

Polls Close Two Hours Later Than In Former Years

Republicans Have Three Contests for County Offices at Primaries

The Tuscola county voter will receive three ballots at the primary election Tuesday, July 11—a Republican party and a Democratic party ballot for the nomination of state, congressional, legislative and county candidates and a non-partisan ballot for his choice for probate judge and circuit court commissioners. He will vote but two ballots, marking either the Republican or Democratic party ballot and returning the other unmarked to the election board and marking the non-partisan ballot.

The non-partisan nominees—Almon C. Pierce for probate judge and Warren S. Rundell and Bates Willis as circuit court commissioners—are without opposition and are candidates to succeed themselves in these positions.

On the Democratic ballot, but seven names appear. Earnest C. Brooks, Wm. J. Cody and Edward J. Fry are candidates for the nomination for governor, James H. Lee for lieutenant governor, Chas. F. Mann and Stephen M. Schaffer for representative in congress, and Duncan Hugh McIntyre for state senator. There are no candidates for county offices.

The Republican ballot holds the most interest for there one finds the most contests for nomination. Harry F. Kelly is the only name appearing for the governor position, but Vernon J. Brown and Eugene C. Keyes are in the campaign for lieutenant governor. Lone candidates in the congressional and legislative fields are Jesse P. Wolcott for congressman, Audley Rawson for state senator and James Kirk for state representative. On the county ticket, unopposed are Guy G. Hill for prosecuting attorney, Fred Mathews for county clerk, Truman Ackerman for register of deeds and H. Theron Donahue and Lee Huston for coroners. There are three contests for county offices. Kenneth Erb, Julius H. Goslin and John H. Zinnecker are in the race for sheriff; Howard E. Slaffer and Arthur M. Willis for county treasurer; and Edmund L. Miller and James Osburn for drain commissioner.

Delegates for the county conventions will also be chosen by Republican and Democratic parties at next Tuesday's primaries.

The voting time has been extended two hours, the polls closing at 8:00 p. m. instead of six o'clock as in former years.

Auction Sales

Because of illness, Mr. and Mrs. Julian Ignaszak will have an auction sale of livestock, farm implements, poultry, feed and furniture at their farm, two miles northeast of Caro, turn right on Deford road, one mile east to Oxbow, and 1/2 mile south to farm. The date is Thursday, July 13, Worthy Tait is the auctioneer, the State Savings Bank is clerk and full particulars are printed on page 3.

This (Friday) afternoon, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. O'Malley will have a farm sale 4 miles east and 1 1/2 miles south of Deford. Arnold Copeland is the auctioneer, the Cass City State Bank is clerk, and full details regarding the auction were printed in the Chronicle last week.

Simon Tuzcek will use display space in next week's Chronicle to advertise an auction sale for Thursday, July 20, at his home, 3 miles east and 1 mile south of Cass City.

To the voters of Tuscola County: As previously announced in this newspaper, I will be a candidate for the nomination of sheriff on the Republican ticket at the primary next Tuesday, July 11. Any support you will give me will be greatly appreciated.

Starts Study at School for Chaplains July 17

Rev. Dudley C. Mosure.

This and That

MRS. RAYMOND Kerbyson has a son in the service in India and there's a regular exchange of letters between the two, of course. But Mrs. Kerbyson doesn't stop there. She has a host of "adopted" sons from this community in the service who are on her letter list and who hear from her quite regularly. "Must be around 25 of them," Mr. Kerbyson told the Chronicle the other day.

MRS. ANDREW N. Bigelow recently resigned her position as one of the visitors of the Bureau of Social Aid in Tuscola county, an agency which deals with old age assistance, aid to dependent children and aid to the blind, to accept the position of acting postmaster at Cass City. She first engaged in this social work in 1935 and was the first and sole employee that handled old age pensions in this county that year. With the exception of a year, she has been engaged in that activity since 1935 and has watched the program grow from a time when the average payment granted a person was $3 a month to the present when the average check is $4.

To the voters of Tuscola County: Next Tuesday is primary election day. Republicans of Tuscola county have their choice in nominating the man they want as drain commissioner. I was a candidate for the office two years ago, and was defeated by the incumbent who then sought a third term. Now he is asking your support for a FOURTH term, while I ask you to support me for a FIRST term.

The campaign has been short because of the early election date, and I have kept within reasonable limits in using precious gasoline, so I have not been able to see all of you. I feel you should know something about me, in case it has not been my pleasure to meet you personally.

Two years ago, I received every vote in my township of Arbela except seven, and I carried the neighboring townships. I have never held a county office, but I have been clerk and supervisor of Arbela township for 23 years. As supervisor, I have made the affairs of county drains my special interest, and believe I can serve you most efficiently. My opponent is asking something of you that the voters of Tuscola county never have granted. No man has ever been elected drain commissioner in this county for a fourth term.

Only once in the 100 years of Tuscola county history has any man from Arbela township ever held a county office and that was 50 years ago. Arbela township is in the forefront in all forms of war effort, one of the first to meet its Red Cross, USO and War Bond quotas. It has proved itself an important part of Tuscola county, and in nominating me as your candidate for drain commissioner, I feel you will be giving recognition to a township which has asked little in county affairs, but has never failed to meet its obligations. If nominated and elected, I promise to give the duties of the office my constant attention. I will make it a point to be in my office one day a week, unless circumstances beyond my control prevent it.

