt within each district provisions designating and limiting the location, height, number of stories, size of dwellings, buildings and structures that may hereafter be erected, or altered; including mobile homes, and the specific uses for which dwellings, buildings, and structures, including mobile homes, may hereafter be erected; and for the regulation of the area of yards, courts, and other open spaces and the sanitary, safety, and protective measures that shall be required for such dwellings, buildings, and for the designation of the maximum number of families which may be housed in buildings, dwellings, and structures, including mobile homes hereafter erected, or altered; to provide for a method of amending said ordinance; to provide for the repeal of the Novesta Township zoning ordinance. To provide for the administering of the ordinance, to provide for conflicts with other acts, ordinances, or regulations; to provide for the collection of fees for the furtherance of the purpose of this ordinance; to provide for petitions and public hearings; to provide for appeals and for the organization and procedure of the Novesta Township Zoning Board of Appeals; and to provide for penalties for the violation of said ordinance.

SECTION 3 - Definitions

Words used in the present tense include the future; words in the singular number include the plural number; the word "shall" is mandatory. For the purpose of these regulations, certain terms and words are defined as follows:

ALTERATIONS:

Any change, addition or modification to a structure or type of occupancy, any change in the structural members of a building, such as walls, or partitions, columns, beams or girders, the consumated act of which may be referred to herein as "altered" or "reconstructed."

A vehicle designed as a travel unit for occupancy as a temporary or seasonal vacation living unit.

USE:

Is the purpose for which land or a building is designed, arranged, or intended to be used, or for which land or a building is or may be occupied.

USE, ACCESSORY:

Is a use subordinate to the main use of a lot and used for purposes clearly incidental to those of the main use.

YARDS:

The open spaces on the same lot with a main building or main use, unoccupied and unobstructed from the ground upward except as otherwise provided in this ordinance, and as defined herein;

(1) Front Yard - Is an open space extending the full width of the lot the depth of which is the minimum horizontal distance between the front lot line and the nearest line of the main building.

(2) Rear Yard - Is an open space extending the full width of the lot, the depth of which is the minimum horizontal distance between the rear lot line and the nearest line of the main building.

(3) Side Yard - Is an open space between a main building and the side lot line, extending from the front yard to the rear yard, the width of which is the horizontal distance from the nearest point of the side lot line to the nearest point of the main building.

ZONING VARIANCE:

Is a modification to the literal enforcements of the zoning ordinance granted when strict enforcement of the zoning ordinance would cause undue hardship owing to the individual property on which the variance is granted. THE CRUCIAL POINTS OF VARIANCE ARE UNDOE HARDSHIP, AND UNDOE CIRCUMSTANCES, APPLIED TO PROPERTY. A VARIANCE IS NOT JUSTIFIED UNLESS ALL OF THESE ELEMENTS ARE PRESENT IN THE CASE.

ZONING EXCEPTION:

An exception is a use permitted only after review by the Board of Appeals of an application; such review being necessary because of the provisions of the ordinance covering conditions, precedent or subsequent, are not precise enough to all applications without interpretation, and such review is required by the ordinance.

The "Exception" differs from the "Variance" in several respects. An exception does not require "undue hardship" in order to be allowable. The exceptions that are found in this ordinance appear as conditional uses authorized by special permit or review by the zoning board, legislative body, or board of appeals. These land uses could not be conveniently allocated to one zone or another, or the effects of such uses could not be definitely foreseen as of a given time. The general characteristics of these uses include one or more of the following:

- (1) They require large areas.
- (2) They are infrequent.
- (3) They sometimes create an unusual amount of traffic.
- (4) They are sometimes obnoxious or hazardous.
- (5) They are required for public safety and convenience.

ZONE: (See district)

SECTION FOUR - ZONING DISTRICTS AND MAP

DISTRICTS:

For the purpose of this ordinance, the Township of Novesta is hereby divided into the following districts:

- RA Residential-Agricultural
- B Business
- I-1 Light Industrial

Article 4-1 BOUNDARIES:

The boundaries of these districts are hereby established as shown on the zoning map, Novesta Township Zoning Ordinance, which accompanies this ordinance, and which, with all notations, references, and other information shown thereon shall be as much a part of this ordinance as if fully described herein.

a. Unless otherwise shown, the boundaries of the district are lot lines, section lines, the centerlines of streets, alleys, roads, or such lines extended, and the unincorporated limits of the township.

b. Where due to the scale, lack of detail or illegibility of the zoning map accompanying this ordinance, there is any uncertainty, contradiction, or conflict as to the intended location of any district boundaries, shown thereon, interpretation, concerning the exact location of district boundary lines shall be determined, upon written application, or upon its own motion, by the Board of Appeals.

Article 4-1-1 ZONING OF VACATED AREAS:

Whenever any street, alley, or other public way, within the township of Novesta shall have been vacated by official government action, and when the lands within the boundaries thereof attached to and become a part of the land formerly within such vacated street, alley or public way they shall automatically, and without further governmental action, thenceforth acquire and be subject to the same zoning regulations as are applicable to the lands to which the same shall be used for that same use as is permitted under this ordinance for such adjoining lands.

Article 4-1-2 DISTRICT REQUIREMENTS:

All buildings and uses in any district shall be subject to the provisions of general provisions and general exceptions.

Article 4-2 RA RESIDENTIAL AGRICULTURAL DISTRICTS:

The residential and agricultural districts are designed to provide for dwelling sites and the residentially related uses in keeping with residential development in the township, and to provide home sites in areas which are rural in character. The uses permitted by right and on special condition are intended to promote a compatible arrangement of land uses for homes and farms, with the intent to keep neighborhoods relatively quiet and free of unrelated traffic influences.

Article 4-2-1 PRINCIPLE PERMITTED USES:

Except as otherwise provided by this ordinance no land or premises shall hereafter be used, and no buildings or structures, located, erected or used for other than one or more of the following purposes:

- (1) One or two family dwellings.
- (2) Farms including woodlots.
- (3) Raising of horses or common farm animals on parcels of 10 acres or more, or on smaller parcels by special permit of the board of appeals, such permit to be renewed annually, the board of appeals to have the authority to limit the number of such animals to a reasonable number proportionate to the size of the specific parcel in question, and the nature of the animals.
- (4) Publicly owned and operated parks, parkways and recreational facilities.
- (5) Accessory buildings and uses customarily incident to any of the above permitted use.
- (6) Storage of farm machinery and farm supplies.
- (7) Home occupations.

Article 4-2-2 CONDITIONAL USES:

The following uses may be permitted upon the granting of a permit for such use by the planning commission or its equivalent, subject to the conditions hereinafter imposed for each use and subject further to such other reasonable conditions which in the opinion of the planning commission or its equivalent are necessary to provide adequate protection to the neighborhood and to abutting properties.

1. Churches, schools, colleges, educational institutions, libraries and public owned buildings.
2. Hospitals, clinics, sanitariums, nurseries, convalescent and old folks home, cemeteries and similar buildings and structures designed for human care.
3. Privately owned parks, playgrounds, golf grounds, swimming pools, and similar facilities for outdoor exercises and recreation.

