

11 Fatal Traffic Accidents in 1941 in Tuscola County

Three Hundred Fifteen Auto Mishaps in County from Jan. 1 to Oct. 1.

The eleventh fatality in traffic accidents in Tuscola County for 1941 occurred on Monday evening in the death of John Stachura of Vassar, a pedestrian. From January 1 to October 1 of this year, 315 automobile accidents were reported to the sheriff's office in Caro. While many of these were minor affairs, the number is altogether too many in the opinion of officers, who find in their investigations, considerable carelessness and lack of caution on the part of drivers of cars and trucks.

Saturday, six accidents were reported to Sheriff Homer Hillaker's office and Sunday the number was seven. Five of the Sunday mishaps were reported between 7:00 and 8:00 p. m.

John Stachura, 60, of Vassar was hit and killed by a truck driven by Glenn Moran of Hillman at seven o'clock Monday evening, on M-46, 1 1/4 miles east of the Belknap School, and 40 rods east of the junction of M-46 and Kirk Road. Mr. Stachura suffered a fractured skull, broken left leg and a broken jaw.

He was going west with a wheelbarrow loaded with tin, piled so high that he could not see over his load. Mr. Moran was traveling east between 25 and 30 miles an hour, according to the report of officers investigating the accident. Mr. Moran had just met a car with bright lights and when he came out from in front of the dazzling lights, he saw the pedestrian about 30 feet in front of his truck. Moran swung his truck into the ditch to avoid an accident, but the right front corner of the truck rack hit Stachura, killing him instantly. The truck went 25 paces after hitting the man before coming to a stop.

Cars driven by Arthur T. Brown, son of Bruce Brown, of Elmwood Township, and William Reyes of Cass City collided head-on in the fog Sunday at 6:45 p. m. on M-31, 2 1/2 miles west of Cass City. John Hartley, 16, son of Jay Hartley, of Cass City, a passenger in the Brown car, received lacerations on the inside of the right cheek, bruises on right side of face and severe concussion of the brain. He was unconscious for 12 hours and is still a patient in Pleasant Home Hospital. Arthur Brown, 15, was treated for an abrasion of the right hand.

Cass City Won Its Fourth Victory at Sebewaing Friday

The Cass City High School football team chalked up its fourth win of the season Friday at the expense of the Sebewaing Redskins. Cass City scored in every quarter to pile up 28 points, holding Sebewaing scoreless. The Sebewaing team has been crippled with injuries and the local line opened up holes that allowed the back to gain at will. Kling, the Sebewaing speedster, was a consistent ground gainer for the losers and crossed the local goal line once only to have the play called back because of a penalty.

Strickland scored Cass City's first and fourth touchdowns and Profit scored the second and third. Cass City made good on each point after touchdown, Kloc making two, Profit one, and a pass from Strickland to Sickler, was good for the other one.

The local offense was clicking in great form but the poor tackling was the outstanding weakness of the game.

Thumb's Longest Bridge Dedicated at County Seat

Two Cass City Contractors Are Praised at Banquet by State Officials.

The longest bridge in the Thumb of Michigan, completed in July by Andrew T. Barnes, Cass City contractor, was dedicated at Caro on Wednesday afternoon. The bridge crosses the Cass River at the eastern corporation line of the county seat and is a part of M-85 which extends south from Caro to Mayville. The structure is 420 feet in length. The work was commenced in October, 1940.

Albert R. Meredith, president of Caro, in the dedication service at 6:00 p. m., accepted the structure for the village and in a short address reviewed the preliminary efforts made to secure the bridge for the county. G. Donald Kennedy, state highway commissioner, dedicated the bridge not only to the usefulness of the citizens of Caro and Tuscola County, but to all those of the state and nation who travel the highways. He said the structure was a fine addition to the state highway system. Maurice C. Ransford presided as chairman.

