time in the school's history, the home-coming celebration will be high lighted by the reign of a queen. In a school election, sponsored by the student council, Miss Mary Jane Lessman, attractive and popular junior, was elected to reign over the 1948 home-coming. Miss Lessman is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lessman of Decker.

Also named in this election were queen's court to be composed of Miss Nancy Schwaderer, junior, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Schwaderer; Miss Patsy Brown, senior, daughter of Ross Brown of Snover; and Miss Marilyn Agar, sophomore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Max Agar.

The home-coming celebration will get under way with a huge pep rally in the high school gymnasium at three o'clock at which the band, cheer leaders and student speakers will express their enthusiasm for and confidence in the team which has come to the final game of the season without a defeat. Leaving the pep meeting, the students will join in a snake dance through the downtown section.

The coronation itself will be a special feature of the evening program. Bands of Cass City and Pigeon High Schools will lead a parade from the school shortly after seven o'clock. Prominent in this procession will be the streamer bedecked float bearing the queen and her attendants regally garbed for the occasion. Marching through the business areas, the parade will reach the athletic field in time for

MSC Study Tells Story of Michigan Rural Health Needs

Health needs and health services of rural Michigan families have formed the basis of a new bulletin written by Dr. Charles R. Hoffer, Michigan State College research sociologist.

Purposes of the study were to measure the extent of needs for medical attention among farm families, whether adequate attention was given to these needs or if they were neglected, and to find the opinions the families had regarding their medical services. Titled "Health and Health Services for Michigan Farm Families", the publication reports a study of the rural health facilities of three Michigan counties-Kent, Shiawas-

Preparing Green Peas

Time is an important factor with peas. Whether you cook, can or freeze them, pick and shell them quickly and hurry them to the range, freezer or jar. To prepare them for the tabel, simmer the freshly-picked and shelled peas only until they are tender. This takes from 10 to 20 minutes depending on the size and maturity of the peas. Season and serve as soon as possible. Peas are one vegetable that can be served with almost any main course-beef, lamb, pork, chicken, fish or eggs.

Michigan Mirror By Gene Alleman Now that the election is over, the state capital is again giving atof their act. tention to proposed streamlining and reorganization of state governreform movement Governor Kim Sigler, rebuffed in part at the 1948 special session of the state legislature, can now proceed, piece by piece, toward its objective. Here are some of the new pieces" to be fitted into the reform jig-saw pattern: Merger of all labor agencies into new "state department of labor and industrial relations" to be headed by a single commissioner appointed by the governor. A subcommittee of the governor's legislative committee on governmental reorganization held a hearing at Lansing. It seemed that nearly all agencies involved were cool to the plan, to say the least. The merger would consolidate the following units: State labor mediation board, state department of labor, unemployment compensation commission, state employment service, unemployment compensation appeal board, workmen's CASS CITY compensation commission, and superintendent of employment gencies. While the commissioner would be subject to appointment by the governor, a six-member state advisory committee is suggested to offer counsel. This group, too, would be subject to wishes of the governor. Removal of the office of state superintendent of public instruction from the state ballot has been ecommended by a citizens' committee. The committee was formed at the request of Governor Sigler. A state board of education would be appointed by the governor, with the approval of the legislature. This board, in turn, would select and appoint the superintendent of public instruction. This change would require adoption of an amendment to the state constitution. Supporting the change are Dr.

The new state department of economic development, one of Governor Sigler's pet projects, has become the target of Loren B. Miller, director of Detroit bureau of governmental research. Miller recommends that the department be abolished by the legislature because of its "starry-eyed and unealistic" program.

`The pair hadn't had an act for a month of Sundays and didn't know just what to say; but, being resourceful, replied, . "Twenty-five minutes."

"Twenty-five minutes!" exclaimed the manager. "Why, my dear sirs, ours is a long bill. I cannot give you 25 minutes. I suggest that you go on for eight minutes.'

The performers stared at him aghast "Eight minutes!" they screamed. Why, we bow for seven minutes!"

"I'm sorry," said the woman; "It was all my fault."

"Not at all, madam," the man responded with a gallant gesture; 'I was to blame myself." "But I insist the fault was mine.