4. Community centers, clubs, lodges, and social organizations, if non-profit and limited to members.
5. Tourist homes, boarding or lodging houses.
6. Boarding kennels and veterinary hospitals.
7. Sand and gravel pits.
8. Airfields and landing fields.
9. Public service buildings and yards, publicly owned buildings, public utility buildings and yards.
10. Guide signs, billboards and outdoor advertising signs.
11. Roadside stands: Retail outlet for the sale of farm produce raised on the premises to the general public, including but not limited to fruit, vegetables, meat, dairy and poultry products.
12. Brine wells and oil wells.
13. Dwellings for seasonal labor.
14. Farm equipment sales and services.
15. Public waste disposal areas.
16. Water wells for other than residential purposes, it being expressly understood that residential water wells are permitted in all districts.
17. Basement dwellings, not to exceed 18 months use, said dwellings thereafter to be completed above the basement level.
18. Drag strips, racetracks, and/or go-cart tracks subject to the following conditions:
 - a. All parking shall be provided as off street parking within the boundaries of the development.
 - b. All sides of the development shall be provided with a 100 foot buffer strip for protection and a fence or wall not less than 4 feet high.
19. Accessory Buildings and Uses customarily incident to any of the above conditional uses.

Article 4-2-3 SIZE OF ADVERTISING SIGNS:

A sign not more than 9 square feet in area advertising the sale, rental or lease of the premises on which located, or a home occupation being carried on on the premises shall be permitted within the residential and agricultural districts.

Article 4-2-4 SIZE OF PREMISES:

a. Dwellings. Every parcel of land upon which a single family dwelling is hereafter erected shall be not less than 12,000 square feet if it has access to both public sewer and public water, 20,000 square feet if it has access to either public sewer or public water, and one acre if it has access to neither public sewer or public water. Every parcel of land upon which a two family dwelling is hereafter erected shall be not less than 20,000 square feet if it has access to both public sewer and public water, one acre if it has access to either public sewer or public water, and 55,000 square feet if it has access to neither public sewer or public water. No such parcel shall be less than 150 feet in width for one family dwellings, and not less than 200 feet in width for two family dwellings, except that it shall be permissible to build single family dwellings on lots within legally platted subdivisions 80 feet in width or greater. None of the above shall prevent the use of a lot or parcel of land of lesser size provided that the same was of legal record on the date of passage of this ordinance.

b. Buildings and uses other than dwellings: The minimum area and width of parcels of land required for other permitted or approved buildings and uses, including accessory uses thereto, shall be determined by the Board of Appeals upon written application of the owner of the premises to the board as may be reasonable for such use and in conformity with the purposes of this ordinance.

Article 4-2-5 SETBACKS AND YARDS:

a. Setback. The front line of every building or structure hereafter erected on any premises shall be located not less than 50 feet from the highway right of way line or front lot line as the case may be, except on state highways, in which case no building or structure shall be erected less than 75 feet from the highway right of way of any said state highways, and further except that the Board of Appeals may, by special permit, allow commercial structures to be constructed closer to the highway right-of-way or front lot line.

Article 4-2-6 SIDE YARDS:

No building or structure hereafter erected on any premises shall be located less than 10 feet from the side lot line of the premises upon which it is erected.

Article 4-2-7 REAR YARD:

No building or structure hereafter erected on any premises shall be located less than 35 feet from the rear lot line of the premises upon which it is erected. Private, non-profit swimming pools shall be permitted in the rear yard area of residential properties provided the following conditions are met:

- (1) Whenever a swimming pool is constructed under this ordinance, said pool area shall be provided with a protective fence on all sides, 5 feet or more in height, and entry shall be provided by means of a controlled gate. There shall be a minimum distance of not less than 10 feet between the adjoining property line or alley right-of-way and the outside of the pool wall. Side yard set-backs shall apply to side yards if greater than 10 ft.
- (2) There shall be a distance of not less than 4 feet between the outside pool wall and any building located on the same lot.
- (3) No swimming pool shall be located in an easement, nor over any gas, electric, or telephone lines or cables, nor beneath any telephone or electric lines or cables.

Article 4-2-8 ACCESSORY BUILDINGS:

Accessory buildings may be located in rear or side yard areas, provided however, that they be not closer than 6 feet from any lot line, and further provided that in no event shall any such accessory building be located less than 50 feet from the highway right-of-way line or 75 feet from the right-of-way of any state highway.

Article 4-3 FLOOR AREA OF DWELLINGS:

Article 4-3-1 STANDARD STRUCTURE:

Every one family dwelling hereafter erected shall contain no less than 600 square feet of floor area at the first floor level, and every two family dwelling not less than 480 square feet of floor area for each family unit. No such area shall include space in an attached garage, open porch, or other structure.

Article 4-3-2 MOBILE HOMES:

Every house trailer or mobile home hereafter moved upon any premises shall be 12 feet x 50 feet or larger and shall be placed upon a concrete apron not less than 6 inches larger on each of the four sides of the apron than the trailer or mobile home to be placed thereon, and not less than 4 inches in depth. Every trailer or mobile home shall further be fully skirted, and shall be secured by tie down anchors or wind straps.

SECTION 5 B BUSINESS DISTRICTS

Article 5-1 DESCRIPTION:

The B Business Districts are designed to provide for the establishment of shopping areas, personal services, professional office areas and diversified business types that are primarily compatible with, and of service to, township one family residential and agricultural uses.

Article 5-2 PRINCIPAL USES PERMITTED:

In a B Business District no building or land shall be used and no building shall be erected except for one or more of the following specified uses, unless otherwise provided in this ordinance:

- a. Office buildings for any of the following occupations: Executive, administrative, professional, governmental and sales offices.

- b. Medical and dental offices, including clinics.
- c. Banks and financial institutions.

- d. Any generally recognized retail business which supplies such commodities as: groceries, meats, dairy products, baked goods or other foods, drugs, drygoods and notions or hardware.
- e. Any personal service establishment which performs such services as but not limited to: Shoe repair, tailor shops, beauty parlors, barber shops, interior decorators, photographers, dry cleaners and self-service laundries.
- f. Private clubs and lodge halls.
- g. Churches.
- h. Theatres, assembly halls and similar places of assembly when conducted completely within enclosed building.
- i. Auto laundries when completely enclosed in building.
- j. New Automobile sales or showroom.

- m. Bowling alleys, pool or billiard parlor or clubs.
- n. Commercial printing and newspaper offices.
- o. Business school or private schools operated for profit.
- p. Offices and showrooms of plumbers, electricians, or similar trades. All storage of material or any incidental repairs shall be within the confines of enclosed buildings.
- q. Governmental offices or other governmental uses; public utility offices and uses, utility exchanges, transformer station, pump stations and service yards; and other public service facilities.
- r. Utility and public service facilities and uses when operating requirements necessitate the locating of said facilities within the District in order to serve the immediate vicinity.
- s. Uses similar in character to the below listed uses. All business establishments shall be retail or service establishments dealing directly with consumers. All goods produced on the premises shall be sold at retail on the premises where produced. All business, servicing or processing, except for off-street parking or loading, shall be conducted within a completely enclosed building.
- t. Accessory buildings and uses customarily incidental to the above permitted uses.

Article 5-3 CONDITIONAL USES:

The following uses may be permitted upon the granting of a permit for such use by the Planning Commission or its equivalent, subject to the conditions hereinafter imposed for each use and subject further to such other reasonable conditions which in the opinion of the planning commission or its equivalent are necessary to provide adequate protection to the neighborhood and abutting properties.

