Bean Planting Still at Hand

Bean growers, wondering if it's too late, can go ahead and plant with good prospects of profitable yields. For proof, there's the 49 bushel an acre yield, highest ever obtained at Michigan State College, produced in 1942 at East Lansing from a five acre field planted June 17.

Usually Michigan beans yield best if planted the first two weeks in June. Wet weather this year in the principal bean growing areas has delayed plowing and preparation of the seedbed.

According to H. C. Rafter, head of the Michigan State College farm crops department, the abnormal delay this year need not prevent Michigan growers from planting and harvesting a record crop needed as part of the nation's food resources.

White pea or navy beans constitute 90 per cent of the Michigan crop. Planting date trials indicate many good bean crops have been harvested from fields planted the last week in June. Early July plantings usually yield poorly and often the crop is a complete loss due to failure to mature before killing frost in the fall.

Cranberry bean trials indicate yields from late June plantings nearly equal to those made early in the month. Quality often is less desirable and the later beans are likely to be high in moisture. Cranberry beans should have a long growing season and early June plantings are advised when possible.

Red kidney beans usually yield best if planted June 15 to 20. Rafter reports. Early June plantings often result in severe blight damage, a bacterial disease. Yields are likely to drop off rapidly with red kidneys planted after June 25. Blight-free red kidney bean seed was brought into Michigan from California this year to aid growers.

Gagetown Farmer Had Narrow Escape in Tractor Mishap

Pinned Behind Tractor, He Narrowly Averted Being Crushed.

What probably seemed the longest 25 minutes in his life was experienced by John Meininger, Jr., on Monday morning when he clung frantically to a plow to keep as far away as possible from the lugs of a tractor wheel as it spun in reverse at high speed in loose earth, threatening at each revolution to drag the man imprisoned between tractor and plow under the whirling tractor wheel.

The accident happened near noon Monday on the farm of Meininger's father-in-law, Adam Follman, three miles west and a mile south of Gagetown. Meininger was plowing in the wet soil. He unhooked the plows, drove the tractor to more solid footing and planned to hitch tractor and plow with a chain. As he was backing the tractor to make the connection, the tractor seat came off, throwing Meininger from the tractor and pinning him between it and the plows. The right wheel was stationary but the left wheel kept turning and the lugs nicked the flesh of the driver's side. Desperately clinging to the plow, Meininger kept his body from being drawn under the tractor wheel.

Meininger's brother-in-law, fortunately, happened along and discovered his predicament. He stopped the engine and with the help of three Jamaican farm laborers Meininger was released from his perilous position. He was brought to Pleasant Home Hospital here where he is being treated for a very sore side.

Emergency Farm Labor in Sanilac Co.

Emergency farm labor will be needed shortly in Sanilac County to assist farmers in harvesting the hay crop and other work. Cecil O'Connell, emergency farm labor assistant, is this week asking all service clubs and business men to canvass their communities to sign up every person who would be available by the day or a few hours each day during emergency period. These enrollments become part of the U. S. Crops Corps.

A committee in each community will have charge locally. The committee in most cases is the elevator manager, the superintendent of schools, or his representative, usually the agricultural instructor and some other person selected. Farmers can then contact a local person for this help without going to the county office. It is hoped time and expense can thereby be saved.

Improved Uniform International SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

Lesson for June 20

JOHN DESCRIBES TRUE CHRISTIANS

LESSON TEXT—I John 2:14; 3:13-18; 4:15-17.
GOLDEN TEXT—But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin.—I John 1:7.

Religion and life go together. To hold the tenets of Christian truth in one's head and not to have them move the heart is to deny the very faith one professes. Yet this is the danger which faces the believer—a temptation before which many have fallen. The result is that much of "what passes for Christianity in these days is very thin stuff, very remote from the original" (Shoemaker).

John was not content with such a weak imitation, and in his writings he set up the true standard of a forgiven and transformed life, living itself out in love and sacrificial service. If we have forgotten what God meant us to be in Christ, or are members of a church which has strayed from the true and living way, this lesson affords an opportunity for penitence and works meet thereunto.

The true Christian life must have I. Sin forgiven and life transformed (I John 2:1-6).

Not only at the beginning of the Christian life is sin dealt with and put away, but day by day—yes, moment by moment—we have the cleansing power of the blood of our Divine Advocate.

This is of the utmost importance, for God can only use clean channels for the outflowing of His power and grace to the world. We know our own weakness and the defiling presence of the world. But unlike the unregenerate man, we do not submit and go down; we turn to Christ for forgiveness and cleansing.

The transformation of life which thus comes to the believer is shown in obedience to the commandments of God. In the early church there were those who said that if they only believed in Christ as Saviour it made no difference how they lived—and they have their followers in our day.

Be sure of this, the essential thing in Christian profession is not how you talk about Christ, but how you walk in obedience to His commandments.

Real Christianity will cause us to be

II. Hated by the World and Loved by the Brethren (I John 3:13-18).

The world, that is, unregenerate mankind, hates a genuine Christian no matter how kind and loving he may be. Why? "Because the Christian believer gives the non-believer an uncomfortable sense of inferiority. The presence of high Christian ideals in marked contrast to his own selfish policies arouses his anger and resentment" (Douglass).

The presence of a clean, godly life in a community makes every sinner look that much blacker, and the world, the flesh, and the devil will do everything possible to break down and destroy such a testimony.

We, as Christians, should not be surprised that the world hates us. In fact, we should be troubled if it does not hate us, for if our Christianity really means anything, it is distasteful to a God-hating world. Beware if sinners find nothing in your life which distresses them and convicts them of sin.

In the midst of enmity the Christian is not afraid, for he is

III. Indwelt by God and Unafraid in the World (I John 4:15-17).

A sincere confession of Christ as Saviour brings a man into that close relationship to God which is expressed in the words, "God abideth in him, and he in God" (v. 15).

The full depth of meaning of these words is obviously beyond our limited understanding, but we accept the fact by faith and rejoice in it. We recognize that it means that we are brought by our faith in Christ, into the very center of God's love. Christ, the well-beloved Son, who stands in that blessed place, draws us into the circle and there we stand in Him.

God's love showed itself in the giving of His Son as the Redeemer of the world. It was and is unselfish and sacrificial devotion to the eternal welfare of those who merited only judgment. We do not love until we reflect that quality in our lives.

Such love casts out fear. Fellowship is impossible in an atmosphere of fear, but love rules it out. In Christ we realize that God first loved us, and then our hearts go out in warm devotion to Him.

