

Record Number of 927 Students Are Enrolled Here

Thirty-nine More Are in School than Started in Cass City a Year Ago

A record number of 927 students are enrolled in the Cass City schools this semester, according to Willis Campbell, superintendent of schools.

The increase is 39 more than enrolled at the beginning of the 1949 school year and 67 more than were present when school closed last June.

Mr. Campbell said the chief increase was in the junior high and high schools, with enrollment in the grades remaining about the same as last year. The addition of an extra sixth grade section in the elementary school has considerably lessened the load of students per class. Last year's average of 40 to a section has been reduced to about 30.

Following is a breakdown of enrollment figures for this year: Elementary, 425; seventh grade, 54; eighth, 58; ninth, 104; tenth, 111; eleventh, 93; and twelfth, 82.

As in past years, Mr. Campbell expects a slight decrease in enrollment after the first few weeks of school.

New Boulevard Lights Turned On Thursday Night

Detroit Edison Speaker Commends Progressive Spirit of Cass Cityans

"I cannot recall anytime since I have been with the Detroit Edison Co. that we have met such cooperation as in Cass City."

These were words of Hobart McDaris, Edison Co. supervisor, who spoke briefly at the dedication of the new boulevard lights along Main St. last Thursday night.

During the ceremony a switch was thrown lighting the 30 lamps recently installed along Main St., between West and Sherman Sts.

Chief speaker at the dedication ceremony was Milan Vance, Edison district supervisor from Caro. He said the lighting celebration was a fulfillment of a promise made by the Detroit Edison Co. several years ago when the old lighting system was installed. At that time Edison told the village officers that when they felt the need of improved lighting along Main St., the Edison Co. would be happy to assist.

Vance said the lighting in itself is an advertisement for both the town and its commercial district. He cited the progressive spirit among Cass City's business men which was greatly responsible for the improved lighting system.

He said he considered the ceremony also as a recognition of the first Edison office in Cass City which was opened July 31. The office, according to Vance, has gone beyond the company's expectations by attracting a great many customers from Sanilac and Huron Counties.

Clifford Croft, village president, and Warren Wood, president of the Chamber of Commerce, also spoke, welcoming an estimated crowd of over 1,000 persons who attended the lighting ceremony.

Immediately following, street dancing was started in the block west of Seeger St. To the music of Bob Quinn and His Ramblers of Station W. L. E. W., Bad Axe, hundreds from Cass City and the surrounding district dos-i-doed through 500 pounds of corn meal spread on the pavement. The dance ended at 12 o'clock.

The dance and lighting ceremony were sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce, with contributions from local business men helping to defray the cost.

Plans Made for Annual Fall Meeting

Plans for the annual fall meeting of the Presbyterian Men's Council of the Flint Presbytery were made last Sunday by fifteen men who were the officers of the group and the Alma delegates from the various councils. The meeting was held at the Bruce Hodgkinson home in Marlette and dinner was served following the meeting.

The group felt very fortunate in getting for the afternoon speaker, Dr. Frederick Olert, minister of the First Presbyterian Church of Detroit, and Louis Komjathy, attorney at law, and president of the Michigan Synod Council of Presbyterian Men for the evening speaker.

This meeting will be held October 8, in the Marlette Presbyterian Church at 8:00 p. m. and a dinner will be served at 6:00 p. m. and the evening meeting will follow.

The Flint Presbytery includes churches in the Thumb area from Flint to the north.

Miss DeWitt Makes Bequests to Park And Hospital Funds

Cass City Community Is Two-way Beneficiary in Will Admitted to Probate

The community of Cass City was a two-way beneficiary under the terms of the will of Lura A. DeWitt, who died on June 20, of this year. The will has been admitted to probate in the Tuscola County Probate Court, and The Pinney State Bank, as executor of the will, is now engaged in liquidating the assets of the estate so as to carry out the wishes of the deceased.

After a number of small bequests of personal property to friends, and a bequest of $200.00 to the First Presbyterian Church of Cass City, the will provided for division of the residue of the estate into six equal parts. Three of these six parts were designated for certain relatives of the deceased living in Pennsylvania, and one of the six parts was bequeathed to the Methodist Home at Chelsea, Michigan.

