

Raymond Patnaude Killed in Accidental Discharge of Gun

Seniors of Gagetown H. S. Were Pallbearers at Funeral on Thursday

From Gagetown correspondent. Raymond Patnaude, 17, a senior in the Gagetown high school, was killed by the accidental discharge of a shotgun in the basement of the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Patnaude, northwest of Gagetown, Monday morning, July 2. The young man was wounded in the chest.

He had gone to the basement to get the gun with the intention of going to take a dog for a run. The family upstairs heard a shot and when they entered the basement, he was found lying on the floor fatally wounded.

Coroner H. T. Donahue of Cass City decided the shooting was accidental and held no inquest.

Funeral services were conducted Thursday morning by Rev. Fr. John McCullough in St. Agatha church and burial was in the parish cemetery. Pallbearers were seniors of the high school.

Raymond Patnaude was born in Detroit on May 23, 1928, and came to Tuscola county in 1936. He was a member of the Holy Name society and St. Agatha church.

Besides his parents, he is survived by a brother, Richard, and a sister, Shirley, both at home.

GAGETOWN

Golden Wedding—

Mr. and Mrs. Julius Fischer celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary with a family dinner at Blue Water Inn, Cassville, on June 23. There were five generations present: Mrs. Dorothy Zissler, 92 years; mother of Mrs. Julius Fischer; Mrs. Julius Fischer; Mrs. Wilfred McGrath of Bay City; Mrs. Russel Pringle of Bay City; Mrs. Fringie's daughters, Judith Ann and Prudith Ann, twins, and infant daughter, Suzanne.

Julius Fischer was born in Blumfield, Saginaw county, Sept. 19, 1871, and Mrs. Fischer, nee Sophia Zissler, was born in Germany Nov. 3, 1875. She came to this country when she was six years old and was married to Mr. Fischer in Blumfield, Saginaw county, June 23, 1895. They have five children: Mrs. Elsie McGrath, Bay City; Edward Fischer and Arthur Fischer, Gagetown; Mrs. Arletta Poole, Snover; T/Sgt. Melvin Fischer of Atlanta, Georgia; 12 grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

Two Barns Burned Wednesday—
The barn on the farm of Robert Willis was struck by lightning Wednesday night and burned to the ground. The tenant on the farm, Dennis Rocheleau, had two tractors, two mowers, binder, seed drill and other machinery, hay and grain, four tons of fertilizer and cultivators destroyed by the fire. Barn and contents were partly covered by insurance.

Later the same night the barn on the William Hinton farm was struck and burned together with two hogs, a calf and two dogs. The loss is partly covered by insurance.

Death of Geo. J. Clara—

Rev. Earl Geer conducted the funeral services for George James Clara at the Hunter funeral home on Saturday afternoon, June 30. Burial was in the Gagetown cemetery. Mr. Clara had been in failing health for some time and his death came June 28 at his home in Gagetown.

Born in Kent, Ohio, on Jan. 14, 1860, he came to Gagetown from Kent when a young man to live with his uncle, Samuel Seekings, and engaged in farming. On Apr. 3, 1889, he married Edith Viola Gage.

He leaves his widow and seven children, Mrs. Harve Krug of Royal Oak; Bert, Arthur and Ralph Clara and Mrs. Earl Russell, all of Gagetown; Mrs. Geo. Ulrich of Toledo, Ohio; and Miss May Belle Clara of St. Johns.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Harding and family of Pontiac visited last week with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Thiel. Other guests last week were Marie and Rita Thiel of Pontiac. Paul Thiel, Seaman 1st class, of Seattle, Washington, is spending a leave of three weeks with his parents.

Sgt. William McHenry, who has been overseas for several months and flew in four missions over Germany, is spending a 34-day furlough with his mother, Mrs. Sadie McHenry, and sister, Mrs. Harold Johnston.

Mrs. Law Has Three Grandchildren Who Were Graduated from High School in June

Sitting in the above picture is Mrs. Ward Law. Standing, left to right, are Lorraine Murray, Lawrence Ball, Jr., and Marion Ball. Mrs. Ward Law, formerly Mrs. John Ball, has the distinction of having three grandchildren who were graduated from high schools last month. Lawrence Ball, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Ball, Sr., and Miss Lorraine Murray, daughter of Paul Murray, are members of the class of 1945 of the Cass City high school and Miss Marion Ball belongs to this year's graduating class of the Sebawaing high school.

H. W. Newland Named Assistant County Ag. Agent

Will Be in Charge of 4-H Club and Other Extension Activities

Word was received this week from R. J. Baldwin, director of extension at Michigan State college, that the State Board of Agriculture has appointed H. William Newland as assistant county agent in Tuscola county. The appointment was effective on July 5.

The county board of supervisors has approved his appointment and will make provision for his office and travel expenses. As with the county agricultural agent and the county home demonstration agent, Mr. Newland's salary is paid by Michigan State college.

Mr. Newland will take over the responsibility of the boys' and girls' 4-H club work in the county. He will also be available to assist the county agent in other extension work.

Mr. Newland has been the vocational agriculture teacher at Caro high school during the past year.

Previous to this work, he taught vocational agriculture at Ewen, Michigan, for four years. He was graduated from Michigan State college in 1940 with a bachelor of science degree.

Mr. and Mrs. Newland and son, Lee, will continue to live at their West Congress street address in Caro.

Mrs. Rose Broseau of Chicago came June 23 to spend several weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Francis Fritz.

Address Your Mail Correctly—The Navy Will Make Delivery Despite Hazards of War

The Navy is vitally interested in seeing that mail is delivered to all the boys in the service. That which is properly and legibly addressed is quickly dispatched to its destination. Despite the hazards of war and weather, the Navy Mail Service has delivered letters to remote ships and stations with great efficiency. But—the mail must be addressed correctly.

Mail addressed to amphibious craft seems to give the most trouble. But if the sender addresses it properly, the Navy will get it through. In the first place, there are at least ten different types of craft—LSD (Landing Ship, Dock); LSV (Landing Ship, Vehicle); LCI (Landing Craft, Infantry); LSM (Landing Ship, Medium); LCT (Landing Craft, Tank); LCS (Landing Craft, Support); and LCL (Landing Craft, Infantry—for more personnel).

Each type may have hundreds of different units numbering from 1 to 600. LCI No. 442 may be operating in the Pacific, whereas LCT No. 442 may be in the Mediterranean. The letters "T" and "I" are often interchanged or are written so similarly that they are unreadable. If the "T" is mistaken for a "I," the letters would go far out of the way and the delay would be several weeks.

Some are still under the impression that the Navy has one vessel called LST and they address their mail to the USS LST, Fleet Post Office, San Francisco. This is just like addressing mail to Main Street, U. S. A.

Undelivered letters due to incomplete, incorrect, or illegible addresses amount to more than 5,000 a day at the Fleet Post Office, San Francisco. While the letters are undelivered a lot of lonely men are waiting and wondering why their mail isn't coming through.

No Favorites in Old Timers' Game

Participants in the old timers' baseball game here on the afternoon of July 12 are not limited to those chosen by the two captains in the days preceding the contest. "Any old timer who did not receive an invitation to play is invited to come to the city park on July 12 and report to the management and he will be assigned a place," says John Muntz, one of the promoters of the contest. "He must, of course, be in the 40-year-old class or 'better'."

Proceeds of the game are for the hospital fund.

Pine Tree Shaded Lawn Is Scene of Wedding Friday

A pretty wedding was solemnized on the beautiful, pine tree secluded lawn of the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Pearce, Bingham township, when their daughter, Miss Eva Mae Pearce, became the bride of Mr. Frederick E. Knoblet, son of Mr. and Mrs. Riner Knoblet, of Cass City, Friday, June 29, at 2:30 p. m.

The bride was escorted by her father to an arch, banked with baskets of white and pink peonies, where the ceremony was performed by Rev. Melvin R. Vender of Cass City. Mrs. Vender is a cousin of the bride.

The gown chosen by the bride for her wedding was fashioned of white satin and chiffon. The snug bodice of the dress was of satin with sweetheart neckline and three-quarter length sleeves. The long, full, chiffon skirt was topped with a peplum. With it she wore a finger-tip veil of illusion with a headpiece of pearl embroidered net. She carried an arm bouquet of white carnations, centered with gardenias and tied with white satin ribbon and streamers. Her only jewelry was a strand of pearls, a gift of the groom.

Miss Reta Pearce, a sister of the bride, as bridesmaid wore a gown styled similarly with a blue satin bodice and full net skirt and sleeves. Her headpiece made of net was centered with flowers. She carried an arm bouquet of pink carnations tied with pink satin ribbon.

Flower girl Bonnie McKenzie dressed in pink net followed the bridesmaid with a basket of rose petals which she strewed in the Market Cattle Off Grass Now for Better Prices

Right now may be the logical time to market beef cattle which are on grass. At any rate, a marketing program should be considered carefully by each farmer who expects to sell cattle off grass, according to George A. Brannan, animal husbandry research specialist at Michigan State college.

