

Republicans Score Heavily in the Election Tuesday

Democrats kept numerical control of Congress by the thinnest of margins as a result of Tuesday's election. The indicated lineup is:

Senate—49 Democrats; 47 Republican. This is a net gain of five for the GOP.

House—234 Democrats; 200 Republicans; one Independent. This shows a net gain of 31 for the Republicans.

Top Democratic leaders in the United States Senate were thrown out of office by their constituents. Scott W. Lucas, of Illinois, Democratic leader in the Senate, and Francis J. Myers, of Pennsylvania, his assistant, were swept out of office by smashing victories by their Republican opponents. Senator Millard E. Tydings, of Maryland, and Senator Elbert Thomas, of Utah, also went down to defeat.

Former Governor Harry F. Kelly will have a complete Republican cabinet and a Republican legislature when he takes office Jan. 1, all Republican candidates on the state ticket having been elected.

All Republican candidates for county offices in Tuscola, Huron and Sanilac were elected by large majorities.

In Tuscola County, early returns indicate the following vote:

State representative—R. Allison Green, R, 7,630; Carl Sherman, D, 2,249.

Sheriff—Geo. F. Jeffrey, R, 7,731; M. J. Hill, D, 2,244.

Clerk—Fred Mathews, R, 7,702; Ralph Dierck, D, 2,146.

Treasurer—Arthur M. Willis, R, 7,634; Chester L. Graham, D, 2,189.

Co. drain commissioner—Freeland Sugden, R, 7,660; Jacob Gleason, D, 2,195.

Tuscola voters gave Jesse P. Wolcott 7,504 to 2,231 for his Democratic opponent, Roy E. Vizanaw. A. P. Decker received 7,455 and Keith K. Holdship, his rival 2,232, for state senator.

Elkland Township.

Elkland Township followed tradition in going heavily Republican in the election Tuesday.

Straight tickets were voted by 610 Republicans, 101 Democrats and three Prohibitionists. Perry Hayden, the Prohibition candidate for governor, received five votes, two more than each candidate on that ticket.

The vote for other candidates follows:

Governor, Harry F. Kelly, R, 661; G. Mennen Williams, D, 158.

W. C. T. U. Meeting In Deford Thursday

Twelve members of the Deford Women's Christian Temperance Union and two visitors, including the county president, Mrs. Pearl Gotts of Bad Axe, were present for the monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Walter Kelley last Thursday afternoon.

During the business meeting, it was voted to bring money in envelopes and put on the Christmas tree instead of exchanging gifts among the members. This money is to be used to rent a temperance film at a later date and to send a Christmas box to the soldiers.

The topic leader, Mrs. Amanda MacArthur, stressed the need in knowing how and whom to vote for, and to vote.

The county president urged the need of prayer, individually and collectively, to fight again this great evil. The local president brought many facts concerning the state convention in Saginaw which she and Mrs. Blanche Kelley, Mrs. Carrie Retherford, Mrs. Edna Malcolm and Mrs. Genie Martin attended.

After the meeting closed, the hostess served pumpkin pie with whipped cream and coffee.

The December meeting will be with Mrs. Geo. Roblin in Deford.

Mrs. Patterson Gives Detailed U. N. Report At W. S. C. Meeting

On Tuesday afternoon the regular meeting of the Woman's Study Club of Cass City was held at the home of Mrs. Ernest Croft.

Mrs. Grant Patterson outlined the purposes and work of the six major organs of the United Nations: The General Assembly, the Security Council, the Economic and Social Council, the Trusteeship Council, the International Court of Justice and the Secretariat.

Besides these, Mrs. Patterson explained ten specialized agencies each of which works hand-in-hand with the United Nations to solve international problems in its own field. These fields of interest are: Labor, food and agriculture, education, the bank of reconstruction, the monetary fund, tele-communications, postal services, world health and refugees.

Three other organizations are in existence but have not been ratified by enough nations to become a part of the United Nations. These deal with trade, meteorology and maritime matters.

This detailed discussion of the United Nations made all of those present more hopeful of a sometime peaceful world.

At the business session the club welcomed two new members, Mrs. Otto Goerzen and Miss Muriel Addison.

Thirty members answered to roll call with quotations provided by Mrs. Joseph Benkelman.

Mrs. Roy Boughton will be the hostess on Nov. 21 when Mrs. Henry McLellan will give a book review.

Christmas Seal Sale Starts in Tuscola County Nov. 20

"There is in Michigan a sea of faces turned toward an outside world. These are the faces of those who are sick with tuberculosis, who must spend months—years isolated from their families, cut off from a normal life."

This statement from the Michigan Tuberculosis Association this week heralded announcement of the dates for the 1950 sale of tuberculosis Christmas Seals in Tuscola County. The 44th annual TB Seal Sale will begin on November 20, and close on Christmas Day, Theodore J. Werle, executive secretary, Michigan Tuberculosis Association said. With the sale of tuberculosis Christmas Seals providing the only source of money for the Christmas Seal agency's year-round battle to stop TB, Werle emphasized that "tuberculosis is a disease of all people. It is a 'catching' disease. "No one is immune."

