

Juniors Prepare for Annual Class Play December 3-4

As the title may indicate, Cass City's Juniors present something a little bit different in the field of high school plays in Hartsell Spence's "One Foot In Heaven." Mr. Spence, well-known newspaperman and head of the special service branch of United Press, has written a sparkling story based on his life as a minister's son.

The parson of "One Foot In Heaven" has a whole of a good time with his work, especially when his flock was up in arms. When Rev. Spence, his high school age, trouble-getting-into children and attractive wife walk into the run-down, dilapidated parsonage, it's quite a shock, but that's only the beginning. The Junior Class promises you a mighty lively play.

Jack Cook and Anne Marie Lorentzen are the ministerial couple, Dean Hoag and Pat Urquhart play their children. Parishioners Larry Morrison, Sylvia Deering, Madeline Lewis, Mary Jane Martus, Janet Patterson and Fred Martin are members of the warring factions within the congregation, while Phyllis Copeland, Russell Foy, Marilyn McCarthy, Anne Salas, Janice James and Pat Beckett make up the younger set who enter into the arguments with great gusto. Paul Clark is the Bishop of the conference.

Curtain time will be 8:00 o'clock on Wednesday and Thursday, December 3 and 4.

Guest Speaker

Louis A. Komjathy.

Charter night for the Greenleaf-Fraser Presbyterian Men's Council will be held Sunday, Nov. 23, at 8 p. m. Louis A. Komjathy, attorney from Detroit, will be the guest speaker for the occasion.

Mr. Komjathy is an elder of the Woodward Avenue Presbyterian Church and a past president of the Michigan Synod Council.

He has also served as a moderator of the Detroit Presbytery and as the area vice-president of the National Council of Presbyterian Men.

Besides the address by Mr. Komjathy, there will be a presentation of the charter by Bruce Hodgkinson of Marlette and the installation of officers by Rev. W. E. Spencer of Bad Axe.

Following the service, refreshments will be served in the church basement.

Green Speaks at Local High School

Allison Green of Kingston, recently re-elected member of the State Legislature from Tuscola County, addressed the 12th grade government class at Cass City High School Friday morning.

He discussed the effects of the new reapportionment amendment to the state constitution, which he had helped to prepare, and illustrated legislative procedure with several sample bills from the last session.

His visit was arranged by his daughter, Joan, a member of the class.

Trio Makes Tour of County Farms

Charles B. Eckfeld, chairman of the Tuscola County Production and Marketing Administration; Herbert Ottow, the Soil Conservation Service Representative of the Tuscola Soil Conservation District, and Alfred P. Ballweg, Tuscola County Agricultural Agent, conducted educational tours for the township PMA committeemen.

The object of the tours was to develop improved attitudes of soil conservation activities to conform with new policies set up by the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

The township committeemen will be going down the road and visit each farm with an attempt to sell soil conservation practices which will fit into the entire soil and water conservation program of each individual farm.

The program will function on a voluntary basis, and it is hoped that most farmers will participate in the program and make known to the committeemen his desire to carry out some permanent type of soil conservation practice.

Because the money made available to Tuscola County to carry out the 1953 ACP program is to be concluded on page 12.

Mrs. Smith Leads Junior Study Club In Cass City

Mrs. Leonard Smith was elected chairman and Mrs. Tom Williams secretary at the first organizational meeting of the new Junior Study Club held Friday, Nov. 14, at the home of Mrs. Floyd Reid.

Mrs. Mary Bush, junior state chairman, attended the meeting to help the young women organize their club.

Another organizational meeting will be held Thursday, Nov. 20, at the home of Mrs. Smith. Young women between the ages of 21 and 40, who are interested in becoming members of the new organization, are requested to contact one of the officers or members of the club.

After the meeting, dessert and coffee were served.

Honor Ray Fleenor For Distinguished Scout Service

Ray W. Fleenor, committee chairman for the local Boy Scout troop for the past seven years, was one of three men honored with the Silver Beaver award for distinguished service to boyhood at Saginaw last week. The presentation was made at the annual dinner of the Valley Trails Council, which maintains the scout program in five counties from Tuscola to Clare. Mr. Fleenor was a boy scout himself in Cass City before 1930, attaining Star Scout rank, and has been active in the present Troop 194 since it was organized by the Rotary Club in 1940.

Edward Baker was re-elected vice-president of the Valley Trails Council and H. M. Buley, who represents the Cass City Rotary Club in the Council, was re-elected to the Executive Board. Others from Cass City chosen to the Council included Glenn McCullough and Dr. Delbert E. Rawson. The Silver Beaver was awarded also to Claude W. Lemmer and David H. Gerhard, both of Saginaw. Only two other residents of Tuscola County have been honored in former years, George Klein and Paul Kraeger, both of Caro.

