Lena Joos Is Bride of Kurt Hanes

The Evangelical parsonage was the scene of a wedding Saturday afternoon at three o'clock, when Miss Lena Joos, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Joos, of Cass City, became the bride of Mr. Kurt Hanes of Dearborn. Rev. S. P. Kim performed the ceremony in the presence of a few guests.

Paragraphs About Folks in the Service

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Reagh are the proud parents of three sons, all of whom are now serving in the armed forces. The last to enter the Service was Delbert who has been living with his wife and small daughter in Port Huron. He left Friday night for Fort Sheridan, Ill., and from there will go to Miami Beach, Fla., for training in the Air Corps.

Another son and his wife, Cpl. and Mrs. Harry Reagh, of Camp Breckenridge, Ky., came Sunday to spend until Wednesday with his parents here. Wednesday they left for Bay City for a short visit with Mrs. Reagh's parents, then to return to his location.

A third son, Carl Reagh, Specialist 2-C in Chemical Warfare, is stationed at Elizabeth City, North Carolina.

Dean Morrison writes the Chronicle under date of Feb. 12: "I thought that I would take this moment to write and tell you that my address had been changed since I left the states. I also have been promoted from a F-1-C to a MM 3-C. I have been receiving the Chronicle every week since I enlisted in the Navy Sea Bees and have found it very interesting to get all the home town news. I enjoy it down here very much, because I am with A. Carr, who used to be employed at the Cass City theatre before he enlisted in the Navy, and Gaylord Wright, also from Cass City, who is now in the Army here."

Pvt. Harold Creguer made a trip nearly across the continent for an eight-hour visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Creguer. Harold has been stationed in California and has been granted a seven-day furlough but the rest of the time was consumed in travelling. He arrived here at one o'clock Tuesday morning and at nine o'clock he left on his return trip. He was accompanied as far as Detroit by his parents and Vern Gable.

Bureaucrats Not to Blame Says Speaker

The demand of the people for the federal government to intervene in problems of every community and every class, and the ever-growing practice of passing all these problems on to the government at Washington is destroying the principal of local self-government upon which our whole political system is based, Attorney Maurice C. Ransford told Cass City Rotarians Tuesday. The bureaucrat is blamed for representative government withering before our eyes. He is not the cause, but rather the effect of passing problems on to Washington and Washington gladly accepting the responsibilities. Mr. Ransford outlined the growth of federal agencies which are now operating within the county.

He was introduced by Dr. H. T. Donahue, program chairman. M. B. Auten led the luncheon group in several songs and Willis Campbell introduced that recent "classic," "Mairzy Doats," into the Rotary repertory of vocal accomplishments.

J. A. Gallery of Caro, county chairman of the Red Cross War Fund drive, was a luncheon guest.

Primary Date to be Advanced to July 11

Legislature Plans Action to Cancel April Township Elections.

Two important changes in the state's election laws are planned by the Michigan legislature. Gov. Harry Kelly assured 5,300 Michigan townships Wednesday that they may safely abandon plans for their township primaries to name candidates for justice of peace and board of review and for their township elections. Bills adjusting the statutes relating to these offices have not yet reached the governor, but he is informed that they will be enacted in time to cancel the elections and will be signed promptly.

A year ago, Michigan adopted a constitutional amendment extending the terms of most township officers from one to two years. Justices and members of boards of review were overlooked however. Impatient over federal delays, Michigan lawmakers abandoned all effort to make their soldier-vote program conform, and shifted to what is described as a States Rights formula.

Under it, the primary will be advanced from September to July 11, with conventions following immediately, and with 70 clear days to get printed ballots to fighting outposts before the November voting.

This year religious leaders of all denominations point to a resurgence of religion. Part of this is attributed to the impact of war, with servicemen and civilians alike seeking the solace of religion in time of stress. Church leaders express the belief that the tendency will continue to grow, in peace as well as war.

By Guy W. Landon, Secretary.

By displaying a brand of first class bowling, the Landon team was able to win two out of three from Knoblet's and now share in a tie for the league lead. This is the first that the fast moving Knoblet aggregation have lost a series in this schedule and must still be regarded as an ever present threat for league honors. In winning this match, the Landon Five clicked in with a final game of 902 pins which is good for second place. Their three-game pin totals of 2523 also places them second in that department. Their captain's individual donation of 673 pins was a part of the spark that led his team to victory on games of 233, 209, 231. "Mace" Wilson, another team member contributed 581 pins toward the downfall of the Knoblet Five.

McCullough's team took advantage of their session with the trailing Quick pinsters and picked up another three games which was the best record of the week.

Several bowlers hit the pocket for good pin counts to boost their averages. Both Ed Fritz and Croft posted a 600 total apiece; others were Schwegler 585, Wilson 581, Robinson 578, Pinney 555, Parsch 553.

Improved Uniform International SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

Lesson for February 20

JESUS TEACHES TRUE GREATNESS

LESSON TEXT—Mark 9:33-35; 10:13-16, 42-45. GOLDEN TEXT—The Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many.—Mark 10:45.

