

Community Club Invites All Men To Join the Society

January Program Features Business Men's Chorus, Speaker and Movies

Tuesday, January 13, is the regular meeting of the Cass City Community Club. The program is to feature a return engagement of a song and dance combination of local business men which was enthusiastically received by the town at its first showing some years ago. New costumes, new songs, dances, but the same old faces will be back to repeat their hit. To those women of the community who would like to see the fun, President Auten extends an invitation. Visitors will be welcome after the meal and before the program starts. This should be sometime between 8:15 and 8:30 o'clock.

In addition to the above entertainment, the program will have two reels of pictures on "Soil Conservation" and "Game Conservation" and an address by Richard Bell of the Farm Crops Department of Michigan State College. Mr. Bell was loaned to the French government to assist in the sugar beet industry in that nation. He will speak of his experiences in France. Dean Gordon of the Tuscola Soil Conservation Department will show the pictures.

The Community Club membership drive for 1948 will start Tuesday evening before the dinner. All men of Cass City and the surrounding community are invited to join the club. The annual dues of $1.50 have not been changed. If you have not before been a member, please consider this your invitation to become one. As only previous members are contacted for the dinner tickets, you may get yours at either local drug store. No dinner tickets are sold at the high school on the evening of the dinner, so please get your ticket at the drug store now or by noon Tuesday, the 13th. It is an impossible job to contact everyone personally but it is the wish of the officers that no local male be excluded from membership in the Community Club. That is why they have taken this means of inviting you to come along Tuesday night. Throughout this year the program committee is trying to make use of the better local talent in an attempt to bring even better programs before the club.

Michigan Mirror

By Gene Alleman

Governor Kim Sigler's appointment of Joseph W. Sanford, Warden of the United States Penitentiary at Atlanta for the past nine years, to be Michigan commissioner of corrections at a pledged salary of $12,000 a year is regarded at the State Capitol as a "ten-strike" for the Sigler theory of centralized authority and responsibility.

Sanford is to take over the job February 1. He succeeds a five-man commission, members of which donated their services as civic duty. The commission was replaced by an appointive commissioner, subject to the will of the Governor and the State Senate.

It is the Governor's belief that direction of governmental bureaus and departments through boards and commissions has the tendency of taking government away from the people. He would like to see the governor give authority to appoint or fire the directors of bureaus and departments and to have these appointments subject to confirmation by a branch of the state legislature, the State Senate.

The congregation of the Baptist Church enjoyed a watch-night service, New Year's Eve in the church from nine o'clock until midnight. Outside speakers for the evening were Rev. Archie Veltman of Saginaw, Rev. Don Currey of Marquette and to assist with the singing, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Morrow of Pontiac. A duet by Robert Bearss and Miss Marjorie Stevens and a piano solo by Miss Stevens were enjoyed also.

Members of the congregation came bearing gifts of non-perishable food packages which were presented to Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Olsen.

At the close of the meeting, Rev. and Mrs. Olsen served doughnuts and coffee.

Preacher Scientist

Dr. Moon

Dr. Irwin A. Moon of Moody Bible Institute is shown above in a scene from his sound-color film, "God of the Atom," to be presented at 8:00 p. m., Wednesday, Jan. 14, at the First Baptist Church.

Dr. Moon is here demonstrating the Barkhausen effect, by which the audience is able to hear the movement of groups of molecules within a magnetized steel bar.

In the film, actual shots of the Nagasaki and Bikini explosions are featured, as well as the only full color moving pictures ever taken of the giant 184-inch cyclotron at the University of California. Since this exclusive sequence was filmed, concrete walls have been built around the cyclotron, and the interior has been rendered dangerously radioactive.

In his role as narrator of "God of the Atom," Dr. Moon declares, "Our trouble in the world has never been due to the fact we've had swords, or guns, or gunpowder, or tanks, or airplanes, or even atomic bombs. Take all these things from the world and men will beat each other to death with their bare fists! The problem is not what man has, but what man is," he says.

Smoke Damaged Hotel Coffee Shop

The fire alarm sounded at 2:00 a. m. Monday and the fire department found a small fire but an abundance of smoke which filled the Hotel Coffee Shop. The blaze slightly burned the floor and wall and the smoke created havoc with inside decorations. The fire apparently started from an oil heating stove. The damage is estimated around $750 and was covered by insurance.

The fire came at an inopportune time, shortly after the dining room had been decorated. "It might have been worse, however," said Jerry McComb, "as it came early enough in the week so that we were able to clean up for our grand opening on Saturday, Jan. 10."

