"My dear Mrs. Wilsie: "This will acknowledge your recent letter.

This particular flag was ordered for a celebration in Michigan but was not available until long after the celebration had taken place. It so happens that you are the first person to request such a flag since that time. I am happy to present this flag to your fine organization.

"With warm personal regards and best wishes,

Gold 4-H Emblem Presented to Willis Campbell Tuesday

A gold 4-H emblem, inset with emerald, was given to Willis Campbell Tuesday night in recognition of 26 years' service in 4-H work. Presentation was made by Byron Carpenter, 4-H Club leader of Tuscola County, at the first fall meeting of the Community Club at the high school auditorium.

Mr. Campbell recalled his first year in 4-H work in Cass City when the club was given room, four benches and a blackboard in a room next to the old fire hall on South Seeger Street. The initial project undertaken by members was raising 25 pigs.

A pair of cuff links was also presented to Campbell as a gift from the Community Club.

The speaker for the evening was Mr. Carpenter who outlined the work done by the 4-H clubs throughout the county. He stressed the importance of demonstrations as a means of "putting across" projects carried out by members.

Nancy Sinclair, 16, of the Birmingham 4-H group, showed how to make tailored button holes and Carol Irish and Maiza Frent, 15, both of the Akron Community 4-H, gave a demonstration on the preparation of milk beverages.

Mr. Carpenter said clothing and knitting, handicraft and electric, vegetable gardening, dairy methods and beef, sheep and swine raising were among the favorite projects followed through by club members. He also traced the history of the club from its beginning 35 years ago to its present nationwide membership of 2,000,000.

Preceding the program, a ham dinner was served by women of the Church of Christ.

Crusade for Freedom Scrolls Are Ready For Signatures

Cass Cityans will have an opportunity to sign the "Declaration of Freedom" through next Tuesday, October 24, according to Clifford Croft, village president. That day marks the celebration of United Nations Day throughout the world.

The scrolls, already signed by millions of Americans, will be enshrined in the base of the Freedom Bell in Berlin. Registering locally may be done at the Chronicle office, Freiburger's Grocery or Wood's Drug Store, according to Croft.

The project is part of the national "Crusade for Freedom" under the direction of Lucius D. Clay. The Declaration of Freedom reads: "I believe in the sacredness and dignity of the individual. I believe that all men derive the right to freedom equally from God. I pledge to resist aggression and tyranny wherever they appear on earth.

"I am proud to enlist in the Crusade for Freedom. I am proud to help make the Freedom Bell possible, to be a signer of this Declaration of Freedom, to have my name included as a permanent part of the Freedom Shrine in Berlin, and to join with the millions of men and women throughout the world who hold the cause of Freedom sacred."

Mrs. V. Harrison Shot 80-Pound Deer with Bow and Arrow

Mrs. Vernon Harrison has a right to her pride in her skill with the bow and arrow. She brought home a fine 80-pound yearling buck from near Mio Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Harrison went to Mio Friday evening to hunt and had no luck until about 10 a. m. on Monday when Mrs. Harrison shot the animal with her 35-pound bow and arrow from a distance of about eleven rods. The deer ran and Mrs. Harrison who was alone at the time did not know she had made a hit but when her husband joined her a few minutes later they searched for and found the buck about 40 rods from where it had been shot.

The arrow had broken as it passed through the body at the shoulder.

Needless to say there is some good venison stored for the Harrisons at the local locker plant.

Cass City Handed Elkton Its First Defeat Friday

Cass City gridders trounced Elkton Friday night 32 to 6, bringing down the Elks first defeat of the season.

The Red Hawks scored in the first few minutes of play when they sent the opening kick-off 70 yards for a touchdown. Lee Hartel carried the ball the last 30 yards over the white line. The extra point was no good.

Before the end of the first period, Cass City scored again when Chet Dorland intercepted an Elkton pass on the 40 yard line. Five plays later, Jim Bishop chalked up another six points on a 55-yard pass from Tom Schwaderer. Place kick point was again ruled out.

In the second period, Elkton scored its lone TD after gaining four first downs in a 67 yard sustained drive. Jim Casey plunged across the line to make the tally 6-12.

After a scoreless third period, Cass City again came to the fore to mark up three more touchdowns before the end of the game.

On the first play of the quarter, Hartel raced six yards end around to wind up a 53-yard drive with a TD. Chet Dorland kicked the extra. Concluded on page 6.

Gavel Club President Calls Attention to The Dangers Ahead

Following is the text of an address given by Cass City physician, Dr. James H. Ballard, at a meeting of the Gavel Club last Tuesday evening.

Dr. Ballard, who is married and has four children, has been ordered to return to active military service October 26. He served almost three years overseas during World War II.

Dr. Ballard, the president of the Gavel Club, said:

Gentlemen: Thursday I received orders from the War Department, Washington, D. C. I quote in part: "In view of urgent requirements for medical corps officers at this time you have been ordered into the active military service of the United States. (Oct. 26 is the departure date). Your early separation will be recommended contingent upon your request subsequent to Jan. 1951, as replacements become available through operations of Public Law 773." This is the so-called doctor draft law.

