Luncheon at High School for W. S. C. Members on April 25

The Woman's Study club met at the home of Mrs. Chester Graham Tuesday afternoon.

Groups of children, under the supervision of their teachers, Mrs. Zora Day and Miss Ruth Schenck, gave a program of drills, songs and dances, and Mrs. M. R. Vender discussed "Modern Trend in Education" and "The Dilemma of the Public School." Response to roll call was "Fittfalls in English."

An announcement was made of the Tuscola County convention to be held in the First Presbyterian church at Vassar on Thursday, April 27.

The next meeting of the local club is a luncheon at 12:15 at the high school on April 25 to be served by the home economics department. Each member is requested to tell something about China.

GERALD HICKS GETS NEW PAIR OF SHOES

If Gerald Hicks, R. R. 1, Deford, is as good a weather prophet as he is an ice melting estimator, he will be a good man to have around when you plan a picnic date next July. Gerald estimated that it would take 58 hours, 19 minutes and 13 seconds for a chunk of ice enclosing a work shoe at the Prieskorn store to melt and release the shoe. The official time was 59 hours, 3 minutes and 12 seconds. Gerald will wear a pair of work shoes this spring as a gift from the store.

Next nearest of the 562 who placed estimates are Otis Montague of Deford and John McCallum of Owendale. Both said 60 hours.

REV. W. R. CURTIS DIED MONDAY IN ADRIAN

Rev. Wm. R. Curtis, formerly pastor of the Cass City Baptist church, passed away Monday afternoon at 3:15, at his home in Adrian. Funeral services were held yesterday (Thursday) at 2:00 p. m. in the Mott funeral home in Adrian.

After serving many years in the ministry, Mr. Curtis retired because of failing health. He and Mrs. Curtis lived in Cass City about seven years and during that time Mr. Curtis was very interested and active in the Boy Scout organization.

Ten Men Removed From Induction List By Moratorium

A moratorium on drafting men 26 years old and over which went into effect Monday has removed from the induction list in Tuscola county the following 10 men because they were over that age: Thomas Elmy, Caro; Raymond Warner, Kingston; Wm. McCann, Caro; Louis Hanzek, Akron; Chas. Dyer, Caro; John Igler, Unionville; Claude Wright, Caro; Wm. Ayre, Caro; Harold Drohn, Millington; Chas. Daniels, Caro.

The Tuscola Draft board has received the following telegram regarding the moratorium from the Michigan Selective Service board: "War and Navy departments have informed the directors of selective service that the immediate need for young men in the armed forces is greater than the need to immediately fill calls by inducting older men. Effective immediately, you are authorized to postpone induction of and sending for preinduction examination men age 26 and over who are making a contribution to essential agricultural war production or war supporting activities even though such men have been found acceptable for military service or have been ordered to report for induction or preinduction physical examination. Exception to the above may be volunteers."

Former Cass City Business Man Died in Saginaw Tuesday

Henry E. Wettlaufer, for many years a resident of Cass City where he was engaged as an automobile dealer, passed away at his home in Saginaw Tuesday at the age of 86 years. Funeral services were conducted at the Case Chapel in that city by the Rev. A. H. Klickman, Thursday morning. The burial was in Evergreen cemetery, Detroit. Mr. Wettlaufer left Cass City about 30 years ago.

He was born Jan. 18, 1858, in Canada and married Miss Katherine Ratz there on July 6, 1888. They came to Michigan in 1894 and settled in Tuscola county. Mrs. Wettlaufer died in 1918. He married Miss Rose Marawski in Detroit Feb. 2, 1916, and they moved to Saginaw in 1918. He leaves his wife; one daughter, Mrs. Christine Ratz of Detroit; a son, Dr. Edward Wettlaufer of Lansing; a sister, Mrs. Anna Balentine of Tavistock, Ont.; two brothers, Dr. Conrad Wettlaufer of Buffalo and Dr. Louis Wettlaufer of Three Oaks, Ont.; two grand children, and one great grandchild.

Nazarenes to Have Home-coming Service Here Sunday, Apr. 16

A Hallelujah Home-coming service has been planned by the Church of the Nazarene at Cass City, for Sunday, April 16, at 2:00 p. m., with Wilbur Legree as soloist and song leader.

Wilbur Legree, Singing Cop.

