NOW A 5-DAY WEEK FOR A&P EMPLOYES THROUGHOUT THE NATION

Stores Will Be Open Six Days A Week As Usual But No Employe Will Work More Than Five Days

Two months ago this company tried the experiment in a few eastern states of a fiveday work week for our retail store employes. Now we are able to announce that we have adopted the five-day week as our national policy.

• This, we believe, constitutes the first five-day week and the shortest general working hours of any major retail food establishment.

• This shorter work week will be in effect before Labor Day in A&P food stores in thousands of communities throughout the country. It will be extended as far and as fast as possible. Frankly, however, we must recognize that in a few states and a number of cities the introduction of this policy may be delayed or even prevented by state or local labor regulations or local agreements.

• A&P food store employes affected by this policy will work only five days a week although stores will be open six days a week as usual. Their weekly salaries will not be reduced by their shorter work week. Our policy is to continually improve working conditions and salaries as evidenced by the fact that during the past year alone we have been able to make actual wage increases and to pay added compensation to our employes in an amount totaling more than $4,000,000.

• Many people are utterly astounded at the new low prices for quality foods in A&P. Super Markets. They are getting so much more and better food for the same money that they wonder how we can do it. Frankly, it is simply because A&P Super Markets represent a new, more efficient, more economical way of distributing food to the public.

• This new, shorter week is still further evidence that the tremendous savings you can now make in buying groceries, meats and fresh fruits and vegetables in the great, new A&P Super Markets are made possible by savings through efficiency and that no part of these savings comes out of the wages of our employes.

NOR many years it has been a source of pride to us that we have been able generally to maintain the highest average wage scale and the shortest general working hours in a field where long hours have been traditional. Since we first cut the work week eight hours in 1916, there has been a long record of further reduction in hours, increases in wages and vacation schedules.

Because our new low prices have resulted in increased patronage, we have been able to further reduce our operating expenses and increase our efficiency and still further improve the working conditions of our employes.

At the same time thousands of families will testify that they buy their foods today at lower average prices in A&P Super Markets than in any group of stores in the highly competitive retail food field. Today, when you spend a dollar in one of our stores, more of that dollar actually purchases food and less of it goes to cover distribution costs and profits than ever before in the history of the food business.

There is no conflict between low prices and good working conditions. We have achieved both by constantly improving methods of bringing food from producer to consumer, cutting out waste and unnecessary handling operations along the distribution route.

The new A&P Super Markets have made possible savings so astounding that we would not have believed them possible five years ago. This year we are paying the highest wages for the shortest work week in the history of the food business and yet our customers throughout the country will save more than $50,000,000 on the food they buy as compared to the lowest prices we could charge on the basis of our own operating expense only five years ago.

We are more than ever conscious, in these unusual times, of an obligation to make every possible contribution to the American standard of living. We know that we are making it possible for the average family to buy more good food for the same money, or to buy the same quantity of food for less money.

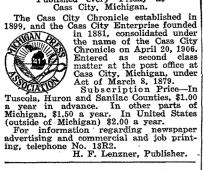

We are happy to tell you that you can enjoy these savings with the knowledge that the people who serve you in our retail stores are sharing more than ever before in these good things. This means a better standard of living for you and for those who serve you.

This plan will necessitate slight adjustments in store hours which will be announced locally. We respectfully ask our customers for their cooperation and assistance in making this new schedule a success.

Lansing-Michigan's much ballyhooed bi-partisan government has month and to remain at Lansing as gone plumb into a dizzy tailspin. And if you, as the celebrated interests. "man of the street," are getting a wee bit confused as to what it is all What Delay May Mean about, have hope and take cheer. Maybe it isn't yourself but the times which seem out of kilter— legislative muddle was a topic of what with Wendell L. Willkie urging the United States to establish tive officials, several of whom were an American military "outpost" in Scotland or Ireland and with President Franklin D. Roosevelt moving American troops into the European war zone via Iceland, all for national defense.

The capital situation is something like this:

Our Democratic governor vetoed 31 acts of the Republican legislature. The Republicans tried unsuccessfully to over-ride the governor's vetoes, although it may be possible for the senate to do so in the case of 13 acts by concurring in action taken last week by the

And so, in open retaliation, the Republicans voted to recess 90 days until October 9. This technically benefits for another 90 days. (unless the supreme court would legislative session.

Branch Banking Veto

The underlying cause of the Republican rebellion was the governor's veto of the famed Senate Bill No. 1, known as the branch banking act which would forbid chain systems of banks throughout Michigan.

Michigan's state constitution requires a two-third vote by the legislature to enact any measure pertaining to banks, and the anti-bank chain bill had to mount this hurdle before it could arrive at the governor's desk.