I am like most everybody else, I don't want to go. I spent a day phoning Washington and finally reached the top general and I have contacted the Michigan State Medical Society. I am trying to do this mysterious thing called "pulling strings" to get out of it. Unless a miracle happens I am afraid I will go. Let me take a few minutes of your time to try and analyze this thing.

First, how do I feel? Well, I'm Concluded on page 5.

FALL IS A GOOD TIME TO SPRAY LAWNS

Fall is a good time to spray to kill weeds in lawns. Dr. B. H. Grigsby, Michigan State College botanist, advises.

Spraying with 2, 4-D before hard frosts and freezes will not only kill broadleaf weeds, but damage many weed seeds on top of the ground so they will not germinate next spring. If lawns have been fall fertilized, Grigsby points out that the fertilizer stimulation to the undesirable plants makes them even more susceptible to weed killers.

The usual caution to prevent drifting of spray materials into shrubs, roses and other perennials, must be observed, the weed killing specialist warns, even though these plants may be losing their leaves at this time.

DEFORD

W. S. C. S. Meeting—

On Wednesday afternoon the local Women's Society of Christian Service met with Mrs. Walter Kelley. The chairman being unable to attend, the vice chairman, Mrs. Kenneth Churchill, called the meeting to order. For the devotion, Mrs. Walter Kelley read the scripture and offered prayer.

As there was much business to transact, and the lesson material not here, business took up all the time. The chair, by common consent, appointed committees to purchase new curtains and, to have shelving made for W. S. C. S. and Sunday School literature, all to be placed in the annex in the near future. Nov. 9 was the date set for chicken supper, and Oct. 26 the date for an "all day" of "cleaning in the annex. Anyone who would like to help is very welcome. Plans were also made for a home missionary project in November.

These Women's Society of Christian Service meetings are open to any lady who would like to fellowship in Christian service in our community. The regular meetings are scheduled for each second Wednesday of the month.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kelley were Sunday visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Scott Kelley of Mayville.

Mrs. Arthur Bruce is spending a few days at the home of her son, Clinton Bruce, at Oxford.

Mr. and Mrs. John Clark and Mrs. Max Agar of Cass City spent Sunday in Pontiac with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Dalton of Detroit spent Saturday night with Mrs. Dalton's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Kelley. Dinner guests Sunday at the Kelley home were Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Bills and Sherry of Caro, Mrs. Arthur Bruce and Mrs. H. D. Malcolm and Genevieve.

Guests at the Glen Tousley home Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Metzger and Mrs. Lottie Bunninger and sons, Donald and William, all of Port Huron, Mr. and Mrs. Gerry Hicks and daughters.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Kelley and son of Lake Orion were Saturday and Sunday guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Kelley.

The Gageton W. S. C. S. met at the home of Mrs. Blanche Wood on Thursday, Oct. 12, with fifteen members present. Mrs. Leonard Karr and Mrs. Preston Fournier had charge of the program. The next meeting will be held on November 9 at the home of Mrs. Mose Karr.

Mrs. Julia Sutton of Flint spent the first of the week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Mackay.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Hunter and two children of Detroit visited Mr. Hunter's mother, Mrs. C. P. Hunter, from Saturday until Tuesday.

Cold Weather Calls For Stabling Cows

Few dairy farmers look forward to the time they must start keeping cows in the barn. But J. G. Hays, Michigan State College extension dairyman, says the wise cow man is now opening up his "bovine hotel" for at least night lodging.

Cold, damp ground, he says, is a great aid to the ever-present bacteria that cause mastitis. A chilled udder cannot resist the invaders.

Hays points out that Michigan weather is whimsical now. The evening may start balmy, but frost may come by morning—or a cold rain may set in.

The dairyman believes that changeable fall weather presents a real problem even when the cows are kept in the barn. Drafts are always there to cause trouble. Hays cites research showing that when doors or windows were left open when the weather was muggy cows in drafts came down with udder troubles. These troubles largely disappeared when the barn openings were closed and ventilation was effected by an electrically operated system.

If you have no ventilating equipment in the barn, Hays advises opening only doors and windows where air won't blow directly on the cows. "It's easier to prevent mastitis than to cure it," he concludes.

Fall Control Helps Cut Field Mouse Damage in Orchards

Damage to Michigan fruit trees by field mice can be stopped if control measures are applied in October or early November, according to C. A. Langer, Michigan State College horticulturist.

As every fruit grower knows, rodents gnaw a deep hole in the farmer's pocketbook when they feed on fruit tree bark.

Langer says the way to check much of the rodent damage is to clear away all the grass and sod around the tree trunks for a distance of two feet. After this is done, the cleared area should be filled with gravel, cinder, or lake sand. The material should be banked slightly up to the tree trunk.