Ambition to be great is not wrong—provided one has a proper conception of greatness, and seeks it in a right way. Every one of us should be our very best, not for selfish reasons, but for God's glory.

The disciples were earnest and eager to have a place of honor with the Lord in glory, but even in that holy purpose they became selfish and argumentative. Jesus gives several marks of a truly great man.

Greatness Means Being—

I. Not First, but Last (9:33-35).

The way of the world is to seek the place of "No. 1 man"—to be looked up to, honored, and served by all. True greatness takes the last place, the place of a servant; and lo, God regards that as the first place. It is not a question of timid diffidence, or self-effacement, but a willingness to take the humble place, in order to serve all.

II. Not Proud, but Humble (9:36, 37).

"Great" people of this world have no time for children. Let them be cared for by servants, teachers, anyone at all, but not by their "distinguished" parents.

But Jesus said that the one who set aside human pride and received a child with humility of heart and mind—and in His name—received the Lord who gave them life—spiritual as well as physical—and is interested in them; in fact, He is with them and hence when we receive them in His name, He is there!

III. Not Exclusive, but Co-operative (9:38, 39).

John, quick to apprehend spiritual truth, saw in the teaching of Christ concerning the little child the condemnation of something he had done.

The man who casts out demons, or who gives the disciple of Jesus a cup of water, in His name—that is, with true faith in Christ, and in His power, and for His glory—must be a believer. He may not belong to our group or circle, he may not speak our language, he may not use our methods, but if he is serving Christ we should not forbid him or speak evil of him. You and I may not like one another's appearance, or voice, or methods, but let us love and co-operate with one another for Christ's sake!

IV. Not Important, but Approachable (10:13-16).

Some who think they are great, pride themselves on being hard to reach—protected from the rabble and their problems by secretaries and servants.

The disciples had built up such an idea of the importance of Christ in their own minds. He had never given them any ground for it either by word or deed.

So the man who is truly great follows in the Master's footsteps. He is approachable, kind, has time for simple folk and little children. If that isn't true of a man he is not great—no matter what he may think of himself or what others may say about him.

V. Not a Supervisor, but a Servant (10:42-44).

Christianity is not organized after the manner of secular government (v. 42). Much of the mischief that has come to pass in the church is the result of "running the church" as an organization, when it should be allowed to develop as a living organism.

The way up is down. That is always true in the spiritual realm. The Son of man came not to be ministered unto but to minister, yes, to give His very life (v. 45). Shall not those who bear His name walk the same path of humble self-denial?

Anyone who observes with even a little care knows that the church of Jesus Christ is hindered most seriously by the presence of pride and selfish ambition. Some people will not work unless they can rule.

Are there then no Christians who humbly serve the Lord? Yes, praise His name, there are many, and wherever they are found they are the salt of the earth.

VI. Not Unselfish, but Sacrificial (10:45).

The world is full of people who want to be served. Their little personalities swell with pride and pleasure if someone else cringes and bows, and serves.

There is nothing commendable about being served. The great and good thing is to serve.

The Son of man—Himself the Lord of glory, the One who might have called legions of angels to do His will—came "not to be ministered unto but to minister." That service meant going about doing good even when He was exhausted and worn. But it meant far more than that, for it took Him to the cross where He gave "his life a ransom" for us. Are we ready to learn of Him?

Boneless Meat

Some packers plan to bone-cut and cut meat in their own plants after the war. Besides saving shipping costs, bones kept at the packing plant can be made into feed, gelatin, bouillon and so on. Poultry, too, will be eviscerated, inspected, washed under high pressure, frozen and wrapped in a moisture-proof, transparent wrapper ready for your pan or oven. You'll be able to buy a package of breasts, livers or whatever cuts you want, besides a whole chicken.

Madras Fabrics

Early trade in cotton fabrics through the port of Madras, India, gave the town western fame that lasts in madras shirtings. Its leadership in textiles waned as American cotton and weaving machinery came to the fore. Madras still has many cotton mills, but India's industry now is centered 800 rail miles northwest, at Bombay.

A Fortune in Fish

Portuguese fishermen went to Newfoundland Banks for codfish, though home waters teemed with tunnies and sardines, the "makings" of sizable industries in themselves. Exports of sardines totaled about six million dollars annually.

Orange Crop

The world's annual orange crop ranges from 200,000,000 to 250,000,000 boxes. Of this total, the United States produces approximately a quarter. Spain ranks next in importance, with Brazil, Japan, Italy, and Palestine following in order.

Storing Pressure Cooker

When storing a pressure cooker, make certain it is clean and thoroughly dry. Place the lid in a paper bag and turn it right side up on a shelf. Wadded newspaper placed in the kettle will absorb excess moisture and prevent corrosion.

Battle for Italy Grows in Intensity As Allies Close on Supply Routes; Pacific Sea Lanes to China Cleared By U. S. Triumph in Marshall Islands

(EDITOR'S NOTE: When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of Western Newspaper Union's news analysis and not necessarily of this newspaper.) Released by Western Newspaper Union.

