

Lethargy Exists in Coming Tuscola County Primary

Sanilac Has Three Republican Candidates for Sheriff; Five for Clerk.

Though there are contests for five county offices in the Republican primary on Sept. 15th next in Tuscola County, candidates complain that there is considerable lethargy in the campaign thus far and a state of indifference has been manifested by many voters. Sixteen ladies of the Baptist Church met Thursday afternoon to honor the birthdays of Mrs. Catherine Murray, Mrs. Floyd McComb and Mrs. Robt. Charlton, whose anniversaries were in August, and Mrs. Nelson Harrison, Mrs. Andrew Muntz and Mrs. Archie McAlpine, whose birthdays were in July. Then they again followed the leaders to Stanley McArthur's residence where games were played, pictures taken and weiners, cookies and coffee were served. The weiners were roasted at an out-door fireplace.

Mrs. Murray, who expects to leave Cass City for the winter, was presented with a gift.

War Eclipse: Because the war is holding the center of the stage, a curious apathy toward politics is said to be prevalent among voters. More than one astute political observer is frankly puzzled.

This general eclipse of the war over state affairs is also accompanied by marked unrest of the public over progress of the war.

Military experts insist that the war is at a crucial stage, that opening of a "second front" is a matter of weeks, that such an enterprise will cost many thousands of lives, that our industrial production is being strangled.

Uncle Sam Must Have Your Scrap Iron

Scrap collections continue to permit operation of steel mills at a high rate but the margin is close in many cases with operations dependent on daily receipts.

Reporting this, the magazine Steel adds in its weekly review:

"In some districts a distinct lull (in collections) has been experienced over the last fortnight, for no apparent reason, and receipts have been appreciably lower than in recent weeks, some large users have supply for only 10 days."

"That's how badly scrap iron is needed," comments Willis Campbell, local chairman of the salvage campaign. "Here is the plan for Elkland Township. Every farm will be canvassed beginning Sept. 14. All it is necessary for you to do is to gather up all scrap and simply leave in a pile until the collector arrives. He will pay you a fair market price after weighing all you have collected. Everyone is a part of this war and every one can do just a little each day to get Hitler. Elkland Township's quota is 125 tons by the time snow flies. We have never fallen down on a quota yet and we won't this time."

Start now to gather up the scrap on your farm or about the residence. In town, just place it along the curb and trucks will gather it up. We don't care how small it is in size, it all helps. If you want to donate to the Red Cross or War Fund, just tell the collector and he will see that it is turned over to the agency you name."

Three-way Races by Republicans for Two High Offices

Eaton, Ferguson, Smith Are Contesting for U. S. Senator Nomination.

By Gene Allemen in the Michigan Mirror.

Aside from interest in a few congressional contests, the Sept. 15 primary spotlight is centering on three-way races by Republican candidates for nominations of U. S. senator and lieutenant governor.

Democratic candidates for these offices are unopposed.

The Senatorship nomination, which would contest the seat now held by Prentiss Brown, Democrat of St. Ignace, is being sought by three men from the Detroit-Wayne county metropolitan district. Listed alphabetically, they are:

Elton R. Eaton, liberal newspaper editor at Plymouth, a suburban community near Detroit, who espoused "anti-boss" legislation in the House of Representatives at Lansing; Homer Ferguson, the Detroit judge who figured prominently in grand jury indictments and court convictions leading to the "home rule amendments" proposed for Wayne County; and Gerald L. K. Smith, Detroit's Protestant "Father Charles E. Coughlin," who left the ministry to join the late "Kingfish" Huey Long in Louisiana.

Lieutenant governor—Nomination for lieutenant governor is sought by two candidates from western Michigan, Montcalm and Oceana Counties, and one candidate from populous Wayne County (Detroit). Listed alphabetically, they are:

D. Hale Brake, Stanton (Montcalm County) attorney and state senator, who presides as president pro tem, an opponent to branch banking, and a colleague of Editor Eaton in "anti-boss" legislation which was vetoed by the governor.

Eugene B. Keyes, Dearborn's wealthy dentist-doctor-attorney-engineer who zoomed to the 1940 nomination as a darkhorse against a well-known field. He is reported to have the support of Edward Barnard, Republican leader of Wayne County.

Thomas Read, Shelby (Oceana County) practicing attorney, oftentimes an independent, former lieutenant governor and attorney general with upstate rural, dry background.

War Eclipse: Because the war is holding the center of the stage, a curious apathy toward politics is said to be prevalent among voters. More than one astute political observer is frankly puzzled.

This general eclipse of the war over state affairs is also accompanied by marked unrest of the public over progress of the war.

Military experts insist that the war is at a crucial stage, that opening of a "second front" is a matter of weeks, that such an enterprise will cost many thousands of lives, that our industrial production is being strangled.

Business Man Died Suddenly Here Thursday

F. A. Bigelow Was Prominent in Civic, Church and Business Circles.

The Cass City community lost a citizen who spent many years as a leader in civic, business and church activities when Fred A. Bigelow passed away Thursday, Aug. 27. Mr. Bigelow suffered heart failure while working in his garden on East Main St. that evening and died a few minutes later. He had been in poor health for several months but had attended to the duties as a partner in the hardware firm of N. Bigelow & Sons quite regularly and his death came unexpectedly to a large circle of friends.

Born at White Lake, Mich., on Oct. 22, 1878, Fred A. Bigelow came from Oakland County to Cass City in 1888 with his parents, the late Nelson and Sarah Bigelow. Nelson Bigelow established a hardware business here in that year and later his sons were admitted to partnership when they had completed their education. Fred Bigelow was graduated from the Cass City High School in 1898. In 1902, he was united in marriage with Miss Caroline Fenn.

Mr. Bigelow served the village as trustee and president, was for several years a member of the board of education, and in his affiliation with the Methodist Church served that congregation as a member of the trustee board and as Sunday School superintendent. He belonged to the Cass City Community Club and the Rotary Club.

Funeral services were held at the family residence on Sunday afternoon and were attended by a large group of friends. Rites were conducted by Rev. Dudley Moore, and Rev. S. P. Kim of Cass City and Rev. E. M. Traver of Pontiac. Burial was in Elkland Cemetery.

Mr. Bigelow is survived by his widow; a daughter, Mrs. Otis Heath, of Ludington; a brother, Samuel F. Bigelow and a sister, Miss Eleanor Bigelow, both of Cass City.

Relatives and friends who came from a distance to attend the funeral service included Rev. and Mrs. R. M. Traver, Miss Mary Brondige, Miss Sarah Brondige, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Weston, and Miss Gladys Brondige, all of Pontiac; Mrs. Emma Foster and daughters, Edith, Ethel and Yvonne, and Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Gillies, all of Plymouth; Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Main, Mrs. Agnes Foster and Miss Laura Foster, all of Midland; Foster Main of Roscommon; Mr. and Mrs. Eli Brondige of Davisburg; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Eseman of Big Beaver; Miss Laura Bigelow of Bay City; Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Jackson and family of Carsonville; Mr. and Mrs. Alex Hendrick of Kingston; Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Jones of Flint; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Riker of Millington; and Chauncey Campbell of Farmington.

Friday evening, Aug. 28, about 24 guests met in the home of the Misses June and Grace Gilbert to honor and surprise Russell Striffler, who will leave for North Central College, at Naperville, Ill., in a few days.