Poison baits are also recommended by Langer. Three materials can be used. Meadow mice and pine mice can be checked by a grain-zinc phosphide bait. So birds and animals will not feed on the bait, cracked corn should be dyed with a green vegetable dye before the poison is added.

Two-inch apples cut into 10 to 12 pieces, shaped as orange slices, can also be treated with zinc phosphide for bait. Because zinc phosphide is poisonous, directions should be secured from county agricultural agents for safe use. During the mixing process, rubber gloves should be worn, Langer warned. The mixing should be done outdoors.

Another effective control is strychnine-treated oats placed in a runway under a forkful of straw or hay mulch. As a caution, Langer said that all dropped fruit under a tree should be picked up before poison bait of any kind is applied.

Funeral of Mrs. Slivar Held Monday

Requiem High Mass for Mrs. Dora Slivar, who died at her home in Kingston Township Friday, was sung Monday morning at the St. Francis Church, the Rev. John J. Bozek officiating. Interment was in Mt. Olivette cemetery in Detroit.

of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Carch. She came to this country in 1910 and made her home in Detroit. Two years later she was married to Nicholas Slivar and the couple lived in Detroit until moving to a farm in Kingston Township in 1930.

Mrs. Slivar was a member of the Altar and Rosary Society of St. Michael's Church in Wilmet.

She is survived by her husband; two daughters, Mrs. Leonard (Kathryn) Kukula of Detroit and Mrs. Anthony (Mary) Bach of Ferndale; and ten grandchildren.

Laugh Treatment

Feel kind of stiff and tense when you go to bed? Try a broker's laugh treatment. He starts laughing after he gets into bed, artificially at first, but soon funny experiences come back to him and the laughter becomes genuine. After he has laughed himself into a pleasantly relaxed state of well-being he is ready to succumb to the sleep-inducing charms of a good quality, comfortable bed.

Television Stations

The United States has a little more than 100 television broadcasting stations, and three-fourths of them are operating at a loss.

Punch Bowl

To make a punch bowl for summer picnics, simply hollow out the inside of half a watermelon, and cut off a little of the rounded bottom to make a flat surface.

awfully bitter, discouraged, and unhappy. It is grossly unfair. I have never received any training at government expense. I served nearly three years last time, mostly overseas. There are some 5000 doctors that were A. S. T. P. that is, received training at government expense. Then why must I go? According to the commanding general of the Army Medical Dept., whom I called, the situation is this. Until the so-called doctor draft law was passed by Congress last month there was no way the army could obtain doctors except veterans. This law has been slow to administer. The latter part of October, the doctors are registering for the draft. In the meantime, the army has been able to borrow 500 naval doctors because the Navy did not release their V. P. students (that is, those that received their training at government expense through the Navy) but gave them commissions. But this 500 is not enough. The army is desperate and has been forced to call up 178 veteran physicians. They picked me as one and, ironically enough, notwithstanding the fact my vision does not meet present army regulation requirements.

But in my bitterness and despondency I would like to pause and analyze the situation in its broader aspects. It just seems unbelievable, incomprehensible to me that in our present civilization I, a small citizen, in a small, happy, rural community, living happily, should suddenly be plucked away. But why not? There is a war on the other side of the world in which Americans are dying and being wounded. What brought this about? In my opinion, and from now it will be personal opinions derived from the scientific factual viewpoint, the present "crisis" is due to incredible blundering by our politicians playing politics, sheer incompetence, failure to clearly look at any situation—and lack of "guts" to meet it. And since politicians are very sensitive to the feelings of the people the crisis is also due to a lack of information, understanding or awareness of the situation by the people. Let me try to make myself clear by a little personal history. When I first took a commission as a reserve officer in the army I was in medical school and I took it to avoid being drafted so I could finish school. After I completed internship I automatically went into the army. At this time it was routine with every one. As I look back at my feelings at that time I had no awareness of what it was all about. I heard the patriotic songs and talks. I was fighting for my country, but I did not feel any sense of urgency. I did not feel threatened. It kind of seemed like really the whole war wasn't necessary, it could have been avoided. Maybe I was a mid-west isolationist. Even in England when occasional buzz bombs flew by or exploded near-by I did not feel any particular hatred or danger to my country. At the end of the war there was a great rush and clamor to get the boys back home. The United Nations was founded. It seemed to me to be a wonderful, workable organization. Peace was assured forever, we thought. We cooperated with the Russians and bent over backward in such matters as reparations and displaced persons. Some six months after the war was over I was sent to Vienna in the heart of the Russian zone. Soon I was not so eager to get home, nor were my fellow soldiers. We saw the wreck of our army, hastily demobilized and equipment destroyed. But on the other side of the Danube we saw a great army growing larger. Many of us for the first time really felt a sense of urgency and of being threatened. When Hitler built up Nazism and wrote a book, "Mein Kampf," stating his plans and methods of conquest, nobody seemed to pay much attention. It seemed inconceivable in our present civilization a nation would try to conquer the world. Yet we went to war, and if we had started to prepare even one year sooner, thousands of lives and millions of dollars would have been saved.

