

Upper Thumb Bond Purchase Quota Is $123,500 for May

Each Michigan Family Will Be Asked to Sign Purchase Pledge for Year

Michigan is called upon to play a most important role in the financing of the war effort as well as turning out the tools of war.

Secretary of the U. S. Treasury, Henry J. Morgenthau, Jr., in his radio address informed the nation that 50,000,000 Americans would be asked to invest at least 10% of their earnings every month in War Bonds.

The goal is to sell $600,000,000 worth of War Bonds and Stamps during the month of May; $300,000,000 in June, and $1,000,000,000 every month thereafter. Michigan's quota for May is $214,650, which is $6,061,838 increase over the $15,584,838 which the state averaged over an eight months period from July, 1941, through January, 1942.

It is going to be the work of the War Savings Committee for Michigan, of which Frank N. Isbey is chairman, to make certain that the quota set by the U. S. Treasury Department is reached.

In Washington, the officials of the Treasury Department have taken the figures of the amounts invested in each county of the state during the past year, and these have been averaged and for the coming month of May each has had an according quota assigned to it. It will be the duty of each county chairman to see that his territory arrives at the quota figure.

The average amount invested in the three counties of the Upper Thumb from July, 1941, through January of this year, and the new quota for May are as follows:

	Past Average	New May Quota
Huron	$23,661	$42,700
Sanilac	21,957	32,700
Tuscola	32,585	48,100

In addition to meeting the above quotas, each family in the state, will, during the coming month, be asked to sign a pledge stating the amount that they will invest in War Bonds during the coming 12 months.

Charles F. Kercher Rates First Division

CHARLES F. KERCHER.

Cass City fifth grade student, did himself proud by playing proficiently enough to receive a first division rating at the Michigan State Band Festival held at Ann Arbor Friday and Saturday.

Charles started flute when he was in the second grade when his father gave him lessons. By following his present procedure, he will undoubtedly become a top-notch flutist. Charles takes his flute seriously by practicing faithfully every day and still has plenty of time for playing and reading of which he does no small amount.

W. S. C. Sponsors Senior Girl Scouts

The book, "The Jews of Today," was reviewed by Mrs. M. Hastings at the meeting of the Woman's Study Club at the home of Mrs. J. Ivan Niergarth Tuesday afternoon.

The discussion was very interestingly presented and many startling facts were revealed. Mrs. Wendling Hastings contributed the musical portion of the program. Her piano numbers included Rhapsody in G minor and Intermezzo, both by Brahms, and an impromptu number by Gabriel Faure, a famous French composer. Mrs. Hastings is a talented and accomplished musician and her selections were rendered in a very artistic manner.

During the business session, which was conducted by Mrs. T. Heron, first vice president, the club voted to sponsor a senior group of Girl Scouts which includes girls of 14 to 17 years of age. Miss Elizabeth Coons had addressed the women in the interest of the Scout movement just previous to the above decision.

President-elect Mrs. Heron announced the following standing committee for the ensuing year:

Program—Mrs. H. T. Donabue, Mrs. G. A. Tindale and Mrs. B. H. Starnann.
Reception—Mrs. C. L. Graham, Mrs. M. C. McLeilan, Mrs. Ernest Schwaderer, Mrs. R. M. Taylor and Miss Laura Maier.

Music—Mrs. Fred Maier and Mrs. Howard Wooley.

The last meeting of the current club year will be held at the home of Mrs. Heron on May 19 and will be in charge of the reception committee. A luncheon will be served and the annual reports of officers given. Mrs. Heron plans to attend the Adult Education Institute in Ann Arbor the week of May 12 which accounts for the change in the date of the last club meeting.

Annual Tax Sale in Tuscola County Opens Next Tuesday

Approximately 75% of the land of Tuscola County advertised in the May Tax Sale in the Chronicle last January will not be offered, according to County Treasurer Arthur Willis, for the reason that persons claiming title to the properties have paid to Mr. Willis in recent weeks an amount of taxes which will take the land from the tax sale list.