The citations for the Silver Beaver award were read by the chairman of the award committee, Willard Nash, now a Saginaw lawyer, who graduated from Cass City High School in the class of 1894. The ribbons were presented by Harold Ostley, local scoutmaster. Mrs. Fleenor accompanied her husband to the stage and was presented with an orchid. Their son, Scout Ronald Fleenor, acted as page for the presentation ceremony and also participated in the opening and closing ceremonies for the annual meeting.

Church Council to Sponsor Special Holiday Service

The annual Council of Churches Thanksgiving service will be held this year in the Cass City Methodist Church Wednesday, Nov. 26, at 8 p. m.

Rev. Robert McLeon, pastor of the Bad Axe Methodist Church, will be the guest speaker, according to Rev. Melvin R. Vender, chairman of the committee on Evangelism of the Cass City Council of Churches.

All churches in Cass City and surrounding area, not holding separate services, are invited to attend the service. Naturally, the service is open to the general public.

There will be special music at the service and the offering will go to support two worthwhile agencies. Half of the money will be sent to the Church World Service, an interdenominational organization for aid to war-stricken Korea and one-half to the international Christian University in Japan.

Local Church Joins Bible Reading Drive

Plans have been announced by the Rev. Earl M. Crane that the Church of the Nazarene will join in a simultaneous drive to increase Bible reading throughout the world. The period from Thanksgiving to Christmas has been designated for a concerted campaign to secure several million individuals who will read from the Bible each day.

Extensive publicity will call attention to this World-wide Bible Reading, which was observed last year in 38 countries. President Truman is honorary chairman of the sponsoring committee of nationally-known laymen, and has issued a full endorsement of the movement.

The President has declared: "The Bible remains, after the lapse of all the centuries since it came into being, the greatest Book ever written. The Bible has an ever increasing claim upon us. It is a unique and incomparable work."

World-wide Bible Reading was inaugurated by the American Bible Society nine years ago. It has steadily grown until over 14,000,000 copies of the reading list of great passages are distributed annually. In addition, the list was copied in at least 22,500,000 press and magazine printings.

Don't Miss the big party Tuesday, November 25, at 8:00 p. m. Town Hall, Cass City, sponsored by St. Pancratius Church.—Adv. 1c.

Rotarians Awarded Attendance Plaque

The Cass City Rotary Club was awarded a plaque from the Caro Rotary Club for the best attendance at the annual District Conference held in Caro last week.

The award was made by Mahlon Vance, secretary of the Caro Club, at the regular noonday meeting of the Rotarians at the New Gordon Hotel.

After the award was presented, Herman Doerr, program chairman, turned the meeting over to Arthur Holmberg who showed pictures produced by the American Medical Society. It showed the training of a doctor.

The film was received by Dr. H. T. Donahue.

Final Rites Told for Fowler Hutchinson

Funeral services were held Saturday at two o'clock for Fowler Stanley Hutchinson at Cass City Methodist Church where he has been a member for over 30 years.

Mr. Hutchinson was instantly killed about 6 p. m. Wednesday, Nov. 12, when a car struck the tractor which he was driving home from work.

He was born Sept. 2, 1900, in Elmwood Township, the son of the late Smith Hutchinson. His father, a brother and two sisters preceded him in death. His wife, Fanny, two sons, Donald and Dean, his mother, Eliza Ann Hutchinson, and brother, J. C., survive.

His beginner school days were spent in Sunshine School and he came to Elkland Township with his parents when eleven years old. He attended Dillman and Cass City High School. In high school he was known as "Stub." The nickname followed him all his life. He took part in football, held a record in the mile for some time, was a member of the Home Guards and a past master of Tyler Lodge, No. 317, F. & A. M.

In September, 1922, he was married to Maude Fleenor, who died the following year.

On August 13, 1927, he married Fanny Day. To this family, two sons were born, Donald, who is attending Michigan State, and Dean at home.

A prominent member of the community, his death leaves a void in the lives of all who knew him.

Local Women Named To WCTU Posts

Ninety-five women were registered Monday, Nov. 10, and 75 Tuesday, Nov. 11, for the seventh district meeting of the WCTU held at the Marlette Methodist Church.

At the meeting, officers were elected in the district. Among the women honored with district posts were: Mrs. Edna Warner, Deford, Christian citizenship, and Mrs. Genie Martin, Cass City, press and publicity chairman.

A resolution was passed at the meeting: "Our youth is continuously confronted with the advertising by the press, radio, television and other media of alcoholic beverages, also the pressure of so-called social customs."

"Resolved that we continue to protest through letters and petitions such advertising and intensify our educational program in the schools and every department of our work."

Christian Youth Rally Slated in Caro Saturday

The Thumb Area Christian Youth on the March presents its first great rally at Caro High School Saturday evening, November 22, at 8 o'clock. Speaker for the opening program will be Rev. John Brooks, superintendent of the Detroit City Rescue Mission, a popular youth speaker. Rev. Churches of a number of denominations, as well as independent Bible churches, are uniting together in this new venture to reach youth for Christ. Christian businessmen, as well as pastors, are helping the youth carry on this work.

