Hawks Top Vassar, Lose to Bad Axe In Conference Tilts

Cass City High School's last chance for a share of the Upper Thumb baseball championship went glimmering when they lost a 9-6 decision to league-leading Bad Axe Monday. The loss left them with a 2-2 record in conference competition, while Bad Axe has yet to be defeated.

Thursday, May 1, the Hawks kept their hopes for a share of the title alive by whipping Vassar, 4-3. Behind the steady pitching of Gerald Whitaker, with assistance from John Ellis in the ninth, Cass City whipped their tough conference foe.

The Hawks picked up all of their runs in the second and third innings. In the second, Pete Martin doubled, Maynard Helwig reached first on an error and Whitaker singled both runners home.

Ray Cobb, Vassar hurler, lost his own game in the next inning when Cass City counted twice.

Martin walked, Helwig singled and so did Burdon to load the bases. Cobb then tried to pick the runner off first and throw the ball into right field, two runs scoring, to give Cass City what proved to be the winning run.

Vassar made a final try to win the ball game in the final inning when they loaded the bases with one out, but an attempted squeeze play failed when the runner was nipped at the plate and the batter failed to hit. Ellis was on the mound in the seventh.

Against Bad Axe, Cass City out-hit their opponents, 8-7, but eight errors let the ball game slip through their fingers. Bad Axe chalked up two runs in the first, three in the third and fourth, and one in the seventh. Joe Grimes, Huron hurler, held the Hawks scoreless until the sixth, when they counted five runs. In the seventh, the Hawks rallied again but settled only one run.

The Hawks lost one run when Helwig blasted out a long home run only to miss third base and be called out.

Predict Good Year For Potato Growers

"Chances for another good year for Michigan potato growers are good," M. E. Cravens, Jr., Michigan State College agricultural economist, says.

On March 1, growers of the state reported that they intended to plant 10 per cent fewer acres than in 1951. Even with yields equal to the highest on record, the intended acreages would not be enough to cause a ruinously low price.

"With yields equal to or less than those of last year, there is the probability of prices equal to or better than those for the 1951 crop," Cravens warned that this does not mean that all Michigan potato growers will make money in 1952.

Among limiting factors is low production. He said that farmers who got an average of 180 bushels or less per acre did not make much money on potatoes in 1951, and they aren't likely to do so in 1952.

"With costs even higher than in 1951, some growers may try to cut costs by using less fertilizer, by using seed of questionable quality, or by spraying less," Cravens said. He warned that such cost-cutting procedures will prove unwise if they seriously affect yields.

He summarized by saying that "for the grower who can expect to get yields well above the state average, 1952 looks like a good year to expand potato acreage."

MICHIGAN MIRROR NEWS BRIEFS

Non-partisan government at Lansing is functioning as usual this spring—vetoes from the governor, accusations from legislative leaders, more unbalanced budget, more confusion and almost daily political fireworks.

When the voters of Michigan chose Republicans to fill seven out of eight state administrative offices and to dominate the state legislature, they also picked Democrat G. Mennen Williams by a slim margin to serve as Governor. The pattern is familiar by now.

Every year Democrat Williams has voiced hope that the Republican legislature will try to cooperate.

And every year it's like putting two cats in a croaker sack. They just tear each other to pieces.

It's an almost untenable situation. The result? We are now faced with an unbalanced budget. The legislature, after heaving and tossing, came up with its $383 million budget for the coming year, some $32 million more than the present income will produce. Then the lawmakers presented tax bills which would bring in an estimated $32 million.

The governor, who has been futilely kicking the wall for a 4 per cent corporation tax for three years, vetoed the Higgins used car tax bill which would have poured $12 million into the empty coffers. This tax should have put a 3 per cent tax on used cars and cut off $3 million now diverted to schools.

Governor says it is unfair. Legislature smirks at Williams' corporation tax, his FEPC bill, his additional welfare proposals and says they're unfair.

And no one wins.