The remaining two of the six parts are specified to go in support of two projects which effect and will benefit this whole community. Miss DeWitt expressed her wishes in this respect by the following statement which is taken from her will:

"For many years it has been my desire to see a public park created and established in the Village of Cass City, with the thought in mind that such a park would add to the beauty of the village as well as to the comfort of the residents of the community, and to the comfort of our visitors. This desire I designate herein as Objective No. 1."

"It has also been my desire to see the Cass City Community Hospital become a reality in order that members of our community have access to modern hospitalization facilities. This desire I designate herein as Objective No. 2."

Christmas Jubilee Gets Initial "Push" by C. C. C. Officers

Cass City's second annual Christmas Jubilee received its initial "push" Monday night with the naming of two committee heads by the Chamber of Commerce.

They are Joseph V. Riley, who will handle prizes and publicity, and Dr. D. E. Rawson, head of the home decorations committee. Committee members have not been chosen as yet, according to Andrew Bigelow, Chamber of Commerce secretary.

The Jubilee, patterned after the 1949 Christmas celebration, will see Main Street dressed up with evergreens and colored lights. As last year, merchants are also planning to give away hundreds of dollars' worth of free merchandise during the pre-Christmas festivities.

Prizes are also slated for the best decorated homes in the village.

Further plans for the Jubilee will be made at the next meeting of the Chamber of Commerce Tuesday, Sept. 19, according to Mr. Bigelow.

4-H Exhibitors of Tuscola Place High At State Fair

Little Bros. of Cass City Bring Home Blue Ribbons on Cattle Exhibits

The fact that Tuscola County's 4-H Club exhibits at the Michigan State Fair were few in number was overshadowed by the high placings they received when the judges handed out the awards last week.

Of the four Tuscola County 4-H Club members who exhibited at the Michigan State Fair, Robert Stewart, 12, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Stewart, Vassar, was top winner with his four-year-old Guernsey cow. Robert's cow was placed first in her class in the state fair junior division show on Labor Day, and went on to win the senior champion and reserve grand champion ribbons in the junior Guernsey section.

Later in the week, exhibiting in competition with the adult open and Michigan class exhibitors, Robert did all right too. His cow placed fourth in the four-year-old open class, third in the class limited to Michigan breeders. In the best added cow class, Robert's entry placed fifth in open competition against 20 other cows, and ranked second in the Michigan class. Robert went to the state fair after spending the previous two weeks at the Tuscola County Fair and at the State 4-H Show where his animal placed high in competition. He is a third year member of the Progressive 4-H Club, the majority of the membership of this club having Guernsey projects. Robert's father, Harold Stewart, is leader of the club.

Harold Little, Cass City, showed two Shorthorn heifers, a junior yearling and a senior yearling, both of which received blue ribbon awards and placed second in the junior show. Harold's brother, Keith, exhibited a Shorthorn calf which received a blue ribbon and ranked second in the junior show. The Little brothers received first place ratings on all three 4-H club heifers when they exhibited in the Polled Shorthorn classes in the open show. One of the heifers was junior and reserve champion of the breed. The Little boys are members of the Cass City Livestock Club.

The other Tuscola County 4-H club exhibitor at the state fair was Florence Sinclair, Cass City. She exhibited her third year clothing project, a jumper and blouse, and was awarded a red ribbon. She is a member of the Carolan Club.

Three varieties of candy constituted an entry and hers included two kinds of fudge and divinity candy. There were 54 entries in the candy contest.

An angel food cake baked by Mrs. Goodall also won sixth place among 103 entries, earning for her a two-dollar check.

Both contests were sponsored by the Michigan Sugar Co.

H. O. Paul Co. Plans To Erect Warehouse On Mill Site

The Elkland Roller Mills, Cass City landmark built in the decade following the Civil War, was listed for sale again last week, the third time the building has been on the market this summer.

First change of hands was on July 24, when Roy M. Taylor, proprietor of the coal and feed business for over 30 years, sold the building and property to The H. O. Paul Co. The business itself was purchased by Ralph Youngs.

Since that time, the Paul Co. has made plans to have a warehouse and display room constructed on the mill property by next spring and work on a cement block building to house the coal and feed business is nearing completion near Youngs' home, one half mile east of the village.

But the Elkland Roller Mills building still stands. And it's still changing hands. Recently it was resold by the Paul Co. to Sylvester Lubaczewski, who lives eight and one half miles southwest of the village.

Now Lubaczewski has thrown his hat in the ring, and is offering the building for sale, complete or as much of the building and equipment as the buyer wants to handle. The white pine structure was built during the 1870's and its first owners were Nash & Laing, flour merchants. The business changed hands several times before Mr. Taylor purchased the building from Hyde & Andrews, July 1, 1920.