One Saturday night each month a rally will be held in one of the high schools in the Thumb area. Young people from surrounding communities will come together, making it an intercity, interdenominational united rally.

Rexin Home Struck Twice by Fire

Persons who live at the Howard Rexin home in Cass City must believe in the old adage, "It never rains, but it pours," for they were the victims of two fires in three days.

Wednesday, Nov. 12, the Cass City and Elkland Township Fire Department answered a call to their residence to put out a fire in the basement when an oil burner started to smoke.

Then, on Friday, Nov. 14, they were summoned back to put out a fire that started in the roof.

Fortunately, little damage was done by either blaze, firemen reported.

All of this blended into the presentation of a true life story as the vision of a young man in missionary service.

The program is an hour long and is open to the public.

Strong Hawk Cage Squad Prepares for Stiff Schedule

With the football season completed, the Cass City High School Red Hawks have turned their attention to the coming cage season and the chance to defend the perfect regular season's record amassed by last year's championship squad.

Coach Irv. Claseman greeted 51 boys who turned out in hopes of making the squad last week.

The squad will have just three weeks to get in shape for the opening game against Sandusky Dec. 5.

In basketball, as in football, the Hawks will play a much stiffer schedule this year than they did in 1951-52. Dropped from the schedule are all of the class "C" schools that Cass City faced last year. In their place are Thumb "B" conference teams and some of the strongest independent schools in the state.

This year, Cass City will face Mt. Pleasant and Saginaw S. S. Peter and Paul besides their regular league teams.

Cass City should be well prepared to face these strong teams. They will field a veteran quintet when the season opens. The squad will be paced by Tim Burdon and Bob Wallace, two mainstays from last year. Two other regulars back Wayne Lapeer, 17, of Tyre and a student at Cass City High School, was killed Sunday morning about 9:30 o'clock while hunting five miles north of Atlanta.

He was shot by Ronald Fredricksen, 16, of Pontiac, who mistook Wayne for a bear as he was climbing over a hill. The bullet pierced his back just below his right shoulder.

The young hunter died while being carried to the hospital by his father, Arnold Lapeer.

Persons in the hunting party reported that Wayne was wearing a new red hunting outfit and a bright red hat when he was fatally shot.

The accident was the second death during the hunting season of a Cass City area resident in recent years. Robert Stockwell was also killed in the north woods while hunting.

Wayne was born in Austin Township, June 10, 1935, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Lapeer.

Wayne Lapeer.

At the time of his death, he was in his junior year at Cass City High School. He was a member of the Future Farmers of America.

Surviving are his parents.

Funeral services were conducted by the Rev. Serge Mosienko, pastor of the Deckerville Methodist Church, from Little's Funeral Home at 2 p. m. Wednesday.

Burial was in Elkland Cemetery.

Otto Prieskorn, the owner of the store, said, that the change was made to accommodate the ever increasing number of customers from the area that are shopping in the Ben Franklin Store.

from last season are Stan Gunther and Graydon Agar.

One of the big tasks for Coach Claseman will be finding a replacement for Tom Schwaderer, the playmaker of last year's team, who was lost via graduation.

Two boys, who saw considerable duty last year, are the most likely candidates for replacement as practice gets under way. The two candidates are Roy Waggs and Don Tuckey.

Other boys who are expected to see action as the season progresses are: Russ Foy, Mason Cook, Clare Comment, Bill Martus, Bill Tuckey and Don Simmons.

From the Editor's Corner

It looks as if Clark Seelye wins the honor of bagging the first deer among hunters from the Cass City area. He nabbed his buck at 8 o'clock Saturday morning. It was a spikehorn shot near Reed City, Mr. Seelye reports.

If you're looking for a way to start a new fad, we suggest the funnies of any well distributed paper as the method to use. At least the funnies were effective in Cass City. Dick Joos, the Chronicle's printer's devil, says that it's twirp season at the high school. It seems as if the girls are carrying the books, etc., this week. Dick declined to say who was doing his chores, but told your editor that "this is heaven."

A tip of the hat to Ray Fleenor for his work in scouting. The honors bestowed on the genial Ray last week represents seven years of work—work that has been largely unrecognized by most persons in the area, yet has taken much of Ray's free time in recent years.

Here is an item so unusual these days as to be newsworthy. Cass City merchants report that for the first time in many years the price of toys has decreased instead of increased this year. Discounts over last year's prices reach 20 percent in many items. Toys on merchants' shelves are expected to be all that will be available for the season. It is expected to be next to impossible to replenish supplies.

Knoblet on Area Study Committee

The preliminary committee to initiate plans for an Area Study of Tuscola County Schools met with County Superintendent Joseph E. Liddicoat Wednesday evening, Nov. 12, at the courthouse in Caro.

The committee consisted of seven persons, including the county superintendent, and the task of the evening was to create a temporary outline of the study to be submitted to the Superintendent of Public Instruction Dr. Lee M. Thurston for approval.

Another duty assumed by the committee was to name a chairman for the study. The committee is in the process of completing this part of their assignment.