Rev. Dudley Mosure Leaves To Enter Chaplain Ranks

Methodists Honor Pastor and Wife in Series of Social Gatherings Here

Rev. Dudley C. Mosure, minister of the Cass City Methodist church, received a telegram Sunday morning from the adjutant general's department at Fort Wayne informing him that all arrangements had been completed for his entrance into the army as a chaplain. He has been recommended as a member of the July class of chaplains and he and Mrs. Mosure expect to leave Cass City today (Friday) for a visit with relatives previous to Mr. Mosure's beginning a six weeks' attendance at the School for Chaplains at Harvard university on July 17. Mrs. Mosure plans to accompany her husband to Cambridge, Mass., and hopes to remain with him should he receive appointment as chaplain at a camp in the States.

Mr. Mosure offered his services as chaplain several weeks ago and during the period of his enlistment to that of his acceptance as a chaplain, the church conference was held and he was reappointed pastor at Cass City. It was anticipated then that Mr. Mosure's acceptance as chaplain would be forthcoming and it was made known that when it occurred appointment of a successor to the pastorate here would be made. As yet no announcement has been made public as to who it will be.

Shortly after Mr. Mosure had been accepted as a chaplain in the United States Army, members of the Methodist church began a series of social events honoring their pastor and his wife.

On June 7 a garden party at the Fred Maier home was given in the afternoon by the Woman's Society of Christian Service and the Circle at which 50 guests were entertained and Mrs. Mosure presented with a gift.

About 80 guests were in attendance when the W. S. C. S. of the Bethel church honored Mrs. Mosure at a tea in the home of Mrs. Delbert Profit on Wednesday evening, June 21. Mrs. Audley Rawson gave highlights of the Methodist conference in Saginaw which she had recently attended and Mrs. Homer Muntz presented Mrs. Mosure with a gift on behalf of the group. The occasion was also the birthday of Mrs. John Marshall, Sr., the oldest active member of the society. She, too, was remembered with a gift.

On Sunday, July 2, the Cass City and Bethel churches united in honoring their pastor and wife. Following the morning services, a dinner was enjoyed in the church dining room which was attended by over 100 people. During an impromptu program, L. I. Wood presided as chairman and talks were

To the voters of Tuscola County: Having a desire to be of further service to the people of this county, I am a candidate for the office of County Treasurer at the Republican Primaries July 11, 1944.

Since becoming your County Treasurer, it has been my only ambition to do a good job and to serve you in a courteous and efficient manner. The work of the office has always been, and now is, right up-to-date. This has been a standard practice throughout the period during which I have been your County Treasurer.

Your attention is called to the endorsement appearing elsewhere in this paper in which representatives of all of the banks of the County endorse my candidacy on the basis of courtesy and efficiency with which the work of the office has been carried on.

I stand squarely on my record, and, if re-nominated and re-elected, I can promise the same type of service to which you have been accustomed and to which you are entitled.

Your vote and influence in my behalf will be sincerely appreciated.

Respectfully,
ARTHUR M. WILLITS.

Cass City Man Listed Among the Wounded

Listed among the 27 Michigan men wounded in the Mediterranean area is Pvt. Walter Kolacz, son of Mrs. Pauline Kolacz, of R. F. D. 2, Cass City.

The war department listed 41 Michigan soldiers Wednesday in an announcement of 1,026 United States soldiers wounded in action. The Michigan casualties included 27 wounded in the Mediterranean area, seven in the European and seven in the Southwest Pacific areas.

Letters from Men Who Are Overseas

Edward H. Doerr, S 2-C, writes his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Doerr, of Cass City, from New Hebrides, under date of June 8: "Well, I finally got here after two and a half weeks at sea. We went across the equator and they gave us an initiation. Now I am a shellback and also a member of the Golden Dragon for crossing the 180th meridian. It was really quite a nice trip. The first day out 80 per cent of the men were seasick, but I was lucky to be in the 20 per cent that weren't."

"This is a tropical south sea island, palm trees and everything. This would be quite a place to have a girl. There's a beautiful moon that shines through the clouds with the palm trees waving overhead."

"Say hello to everybody for me and I hope Bill will be all right. We heard of the invasion at the show the other night and everybody was cheering. It was the best news I've heard in a long time. Maybe I can get home for Christmas after all!"

"Tell Phil to take care of himself and when they push down from Alaska on Tokyo, tell him I'll be waiting for him in Tokyo. I always did want to see those cherry trees!"

Excerpts from letters written to Mr. and Mrs. Hazen Warner of Deford, by their son, Kenneth, in Italy.

"My letters are few and far between these days, and I hope you

A. C. Benkelman and Olive Thompson Wed

Dr. and Mrs. W. W. Scott announce the marriage of their daughter, Olive Scott Thompson, to Alvin C. Benkelman of Alexandria, Va., on June 1 at the manse in Rockville, Maryland, with the Rev. H. K. Pasma officiating.

The bride wore a dress of aqua with brown accessories and a corsage of orchids.

