

Baseball Squad Opens Title Quest Against Elkton Nine

The Cass City High School baseball team will begin its quest for a clean sweep in Upper Thumb competition when Coach Irv Clasen's charges take the field against Elkton Monday.

With the football and basketball togs already wrapped up, the Hawks have a good chance to win all the titles this year with a better than average track and baseball squad.

Coach Clasen's squad will be good defensively and will have better than average pitching on the basis of pre-season workouts.

At the bat, Cass City could be stronger, but defensive ability should make them tough for any team to beat.

Clasen has indicated that he will start Gerald Whittaker, last season's best hurler, against Elkton. Don Tuckey has won the catcher's spot, while Pete Martin will be stationed at first base.

The rest of the infield is fairly well set with Dean Hoag at second, Bob Wallace at shortstop and Maynard Helwig at the hot corner.

Two positions in the outfield are ready to go. Tim Burdon will hold down the left field post and Tom Schwaderer will anchor the outer gardens at his familiar center field position.

In right field, Bill Martus and Russ Foy are fighting for a regular berth and Clasen has not decided who will get the nod in the opener against Elkton.

The Hawks' schedule calls for two more home games after Monday's contest. Sebawaing will be here Thursday, April 17, and Akron plays at the Municipal Park the following Monday. All games start at 2:30 p. m.

Croft Proclaims April Cancer Control Month in Village

Clifford Croft this week issued a proclamation urging the public to observe April as cancer control month and is asking cooperation with the American Cancer Society's 1952 Cancer Crusade.

The drive opened in Tuscola County April 1 and the month will be observed throughout the nation by an intensive fund raising and educational campaign. The drive will be conducted in rural areas and in the communities which do not contribute through chest funds.

Whereas April has been designated by Presidential Proclamation and Act of Congress as a month in which to emphasize the need for cancer control, and Whereas this is a time in which all of us should give profound thought to the gravity of cancer's peril on the one hand and the hope of controlling the disease on the other, and

Whereas statistics show that one of every five persons in this village eventually have cancer, and Whereas among cancer victims only one-third are now being saved, and

Whereas it is possible to double the number of cures through early detection and prompt treatment of the disease by radiation and surgery, and

Whereas the American Cancer Society is summoning all of us to participate in this life-saving work by informing everyone of cancer's danger signals and to cooperate in raising funds for this search and service to cancer

Jordon Fined, Jailed In Bad Axe Court

State police from the Bad Axe post arrested Jordon Thursday and he spent the week end in the Sanilac County jail while awaiting arraignment.

Gavel Club Will Change Constitution

Dr. K. I. MacRae was the chairman for the evening at the regular meeting of the Gavel Club held at the Home Restaurant Tuesday evening.

Members discussed additional changes in the constitution of the organization. Recently, members voted to amend the laws of the organization so that more persons could be allowed membership. As a result, seven new persons have joined the organization to bring the complete enrollment to 40 in place of the 38 that was formerly the club's membership capacity.

Several other changes were discussed, but have not been adopted by members yet.

Farm Bureau Group Tours Legislature

A group of 54 people representing eight Farm Bureau discussion groups from Tuscola County traveled to Lansing on the first of April to visit Farm Bureau Services warehouses located on U. S. 16.

The group ate at the Roosevelt Hotel and the afternoon was spent visiting the Senate and House of Representatives. They were introduced in a body by Senator Decker in the Senate and also in the House by Representative Allison Green. The group enjoyed several debating issues in both the House and the Senate.

Both Senator Decker and Representative Green met with the group at lunch time and each gave a short address.

Stanley Powell, in charge of public affairs for the Michigan Farm Bureau, addressed the group. Mr. C. L. Brody, executive secretary of the Michigan Farm Bureau, also talked for a few minutes.

He was born May 2, 1864, near London, Ontario, son of the late John and Sarah Trathen. He came to the United States with his parents when he was six years old and lived in Greenleaf Township until he moved to a farm near Bad Axe in 1914. He was well-known in Bad Axe as a teamster. Name Whalens Moving Champions

Mr. and Mrs. Casper Whalen believe that they are the uncrowned champions in the Cass City area for the number of homes they have lived in.

When they recently sold their home on Garfield Street and moved to a new home on Third Street, it marked the 40th time they have moved in their 45½ years of married life.

Prizes Offered Local Students for Best Clean-up Costumes

Most Cass City residents are hoping for an effective clean-up, paint-up and fix-up program this year as was staged in 1951 when businessmen, home owners and others cooperated to give Cass City a thorough cleaning.

Last year, grade school students spearheaded the drive with costumes depicting a clean city and the band led the group through town to start the clean-up drive rolling.