Not only does the Christian no longer fear the day of judgment, but he is unafraid in the present evil world. This is not because of his own strength or ability, but because through faith in Christ he is "in God," and "as He is, so are we in this world" (v. 17). No more perfect or blessed ground of assurance could possibly be provided. Let us recognize our position in Him, and be strong and unafraid.

Cork Has Special Uses

For years cork has served a number of purposes in which it is not easily displaced. Cork is used to make long stoppers for bottles. In compressed form it provides an inexpensive elastic cushion and essential lining for bottle caps used in sealing liquids with high gaseous pressure such as ginger ale. A milling grade provides a water and oil tight gasket for motor engines; and a low quality or grinding grade is used in making insulation board for refrigeration and other purposes.

Eyes Hamper Enlistment

Eye defects constitute the major cause of rejection of applicants to the air corps.

Inventors Protected

As an incentive to authors and inventors to create new things the Constitution provides that an author or inventor be given the right to own and control, though only for a limited time, the fruits of his creations or discoveries. Patents and copyrights make such creations real property, comparable to a piece of land or an automobile. That is reasonable and just, and it stimulates creative genius by providing an opportunity for earning a reward which would be impossible if every new idea were made available for pirating the moment it was made public.

How 33 years
of research
have made your lighting 1 1c
grow and GROW
and GROW!

The 100-watt lamp you use today gives you just about twice as much light for the electricity you use as the same size bulb in 1910! That's a lot of extra light for your money. But that isn't all, because residential electricity today is costing you only about half of what it did back in 1910. That's what scientific research and development have done for your comfort and for the protection of your eyes when you read or sew or work.

THREE WAYS TO MAKE SURE
YOU USE ALL THE EXTRA LIGHT
SCIENCE HAS GIVEN YOU

1. Avoid glare. Glare from bare bulbs or wrongly placed lamps makes it hard to see with comfort, no matter how much light you have.

2. Avoid shadows. When you read or work in your own shadow you are using only a part of the light that is available. It is just as easy to use it all.

3. Dirt and dust collecting on light bulbs and reflectors can cut your light in half. Clean them regularly.

THE DETROIT EDISON COMPANY

Good Ol' Bossy Earns Her Keep

Dairy cows look like topnotch breadwinners on the average Michigan farm since crop prospects took such a beating from 1943 weather. That leads to a suggestion that the average Michigan cow could well, deserve and get better care, fewer flies and some extra drinking water so that production can continue at a high level.

Trouble with dogs, rough handling or sudden changes interfere with a cow's production, observes A. C. Baltzer, extension dairyman at Michigan State College.

"Milk them fast and on schedule," he suggests. "Some grain in the manger at milking time brings them out of the pasture on schedule. Milking should take five minutes and not more than seven and regularity every 12 hours or an 11 to 13-hour schedule each 24 hours should be observed."

For summer care, Baltzer recommends reducing the fly and mosquito population. Clean barns and a good commercial fly spray are suggested. Fly sprays hover several hours if broken up by an atomizer. Screens on windows keep flies in instead of out, fly traps are better, dark passages impractical, electric screen fly killers are expensive.

Shade is suggested if it is handy to feed and water. For milk alone, a cow needs to have three to four pounds of water for every pound of milk she produces. A 1200-pound cow producing 25 pounds of 4 per cent milk daily needs 30 pounds of dry matter for maintenance and milk production. Every 100 pounds of pasture grass will give her about 75 pounds of water and 25 pounds of dry matter. Six pounds of grain daily will help keep a cow in condition even if the pasture is excellent.

Not Too Late for Vegetables

Farm, suburban and city vegetable gardens still offer good prospects for helping solve the food problem in 1943, advises Paul Krone, chief of the Victory Garden section of the Michigan office of civilian defense and on loan from the Michigan State College horticulture department.

Early lettuce, radishes and green onions may not have been coming out of gardens on schedule and their season is about over.

But, says Krone, there still is plenty of time right now to plan and plant important crops like tomatoes, carrots, beets, corn, beans, potatoes, cabbage, turnips, squash, rutabagas, broccoli and cauliflower.

Peas sown this late probably wouldn't pod well in summer, spinach likely would go to seed in hot weather and in southern counties it's too late to get head lettuce headed before summer heat arrives.

This is a reasonable period on the calendar to put in green and yellow beans and to set out early and late cabbage plants. The early cabbage should take 65 to 90 days to mature. Late cabbage will take about 100 days from transplants.

Beets should be sown now with a second sowing about July 1 and, in southern Michigan, a third beet sowing late in July or early August. The latest beet planting in northern Michigan should be made in mid-July. Rutabagas and turnips should be on the schedule for early July planting, according to Krone.

Finance Defense Costs

Larimer county, Colo., and cities and towns in the county financed all 1942 civilian defense costs through sale of scrap and other salvaged materials. Trucks owned by the city, county and federal governments collected approximately 400 tons of scrap, loading and sorting of which cost $1 a ton. Approximately $3,775 received from sale of the salvaged material at around $9.40 a ton paid for equipment for civilian defense medical units and a central control room, and other costs.

Dehydrate Vegetables

Dehydration or drying of garden products offers one satisfactory means for Victory gardeners to preserve the surplus from this summer's vegetable garden. This year when freezer locker plants will face record demands and when canning equipment will be more difficult to obtain, the homemade dehydrator will provide another means of preserving garden products.

Cellulose Protects Exhausts

The familiar skin-tight cellulose hoods covering bottle caps have found a war job. Airplane manufacturers are using them to protect open ends of fuel and hydraulic pipes during assembly and shipping, guarding against dirt and sabotage.

'43 Ship Output Will Double '42

U. S. Can Build 20 Million Tons If Materials Are Supplied, Says Land.

WASHINGTON.—The American shipbuilding industry has broken every world record for volume shipbuilding and by the end of 1943 probably will "more than double" its 1942 output of 3,000,000 deadweight tons, the marine commission says in its annual report.

This year's goal has already been set at nearly 19,000,000 deadweight tons, the commission reported, adding that this can be stepped up to 20,000,000 tons, the present capacity of shipyards, if materials and supplies are available.

Rear Admiral Emory S. Land, chairman of the commission and war shipping administrator, said the 1942 production did not include some 800 smaller craft and other vessels delivered to the armed services. Up to December 31, 1942, he said, 748 Victory fleet vessels were delivered, including 542 Liberty ships, 62 tankers, 5 ore carriers, 62 long-range program C-type ships, 55 cargo carriers for Great Britain, 5 coastwise ships and 15 special-type craft.

Sounds a Warning.

