Cass City High Becomes College Agreement School

Graduates Here Accepted by College and Nurses' Training Schools in Mich.

Cass City High School was honored recently in being accepted as a member of the Michigan Secondary School-College Agreement. These schools, which now include about 100 of the more than 700 high schools in Michigan, are given the privilege of having their graduates accepted by virtually all colleges and nurses' training schools in the state without regard for the specific sequences or subjects they may have taken in high school, as long as they are recommended by the school administration as being among the able members of their class. The purpose of the agreement is to free to local schools to experiment to some extent with their curricula without handicapping their graduates who apply for college entrance.

Acceptance into membership in the association is by vote of a state committee which investigates the progress made by the local school in four areas. These include: 1—Personnel Records; 2—Curriculum Improvement; 3—Follow-up studies of former students, and 4—Orientation and Guidance.

According to Principal Arthur Holmberg, the local staff has been working toward the goal of College Agreement membership for more than two years. Cass City becomes the first high school in Tuscola County as well as in the Upper Thumb area to be accepted as a member. He emphasized, however, that membership is not to be considered as an end in itself but merely a beginning. It signifies that the school has made notable progress in the areas included under the agreement but, more important, that it has committed itself to a continuing program of self-evaluation and improvement.

Member schools in each area have formed associations for the discussion of problems relative to the agreement. Meetings in this area are held in Flint and will take the form of workshops where cooperative planning and sharing of experiences will prove most helpful to administrators and teachers attending.

Members of the board of education, at their regular meeting Monday night, unanimously approved the acceptance of the local school as a signatory to the agreement and commended the school staff on this evidence of progress toward the improvement of educational opportunities in our community.

Ankle Broken in Jump from 2nd Story Of Burning Home

The farm home and its contents of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Robinson in Evergreen Township were completely destroyed by fire Sunday forenoon. Mrs. Robinson, 30, received a broken ankle when she jumped from an upstairs window, and was brought to Cass City Hospital. The Robinsons have five children who were taken into the home of neighbors in that vicinity.

The fire was discovered when the family was eating dinner. Mrs. Robinson was trapped on the second floor after she went there in an attempt to save valuables.

Stork Was Ahead of Grim Reaper in 1949

The annual death rate in Cass City has been decreasing during the last three years. In 1947, 72 deaths were recorded, in 1948 there were 54 and during 1949 there were 49. Figures, given by the village clerk, Mrs. Wilma Fry, also show an increase in births during 1949 over the two preceding years. There were 283 babies born in Cass City in 1947, 282 in 1948 and 289 last year.

The deciding vote in favor of the construction of the Douglas-Ducolon Drain in Elmwood Township, Tuscola County, and Brookfield Township, Huron County, was cast by Walter Moeller, representing the state department of agriculture. Edmund Miller, drain commissioner of Tuscola County, voted for the improvement while Clarence McGardle, Huron County road commissioner in charge of drains, opposed.

The length of the improvement is 28,172 feet. The drain has an outlet in the Columbia branch of the Sebawaing river.

L. Ross Named Census Supervisor in 7th District

Lester Ross left Tuesday for Detroit to attend a school of instruction for supervisors of the decennial census. Mr. Ross has been appointed supervisor of the territory which embraces the seventh congressional district.

The census gets under way next April 1 and will require a total of 6,500 workers in Michigan.

All told, census takers will have a total of 97 questions that they could ask Michigan residents. But most persons will be asked only 10 questions. Those will be of the usual type, name, age, marital status and occupation.

Every fifth person also will be queried on where he lived a year ago, the country of birth of his father or mother, and facts on school attendance.

Every fifth person over the age of 14 years will be asked how long he was employed in 1949, and the

Gale Demolishes V F W Sponsored Hall At Unionville

Sixty-mile-an-hour winds left the Veterans' Memorial Hall at Unionville a shambles Tuesday. The gale capsized the west and north walls of the two-story structure still under construction, and cracked the other two walls so badly they probably will have to be replaced.

All of the 36-foot high walls of the 120-foot by 60-foot building were practically completed when the storm struck.

Cement blocks crashed onto the main floor, damaging the concrete floor, supporting girders and cut power lines, leaving the village without electricity for about an hour.

Damage to the American Legion sponsored hall, was especially severe because roof girders had not yet been placed. Most of the labor to build the hall had been donated. Loss, covered by insurance, was estimated at approximately $20,000.

Dan Cupid's Score Falls in Tuscola Co.

There were thirty-six less marriages recorded in Tuscola County last year than in 1948. The county clerk's office has 312 marriages recorded during 1948 and 276 during 1949.

V. F. W. Home Talent Comedy January 16 and 17

Number of Well-Known Local People Are Taking Part in the Production

The famous comedy success, "Aunt Silly," is to be presented in this community under the sponsorship of the Veterans of Foreign Wars at the Cass City High School auditorium, on January 16 and 17 at 8:01 p. m. Aunt Silly is a gay comedy account of the hilarious experiences of a solid citizen who finds himself reluctantly impersonating a lady named Aunt Silly. The silly 'antics' of Aunt Silly will create a never-to-be-forgotten evening of fun.