The following persons are serving on the committee: Paul Olsen, Vassar; Theodore Kramer, Unionville; Robert Peters, Kingston; Vincent Booren, Mayville; Fred Rickwalt, Darbee School, Caro; Rihard Knoblet, Brown School, Cass City; Joseph E. Liddicoat, County Superintendent, Caro.

It is hoped that the approved plan will be returned to the County Office by December and that the Area Study will be started early in January, 1953.

Final Rites Held for Tobias E. Heltebride

Mr. Tobias E. Heltebride died Sunday, November 16, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Dewey Lapeer of Cass City. He had been in ill health the past year.

Mr. Heltebride was born in Maryland October 24, 1866.

He was married to Miss Temple Philips in Camden, New Jersey, in February, 1891, where they made their home following their marriage.

In 1907, they moved to Detroit where Mr. Heltebride was employed as a motorman on the D. S. R.

They celebrated their golden wedding just previous to the death of Mrs. Heltebride in February, 1941.

He retired from his position and came to Cass City nine years ago, where he made his home with his daughter until his death.

Surviving are one daughter, Mrs. Dewey (Lucille) Lapeer of Cass City; one son, Leon, of Detroit; three sisters living in Maryland, and one grandchild. Two sons preceded him in death.

Funeral services were held Thursday at 10 a. m. at Little's Funeral Home. Rev. Melvin R. Vender officiated and burial was in the family lot in Woodmere Cemetery, Detroit.

Short Labor Supply On Nation's Farms

Labor will be one of the few farm production items which will be amplying short in 1953, report Michigan State College extension specialists in agricultural economics. Both non-defense and defense industries will draw heavily on available labor. Draft boards will keep busy. The pressure is not expected to ease before 1954 or 1955.

Wage rates on U. S. farms are up 7 per cent from 1951 and the trend is upward. Seasonal labor probably will be in very short supply in 1953 and users of migrant labor should plan well in advance. Labor-saving machinery like "once-over" tillage equipment, high-capacity grain and hay harvesting equipment and mechanical contrivances for handling grain, roughage and manure will help many farmers.

Too Liberal

On Block Island, R.I., Volunteer Fire Chief J. C. Dodge reminded subscribers that they had contributed too much money to his department last year, declared that half of their 1951 contributions would be plenty this year.

The Excuse

In Syracuse, N.Y., after Deputy Sheriff Arthur Willis stopped a car for speeding and found its four women passengers naked from the waist up, the driver explained: "Well, men drive bare-chested, don't they?"

The ladies of the W. S. C. S. had a luncheon in the Methodist Church Wednesday with a program following.

Mrs. Ralph Ward, Mrs. E. A. Livingston and Mrs. Vera Bearss, all of Cass City, were Sunday guests at the Wm. D'Arcy home.

Aw, Heck!

The San Antonio (Texas) Evening News carried a help-wanted ad for: "Executive Director, from 24 to 40. To sit at desk from 9 to 5 and watch other people work. Must be willing to play golf every other afternoon. Salary over $350 to start. (We don't have this job. We just thought we'd like to see in print what everyone is applying for.)"

Only One

The weekly Itawamba County (Miss.) Times adopted a new slogan: "The only newspaper in the world that cares anything about Itawamba County."

MICHIGAN MIRROR NEWS BRIEFS

"Food costs are high and may go higher." That's no news to Mrs. Michigan. She knows it and—evidently—accepts it.

So she's in a buying mood. She and her husband are still looking for values when they shop but they've decided that prices aren't coming down and there's no point in putting off buying the things they want.

That upsurge in buying will push prices up. At least, with little buyer resistance, there won't be pressure on merchants to cut prices to move merchandise.

Those are the conclusions drawn by Michigan State College's Department of Agricultural Economics.

The use of dry skim milk is on the increase because it is a practical way to stretch the food budget; fluid milk is likely to average more in '53.

Egg prices aren't expected to be as high this fall as they were last year but the '53 average will be higher than this year's. Canned food prices will remain about the same. A large carry-over will counteract effects of a smaller '52 pack.

Meat prices may be a little lower on a yearly average in '53. Some grades of beef and poultry will drop; some of pork will rise.

At least so say the MSC experts. Mrs. Michigan will check the accuracy of their predictions by her grocery bills.

One of the election results is that many new county officials will take over new duties come Jan. 1.

To make sure that there is no dangerous or inconvenient lag in county business because of this, the Michigan Institute of Local Government will give its fifth biennial short course for newly elected county officers at Kellough Center in East Lansing Dec. 15-17.

D. Hale Brake, state treasurer and Institute chairman, is given credit for the rapid growth of interest in grassroots government. He is also being talked about as the GOP candidate for governor in 1954. That talk is hush-hush at this stage of the game with a recount coming up on the Nov. 4 election. But his admirers, and they come from every part of Michigan, feel that his plain, straight-from-the-shoulder talking is the antidote to the personal glamor of the hard-to-stop Gov. Soapy.