Village president, Cliff Croft, has not indicated the schedule for this year, but it will probably follow the pattern of last year's campaign, when a certain hour was allotted to businessmen to clean their windows and stores.

Chamber of Commerce president, Jim Bauer, announced that his organization would again donate prizes to the school children for best costumes and signs for the event.

Complete details of the clean-up plans will be published in the Chronicle next week.

Fifty Attend Final Meeting of Home And School Council

Fifty interested parents attended the final meeting of the current school year of the Home and School Council, held in the school auditorium Monday evening. Miss Helen Johnson of Michigan State College was guest speaker. Richard Joos contributed a clarinet solo and Mr. and Mrs. Don Borg a vocal duet to the program. Miss Joan Holmberg accompanied the Borgs. The speaker stressed tools of intelligence, the ability to exercise discipline and control in one's life, to learn to participate and assume responsibilities and the importance of letting the child learn when he is ready to learn.

Mrs. James Colbert, chairman of the nominating committee, whose assistants were Mrs. Clinton Law and Mrs. Howard Wooley, offered the following slate of officers for the coming year, who were elected: President, John Graham; vice president, Mrs. Archie McLachlan; secretary, Mrs. John Ryan; treasurer, Mrs. Harold Perry and program committee, Mrs. Brewster Shaw, Mrs. Marie Sullivan, Wm. O'Dell, Mrs. Erwin Binder and Mrs. Leslie Beach.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Curtis Hunt, Mrs. Maynard McConkey and Mrs. Keith McConkey.

Phone Company to Change Name Soon

The name of Michigan Associated Telephone Company will be changed to General Telephone Company of Michigan, as soon as the required action to accomplish this is taken. F. E. Norris, President, announced today. Mr. Norris said that the name was being changed along with those of all of the major subsidiaries of General Telephone Corporation. He added that this involved no change in the management or operation of Michigan Associated.

The name changes will affect 12 subsidiary companies, serving more than 1,435,000 telephones in 3600 communities from coast to coast. In each case, the new name will include the word "General."

In an announcement made in New York at the same time, Donald C. Power, president of General Telephone Corporation, explained that the purpose of the change was to achieve uniformity and to make General Telephone system better known to the investing public.

"Our subsidiaries, comprising the largest independent (non-Bell) telephone organization in the United States, operate in 19 states and serve areas with an estimated population of more than 5,500,000," Mr. Power said.

Michigan Associated, like the system as a whole, has experienced the need for a heavy construction program since the end of the war. Mr. Norris said. He pointed out that since 1945 the Company's plant investment has increased from $8,032,520 to $18,597,785. Since 1945, $10,474,400 of securities were sold. Michigan Associated presently serves 86,602 telephones in 32 counties of the State.

Michigan Associated Earns $493,283

The return on the average invested capital during the year amounted to 4.94%.

Taxes, together with excise taxes which are billed to telephone users, amounted to about $2.15 per month for each telephone in service, according to the report.

Through its facilities, the Company was serving 85,279 telephones in its 75 exchanges in Michigan at the end of the year.

Directors of the Company, all of whom were re-elected at the firm's annual stockholders' meeting, are: F. E. Norris, president of the company; I. F. Krebiel, the company's vice president; George D. Freeman, president of the Freeman Manufacturing Co. of Sturgis; R. W. Herrick, president of the Tecumseh Products Co. of Tecumseh; Louis E. Legg, president of the Marshall Lumber Co. of Coldwater; C. N. Sessions, attorney, and O. A. Seyterth, president of the West Michigan Steel Foundry Co. of Muskegon.

Guests were Mrs. Otis Wehl, Mrs. Jack Spenser, Mrs. Sam Helwig and Mrs. Robert Morrison of Cass City and Mrs. Wesley Spaulding of Caro. The May meeting will be with Mrs. Ernest McDonald. The door prize was awarded to Mrs. Jake Wise.

Commerce Head Urges Members to Pay Dues Now

Jim Bauer, president of the Cass City Chamber of Commerce, said today that there were still members of the organization that have not paid their dues for the new year.

The membership drive is slated to close this week and Mr. Bauer said that both he and treasurer, Herb Ludlow, would appreciate an early return from those members as yet unsigned.

Membership dues have remained the same this year as they were in the past. Fifteen dollars per year is the charge for full membership rights.

When the drive is over, the Chamber of Commerce expects to show an increase in the number of members over last year. The organization has steadily grown since its inception three years ago.

Moore's Buy Three Milking Shorthorns

Lawrence and Martin Moore, Cass City, have added to their herd by the purchase of Sylvia's Redbird, June's Lovely Maid, and Snowflake from Freeman J. Motz and Sons, Elkton, Mich.