Speaker of the House Victor A. Knox (R-Sault Ste Marie) as quoted before in this column says: "The legislature has had no help at all from the governor in meeting the crisis. He wants to spend and spend—because he thinks it is smart campaigning to promise the people more and more. Never does he tell people that they must pay for the cost of state government—he tries to make them believe they are getting something for nothing."

The governor replies in kind, saying, "The G. O. P. program is based upon the recovery of funds now being returned to local units of governments and more consumer taxes." And he says he'll veto any tax bills following those lines.

And by gum he has. Republicans say the governor has sold out the C. I. O. Governor says Republicans are backed by "big business."

Then the affair at Jackson blew up like a tin can on the Fourth of July.

Republicans say Williams caused the state to reach the nadir of public respect by being so wishy-washy with the rioters. Governor Frank Murphy took the same attitude with the C. I. O. sit-down strikers at Flint back in 1937. Lives were saved, he said.

Governor says he was protecting the kidnapped guards. This could go on for days. Just what is the answer? Outside of an election, there apparently isn't any. The two camps right now are sitting around the council fires plotting war strategy—and they will continue to do so until there is a new governor or a Democratic legislature. Non-partisan government is a sorry mess.

Salary and wage costs to some 25,500 state employees and officials hit $103,614,469 in the last 15 months. In the same period of the first Williams administration there were $88,431,465 and 10 years ago the total was barely $42 million.

But the legislature promises that by the end of the fiscal year there will be from 800 to 1,000 fewer state employees.

The agriculture department warns that Michigan may face another invasion from forest tent caterpillars this year. Last year more than 300,000 acres were stripped by the pests. Could be worse this year. Mostly the upper peninsula suffered, although some of the caterpillars appeared around Grand Rapids and Battle Creek.

Stomach Ulcers

The stomach is an amazing efficient machine, sorting, evaluating, retaining and dissolving the chemical elements of food.

But when a healthy stomach stops producing digestive acids in proper quantities, manufacturing too much or too little, the lining of stomach breaks down the protective wall.

Ulcers are the inevitable result. Chiropractors have scientifically proven that treating the ulcer is not sufficient. The cause must be removed, and the cause, generally is traced to the nerves supplying the stomach and producing the proper amount of acid.

Chiropractors know that when the stomach does not function properly, the nerves themselves are at fault and should be examined.

Chiropractors meet this problem by locating the vertebra interfering with the proper flow of nerve impulses and by chiropractic adjustment restores the vertebra to its normal position.

Chiropractors have successfully treated thousands of stomach ulcer patients as attested by the many acknowledgments sent to their office. See for yourself by calling on your local chiropractor, DR. B. V. CLARK, at 143 W. Lincoln Street, Caro, or phone 370 for an appointment.—Adv.

State 4-H Members Help National Fund

Michigan 4-H'ers are well on their way toward doing more than their prescribed share in establishing a National 4-H Club Center in Washington, D. C.

To date $6,240.45 has been sent to the national office. That sum is made up of contributions from individual 4-H Club members and Extension staff members throughout the state. The goal is $6,000 from 4-H Club members—with only $221.45 missing and more than five counties yet to be heard from. Staff members contributed $462.

A. G. Kettunen, state 4-H Club leader, is sure members will go well over the top. Already 50 Michigan counties have contributed 100% and 23 counties went over their quota. Only five failed to make their goal.

The national goal for funds to build the 4-H Home near the nation's capitol is $225,000, figured on a basis of ten cents from every 4-H Club member and a dollar from Extension staff members, Kettunen said.

To Small Fry's Taste

It's probably more fun to do over a child's room than any other room in the house. The color preferences and current enthusiasms of small fry are guideposts to color schemes and decorative motifs. At all ages, of course, the advantages of easily washed, smoothly painted surfaces are apparent. A gloss enamel on the woodwork makes it possible to remove sticky fingermarks innumerable times. A daddo of semi gloss enamel may also be an advantage.

Little Stories about Great Hymns

Stand Up For Jesus

Stand up, stand up for Jesus,
Ye soldiers of the cross;
Lift high His royal banner,
It must not suffer loss:
From vict'ry unto vict'ry
His army shall He lead,
Till every foe is vanquished,
And Christ is Lord indeed.