Two Legislative Incumbents in the Thumb Defeated

Former Governor, Harry F. Kelly, Wins Republican Nomination for Governor

In primary elections throughout the state Tuesday former governor Harry F. Kelly polled highest of five Republican candidates, placing him in the political ring with Gov. G. Menner Williams for the November elections. An incomplete count shows Williams C. Vandenberg will be his running mate as lieutenant governor.

In the legislative field, two political upsets were recorded Tuesday. Sen. Edwin W. Klump, incumbent spokesman for the 20th district, was defeated by Alpheus P. Decker of Deckerville. Klump polled 6,390 votes to Decker's high of 6,778. Second upset was the defeat of James Kirk, long time house member from Tuscola County, by R. Allison Green of Kingsford. Early returns show Green a winner by 86 votes.

Republican 7th district nomination for representative in Congress went to Jesse P. Wolcott who defeated his nearest rival, Thomas E. Woods, by a three to one majority.

Elkland Township. The Elkland Township Republican nominee for governor in the primary Tuesday was ex-governor, Harry F. Kelly, who won over his closest competitor, Eugene C. Keyes, by 24 votes. Kelly received 138 and Keyes 114. Fred M. Alger was third with 65. William C. Vandenberg, candidate for governor, concluded on page 4.

Cucumber Season In 1950 Is the Worst in Years

Processing at Pickle Plant Shrank from 20,000 Bus. to 1,200

Michigan and surrounding states are suffering the worst cucumber season in years, according to Leonard Striffler, manager of the H. W. Madison Co. salting station at the west end of the village. Last year at this time Mr. Striffler said approximately 20,000 bushels of pickles were being processed at the Cass City station. This year the number has slumped to around 1,200. Even then the situation is not as bad locally as it is in other parts of Michigan and neighboring states, he said.

Mr. Striffler attributed the poor crop to heavy rains in July when the cucumbers were getting started and to cool nights throughout the summer. A good cucumber crop needs warm nights, he said. Striffler believes that this year's shortage will not be noticed greatly until next spring since the Madison cannery at Medina, Ohio, is still processing last year's bumper crop of cucumbers.

Fickles salted at the Cass City plant are shipped in from receiving stations at Caro and Elmwood Corners. On arrival they are machine graded by size and weighed before being set out in salt brine. Soaking time is about six months before shipment to the cannery in tank cars.

Other Madison stations in southern Michigan are at Bay City, Pinconning, Stockbridge, Edmore and Mason. Head office for the company is in Cleveland.

Striffler has been with the local plant since its construction in 1940. The year before he was a buyer for the Madison Co. in the Thumb district.

Car and Wagon Damaged in Accident

A car and tractor-drawn wagon were damaged early Monday morning in an accident on M-51, according to Deputy Sheriff Grant Ball.

Rain and mist made visibility poor, according to Ball. No tickets were issued.

Origin of "Grocer"
The early spice trade gave rise to the word "grocer." The old and important Pepperers' guild of medieval England was succeeded in 1345 by a group known later as the Grocers' company. The term "grocer" distinguished these men—dealing in "gross" (large) quantities—from those handling retail trade.

Future Power Giants
Development of new materials will make possible construction of steam turbines able to produce half a million kilowatts. That power is nearly three times as much as is produced by the largest sizes in service today, and will be enough to furnish the needs of a city the size of Washington, D.C.

Wisconsin Fish Catch
The value of the commercial fish catch in Wisconsin waters of the Great Lakes in 1949 was about $2,000,000, a million dollars less than it was in each of the three years prior to 1949, records of the conservation department show. The drop in value reflects a smaller fish catch and lower prices. The fish catch was valued at $2,800,000 in 1948, $2,800,000 in 1947 and $2,500,000 in 1946.

Caro Man Claimed Decker Bride

Mrs. Frederick E. Wagner.

At 2:30 Thursday afternoon, the seventh of September, the Caro Methodist Church was the setting for a colorful wedding when Frederick E. Wagner of Caro and Patricia Jane Hyde of Decker spoke their marriage vows before an altar adorned with candelabra, palms and baskets of salmon-colored gladioli. The Rev. Joseph Dibley of Caro was the officiating clergyman.