Mrs. Benkelman is a graduate of Radford college and did special work in personnel at Purdue university and at the College of William and Mary. For many years she was social director at Radford college. During the past three years she has been guidance director at the Mount Vernon high school in Alexandria.

Mr. Benkelman, the son of John A. Benkelman of Cass City, has been employed as an engineer by the Michigan State Highway department and the Federal Highway department since his graduation from the University of Michigan.

The couple are making their home at Arcturus-on-the-Potomac, Va., after a northern wedding trip.

Candidate for Judge of Probate on Non-Partisan Ballot.

To the voters of Sanilac County: I fully realize I have held the office, but at the completion of his present term, Judge Paldi will have served the same number of years I served.

I do believe it is conducive to good government for the electors to have a choice of candidates at least once in twelve years.

If, after due consideration of my administration of the office and if the same met your approval, your support at the primary Tuesday, July 11, will be greatly appreciated.

Conditions making it impossible for me to make a personal campaign, may I ask that you accept this as a personal call.

Property Values In Tuscola Co. Are Increased

Supervisors Raise Total Assessments $41,575 Over Previous Year

A tax rate of 5 1/2 mills has been requested of the tax allocation board by the Tuscola board of supervisors to take care of the county general fund, the county jail sinking fund and county drains at large. On the basis of an assessed valuation of $25,143,550, the tax bill in 1944 would amount to $188,289.53.

Supervisors fixed the total real estate valuation of the county at $22,885,275 and $2,258,275 for personal property. This valuation for both classes of property is $41,575 over that of 1943.

Valuations of townships are as follows: Akron, $1,694,775; Almer, $1,199,525; Arbela, $611,195; Columbia, $1,546,355; Dayton, $630,800; Denmark, $1,780,265; Elkland, $1,658,615; Ellington, $579,525; Elmwood, $1,166,175; Fairgrove, $1,617,300; Fremont, $806,915; Gilford, $1,208,025; Indianfield, $2,615,890; Juniata, $824,300; Kingston, $715,750; Koylton, $950,175; Millington, $1,106,600; Novesta, $568,865; Tuscola, $1,133,550; Vassar, $1,297,625; Watertown, $754,075; Wells, $393,875; Wisner, $541,100.

FIRST TEN TO PAY VILLAGE TAXES IN CASS CITY

Village Treasurer Ernest Croft has started the collection of the $6,618.80 of village taxes assessed in Cass City. The first 10 to receive tax receipts are: Mrs. R. C. Ronald, Stanley Warner, Neil McLarty, Henry Smith, D. A. Krug, Arthur Little, James Watson, Mrs. William McKenzie, Chas. Tanner and the W. O. Marshall Estate.

To the voters of Tuscola County: I announced as a candidate for County Treasurer rather late, and as the primary election is held in July instead of in September, I have been unable to meet as many of you as I desired. Under an OPA ruling, candidates were allowed extra gasoline for campaigning, but as I have two sons in the armed service, and mindful of the war time need for gasoline, I did not abuse that privilege.

I have been clerk and supervisor of Tuscola township for 19 years, and as supervisor now I have been chairman of the County Finance Committee of the board of supervisors, and a member of the Ways and Means committee. This service has given me the opportunity to observe county affairs, particularly those pertaining to the office of County Treasurer. I believe I can give you efficient and courteous service.

For many years the voters of this county have followed the practice of giving no office holder a life lease on his position. Apparently my opponent, the incumbent for six years who is now asking for a fourth term, believed in this practice in 1938 for at that time he was running against an incumbent seeking a fourth term, and my opponent said:

"Undoubtedly, too, he (a Fourth Term aspirant), has given you good service in office, but so have many other treasurers before him done the same thing. Treasurers you have in the future will also give you good and efficient service, without doubt."

I promise you, if I am nominated and elected, I will not seek a Fourth Term.

Your support at the primary next Tuesday will be sincerely appreciated.

Farewell Parties for Two Service Men

The young people of the Church of the Nazarene enjoyed a hayride party Wednesday of last week. The affair was a farewell for John Arnold Bugbee, who left Saturday for training and school at Alma. He is a member of the naval air corps. The party ended with a wiener roast at the Herb Wagner home.

About 65 from the Church of Christ and neighbors attended a farewell party in the home of Mrs. Chas. McConnell in Novesta on Wednesday evening, June 28, in honor of Ira Leigh McConnell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon McConnell, who left Friday for induction into the army. Games and visiting were enjoyed and a potluck lunch was served. Leigh was presented with a purse of money from the group. Those from a distance who came were two aunts of Leigh and their families, Mrs. Ernest Wilhelm and children of Dearborn and Mrs. Otis Sweet and children of Carsonville.

To the voters of Tuscola County: Requested by many friends, I seek re-election as drain commissioner of Tuscola county.

Rainy seasons and the government's urgent plea for greater farm production have resulted in more work in the drain office than at any previous time in the history of Tuscola county.

I told you two years ago that I had completed more than three times the drainage jobs usually handled in this office, and the records show that in the past two years I have completed 65% more drains than the preceding two years; also the records still show Tuscola county, under my supervision, as highest of the 85 counties in amount of drainage work done.