Dudley Tyng, a young Philadelphia minister, was watching a new corn-shelling machine when he was fatally hurt. As his life ebbed, he sent one last message to his friends—"Tell them to stand up for Jesus!" Mr. Duffield, a friend and minister, felt these words were too great to be lost. He wrote the above verse, which, set to stirring music, is one of our most challenging hymns.

Sugar Beet Tests Results Announced

Results of several sugar beet experiments conducted by Michigan State College were announced this week by Alfred P. Ballweg, county agricultural agent.

He summarized the results in recommendations for higher yields and urged farmers to plant the sugar beet acreage they have contracted. R. C. Bell, Michigan State College farm crops specialist, reported the results to the county agent.

At planting time, make sure you put in enough processed seed to give good "before-thinning" stands—at least four pounds of seed per acre. Five to six pounds of seed to the acre should be planted where germination is poor or conditions unfavorable. Uniform distribution of seed is possible only when you plant slowly—not more than four miles per hour.

Experiments have proven that you can't get top sugar beet yields if "after-thinning" stands are not thick enough. Bell said that if beets are blocked and thinned entirely by hand, 100 beets per 100 feet of row is considered an adequate stand. If beets are machine-thinned, followed by hand thinning, 110 to 120 beets per 100 feet of row is recommended to make up for the more uneven spacing of the plants.

Tests have shown that as many as 25 per cent doubles does not cut yields. The ideal time to thin beets is when they are in the four to six-leaf stage. Later thinning nearly always cuts yield, the county agricultural agent says.

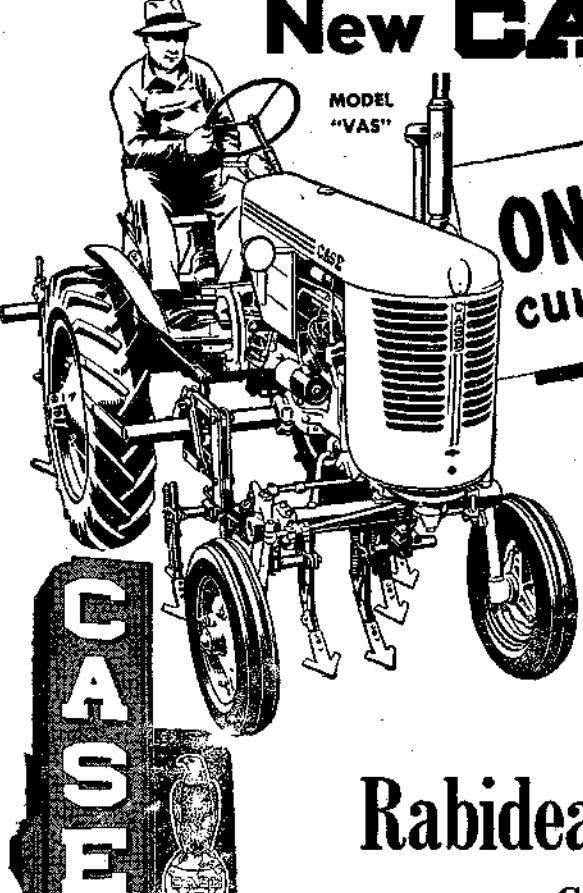

If thinning is done mechanically with spring-time heads, final hand thinning can safely wait for one or two weeks.

Check Fertilizer Use

An examination of fertilizer records kept by 163 farmers in central Michigan was made by Michigan State College agricultural economists. They found that the amount of fertilizer used was closely related with crop yields.

John C. Doneth, one of the agricultural economists, says that the records showed that farmers who used the most fertilizer also had higher machinery expense per acre and bought the most feed. Also, net farm earnings tended to be higher on farms where fertilizer usage was reasonably high.

628 Pounds Per Diesel

Over 4,300 diesel locomotives were built during 1950, almost twice as many as in the previous year. These locomotives accounted for nearly 40% of the estimated 6,500,000 pounds of nickel consumed by the railroad industry.

