Canned Food Rationing Will Start March 1

Each Family Must List Its Supplies; Registration Starts February 22.

Public sale of canned fruits and vegetables will stop throughout the nation at midnight Feb. 20 and will resume on a tightly rationed basis on March 1.

These official dates for starting the drastic innovation in grocery shopping have been announced by 1908, in the home of the latter's the Office of Price Administration. The order also applies to all frozen fruits and vegetables, dried fruits, (but not dried vegetables), canned soups and canned baby foods.

The eight days between Feb. 20 and March 1 will be used for two purposes.

Grocers will stock their stores. mark point values on either cans or counters, train employees in the rationing method, and make other preparations. The public will use the period to register for new ration books, beginning Feb. 22. The distribution of Book 2 will be much easier and less complicated than it was for the sugar book. The big headache to the public, questionnaires, will not be necessary for this book, but you will be required of requests for additional work in to declare the amount of canned goods you have on hand. Unfavorable weather next summer could easily with the final determination of a highly activated to the standard of the stand highly controversial question. We bring tragic results.

Next, the shortage of labor. It followed the spirit as well as the is critical.

It was critical last fall before mendation to the legislature. It is Uncle Sam woke up and issued a far better to have all available directive to "freeze" labor on the facts before final decision than to farms and to defer farm labor have acted impetuously and permit from military duty. More farm laborers went into war plants to earn fantastic wages than were called by selective service boards for military duty. Now that table is turned. Men in war plants are not exempt from military duty, although men on the farms are. During 1942 the farms of America lost more than 1,600,000 operround hired workers—to non-farm be the work for the day with dinemployment and to the armed forces. Sons of farmers are just as patriotic as other American lads; many of them volunteered for military service.

"All right," you may say, agree with all this but how about deferment of the farmers? Are the local boards deferring farm labor? Here is how farm labor is supposed to be deferred. Each selective service board is asked to refer a farmer's questionnaire to the nearest "war board" of the U.S. Department of Agri- Huron Wednesday.

This board, advisory only in function, is supposed to make rec- urday. ommendations to the selective service board as to the essentiality of the farmer.

If the draft board declines to defer the farmer, then the registrant or his employer may make an appeal in writing. This appeal is referred by the local draft board to the regional appeal board of which Michigan has nineteen.

If the regional appeal board upholds the local board in refusing deferment, an appeal may be sent to the state director at Lansing who may relay it to Washington where the President himself has final authority to decide on

We happen to know that the state headquarters at Lansing is sympathetic with the plight of the farmer. Officials here insist that no injustice has been done to their

Last week we saw some nice bowling by both individuals and teams. Parsch's team set a new single team game high of 935 and a new three game high of 2567 led by Captain Parsch who turned in a nice 680 series. As far as I can find, this is the second high three games bowled in league competition in Cass City. F. H. Reid had a 683 last year.

Two teams won all three of their games-Parsch's and Auten's. Two men were in the 600 club: Parsch, 680; Larkin, 627.

Sixteen were in the 500 club: Reid, 579; Auten, 574; Deering, 566; Greenleaf, 557; C. Auten, 553; B. Benkelman, 549; Landon, 546; Burt, 544; Willy, 544; Mann, 543; Croft, 539; Milligan, 515; Kolb, 513; Warner, 511; E. Fritz, 510; and Parsons, 510.

Trained Army Weathermen Ignore Old Gus Groundhog

Forecasters Rely Mainly on Science, Not Shadowy Superstition.

Whether old Gus Groundhog sees his shadow on February 2 is a matter of complete unconcern to a group of men vitally interested in everything pertaining to weather-the United States air forces.

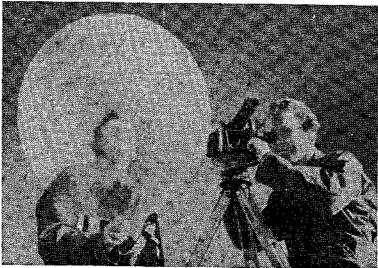

Gus has been thoroughly discredited as a weather prophet. But the airmen of the army and navy never have depended on such unreliable factors as shadows, aching corns and rheumatism for meteorological information. Rather they look to fully trained scientists for their advance dope.