"Nearly 6,000 new cases of tuberculosis were reported in Michigan last year... preventable disease," he continued. "And 1,400 Michigan people were killed by tuberculosis last year—needless deaths. Tuberculosis can be found, treated and conquered. Progress is being made but prevention depends on more education... more hospital beds... more rehabilitation aids. For the prevention of tuberculosis, and for mutual protection from this disease, people of Tuscola County are urged to buy and use tuberculosis Christmas Seals this year."

He added that the 1950 tuberculosis Christmas Seal will feature three child-like angels, one singing from a scroll of music as her companions play musical accompaniment.

Over 850 women attended the Tuscola County Women's Achievement Day at the school in Millington, November 2. Mrs. Eva Mearsoil was mistress of ceremonies. The morning program began with invocation given by Rev. Dale F. Stewart of the Millington Methodist Church. A style revue, featuring fashions of by-gone days, climaxed the morning program. A high light of the revue was Mrs. Charles Ewald of Unionville wearing her own wedding dress of 80 years ago. Mrs. Cecil Yorke, Millington, modeled a dress which was 80 years old and her four-month old baby, Geraldine Ann, modeled a baby dress, worn first by the baby's great grandmother. Another "show-stopper" was Mrs. Rose Clinesmith of Silverwood, wearing a below-the-knee black taffeta bathing suit and long black cotton hose.

In the afternoon, M. D. Graham, representative of the National Retail Hardware Dealers' Association, spoke on "Know Your Michigan." Through intensive research with books and interviews he has compiled a vivid story of Michigan's growth in population and wealth.

Scuffed Shoes If you've been having trouble with your youngster's habit of scuffing the tips of his shoes regularly, you can calm your nerves and your pocketbook. Just shine the shoes, and then brush several thin layers of shellac over the tip.

Not only will the gloss be retained, but the shellac will protect the leather against careless kicks, scratches, etc.

Spray For Poison Ivy Poison Ivy and poison oak can be killed by spraying the plants to wet them thoroughly when in full leaf with a solution of one-half to one pound of ammate in one gallon of water. The solution is corrosive to metal, and the sprayer should be washed out thoroughly immediately after spraying.

Built for tough service — all ways! CHEVROLET TRUCKS with Chevrolet's Hypoid Rear Axle

Single-Unit Housing Here's maximum strength... longer trouble-free service! Chevrolet rear axle housings are formed into tubular steel beams; no bolts or rivets to work loose. Full-Size Inspection plates Easy-to-remove, one-piece inspection plates save time and labor... provides full view of rear axle gears when removed. Spined Axle-to-Hub connection Spines—not bolts—deliver the driving power evenly—without stress—on all heavy-duty models. Loose axle shaft bolts and costly grease leaks are eliminated. Chevrolet trucks are engineered to "take it" on the roughest, the toughest jobs. The single-unit design housing and spined axle-to-hub connection of Chevrolet's hypoid heavy-duty rear axle mean strength and stamina found in no other truck rear axle in Chevrolet's class. Those Personal Stains
Perfume and cologne should not be applied directly to a garment. The alcoholic content causes some dyes to bleed, resulting in a color change, color bleeding, or the formation of a dye ring. Upon aging and oxidation, the perfume oils become darkened, resinous, and often permanent, defying removal treatments. Apply perfume behind the ears and at edge of the hairline.

Potato
Unlike corn, beans, tobacco, and other new world finds, the potato was slow to spread. It was still regarded with suspicion in France and Germany toward the middle of the 18th century. Though Prussia's Frederick the Great had tried to force potato growing, it was the famine conditions following the Seven Years' War that really established its cultivation.

When somebody proposes a conference he probably needs time to find arguments to win you to his opinion.

Cass City Ties Bad Axe for Second Place

End for the touchdown. Tom Schwaderer scored the extra point making the tally 7-0 at the half.

In the third quarter a 61 yard drive climaxed by a 25 yard screen pass from Schwaderer to Jim Bishop brought the ball down to the one yard line. After two line bucks, Chet Dorland plunged over for the TD. Schwaderer again made the extra point.

Fourth quarter score came when Cass City recovered a Harbor Beach fumble on the 26 yard line. After a 22 yard drive, Dorland went four yards through center for the final touchdown. The extra point was overruled.

Following is a list of grid men who saw action in the Harbor Beach game. Starred names are those of seniors who have played in their last high school football tilt.

Engaged

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Rockefeller of Owendale announce the engagement of their daughter, Jacqueline Cliff, to Mr. Daniel Deibel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Deibel, of Elkton. They plan to be married Dec. 2.