Gentlemen, the present threat seems far more real and more urgent to me. At least when I go this time I know it is necessary. Nearly one year after the last war was over I was shot at by Russians. I saw atrocities that exceeded if possible, Dachau and Buchenwald. One night we had a train load of refugees left in our sector of Vienna—women, children and old men, unfit for slave labor—hundreds had died and most of the remainder suffering from gangrene due to freezing, starvation and infection did die. I saw fortifications being built along the Danube and Elbe Rivers equal to the Siegfried line. I saw an army of professional Prussian officers and fanatic German youth being built in East Germany. As we lived day to day in Vienna our dreams of the United Nations were shattered, our hopes of peace were gone. How can you deal with a people or an army that has frankly stated their mission is to destroy your way of life? I have heard some excellent talks in which Christianity and the church were proposed as the only hope of peace. Possibly, but we are not dealing with a Christian people. The Russians have recognized the church as an enemy and have persecuted it in every country they have gained to date.

I do not know the solution to war or our problems, but I do feel strongly that we are in danger and threatened, and the only thing I can see to do is meet strength with strength, preparation with preparation. Due to our great economic power and industrialization, we have gotten by so far in spite of being at least a year late on every step that we have been forced into, but I feel this will last only a few years more, then it will be too bad. I feel in Korea the Russians will abandon the North Koreans to their fate. All they have lost is equipment and they gained a lot of experience in building and training a foreign army. But they will continue to prepare. Will we?

In this peaceful, happy community I will probably be accused of being an alarmist, pessimist, militarist and what have you, but I would like to propose specifically what is most urgent to preserve our way of life.

First—A three million man army is being mobilized at present. Maintain this until there is a definite change in the actions of our enemy.

Second—Universal military training, so vigorously opposed by the church. Ironically it is believed by authorities that if we had had this, there would never have been a Korea and thousands of American lives would have been saved.

Third—Quit pampering the veterans, past and future. We can't afford it. If some bandits attacked your house isolated out in the country some day, you would fight for it. Those that were in the last war and this one should feel that we are really protecting our house from bandits and not expect anything for doing it.

Fourth—Pay for our defense as we go. Austerity as the English know the meaning of the word. Taxes so high rationing would be unnecessary since nobody would have any money to buy much anyway. Our standard of living would be lowered. Oh, this is an impossible thought to Americans, but I think it will come either through inflation, a major war, or least possibly austerity.

Now, I realize of course that none of these four points will come to pass and consequently I am pessimistic. We are living in times unparalleled in history. What is going to happen? I don't know but I feel the threat is real. We are in danger now, but even more in the next two to ten years. I, a small cog in the gear, am dislocated from Cass City, but the wheel continues to turn. I may feel bitter about going but I honestly believe the defense measures our government is taking are imperative and my only hope is we will be spared the horror of seeing our buildings, children and people blown to bits by bombs as I saw in London.

Several grain elevators in Tuscola County have expressed their desire to cooperate in the war against rats and mice, says George C. MacQueen, assistant county agricultural agent. The first step in waging a successful campaign has been taken; that is the one of placing order blanks for the bait at the distribution points. These blanks will be at the distribution points until Monday, October 30. At this time they will be picked up and the amount of bait desired by all cooperators computed. A summary order then will be forwarded to the Fish and Wildlife Service to be filled.

Agent MacQueen goes on to state that the two baits, red squill and the new warfarin, will be available this year. MacQueen requests persons wishing rat bait to go to their nearest distribution point and place their order. The agent also requests that payment for the bait be made in advance. The rat program is a non-profit proposition so therefore no funds are available to compensate for any baits ordered but not paid for.

The elevators who are cooperating in the Tuscola County rat campaign are: Bradleville elevator; Akron elevator company; Frutcher Bean Company elevators at Mayville, Kingston, Deford and Millington; Michigan Bean Company, Caro; Farmers Cooperative elevator, Caro; Hart Bros. elevator, Vassar; Unionville Elevator Company; and the Farm Produce Company, Cass City.

The only report received for the month of September was the one from Jack DeSimpelare of association No. 1. Due to a rapid change in personnel in association No. 3 and the illness of Jack Rose in association No. 2, the testing program is somewhat behind, says George C. Mrs. Jack Rose, wife of the No. 2 association tester, is doing yeoman duty along with the help of Jack DeSimpelare in an effort to maintain the records of that association until her husband Jack Rose is on his feet again.

In the 50-pound cow department, Howard Foster had the second placing cow also. She produced 1854 pounds of 5.3 percent milk for 37.7 pounds of fat. Quick Bros., Caro, 75.2 pounds of fat; Foster Hickey, Fairgrove, 66.2 pounds of fat; F. B. Heart Research
According to American Heart, the new quarterly publication of the American Heart association, the latter organization allocated approximately $700,000 last year for heart research. Awards from the national office totaled $250,000 in 1949, and funds spent by affiliates, the New York and Chicago associations, made up the rest. A minimum of $380,000 from 1949 campaign funds has been earmarked for future research awards.