Michigan history is growing in popularity. Local historical societies are doing a good job of letting the public know that there is still much valuable historical data hidden in attics of Michigan homes.

But as each year rolls along, more and more priceless material is destroyed in period housecleaning sessions. Every time a family moves, it discards accumulations that may go back to the early days of statehood. So the continued boom in homebuilding doesn't make local historians too happy.

They are happy, though, about the publicity that is being given now to a Michigan law of 1948 that permits county boards of supervisors to appropriate public funds to volunteer historical associations. "It's one of the best laws in the country," says Vernon R. Beall of the Michigan Historical Association.

Forty-two thousand red pine seedlings have been planted in Leelanau County, most of them around Empire.

Look for legislation to be introduced early in the 1953 session that would increase membership of Township Boards.

A Michigan Supreme Court decision—which received little public attention because of campaign headlines—said that Justices of the Peace may no longer serve on Town Boards. JPs are members of the judiciary and therefore are prevented by the Constitution from taking part in administrative or legislative branches of the government.

For more than a hundred years, justices have been considered regular members of such boards and the decision came as a bombshell to local governments. They hope that there will be no lawsuits to question the legality of board action taken during the century while JPs sat unconstitutionally.

Town Boards now have only three members, the supervisor, clerk and treasurer, where once they had two or four justices also. That means it's harder to get a quorum and harder to get a cross-section in deliberation.

New legislation will probably provide for two or four "board members" to make a more workable board.

The demand for birth certificates is keeping Michigan Department of Health clerks on the double these days. Dr. Albert E. Heustis, commissioner, says that the pace is approaching that of the early days of World War II.

An average of 50 persons a day personally seek copies of their certificates and the backlog of unprocessed mail requests has passed 1,000 and is increasing daily.

One of the reasons for the unusual demand is that schools are so crowded that many require a birth certificate for enrollment. Resumption of hiring by heavy industry after the steel strike also contributes to the load.

There were 384,717 new motor vehicles licensed in Michigan during 1951. Pennsylvania, Illinois and Texas surpassed this mark.

Michigan ranked seventh in the number of passenger car registrations last year with 2,218,227 of them on the road. There were 306-213 trucks and 5,877 buses adding to highway traffic.

Wayne County ranks fourth in all United States counties for motor vehicle registrations. New York City, Cook County (Chicago) and Los Angeles were 1-2-3. Wayne has one passenger car for every 3.3 persons and 10 cars for every nine families. Oakland County (Pontiac), Kent (Grand Rapids) and Genesee (Flint) are among the top 115 counties in the country.

Farmer Tells How To Raise Record Crop

How would you like to raise an average of 863 bushels of potatoes an acre over a six-year period? It can be done—in fact, it has been done by a Michigan farmer, Frank Falkies, Cornell, in Delta County. Take it from Falkies, whose 1952 yield averaged 1,083 bushels an acre for a new Michigan record, it takes lots of hard work and explicit following of growing practices recommended by Michigan State College.

Unless some other grower comes along with a better record, this will be the third year out of the last six that Falkies can claim the potato growing king crown of Michigan.

Here's how he managed his land to grow the 1952 crop. First, he follows a rotation plan that puts the field into production of potatoes only once every five years. The land is in a legume sod for three years. In 1950 this field was in alfalfa-brome grass and Falkies applied 400 pounds of 2-12-6 fertilizer to the acre. In 1951, the field was pastured by the dairy herd until August. It was cultivated 12 times and 800 pounds of 0-12-12 fertilizer was applied.

This spring he cultivated the field three times, plowed it once, went over it with a disc and planted the potato crop on May 12. Rows were spaced 30 inches apart and seed planted every seven inches. More fertilizer—1,200 pounds of 3-9-18 was used in the rows at time of planting with 88 bushels of seed to the acre. Falkies used a weeder twice and a row cultivator twice during the summer. He sprayed the field 16 times to control blight and four sprays with DDT for insect control.

In Return

In Liberty, Ky., the Casey County News advertised: "To the person who is so destitute as to be forced to take two lengths of garden hose and a sprinkler from the lawn of the First Christian Church—if you will call at the pastor's study, he will give you the five-year guarantee for the hose, your dinner, and any religion that may rub off on you."

WOMAN'S WORLD

Books Add Warmth, Decoration and Interest to Rooms

"OH, what can I do with all these books?" wails many a homemaker during her cleaning spree. More often than not, she carts them off to the attic to become covered with dust or into a basement to be covered with mildew.

Books really are a problem. They can be used, decoratively speaking, to great advantage because they add mellowness and warmth to the room in which they're housed. In addition, they do something which is often spoken as very important in interior decoration, which is, reflecting the family's interests.

Your family isn't interested in books? Then, by no means, keep them. No home has any place for useless books, either out in the living room, den, attic or basement. Why should the home house books which the family doesn't care to read or doesn't particularly care to have around? This would defeat the purposes of decoration and interest.