- a. Gasoline service stations for the sale of gasoline, oil and minor accessories.
- b. Drive-in restaurants or open front stores.
- c. Motels, hotels, cabin courts and tourist lodging facilities.
- d. Outdoor sales space for the exclusive sale of second hand automobiles, house trailers, travel trailers and rentals of the same.
- e. Commercially used outdoor recreational space for children's amusement parks, carnivals, rebound tumbling facilities, miniature golf courses, and golf driving ranges.
- f. Junk yards but subject to condition and regulations contained in any ordinance passed by the Novesta township to regulate junk.

Article 5-4 FLOOR AREA:

No building hereafter erected, altered, or moved upon any premises shall have less than 400 square feet of floor area at the first floor level.

Article 5-5 YARD SIZES:

Every building hereafter erected, altered, or moved upon the premises shall be provided with yards having no less than the following sizes:

1. Front Yards: 40 feet in depth from highway right-of-way line or front lot line as the case may be.
2. Side Yards: 5 feet in width on each side, provided, however, that no side yard shall be required when the walls of a building that are butting on an interior lot are wholly without windows or other openings and are of fire resistant construction; provided, further that any buildings erected adjacent to a parcel or lot occupied by or zoned for dwellings shall provide a side yard abutting such parcel not less than 10 feet in width.
3. Rear Yards: Every building hereafter erected, altered or moved upon any premises shall provide a rear yard no less than 40 feet in depth and such yard shall be kept open and unobstructed for the access of fire fighting equipment.

Article 5-6 HEIGHT OF BUILDINGS:

No buildings shall hereafter be erected, altered, or moved upon any premises exceeding a height of 40 feet unless approved by the Township Board as within the fire fighting facilities of the township, upon written application of the owner of the premises.

SECTION 6 - 1-1 LIGHT INDUSTRIAL DISTRICTS

Article 6-1 - DESCRIPTION:

The 1-1 Light Industrial Districts are designed so as to primarily accommodate wholesale activities, warehousing, and industrial operations whose external, physical effects are restricted to the area of the district and in no manner affect in a detrimental way any of the surrounding districts. The 1-1 District is so structured as to permit along with any specified uses, the manufacturing, compounding, processing, packaging, assembly, and/or treatment of finished material. Any of the following principal uses permitted: In light industrial district, no building or land shall be used and no building shall be erected except for one or more of the following specified uses unless otherwise provided in this ordinance:

- a. Any use charged with the principal function of basis research, design and pilot or experimental product development when conducted within a completely enclosed building. The growing of any vegetation requisite to the conducting of basis research shall be excluded from the requirement of enclosure.
- b. Warehousing and wholesale establishments and trucking facilities.
- c. The manufacture, compounding, processing, packaging, repairing, altering, finishing, assembling, fabricating or storing of goods, provided, however, that there is not therewith the operation of any activity or the storage or display of goods in such a manner as to be obnoxious by reason of odors, fumes, dust, smoke, vibration or noise.
- d. Laboratories - experimental, film, or testing.
- e. Storage and transfer and electric and gas service buildings and yards. Public utility buildings, telephone exchange buildings, electrical transformer stations and substations, and gas regulator stations, water supply and sewage disposal plants. Water and propane tank holders. Railroad transfer and storage tracks. Railroad rights of way. Freight terminals.
- f. Storage facilities for building materials, sand, gravel, stone, lumber, or storage of contractor's equipment and supplies.
- g. Central drycleaning or laundries.
- h. Automotive repair garages, auto engine and body repair, and undercoating shops when completely enclosed.
- i. Non-accessory signs.
- j. Commercial Kennels.
- k. Other uses which are similar to the above uses.
- l. Accessory buildings and uses customarily incidental to the above permitted uses.
- m. Wholesale uses and storage uses when in a completely enclosed building, except that new vehicles and/or earth moving equipment for sale may occupy a rear yard area.

Article 6-1-1 - CONDITIONAL USES:

The following uses may be permitted upon the granting of a permit for such use by the planning commission or its equivalent, subject to the conditions hereinafter imposed for each use and subject further to such other reasonable conditions which in the opinion of the planning commission or its equivalent are necessary to provide adequate protection to the neighborhood and to abutting properties.

- a. All commercial uses as provided for in commercial districts.

b. Lumber and cleaning mills when completely enclosed and when located in the interior of the district so that no property line shall form the exterior boundary of the "1-1" district.

c. Metal Plating, buffering and polishing, subject to appropriate measures to control the height of process to prevent noxious results and/or nuisances.

d. Junkyards, subject to any provisions and restrictions imposed by any other ordinance of the township of Novesta concerning junk or dismantled cars.

Article 6-1-2 - FLOOR AREA:

No building hereafter erected, altered or moved upon any premises shall have less than 1,000 square feet of floor area at the first floor level.

Article 6-1-3 - YARDS:

Every building hereafter erected, altered or moved upon the premises shall be provided with yards having no less than the following sizes:

1. Front yards: 75 feet in depth from highway right-of-way line or front lot line as the case may be.
2. Side yards: 25 feet in width on each side, provided, however, that no building shall be closer than 150 feet to the outer perimeter (property line) of such district when said property line abuts any residential district.
3. Rear yards: 40 feet in depth.

Article 6-1-4 - HEIGHT OF BUILDINGS:

No buildings shall hereafter be erected, altered or moved upon any premises exceeding a height of 40 feet unless approved by the township board as within the fire fighting facilities of the township, upon written application of the owner of the premises.

SECTION 7 - GENERAL PROVISIONS

Article 7-1 - DWELLINGS PER UNIT OF LAND:

Every non-farm dwelling hereafter erected or moved upon any premises shall be located upon a lot of record, and not more than one dwelling shall be erected on such lot. Where the principal use of the premises is for farming, one dwelling in addition to farm dwellings may be erected on the premises for hired persons employed on the farm, or for the use of persons directly related to the owners of the farm.

Article 7-2 - RESIDENTIAL YARD AND AREA REQUIREMENTS:

In conforming with yard and area requirements, no area shall be counted as accessory to more than one dwelling or principal building or use, and no area necessary for the yard requirements of one dwelling or building shall be included or counted in the calculation of the space requirements for any other dwelling or building.

Article 7-3 - GENERAL REAR YARD REQUIREMENTS:

- a. Every one story dwelling shall have a rear yard not less than 35 feet in depth, and every two story dwelling not less than 40 feet in depth. An additional depth of 5 feet shall be added for each additional story or part thereof.
- b. All rear yards shall be kept open and unobstructed for access of fire fighting equipment.

Article 7-4 - LOCATION ACCESSORY BUILDINGS:

Location of buildings other than dwellings in relation to dwellings. No accessory building shall hereafter be erected less than 15 feet from any dwelling located on abutting property nor from the boundary line of any lot located in residential districts.

Article 7-5 - EXCEPTIONAL LOT CONDITIONS:

Where size or shape of a lot of public record at the date of enactment of this ordinance, or other local conditions, result in conditions which would cause undue hardship if this Ordinance were strictly enforced, a zoning variance may be granted by the Board of Appeals, provided, however, that such variance shall not jeopardize water supply or sewage disposal facilities, or reduce safety to vehicular traffic, or increase fire hazards on the lot or on property neighboring thereto.