He believes that fat heifers, cows and steers with weight and flesh will sell better during the next few weeks than in late summer and fall, barring drastic changes in meat regulations. He sizes up the situation about like this:

Although grass cattle are selling sharply below grain fed cattle, it is usually a waste of feed to provide grain to pasture cattle for less than about 60 days.

Pastures are well stocked and it is likely that large numbers of cattle will move to market as grass disappears and winter approaches. This will take the edge off the market. The public is hungry for meat now and the demand is holding prices up until the fall selling rush begins.

If the farmer is thinking of feeding to heavier weights, he needs to realize that a hundred-pound gain would be needed to make up for a cent-a-pound cut in price on a thousand-pound animal.

Because of the shortage of hay, most raisers need to conserve pasture for fall and early winter for use of breeding cattle and other livestock. This can be done by early marketing of beef animals.

Cattle may fail to gain or may even lose weight, on late summer pastures that ordinarily become short and dry.

These are factors that tend to make early marketing of fleshy cattle advisable.

REV. AND MRS. K. BISBEE AT METHODIST CAMP

Tuscola Co. Will Raise Bond Quota Is Prediction

Series "E" Purchases of $583,813 Up to June 30 Were Disappointing

Reports of sales of war bonds in Tuscola county up to June 30 showed sales of $1,474,275.75, which was just $9,724.25 short of the county's quota of $1,484,000 in the seventh war loan campaign. As the campaign continues until tomorrow (Saturday), there is no doubt in the mind of Clarence Bougher, county sales manager, that the quota will be reached this week.

The following sales by districts show four communities had exceeded their quotas on June 30 and others were very close to their assignments.

| District | Sales | Quotas |
|-------------------|--------------|-----------|
| Akron-Wisner | $108,542.60 | $118,640 |
| Caro | 297,546.25 | 296,600 |
| Cass City | 209,825.75 | 148,300 |
| Fairgrove-Gilford | 65,092.60 | 118,640 |
| Gagetown | 60,421.55 | 59,320 |
| Kingston | 38,905.00 | 59,320 |
| Mayville | 233,604.90 | 148,300 |
| Millington | 54,599.00 | 74,150 |
| Reese-Richville | 116,674.10 | 148,300 |
| Unionville | 62,185.25 | 88,980 |
| Vassar | 228,878.75 | 252,110 |

Sales in "E" bonds have been disappointing, however. The sales of this series up to June 30 had reached a total of $583,813.26. The county's "E" bond quota is $863,000.

Paragraphs About Folks in the Service

Sgt. V. M. Hoadley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arville Hoadley, of Lansing, has been visiting his grandmother, Mrs. Guy Hoadley, of Greenleaf township, and other relatives for the past few days.

Sgt. Hoadley was married April 7, 1945, to Miss Beryl Branbridge, chief radar operator in the British A. T. S. Mr. Hoadley is expected to join her husband in Lansing as soon as transportation can be arranged.

Sgt. Hoadley returned from England about a month ago and was sent to a hospital in Texas for a short time. He received several wounds while serving as a paratrooper and saw service in the Far East, Sicily, Italy and Yugoslavia. He is a wearer of the Bronze Star, the Purple Heart and the Presidential citation. After leaving the hospital in Africa, he was stationed for a short time in Ireland and later spent a year in England.

Spec. 1/c Carl Reagh, who has been stationed in Puerto Rico, came home Saturday from New Orleans to spend two weeks with relatives here. Mrs. Carl Reagh, who has spent some time here, has extended her vacation here for two weeks to spend the time with her husband. Carl will report back to New Orleans for further assignment.

Chief Warrant Officer Ronald Reagh came the first of the week to Detroit. Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Reagh met Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Reagh and their son in Pontiac and brought them to Cass City to visit here and at Pigeon until Saturday when they will return to their home in Detroit to spend the remainder of his 14-day leave. Ronald has been on duty in the South Pacific on an aircraft carrier.

Cpl. Wayne Dewey arrived home Tuesday evening to spend a 32-day furlough. He entered service in August, 1942, and went overseas in June, 1944. He landed in England, going from there to France, Belgium, Holland and into Germany where he was in combat for 110 days. He is a member of the 95th Division which took Metz. At the completion of his furlough, he will report to Fort Dix, N. J.

The service flag displayed in the window in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Little, which was placed there July 4 for their son, Pvt. Grant M. Little, who was inducted into the army June 29, is much larger than the ones now displayed. It is the same flag which hung in the window in the home of the late Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Little in Novesta during World War I days when Arthur Little was a member of Batt. B, 329th F. A. The flag was made for the late Mrs. Wm. Little by Mrs. Evelyn Dickinson Gardner, now of Plymouth. The flag and pin worn

Troth Told

Miss Somes.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Somes of Neebish Island, Mich., announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Eva Jane Somes, to Myron Louis Harris, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Harris, of New York City. Miss Somes made her home with her grandmother, Mrs. Geo. Burt, in Cass City for six years and was graduated with the class of 1944 from the local high school. She was employed in the Maier Studio here before going to Detroit last fall where she was employed for several months and a short time ago went to New York City.

Mr. Harris was graduated in 1940 from Woodmere high school, Long Island, N. Y. He served in the army for two and a half years and Dec. 14, 1944, was honorably discharged.

No date has been set for the wedding.

Slightly Bruised Hand Belonging to Pfc. Chas. Nix Only Cost for Three Jap Prisoners

With the 40th Infantry Division in the Philippines—a slightly bruised right hand belonging to Pfc. Charles L. Nix was the only cost for three Jap prisoners on the island of Negros.

Nix, son of Mrs. Mamie Hughes, 610 Collingwood, Detroit, and Sim Nix, R. R. No. 3, Cass City, is a minefield sweeper and mine layer for the 185th Infantry, 40th Infantry Division.

This veteran of New Britain, Luzon, Panay and 74 days of consecutive fighting with front line troops on Negros, had withdrawn from the mountains with his Anti-Tank company.

The town of Silay had been liberated and was supposedly free of the Japanese. Army regulations said none of the men given passes to the town were to carry weapons. Nix received a pass.

While seeing the city, two Filipinos told him of two Nips who were in hiding and wanted to surrender. Unarmed the doughboy de-

Bernard Chaffee, 13, Drowned in Gravel Pit Sunday

Body in Water 1½ Hours Brought to Surface by Grappling Hooks

Tragedy struck in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Chaffee in Elmwood township Sunday afternoon when their son, Bernard, age 13, was accidentally drowned while trying to swim in a gravel pit on the Hiser farm, 5½ miles southwest of Cass City, on M-81.

The family had attended church in town and after dinner at home, Bernard, with a brother, Dale, 17, Tommie Hendrick and Robert Leach went to the gravel pit. Only Leach could swim very well. After being in the water only a short time, Bernard dropped into a deep part of the pit and efforts on the part of Leach to rescue the boy were futile. Help was summoned and when the body had been in the water about an hour and a half, Eagle Scout James Mark found it with grappling hooks and with the aid of Paul Dewey pulled it out of the pit. Coroner Lee Huston was called, also Deputy Sheriff Earl Laur and Sheriff Jules Goslin of Caro.

Bernard was born Dec. 25, 1931, in Elkland township. He was a regular attendant of the Methodist Sunday school and church and had completed the eighth grade in school.

Surviving are his parents and the following sisters and brothers, Mrs. Edith Wightman of Grand Blanc, Sgt. Aaron Lewis Chaffee in France, Mrs. Alice Wightman of Caro, Rev. Geo. Chaffee of Evanston, Ill., Mrs. Violet Ellison of Pontiac, Mrs. Frances McCoom of Caro, Dale, Arlene and Shirley Ann at home.

Funeral services were held Tuesday at 2 p. m. in the Douglas funeral home. Rev. Kenneth Bisbee officiated and burial was made in Elkland cemetery.

Miss Myerholts the New H. E. Instructor

Miss Marjorie Myerholts of Morenci will be the new home economics instructor in the Cass City high school next autumn. She taught in the Manchester schools last year.

Miss Myerholts spent the week end in Cass City with Mrs. Don Miller, who was her classmate at Michigan State college.

DISCUSS COMMUNITY HOUSE FOR SERVICE CLUBS

A general discussion on the project of building a community house next spring was held at the Gavel club dinner Tuesday evening. The house as planned is to serve as a meeting place for service clubs and as a recreation center in the city park.

C. M. Wallace gave a talk on "Expressing Thoughts Through Speech."

Spec. 1/c Carl Reagh, W. L. Mann and E. L. Schwaderer were dinner guests.

FELLOWSHIP CLUB AT CLINTON LAW HOME

Forty attended the Fellowship club of the Presbyterian church last Thursday night that met at the Clinton Law farm home. A hayride was followed by a wiener roast. Dr. and Mrs. Ivan MacRae and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Merchant were the assisting committee.