New Plastic Planes
With a recently developed rubberlike mold material it may now be possible to build a plane in one piece, except for control surfaces and movable parts, reports National Patent Council. After extensive experiments, A. Derr Golladay, an engineer, chemist and plane designer, of the Golladay Aeronautical laboratory, has invented a process for producing a material that, it is claimed, can be made into a mold of any thickness or shape.

As the first frosts show on the pumpkin, political leaders attempt to tighten ranks for the forthcoming election. Democrats and Republicans are stomping the hinterlands, saving the congested areas until the last minute.

Political issues, as presented by Nominees Williams and Kelly, are along these lines: Democratic—The Republican "Old Guard" at Lansing are reactionary; kick the old fogies out. Republican—The CIO is trying to take over state government; kick "Soapy" out. If you are in a mood to protest, you have an interesting choice.

Another crow in the pie is the reapportionment issue—being kept alive by Democrats who want a change in the system of representation. The conflict—now on the fire two years—boils around Democratic claims of apportionment by population, not area, which might give them an edge in Detroit.

New war note: Although the draft is still the heavy news item so far as the military is concerned, an acute nursing shortage is foreseen by state officials. One spokesman points out: "... the present supply of 300,000 active nurses has been insufficient even for civilian needs ..."

At the same time, the state medical society urges "A. S. T. P." doctors to volunteer. Medics in this category are those receiving training during World War II on government funds. "Eager Beavers" have been few.

Since the Korean war has looked better, emphasis has dropped off civilian defense in a typical American way. But Detroiters complain that the National Security Resources Board should have given them an idea of what to do in case of atomic attack. "Certainly," a spokesman said, "they should have told us what not to do."

Buick Motor Division's New Manufacturing Plant

FLINT, Mich.—An artist's sketch of the new one-story plant to be built by Buick Motor Division at Flint. The new facility will have 666,000 square feet of floor space with a dining room on a mezzanine equipped to serve 2,300 persons. Two escalators are planned to the dining room. The announcement of the new building was made by Ivan L. Wiles, general manager of Buick and vice-president of General Motors.

gining to notice the credit curbs of wartime restrictions. While not too tough yet, they are reminded of the almost "no buying" policies their families adopted during those barren days.

But government officials in their battle against inflation still hope to hold the line through credit curbs. Will it work? Truman's new wage-price czar Alan Valentine (professor) may have new ideas—Truman pins his hopes on him, the public awaits his decisions.

But with the announcement of Valentine's appointment came the revelation that new restrictions could be expected, especially on down payments on homes, automobiles, refrigerators, TV sets and other luxury items. An indication of future action?

Meanwhile, one economist still says pay checks are tied directly to the price of bread... the big problem being, how to keep workers from feeling cheated when the cost of living is on a soaring spree.

College students may have new hope if the "superior ability" draft test is approved—and it has been accepted by the American council on education. "A properly safeguarded student deferment policy is in the national interest," the group agreed.

The Michigan Air National Guard has received the federal go-ahead to add more than 350 men for a new combat wing.

Driver education now has become of interest to automobile corporations. G. M. has taken a lead and produced a series of motion pictures and slide films for teaching high school pupils how to be good motorists.

You may get relief from that histamine pill, but it won't keep you from getting colds, according to a recent release. There was no evidence that use of the pills cut down lost time by workers from colds.

Flood control? Despite reports to the contrary, army engineers promise the $180,000 survey of the Grand River valley will be carried out this fall on schedule. Called "essential," no change in the survey is expected, barring all-out mobilization.

Picnic Trays

Handy serve-yourself party trays can be easily made from rectangular cookie tins. New metal has an oily coating which should be removed with a rag dipped in turpentine. Gloss or semi-gloss enamel can be used for the background—gloss enamel for the design.

New Summer Drink

Watermelon lemonade is a new favorite summertime drink—it is made from two cups of lemon juice, two cups of watermelon juice, three cups of light corn syrup, and three quarts of an ice and water mixture.

Looking for POWER?

Better Buy Buick!

THAT bold bonnet that stretches out before your eyes on a 1950 Buick isn't there just for show.

Lift it up, and you'll find that the space beneath is abundantly occupied, by one of the biggest hoodfuls of power you'll find in any motorcar.

What you're looking at is Buick's modern version of the high-compression valve-in-head engine, which gains extra wallop from the fact that it uses the exclusive Fireball combustion principle.

We could list a lot of mechanical reasons why fuel gives up extra power in a Fireball engine—how it's wrapped in a swirling, ball-shaped charge—how it burns with a smooth, clean thrust that delivers maximum action.

But the best way to find out what all this means is to touch off the eager horsepower out on the highway by a gentle nudge of your toe—and feel your shoulders press deep in the cushions behind them.

Now all this sounds thrilling, you say, but how about the feed-bills for all these horses? How about miles-per-gallon?