Trusting you realize the necessity of experience in completing the amount of work to be done in our drain office during the next two years, I earnestly solicit your support at the primaries next Tuesday, July 11.

Respectfully,
JAMES OSBURN.

To the Voters of Tuscola County:

You will go to the polls next Tuesday, July 11, to nominate candidates for county offices. I am a candidate for the Republican nomination for Sheriff, to which office I believe I am qualified to serve you. For over 10 years I served as a deputy and as chief deputy sheriff, and this record combined with a good education will, I believe, be of value in giving you experienced and intelligent service.

These are busy times, yet the primary election is important, and you should keep in mind the changes in opening and closing the polls. The hours of voting are from 7:00 a. m. to 8:00 p. m., Central War Time, or 8:00 a. m. to 9:00 p. m., Eastern War Time. I earnestly urge you to go to the polls during the above hours and cast your ballot, and I will sincerely appreciate your support for the nomination as sheriff.

Make Drink Out Of Sea Water

Scientists Create Marvels That Save Many Lives, Dr. Ivy Reports.

CHICAGO. —Development of a chemical to remove salt from sea water, thus making it potable, and perfection of a method of canning fresh water for use as long as two years later are among the most important scientific developments of the war, Dr. Andrew C. Ivy, Northwestern university president of physiology, told the university's associates at a luncheon here.

Dr. Ivy also described for the business and civic leaders who give their support to the school the development of a rayon which helps conserve water in the bodies of shipwrecked men, a new protective cream that prevents bomb flash burns, a ventilated mask for welders that protects their lungs against fumes, and progress made in the study of "bends," from which aviators and divers suffer.

Awarded Two Gold Medals.

Dr. Ivy, who joined the Northwestern staff in 1925 and received two gold medals from the American Medical association for scientific investigation, was named civilian director of the Naval Medical Research institute at Bethesda, Md., in October, 1942. He continues to be a consultant to the navy and war departments.

One of the first problems of the navy institute, Dr. Ivy said, was development of a can in which water could be kept aboard life rafts for long periods. In cooperation with two Chicago manufacturers, such a can was perfected and manufactured for use of fliers shot down at sea and those cast adrift from sunken ships.

Because canned water could not be carried in quantity aboard rubber life rafts, the institute, started working on a chemical to remove salt from sea water and now has a kit no larger than a pint can that will produce three gallons of water.

Drink Treated Water.

"Although salt could be removed from sea water successfully," Dr. Ivy said, "there was a popular belief that sea water also contained a poison. To overcome this belief, members of the research staff drank chemically treated sea water for three days.

"One laboratory worker drank it too fast and became ill. I drank it slowly and on the third day experienced a tremendous stimulation because of body dehydration, but we proved there was nothing wrong with sea water from which the salt had been removed."

Butterscotch candy, Dr. Ivy explained, has been found to be the best possible ration for men adrift at sea. Fat in the candy is burned in the body and helps to produce more water than the volume of the fat consumed.

The navy found sailors were being burned by the heat wave that follows explosion of Japanese bombs. This heat wave, which reached a temperature of about 4,350 degrees, was instantaneous and of immeasurable duration. A cream was developed that prevents burns. To this a mosquito repellent has been added, which also protects men in tropical areas.

Dogs' Feud Noisy Factor

On Trip of Gripsholm

JERSEY CITY, N. J.—A feud developed aboard the Gripsholm during the Swedish exchange ship's 10 day trip from Lisbon with American repatriates, only ending with loud back talk when the diplomatic contingent disembarked.

Nukie, a cocker spaniel belonging to Douglas C. MacArthur, nephew of the general and a secretary at the Vichy embassy, took a deep dislike to Purzel, a mixture of dachshund and sealyham belonging to J. Webb Benton, United States consul general in Marseille, and the two yapped heartily at the sight of each other.

Most of the din was raised by the other dogs—there were 16 in all aboard. They had survived the rigors of internment and German rations of two dog biscuits a week, plus endless amounts of potatoes.

Things Begin to Pop

As Obese Woman Stoops

ST. LOUIS, MO.—A soldier and a rather stout woman entered a crowded streetcar. The woman carried two live chickens under her arm.

One of the chickens got away. The woman chased it to the soldier's end of the car. She leaned over to pick it up and a button popped off her coat. The button hit the chicken on the head. The chicken was either startled or stunned.

"That's right, lady," said the soldier. "If they can't catch them, shoot them."

Socialites Do Wash

Well, Albeit Slowly

CHICAGO, ILL.—Short of help and with about 12,000 pounds of linen ready for the tubs, the Children's Memorial hospital sent out an SOS to its women's auxiliary board. A corps of socialites responded, went to work in the laundry room, and whipped the job in twice the time it takes professionals.

The Machine Can't Keep A Good Man Down

in your cooking—

...follow these simple rules for best results on your

ELECTRIC RANGE

Tests show that ONE-THIRD the vitamins in fresh vegetables may be lost through improper cooking before the food ever reaches your table. Your electric range can help conserve these important minerals and food values, and aid in the preparation of healthful meals for your family if you follow these simple rules:

(1) Use little water in cooking. Half-a-cup is ample for most vegetables. Water-soluble vitamins are boiled away and poured down the sink when you use large quantities of water, wasting the very things you pay for. By steam-cooking vegetables, this loss is held to a minimum. Avoid the vitamin-destroying effect of the boiling process.