The new animals are purebred Milking Shorthorns and the record of the transfer of ownership has been made by the American Milking Shorthorn Society at Springfield, Missouri.

New Church Choir

The Cass City Methodist Church's newly organized junior choir, under the direction of Mrs. Arlington Hoffman, took part in the Palm Sunday services at the church.

The new choir has 25 members and recently received new robes. The robes are white with maroon bows.

Easter Programs Highlight Activity Of Area Churches

Balmy weather greeted Cass City residents in the opening days of Easter week and area churches were busy with special services that will be climaxed Easter Sunday.

One familiar Easter event in the area that will be missing this year is the annual Cantata presented under the direction of Don Borg.

Although plans were under way for the event, the death of Mr. Borg's father at the time when rehearsals were to start, cancelled the annual attraction. Next year, Mr. Borg said, the Cantata will be presented.

As usual, Cass City stores will be closed from 12:00 noon to 3:00 p. m. so store owners and their employees can attend Good Friday services at the church of their choice.

A complete Easter itinerary is printed on page two of this week's Chronicle.

DeForge Slated to Speak at Cass City Community Club

The regular monthly meeting of the Cass City Community Club will be held at the Cass City High School auditorium Tuesday evening, according to club president, Louis Bartz.

Guest speaker for the evening will be Denny DeForge from Detroit. Mr. DeForge is a noted after dinner speaker who has performed all over Michigan and surrounding states.

He will tell club members about the "Strangest Hobby in the World."

Advance information about what the hobby was, Mr. DeForge refused to say, but told Mr. Bartz that he could guarantee that it would interest the audience.

Mr. DeForge said that he had a movie that will be shown to accompany his address.

The meeting Tuesday is one week later than the regular monthly meeting because of Holy Week services.

Five auctions are listed on page seven and eight of this issue of the Chronicle.

The first will be held Saturday, April 12, at the Katherine Wojtozek farm, one and three-fourth miles east of Deford. The sale includes cattle, poultry, machinery, feed, and household goods.

On Wednesday, April 16, two sales are listed. The estate of Robert J. Knight will be auctioned four miles north and one-half mile west of Cass City and the personal property of Vern Jeffrey will be sold at his farm, eight and one-half miles north and three-quarters of a mile west of the Caro Standpipe.

High School Seniors Look For Talent Show Performers

Crash Kills Two on M-53 Near Bad Axe

A head-on collision claimed two more lives on M-53 Monday night when Hulan Wright, 53, a salesman from Harbor Beach and Arthur S. Collins, 69, of Detroit, died from injuries received in the smash.

State Police were on the trail of Collins, who crossed the Bay City-Forestville Road and M-53 at a high rate of speed.

Collins, whose car was faster than the police car, ran away from the trailing police to his death, three miles west of Bad Axe. Besides the state police, coroner, Aiden A. MacAlpine, and prosecuting attorney, Arthur M. Bach, investigated the accident.

Collins was reported dead when found by state police and Wright died an hour later in Hubbard Memorial Hospital.

Schwaderer Cops Two Seconds Saturday

Running for the first time this year in competition, a member of the Cass City High School track team placed second in two events in the annual invitational track meet for class "C" and "B" schools held at Mt. Pleasant Saturday.

Three boys were selected by coach Arthur Paddy to compete. They were Tom Schwaderer, Arleon Kelley and Dean Kritzman. Schwaderer placed second in two events. Running the 60-yard dash for the first time, Schwaderer ran the event in :06.65. The winning time was :06.6, almost a photo finish. Schwaderer also was second in the high jump with a five-foot eight-inch effort.

Kelley finished with a 2:27.4 half-mile while Kritzman ran the mile in 5:12.7.

Saturday, Coach Paddy said that he intends to take the three boys, along with Tim Burdon and Bill Martus, to a meet in River Rouge.

Final Rites Held For Mrs. Wm. Rowley

Funeral services for Mrs. Wm. Rowley, 72, of Evergreen Township, were held Tuesday at 2 p. m., in the Douglas Funeral Home. Rev. Susan Parr of Uby officiated. Mrs. Rowley died Saturday night in Stevens Nursing Home, where she had been a patient for three months.

The former Mary Ann Hodgins was born March 21, 1880, in Lucan, Ont., and was married to Mr. Rowley there in May, 1904. Following their marriage, they came to Marlette and after a few years they moved to the farm in Evergreen Township.

Two daughters and a son died in childhood.

Surviving are her husband; three sisters, Mrs. John Casey and Mrs. Chas. Windsor of Lucan, Ont., and Mrs. Ralph Loney of Snover; two brothers, Wellington Hodgins of Calgary, Alberta, and Malcolm Hodgins of Lucan, Ont.; ten nieces and nephews and 10 grand nieces and grand nephews.