In an announcement on page 2, the management extends an invitation to visit the coffee shop that day. Dinner music will be from 6 to 8 p. m. and dance music from 9 p. m. to 12.

THIEVES MAKE WAY WITH CASH FROM GAS STATIONS

At Deford, Alva Allen lost $6 or $7 in silver Saturday night. Entrance was gained by smashing a back door window.

1,200 Ballots Cast For AAA County Committeemen

Chas. B. Eckfeld Is Reelected County Chairman J. M. Reagh, Vice Chairman

A total of 1200 ballots were cast by Tuscola County farmers in the annual election of AAA County Committeemen conducted by mail from December 13 to 24, according to Chas. B. Eckfeld, chairman of the Tuscola County AAA Committee. In last year's election, a total of 1355 votes were cast when the use of mail balloting was tried for the first time in the long history of AAA farm program elections.

The ballots were counted Friday, December 26, by an impartial election board and the final tabulation revealed that 24 percent of the eligible farmer-voters in the county participated in the election of the township committeemen.

On December 30, 1947, an assembly of 23 delegates from all rural townships in the county convened at Caro for the annual county AAA election convention.

The County AAA Committee are charged with the responsibility for administering the 1948 agricultural conservation program, commodity loan programs, sugar programs, and price support operations.

The new committeemen took office immediately upon their election and will serve until the next annual election in December, 1948. Concluded on page 8.

Gagetown Youth Died of Tractor Injuries

From Gagetown Correspondent Clarence Goslin, 19, World War II veteran and son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Goslin of Unionville, died at noon on New Year's Day in Pleasant Home Hospital in Cass City of injuries suffered the previous Monday night when he was pinned beneath a farm tractor at Bach.

The accident occurred after young Goslin towed a neighbor's auto to a garage for repairs and had started to return home. As he approached a corner he applied the brakes unevenly as his foot slipped from the brake lever. This caused the tractor to overturn.

He was unable to jump to safety because he had not fastened his overshoes and one caught in the brake lever. His chest was crushed.

The body was taken to the Hunter Funeral Home at Gagetown and later to the Goslin home. Funeral services were conducted on Saturday by Rt. Rev. Msgr. John McCullough at St. Agatha Church of which he was a member. Interment was made in the parish cemetery.

Clarence Goslin was born in Columbia Township April 13, 1928. He enlisted in the army Oct. 21, 1946, and was discharged in November, 1947, after serving one year and ten days.

Besides his parents, he leaves eight sisters, Mrs. Leo Seurnyck of Gagetown, Mrs. Felice Vernesch of Unionville, Mrs. Dorothy Goebel and Miss Evelyn Goslin of Bad Axe, Mrs. Helen Wood of Bay City, and Jane, Connie and Marianne at home, and four brothers, Harold Goslin of Bad Axe and Al, Keith and Patrick at home.

Fessler Pleaded Guilty to Murder of Five-year-old Son

Ferris Fessler, 42-year-old father of Caro, pleaded guilty in the Tuscola County Circuit Court Tuesday to the murder of his five-year-old son, Patrick, on Thanksgiving Day, Judge Desjardins set Wednesday, Jan. 14, for the examination of witnesses, the procedure necessary for the court to determine the degree of the crime.

Three psychiatrists, Dr. Norman Westlund of Saginaw, Dr. A. T. Rehn, Lapeer State Home, and Dr. W. W. Dickerson, Caro State Hospital, who examined Fessler, declared several days ago that Fessler was sane.

Asked by the court why he shot his five-year-old son, Fessler said it was because he did not see how life would be very "rosy" for the boy. Under questioning by the court Fessler said he did not believe the boy would ever be happy with his mother, who had threatened divorce four times.

Advertise it in the Chronicle.

Carol L. DuRussell First Baby of Year

The stork delivered five girl babies in one week in the Morris Hospital, late arrivals being daughters born to Mr. and Mrs. Jack Harbec of Cass City and to Mr. and Mrs. Alton Caverly of Kingston. The Harbec baby has been named Beverly Ann.

The other girl babies, previously reported, were the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Verr. McConnell of Cass City and of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Matthews of Kingston.

Fire Destroyed Wallace & Morley Elevator at Elkton

A fire of undetermined origin destroyed the elevator of the Wallace & Morley Co. at Elkton early Saturday morning, together with large quantities of beans and grain and machinery and equipment. Building and machinery were valued at over $100,000 and elevator officials said the plant was filled almost to capacity with beans and grain. The total loss is estimated unofficially at $400,000.