(2) Avoid prolonged and violent boiling. The less time foods are exposed to high heat, liquid and air, the smaller the loss of their vitamin content. On an electric range, there is no large amount of water to be heated before the cooking can start.

(3) Use covered utensils and do not stir. Air destroys certain vitamins, and stirring simply puts extra air into the food. Always use covered utensils when cooking on the surface units of your range.

THE DETROIT EDISON COMPANY

GAGETOWN

Death of Mrs. LeClair—
Mrs. Zeffrey LeClair, 67, passed away at her home in Detroit on June 28, after an illness of six months. Funeral services were held at St. Ambrose church in Detroit at 11:00 a. m. on July 1. Burial was in St. Agatha's cemetery in Gagetown.

Mrs. LeClair, the former Miss Lillian Wood, was born Feb. 4, 1877, in Gagetown. She was married May 8, 1897, to Zeffrey LeClair, who survives her.

Besides her husband, she leaves one son, Harold LeClair, of Detroit; one sister, Mrs. Isaiah Montreuil of Gagetown; and three brothers, Gervais, Oliver, and Joseph Wood, of Gagetown.

Mrs. LeClair was the president of the St. Ambrose Altar society.

Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Repshinska and sons, Vincent and Paul, were Saturday and Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Waldo Weiler of New Baltimore.

Oak Bluff Breezes

Many of the members of the summer colony, who have spent their vacations here since the beginning of a permanent resort, remember with pleasure and no little sentiment the old Golden home. Mr. and Mrs. Golden were for years almost a fixture here. Mr. Golden acted as resort caretaker and Mrs. Golden supplied from her kitchen, yard, and small dairy many delicious items such as hot homemade bread, coffee cakes covered with thick brown sugar, cinnamon and cream. From the garden came fresh green peas and strawberries and other green things, and we always had to help Henry get the cows past the cottages and hang around the cool porch waiting for the evening milk and thick cream. Mr. and Mrs. Golden have long since passed on but we still look with affection on the old house, so it was with pleasure we noticed this week that the Charles Golden of Detroit and their two sons were here and the shutters were once more open.

Outdoor suppers are again popular with just enough breeze to keep mosquitoes away. The Wurms, Burkes and Todds joined forces to entertain the Todd guests Sunday evening.

Dr. and Mrs. Wm. Sturm and Mr. and Mrs. Harding of Detroit are occupying the Leo Hutchinson cottage for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Sandham were here over the week end at Sandy Nook and had as guests Mr. and Mrs. Roy Briggs of St. Johns, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Green of Bad Axe, and Mr. and Mrs. Archie Vallier of Lansing.

Dr. and Mrs. McIntyre and son, Donnie, of Detroit and Mrs. Ethel McCoy of Cass City were at Martha-Mary cottage from Saturday until Tuesday.

Mrs. Flora Milholland and Mrs. Grace Spinks have completed their school year as instructors in the Detroit schools and have opened their cottages here until September.

Charles Ballard and family of Flint are here for a two weeks' vacation and on Thursday Mrs. Elizabeth Deo and Fred Ballard of North Branch were visitors.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Willetts of Detroit have opened their cottage for the balance of the season and had as week-end guests Mr. and Mrs. Sam Willetts.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Todd had as their guests over the week end of the fourth the Misses Dorothea MacClellan, Helen Ballack and Mr. and Mrs. Eugene LaJuste, all of Detroit.

Keep in mind the annual meeting the 14th at the Maxwell cottage at 2:00 p. m. Among other items of business the celebration of the fiftieth anniversary will be discussed. Plan to be there if you are a member or see that your proxy is sent.

Homemade Sickroom Aids

To improvise an ice bag, tie the ends of a piece of inner tube securely; carefully sew up the sleeve of an old raincoat; or fold over the zippered edge of a vegetable bag. Bricks, flat irons, Dutch oven lids, soap stones or bags of hot salt, cornmeal, or sand are substitutes for hot water bottles. It's always more convenient for a patient to drink from straws. They may be bought at grocery and drug stores.

Dry Soybeans

Dry soybeans can be used as a base for delicious soups and as an important part of casseroles or stews. The seasoned pulp of cooked soybeans makes an attractive filling for stuffed tomatoes or green peppers. Ground cooked soybeans combined with other ingredients make appetizing and nutritious sandwich fillings. Dry cooked soybeans can also be chilled and used in vegetable or gelatin salads—they are especially good with tomatoes. Roasted dry soybeans are often used and can be substituted for nuts in this form.

