

Hawks Move Closer to Loop Title with Pair of Victories

Cass City moved closer to at least a share of the Thumb B loop title during the week by winning a pair of league games from Sandusky and Crosswell-Lexington.

The Hawks swamped Sandusky, 79-45, Friday and downed Crosswell-Lexington, 68-43, Tuesday.

Against Sandusky, the Hawks played one of their finer games of the season and wrapped up the game in the first half when they hit for 35 points while holding the Sanilac County seat five to 14 points.

Although their offense moved sharply along throughout most of the game, it was the defense that piled up the margin in the second stanza.

Cass City scored 18 points while Sandusky was able to make only a single field goal and two free tosses in the period.

At the intermission, the Hawks were comfortably ahead by 21 points.

Cass City continued to add to their margin in the third quarter and added three points to their lead.

In the final quarter, Sandusky was without the services of their ace center, Max Kreger, and Cass City ran wild for 28 points in the period, despite the fact that coach Irv Clasenman used his substitutes freely in the final quarter.

As usual, Tim Burdon led the scorers for both teams. He picked up 29 points on 11 field goals and seven free throws. Kreger racked up 16 markers while he was in the game.

Although most of the fans were on hand to see the varsities play, the best game of the evening for the spectators was the preliminary that went to Sandusky, 51-47.

In the game, the lead changed hands several times and with a little over a minute to go only a single point separated the two teams. A pair of gift tosses and a bucket finally made Sandusky the winner.

The reserves got on the winning side of the ledger against Crosswell-Lexington with a 60-42 decision to give the Hawks a clean sweep at the high school gymnasium Tuesday.

However, the varsity had a little more trouble downing the southern Michigan quintet this time than they did earlier in the year.

The Hawks trailed at the end of the first period, 12-13, and it was not until the latter stages of the second stanza that they pulled out in front to stay.

At the half, they led 33-22 and by the end of the third quarter they had the game well under control with a 50-30 margin.

Despite their comparatively easy victory, Cass City failed to look as impressive as they have in recent games. Their passing was erratic and they missed numerous scoring opportunities.

Burdon kept his increased scoring pace of the last few weeks alive by netting 30 points. Tuesday night's total was the result of 14 field goals and just two gift tosses.

Kenneth H. Smith Speaks at Rotary

Kenneth H. Smith, Lapeer attorney and candidate for circuit judge in Lapeer and Tuscola Counties, spoke briefly to Cass City Rotarians at their regular noonday luncheon meeting at the New Gordon Hotel Tuesday.

Mr. Smith traced the history of the law courts and explained the difference between civil court and chancery court.

"Chancery court," Mr. Smith said, "is designed to settle cases where the law is not clear—civil court decides the law as set down."

He said that sometimes deciding which court to present a case in is an arbitrary manner and could be placed in either court.

In the business meeting preceding the address, Rotarians were issued tickets to sell for the Barn Frolic, starring Bob Quinn of Cass City.

The show, slated for Feb. 19, is for the benefit of the Boy Scouts and members in charge anticipate a record crowd of 1200 persons.

The show Feb. 19 will mark the second appearance for the troupe here. Favorable comment on the first show resulted in the return performance here.

Farm Prices Still On Decline in Nation

The Agricultural Department reported a further drop of about one per cent in farm prices for the month ending Jan. 15. January marked the fifth straight month of price decline for farm commodities.

Farm prices are now approximately 11 per cent lower than they were a year ago. The trend has induced farm leaders in congress to demand that the government take action to halt the trend and stabilize prices.

Commodities which have declined between Dec. 15 and Jan. 15 include dairy products, cotton, truck crops and eggs and grains.

Slightly higher prices have been reported for hogs, calves, sheep, lambs, potatoes and some fruit.

Notice!

Sections 2 and 3 of Village Ordinance No. 42 states as follows: "No person shall harbor or keep any dog which by loud or frequent or habitual barking, yelping or howling shall cause serious annoyance to the neighborhood or to people passing to and fro upon the streets or highways."

No dog shall be permitted to roam at large upon the public streets or highways, in a public park, public building or any other public place, or any place to which the public is generally invited, unless accompanied by or is in the immediate control of its owner or some other responsible person; that every owner of a dog shall be liable for damages for any and all injuries to persons or property that may be caused by such dog on any public street, highway or other public place, to be determined and collected in appropriate legal proceedings, any failure or refusal by such owner to comply with the requirements of this ordinance shall constitute prima facie evidence of negligence."