A reception was held at Hotel Montague for the state highway commissioner and other state officials at 4:30 p. m., and an hour later a parade left the hotel for the bridge site for the dedication ceremony. In the line of march were the Caro Village Band and the Caro High School Band and a long line of automobiles containing state, county and village officials and citizens. The bands contributed several selections for this program.

Wednesday evening, about 325 persons sat at the banquet tables in the high school auditorium. The dinner was served by the Women's Society of the Sutton Church. Rev. O. Nuechterlein, pastor of the St. Paul Lutheran Church, gave the invocation and Maurice C. Ransford, president of the Caro Board of Commerce, the organization sponsoring the day's program, presided as toastmaster. Village President A. R. Meredith gave the address of welcome and Mr. Ransford introduced prominent guests.

In his address, State Highway Commissioner Kennedy said the traffic on state highways was 25% higher than last year, and that on M-53, it was 68% over that of 1936. He referred to the War Department's defense roads and the

Navy Advertising Starts in Michigan Papers This Week

A series of advertisements to secure new recruits for the United States Navy will start in the weekly newspapers of Michigan this week.

The nation's rapidly growing two-ocean navy is creating a heavy demand for men to man the ships, says Captain Whiting of the U. S. Navy Dept., Washington, D. C., and by next July, a total of 15,000 men will be needed monthly. For that reason the need for navy recruits is urgent and the government is embarking upon the extensive advertising campaign, he added.

A similar advertising campaign has recently been concluded with satisfactory results in a few other states.

Young men interested in this branch of the nation's defense are asked to carefully study the Navy's announcements. Newspaper offices are being supplied with additional details to give those who want more information on this subject. Each newspaper handling the advertising has been asked to designate someone of the newspaper staff to serve as "navy editor." E. W. Kercher will serve in that position for the Chronicle. Booklets, "Life in the Navy," will be distributed by newspapers to men who request them.

Supervisors Busy With Routine Work the Past Week

Listen to the Reports of Committees and of the County Officials.

Yesterday (Thursday) afternoon was set by the Tuscola Board of Supervisors as the time for the election of a county road commissioner to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of George McIntyre, who has left the county to accept a position in Saginaw, and also to choose a member of the social welfare commission and a school examiner. William Profit, supervisor of Elkland Township, has been mentioned as the most likely choice of the supervisors to succeed Mr. McIntyre.

The supervisors the past week have been engaged in their session mainly in routine work in listening and acting on reports of committees and county officials.

Register of Deeds Truman Ackerman reported receipts of his office for the year to be $6,607.00. The county road commission reported receipts of $439,192.12 which included a balance of $139,758.92 at the beginning of their year on June 30, 1940. Their disbursements reached $268,872.84 and the balance on hand on June 30th last was $170,319.28.

The social welfare commission reported expenditures as follows: Direct relief, $29,069.66; social welfare, $28,552.34. There were transferred to the general fund to pay Ann Arbor hospital bills $10,626.57. Sheriff Homer Hillaker gave $5,211.01 as receipts in his office and $17,105.55 as disbursements. He was authorized to purchase three first aid kits for his cars. The drivers' license bureau handled 8,331 applications from drivers and chauffeurs. Cash sent to the secretary of state totaled $10,762.25.

Drain Commissioner James Osburn and County Treasurer Arthur Willits rendered detailed reports from their offices.

The committee to settle with the several justices of the peace in the county reported that the total amount of money collected by them for the year beginning Oct. 1, 1940, was $7,339.44, of which $7,121.24 have been paid to the county treasurer.

Game with Sandusky School Cancelled

The second team of the Sandusky High School traveled to Cass City Monday with the intention of playing football with the second team here, but were disappointed when no contest was held. Because of difficulties encountered during a first team game between the two schools at Sandusky on October 3 had not been settled with the state athletic board was the reason for the cancellation of the game here Monday by local school authorities.