Valuable equipment destroyed in the blaze included an auto bean packing machine, three "electric eye" bean sorting machines and numerous motors.

The fire started in the room where the sorting machines were installed. It spread quickly and volunteer workers were able to save only office furniture and office records.

Bad Axe and Pigeon Fire Departments assisted Elkton firemen in saving a number of homes in the vicinity of the blazing elevator plant.

The Elkton elevator was the terminal facilities of the Wallace & Morley chain of 16 elevators in the Thumb.

18 Townships in Tuscola Vote Help In Snow Removal

Boards Decide to Pay the Necessary Funds to Clear Roads of Snow

Wm. Profit, president of the Tuscola County Road Commission, explained the working of that body in an address at the Rotary Club luncheon Tuesday. The county has 1,400 miles of township roads, 270 miles of county roads and 160 miles of state highways. The commission is allowed but $59 a mile for the maintenance of township roads from the McNitt road funds which must take care of graveling, brushing, snow removal, etc. For the county roads, the commission may expend $250 a mile and many of these have been blacktopped in recent years.

The low allowance for township roads permits limited work on these and is a source of "headache" for commission members because of dissatisfaction expressed by property owners who point to the difference between the township and county road maintenance.

Snow removal will be helped on the township roads in 18 of the 23 townships in the county where township boards have voted to reimburse the road commission. Concluded on page 8.

Leaders Honored At Presbyterian Annual Meeting

The annual congregational meeting of the Presbyterian Church was held at the church on Monday at 8:00 p. m., with Meredith Auten presiding, and Don MacLachlan, clerk of session, serving as congregational clerk.

The splendid reports by representatives of the various boards, departments and organizations of the church gave evidence of a successful year.

Due to a denominational change of the church-year to conform to the calendar year, the reports covered a nine months period, April 1-December 31. The church membership as reported by the clerk is 232, the Sunday School enrollment is 154. The average attendance at the Sunday church services shows a steady gain over the preceding years of the present pastorate of the Rev. Melvin R. Vender: 1944 - 79; 1945 - 82; 1946 - 90; and 1947 an average of 102. Mr. Vender begins his fifth year as pastor this month.

"As a recognition of his ministry, as well as of the increased costs of living, the board of trustees recommended an increase in salary which was adopted by the congregation. In fact a total budget increase was adopted to provide. Concluded on page 8.

YEAR REVIEW

The story of 1947 lacks the tremendous dramatic climaxes that featured the world news of the war years. We can be thankful that at least there have been no great wars to create any more misery and destruction and terror. The world is still deeply agitated by controversy over the war settlements, but no nation has taken up arms to attack a neighbor, and that is something.

So long as the arguments are merely vocal and oratorical, it is a sign of progress. It can be hoped that the world has for the most part learned to settle its disputes by argument rather than violence.

Europe is still suffering bitter distress, the result mainly of war destruction and exhaustion. This distress has been aggravated by shortages in agricultural production. It is pitiful to read of the suffering in those lands due to hunger and malnutrition, and lack of fuel. The United States has acted generously to help these countries, and to aid them to maintain democratic government.

It is a great event in world history when the end came of British government in India, and that country, which includes about one fifth of the world's population, became two self governing dominions. They have a chance now to see if they can solve their problems under their new institutions of freedom.

Japan seems to be accepting its defeat quietly, and is learning very useful lessons through American occupation.

In the United States it had been feared by many that the country would suffer from an industrial setback, and that unemployment would become widespread. These fears have not been realized. The country has maintained a high range of production and prosperity, and the amount of unemployment is relatively small.

Air Delivered Packages
Varied uses are being found for the helicopter, says Capper's Farmer. Its utility has been well established for spraying fruit, vegetables and orchard crops. A department store in Middletown, Conn., uses one for store-to-door delivery of packages. A helicopter also is providing shuttle service between downtown Boston and the local airport.

Less Wisconsin Dairies
Postwar readjustments of the Wisconsin dairy industry has resulted in a decline in the number of dairy manufacturing plants in that state. Last year's decrease in dairy plant numbers is about average, figures since 1941 showing an annual drop of about 100. Better transportation is held largely responsible for the decrease.

Recruits Decline In Armed Forces

Enlistments Fail to Keep Manpower of Services At Full Strength.