In addition, he said, shipyards delivered special-type vessels to the army and navy.

The report carries the warning that American shipyards now must not only supply auxiliaries for a seven-sea navy but provide the United States armed forces with "a five-ocean supply coverage."

The report adds that there never has been and never can be, "in the absolute sense," enough shipping to comply with all military and civilian requirements in wartime. Nevertheless, the report says, the merchant fleet to date "has been adequate to transport the vital materials presented for loading at sea."

More than 500,000 men and women are now building merchant ships, the report disclosed, and 800 plants located in 32 states are supplying material for the Victory fleet. More than 80 shipyards, with a total of 300 shipways, are turning out ocean-going tonnage. In these yards about 2,500 ships will have been constructed by the end of 1943.

In addition to the construction job, the nation's yards repaired more than 5,000 vessels in 1942, with the average repair job taking 17 days.

A total of 1,250 ships also were converted under the lend-lease act, and some 1,300 vessels were fitted out for troops, guns and anti-mine equipment.

Ahead of Time.

The report adds that the maritime commission also took over and reconditioned 105 alien-owned vessels last year.

The commission's 10-year plan for building 500 fast vessels, started in 1936, will be completed by the end of 1943, three years ahead of time, the report says.

In the commission's program for training merchant seamen, 15,000 men have received instruction, and former seamen have taken "refresher" courses. Special schools have been established to train 2,000 radio operators.

The report shows just how production was stepped up, once the American shipbuilding industry got into its war stride. Under a war tempo, monthly production is shown to have been stepped up to 713,900 tons in June, 1942, and to 1,200,000 deadweight tons in December, 1942. This production peak beat all ship-construction records. The former top record was made in September, 1919, when 618,896 tons were delivered by American shipyards. The 1942 record also topped the last war's 12-month record of 5,500,000 tons by almost 3,000,000 deadweight tons. Moreover, complete delivery of this tonnage was not made until after the Armistice had been signed in 1918.

Arabs' Dinner Etiquette Baffling to Americans

LARAMIE, WYO.—Richard M. Savares, formerly of Laramie and now an intelligence officer in the army, wrote his family recently describing an Arabian meal in North Africa.

He said all the guests sat on pillows around a foot-high table. A servant poured water over one hand—the right one only—to cleanse it, as it is most used in eating. Savares said he and his companions almost starved because the Arabs eat a chicken, which was the main course, with the right hand only, tearing it apart. The Americans found this difficult.

Savares said the custom then is to wipe the grease from your right hand on the bread and eat the bread.

750,000 Persons Over 60 Now Working in Britain

LONDON.—By way of backing up his recurrent assertion that this country has organized, mobilized and utilized manpower to a greater extent than any other, Ernest Bevin, minister of labor, disclosed that nearly 750,000 men over 65 years of age and women over 60 had gone to work, while 80 per cent of the single women of draft age are in the services, munitions plants or other work of national importance.

State Treasurer D. Hale Braka recently computed the debts of Michigan local governments and produced this good news:

Governmental indebtedness decreased $67,000,000 between June 30, 1941, and June 30, 1942. In seven years local governments have paid off approximately $100,000,000. Out of the $532 million dollar I O U's existing one year ago, $455 millions were in Wayne, Oakland and Macomb Counties—the Detroit metropolitan area.

The governmental units include 6,353 school districts, 1,266 townships, 309 villages, 165 cities and 83 counties.

When new restrictions are imposed on gasoline use in Michigan, don't be surprised. Unless Washington can figure out ways to get more supplies into the East, Michigan motorists will get fewer coupons and the coupon values will be deflated. Invasion requirements are said to be tremendous and shocking. Eastern Congressmen have also raised the cry of "discrimination."

Michigan Republicans are interested in the statement of Wendell L. Willkie, recent visitor in Detroit, that Michigan and Ohio were key states for 1944. Willkie's stock is reported to be increasing here, despite the Owosso boom for Tom Dewey. Possible reason: The war importance of foreign relations.

Bonus recommendation by Governor Harry F. Kelly at Columbus, Ohio: State governments should supplement federal payment to returning servicemen, but only after Washington acts. Kelly's favors an "adequate" bonus payment for every veteran.

The Michigan governor's talk at Columbus stressed the theme, "we won the war and lost the peace," and he urged the Republican party to retreat from isolationism on the premise that "the United States is inescapably a part of world civilization."

Brig. General LeRoy Pearson, state selective service director, announces that 40,000 Michigan men face military service by end of 1943. Approximately 80,000 men have been deferred to date for occupational reasons.

Capt. Donald S. Leonard, state director of civilian defense, objects to federal policies restricting use of gas masks, helmets and similar protective equipment for air raid personnel. Distribution is now limited to cities. Said Leonard: "It is impossible for a bombardier in a plane three miles high to tell where a city ends and an abutting township begins." Leonard has a feud with Washington's OWI for painting a too-rosy picture of the war.

C. W. Lucas, state highway department public relations expert, decided he couldn't work for a Republican commissioner without being tagged as a "turncoat" by his Democratic friends. His new job: Assistant to Manfred Burleigh, president of the Great Lakes Greyhound Lines. Lucas goes to Flint for a year, thence to Detroit headquarters.

Michigan's War Fund campaign next fall will emphasize benefits to Michigan servicemen through the USO.

Beet sugar prospects improve with better weather. Little corn is planted in southern and central Michigan, and livestock feeding problem is bound to become acute by fall. Farmers may resort to cull beans for feeding. . . Governor Thomas Dewey's emergency food committee brings a report of impending "crisis"; plowing 80 per cent completed by June 10 in New York state. . . Farm Bureau in Battle Creek advertises for "farm army"; appeals to high school students and office workers for vacation work.

Disease-free kidney bean is developed in California by state university in cooperation with Michigan State College. A carload of bean seed was recently shipped to Michigan.

Strawberries will get premium prices this year—possibly double, advises Charles Figg, state commissioner of agriculture. . . Cherry prices are due to rise also over 1942. Michigan canners are worried about the labor shortage; ask the regional War Labor Board to grant an increase of 15 cents an hour to cannery workers.

And don't forget to include root vegetables—carrots, beets, potatoes in your Victory Garden! Michigan homes will need food next winter and next spring. Plant now before it's "too little and too late."

Blackout Paint
The technical advisory committee of the state office of civilian defense has announced the perfection of a new method of using paint to black out windows of industrial plants and other buildings which eliminated the possibility that absorption of heat by the paint would cause the glass to expand and break.