Hugh Thompson of Marlette sang "Because" at the beginning of the service and the "Lord's Prayer" during the service. Mrs. Fitzstephens was the organist.

Patricia was a lovely bride as she was escorted down the aisle by her father. She was gown in white slipper satin fashioned with fitted bodice, high neckline and buttoned with tiny buttons below the waist line, the long tight sleeves extending into points over the back of her hands, and the full circular skirt ending in a long train. She wore a finger-tip veil of silk illusion held in place by a satin braided coronet. On it was pinned a brooch given her by her paternal grandmother. She carried a white Bible, a gift of the groom, and on it rested a corsage of white gladioli centered with white sweet-heart roses, and stephanotis. Stephanotis was also tied to the streamers.

The maid of honor, a sister of the bride, Miss Norma Grace Hyde, wore a gown of gold-colored satin and taffeta. The fitted bodice was of satin with double bertha collar, and cap sleeves and elbow-length gauntlets. The full skirt of taffeta was trimmed with bias strips of satin with bows on the left side.

The bridesmaids, Miss Patricia Ann Wagner, sister of the groom, wore olive-green; Miss Janice Yvonne Hyde, sister of the bride, was dressed in fuchsia, and Miss Marilyn Willis in turquoise blue. All were fashioned like the gown of the maid of honor. In their hair they wore white chrysanthemums with streamers, matching their dresses, and carried large bouquets of two sizes of chrysanthemums, tied with white ribbon bows.

Master Ronnie Adams was ring bearer and carried the rings on a white taffeta pillow, trimmed with fine lace, rosebuds, and narrow white ribbon on which rings were tied.

Little Miss Janet Bulgrien was flower girl, and wore a white taffeta dress, fashioned with a full skirt and deep ruffle. Tiny rosebuds adorned the ruffle at the neckline and also skirt ruffle. She carried a basket of pink rose petals which she scattered as she proceeded down the aisle ahead of the bride.

The groom chose Hiram LePard of Almont for his best man. He took the rings from the pillow, placing them on the Bible, which the minister was holding, and the groom and bride taking them from the Bible and putting them on each other's fingers.

Other attendants were James Spencer of Imlay City, Stanley Lewicki of Decker and Richard Carlson of Dearborn. They acted as ushers also. They were all dressed like the groom in dark blue business suits, with white chrysanthemums boutonnières in their coat lapels.

The bride's mother was gown in a party-length dress of rose blue satin, and a close fitting flamingo colored hat. Her corsage was of white chrysanthemums and sweetheart roses.

The groom's mother appeared in a navy blue beaded gown, with matching accessories. Her corsage was also of white chrysanthemums and sweetheart roses.

The two grandmothers and one great grandmother were presented with corsages of white carnations and chrysanthemums by the groom.

The reception was held in the lower auditorium of the church where the receiving line stood just in front of the table which held the large rectangular, three-tiered bride's cake, topped with an ornament, showing a bride and groom standing in front of a house over which hung the emblem, "Home Sweet Home."

The bride's paternal grandmother, Mrs. Orson Hyde, presided at the punch bowl and a lunch of potato salad, sandwiches, pickles, olives, celery, ice cream and cake was served. Sisters of the bride's mother, Mrs. Estella Carruthers of Snover and Mrs. Grace Brown of Detroit, poured at the tea and coffee table. The lunch was prepared and served by ladies of the Caro church.

The bride and groom cut the cake with a large knife from their sterling service. It was tied with a large white ribbon bow.

Miss Gweneth Geister of Decker, Miss Vickie Kloc of Cass City, Miss Glenda Eastham and Miss Mary Jo Aiken of Caro carried gifts. They were presented with corsages of white chrysanthemums.

The bridal party sat at a U-shaped table. The many lovely gifts were opened at the bride's home in the evening.

Guests attending the wedding were from Toronto, Canada, Detroit, Royal Oak, Almont, Imlay City, Lapeer, Romeo, Marlette, Standish, Bay City, Caro, Cass City, Snover and Decker.

For going away the bride wore a gray hand-knit skirt, with blue, red and yellow, making a plaid effect, a white blouse, a new fall-red topper coat, gray hat and gloves and carried a hand-crocheted purse.

The happy couple are on a wedding trip to Toronto, Canada, and some eastern states, after which they will be at home to their friends in Cass City, where the bride plans to continue her work in the Pinney State Bank. The groom will continue to do contracting work with his father.