The dog warden is instructed to impound any dog which may be causing complaint by any one rightly.

Lawyers for persons who are opposing the recently passed law prohibiting the Sunday sale of beer and wine in Tuscola County, filed suit in circuit court Thursday, Feb. 5, for alleged infractions of voting laws that could swing the results of the election.

The writ as presented in court says that "none of the clerks of election or inspectors of election had taken and subscribed the oath of office as required by the statute." The writ refers only to Elkland Township and Indianfields Township.

However, these two townships voted to close on Sundays by a total majority of 405 votes. After the recount, just 305 votes difference was recorded in the county.

If the case is decided in favor of the wet forces, all votes for Elkland and Indianfields will be discarded and the law will not be passed.

According to Tuscola County Prosecutor Bruce White, the case in the circuit court will have no bearing on the established date the Sunday closing law will go into effect.

February 18 has been set as the effective date of the law and it will be complied with. However, White pointed out, an injunction may be served on the law enforcing officers, and, if passed, could delay the closing of the affected business establishments.

The case is expected to come before Circuit Judge John Libbers March 4.

The case for the wet forces stems from the lack of signatures in the poll book. Each member of the election board is required to take an oath and then sign his name in the book.

In Indianfields and Elkland Townships, the detail was overlooked.

From the Editor's Corner

We don't pretend to know how Judge John Libbers will rule on the validity of the votes cast in Elkland and Indianfields Townships, but we interviewed two lawyers in the district to get their unofficial opinion on the case. While neither would make any flat prediction on the case, both felt inclined to believe that, according to the law, the vote in the two townships would be cast aside.

At least one family in the area will give their full share of blood when the mobile unit comes to the Presbyterian Church Feb. 18. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Neitzel each have pledged a pint of blood to the Red Cross which sponsors the drive here—co-operation of this type will help make the drive a success. Pledge cards are available at the Cass City State Bank, Pinney State Bank and the Chronicle for persons who wish to donate and have not yet signed a card.

Tuesday, Feb. 10, promises to be a busy night for persons in Cass City. That's the night of the Community Club dinner and also the night when the village caucus will be held. If you live in the village limits and are wondering which to go to, we suggest that you go to both.

Usually it takes just about 30 minutes to hold a caucus. The caucus is set for 8:15, about the time the dinner is over at the Community Club. Voters could leave immediately following the dinner, help nominate a slate of village officers and still be back in time to catch the majority of the program.

In years past, it hasn't taken too much competition to put the caucus in the back seat as far as public interest is concerned. In 1952, just nine persons attended to name the men who were to run the village.

It's Proper to Leave Spoon in Coffee Cup

You may be surprised to learn that there is one place in the civilized world where it is not only proper but desirable to leave the spoon in your coffee cup. That place is the dining-car of a fast moving train.

This bit of information comes, not from Emily Post, but from the Canadian National Railways. According to the railroad, "A spoon placed in the cup will break the waves created by the motion of the train and keep the coffee from sloshing out of the cup." Sloshing coffee has been a problem to railroads since the day the first diner set out on its maiden trip.

As long ago as 1938, the Pennsylvania railroad undertook experimental work to help them evolve the perfect coffee cup for diner service. During that long interval, their industrial designers turned up some startling ideas. One model had veins in it. Another had a straight piece of china across the middle.

The Pennsylvania considered the advantages of the spoon-in-cup idea, too, and even tried out a special coffee spoon with a cross bar on the stem to break the coffee waves. The sides of one coffee cup flared outward, but the inner rim was banded with a ring of china which was intended to discourage the coffee from leaping out.

Meals for Those Who 'Batch' Need Not Be Monotonous

For persons living alone, preparing meals and liking them call for careful food planning to avoid monotony and waste. They have a two fold problem of having regular enjoyable meals and of buying in quantities small enough for one person.

It is important not to buy too much of any one food. Large packages or cans that often save money and time for a family, may be expensive for a single person. Food purchased in quantity may spoil or become stale or at least tiresome and unappetizing.