Article 7-6 - GRADING:

No premises shall be so filled or graded as to discharge surface run-offs on abutting or neighboring property in such a manner as to cause ponding or surface accumulation of such run-off on said neighboring or abutting property.

Article 7-7 - VEHICULAR PARKING SPACE:

For each dwelling, commercial, industrial, manufacturing or other enterprise or service establishment hereafter erected or moved upon any premises, including buildings or structures used principally as a place of public assembly, there shall be provided and maintained suitable space for off-street parking with adequate access to all spaces. Any area designated as required off-street parking shall never be changed to another use unless and until equal facilities are provided elsewhere. The minimum number of off-street parking spaces by type of use shall be determined in accordance with the following schedule:

LAND USE	REQUIRED PARKING SPACES
Dwellings	1 per dwelling unit.
Church or Auditorium	1 per four seats or per every 6 ft. of pews.
Hospital & similar institutions	1 per bed.
Home Occupations	3 in addition to one for the dwelling.
Retail stores and similar commercial enterprises	1 per 100 sq. feet of floor area.
Office and/or other personal services	1 per 200 sq. feet of floor area.
Industry	1 per each employee or per 150 sq ft. of floor area.
Tourist, boarding & lodging homes	1 per each two persons served.
Restaurants	1 per two seats.

Article 7-8 SUBSTANDARD DWELLING STRUCTURES:

For the express purpose of promoting the health, safety, morals and general welfare of the inhabitants of the township, and reducing hazards to health, life and property, no fixed or movable substandard building or structure shall hereafter be erected or moved upon any premises and used for dwelling purposes.

Article 7-9 TRAILER PARKS AND COURTS:

Trailer Parks and Courts are allowed in residential and agricultural districts only, and shall be allowed only when the following conditions are met:

- a. All trailer court developments shall comply with Act 243 of the Public Acts of The State of Michigan, 1959, as amended.
- b. There shall be provided for each trailer court a recreational area equal in size to at least 200 square feet per mobile home site. Said recreational area shall be no longer than 1½ times its width. Such area shall be graded, developed, sodded and maintained by the management, so as to provide recreation for the residents of the trailer court.
- c. The front yard, and any side yard adjacent to a street shall be landscaped within 1 year and the entire trailer court shall be maintained in a good, clean, presentable condition at all times.

d. No business of any kind shall be conducted in any trailer court except for separate, permanent structures which contain facilities such as the management's office, laundry and to serve only the residents of the trailer court.

e. There shall be no storage of any kind under trailer coaches unless skirted.

f. Trailer coach lots shall abut a service drive. All service drives shall be constructed of concrete or asphalt at Tuscola County Road Commission standards within one year after issuance of a permit. A cash security guaranteeing monies for such work shall be issued to the township in a bonafide amount from parties performing such work.

g. The trailer court shall be designed to provide a concrete walk at least 36 inches wide from the entrance of the park to all trailer coach sites and all required service facilities.

h. Street and yard lights sufficient to permit safe movement of vehicles and pedestrians at night shall be provided, and shall be so located and shaded as to direct the light away from adjacent properties.

i. Trailer coach sites shall be provided with a concrete walk of not less than 10 feet wide by 50 feet long and 4 inches in depth and 1 foot larger than the overall dimensions of the respective trailer.

Article 7-10 APPLICATION FOR TRAILER PARK OR COURT:

Application for the erection of a trailer coach park or court shall be accompanied by the following:

1. The official written opinion of the school board, for the district in which said site is located.

Article 7-11 TEMPORARY DWELLINGS:

No person may erect or occupy a temporary dwelling on any lot except as hereinafter provided:

- a. A building, including a basement home, which does not comply with the area requirements of its district may be occupied as a temporary dwelling for a period of not more than 18 months if construction of a permanent dwelling is actually underway and in active progress during occupancy of such temporary dwelling. Two consecutive additional 12 month periods of occupancy may be granted at the discretion of The Board of Appeals. In the event that any person shall reside in any such temporary dwelling for a period of more than 18 months and has had extensions granted by the Board of Appeals for the two additional periods, the zoning board, the township board, any delegated official or any interested party may proceed to have such extended use abated as a nuisance, or may enforce this Ordinance by other means herein provided.
- b. The use of tents as a temporary dwelling in connection with recreational activities may be permitted upon application to the zoning board of appeals showing that the necessary and proper health, sanitation, plumbing and fresh water facilities are provided.
- c. The Board of Appeals may permit on application the use of a trailer as a temporary dwelling for a period of one year when the occupant of said trailer is definitely engaged in the erection of a permanent dwelling on said lot and when necessary and proper health, sanitation, plumbing and fresh water facilities are provided. If substantial progress has been made toward completion of the building, the Board of Appeals may grant an extension for six months.
- d. One house trailer at each dwelling brought by visitors for traveling purposes may be occupied and allowed for 30 days if the visitors occupying said trailer use the sanitary facilities of the dwelling of the property owner or occupants there visiting or make other suitable provision for sanitary facilities.
- e. House trailers may be maintained in properly designated and licensed trailer parks.

b. The use of tents as a temporary dwelling in connection with recreational activities may be permitted upon application to the zoning board of appeals showing that the necessary and proper health, sanitation, plumbing and fresh water facilities are provided.

c. The Board of Appeals may permit on application the use of a trailer as a temporary dwelling for a period of one year when the occupant of said trailer is definitely engaged in the erection of a permanent dwelling on said lot and when necessary and proper health, sanitation, plumbing and fresh water facilities are provided. If substantial progress has been made toward completion of the building, the Board of Appeals may grant an extension for six months.

d. One house trailer at each dwelling brought by visitors for traveling purposes may be occupied and allowed for 30 days if the visitors occupying said trailer use the sanitary facilities of the dwelling of the property owner or occupants there visiting or make other suitable provision for sanitary facilities.

e. House trailers may be maintained in properly designated and licensed trailer parks.

Article 7-12 CONDITIONAL USES:

a. Conditional uses, where provided, shall be subject to the requirements of this section in addition to the requirements and standards of the zoning district where located to prevent conflict with or impairment of the principal uses thereof. All conditional uses shall be deemed to possess characteristics of such unique form to the district that each shall be considered as in individual case.

b. Specified Requirements.

1. Written application shall be made to the township zoning board for all conditional uses. The application shall show the following:

- a. Name of applicant and owner of the premises.
- b. Legal recorded description of the premises.
- c. Description of proposed use.
- d. Location of proposed building or use.
- e. Location of existing roads and highways providing access thereto.
- f. Sewage disposal facilities, existent or proposed, on and for the premises, including approval in writing of the proposed sewage facility from Tuscola County Health Dept.
- g. Use of properties of adjacent premises.
- h. Location of dwellings or principal buildings on all adjacent premises.
- i. Use of properties located on opposite side of road, street or highway within 500 feet of the opposite mid-point.
- j. Location of parking area if required.

2. The zoning board may hold a public hearing on the application, the cost of advertising for which shall be borne by the applicant.

3. In reaching its determination of the application, the board shall consider the following:

- a. Whether the locations, use, nature and intensity of operation will be in conflict with the principal permitted uses of the zoning district.
- b. Whether the sewage disposal and water supply facilities will be adequate and safe.
- c. Whether the setback and yard conditions will be in harmony with the orderly and proper development of the district.
- d. Whether adequate access to the building or use will be provided by either existing roads or public or other roads to be constructed.
- e. Whether the building or use will be more objectionable to nearby properties by reason of traffic, noise, vibration, dust, fumes, smoke, firehazard, bright or flashing lights, or disposal of waste or sewage from the operation of any principal use.
- f. Whether the building or use will discourage or hinder the appropriate development and use of adjacent lands and buildings.