Aunt Silly will be given a royal welcome when she arrives in town Saturday. According to rumors she will be ushered in with a big parade to be staged along Main Street about 3:00. The V. F. W. suggests that everyone be on hand to welcome Aunt Silly. This is only the beginning of the wonderful fun planned for everyone holding a ticket for Aunt Silly either Monday or Tuesday night.

There are a number of well-known local people taking part in the production. The cast committee announces that Fred Neitzel has been chosen to play the laugh-provoking role of Aunt Silly. Another important part, that of Senator Penderis Pompous, is to be taken by Vern Galloway. Other whimsical and lovable characters are Mrs. Lotta Loftus, the self-styled society aristocrat, portrayed by Mrs. Louis Bishop; and her

Old A A A Traveler Speaks of the "Land Of Unforgettables"

James P. Welsh, the Old AAA Traveler, spoke before the Cass City Community Club Tuesday evening in "unforgettables" in southern and southwestern United States. Mr. Welsh described America as a country that cannot be treated casually. "It is a vast mosaic of places, things and individuals," he said.

The Old Traveler, who started exploring the United States when tops of cars were buttoned in the back and when a motorist strapped a shovel on the car before every trip, explained that travel is America's No. 1 pastime, yet Americans do not know how to travel. They are in too much of a hurry and concentrate on speed rather than on scenery and on historical significance.

In keeping with the seasonal trend, Mr. Welsh told about the Everglades National Park in Florida. This newly developed area is composed of a million and a

WINDS BREAK WINDOW AT BULEN'S SHOWROOM

A four-foot by seven-foot plate glass window was broken at the Bulen Motors Tuesday afternoon by high winds that raged over southern and eastern Michigan. The window was one of the glass panels in the front part of the auto sales room.

The large glass panels are set in oversize window frames to allow for vibration, expansion and contraction. The powerful winds shook the panels until the glass cracked and broke.

The broken panel was replaced Wednesday.

25 Are Assessed Fines for Traffic Violations in Dec.

Interesting Notes Accompany the Money Sent in to Violation Bureau

Report of traffic violations by the village marshal and fines collected by the Village Violation Bureau for December, 1949, include:

One for speeding, exceeding 50 miles per hour, $20.00.

Seven for speeding, not exceeding 50 miles per hour, $70.00.

One modified reckless driving charge, $5.00.

Two driving without operator's license, excused.

Four for failure to stop at stop street, $12.00.

Twelve for improper parking, $24.00.

The total is $131.00 and the total collected to date is $111.00.

These are predetermined fines and were paid to the village clerk and justices without added cost to the violator. Many of them were mailed in, and upon receipt, a receipt for same was returned to the sender.

Interesting notes often accompany the money. One violator states, "I am sorry about this, however it has learned me a good lesson. I can be lucky I didn't hit someone. I can assure you I am going to take it more easy all over." Another writes, "Enclosed is my check for $10.00. I apologize for my misconduct."

The violation bureau is in the clerk's office in the municipal building at the Recreation Park.

Sommers' Bakery Installs New, Modern Oven

Greater Variety of Baked Goods to Be Made Says Bakery Owner

A new electrically controlled, oil-fired oven has been installed at Sommers' Bakery this week. The unit measures eight feet by eight feet, stands nearly eight feet high, and weighs six tons. It has a thermostatically controlled oil burner that is operated through the use of an electric eye.

The oven consists of two metal boxes, one inside the other and separated by 11 inches of insulation on all sides. Twenty-five hundred pounds of rock wool are used in its construction in addition to a layer of insulation on the bottom of a type that will support the weight of the inner box.

Inside the inner box is a mechanism that resembles a Ferris wheel with five racks. Trays of goods to be baked are placed on these racks and the "Ferris wheel" revolves, insuring uniform heat throughout the baking process. The wheel makes a complete revolution every 90 seconds and may be stopped to give access to any one of the five trays that the operator wishes, thus making obsolete the long-handle "peel paddle."

The new oven has a loading capacity of about half that of the coke-fired oven it is replacing, but speed in operation and in building up and maintaining temperatures makes up for the difference in size.

The greatest advantage of the oven is versatility. Because of automatic heat control and ability to make temperature changes quickly, a greater variety of baked goods will soon be available according to the bakery owner, J. D. Sommers.

Presbyterians Elected Officers Monday Evening

Annual Meeting Included Potluck Supper and Movie Depicting Mission Work

Eighty-seven people attended a potluck dinner at the 72nd annual congregational meeting of the First Presbyterian Church Monday evening.

After the dinner the Rev. Robert Wood, Assistant Field Representative in the Synod for the Board of National Missions, spoke briefly on mission work which is being done in our country from northern Alaska to the southernmost tip of the West Indies. Rev. Mr. Wood has toured the 58 or 60 national missions in southwestern United States, and has a colored-sound film, "The Cowboys' Hitchin' Post," showing the type of work being done to teach the Gospel in this sparsely settled area. The film was an authentic record of actual events and showed the way of life of mission workers and of the people in the great Southwest that they work with.