At the October 3 game, there was an inadequate control of spectators on the Sandusky field, there was a continuous heckling of the officials by adult Sandusky followers, there was admitted abuse of officials as evidenced of their having been targets of tomatoes thrown from the sidelines during the game, and the officials were rushed and surrounded on their way to their car where they found it had been molested and two of the tires deflated.

Letters of apology for the unfortunate incident were requested by the state board to be made matters of record by the Sandusky Board of Education and are to be sent to the game officials and the visiting school, Cass City, before the Sandusky High School engages in further interscholastic athletic competition. Such a letter had not been received here the first of this week.

More Help Needed in Red Cross Sewing

More help is needed for Red Cross sewing if the local group are to finish by January 1 the amount of work which has been outlined for them. Women meet at the Youth Center each Monday from 1:00 to 5:00 p. m. for this purpose and additional help will be welcomed. Persons desiring to help do not have to be expert sewers. Garments are already cut out.

There is also a need for more sewing machines, says Mrs. J. I. Niergarth, local chairman. Another shipment of yarn has been received for those who knit mittens.

Seven Tuscola County Selectees Rejected

Seven of the 35 Tuscola County men who were inducted a week ago by the selective service board were rejected at the induction center at Detroit. They are Erling Ollila, Vassar; Roland O'Brien, Mayville; William Service, Birch Run; Leon Arn, Deford; Winnie Skinner, Cass City; Frank Fox, Mayville; and Robert Horner, Silverwood. Ollila will be recalled for another examination later.

Under a new system of physical examinations, a selectee after having been given an IA classification by his county board, will be sent to Saginaw where army doctors decide whether he is fit for duty. If accepted he may go directly to camp or returned home for a period of 15 to 60 days to prepare for induction. Under this new setup, embarrassment of being inducted and then having to return to civilian life will be avoided for registrants unable to qualify as physically fit. This new plan does not affect the local board examining physicians. They will be retained to conduct the initial examinations which must be made to establish the registrant's classification so unfit men will not be sent unnecessarily to Detroit.

The Tuscola Draft Board has received notice to send 30 men for induction between October 30 to November 15.

A new regulation gives men in Class 1B the right to appeal providing they received their classification rating after June 19. The 1B class is for those who have been rejected for minor physical ailments and may be called for military service.

Double Parking Offenders Are Subject to Fines

Village Council Wants Local Officials to Enforce Cass City Traffic Laws.

Two accidents, due to double parking which fortunately did not result seriously to the persons involved, were brought to the attention of members of the village council Monday night with the result that the village governing body informed Nightwatchman Thomas Keeney and Deputy Sheriff John Zinnecker that they want traffic laws strictly enforced, particularly those regarding double parking on Main Street.

Officers were told to present offenders with traffic violation tickets and justices are requested to make a minimum charge of $2.00 and higher when circumstances warrant. "No favoritism should be shown," a village trustee emphatically insisted. Double parking is considered a violation whether the car is occupied or not.

According to officials, the most frequent offenders in double parking are local residents.

State police point out other violations altogether too common are a U-turn in the middle of a block and a swing to the left side of the street between intersections.

Mrs. Bulen Heads County Red Cross Annual Roll Call

Membership Drive Opens Nov. 11; Plans Include Thorough County Canvas

Mrs. Horace M. Bulen of Cass City has been named county roll call chairman for the annual Red Cross membership drive which will open on November 11, and is already laying plans for a thorough canvas of the entire county.

As far as possible all of the 23 townships in the county will be solicited, as the National Red Cross slogan this year is for a 50 per cent increase in membership to meet the heavy demands caused by present world conditions.

The county chapter officers have chosen October 29 as their annual roll call roundup meeting date and this will take place in the Hotel Montague at Caro.

At 3:00 p. m. sharp, the branch officers with their local roll call chairmen are expected to meet for instruction and information in conducting the drive and will also receive the necessary literature and materials. At 6:30 p. m., the annual Red Cross banquet will be served in the main dining room and this evening meeting will be open to both men and women from all communities in the county who might be interested to learn more about how Red Cross activities are carried on and a large attendance is desired. Reservations can be made through local Red Cross chairman.