Burial was in Marlette cemetery.

New Tax Law to Benefit Most Cass City Merchants

Cass City merchants will share in an unemployment tax savings if a proposed tax amendment is passed, as millions of dollars in immediate tax relief for thousands of small businessmen were forecast today under amendments to the Employment Security Act sponsored by Representative Howard Estes and adopted by the House of Representatives on April 3.

The Estes' amendments completely revise the employer rating plan under the Employment Security Act to conform with the plans used in 32 other states. Among other things, this amendment cuts the unemployment tax rate in half, down to ½ of 1% on payroll, for steady employers.

Representative Estes stated that an interim study directed by the 1951 session of the legislature showed that his plan would bring about fairer recognition of the fact that small employers seldom cause much unemployment. "The interim study," he said, "shows that 75% of the smallest employers will get the new minimum rate of ½ of 1% on payroll at the start, while the average employer with payrolls over $100,000 would have an increase of about the same percentage." "As a matter of fact, there are about 3,000 employers, most of them small ones, whose employees have never had to draw a cent of benefits from the fund. These employers are still being required to pay in 1%. This amendment will cut their unemployment taxes in half."

In answer to critics who fear that these reductions for small employers might weaken the unemployment fund, Representative Estes pointed to the interim study. "This study shows that my plan would have collected almost exactly the same amount of money which came in under the present plan during the 9-year period from 1942 through 1950. During that period, the Michigan fund increased in size from about $100,000,000 to approximately $300,000,000. The answer is that my plan will charge more to the employers who cause unemployment, and less to those who do not."

Radio listeners in this area who enjoy Pie Plant Pete and Bashful Joe, regular performers over WJR in Detroit, will be happy to hear that they are making a personal appearance in Cass City on Thursday, April 24. Their show here on that date will be sponsored by the senior class and will feature, in addition to the radio stars themselves, local talent numbers. Pie Plant Pete and Bashful Joe combine happy music from the guitar and harmonica with an entertaining and mirth-provoking dialogue. They have been on the radio together for thirteen years and have been heard over nearly every larger radio station in the country.

While presenting their own portion of the program, the boys will act as masters of ceremonies for local talent numbers. The seniors are very anxious that all persons in the Cass City area who would be interested in taking part in this portion of the show volunteer as early as possible. All types of talent would be welcomed. An audition is being planned early during the week before the show. If all those interested in taking part will contact either Ronald Poslusny or John Agar, members of the senior class, or call the principal's office at the high school, arrangements for the audition can be made.

Mason Speaks at Rotary Luncheon

Bill Mason from the Michigan Department of Conservation was the guest speaker at the regular Tuesday noon luncheon meeting of the Rotary Club held at the New Gorton Hotel.

Mr. Mason traced the activities of the department from the time when a need for conservation first became apparent to the present day. A vivid film illustrated the points he presented to Rotarians.

He told how fish are stocked and how they are checked to see what results the department's policies have attained.

To illustrate the point, he showed how the conservation workers went to a lake where there was not enough feed, killed the stunned fish and planted more food before restocking the lake.

Members agreed that the program was one of the most interesting presented at the Rotary luncheon.

Reward Offered for Old School Annuals

Superintendent Willis Campbell is looking for old school annuals. The school is now keeping a copy of each annual produced in their files.

Since 1945, a copy has been kept and is at the school now. However, before that date many copies are missing.

On hand are the annuals for the following years: 1907, 1914, 1915, 1922 and 1929.

In an effort to secure the missing annuals, Mr. Campbell is offering $2 per copy for the missing issues, providing they are in reasonably good condition.

SHORT STORY

Share Alike
 By Richard Hill Wilkinson

THE second week after they reached the cabin on Wolf Creek, Sid Condon, exploring a tributary alone, found gold. He spent half a day estimating the value of the find. It was a pocket and would probably net a total take of between $40,000 and $50,000. Sid filled his pipe and sat down to meditate. The thing to do, of course, was to get Duke Brandon, his partner, clean out the placer, and hit for Big Rock settlement before the snow came.

Sid sucked on his pipe, and his eyes grew crafty. Into his mind there came a picture of thin-lipped Duke Brandon. Why should he share this find with Duke? A man with $40,000 could retire and live for the rest of his days in comfort. A man with only half that amount would have to scrimp. Forty thousand dollars!

Duke Brandon was in a surly mood that night. He had had no luck. The food supply was getting low. Snow would come soon. Why not quit now while their chances of getting out were good?

With the speed of a snake his hand flashed to his hip where hung the revolver.

"Wait a week," Sid urged. "Might as well make sure we ain't missin' anything."