Don Koepfgen and Registered Nurse Wed at Grayling

In a beautiful wedding Saturday at four o'clock in the Michelson Memorial Church in Grayling, Miss Nelle Cary Welsh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred R. Welsh, of Grayling became the bride of Donald Edmund Koepfgen. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle A. Koepfgen of Cass City. The candlelight ceremony was performed by Rev. R. C. Puffer.

Attendants were the bride's sisters, Miss Marjorie Gail Welsh of Grayling as maid of honor and Miss Barbara Ann Borchers of Grayling and Three Rivers, Miss Kathleen May Ross of Cass City and Detroit and Mrs. Don Pettin-gill of Michigan City, Indiana, as bridesmaids.

The bride's gown was of candlelight satin made with a portrait neckline formed by a ruffle of Chantilly lace. The very full skirt fell from a long fitted bodice into a short train. The long satin sleeves were finished with lace ruffles at the wrists. Her fingertip length veil of illusion fell from a bandeau of satin trimmed with seed pearls. She wore a string of pearls, a gift from the groom, to complete her costume. She carried a shower bouquet of white roses, stephanotis and ivy, centered with a red rose corsage.

Miss Gail Welsh wore blue; Miss Borchers, gold; Miss Ross, coral; and Mrs. Pettin-gill, green. All four gowns were made with satin bodices and full skirts of faille. Their half hats of satin were in the colors corresponding with their gowns. Their flowers consisted of blue chrysanthemums dyed to match their dresses.

Wallace Jersey of Flint performed the duties of best man for his cousin and the ushers were Donald Doerr of Gageton, William Pink of Farmington and Raymond Reid of Clarkston.

The bride's mother wore forest green with matching hat and Mrs. Koepfgen chose Navy blue for her son's wedding. Both wore gardenia corsages.

A reception was held in the church parlor following the rites and a supper, attended by a host of relatives and friends, was served at the bride's spacious home on the lake.

The bride is a registered nurse from Harper Hospital and recently has been associated with a clinic at Grayling.

They will make their home on the farm northwest of Cass City where a house has been made ready for them. They left on a short wedding trip in the East.

Engagement Told

Mr. and Mrs. Max Agar announce the engagement of their daughter, Marilyn, to G. Allan Jemex of Grand Rapids, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Jemex, of Berkeley. No date has been set for the wedding.

Gillies Plans 'College' For Dehoco Inmates

From Detroit Free Press. It looks as if guests of the Detroit House of Correction soon will have the opportunities of a higher education.

Not in any chosen "outside-the-law" endeavors, according to A. Blake Gillies, Dehoco superintendent, but carefully selected and thoroughly legal extension courses provided by Wayne University and the University of Michigan.

Gillies pointed out that other penal institutions in the state provided such benefits for inmates and he is determined that Dehoco keep in the rehabilitation forefront.

He has won world wide recognition as a criminologist through his work at the Detroit institution.

Under his direction it has become a model penal institution, boasting the highest rating bestowed by Federal authorities and private advisory boards.

According to present Gillies plans, the old laundry building in the Women's Division, recently replaced, will house the classrooms. Only snag at present is lack of funds. No budget appropriation has been given for the work of building classrooms and Gillies has to dig out funds wherever he can.

Don S. Miller, associate dean of Wayne University's college of liberal arts, stands ready to help Gillies get his Corrections College under way.

"We'll help in every way we can the minute Superintendent Gillies gives us the word," he said. Strangely enough, while Gillies is striving to give his out-of-bounds charges a college education, he never had one himself.

Recognized as an expert in his field, he gained his knowledge from practical experience.

He started as a prison staff guard in 1920 and worked his way up—hallmaster, social welfare department head, maintenance superintendent, assistant and deputy superintendent and then head at Dehoco.

Extravagance

Young Mr. Newjwred realized it was time to start saving money and decided he wouldn't use the bus anymore when returning from the office to home. He ran behind the bus and arrived home gasping for breath. "Dear," he called to his wife, "I saved ten cents this evening by running behind the bus!" "You dope!" she snapped. "If you'd used your head, you could have saved half a dollar by running home behind a taxi!"

Cautions

"Gus," said Bill, as he caught up with Gus on the way back to camp, "are all the rest of the boys out of the woods yet?" "Yes," said Gus. "All six of them?" "And they're all safe?" "Yep," answered Gus, "they're all safe." "Then," said Bill, his chest swelling, "I've shot a deer."

BLEW HER STACK

One afternoon, while ambling about his estate, British statesman Benjamin Disraeli came upon one of his tenants having dinner on the grass. "How is it you are eating out here?" asked Disraeli. "Isn't that your house over there?" "Yes," said the other. "But I cannot eat there. My stove smokes so badly." "I'll see what I can do," said the statesman.

He walked over to the house and opened the door. Before he could enter, however, he was stopped by an angry woman, who was brandishing a heavy stick.