Article 7-13 CONFLICTING REGULATIONS:

Whenever any provision of this ordinance imposes more stringent requirements, regulations, restrictions or limitations than are imposed or required by the provisions of any other law or ordinance, then the provisions of this ordinance shall govern. Whenever the provisions of any other law or ordinance impose more stringent requirements than are imposed or required by this ordinance, then the provisions of such law or ordinance shall govern.

Article 7-14 NONCONFORMITY:

Nonconforming Lots, Nonconforming Uses of Land, Nonconforming Structures, and Nonconforming Uses of Structures and Premises.

1. Intent. It is the intent of this ordinance to permit legal nonconforming lots, structures or uses to continue until they are removed but not to encourage their survival.

It is recognized that there exists within the districts established by this ordinance, and subsequent amendments, lots, uses of land, structures and uses of structures and premises which were lawful before this ordinance was passed or amended which would be prohibited, regulated, or restricted under the terms of this ordinance or future amendments. Such lots, uses of land, structures, and uses of structures and premises are declared by this ordinance to be incompatible permitted uses in the districts involved. It is further the intent of this ordinance that nonconformities shall not be enlarged upon, expanded or extended, nor be used as grounds for adding other structures or uses prohibited elsewhere in the same district.

A nonconforming use of a structure, a nonconforming use of land, or a nonconforming use of a structure and land shall not be extended or enlarged after passage of this ordinance by attachment to a building or premises of additional signs intended to be seen from off the premises or by the addition of other uses of a nature which would be prohibited generally in the district involved.

To avoid undue hardship, nothing in this ordinance shall be deemed to require a change in the plans, construction, or designated use of any building on which actual building construction has been diligently carried on. Actual construction is hereby defined to include the placing of construction materials in permanent position and fastened in a permanent manner; except that where demolition or removal of an existing building has been substantially begun preparatory to rebuilding such demolition or removal shall be deemed to be actual construction provided that work shall be diligently carried on until completion of the building involved.

2. Nonconforming Lots:

a. In any district in which single family dwellings are permitted, notwithstanding limitations imposed by other provisions of this ordinance, a single family dwelling and customary accessory buildings may be erected on any single lot of record at the effective date of adoption or amendment of this ordinance. This provision shall apply even though such lot fails to meet the requirements for area, or width, or both, that are generally applicable in the districts; provided that yard dimensions and other requirements not involving area or width, or both, of the lot shall conform to the regulations for the district in which such lot is located. Yard requirement variances may be obtained through approval of the Board of Appeals.

b. If 2 or more lots or combinations of lots and portions of lots with continuous frontage in single ownership are of record at the time of passage or amendment of this ordinance, and if all or part of the lots do not meet the requirements for lot width and area as established by this ordinance, the lands involved shall be considered to be an undivided parcel for the purposes of this ordinance, and no portion of said parcel shall be used or occupied which does not meet lot width and area requirements established by this ordinance, nor shall any division of the parcel be made which leaves remaining any lot with width or area below the requirements stated in this ordinance.

3. Nonconforming uses of land. Where at the effective date of adoption or amendment of this ordinance lawful use of land exists that is made no longer permissible under the terms of this ordinance as enacted or amended, such use may be continued so long as it remains otherwise lawful, subject to the following provisions:

a. No such nonconforming use shall be enlarged or increased, nor extended to occupy a greater area of land than was occupied at the effective date of adoption or amendment of this ordinance.

b. No such nonconforming use shall be moved in whole or in part to any other portion of the lot or parcel occupied by such use at the effective date of adoption or amendment of this ordinance.

c. If such nonconforming use of land ceases for any reason for a period of more than one year, any subsequent use of such land shall conform to the regulations specified by this ordinance for the district in which such land is located.

4. Nonconforming Structures. Where a lawful structure exists at the effective date of adoption or amendment of this ordinance that could not be built under the terms of this ordinance by reason of restrictions on area, lot coverage, height, yards, or other characteristics of the structure or its location on the lot, such structure may be continued so long as it remains otherwise lawful, subject to the following provisions:

a. No such structure may be enlarged or altered in a way which increases its nonconformity; for example, existing residences on lot of a width less than required herein may add a rear porch provided that other requirements relative to yard space and land coverage are met.

b. Should such structure be destroyed by any means to an extent of more than 60 per cent of its replacement cost, exclusive of the foundation at the time of destruction, it shall not be reconstructed except in conformity with the provisions of this ordinance.

c. Should such structure be moved for any reason for any distance whatever, it shall thereafter conform to the regulations for the district in which it is located after it is moved.

5. Nonconforming Uses of Structures and Land. If a lawful use of a structure, or of structures and land in combinations, exists at the effective date of adoption or amendment of this ordinance, it would not be allowed in the district under the terms of this ordinance, the lawful use may be continued so long as it remains otherwise lawful, subject to the following provisions:

a. No existing structure devoted to a use not permitted by this ordinance in the district in which it is located shall be enlarged, extended, constructed, reconstructed, moved or structurally altered except in changing the use of structure to a use permitted in the district in which it is located.

b. Any nonconforming use may be extended through any parts of a building which were manifestly arranged or designed for such use, and which existed at the time of adoption or amendment of this ordinance, but no such use shall be extended to occupy any land outside such building.

c. In any districts, if no structural alterations are made, any nonconforming use of a structure, or structure and premises, may be changed to another nonconforming use of the same or a more restricted classification provided that the Board of Appeals, either by general rule or by making findings in this specific case, shall find that the proposed use is equally appropriate or more appropriate to the district than existing nonconforming use. In permitting such change, the Board of Appeals may require appropriate conditions and safeguards in accord with the purpose and intent of this ordinance. Where a nonconforming use of a structure, land, or structure and land in combination is hereafter changed to a more restrictive classification, it shall not thereafter be changed to a less restricted classification.

d. Any structure, or structure and land in combination, or on which a nonconforming use is superseded by a permitted use, shall thereafter conform to the regulations for the district in which such structure is located, and the nonconforming use may not thereafter be resumed.

6. Repairs and Maintenance. On any building devoted in whole or in part to any nonconforming use, work may be done in any period of 12 consecutive months on ordinary repairs, or on repair or replacement of nonbearing walls, fixtures, wiring or plumbing to an extent not exceeding 50% of the assessed value of the building, provided that the cubic content of the building as it existed at the time of passage or amendment of this ordinance shall not be increased.

Nothing in this ordinance shall be deemed to prevent the strengthening or restoring to a safe condition of any building or part thereof declared to be unsafe by any official charged with protecting the public safety, upon order of such official.

7. Uses Allowed as Conditional Uses Not Nonconforming Uses. Any use which is permitted as a conditional use as provided in this ordinance shall not be deemed a nonconforming use but shall without further action be deemed a conforming use in such district.

8. Change of Tenancy or Ownership. There may be a change of tenancy, ownership or management of any existing nonconforming uses of land, structures and premises provided there is no change in the nature or character of such nonconforming uses.