With a clear-cut majority of the legislature in favor of the measure, the governor's veto aroused the Michigan Bankers' Association to "all-out" war. Bankers in hundreds of small towns, fearful that a spread of chain-banking would ultimately undermine their independence, brought pressure on upstate legislators whether Republican or Democrat. Enough pledges to override the veto were obtained by the state association.

But Governor VanWagoner had his own ideas. When the legislature convened for the final session prior to scheduled adjournment, Republicans discovered that the executive office had exacted a promise of cooperation from enough Democratic legislators—pledge or no pledge-to stymie their well-laid George Kitely.

House Overrides 13

Just to show their fettle, members of the house over-rode 13 of at Mrs. Fred Henderson's at Kingthe governor's vetoes. However, ston. A legal complication arose in the fact that the legislature previously had agreed by resolution to adjourn at noon Wednesday, July 9. Attorney General Herbert J

Rushton, a Republican, tried to be helpful with an informal opinion that the house should suspend rules, rescind acceptance of a date set by the senate for sine die adjournment, and substitute a recess in-

When Lieutenant Governor Frank Murphy announced at 12:30 p. m. Mr. and Mrs. Jack Little and family "The Senate is adjourned," Republicans quickly squelched his at the home of Mr. and Mrs. decision. There is not much use discussing actions which have no legal force.

All of which was interesting, but merely muddled the muddle a bit

McPherson to Go

A factor in the legislative situa tion is the popularity of Melville B. McPherson, state tax commission chairman, with upstate Republican legislators.

McPherson, always a staunch advocate of "home rule" as against centralized state control, has been the friend of small-town law-makers in their effort to retain (or get back) state aid for local governments.

He has been a candidate for governor in competition with the late Frank Fitzgerald and later with Luren D. Dickinson, but he always has managed to keep in the good graces of the administration in power. However, McPherson's term will expire in September, and he knows that he cannot be re-appointed.

Under the state act setting up the centralizing tax collection system, the position of tax director is to be filled by the civil service commission and the act states that the commission must select a man who has had years of experience in tax matters. McPherson is one of and former state administrator of Hemans Sunday. federal public works.

However, the 90-day recess, just the governor's hands in appointing Saturday night and Sunday. McPherson's successor, and Mc-Pherson thus is likely to continue to draw his state checks each the unofficial spokesman of rural Whether public reaction will be favorable or unfavorable to the discussion among Republican elecapprehensive that the voters will not take well to it.

For example, here are some of the complications:

If the federal government decides not to continue matching old-age pensions until Public Act No. 186 takes effect (90 days after final adjournment), the recess would cost the state approximately $5,-000,000 in federal aid.

The state revenue department cannot be established until January.

The anti-sabotage law will not go into effect until January.

Milk prices also cannot be fixed by the new milk marketing act; farmers may be deprived of these

On the other hand, Republican rule otherwise) prolongs the 1941 legislators point out the international situation is rapidly becoming critical; that there has been much press comment on the possibility of a special session to consider financial matters; and that, all in all, the legislature should not adjourn during such an emergency.

Whatever your verdict may be, the fact still remains; Michigan's bi-partisan government is a myth. The political feud is on at Lansing.

Million in Crops in Hoppers' Way

Grasshoppers are a million dollar prize this year, with Michigan farmers facing that much in loss unless they put out poison bait and the hoppers facing partial destruction and a goal of only part of that loss in crops.

The zooming of the pests began earlier than usual this year, reports C. B. Dibble, extension specialist in insect control, Michigan State

He is serving as advisor in counties where farmers are organized to distribute bait, much of which is beans purchased owing to the wet supplied by the federal govern-season and the poor crops of last

If the grasshoppers aren't curbed If the grasshoppers aren't curbed they could easily cause a total of employed by William Carpenter a million dollars in losses sustained by Michigan farmers, Dibble estimates. Weather conditions brought the hoppers along earlier than usual, but the baiting also is ahead of schedule.

Acting on the theory that it's easier and cheaper to get the hoppers while they are young, farmers are spreading the recommended bait at the rate of 20 pounds broadcast to the acre. The usual practice now is to broadcast the bait from the rear of a wagon or truck, covering a strip of pasture or field at a time.

One tactical move this year is to bait the hoppers in the pastures before the pests move into the crops. Another defense scheme is to watch hayfields right after cutting, especially alfalfa, to see if young hoppers are hatching and thus to bait them before they migrate into crops in other fields.

The report that James A. Farley was seen fishing on Monday out of the fish leads, off the bluff, has finally been contradicted. We find upon investigation that it was Mr. Farley's counterpart, Her'man Doerr, and son, Philip, together with the Warn Jacksons of Detroit who are occupying the Hunt cot-

Lots of Insurance Startling figures must be used to introduce this discussion: There are about 125,000,000 life insurance policies in force in the United States: they have a face value of more than $111,000,000,000. All the rest of the world is insured for only about $37,-000,000,000. There are only 132,000,-000 people in this country, including children, which makes it nearly one policy per person. Of course that isn't quite the case, because there are some who have more than one policy. Nevertheless, it is clear that more life insurance policies are written in this country than anywhere else on earth.