If your family gathers books at an amazing rate, and many families do this very thing, you'll have to weed bookshelves out regularly. Keep only those with particular interest to your own family.

When a new book has made the rounds of the family, think critically: will we use this again, as reading or as reference? If not, pass it along to someone who will enjoy it. Save those which you really want, and keep them within reach so that you can have them without searching.

Don't let space deter you from keeping the books you really want. You'd be surprised in how many easily accessible ways they can be housed.

Study Color Values When Using Many Books

When you are using many books as part of the decorative scheme, it's wise to study the color values of the room in relation to the effect they create with the books.

Books do make a heavy splash of color and add a lot of decorative weight to the room. They should be considered seriously, just as would any other large mass in the room so that the principles of balance can be carried out properly.

If there are many books to be used in the decorative scheme, it's wise to keep the room fairly strong in color values. Dark books, massed against a good part of a wall, in a pastel room, for example, would kill the effect of the delicate pastel.

Where the room is predominantly pale, the colors of the books should complete the color scheme. Use them as an accent. If the bindings are such that they would not do this, paper bindings or some similar technique may be used to make them harmonize.

Those who can afford it might always have bedraggled books rebound, when the volumes are indispensable and warrant the expense. If the expense is too great, the paper jackets mentioned above can be employed for covering poor bindings. In other cases, interesting hand-blocked linen papers and unusual fabrics such as chintz and printed linen might be used.

. . . or house in movable units

Build Room Around Books When They're Main Interest

Build the whole room around books if they're the family's interest. Rooms without fireplaces, for example, can have a handsome wall cabinet filled with books as a fine focal point.

Low dado-height bookshelves can be built across one end of a room and interesting sculpture put above them, another way of creating a center of interest.

Do you have an old upright piano that still plays well? It may look out-of-date, but not if you treat it in this way: have bookshelves built around the piano, making them deep enough to form a niche where the piano may be placed. You

WHY DO YOU CARRY INSURANCE ? ? ? ?

THE answer is easy. You carry insurance—windstorm, fire, life, auto—to protect yourself against unforeseen events.

And of course you want the best insurance you can buy for your money. But the cheapest policy is not always the cheapest in the long run. In choosing insurance, look at the record—how well the company is prepared to protect you in case of loss.

That is one of the strong points about the State Mutual Cyclone Insurance Co. of Lapeer. It has protected Michigan folks against windstorm loss for 58 years. In several storms, the loss has been above a half million dollars. Every time every loss was settled promptly and satisfactorily.

The company now has more than a million and a half in cash and U.S. bonds, putting it in the strongest position it ever has been. Yet in these times of high costs, this high reserve is needed to protect policyholders.

Besides this big reserve, the company carries re-insurance. Whenever the loss in any year goes above $450,000, this re-insurance pays the loss between $450,000 and $750,000.

Lapeer rates are low, as low as the company believes they can be now and still give policyholders the complete and certain protection they want. When and if rates can be lowered, Lapeer will be among the first to drop them. But as long as the protection of the policyholder requires it, the Lapeer company takes the right position of maintaining its present rate. Experience, covering half a century, shows that that rate is fair—and most important—that it will cover any loss.

A warning—Don't pay more for windstorm and cyclone insurance than it would cost with the Lapeer company. When you get windstorm insurance, get it from one with years of experience in the field. Watch out for the inexperience and unsafe rates.

YOU'LL BE SURE OF SAFE AND FULL PROTECTION IN THE OLD RELIABLE . . .

WOMAN'S WORLD

Change Old Make-Up To Give Vitality And Sparkle to Face

HOW LONG is it since you took a good look at your make-up? A critical look, that is. Skin changes take place from time to time and it may be that the old rouge, lipstick, powder and eye shadow no longer "do" as much as they once did.

Or have you become a bit careless about applying make-up? It's easy to get into a rut about this because you do become experienced and may not be taking as much time as formerly with it.

Changes, too, are made in the art of applying make-up. Within recent years the lipstick brush has become a widely accepted aid to applying lip rouge so that the effect is much neater than formerly. A very definite change has been made in eye make-up, too. The eyes are played up much more than previously and the "doe-eyed" look is predominant.

In addition to these, there is also the thought that it is not just accidentally that women can be beautiful. There are so few really perfect faces, yet every woman can look more attractive than nature made her by learning to play up the good features and to tone down those imperfections which all of us have.

Isn't just by chance that certain make-up does something for any woman. It's the result of careful study, some trial and error, perhaps, and a great deal of care.

Apply cream upwards...

Beauty is the reward that comes to the woman who cares enough about herself to make use of what's available in cosmetics as well as who is interested in learning just what she can do about her individual problems.

Don't Stretch Skin During Creaming

Before any woman can start to apply make-up of any kind, she has to start with a clean skin. This is achieved through proper elimination, for one thing, and that means there must be sufficient water as well as other liquids in the diet which must naturally be well-balanced.