For those who "batch", small purchases generally are thriftiest. Grocery stores today carry many good things in small packages. Markets offer a wide variety in canned vegetables, fruits, juices, fish, meats, as well as prepared cereals and other foods. Most frozen foods are packaged in quantity for four. That means two helpings for two meals or four single helpings for persons living alone.

Although meat buying is one of the most difficult buying problems, many small cuts are obtainable—cut-up chicken by the piece, sliced meats, small roasts, sliced liver, chops and small steaks. Eggs are always a good choice for single servings.

Fort Knox on Wheels

Probably the most expensive bicycle ever made in the United States was the gold-plated affair which bike manufacturers gifted to Lillian Russell, famous actress and beauty of the gay 90's, for her interest in cycling. When she pedaled down fashionable Fifth Avenue, Lillian's "golden wheel" was always the cynosure of all eyes.

Slated Milk Clinics Valuable to Farmers Say County Agents

Dairy farmers who want pointers in the control of mastitis—a disease which costs counties thousands of dollars in milk and cow losses each year—can get it at a Better Milking Clinic on Tuesday, February 24, at the Silver Bell

Skating Rink, Caro, or at Peck in Sanilac County Wednesday, Feb. 25.

The all-day program, with speakers and demonstrators from Michigan State College and several milking machine companies, is under the auspices of the Tuscola County Cooperative Agricultural Extension Service. Doors will open at 9:30 a. m. and close at 4 p. m. Farmers who have no troubles yet with mastitis can learn how to keep it out of their herds and those who have infected herds can find out how to rid their cows of mastitis.

Demonstrations will cover important herd management and milking practices such as wiping udders, dipping teat cups, keeping chlorine solutions effective, care of inflations, cleaning of vacuum lines. The little daily chores that add up to good or bad herd management will be stressed.

After the demonstrations, farmers can visit booths equipped and manned by their favorite milking machine companies. Representatives are expected from Chore-boy, Conde, Co-Op, DeLaval, Farm Master, McCormick, Rite-Way and Surge companies. One hour in the forenoon will be devoted to these company demonstrations, showing adjustments and other factors for peak efficiency.

The afternoon program will open with a motion picture showing the action in a cow's udder during milk production and what happens from poor milking. The mastitis program will continue with short lectures on "What Is Mastitis?", "What Causes Mastitis?", and "What Can The Dairyman Of This County Do To Keep The Udders of Their Cows Healthy?" Then there will be tips on better milking, followed again by a chance for farmers to visit the milking machine company booths to see proper operation of equipment in which farmers invest thousands of dollars.

Mastitis can be caused by letting milking machines get in poor condition, reminds County Agricultural Agent Alfred P. Ballweg. He advises farmers to watch local newspapers for further announcements on the Better Milking Clinic, also being publicized by radio stations and in farm meetings. He suggests that farmers bring their entire family and spend the day at the clinic; wives and young folks will get a better appreciation of dairy herd management problems he explains. Hired men who do some milking or handle calves and young stock will also gain from attendance at the Better Milking Clinic, says Ballweg.

False Belief

The idea that the rays of the moon, especially when full, will make a person insane is an old superstition. In fact, the word "lunatic" is derived from it, "luna" being the Latin for Moon. However, there is no scientific foundation for such a belief. The light of the Moon is simply reflected sunlight, very greatly weakened. Even when the Moon is full its light is only about a half-millionth of that from the noonday Sun.

Let's have sport for sport's sake and don't take it too seriously.

New Sawhorse
Fred Bille Loucks, Jr., of Menominee Falls, Wis., has just been awarded a patent on a collapsible sawhorse. His solution of the problem of how to stable a stiff-legged sawhorse has been solved by putting joints in the legs. The body of the sawhorse, from head to tail, is wood. The legs are metal tubes. The legs fit into shoulder and hip plates, hinged to the body. When the sawhorse is not working it can be stored away by folding the legs against the body.

An Open Letter To You as a Voter

John G. Libbers

Dear friend;

May I call your attention to the Non-Partisan Primary Election on Monday, February 16th, for Circuit Judge of Tuscola and Lapeer Counties.

I would like to continue as your Judge for a full term. To that end I respectfully solicit, and would deeply appreciate your support and vote at the February 16th Election.

I wish time would permit me to call on you personally, but my court duties make that impossible.