ARBELA TURNS OVER $60 TO THE RED CROSS

W. B. Barriger, chairman of the Tuscola County salvage committee, has called attention to an error appearing in the story in last week's issue regarding the salvage drive of a few weeks ago.

Sugar Consumers' Registration on May 4, 5, 6, 7

Every Person Is Asked to Register with Teacher in His School District.

The consumers' registration for War Ration Book One will be held on May 4, 5, 6 and 7. This is commonly referred to as "Sugar registration for individual consumers."

The registration will be in charge of the teachers of the county and will take place at the schoolhouse (excepting in closed districts where other plans are made). All persons will register at the schoolhouse in the district in which they reside. This applies to high school districts and rural districts alike. Every person should register and file an application for War Ration Book Number One. One of the parents or any child over 18 years of age may register for the entire family.

The superintendents of the various high schools will announce through the press and students the exact time and place where the registration will be held. In all rural schools the registration will start at one o'clock Monday afternoon and continue until five o'clock. On Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday parents and others may register.

Registrations at Cass City.

Families in the Cass City, Quick, Paul, Bird and Winton School Districts are to register at the Cass City school building. School will close an hour earlier in the afternoon and Supr. Niergarth will have his staff of teachers and a few others, numbering approximately 25 persons, to care for the registration work.

The hours for registration are from 3:00 to 9:00 p. m. In the event a few do not find it convenient to come during that period, they will be registered during school hours.

The fourth day of the registration, May 7, falls on the date of the junior-senior banquet which was set several months ago. Teachers hope that parents in the several districts will cooperate and have all registrations made by the evening of May 6 to permit all the faculty to attend the banquet.

between 2:30 and 5:00 p. m. Evening registrations are not planned for rural schools.

"You should not hesitate to register," states a notice sent out from the office of B. H. McComb, county commissioner of schools, who has distributed the registration blanks to the various districts in the county. "It is not planned to take away the sugar you have on hand in your home. A person is not penalized for the amount of sugar on hand but the penalty is severe for a false statement of the amount on hand. You will be expected to conserve your sugar supply the same as a person whose sugar supply is purchased with a War Ration Book. You need to register because the War Ration Book may be used for some other commodity (coffee, tea, lard, gasoline, etc.) besides sugar. You must be registered to obtain that particular commodity."

"Every person is entitled to two pounds of sugar to start with. In no case will a person be given a War Ration Book if he or she has on hand more than six pounds of sugar."

"In any case do not fail to register."

In THIS battle of production, our Farm Service Division stands ready and able to help farm customers in many ways. ## Production of Aircraft Leaps

Finished Output in 1941 Worth $1,500,000,000, Expert Declares.

NEW YORK.—The giant strides of the aircraft industry toward the goal of 125,000 planes in 1943 were described by J. Carlton Ward Jr., president of the Fairchild Engine and Airplane corporation, in a resume that gave $1,500,000,000 as the value of the finished production of the aircraft industry in this country last year.

Mr. Ward showed, with the aid of graphs and charts, the progress of the American aviation industry since the outbreak of war in September, 1939.

Military Secrets Deleted.
The following facts that he presented were authorized by the army and navy, certain others having been deleted from the graphs as military secrets.

A four-engine bomber costs approximately $352,000. Add to that the cost of training the pilot and crew, and the value of such a bomber rises to "nearly half a million dollars."

There were 75,000 persons employed in aircraft manufacture in September, 1939, and 400,000 in January, 1942. Until the end of 1940 the impetus for expansion came almost entirely from British and French orders and not from American requirements.

Plant area had increased four-fold in the same period from 12,000,000 square feet to 48,000,000 square feet. From the graph, from which all figures had been erased, it appeared that war plan production had also quadrupled.

The number of non-military planes rose from 16,000 to 27,000 and the number of licensed pilots from 53,000 to 100,000.

Up-Curve in Dollar Value.
The most startling up-curve in the whole series of graphs came in the presentation of dollar value of production. No figure was given for 1939, $1,500,000,000 was given for 1941 and $10,000,000,000 for 1943.