Italy—Captured German prisoners are marched through Anzio as bitter battle raged for Allied beachhead below Rome.

EUROPE: Fight for Rome

In the coastal plains 18 miles below Rome, Allied and German forces locked in battle for the Eternal City, while farther to the south, Fifth army troops closed in on the supply lines feeding the enemy forces resisting doggedly in the Cassino area.

While fighting in Italy rose in fury, waves of Allied planes thundered over Europe, pounding the French coast along the English channel to soften the Nazis' concrete and steel defense emplacements and rip their network of air fields, on which they are counting to check invasion forces.

As fighting developed below Rome, the Nazis brought up heavy armored reinforcements to challenge the big Allied army operating along a 30 mile coastal stretch. Both sides threw swarms of planes at each other's supply lines, with the German force demonstrating in strength for the first time during the Italian campaign.

The Germans' hold on battle-scarred Cassino was shaken when Fifth army troops worked their way toward highways over which supplies were being fed to enemy forces hanging on near the town, key to the broad plain leading northward to Rome.

RUBBER:*U. S. Steps From Brazil

After two years of pioneering deep in the sprawling Amazon jungle, the U. S. is pulling out of rubber growing there and leaving the job to Brazil, from whom this government will purchase the material for .60 a pound.

To help develop an accessible source of natural rubber after the Japs overran the English and Dutch plantations in the east after Pearl Harbor, the U. S. decided to rebuild the industry in the Amazon basin, once the world's rubber capital and producer of the seed which was smuggled to the Orient for cheap cultivation there about half a century ago.

Since 1942, the U. S. spent large sums on recruiting workers for the steaming rubber districts, transporting them to the sites, and maintaining them there, with equipment, food and medicine. As a result, rubber cost per pound was supposed to have risen to anywhere from $1.22 to $50 a pound.

POST-OFFICE:*Profit Shown

A money-maker in the 12 months ending last June when it realized a profit of $1,332,349 for the first time in 24 years, the post office department is seeing red again during the current fiscal year.

Supplied by Postmaster Frank Walker to the house committee considering appropriations for the department for 1944-45, figures showed that during the 12 months ending last June, gross postal revenues totaled $966,277,288, of which $964,894,439 was expended. In addition, $122,348,000 of free service for soldiers and government agencies was rendered.

For the fiscal year 1944-45, the house committee recommended an appropriation of $1,105,697,858, an increase of $205,719,248 over the present year.

PACIFIC: China Bound

The Pacific sea lanes to China are being cleared by U. S. army and naval forces for a grand assault upon Japan from bases in that country.

Admiral Chester Nimitz declared in reviewing the quick triumph in the Marshall Islands, where over 12,000 enemy troops were killed to the Americans' General Smith 1,600.

Revealing that U. S. policy was "to get our ground and air forces into China as early as possible" because "I do not believe we can defeat Japan from the sea alone," Admiral Nimitz said: "I believe the Japs can only be defeated from bases in China because they draw food, iron and other supplies from Manchuria and China, and as long as they have access to these they will be difficult to beat."

As Marine Commander Maj. Gen. Holland Smith's troops rung up Old Glory over the Marshalls, U. S. air forces again hammered the big Jap base of Rabaul on New Britain, going after airdromes from which enemy craft have been taking off to blast American ground units on the western end of the island.

MEAT SUPPLY:*Civilians Share

About 131 pounds of meat will be available to every person in the U. S. during 1944, and this supply might be increased if the government can spare stocks from its emergency reserves, the U. S. department of agriculture announced.

Reviewing the meat situation, the department reported that a record 25,000,000,000 pounds may be produced in 1944, even though numbers of cattle, hogs and lamb on hand were about 15 per cent less than last year. The services, lend-lease and other U. S. agencies will get the 8 per cent increase.

Cattle and calf slaughter in recent weeks has been heavier than a year ago, and about 46 per cent of the animals now on feed are scheduled for marketing by April, the department said.

OIL:*Seek Arabian Reserves

To relieve the strain on U. S. petroleum supplies which will be called upon to furnish the fuel to enable the country's military and naval forces to help maintain collective security in the postwar world, the federal government will co-operate with the Standard Oil Company of California, the Texas company and the Gulf Oil company in exploiting Arabian oil resources.

At a cost of approximately 150 million dollars, the government will build a 1,250 mile pipeline which will carry the crude from the companies' fields to the Mediterranean coast, with the companies repaying the principal cost plus interest within 25 years. The companies would maintain a crude oil reserve of 20 per cent of the total field for the government and sell to it below the market price.

Since the consent of Saudi Arabia and smaller Kuwait would be needed before work could start, Senator Moore (Okla.) said the agreement would amount to a treaty affecting relations between the peoples of the U. S. and the countries concerned, thus requiring senate approval.

GRAIN STOCKS:*Rail Movements Spurt

With farmers anxious to move grain and fertilizer before the planting season and box cars being diverted to haul in Canadian feed, rail facilities for the rural regions are tightening up. Further strain on rail transport looms with Great Lakes shippers asking for early movement of grains now aboard vessels in storage so that they can begin operations in the spring.