"Out of this house, you out," she cried without looking up to see who had entered. "Of all the lazy husbands—"

Disraeli beat a hasty retreat and returned to where his tenant sat. "Don't fret, my man," he said concisely. "My stove at home smokes sometimes, too."

Benj. Thorpe Funeral Saturday Afternoon

Funeral services for Benjamin Thorpe, 82, who died at the home of his son, Rayford, in Evergreen Township Wednesday morning, will be held at 2 p. m. Saturday at Little's Funeral Home, the Rev. Robert Morton of the Fraser Presbyterian Church officiating. Interment will be in Elkland cemetery.

Mr. Thorpe was born in Canada May 1, 1868, the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Ransom Thorpe. In 1888 he was married to Martha Smith in Arkona, Ontario, where the couple lived until moving to Flint in 1907. In 1934 Mr. Thorpe bought a farm in Elkland Township where he lived until his death.

He was a member of the Fraser Presbyterian Church for the past 16 years and a member of the Canadian Order of the Woodmen of the World.

He is survived by his son, Rayford; one daughter Mrs. C. F. (Eth) Jackson of Flint; one brother, Roy, of Flint; three sisters, Mrs. Albert Augustine of Arkona, Ont., Mrs. Alvin Cheney and Mrs. Donald Rich, both of Flint; and two grandchildren.

Funeral of Mrs. Tharpe at Novesta Church of Christ

Funeral was held Nov. 2 for Mrs. Anita Tharpe, 40, of 70 West Buena Vista Avenue in Highland Park, at Novesta Church of Christ near Cass City. Burial was in the Novesta cemetery.

Daughter of the late Abel and Hattie Koppelberger, Mrs. Tharpe was born at Cass City June 11, 1910. She married Robert Tharpe in June, 1949.

Before her marriage, she had resided in Pontiac for six years. When there she made her home with her sister, Mrs. Arthur Henderson, of 191 Rosetta Road.

For several years Mrs. Tharpe was employed at the Oakland County Tuberculosis Sanatorium and more recently was night clerk at St. Joseph Hospital.

Besides her husband and Mrs. Henderson, she is survived by another sister, Mrs. Flossie Meyer and a brother, Harry Koppelberger, of Flint.

Mrs. Tharpe was killed at 7:30 a. m. Sunday when the car in which she was riding with her husband crashed into a dump truck on Woodward Avenue in Royal Oak.

Mr. Tharpe still is in a critical condition in the Royal Oak Hospital.

523 LBS. BUTTERFAT IN 353-DAY PRODUCTION

With 523 pounds of butterfat and 12,027 pounds of milk testing 4.4% to her credit, Clayacres Aaggie Piebe, registered Holstein-Friesian cow owned by Gilbert Davis of Sandusky, has completed a 353-day production test in official Herd Improvement Registry. She was milked two times daily, and was eight years, nine months of age when she began her testing period.

Testing was supervised by Michigan State College of Agriculture in cooperation with The Holstein-Friesian Association of America.

KATHLEEN NORRIS Prayer Answered

ABOUT THREE YEARS AGO I wrote you in despair, says a letter from Ruby Willetts of Brooklyn. "My marriage was going very badly and I wrote you about a divorce. Both our little girls were struggling with winter colds, finances were very shaky and Harry was unhappy in his job.

"I told you that we had no religion, although my father, now dead, had been a clergyman and that the thought of breaking up our home and breaking our girls' hearts was certainly breaking mine. But Harry's rudeness, his manner of actually disliking us, got worse and worse.

"You told me," continued this letter, "to pray. You said to put the whole problem in God's hands. You said to kneel down every morning, after the housework was done, and very earnestly discuss matters with the unfailing Aid. And for six months I did. Things as far as I was concerned began to improve in a very startling way, but it was August before the miracle hit Harry.

"Then we were down on the beach with about half a million other holiday makers. At this beach you can rent a two-room cabin by the week, and noisy and crowded as it is, we take our vacation that way.

Sudden Transformation Harry had been in a quiet, resentful mood all day, grumbling that he could not give his wife and children what other men could, but after dinner he was silent, sitting staring off to sea. The girls had begun to fret because they wanted to sitting staring off to sea...

go to church; other children were going. But I wouldn't trust them with strangers and kept signalling them not to annoy Papa. Suddenly Harry jumped to his feet and said pleasantly, "Come on, I'll take you to church!" And off they walked, down the beach, the girls hanging on his arms and laughing.

"I cannot tell you of the feeling that came over me. I had never felt that way before. Infinite peace, confidence, I don't know what it was. It was as if God had laid his hand over mine.

"Harry came back changed. In that hour he underwent a personality transformation that is only to be compared to being born again. For days I made no comment; I was afraid to break the spell. Then one day, on a wonderful walk, he told me of the strange compulsion he had had to race off to the chapel with Vicky and Ellen. He said it was like a pressure whispering to him. "All there. All yours. Comfort, safety, understanding."