WATCHFUL WAIT

The local doctor was called in to attend the butler of a distinguished but impecunious man. After a careful examination of the patient he could discover no symptoms of illness, and was astonished when the butler, in a confidential whisper, said: "It's all right, doctor, there's nothing wrong with me. His lordship owes me $50 in wages and I'm going to stay here in bed till I'm paid.

"A darned good idea," said the doctor. "Move up; he owes me $500."

Electricity brings you a DOZEN HELPING HANDS

for only ten cents a day!

You'd need a dozen helping hands to perform all the jobs in your household now done by electricity. And if you had to hire extra help to do this work, you'd appreciate even more how LITTLE it costs you to do those jobs electrically.

Washing and ironing clothes, furnishing news and entertainment by radio, making toast and coffee, keeping time, vacuum cleaning rugs and drapes, in addition to lighting your homeelectricity performs all of these tasks at a cost of 10c a day or less for many families. See how inexpensively these electric servants work for you (figured at 21/4c net per unit-the thrifty "bargain" step in your residence rate): ELEC-TRIC CLOCK 31/2c a month, VACUUM CLEANER 4c a month (used 20 minutes a day), WASHER 6c a month (used 2½ hours a week), ELECTRIC IRON 1c an hour, FOOD MIXER 1/5c an hour, WAFFLE IRON 11/2c an hour, HEATING PAD 1/10c an hour, REFRIGER-ATOR 16c a week, TOASTER 6c a month (used 5 minutes a day).

Probably nothing you buy today gives you so much in return as your electric service. It is one of the few things that has not increased in price. For 10c a day, would you go back to beating rugs by hand, scrubbing clothes on a washboard, cleaning oil lamps, using a sad iron, and all the other hours of drudgery of fifty years ago?

Our Freedom Is Priceless

By JOSEPH E. DAVIES Former Ambassador to Russia and Belgium.

(Written for the Treasury Department a connection with the Retailers' "SAY 183" campaign to complete the nation's 19,009,000 partially filled War Stamp thams.)

What I myself saw in my four years in Europe gave me a new realization of the priceless rights which we here enjoy.

No secret police can in the night whisk us away, never again to be seen by those we love. None of us can be deprived by any party, state or tyrant of those preclous civil liberties which our laws and our courts guarantee.

None of us can be persecuted for practicing the faith which we found at our mother's knee. None of us can be persecuted, tortured or killed because of the fact that an accident of fate might have made us of the same race as the Nazarene. No American can be placed by any party or government in a regimented vise which takes from him or her either freedom of economic opportunity or political religious lib-

What would the millions of unfortunate men, women and children in Europe give to be able to live and enjoy such a way of life?

Well, in this war, those are the things in our lives which are in jeopardy. Our boys are dying to preserve them for us. Then we can do no less than to "say yes" and fill those war stamp albums. It is our duty and privilege to help the secretary of the treasury, Mr. Morgenthau, in his magnificent effort to do the tremendous job of getting the money to keep our boys supplied with the weapons with which to fight our fight. Surely that is little enough for us to do on the home front. U.S. Treasury Department

Reticence: When a dozen soldiers, ready for a dip, reached the swim ming pool canteen of the Hotel Paris, which has played host to several thousand service men, they found the pool already in use. At the shallow end, a miss of about six was paddling about with a dog of highly mixed parentage as her companion. Manager John Garrison was summoned. When he called, the miss emerged, apparently not at all embarrassed though she was entirely nude. She didn't belong in the hotel and all he could get from her was an icy stare while the dog, drying itself, gave him a shower bath. Garrison and the soldiers turned their backs and the youngster, using due deliberation, clothed herself. Having dressed, she called her dog and silently vanished into the night.

Musical note: Ensign Richard Korn, young American conductor now in charge of all musical activities for the coast guard at Manhattan Beach, resolutely leaves his scores behind him when taking time off from rehearsals. In his own words, this is why: "Once after calling time out for luncheon, I set out for a restaurant with the score on which we had been working, and propping it up on the table, I alternated between it and the menu. An hour later, I stood before my men with uplifted baton ready for the opening bars of a Brahms variation. I didn't give the signal. Staring un at me from the conductor's stand in nicely embossed script was cream of mushroom soup, pot roast and Julienne potatoes, the complete menu which I had carried away with me leaving the Brahms score on the table for some bewildered diner to puzzie over.