After the motion picture, a business meeting was held and church officers were elected.

Edward J. Golding was chosen as presiding chairman, with Donald MacLachlan as congregation clerk. Reports of all departments and Modern Medicine Has Little Knowledge Of How to Curb Colds CHICAGO. — Modern medicine, which slays germs by the billions, is still without an effective weapon of attack against the common cold. No less an authority than the American Medical Association makes that statement. In its journal, the association contended that patent medicine makers don't know the answer. Nor do those folks who are always so ready to ply the cold sufferer with advice. Apparently you just can't cure it at all. It simply runs its course and all the individual can do is make the best of a bad situation. The journal's consultant says in his article, however, that it's a pretty safe bet the best way to ease a common cold attack is to go to bed and rest there. There are a few ways, he said, to ease cold symptoms temporarily. And it seems well established, the article said, that an oncoming cold can sometimes be aborted by "reasonable doses" of alcohol. It was explained this is because it "causes peripheral vasodilation and reestablishes circulation in chilled cutaneous and mucosal surfaces." In other words, it brings a rush of blood into cold skin or nose lining. So, when a doctor does something for your cold, he just eases the acute symptoms, such as headache (with aspirin), and burning sensations in the nose or throat (by moisture with steam inhalations, or common table-salt solution spraying.) But the "sane and effective measure" is to stay warm and relaxed in bed, especially if fever is present. It "diminishes the severity of the common cold, limits its spread to others, and reduces the frequency of complications." Nose drops? Gargles? Volatile inhalers? Diet? Water-drinking? Salves, the journal says, their benefits generally exaggerated in conversation and advertising. Radio Give-Away Programs Not Always Good Fortune NEW YORK. — The radio give-away program—the pot of gold at the end of a telephone dial or at a network microphone—wherein the winner is considered the "luckiest" of the contestants, is turning out not to be anything of the sort. Take the case of an attractive 42-year-old grandmother, Mrs. Benjamin Cohen of the Bronx. She won an announced $28,000 radio jackpot. Four months later she nervously watched most of it go under an auctioneer's hammer as she sought to raise money to pay federal taxes on the gifts. Explained Mrs. Cohen: "I had to pay income tax. I had to pay storage on all those things. I had to pay the lawyer who was handling everything for me. And I had to pay the auctioneer." She kept a new car, television set, an outdoor motor and boat. From the rest she expected to get about $5,000. Old-Fashioned Breakfast Disappearing From Menus MILWAUKEE.—Whatever has become of the old-fashioned breakfast—the type that geared grandfather up for a rugged session at the plow or the axe? Time was when a man going forth to work expected to be fortified with something to eat. And, particularly in New England in the old days, he got it. Those old breakfasts usually ran the gamut from hot cakes to a slab of apple pie, with such in-between hearty items as corned beef hash, eggs, steak, creamed chipped beef or codfish cakes. The meal was topped off with the pie and a gallon of steaming black coffee. Naturally, that kind of breakfast wouldn't be recommended for a man who sits at a desk all day, but on Saturdays and Sundays, the usual off-days, this type of worker doesn't get the big breakfasts because by that time the little woman is so used to making with the orange juice, toast and coffee that these are the breakfast items he gets on those days, too. Smaller Cars Not Expected To Be too Tiny, or Cheap DETROIT, MICH.—Many people, according to the automobile makers, are going to be surprised by the so-called smaller, cheaper cars that a couple of established makers are going to bring out. When the word gets around about such cars there is a tendency to think of cars a good bit smaller than the conventional type, and a great deal cheaper. The makers involved have kept publicly mum on their cars, which may be a good idea from the standpoint of causing more speculation and stimulating more interest. On the other hand, when speculation goes too far there is a good chance that the public will be disappointed because it won't get what it expects, and the makers might be hurt as a result of that. The word from this automobile capital is: Don't look for real "wee, little" cars and don't expect any whopping price cuts. Advertise it in the Chronicle.