While tightening of the rail situation was announced, it was also revealed that the Commodity Credit corporation's total wheat stocks at the end of January amounted to 87 million bushels, and corn supplies to only 1 million bushels, reflecting the big pinch in this commodity.

Since July, 1943, CCC purchased 146 million bushels of wheat, of which 75 million bushels were Canadian. Since July, CCC wheat sales aggregated 230 million bushels.

RUSSIA:*Nip Threat

Believed to be the spring board for future German operations in the southern Ukraine, the Nazi-held manganese center of Nikopol came under heavy fire of Russian forces driving in from the east.

The Germans' position at Nikopol was their farthest extension eastward in Russia, following their withdrawal along the whole 800 mile front, and with a similar eastward bulge further to the north, was seen as a possible prong for a gigantic Nazi pincer movement against the back of the Red armies far inside pre-war Poland.

In the Baltic region to the north, the Russ pressed forward below Leningrad, and continued heavy attacks farther to the south between the Pripet and Berezina rivers, where a break-through would enable them to loop the entire German army heavily engaged in the Baltic states.

VETS:*Discharged Redrafted

Discharged vets who have fully recovered from battle wounds and can meet the physical requirements of the services, are being redrafted in accordance with selective service regulations, but not for overseas duty.

In striving to meet its tremendous manpower needs, the army also has advised commanders to check men thoroughly in the light of lowered physical standards before discharging them. Many disabilities on which men formerly were released are no longer recognized, it was said.

Aware of the redrafting of vets, the army has ordered restoration of their old ranks.

Get-rich-quicksters are enjoying a field day in the Chungking, China, black market, where beef is selling at $2.50 for 1.33 lbs.; eggs at 35c apiece, and fish $10 for 1.33 lbs.

Driving past WAC quarters in

Algiers, North Africa, one night, Col. Oveta Hobby and Commander Maj. Weatray Battle espied a couple in a long embrace behind a tree outside the grounds. There's nothing wrong in a WAC kissing her boy friend good night, Maj. Battle said afterwards, but she must do it inside the company grounds.

California's Senator Sheridan Downey received this postcard from an irate constituent trying to fill out his income tax report:

"My Dear Senator: 'I hope you roast a thousand years in hell for each minute I put in on this federal income tax report.'"

"Frank Warren."

TRUCK RATES:*Urge Competition

Such factors as competition with the railroads should be considered when formulating trucking rates, the Supreme court declared.

The high court took this position in disputing what it said was the Interstate Commerce commission's rule that lower rates for shipments by motor carrier were justified only when a reduction in operating costs is achieved.

"Each form of transportation presents its own problems for the function of rate making," the court said. "Hence in such situations, principles previously established for application with a single form of transportation cannot always be transplanted without consequence unduly harmful."

As an example, the court pointed out that by tying rates to weights, a railroad with carloads of 30,000 pounds would have a great competitive advantage over a truck, for instance, with 20,000 pounds.

SHOES

As shoe rationing enters its second year OPA officials stated that there will be about 25 million pairs of footwear available a month same as in 1943. That means about 2 1/2 pairs per person a year, or one pair every 21 weeks. The leather situation remains tight, and army needs are increasing, officials commented.

Stamp No. 1 in Book Three (the airplane stamp) will remain valid until May 1, and No. 18 in the first book will remain good indefinitely.

Save electricity to SAVE COAL

... don't leave lights burning wastefully!

It's so easy to turn on a light in an unoccupied room or a clothes closet or the attic of your home—then forget it. And that light burning needlessly may go unnoticed for hours.

Ordinarily this wouldn't be too important... perhaps half-a-cent's worth of electricity wasted. But that light in the clothes closet burns COAL. Electricity requires coal and manpower and transportation and other critical resources for its manufacture. And today ANY waste of electricity is serious.

The Government asks everyone to conserve electricity, even though it is not rationed and there is no shortage in this area. Save VOLUNTARILY, whenever and wherever you can—in home and store and office.

HOUSING: Two million new homes will be needed immediately after the war to take care of married servicemen and families that have doubled up during the conflict. John Blandford, administrator of the National Housing agency, told the Associated General Contractors. Other new houses will be needed at the rate of 600,000 a year for replacements, he said.

CANNED MILK: Civilians will get slightly less condensed and evaporated milk this year than last, the War Food administration announced. An allotment of 1,740,000,000 pounds of evaporated, and 190,700,000 pounds of condensed milk has been made from stock estimated at 3,562,200,000 pounds total. Military supplies were increased to 939,800,000,000 pounds.

Lights of New York

By L. L. STEVENSON

Overtime: Bridge playing is such an essential part of the life of the commuter that on various trains, brakemen supply tables, cards and even lead pencils and score pads. In some instances they reserve seats for regular players so they can get busy the moment they enter the car and not quit until they are forced to get off. This arrangement results in considerable financial benefit to the railroad men since train bridge is usually for cash stakes and winners are liberal in rewards for service. The devotion of commuters to bridge was well illustrated the other morning when a Port Washington local reached Pennsylvania station. Two sets of the players who were forced off, had not completed their games. So one four-some finished on a platform baggage truck while the other played their hands on a newspaper.