Mr. Ward gave no promise that the aircraft industry would or would not be able to meet the President's request, but pointed out that Americans could "take pride" in the industry's response to "the biggest war job in the world." He also pointed out that aircraft would account for 17 per cent of the country's total war expenditure.

At the end of his speech, Mr. Ward declared that there had been waste in the preparedness program because neither politicians nor the public, in peace years, had been willing to spend money for arms.

"Peace in modern parlance is an armed truce," he said. "It is only the strong who are not attacked."

Historic Drum Still Is In Use After Five Wars

SAN FRANCISCO.—A drum whose rolling beat helped inspire George Washington's frost-bitten forces at Valley Forge is still being used here by Charles J. Bessette, a recent arrival in San Francisco.

The instrument has been through four wars since the American Revolution. Bessette once used it in recital at Carnegie hall. The drum is insured for $5,000 by the Smithsonian institution, which will inherit it when Bessette dies.

According to Bessette, the drum was one of 90 ordered by General Washington from a cabinet-maker in Flushing, L. I., during the Revolution. A fire destroyed all but nine of them. Bessette's is the only one still in use. The others are in museums and private collections.

"It came into my family in 1848, during the Mexican war, when it was given to my grandfather's uncle," Bessette said. "My grandfather, Tommy Bessette, carried it in the Civil war, and my father, Mose, took it through the Spanish-American war."

"My father drummed on it for 23 years with Sousa, and when the World war came along he gave it to me and I took it to France with the 'Fighting 69th.'"

CAMP LEE, VA.—Private William Reller, member of the 7th Quartermaster regiment basketball team, was called into the athletic office to fill out a questionnaire.

Army Seeks 14 Horses Strayed in Maneuvers

The army'd like to have them back. P. S.: They're all branded.

If she's nifty and true,
We know what she'll do

To accomplish this, Frank N. Isbey has set up a tremendous state organization. For the out-state campaign an army of 115,000 pledge seekers has been enlisted. The shock troops of this army will be the workers of United States Department of Agriculture War Board, of which Maurice Doan at Lansing is the president. The U. S. D. A. through its nine various agencies will have a minimum of one man for each square mile in the rural sections of the state.

In the towns and cities, with a population of from 300 upwards, there is a local chairman and a permanent War Bond Savings Committee. Each of these local chairmen is in turn responsible to his county chairman, who will supervise the drive in each county.

It is the purpose to cover the entire state, with the exception of Wayne County, in two days—May 11 and 12.

In Wayne County, the drive will take place on May 25 and 26. The reason for deferring the Wayne County spring offensive to finance the war is, according to Mr. Isbey, due to the fact that the pledge forms to be used in Wayne will not be available until after the out-state counties have been covered.

Mr. Isbey stated at the headquarters of the War Savings Bonds Committee for Michigan in the Buhl Building, that he felt certain that the citizens of Michigan would not let the nation down in doing its part in loaning the Government voluntarily the funds necessary to carry on and win the war. This voluntary method of financing will make unnecessary any enforced deduction plan at the wage source, and the successful meeting of quotas during the month of May plus the pledges of continued systematic investment in the future will undoubtedly stem the enactment of any Governmental measures seeking to put a direct deduction on the pay envelope.

FARM TOPICS*PREVENT DISEASE IN DAIRY HERD*Good Management, Feeding Will Reduce Losses.

By Dr. GEORGE TAYLOR
(Extension Dairyman, New Jersey College of Agriculture, Rutgers University.)

Dairymen should think more in terms of herd health and disease prevention and less in terms of treatment and cures.

The value of any dairy animal is dependent primarily upon its health. Prevention of disease is far less costly than disease treatment, and good feeding and management practices can go a long way toward reducing annual losses in dairy herds due to disease.

The ration should supply the proper balance of protein, energy, minerals, and vitamins. Water is also needed.

Quality roughage, including hay, pasture and grass silage, is the most essential item of dairy feed. It is a fair source of calcium and practically the sole source of vitamins A and D in the dairy ration. Concentrates which must be fed to satisfy higher levels of production tend to be toxic to a dairy animal. This effect is largely overcome by the feeding of quality hay when pasture is not available. The long list of ailments in dairy cattle which can be avoided by good feeding includes goiter, bloat, impaction and loss of appetite.