Introduce Lawn Bowling
Lawn bowling is said to have been introduced in St. Petersburg, Fla., by Canadian winter visitors.

Use Women as Appraisers
Los Angeles county has mobilized 500 housewives as personal property appraisers. The jobs usually are filled by men. All were put through an intensive training course after their recruitment and, according to a report of the county assessor, are ready to carry out the assessment task as efficiently and as accurately as it has been done in previous years.

Hertel, in Leavenworth, Kansas, and came from that city to Detroit by plane. Today (Friday) Mrs. Holcomb and Mrs. Hertel leave for Detroit where the former will embark on the S. S. When Mrs. Harold Greenleaf accepted an invitation to a party Thursday evening at the home of Miss Agnes Milligan, she was unaware of the fact that the gathering was in honor of her birthday. It was not until almost the end of the evening when guests presented her with gifts that Mrs. Greenleaf learned the real reason for the celebration. Prizes in bunco were won by Mrs. Wm. Martus, Miss Audrey Hower and Mrs. Greenleaf. The hostess served ice cream, cake and coffee to her guests.

Seed and Mrs. Della Lauderbach spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Shaw in Caro and attended the christening of Mrs. Seed's grandson, Donald Ernest Seed, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Seed of Rochester, in the Caro Presbyterian Church Sunday morning. Another baby who was christened in the same service was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Theobald Appel of Caro, the latter being a sister of Mrs. Donald Seed. Sunday afternoon visitors at the W. D. Striffler home were Mr. and Mrs. George Southworth and children, Doris and Duane, of Elkton. Mrs. Ione Sturm of Detroit spent the week end with her parents here.

Birthdays of young ladies in court house offices at Caro are not passed without celebrations. Tuesday it was the anniversary of Miss Lucile Craig, secretary of School Commissioner McComb, and the occasion was observed with a noonday lunch at the fairgrounds when "hot dogs," cold tea and a birthday cake were served.

School Commissioner Ben H. McComb, in an address before the Rotary Club here Tuesday, built his recipe for happiness on the quotation of Alice Freeman Palmer, whose bust is in the Hall of Fame at Washington. Mrs. Palmer, when once asked why she always appeared so happy, replied: "Each day I try to do something beautiful, and try to learn something beautiful." J. A. Sandham introduced the luncheon speaker and Frank Reid served as song leader with Mrs. J. L. Niergarth as piano accompanist.

Ivan Niergarth, who has resigned because he will leave Cass City on June 25 for St. Johns. At a meeting of the board later that night, Mr. Benkelman was chosen church treasurer.

Potatoes Compressed.

A one-pound brick of compressed potatoes—the new-type "nutritional ammunition"—is small enough to slip into a soldier's pocket yet when crumbled in water, makes 24 servings.

Use Ethylene for Ripening. Ethylene was first used for the purpose of ripening oranges rapidly, by putting a tent over each tree or storing the unripe fruit in a room and adding small percentages of ethylene. By using this method of ripening, the fruit could be shipped without loss owing to rotting. The growth of potatoes has been stimulated by ethylene and propylene.

300,000 Heifers Needed. About 300,000 heifers each year are required as replacements for cows in New York state's dairy herds. But 20 to 25 per cent of the annual calf crop is lost each year. Calf scours and calf pneumonia take a heavy toll.

Miami Swims in Pools, Too. Although Miami Beach, Fla., has more than nine miles of ocean frontage available for bathing, there are more than 70 swimming pools within the city limits.

Natives Fool Spaniards
In 1571 the Spaniards entered the Bay of Manila and, to their surprise, were greeted by cannon fire from the citadels of two fortified towns. Antonio de Morga, a Spanish writer, relates that long before the arrival of the Spaniards, the Philippine Islanders had bronze culverins and cast iron pieces for defense. When the Portuguese took Malacca, in 1510, they captured 3,000 artillery pieces, 2,000 of which were bronze, the rest iron.

Ideas Pay
War workers' production ideas saved 1,250,000 man-hours in a big manufacturing plant in 1942. A record $158,943 was paid last year for 16,204 suggestions adopted of $3,945 submitted. Besides the time, the suggestions adopted saved more than a million pounds of steel as well as large quantities of aluminum, copper, stainless steel, tin, chromium and other vital metals.

PARAGRAPHS ABOUT FOLKS IN SERVICE

Road. Nye was one of two phone men who attempted to keep the line working back to the advanced battalion post. The Detroit News published a copyrighted series of articles concerning the "Lost Company" and one of the stories told of the heroic work of Nye and his companion. Mr. Nye is a nephew of Mrs. Alex Slack of Deford.

Louis O'Connor has returned to Great Lakes, Ill., after enjoying a leave of nine days with relatives in Pontiac and Cass City.

Pvt. Kenneth Dale Denevan, 18, son of Lester Denevan of Muskegon, Mich., has arrived at the infantry replacement training center at Camp Wolters, Texas, to begin his basic training as an infantryman.

A group of Tuscola County men will go to Detroit on the morning of June 25 to receive their final physical examinations previous to induction into the Army. On June 22, a group of Tuscola men will go to the state hospital at Wahjanga to receive their first physical tests.

"The Army is grand; tomorrow we start classes," writes Aux. Emily B. Kildan from Ft. Devens, Mass., to Mrs. Mildred E. Rowe, secretary in the office of civilian defense at Caro. Miss Kildan was employed by the Mayville Manufacturing Co.'s defense plant at Mayville previous to joining the WAACS. A brother, Sgt. Frank Kildan, is now in the Army.

In a letter informing the Chronicle of his correct address at Indian-town Gap, Military Reservation, Pa., T. S. Thomas I. O'Connor writes: "Surely enjoy the Chronicle. It's come along pretty regularly, perhaps a bit belated at times, for nearly two years." He is at present spending a week's furlough with relatives and friends here and in Pontiac.

Matt Anthony Myslakowski, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Myslakowski, Route 1, Cass City, recently inducted into the U. S. Navy, has been assigned to the U. S. Naval Training Station, Great Lakes, Ill., where he is now undergoing a period of recruit training. He will be given eight weeks of instruction stressing physical conditioning, the fundamentals of seamanship, and an indoctrination into Naval customs and procedure. Upon completing recruit training he will be granted a nine-day leave, after which he will be assigned to a Navy service school for specialized training, or be sent directly to active duty at sea or at a shore station.

The paragraphs below are taken from a letter written by Pfc. Ralph L. Stone in England and addressed to Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Kercher. Pfc. Stone is a son of Mrs. Gladys Stone of Cass City.