Soap and water cleansings are essential, and so is cream cleansing. The type of cream preferred depends on your skin, normal, dry or oily. Age may play a part in the choice, too, for more mature women will need a cream which will furnish some oils to the skin which may be somewhat dried as the years go by.

Cream should always be applied in upward motions. Lines tend downwards naturally and so all motion should be gently upwards, thus helping to counteract that tendency.

Use a firm pressure on all your strokes as you start and lighten them as you move the hands upwards. If you're using a liquid preparation then keep the cotton well moistened.

If you're 10 years or more past voting age, then you'll probably have to concentrate some of the massage and cleansing with creams on your neck and jawline. Use the same type of stroke as described above, for skin on the face as well as the neck and jaw is delicate and can be stretched if massage is improperly done.

... use brush for lipstick.

Start the creaming at the neck and work upwards along the sides of the face.

Worked about lines in the forehead? Start at the tip of the nose working upwards, then finish with brisk strokes from center of forehead out, alternating.

Apply Color to Skin With Expert Touch

A foundation cream, lotion or a base of some kind will give the face smoothness which it requires for applying make-up as well blotting out small imperfections. Blend it carefully and carry it far enough in all directions so there is no demarcation line as to where it ends.

Receding chins can be improved by using a lighter foundation on

Grant Farm Bureau Holds Meeting

Chairman Howard Martin opened the regular monthly meeting of the Grant Farm Bureau held at the Williamson School Wednesday evening, Nov. 12.

Other business included the establishment of a penny fund to be used to purchase cards for ill persons and flowers for deceased persons. Each member will give a penny a month to the fund.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Pisarek attended the annual Farm Bureau meeting at Michigan State College, Nov. 13-14. Mr. Pisarek was the delegate from the club.

After the business meeting, the group played euchre and prizes were awarded to various members of the club.

Southern States Suffer Drought

Crop Loss Estimated At About $1 Billion

The southern part of the United States, which produces two-thirds of the nation's cotton, one-fifth of its corn, four-fifths of its tobacco, three-quarters of its citrus fruits, half of its beef, and a third of its milk, suffered one of the most severe droughts in its history this summer.

For six long weeks there were only scattered thundershowers over a great portion of the south, an area composed of 14 states. The drought wrought vast damage to crops and reduced livestock grazing grounds to virtual deserts.

Here are some state reports: In Kentucky, half the state's tobacco crop, usually worth $220 million, was burned.

In Virginia 25 per cent of the tobacco and corn crops and 20

The shaded area on the above map shows where the drought wilted millions of dollars worth of crops. The government declared Alabama, Georgia, Kentucky, Mississippi, Tennessee, Missouri and Arkansas "disaster loan areas." Crop damage was estimated at approximately $1 billion.

per cent of the hay crops were lost. In Alabama the state agricultural commissioner said: "The corn crop is destroyed."

In Tennessee forced sales of cattle, for lack of feed, pushed prices down $2 to $3 a hundred pounds.

In Georgia many cities were threatened with a milk shortage. Department of Agriculture officials made no estimate of the total loss, but unofficial sources said it was about $1 billion.

Two Tuscola Youths Win 4-H Awards

Two Tuscola County youths have been recognized in the national and state 4-H club awards program this year. George C. MacQueen, county 4-H club agent, announced today.

The boys and girls receiving the honors as outstanding state members in particular 4-H club projects will receive scholarships or certificates from national companies who support the 4-H program.

The local club members and their awards are Lois McMullen, 17, Mayville, and Marcelene Jacques, 17, Caro. Lois won a $100 scholarship to any college or university for her work in the 4-H jam and jellies activity. This award was made possible by the General Foods Corporation. Lois is a member of the West Mayville 4-H Club. She has been a 4-H member for seven years, having completed seven years of clothing work, four years each of canning, food preparation, junior leadership, corn, sheep and dairy. Besides these she has completed many other projects. She has made the county honor roll six times, attended 4-H Club Week at Michigan State College, exhibited at the State 4-H Show twice, and Farmers' Week grain show once. Her navy bean sample was entered in the International Hay and Grain Show in 1951. Lois has been a fine asset to her parents who are leaders of the West Mayville Club, by being a willing helper and a fine junior leader.

Marcelene was first alternate in the 4-H baking activity. She is a member of the Lewis 4-H Club and has been in the 4-H program four years. She has completed four years of food preparation, clothing and flower garden, five years junior leadership, because this project can be taken twice a year, along with several other projects.

Fertilizer Is One of Best Buys on Farm

Fertilizer is one of the best buys for most farms, urge Michigan State College extension specialists in farm management. Current estimates are for 12 per cent more nitrogen, 10 per cent more phosphates and 19 per cent more potash in 1953 than 1952. Farmers are using enough more fertilizer to offset the increases and supplies will continue tight, particularly for nitrogen. Fertilizer prices will rise, some probably less than 5 per cent. The specialists advise ordering fertilizer early.