Red Ink: Jack Marshall, the rubber-faced comedian who recently concluded a return engagement at the Belmont Plaza Glass Hat to assume the comic lead in a forthcoming musical, has upped the circulation of his weekly compendium of gags and cartoons which he calls "Belly Laughs for the Boys," to a total of 1010. Considering the fact that Marshall started his smile sheet only a short while ago with a total circulation of 75, he is understandably proud of his rapidly increasing readership. The irony in the saga of quickly growing publication is this: Marshall writes, edits, publishes, mimeographs and mails this contribution to our fighting men at his own expense so every time his mailing list goes up, his deficit does likewise. He isn't kidding, his belief being that a grin on a soldier's face is worth any cost.

Collectors: The other evening at a large and well-known hotel, a diner was bothered by a spoon shortage. So she called a waiter captain and took the matter up with him. He informed her that not so long ago the hotel had an ample supply of spoons, seemingly enough not only to last for the duration but for some time after victory. But so rapidly has this article of tableware disappeared within the last few weeks that only by washing spoons as soon as they reach the kitchen can service be maintained. It seems that defense workers and others who visit New York for the first time like to take home spoons as souvenirs. And that's a serious matter as it is just about impossible to replace them.

Conflict: Reports one of this department's scouts: Recently the Philadelphia orchestra inaugurated a new series of Sunday night "Pops" concerts with Alec Templeton as the first soloist. When the series was announced, Eugene Ormandy, the orchestra's music director and conductor, didn't seem too pleased with the idea. The manager, Earl McDonald, asked him if he were afraid the extra concerts would be too much work for him. Ormandy said it wasn't that, and agreed the orchestra should play lighter music occasionally. "Then why so gloomy about the whole thing?" pumped McDonald. With that Ormandy explained that since the concerts began at 8:30, he would have to be at the Academy of Music at eight which would mean that he couldn't hear Charlie McCarthy, a program he hadn't missed once in six years!

Where may the wearied eye repose
When gazing on the great;
Where neither guilty glory glows,
Nor despicable state?
Yes—one—the first—the last—the best—
The Cincinnatus of the West,
Whom envy dared not hate
Sequestered the name of Washington,
To make man blush there was but One!

Potato Storage
Potatoes should be carefully inspected before they are stored and all of those not in prime condition removed. Badly bruised or cracked ones should be segregated and used first, since they will not keep for any period of time. Store potatoes away from the light if possible, since light causes them to lose flavor. When storing only a small amount, a cloth covering or heavy paper is sufficient protection.

CASS CITY CHRONICLE

Published every Friday at Cass City, Michigan.

The Cass City Chronicle established in 1899 and the Cass City Enterprise founded in 1881, consolidated under the name of the Cass City Chronicle on Apr. 20, 1906. Entered as second class matter at the post office at Cass City, Michigan, under Act of March 3, 1879. Subscription Price—In Tuscola, Huron and Sanilac Counties, $1.50 a year in advance. In other parts of the United States, $2.00 a year. For information regarding newspaper advertising and commercial and job printing, telephone No. 13 R. 2. H. F. Lenzer, Publisher.

To 40,000 Michigan men, veterans of World War II, the war is already over.

Post-war is here—today—for them.

This fact was emphasized by Dr. Alexander Ruthven, president of the University of Michigan, at a conference with members of the educational committees of the state legislature which is now in session at Lansing. Approximately 3,000 Michigan men are being discharged each month by the army and navy, he said. Seventy percent of these are returned to civilian life because of physical and nervous disabilities; a surprisingly large percentage of the national total represents psychiatric casualties—inability of the human nervous system to absorb the shock of modern warfare.

These facts, little known by the public, present one of the serious growing problems of 1944: How to assist these valiant to readjust themselves to a new world—new to them because of their new handicaps. The answer, in the eyes of education is just this: adult education.

While the State of Michigan, from its very inception, has accepted the responsibility of free education to its citizens.

Preventive Found For Seasickness

Canadian Navy Develops Pill That Cures Malady.

OTTAWA.—A "pink pill" cure and preventive for seasickness and airsickness—effective for 75 per cent of persons normally susceptible—has been developed by the Royal Canadian navy, it was announced.

The capsules now are in mass production and will soon be issued to ships for general use at sea, naval service headquarters said, but they are not likely to be available to civilians until after the war.

The prospect is that the new preventive will be issued to troops before they set out on the impending opening of a new front in Europe, for the navy's official statement said:

"Its greatest service may be in protecting invasion troops carried by the navy; men who must be ready for intense fighting before they set foot on land."

"Experimental data thus far obtained indicates the remedy is equally effective in the treatment of airsickness—of particular importance to airborne troops."