"I get the Cass City paper every now and then and enjoy reading the news of what's going on back home. We have a swell radio here in the hospital and get stations from all over the world on it, and we keep tab on the news every day."

"I got the paper this week and read that your son was on a leave and came to visit London and Scotland. He is right when he says London is o. k., but it is too big and hard to get around in. I went to London on a leave a few days ago and I surely saw a lot of interesting sights, but one needs about a year or so to see it all and then he would have missed about half of it, I bet. I have been over here in England now nearly a year and have been around to quite a few places. There are a lot of places in this old world I would like to see before this is over."

"I am in the medics as first aid man. I work in the hospital at present and like my work very much. I am in charge of quarters today and have just two fellows to look after."

"It looks as if we might get some rain today. We have been having some very nice weather of late but the crops surely can use some rain."

"I have received some letters from home saying that you certainly had some weather there last year and lots of rain this spring. I bet it's hard on the farmers with so much bad weather."

"I hope this letter finds you all well. As for myself, I am just fine."

Colorado Has Weather Range
The great range of altitude in Colorado makes possible wide selection of temperatures. It is possible to obtain a divergence of three degrees a thousand feet, so that in a trip from mile-high Denver to Leadville the visitor would find approximately 15 degrees of variation.

FUN FOR YOUR FAMILY

By MISS ABBIE CONDIT
National Recreation Association.

If you have a houseful of lively youngsters on hand, it's time to start planning now for a "safe and sane" Fourth of July. Nothing serves the purpose better than a party—with enough fun and excitement to make the old-time firecrackers look tame!

Here are some games to get the party started:

Red Hot Shooting Cracker. A knotted handkerchief represents the red hot shooting cracker. All players but one stand or sit in a circle. The players quickly toss the red hot shooting cracker to one another. No one must keep it even for a moment. While the players toss the cracker wildly about, "it" in the center tries to get it back into his possession once more. When he succeeds in doing this the player who last threw or touched the red hot shooting cracker must exchange places with him and so become "it."

The March of the Minute Men. Players line up facing one direction. A goal line is fixed some distance ahead of them and "it" stands on the goal line. The players may walk toward the goal line but only when "its" back is turned. When "it" turns and faces the players they must instantly stop and assume statue-like positions. This pose is held until "it" again turns his back to the players, when they may advance. "It" should turn suddenly and surprise the players. If he sees any one moving or walking along after he turns, he may send that one back to the starting point. The first player to cross the goal line wins the game.

WALKER-KRUG RITES AT ST. COLUMBKILLE CHURCH ON MONDAY

over light blue satin and Miss Glaza's dress was of light pink taffeta. Both carried arm bouquets of delicate pink carnations.

The groom was attended by Frank Bukoski and Edward Glaza, both of Ublly.

The mother of the groom was dressed in green with white accessories, and Mrs. Walker appeared in black with white accessories. Both wore corsages of pink and white carnations.

Following the ceremony, a wedding dinner was served at the home of the bride's parents to about 50 relatives of the bride and groom. The table was centered by a three-tiered wedding cake. That evening a reception was held at St. Andrew's parish hall which was attended by approximately 350 guests who came from Bay City, Pinconning, Bad Axe, Detroit, Rochester, Crosswell, Peck, Elkton, and Caro.

After a short wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Krug will reside on the groom's farm north of Ublly.

It is interesting to note that the bride chose for her wedding day the thirty-second anniversary of her parents' wedding day and the fifth anniversary of her sister Edanna's marriage to David Sweeney.

old Bierlein, brother of the groom, and Howard Buchinger. Little Miss Arlene Bierlein, niece of the groom, dressed in white net over taffeta, acted as flower girl and carried a colonial bouquet. Lloyd Bierlein, nephew of the groom, dressed in a khaki army suit, was ring bearer, carrying the rings on a blue satin pillow with matching streamers.

A dinner for the bridal party was given for the immediate families at the home of the groom's brother, Herman Bierlein, in Reese following the ceremony.

A reception in the afternoon followed the dinner.

The bride was graduated from the Cass City High School in 1941 and Tuscola Normal in 1942. She was engaged as teacher of a school near Vassar the past year.

The groom was employed at the Frankenthum Plant at Frankenmuth prior to his induction into the Army on Oct. 29, 1942.

Mrs. Herman Bierlein and Mrs. Oscar Bauer were hostesses at a shower given for the bride before the wedding. A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents on Monday evening.

center nearest them. Men who wish to apply for farm jobs should also apply at the nearest center.

Townpeople, men, women, boys and girls, 14 years of age and over, are also urged to apply at these labor centers for farm jobs. There will be a demand for both part time and full time farm workers. If you can work on a farm this summer (for any length of time), the committee urges you to register your name now at one of the 11

Bunker Hill. Players are divided into two teams. One team is to defend a small American flag which they have placed on top of an improvised fortress behind them. (It may be put on top of a stake driven into the ground or on top of a ladder, etc.) When the offensive team is ready, it attacks the defending team and tries to break through and take the flag. If they succeed, it counts as a battle for that side and they become the defending team and the other the attacking team. (Note: Each member of the defending and the attacking team wears a handkerchief or bandana around his head. As soon as a player has his taken off he must get out of the game. If the two teams wear different colors it would be better. The team having the most players left at a given time limit wins.)

Fourth of July Race. Ten or more players, as space permits, line up side by side on starting line. About 100 feet distant from and parallel to the starting line, place a finishing line.

The interest and suspense in this race are brought about by the changing of the direction in which players run. On the signal "go" players run toward the finishing line. When referee blows his whistle, players must turn around and run in the opposite direction, running until the whistle blows again, at which time they must again turn and go in the opposite direction. Every time the whistle blows players

FDR: Retaliation if Axis Uses Gas; Allied Confidence Rises as Air-Sea Forces Pound Mediterranean Islands; Heavier Taxes Will Fight Inflation

EUROPE:

'Mellow Light'

Even as Prime Minister Winston Churchill had declared that the "mellow light of victory" was already playing on the Allies, the Axis had been tensely alert for the long-promised invasion of Europe.

Axis communiques had early reported attempted Allied landings on "stepping stone" islands between Africa and Italy. First of these was the Rome and Berlin radio reports of a Commando movement on the tiny island of Lampedusa, bordering the Tunisian coast. Then came the Rome communique announcing that the garrison defending beleaguered Pantelleria had been called on to surrender by Allied forces. Pantelleria had experienced a pounding such as even Malta had not suffered, for here the devastating Allied bomb onslaughts from the air had been accompanied by withering bombardment of Italian positions by unopposed Allied naval forces.