Truly Miracle "Now we four go to church together. It isn't the church I was brought up in, nor the one Harry went to, but it's Christ, and that's all we need. We plan together, and we pray—and of course Harry, reliable and cheerful, is being steadily pushed up in the store, when he was once being pushed down. We had a chance to buy a little rundown Staten Island farm last year, so we're right near our own beach. Nothing sensational has happened, yet everything sensational has happened. Don't you think the suddenness and the completeness of this is truly a miracle?"

Yes, Ruby, I do. Thousands are searching to find God, but it seems as if now and then God touches one certain man on the shoulder and says, "Follow me."

Someone, I think Bruce Barton, in "Twiceborn Men" has given many instances of this violent change. The picture you give me of little girls dancing off to a country church with their Daddy, and the grateful mother sitting on the step of a cheap seaside shack, watching the moon rise, and the deep breathing of the ocean, while the Sunday night vacationists surged to and fro, is unforgettable.

You knew in that moment that a new friend had joined you; there would be a new guest at your table, henceforth, a new voice in your councils.

It was indeed a miracle. All the more so because on the surface there was no change. Just kindness where there had been criticism and discontent, and above all confidence where there had been fear. To the lives of most young couples the nearness of an influential, wise and devoted friend can be an invaluable asset; the Willetts have found that friend.

The elements that created an unhappy partnership, fretted father, worried mother, puzzled little girls, into one more busy, happy American home are simple.

The Community Chest is a worthy charity—give generously.

A Dog's Life

A dog's life in these United States may turn out some day to be on a par with, if not superior to, the much-vaunted life of Riley. From pooches to pure-breds, the canines are rapidly increasing in number. Also, their average life span, now estimated at well over four years, is gradually growing longer.

Believe It Or Not

How much pressure is exerted at the edge of a razor blade when it cuts off a whisker? The actual pressure is quite variable, depending upon the size and condition of the hair. However, the actual area of contact between the hair and blade edge is very small so that the pressure per square inch is of the order of five tons.

cussed for the December meeting that will be held in Community Hall Wednesday evening, Dec. 6. The lesson on "Adolescent Adjustment," was very well given by the leaders, Mrs. Clara Auslander and Mrs. Wilfred Turner. A very nice lunch was served by the hostess.

While the Sunday School attendance dropped from last Sunday's high of 145 down to 115 the young people Anti-Cant class swelled its numbers to 29 to become the largest class in the school so far in the contest. Alex Lindsay, Jr., is their teacher.

Arrangements have been made with Allen Caister to take moving pictures next Sunday if the weather conditions permit. All are urged to attend to help in their making. The pictures are to be shown at the contest party after the close of the contest.

TUSCOLA
COUNTY EXTENSION OFFICE

Approximately 25 dairymen from Tuscola County attended the annual Michigan Milk Producers' meeting held at Michigan State College last Thursday. Over 400 dairymen from the Detroit Milk Shed area attended. John Horst from Akron was elected director of the association from this area for a three-year term.

The November meeting of the Tuscola County USDA Council will be held Monday evening, November 13. The meeting will center around the sugar beet industry. Caro plant manager, Gibb Smith, will address the group who will later take a tour through the factory.

Mulching of strawberry plants this time of the year will pay dividends next summer. Straw or moldy hay to a depth of about 6 inches will furnish adequate mulch.

Miss Olevia Meyer, extension specialist in home furnishings, will be in Caro Monday, November 13, to conduct a housing clinic. This is the first meeting of a series and will be held in the courthouse at 1:30 p. m. The number who can attend this housing clinic is limited and application should be made through the County Home Demonstration Agent.

A United Nations Flag was displayed at the Tuscola County Home Economics Achievement Day in Millington, November 2. Several local extension groups are planning to make these flags to be used in their respective communities. The U. N. flag on display was completed by the following members of the North Almer Extension Group: Mrs. Dean Crawford, Mrs. Don Monte, Mrs. Fred Crawford, Mrs. Neil Bennett, and Mrs. Herbert Strunz.

42 POLAND CHINA SWINE SOLD AT CHARLOTTE SALE

The Michigan Poland China Breeders' Association held a good sale at the Howard Riley farm at Charlotte on October 27. Forty-two head went into the homes of their new owners at good prices. Top selling boar was consigned by George Ellison of Mason which sold for $250.00. Top selling gilt was consigned by Howard Riley, going to an Indiana breeder for $187.50. The 42 head averaged $104.50. Local consigners were Jacob and Harvey Linderman. Two gilts consigned by Lindermans went to Avery Bros. at Michigan-town, Ind.

THE APPRENTICE

The quack was selling an elixir which he declared would make men live to a great age. "Look at me!" he shouted. "I'm hale and hearty and I'm over 100 years old!" "Is he really that old?" a listener asked the man's assistant. "Really, I can't say," replied the assistant. "I've only worked for him for 100 years."