C. A. McCULLOUGH of Plymouth dropped into Cass City to see the house where he resided in his youth. He wasn't quite sure where it was located and a local man took him to the residence of George Burg, on East Houghton Street, and told him that was it. "But it wasn't a brick house," said Mr. McCullough. When he was informed that the brick had been added after he left town, he was satisfied. Mr. McCullough is the son of the late Alexander McCullough, pioneer wagonmaker in Cass City. The elder McCullough sold the Methodist congregation the lot on which their church was erected, corner of Houghton and Oak Streets.

The area is exceptionally free from mosquitoes, is well drained and provides exceptional maneuver country. Recreatianal facilities include two movies, a service club, and numerous athletic fields. The camp has a number of chapels, with several chaplains of various faiths.

Eli T. Martin, son of Mrs. Ray Martin, of Deford, who recently arrived at Camp Polk, writes: "The camp is O. K. except for the water. They should have more cold water than they have. All the men here are trying to get along with one another. There are all kinds of them here—some serious, some carefree and some indifferent. Some find it hard to adjust themselves to army life. THE BRIDE LEARNS TO COOK (See Recipes Below.)

EASY AS PIE

No sooner are you back from your honeymoon than the business of planning menus, marketing and cooking for two begins!

In your capacity as chief cook. you're sure to find the task of preparing three meals a day a real challenge. Of course if you've had little past experience in the culinary field, there'll undoubtedly be at least one batch of "heavy" biscuits, a "fallen" cake or two, and even burnt toast . . . but don't let mistakes bother you too much . . . and he'll soon be "crowing" about your So-o-o Good Meals!

Because I'm convinced that the ability to make really good pie is a highly desirable quality for any young woman to possess, especially a new wife, I'm presenting a few pie recipes / for you to try in your leisure moments. If he likes desserts at all (most men adore them), try your luck with lemon-chiffon, chocolate, rhubarb or even Spanish cream pie . . . And, if you're careful to follow the foregoing suggestions, he won't be able to resist that second piece!

I've captioned the column Easy As Pie . . . which perhaps gives an erroneous impression. Easy to eat, yes, but not always easy to make. Pastry is tricky, but once the technique of making it has been acquired, it isn't easily lost.

In making pastry remember these points: (1) unless you are making hot water pastry, have the ingredients for making pie crust cold; (2) cut shortening into the flour, using a pastry blender or fork; or, if George L. Kirchoff and Eugene you're an experienced cook, and P. Comment, both of Gagetown, work quickly, blending in the short-water, stirring constantly. Meanenough to hold the ingredients together; handle dough as little and as lightly as possible after adding water; (4) roll out the dough on a lightly floured board or on a heavy canvas; (5) cover the rolling pin with a child's white cotton stocking -with the foot cut off-and flour it lightly; and (6) place the dough loosely in the pan to help prevent shrinking.

Ice water (about 6 or 7 tablespoons) Sift flour once before measuring. Sift together flour and salt. Cut in shortening with two knives or pastry blender, making coarse pieces. Add as little water as possible to make dough stay together. Divide into parts large enough to make one crust and roll out on a well-floured board with as little handling as pos-the water in the pastry. A half teaspoon of grated orange rind added to the flour for the pastry will give a special fragrance to it.

Spanish Cream Pie. 1 tablespoon unflavored gelatin ½ cup cold milk

1½ cups scalded milk 2 egg yolks 1/3 cup sugar ¼ teaspoon salt 1 teaspoon vanilla

egg whites

1 baked pastry shell Soften the gelatin in the cold milk Combine hot custard and hot dissolved gelatin. Cool slightly, add vanilla, then fold in the stiffly beaten whites. Chill until quite syrupy. Pour into pastry shell. Let set before serving. Yield: 6 servings.

Sometimes it is fun to change the flavor of pastry by adding an extra ingredient or two to the recipe. Cheese pastry, for example, is wonderful for apple pie. Grated cheese is mixed with the flour. A half cup of grated vellow cheese is enough for the standard recipe. Spiced pastry is excellent for fruit pies, particularly peach, apple and apricot, Cinnamon and nutmeg, and perhaps a touch of cloves, are the spices to use. A teaspoon each of sugar and cinnamon and a fourth teaspoon of cloves will spice a batch of pastry. A little sugar also may be added.

Crumb Pastry. 2 cups crumbs, rolled fine or ground 1/2 cup melted butter

Blend butter and crumbs. Line pie pan by firmly pressing in mixture about one-fourth inch thick. Be sure to have it extra thick where sides of pan join. Bake in a 375- to 400-degree oven for 10 minutes. This pastry may be made of graham fers or ginger snaps. And last but not least here's a recipe for the pie that still leads other meal sign-offs by a wide margin.