A pre-nuptial party was held in the bride's home Wednesday evening, August 30, with Miss Gweneth Geister acting as hostess. The evening was spent in playing games and the couple took their gifts from an improvised wishing well. Ice cream and cake were served to forty guests.

Her fingertip veil of illusion was secured by a white organza cap. She carried a spray of red roses with white satin streamers and wore a string of pearls, the gift of the groom.

Lavender And Wall Space

Purple is subdued and slightly melancholy. It is delicate, cool and atmospheric in quality. Owing to its excessive cost in ancient days, purple became a royal color. Consequently it often seems to us to be impressive, pompous, and stately. It is not used extensively, yet delicate, grayed tints of it are beautiful on some walls.

Mr. McClean died unexpectedly Sunday in the farm home of Mrs. Helen Jeffery in Grant Township where he had gone to do some work. He had been employed on the farm of Harold Hulbert, son-in-law of Mrs. Jeffery, for some time.

Corner Alden A. McAlpine and Sheriff Merritt McBride of Bad Axe investigated and the corner stated that death was caused by heart disease. The body was at the Alden A. MacAlpine Funeral Home in Bad Axe until time of funeral.

The deceased is believed to have been born in Ireland and has no known relatives here, but was well-known and respected in the neighborhood where he lived.

Marine Emblems
American and British marines wear somewhat similar insignia. The U. S. marine emblem shows a globe, eagle and anchor, while the British wear a globe encircled by a laurel wreath, together with a small anchor, a lion and a crown.

Close Game Is Predicted for Tonight

A close game is predicted for this evening by Coach Arthur Paddy when the Cass City football squad hits the gridiron for the first game of the season with Marlette. Starting time is set for 8 o'clock.

Last year Marlette managed to edge Cass City out by the narrow margin of 19 to 20, Paddy said, adding that tonight's game should be just as close.

Jack Stahlbaum is listed as a defensive end. Others who will probably see action are Frank Creason, halfback; Stanley Beach, back field; and Stanley Guinther, defensive halfback.

Arleon Kelly and Charles Hempton are likely to enter the game as defense guards, Pete Martin as defensive tackle and Tommy Townsend as end, if a knee injury permits.

Paddy reports that ten 1949 lettermen are returning to the Marlette squad this year.

Since the beginning of school, the largest squad in the history of Cass City High School has turned out for practice. Seventy-two have been attending the after-school sessions this week, according to Coach Paddy.

MISS DEWITT MAKES REQUESTS TO PARK AND HOSPITAL FUNDS

half of my said trust estate for the purpose of aiding in the cost of the construction or creation of said public park, being my Objective No. 1.

"2. If prior to my death or before the expiration of ten years from my decease, construction shall have been started on the Cass City Community Hospital, and my trustee shall be satisfied that the said hospital will be completed, then the said trustee shall turn over and pay to the trustees of said hospital one-half of the trust estate or fund, which shall be added to the building fund of said hospital, this being my Objective No. 2.

"3. In the event, however, that only one of the foregoing objectives materializes within the time period specified, then the entire trust fund shall be used for the objective that does so materialize." While the liquidation of Miss DeWitt's estate has not yet proceeded to the point where an accurate estimate of the value of the bequests can be made, the executor has ventured the statement that the trust fund from which the park project and the Community Hospital project will benefit should amount to something over $2,500.00.

Tremendous Earth Heat
A possible source of tremendous heat lies deep in the earth itself. Temperatures there may be as high as 20,000 degrees and the flow of this heat through the earth's crust is 10 times our total energy requirement. No practical way to tap this energy reservoir has been discovered as yet.

I Wish to Express My Thanks

Bean growers might experience some trouble in the harvesting of beans, especially in the area which was hit hard with the heavy July rains. In many cases, the beans are maturing very unevenly. Percentage of pick can be kept down by stacking beans or by allowing the beans to field cure longer than normally. Folder on stacking of beans can be had by calling at the county agent's office.

The Michigan Turkey Flock Selection and Blood Testing School will be held September 26 and 27 at the Lake Mity Michigan State College experiment station. People interested should contact the local extension office or write direct to the poultry department at MSC.

About 100 4-H club boys chosen from counties throughout Michigan are attending the camp which lasts from Monday afternoon until Saturday morning. The boys will stay at the State Conservation Training School, near Roscommon. Most of the training will be conducted out-of-doors, on extensive field trips which will enable the boys to see and learn practical conservation measures applied to forests, soils, minerals, fish and wildlife.