He soon rounded up the very submissive pair who wanted only the chance to be released from their war activities. As Nix began the march to the company headquarters he noted another figure trailing along behind.

It was dusk and the hazy figure seemed to the Yank to be a Filipino anxious to "work the prisoner over." Nix instructed him very forcibly to leave. Still he trailed the trio.

When his orders were ignored, the soldier turned, walked back a few steps and knocked the intruder to the street with a right hook to the chin. Stooping to survey the prone man he found to his amazement he had put to sleep a third Jap who wanted to surrender.

At the request of Nix, citizens of Silay brought water and revived the prostrate Imperial. Without further assistance the infantry-

Jap's Prison Toll 15,000 in 2 Years

British, Dutch Targets of Enemy's Brutality.

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS, LONDON. — More than 15,000 British, Australian and Dutch prisoners of the Japanese died in the two years ended in June, 1944, after being subjected to every kind of degradation and abuse while building a rail line from Bangkok to Moulmein under Japanese supervision, it was revealed here.

Survivors rescued by American Rangers from the prison camp at Cabanatuan, said the death toll represented more than half of 30,000 prisoners working on the line. After the surrender of Singapore, prisoners were kept there gathering corpses and clearing the city of debris left by Japanese bombings. In June, 1942, 20,000 British prisoners, 5,000 Australians and 5,000 Dutch were taken to Siam and placed on a rail construction job where inhuman treatment and rotting food was their common lot.

The prisoners worked only in brief shorts and usually without shoes. Brutal guards, at the slightest excuse, would punch their captives and prod them with bayonets and rifle butts. British officers, in particular, were singled out for humiliation by the Japanese, who said "that will teach the white bastards."

George E. Barber, Nottingham, England, said many died from malnutrition, dysentery, malaria and cholera and that the Japanese buried scores in common graves. He said medical supplies were virtually nonexistent.

"It was horrible to see men literally dying on their feet," he said.

Rubber Research Work Wins Thomas High Honor

NEW YORK.—One of the chemical world's highest honors, the gold medal of the American Institute of Chemists, has been awarded to John W. Thomas of Akron, Ohio. The medal was given in recognition of the leadership of Mr. Thomas in rubber research for four decades, and for achievements under his direction in the development and production of synthetic rubber.

Former recipients of the medal include Dr. Willard H. Dow, president of the Dow Chemical company; Andrew W. Mellon, the late secretary of the treasury, and his brother, the late Richard B. Mellon of Pittsburgh; James Bryan; Conant, president of Harvard university; and the late George Eastman, founder of Eastman Kodak company.

Mr. Thomas, the son of a Welsh coal miner, worked his way through college and majored in chemistry. In 1908 he installed the first chemical laboratories at Firestone Tire and Rubber company, which first developed tires made from synthetic rubber more than a dozen years ago.

The American Institute of Chemists is composed of professional men whose achievements in chemistry have been judged outstanding, and embraces all phases of industry.

Japs Lack Manners at Marines' Picture Show

IN THE EAST. — The marines landed, drove the Japs back, and then hastily erected a movie screen, a crude affair that jutted up in a little clearing surrounded by jungle.

At night the show went on, and the fighting men sat around in the sand to look and listen. In the midst of the show shots suddenly rang out in the undergrowth as marine sentries battled Japs. Bullets whined overhead as the audience hit the deck, says Leatherneck.

After a brief flurry of shooting the Japs withdrew, and the marines sat up cautiously to watch the rest of the picture. As things returned to normal, an irritated voice growled, "Damn those Japs. If they don't like the show, why can't they leave quietly?"

Old Roman Pottery Is Discovered in Britain

LONDON.—A two-acre kiln yielding the largest collection of Roman pottery found in Britain in recent generations was discovered recently through a chance remark of a home guardsman, an archeologist disclosed.

From the kiln, in forest land of northeast Hampshire, were taken many truckloads of fragments of extraordinarily fine pottery used nearly 2,000 years ago in the third century of Roman occupation.

The archeologist, Maj. A. G. Wade of Betley, Hampshire, said a home guardsman of his company told him that his grandfather had spoken of old pottery in the forest.

Former Secretary of Commerce Jesse Jones regaled a group of friends at a party in Washington with this yarn from the Pacific war zone:

"A magician, traveling on a troopship, had his pet parrot with him. Whenever the magician performed his sleight of hand stunts the parrot began a running fire of observations and kept them up throughout the act.

"Finally, their ship was torpedoed and sunk. Magician and parrot found themselves together on a life raft. After they had been floating around for hours, the parrot said in disgust: 'All right, all right, I give up. What did you do with the ship?'"

Enthusiasm for Lace Seen in Summer Mode

Dresses, Blouses, Hats, Capes, Gloves Made of It.

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

Fashion is ever so lace-conscious these days. Designers are using it in strikingly original and versatile ways. A most intriguing gown shown in a recent style revue is made of richly colorful sheer print enhanced with frills of black lace about the flattering low neckline, brief cap sleeves and the apron-front panel. To add drama the wide-brim hat worn with this stunning gown is also of black lace and the long flattering gloves are of matching lace.

The black lace tunic worn over the fashionable narrow crepe skirt is one of fashion's biggest triumphs this summer. It may be of the flare peplum type or be form-fitting to accent slenderness. For smart restaurant wear a favorite curfew dress is of exquisite black lace made up over a pink foundation. Some of the one-piece dresses have a separate little lace shoulder cape that can be worn with other gowns as well.

The over-blouse with either a long or shorter-length skirt is one of the big fashion successes of the season. This summer you will find these made of heavy white cotton laces, and they are simply stunning. To wear with these blouses milliners are showing fascinating hats made of starched lace to match. In fact, lace Dutch bonnets and brimmed hats and sailors are the "last word" for summer. These pretty confections come both in white and pastel lace. You can get lace gloves to match.

The summer bride will look her prettiest in a coronet or bonnet-type headress made of fine Alencon lace. One way of using a piece of precious heirloom lace is to have a head-piece made of it, trimmed prettily with orange blossom buds. If a scrap of the lace is left have it inset in the wedding gown bodice in some desirable manner.

Trousseau lingerie is playing up lace in lavish ways. It's fashionable this year for the entire bodice of a handmade gown to be made entirely of lace. The costume slips are also elaborately lace trimmed, many of them having lace-floated hemlines. Lace godets are being used in petticoats, some of them so lavish that the lace extends far above the knees. Lace yokes and tops in negligees also speak eloquently of the artful ways of which lace is being used this summer.

Bolero Costume

This suavely simple sunback bolero costume is made of a soft-finish navy denim. Worn with the jacket it is a decorous street costume. Without the jacket it is a daring bareback dress for dancing or sunning. Chartreuse folds form a tiny peplum and bodice-top trimming. Together with matching gloves they add a dramatic filip of color to a most up-to-date summer costume.

Style Notes

Big brims are back! Eyeleted materials are the rage. New are cotton knit dresses in pastels.

The rustle of stiff taffeta is in the air.

Pile flowers in front of your coronet of hair.

Look your prettiest this summer in splashy prints.

Bare look is stressed throughout the summer fashions.

White plique either eyeleted or with gorgeous floral print is first choice for summer frocks.

Your best lingerie blouse should be exquisitely fine and beautifully lace trimmed and embroidered with a hand made look.

Test Tube

William A. Hayes, an engineer, comes forth with an electron tube which can measure one one-hundred-trillionth of the electric energy in the light from an average home reading lamp. This is less than the faintest starlight. Because of its sensitivity the tube must be used in total darkness. The functions of the plate and grid are interchanged, so that the grid serves as the plate and the plate as the grid. The tube has practical wartime uses in the electro-chemical analysis of metals and the detection of impurities in highly explosive compounds.

Air Wacs' Duties
Every training plane of the army air forces has its radio transmitter and receiver checked regularly to insure proper communication with the ground. Members of the women's army corps—called air WACS—handle this assignment at many AAF fields.

Rubber Coagulation
An electrical process for the coagulation of rubber latex has been developed by two South Africans, reports the British press. The process is claimed to eliminate the use of acids and to be both simple and inexpensive. Commercial concerns are said to be taking much interest in the matter, and a contract has been signed between the Societe Forestiere et Commerciale du Congo Belge and the inventors.

Attention, Parents!

Have you a son between the age of 9 and 12?

If you have please read this letter very carefully

Dear Parents:

The Cass City Gavel Club is sponsoring a Cub Pack in Cass City and surrounding territory. The Cub movement is for boys from 9 to 12 years of age who are too young to join the Boy Scouts of America. The Cub Pack idea is under the direction and supervision of the Boy Scouts of America.

Boys of 9 to 12 years, being quite young, the movement is carried on in a cooperative way between the sponsoring organization and the parents of the interested boys.