Never before during the war had Prime Minister Churchill spoken so confidently as during his report to parliament concerning the European situation in which he described the amphibious operations of a "peculiar complexity" against the enemy. Concerning the Allied air offensive which observers had termed the actual first phase of the invasion, he declared that nothing will turn the Allies from their intention of accomplishing "the complete destruction of our foes by bombing from the air, in addition to all other means."

TAXES:

New Levies Ahead

With the pay-as-you-go bill now operative under presidential approval, congressional leaders began consideration of additional tax sources to meet the administration's request that new tax measures be undertaken as a means of closing the inflationary gap caused by the nation's tremendous purchasing power.

While President Roosevelt had left up to congress the type of new taxes to be adopted before summer recess, he expressed his opposition to a general sales tax on the grounds that it would impose too heavy a burden on the poorer people. While a compulsory savings plan is not necessary now, the President indicated that ultimately a combination of enforced savings and taxes would be required to meet his original budget request for $16,000,000,000 in new revenue for fiscal 1944.

The Federal Reserve board recently estimated excess purchasing power at $35,000,000,000.

SUBSIDIES:

Grange Head Demurs

Albert S. Goss, master of the National Grange, predicted that if the government employs subsidy payments to roll back food prices, "the nation is headed directly for inflation and inevitable chaos."

The farm leader added that in his belief, a system of price controls by subsidy would lead to a food shortage for America and her allies.

Testifying before a senate agricultural subcommittee, the Grange master predicted that a 10 per cent roll back in the retail prices of butter and meats, already ordered, would discourage production. "There are indications already," he said, "that the butter and milk output are being reduced substantially." Mr. Goss contended that instead of the present price control system as a control of inflation, an effort should be made to bring supply and demand into balance.

GAS:

FDR Warns Axis

President Roosevelt served blunt notice on the Axis that the use of poison gas against any one of the United Nations would result in swift and full retaliation by the United States with "terrible consequences" to enemy munitions centers, seaports and other military objectives.

This was the third time in 12 months the President had warned the Axis that the use of gas would be a fatal boomerang. He said evidence was "being reported with increasing frequency from a variety of sources" that the enemy powers were making "significant preparations" indicative of an intention to use poisonous or noxious gases.

Observers who noted that the President's warning was similar in character to one issued by the British government recently, believed he had both Germany and Japan in mind.

RUSSIA:

Tactics in Reverse

Using tactics in which the Allies had given them bitter lessons in Western Europe, the Nazis employed their waning air force in massed bombing attacks against Russian armament factories.

Typical of this effort were the attempts to wreck the giant Gorki works, 250 miles east of Moscow. While German and Soviet communiques differed on the extent of the damage, both agreed that the attacks were of a ferocious nature. Moscow radio admitted that casualties and some damage were caused, but maintained that German reports were grossly exaggerated.

Retaliatory raids were made on a big scale by Russian bombers which attacked the Unecha junction on the Bryansk-Gomel railroad, blowing up munitions dumps and fuel stores.

Meanwhile in the midst of counter claims about opposing losses in the Caucasus, a German transoceanic agency broadcast predicted a big Russian attack on Novorossisk.

ARGENTINA:

Neutral for Present

The kaleidoscopic revolt in Argentina that had produced two new presidents in almost as many days had not shown the same speedy results with respect to the abolition of Argentina's policy of neutrality toward the Axis.

This latter was evident when the government of President Pedro Ramirez was pledged to an international policy of "neutrality for the present" and "loyal co-operation with nations of the Americas in conformance with existing pacts."

The Ramirez regime succeeded the brief provisional government of Gen. Arturo Rawson, who resigned after ousting isolationist President Ramon S. Castillo in an army-supported revolution.

Scanning the new government's personnel for possible clues as to future international policy, observers noted that President Ramirez's new cabinet included eight military men to only one civilian.

PACIFIC:

U. S. Airmen Strike

Allied airmen continued to strike heavy blows at Jap positions from the Aleutians clear across the Pacific to Central China.

Kiska was again the target of the Aleutians assault, with Allied Liberators and Vega Venturas joining in the battering drive against this last enemy outpost in the archipelago. Over in the Solomons, Choiseul island and the Munda air bases were attacked by American planes. In New Guinea, Allied attack planes supporting ground forces in the Mubo area strafed enemy positions on strategic Green's Hill.

American and Chinese air superiority in the middle Yangtze valley continued to be manifest, as fighters from both forces swept over the Huphe-Human battle area without meeting opposition.

FATHERS:

Work or Fight Mixup

A misunderstanding over the details of the War Manpower commission's "work or fight" edict had been responsible for the induction of some fathers into military service in violation of draft regulations, WMC Chairman Paul V. McNutt revealed.

Mr. McNutt pointed out that the "work or fight" order had directed that fathers and others of draft age with dependents be inducted if they were employed in any of the 70 "nondeferrable" occupations listed by the War Manpower commission. Selective service regulations prohibited the drafting of fathers not in deferrable jobs.

PLEDGE:

'Exploitation's End'

A world freed from international exploitation was listed by President Roosevelt as one of the postwar objectives of the United Nations.

The President declared that better use of human and natural resources must be assured in the postwar world if living standards are raised, continuing, "and I may add—the better use of these resources without exploitation by any nation."

Speaking to delegates from the recent United Nations Food conference, Mr. Roosevelt summed up "our ultimate objective" in this manner:

"It is to build for ourselves a world in which each individual human being shall have the opportunity to live out his life in peace; to work productively, earning at least enough for his actual needs and those of his family; to associate with the friends of his choice; to think and worship freely; and to die secure in the knowledge that his children, and their children shall have the same opportunities."

SLAUGHTER:

Nazis Massacre Dutch

Out of tightly censored Holland came news of fresh Nazi atrocities. These latest reports concerned the killing of thousands of Dutch citizens in mass executions following a general strike that had halted all activity for nearly a week. They were made public by the Office of War Information.

Allied sources learned that the strike had started when Nazi authorities announced that all members of the former Dutch army paroled in 1940 would be sent to Germany to work in Nazi war factories. Within an hour, reports said, factories, shops, public offices and even courts stopped. Within a few hours public services and transportation ceased to function.

Ruthless executions then were undertaken by the Germans. Bodies of the slain Dutch patriots were left where they fell in public squares and outside cities. Work resumption was eventually ordered by "Good Patriots" in order to avoid further slaughter.

AIR FREIGHT:

Plans for Future

Prophetic of the future, the civil aeronautics board received a request for a charter for a vast network of aerial freight lines serving the United States and many foreign countries.