Partners were found by matching miniature college pictures and their corresponding states. After several interesting games were played, the honor guest was presented with a suit case, labelled with college stickers and containing many attractive and useful gifts.

Ice cream and cake were served at the close of the evening's fun. Guests were present from Fairgrove, Unionville and Cass City.

Mrs. Mike Rusnak of Gagetown, Mrs. Stanley Walters and son, Robert, of Pontiac visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Csernyek and son in Elizabeth, N. J., for several days last week. On Sunday, they visited Top Sergeant Paul Goda in Flushing, Long Island, N. Y.

Calf Want Ad Sells Cows Worth $900 for Farmer

Chronicle want ads occasionally dispose of things which are not included in the list of property offered for sale. That was the experience of John Mosher, Novesta Township farmer, last week, who advertised calves and a bean puller. Buyers who called to look at the calves decided they would rather have Mr. Mosher's cows and they "struck a bargain." Mr. Mosher sold cows for the sum of $900, and the bean puller sold to another buyer netted him around $35.

Two insertions of a want ad at a total cost of 50 cents sold $935 in livestock and machinery. That's doing business at the rate of less than six one-hundredths of one per cent for advertising.

Lieut. Burt and Miss Bettens Wed Aug. 29

On Saturday, Aug. 29, at 3:00 p. m., in the parsonage of the Baptist Church at Ithaca, N. Y., Miss Jean M. Bettens, daughter of Mrs. Frank Prasil of Pontiac, became the bride of Lieut. (J. G.) Marshall Bradford Burt, of the U. S. Naval Reserves, son of George Burt of Cass City. The Rev. A. H. Boutwell read the service, only the bride's mother and the bridal party being present.

Miss Bettens, who wore a blue suit with brown accessories and an orchid corsage, was attended by Miss Pauline Karrow of Washington, D. C., as maid of honor. She wore a suit of brown with brown accessories and had a corsage of gardenias.

Mr. Burt was assisted by Buell Brooks, an ensign in the U. S. N. R., of Ithaca, N. Y., as best man.

Mr. and Mrs. Burt took a short trip to Niagara Falls and through Canada, coming to Cass City Monday and remaining until Tuesday when they left for Miami, Fla., where Mr. Burt is to report on Monday, Sept. 7.

Mrs. Burt is a graduate of Pontiac High School and attended Pontiac Business Institute. For the last eight years, she has been employed at WJIM radio station in Lansing.

Mr. Burt is a graduate of Cass City High School and of Michigan State College, East Lansing. He was employed by the Lansing Board of Water and Light at the time he enlisted in the Naval Reserves.

He was commissioned July 1 as Lieutenant, Junior Grade in the U. S. Naval Reserves and completed his indoctrination at Cornell University at Ithaca, N. Y., Aug. 28.

Wolcott Wants "Go" Sign Up for Synthetic Rubber

The War, He Thinks, Will Continue Until the Autumn of 1944.

Congressman Jesse P. Wolcott, in an address at the Rotary Club luncheon at Cass City on Tuesday, said Americans had sacrificed little to date in comparison to what will be required of them in years ahead. The war, he thinks, will not close before autumn of 1944 when the United States will reach the peak in efficiency, man power and war equipment. Then the Allies will show a superiority in the air, sea and land forces. The Allies are decidedly on the upgrade now and the Axis powers are slipping, he opines. This country is building huge stock piles of materials while the enemies' supply is being depleted.

A second front will be in evidence in due time. Mr. Wolcott predicts much fighting in north Africa within the next 60 days when the Allies will battle to secure control of the Mediterranean area.

Michigan stands at 122 per cent in War Bond sales and 117 per cent in scrap salvage. She is well to the fore in getting things done in an efficient manner compared with the East, and there has been little hysteria and running in circles in mid-western war efforts.

He predicted gas rationing in the mid-western states before many months, not because of a shortage of gas here but in an effort to conserve rubber.

The statement that the farmer is causing prices to rise is a fallacious one. Agricultural commodity prices are tied to non-agricultural prices and farm prices follow and do not lead in the increases.

The government should give the "Go" sign to synthetic rubber manufacturing in the United States, Congressman Wolcott declared. Whether agricultural products or petroleum products are used is not too important. The important factor is to provide the rubber necessary for war and civilian use. Russian and German war machines are rolling on synthetic rubber. American experts told them how to manufacture the product several years ago.

Mr. Wolcott was introduced by State Representative Audley Rawson.

Oak Bluff Breezes.

Weather almost has us believing that we are still at midsummer but the martins gathering on the telegraph wires preparatory to going South, remind us that in spite of everything else the seasons roll around as they always have. Labor Day is just around the corner and with its arrival many will be closing their cottages for the season. The duck hunters are getting the blinds in order and giving the decoys new coats of paint to weather a bit before the season opens. At least for a few days we are having ideal weather for swimming and lounging on the beach.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Ballard are remaining this week for the last half of their vacation.

Mrs. E. R. Wilson and Miss Margaret Wilson are staying on until Wednesday when they will return to Lansing. Mr. and Mrs. Wilson plan to take a short week-end motor trip over Labor Day going to several points in Canada and taking Mrs. Levi Bardwell with them.

Mrs. S. H. Cochrane entertained last Thursday at a Bohemian luncheon and bridge prizes went to Mrs. T. H. Foster and Mrs. E. R. Wilson.

The bicyclists are getting pretty good, spending a whole day cycling around the scenic highway. It may be with a few spare tires they will be able to make Florida this winter.

With the opening of school, we will be losing the Masons, Hutchins and Sopers.

Dr. and Mrs. Frank McIntyre and Don returned to Grosse Pointe Monday.

Mrs. Mulholland entertained the "Rolling Stones" Club on Sunday, a most interesting group of young people who are a geography study group.

C. R. Todd is spending his vacation here this week.

What You Buy With WAR BONDS

Barbed wire used by Uncle Sam's fighting forces is vastly different from that used on American farms. Army and Marine barbed wire is much heavier and the bars, about three inches in length, are more vicious than ordinary barbed wire.

The Marine Corps pays fifty cents for each twelve yards, or 36 feet of this specially manufactured barbed wire. The Army and Marine Corps needs thousands upon thousands of feet for defensive warfare. Your purchase of War Bonds and Stamps will insure sufficient quantity for their needs. Invest at least ten percent of your wages in War Bonds every pay day.

Malta Is Most Bombed Spot

5,000 Raids in One Month Is Record; Story of One Family.

VALETTA, MALTA.—Five thousand air raids in one month, an average of 166 every 24 hours, 75 per cent of this city's homes destroyed or damaged—that's the statistical story of this most bombed spot on earth. The human story is—

Mrs. Marmena Urpanis gets up at 6 a. m. Her husband is a working man. She has six children. All is peace and quiet for 20 minutes. Then the siren sounds.

"Say, you," she says casually to the eldest son. "Go up and spot." The youth climbs to the roof. All over the neighborhood, family spotters are on the roofs. No use being disturbed by mere bombs unless they are close.

'Planes Coming Close.'

Urpanis, having washed his face and shaved, comes in for breakfast. The three younger children are still asleep. Urpanis says he slept well and Mrs. Urpanis said she had a good night too. She has the coffee pot poised to pour when a shout comes from the roof. They're coming close.

