Local Contractor Completes Longest Bridge in Tuscola

Andrew Barnes of Cass City Finishes the 420-foot Structure in Caro on M-85

Michigan State Highway Dept. G. Donald Kennedy, State Highway Commissioner B1 of 79-13-5 Built jointly by Federal Govern ment and State Highway Department Andrew T. Barnes, Contractor 1941

The above bronze plate inscription is fastened to the north abutment of the longest bridge in Tuscola County which has just been completed by Andrew T. Barnes, Cass City contractor. The 420-foot structure spans the Cass River at the eastern village limits of Caro the usher. and is located on M-85 which extends south from Caro to Mayville where that highway connects with M-24 which runs south through Lapeer, Pontiac, Detroit and thence south past Monroe and to Toledo, The work was commenced Ohio. on October 15 last. The contract price of the bridge was $72,309.00 and was built with a combination of federal and state funds. "The bridge is one of the finest in the Herron, on Winthrop Avenue, Destate," a state highway man said recently.

One thousand four hundred seventy-seven cubic yards of concrete were used for the piers, abutments Turn to page 4, please. Turn to page 4, please. The roadway is 33 feet wide, there is a 3-foot sidewalk on each side and the additional 1½ feet is for the support of the concrete posts and the steel railings. There are 44 guard posts on each side of the bridge and between posts are fabricated steel railings, each 9 feet long. Six piers are placed in midstream as supports of the structure.

Drainage of the surface water on the roadway of the bridge through openings next to the sidewalk is accomplished by a 3-inch slope from center of road to the side-

Tierney officiating. Miss Trudeau, who was given in marriage by her father, was very lovely in a gown of white jersey. The jacket dress was distinguished by a v-neckline and elbow length sleeves. With it she wore a halo brimmed hat with a shoulder veil of white net and long white gloves. Two orchids formed her shoulder corsage. She wore pearls which were the gift of the bridegroom. The maid of honor was Mrs. Maynard Doerr, sister of the bride. She was gowned in light yellow crepe and wore a matching halo hat, with a shoulder length veil and long gloves.

Twenty Boy Scouts returned to Cass City Sunday from Camp Ha-ley near Mio where they spent the week in a company which numbered 65 Boy Scouts. The local group arrived at camp on July 13 when they selected their tents for the week.

The week's program was a varied and full one. Monday evening was devoted to softball and basketball. The championship of the latter sport went to the Cass City group.

Tuesday night, local Scouts were educated in "snipe hunting." On Thursday, the boys took a trip in the Ogemaw Hills by "saddlehorse and covered wagon." They re-They returned to camp a tired bunch of Scouts. Meals were cooked at

George McKenzie-

Funeral services were conducted Wednesday, July 23, in the McKenzie residence here, by Rev. Mr. El-ford for George McKenzie, who died in his home on Monday, July 21. Burial took place in the Kingston Cemetery.

KINGSTON.

Mr. McKenzie was born 79 years ago in Koylton Township and lived n this community nearly all his ife. He resided a short time in Canada and three years in Kingston Village. About 57 years ago he was married to Sarah Stamp, who survives him.

He had been sick in bed for over a year. He was a very patient sufferer and will be greatly missed by the family and his many friends. The children are: Mrs. Charles Henderson, Mrs. Frank Soper and Mrs. Leo Legg of Kingston; Mrs. Basil Noble of Detroit; Mrs. Eli Stout and Mrs. Douglas Ellis of Bay City. There is also a sister in Buffalo, N. Y.

John Seib—

After being ill for some time, John Seib died in the home of his daughter, Mrs. Mae Dillabaugh, in Gilford, on July 17. Funeral ser-vices were held in the Kingston Methodist Church, July 19, con-ducted by the Rev. Mr. Elford. The remains were interred in the Kingston Cemetery.