So Duke prevailed upon. The next morning they started out again in opposite directions. Sid went south, circled west and came to his claim. Working feverishly he panned a handful of gold and carried it up stream a half mile, caching it beneath a large moss-covered rock.

The next day and the next and the next it was the same. Duke became more disgruntled. He decided to remain only one more day.

The next morning Duke headed north. Toward noon he swung west and south. At mid-afternoon he came to a moss-covered rock lying near the shore of what was to him an explored tributary. He sat down to smoke and rest, and as he sat there the slanting rays of the sun fell upon a dull, yellow piece of metal. Duke blinked, then leaned forward. He picked up the piece of metal and saw beyond it a small opening beneath the rock.

He knelt and reached into the hole and took out a handful of gold. Sid Condon had stood in the bed of the stream when caching his placer gold, so there were no foot-prints nor other signs to indicate his having been there.

There must be $30,000 worth of metal in the cache. Half of that was his, according to the unwritten law. The other half—but what could a man do with a mere $15,000?

DUKE took a small sack from his pocket and filled it full with the dull, yellow dust. His breathing was heavy as he knelt there. His eyes glowed feverishly. He knotted the sack together and rose from his knees—and stopped dead still.

Sid Condon was standing not 15 feet away. Sid's left hand contained a sack similar to the one in Duke's. It was not full, but the bulge was evidence enough as to its contents.

For split seconds the two men stared at each other. Significance of the meaning of the situation dawned slowly in their sluggish brains.

Sid Condon's lips flattened against his teeth. His eyes narrowed to slits.

"Sol!" he cried hoarsely. "Sol! This is how it is! Partners, eh?"

"Partners," Duke Brandon echoed. "Partners!" he repeated in ugly scorn. "You louse!"

Sid Condon laughed harshly. He was bigger than the other man, and he felt confident.

With the speed of a snake his hand flashed to his hip where hung the revolver. His finger contracted on the trigger and flame belched from its muzzle.

Sid Condon saw his partner's body jerk convulsively, and he knew he had scored a hit; knew it only dimly though, for the sound of his own gun had come from a great distance, and there was a drumming and pounding in his ears. He sank to his knees, and through the haze of his vision he saw that Duke Brandon was also on his knees.

Then he knew that Duke had equalled him in speed at the draw. They lay, so close they could almost touch, each holding firmly to a sack of gold; lay and cursed and were eventually silent while the silvery stream rippled on, and night finally came.

Locate Feeder Pigs For Club Work
Now is the time for 4-H and FFA youngsters to be locating their feeder pigs for the fall 4-H and FFA market hog show and sale in September, says George C. MacQueen, county 4-H club agent. Pigs that are five and one-half months old by September prove to be of best marketable weights and have put on most efficient gains. From weaning time to market time a hog increases in size more than any other animal on the farm. Young pig feeders should seek pigs from litters that are vigorous, large and uniform in size. They also should check the breeding and sanitation program of the hog raiser. Good thrifty pigs will be the best gainers. Feed cost can be controlled a good deal during the summer months by utilizing permanent and supplemental pasture. This is a means of reducing the protein in the ration which is a big factor in the total feed cost. Good supplement pasture can be started early by using a mixture of 1 bushel oats to 4 pounds of rape seed sown at the regular oat sowing time. Two or three lots can be sown to provide successive grazing while the others are recovering. The second and third can be sown to rape seed alone or sudan grass. The latter is a fine hot weather pasture provided. Good clover or alfalfa mixture pasture is the best, however.
The hog-corn ratio rose in February, according to the Michigan Farm Economics published by the Agricultural Economics Department at Michigan State College. If this trend continues, it will take more bushels of corn to

The Dillman squad wilted after a first game victory to give Reid's an easy three points while Wooley's team was losing four to drop back into 2nd place, 2 points behind the leaders.

Tuscola ABA Ranks Fifth in State

Delegates from Tuscola County A. B. A.'s attending state annual meeting at East Lansing were given an opportunity to compare the progress of artificial breeding of dairy cattle in Tuscola County with all other counties in the state of Michigan, says Alfred P. Ballweg, county agricultural agent. 819 county farmers were members using artificial breeding services in 1951. Only five other counties had a higher number of A. B. A. members. 28.3% of the dairy cattle in the county were bred artificially. Only four other counties in the state had a higher percentage. 5,444 first services were made through county A. B. A.'s during 1951. Only three other counties had a higher number of first services. According to 1950 census, Tuscola County had 19,220 milk cows and heifers 2 years and over. Seven counties have a higher dairy cattle population. With a total of 146 local A. B. A.'s in Michigan, the Tuscola-Cass City and Tuscola-Kingston A. B. A. ranked fourth in the number of first services made in 1951. This speaks well for the growing importance of the dairy industry to Tuscola County and state of Michigan, concluded Ballweg.