My campaign is being conducted only by my friends, not by any special-interest group. My aim, as your present judge, and if returned to that office, is to deal out justice without fear or favor. Our Country and our Government are safe only as long as people respect and trust the Courts of the land. If you agree with that aim, I am sure you will vote Feb. 16th.

Thanking you, I am
Sincerely and in humility,
John G. Libbers
Your present Circuit Judge.

VOTE - Non Partisan Primary Monday, February, 16th.

As many as five female anis, or tropical cuckoos, may lay their eggs in the same nest, but only one female stays at the nest to incubate or "baby sit" while the others go their separate ways.

Giant Wings

The man of war, or frigate, bird is a genuine feathered airplane. The enormous stretch of its wings measures 7½ feet across.

Moving Glaciers

During the warm season the ice near the edge of a glacier may move forward a few inches per day, on the average, while several feet per day would be considered rapid. The record for speed seems to be that of the Black Rapids Glacier in Alaska. For several months in 1936 a speed of 115 feet per day was recorded, probably on account of an exceptionally heavy snowfall. This glacier is about 13 miles long.

Epilepsy Is Muscular And Mental Seizure

Epilepsy is a Greek word meaning seizure. However, all seizures are not caused by epilepsy. When a person has an epileptic seizure, or fit, or attack, he usually loses consciousness or control of his muscles.

For one person it may be only a slight twitch of one group of muscles; for another it may be a jerking of the entire body. The most common types of epilepsy are petit mal (pronounced petty mahl) and grand mal. In petit mal, the person blacks out for only a few seconds or less. Rarely does he fall.

In grand mal, the person usually blacks out and falls. His body jerks and he may stay unconscious for a longer period.

Only a doctor who knows the latest ways for treating epilepsy can decide which medicine best suits each child. He may have to try more than one medicine.

Clean, uncrowded feed lots and clean feeding and watering equipment are among the best safeguards against coccidiosis in feeder calves, Michigan State College specialists remind.

Extension Leaders to Meet in Caro Soon

Making the old hat look like new will be demonstrated at meetings now being planned by the home economics extension groups of Tuscola County.

Miss Jean E. Gillies, county home demonstration agent, announces that a leaders' meeting has been scheduled on Tuesday, February 10, and Monday, February 16, at the Wilber Memorial 4-H Building from 10:00 a. m. until 3:30 p. m.

The lesson, "New Hats from Old," will include instructions on the cleaning and blocking of hats, freshening of veils and ribbons and the retrimming of hats.

Now to reduce the millinery bill, save material and yet have a hat which adds to one's appearance is of interest to every woman.

Practically every woman has an old hat which she wishes she might wear. It may be one which she has enjoyed but is now outdated or soiled, or it may be one which was a mistake in the first place. With planning, perseverance and a little "know how," most women can clean and retrim an old hat and give it a new, up-to-date look.

MICHIGAN MIRROR NEWS BRIEFS

This business of raising more money for the state has our lawmakers in a tizzy. Committee doors are locked while the boys talk it over and legislators skulk around making behind-the-hand conversations for all the world like the picture version of a spy filled French cafe.

It's even dangerous. A page boy got involved in a hare and hounds affair and narrowly escaped injury. Sen. George N. Higgins, formidable chairman of the senate finance committee, about to closet himself in a committee room with Sen. Carlton H. Morris (R-Kalamazoo) was so anxious to avoid a reporter who was dogging him, that he leaped into the room and slammed the door—smack on the innocent page boy who was just leaving the room.

Higgins grunted, the page boy squealed, the reporter had his only laugh of the day.

But the work is beginning to take shape. Out of the fog of diversionary issues and personal spats the shadow of three sources whereby the lawmakers can lay their hands on some quick cash is slowly taking shape.

They are:

1. Renegade measures.
2. Citizens Tax Study commission recommendations.
3. Compromise measures.

Under the classification of renegade measures is included such items as the proposal to take over the $50,000,000 veterans trust fund; Sen. Charles S. Blondy's bill to claim $2,000,000 in breakage from the race tracks. (With the parimutuels betting system anything less than a dollar is considered breakage and the winner is paid to the nearest dollar. State formerly got one-half of this. Sen. Blondy would take it all.)

Others would be the proposed tax on mineral rights and the usual loopholepluggers. Governor Williams' corporation profits tax also will come under this heading, since it isn't a part of any overall plan.