Management ranks with feeding in importance in checking disease. Because the spread of disease is more rapid in large herds, the size of the milking unit should be limited to 50 cows or less. Separate quarters should also be provided for growing heifers and baby calves. Separate isolation and maternity quarters are also desirable.

Strict sanitation is a most important part of management. Regular systematic cleaning and disinfecting will aid materially in keeping down the causative organisms associated with disease.

Dairy animals should be allowed ample exercise under conditions where they may benefit from fresh air and exposure to sunshine.

AGRICULTURE IN INDUSTRY

By Florence C. Weed

(This is one of a series of articles showing how farm products are finding an important market in industry.)

Peanuts for Oils

It took the circus to make the peanut into a national food, and it remained for a Negro scientist, Dr. George Washington Carver, to find scores of new uses for the lowly peanut and its shell.

Dr. Carver has developed a peanut milk, shampoo, vinegar, soap, cosmetics, ink powder, rubber and charcoal. Peanuts are used commercially in more than 300 products including shaving lotions, dyes, linoleum, axle grease and wood stains. Every part of the plant may be used to advantage. When properly cured, the peanut vines make edible hay for stock which compares favorably with clover and alfalfa. The shells have been crushed into insulating boards.

Co-operative Marketing associations of the peanut-growing states, have banded together in a National Peanut council which aims to increase the use of peanuts. About 200,000,000 pounds are made into peanut butter annually. Salted peanuts appeared first in 1887.

At the New Orleans region's research laboratory of the U. S. department of agriculture, scientists are working on the processes of extracting peanut oil and its use as a lubricant in the textile industry to replace imported olive and linseed oil. Shelled peanuts contain 40 to 50 per cent oil and this is often substituted for olive oil in food.

Largest Rural Network

What is believed to be the world's largest rural electrification network connects areas in the adjoining states of Wisconsin, Minnesota, and Iowa, according to Rural Electrification News. The generating plant of the Tri-State Power Co-operative largest yet constructed in the REA Program—is located near Genoa, Wis. It is serving 11 farmer-owned distribution co-operatives, and has an installed capacity of 8,000 kilowatts. Two additional turbo-generators, each with a capacity of 5,000 kilowatts, are to be installed. Its 400 miles of transmission lines, distributing electricity at 34,500 volts, branch out in all directions to large areas in the three states.

Farm Notes

A. G. Black, Farm Credit administration governor, has outlined a plan to prevent a speculative boom in farm real estate at the present time.

The U. S. crop reporting board, in its latest release, estimates the 1941 cotton crop at 11,610,000 bales, as compared with 12,566,000 bales ginned in 1940.

AGE LOWERS THE VALUE OF CREAM

AGE TURNS TOP MARKET CREAM INTO POOR MARKET CREAM—AS QUALITY GOES DOWN, FARM PROFITS GO DOWN

This happens when cream is not marketed when fresh, and is ALLOWED TO DETERIORATE

Age, the factor that is so important in making certain cheeses better, works in exactly the opposite direction when it comes to cream. Because good cream is one of the world's most delicate products, it spoils rapidly even under the most favorable conditions.

Cream coming fresh from the separator is "tops" in flavor. But as the above chart shows, there is a decrease in flavor with each succeeding day the cream is kept. After the third day—usually—the original delicious taste flavors give way rapidly to other and undesirable flavors. When this happens the cream also "goes sour" in actual money value. For once the undesirable flavors exceed the desirable ones, the farmer's product enters the stage where it can no longer be sold legally for food purposes.

Holding cream at a low temperature on the farm will not overcome the factor of age. Age affects the fresh, clean smell of cream, as well as its clean, wholesome flavors. Both of these are important considerations in the grading of cream. Each day that cream is held lowers its quality just that much. Tests have shown that cream over four days old made butter scoring 1.22 points lower than butter made from cream not over four days old. Another test showed that butter made from cream four days old scored an average of 2.5 points lower than butter made from cream one day less old. These seemingly small differences represent substantial differences in quality and value.