On Thursday evening, July 12, at 8:30 p. m., in the Cass City High School, there will be held the first of three organizational meetings for parents of these boys. Cub organization men from out-of-town will address you and explain the movement in detail.

It is imperative that you attend as it is the custom of cubbing that the parents must show interest in order for the boy to join. This means both fathers and mothers. If both cannot attend at least one of you must be present.

If your boy is between 9 and 12 years of age, be sure to remember the date—Thursday evening, July 12, at 8:30, in the Cass City High School. We think this is a marvelous thing for your boy and feel sure you will agree with us.

Looking forward to meeting you at that time, we are

Yours for the betterment of our sons,

THE CASS CITY GAVEL CLUB.

White Background Lends Class To Modish Prints for Summer

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

AMONG the most attractive prints shown in the summer displays are those that feature white backgrounds. These very new and voguish white background prints are indeed something worth talking about in that they are so refreshingly dainty and summery and away from the ordinary looking.

Outstanding in the new blouse collections and a "best seller" is a model fashioned of an almost all-white sheer, were it not for the tiny polka dots that star the snowy background. This print comes in black, navy, brown, red or yellow dots on white. The blouse is styled with the new full length sleeves with fullness gathered into the wristband and it has the fashionable large soft bowtie at the throat.

Much ado is being made over black-on-white prints for smart daytime wear. These are made up in stunning jacket-and-skirt two-piece suits, either cardigan or bolero type. Wear your frilliest white lingerie blouse with this choice suit and you will rate a hundred per cent in swank. White hat, gloves, bag and footwear worn with this costume contribute handsomely to the immaculate appearance of this ensemble.

summer. One of the most striking prints in black and white is the new "Dalmatian print" such as you see worn by the young modern centered in the group who is leading two thoroughbred Dalmatians for proof positive as to the source of inspiration. The dress is styled sans any furbelows whatever, so as to show off the print itself to best advantage. The new long sleeves and the soft bow-tie fastening at the neckline are high style details.

The dress to the left is made of a print that stresses color galore silhouetted against a white background. An Indian war-bonnet is the motif for this California print done in brilliant authentic colors. It makes a gorgeous summer gown that registers a sophisticated simplicity such as is characteristic of the better dresses for summer.

The charming print dress shown to the right is a summer girl's dream come true. It is made of a very lovely sheer print that strews flowers spaced in a graceful all-over patterning on a white ground. It has "style" because of a cleverly cut peplum that dips low in the back and at the sides and front in points, the cape-like sleeves repeating the point technique. If you plan to make your own print dress be sure to buy a pattern with a peplum, for the newer styled summer prints take on not only peplums but artfully manipulated side drapes and other intricacies that get away from the usual regulation skirt. Note the huge black hat which this winsome lassie carries in her hand. These enormous black straws are the latest to wear with your gay summer prints.

A story of white background prints would not be complete without mention of the dramatic types that pattern florals in wide-spaced arrangement of voluptuous roses and poppies on a snowy crepe background. You'll be especially intrigued with the stunning pique prints with their spectacular flower motifs done in flamboyant colors.

New Knit Lingerie Is Luxury Styled

Interesting things are being done with rayon-knit slips, gowns and boudoir robes and bed-jackets. Whereas they have been for the most part on the tailored order, this season they are being styled with frills, embroidery and lattice-work insets in intriguing ways. A nightgown in black rayon knit has a directoire top seamed to a graceful skirt. The bodice top has short puff sleeves and a low décolleté neckline, which are finished off with a box-pleated ruche of self jersey knit, which is edged with a bright colored piping of self material. One of the outstanding ensembles is a rayon-knit gown with fancy stitching and applique at the midriff. With this gown comes a loose peignoir-type coat with deep-banded armholes. In the more tailored models, the feminine theme is accentuated in trimmings of self-rayon knit loop fringe. Lace, ribbon and frilly ruffles of the matching rayon knit all contribute to the decorative theme.

Black and Pink Combine

For Feminine Loveliness The more you see the lovely ways in which designers are working out black and pink combinations the more you marvel at the subtle beauty of this color alliance. And now that the vogue is in full swing, one is increasingly impressed with the exquisite refinement and feminine loveliness that this color scheme never fails to achieve. A charming interpretation of the black with pink idea is seen in a two-piece costume of black lace made up over sheer pink. Another way of looking charming in a pink and black costume is to wear a pink wool mandarin jacket with your simple daytime black dress together with a swank little felt hat.

New Millinery Trend

Most exciting things are happening in the millinery realm nowadays, the latest of which is summer hats created of sheers that are so airy-fairy and frothy they look like delicate mists of loveliness atop millady's prettily coiffed head. For the hat pictured exquisitely sheer white horsehair braid is pleated en masse to achieve a millinery confection of ethereal beauty. A single La France rose in the center adds a master touch of color

Evening Fantasies

A Spanish comb brilliantly rhinestoned in your hair, on your feet sandals of black rayon satin with straps crossed high above the ankles, a stole scarf of filmy black starred all over with wee rhinestones, the scarf trailing in grace from one shoulder—for memorable evenings at the dance.

Mr. and Mrs. Kelley took their guests to Inlay City Sunday when they returned to Chicago by train.

No Back Talk Mrs. Jones—I'm afraid the mountain air would disagree with me. Mr. Jones—My dear, it wouldn't dare!

Happy Day Mother—It's too bad Sally and Jane didn't invite you to their party. Daughter—I don't care. When I grow up I'm going to have a great big party and I won't invite anybody.

NEW FACE Joe—I thought you had a light-haired girl friend last month? Bill—I did but she dyed!

Pleasingly Plump Brown—So you met Mary today. Blue—Yes. And you know it's the first time I've seen her in ten years. Brown—Has she kept her girlish figure? Blue—Kept it? She's doubled it!

So There! Farmer—If I were as lazy as you I'd go hang myself in the barn. Hired Hand—No, you wouldn't. If you were as lazy as me, you wouldn't have a barn.

You're Welcome Jim—Who was that dumb looking fellow I saw you talking to? Slim—My brother. Jim—Excuse me, I should have noticed the resemblance.

Well Rounded Fat—Am I a little pale? Thin—No, you're more like a big tub.

Universal Diet Sailor—Yes, on that island I lived on nothing but pineapples for three months. Heckler—So what? I've lived on earth for thirty years.

Music Lover Jones—My wife used to play the piano, but since the children arrived she hasn't had time. Smith—Children are a comfort, aren't they?

Smart Collegiate Professor—Time is money; how do you prove it? Student—Well, if you give 25 cents to a couple of tramps, that's a quarter to two.

Care of Rubber Nipples Rinse milk from rubber nipples at once. Milk fat softens them. Wash in clean, hot, soapy water. Rinse in warm water. To disinfect the nipples, put a little water in the bottom of a pan with a rack and a fairly tight cover. Wrap each nipple in a piece of clean gauze, put on the rack, cover and let boil for five minutes. Remove from the fire and cool as quickly as possible without taking the cover off the pan.

Leather Protectors A patch of imitation or real leather sewed on the knees of boys' play trousers saves time and clothing when it comes to cleaning off the mud that goes with spring marble days.

Share Machinery Advocated Sharing of machinery and labor by farmers on a community basis was advocated by P. E. Johnston, Illinois farm labor supervisor. He pointed to the success of such sharing among thousands of neighbors during the last year and added the warning that we will not be able to plant and harvest the 1945 crops unless this idea is extended. In communities where this is done on a large scale, it has been found to be a good idea to use a uniform scale of charges for labor and rental of machinery.

POLITICAL UNREST GROWS IN EUROPE

WASHINGTON. — Those senators back from Europe had far more to say than they offered in interviews. Their private reports on their quick-study of the western end of the continent would make your ears curl. Here are some of the things they did not make public.

De Gaulle is staving off an election in France because he fears the communists will sweep him and all democrats into the discard. The impending election in the British Isles may do much to determine how she will stand against the sweeping surge, as defeat of Churchill would mean appeasement of communist expansion. He, himself, is afraid of it. Yet Churchill and De Gaulle are fighting each other.

De Gaulle ordered the Syrian shooting by his French forces because he saw Britain going back into the Middle East in the old way and thought he could do the same thing. Churchill dislikes him and is suspicious of him, although the French general is probably the only remaining road-block to communism in France. De Gaulle is existing in control only by adroit double-handed juggling of French political factions.

The French people are not as fully filled with admiration of us as the cheering movie newsreels sometimes suggest. They see American soldiers not always as their liberators but as highly paid strangers (strangers) who travel in jeeps while others walk, and are well-fed, while they are not.

The French powers likewise resent the presence of American forces in North Africa because we tend to give the Arabs ideas of liberty which the French do not consider healthful for their colonists.

Their ruined industries, shortages of materials and unbelievably extreme decay in morals are combining to break the stamina of the nation and make it an easy prey for any opposition to existing rule—and the sole, present, powerful opposition is the political absurdity known as communism.