WASHINGTON. — Diminishing manpower is causing grave concern to the high commands of all armed forces — army, navy and air. Recruiting for the services is running far below the levels necessary to keep the armed forces at authorized strength, in some cases as much as 20 per cent too low, officials say.

The navy, which customarily is in a better recruiting position than the army, is getting only about 80 per cent of the needed number of recruits on the basis of latest figures. Navy officials estimate they need about 15,000 men a month. The army, which also carries on air force enlistments, gained about 21,000 men in September, compared with a desired total of about 30,000.

Prospects Tamed Poor.
The army has a present actual strength of about 980,000 compared with its authorized force of 1,070,000. The navy currently is somewhat above the average strength figure, authorized for the current fiscal year (ending next June 30) but the present rate of discharges compared with enlistments will drop it below strength, officials said. The navy strength, in men and officers, is about 477,000 compared with an authorized 437,000 figure for the fiscal year.

The air force is understood to be between 70,000 and 80,000 short of its 391,000 authorized strength (a part of the 1,070,000 total for the army).

Guard Sagging, Too.
An intensive effort is under way to build up another vitally important component of national defense, the national guard. Like the regular establishments, that, too, lags far behind requirements.

High army officials said that they were still able to keep up the manpower required by Gen. Lucius D. Clay in Germany and Gen. Douglas MacArthur in Japan for occupation duties. But, they added, the point is being reached where the drain of manpower in the United States to keep those forces at proper strength is threatening to upset the manpower pool here required to support the overseas forces.

The closing out of the Italian occupation area under terms of the peace treaty is helping the European situation some.

Suicide by Hitler Depicted By Nazi for American Probers

NUERNBERG, GERMANY.—Hitler's suicide and funeral pyre were described for United States investigators by a prominent Nazi, Arthur Axmann, leader of the Hitler Youth, who asserted he saw Hitler and Eva Braun dead in their Berlin air raid bunker and that he helped burn the bodies in the garden of the reichschancellery. Axmann, under automatic arrest because of his high rank in Nazi party councils, said that he was in Hitler's headquarters under the Fuehrer's orders from April 22, 1945, to April 30, Hitler's last day.

Hitler had been told that Reichsmarshal Hermann Goering and Gestapo Chief Heinrich Himmler had deserted him. In his last few days he became a strangely changed man. He strode up and down the bunker floor almost ceaselessly and spoke to no one, but "he was calm," Axmann related. Late the night of April 30 Paul Joseph Goebbels took Axmann by the hand and said "the Fuehrer is dead." The propaganda minister led Axmann into the death chamber.

Hitler was sitting upright on the divan. He had shot himself through the mouth, and there was blood on his temples from the concussion. Eva evidently had taken poison.

Many Try Patent Medicines Before They Call on Doctor

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J.—A survey of 1,215 Pennsylvania homes and their medicine cabinets indicates that 60 per cent of Americans may try patent medicines or home remedies before summoning doctors when they're ill.

The survey, dealing with the influence of commercial health advertising, was reported to American Public Health association meeting by a special committee.

The committee said that if this self-treatment based on advertised claims for drugs was true in other parts of the country also, then something should be done to improve health practices and education.

TB Increases 50 Per Cent In U. S. Zone in Germany

BERLIN. — Tuberculosis among Germans in the United States zone of Germany has increased nearly 50 per cent in the last year and there are no hospital facilities for 15,905 sufferers, a report of Gen. Lucius D. Clay disclosed.

Since July, 1946, when 93,821 cases of the disease were under medical supervision in the zone, the number of active cases has increased to more than 137,000. Of this number, more than 38,000 were classified as "open infectious cases."

Girl Survives 90-Foot Drop, Pulled From Ledge in Park

LURAY, VA.—Plucky 21-year-old Mary Murphy of Washington is alive after tumbling 90 feet from the top of Crescent Rock in Shenandoah National park.

Robert Gibbs, chief forest ranger, said the girl was sitting on top of the high ledge with two of her sisters when she "leaned over and disappeared." Her body caught on a ledge 90 feet below.

She escaped with a broken arm.

Forester James Van Weelden arrived a few moments later. Weelden and Gibbs fashioned a rope ladder and a sling from a ranger's raincoat and for two grueling hours crawled across the face of the cliff to her rescue. The rescuers were guided by the girl's voice.

Hurry, May Be Too Late

The first advertisement for a petroleum product was printed in the middle 1850s. It urged prospective buyers to "hurry before this wonderful product is depleted from nature's laboratory." Yet, despite similar pessimistic predictions ever since then, reserves of crude petroleum and condensates were increased last year by more than one billion barrels.