The formula is a war secret. The capsules look like an ordinary cold capsule. They are taken one or two hours before sailing or in rough weather and remain effective for eight hours.

"Additional capsules may be taken every eight hours for two days and may be repeated if the subject has not then found his sea legs," said the statement.

"For persons already seasick the remedy is equally effective as a curative measure. It produces no harmful results and does not reduce fighting efficiency."

For naval personnel it will mean every man can be kept in "tiptop efficiency," particularly in the first two days of a voyage when even seasoned sailors sometimes become ill.

Typical Marine Ingenuity Overcomes Oil Shortage

NANUMEA, ELLICE ISLANDS.—There are shortages out here, just as there are at home, and they are somewhat more critical than a scarcity of steaks or bobby pins. One of them came up during the occupation of this strategic island, but it was met with typical marine ingenuity by Sgt. Matthew D. Nemish.

Sergeant Nemish was in an advance party of marines which landed before the main occupation force. Exposed to the threat of Jap counter-measures, the marines were not comforted by the discovery that there was a shortage of machine gun oil in the stores they had brought with them.

That was when Sergeant Nemish demonstrated that there is more than one way to grease the skids for the Japs. The lubricant he used on the gun parts was oil extracted from coconuts. When Jap planes came over, the marine weapons were working very nicely.

Compost a Vitamin Source

Compost is decayed leaves, a rich source of vitamin B1, minor plant food materials, and soil enzymes, with no equal for root making and moisture holding. Spaded into vegetable and flower gardens, it greatly enriches the soil and helps produce abundant crops and attractive flowers.

Lenten Menus

You can keep your menus interesting during Lent if you serve well-cooked, good combinations of favorite foods. Keep in mind the same balanced menu patterns that you use during the rest of the year so that the family will be well fed and happy. That pattern includes a good protein food such as fish, cheese or eggs. Add to this a supplementary nourishing food like macaroni, noodles or spaghetti and milk, and use plenty of vegetables in the diet.

These sample menus will give you an idea of what the balanced meal should consist:

Spaghetti with Mushroom and Tomato Soup Sauce
Grapefruit and Endive Salad with French Dressing
Pickled Beets Mixed Pickles
Whole Wheat Rolls
Pineapple Upside Down Cake
Beverage

Carrot Puffs Creamed Asparagus
Chopped Spinach Salad
Hot Yeast Rolls
Lemon Chiffon Pie
Beverage

Here are recipes for two of the main dishes in the above menus:

Spaghetti with Mushroom and Tomato Soup Sauce.

(Serves 6)
1 8-ounce package of spaghetti
1 can condensed mushroom soup
1 can condensed tomato soup
1 soup can of water or milk
Hard-cooked eggs

Combine soups with milk in top of double boiler. Cook until mixture is thoroughly heated. Cook spaghetti in boiling salted water until tender. Drain and arrange on platter for serving. Garnish with quarters of hard-boiled eggs. The tomato-mushroom soup sauce may be served from a side dish or poured directly over spaghetti before serving.

Carrot Puffs.
(Serves 8)
1 1/2 cups sifted flour
2 teaspoons baking powder
1 teaspoon salt
2 eggs, separated
1 cup milk
1 1/2 cups grated carrots
2 tablespoons melted butter or margarine
Sift flour, baking powder and salt together. Beat egg yolks, add milk and stir into flour mixture. Add carrots and butter to flour mixture. Fold in stiffly beaten egg whites. Fill greased individual baking dishes 3/4 full. Bake in a moderately hot oven (425 degrees) 25 minutes. Serve with a cheese sauce.

Leap Year Day Necessitates Adjustment of Finances

In the field of finance and accounting, February 29—Leap Year day—causes quite a flutter. Interest figured by the day, for instance, gives one side a slight gain, and the other a corresponding loss. All sorts of records and statistics have to be adjusted, too. Legal complications frequently come up. At least two states have a statutory provision that the twenty-eighth and twenty-ninth shall be called one day. People born on February 29 are something of a curiosity. Like the boy in "H. M. S. Pinafore," they have only one "birthday" in four years. Actually, they shove the kidding aside, and call the twenty-eighth their natal day.

Cocoa Countries

Importance of cocoa in the economies of the other Americas is shown by the fact that in 1933, a comparatively normal year, it was the most important commercial product in value in Ecuador, the second in the Dominican Republic and Panama, third in Brazil and Costa Rica, and fourth in Venezuela. It was a leading crop in Trinidad, and one of the chief exports from Grenada.

'WORKING PEOPLE' DOMINATE ACTIVITIES OF ELDON, IOWA

Organized Labor Usually Bests Business Group in Elections; Citizens Are Proud of School System.

By BARROW LYONS

(EDITOR'S NOTE—This is one of a series of articles written for this paper by Barrow Lyons, staff correspondent of Western Newspaper Union. He has just completed an extended trip through the nation and in these reports gives his first-hand impressions of what rural America is thinking as we enter the third year of war and the first weeks of a presidential election year. Any opinions expressed are the writer's and not necessarily those of this newspaper.)