Their heritage runs back into a great love of liberty as deep as our own, but they are to a considerable extent a peasant people, and are therefore easily subject to harsh, disciplined leadership of dictators. So far they have not come to that yet, but there is resignation apparent among millions of them who do not have enough to eat and not enough work. They are in the mood for subjection by any overrunning political power.

In Italy, communism is much stronger than dispatches have led us to suspect. The revolutionary movement is kept down mainly by the American military force of occupation. It seems to have all the political spending money there is in hand-to-hand circulation there. All the symptoms of dejected resignation apparent in France are also present in Italy, including the decline in morals.

The Belgians and Dutch seem to have much more character, more stamina, are more insistent upon liberty and Christian principles. They are trying harder to revive. Their people show less moral decay. Whether the people in Anglo-French-American Germany can be made democratic is yet unclear. They are not only dejected but sullen and all believe they face years of dire existence as their penalty for making war. The anti-fraternization policy of General Eisenhower is likely to be changed to permit our soldiers to mingle more with them.

But these areas, all of them, are in our sphere of democratic influence, and therefore the most favorable sections of the continent. The Russians have everything else in their lap (except possibly Greece, which is held on one knee, so-to-speak) and everything the Russians have is completely blacked out from the rest of the wide world.

Nothing valid or penetrating is known by us of Yugoslavia, Romania, Bulgaria, Austria, or Czechoslovakia, except that Stalin is there setting up the kind of governments he wants, and one other confirmed fact — all anti-communist opposition is being liquidated.

The Polish issue, which we discuss so extensively, is a minor matter as compared with this whole of middle and southeastern Europe operating on a Russian axis.

If conditions are as bad as they are known to be in our end of Europe, it would be unreasonable not to suppose that they are twice as bad in the unknown poorer end.

Many courses of probable action are being discussed. Anglo-French relations certainly need to be fixed at once. Rapprochement between De Gaulle and Churchill is called for. More intelligent and earnest American leadership to back the people in Europe who like our way of life (which was their historic way) is needed.

Rev. R. W. Herber was taken seriously ill June 20 and since that time has been taken to Hurley hospital in Flint. His condition is caused by a nervous breakdown, and since the week end, he has been living in an oxygen tent in a semi-conscious condition.

Capt. J. O. Probe of Regina, Sask., after serving 4 1/2 years overseas, was recently elected a member of parliament of Western Canada for a five-year term, on the C. C. F. ticket. Mrs. Irene Kilbourne Probe, formerly of Cass City, is a sister-in-law.

Vincent Wells, Mrs. Lottie Lyons and Mrs. Harry Ostrander of Pontiac and Mrs. Christina Wells, who were pupils when D. A. Preston taught school many years ago, called on him Wednesday at the Hutchinson Convalescent home where Mr. Preston is very ill.

Sunday dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Bohmsack were Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Martin of Bay City, and Mrs. Robt. Martin of Midland, and Mrs. Beulah Calley of Detroit. The occasion was in honor of the birthday of G. L. Martin, brother of Mrs. Bohmsack and Mrs. Calley.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Gardner and daughters, Joyce and Shirley, and Miss Phyllis Wixson of Crosswell were Sunday callers at the Presbyterian manse here. They were former parishioners of Rev. M. R. Vender, Mr. Gardner being a trustee of the church and Mrs. Gardner a primary teacher.

Jack and Dale Coleman of Hillsdale, former pupils in school here, hitch-hiked from Inlay City, Sunday to Cass City where they had supper with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Reader. They were met here by Mr. and Mrs. Alva McAlpine of Grant and went home with them to spend some time in that vicinity.

The Children's Society of Christian Service met in the primary room of the Methodist church Monday afternoon, July 2. Devotionals were in charge of Kathie Wood, who read short Scripture verses that helped the members to think of their friends of other races. These were followed by a litany. Verjean Terbush recited the poem, "Neighbors All," by the children's author, Nancy Byrd Turner. Typed copies of "The Whisper Song," which the society plan to use during the summer months, were brought by Lois Little. The presence of Mrs. Higgins, who presided at the piano and helped with refreshments, made the meeting more enjoyable.

Mrs. Glenn McCullough has had for more than a week, as a guest, her cousin, Sally Jean Kundinger, of Sebewaing.

Mrs. Harry Reagh of Bay City spent the Fourth here with her husband's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Reagh.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Brady and daughter, Judy, of Caro were callers Sunday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Reagh.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hoadley of Detroit have been spending a week with Mr. and Mrs. Earl Harris and Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Hamilton.

Jesse Blow of Dryden, district manager of the State Farm Insurance Co., and Lloyd Reagh were in Caro on business one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. J. Harland and son, Firman, spent the week end in Cass City with Mrs. Harland's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Steward.

Mrs. Chas. Walmsley and son, Freddie, left Monday to spend some time with Mrs. Walmsley's sister, Mrs. Roy Consla, in Painesville, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. Carmen Wanner and children of Brown City visited their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Wanner, Sunday and at the Clare Tuckey home.

The Misses Marion and Crystal Read of Detroit visited at the Earl Harris home Saturday and were Saturday night and Sunday guests of Mrs. Angus MacPhail.

Mrs. Anna Adair Woodward and daughter, Ellen, of Toronto spent the week end with Mrs. Della Landerbach and Mrs. Geo. Seed and called on other friends in Cass City.

The Fairgrove Grange entertained the Pomona Grange on Tuesday evening, July 10, in the Methodist church. Some films on juvenile delinquency are on the program. Potluck after meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wolfe and their family, Lt. Ina Pearle Wolfe of the U. S. Army Nurses' Corps, and Lloyd and Nelda, of Owentdale, were callers at the Rev. S. P. Kim residence Monday evening.

IN MEMORIAM—In loving memory of our dear husband, father and grandfather, Robert James Brown, who left us five years ago, July 7, 1940:
No one knows the silent heart-ache
Only those who lost can tell
The grief we bear in silence
For the one we loved so well.
Friends may think we have forgotten
When at times they see us smile,
But little do they know the heart-ache
That our smile hides all the while.
Sadly missed by his wife, daughter and grandchildren. 7-6-1

WE WISH to express our sincere thanks to Rev. Littleton for his comforting words, Mrs. Littleton, Mrs. Wright and Mrs. Pattison for music, the pallbearers, those who sent flowers, and friends and neighbors who helped in any way in the loss of our father, Wellington Hutchinson. Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Hutchinson and family, sisters and brother. 7-6-1p man conducted his catch to the Command Post.

"I just got one of those rare and unusual breaks," Nix said. "The whole affair might have been a little rough if the Japs hadn't wanted to surrender so badly."
Carrying out his primary duties of locating enemy mines for advancing troops, Nix has been under fire on numerous occasions. "I never got so close to them before nor did I ever have such a feeling as I had when I rounded up those three," Nix commented.

Weather in War
Accurate evaluations of weather, plus the constant flow of up-to-the-minute meteorological information from all theaters of war, make it possible to use weather as an important weapon.
Sweet vs. Irish Potatoes
Sweet potatoes compare favorably with Irish potatoes as a source of energy, protein, mineral, vitamin and vitamin C and are much superior as a source of vitamin A.

"War is h—ll!" So are "stiff-as-a-board" work shoes to thousands of workers. Ever try a pair of genuine buckskin-soft Wolverine Shell Horsehides? No matter how often they're soaked, they dry out soft and pliable. Just wear one pair on that job of yours—before 30 days have passed you wouldn't sell them back to us at twice what they cost you. New Gunsights Aid U. S. Airmen

Gunnery Sighting Devices Make Aerial Fire Power Accuracy Easier.

DAYTON, OHIO.—Aerial fire power accuracy is made easier for United States airmen to achieve by the development of new gunnery sighting devices, reports Maj. Gen. K. B. Wolfe, chief of engineering and procurement of the air technical service at Wright field, near here.

One of the newest devices designed specifically for hand held guns is proving a boon to waist gunners on bombers and is in production on a large scale, Wolfe said.

Human Error Ruled Out Sights adapted for fighters and turret installations, the origin of which is British, are in production for both the AAF and the United States navy.

Although details were not disclosed, Wolfe declared: "I can say these new types of devices will take practically all chance for human error out of aiming aircraft guns. The gunner merely lines up the target in his sights and trips the firing mechanism."

Factors entering into development of this near perfect sight would include weather, height of plane, wind force against plane, direction of rotation of propellers, and barrel expansion.

Because a bullet fired from a machine gun does not have its direction stabilized within the first 88 to 100 feet after it clears the barrel, propeller rotation tends to "throw" the missile off its true path and must be allowed for as in the case of other factors.

Made by Private Firm. Even with all allowances provided for in the final aiming formula, the sight would be worthless if the gunner fired a steady burst from his gun. This is because the barrel, enlarged from the heat of protracted firing, would cease to eject the projectile on a course established as true by the precision instruments involved in the sighting apparatus.