Urpanis awakens the children. Calmly all eight repair to the nearest shelter, an ancient rock-walled well. Within seconds bombs are dropping all around. Forty minutes later the planes have been driven off and the family returns to breakfast. Mrs. Urpanis slightly annoyed because she must warm the coffee.

Urpanis goes off to work and Mrs. Urpanis starts scrubbing and dressing the three young ones. She is just about through when, 50 minutes after the first raid, another starts. She and the children go off to the shelter again.

When that one is over, she goes shopping. In the midst of it the sirens sound again and she and all persons in the streets go casually to public shelters. That raid didn't amount to much and there isn't another until 2 p. m., which lets the family lunch in unaccustomed quiet. The ten-minute raids come every day and it would seem a break in routine if the Axis missed one.

Family Hardly Blinks.

The next raid was in early evening. One hundred German planes hit at Valletta again. One big bomb after another came down within a radius of 200 yards and close to the shelter. The younger children were somewhat disturbed by the noise; the rest of the family hardly blinked.

Then one came really close. The lights went out. Candles revealed dust and dirt pouring through the exits to the well. The oldest Urpanis girl wetted a handkerchief and tied it around her mouth. That makes breathing easier when there's a lot of dust.

It was all over at 7:30 and the family found their house had been damaged—again. It was annoying because it was suppertime and they were hungry. But Mrs. Urpanis cleared the debris out of her kitchen and got the pots on the stove. Urpanis meanwhile repaired doors and windows. He's an expert at that now.

Supper is hardly over when another big fleet comes overhead, and since it is apparent the Axis intends to keep it up all night, the family decides to spend the night in the shelter.

They had 12 raids in all from the time they left their beds to the time they went to bed again.

It's Too Bad, but Fido

Cannot Have His Sugar

NEW YORK.—A tea-sipping dog will simply have to learn to use lemon instead of sugar.

A local rationing board made this determined decision recently when a woman applied for a war ration book for her pet poodle. She said that the dog had tea with sugar three times a day.

"The dog is accustomed to sugar," the woman icily replied when asked if it couldn't get along without it.

Just as icily, the board said "no!"

No Round Trips Provided In This Patrol Wagon

NEW YORK.—The woman insisted on riding, so police took her to the station in a patrol wagon to answer a charge of permitting an unmuzzled dog on the streets.

She pleaded guilty, then asked to be taken back to the stationhouse in the wagon to get her dog.

"I'm sorry," said the court. "The city isn't in the habit of making round trips with its patrol wagons."

Dough and Doughboy Proved Quite Different

CAMP BLANDING, FLA.—This is a story of dough and a doughboy. Dough for the army is placed in a 90-degree proof room to rise.

In some way, Private John C. Franz of Brooklyn, N. Y., got locked in the room and spent 45 minutes there.

The dough increased nicely in size. Franz perspired off a couple of pounds.

Retirement of Rural Carrier—

After 37 years of service as mail carrier, Wilbert McCullough began his voluntary retirement Sept. 1, 1942, and for nearly one year before his appointment as regular carrier, he served in the capacity as substitute carrier. During the first years as carrier which was out of Owendale, Webb delivered the mail by horse and buggy except during the times when roads were impassable, then he made the trip riding horseback. The first automobile used in this service was a two-chain Brush which enabled him to make the route much quicker and then during the winter part the trip was made on foot. Upon consolidation of the two routes out of Owendale July 1, 1939, Mr. McCullough was transferred to the Gagetown office and since then has been delivering mail on Route 2 from here. Mr. McCullough received a letter from Postmaster General Frank C. Walker congratulating him on his retirement and commending him on his efficiency in the service.

25th Wedding Anniversary—

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Dorsch received 65 relatives and friends at their farm home on Ritchie Road Sunday, in celebration of their 25th wedding anniversary.

A wedding cake, trimmed in silver and topped by a miniature bride and groom, an heirloom of the family, and low bowls of garden flowers, graced the long dining table, laden with fried chicken and accompanying dishes suited to a two-course wedding dinner.

Friends and relatives came from Turner, Sanford, Edenville, Beaver, Pontiac, Flint, Owendale, Linkville, Elkton, Cass City, Sebawaing and Kilmanagh. The honored couple received many gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Dorsch were born and lived in this community within a radius of 20 miles. The former is a son of Mrs. Chas. Dorsch of Owendale and Mrs. Dorsch a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Deneen, pioneers of Grant Township. She attended the Williamson and Gagetown schools.

Mr. Katterhenry and lived in the vicinity of Owendale 22 years, before purchasing 80 acres, originally owned by her grandfather, the late Alexander Deneen, who pioneered the farm. The north 40 they purchased of Hugh Karr three years ago where they have since lived.

Two Labor Groups Share Honors for Tribute to Workers

Credit for the origin of Labor day usually is divided equally between the Central Labor Union of New York and the old Knights of Labor. Both organizations, with many members in common, were in session in New York in the spring of 1882. At a meeting of the Union on May 18 of that year, Peter J. McGuire, a delegate, moved that "a day should be set aside as a festive day during which a parade through the streets of the city would permit a public tribute to American industry."

On September 5 of that year a demonstration took place. Between 20,000 and 30,000 workers participated in a parade through Manhattan. So successful was the program that a similar celebration was held the following year. In 1884 the Knights of Labor adopted a resolution declaring the first Monday in September to be Labor-day.

Steps were taken to secure enactment of measures in the various state legislatures to make the first Monday in September a legal holiday in tribute to labor. Oregon, New Jersey, Colorado and New York enacted the necessary legislation in quick succession and on June 28, 1894, congress made Labor day a legal holiday in the District of Columbia and for federal workers throughout the country.

AMERICA IN ACTION

THE SOLDIER'S FOOD

Uncle Sam is the nation's Number One Nutritionist. The "V" of the daily diet he furnishes the American soldier includes both variety and vitamins.

Thanks to Uncle Sam and his assistant, Miss Mary L. Barber, food consultant to the quartermaster corps, the 1942 soldier is better fed than any other fighting man in the world today.

Today's average healthy, hungry soldier, in camp in this country, eats about 5½ pounds of food a day. He may not know a calorie from a carrot; but his daily ration contains about 4,500 calories, which is an estimated 1,500 to 3,000 more than many a well-fed civilian adult receives.

His individual daily ration costs Uncle Sam about 50 cents. (It varies slightly according to place and season).

The boy who was brought up on turnip greens and fat-back sits at the table next to the lad who was brought up on pasteurized milk and fresh vegetables out of season. The old "regular" shudders as he sees the new recruit eat salad and seem to like it.

But most of them agree—the "chow's okay."

Here are some general favorites: Meat is the backbone of the army menu. It is served twice, sometimes three times a day. The basic meats are beef, pork, lamb, ham and bacon. Pie is popular: apple pie, first; then cherry; then peach. Everybody seems to like bacon and eggs. And ice-cream, which the army serves on an average of twice a week.

Uncle Sam tries to give his soldiers "pie like mother used to bake," and the vitamins the doctor ordered. As a result of this, and of healthy, out-door work during his first few months at camp, the average new soldier gains between 6 and 10 pounds.

While the American soldier is the best fed soldier in the world, and in all history, he'd love to have you send him a cake from home.

DON'T TAKE MY WORD FOR IT!