Veterans Administration
Forgives Insurance Liens

The Veterans Administration has issued new G. I. insurance regulations which will keep term insurance intact for those veterans who in good faith have been paying their monthly insurance premiums, but who have at one time or another been informed that one or more payments are missing.

These new insurance regulations mean that the Veterans Administration is forgiving these lost or missing premiums, and means that the veteran's insurance remains in good standing, provided his case comes within the purview of Technical Bulletin 9-53.

These regulations apply only to veterans who have made premium payments on time for the months of July and August, 1947, and for all months after July and August. Furthermore, the forgiveness clause applies only to term, and not to converted insurance policies. Paragraph 2 of Technical Bulletin 9-53 is as follows:

"Where there are missing term insurance premiums for one or more months prior to July, 1947, and provided the premiums for July and August, 1947, have been timely paid, insurance, if otherwise in order, will be deemed in force and will continue in force for only so long as the premiums thereafter becoming due are timely paid as provided in existing regulations. Insurance in such cases will be deemed in force during any month or months prior to July, 1947, for which premiums were tendered and all such premiums will be retained. Where adjustment is effected under this paragraph, premiums will not be required for the missing months."

For further information regarding these new regulations, one may contact his local counseling center.

"SHURE and my boy Michael's coming home tomorrow," shouted Mrs. Murphy across the fence to her neighbor.

"Oh, that's fine news," Mrs. O'Leary congratulated her. "But I thought he'd been sent up for five years."

"He was that," conceded Mrs. Murphy, "but he got off for good behavior."

"Ah," said Mrs. O'Leary, "it must be a great consolation to know that you have such a fine son."

Platter Patter

Little Annie is blessed with an unlimited imagination and a remarkable talent for inventing games. One day she lay upon her back upon the floor, singing lustily.

A little later Annie's mother passed through the room, and noticed that the youngster now lay upon her stomach. She was singing another song, but still vocalizing with considerable vim and vigor.

"What game are you playing now, dear?" mother asked.

"Oh," explained Annie, "I'm playing that I'm a phonograph record, and I've just turned myself over."

True, Wasn't It?

The captain of a whaling vessel once wrote in his log: "Mate got drunk today." When the mate sobered up, he saw the entry and knew the owner would fire him when they made port, so he begged the captain to strike it out. He even promised never to touch a drop again. But the captain refused. "Anything once written in that log stays there," he said bluntly.

A few days later the mate was keeping the log. At the bottom of the page he wrote in large letters: "Captain was sober today!"

From a tiara of seed pearls, fell her fingertip length veil of illusion net which was edged with lace. Her arm bouquet of all white rose buds and baby mums was tied with white streamers. She wore a double strand pearl necklace, a gift of the groom.

Two Sentenced On Gaming Counts

Two men charged with maintaining and operating a place in Vassar where gambling on horse races was permitted were sentenced in circuit court at Caro Tuesday. Both had pleaded guilty two weeks ago.

Paul H. Ellis was placed on probation for two years, ordered to pay $500 court costs, and to spend the first 30 days of his probation in the county jail. Edward Becker was sentenced to pay a fine of $250 and costs of $250 or spend six months in jail. Both paid and Becker was released.

FREEZIN' REASON

There's many a slip 'twixt the garage and your destination when the roads are icy. But you can be on the cautious side by getting the "feel" of the road surface before starting out. Try your brakes lightly while driving slowly and when no other vehicles are nearby. Test acceleration, too, because "gunning" a car is as dangerous as braking suddenly.

Time to Investigate
Two small boys had taken the clock apart to see "what made it tick." After examining each part very carefully, they put the clock back together again.

During the night their father was awakened from his sleep when the clock began striking. It struck 117 times without stopping.

"Cindy," he said to his wife, excitedly, "you'd better get up. It's later than I ever knowed it to be."

Historical Interest
"I wish I knew where George was," remarked the young wife.

"I presume, my dear," said her mother-in-law, "that you mean you wish you knew where he is?"

"Oh, no, I don't," was the firm retort. "I know where he is. He's in bed with a black eye and a head-ache. I want to know where he was!"

Handy Gadgets
"I want something for a young lady—a birthday gift," said the young man. "What would you suggest?"

"Well," said the clerk, "how about some book-ends?"

"Splendid!" was the enthusiastic reply. "Give me half a dozen of your best ends—that's usually the only part she reads!"