Mr. Legree acquired the name of "Flint's Singing Cop" after the accidental deaths of many of Flint's school children. Since his singing instruction to children, not one fatality occurred among the school children of that city in 1943. He travels to various cities and is in great demand. He will give a card with his picture and a safety verse to each child present Sunday.

He comes here with Rev. Paul Coleman, pastor of the First Nazarene church of Flint, who is an associate of the F. B. I. and a strike arbitrator and has assisted in settling strikes from New York to San Francisco. Mr. Coleman has been active in effecting settlements of some of the major strikes in some of the largest cities and is an outstanding speaker.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold K. Bentley and Rev. Kenneth Hutchinson of Flint will be in both the morning and afternoon services. Rev. Mr. Bugbee, the pastor of the local church, invites all friends and the Nazarene churches of the Saginaw Valley and the Thumb district to be present, as this is a debt liquidation campaign.

Coming Auctions

Chas. Gurdon uses space on page seven to advertise a farm auction of cattle and tools on Tuesday, April 18. The farm is located two miles north of Cass City. Arnold Copeland is the auctioneer and the Cass City State Bank, clerk.

On page seven, J. A. Race and John Sovey advertise a farm sale of horses, cattle, tools and feed for Friday, April 21, two miles south and one and three-quarters mile east of Cass City. Arnold Copeland will cry the sale and the Cass City State Bank is clerk.

Having a surplus of livestock, the Tuscola County Farm will have an auction sale of cattle and hogs, 3/4 mile north of Caro, on Thursday, April 20. Worthy Tait is the auctioneer. Full particulars are printed on page 8.

John Banko will use space in the Chronicle to advertise an auction sale for Wednesday, Apr. 26, six miles south, one mile east and one mile south of Cass City.

Keyes Points Out "Sins" of State Administration

Lieutenant Governor Was Speaker at Community Club Dinner Tuesday.

When a member prominent in the state administration and a candidate for renomination fails to "point with pride" to the achievements of his party and instead is emphatic, in a public address, in calling attention to its faults, it is quite unusual to say the least. Such was the course taken by Dr. Eugene Keyes, lieutenant governor of Michigan, in an address before the Community club here on Tuesday evening.

An outstanding "sin" of the Republican administration, the presiding officer of the state senate said, was the time situation. In place of making it uniform, the legislature left it to each municipality to choose between "slow" and "fast" and thus created the time confusion existing today. Another "sin" was the desire of a certain class to take from the group of elective state officers the position of state highway commissioner and make that officer an appointee of the governor. This change of method failed to receive sufficient support to make it effective. Keyes also criticized the failure of using state troops quartered in Detroit to quell the race riots in that city last summer.

Dr. Keyes said juvenile delinquency had risen 200 per cent in metropolitan areas in recent years. He emphasized the need of good home training of children. The value of the influence of the church was stressed, while that of the barroom, obscene literature and indecent movies was deplored.

Directly after his presentation by Willis Campbell, program chairman, Dr. Keyes announced that he had passed up his intention to enter the race for the governorship nomination, and that he intended seeking again the nomination as lieutenant governor.

The dinner Tuesday evening was prepared by the Ladies' Aid of the Novesta Church of Christ and served by a group of club members. The Rev. Stanley P. Kirk, pastor of the Evangelical church, gave the invocation.

Following the meal, short previews of the junior play, "Street Car in the Attic," were given and Community club members were thereby influenced in the desire of seeing it in its entirety.

Group singing was under the leadership of M. B. Auten and Frederick H. Pinney. President Frank Reid announced the May meeting as ladies' night with Mr. Pinney as program chairman. Mr. Pinney said that the speaker would be Ernest W. Owen, a member of the British Council service at Detroit and a lecturer of wide experience.

Parsch Group Are Champion Bowlers Here

They Defeated Schwiegler's Five, Two Out of Three Games April 6.

The Parsch bowling team was victorious in their three-game series against the Schwiegler Five on Apr. 6 when they snatched two out of three to give them the bowling league championship for the 1943-44 season.

Going into the match, the Schwieglerites were considered the favorites because of the higher average over the Parsch group, but as the match progressed it was evident that neither team lacked in spirit and Parsch's emerged as the winners of the first game by a five pin margin. The second game was won by Schwiegler's which two extra pins gave them. The final game was to decide the match and championship and every man put all he had into every toss. Fate seemed to have it in for the Schwiegler group and the Parsch Five took the deciding game by 28 pins.