Personal Question

The doctor was questioning the new nurse about her latest patient. "Have you kept a chart of his progress?" "The nurse blushing replied, "No, but I can show you my diary."

INTERPRETING THE NEWS

Now that the Nov. 7 election is over, it takes no crystal ball to foresee clearly the A-1 problem before the State Legislature in 1951.

Here is a timely illustration. The Michigan Tourist Council, a clearing house for four regional tourist associations and for all Michigan promotion, is dissatisfied with its state advertising appropriation. The Council wants more money—more state tax dollars—and the reasons are almost "no-proof."

When the Council was created by the legislature in 1945, the first year's appropriation was $250,000. This amount was repeated for the following three years. Last spring the legislature sliced all appropriations 10 per cent in an attempt to balance the budget. The Council's budget (dropped to $225,000 for fiscal year July 1, 1950-51.

On a dollar basis this treatment sounds reasonable enough. Only a 10 per cent reduction, you say. But the law of economics, working between 1945 and 1950 actually forced a reduction of 35 per cent! With a 10 per cent cut in dollars, the Council had less than that to buy advertising promotion for the No. 2 industry in Michigan today.

That is why the Council, employing cold logic of economics, had an almost "no-proof" argument to back up its request for $297,496 in 1951-52 and $333,210 in 1952-53. More dollars are needed in 1951 to get the same benefits available in 1945.

How did all this take place? Inflation is like a thief. It robs everyone of money, and money is needed to buy goods and services. Our post-war inflation has made fixed state appropriations hopelessly inadequate. We feel the tourist industry has a better chance of getting more state funds than perhaps the average good cause—education, for example. Tourist advertising brings many new, fresh dollars INTO Michigan. Advertising is not a cash expense; it is an investment that earns cash dividends. Education's cause, outstanding as it is, has this distinction: Its dividends are intangible, such as the building of good citizenship.

The growing inflation of 1950-51, spurred by rearmament orders and continued deficit spending by the federal government, is going to effect ALL state appropriations. There can be no escape.

This column has pulled no punches in pointing out, many times in past years, the dilemma of the State of Michigan caused by diversion of 78 per cent of state sales tax dollars back to home governments. The voters have reaffirmed, by substantial majorities, their desire to have the State of Michigan serve as a tax collector to help finance home government services such as their public schools.

Even with a 10 per cent cut in state appropriations—and the legislature's control is greatly limited by constitutional amendments—your state government is now running in the red every week of the year.

So the diversion of sales tax revenue, further "cut" by new inflation, presents a formidable nut to crack for 1951 members of the state legislature. Something has to give—either more taxes to pay for the same services available from the 1945-dollar, or fewer public services both at Lansing and at home.

The inflated dollar is the same dollar you have when you buy food at the grocery or anything else for your family.

Government is no different than the people it serves.

Getting something for nothing, just because the money comes from Lansing or Washington, is a myth.

If getting something for "nothing" means inflation of the currency, such as we have today and such as Europe and the Orient have had for years, then you are still going to pay. The price will be a continual loss of your dollars. Inflation quietly sneaks into your home, like a thief in the night, taking away from you the hard-earned savings of your daily toil.

Which do you prefer—to pay for what you want, including your freedom and your security, or to have the government take away your savings through inflated dollars?

Frankly, we can't see much difference in the end results.

One way is above board; it is honest. The other is hidden; and it is dishonest.—G.A.

4-H CLUB OF EVERGREEN TOWNSHIP UNIT

The 4-H Club called a meeting Wednesday, October 25, to organize a township unit and to elect officers for the new 4-H club unit.

Mrs. Marion Gray acted as chairman. The following officers were elected: President, Harley Nichols; vice president, Nancy Nichols; secretary, Charles Sheppard; treasurer, Ann Meredith; reporter, Marilyn Gray; program chairman, Janet Peters.

The next social meeting will be November 18, in the Shabbona Community Hall.

Summertime Precaution

Dairymen who feed skim milk to their calves should be careful to keep buckets and other feed utensils clean. This is especially important in hot weather, as milk left in buckets sours fast in summer and can cause digestive upsets in the calves.

Outproduces Hens

A Norwegian chemical process outproduces 100,000 hens by daily transforming codfish waste into synthetic egg white. One pound of the artificial product is equivalent to the egg white contained in 150 hen's eggs.

Heavyweights

The average weight of 3,425,262 hogs received by Chicago's union stock yard in 1949 was 280 pounds.

Auto Registration

In 1949, the last year for which figures are available, 41,151,326 automobiles were registered in the United States.

SHORT STORY

Annette Passes Out

By Richard Hill Wilkinson

IN SEPTEMBER Bill decided he wasn't in love. He told himself it had been a summer romance. He regretted it. He couldn't walk out and leave Annette flat. He had to offer some sort of explanation. The wind whipped in their faces as the roadster sped through the night. Annette snuggled contentedly at his shoulder.