The practical answer to that one is found in this year's experience with the SUPER and SPECIAL—and even the ROADMASTER.

In all three, the horsepower was stepped up at the start of the year—and in all three, happy owners report the best mileage in modern Buick experience.

This is due to a little-known but authentic engineering fact—which is that an engine burns less gas when it doesn't have to labor. At any normal driving speed, therefore, extra power is extra thrifty.

So we say again—if you're looking for power—mighty power—buoyant power—silken power—thrifty power—better buy Buick.

Your Buick dealer is eager for the chance to demonstrate how sound this hint really is.

VOTE ON NOVEMBER 7

Senator Warren Magnusson of Washington: "The system of government in which Americans take such pride actually is as good as they make it through their own interest and participation. We prove that interest by going to the polls. The free ballot is something this nation has paid dearly to gain. Everyone should make the effort to keep it—by using it."

People who feel they must give vent to that squirrel instinct should try hoarding a few savings bonds.

Ever notice how many people there are who never get closer to work than planning what to do tomorrow?

TUSCOLA COUNTY EXTENSION OFFICE
Much needed aid and help in food and clothing can again save many lives in war torn countries. Tuscola County clergymen, farm organizations, and key people are again supporting the county CROP event in 1950. A small donation of farm commodities by the American people is the answer to the prayer of hungry and homeless overseas people. Won't you help?

The DHIA testers from Tuscola County plan to attend the third annual fall DHIA testers' conference at Michigan State College on October 19-21. The three-day event covers major information on dairy management, winter feeding, controlling mastitis, dairy outlook, producing quality milk and latest dairy research projects. Testers from the county are Jack Rose, Caro; Jack DeSimpelare, Unionville; and Lloyd Langmaid of Decker.

The five Tuscola County ABA's rendered a total of 534 services during the month of September. Kingston led with 123, followed by Millington 113, Vassar 104, Cass City 100 and Huron-Tuscola with 89. Eight new members were signed in with an additional 26 cows. The new members are D. J. Oberstein and John Erdody of Fairgrove; Frank Parker, Vassar; Woodrow Wilson, Caro; Chas. Kleinsmith, Mayville; Leeson Mofat, Cass City; Grover Haag, Unionville; and Gasper Lacko of Marlette. Complimentary breeding service to active 4-H and FFA members has been requested by Jack Poppy and Richard Spangnagel of Unionville, Jos. A. Malace, Jr., of Deford, and James Schlattman of Mayville.

Utilizing and storing soft corn to obtain maximum value will be a problem faced by many farmers. Some suggestions to preserve the crop are: Clean husking and elimination of crop residue, storing in narrow bins (not exceeding 4 feet in width) to get the best natural ventilation, "hogging-off" or allowing cattle to harvest the crop, delaying harvest for maximum drying of ear corn in the field, use of mechanical dryers, etc. The county agricultural agent can give information on this subject.

Tuscola County 4-H Clubs and future farmers are presenting a regular weekly broadcast at 12:15 p. m. each Saturday, over Station WBCM, Bay City. The first program was broadcast last Saturday, October 14, by 4-H Club Agent Byron E. Carpenter, with the assistance of 4-H club members Rex Coleman, Vassar; Keith Little, Cass City; and Leonard Russell, Akron. Four-H club programs will be heard every third Saturday, (next one November 4) with FFA chapters from Tuscola County in charge of the remainder of the Saturday broadcasts over WBCM.

Four-H leaders! Be sure to attend the remaining leader training meetings at Caro. The fourth session at the 4-H Building Wednesday evening, October 18, features information especially for winter club leaders. The last meeting will be held at the courthouse Wednesday evening, October 25. At that time you'll be told about special 4-H club events on county, state and national levels, and organizations cooperating in sponsoring 4-H club activities will be explained. Winter 4-H bulletins will be distributed at both meetings. A discussion period will be reserved for questions and problems not previously discussed at the final meeting October 25. Meetings begin at 8 p. m.

Christmas bells will ring next week when extension leaders gather in Caro for their Christmas workshop lesson. Different groups are scheduled to attend each of the Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday sessions. Meetings will be held at the Wilber Memorial 4-H Building beginning at 10:00 a. m.

Pair United in Evening Nuptial Rite

Mrs. James Karr.

Candles and chrysanthemums formed the setting for the wedding of Caroline Ward and James Karr of Flint in the Shabbona Methodist Church Saturday evening, October 14. Caroline is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Ward, southeast of Cass City, and James is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Karr of Cass City. The Rev. Arnold Olsen and Rev. Horace Freeman officiated at the 8:30 p. m. double ring ceremony.

Arthur Holmberg, principal of the Cass City High School, sang "Always," at the beginning of the service and the "Lord's Prayer," during the rites. Miss Pearl Weatherhead, supervisor of Flint's Nursing Bureau, was the pianist. Caroline was a lovely bride as she was escorted down the aisle by her father. She was wearing a white tulle gown, featuring a high neckline with tiny turn-back collar and long sleeves. The bodice was embroidered with pearl and silver bugle beads and small satin-covered buttons extended from the waist to the neckline. The full skirt extended into a cathedral-length train. The finger-tip lace trimmed illusion veil was held in place by a small lace bonnet, trimmed with similar beading which adorned the dress. Caroline carried a corsage of red roses, lilies of the valley and white satin streamers tied in love knots.