The only way to get top prices for top quality cream is to beat the age factor. This can be done by setting up a regular delivery schedule. Someone on the farm usually goes to town every day. So it should not be difficult to send cream to market every two or three days. If this is done, the steady cash income cream brings in can be kept at a high point throughout the year.

OPA Form No. R-301

U. S. GOVERNMENT PRINTING OFFICE 16-26555-1

Applicants for sugar rationing books are urged by the Office of Price Administration to study carefully the application card, illustrated above, and have the correct answers when they register on May 4, 5, 6 and 7. A separate application must be made for every person for whom a ration book is issued, but only one member of each family unit is to appear at the nearest elementary school to apply for all members of the family.

This is the biggest registration job ever undertaken in so limited a time in the United States. Within four days the nation, 130,000,000 men, women and children will be registered and will receive their ration books. To accomplish so big a job in that short space of time, the Office of Price Administration, which administers rationing, is urging every applicant for a ration book to come prepared with accurate information to all questions which the registrars will ask when filling out the application form.

If you answer these questions promptly, OPA estimates it will only take four minutes to fill out this form. One and a quarter million school teachers will serve as registrars.

1. Applicants should come prepared with a list of the members of their families, giving the exact name of each.

I hereby make application to the Office of Price Administration, an agency of the United States Government, for the issuance to the person whose name, address, and description are set forth above, of War Ration Book One and all War Ration Books hereafter issued for which the person named above becomes eligible under Rationing Regulations. I hereby certify that I have authority to make this application on behalf of the person named above, that no other application for a War Ration Book has been made by or on behalf of such person, and that the statements made above are true to the best of my knowledge and belief.

Section 35 (A) of the United States Criminal Code makes it a criminal offense, punishable by a maximum of ten years' imprisonment, $10,000 fine, or both, to make a false statement or representation to any Department or Agency of the United States as to any matter within the jurisdiction of any Department or Agency of the United States.

I hereby certify that I have witnessed the Applicant's signature and that War Ration Book One, bearing the above number, has been delivered to the Applicant with the above-stated number of stamps removed.

(This space reserved for later entries by Local Board or Applicant)

The undersigned hereby certifies to the Office of Price Administration that he received the following War Ration Books on the dates indicated below or on the back hereof, and that with each receipt he reaffirms the truth of the statements in the foregoing application.

2. An exact description of each member of the family unit, giving the height, weight, color of eyes, color of hair, age and sex of each one.

3. The person who registers for the family unit must state his or her exact relationship to each member of it.

4. It is necessary to know to the pound just how much sugar is in the possession of the household. The amount of sugar will be divided by the number of people in the family units and stamps will be torn out by the registrar for all sugar in excess of two pounds per person. If more than four stamps have to be removed, issuance of the book will be withheld until later.

One—and only one—member of each family unit is to go to the elementary school nearest to the person's residence to register and to apply for ration books for the whole family, OPA emphasizes. Single people not members of a family unit, even if they board with a family, must apply for themselves.

A family unit has been defined by the Office of Price Administration as "a group of two or more individuals consisting of all persons who are living together in the same household who are related by blood or marriage."

LETTERS

From Paul Anthes:

Cass City Chronicle:
I have had a great time in the past ten weeks. Looking back I have enjoyed it very much and certainly have learned plenty. I went through the eight weeks of infantry training, which was very interesting. I really didn't know the army worked as it does. I don't know how we can lose any battle. This certainly is a large camp. One meets fellows from all over the Union.

This is a beautiful place, now; trees in full leaf, green grass, weather 75 to 85 degrees, etc. Little Rock, the capital city, also the home town of General MacArthur, is only six miles from camp. It is very beautiful and everyone is so friendly. We soldiers are welcomed anywhere.

After my eight weeks, I, with seven other fellows, signed up for cooking school. We made it, so will start tomorrow, April 21. It will last two months. Will enjoy reading your letters. I enjoy reading the Chronicle very much.
