Three Auto Crashes Take Lives of Three in Tuscola County

The Number of Fatalities in the County for 1942 Is Increased to Eight.

Three deaths from automobile accidents in Tuscola County were recorded Saturday, increasing the number of fatalities in this county in 1942 to eight.

Andrew Gremel, 54, of Sebe waing was killed about 6:00 a. m Saturday in an accident at Carr's Corners on M-81. Walter W. Wilkinson, 56, of Deford died Saturday morning in Pleasant Home Hospital, Cass City, from injuries received in an accident on Friday morning. James Livingstone, 82, was instantly killed Saturday at 1:15 p. m. when hit by an automobile when he was walking across the highway.

If soldier boys from this community fail to get as much mail as they may rightfully expect, it will not be the fault of the proprietors and sales force of the Mac & Scotty Drug Store, who are endeavor-ing to furnish friends and acquaintances the boys' correct addresses. These names will be displayed on a panel in one of the store windows. Each soldier's or sailor's name with his address will be painted on a card with the insignia of his branch of service. As the addresses change, members of the men's families are expected to inform the store and the corrections will be made. In this way, friends desiring to write to one whose name is registered may secure his latest address by glancing at the cards on the window panel.

Naturally, the store has not been able to assemble the names and addresses of all of the men in the service from this community and the promoters of the project ask parents to leave names and addresses at the store.

Lester Hutchinson of Cass City received a broken leg and Miss Mary Ward of Caro a broken collar bone when the car in which they were riding missed the curve on litch on Friday afternoon. Alfred Seeley of Caro and another young woman, who were also occupants of the car, escaped serious injuries.

John Hlavaes, 12, of Millington, bicycle rider, suffered a possible skull fracture when he was hit by a car driven by Andrew J. Myers of Millington on Bray Road, five miles south of Tuscola. Both were travelling in the same direction when the bicyclist suddenly turned to the right and was hit by the ight fender and headlight.

Charles Balconi of Bay City noticed the curve too late to negotiate the turn near the Unionville coal mine, 2½ miles west of Unionville, Friday at 1:00 a. m., and the car hit the ditch and rolled over a couple of times landing on its right side about 120 feet from the spot it first left the road.

ELECTRIC APPLIANCES: Electric appliances, like automobiles and other things made of metal, are being curtailed; and necessities like ships and defense housing will have first claim. We expect that electric ranges and water heaters will be available to a limited extent for replacement of worn-out appliances and for defense houses having priority. USE OF ELECTRICITY: Last fall curtailment in the use of electricity became necessary in some parts of the country, mostly where unusually low rainfall affected water power plants. We have had ample generating capacity and still do for anything which can be

INVASION PRELUDE: RAF Blitzes Reich

While Royal Air force bombers blasted war factories and chemical plants in Germany and blitzed Nazi submarine bases in France and enemy airdromes in Holland, the Churchill government announced that the RAF's heavy air offensive was a prelude to an ultimate invasion of continental Europe.

Sir Stafford Cripps, lord privy seal and government spokesman in commons said:

"These bombings are, in our riew, of material assistance to Russian resistance and the best way in which we can give assistance until such time as we are able to make a carefully planned attack on the continent of Europe, which we intend

The accelerated tempo of Britain's air offensive was seen in the performance of one detachment of bombers which unloaded 40,000 fire bombs over the city of Mannheim in southwest Germany, second largest inland port of Germany and the site of a number of important chemical, armament and engineering factories.

NEW TAX PLAN: Collect at Source

To help Americans pay heavy income taxes that would affect millions of workers in the small-income group for the first time and to comthe treasury department outlined to the House ways and means committee a "collectionat-source" program.

Under the new plan, employers would withhold on behalf of the government part of the pay of single workers making more than $11 a week and childless married persons making more than $26. The amount deducted would be used as a credit against income taxes.

Increased individual income surtaxes ranging from 12 per cent on the first $2,000 to 80 per cent on taxable earnings exceeding $200,000 yearly were written into the pending war revenue hill.

The ways and means committee's plan did not incorporate President Roosevelt's suggestion that no American's income should exceed $25,000 a year after payment of all

REDS VS. NAZIS: Soviets Still Ahead

Stubborn battles on which the decision of World War II appeared to hinge still persisted on the Kharkov and Kerch fronts.

On the Kharkov front the Russian armies under Marshal Timoshenko continued their advances in the face of stiffened German resistance and sharp counterattacks. On the Kerch front, the Russians denied Nazi claims of a clean sweep to the gateway of the precious Caucasus off fields,

That the Red army was keeping alive its offensive in the Kharkov sector at a swiftly rising cost to the Nazis in men, heavy weapons and supplies was indicated by the latest war bulletins.

"On one sector near Kharkov." said a report, "our troops annihilated 1.650 German officers and men and destroyed 27 tanks, an ammunition dump and a gasoline dump. Booty captured included 37 guns, 57 mortars, 10,000 shells, 40,000 rounds of ammunition, three wireless stations and other material." In commenting on the situation on the Kerch peninsula in the Crimea, a communique said Russian forces were barring the way to the Caucasus in a way that resembled the long American defense of the Bataan peninsula in the Philippines.

NAZI FOOD RATIONS:

MARSHAL GOERING "It's a hard war."