Let Cattle Work

Potatoes eaten daily can provide as much as 25 per cent or an average person's vitamin C needs, together with B vitamins, iron and other minerals and a good quality of protein, in addition to the fuel food, starch.

around $27 a month in Michigan. In rural communities, the average payment is slightly less. 4-H Club Goes All Out in War Bond Effort

The Four-H Clubs of America, 1,700,000 strong, are making a vital contribution to the war program helping in the gigantic problem of keeping the food supply line strong and in buying War Bonds. Here are some scenes of 4-H boys and girls at their work. No. 1 shows Glenn Whittenberg, of Hidalgo County, Texas, with his fine litter which will help the food supply. Glenn is putting his profits in War Bonds. No. 2 shows an ambulance purchased by the 37,000 members of the 4-H Club members of Virginia. Representing the Virginia Clubs in the picture is Carolyn Steele, Fairview, and Richard Fleming, of Bransville. Major Barnard Sobol, USA, is accepting the ambulance, with Director M. L. Wilson of the Extension Service Department of Agriculture, looking on. No. 3 shows Billy Fleming of Fairfax County, Virginia, helping Dad with the chores. Billy is putting his earnings into War Bonds. 4-H Club members own 90,000 head of dairy cattle. No. 4—4-H Clubs make a mighty contribution to the poultry and egg supply, raising 9 million chickens in 1943. Here is Helen Wheeling, Brown County, South Dakota, with a couple of her birds. She also buys War Bonds with her profits. No. 4—4-H Clubbers are also Victory Gardeners. Here is Jane Buddard of Frederick County, Maryland, in her garden. These farm youngsters raised 5 million bushels of garden produce last year. Back the Attack—Buy More Than Before.

Honolulu World's Tattoo Center Now

Soldiers and Sailors Keep Skin Artists Busy.

HONOLULU. — The slender kid in navy whites made a wry face and shivered slightly as the electrical tattoo machine set up a raspy buzz.

"No worse'n goin' to the dentist," he grinned to a buddy waiting next in line.

The needle in the hands of a shy lad with brown eyes was tracing a multi-colored floral design on the sailor's right forearm. The letters in the center spelled out the legend, "To My Dear Mother."

In front of the small establishment stood 18 other young men—some in army khaki, the majority in navy whites. All were waiting patiently to have the young tattoo artist or one of his three assistants ply their skin art on chests, legs or arms—wherever they preferred.

This particular sidewalk establishment known as "Miller's Tattooing Emporium," is operated by 25-year-old Eugene Miller, a dark-skinned native of Hawaii, who is the "world's greatest and youngest tattoo artist." A large sign above his modest shop says so.

It is one of Honolulu's eight tattooing parlors where 33 operators are making the electrical pain machines buzz a golden flow into their coffers.

Almost overnight, Honolulu has gained the dubious title of the world's tattoo center. Conservative estimates place the annual "take" at more than $500,000, with an average of nearly $80,000 per establishment.

The scene at young Miller's shop was typical. The stream of customers is never-ending during daylight hours. The shops are always filled with waiting customers.

One estimate fixed the daily number of tattoo victims here at 300 to 500, who pay an average of $3. For small, simple designs the price may be as low as 50 cents. But it costs $20 to $25 to have a big, elaborate leg or chest job.

Britain's Rocket Gun Is

Like July 4, but Lethal

A SOUTH COAST TOWN, ENGLAND.—A demonstration of Britain's rocket gun revealed that it is a prewar Fourth of July skyrocket on a lethal scale.

General Sir Frederick Pile, commander in chief of the British anti-aircraft command, said that the gun had tremendous possibilities as an offensive weapon against air-planes, although he doubted that it would displace the present standard anti-aircraft gun.

Pile revealed that the British began experimenting with the rocket gun in 1933, but that only in the last three months has it been employed in the United Kingdom on a large scale.

The projector of the gun has four long rails resembling organ pipes balanced between two sheet iron frames. Each shell slides between two rails and is expelled by a press button.

Firing of a battery creates a sound like "whoosh," which is followed by a "crump crump crump" spreading as the shells burst in the air.

Navigator and Radio Man Of Fortress Aid Rescue

A FLYING Fortress BASE IN BRITAIN.—A British rescue launch summoned by radio was waiting when the Flying Fortress Buccaneer was forced down in the North sea by a fuel shortage after the latest American attack on Berlin, and her 10 crew men stepped across as she settled, hardly wetting a foot.

The navigator, Lieut. Norman W. Bashant, 27, of Faust, N. Y., had figured out where the bomber was going to splash. The radio operator, Sergt. Abraham D. Toporofsky, 21, of New York, flashed the signals for help. "Toporofsky spared us the ordeal of spending hours in a light raft by the swell job he did of contacting ground stations," said the pilot, Lieut. Hershel A. McGuire, 23, of Hotchkiss, Colo.

Soldiers Dislike Movies Showing Glorified Heroes

WASHINGTON. — American soldiers on the fighting fronts don't like movies with glorified war heroes.

Maj. Gen. Frederick H. Osborn, director of the army's morale service division, so reported to the war department after a 30,000 mile tour of the Pacific war zones, where he inquired into the entertainment preferences of troops overseas.

The men, who see Hollywood's latest offerings on makeshift screens near the firing lines, like newsreels, comedies, musical pictures and informational films.

Typhus Battle Is Won; Admit Yanks to Naples

NAPLES. — Allied doctors apparently have won the campaign against typhus-bearing lice and American troops have been readmitted to the city. Naples was off limits to Allied troops on leave for several months while a typhus epidemic was threatened. An official announcement said marked improvement in the situation had allowed a lifting in part of the restriction.