Harry Studor, St. Louis, Mo., field director in charge of this area, is to be the speaker of the evening meeting and a short musical program is being planned.

Red Cross is a work of mercy and it is a challenge to humanity to enroll themselves as members when the opportunity presents itself, so when you see the sign and hear the call "Join the Red Cross Now," won't you please heed the request?

The Birthday of the United States Navy

One hundred and sixty-six years ago a committee of three men, John Adams, Silas Dean and John Langdon purchased the merchant ship, Black Prince of Philadelphia. Renamed the Alfred, this vessel had the distinction of being the first ship in the United States Navy. These men were appointed by Congress, through the efforts of George Washington, as a Naval Committee responsible for the purchase of two vessels. An original appropriation of $100,000 was increased several days later, making possible the purchase of four ships in all—the latter three named the Columbus, Cabot and Andrew Doria.

The date October 27, on which Congress in 1775 acted to establish our Navy, is celebrated annually as Navy Day. The purposes of Navy Day are to pay a deserved tribute to the splendid service the men in the Navy have rendered in making and keeping up a nation and to better inform the American people of what our Navy is and does for them. When originally chosen, October 27 marked not only one of the most important dates in U. S. Naval history, but also the birth date of Theodore Roosevelt whose life was devoted to furthering a sound naval policy for the United States.

In its early days, the history of our Navy was a turbulent one. During the revolutionary period 73 vessels of all descriptions were used, but through sale, capture and destruction only one was left in 1785 and during that year Congress abolished the Navy, leaving the burden of the protection of our country in the hands of an army of only 80 men. In 1794 our Navy was revived by a Congressional Act authorizing the construction of several frigates to deal with the Algerine pirates and the first U. S. Navy Department was established four years later. One of these new frigates purchased as a result of this act of 1794 was the Constitution—with the Constellation, United States, President, Congress and Chesapeake making up a Navy which, through successful encounters with French cruisers and privateers, established an enviable reputation for itself. In 1801 a series of engagements with the Barbary states and the ensuing treaties rendered commerce in the Mediterranean safe from attack and ended the payment of tribute by Americans.

The outstanding performance of our Navy and privateers during the War of 1812 insured freedom of the seas for our commerce and further increased our national prestige abroad.

The effective work of the Navy during the World War is still fresh in the minds of most of us. The astonishing fact that no American soldier escorted by the U. S. Navy lost his life in transit across the Atlantic amazed even those in the highest positions of authority.

All American foreign relations, all American participation in the life of the community of nations must find its expression through traffic on the seas. Ships, both commercial and naval, are the means of giving effective outlet to America's right to participation in international trade and politics.

Tung Oil Widely Used
Tung oil, one of the most important oils in the manufacture of paints, enamels and varnishes, is also used for automobile brake bands, oilcloth and linoleum. It is also used to coat the inside of tubes which hold tooth paste. The Chinese have used tung oil for at least 5,000 years in making their famous lacquers, waterproof silk and caulking their junks.

Roving Eyes
Some kinds of fish have the ability to move one eye independently of the other eye, according to the Better Vision Institute. Such fish can fixate one eye on an object and let the other gaze around.

Blackbeard's Tower
Blackbeard's Tower is one of the old landmarks in Nassau that dates back to the days when pirates made their headquarters in the Bahamas. From this stone edifice, now partially fallen away, the villainous William Teach, better known as Blackbeard the Pirate, used to keep watch to see what ships approached the island.

Special Poppy
Danish chemists have developed a special poppy which has acclimated, it is reported in Industrial and Engineering Chemistry. The construction of an opium factory may follow.