Light Helps
The farmer was berating his hired hand for using a lantern to call on his best girl.

"What a waste," he stormed. "When I was courtin' I never carried no lantern. I went in the dark."

"Yes, I know," snapped the hired man. "And look what you got."

Logical Deduction

Checking the cash register tape for a new salesgirl, the cashier of a department store was puzzled by the unusually large number of "no sale" recordings. He asked her about it. "Well," she explained, "every time I had a customer to whom I didn't make a sale I pushed that 'no sale' button. Isn't that what it's for?"

Wrong Answer
"Dear," asked the little woman, "is my hat on straight?"

"Yes, yes," her husband replied impatiently, "it's absolutely straight. Now do hurry; we're late already."

"I'm sorry," the little woman rejoined, "but I'll have to go back, then. This isn't the sort of hat that is supposed to be worn straight!"

South Africa Diamonds
South African diamond fields are the most famous in the world. While diamonds formerly were mined in Arkansas, there are no mines now producing there. United States is the leading consumer of diamonds, securing most of them from South Africa and Brazil. These diamonds are 85 times harder than any other gem.

Overdoing It

A DOWAGER, after a lifetime of sin, decided to join the church. When the deacons plunged her into the icy river the first time she gasped, "I believe." After the second dunking she chattered, "I believe." A third time, gasping for air, she sputtered again, "I believe." One of the elders asked her eagerly, "What do you believe, sister?"

She gave him a murderous look and declared, "I believe you rascals are trying to drown me."

BORING DEEP!

Dentist—That's strange. Here's a tooth that's never been filled and yet I find bits of gold on my drill.

Patient—I knew it. . . you've worked your way back to my collar button.

Appreciated Now

When the preacher's knock on the door of the modest little shanty brought a woman attired in heavy mourning, the good man solicitously inquired: "Is your husband dead, sister?"

"Oh, no, sir, he ain't dead," was the reply.

"Then, why are you in mourning, sister?" the preacher asked.

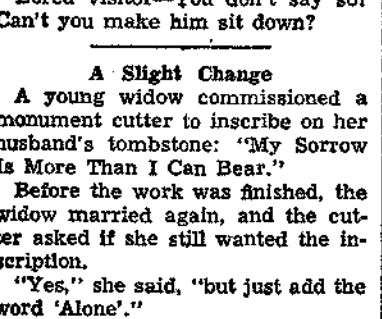

"Well, sir," explained the woman, "it's like this: My present husband has been naggin' and botherin' me so much that I went back into mourning for my first husband."

Music with Haircut

He was a very good barber, but his spelling was unsound. On the wall of his shop was a card bearing the words, "Hair Cutting, 60 cents; Singing, 20 cents." When young Percival drifted in he spotted the card.

"Short at the back and round the ears, please," he piped, seating himself in the chair. "And you can give me a couple of verses and chorus of 'Roll Out the Barrel'."

A LONG WALK

Mother (proudly watching her 2-year-old)—He's been walking like that for almost a year.

Bored visitor—You don't say so! Can't you make him sit down?

A Slight Change

A young widow commissioned a monument cutter to inscribe on her husband's tombstone: "My Sorrow Is More Than I Can Bear."

Before the work was finished, the widow married again, and the cutter asked if she still wanted the inscription.

"Yes," she said, "but just add the word 'Alone'."

wisely in his first test—that of getting a competent man to run the state's correction and penal system—appears to be conceded by everyone. Mr. Sanford's experience in managing the federal prison at Atlanta is regarded as ample qualification for the Michigan responsibilities. Governor Sigler refers to this experience as "your long and distinguished career in penology."

In a directive to Mr. Sanford, Governor Sigler presented his credo. Here are some highlights: "First of all, the prisons and reformatory must be operated in accordance with as high standards of honesty as can be achieved." No favoritism to prisoners. Need for "good morale" and its counterpart, "granting undue privileges and other forms of favoritism to preferred prisoners, especially those with political and other influence."

"Accepted principles of sound business management" should be applied to operation of the prison industries. "Emphasis must always be placed on proper diversification of industries to prevent unfair competition with free industry and to provide the widest possible variety of practical vocational training for the prisoners."