This is the second year in succession that "Irv" Parsch has captained a winning team, yet his team this year did not consist of any of his last year's members. The winning team was composed of Kirtan, Wilson, Damm, Wright and Parsch, while the Schwiegler Five was made up of Hoffman, Kolb, Douglas, Patterson and Captain Eddie.

The Schwiegler team deserve a lot of credit for their good bowling during the 18-week schedule as they topped the league in total pins as well as games won and rolled the highest single game during the season.

This draws to a close a very successful season of bowling which has been carried on under considerable difficulties caused by the war. The climax will be reached when the annual bowlers' banquet will be held later in the month, the date to be announced in the next week's issue of the Chronicle.

G. W. Landon, League Sec.

News of 4-H CLUBS

Four-H club members from all parts of Tuscola county will congregate at Caro Tuesday, April 18, for their annual spring achievement project exhibit and program. A total of 524 project members were enrolled in 4-H project work this past winter and most of these will bring their finished projects to Caro on Tuesday, except for a few of the larger clubs which will have local exhibits and will bring only a portion of the club's work to Caro.

Exhibits will be on display in the high school gymnasium from 10 a. m. to 3 p. m. and will include exhibits of clothing, handicraft, victory, personal business accounts, trapping and egg production projects. Exhibits will be brought in between 8 and 10 in the morning. In cooperation with R. Ashmun, theater manager, a special moving picture will be shown at the Strand theatre for all members, leaders and parents from 10:15 a. m. to 12 m.

Miss Beatrice Boyle and M. H. Avery, assistant state club leaders from Michigan State college, will appraise project exhibits and select the 4-H county honor roll during this time. The achievement program beginning at 1:15 p. m. in the high school gymnasium will feature a special ceremony by the Mayville 4-H group and a 4-H style revue in which all girls exhibiting have an opportunity to style their dresses before the audience. Women members of the 4-H County Council are in charge of the style revue.

O'Rourke Opens the Home Restaurant

Floyd O'Rourke has leased the Kerbyson building on West Main street and has purchased the restaurant fixtures from R. S. Kerbyson. He has reopened the business under the name of the Home restaurant and will confine the business to serving meals and lunches and will not dispense beer and wine.

Both Mr. and Mrs. O'Rourke have had experience in the restaurant business as employees in Cass City business places preparing and serving meals.

Army Catches Thieves in East

Provost Marshal's Office in Middle East Recovers $1,000,000 in Loot.

CAIRO, EGYPT.—Chasing thieves in the Middle East through by-ways of oriental native quarters and employing at least 15 different languages to bring them to justice is only part of the daily routine of the investigation bureau of the provost marshal's office of the United States army forces in the Middle East, which has already recovered more than $1,000,000 worth of stolen army property.

A small staff of privates, corporals and technical sergeants, all of whom previously held modest professional jobs, has been welded into a first-class detective organization by a major who in peacetime operated one of the largest private-detective bureaus in New York.

Task Begun With Bases. When the United Nations were setting up tremendous base projects to facilitate the British Eighth army's westward push and the air onslaught on southeastern Europe and the routing of supplies to Russia via Iran, it was necessary to employ tens of thousands of local civilians and to deal with many local contractors.

In a recent stabbing, for instance, it was imperative to question witnesses before establishing guilt. Consequently a complete file contains sworn statements translated from French, Italian, Greek and Arabic. The other languages employed by the investigators include Spanish, German, Hebrew, Armenian, Russian, Turkish, Portuguese, Assyrian, Hungarian and Iranian.

Tracks Down Thieves. One army investigator is a Greek. Born in Egypt, he left for the United States 10 years ago. When the Second World War began he was a bank clerk in New York.

It is mere coincidence that the technical sergeant in charge of the bureau's morality squad was just completing an engineering course in Chicago when he was drafted, having previously abandoned a career leading to the priesthood.

Postoffice Shows First Profit in 24 Years

WASHINGTON.—For the first time in 24 years, the post office department has operated "in the black" for a fiscal year. The department originally reported a slight deficiency for the year ended June 30, but said final figures turned this into a surplus of $1,334,351.

Corrugated Siding Is Made Of Felt Composition

A wartime substitute for corrugated sheet steel is a newly developed composite material that may be used in practically all construction where steel was formerly employed.

Under tests conducted by the Celotex corporation, manufacturers, this product has proved satisfactory in withstanding heat, cold and moisture.