Italy Extending Electric System
Italy is rapidly extending its electric power system. Official figures at Rome show that last year 500 more miles of railways were electrified, bringing the total up to nearly 2,500 miles. The newest power development is the harnessing of the Italian lakes, whose beauty will not be impaired despite the fact that the waters will be utilized for both industry and agriculture.

Horses Not Born White
Horses are seldom white at birth. They may be born gray and as they grow older turn white. Circus horses are usually Arabian horses. Gray is common in this breed.

Buy Winter Coal Now

"Buy winter coal now," U. S. government agencies are advising, "to avoid a very grave danger of a shortage of coal next winter." Buying and storage of coal is advocated as a direct and substantial aid to national defense, because it will lighten the load that defense production is placing increasingly on the transport system. Follow the government's expert advice by putting your winter fuel needs into the bin now.

This Week in Defense.

From the National Editorial Association Defense Advisory Committee.

The Navy announced the destroyer Kearny was torpedoed while on patrol duty near Iceland. The boat was able to proceed under its own power. The President told his press conference the vessel was clearly within American defensive waters when attacked.

Arming of Ships

The House passed a bill modifying the Neutrality Act to permit arming of merchant ships. Navy Secretary Knox told his press conference the Navy is ready to put guns aboard American merchant ships as soon as Congress authorizes the action. He said there are sufficient guns for all merchantmen although not all can be used against both airplanes and submarines. He said arming merchant ships will slow down submarines and impair their marksmanship because they will have to stay below the surface and use their limited supply of torpedoes instead of attacking with shellfire.

Lead-Lease Aid

Navy Secretary Knox announced two overage submarines are being transferred to Britain under the lead-lease program. The President announced lead-lease transfers during September reached a record $155,000,000 in equipment and services—about three times the monthly average of the past six months. The President said aid is going to Britain, China, South America, and the refugee Polish and Norwegian governments. Russia, he said, is paying in gold and strategic materials for supplies sent to that country.

The President reported only 5 per cent of the original $7,000,000,000 for lead-lease remains unused. The House voted $5,711,000,000 for further lead-lease activities.

Price Administrator Henderson, speaking in Detroit, said although the United States is producing 35 per cent more than ever before—45 per cent more than in 1929—only 12 to 14 per cent of national income is going into defense. He said America is giving only one hour of eight for defense work. Although OPM schedules show this will be increased to two out of eight hours by next June, he said, Hitler is using five of every eight hours for German war efforts.

OPM Research Chief Stacy May, speaking in New York, reported spending for defense in September rose to approximately $1,347,000,000—$208,000,000 higher than August. He said Hitler could be beaten if the U. S. shifted 50 per cent of its productive capacity to armaments and suggested a $50,000,000,000-a-year defense program.

The War Department announced medium tank production almost doubled in September as compared with August, and light tank production showed a "good gain." Congress passed legislation authorizing a $1,500,000,000 increase in RFC borrowing and lending power to be used partially to expand steel producing facilities by 10,000,000 tons at a cost of $1,000,000,000. OPM ordered auto production for January, 1942, cut "at least" 51 per cent below last January levels.

The Navy instructed its officers to impress on companies behind schedule on ordinance contracts the necessity of speeding deliveries even if it means working three shifts, seven days a week until caught up. The Department asked manufacurers who can increase production by revising their contracts to start new negotiations at once. Subcontracting

The OPM Contract Distribution Division announced large defense orders will be withheld from firms refusing to farm out a sizable part of the work. The announcement said small business must be mobilized quickly because more than 60 per cent of all industrial workers are employed by firms having less than 500 workers each.

The War Department reported a 105 mm. howitzer was successfully built from parts made by a refrigerator firm, an oil-well supplies manufacturer and a railroad car builder none of whose employees had prior cannon producing experience. The Navy reported as an example of its subcontracting policy that 75 small shops in New York State are working on parts for naval gun mounts.