Wisconsin Lakes
Wisconsin has more than 8,000 lakes, all of them promising improved fishing if their individual problems can be met, and the conservation department is making a rough diagnosis of these waters at the rate of about a hundred a year as a basis of factual management. Fish stocking continues to be an important device of fish management.

Strength of Eggs
According to tests made at Cornell university (on 3998 eggs laid by a flock of white Leghorn pullets) the average pressure required to break an egg was 9.8 pounds, with the highest 18.7 pounds. Pressure was applied from end to end. It was found that the pressure required for breaking was about three to four pounds less when applied between the sides of the egg.

Even as the coming of fall means "football" to the sports fan, to the gardener in northern zones it means the ideal time to plant roses for the best results next season. Fall planting gives plants a head start in establishing a sturdy root system before they begin to spend energy in spring growth.

Better Buy Buick!

YOU CAN SEE here how smart it is—don't have to be told that it's the most quickly identified car on the road today.

You probably know that the engine under that broad bonnet is a Fireball straight-eight valve-in-head engine and a lively stepper in any company.

You can check the abundance of its room by the simple expedient of taking the family and trying out its spaciousness at the nearest Buick dealer's—and a very few minutes on the open road will satisfy you that all-coil springing, low-pressure tires and Buick's torque-tube drive really do produce a ride that is matchless for its soft comfort.

BUT RIGHT NOW, it may be that the money angle is the thing uppermost in your mind, and on that we'd like to make two points:

All our records go to show that this is the most economical Buick ever built. It is easy on gas, on oil, on tires, on upkeep.

And if you choose it with

Dynaflo Drive,* it immediately eliminates all chance of friction-clutch repair and replacement—not to mention greatly reducing rear-axle and transmission maintenance.

Best of all, your initial outlay is a highly favorable one—whatever Buick you buy. For these brawny straight-eights—built rugged and solid for durable service—are priced at a level that makes them a standout buy in any price class.

Yes, better buy a Buick. Your dealer will be glad to demonstrate, glad to work out all the arithmetic of a deal. See him right away and get an order signed.

*Standard on ROADMASTER, optional at extra cost on SUPER and SPECIAL models.

Tune in HENRY J. TAYLOR, ABC Network, every Monday evening.

Cull Loster Hens
When egg production drops in the laying flock there is a culling job to do. Culling also must be done when hatched pullets have just started to lay. Do not waste high-priced feed on lazy and idle birds.

Gas Turbine
The diffusing vanes of a gas turbine are made of steel that resists temperatures in excess of 1800 degrees Fahrenheit.

Helium
Helium changes from a gas to a liquid at only 4.2 degrees Centigrade above absolute zero. (The lowest temperature that can ever exist is absolute zero—minus 273.15 degrees Centigrade, or zero degrees absolute, which is 273.15 degrees below the temperature of melting ice.)

Railroad Ties
There are approximately 3,000 cross ties per mile of railroad.

Leonard says that if a bomb were dropped on Detroit tomorrow, "things could be kept fairly well under control . . . for one thing, the state control center is organized . . ." How do you feel?

"No responsible labor groups" have protested against the legislative plan to curb Communists and other "fellow travelers" in Michigan, so reports Paul Weber, press secretary for Governor Williams. One state group did register a kick: the Michigan Civil Rights Congress. Incidentally, the United States attorney-general listed this outfit as a Communist-front organization, adhering to the Red propaganda line.

Bad as war news may seem, things don't look altogether black. Michigan divorce rates have dropped 50 percent since 1946. Marriages dropped too, but now only 5.1 persons of every 1,000 are divorced. It was 10.2 in 1946.

Field Mouse
The field mouse may lead a happier life than his city cousin, but he still has worries. Crouching in many a bush waiting to pounce on him are mice-loving frogs. Frogs can give a pretty fair imitation of a cat's capture tactics, and enjoy a field mouse meal.

Hard on Paint
Strong alkaline substances such as washing soda or ammonia are hard on painted surfaces because they dry the paint and in time flake off.

A democracy must take time out, even from war, to govern itself.

Michigan voters went to the polls this Tuesday (Sept. 12) to pick party nominees for Congress and for governor and lieutenant governor. At Washington the House and Senate were busy winding up affairs for a recess. "Politics as usual" is a periodical requirement in a democracy. That's why politics replaced the war headlines for a day this week.