NOTES from the TUSCOLA COUNTY EXTENSION OFFICE Annual meetings during the week of January 16 are Tuscola County ABA's and soil conservation district. State and nationally known speakers like Morris E. Fonda, James G. Hays and Dr. Glen Reed will be heard. Problems which influence the efficiency and economy of the dairy herd will be discussed at the district conference of the Tuscola and Huron County Artificial Breeding Associations, to be held Wednesday, January 18, from 11:00 a. m. to 3:00 p. m. at the Hotel Montague, Caro. Landscape meeting on the 6th was attended by 160 people. A 10-page mimeographed leaflet on basic principles of landscaping the home grounds can be had from the extension office. 4-H club members carrying egg production projects and exhibitors who placed among the first ten in the Fairgrove corn and bean show in October are eligible to exhibit in the 4-H display at Farmers' Week January 30-February 3. Exhibits of one dozen eggs, ten ears of corn, or one peck of beans should be left with 4-H Club Agent Byron Carpenter by Friday, January 27. The County 4-H Mothers' Club recently purchased $76.00 worth of kitchen equipment for the 4-H Building. The equipment included cooking kettles, baking pans, mixing bowls, salad bowls, and numerous kitchen knives, forks, etc. for use in the new modern kitchen at the building. Home Demonstration Agent Jean Gillies and the Mothers' Club committee consisting of Mrs. Fred Black, Akron, and Mrs. Harold Pike, Fairgrove, purchased the supplies. The kitchen is now equipped to prepare and serve meals for 75 to 100 people. Mrs. Fred Black, local 4-H club leader, Akron, represented Tuscola County at a conference consisting of one leader from each of six counties in the thumb district on Tuesday, January 10. The meeting was held at Lapeer in connection with the county extension workers district conference. Morris E. Fonda, head of the public relations department of Harry Ferguson, Inc., of Detroit, will be the main speaker at the sixth annual meeting of the Tuscola County soil conservation district which will be held Wednesday evening, January 18, at 8:00 in the 4-H Wilber Memorial Building adjoining the Caro fairgrounds. The meeting will include a report of the year's activities, financial report, election of two directors for three year terms and any business that may be brought up and a light lunch will be served at the close of the meeting. The public is cordially invited to attend to hear Mr. Fonda's address on "Soil Conservation: Yesterday, Today and Tomorrow." A county-wide meeting for all winter 4-H club leaders is being planned for Thursday evening, January 19 at 7 p. m. at the Wilber Memorial 4-H Building, Byron Carpenter, county 4-H Club agent, advises. MRS. ROBT. MILLIGAN DIED THURSDAY MORNING

Mrs. Robert Milligan passed away at her home northwest of Cass City about nine o'clock yesterday (Thursday) morning after being ill since Nov. 1. Funeral services will be conducted at the Milligan residence by Rev. M. R. Vender at two o'clock Saturday afternoon and the remains will be entombed in Elkland cemetery. Margaret Allison Gracie was born in Dumfries, Scotland, July 19, 1880, and was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Gracie (Agnes Dalglish). She was married to Robert Milligan Aug. 7, 1908, in Scotland and the same year came to Michigan, settling in this vicinity. Mrs. Milligan has been a member of the Presbyterian Church since 1904. She is survived by her husband; two daughters, Miss Agnes, at home, and Mrs. Grant Brown of Cass City; one son, James Milligan, also of Cass City; one brother, John Gracie, of Scotland; four sisters, Mrs. Wm. Blair, of Scotland, Miss Agnes Gracie, Mrs. Jack Brooks and Mrs. George Goodwin, all of England. Two sisters and one brother preceded her in death.

Dry Storage Best For Fertilizer

If you have your next year's fertilizer supply or expect delivery soon, you'll want to heed the storage hints given by Michigan State College soil scientists. They advise storing fertilizer sacks only in a barn or some other dry building that has flooring off the ground. With earth or concrete floors, put fertilizer on blocks or boards. If sacks are of burlap, keep piles close together to reduce circulation of air. Caking can be reduced by piling sacks only seven or eight high. Keep broken bags separate from the main pile since loose fertilizer soaks up moisture faster than that in a bag. Garlic Bread To make garlic bread for serving with special salads or casseroles, cut a loaf of French or Vienna bread into thick slices, but do not cut entirely through into the bottom crust. Mash a clove of garlic into three or four tablespoons of margarine. Spread this between the slices of bread and pop the loaf into the oven until hot and crisp.

COLUMBUS' WEAKNESS

Although Christopher Columbus was one of the greatest navigators and seamen of all times, he had one very human weakness that caused him to be unpopular with his contemporaries. The man who discovered America, liked to say "I told you so" to those who had formerly belittled him.

Thirtieth Wedding Anniversary Observed

A very pleasant surprise awaited Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Patch Friday evening, Dec. 30, when they called on their son, Bruce, and family on their way home from church service to find about 50 friends and neighbors gathered to help them celebrate their 30th wedding anniversary.

They were married 30 years ago at the Methodist parsonage in Caro by Rev. J. Lendrum. Mr. and Mrs. Hazen Warner were their attendants and were present Friday evening to fill the same place in the mock wedding ceremony performed by Rev. Carl Landrith of the Novesta Baptist Church, under an arch of pink and white decorations. Bruce Wentworth and Dan Hennessey composed the ceremony which was very appropriate, the ring service being used.

Mrs. Patch wore a floor length dress of white net and Mrs. Warner wore pink net, each carrying a lovely corsage of unnamed flowers.

Mr. Patch and Mr. Warner wore dark suits and very prominent black bow ties made by Stella Hennessey and Dorothy Wentworth.

A poem was read by Mrs. Carl Landrith; Geraldine Warner and Jean Fields sang, "I Love You Truly," Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Wentworth, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Hennessey and Billy Patch, Jr., sang, "Silver Threads Among the Gold."