Mr. Seib was born July 18, 1860. He lived on his farm, three miles west and one mile south of Kingston for 50 years. Friends in this community had planned to send him a birthday card shower on July 18 when he would have been 81 years of age.

His wife died four years ago. He is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Dillabaugh, one brother, one sister and two grandchildren.

RUNNING WATER-Hot and Cold

This kitchen on the John Clark Farm in Lapeer County has hot and cold running water. Mrs. Clark just turns the faucet and has all the hot water she needs. It speeds up every task, helps her get the housework out of the way quickly.

You can have hot and cold running water on your farm, economically. For example, thirty gallons of electric hot water every day cost $1.98 a month for electricity; eighty gallons cost $3.78 a month. There is a size to fit your needs. Visit your dealer, or talk with the Detroit Edison Farm Service man.

For Gall Bladder

F OR years physicians have been trying to persuade patients with a slow or sluggish liver and a slow emptying gall bladder that better than all kinds of medicine is avoiding large meals, especially the foods rich in starch or fat. By eating small meals, four times a day instead of three large meals, there will be less work for and less congestion of the liver.

When the patient is willing to exercise, exercises that squeeze the liver-bending exercises with knees straight, deep breathing exerciseswill stimulate bile flow, prevent congestion of liver, and empty the gall bladder in less time.

What, however, can be done for those who continue to eat heavy meals or for those who will not or are unable to exercise? If there is not enough bile being manufactured by the system or if the bile is not flowing freely, then the use of bile or gall from cattle is coming into considerable use by physicians. When there has been an operation that has interfered with the manufacture or storage of bile, giving bile or bile salts stimulates bile formation and bile flow. Drs. A. C. Ivy and A. L. Berman, Chicago, in Minnesota Medicine, state that many of the tablets containing bile salts contain other laxatives or purgatives also, whereas it is the bile salt (or gall) that is needed in liver or gall bladder patients. When it is desirable to give patients bile salts some dried animal bile or some preparation of bile salt should be given. These physicians point out that bile salts should not be given unless the liver or gall bladder are not working properly. The bile or gall acts as a self-starter to the liver and gall bladder.

No one should go to the druggist and ask for bile salts, because many preparations contain other purgatives.

* * * QUESTION BOX

Q.-What causes warts? A.-The cause of warts is thought to be a small virus or organism. Q.-What causes my temperature to be subnormal? Is one plus sugar considered serious?

A.--It may be natural for you to have a subnormal temperature. It runs in some families as does low blood pressure. Your physician will advise you if he considers the amount of sugar too high. Have you had your blood sugar tested?

Good to eat, wonderful to look at and substantial is this salad of orange slices and prunes, stuffed with cottage cheese. (See picture at top of column.) *Orange Prune Cheese Salad.

On a bed of lettuce circle 10 to 12 orange slices. At the side arrange 3 cooked prunes which have been stuffed with cottage cheese. With a sharp knife peel oranges, removing all outer skin and inner membrane down to juicy meat. Cut in thin, even slices. California oranges, which are firm-meated and practically seedless, are excellent to use. Serve with a sweet french dress ing, made with lemon juice. With a hot bread and beverage, this salad makes a well-balanced home or party luncheon.

Sweet French Dressing.

Slimming Exercise for Waistlines Waistlines thicken when posture isn't good and exercise is postponed until day after tomorrow. Here is a good slimming exercise: Stand erect, feet fairly close together with the hands resting on the hips. Lift on the toes, lower the torso until heels and buttocks meet. Still on the toes, lift the body slowly to the erect position. Repeat 10 times, pause and take three deep breaths, lifting the chest high, pulling in the tummy muscles. Then at it again. Do not be limp and casual. Make the muscles work.

ringing--easy style

There's nothing mysterious about the way advertising works.

It's like the salesmen who go from house to house looking for customers.

Advertising does the same job on a larger scale.

It's quicker--reaches more people -- at a lower cost per call.

In other words, it's a time saver, which means it's a money saver as well.