He swung the roadster off the highway. They bumped along a wagon road, presently emerging into a clearing. Bill stopped. Toward the north the horizon was illuminated by a dull glow. Lights from the town.

Bill turned. Annette said: "Oh, Bill, I'm so glad we came out here. It was here you first told me you loved me. Remember?" "Sure. I remember."

"Say it now. Bill. Say you love me!"

Bill had intended to say just the opposite. Without knowing why, he pitied her. He spoke, but what he said was: "Of course I love you. You know that." It was as if she impelled him to say it.

"Kiss me, Bill. Kiss me and say it again."

He kissed her, repeating the words, cursing himself for doing so. Why did she have to cling to him so?

He got a grip on himself. He formed the words in his mind. "Bill, I've got a surprise for you." "Surprise?"

"I'm going back to Belfast with you. I've got a job there for the winter. We'll be together all winter. Bill, isn't it grand?"

Lord! Now he was in for it. He hadn't expected that. Well, he'd have to be blunt, cruel. He'd have to tell her once and for all.

"Bill!" There was terror in her tone. He turned quickly. She was looking away from him toward the horizon where the dull glow had been. The dull glow he had thought to be town lights had developed into astonishing brilliance.

"Fire! The whole ridge is ablaze. Say, we'd better get going!"

He jammed his foot down on the starter. The motor whirred, and that was all. Bill swore, yanking out the choke. There was a sputtering whine, a cough, silence.

Bill opened the roadster's door. "Come on! Engine's dead. We'll have to run for it."

He yanked her out of the car, started rumpling along the wagon road, dragging her behind him. He hadn't realized that fire could be like this. The speed of its approach amazed him.

"Bill! Wait! You're going too fast." Bill turned just as she fell forward. He knelt beside her. "Try

Farmer's Dream Of Drilling Gas Well Comes True

RENOVA, Pa.—Dorsey A. Calhoun, a farmer, dreamed one night about 15 years ago that he heard a voice which told him if he would drill as gas well near the base of an old apple tree at the foot of Calhoun mountain, he would never have to work again and neither would his children or grandchildren.

He told his wife about it and set out to sell the idea to neighboring farmers and to friends and business acquaintances in nearby towns.

"All I wanted," he said, "was enough money to put one hole down. But folks said I was crazy. They laughed at me."

But Calhoun refused to forget his dream. By April, 1949, he had rounded up 30 relatives and friends who were willing to put up $500 apiece to drill a well—near the base of the old apple tree on the Calhoun farm. Second hand rigging, held together by baling wire and resembling the equipment used by wildcaters in the Texas and Oklahoma oil fields years ago, was acquired. Experts looked at it and shook their heads. It wouldn't last, they said.

305 Investors

Calhoun and his associates, forming the Leidy Prospecting Co., found out in a hurry that it costs considerably more than $15,000 to drill a gas well. Once again Calhoun took to beating the bushes for prospective investors. Shares in the company were offered at $100 each. No one was permitted to buy more than 10 shares.

More and more folks, seeing the ancient steam engine derrick in action only about 200 yards from the Calhoun farmhouse, stepped up with money in their fists to get in on the gamble. Soon the number of investors had grown to 305, and nearly $50,000 was in the bank—more than enough to pay the total $47,500 cost of sinking the well to a depth of 5,965 feet.

On January 8, with a shrill whistle, a shower of earth and stone, flying steel cable and a jet of white gas shooting skyward a full 100 feet, Calhoun well No. 1 came in.

Representatives of a number of oil and gas companies hurried to the farm. The well they figured, was at least a half million dollar "bonanza," capable of yielding around 20 million cubic feet of natural gas a day.

$4,000 a Month

The New York State Natural Gas Co. purchased sole rights to the output. At present the company is drawing out about 5,000,000 cubic feet a day. At this rate the experts believe the well should continue producing for about 10 or 14 years.

As owner of the property on which the well is located, Calhoun gets one-eighth of the price paid by the company for the gas. This now comes around $4,000 a month—a tidy sum for a man of 45 who previously earned only a modest income as a farmer and road construction engineer.

The second Calhoun well, sunk to a depth of 6,250 feet and considered to be even more of a "strike" than the first, is ready to deliver gas as soon as the New York firm finishes laying a 42 mile long pipeline to handle it.

Three other wells in Leidy also have "blown in" since the Calhoun drilling operations began paying off. The score is: Five wells drilled, five "strikes"; no failures. Eighteen additional wells are in drilling stage, and more locations are being surveyed.

Cocktail Stick, Mummies Found in American Cave

CHICAGO — Archeologists of the Chicago Natural History Museum have discovered two 1,400-year-old Indian mummies—and a prehistoric "martini-cocktail olive stick"—in a New Mexico cave.