By FRANK COLBY

NAMES IN THE NEWS

Since the bombing and destruction of a Japanese battleship by the late Capt. Colin P. Kelly, scores of readers with the first name COLIN have written to me, urging, "Tell them the name is pronounced KAH-lin," or "Tell them the name is pronounced KOE-lin." There has been much confusion on the radio, too, which I hope to dispel by this article.

I addressed a letter of inquiry to the widow of the gallant flier, and her gracious answer came by return air mail: "We pronounce the first name of my husband with a long 'o,' as: KOE-lin."

However, it must be noted that the pronunciation KAH-lin has good sanction. It is the only pronunciation given on page 524 of Webster's New International, Second Edition, and on page 1370 of the Winston Dictionary. Incidentally, the name is of Anglo-Saxon origin, and means "A peasant."

As I have heard from as many "KAH-lins" as I have from "KOE-lins," it is quite clear that the pronunciation of Colin is a matter of personal choice. But we can be sure now that the correct pronunciation of the name of the great American hero is: KOE-lin. In honor of his heroic achievement, let us be governed accordingly.

Not the Cost of Timbers
Contrary to general opinion, the main cost of replacing decayed timbers is not the cost of the timbers themselves but the labor charge involved in tearing out the old timbers and putting in the new.

When School Bells Rang in 1842

With the opening of school just around the corner, American boys and girls are thankful that such disciplinary measures as the above belong to the tattered pages of their nation's history. When the New York city board of education marked the 100th anniversary of its founding, public school students re-enacted scenes that were commonplace back in 1842. In those days the "slow" student wasn't treated with special consideration. In fact, his scholastic standing (or lack of it) was made obvious to all. Today's modern educators are much more scientific in their handling of pupils.

Modernizing on a Budget
Modernizing in these times usually means turning unused space into extra bedrooms. Insulating building boards are a "must" item if remodeling is done on a budget, because they take the place of so many expensive material and labor items—plaster, lath, calcimine or wallpaper. Front and back porches or attic space can be transformed into bedrooms. New insulating boards come in five attractive pastel shades they possess acoustical qualities; and have a smooth glazed finish which can be easily cleaned.

Better Eyesight
One employer reports that after supplying one-fifth of his employees with needed glasses and installing an improved lighting system, output was increased by 19 per cent and quality was improved by 16 per cent.

- The most important issue before our people today is the winning of the war. While I believe in the right to organize and bargain collectively, I am opposed to mob violence and strikes during war time. My policy will continue to be one of "Work or Fight" for the duration.
  - I have conducted the office of Sanilac County Prosecutor without favor or patronage to any person or faction. I shall continue to do so.
  - I will continue to enforce the criminal laws fairly and honestly with every protection to those accused of crime to which they are entitled.
- During the four years that I have been your prosecutor there have been many difficult problems presented. In the handling of these problems there have doubtless been some mistakes, but in making decisions the best interest of Sanilac County has always been my first consideration.

Preservative Treatment
The life of most timbers in contact with the ground can be doubled, trebled or further lengthened by adequate preservative treatment.

One Man's Will
That to live by one man's will become the cause of all men's misery. —Richard Hooker.

FOOL PROOF
She had just said "No" very kindly but firmly, and he felt he had a grievance. "Why did you lead me on?" he demanded bitterly. "Why did you let me take you out in the car every day, and to dances and theaters every night? Why did you encourage me when you were already engaged?" Hanging her head demurely, the miss replied: "I wanted to test my love for Edward."

Precocious
Two dear little mites of about six and seven respectively were gazing with considerable interest at the storks in the zoo, when the usual interfering old lady ambled up. "Those are storks, my dear," she burbled. "The clever birds that brought you to your father and mother!"

The youngsters looked at each other, and one whispered: "Poor old thing! Shall we tell her?"

INARTICULATE
"Why didn't you make a speech at the club dinner last night when they asked you?" "I couldn't, old man. I was too full for utterance."

Improvement
Tattered and bandaged, the applicant was appealing for a separation order. "My life ain't safe, sir," he pleaded. "She's bin throwing things at me ever since we got married." "And only now, after twenty years, are you seeking the court's protection," said the magistrate skeptically. "Well, sir, her aim's getting good!"

But Not Sweet
He sat moaning over his cup of coffee and making sheep's eyes at the pretty waitress until she was fed up. "Is there anything else you would like, sir?" she asked distantly, as a hint that he could move on. "Just a soft word," he sighed. "Putty!" replied the waitress as she whisked the cup off the table and tripped away.

Terminology
The Hollywood publicity man ran out of synonyms for the word colossal. So he telephoned a film magnate, and asked: "What is a synonym for colossal?" The magnate replied: "First, please tell me—what is a synonym?"

Instructions
Miss—And, Mary, when you are waiting on my guests tonight, don't wear any jewelry. New Maid—I haven't anything very valuable, but thanks for the warning, all the same.

Diversions
Blossom—My wife talks so much I never get a chance to tell her anything. Goofer—Do like I do—put a note in your pants pocket for her to read during the night.

OBJECT LESSON
"I'll teach that boy to tell lies." "I wouldn't do it now, dear; wait and let him hear the one you tell when you come in late tonight."

Wrapt
"Every time my girl gazes into my eyes time stands still." "No wonder." "What do you mean?" "Well, your face would stop any clock."

No Peanuts?
"I prefer the theater to the ball park. You never see a baseball team respond to an encore." "Neither does an opera ever go extra innings."

Viewpoint
Sonny—Dad, what do you call a man who drives a car? Dad (a pedestrian)—It all depends on how close he comes to me, son.

Ever After
Pudding—in the movie you went to did the hero marry the heroine at the end of all their troubles? Stophella—No; at the beginning!

Determined
"If your wife made you go out and look for a job, what would you look for?" "A new wife."

No Heir
Tomasso—Did your uncle remember you when he made his will? Tobasco—I guess so—he left me out!

Talkative
She—Don't you think my photo is a speaking likeness? He—It has a good deal to say to me.

Indiana conservation clubs, that, according to director Barnhart, led all states in 1941 club game bird propagation, will be given 165,000 quail and pheasant chicks this year by the department of conservation for rearing. In 1941, 77 per cent of the chicks furnished Hoosier clubs are said to have been reared and liberated.

30,000 Acres Open to Hunting—

Michigan hunters, living in the metropolitan areas and probably forced because of transportation restrictions to do their fall shooting nearer home this year, will find more than 30,000 acres of land in southern Michigan now open to public hunting. Practically all of the land is incorporated into nine "projects" as follows: Tuscola County; Rose Lake, near Lansing; Barry County; Gratiot and Saginaw Counties; Oak Grove in Livingston County; Danville in Ingham County; Flat River in Ionia and Montcalm Counties; Minden City in Sanilac County; and Gourdneck in Kalamazoo County. Included within the public hunting areas are small sanctuaries, conspicuously marked. Conservation department signs, indicating "State Game Area, Hunting Permitted," will be posted on the boundaries of all of the areas before the opening of the fall hunting seasons.

Savage Russ Counterattack in North
Offsets Nazi Pressure in Volga Area;
U. S. Upsets Jap Strategy in Pacific;
Chinese Register Important Victories

Map shows how Hitler's 1942 conquest of Russia nears the climax as his armies move into position in a pincer movement closing on Stalingrad. A million Nazi soldiers assaulted that vital city on the Volga river, closing in from two directions. By skirting the Caucasian mountains, Hitler's army can push on to the Caspian sea for a junction with the Japanese.