A non-critical, emergency material, this corrugated siding is available in any quantity now, and can be used for building or remodeling.

Wasps Defeat Moths. Oriental fruit moths, a serious scourge to Michigan peaches, are being combated effectively by a species of small wasp, called Macrocentrus.

Scout Notes

Assistant Scoutmaster Edward Baker demonstrated the proper use of a knife and hatchet at the Apr. 5 meeting of the Boy Scouts. It was announced that Mr. Baker would be the examiner for the knife and hatchet requirements. Mr. Baker brought along a knife which he and his son, Jim, had been making and showed the boys different ways and processes to make a knife. Bob Foy ran a signalling contest. The high point patrol was the Eagle and the individual high scorer was Irving Parsch. Rev. S. P. Kim, who has been elected chaplain of the troop, was present at the Apr. 5 meeting. Rev. Mr. Kim gave the benediction at the close of the meeting. At the April 10 meeting service stars were awarded to nine boys who had completed one or more years' membership on the troop. The boys are Jim Mark, Carl Reed, Dale Little, Douglas Partridge, Donald Partridge, Jim Wallace, Jack Ryland, Jim Foy, and Albert MacPhail. Douglas Partridge, Jim Foy and Donald Partridge demonstrated first class aid bandages.

Nothing Needed

Joe—When you had your appendix out, did they give you anything? Bill—No. I didn't think it was worth much!

Kitty, Kitty

Mabel—Jane's getting a double chin. Mary—Too much work for one, I imagine!

Age of Learning

Nit—I never knew people went to school so much in the Middle Ages. Wit—Who said they did? Nit—I just read where they even had Knight schools!

REAL TWISTER

Stranger—Hey! Hey! Does the wind always blow this way around here? Native—Naw! It just blows this way for six months and then turns and blows the other way!

And How Else?

Bill—How are the restaurants serving horse meat? Will—A la cart, of course!

Gardening Blues

Old Hand—But these seeds you're planting are biennials. They won't flower until next year. Sweet Young Thing—Oh, that's all right. I took that into consideration and made them sell me last year's seeds.

Smile, Please

Writer—Why don't you ever laugh at any of my jokes? Printer—I was brought up to respect old age and feebleness.

School Daze

Teacher—Give for one year the number of tons of coal exported from the United States. Smarty—1492: None!

Pardon Me!

Jerry—Do you know why Churchill always wears that funny looking hat? Harry—No. Why? Jerry—To keep his head warm!

To the Point!

Fond Mother—Is my little boy trying, Miss Sprague? Teacher—Yes, very!

Mobile Radio Station

Secret military messages transmitted by the world's largest mobile radio station are being received daily at the war office in London direct from Italian battlefields. The station is run by Britain's royal corps of signals which transmits and receives more than 30,000 words daily.

Chicken Feet

Don't throw away chicken feet. There's plenty of good flavor in the bones. Scald the feet for a few minutes and then peel off the scaly yellow skin. Next, simmer the feet in a saucepan, with water to cover, for 45 minutes. Strain the broth and use it for added richness in chicken gravy, soup, or with chicken and noodles. The broth can also be substituted for part of the milk in making white sauce for creaming left-over chicken.

As the writer of a column that appears in approximately 200 Michigan newspapers each week and which seeks to interpret news of interest to Michigan people, we are frequently humbled by the stark realization that the role of a contemporary historian offers many hazards.

First, limitations of the writer's mind serves as an unseen censor. The writer must gather facts, sift the facts, and correlate the facts until he arrives at some judgment as to a collective trend. Success or failure of his undertaking will depend to a large degree upon how thoroughly he does these three things. Also, he must possess a willingness at all times to change his mind, for the parade of people and events moves on, unendingly, and life does not stay still. The interpreter must move with it.

Second, limitations of the reader's mind serves as the second censor. Each person colors his judgment in the light of his knowledge, or lack of it; his background of life which involves his environment; and his established prejudices which he often inherits from his ancestors.

All of this is preliminary to a brief inventory of the Michigan Mirror interpretations since Pearl Harbor.

We were honest in our interpretations. But were we right? Let's take a look at the record?

Three-Year War Is Planned. Jan. 7, 1942—"Despite the encouraging headlines of Nazi defeats in Russia, the facts remain Concluded on page 7.