Just what the recommendations of the Citizens Tax Study Commission will be is a highly guarded secret. The commission has been meeting for two years. It is composed of 53 men from representative walks of life, and, therefore, is torn with a bit of turmoil from within. Just recently the Michigan Municipal League, the Michigan Education Association and the League of Women Voters hauled their representatives out of the meetings on the grounds that the entire program is being dictated by industry.

But Senator Higgins claims the commission does have a program and that bills carrying that program's recommendations all will be introduced by February 10.

One of these bills is sure to include a tax on unincorporated business and partnerships.

And now for the compromise measures. It long has been recognized that both Democrats and Republicans are aware of the seriousness of the state's empty pockets. They will have to get together sooner or later.

And so Gov. Williams has been meeting with tax and financial leaders of both chambers. They have met behind locked doors. Everyone is keeping tensely quiet. And so what progress they have made is not known.

However, one Republican announced that he is getting leery of the whole business. "Williams won't commit himself," he growled. "We try to work something out and he wants to be a politician."

Williams has said that he hasn't plumped for his corporations tax—and that is all.

The $35,000,000 advance payment on the corporation franchise duties will give the state a quick shot in the arm. But what happens when the reckoning comes and the state has to give the corporations actual credit due for the money?

Unless, of course, by that time the franchise tariff has been increased and the state doesn't owe the money any more.

Now from all these sources the state surely can find enough wherewithal to stem the tide of red ink, at least temporarily. Currently the house of representatives has announced it won't act on any tax bills until the entire tax program of the senate is known. That should be within the next two weeks.

Good many of these proposals will go by the boards. The Democrats still hold a couple of hole cards if they don't like any of the measures. The G. O. P. can't get a two-thirds majority in the house to give any bills immediate effect—and the tax bills aren't much use now if they don't get that treatment—and Gov. Williams still holds the veto hammer in the front office.

But Republicans are confident—and don't forget, the legislature can do anything!

Sulphur Mining

Suntanned workmen stay at the surface in mining sulphur at depths of 500 to 1,500 feet by the ingenious Frasch process. A one-inch pipe within a three-inch pipe, both encased within a six-to-eight-inch pipe, is sunk to the sulphur deposit. Very hot water sent down the outer pipe melts the brimstone at its base. Compressed air in the smallest pipe forces the liquefied sulphur to the surface through the middle-size pipe.

Mites and Aphids

Mites and aphids suck plant juices, mostly from leaves. Aphids are true insects with six legs and produce as many as 16 generations a season, mostly bearing their young alive. Mites have eight legs, are not true insects and belong to the spider family. They lay eggs and a new generation appears every 20 days during hot weather.

Inside A Gun Barrel

What about looking through the walls of gun barrels to see what happens inside when a shotgun shell or cartridge is fired? It is being done every day in the research laboratories of Remington Arms Company. The "eye" is an X-ray camera which takes pictures at speeds of one-millionth of a second. Tests with the apparatus have given remarkable pictures of guns, bullets and shot charges. Pictures of the shot charge in the barrel and in all stages of its travel down the bore, even including passage through the choke, are taken and studied. Photographs of the initial separation of shot while still in the cloud of gas at the muzzle of the gun are also among the unusual study photographs taken with a one-millionth of a second exposure. The pictures more clearly show the chain of events which take place in the firing of a shotgun shell or cartridge than any other method heretofore devised.

New pigs may be saved from starving and hypoglycemia by checking the sow's milk supply; breeders will ward off winter and early spring chills, advise Michigan State College specialists.

Here Are Some Tips On Home Safety

More people are injured in the home than any other place. And more injuries to women seem to occur in the kitchen than any other room. With those facts in mind, here are some concrete suggestions about making your home a safer place to live.

Cuts are the most common injury, so take precautions by avoiding improper use and storage of knives, broken china and glass and sharp-edged cans and metal parts on tools and equipment.

Never throw sharp knives in a drawer with other tools, and don't put them in a dishpan with other dishes. A knife rack should be within easy reach and so constructed that the hand does not come in contact with sharp points or edges.

Burns are the second most common injuries. Usually they result from carelessness and thoughtlessness. Turn on hot water faucets cautiously, turn pan handles away from the edge of the range so they can't be knocked or pulled off, and use pans that have flat bottoms with securely-fastened handles.

Play in the nighttime kills more people than hard work in the daytime.