Famous First

The battleship "Texas", commissioned in 1893, was one of the first such vessels to use nickel steel armor plate. Since that time nickel steel has come to be considered the standard material for all types of armor plate.

Platinum "Anti-Knock"

In spite of their rarity and high cost, the precious metals are used as catalysts in the production of gasoline and nitric acid, and also in producing glass fiber, electric light bulbs, rayon, chemicals and pharmaceuticals.

Once Ornamental

The beautiful foxglove found growing in the forests and along the roadsides throughout the Douglas fir region was originally brought to America as an ornamental flower and has since escaped from cultivation and thrived in the wilds.

Main Arena

The main arena for the 1952 Olympic Winter Games, Bissett Stadium, is located in the heart of Oslo, Norway. It accommodates 28,000 spectators. Three world's speed skating championships have been held there, in 1925, 1927 and 1949.

there's X-tra Value in X-tane!

KNOW THE FACTS ABOUT GASOLINE LEONARD X-TANE HAS ALL THESE

CAT GASOLINE is a gasoline that has been refined by a method known as catalytic cracking. This is a modern method of producing quality gasoline. Leonard has been turning out "cat cracked" gasoline since 1947.

ANTI-RUST GASOLINE is a gasoline that has an anti-rust compound added. Leonard uses a compound developed by one of the country's leading chemical companies. (Name furnished on request.)

BUTANE is a highly volatile component added to gasoline to control the starting qualities. Leonard changes the amount of butane added at least 8 times a year, instead of the usual 4, to make sure that Leonard X-Tane will start in any kind of weather.

TETRA-ETHYL LEAD is a compound added to gasoline to improve the octane rating. Most gasoline contains one-tenth of one per cent by weight, of Tetra-Ethyl Lead. The government controls the amount that can be used.

OCTANE RATING is a number system for measuring the anti-knock characteristics of gasoline. Among top grade gasolines there is very little difference in the octane rating. Leonard is always in this top group and usually at the very top.

PLUS 2 BIG X-TANE X-TRAS

It's FRESH

You get better performance from Leonard X-Tane because evaporation has not robbed it of the highly volatile molecules that mean more pep and power for your car. Many out-of-state gasolines are pumped, piped, and poured as many as 10 times before they reach your car. During that time they have had plenty of opportunity to grow weak from evaporation. But not Leonard X-Tane. It's usually moved only three times in the trip to the tank of your car. Leonard X-Tane is made and sold only in Michigan. Leonard X-Tane is delivered FRESH!

It's made for Michigan Weather

You get better performance from Leonard X-Tane because it's blended to match the weather. The formula is changed as the weather changes. That means at least 8 times a year Leonard chemists change the components to insure faster starting and faster pick-up (most refineries change their blending formula only 4 times a year). Because Leonard X-Tane is made and sold only in Michigan there is no need for a compromise in the blending formula to allow for sales in weather conditions across the nation. Leonard X-Tane is right for Michigan.

Try LEONARD X-tane today — It's the best gasoline to use in Michigan — Today or any day!

Let's Talk It Over

Ed Vallender - Farm Editor
WBCB Bay City

Labor Relations.

The phrase is not new. "Better relations between employer and employee." The thinking and action behind this movement has been confined mostly to industry. Bargaining sessions between unions and management have pushed the issue into public thought and ACCEPTANCE. Most large companies have departments dedicated to the problems of "human relations." The working man is guided and guarded. Not so the farm laborer.

Step-Child.

A great segment of our American Agriculture depends on migrant labor. The term is loosely defined. It started in the middle west when harvesting the wheat belt demanded many hands in a short space of time. The workers followed the threshers from Texas to Canada. After wheat they turned to the orchards and gardens of the west coast states for employment. As the population increased, the demand for this type of short-term labor also grew.

Today it is one of the major headaches of the labor scene.

In recent years, the problems of migrant labor have been the subject of bitter debate on the floor of Congress. Even the State Department has been called in to bargain with other labor surplus countries.

We are now forced to recognize the migrant labor problem for what it really is—i. e.—a permanent part of our agricultural way of life.

Top Level.