Cellulose From Weeds
Although cellulose is found in its purest form in cotton, one acre of growing trees in certain areas will produce five times as much cellulose each year, and year after year, as the same acre planted in cotton.

to say that the world held its breath awaiting the invasion of Hitler's Europe. No subject or theme was more discussed or more anticipated than that. When and where it was to take place is no longer a military secret.

What form will it take? What results will be achieved? Perhaps that will depend on you, and you, and you. Joe is in the thick of it over there and he needs a lot of supplies and equipment now and for months to come. Success of the Fifth War Loan is necessary that the flow of his needs will not be stopped and he will be able to complete his task and come back Home as soon as possible.

YOUR PURCHASE OF WAR BONDS WILL INSURE THE FOUR FREEDOMS.

READ THEM.

The first is freedom of speech and expression.

The second is freedom of every person to worship God in his own way, everywhere in the world.

The third is freedom from want . . . to every nation a healthy peace-time life for its inhabitants.

The fourth is freedom from fear of aggression and oppression.

YOU MUST BE A VOLUNTEER

You know your own ability to buy —so go today to the post office or your own bank and buy as much as you can.

The committee does not plan any house-to-house canvas, so a solicitor will not call on you. You are your own solicitor.

Whether your ability is to buy an $18.75 series E bond, or $1,000.00, or $5,000.00, of one of the other issues, your part is important.

DO IT TODAY.

The Committee will report to you on this page each week just how the drive is progressing here in Elkland-Novesta—how many buyers, and the amount bought until our quota is reached. Drive closes July 8.

HOWARD E. SLAFTER FOR County Treasurer

Primary election day is next Tuesday, July 11. Republicans of Tuscola County will nominate their candidates for county office. HOWARD E. SLAFTER of Tuscola township is asking your support for County Treasurer. It is the FIRST time he has ever asked for a county office. The other candidate for County Treasurer is asking not for a FIRST term nor a second term, nor even a third term, but he wants you to elect him for a FOURTH term. He did not tell you in 1938 when he first ran for this office that he was opposed to a FOURTH term, but he inferred that. How?

He quoted his opponent's campaign literature in which his opponent then running against a candidate seeking a FOURTH term said: "I do not ask a life lease for this office—I simply ask for a fair trial—and the opportunity to serve you faithfully and efficiently." The incumbent, now asking you to elect him for a FOURTH term, had this to say when he ran for the office for a first term in 1938: "IT SEEMS TO MANY PEOPLE THAT THE INCUMBENT, WHO SIX YEARS AGO USED THE FOURTH TERM ARGUMENT AGAINST HIS OPPONENT, SHOULD NOT NOW BE ASKING FOR A FOURTH TERM HIMSELF. THEY FEEL THAT AT THIS TIME ANOTHER MAN SHOULD BE GIVEN THE OPPORTUNITY TO SERVE YOU AS YOUR COUNTY TREASURER, AND OF COURSE I HOPE THAT YOU WILL BE AMONG THOSE WHO FEEL THAT WAY ABOUT IT."

No Person Has Ever Held Four Terms As Treasurer of Tuscola County

NEXT TUESDAY

Facts You Should Know, Mr. and Mrs. Voter:

We Think:

Candidate Jules Goslin, seeking nomination for the office of Sheriff at the Republican Primaries, July 11, should be elected.

Because:

He knows the office, having been a deputy sheriff for nine years. First as a local deputy, later attached to the office. Chief deputy for 2 years and as undersheriff acting during the illness of the sheriff (at deputy pay.) He is a solid citizen who knows the way of community and village life. Served 10 years as a trustee for the village of Gagetown.

And Lest We Forget:

He is an American Legionnaire, veteran of World War I. Spending 18 months in the Army, 10 of those in France.

Chas. B. Little, S 2-C

The elder son of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Little, Chas. B. Little, is preparing for duty with the amphibious forces aboard an LST—Landing Ship, Tank—one of the biggest ships in the Navy's invasion fleet. Seaman Little's parents reside on their farm on M-53, near Shabbona road, in Evergreen township. John W. Little is a veteran of World War I and was overseas in that conflict.

Charles B. Little has been assigned to the crew of an LST at the amphibious training base at Camp Bradford, Va., where he is going through the strenuous training required of bluejackets who man the beach-hitting tank carriers.

Heavier than a modern destroyer, the 300-foot LST lands assault troops and equipment directly on to enemy beachheads, under the protective bombardment of heavy warships and navy planes. Despite its size and weight, the landing vessel is designed to navigate shallow approaches to hostile beaches, spilling its troops and tanks ashore through huge bow doors.

Camp Bradford, where Charles B. Little is stationed, is one of a group of bases operated by the Amphibious Training Command of the U. S. Atlantic Fleet along the eastern seaboard.

Norman J. Sharrard, 22, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joshua Sharrard, and Archie L. McCallum, 25, both of the Cass City community, are receiving initial naval indoctrination at the U. S. Naval Training Center, Great Lakes, Ill. Boot training consists of instruction in seamanship, military drill and general naval procedure. During this period a series of aptitude tests will be taken by each recruit to determine whether he will be assigned to a naval service school or to immediate active duty at sea.