Following stories of conditions in Axis countries by diplomats and newspaper men released from internment in Germany and Italy came an announcement by Reich Marshal Herman Goering, war time Nazi economic commissioner, that 'a temporary reduction in the food rations" of Germany would be necessary because of an unfavorable crop outlook.

Addressing 137 war workers aslin to be awarded service crosses for the first time in history, Goering

"Three extremely hard winters are behind us. The elements have not been kind to us. Last year's harvest was bad. Now, however much we enjoy the warm sun, we are longing for rain to bring what the farmer

Goering termed the present war the hardest Germany has had to fight.

"The winter campaign has been terrible. The Fuehrer suffered deeply for his troops, but he knew he must not yield. There was no question of giving up our front positions because behind us there was only a heap of ruins.'

EARLIER VICTORY?: Maybe, Says Hull

Secretary of State Cordell Hull's cautious indication that increase of United Nations' striking power might bring victory sooner than was formerly expected, brought comfort to many an American family and generated new optimism over the war effort in official Washington.

Mr. Hull had been asked at a press conference whether developments in recent weeks on the home Japanese industrial areas 40 miles and foreign fronts encouraged him to believe in an early victory. In reply he pointed out that the powers and facilities of the United States have been developing on a more and more massive scale, not only for offensive-defensive operations, but for outright offensive war.

> Making no effort to disguise the fact that he was increasingly impressed by America's growing power, the white-haired secretary suggested it was only natural that calculations as to the duration of the war should be made in the light of this fact.

But this much can be said: The bjective is fantastic, but it will be reached. The mechanical wizardry of Henry Ford is legend to every chool child.

President Roosevelt himself has put the nation's goal at 185,000 warplanes by 1944. That is in terms of annual production.

Little wonder that Detroit officials, while quarreling among themselves over jurisdiction, agree on this: Willow Run is an invitation to an Axis air raid, just as the Sault Ste. Marie locks at the "Soo" onstitutes a challenge.

After all, were not women sacrificing for the war? And were not women being invited to work in the plant?

The explanation, however, is far from being critical of the fair sex. Michigan newspaper women are blessed with beauty, a fact that no one can possibly deny.

As a public relations diplomat explained the situation to us, war workers would be distracted from concentration at the assembly line, thousands of hours of needed war work would be lost, and perhaps bombers would not be finished which would mean the difference between defeat and victory on some far-off front.

All because of the ladies! Governor Murray D. Van Wagoner and officials of the Michigan lent by Mr. Eastman's disclosure Council of Defense recently made an inspection tour of the "Soo" have a sufficient supply of synthetic locks.

Antiaircraft posts have been established in a huge ring on both sides of the border. Soldiers and trucks cross the border without formality of passports, evidence of a coordinated program of military preparedness by both American and Canadian governments.

It is a well publicized fact that these locks at the "Soo" serve twice as much freight tonnage each year as Panama and Suez Canals put together.

Your Scrap Metal is Needed Now for VICTORY!

CRITICAL SHORTAGE of scrap metal now \Lambda exists in United States War Industry. Unless more scrap is forthcoming at once, war production will slow down and months, even years will be added to this fearful battle.

It is of the utmost importance that every pound of scrap metal on your farm start moving now toward America's steel mills and foundries to make more war materials. To help you get your scrap moving, this store will cooperate in every way possible. Canvass your farm from the attic to the farthest fence corner. Gather every bit of old metal into a conveniently located pile and drop a post card to this store telling us approximately how many pounds you have collected.

Your card will be turned over to a scrap dealer who prepares scrap for the mills. His truck will be routed past your farm to pick up your scrap soon and get it started toward the fighting front.

Andrew Gremel, 54, of Sebewaing was killed when automobiles driven by him and Carl Zimmerman of Caro met at the highway intersection of M-81 and the Vassar Road, at Carr's Corners, 10 miles west of Caro. Gremel, his wife, and Mrs. Nelson Gremel and baby, Judy, of Cass City were on their way to Fort Wayne to visit Mr. Gremel's brother. He was going south and Zimmerman west when the accident occurred. Mrs. Andrew Gremel suffered a fractured arm and head injuries and Mrs. Nelson Gremel minor bruises and lacerations. Zimmerman, who suffered a fractured jaw and lacerations, was taken to General Hospital, Saginaw, for treatment. In the car he was driving was Charles Tait of Caro, its owner, who suffered a deep laceration on the forehead and other cuts and bruises. Officers report that the Gremel car was braked and slid about 40 feet before reaching the intersection and went into a ditch on the south side of the highway after the impact. Tait's car rolled sideways about 300

When James Livingstone started out of a driveway, three-quarters of a mile north of the Sutton Church, on Hanna Road, he was hit by a car driven by Vincent Wald, R. R. 2, Cass City, and instantly killed. The body of Livingstone was carried a distance of 200 feet north from where he was hit. An inquest called by Coroner Lee Huston decided that Livingstone met his death because of internal injruies received in the accident. The cause of the accident was due in the jury's opinion, partly to the negligence of the pedestrian and partly to the negligence of the automobile driver. A warrant for Vincent Wald, charging negligent homicide, has been issued.

Members of the coronor's jury were W. H. Gildart, C. V. Kirkpatrick, Paul Donahue, Charles Osburn, Earl Fallahay and Ward