9. Completion. No basement, cellar, garage or any incomplete structure in use as a dwelling at the date of enactment of this ordinance or any amendment hereto shall be used as a dwelling for more than 24 months following said date, unless it has been brought to a state of completion in conformity with the regulations of this ordinance and amendments hereto relative to dwellings in the zoning district in which said structure is located.

10. Exemption of farm buildings and structures. All buildings and structures hereafter erected on farms and used in connection with customary farming operations, but not including dwellings, shall be exempt from the provisions of this ordinance except for compliance with minimum set back and yard requirements; provided, further, that no pen or limited enclosure, or building housing cattle, poultry or other animals be located less than 200 feet from any adjacent interior property line.

Article 7-15 - PLATTING OF PROPOSED SUBDIVISIONS:

The Novesta Township Board shall, on proposed subdivisions, have the authority to require a plat proprietor to furnish and present whatever engineering data the said board shall deem necessary to safeguard the health, safety and welfare of the people and property of the township.

a. The Novesta Township Board shall determine whether or not such plats shall be approved with due consideration to water supply and sewage disposal, soil and subsoil, topography and average water table together with the engineers report.

b. Platting and Subdividing. If any person intends to offer for sale more than 4 lots, it shall be required that such person shall have such property platted and subdivided, and have it approved and registered with the Township Board and such authorities or commissions as may be required. The Township Board shall require a statement and agreement to the effect that the township shall be free of any expense to the township for improvements such as building sidewalks and roads and construction of any essential public services on such platted area or subdivision before accepting and approving such subdivision, and cause such agreement to be properly recorded therewith.

Article 7-16 - BOUNDARIES:

No new lot boundaries of an already existing site may be established less than 15 feet from a building on such a building site.

Article 7-17 - ESSENTIAL SERVICES:

Essential services shall be permitted as authorized and regulated by law and other ordinances of the Township, such essential services being exempt from the provisions of this ordinance. Electric power generating stations and peak load generating stations are not exempt.

SECTION 8 - ADMINISTRATION AND ENFORCEMENT

Article 8-1 - ADMINISTRATION:

The provisions of this ordinance shall be administered by such person or persons whom shall be designated by the Township officials in accordance with the applicable State statute.