ELDON, IOWA.—Two worlds meet in this Iowa town—the world of organized labor and the business world. But labor runs this town of 1,700 people on the banks of the Des Moines river where the Sac and Fox Indians once lived.

Eldon is a railroad town—a division point on the Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific railway where the main line intersects the Des Moines and Keokuk branch. The railway came there to get coal. A majority of Eldon people work for the Rock Island. They are somewhat clannish, very independent and understand the importance of organization.

As a result they dominate the elections. The mayor is a railroad. So are four of the five members of the city council, three of the five members of the school board, and several of the city officials.

And although Eldon people are traditionally Republicans, the railroads are now almost 100 per cent New Dealers.

Merchants and other business men of Eldon form the political opposition. They are known locally as the County Fair group. The fair has been discontinued for the duration, but in peace times it is the third largest fair in the state, being surpassed only by the Iowa state fair and the Clay county fair at Spencer, said to be the largest county fair in the world. This great fair seems to be a compensation for the business men's political eclipse in Eldon.

An examination of this New Deal town in which the working people dominate reveals advantages and disadvantages. There is no hotel, but a number of the railroad men take lodgers, where one can get a room. The fastidious traveler would not like the accommodations, but the beds are clean and one can get a warm bath in the hall bathroom. And the railroaders' wife who runs the establishment makes up in friendliness what her husband lacks in modern decorations and conveniences.

There are no modern fitted out restaurants. But there are eating places where one can buy well-prepared food, and plenty of it at moderate prices.

Many of the people who live in Eldon own their homes—and assessments are low. There is no real estate tax, except the school tax, for most of the expenses of government are met from the profit the city derives from distributing electric current. From these charges all city indebtedness has been paid off and the city owns $10,000 in U. S. treasury bonds.

Over 200 in Service From This Town

Out of the small population of this town more than 200 men and women have joined the armed services. Eldon people are very proud of this record.

Let J. G. Saureman, general roundhouse foreman, tell the advantages of Eldon to working men. Incidentally, he is extremely proud of the fact that one of his sons is a major in the army engineer corps, and the other an ensign in the navy.

"It's a good town to live in," he said. "The people are neighborly, considerate and very democratic. I was sent here 13 months ago by the railroad to take charge of the roundhouse. Right off the bat I was accepted as a member of the community and extended all the credit

I wanted. Now that's something. Eldon is a fine place to bring up my two little boys where there is such a good school. I'm paying $15 a month rent for a modern five-room house. In Kansas City the same house would cost me $35 to $40 a month.

Neighbors Are Ready To Help Distressed

"Anyone in distress usually is looked after by the neighbors—we don't need charity. For those who have grief, there is always sympathy. I've seldom seen drunkenness around here. This is a good town for working men. You hear that wherever you go."

William H. Sapp, member of the Switchmen's Union of North America, was asked why Eldon remained New Deal.

"Well," we remember that the New Deal helped us get out of the depression and get work," he explained. "This wage deal that's coming up now is not against the government. The men are working twice as hard as they did before the war and getting the same money, and the companies are making twice as much."

"I'm registered as a Republican, but I'm for the New Deal. I don't think there's a railroad man who likes John L. Lewis as a man, but they admire his stand because they know that if the miners are licked, we're all sunk. There are quite a few miners living around here, and they're about the poorest paid workers there are—and they work hard, too. You take a mining town and it has the poorest teachers there are."

It is easy to understand why most of the business men of Eldon are not very vocal in opposition to the New Deal. Frank Davis, director of the First National bank, however, was willing to voice criticism.

"One thing that we're blessed with, brother," he exclaimed, "is that we're living in a land where there's free speech. There is a great deal of unrest among the people. They wonder what's going on. This enormous spending—enormous taxation. There's a great deal of talk on how much labor is going to control the powers that be."

"When I try to look forward, I kind of look at a high wall. I read a great deal and try to keep posted, but I can't see where we're headed. "All power to Mr. Roosevelt for the good things he's done. We've seen them in this town. But there's such a thing as a man becoming drunk with power."

Eldon remembers the curse of unemployment more bitterly than most small towns. Many of its young men were gathered into the local National Youth administration project, and it was the grief of the Eldon people that these boys were contented to make the NYA their way of life—to hope for nothing better. But it is their pride to have seen these boys make splendid fighters in the armed forces. Several already have given their lives.

As Eldon, Iowa, Views It . . .

There are quite a few coal miners who work in the strip coal mines around Eldon, but not nearly as many as used to live there before the mines at Laddsville across the river caught fire and caused such great loss about 30 years ago. Those were the days, however, when Eldon flourished commercially. There were more people then to patronize the business establishments. Across the tracks there was a settlement which no longer exists—a wide open town with its saloons and dives, and two hotels. As this block deteriorated, and the buildings were vacated, they were demolished, and this rowdy block is now only a memory. "There's very little moral turpitude in Eldon now," one old railroader remarked, and he meant it.

cation for youth, the state has not ventured into the newer field of education for adults.