Barnyard Economics Meeting Tuesday

The farm outlook for 1953, the latest in income tax changes, and methods of boosting profits on Tuscola County farms are the topics to be discussed at the "Barnyard Economics" meeting to be held at Millington on Tuesday, November 25, according to Alfred P. Ballweg, county agricultural agent. The meeting is being sponsored by the County Extension Office and Millington Agricultural School, and agricultural economics specialists from Michigan State College will be at hand for the meeting. The meeting will start at 1:30 p. m. at the agricultural school building.

The main part of the meeting will be built around an actual Michigan farm which has 120 acres of cropland. At the present time there is a herd of eight dairy cows, eight young stock and a small flock of laying hens on this farm. The possibilities of increasing the size of the dairy herd, building up the productivity of the cows and cutting grain and protein supplement costs by producing good quality legume roughage will be considered. The effect of these three important changes on the cropping program, investments, labor requirements, gross income, expenses and net farm income will be examined, using the very latest research results of the agricultural economics department.

The outlook for farm prices, costs and income in 1953, as the specialists see it, will be presented. The latest changes in income tax regulations which affect farmers will be discussed, along with suggestions for making the job of filing income tax returns easier.

Ballweg says that the meeting will be full of zip. The latest in visual aid materials will be used. No speech will be longer than 20 minutes; the entire meeting will last about two hours. There will be plenty of time for questions and discussion. The meeting is one the whole family will enjoy, and farm wives are especially invited to attend along with their husbands.

Reduce Feed Costs With Good Roughage

Tuscola County dairy farmers can save thousands of dollars each year by feeding cows more high-quality roughage and less grain and concentrates. They can do this and maintain milk production, reports Alfred P. Ballweg, county agricultural agent.

Michigan's dairy herd could produce more milk on several million dollars a year less feed, according to Michigan State College studies. The Michigan Agricultural Experiment Station set up tests, in cooperation with the U. S. Department of Agriculture, on six south central Michigan farms for a 300-day lactation period.

A group of cows that averaged 2,191 pounds of grain-concentrate and 7,838 pounds of roughage per cow produced the most milk, an average of 12,500 pounds per cow. A second group ate 3,109 pounds of grain-concentrate and 6,828 pounds of roughage per cow and produced an average 11,592 pounds of milk per cow. The high-concentrate group, which ate 4,426 pounds per cow, with only 6,650 pounds of roughage, produced an average per cow of 11,727—slightly higher than the medium group.

Pasture was about the same for all these test groups, reports the county agricultural agent. The concentrate was about 90 per cent farm grain and 10 per cent purchased supplements. Four farms fed mainly grass-legume mixtures put up early as grass silage and two farms fed mainly corn silage. Feed costs for the medium-concentrate group were 17 per cent higher, reports Ballweg, and 39 per cent higher for the heavy-concentrate group.

Details are available in Special Bulletin 383 (October, 1952) on "Reducing Dairy Feed Costs" which may be obtained free from your county agricultural agent or by writing Bulletin Office, Department of Information Services, MSC.

Evergreen Farm Bureau Meets

The Evergreen Farm Bureau met in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Art Meredith Tuesday evening, Nov. 11.

Chairman Elwyn McNaughton opened the meeting and the group enjoyed a discussion under the direction of Harold Falot. Discussion topic was "The breadth and reach of Farm Bureau and what it is reaching for."

The group discussed plans for the December meeting which will be held at the Shabbona Hall. It will be a Christmas party meeting.

Recreation was lead by Marie Meredith. An enjoyable lunch was served at the conclusion of the meeting.

Plant Trees Now

The Tuscola Soil Conservation District, according to its Chair-man, Dayton Davis, will have trees available for planting this spring. All transplant size stock and Scotch Pine seedling stock may be purchased for $15.00 a thousand; seedling Red and White Pine stock will be $10.00 a thousand; Jack Pine will be sold at $5.00 per thousand. Orders for these trees may be placed through the Soil Conservation District office in the courthouse, Caro. As a service to farmers desiring it, the district has a tree planter which may be rented by the farmer.

Because of the limited supply of trees available, Mr. Davis urges that farmers who desire trees, place their orders as soon as possible.

be used for completing soil and water conservation practices that would normally not be carried out because of lack of financial assist-ance, it was felt that it would be a good opportunity for many farmers to get those needed con-servation practices established.

Under the new program, it is possible to think of soil conserva-tion as a long term program, building on those practices done in the past and planning more for the coming years.

Yields per acre have been steady or they may have been higher than in the past, but not as high as you would have liked. Or they may have dropped in spite of the better seed, fertilizer and improved methods you are using. Maybe you have been overlooking the one thing that makes all other good methods most effective. That is, the proper use and management of soil.

You will want technical help on many practices to assure proper design, construction and the right combination of practices.

Davis' Holstein Completes Testing

She was milked two times daily and was two years, five months of age when she began her testing period.

Her record averages approxi-mately 19 quarts of milk daily for the period covered by her test.

Testing was supervised by the Michigan State College in coop-eration with the Holstein-Friesian Association of America.