The deep dust of Tularosa Cave, near Reserve, N. M., also yielded sandals, hide, arrow shafts, pottery, baskets, wooden objects, feather, and fur cord, and "a host of vegetable matter" used by the Mogollon Indians 14 centuries ago.

Dr. Paul S. Martin, said field analysis of one mummy indicated it was the body of an Indian about 10 years old when he died.

The mummies are the first positively identified with the Mogollon culture.

About the cocktail sticks, the scholarly curator reported:

"We have found what appear to be martini-cocktail olive sticks—only these are hardwood sticks with juniper berries that have been speared, for what purpose we do not know."

Car Falls Out of Tree; Its Owner Will Recover

ROCHESTER, N. Y.—An automobile fell out of a tree and seriously injured Herbert Pape, 37.

Pape used a block and tackle attached to a tree limb to hoist his car so that he could work on the undercarriage. The limb broke.

At the hospital, Pape's condition was said to be serious, but he was expected to recover.

A bad example has much in common with a contagious disease.

Hydrogen Bomb Explosive Found In Ordinary Water

PHILADELPHIA — The research institute of Temple university has announced the discovery in ordinary water of tritium, the form of heavy hydrogen that is the key explosive for hydrogen bombs.

The tritium now planned for American H-bombs is to be made in atomic reactors yet to be built. A little already has been made in existing American reactors. Tritium, like the other forms of hydrogen is a colorless gas.

The reactor tritium is said to cost nearly half a billion dollars a pound. Despite that, the water discovery shows no present promise of substituting. The water extraction appears to be both less productive and far more costly.

With the new tritium-detection method, it may not be necessary to wait until an H-bomb is exploded to gather the evidence. For at present manufacture of tritium is a presumption that it is intended for H-bombs. If in manufacturing, a little tritium is spilled into water, it will spread widely.

Even when diluted to a few atoms per drop, this tritium can be detected by the new methods announced recently. For example, it was reported that a gram of tritium spilled into the world's greatest river, the Amazon, could be detected all the way downstream and far out into the ocean. A gram is a twenty-seventh of an ounce.

Tritium had been suspected in water for more than 20 years, and partly identified by the spectroscope. The recent discovery used radio-activity.

Norway Announces New Auto; Sells for $700

NEW YORK—An Oslo dispatch reports that Norway has become the newest automobile producing nation—with a car weighing 450 pounds and costing 4,500 Norwegian crowns ($700).

It is a three-wheel car, its chassis mostly hard aluminum plate one-tenth of an inch thick. It has no doors, passengers get in through the top, then replace the roof; it does better than 100 miles on the gallon.

With its motor in the rear, the 10-foot by 4-foot car seats two.

Road to Popularity Found Same for Rich and Poor

STATE COLLEGE, Pa. — Drs. M. R. Feinberg and D. H. Fryer, following a study of 2,500 adolescent boys, report the road to popularity is much the same whether you come from the swanky or poor part of town.

That is, they said, rich boys become popular — or unpopular — among their classmates in exclusive schools for much the same reasons as do poor boys attending schools in underprivileged areas.

Here are some of the findings of the study:

"Popular" boys generally appear to have made an adequate adjustment to their parents and teachers. The parents share their interest in sports and other school activities. The boys got good marks in their studies, despite participation in athletics and social affairs. Finally, they appeared to have the ability to "relate" themselves to many individuals at the same time.

In contrast, "unpopular" boys had "more withdrawn" personalities. Their parents were not interested in athletic or social activities; and the boys themselves were not athletic. They seemed to prefer "pursuits which can be conducted alone—hobbies such as reading for pleasure, listening to the radio or attending movies." The boys disliked most of their teachers.

Vegetable Hawker Signed By Opera—to Tend Horses

LONDON, Eng.—Fred Evans, London vegetable dealer, is going to appear with the famous La Scala Opera Company of Milan, but he can't sing a note.

He will take the part of a 19th century peasant in the opera L'Elisir d'Amor and lead two aged white horses, Tommy, 32, and Tulip, 35, across the stage.

Halo Tajo, bass, will be in a Landau drawn by the horses and will sing his first aria while Fred holds the horses for fifteen minutes.

"To tell the truth I felt a bit of a fool at the rehearsals—standing there doing nothing and everyone else singing their heads off," Fred said. "But as long as it suits the company it suits me."

He got the job when he was asked to supply the horses.

New Suits Ask $4,909,527 In Canadian Ship Disaster

CLEVELAND, O. — Law suits seeking $4,909,527 from Canada Steamship Lines, Ltd., have been filed in behalf of heirs of 85 persons killed last September 17, 1949, in the Noronic ship disaster at Toronto.

In other suits pending in the U.S. court of appeals the steamship company has sought to limit liabilities to $445,000. These suits involve claims of $6,500,000 for death, personal injury or property loss.

The Noronic took 119 lives among the 524 passengers aboard the ship when she burned.