Several pictures were taken of the wedding party after which the group was treated to candy suckers by the bride and groom, followed by refreshments consisting of sandwiches, pickles, coffee and cup cakes, and a beautiful three-tier wedding cake, decorated in pink and white and made by Mrs. Hazen Warner.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Patch were presented with a lovely gift from the group and a sum of money from their nephew, Harry Wentworth, of Dallas, Texas, who was present.

Elmer McKee Marries Imlay City Girl

The East Goodland Methodist Church was the scene Wednesday afternoon, December 28, 1949, of the wedding of Elva Irene Lindke, Imlay City, and Elmer Gilbert McKee, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene McKee, Decker.

The double ring ceremony was read by the pastor, Rev. Elizabeth Rowley, at 2:00 o'clock. Rev. Carl Koerner, pastor of Evergreen Free Methodist Church, assisted.

The bride wore a gown of ivory satin, fashioned with a sweetheart neckline, fitted bodice and long sleeves. Her hooped skirt extended into a long train. A matching tiara held her finger-tip veil and she carried a white Bible, topped with an orchid.

Sara Lindke, sister of the bride, was dressed in an aqua satin gown and carried an arm bouquet of pink and white carnations.

Sharon Ferrett, cousin of the bride, was flower girl. Her dress was of pale blue satin, trimmed with pink and she carried a basket of yellow chrysanthemums and pink and white carnations.

The bride's mother chose a black dress with black accessories and a corsage of pink and white carnations and the groom's mother wore a dress of forest green with black accessories and a corsage of pink and white carnations.

Frank McKee, brother of the groom, acted as best man and John McKee, brother of the groom, and Albert Lindke, brother of the bride, were ushers.

The young couple left for a trip through Canada to Niagara Falls. They were honored by a reception on Saturday evening, January 7. The table was decorated with white, trimmed in pink, and held a four-tier wedding cake.

Mrs. McKee is a graduate from Imlay City High School and Mr. McKee was graduated from Cass City in 1943. They are residing on a farm near Imlay City.

WILL WED TOMORROW

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Burk announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Dorothy Louise Burk, and Delbert Healy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Healy. All are of Elmwood Township.

The ceremony will be performed by Rev. M. R. Vender in the First Presbyterian Church in Cass City on Saturday, Jan. 14.

Komedy Kings are Coming Jan. 19

Returning to Cass City for an exhibition game are the celebrated New York Komedy Kings, the nation's leading clown quintet. They will appear here against the Tuscola Cardinals on Thursday, Jan. 19, at 8:30 p. m. in the Cass City High School gym. A fast preliminary will start at 7:30 p. m.

Their opponents have been pointing for this encounter and hope to take the measure of the Kings, who have won 23 of 24 games played. Last season they gave the Kings quite a scare and the Kings will be out to really pour it on and give their show which is the class of the nation.

Tiny Watkins, the Kings' new ace comedian, will be making his first appearance in Cass City, and he will be out to give you a splendid show. Tiny hails from Alabama and already he has become a sensation. He has an amazing pair of hands which allow him to handle the ball as if it were a pea. He has mastered the art of spinning the ball on his fingers.

L. ROSS NAMED CENSUS SUPERVISOR

Every thirtieth person over the age of 14 years, not seeking work when the census was taken but who worked last year, will be asked about his or her occupation, the number of times married, years married now, and number of children.

Besides the 23 questions in this basis population group, there are 25 questions in a basic housing group. These deal with the type of dwelling, condition and equipment.

One addition in 1950 is whether the resident of every fifth dwelling unit owns a television set.

The final group of questions—33 in all—will be asked of farmers. The census taker will seek information on the number of acres farmed, how it is used, whether the farmer rents or owns, number of fruit trees, an inventory of livestock and poultry by age groups, and the number of important kinds of equipment such as trucks and tractors.

All information will be kept "strictly secret" and will be seen only by sworn census workers.

Leaders of winter 4-H projects in Sanilac County will have a leader training meeting on the afternoon of January 18 at the Sandusky Methodist Church. The leaders' meeting which begins at four o'clock will be followed by a banquet and program at seven o'clock for both summer and winter leaders.

Let's Talk It Over

Station WBCM Bay City
Ed Vallender, Farm Editor

Uncle Sam Sweetens the Pot.
A couple of years ago, farm reporters in Washington were wondering what would happen when the Commodity Credit Corporation ran out of operating funds. That's the tax money used to make loans on wheat, corn, beans, etc. Almost all of the four and a half billion dollars have been spent with 1950 harvest still to come. The House Banking Committee has just put a bill in the Congressional hopper to tide the support program over. Total estimate for three years of bumper harvests; six and a half billions. Some of this money will be returned to the kitty if and when the CCC finds a market for the foodstuffs in storage. Should 1950 produce another tremendous surplus, new storage facilities will have to be hurriedly constructed. We've plumb run out of space.