Can Governor Williams, the Democratic nominee, woo enough "protest votes" from disgruntled Republicans to win re-election? That's the new question being asked this week at the Capital City in the wake of primary returns. Remember — Republican protests against Kim Sigler put "Soapy" into office two years ago.

Michigan again has become the nation's No. 1 "hot spot." General Motors' cost-of-living wage increase set into motion a long chain reaction of pay boosts in the automobile industry. Chrysler, Packard, Ford, Motor Wheel and other firms jumped on the band wagon. Economists call it the "fifth round." After each previous round, prices have gone up. Consumers then paid more. In this case soaring prices preceded the adjustment in pay.

J. A. Livingston, business expert, says: "Inflation, like a forest fire fanned by a favorable wind, has a head start on President Truman, Congress and the Federal Reserve Board—so much so that the problem is not how to put the fire out but where and how to prepare a line beyond which the onrush of rising wages, prices and hoarding shall not pass."

Indicative of the current trend: Consumer credit in July reached an all-time peak of $20,340,000,000, up $660,000,000. Installment credit accounted for $12,600,000,000 of the total and $500,000,000 of the increase. People just had to get their autos, refrigerators and washing machines—items bought on credit—quickly, before the hoarders did.

Charles F. Brannan, secretary of agriculture, has told Michigan potato growers to accept his new rules or they'll get no price supports. He told Pennsylvanians the same thing. The vote there was 1,091 to 293 against new rules. Michigan farmers will vote on the issue Sept. 20-25.

Michigan legislators went home for a short time (some two weeks) after a three-day session in which they appropriated $362,925 for civilian defense, and promised to return to dig up funds for a living blood bank to combat a possible atomic disaster.

And while Korean casualty lists crowd front pages in Michigan, Donald S. Leonard, acting civilian defense director, says this state has taken the lead in preparations for defense at home. "The money and the laws are now available," he said, and predicted that a special state police squad will be created immediately to spearhead "security activities."

If Michigan has a migrant labor problem, so does about every other state. The New York Times recently ran a series of articles on it. Puerto Rican workers have been complaining about wages and housing conditions in Michigan. One variable factor: The weather. What can we do about it? Even the government's long-range forecast for August was badly off.

When Michigan's 1,315,000 school children returned to classes this fall, they found 15,000 will have only half-day classes because of crowded conditions in the buildings.

Another move has been made toward the completion of the $4,000,000 eight-story state office building. The sum of $88,000 has been appropriated for completion of plans and specifications.

MAYNARD McCONKEYS ENTERTAIN FARM BUREAU

Mr. and Mrs. Maynard McConkey entertained the Elkland Farm Bureau members at their home on Monday evening.

This meeting marked the annual election of officers. All old officers were re-elected and four new ones were added. Mrs. Edward Golding, Sr., was named as member of the County Women's Committee. Mrs. Alfred Goodall was chosen as discussion leader. Mrs. Harold Putnam will act as recreation leader and Alfred Goodall was named action committeeman. Clarence Merchant was in charge of the discussion period. The topic was "Legislative Action in the Farm Bureau." Audley Rawson was present and the discussion was turned over to him. He also gave an unbiased "thumb nail" sketch of all state candidates.

It was voted to assess each Elkland Township Farm Bureau family 50 cents per year to take care of minor expenses.

At the close of the meeting, Mrs. McConkey served cheeseburgers, coffee, ice cream and wafers.

FARMERS INTERESTED IN WILD LIFE

Requests for wildlife plans in the farm land use program show that farmers are taking a real interest in doing something worthwhile for wildlife, says George C. MacQueen, Assistant County Agricultural Agent.

Though it is difficult to place a dollar and cents value on wildlife, many farmers believe that most living things produced on farms have a place in the economy of the land, whether they be crops or wildlife, the agent points out.

Farmers can obtain wildlife plans for their lands as well as food and cover producing trees and shrubs, according to Charles Shick, extension specialist in farm game management at Michigan State College. The plans and cover plants can be obtained without charge from the Game Division of the Conservation Department.

Typical places where wildlife plantings can be made are in fence rows, gullies, eroded hillsides, edges of marshes, pond borders, and odd corners not suited for usual cropping. In most instances, wildlife plans are tied in with good soil and water conservation practices.

Agent MacQueen says that persons interested in making their farms more attractive to songbirds and game animals can get information from the local extension office, located in the courthouse, Caro.