Hobby: There are collectors of almost everything—just received a letter from another reader who seeks miniature penguins-but the only person I've encountered who collects jokers from decks of cards is Miss Wendie Lee of Cincinnati, a brunette eyeful in New York seeking a career on the stage. Miss Lee began her collection when she was about six years old and though she has just turned 20, now possesses more than a thousand different specimens. She has arranged them in books, according to the backs and thus has a book of animals, a book of kings and a book of the various Presidents from Washington to Franklin D. Roosevelt, with several miscellaneous

WEEKLY NEWS ANALYSIS

New United Nations Attacks Predicted As Leaders Determine Grand Strategy: Frenchmen Reach 'Military Accord'; 'Push Germans Out of Russia': Stalin

(EDITOR'S NOTE: When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of Western Newspaper Union's news analysts and not necessarily of this newspaper.) Released by Western Newspaper Union.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT

PRIME MINISTER CHURCHILL

"The President, Prime Minister and the combined staffs having completed their plans for the offensive campaigns of 1943, have now separated in order to put them into active and concerted execution." Official communique at Casabianca.

STRATEGY: On a High Plane

When the initial surprise of one of the war's greatest stories - the Roosevelt - Churchill "unconditional surrender" meeting at Casablanca in French Morocco-had died away. the world waited expectantly for the carrying out of the principles of grand strategy laid down by Allied military leaders. The Roosevelt-Churchill rendezyous was the definite tip-off of big things to come. The Allied leaders made it clear that their countries would dig to the bottom of their resources-if necessary-in order to carry out the extermination of Axis war power as quickly as possible.

From a gleaming white villa near Casablanca came the great news. But only after complete secrecy had officially ended. Correspondents regarded the meeting as one of the best kept secrets of all time. Virtually the entire war staffs of both nations participated in the dramatic 10-day discussions which ended with a press conference. But the presidential air voyage was shrouded in such secrecy that even some cabinet members did not know Mr.

Roosevelt was out of town. No one doubted but that further important developments would stem from the meeting. One of the most widespread predictions is that the North Africa-Mediterranean area will soon be organized into a separate theater of operations. Thus far the United States forces in that area have been part of the European the ater. Separation of Africa and the Mediterranean Basin from the European theater might well be an important factor in the Allied offensive campaigns of the year.

Frenchmen Meet

One of the most important achievements of the conference was the bringing about of a meeting between Gen. Charles de Gaulle and Gen. Henri Giraud. Those leaders of the Fighting French and French Africa announced that they were in complete agreement regarding the liberation of their homeland. But it was regrettably clear that any merging of the two movements or any political alliance between them was far from being realized.

Offensives Will Tell

While the decisions made by military leaders are secret, observers indicated that concrete results would become apparent with new Allied offensives this spring. The basic questions settled appeared to be these: 1. The first great effort must be to drive the Axis entirely from North Africa and free the Mediterranean supply line. 2. If he has not been chosen already, a supreme Allied commander in Europe will be named. 3. The anti-submarine warfare and air war against Europe will be stepped up. 4. Europe will be invaded in one of three ways: Across the Mediterranean, a frontal attack on the channel coast, or a conquest of Norway. 5. Aid to Russia and China will be stepped up as much as possible.

Of immediate interest to the United Nations is the naming of a supreme military commander. The name of Gen. George C. Marshall, chief of staff of the American army, is most frequently mentioned. Many observers believed he had already been decided upon to head the com-

RALLYING CRY: For Russians

"I declare my appreciation to the command and to the gallant troops Forward to the routing of the German invaders and their expulsion over the boundaries of our motherland." So declared Josef Stalin in an order of the day broadcast by the Moscow radio.

His words, urging the Russians to throw the Nazis out of their country, became the rallying cry of the Red army as it pushed forward in the big offensives aimed at Kursk, Kharkov and Rostov. After the fall of these strategic points there were still miles of hard battling ahead, but for the first time since the Nazis started their invasion of Russia there were definite signs that Stalin's plea was not idle thinking.