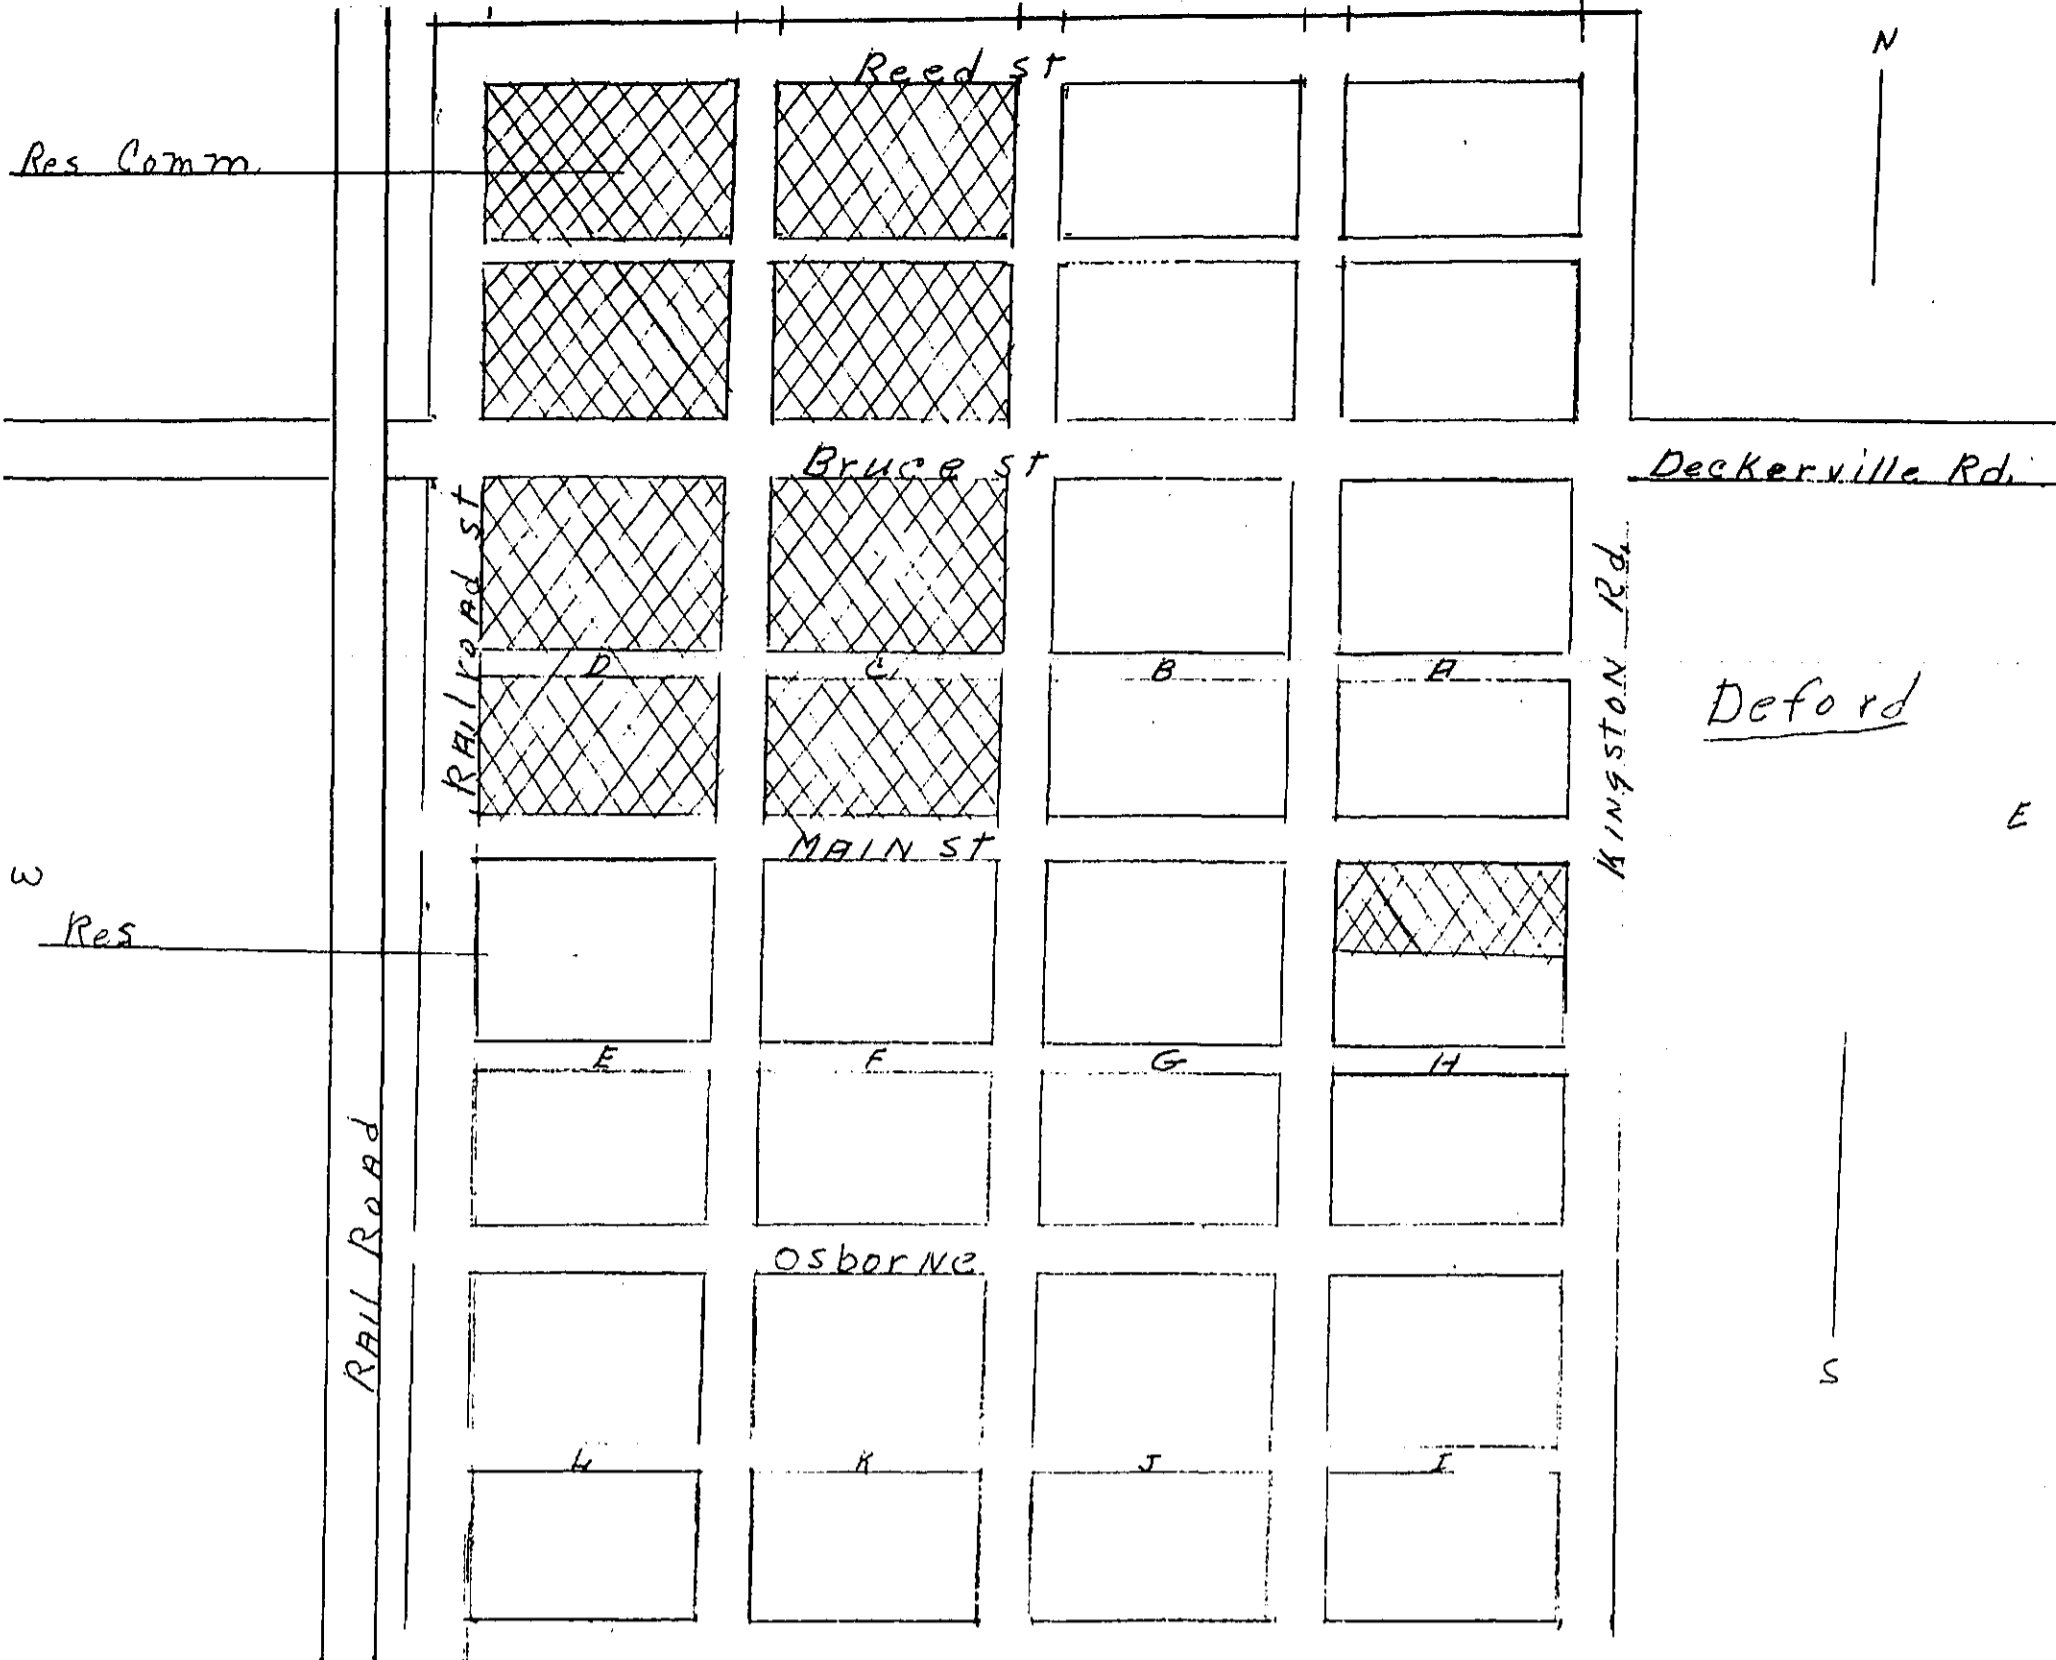

Article 8-2 - ENFORCEMENT:

The provisions of this ordinance shall be enforced by such official as may be from time to time designated by resolution of the Township officials.

Article 8-3 - VIOLATIONS:

a. Buildings erected, altered, moved, razed, or converted, or any use of land or premises carried on in violation of any provision of this ordinance are declared to be a nuisance per se. Any and all buildings or land use activities considered possible violations of the provisions of this ordinance observed by or communicated to Police and Fire Department employees or to any municipal official shall be reported to the zoning enforcement officer.

Florida beckons state motorists

"Every year hundreds of thousands of Michiganders flee the snow and blustery winds of the North to visit Florida between December and April, and this year should be no different," according to Automobile Club of Michigan Touring Manager Joseph Ratke.

"Surveys show Michigan ranked third behind New York and Ohio as a state of origin for motorists entering the Sunshine State during the first quarter of 1976," Ratke said. "In 1975's first quarter, Michigan was only fifth," he said. Ratke noted that 90 per cent of Florida-bound vacationers from Michigan make the trip south behind the wheel of the family car.

Those Michiganders who make the trip this year will find sparkling new entertainment attractions, luxurious new hotel and motel accommodations, improved highways and plentiful gasoline along major routes.

Motorists pulling trailers or just pitching tents will find state campgrounds under heavy pressure through mid-

January, according to Florida Natural Resources spokesmen. The state has about 2,000 campsites with about half set aside for the "drive-in trade."

Hotel and motel pressure always is heavy in winter but this year Florida has several new hotels and motels and more are scheduled to open next year.