Home Demonstration Week will be observed by 40,000 Michigan women from April 27 to May 3. Theme of the week will be "Today's Home Builds Tomorrow's World."

Nitrogen Pays Extra Dividends in Wheat

If you would like to increase your wheat yield by three to 14 bushels to the acre with a cash outlay of not more than $3.50, you'll be interested in this tip from E. D. Longnecker, extension soil scientist at Michigan State College.

Longnecker points out that fall-seeded wheat and rye frequently need extra nitrogen in early spring. Until the soil becomes thoroughly warmed, neither the organic matter of the soil nor the complete fertilizer at seeding time may be able to furnish all the nitrogen needed by the growing plants.

When extra nitrogen is needed, 20 pounds of actual nitrogen to the acre is about the right amount. This can be supplied by 100 pounds of ammonium sulfate, by 65 pounds of ammonium nitrate or 50 pounds of urea, Uramon or Nu-Green.

Although early applications made as soon as the ground is firm have proven most successful, applications made the first week in May have resulted in profitable increases in yield. The fertilizer may be applied with a grain responded to by short readings.

A letter was received from Roy (Bud) Jeffery, thanking the society for sending him the "Cornet" magazine for a Christmas gift. He is in the navy in the Mediterranean Sea. A motion was made by Mrs. Howard Martin and supported by Mrs. Clifton Endsbe that the society send a bundle to Korea. Motion made by Mrs. Arthur Moore and supported by Mrs. Howard Martin that the society give fifty dollars towards the benevolences of the church.

Mrs. Arthur Moore gave the treasurer $36.60 for custom jewelry she had sold.

Next meeting will be held with Mrs. Howard Britt on Thursday, April 24. All members are urged to come.

Twelve of the society members plan to go to the W. S. C. S. meeting in Bad Axe April 17.

As this was the last meeting before Easter, Mrs. Arthur Moore gave a talk on "Why Weepst Thou." Meeting adjourned.

NOTES from the TUSCOLA COUNTY EXTENSION OFFICE

"Mammoth clover has been used as a green manure plow-down crop on our farm for many years," says Dean Crawford, Almer Township farmer. "About 60 acres of my cropland is seeded each year to fit my crop rotation." Weevils cause little if any damage, thus giving reasonable assurance of a green manure crop each year.

1856 is the date of a book brought into the Extension office by Dean Crawford. It was ordered printed by the 34th Congress of U. S. and issued by the then Commissioner of Patents of the U. S. In content it resembles present day U. S. D. A. Yearbook of Agriculture.

Bob Shantz, manager of Caro Cooperative Elevator Company, reports unusually heavy sales of nitrogen fertilizer this spring. "The demand far exceeded our highest estimates," says the company manager.

Preliminary meeting for a slipcover workshop will be held on Friday, April 18, at 2 p. m. in the courthouse, according to Miss Jean E. Gillies, county home demonstration agent. Workshop meetings will consist of four all-day sessions. Anyone wishing to enroll in a slipcover class should attend this meeting.

LET'S TALK IT OVER

Ed Vallender, Farm Editor
WBCM Bay City

Politics
This is an election year. The accent is on politics. The candidates promise economy. Congress votes a bigger budget. The over-all total is staggering. Mr. "Average Citizen" is likely to throw in the towel and cry, "Take it away, it's too much to even comprehend."

USDA Spending
The House Appropriations Committee can't trim defense spending, but in this election year of 1952, they can give civilian agencies a good close look. In the case of the USDA, here's what happened.

The Agriculture Department had asked for 748 million dollars. They knew they were going to get the knife so the above figure represented a voluntary cut of 45 million. The Committee studied the new Ag budget and knocked off another 24 million. So—from June of 1952 and for the next 12 months—in these days of increased spending, the USDA is going to get along with 69 million dollars less. Most will say, "It's about time!"

But—since the beginning of World War II, agriculture spending has been cut by nearly ONE THIRD. Spending in other government departments—and this does not count defense, just the other civilian agencies—these departments have been given appropriation increases of three hundred per cent.

Members of the committee, from both parties, say that further cuts are impossible without crippling necessary projects.

Where the money goes
Let's take a look at the big picture, where most of the money is going.

The Farmer's Home Administration, the Rural Electrification and the Telephone loan programs got all the money they asked for. The total is close to 230 million.

Two major farm organizations asked for cuts in the Conservation Program. The Committee, in its report said that the Nation's food needs are increasing steadily. That makes conservation work more important. The Conservation Service got over 60 million—a little more than last year.

The Appropriations Committee voted 250 million for conservation payments. This money will be used in testing a conservation plan—a new program combining the work of the Soil Conservation Service and the Conservation Payment Program.