For everywhere along the farflung front-from Leningrad to the Caucasus-the Reds added momentum to their drive. Russian military quarters estimated that 40 per cent of the Axis effectives had been knocked out by the Red winter of-

At the same time diplomatic circles, revealed that United Nations air and sea supply lines to Russia were getting much better protection than a few months ago because losses on these routes have dropped sharply. One recent U. S. convoy was reported to have reached Russia without loss of a single ship. It was indicated that close U. S. British - Russian co-operation was making this possible.

FARM PICTURE: Incentive Plan

Under terms of the new "incentive" program as announced by Secretary of Agriculture Claude Wickard, U. S. producers stand to pick up an extra 100 million dollars in subsidy payments to be awarded for meeting or exceeding greatly expanded farm production goals. Applicable to soybeans, grain sor-ghums, peanuts, sweet potatoes, flax and dried peas, the program would pay growers of these crops extra benefits for each acre on which they exceed 90 per cent of their goalup to 110 per cent of that goal. These are products which are badly needed in the war effort to meet deficiencies in vegetable oils and proteins for animal feeding and human consumption.

Wickard stated further that added labor and materials will have to be available to farmers if they are to meet the goals of the program.

'Land Army'

As a means to this end Secretary Wickard and Manpower Commissioner Paul V. McNutt released their plans for the mobilization of a volunteer land army of 31/2 million farm workers. These would be gathered from ranks of women, the unemployed, clerks, and nonwar workers from cities and towns.

Aimed at relieving the expected farm manpower crisis, which experts predict will reach its peak in mid-summer, this land army would be gathered by the joint activities extension agents of the department of agriculture and by the field offices of the War Manpower commission.

More than 12 million farm workers will be needed at the height of the farm season, said Wickard. He pointed out that the total farm labor force in December, 1942, was

RATIONING:

Limit Set

With the beginning of rationing but a few weeks away the Office of Price Administration established a five-can-per-person limit as the amount of canned vegetables and fruits which householders might have on hand, without penalty, at the beginning of the point system. This was a drastic cut from the eight to ten cans which it had previously been expected would be al-

When the plan gets under way, persons who have more than the allowable limits will have coupons torn out of their canned goods ration book up to the point value of the goods held in excess. This will be based on one eight-point coupon for each can over five per household member.

Excluded from the count of five cans per person will be cans containing less than eight ounces.

ARGUMENT:

Gets an Airing For weeks Washington has reports of unannounced differences of opinion between Rubber Administrator William Jeffers and other government and military officials over priorities for the synthetic rubber pro-Finally the dispute was brought into the open when Jeffers, in a Baltimore address, lashed out at army and navy expediters in war ηlants.

Congress decided to investigate his charges and Donald Nelson, war producton chief, admitted the fact that a tift in government ranks had resulted over this issue. Most Washington sources knew that President Roosevelt would be required to step in as arbiter in the dispute.

The quarrel centers around steel priorities for synthetic rubber plants. Army and navy officials believe that these plants should be built only in direct relation to the military needs of steel for the production of such items as high-octane gasoline, airplanes, escort vessels and merchant ships. Jeffers contended that the 'production efforts could be worked out in conjunction with one another and without hampering progress in his synthetic rubber program.

LEND-LEASE: Extension Sought

Congress is already considering the extension of the lend-lease act by another year-to June 30, 1944. This early action has been taken to insure an uninterrupted flow of war materials between the United States and our fighting Allies.

Though there are some verbal outbursts expected on the role of Harry Hopkins in the program, even Re publican minority leaders in congress predict approval of an extension for the plan. Two years ago when it was first introduced the United States was not at war and there evolved one of the greatest legislative battles of history over passage of the measure putting the idea in motion.

Representative Sol Bloom introduced the new measure just one day after Edward R. Stettinius Jr., lend-lease administrator, reported to congress on how the eight billion dollar distribution of aid was made to our Allies under terms of the program from March 11, 1941, to the end of 1942.

DRAFT: In Reverse

nation by Undersecretary of War Robert P. Patterson.

Speaking in Chicago, Patterson advocated a post-war selective service system "in reverse" to function as a job placement agency. He explained that war department records catalog each man according to occupation and the demobilization plan would be to inform men about to leave the army of job opportunities in their own fields.