Michigan motorists who spend winter on Florida's sun-drenched beaches will find the Sunshine State's Interstate highway system is about 77 per cent complete, with the bulk of the uncompleted mileage the 275 miles of I-75 in southwest Florida.

Southern Michigan motorists should allow at least 2½ days of driving time to reach the Florida state line and 3½ days to go all the way to Miami. From the Kalamazoo area in West Michigan, the drive covers an average of 70 miles more and costs 25 cents more in tolls, but it includes about 71 miles more of four-lane highway.

Michigan motorists headed for Florida can choose from four principal highway routes.

The most direct route for East Michigan tourists is Route A via I-75. Its 1,410 miles include 1,406 miles of four-lane highway and tolls for the entire trip to Miami cost $5.20. Route A goes through Cincinnati, Lexington, Knoxville and Chattanooga but skirts Atlanta via a bypass. There is semi-mountainous terrain on only about 50 miles of the trip in Kentucky and Tennessee.

from the Detroit area, driving time is about the same because there are practically no mountain roads.

Some 1,200 of Route C's 1,690 miles are four-lane highway but winter road conditions could cause problems in Ohio and Pennsylvania. Although not the fastest route to Florida, Route C offers a variety of scenic and historic sights in Virginia's Shenandoah Valley and the central Carolinas. Tolls are $10.15.

Route D's 1,487-mile path to Florida should be avoided in winter because of the snow and ice conditions in mountainous West Virginia and North Carolina. However, from spring through fall, there are breathtaking views of mountain scenery, and four-lane highways comprise 1,255 miles of the route. Tolls total $6.80.

Auto Club is advising motorists planning a trip south that parts of Ohio and Kentucky and all of Maryland and Virginia are included on the list of states that strictly enforce motor vehicle laws, particularly those pertaining to speed.

Dig up the facts — that way there's no room for doubt.

The most direct route for West Michigan motorists is Route B. From western and central Michigan, it is reached via Fort Wayne and Indianapolis. East Michigan travelers go by way of Toledo, Cincinnati and Louisville. All but six of the 1,465-mile length is four-lane highway.

Alternate Route B-1, which includes Route B to Nashville, is 1,518 miles long and has less freeway than Route B. Its main advantage is as an alternate to Route B in case of bad weather around Chattanooga and Atlanta. Tolls for both Route B and B-1 are $5.20. Although Route B is 55 miles longer than Route A b. The zoning enforcement officer shall inspect each alleged violation and shall order correction, in writing or by posting the premises, of all conditions found to be in violation of this ordinance.

c. An appeal may be taken to the Board of Appeals by any person alleging error in any administrative order concerning the enforcement of this ordinance.

d. All violations shall be promptly corrected after receipt of notification thereof by writing or by posting premises by the zoning enforcement officer. A violation not so corrected shall be reported to the Township attorney who shall initiate prosecution procedures.

Article 8-4 - PENALTIES:

Any person, corporation or firm who violates, disobeys, omits, neglects or refuses to comply with any provision of this ordinance, or any permit, license or exception granted hereunder, or any lawful order of the zoning enforcement officer, Board of Appeals, or the municipal body issued in pursuance of this ordinance shall be guilty of a misdemeanor. Upon conviction thereof before any court having jurisdiction, he shall be punishable by fine of not to exceed One Hundred ($100.00) Dollars, or by imprisonment not to exceed ninety (90) days, or both. Each day during which a violation continues shall be deemed a separate offense. The imposition of any sentence shall not exempt an offender from compliance with the provisions of this ordinance.

The foregoing penalties shall not prohibit the municipality from seeking injunctive relief against a violator, or such other appropriate relief as may be prohibited by law.

SECTION 9 - BOARD OF APPEALS

Article 9-1 - ESTABLISHMENT OF A BOARD OF APPEALS:

There shall be a Board of Appeals as provided under the applicable State statute, which shall have such powers and duties as prescribed by law.

Article 9-2 - AUTHORITY OF THE BOARD OF APPEALS:

a. Hear and decide upon request, the interpretation of the provisions of this ordinance.

b. Grant variances from the strict application of the zoning ordinance when by reason of exceptional narrowness, shallowness, shape or topography of specific parcels of property at the time of the original enactment of this ordinance or amendments thereto or where the strict application of these regulations or amendments thereto would result in exceptional or undue hardship upon said property; provided that such relief or variances can be granted without substantial impairment of the intent, or purpose of this ordinance. This provision shall not be construed to permit the Board, under the guise of a variance, to change the uses of land.

c. Hear and decide appeals where it is alleged by appellants that there is error in any refusal of building, use, or occupancy permit or in any other order, requirement, decision, or determination made by the building inspector, zoning enforcement officer, or other municipal employee when passing upon an application for a building or other permit, or by any other officer or body in the administration to the zoning ordinance.

d. Hear and decide petitions for special exceptions.

Article 9-3 - LIMITATION OF AUTHORITY OF THE BOARD OF APPEALS:

a. Nothing contained in this chapter shall be deemed to authorize the Board to reverse or modify any refusal of a permit or any other order, requirement, decision, or determination which conforms to the provisions of this ordinance and which, therefore, is not erroneous; nor to authorize the Board to validate, ratify, or legalize any violation of law or any of the regulations of the ordinance.

b. The Board shall not amend any portion of this ordinance or the Zoning Map; nor shall such power or authority be vested in the Board.

c. A decision of the Board permitting the erection or alteration of a building or other use of land shall be valid for a period of six (6) months, during which time a building permit for such erection or alteration must be obtained and the erection or alteration started.

d. No application for a variance or special exception which has been denied wholly or in part by the Board shall be resubmitted for a period of one year from the date of the last denial, except on grounds of newly discovered evidence or proof of changed conditions found upon inspection by the Board to be valid.

Article 9-4 - APPLICATION FOR VARIANCES, APPEALS OR SPECIAL EXCEPTIONS:

a. Requests for variances, appeals or special exceptions may be made by submitting an application (or letter) to the Township clerk.

b. A site plan, plot plan or development plan of the total property involved, showing the location of all abutting streets, the location of all existing and proposed structures, the types of buildings and their uses, shall be submitted with each request for a variance, appeal or special exception.

SECTION 10 - VESTED RIGHT

Nothing in this ordinance should be interpreted or construed to give rise to any permanent vested rights in the continuation of any particular use, district, zoning classification or any permissible activities therein; and, they are hereby declared to be subject to subsequent amendments, change or modification as may be necessary to the preservation or protection of public health, safety and welfare.

SECTION 11 - SEVERANCE CLAUSE

Sections of this ordinance shall be deemed to be severable and should any section, paragraph, or provision hereof be declared by the courts to be unconstitutional or invalid, such holdings shall not affect the validity of this ordinance as a whole or any part thereof, other than the part so declared to be unconstitutional or invalid.

SECTION 12 - EFFECTIVE DATE

Public hearing having been held herein, the provisions of this ordinance are hereby given immediate effect, pursuant to the provisions of Section 11, of Act 184 of The Public Acts of 1943 as amended.

Made and passed by The Township Board of The Township of Novesta, Tuscola County, Michigan, on this 8th day of January, 1977

Date of public hearing—May 1, 1976
Date of publication—April 3, 1976
Date of adoption by twp. board—Jan. 8, 1977