The petitioner, the Keeshin Air Freight company, asked authority to serve 200 major cities in this country as well as many points in foreign countries through an exchange of freight at 18 "gateways."

Wanted: 3,500,000 Extra Farm Workers

"City Folk" have proved that they can be effective part-time farm workers. Men and women from offices, stores, and factories—3,500,000 of them—are needed to harvest the 1943 crop. The workers in this picture were recruited by the American Women's Voluntary Services whose Land Army is being raised in cooperation with the U. S. Crop Corps.

Bill for Crop Research
The 701st bill introduced in the new congress was a special measure for new crops research. It carries an appropriation of $2,000,000 for use of the United States department of agriculture and the state experiment stations in conducting surveys, both in foreign countries and in the United States, of seeds, bulbs and plants which may prove useful for chemical and industrial uses and in experiments toward adopting such new plants for crop use.

Urge Use of Clover
The use of sweet clover should be greatly increased under the present emergency plan of short crop rotations. Sweet clover maintains soil productivity under such conditions better than does any other legume. All legume seeds should be inoculated.

YOUR SUNDAY DINNER
(See Recipes Below)

ESPECIALLY FOR DAD

Sunday, June the 18th, is the day you want to especially prepare DAD's favorite foods—for it's Father's day—and don't forget it. The favorite of all men is a good tasty meat pie—so the suggestion for the main course is a delicious individual meat pie. Dad doesn't like to bother much with side dishes of salad, so place his salad right on the plate with the rest of the meal. He likes a cole slaw stuffed tomato. Buttered carrots and peas are the vegetables. Because he is so fond of blueberries, it's blueberry muffins to go with the meal, and blueberry ice cream cake for dessert.

This week's menu is properly balanced for nutritional value. It supplies:

The appetizer: Carbohydrates, minerals, Vitamins A, B, C, and G. The Meat: Proteins, phosphorus, Vitamins B, B-1; fats, carbohydrates in crust.

The Vegetables: Minerals, Carbohydrates, Vitamins A, B, C, and G. Muffins and butter: Vitamins A, B, C, and G, minerals, carbohydrates.

Salad: Minerals, Vitamins A, B, C, and G, carbohydrates and fats. Dessert: Carbohydrates, minerals, fats, Vitamins A, B, C, D, and G. To Serve 6 You Need:

- 1 can apricot nectar
- 1 can pineapple juice
- 2 lbs. lamb shoulder
- 2 bunches carrots
- 1 No. 2 can peas
- 6 tomatoes
- 1 small head cabbage
- 2 pints blueberries
- 1 pint ice cream

(Balance of materials among staples)

Individual Lamb Pies.
2 lbs. shoulder of lamb
2 small onions
3 tablespoons flour
1 1/4 teaspoons salt
2 1/2 cups milk
Butter Pastry

Trim the lamb, cut in small cubes and brown in a hot frying pan. Add the chopped onion and cook until light brown, stirring constantly. Add the flour and salt and mix well. Stir in the milk gradually. Cover and cook over low heat for about 45 minutes or until the lamb is tender. Add the pastry and place in individual pie tins or cut in six five-inch rounds and place pans. Fill with the lamb mixture and brush the rims of the pastries with milk.

Top each pie with another round of pastry. Crimp the edges and cut slits in the top for the steam to escape through. Brush each pie with milk or cream. Bake in a 425-degree F. oven for 25 to 30 minutes or until the crust is evenly browned. Lift gently from the pan and serve.

LYNN SAYS:

Dad's day might be the one day when Dad would really like to try his hand in the kitchen. How about some feathery light biscuits to go with dinner? They're an easy trick if you just put out the ingredients for Dad, along with one of those big bowls and a spoon. Now sift 2 cups of flour, 2 teaspoons of baking powder, and 1/2 teaspoon of salt. Cut in 4 tablespoons of shortening, and then add about 3/4 of a cup of milk gradually. Stir until a soft dough is formed, not too long, though, or the biscuits will be tough. Turn the dough on a slightly floured board, pat to a 1/2-inch thickness, and cut with a floured biscuit cutter. Pop them into a hot oven (450 degrees) on an ungreased baking sheet for 10-15 minutes. Dad will probably like the large biscuits, so better give him the large cutter. The recipe will make about 12 biscuits of that size, or 16 of the smaller ones. Can't you just see him beaming over a plate of hot, flaky biscuits he made all by himself?

Butter Pastry.
1 1/2 cups flour
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon baking powder
1/2 cup butter
3 to 5 tablespoons milk

Mix and sift the flour, salt and baking powder. Cut in the butter with two knives or rub in with the fingertips. Add milk slowly, tossing the mixture together lightly and use only enough milk to hold the ingredients together.

Blueberry Muffins.
2 cups sifted flour
4 teaspoons baking powder
2 tablespoons sugar
1/2 teaspoon salt
2 eggs, beaten
1 1/2 cups milk
3 tablespoons melted butter
1 cup blueberries.

Sift dry ingredients together. Combine eggs, milk and shortening and add to dry ingredients, stirring only until moistened. Fold in blueberries. Pour into greased muffin pans and bake in moderately hot oven (425 degrees F.) for 25 minutes. Makes 18 muffins.

Blueberry Ice Cream Cake.
1/4 cup butter
1/4 cup sugar
1 egg
1 cup flour
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 1/2 teaspoons baking powder
1/4 cup milk
1 1/2 cups vanilla
1 1/2 cups blueberries
Vanilla ice cream

Cream the butter, add the sugar gradually and cream thoroughly. Add the egg and beat well. Mix and sift the flour, salt and baking powder and add to the first mixture alternately with the milk. Add the vanilla and pour into a buttered cake pan about 8 inches square. Sprinkle blueberries over the batter and bake in 375 degree F. oven for 30 minutes. Cut in squares and serve warm with ice cream and warm blueberry sauce.

Blueberry Sauce.
1/2 cup sugar
1 1/2 tablespoons flour
1/4 teaspoon salt
3/4 cup water
1 cup blueberries
1 tablespoon lemon juice
2 teaspoons butter

Mix the sugar, flour and salt in a saucepan, and add water and blueberries. Cook over low heat, stirring constantly until thickened. Stir in lemon juice and butter.

SERVING HINTS:

Place individual pies right on the serving plate. The tomato cole slaw salads may be arranged on lettuce leaves on a platter and each person can serve himself from this platter. Peas and carrots always offer a good color combination. Arrange them in a bowl tossed together or separately arranged with carrots in the center and peas surrounding the carrots.