PACIFIC INVASION:
Costly to Japs
Despite heavy Allied air action, which cost the enemy one transport, six landing barges and probably a cruiser, Japanese shock troops made another landing in Milne Bay on the island of New Guinea, 240 miles east of Port Moresby and less than 500 miles from the Australian mainland.
However, "Our ground forces anticipated this movement and are in contact with the enemy," a spokesman from General MacArthur's headquarters in Australia said. United Nations medium bombers and fighters heavily bombed and strafed Jap barges which were heading toward shore and Jap troops which already had landed. The aerial attack was carried out despite adverse weather conditions, the communique said.
Spokesmen acknowledged that the Japanese had put into action the airdrome at Buna, 200 miles northwest from Milne Bay on the north coast of New Guinea. They established a beachhead at Buna in July, then pushed south to Kokoda, within 60 miles of Port Moresby.

Solomon Thrust
The violent sea-air battle in the Solomon Islands saw the United States win the opening round. Land-based American dive bombers, torpedo planes and fighters were credited with forcing a battered Jap fleet to withdraw from Guadalcanal island in the southeast Solomons, less than a thousand miles from Australia, across the Coral Sea.
In the original United States offensive in the Solomons, the American marine corps vanguard obtained beachheads on the island, overcoming enemy resistance and seizing an air field. Planes, bombs, torpedoes, ground crews and gasoline were brought in to repel a major invasion.
While a communique stated that results in the struggle for the strategic islands are "encouraging," it warned that a large scale sea battle still was in progress and that the outcome could not yet be determined. But one official expressed the opinion that "we are winning the second round of the battle of the Solomons."

ACTION IN EGYPT:
Transport Blasted
Striking at Marshal Erwin Rommel's preparations for a new offensive in Egypt, Royal Air Force fighters killed or disabled hundreds of enemy troops in a raid on transport columns west of El Alamein.
New Zealand troops saw fast action when they routed an Italian division on the same line, and United States bombers blasted Axis shipping in Suda Bay, Crete and the Corinth canal in Greece.
Tension on the Egyptian front has mounted steadily. German tank movements were observed near the Qattara depression and Italian forces were attempting to concentrate their positions.
As the all-out battle of Egypt grew closer British newspapers described this front as equal in importance to Stalingrad. They pointed out that the smashing of Rommel's army would restore the Mediterranean command to the United Nations, whose forces then could start to close in on the enemy. According to the London Daily Mail, "The coming battle in Egypt may in the end reverse the fortunes of war in Russia." Indications are that Rommel will have the hardest fight in his life in the 80-mile stretch between El Alamein to Alexandria.

CEILINGS:
For Hogs, Cattle
As the Office of Price Administration worked out its plans for price ceilings on hogs and cattle, J. K. Galbraith, deputy administrator, told a delegation of large stock producers in Washington that revisions of this system would eliminate inequalities between different regions and different classes of buyers.
Meanwhile concurrence with the OPA plan was being considered by the department of agriculture. Ceilings were worked out in conjunction with representative groups of producers and OPA before submission to Secretary of Agriculture Claude Wickard.
Beef producers were assured by OPA that this agency would take no steps to discourage normal feeding and marketing of livestock.
"While feeders must exercise normal caution and avoid paying high prices for their feeders," said Deputy OPA Administrator Galbraith, "the working out of ceilings will be undertaken in close consultation with producers and with a full and complete recognition of the market relationships involved."
He said further that "feeders who buy carefully may look forward to the coming year with confidence."

DUKE OF KENT:
Dies in Action
The first casualty in England's royal family since the start of the war occurred in northern Scotland when a giant Sunderland flying boat crashed, bringing death to the duke of Kent, youngest brother of King George VI. With him died all but one of the crew, a tail gunner who was thrown clear of the wreck. The duke, fifth in succession to the throne, was 39 years old. On active military duty, he was the youngest of the four sons of Queen Mary and the late King George V. Married to Princess Marina of Greece in 1934, his three children were Prince Edward, 6; Princess Alexandra, 5; and Prince George, who was born last July 4. Prince George also bears the name of Franklin for President Roosevelt, his godfather.

BRAZIL:
Good Neighbors Speak
Just a week after Brazil's declaration of war against Germany and Italy, the Uruguayan government announced that the two South American nations would co-operate in a "common defense against possible aggression."
Thus Uruguay forged ahead of her South American neighbors in a show of solidarity with Brazil. The country's national defense ministry had been authorized to "adopt, in agreement with military authorities of Brazil, all measures designed for better efficiency in the common defense against possible aggressions."
Meanwhile, Foreign Minister Carracciolo Parra Perez of Venezuela expressed his nation's "sincere sympathy and solidarity" with Brazil and announced that Venezuela automatically will treat Brazil as a nonbelligerent under a decree affecting any American nation that goes to war against the Axis.

Maj. Gen. Armand Trompovsky, head of the Brazilian air force, pictured at his desk in Rio de Janeiro. Brazil has a modern air force composed largely of planes manufactured in the United States.

CHINA:
Counter-Attack
In the provinces of Chekiang and Kiangsi the Chinese were fighting a determined counteroffensive to dislodge the Japs from important bases whence the United Nations might launch air raids on Japan.
This offensive was meeting with considerable success as the Chinese troops pushed toward Chusien, site of the biggest airfield in China and drove hard on Lisui and Shingyang, both vital points. In addition the Chinese forces had recaptured over a hundred mile strip of the Chekiang-Kiangsi railway. At one time the Japs had controlled this railroad in its entirety.
Biggest questions in the minds of military experts was where the Japs were sending their troops now being diverted from this Chinese front. Some sources were inclined to believe that they had gone to the South Pacific for the battle of the Solomons and New Guinea, while unofficial reports told of mass movements of troops toward the Russian back door.
Chinese leaders were on the lookout for a strategic retreat by the Japs which might have as its purpose the setting of a large-scale trap.

The congressman predicted that: "In all likelihood congress will be asked this session to permit the drafting of 18 and 19 year olds and will give its approval."

Wardens' Push Victory Foods
'V' Specials to Be Labeled And Women Urged to Avoid All Waste.
WASHINGTON.—Housewife "nutrition wardens" with the war-time task of telling their neighbors about coming "Victory food specials" was the solution for the problem of scattered food surpluses agreed upon by nearly 100 food trade representatives meeting under the auspices of the department of agriculture.
After hearing Roy Hendrickson, administrator of the agricultural marketing administration, warn that there must be no waste of those foods which will be more than plentiful at certain seasons, the group endorsed a program to label all such surplus foods "victory food specials" and to promote their increased consumption whenever a surplus situation arises.
Follow British Example.
It was thought that in addition to using regular publicity channels, it would be advisable to follow the British example of having one woman in each block responsible for telling her neighbors about the special values.
The foods, listed as those in which surpluses may be expected some time during the next six months, were these: Lettuce, onions, potatoes, poultry, tomatoes, peaches, cherries, California plums and apples.
As each surplus arises, the excess crops will be designated with stickers showing a full market basket, the letter V and the legend "Victory Food Special."
The dates and regions to be covered in the promotional campaigns will be determined by the department of agriculture, which will in turn inform growers, retailers, packers and all information channels. One of these channels is the office of defense health and welfare services, through which the "food and nutrition warden" system would be set up as part of the officers' nutrition program. The use of this scheme was suggested to the conference by M. L. Wilson, nutrition adviser to the ODHWS.
Food Shortages Predicted.
The urgent need for insuring immediate distribution and use of all food grown in this country was outlined to the conference by Mr. Hendrickson. Calling the program to co-ordinate distribution and increase the sale of seasonally abundant supplies of food "a phase of food conservation," the administrator pointed out that "perishable products must be used at the right time."
Mr. Hendrickson indicated that the surplus foods might be used as substitutes for other foods affected by shortages or by transportation difficulties. He said the fact that there are and will be certain surpluses does not obviate the situation that "we are faced with a squeeze on our food supply."
"We are almost certain to be up against some serious shortages of individual food items," he said, "and the sooner that is realized the better."