Dorothy Kuhns of Flint, maid of honor, was attired in pink satin fashioned with an off the shoulder double collar, net yoke, gathered bodice and a floor-length hoop skirt. She carried a colonial bouquet of pink roses, white carnations and lilies of the valley, tied with white streamers.

The bridesmaids, Geraldine Karr and Esther VanNorman, wore dresses identical to the maid of honor's, only in mint green color. They carried colonial bouquets of red roses, white carnations and lilies of the valley, tied with white streamers.

Caroline Ward Feted in Flint

Miss Dorothy Kuhns of Flint entertained Tuesday evening, October 10, honoring bride-elect Caroline Ward of Flint.

Guests were members of the North Baptist Church of Flint Sunday School class Miss Ward attends and the pastor's wife, Mrs. Harold P. Warren. Others were Mrs. Harold Copeland and the bride-elect's mother, Mrs. William Ward, both of Cass City.

Miscellaneous gifts were presented to Miss Ward who became the bride of James Karr of Flint October 14.

Girl Scout Training Course Offered at Vassar High School

The regular meeting of the Tuscola County Girl Scout Board of Directors was held Wednesday evening in Caro at the Montague Hotel.

The county-wide training course under the direction of Mrs. Glenn Gray was announced as meeting in Vassar on five consecutive Thursdays in the study hall of the Vassar High School, beginning October 12, at 7:30 p. m.

Each community representative expressed a shortage in leadership due to increased membership of Girl Scouts throughout the county. It was hoped the training course offered at this time would interest

The bride presented the maid of honor and the two bridesmaids with gold lockets, which each of the girls wore during the wedding ceremony.

The groom chose Robert Beath of Flint for his best man. Other attendants were Floyd Miller and Arthur Calster. They acted as ushers also.

The bride's mother was wearing a green crepe, a hunter green velvet hat and elbow-length white nylon gloves. Her corsage was of white carnations. The groom's mother appeared in a brown crepe dress with matching accessories. Her corsage was also of white carnations. The grandmother, Mrs. Cordelia Ward, of Flushing was presented with a corsage of gardenias. The pianist was given a corsage of gardenias also.

The reception was held in the Shabbona Community Hall, immediately following. The bride and groom and parents were seated at a table which held a large three-tiered bride's cake, topped with an ornament, showing the bride and groom and the love birds holding rings under an arbor of roses.

During the first part of the reception a program was given by friends and relatives which every one enjoyed very much.

The bride and groom cut the first piece of wedding cake with a silver cake knife, tied with a white satin bow and lilies of the valley. Mrs. Frank Kuhns of Flint completed cutting the cake and Mrs. Maurice Calster wrapped and served it to the guests.

Mary Lou Calster, Joanne Calster, Eunice Smith and Marjorie Bader carried gifts. The bride and groom received many very beautiful and useful remembrances. As a going away gift, Mr. and Mrs. George Clara presented to the bride an orchid corsage.

Ice cream and cake were served to the guests.

new people in the Girl Scout program. Mrs. Rachel Lieberzacki, president, and Mrs. Avis Benkelman, chairman of promotion, will attend the regional conference in Grand Rapids on November 8, 9, and 10.

The purpose of this conference is to consider ways in which the organization can serve girls and help them to serve the nation and the world in the present emergency. There will be special emphasis on the needs of the 225,000 Girl Scouts in this region.

E. Sheridan Extension Club Met Thursday With Mrs. McIntosh

The East Sheridan Women's Extension Group met at the home of Mrs. Dan A. McIntosh on Thursday evening, Oct. 12. The following officers were elected for the coming year: President, Mrs. Sarah Campbell; vice president, Mrs. Martin Sweeney; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Joseph Terres; community chairman, Mrs. Alex Ross; recreation leader, Mrs. Fred VanErp; news reporter, Mrs. Angus Sweeney; leaders, Mrs. Ernest Wills and Mrs. Robert Henderson. A very interesting lesson on "Curtains and Draperies" was presented by the leaders.

Tuscola County CROP Organized

Tuscola County like all other Michigan counties is again cooperating this year in the state and national Christian Rural Overseas Program in collecting farm produce and commodities for the needy families in war torn countries.

At the county CROP organizational meeting held in the courthouse last Friday evening, Rev. Robert C. Nixon of Akron volunteered to head up the county drive this fall. Vice chairmen assisting Chairman Nixon are Rev. Howard Watkins of Cass City, Rev. Kurt Voss and Father O'Connor, both from Reese. Joseph E. Liddicoat, county school superintendent, was elected treasurer. The officers plus assistants to be appointed by the committeemen, township chairmen and others interested met Monday evening to make more detailed plans for the drive. Rev. Watkins acted as temporary chairman at the first meeting. The film, "Address Unknown," was shown. This film which presents a good picture of the dire need of help of food and clothing in war torn countries is available free of charge by booking it through County Agricultural Agent Loren S. Armbruster.