Developed by a private company the sights were tested extensively at Selridge field, Mich. Approved by the army air forces, they have given aerial gunners in the AAF a sight which has been highly instrumental in the tremendous air victories recorded against fighter planes.

Marines on First Pay Day Stage a PX Raid

WITH THE MARINES. — It was their first pay in four months, and opening for business was the first PX in half a year. Small wonder that the veteran marines were in line hours before the new PX was ready for business, reports Leatherneck.

It was an unheard-of luxury to be buying cigars by the carton, razor blades, shaving cream and soap in quantity, and beer at five cents a can — even if a man was limited to one can.

One marine, long hungry for the chance to step up to the counter, plunked down his heavy wallet and "gimme one of everything on sale, not matter what it is."

First man in the PX line was Corp. Glyndon B. Miracle of Berea, Ky. Which proves what we always thought—that it takes a miracle to be the first man in a line.

Army Hospital to Have A Radio by Every Bed

WASHINGTON. — Every soldier in the Mayo general hospital at Galesburg, Ill., soon will have a radio by his bed.

The Daughters of the American Revolution announced it would sponsor the $60,000 installation.

Every man in this 2,500-bed hospital will have headphones beside his cot. A gadget with a row of five buttons will give him a choice of five programs including the main speaker system of the hospital. There will be loud speakers for general entertainment and educational purposes covering the entire hospital.

Paris Spies Rounded Up By Military Authorities

PARIS. — French police and American military authorities scouring Paris in a two weeks' hunt for German spies aiding the enemy's counter offensive in the west have rounded up 30 enemy agents in one band and captured a "considerable number" of others, many of them in American uniforms, it was disclosed recently.

Each of the spies, whether in civilian clothes or Allied uniforms, faces the firing squad under international law.

Minstrel Trick Is Tried by Nazi Soldiers in Italy

WITH THE U. S. FIFTH ARMY IN ITALY. — The latest Nazi stunt on the Fifth army front is a "minstrel show" infiltration. Outposts of the 92nd Negro division killed a four-man enemy patrol trying to work into their positions. Each enemy was clad in full American uniform, equipped with a G.I. carbine; one was even wearing a blackface.

Sponge Stains

The safe way to deal with a dubious stain is to sponge with a cloth moistened in cool water, if the stain is not greasy. If the stain appears to be greasy, sponge with cleaning fluid (grease solvent). Most common household stains will dissolve in one or the other of these safest solvents. Stains tend to become set with age, so stained garments should not be put away until some convenient future time. It pays to be "Johnny on the spot" with any spot. The sooner a spot or stain gets the right treatment, the easier it is to remove.

Removing Ink Stains This method can be practiced effectively, if with extreme care, on some fabrics and colors. A preliminary test should be made on a hidden hem where, if fading follows, the effect will not be visible. Remember, some inks are removed by simple methods while others require seven or eight stages of treatment by professionals. Once and for all, the name ink embraces many different types of colored writing fluids—just as the word spot refers to stains originating from many different sources requiring many different treatments.

Oldest Government Building The oldest government building in the United States is the Palace of the Governors, at Santa Fe, New Mexico, built before 1617.

Age at Transplanting Tomato and pepper plants should be from 50 to 70 days old at the time of transplanting and should be put into the garden not less than a week following the last average spring frost in the locality. Pot grown transplants are best and it has been found at the Montana agricultural experiment station that it pays to use liberal quantities of well rotted manure in the soil in which the transplants are grown. It also helps to add ammoniated phosphate at the rate of 1 ounce to each 10 pots.

Frozen Pastry Dough Dough with a high fat content, such as the sweet roll type, can be frozen and kept for at least 90 days. When baked the rolls taste just like the non-frozen kind.

Value of Sicily in War One item in the strategy of our capture of Sicily is of tremendous importance though its full significance may be appreciated only by the chemists. It is the fact that Mount Etna, the Germans' great source of sulfur, is now in our hands. Now, in many chemical ways we may be able to pour on more brimstone than they can.

State Orchestra Gets Around The North Carolina Symphony orchestra, the only state-supported symphony orchestra in America, brings classical music to the Tar Heel people. It covers all the state from the mountains to the seashore (a distance of over 500 miles) so that all its citizens can hear the music.

Dairy Farmers Plan for Future

JUNE—the peak month of milk production found Michigan's Milk Producers actively planning for the post-war period through financing a nation wide program directed by the American Dairy Association.

Foremost among the objectives of this unified dairy producer plan are:—

- 1. To acquaint the public with dairy farm problems.
2. To increase research on dairy products.
3. To efficiently produce and market dairy products.
4. To promote sales through nation wide use of radio, newspaper, magazine and billboard advertising.

Dairy farmers from coast to coast participated in this cooperative program for the advancement of the industry. Constructive effort of such magnitude will achieve far reaching results, benefiting both consumers and producers in the days to come. Our association approves this program, not alone for its present value but for its value to the future of our industry.

Sommers' Bakery OPENS Monday, July 9

While we were closed we had occasion to talk to many other bakers and found them all in the same boat with us, many in much worse straits. So we are back feeling much encouraged to know that this community is a lot better off than many others, and after all, the main point is to

WIN THE WAR

AND IT IS INDEED A

Small sacrifice for such a Big Job

So while we can't make ALL the good things you would like, we'll still have plenty of freshly baked bread and rolls every day; and we'll do the best we can with our other products. But because we know you want the baked goods you buy from us to taste good as well as look good . . . and taste depends upon the use of proportionate quantities of sugar and shortening . . . we are definitely limited in the quantities and also the varieties that we can make. If your inability to buy your usual quantity of baked goods from us works a hardship on you and makes it difficult for you to secure all the nutritious food you need, may we suggest that you write to our Senators and Congressmen and tell them so. If a sufficient number of our customers and those of other members of our industry will do this, it may help us in securing the necessary quantities of sugar and shortening to make all of the baked goods you wish to serve your family.

Jeepers... what a man!

NOW MEET a man who could walk at the rate of 135 miles a day . . . Captain Robert Barclay of Ury, England. In 1808 he bet he could walk one mile every hour for 1,000 consecutive hours. The amazing thing is he did it! Imagine . . . one mile during each hour, day and night, for 41 days and 16 hours.

But Captain Barclay's feet hurt, and plenty . . . Now that cars are wearing out at an alarming rate, many ex-motorists are unhappy about their feet, too.

Every mile you drive speeds the day when your own car will wear out and quit . . . UNLESS it gets the professional care that can check needless wear.

The RITE-WAY MILKER

SOLVES YOUR MAIN PRODUCTION PROBLEMS

If your producing herd is big enough to require machine milking, especially with acute labor shortage, then make sure that you get the one milker that gives you correct milking action.

There is no machine on the market like the Rite-Way. It is fast and safe, because its individually designed inflations massage gently and naturally, as does the feeding calf. Our special Rite-way pulsator has no springs or gaskets. These two features should quickly settle your question of choice — in a hurry.

Call in to examine it, or phone for any information you want.

Thirty-five Years Ago. July 8, 1910.

Deford has won a reputation for providing a good time for those who attend her. Fourth of July celebrations and Monday was no exception to the rule. In the calithumpian parade, Joshua Curtis claimed first prize and Wm. Gage second. In the taledonian games, Audley Kinnaird and Clifford Edgerton won lion shares of the prize money. In the horse race, John McArthur won first money and Marvin Ehlers second.

Wes Webster returned from Holland, Mich., last week where he attended the G. A. R. encampment.

Sun Bros' Progressive Show will exhibit at Cass City on July 20. Uncle Tom's Cabin is scheduled for the opera house on July 14.

Misses Margaret Miller and Myrtle Wickware accompanied by Mrs. Eustace Purdy of Caro started Tuesday for Bison, S. D.

In attempting to make a balloon ascension at Caro Monday, James White, 25, of Portland, Mich., met with an accident that proved fatal. After reaching a height of perhaps a hundred feet the balloon burst and fell rapidly to the earth.

Twenty-five Years Ago. July 9, 1920.

George C. Hooper, who was so seriously injured in an automobile collision near Saginaw on June 17, left the hospital in Saginaw last Thursday and visited until Sunday with friends in that city.

George McIntyre has purchased the gasoline storage tank and pump of N. Bigelow & Sons and will install the outfit at his dairy farm.

Miss Emma Muck returned home last Wednesday after a seven months' visit with relatives at Buffalo, Gasport, Lockport, and various other places in New York. She has accepted a position in the P. H. Muck store at Colwood.

Individual electric light and power plants have been installed on the farms of I. K. Reid, Frank Dillman, Wm. Crandell and Frank Reader. Among late purchasers of plants are Alfred Maharg and George Russell.

The Kinde Visitor suspended publication last week. The high cost of everything made the step necessary said Publisher W. E. Gardner.