REVOLT:

That France's spark of independence has not been extinguished completely by the cold brutality of Naziism was proved when angry Frenchmen fortified their homes in the old port district of Marseilles, firing on German soldiers who ordered them to evacuate the district. German authorities had ordered the evacuation apparently as a defense measure against possible invasion from North Africa. The move was made after Nazi officials brought up tanks, field guns and infantry.

Concluded from first page.

The same will apply to all items. Salmon and other canned fishes will undoubtedly demand many points while other canned goods may be more plentiful and call for less points. The rare and scarce items will probably be little called for when the rationing program goes into effect as they will demand too many points, cutting down the number available for the necessities. MUST HAVE POINTS

When the program goes into effect the purchaser will furnish the grocer the number of points the items called for from the ration book and the money for the items. The program is supposed to cut down on the amount of bookkeeping for the storekeeper. When meat is rationed it will work under the same system.

Officials state that points allotted to each person will allow them to purchase approximately 35 pounds of canned or packaged fruits and vegetables a year. A can of peas weighs from one pound two ounces to one pound four ounces and other canned goods weigh approximately the same amount. Housewives who have started figuring up how many cans of this and that they will be able to buy are beginning to wish they had canned more last summer and are digging into the cookbook for recipes that do not demand scarce items.

to the light, 'tis shining for thee . . The light of the world is Jesus."

How precious was the truth that thus flooded our souls. Jesus is the light. Just as the sunlight sheds its glory on an awakening world at dawn, so He sheds abroad the light of God in the hearts of men. As this portion of God's Holy Word is studied and taught, may the light break forth on many a soul caught in the bewilderment of this dark world.

But that is only one of the great

But that is only one of the great thoughts around which our lesson centers. As Jesus here reveals Himself as divine, we consider four simple words, each fraught with rich meaning.

1. Light (v. 12).

The text says: "Then space Jesus." When? Just after He had silenced the hypocritical accusers of a woman taken in sin, and had spoken the word of peace to her troubled scul. She was to "go and sin no more" because she had met Him who is the light of the world. They that follow Him "shall not walk in darkness"; they are the children of light, they have the very light of life shining in their hearts and lives.

Not only does Jesus light the believer's heart, but this light shines into all the dark corners of this wicked world, exposing sin and hypocrisy, and showing the way back to God.

II. Salvation (vv. 25-39).

"Who art thou?" That is the question every man must ask and answer as he considers Jesus. Even neglect is an answer—a rejection.

Gommittee—J. N. McAlpine Edgar Ross Maxwell Jensen Coexis and bridges Maxwell Jensen Moved by Supervisor Flackmore that the report be accepted and made a part of our records. Carried.

Supervisor Slatter for Roads and Bridges Committee reports a copyride of Our to Gounty and find our reads and bridges to be in excellent condition.

The following is a report of work completed in addition to the regular main-fleted in addition to swer as he considers Jesus. Even neglect is an answer-a rejection. The answer of Christ in these verses goes to the very heart of the M matter, for He takes the people Oct right to the cross of Calvary. When No they had crucified Him, they would know. Did not the centurion say: "Truly this was the Son of God" (Matt. 27:54)? It is true today that no man knows

Christ until he knows Him as the crucified Saviour. Teacher, Example, Guide-all these He is-but they are not enough, for we sinners need a Saviour. May many today —in Jesus Christ. (3) A result, "The truth shall make you free." Truth always sets free. Men are enslaved because, as in some foreign lands, they have not had the opportunity to learn the truth or because they have rejected

Men profess to seek truth in their research and in the process of education, but without Christ they cannot have real truth. Educational systems which rule Him out are deficient and lead to bondage rather than freedom.

IV. Eternity (vv. 56-59). Taking up their statement that they were Abraham's children (see vv. 33, 37), Jesus enters into the sharpest controversy with the unbelieving Jews of His entire earthly ministry. They were claiming kin-ship with a great man of faith who in his day had looked forward to the coming of Christ (v. 56). Now He was here, and instead of receiving Him as their Messiah they were ready to kill Him.