The Busted Record.
It may be profane to feel this way but the thrill is gone. Most every day some guy with a slide rule announces another all-time crop record broken. The latest, Michigan apples. Cheap leaching? Sure! But the poor little big time orchardist didn't make enough to pay for his spraying operations. The average price received by the grower, $1.10 a bushel.
Happy Birthday.
Ottawa county farmers are celebrating the 10th anniversary of their Soil Conservation District. Tuscola and Saginaw Counties are well into their programs. Bay County is holding discussion meetings at the present time. About half the counties in the state are now participating in this excellent conservation aid.
Hen Fruit S-O-S.
It's hard to believe anything you hear nowadays. Short time ago, the CCC said, "No more support for eggs". With those unkind words, the bottom dropped out of the trapnest and eggs hit the floor. The cries of the poultrymen echoed and re-echoed thru the nation's capital. Result: The Government has started to buy eggs again.

Farmers averaged 45 cents a dozen in 1949. The new support price this year will be 37 cents. After getting only 23 and 28 cents for several weeks farmers will welcome the higher figure of 37 cents. Anything is better than losing money.
Funeral Services.
The Michigan "Seal of Quality" law failed to pass the legislature recently. The bill would have set legal standards for all Michigan farm products to aid in production and selling. Leading citizens from all over the state in both industry and agriculture worked for years to shape this legislation. It was an ideal, a plan to bring back Michigan's export market, lost because of poor grading and packaging. For the time being at least, the dream is dead.

Poultry Program Offers Farmers Varied Activity

A week full of activity is promised poultrymen who attend the Farmers' Week program at Michigan State College.
Beginning Tuesday, January 31, the college poultry specialists will present the latest techniques for success and greater profits in poultry production.
The management day program on Tuesday will feature the two big management problems: feed and mortality. New information is constantly coming from research laboratories to help develop new poultry concentrates. The farmer must take these and add his own grains to make a balanced ration. High mortality must be cut for greater profits. The management program will also discuss when and what to buy in the line of poultry products.
Wednesday, February 1, is planned for discussion of problems of rearing laying flock replacements and broilers. The hatcheryman's stake in the business of supplying chicks that will live and lay will be presented. The broiler business is growing every year and poultrymen say new developments are making this enterprise more profitable for the poultry farmer.
The third day, Thursday, will be devoted to the discussion of the problems of the turkey grower. Production of more eggs per hen and more poult out of the eggs that are put into the incubator are goals of poult producers. Marketing will also be on the program.
Friday, February 3, will be devoted to rabbits. Industry leaders present to discuss this farm enterprise.
A baby chick show, an egg show, and equipment displays will be held during the week for the rural visitors.

Ho, Hum
The newly rich woman was trying to make an impression: "I clean my diamonds with Ammonia, my rubies with Bordeaux Wine, my emeralds with Danzig Brandy, and my sapphires with fresh milk."
"I don't clean mine," said the quiet woman sitting next to her; "when mine get dirty, I just throw them away."
Should Improve
"My husband is so careless of his appearance. It seems like he just can't keep buttons on his clothes."
"Are you sure, it's carelessness? Perhaps they are—uh—well, sewed on improperly."
"Maybe you're right. He is terribly careless with his sewing."

MAKING THE WEIGHT

"Father is pleased that you are a poet," said she to her new heart interest.
"I'm glad," retorted the boy friend. "Is he a lover of poetry?"
"No," confessed the sweet young thing, "but my last boy friend he tried to throw out was a wrestler."

ONE VIRTUE

A bad, bad man was shot in a saloon brawl in Cripple Creek, in the old days. They buried him; then everyone stood around the filled grave expectantly, waiting for someone to say a few good words for the deceased.
All tongues were silent.
At last one man, who had known the deceased longest, lifted his hand. "Friends," he said with heartfelt feeling, "ol' Jim used to shoot a mighty good hand at marbles, as a kid."

By Robert Kitchen
Tom Townsend, John Ellis and Archie McLachlan have retired in good standing from the Boy Scout troop. Tom Townsend received a large certificate that has been given only five times in the past. To receive this certificate a Scout has to be a member in the troop two years, be 16 years old, and hold at least first class rank.
Donald Stahlbaum, a former member of troop 194, has rejoined in the Explorer Post.
Last Wednesday ten candidates were invested into the troop. These candidates, now Scouts, pushed Tuscola County over the top in their pledge to recruit a certain number of boys to go with the 1949 slogan, "Strengthen the Arm of Liberty." These boys' registrations were in before the new year began. In the words of Scoutmaster Harold Oatley, "We have invested more than one before, but never any number like ten."
The boys that were invested were: Golden Eagle Patrol, Arthur Pratt, accompanied by Patrol

Leader, Robert Kitchen. The Beaver Patrol, Jack Clara, Fred McConkey, Gordon Drouillard and Jack Perry, accompanied by Scribe Bill Martus. Panther Patrol, Jerry Perry, Tommie Perry, and Dick Hanby, accompanied by patrol leader, James Ware. Wolf Patrol, "Chuck" Patterson, and Jimmy Ellis, accompanied by Charles Reed, patrol leader.
Others in the ceremony were: Troop committeeman, Edward Baker, Assistant Scoutmasters Keith McConkey, and George Clara, and Scoutmaster Harold Oatley. Some Scouts had to fill in for others; for "Bob" Mann, Robert Fritz as junior assistant Scoutmaster and senior patrol leader, Dick Wallace, was absent so Russell Foy took over. Robert Putnam and Wilbert Neimar set up the equipment. James Ware gave a patrol leaders' quotation and Donald Bartie gave the assistant's quotation.
Ferocious Octopus
The octopus is a member of the family cephalopoda, which means "headfooted." With eight writhing feet, or arms, reaching out from a mournful ghostly face, this devilish has a reputation for ferocity that is by no means undeserved.