He said his department hoped to let a contract next year to complete the pavement on M-81 between Caro and Cass City. Mr. Kennedy congratulated Contractor Barnes on the fine bridge completed by him in July with its 33-ft. three-lane roadway, and dedicated Wednesday, and expressed his appreciation of the excellent workmanship. Mr. Kennedy also paid tribute to E. B. Schwaderer, another Cass City contractor, who has built many fine stretches of pavement in the state highway system.

E. A. McFaul of Detroit, a favorite speaker with Caro audiences, gave an address on the subject, "What Would Emily Say?" in which he placed his audience in a decidedly happy mood by his humorous remarks.

Contributing to the excellence of the program was a generous supply of selections by the Caro High School Band, under the direction of Harry Wood. The "Star Spangled Banner" and "God Bless America" were sung by the audience during the evening.

Has Bad Week Bowling League

By Dr. B. H. Starmann, Secretary of Bowling League.

Most of our bowlers must have had their minds on pheasant hunting. This will probably serve as a reason for lack of something better. The fifth week of the season produced some of the poorest scoring we have seen in a long time.

Only seven out of 70 bowlers succeeded in reaching a five hundred total. It has been quite a few moons since such has been the case.

The league leaders, Reids, retained their hold on first place by winning two games from Pinney. Their margin was cut to one game by virtue of Parsch and Collins winning all three of their games to close up the gap.

Landon and Tyo also helped themselves to three games, Tyo at the expense of the Dr. Starmann five who extended their losing streak to six straight games.

As mentioned above, only seven men out of 70 reached five hundred totals. They were Auten 558, Wallace 531, Dillman 531, Parsch 530, Dr. Starmann 520, Wilson 516, and Collins 506.

Considering the week's standard of bowling, your correspondent considers this enough of a report for this week.

Lansing—Conflicting economic forces are now converging on non-metropolitan cities and towns of Michigan.

Their movement has been accelerated by the deterioration of the Russian military front and a consequent realization of American leaders of the enormity of the production job facing the United States.

Like armies in head-on conflict, some of today's economic forces are positive, others are negative, in their ultimate effect.

An over-all picture of what is happening on Main Street today may be put together, jig-saw fashion, from the segments which are at hand. While the picture is not complete, the focus is clear enough to justify comment.

Shortage of Supplies

One negative economic force that threatens the life of small towns is the growing shortage of raw materials needed for manufacture of non-defense products.

This bottleneck is the inevitable result of an attempt by this country to accomplish in a few years what Hitler did in seven years. That we have the capacity to do it is generally conceded; that we are falling down in attaining our maximum potentialities is also widely admitted.

The lack of supplies for factories now engaged in non-defense production was recently recognized by Governor Murray D. Van Wagoner when he testified before a congressional committee in Detroit, as follows:

"Unless this priorities starvation now facing our small industries is relieved, Michigan and the nation face economic chaos within three months which will bring about a welfare and economic problem far worse than the depth of the last depression."

Priorities Muddle

"Why this shortage of vitally-needed supplies?" you ask.

In our present transition to an all-out defense basis, shortages are taking place for several reasons:

1. Actual shortage of raw material. Not enough copper, steel, aluminum or other urgently needed metals to meet needs of both defense and non-defense industries. Consequently, priorities favor defense and at the expense of non-defense.

2. Hoarding of materials induced by fear. C. E. Wilson, president of General Motors, recently declared before a Congressional committee that "people are getting steel who will keep it in the mud for months."

3. Poor planning and maladjustments in priority schedules.

The National Association of Purchasing Agents in its latest bulletin points out, "Undoubtedly there are hoarded supplies on hand in many places, and attempts will be made to smoke them out."

A steel trade review also revealed that "filing of priority claims is having the effect of wiping considerable duplicate tonnage off books, and the existence of some large inventories is revealed."

Choice of Small Industries

If small industries cannot obtain needed supplies with which to continue production schedules, then the choice becomes a temporary and perhaps permanent shutdown with resultant unemployment of many workers or a transition over to production of defense goods.