Not only did they claim Abraham as father, but also God. Jesus told them that in their sin and unbelief they were of their "father the devil." It is possible, then, to be very religious, to follow the traditions of one's fathers, and yet to be children of the devil.

All this led up to their sharp rebuke in verse 57, which denied to Christ anything but an earthly existence and which led Him to the statement of His eternity. He identified Himself definitely and clearly with the Eternal One-the great I AM of Exodus 3:14.

Christ is God, and is therefore 48 "infinite, eternal, and unchangeable 50 in His being, wisdom, power, holi-51 in His being, wisdom, power, holiness, justice, goodness and truth"  $\begin{bmatrix} 52\\ 53 \end{bmatrix}$ (Westminster Catechism).

Report by Deputy Sheriff Earle J. Laur.

Moved by Supervisor McAlpine and supported by Supervisor McAlpine and supported freedom of the soul. Many there are who boast of their independence but who are naught but slaves.

Jesus said: "Whosoever committeth sin is the servant of sin" (v. 34), not its master.

How shall they be freed? Note three things in these verses:

(1) A condition, "If ye continue in my word." This means not only a profession of faith, but a daily appropriation and realization of His truth in life.

(2) A promise, "Ye shall know the truth." The philosophies of men profess to be a seeking after truth, but how few there are who look to the one place where it can be found—in Jesus Christ.

Kathleen Norris Says:

'I'm Writing Bill-'

"The faraway boy, acknowledging this birthday gift, said that not only he himself but every one of his pals liked to listen to the home recorded record, over and over again."

By KATHLEEN NORRIS THEN you write to the uniformed boy you love don't feel that the letter need necessarily be long. Write regularly and briefly. If he is on foreign service send the letter by "V-mail," which is to say by air. Don't let your boy feel himself forgotten.

These letters to our boys are not too easy to write. On one side, we don't want them to think we are lonely and gloomy and on the other, nothing is so desolating to those far away from home as to believe that they aren't loved and missed. It is, for you to be ingenious enough to steer a path between these pitfalls.

Many years ago my father told me that when writing to a regular correspondent it was a good idea to mention time and place. I still find it helps a letter. You give him the whole picture. Tell him that "it is just before dinner; Dad is giving Bingo a walk around the block and Sis is setting the table. I cut a lot of gold and bronze chrysanthemums today, and with the fire and the lamps they make the room look lovely. I'm wearing my old blue jersey, but Sis is going to the movies with Roger—who may be called any day now, by the way-and looks lovely in her black velvet. I can smell cornbread baking and hear the Watsons' baby rebelling against bed time, as usual." That sort of thing takes him back home.

What Not to Write.

On the other hand, what does he get from pages and pages of stuff like this? "Well, I suppose you are surely having an interesting time, it is all but winter here, we listened to the President's speech and sincerely hope this dreadful war will soon be over. Winter is upon us; you will probably have no snow where you are, as climatic conditions differ. There is no news, town as dull as ever, everything is just the same, I am going to work with the Red Cross as usual tomorrow.'

Make your letter a little home magazine. Watch the papers for items that concern the friends he loved or the sports that interested him, and paste the actual clippings, which are much more interesting than your mere quotations of them, in the letter. If there is a good illustrated joke, or a picture in one of the illustrated weeklies that is striking or amusing, put those in,

One mother in our town takes the 32 pages of the Sunday comic sections every week and binds them with gummed paper so that they have some body, and mails them to an adopted soldier in Alaska. Grown persons follow comics with avid enjoyment; every man in the family has his favorite series, and the soldier to whom these bound pages are sent reports that they circulate until they are reduced to rags.

Family Record Great Treat.

Another large family made a record a few months ago and shipped it to the adored son of the house who is far away. Grandfather and grandmothers, cousins, aunts, brother, sisters, brothers-in-law and a few intimate friends brought the participants to 31: one of the girls in the group wrote jingles appropriate to every personality, and the faraway boy, acknowledging this birthday gift, said that not only he himself but every one of his pals liked to listen to it, over and over again.

LITTLE THINGS A frequently quoted defini-tion of morale is that it is "a lot of little things." So is a good letter, and a good letter from home goes a long way toward helping morale. Kathleen Norris tells of the disap-pointed private who asked his mail-sergeant to run through the pile of mail just once more in the hope that the expected letter was there after all. Then he walked away, saying, "Gee, that's funny." It is funny, too; funny that we don't take more time to write, when a letter from home means so much to our boys.