Letters from Boys in the Service

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Ashmore, Sr., received a V-mail letter on Monday, April 3, and a letter on Friday, April 7, from their son, Pvt. John Ashmore, saying that he had arrived safely in New Caledonia. He said that he was fine and to tell all the neighbors "hello." He says the island is quite a place as there are quite a few hills and also some nice streams where they go swimming. The food there is "swell" and they surely get all they want to eat. When Pvt. Ashmore left for the army, he went to Camp Sutton, N. C. He was ill in a hospital two months. Later he was transferred to Camp Sibert, Ala. He was home on a furlough at Christmas time and left some time in February for overseas.

Hardware Heart

Cows have a proclivity for swallowing small metal objects which they find lying around in farm lots. Such objects as nails, pieces of wire, screws and staples work back through the cow's stomach and pierce the heart, frequently causing death. Veterinarians who have operated on cows so affected with "hardware heart" have reported finding razor blades, rubber balls, bolts, and a great miscellany of similar objects which have been swallowed by the animals over a period of months.

Mrs. Hay Is Strong and Fearless Leader

The following are members of the campaign committee of Mrs. Dudley C. Hay of Detroit, who is seeking re-election to the office of National Republican Committee woman from Michigan: Mrs. Paul Woodworth, chairman, Bad Axe, Mrs. Howard Nugent, Mrs. Fred L. Wright and Mrs. James Bright, all of Huron county; and Mrs. E. B. Schwaderer, Cass City, and Mrs. Guy Forbes, Caro, of Tuscola county.

Under the capable leadership, Mrs. Hay has given Michigan Republicans during her tenure of office as well as a salute to the cause of women in politics which Mrs. Hay has exemplified with outstanding dignity, forthrightness and courage.

Elected finance chairman of the State Central committee shortly after she became national committee woman, Mrs. Hay found the credit and finances of the official state organization at an all time low. Today, due to diligence and the confidence her committee inspired, the organization is in funds and operating on a cash basis.

Instrumental in bringing the recent Machinac conference to Michigan, and one of four women in the United States to be appointed to the Republican Post Advisory Council, Mrs. Hay has taken her place in the national organization as a strong and fearless leader with the interests of Michigan foremost in her mind. Recent visits of Governors Bricker of Ohio and Griswold of Nebraska to Michigan were at the invitation of Mrs. Hay, who has repeatedly urged that Michigan send an unopposed delegation to the national convention, and who seeks to acquaint Republicans of this state with all national candidates. At her invitation Governor Saltonstall of Massachusetts will be the keynote speaker at the state convention in Detroit on April 20. Other invitations to visit Michigan have been extended by Mrs. Hay to Governor Dewey of New York, Governor Warren of California, and Eric Johnston, president of the United States Chamber of Commerce.

Resolutions endorsing her candidacy and urging her re-election on a basis of experience and proven ability are already on record from many Republican organizations in the state.

Mrs. Hay is universally liked and trusted by the women of the state. —Advertisement.

Mrs. George Jones Died at Marlette

Mrs. George Jones died at the home of her daughter, Nellie M. Harriman, at Marlette Wednesday, April 5. Funeral services were held Saturday at Shabbona and burial was made in Elkland cemetery.

Mary Matilda Rath was born on Nov. 26, 1857, at London, Ont. She came with her parents to Michigan when a small child and settled in the township of Brockway, St. Clair county, where she grew to womanhood. In 1878 she was united in marriage with George H. Jones of the same place. In 1881 they came to Evergreen township, Sanilac county, settling on a piece of wild land where she has continually lived until taken by death.

She was the mother of four children. Louella and Harry passed away in 1909. Her husband passed to the Great Beyond in 1922. Two children remain, Mrs. John Harriman (Nellie) of Marlette and John D. Jones on the homestead.

She also leaves seven grandchildren: Russell and Grant Harriman, Albert, Ben, J. D., and Dorothy Jones and Marion Jones Sefton; and five great grandchildren, Margaret Ann and Paul Sefton, Gary, Richard and Robert Jones. One of her sisters also survives her, Mrs. Ada Hall, 83, of Flint.

Mashed Potatoes
In general, potatoes undesirable when cooked by steaming, boiling, or baking were acceptable when mashed; that may partially account for the popular appeal of mashed potatoes.

wait until 1942 and possibly 1944 before there are sufficient arms and trained men to justify a full-fledged military offensive. Unless we strip for action quickly, we may be 'too late.'"