Governor Van Wagoner believes that Michigan's industrial capacity has only been partially tapped by the government; that the state could produce 50 per cent more for defense if energies of small industries were utilized.

Threatened unemployment may be eased temporarily, he feels, by distributing work to all employees in hard-hit industries on a shorter work week basis, say 32 hours instead of 40, and so on, and also by the assistance of unemployment compensation for 18 weeks at $16 a week.

He also has pointed out that migration of workers into Michigan from other states will only accentuate the unemployment problem here.

What to Do

This pinching shortage of materials has inspired Washington to create another alphabetical clearing house, the Supplies Priorities and Allocations Board, known as SPAB, with Donald M. Nelson (former Sears executive) as executive director and Floyd Odum as angel No. 1 to whom small business must look for relief.

Odum intends to do something about the situation whereby 56 large corporations, such as General Motors, Ford, Packard, Chrysler, and Hudson have received 75 per cent of defense contracts.

In getting its tremendous armament program under way quickly, it was logical for the government to go first to the big manufacturer.

Thus the Ford Motor Company is not only completing a plant to make Pratt & Whitney motors, now nearly ready for production, but is building a gigantic new plant near Ypsilanti for making of 75 bombers and 100 plane sub-assemblies each month. Packard is just getting into production for Rolls-Royce aircraft motors; Hudson is finishing a naval arsenal for ordnance production; Chrysler expects capacity tank production in its new plant by January 1, while General Motors is tooling up for $1.2 billion of defense contracts, 70% of which are not normally made in GM plants.

But now the little manufacturer's turn has come. Odum hopes to open 200 field offices for handling of defense sub-contracts. In the meanwhile, small manufacturers are urged to write to the Division of Contract Distribution, Office of Production Management, Social Security Building at Washington, D. C., for contract forms. Positive relief is possible for those who act promptly.

Higher Farm Income

Another positive counter-force to priorities pinching small businesses is the prospect of higher farm income in 1942. Assurances have been given to Michigan farmers that agriculture is to be put on an all-out production basis for the coming year.

Unless inflation neutralizes gains made by higher farm income, Michigan farmers will have more money. The big problem is going to be shortages of labor and farm equipment, and a state conference is to be held soon at the call of the governor to draft plans for trying to overcome them.

OLD SMOKEHOUSE

becomes MODERN QUICK-FREEZE ROOM

Farmers like to freeze their own fruits, vegetables, and meats, and are finding the new deep freezer and storage cabinets convenient and profitable. Here is what Mr. Robert K. Herbst, Manager of "Hook's Acres," near Brighton, says about the installation pictured here:

"We converted a 75-year-old smokehouse into our own meat, fruit and vegetable market by installing a below-zero storage plant. Now we have our own fresh foods right at our back door all year long. We supply the table with our own beef, pork and lamb, and this winter we will enjoy fresh strawberries, raspberries, peas and beans. This solves many problems for the one who prepares the meals. In addition to the convenience, we find the cold storage box a real economy—in time, food, and money."

Deep freezer and storage cabinets are available in a wide variety of sizes and types. For further information, ask your Edison Farm Man or drop a postcard to The Detroit Edison Company, Farm Service Division.

Here you see a thrilling scene of American battleships in line. The navy, our first line of defense, will help preserve the right "to traverse the high seas without hindrance," as pledged by President Roosevelt in collaboration with Prime Minister Churchill in their famous eight points. The pledge is not new for America. It is "the freedom of the seas" pledge given by Woodrow Wilson in 1917 and by President Madison in the War of 1812 and by President Adams in our undeclared naval war against France in 1798. Proud as America has always been of its navy, it willingly scrapped many ships in a program for disarmament in the early twenties. But the world wasn't ready. For 18 years not a single warship of capital size was built by the U. S. Now America's navy is to be brought to greater strength than ever before. The battleship North Carolina was finished earlier this year. Others are on the way.