Getting the migrant labor to the area where it is needed at the proper time is only part of the problem and solution. Keeping the labor as long as needed—and having that source of labor return year after year is quite another. If the farmer is to emulate his city cousin and establish good "human relations" he must work diligently for that goal.

Such a move was recently started in Bay City.

Schooling.

The Junior College Board of Continuing Education in Bay City, together with the cooperation of Al Festerling of the Michigan State Employment Service, got together on a basic course in Spanish for fieldmen, farmers and rural grocers. They engaged the services of the Reverend R. A. Tolosa of Saginaw to act as instructor.

The first course offered to fieldmen and farmers was entirely a success. So much so—that a second "short course" was again offered for grocers.

This is a small step. BUT—A step in the right direction.

The Congress, the State Department and the local governments can legislate their heads off. Travel—wages and agreements are fine in their place. They are only as important as paper work ever is.

But to the farmer belongs the key—it is called, "UNDERSTANDING."

GREENLEAF

Bruce MacRae injured his right thumb badly while working with farm machinery last week.

Colon Campbell, a long-time resident of Greenleaf, died Friday at the Stevens Nursing Home in Cass City.

James Croft, who injured his ankle when he jumped from his truck several weeks ago, is still confined to his home with the leg in a cast.

Miss Hila Wills of Detroit visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Thorpe, over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. John A. MacCallum of Lansing were week-end guests at the home of Mrs. Colon MacCallum. Other visitors were Wm. McGilvary of Detroit and Sunday callers were Mrs. M. B. Auten, Miss Helen Wilsie of Rogers City and Mrs. Schwaderer.

David Stine, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stine, is quite sick, having both mumps and measles.

Mrs. Eleanor Morris, Mrs. Anson Karr and Mrs. James Mudge, with their sister, Mrs. Wm. Watkins, near Caro, went to Big Beaver on Thursday to have dinner with another sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Felmlee. On the way home, they had supper at the farm home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hoadley near Imlay City.

Remedy

Just let someone mention that he had trouble falling asleep last night, and everyone else comes up with his own pet theory for wooing sleep. One of the most interesting ones, though, is the one invented by Joy Hodges, actress who played with George M. Cohan in "Pd Rather Be Right." She imagines that she sees a large black ball in the distance. It rolls toward her very, very slowly. By the time it is so near that it blots out everything else and she reaches out to clutch it, she is fast asleep.

Sudan grass grown on fertile soil is a good emergency pasture crop for Tuscola County, says Loren D. Black, assistant county agricultural agent.

Milo B. Tesar, of the Michigan State College farm crops department, writes in the current issue of the Quarterly Bulletin of the Michigan Agricultural Experiment Station, that most of the state's acreage used to be planted to common sudan grass. Currently a large acreage has been planted to sweet sudan grass, a new variety.

Recent experiments show that a new sudan grass variety, Piper, appears to be valuable where adapted. Piper significantly out-yielded sweet sudan grass in five out of six tests over a three-year period. Common sudan grass out-yielded sweet in three of the four county tests in 1951.

Tesar believes that when seed becomes available, Piper should replace other sudan grass varieties in Michigan since it produced the greatest forage yield in most trials ranging from southern to north central Michigan.

The farm crops scientist says that until sufficient seed of Piper is available for Michigan farmers, most of the state's acreage should be planted to common sudan grass. Sweet sudan grass can be used in the southern two or three tiers of counties but should be planted before June 5 to permit maximum growth since it was developed for a long growing season.

Agent Black offers information on emergency pasture crops and sudan grass culture at the County Extension Office, located in the courthouse at Caro.

Five 4-H girls who received high scores in a county 4-H clothing judging contest are: Gail Wallace, Kingston; Mary Alice Luther, Fairgrove; Theresa Werdeman, Cass City; Barbara Ruggles, Kingston; and Carol Irish, Akron.

They will represent Tuscola County at district eliminations to be held in August. Thirty 4-H members and leaders attended the county judging contest held last Saturday at the 4-H Wilber Memorial Building, says Miss Jean E. Gillies, county home demonstration agent. All girls participating had been enrolled in a 4-H clothing project this year.