The Cass City Fair offers a strong program of racing events next month. Lester Bailey is superintendent of the speed department.

Married on July 3, Chas. Roblin and Miss Katherine Miller, by Rev. F. T. Kyle.

Postmaster Dodge has received notice to report the names and ages of all rural carriers from Cass City. The new law provides for the retirement of rural carriers at the age of 65. The oldest Cass City carrier is 47 years of age, so there will be no retirements at the local office for several years.

Oak Bluff Breezes

And now it's summer officially. The solstice has come and the sun has begun its long glide southward, or so it seems as our earth swings on its orbital axis. The year's longest day is just behind us and ahead lies the accumulated heat of July and the bake oven blast that is August. The woodlands are still loud with the song of birds which was continued longer than usual this year, or it perhaps only seems so, though it may be as much of an illusion as was our spring. Daisies are bright in the fields and roses are nearing the end of their June display. Wild strawberries have been at their prime and the season has provided an unusual plenty of them if you know the places where they grow best. The vetch (vicia), a wild variety, is now in luxuriant bloom and the highways and byways from Bay Port to Port Austin are a mass of iridescent bloom. It is well worth while taking this beautiful drive at any time but especially right now. The heat of the past week with the heavy rains of June has given a lush growth to all vegetation but especially to the vetch which is the most profuse in several years. We suggest that you see it over the holiday or week end.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Todd were in Saginaw Friday visiting relatives. Mr. Todd returns to his position with Packard in another week.

Dr. and Mrs. H. H. Madigan of Saginaw have rented the Knapp cottage for the month of July. Dr. Madigan is a prominent dentist and Mrs. Madigan will be remembered as Gertrude Schooley, a former Cass City resident.

Mr. and Mrs. Bradley Welle-meyer of Vassar, who have been occupying the Walton cottage for the past week, returned home Sunday.

Rolland Mason of Detroit was here over Sunday opening the Mason lodge in preparation for bringing up his family for an extended stay.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Soper and family arrived this week for a two weeks' stay at their cottage. The Sequins and Websters of Detroit were at the Sequin cottage over the week end. Mr. Sequin brought up a new 17-ft. boat with outboard motor and much fishing is in prospect.

Dr. and Mrs. Frank McIntyre and son, Don, are here for the Fourth.

Mrs. Chester Pulford of Birmingham was a house guest of the Burkes, when the latter celebrated a wedding anniversary and Mrs. Pulford's birthday at a buffet supper on Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Karl Ketchum entertained their Birmingham neighbors, the Raaklin family, over Sunday. The young fry had a gay time building a raft and playing shuffleboard. Mrs. Ketchum returned home with her guests but will return this week with Mr. Ketchum's mother. They will spend the remainder of the month here.

Mrs. J. E. Wurm was in Bay City Sunday with her sister, Miss Mae Gouliet.

Paper-Cored Car Wheels

For many years wheels with paper cores were used on passenger cars because it was thought that they would have several advantages over those made of steel. The paper core would expand and contract with changing temperatures and it would also deaden the sound of the cars while in motion. Such wheels were abandoned some years ago in favor of those made of steel.

Crack Shots

America has always been known as a nation of riflemen. At the battle of Bunker Hill, the British fired from the hip. The Americans sighted their muskets—and American marksmanship won that battle.

Tomatoes Lead in Popularity
Surveys indicate that tomatoes are by far the most popular garden crop. Both past performances and present plans give this fruit first rank. Beans are second in popularity, with preference divided between the green and lime varieties. Cabbage, carrots and lettuce all ranked high on the list. Following in close order were corn, beets, cucumbers, green peas, mustard, peppers, potatoes, radishes, squash, turnips, kale, spinach, swiss chard and onions. These and many other vegetables appear on the plans being drawn up for this year's gardens.

Livestock in Alaska

One advantage of interior Alaska is its lack of wind. A 40 or 50 below zero temperature affects livestock less than would 10 below with wind. However, livestock farming has the disadvantage of a long period of cold weather and much snow. Increased labor and feed requirements result from the short pasture season.

U. of M. Service Flag Has 20,000 Stars

With men and women today on every battlefield and war theater, the University of Michigan's service flag could show more than 20,000 stars, with 217 of them gold.

The 20,000 include men of all ranks from privates to generals and admirals. Among them are 180 faculty and staff members on leaves of absence, many of whom have been borrowed by the Army or Navy for secret scientific development work. Also included is the staff of Hospital 296, a complete front line hospital now in the Belgian theater, and composed entirely of University doctors and nurses.

Since June 1942, specialized training has been given to 19,300. This work includes such diverse courses as chest surgery for Army doctors, naval architecture for Navy officers, engineering for Marines and Coast Guard, military government for officers assigned to the German or Japanese theaters, gauging and inspection for essential war plant

Night Shift
ON THE FOOD FRONT

THEY DID IT BEFORE—THEY CAN DO IT AGAIN
With Farmall Tractor Power

Throughout the Spring, from the Rockies to the Atlantic seaboard, worried farmers searched the skies for signs of clear weather, but the cold rains fell relentlessly.

For more than a month the seed should have been germinating in the warm soil. Millions of acres lay unplanted because the ground was too wet for preparation of the seed bed and too cold for germination of the seed.

Only a generation ago there could have been but one outcome—crop shortage and food scarcity. Nature allows scant time for planting when the warm sun waits till late May or June before drying the soggy soil. Horses are too slow and tire too quickly to get the job done then.

But the farmers remember May of 1943—only two years ago—when their fast, untiring tractors averted crop failure. Then, too, rains flooded the fields and the month was all but spent before they could go in on the land and plant.

In 1943, most farmers drove their tractors from dark to dark, and longer. Many planted around the clock, working in two or three shifts. They made one of the greatest crops in history. In today's war-torn world—with hunger and disease already stalking many peoples—even one major crop failure could bring famine. This is why the sound of tractors and planting machinery was heard, day and night, from the Plains states to the Eastern seaboard—why headlights stabbed the darkness over the fields.

America's farmers are doing it again, in spite of an unprecedented combination of adverse circumstances—bad weather, shortages of machines and shortages of manpower. For the second time in three years, they are relying upon their tractor-powered machines to help rescue large areas of the world from catastrophe. More of these tractors are products of International Harvester than of any other company.

WM. C. PREDMORE DIED IN MT. CLEMENS SATURDAY

Wm. C. Predmore passed away June 30 in Mt. Clemens and funeral services were held at noon Tuesday, July 3, at Kaul's funeral home at Roseville with burial following in Elkland cemetery. Rev. S. P. Kirr of Cass City conducted the committal service here.

Wm. C. Predmore was born on June 22, 1871, in Rose Center, Oakland county, Mich., and was the eldest son of the late George and Catherine Predmore. He came to Cass City at the age of four years and resided three miles west of Cass City. He has made his home with his niece, Mrs. Gladys Ashman, at Mt. Clemens since 1936.

WEEKLY NEWS ANALYSIS

United Nations Security Pact Headed for Senate Ratification; Act Against German War Revival

Released by Western Newspaper Union.
EDITOR'S NOTE: When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of Western Newspaper Union's news analysis and not necessarily of this newspaper.

As General MacArthur listens to native chieftains of Philippine archipelago, the governor of Jolo (left) recounts the majesty of the sultan of Sulu (right), who has 26 wives and over 100 children.

UNITED NATIONS: To Senate

Drawn up by 800 delegates from 50 countries, the United Nations postwar security organization now goes up for ratification by the various states, with indications that the U. S. senate, for one, will approve of the charter to curb future aggression.

Even though an effort may be made to incorporate several minor provisions into the charter to assure American sovereignty and interests, no battle comparable to the one resulting in rejection of the League of Nations is expected to develop in the senate, where 51 members already have signified their approval.

For one thing, ratification of the charter will be considered before the peace conferences, thus avoiding opposition to enforcement of unpopular provisions, which helped beat the League of Nations. Then, too, the inclusion of Senator's Connally (Dem., Texas) and Vandenberg (Rep., Mich.) on the American delegation at San Francisco provided the upper house with representation of its interests in the formulation of the organization.

In this respect, the support of Senator Vandenberg is expected to prove invaluable in swinging the votes of the more cautious members, since the Michigan senator has taken a middle of the road course in international affairs. Under the circumstances, Vandenberg said, the charter is the best that could have been gotten, and though imperfect, nevertheless is a step toward effective collective security.

It is anticipated that some senators will challenge the power of the American delegate on the security council to vote for the use of armed force in settling a dispute without congressional approval. However, it is expected that proponents of ratification will suggest legislation under which congress would instruct the American delegate on action to be taken.

POSTWAR GERMANY: Curb on Industry
Allied acquisition of German technological developments and prevention of the re-establishment of German industry in foreign countries in the postwar period are among the aims of the U. S. state department for destroying the economic basis for a military revival of the vanquished Reich.