Forest Service Cut
Another cut comes in the Forest Service Appropriation. The House Committee refused, except for one item, to put up any money for land purchase. The Committee says the Forest Service has been buying too much land, and holding acres which should go back to private ownership.

The Production Goal Program was cut from nine to four million. For Agricultural Research, the Committee okayed a budget of more than 74 million. That's about the same as was asked.

Also—there's no cut in appropriations for flood prevention activities. The work was all authorized by Congress anyway.

All in all, it's comforting to know, the USDA isn't dipping too deep.

Major Factor
Use of plasma and whole blood in Korea is a major factor in the low mortality rate among wounded soldiers.

Not Edible
The meat of the waterbuck is not very palatable. The natives in the Sudan use only the horns as musical instruments.

Day of Resurrection
Now let the heavens be joyful,
Let earth her song begin,
The round world keep high triumph,
And all that is therein;
Let all things seen and unseen
Their notes together blend,
For Christ the Lord is risen,
Our joy that hath no end.

Easter celebration in the early Greek Church, as now, was climaxed at midnight with a cannon shot. With king, queen, and archbishops present, priests chanted, bands played, and rockets flared. For this festival, John of Damascus, the greatest poet of his church, in 750 AD wrote The Day of Resurrection.

Lazy Bivalves
Oysters and scallops are lazy members of the seafood world. In their native element they lie on one side, whereas most other bivalves live erect, standing on the edges of their shells.

New Drug
The Army is now testing a new drug—primaquine—which may provide a rapid cure for malaria. Preliminary experiments indicate the drug may be more effective than any other now in use.

Better Still
For the fourth consecutive year, the United States pushed its electricity generation to a new high, with a record 43 1/2-billion-kilowatt-hour increase over 1949, a 12 1/2 per cent gain.

Income Figures
Sales of electricity to ultimate consumers comprised about 86 per cent of the electric companies' total revenue in 1950. The remaining 4 per cent was made up of revenue from a variety of other sources.

MICHIGAN MIRROR NEWS BRIEFS

The big noise in Michigan is still—taxes and the possibility of a constitutional convention, those two playmates who are getting kicked around so much these days. But not to Governor Williams. Taxes, yes, but not a constitutional convention.

And remember, the lanky Williams, when he walks, makes very big footprints on the political battleground.

The governor admits the state's tax structure is faulty, but he says a constitutional convention would not repair that tax structure in time. The answer? His 4 per cent corporation tax, of course. But to go back to the beginning, Williams first wants reappointment before a convention. A "con-con" provides that three delegates shall be named from each senatorial district.

"The state senate now is unrepresentative," he says, "because they have failed to conform to the present constitution, which requires reapportionment every 10 years.

"Having failed to live up to the present constitution, some legislators want to write a new one. But to hold a constitutional convention, based on the present unrepresentative senate, would be to compound an inequity.

"If the legislature sincerely wants to revise the constitution (and this certainly is in order) let it first follow the present constitution and when that is done I will have no objections."

Governor Williams points out that such a convention first must be approved by a majority ALL THOSE VOTING in the November elections, the delegates then would meet, spend many months working up a new constitution and then the document must be resubmitted to the people which would make it sometime around 1954 before the constitution becomes effective.

"The state's acute financial problems must be solved before any new constitution could possibly go into effect. It can't truthfully be represented as any solution to the state's problem."

In Williams' first tax message of 1949 he said that he wished he could recommend a general revision of the state's patchwork tax structure, but that the state's financial condition is such that he felt there wasn't time.

And he points out now that the only thing that has changed since that time is the sales tax revenue which has increased 20 per cent.

He admits the present situation is bad—but he is opposed to the basic theory of G. O. P. taxing. He says this program is based upon the recovery of funds now being returned to local units of governments and more consumer taxes.

The governor has pledged himself to veto any tax bills following those lines.

"The little man in Michigan already is paying 80 per cent of the total revenue," he says curtly, "the national average is 60 per cent."

Some local units are not using the diverted funds to good advantage, the governor ruefully agrees, but he adds that "the legislature had made no distinction."

Lee Thurston, state superintendent of public instruction, says $400 million are needed to bring the school system up to date.

"As long as that condition exists," Gov. Williams says, "I will not go along with cutting diversion to the schools."

He still thinks a corporation tax will do the job without a general price increase and he points out that 33 other states have corporation taxes with no appreciable change in prices.

A corporation tax would bring in $80 million, but from that would be subtracted the corporation franchise taxes which would net the state $60 million.

Williams makes the following points:

1. It would protect new business—it wouldn't have to pay the tax until it began to make money.
2. Small business corporations now pay more under the franchise tax.
3. Most small businesses are not incorporated.