Lt. Marvin Moore, located at Bradley Field, Conn., completely surprised his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Moore, last week by paying them a short visit. His sister, Mrs. Donald Lester, of Detroit brought him to Cass City and he was able to remain here from Tuesday noon to Wednesday noon. He expects to go overseas in September.

—V—

Pfc. and Mrs. Clifton Witkovsky have been enjoying a 13-day furlough which they have been spending with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Witkovsky, of Caro, and Mr. and Mrs. George Thompson of Cass City.

—V—

Harold John LaFave, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Edward LaFave of Gagetown, is receiving his initial naval indoctrination at the U. S. Naval Training Center at Great Lakes, Illinois.

—V—

Wm. L. Dehetre, son of Mrs. L. H. Dehetre, formerly Irma Lavigne, has been promoted to pharmacist's mate 3rd class, attached to the Marine air service. Mrs. Dehetre's other sons, Harley of the Navy and Herbert of the engineers, are serving somewhere in the southwest Pacific area.

—V—

Delbert Wesley Sprinkle, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Sprinkle, formerly Ella Harder, has been promoted to 3rd class petty officer. He is somewhere in the south Pacific.

Cut Poultry Losses

Seventy million pounds of extra poultry meat was saved last year in the U. S. because farmers reduced their poultry losses by 3 per cent.

understand the reason why. No doubt you have been worrying a little more than usual, but there really isn't anything for you to lose any sleep over. You don't have any idea of what I'm doing from one day to another, so there's no use of thinking about me. Just think of me only as your son away from home and working at some job, not fighting. I hate to have you worrying when I'm not.

"I think that I'll always remember my 22nd birthday. Had birthday dinner in Rome with one of the boys. Had a good time and saw plenty of interesting places. We didn't exactly know what we were ordering when we asked for something to eat, but we enjoyed it anyway. I couldn't tell you what we had as I'm not so sure what it was. Maybe it was better that we didn't know what we were having. Didn't taste like your cooking, mother, but when you are hungry anything is good, even hash, the army's standby.

"Yes, mother, when we are moving into new positions, we meet all kinds of people with their cars and personal things on the road away from the line of action. When we pass through towns quite a ways in the rear, the civilians make quite a fuss over us. I'm enjoying a few days of rest now, so you will hear from me a little more often.

"I'm feeling swell and, by the way, I got weighed in Rome and tipped the scales at 178. Not bad, but a little excess weight I believe. I played in a ball game this evening and have also been swimming in the sea."

From Somewhere in India, under date of June 13, Sgt. Gerald Kerbyson writes his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Kerbyson, of Cass City:

"Just a few lines to let you know that I am receiving your mail pretty good now and hope that it keeps coming through the same way. This week I have gotten three letters, two papers and a package from you. The last paper was the May 26th print.

"It surely has been hot here. I take two or three showers each day and still do not feel refreshed. The wind blows fine dust a lot of the time and makes you feel dirty all the time along with the heat.

"I met a Red Cross girl out at camp the other night from Saginaw and got talking to her and found out that her dad used to call on dad in the restaurant. He worked for Valley Sweet. His name is Blackney. I asked her about Guy Bennett and she knew him real well. She claimed that she had been to the restaurant several times. She even named several places in town and other towns near by, so she had been in that part of the country.

"I was reading the last paper that I got and saw where they had a big supper for Stuart Atwell. That sure was too bad about that Vaden boy. In one of Vernetta's last letters she was telling me about it."

—V—

T-5 Leslie Steward writes his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Steward under date of June 16:

"I am in France now. I suppose you have been reading about what is happening over here. I'm kept pretty busy these days so if there is quite an interval between letters don't be surprised. Don't worry about me, Mom. I'm fine as usual although I have seen some Jerries."

In making my bid for reelection as State Representative on Republican ticket at Primaries next Tuesday, July 11, would ask that you consider this final appeal as a personal visit. Under these present War Time restrictions, it has been impossible for me to see all the voters. I want to thank the farm organizations for their recent endorsements, besides individuals who offered assistance. Retain me as your representative and I will continue to be on the job at Lansing to represent all the people of Sanilac county.

Be good citizens and vote next Tuesday.

A. P. DECKER

To the Voters of Sanilac County:

During my present campaign for the nomination of Prosecuting Attorney of Sanilac County, on the Republican ticket, it has been impossible to call personally upon the voters of the county.

I feel that my 13 years' experience as a practicing attorney in Sanilac county qualifies me to perform the duties of this important office.

If nominated and elected everyone will receive equally fair, courteous and impartial treatment from me.

Two years ago in a political advertisement the present incumbent of the Prosecutor's office called attention to the fact that every prosecuting attorney since 1914 had served three terms, implying that he too should be given a third term. He is now serving his third term and asking to be nominated for a fourth term.

No Prosecuting Attorney in Sanilac County in the past thirty years has served more than three successive terms.

A change of only 156 votes would have resulted in my nomination for this office in the Primary two years ago.

Your vote and support will be appreciated at the Primary July 11.

Sincerely,

Charles W. Rigney