Private Wong Is Sent To Untangle Town Wash
TURTLE CREEK, PA.—Private George Wong returned on furlough from Fort McClelland, Ala., to get the biggest reception yet tendered a soldier here.
The "receptionists" were 200 customers of Wong's laundry, anxious to get their clothing since Wong unexpectedly was inducted at Pittsburgh four weeks ago. An uncle tried to untangle the wash but gave up, declaring the marks were not "even Chinese."
The Red Cross helped arrange Wong's emergency leave.
Game Warden Questions Sagacity of the Trout
McCOOK, NEB.—Rudy Fick was skeptical of the belief generally held that trout are pretty smart.
Fick, who is a game warden, baited his fyrod hook with corn kernels to catch carp at Rock creek.
Instead of carp he caught five lusty rainbow trout in an hour's time.
"Trout aren't so smart," he decided. "They'll bite anything a bull-head falls for."

You have seen the picture of Carnation Ormsby Madcap Payne, the new world champion milk cow, in the newspapers, the movies, the magazines. You have read of her amazing performance, producing nearly 42,000 lbs. (about 5000 gallons) of milk in a year. You have noted her great size (weight, 1750 lbs.), her unusual depth of body, her ability to convert cheap roughages into milk.

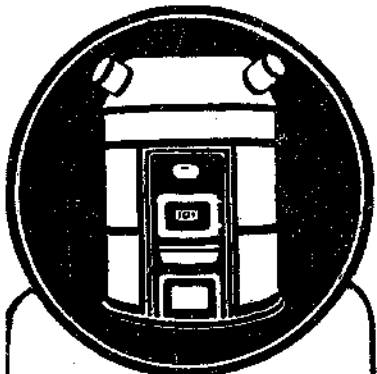

But never before, perhaps, have you seen the picture of her shown here, the picture which shows her at the most critical time of her life. This was taken before she had that size, that capacity, that almost perfect functioning of the vital organs required to produce an average of 115 lbs. (13 gallons) of milk every day for 365 days.

For the first 9 months of her life she had Calf Manna as part of her ration, and the significant thing is that many of the greatest cows, and the greatest heifers, and the greatest beef cattle, and hogs, and sheep have likewise received Calf Manna in those first months when bodies and body functions are being developed.

Turn a Meal Into a Banquet With Blueberry Muffins

(See Recipes Below.)

Prepare for Week-Ends

Lazy days with first signs of fall in the air, wilted appetites and the whole family home for the week-end are a heavy drain on the homemaker. If she expects to spend any time with her family, Madame Housewife must scurry around and plan a preparedness campaign which will stock her refrigerator with foods that can be pulled—like the traditional bunny out of the hat—and still keep her reputation as the "best cook around here."

It's a mistaken notion that the main dish has to be an elaborate hot and heavy affair that sends the hostess to the head of her table sweltering after hours of preparation. A much better idea would be to have a cool, tempting chicken-mousse such as I've planned for you today.

Wash the vegetables and store them in the cold compartment and they're ready to toss together in a few minutes, crisp, and chewy, coated with a flavorful dressing, in a salad supreme. If the family really has its heart set on "something hot" bring out some bran muffins, all moist and tasty with blueberries. These take but a short time to bake.

Your table should be bright and gay with oranges and yellows, reds, rich browns to add warm notes to the porch supper or lunch—indoors or out. Let your imagination run riot with the dry leaves, bright berries, sprays from the wayside or fall's bountiful fruits.

Remember, you can do more for your table by arranging Concord grapes tastefully with a few golden pears, bluish red apples, on rich brown leaves or in well polished pewter, copper or brass vessels than rare, expensive flowers that your family does not know how to appreciate. Then, of course, if you have a few yellow or deep red chrysanthemums in your fall garden, let them fall gracefully in and out among their own leaves in a burnished bowl, and you leave nothing to be desired.

Here's the mousse which you can have as a main dish. Make it the night before and it's all ready to serve just with unmolding:

*Chicken-Ham Mousse.
(Serves 6)

3 egg yolks, slightly beaten
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 1/2 cups chicken broth
1 1/2 cups ground, cooked chicken
1 1/2 cups ground, cooked ham
1/2 cup salad dressing
1 minced scallion
1/2 cup whipped cream
1 package lemon-flavored gelatin.

Add salt to egg yolks, then broth. Cook over boiling water, stirring constantly until mixture coats a spoon.

Lynn Says:

Easier Way to Live: One good way by which to simplify homemaking is to get rid of trouble-makers in your household furnishings as fast as you can.

If you have an expensively upholstered sofa or chair which requires special cleaning often, make a slip-cover for it out of one of the practical cottons or other washable fabrics which are so numerous in the stores these days. A quick trip through the household washer now and then will keep it spic-and-span. Whisk it off and let the regular covering show when special guests are coming, or use the slip-covers day in and day out, for they are so attractive in themselves.

When your draperies wear out, or when you decide to do over a room, look at the beautiful wash fabrics which you can buy for your windows. Make them up with washable linings, these pre-shrunk, too, of course, and save yourself troublesome cleaning from then on. In time, you can "re-plan" many of your furnishings for practical washing machine handling.

This Week's Menu

*Chicken-Ham Mousse
*All-Bran Blueberry Muffins
Butter
*Julienne Salad
*Whipped Cream Sugarless Cake
*Recipes Given.

Pour over gelatin and stir until dissolved. Cool. Fold in remaining ingredients. Place strips of green pepper, sliced olives, sliced hard-cooked eggs on bottom of oiled mold. Pour in mousse. Let chill until firm. Unmold on lettuce and garnish with romaine, endive and tomato wedges. Dispositions will all be the merrier when you serve these bran-blueberry muffins because the B-vitamins, often called morale builders, in the bran and the magnesium in the blueberries, which is reputed to create kindlier feelings toward your fellow men, really get together and do their best for the system:

*All-Bran Blueberry Muffins.
(Makes 12 small muffins.)
2 tablespoons shortening
1/2 cup sugar
1 egg
1 cup all-bran
1/2 cup milk
1 cup flour
1/2 teaspoon salt
2 1/2 teaspoons baking powder
1/2 cup fresh blueberries
Cream shortening and sugar until fluffy. Add egg and beat well. Stir in all-bran and milk and let soak until all moisture is taken up. Sift dry ingredients and add blueberries. Add to first mixture and stir just until flour disappears. Fill greased muffin tins until two-thirds full and bake in a moderately hot (400-degree) oven about 30 minutes. Greens tossed together with melon french dressing are attention-getters:

*Julienne Salad Bowl.
(Serves 6)

1 cup cabbage
1 cup carrots
1/2 cup green peppers
1/2 cup red radishes
Garlic
Curly endive or shredded lettuce
Shred all the vegetables fine. Arrange mounds of them in a bowl, and toss french dressing over them. Rub the bowl in which they are served with garlic.

