States Open Purses to Aid Old-Ace Group

WASHINGTON, - Thousands of old folks are going to get more cash from the public purse. Old age assistance funds or payments have been increased in 11 states so far in the 1949 legislative season. Thirteen other states are studying proposals to give more money to needy citizens who are 65 or older.

Cash help for the old folks runs into millions. Before the 1949 legislative sessions began, about 2,500,-000 men and women were getting such aid. The average payment for the United States as a whole was $41.50. The monthly total topped 100 million dollars.

The funds go to needy people 65 or over-oldsters such as those who are not covered by the federal old age and survivors insurance system.

Federal and state governments both contribute money to the old age assistance programs. The federal government shares in payments up to $50 a month.

Minimum Hiked

In the current legislative session, North Dakota increased the minimum navments from $40 to $60 a month in cases where there is only one recipient in a family, and from $30 to $45 when there are more.

The minimum was set at $50 in in his body. New Mexico. In Maine, maximum benefits were increased from $40 to $50 a month. Nebraska raised the ceiling from $50 to $55. Montana provided for a hike of $7 in monthly grants that had averaged $45.

The Illinois legislature decided to boost the ceiling from $50 to $65 a month with the provision that it would be adjusted up or down as the cost of living rose or fell in the future.

Higher appropriations also were voted in North Carolina, Idaho, Arkansas, West Virginia and South Dakota.

But the traffic wasn't all one way in the 14 capitals where decisions already have been made. Indiana, Utah and Wyoming made no changes.

California Highest

None of the measures adopted thus far this year has hit the high target raised in California. The voters there last fall approved a proposition to increase benefits for senior citizens from $60 to $75 a month. To meet the added costs, for the rest of the fiscal year ending June 30 and for the next fiscal year, the governor has asked an extra $118,-235,000.

Proposals now being considered in 13 states vary quite a bit. But in half of them appropriations would be increased without raising the limits on benefits.

The old man's eyes stared wide with terror. His body did not rise from his seat as though he might be frozen with fear. There was only a pitiful cry: "You'll hang for it, Alex!"

A MOMENT later, with detached calm, Alex wiped the gun clean of his own fingerprints, and then placed the weapon in the murdered man's hand. He took one last glance about the room asuring himself there was no trace of evidence. He was sleeping soundly that night, happy in the thought that in the morning he would be a wealthy man. But it was almost midnight when he was awakened by the police. He was ordered to get into his clothes at once:

Pilots Cheat Coyctes Out of Antelope Meal

CRAIG, COLO. - Two civil air patrol pilots cheated a pair of coyotes out of an antelope dinner near here recently.

The fliers, Jay Brinker and P. Jones, were making a routine flight north of Craig. Brinker noticed two covotes pussyfooting around a buck antelope which seemed to have its hind foot lifted high off the ground.

Brinker and Jones buzzed the area a couple of times and discovered the antelope's foot was caught between two strands of barbed wire.

The fliers returned to Craig and told game warden Bill Roland what they'd seen.

Then the three of them bundled into Roland's car and drove to within three miles of the antelope. They traveled the rest of the way on snowshoes, rescued the antelope by cutting the barbed wire. Taking it back to Craig, they nursed it overnight and the next day the animal seemed in good shape. The animal was freed near a huge herd of antelope.

Churchill 'Siren Suit' Brings Stylists' Sneer

LONDON. - Winston Churchill's famous "siren suit" brought a sneer from London's style arbiters.

Garbed in a "sort of something" closely resembling a pair of baggy summer flying overalls zipped up the front, loosely belted and with a floppy open collar, Churchill predicted in America that it would be the dress of the future.

The magazine Tailor and Cutter, which has been setting men's fashions since Victorian times, said the wartime prime minister was "off the mark there."

The siren suit lacks artistic appearance, said the weekly, and "structurally it is wrong; it makes for untidiness."

Thomas A. Edison had a friend, Ernst E. Caulkins, a well-known man, who, like the inventor, refused to let deafness become an affliction. As one deaf man to another, Calkins once asked Edison: "Why is it that you, of all men, have not tried some electrical device for making hearing easier." "Too busy," the inventor replied.

with the many, many outdoor activ-ities which Michigan offers. But especially does summer belong to the children . . . filled with carefree days on the beaches . . . swimming in the thousands of lakes around us and leading the carefree exist-ence that is one of the delights of childhood.

It is the duty of every adult in Michigan to keep that childhood carefree . . to keep it unmarred by the tragedies that can come from carelessness. That is why so many Michigan beaches are manned with capable lifeguards who will teach children safety and come to teach children safety and come to their rescue in a second if needed. As parents, you, too, will keep a watchful eye on your children near the water . . . and that same constant alertness and care should make you a "lifeguard" in, your automobile.

Never leave tiny children in an suto alone, where they may be tempted to "drive like Daddy does" . . . where a running motor may mean a tragedy. When driving your auto, keep constantly on the lookout for the careless driver who can mean the loss of your chil-iren's lives. Obey the rules of the road yourself to keep your family

Help to make it a safe summer for everyone—do your part with safe driving to keep Michigan toll of accident tragedies down!

Are Prices Too High? Are You Getting the New Features and Quality You Expected in Post-war Appliances?

If your family has been thinking of buying a new appliance, you may be confused by conflicting stories about today's prices and values.

The fact is, there is no purchase you can make at this time that brings you more real value for your money than a good electric appliance. While the cost of living is up 70 percent over 1939, according to government statistics, the average price increase of ranges, refrigerators, washing machines, water heaters and dishwashers is only a little more than half that!

For example, today you can buy a brand new 1949 Hotpoint Refrigerator for $189.75-only $10 more than the same kind and size cost in 1939-and this is a lot better refrigerator and has many improved features. When you consider that the dollar today is worth just 60% of its 1939 value, you must agree that this new, vastly improved Hotpoint post-war refrigerator actually costs a lot less.

Cass City

Compare this with the price increase in automobiles, houses or almost anything you buy-up from 50 to more than 100 percent.

We see no reason for you to wait to buy a new appliance. At today's new low appliance prices you get the greatest dollar-for-dollar values we have ever been able to offer. We say this knowing full well that our future depends on satisfying you. We sell a lot of thingseverything for the complete electric kitchen and home laundryso we can't afford to lose you as a future customer when you buy any one of our appliances.

"You can Look to Hotpoint for the Finest-FIRST" is no idle statement. We mean it. So, we back it up with the greatest dollar-fordollar value in quality appliances ever offered-right now.