Hence the decision of Gov. Harry F. Kelly to submit a state program of adult education to the state legislature is the breaking of precedent. The state would assume responsibility for adult education but only to the extent of financial support and over-all supervision. Educational services themselves would be given by colleges and schools, for the most part, and hence under control of local communities and the state boards of education.

Furthermore, since the program would be an innovation, it is the governor's belief that the 1944-45 post to the state should be in keeping with the experiment as a long-range objective.

The idea of adults going to school is not new. Scan its history.

The lyceum movement was born 100 years ago; the 1870's saw the birth of the free public library. The Philadelphia Centennial Exposition gave an educational impetus to museums. In the same decade the Chautauqua Institution was founded, and that brought the traveling chautauqua to rural communities everywhere prior to the day of automobiles, good highways and movies.

The university extension movement came in the late 1880's, modeled after the extramural activities of Cambridge and Oxford university in England.

In 1914 Congress passed the Smith-Lever act establishing an extension service in the United States Department of Agriculture. Michigan State College has made this service in Michigan a national pattern. Michigan is a recognized leader.

Next comes the George-Deen act of Congress during the post-war economic depression of the 30's, and it was put to good use during the pre-Pearl Harbor days when national defense was mobilizing mechanical skills.

Is there a real need for adult education in Michigan?

Dr. Eugene B. Elliott, superintendent of public instruction, points out that the 1940 census disclosed these following facts which tell their own story: 300,000 citizens of Michigan received an education through the first three grades; 72,000 others did not finish the first grade. We have 290,000 aliens.

Because we have not learned yet to live with each other, Michigan is spending a million dollars a year in Detroit alone to maintain state troops as insurance against race riots.

Leaders of labor unions concede privately the need of rudimentary economics for the rank-and-file membership which continues to pressure officials at the top for more and more wages without reckoning the ultimate effect on the cost of living—their own pocket books.

George H. Fern, director of the state board of control for vocational education, recently announced a post-war plan to provide technical training for war veterans as well as for young people who do not go to college.

Fern's program calls for vocational rehabilitation for disabled residents through a federal-state relationship whereby instruction is given in local school districts and hence is the responsibility of local school districts—grass roots democracy itself.

It is Fern's suggestion that trained instructors be assigned to each school district for the purpose of vocational education. Dr. Elliott favors a broad program of adult education in which vocational training would be included and general instruction would be provided by teachers now on the staffs of local school districts. The state would reimburse the local schools for 75 per cent of the instructional cost, and Dr. Elliott believes that much of the remaining 25 per cent could be financed through educational fees paid by those who received benefits.

Here is the broad picture: Approximately 500,000 men from Michigan will be in military service in World War II.

Of these perhaps one-tenth or less—Dr. Elliott estimates the number to be 80,000—will have the mental capacity to go to college for post-war training.

The Federal Communications Commission has assigned five frequencies for educational radio stations. Radio is a long-range possibility. In the meanwhile, Michigan State College's radio station, WKAR, is already providing daily service for adult education and is making application for "FM" broadcasting.

Assisting Michigan veterans to readjust themselves to civilian economy is a tremendous challenge. It is a post-war problem that is already here—today!

Yeast as a food and medicine has been used for centuries. One of its earliest uses was in the making of wine from fruits. More than 2,000 years ago, Hippocrates, father of medicine, prescribed yeast in the treatment of certain diseases.

Tuscola Women's Extension Groups to Meet Feb. 24 and 25

Tuscola County homemakers enrolled in Michigan State College Extension groups, sponsored by Norris W. Wilber, county agricultural agent, will join forces with other state organizations in making sure that every family adopts the national food slogan, "Produce, Conserve, Share and Play Square."

Group leaders will meet on Thursday, Feb. 24, at Caro, and on Friday, Feb. 25, at Vassar. Suggestions for extending high point meats by increasing the use of fish, game and poultry and by using soybean flour and cereals will be given. Varieties of ways for using home stored and preserved vegetables and for saving and stretching fats will be discussed. A feature of the meeting will be a check-up on unseen food waste in Tuscola County homes.

Such questions as "May canned strawberries substitute for tomatoes?" and "Are three points worth of string beans as nutritious as three points of peas?" will be answered. During the meeting charts to aid the homemaker with future questions on food substitutes as well as recipe leaflets will be distributed.

Soft Kraut

Soft kraut is usually an indication that too little salt was used in the preparation, but also may be a result of too high temperature, containers that were not properly sterilized before the cabbage was packed or poor packing of the shredded cabbage which resulted in air pockets.

sponsible for shipping vital car and truck replacement parts overseas have been forced to spend precious time in perfecting a new plastic coating which will prevent injury during handling and from moisture. This is just one instance of how war production may be slowed down unless the current, critical waste paper shortage can be met.

Mills in Michigan, like those all over the nation, are forced into minimum production because of the lack of waste paper supplies. The greased paper and waterproofed paper coverings which should go on truck replacement parts, the packages of life-saving blood plasma, containers for army field rations, over 700,000 war essential articles are dependent on a steady flow of salvaged paper to the mills.