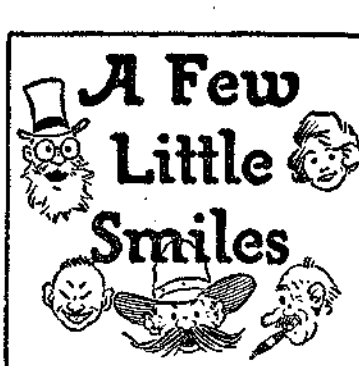

A main dish that will go well with the Julienne Salad is this Baked Bean dish:

Baked Bean Rarebit
1 can baked beans
1/2 pound American cheese, grated
3 slices bacon, fried crisp
1/2 green pepper sliced
Mix beans, green pepper and crumbled bacon with grated cheese and pour into a casserole. Bake in a moderate oven 35-40 minutes. A cake that's a tasty sugar saver is this one:

*Whipped Cream Sugarless Cake.
2 1/2 cups sifted cake flour
2 1/2 teaspoons double acting baking powder
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup butter or shortening
1 cup light corn syrup
2 eggs, unbeaten
1/2 cup orange juice
2 teaspoons grated orange rind
1 cup cream, whipped
Sift flour once, measure, add baking powder and salt, and sift dry ingredients together three times. Cream shortening, add orange rind, and then syrup beating well after each addition. Add 1/2 of flour and beat until smooth and well blended. Add eggs one at a time, beating well after each. Add remaining flour in thirds alternately with orange juice, beating after each addition for best results. Bake in two greased 8-inch layer pans in a moderate (375-degree) oven 30 minutes. Cool. Spread whipped cream between and on top of layers.

DEFENDANT

It was one of those trials at which psychiatrists are employed. "Now," the psychiatrist asked the defendant, "if one of your ears were cut off, what would happen?"

"Why, I could only hear half of what you said."

"Very well. And if your other ear were cut off, then what?"

"I couldn't see."

"And will you explain why you couldn't see if both ears were cut off?"

"My hat would fall down over my eyes."

Shoot the Works

Two farmers decided on a trip to town. After a round of sightseeing they entered a hotel.

"We'd like to stay here for the night," said the elder.

"Certainly," said the clerk. "Would you like a room with a bath?"

The elder farmer hesitated.

"Go on, Oliver," urged his friend, "be a sport. We only live once."

Unmowed

A preacher had delivered a stirring sermon at a revival service, and a number of the listeners were moved to tears.

When leaving the church a woman remarked to her neighbor: "I noticed that you were not crying. Was it not a great sermon?"

"Why should I be crying? I don't belong to this parish."

TOO LATE

Mrs. Nagg—I wish you wouldn't be a fool.

Mr. Nagg—I wish you had mentioned that when I was leading you to the altar.

Scotch

Three blood transfusions were necessary to save a woman patient's life at a hospital. A brawny young Scotsman offered his blood. The patient gave him $10 for the first pint, $5 for the second pint—but the third time she had so much Scotch blood in her that she only thanked him.

Connoisseur

Tuffy (nonchalantly)—Yes, Marion, as I was saying, I think kissing is quite a lost art.
Her Father—Huh. If you ask me, I'd say you were quite the art collector, young man.

So (a)lled

Wigg—What makes Summerville always try to act so hard-boiled?
Wagg—Oh, that. His boss keeps him in hot water all the time.

Plain Truth

"Suppose I insure my husband today and he dies tomorrow. What do I get?"
"Trouble with the police."

Refusal

Pussy—No, Towser. I cannot be your wife. I can't live on bones and dog-biscuits! I'm sure you'll never learn to like mice.

Vacation

"Don't you hate housecleaning time?"
"Now. When Ma cleans house she doesn't clean me."

Action

"If you want to go out with the boys, do you tell your wife?"
"Rather. He who hesitates is bossed."

BUT SAFER

"It is often impossible to distinguish silence from wisdom."
"Naturally! Because it is often the same thing."

Fish Ner Foul

Stranger—What is the standing of the Spendmore family in this town?
Native—Well, I should say they are sort of betwixt and between. They aren't exactly nobody and yet they aren't really anybody.

New Tricks

Henry—My dear, I really don't believe you can ever teach that dog to obey you.
Mrs. Peck—Nonsense, darling. Just remember how obstinate you were when we were first married.

RESCUE.

Sgt. Bannick Writes—

Dale Jamieson received the following letter from Sgt. Bannick, Camp Breckenridge, Camp Breckenridge, Ky. He is a former resident of Grant. He says:

I left Camp Claiborne Aug. 13 and got here the next afternoon. I can't tell you much about Kentucky or this camp. It's a new camp started in April. There is a lot of work to be done here before the camp is finished. We have to haul all the water for drinking and cooking and we have to take cold showers. This is about 600 miles from home.

Well I made Staff Sergeant the first of August. I get $96 a month. We only have one mess hall so far but about Sept. 15 I will have my own kitchen, when all I will have to do is tell the cooks what to cook and see that the kitchen is kept clean.

I joined the army Sept. 7, 1940, for three years. First, I was stationed at Fort Bragg, N. C. In Feb., 1942, I was sent to Camp Claiborne to help start a new camp in Louisiana as first cook. Aug. 14 when I was promoted to Staff Sergeant, I was sent to Camp Breckenridge, Ky., as mess sergeant. In two years I have helped start and build three camps.

You asked me about my brothers. Gustave enlisted in Jan., 1941. He was stationed at Sault Ste. Marie for over a year but now he is stationed at Middle River, Maryland, in a M. P. camp. Fred is stationed at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo. Fred and I are both in the Field Artillery. Rhinhold, my younger brother, will soon be in the army so that will make four of us in the army.

Well so long. Your friend, Staff Sergeant Herman Bannick. Mr. and Mrs. Emil Bannick, Elkton, are the parents of these soldier boys and were former residents of Grant and well known here.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Putman and son, Billy, visited relatives in Detroit last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Woolner and children of Detroit were visitors here over the week-end. Mrs. DeEtte J. Mellendorf and son, Norris, were in Cass City on Wednesday.

Tap New Trees for Turpentine

Reports reaching the U. S. department of agriculture from the piney woods of Georgia indicate that small farmers, given opportunity to become independent gum producers with loans from the Farm Security administration, will work 600,000 trees this year for war-vital resin and turpentine. In 25 southeastern counties 500 borers expect a 1942 income of $180,000 from naval stores. Approximately 75 per cent of this gum will come from virgin faces, trees never tapped before.

Eastern Wild Turkeys in Texas

Eastern wild turkeys, once abundant in eastern Texas, have been stocked on a Hardin county wildlife project, according to the fish, game and oyster commission. The area, rich in food and cover, has been enclosed by 18 miles of fence, wild stock and predators removed and 40 eastern turkeys from Alabama released.

HODGEPODGE

San Francisco: On the radio I hear COLUMNIST pronounced three ways. Which is correct?—G. M.
Answer: The only correct pronunciation is: COL-um-nist.