"Happy Hunting Ground"
Thinking that the Indian enjoyed hunting, white men gave the name "happy hunting ground" to the place where Indians go after death. Actually, the Indian considered hunting hard work, and his real idea of heaven was comparable to a white man's—a place to sing, eat, dance and enjoy life.
Popular Vegetable
The cowpea is much more popular as a vegetable in the southern United States than elsewhere in the country. The Black-Eye is by far the most important edible variety of cowpea.
U.S. Chick Production
Production of chicks in the United States for the first six months of 1949 totaled 1,197,925,000, an increase of 25 per cent above last year's number for the same period.

Michigan Mirror

By Gene Alleman
The political theory that Michigan voters are becoming increasingly disillusioned over party promises will have a new test in 1950.

Reason?
Entry of Harry F. Kelly of Detroit and Eugene Black of Port Huron into the Republican race for nomination as governor.

Dr. Eugene C. Keyes, former lieutenant governor who has thrived as a "lone wolf" against the pack, has astutely built a reputation for himself as an advocate of "good government". He relished the label of an independent and was as likely to be on the opposite side of the governor—whether Kelly or Sigler—as not when issues came to a showdown.

Black's role is parallel to Keyes to a striking extent. Black, as the battling attorney general and "peck's bad boy" of the Sigler administration, jumped into the front page almost daily. He was on the unpredictable side of the political ledger and hence at times was an annoyance to his sponsor, Kim Sigler.

To have Keyes and Black both in the race along with Kelly is a sure sign that the Republican primary will be colorful and exciting.

Howard J. Rugg, capitol correspondent for the Lansing State Journal, believes that the rise of independent voters in Michigan has been largely responsible for party upsets about every two years. A quotation:
"The average voter no longer seems to take party politics as seriously as did his father or grandfather. Even though he may consider himself a Republican, it doesn't mean he won't vote for a Democrat if he thinks the Democrat better suited for the office."

"And why the increase of independent voters?
"Perhaps because they have given up on any one party fulfilling promises to cut governmental costs. They have seen the cost of government and taxes rise continuously administration after administration, regardless of the politics of the man sitting in the front office in Lansing until they have reached the conclusion that it matters very little which party is in control of the state administration."

"They have lost interest in government except insofar as their own communities may benefit from federal or state grants. So long as the state and federal governments take bigger bites each year out of their pockets they are going to do everything they can to get as much back as possible for their own governmental units, thereby holding down their local taxes.

"For that reason they are not binding themselves to any one political party, but reserve the right to vote for the candidate they believe will best serve their own interests."

This quest for the so-called "knight on a white horse" who will achieve the political maximum has been responsible, according to Rugg, for the persistent switch of independent voters from Democrat to Republican parties. The 1950 political campaign will be watched with interest as affording a new test of this theory.

Finds Drugs Useful In Dairy Breeding

Introduction of limited amounts of penicillin and streptomycin into shipments of semen from the Michigan Artificial Breeders Cooperative at East Lansing is a new measure to insure high quality and best breeding value.

According to A. C. Baltzer, Michigan State College extension dairyman, research results in several states indicate that for some sires the breeding value of the semen is definitely improved by using standard amounts of these antibiotics. Purvise of these antibiotics is twofold, working on the reproductive tract of the cow and on reducing contamination factors in the semen.

Though scientists are not generally agreed on the importance and effort of the antibiotics, improvement in the percentage of conceptions has been noted unanimously by research workers in several states.

Account Books Offer Advantages To Michigan Farmers

Modern Michigan farmers, like successful business men, are keeping a pretty close tab on their business these days.

The biggest help in this job, says E. M. Elwood, Michigan State College agricultural economist, is the Michigan farm account book, issued by MSC, which was kept by more than 18,000 farmers last year.

The account books are now ready and can be obtained at cost of printing from county agricultural agents' offices. Farmers can start immediately by taking a farm inventory.

Here are some of the features of the 1950 book:

1. It is easy to keep and income tax returns can be filed directly from column totals. A farm map and crop records are included.
2. Tenant-landlord expense and income items may be listed separately.
3. A continuous inventory section avoids the need for recopying the inventory data each year.

A good record book is the farmer's handiest "tool" at income tax time, Elwood states. It eliminates hunting for old sales slips and saves money by providing a complete record of expenses which reduce the payable tax.