Last year's CROP drive in Tuscola County collected $3,000.00 worth of farm commodities. Neighboring Huron County lead all Michigan counties surpassing the $10,000.00 mark. Rev. Watkins and Mr. Liddicoat were county co-chairmen of the 1949 program.

State CROP Director, Russell M. Hartzler, who attended the organizational meeting along with clergymen and lay people of the county, delivered educational pamphlets and literature for distribution in the county. Materials are available from committeemen upon request.

The CROP drive is a united effort of the parent agencies consisting of the Church World Service (Protestant churches), Lutheran World Relief (Lutheran Churches), and Catholic Rural Life (Catholic Churches).

300 Expected at Farm Bureau Banquet Oct. 24

Some of the resolutions are on "Coloring of Oleomargarine," which is an issue vital to farmers. Another resolution is "Enforcing of law requiring every motorist to carry public liability and property damage auto insurance."

Several other resolutions will be brought up from floor. These resolutions will be brought up for discussion and if passed will be presented by the committee to the Michigan Farm Bureau annual meeting in Lansing, November 9 and 10.

Several surprise entertainment numbers will be presented along with the highlight of the evening, which will be an address by John W. Sims, executive secretary of the Ohio Farm Bureau. The banquet will begin at 6:45 p. m. in the Caro High School auditorium.

4-H Leaders Meet Well Attended

According to George C. MacQueen, assistant county agricultural agent, forty-seven 4-H club leaders attended the third training meeting held at the Wilber Memorial 4-H Building Wednesday night last. The main topics discussed were on how the 4-H club member should keep his records, character building and citizenship as related to the 4-H program, and the parents' part in the 4-H club program.

The meeting was given added color by a talk by Joan Green of Kingston Willing Workers 4-H Club. Joan's talk was entitled, "How 4-H Builds Better Citizens." The Kingston girl was entered in the 4-H public speaking contest this year with this speech. The parents' part in the 4-H program was carried out by a panel discussion. On this panel were Mrs. Fred Black, Akron, whose topic was "Is Active Parent Cooperation Necessary for a Successful 4-H Club?" Joseph Helmhold, Millington, "In Your Opinion What Encourages Parents to Support 4-H?" Mrs. Clarence McMullen, Mayville, "How Do You Interest and Inform Parents?" and Mrs. Glen Gray, Vassar, "What is Your Idea of Adequate Parent Cooperation in Your 4-H Club?"

Following the meeting, refreshments were served by Mrs. Leota Ashmore and Mrs. Arthur Fischer, both of Gagetown.

CAMPBELL ELECTED FOR A TWO-YEAR TERM

He represents state region number 2 on the 16-man board. Announcement came from Wm. Hawley, assistant state superintendent of public instruction.

The happiest people are those who are less for getting and more for giving.

Explains Use of Credit for the Family Purchases

Whether or not to use installment credit is one of the issues homemakers face today. Some families buy only for cash. Credit is not a problem for them. Other families have important needs that must be filled before they can accumulate the cash. A washing machine may wear out, or a newly established family may need furniture. Such families need and use credit.

It is the borderline use of credit that families should question today—if only for the effect of long-term credit on inflation, advises Irma E. Gross, head of the department of home management and child development at Michigan State College. Inflation occurs when there is an increased amount of money available with which to buy the same amount or a smaller amount of goods. It is really like an auction sale in which buyers force the price of an article up by bidding against each other.

The new installment credit regulation put in effect September 18, 1950, may help borderline users of credit to decide not to use it. In general it increases the minimum size of down payment and decreases the length of time allowed for payment of the outstanding debt.

The borderline user of credit may well recognize that he or she is aiding inflation and to refrain from using it is doing a part in holding back inflation.

Homemakers today are very much concerned whether they will be able to buy what they need for their families now or later. As responsible citizens of a free country they are concerned as to what effect their present buying may have on the national economy.

Mr. Yeager showed by facts and figures the need for a stronger unity of farmers in these times. He stressed the need for rural people to accept their own responsibility through organized efforts and to exercise the greatest privilege, the right to vote for the leaders of their choice.

Tuscola County was represented by nineteen Farm Bureau Leaders at this meeting.

Recently the government paid Indians for land occupied years ago—probably without a thought of giving it back to them.

To qualify for special honors when we attend IGA's great Silver Jubilee celebration at the Waldorf-Astoria next August, there are certain sales quotas we must make on IGA items during the month ahead. This week especially, we're "busting" profits to the "wells," so to speak, in order to make sure we achieve these quotas. So take advantage of this unusual opportunity to save more than ever on the IGA brand fine quality foods we're featuring in this ad... and at the same time you'll be helping us achieve our objective, which we will be mighty grateful for.