"The department has an obligation to lessen the burden on the taxpayer by employing prisoners in productive enterprises." Austin H. McCormick, nationally known penologist, was engaged by the Governor to serve as a consultant for the reorganization. Mr. McCormick's recommendations played an important part in the Governor's decision to appoint Mr. Sanford to the new post. They included the following:

That the commissioner's salary be increased from $10,000 to $12,000; that the commissioner and directors be appointed to terms of four or six years, preferably the latter, in order to assure greater security in tenure; that a "youth division" be created to "devise, organize and supervise programs for the more effective training and treatment of youthful offenders, particularly the 17-21 age group"; that the state establish a reception and medical center where newly convicted offenders would go prior to their prison commitment.

If the Sanford appointment, directives and recommendation are any test of the Sigler principle for centralized authority, judgment to date may be summed up about as follows: "So far, so good."

Early Fire Engines

Many early fire engines were destroyed by fire because the short range of the hose stream made it necessary to take the apparatus too close to the flames.

Flying Like a Bird

Flying equipment which can be strapped to an individual has won a patent for the Connecticut inventor. Application for the helicopter flying apparatus was filed in 1943. It enables the wearer to fly from 125 to 350 miles at 100 to 200 miles per hour. Landing can be made with or without a parachute.

Bleaching by Freezing

When white laundry is permitted to freeze, it seems to undergo a bleaching action. This effect probably is due to formation of ozone or hydrogen peroxide, which are more stable at lower temperatures. Both of these are good bleaches.

Bird-Catching Spider

A species of the genus Mygalis, large, hairy spiders found in tropical countries, especially in the Amazon valley, have been called "bird-catching spiders." While they appear to live chiefly on insects they can and do kill small birds. Their body may reach a length of two inches and the span is as much as seven inches.

Forests of Africa

Forests in some parts of Africa are so thick that most animals cannot live in them. They are inhabited by reptiles, monkeys and birds. Curiously enough, while the birds of Africa are among the world's most beautiful, few of them sing.

Down Memory Lane

FROM THE FILES OF THE CHRONICLE

Thirty-five Years Ago

January 10, 1913

Sunday was the first time in 25 years that Edwin Eno missed milking one of his cows at least once a day. Mr. Eno has been out of town on one-day excursions, but always milked one or more of his cows either before he went on the trip or after he returned home.

Peter D. Bush, the oldest Mason in Tuscola County and for 50 years tyler in the lodge in Caro, is dead at his home in the county seat. In 1853, during the controversy over establishing the county seat, he built at his own expense the first courthouse in Caro and later when the present courthouse was built donated the grounds now occupied.

Wm. A. Mudge has been secured as manager of the Thumb Creamery Co., with plants at Caro, Cass City, Sebawaing and Owendale.

J. B. Cootes was one of the first to send and receive big parcels through the parcel post. The outgoing parcel went to a Greenleaf Township citizen and the one received was a wagon spring from Detroit. This was the first parcel post order handled by the wholesale house.

Stockholders of the Cass City

FIFTY YEARS AGO

Fred Shoop, in his Abingdon Kodak, has some more paragraphs illuminating life 50 years ago in any typical small town community about the time that his paper was founded.

The greatest day in a boy's life was when he got his first pair of long pants.

Most folks were able to make their own decisions without any suggestions from Dr. George Gallup.

Practically every man, woman and child saw "Uncle Tom's Cabin" at least once a year.

Instead of getting $10 a day and having nothing left, folks earned $2 a day and had just as much left.

One of the regular chores around the home was trimming the wicks in the kerosene lamps.

Long skirts were an old story. Practically all magazines were to be read, not merely looked at.

There were two schools of thought in the practice of medicine. One believed in small doses of medicine and the other in big doses.

False teeth were called just that instead of dentures.

Very few women cooked by recipes.

Although they didn't have their last permanent wave or their bridge score to discuss, women could always find something to make conversation.

There was no counterpart of the jitter bug.

Men put vaseline on their hair to keep it in place.

There was a derby hat in the wardrobe of every well dressed man.

Most men got their hair cut once a month, whether it needed it or not.

Rhubarb was known as pie plant. The majority of folks looked to Providence for their blessings instead of some labor union.

The only play thing a lot of kids had was a bean bag.

There was always a crowd at the depot to see the evening train come in, and check on those who took the hack to the hotel.

The length of women's skirts was not discussed in mixed company.

Livery stables were among the most thriving businesses in every community.

There were several avid souvenir spoon collectors in every community.

Folks were still talking about the World's Columbian Exposition in Chicago.

Almost every tobacco user chewed plug, and it was either Star or Horse Shoe.

Women wore rats in their hair. Brussels sprouts hadn't begun to sprout.

The well dressed man had his choice of three kinds of collars, linen, paper or celluloid.