Expounded by Assistant Secretary of State William L. Clayton, the U. S. program being worked out in conjunction with the British calls for the acquisition of all of Germany's wartime technological developments, since total war requires the use of virtually every phase of industry. It was also revealed that U. S. officials have tentatively agreed that the developments could be used by this country for peacetime production.

With German industrialists reportedly having planned to set themselves in foreign countries to help rebuild the shattered Reich through the export of capital and material, Clayton said the U. S. will take steps to prevent such a move.

cause not all South American countries have wholly co-operated in exterminating German business firms, he said, 100 exist in Argentina, 27 in Uruguay, 10 each in Colombia and Chile, and 5 in Paraguay.

PACIFIC: Cleanup
With the finish of the campaign on Okinawa, attention again was drawn to the Philippines, where General MacArthur's forces split the surviving Japanese army in northern Luzon and also cleaned up on Mindanao.

Meanwhile, the U. S. and Australian assault on Borneo slowed in the face of stiff Japanese resistance in the rugged country, prized for its rich oil resources. Helping ground forces, Allied aircraft pounded enemy coastal vessels supplying strong-points, and hammered fuel dumps and airfields.

Split by the juncture of U. S. troops driving northward and southward in the Cagayan valley, remnants of the once powerful Japanese army on Luzon fell back into the mountainous country on the east and west sides of the island, where they could be expected to make a last, desperate stand. Ability to prolong resistance was greatly impaired, however, with the Yanks' capture of the major enemy supply base in the rugged terrain west of the Cagayan valley.

MEAT: Hog Drop
Announcement of the department of agriculture that the number of hogs available for slaughter this summer will be below last year, and the spring pig crop fell 7 per cent under 1944, presaged continued tight pork and lard supplies until at least next spring.

As a result, the general meat situation is expected to remain acute despite high marketings of cattle, reductions in army orders and a severe cut in exports.

With major stockyards presently receiving small shipments of hogs, little hope was held for improvement during the next three months, with the report that the number of pigs more than six months old totaled only 25,566,000 as of June 1, 8,934,000 head below last year.

Because of the drop in the spring pig crop to 51,687,000, supplies of pork and lard will remain tight through next winter when the hogs are marketed. Even if farmers fatten up the spring crop liberally, the pork and lard tonnage will fall 350,000 tons below last year's level. Any increase in the fall pig crop will not be felt before next spring or summer when the hogs are butchered.

TIRES: July Quotas
Declaring that it was rationing more tires than current production warranted because a record number of flats and blowouts could be expected during the hot weather, OPA set the July quota for passenger tires at 2,500,000, the same as last month.

Going only to "B" and "C" card holders, the quotas should meet the immediate requirements of essential drivers, OPA said. Until military demands taper and the manpower and military situation improves, "A" card motorists possess little chance of receiving any cords.

At the same time, the quota of smaller-sized truck tires was boosted from 360,000 last month to 386,862, and the allotment of larger truck and bus types was increased from 189,750 to 234,308.

Presidential Succession Congressional Problem

President Truman, in asking congress to revamp the law covering the succession to the presidency by having the speaker of the house succeed the vice president, seeks to perfect an important detail of government which has been a challenge throughout 150 years of U. S. law-making. It is a detail which was neglected for more urgent problems by the framers of the Constitution.

In 1792, congress provided that the president pro tempore of the senate, and then the speaker of the house should follow the vice president to the presidency. In 1838, it provided that succession should pass to the secretary of state and then to other cabinet officers. In 1925 it merely determined that a vice president-elect shall become President if the president-elect died before his term.

LEND-LEASE: Russian Aid

Announcement that Russia had received upwards of 3 billion dollars of lend-lease aid in 1944 pointed up the question of continued assistance to the Soviets following the defeat of Germany.

Speaking before a house appropriations committee, Foreign Economic Administrator Leo Crowley revealed that lend-lease would be shipped to Russian Siberia, where the presence of Soviet troops tends to pin down great numbers of Japanese who might otherwise be diverted against American, British, Chinese and other Allied forces in the Pacific.

Mapped by the military, this lend-lease program will continue as long as the army deems it essential to the Allied cause. Crowley said. All material being shipped is considered necessary to the plan.

Despite the end of hostilities in Europe, the lend-lease budget for 1946 calls for 4 billion, 375 million dollars, Crowley revealed. With the tapering off of shipments following V-E Day, some countries were given the opportunity to buy material to complete plants and other facilities started under the lend-lease program.

Because the army deems it necessary to combat hunger and disease in American areas of occupation, Italy will receive supplies under the 1946 lend-lease budget.

Vet Death Claims Jump

With claims increasing 250 per cent in the last eight months, the veterans administration has thus far paid out over 2 billion dollars in national service life insurance. From only 87,340 approved claims from October, 1940, to October, 1944, the total jumped to 307,364 in the intervening 8 months, it was revealed.

As of June, 1945, 17,627,500 applications for the federal insurance have been accepted, totalling over 136 billion dollars. Average policy is over $9,200.

SUGAR: Dicker With Cuba

Rejecting the U. S. offer for virtually all of the 1946 sugar crop at 3.45 cents a pound, Cuban millers and planters countered with demands for 4 1/2 cents plus guarantees for continued American support of their market.

Under the Cuban proposals, the U. S. would have to assure purchase of 85 per cent of the country's sugar output through 1950 at a price equal to that paid Puerto Rican producers; guarantee annual imports of not less than 3,000,000 tons of Cuban sugar, and supply chemical fertilizers, agricultural implements, mill machinery and spare parts for the expansion of the Cuban sugar industry.

In addition, the Cuban interests seek assurance that the cost of American rice, lard, jam, bacon, pork, corn, meal, wheat, flour, shoes, lumber and machinery will not be increased to upset the balance between prices received and paid in trade between the two countries.

SALARIES: List Tops

Business men and movie stars were among the highest salaried Americans in 1944-44 with President Charles E. Wilson of General Motors topping the latest treasury list with $459,041.

Right behind, Thomas J. Watson of the International Business Machines corporation drew $425,549, while Film Actor Fred MacMurray made $419,167.

No less than five other General Motors officials drew over $300,000 during 1943-44, with Ormond E. Hunt receiving $359,519; Albert Bradley, $350,432; John Thomas Smith, $306,311; Donaldson Brown, $306,161, and Charles F. Kettering, $306,118. Film Actress Barbara Stanwyck made $23,333 while Crooner Bing Crosby earned $294,444 exclusive of radio fees.

FARM LOANS: For Vets

To finance vets' purchases of family-sized farms, the Farm Security administration has set aside $25,000,000 for the next 12 months under terms much more liberal than those of the G. I. Bill of Rights.

Made under the terms of the Bankhead-Jones farm tenant act of 1937, loans can cover the full purchase price of the farm and allow up to 40 years for repayment at 3 per cent interest on the unpaid balance. FSA already has received applications from more than 2,000 discharged veterans wanting to buy farms.

FSA also announces that more than 2,500 veterans have obtained rehabilitation loans to finance purchase of machinery, livestock, feed and seed so they could resume farming, mostly on rented land.

AUSTRALIAN BOOM

A network of strategic highways born of military necessity promises to speed the development of Australia in peace, says Ethyl News. These roads, some comparable to the Alcan and Pan-American highways of North America, now tie together the north, south, east and west of Australia, and open up more than 1,500,000 miles of almost virgin land.

PINE TREE SHADED LAWN IS SCENE OF WEDDING FRIDAY

The bridegroom was attended by Jack Kilbourne of Cass City, Max McKenzie and Robert Pearce acted as ushers.

Preceding the ceremony, Miss Roberta Romig sang "I Love You Truly" and the "Wedding March" from Lohengrin was played by Miss Mae Jean Davison.

Mrs. Pearce, mother of the bride, selected a misty pink dress for her daughter's wedding and Mrs. Knoblet, the bridegroom's mother, chose a deep rose. Both mothers wore blue delphinium corsages.

A reception immediately followed the wedding during which ice cream, cake and punch were served from tables out-of-doors and the newlyweds opened their many lovely gifts.

The bride's table was centered with a wedding cake which was topped with a miniature bride and groom. The 50 guests were from Detroit, Chicago, Pittsburg, Bay City, Cass City, Elkton, Bad Axe and Uby. Those from Cass City were: Mr. and Mrs. Rinerd Knoblet and daughters, the Misses Martha and Charlotte, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Schembers, Miss Wanda Browne, Dean Robinson, Robert Millard, Rev. and Mrs. M. R. Vender and Jack Kilbourne.

For traveling, Mrs. Knoblet wore a fuchsia suit with white accessories when the couple left on a short honeymoon to Northern Michigan. After their return, they will reside on the groom's farm near Cass City.

Mrs. Knoblet was graduated from the Bad Axe high school this spring and Mr. Knoblet is a graduate of the Cass City high school.