And he also points out that in such cases as the automobile business in which Republicans say car

Seeding Important For Pasture Crop

Getting a good seeding of hay and pasture crops is one of the jobs facing many Michigan farmers now and Richard Bell, farm crops specialist at Michigan State College, today passed along some tips for insuring success in the venture.

Bell says that one of the most important points is to test the soil for acidity if you're making an alfalfa seeding and the soil hasn't been tested recently. That job must be done immediately so you can get the results of the test and get the limestone applied. Pulverized or super-fine limestone will correct the acidity more rapidly. The lime should be applied and worked into the soil either before or after plowing.

Inoculate alfalfa seed regardless of how recently alfalfa has been grown on the same land. Put the legume seed in shallow by tilling the alfalfa seed tubes back so the seed falls behind the drill. Then cutback or let the first rain cover the seed.

A good seeding mixture for moderately well-drained fields is six to eight pounds of alfalfa, one fourth to one half pound of ladino clover, and two to four pounds of brome grass per acre.

At planting time, apply at least 300 to 350 pounds of fertilizer of an analysis like 4-16-16 or 3-18-9, or 450 to 500 pounds of a lower analysis such as 3-12-12 or 2-12-6. For sandy soils, Bell recommends at least 300 to 350 pounds of 3-9-13.

prices would go up $3 per car, 85 per cent of the automobiles are sold out of state.

Yes, it has been a long and bitter struggle—and the end is not in sight. Our Democratic governor will sign no Republican taxes—and he admits himself that he has no hope this legislature will go along with his corporation tax. Meanwhile, the state's general fund is defunct.

If the Michigan legislature heeds to the line and balances the budget as leaders now propose, Washington may have something to think about. Consider these facts about Federal spending by Congress:

Since 1940 national income has increased from 90 billion per year to approximately 300 billion per year, approximately 300% increase.

Now consider some departmental budgets: Department of Commerce is up 1,709.67%.

Department of Interior is up 594.27%.

Labor Department is up 720.69%.

Justice Department is up 273.56%.

State Department is up 1,934.40%.

All this in only 13 years.

In 1947 Government expenditures ate up 22.2% of nation's income; 1953 Budget will take over 30% of Nation's income.

To Federal Government's take must be added state, local taxes, another 20 billion at least.

Think it over. The American taxpayers are footing the bill.

Clean Farms Prevent Costly Accidents

Springtime is nature's clean-up time and a good time for farmers to join in the effort, according to Alfred P. Ballweg, county agricultural agent.

He points out that tools, bags of feed, buckets and just common trash are responsible for hospitalizing one out of every five accident victims. This was shown by a study conducted by the National Safety Council, which points out further that the largest single cause of injuries, other than the personal factor of poor judgment, is disorder.

Broken, wobbly steps which might cripple someone for life should be fixed. Tattered, old buildings should be fixed or torn down. Unmarked bottles of poison and poisons left within the reach of children often result in tragedy. Accumulations of trash, paper, scattered boxes and boards, rags and rubbish are serious fire hazards and ideal breeding places for rats.

A spring clean-up will give the farm a new look and will make it a safer and easier place for working and living. Ballweg says that if every farm family would conduct a clean-up campaign, inside and outside, it would go a long way toward eliminating fire and accident hazards, provide a more healthful place to live and conserve food.

Lot of Strokes
It is estimated that a bike rider makes over 1800 power strokes while pedaling five miles. Nobody has figured how many walking steps you would take for the same distance!

Kilowatts
Kilowatts measure the production capacity or capability of electric generators and also the power requirement of electrical appliances and equipment.

Colds and Cyclists
A British doctor states that bicyclists who ride daily in the open air are generally immune from the common cold. It is his belief that a fast-moving, fully-oxygenated blood stream will not tolerate the germ.

"Flying Farmers"
More than 350,000,000 pounds of agricultural dusts and sprays are applied to U.S. acreages annually by airplane for the control of insects, weeds and plant diseases.

COUNTY SOIL TESTING LABS MAKE BIG GROWTH

From a single county soil testing laboratory in 1946 to 42 operating in Michigan in early 1952. That's been the growth of convenient facilities to enable farmers and urban gardeners to discover the plant food needs of the soil they till. The above picture is typical of the inside of a county soil testing laboratory. It shows B. E. Musgrave, county agricultural agent of Mecosta county, testing soil in his laboratory in Big Rapids. The map below shows the counties in the state with soil testing laboratories; dots indicate the counties with labs and arrows indicate counties using facilities in neighboring centers. County extension offices, aided by other agencies, have promoted the installation of soil testing equipment within the counties. (MSC Photo)