People never had been told not to keep their bananas in a refrigerator.

Folks had to contend with a lot of things, but not singing commercials.

About the only variety of apples on the market was the Ben Davis.

Newspaper headlines weren't always devoted to crime.

Little boys read the Rover Boys books instead of the mystery comics.

Cobblers' Feast Days
In the past Monday was humorously canonized as "St. Monday," the festival of cobblers. Cobblers were supposed not to know on which day the feast of St. Crispin, their patron saint, fell, except that it should be a Monday. Thus they celebrated the patron's feast every Monday.

Telephone Co. re-elected directors of that company at the annual meeting Tuesday. They are: J. D. Brooker, J. D. Crosby, Edward Pinney, B. F. Benkleman and J. C. Corkins.

D. Crawford has arranged to purchase the Central Meat Market from A. L. Johnson.

The local fire department's salary has been increased from $100 to $200 annually by the Village council.

Twenty-five Years Ago

January 12, 1923

Despite unfavorable business conditions in farming sections of the state the past year, the Cass City community has achieved prosperity in 1922. This is borne out by an increase of $53,502.01 in total deposits in the two local state banks. Total deposits are now $789,005.82. A year ago the amount was $735,503.81.

A course in Bible study will be offered to local high school students if a sufficient number express their desire to take this study.

In the point system at the Cass City High School, Bernice Wager and Velma Warner tied for first place in the 12th grade with 13 points each. Others finishing first in other grades are: Richard Schenck, 9th grade, 11 1/2 points; Robt. Dillman, 10th grade, 13; 11th grade, Helen Turner, 12 1/2.

The Wickware community will enjoy a community banquet at the Gleaner Hall at Wickware on Jan. 18. Rev. Ira W. Cargo of Cass City will give an address and special music will be given.

A debate will be held at the high school this afternoon with Gage-town. Cass City's team consisting of Grant Pinney, Velma Warner and Oakley Phetteplace will take the negative side of the question.

Wm. A. Lamb has purchased the interest of Clifton Champion in the ABC Sales and Service Garage and is now a partner in that firm with Alex Henry and Robt. Agar, Jr. Miss Freda Kelley expects to leave next Monday for Saginaw where she will take training at the Woman's Hospital in that city.

for the installation of new lighting, painting and decorating of the sanctuary and other considerations," said the clerk, Don MacLachlan. "The benevolences of the congregation, also, were increased for the current year."

Mrs. B. H. Starmann, chairman of the standing committee on nominations, recommended that due to the change of the church-year, all officers of the boards, the session (Elders), the trustees and the deacons, whose terms of office would conclude March 31, be continued in office throughout the year 1948. This was adopted, along with the rotation plan of election for members of the board of deacons to become operative in January, 1949.

Orion Cardew presented the findings and recommendations of a special committee which had been studying the needs, and possibilities for increasing the attractiveness, the utility, and efficiency of the various rooms in use by the departments and classes of the church school. A lively and friendly discussion followed of varying points of view as to some of the proposed changes. The session and trustees were empowered to act upon, and carry out what was deemed most practical and possible within the available means.

Citations for special services "over and beyond the mere level of (church) duty," as members, were made by the pastor in the presentation of "Certificates in Recognition of Service" to Mrs. A. J. Knapp, Mrs. Frederick Pinney and Mrs. Ernest Croft.

Mrs. Frederick Pinney has terminated a five-year period of service as a leader and teacher in the children's division of the church school, majoring in the beginners' department. She deserves great credit for the splendid and faithful work. This department has met for several years, during the church service of worship.

Mrs. A. J. Knapp, who has resigned, has had an unusual period of service in the church school in various departments of the children's division (nursery, beginner and primary) and was presented with a reproduction of the oil painting of Warner Sallman's "Head of Christ" which is printed in a six color tone. The presentation was made by Arthur Holmberg, an elder, on behalf of the church school.

Mrs. Knapp united with the local church in 1891, and since 1893 has served continuously in local Sunday School work, except during a six-year residence in Bad Axe, during which time she was a worker in the Presbyterian Church there, 1901-1907. Many young children have had their introduction to the church under her 55 years of leadership, and have had the imprint of her influence during their early and impressionable years by way of Christian nurture.

Mrs. Ernest Croft, retiring treasurer of the church, was presented with a Revised Standard Version of the New Testament, as an appreciation by the congregation for service rendered by Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Croft who have held the office of church treasurers, 1934-1948. The presentation was made by Mrs. R. A. McNamee.