Nothing lifts the heart like the right sort of letter, and nothing creates such a permanent ache of discomfort as the wrong sort. Even at home here, in our protected lives, we all know the little prick we carry about with us all morning when we have heard from poor Carrie, who says that Mama is very blue. The beef and coffee shortages are something awful; George wasn't accepted because of his deafness and the weather has been something awful. And on the other hand, a letter with cheerful news in it, a letter with a laugh here and there, full of affection and confidence and courage, will buoy one for days, even though it comes thousands of miles from across the world, from a writer one may not hope to see for a long, long time.

"D'you mind running through those D's again," a young soldier said in my hearing years ago. We were standing in the camp post office and he was watching the mailsergeant going through a bunch of letters. The man shook his head: nothing for Private Davis.

Little Niece Had Right Idea. "Gee, that's funny," the boy muttered, going away with a little drooping of his khaki-clad shoulders. He was right here in America: his people at home knew where he was. Another man showed me more than once-showed all of us more than once, the letter written by his 12year-old niece. Kate hadn't forgotten him, anyway! Kate had included two snapshots of his Airedale and had informed him that she was learning to cook. She would make an ice-box cake for him as soon as he came home. "Kate's the only one who's written," he said.

The mother of an 18-year-old sol dier sent him a box this Christmas with the usual cigarettes and cookies razor from Dad, fountain pen from Mother. In this box she put 12 small inexpensive gifts so that Tom, if he asked a few pals in for a little Christmas celebration, would have something to give them as souvenirs of the occasion. She remembered that a boy of 18 hasn't outgrown all his small-boy characteristics, and would immensely enjoy the excitement that a distribution of pencils, pens, wallets, pocket-knives, handkerchiefs and garters would create.

Collect Interesting Items. We want them to believe that we are thinking of them all the time, and the best way to do that is actually to think of them constantly, save up bits of good or amusing news for them as we used to surreptitiously carry home to them the small cakes and candy from a party. War to every one of them is a desperate and thrilling adventure, but even the most extraordinary experiences have their long dull stretches.

Head Cold or Allergy? Latest Test Will Tell

ST, LOUIS.-Scientists have developed a dye that within 60 seconds can prove whether a "cold" is due to infection by common cold germs or to allergic irritation, according to Dr. French K. Hansel of St. Louis.

Dr. Hansel described the dye before a meeting of the American Puballergy.

Iron Shells, Poor Arms Used by Nazis in Russia

MOSCOW.-P. Nikitin, Izvestia's correspondent, reported that most of the more than 1,000,000 cartridges the Russians captured in their Caucasus victory were stamped "1942" and were made of iron instead of brass. A large number of unexploded shells and mines fell into Russian hands, he said, and all showed a sharp deterioration in the quality of German arms and ammunition.

Zemke's Final Close Out Sale

Starts Friday Morning, February 5

We have decided this week that rather than sell our stock to an outsider at a low price, we would give the people of Caro and the nearby towns who have patronized us for so many years the benefit of this Close Out Sale with its fresh stocks and greatly reduced prices.

You Can't Afford to Miss This Chance!

Be sure to come in and see our fine line of DRESSES, COATS, SHOES, LINGERIE and NOTIONS. Notice the reduced prices.

Remember we are actually selling out the stock and fixtures to the bare walls and when everything is sold we will retire from the Caro merchandise field.

Rationing Is on the Way!

There is no question now-rationing is on the way. Cotton Dresses are already rationed to the retailer and the supply is very limited. One shoe manufacturer has sent out notices that it is only a matter of weeks before we will be allowed only two pairs of shoes a year. You should protect yourself by buying whatever you need at this time-especially when you can do so at these greatly lowered prices. There is no need of going into detail on prices.

YOU KNOW THE REPUTATION OF THE STORE! YOU KNOW THAT WE ARE ACTUALLY GOING OUT OF BUSINESS!

Every item in the store has been priced accordingly. Come in-see for yourself—then buy!

REMEMBER THIS SALE MUST BE QUICK AND COMPLETE!