Boston: The difference between PRACTICE and PRACTISE baffles me. Please explain.—M. K. S.
Answer: The words are the same. Practice is the first choice spelling.

Springfield: Please define and pronounce the word CARILLON.—Miss E.

Answer: A carillon is a set of bells tuned to the chromatic scale. One of the largest carillons in the United States is that of Riverside church, in New York city, comprising 72 bells, the largest of which weighs 20 tons. There are three pronunciations:

First choice: KA-rill-ahn
Second choice: kuh-RILL-yun.
Third choice (French): ka-ree-YAW(N), the "n" being nasalized.

Question: What is the correct pronunciation of ENGLISH?—Steno.
Answer: Never pronounce the first syllable "eng" as in length. And be sure to start the second syllable with the sound of hard "g." Say: ING-glish.

Many readers have asked if it is correct to pronounce the word TREMENDOUS with the sound of "j" in the third syllable. The answer is, emphatically, no. There is only one sanctioned pronunciation. It is: tree-MEN-duss.

THREE-WAY RACES BY REPUBLICANS FOR TWO HIGH OFFICES

Concluded from first page.
tion is not good enough to win the war—and so on.

Emotional Year: Translate the military situation into human emotions, and you have an explosive product.

Thousands of families face the prospect of the husband or father being inducted into military service. Dependents will get only existence federal support. Boys who are 18 and 19 also face active duty by 1943.

Gasoline rationing is inevitable; coupons are already in the hands of school officials. Prices are still mounting.

Mix this generously with portions of military reverses and casualties here and there, and what will you get on Sept. 15?

Democracy: We're fighting a war to save our skins. The president called it "a war of survival." Dressed up in pretty language, it is a titanic battle for preservation of our freedoms.

Democracy, as we easy-going Americans understand it, offers the right to vote, the right to worship, the right to speak, and the right to print as we please, within certain self-imposed limitations.

And yet, predictions are being made that the Sept. 15th primary vote will be light. "Why?" you ask. "People are too worried about the war," one candidate told us the other day.

And there you have a paradox. Are we fighting today for a freedom which we (this word used in a general sense) do not cherish? If you fail to vote on Sept. 15 and then complain bitterly about democracy failing because bad candidates are chosen, ask yourself this question: "What am I fighting for?"

Facism breeds in civic indifference.

Plant Errand Boy Works Full Time

Does All Kinds of Chores for 1,000 Workers.

MILWAUKEE. — American efficiency has made Charles Boeshaar errand boy for 1,000 men.

A friend, employed by the Wisconsin Motor corporation, told Boeshaar that all workers had to secure their birth certificates to continue working in a defense plant.

The Milwaukeean realized that many hours would be lost searching for birth certificates that might be spent on the war effort. He approached company officials and offered to obtain the certificates, pointing out the time that would be saved. They lost no time in making such a job for him.

Boeshaar spent several days on the task. Soon hard-pressed shop workers asked that he get their automobile license plates, pay bills, do countless odd jobs that would allow employees more time for war production.

During the income tax rush he prepared more than 500 returns. He made up more than 900 identification buttons and though no check was kept on the hours he saved for the workers, one official recently said: "I wish we had more fellows like you."

Only job Boeshaar could not do for the men was to get permission for recapping tires. The men were entitled to recaps as defense workers, but the No. 1 errand boy was unable to secure blanks from the rationing boards.

"They won't and can't give me blanks for the men to fill out," says Boeshaar. "The men must appear themselves."

Boeshaar believes that his task is unique and hopes that other factories will adopt the plan, save time for employees and help boost material output.

Supplies of Manganese Are Declared Adequate

CLEVELAND.—America is self-sufficient in manganese, an essential ingredient of steel which was scarce in the last World war, the official journal of the American Society for Metals declared.

"By 1944 (certainly by January 1, 1945) we will be producing at a 600,000-ton rate, and even if all shipping from the Orient and Africa were stopped tomorrow, our present stock-piles can be made to carry us over the interim and not restrict the output of our steel and iron industry," said Editor Ernest E. Thum in Metal Progress, following conversations with WPB officials.

"Plans for 1945 production comprise (in short tons of ferro-grade ore): Montana, 140,000 tons; Nevada, 110,000; Minnesota, 225,000; South Dakota, 100,000; other states, 75,000; total, 650,000 tons. This, plus reasonably expected imports will give us the tonnage necessary for our steel industry, operating at capacity, year after year, indefinitely."

Mr. Thum said that America's "ace in the hole" in the situation was South Dakota, with a deposit of at least 10,000,000 tons of metallic manganese.

Texas Ranchers Shoot Eagles From Airplane

ALPINE, TEXAS.—A strange, relentless kind of air warfare—men in planes versus the golden (Mexican) eagle—is being waged in the rugged Big Bend ranch country of Texas. Marksmen shooting from a red-winged monoplane piloted by J. O. Casparis have killed more than 25 of the predatory birds this year. The eagles prey on lambs and young goats. Increased prices for wool and meat have made the losses more costly. Expenses of the hunters are paid by ranchers. Casparis flies the plane, and his passenger—armed with a shotgun—kills the birds in flight. Permission for hunting Mexican eagles from airplanes was granted by the Texas legislature last year. The bald eagle, which is the United States' emblem, is protected from hunters by federal law. There are few of this type in West Texas.

Accommodating Top Kick Reassures Errant Charge

FORT DEVENS, MASS.—Sergeant Jack Young received a wire from one of his men, a private who was oversteering a three-day pass.

"No alibi except weather and good time. Prepare doghouse. Arrive Friday"—ran the honest private's message.

And with equal frankness Top Sergeant Young answered by telegram—collect:

"Doghouse prepared. See you Friday, son."

Gives Up Furlough So His Buddy Can Marry

HATTIESBURG, MISS.—Private John McNeely, Mayfield, Ky., was due a furlough, his first in ten months. Suddenly he learned that Sgt. Wilford Johnson, also of Mayfield, had a date to get married but no furloughs were available. McNeely gave his furlough time to Sergeant Johnson.

Picking Milkweed—

Sometime during September northern Michigan will witness the rare spectacle of people picking milkweed for profit. Thousands of tons are expected to be harvested after Labor Day by the Milkweed Products Development Company which has a contract with the U. S. Navy. Pickers are now being signed up. The conservation department has ruled that milkweed may be harvested from state-owned lands without the formality of a permit or the payment of a fee. Until this year milkweed always has been considered a nuisance on northern farms.

CANDIDATE FOR COUNTY CLERK
TUSCOLA COUNTY

At the Republican Primary
Election September 15, 1942

YOUR SUPPORT IN MY
BEHALF WILL BE SINCERELY
APPRECIATED

Born in Wells Township and have lived all my life in Tuscola County except for 17 months in the U. S. Army with 18 months overseas during World War I; father of four children with one son now battling the Japs in the Pacific Ocean with the U. S. Navy. Served Indianfields Township as clerk for six years, and believe I am qualified to act as your county clerk. Two years ago I was a candidate for the office of County Clerk but the voters saw fit to choose Ernest Haas, who died in office. Had Mr. Haas been spared to serve out the customary two terms, I would not have again asked for the nomination until 1944. His death has left the field open, and as runner-up two years ago, I believe my candidacy should merit your approval.