In analyzing the financial condition of your farm, the record book shows total returns and total expenses, and an inventory of how much you have invested. It can show strong and weak points, how your year's business compares with others in your area, and it will help in making future plans.

A special book for fruit and vegetable growers is also issued.

were appointed a nominating committee by the president.

Mrs. Harry Young, Mrs. R. Taylor and Mrs. M. C. McLellan gave an excellent program on, "The Pursuit of Happiness".

Mrs. Young spoke of happiness in America and gave various definitions of happiness and noted the need of individual interpretation of happiness and pursuit of it in one's own way.

Mrs. Taylor spoke of happiness being developed in the same way as personality is developed by seeking a broader vision, new experiences and adventures in living. One can be happy without being aware of it at the time.

Mrs. McLellan gave a review of, "Finding Happiness" by Samuel E. Shoemaker in which she said that happiness for self may be found by routing war out of the world, by routing unhappiness out of the hearts of humanity.

Reasons for unhappiness are lack of money, ill health, lack of faith, failure, strain of human relations, independence of women and lack of respect for self.

Mrs. Young summed up the discussion by saying that happiness is a by-product of creating happiness for others and must not be sought at their expense.

The president appointed Miss Hollis McBurney and Mrs. Frank Reid to arrange for a box of supplies to be sent to Korea.

All club members are requested to bring new or used candles, books and magazines, pencils, paper of all kinds, especially mimeograph paper, notebooks, chalk and crayons to the next meeting.

Roll call was in charge of Mrs. Taylor.

The meeting was adjourned to meet Jan. 24 with Mrs. Herbert Ludlow when officers for the next year will be elected.

Mrs. Avon Boag conducted the devotions and Mrs. E. W. Douglas presented the program the topic of which was, "The Whole of Love—Is My Answer."

The budget committee composed of Fred Binney, M. E. Auten, for the trustees and James Milligan and Arthur Holmberg for the sessions, had a proposed budget of $7,000 which was adopted.

James A. Milligan reported for the nomination committee, and the following were re-elected for 1950.

C. M. Wallace, as church treasurer; Dr. Ivan MacRae, Harry Little, Mrs. James Ballard, Arnold Fischer and president elect (after Jan. 15) of the Westminster Youth Fellowship to the Cass City Council of Churches, representing the Presbyterian Church.

E. G. Golding, Sr., was elected as director of the Every-Member-Canvass for 1950, succeeding Arthur Holmberg.

Mrs. Ernest Croft was elected on the rotation nominating committee for a term of three years as the third member; J. A. Milligan automatically becomes chairman of the committee for 1950, succeeding Mrs. C. M. McLellan, whose term expired.

Elders, Donald MacLachlan and E. G. Golding, Sr.; deacon, Clarence Merchant; trustees, R. J. Knight, Dr. P. A. Schenck and Frank Reid were re-elected for terms of three years, succeeding themselves.

New deacons elected were W. J. Wetters and Chester Muntz, for a term of three years succeeding John Bayley and Clinton Law, whose second terms expired under the rotation system of office.

New members elected to the board of trustees were James Gross and Curtis Hunt.

The congregation accepted a recommendation that the trustees also operate under the rotation system whereby members may not serve longer than two consecutive terms, a year elapsing before becoming eligible for re-election. Members may be elected to one of the other boards however.

quarter acres of jungle. Exploration must be done on foot, by canoe, or swamp boats powered by propellers. He pointed out that this area, not as dangerous as most people believe, has tropical plants and birds that cannot be found anywhere else in the country.

Mr. Welsh told of the giant azalea garden in Mobile, Alabama, with 182 varieties of azaleas. And of a 40-mile stretch of azalea beds along the main boulevard in Mobile. He told of the ancient architectural beauty of Natchez, Mississippi, and of the newly opened Big Ben National Park in Texas. He briefly summarized the story of the Alamo, and told how the little gray church building is still standing among the sky scrapers in San Antonio.

The talk ended with a brief mention of Gen. Custer of Monroe, Michigan, and of his last stand in the Valley of the Big Horn in Nebraska. Mr. Welsh revealed that during the massacre all the men except Custer were scalped, and his locks were spared because of the great respect and admiration the Indians had for this great, courageous general.

During the meeting the Gavel Club enacted a short play, giving their interpretation of a typical Rotary Club meeting. The play, allegedly a serious and impartial production, was given in retaliation to the portrayal of a typical Gavel Club meeting during the December meeting of the Cass City Community Club.

Seventeen members attended the meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary at the home of Mrs. Jake Wise. Preceding the business session, Mrs. Ella Vance, in an interesting way, gave some of her impressions of Florida, which were made on her recent visit there, and closed with reciting one of the better known poems of the late Henry Dodge.

In the business meeting, presided over by Mrs. Alex Tyo, members voted an $8.00 contribution for the veterans' facility fund to be used for hospitalized veterans at Grand Rapids who are all Michigan men.

At the close the hostess served sandwiches, jello, cookies and coffee.

The next meeting, Jan. 23, will be held with Mrs. Everett Leishman in her farm home, weather permitting.