"We in Michigan Are Not Blind" May 29, 1942, we reviewed the situation involving gasoline and rubber, with coupon rationing to begin July 1, and commented: "American war production will not be felt in tremendous force until 1943. We in Michigan are not blind. Our armed manpower will approximate 4,200,000 by December, 1942. These ABC factors prompted Chas. F. Kettering, chief of research of the General Motors corporation, to forecast allied victory by 1944 through an invasion of Europe. Defeat of Japan would be the next objective. And then,

Concluded from page 1. that Washington now plans for a three-year war. Production of arms, growing as it has been, is totally inadequate to meet new needs. Unless the German nation collapses from weak morale or a lack of needed supplies, we must when the war was won on all fronts, the Allied Nations would police the world during the armistice or 'cooling off' period prior to the treaty, and then during the peace itself."

One Year Later—May, 1943. May 14, 1943: "Lieut. General Brehon B. Somervell, chief of the army services of supply visited Michigan last summer. Recently he declared that the U. S. army will not be completely equipped until late in 1944. Only in the field of ammunition is there a reserve. Rumors of over-production were called the work of fifth-columnists."

"War to Continue 18-24 Months" June 18, 1942, we deplored the prevalent new attitude of over-optimism and ventured the following interpretation: "According to all facts which can be assembled, we can reasonably anticipate that the war will continue for 18 to 24 months. Even if Germany collapses by 1943, a minimum of a year would be expected to transport troops and supplies to the Orient for a decisive showdown with the Japanese. The public is being deluded if it expects anything but a long, long war with great sacrifice. We should face the facts! The situation is very serious."

Can We Win the Peace? Sept. 24, 1943: "As the casualty lists grow longer, splashing our silver stars with gold, what will we think and do? Will we return to nationalism and its renunciation of world responsibility for winning the peace?"

"Germany Has 300 Divisions" Oct. 22, 1943: "Germany has 300 well-trained and well-equipped army divisions in Europe. Most of these are on the Russian front. The American army and navy at the end of 1944 (fourteen months from today) will have about 7,500,000 men overseas and 3,750,000 still on duty in this country. Today, the reverse is true. Our overseas armies are not concentrated in France as they were 25 years ago; they are scattered around the Globe. At the end of two years of preparations, we are just about ready to transport a big invasion army to Europe. Our big test is yet to come."

Peace by Christmas a Mirage. Dec. 10, 1943: "Germany's capitulation by Christmas of 1943 now seems to be a mirage. Hopes that Allied leaders were secretly considering peace terms have now vanished. The significance of the Roosevelt-Churchill-Stalin-Chiang conferences, already termed to be unsurpassed in historical importance for a century, is beginning to crystallize here back home. We are pledged to make frontal invasions upon Germany; to impose near annihilation and destruction on Japan. The verdict is extreme; the terms are harsh; the price of peace is high. . . . We must gird ourselves as never before for a costly assault in Europe, for a long war in the Orient."

Channel Invasion April-June, 1944 Dec. 30, 1943: "The big channel invasion is likely to take place between April and June. . . . The time is here for frontal attack by the doughboy, supported by air and land artillery. Air power alone will not knock out Germany. We predict: Unconditional surrender of the Nazis by late autumn (1944)."

A Glimpse into the Future. What is ahead for us in the post-war period? Can we win the peace? Can we preserve free enterprise? Next week's Mirror will review some facts about tomorrow, as we know them today, and then present some interpretations for you to think about. It isn't important that you should agree with what we say. But it is important that you should THINK for yourself about what we say. Then this column will have served a useful purpose.

Indian History

In a cave on an old Indian camp site, near Bear Mountain, N. Y., were dug up 200 pieces of Iroquoian pottery, believed to be cook pots. Also found were Algonquin slate knives, an axe head, and a polished deer-bone awl. They are possibly of sixteenth-century workmanship, according to the American Museum of Natural History.

A "MECHANICAL PIG"

in their kitchens—

AFTER THE WAR

It doesn't really look like this—the handy gadget that grinds up bones and scraps and washes them down your sink drain. But think how convenient it will be—after the war—to simply scrape off the dishes after a meal and not bother trotting out with the garbage!

"Mechanical pigs" aren't being made now. You'll probably want one when they are again manufactured. Meanwhile, put your money in War Bonds. Someday you will be able to own one of these handy waste-disposal units and a quick-freeze cabinet and a dishwasher and all the other aids to better living that electricity will make possible after Victory.