The dessert had better be served in a rather deep dessert dish. Place a square of cake in each dish, then top with a ball of ice cream. Over all pour the rich looking blueberry sauce. Prepare this dessert just before it is to be served. The whole family will love it.

USE OF LEFTOVERS:

Here's what to do with that bowl of leftover vegetables. Say you have peas, carrots and mashed potatoes. This is a fine combination for Vegetable Puffs. Mix 1 cup leftover mashed potatoes with 2 eggs, 3 tablespoons milk, 1 teaspoon baking powder, 1/4 cups peas, carrots, mashed, 1/4 cup flour and 1 tablespoon chopped parsley. Mix thoroughly together and drop by teaspoons into hot deep fat—350 degrees F. Cook until brown. Drain on absorbent paper. Makes 8 (Released by Western Newspaper Union.)

Bombers See White Best

White and very light colors on buildings are more readily visible to enemy bombers than buildings painted in darker tints. White is visible from 6,500 to 10,000 feet in moonlight, while a neutral yellowish gray is visible only from about 1,600 feet or 2,300 feet under fares.

Miracle on Farm Front To Meet Food Goal

Conservation Farming Proving to Be Godsend

Total war requires total production. This is as true of essential crops as it is of armaments, and the miraculous achievements of factories are being matched by miraculous production on the farms of America to meet greater food goals. The big objective of World War I was, as today, to win the war, and all efforts were toward increased food production on American farms. However, the methods being used today differ from the methods used then, because farmers have learned a bitter lesson. They helped win the last war, but many lost their farms and their livelihood in the aftermath.

From earliest days there has been a mistaken idea that increased production meant a natural increase in soil ruined. There were a few progressive farmers who raised their voices early for action against soil erosion but their attempts were futile. As long as there appeared to be that inexhaustible supply of new land just beyond the western horizon, men preferred to leave the ruined land behind them, and to exploit new frontiers.

World War I created a sudden and abnormal demand for more food, with the emphasis on wheat. Agriculture's answer was increased food production through increased acreage. Wheat alone jumped from 47 to 74 million acres during and immediately following the war era. The increased acreage resulted from a big "plow-up" of land which in turn brought about the big "blow-up" from the dust bowl about 10 years ago.

When the black fog of dust winged its way across the sky and darkened eastern cities as far as the Atlantic seaboard, America realized that something drastically wrong had happened to its agriculture. Then the time was ripe, although late in the battle against soil erosion, for conservation farming to get its start. Adapting and improving the techniques of the early soil erosion pioneers, the work of the Soil Conservation service and the AAA has proved a Godsend to the United Nations in the present crisis. Because land is the farmer's chief business asset and because land is indispensable to the national welfare, the national farm program includes conservation as one of its objectives.

Curculio Threatens 1943 Peach Crop

Peaches are in grave danger of being destroyed by the curculio, if prompt and decisive control measures are not taken, says Dr. Clyde F. Smith, associate entomologist of the state experiment station at North Carolina State college.

He reports that about ten times as many beetles are being found this year as compared with 1942 and that growers will have more wormy peaches at harvest time unless they use every possible means of controlling the curculio.

Dr. Smith makes four suggestions for controlling the beetles and he says that all four methods should be used. First, collect and destroy as many adult curculios as possible by jarring the trees. Second, follow a proper spray program. Third, pick up and destroy all drops. Fourth, cultivate under the spread of the trees, as soon as wormy peaches cease to drop.

Farm Notes

When young pigs are old enough they should be pastured on clean ground—pastures which have been freed of worms and disease organisms by plowing.

Most farms have more than one type of soil which, with a rearrangement of field boundaries, could grow hay or pasture crops more efficiently than they do at present.

Father's Day—and Father's Job

Time was when Father's day observance was a more or less standardized procedure. It meant a day of leisure complete with pipe, slippers, and the usual assortment of gift ties and/or handkerchiefs.

Times have changed. This year, when father has his annual day of homage on June 20, he probably will spend it following up on his early spring Victory Garden plantings. He will be getting healthful exercise combating weeds and bugs in his Victory Garden. Too, those follow-up plantings of vegetables mean a continuous supply of garden fresh food. And father, with an eye on his pocketbook, is willing to exchange his day of rest for a few hours profitably spent in his garden.

Charles Rohr.
Charles Rohr, 86, for over a half century a resident of Novesta Township, passed away Saturday morning at a convalescent home in Caro where he has lived since January, 1941. Funeral services were held at the Douglas Funeral Home in Cass City Monday afternoon and were conducted by Rev. S. P. Kirm, pastor of the Evangelical Church. Interment was made in Elkland cemetery.

Chas. Rohr was born in Jonesville, Michigan, in March, 1857, and on July 4, 1884, was united in marriage with Miss Johanna Sedelbauer. They moved to Novesta Township to the farm Mr. Rohr had purchased in 1881. There they lived except for a few years spent in Maryland and a short time in Monroe, until January 21, 1941, when they went to Caro to reside in a convalescent home. Mrs. Rohr died there on April 1st of that year.

Mr. Rohr is survived by a sister who lives in Buffalo.

Mrs. Jas. Hutson.
Mrs. Leona M. Hutson, 66, widow of James Hutson, died Monday night in the home of her daughter, Mrs. Fred C. Krause, six miles west of Yale. Funeral services will be conducted at 2:00 p. m. Thursday in the Keeln Funeral Home in Cass City and interment will be made in Elkland cemetery.

Mrs. Hutson was born Apr. 11, 1876, in Watertown Township, Sanilac County. She and her husband lived for many years in Argyle Township. Later they resided for eleven years in Port Huron, and about six years in Yalo. Mr. Hutson died three years ago last February.

Besides Mrs. Krause, the deceased leaves an adopted daughter, Mrs. Al Scord, of Detroit; three brothers, Andrew Schmidt of Cass City, Arthur Schmidt of Milwaukee, Wis., and Willard G. Schmidt of Pontiac; three granddaughters, Mrs. Wm. Dingwell of Port Huron, Mrs. Walter Jawor of Detroit and Mrs. Richard Brown of Avoca.

Retain Hospitality

St. Cross dole, one of the last remaining instances of the medieval spirit of hospitality, has been reduced at Winchester, England. When visitors to the 800-year-old hospital ask for hospitality they receive only a small square of bread and a sip of ale instead of the slice of bread and brimming horn of ale of preparation years.

Genuine wayfarers seeking charity fare much better. Their allowance has not been cut. It is still a big piece of bread and a half pint of ale from a horn.