Speakers Argue for Use of Grass Silage

Some strong arguments in favor of grass silage were presented last week during Farmers' Week at Michigan State College, reports Alfred P. Ballweg, county agricultural agent. Carter M. Harrison, Michigan State College farm crops research specialist, said that all legumes, plus sudan, brome, timothy, reed canary and quack grasses and oats, barley and wheat can be made into good grass silage. James G. Hays, Michigan State College dairyman, stressed value of feeding grass silage to dairy cattle.

Robert Butzer of Calhoun County, Fred Savage of Jackson County and Harold Klockziem of Shiawassee County told of their own farm success, respectively, with trench silage, stack silage and the wilting method.

Baby Seals

Visitors to the seashore at Huntington, England, were asked not to pet baby seals there. The seals, it was explained, liked the display of affection so much they refused to return to their herd.

Some Serving Tricks Help Add Glamour To Low Cost Meals

SOME special main dish recipes, treated to a few simple serving tricks and good imagination are all that are needed to add festive airs to low cost meals.

The days of roasts, steaks and chops are few and widely scattered in the average home, but the meals can be palatable and pleasing just the same. In addition, hearty main dishes are just the thing you need for busy days with cold whipping the appetites to a new high pitch.

You've heard of fruit cobbler, of course? How about this cobbler made with salmon for a real taste treat?

Salmon Cobbler with Parsley Pinwheels (Serves 4)

- 1 10½-ounce can peas
- 1 8-ounce can salmon
- 2 tablespoons butter
- 1 tablespoon minced onion
- 1 tablespoon minced green pepper
- ¼ cup diced celery
- 2 tablespoons flour
- 1 cup evaporated milk
- Liquid from peas and salmon plus water to make ½ cup
- ¼ teaspoon salt
- Few grains pepper
- Few grains cayenne
- ½ teaspoon thyme
- 2 teaspoons lemon juice

Drain peas and salmon, saving liquids for sauce. There will be about 1 cup drained peas. (That amount of cooked peas may be used in place of the canned, if desired.) Discard bones, then flake salmon coarsely. Melt butter over low heat. Add onion, green pepper and celery, and cook until onion is yellow. Blend in flour. Gradually add milk and other liquid. Continue cooking, stirring constantly, until sauce is smooth and thickened. Add seasonings and lemon juice, and mix thoroughly. Stir in salmon and peas. Pour into a greased 1½-quart casserole or 4 individual casseroles. Bake in hot (450° F.) oven until mixture is heated through, 12 to 15 minutes. Top with parsley pinwheels and serve immediately.

Salmon Cobbler with peas is a tempting main dish with pinwheel parsley biscuits. Make the salmon mixture ahead of time, then heat in the casserole at the same time the biscuits are baked so that both come piping hot from the oven.

Ham Casserole (Serves 6)

- 2 cups diced cooked ham
- 1 No. 2 can (2 cups) green peas, drained
- 1 can (1½ cups) condensed cream of mushroom soup
- 4 medium-size sweet potatoes, cooked
- ½ teaspoon cinnamon
- ¼ teaspoon salt
- 2 tablespoons butter or substitute

Mix ham, peas and soup; pour into a lightly greased 1½-quart casserole. Mash hot sweet potatoes; season with cinnamon, salt and butter. Beat until fluffy. Heap sweet potatoes on top of ham mixture. Bake hot (425° F.) oven 20 to 25 for 30 minutes.

You neither add water nor baste meat when it is to be roasted. Place fat side up, the melting fat bastes the roast naturally.

Rosy Rice Ring Good With Eggs

Rosy Rice Ring (Serves 6-8)

- 1½ cups rice
- 2½ cups tomato juice
- 2 teaspoons salt
- ½ cup ripe olives
- 1½ cups grated sharp American cheese
- ½ cup thinly sliced celery
- ½ cup thinly sliced onion
- 2 tablespoons chopped green sweet pepper
- ¼ cup chopped parsley
- ¼ cup chopped pimento

Wash rice, add tomato juice and salt and heat to boiling. Cover closely and cook over very low heat 20 to 25 minutes, until liquid is absorbed and rice is tender. Cut olives from pits into large pieces. Stir olives, cheese, green vegetables and pimento lightly. Add hot rice with a large fork. Pack into oiled 8 inch ring mold or leaf pan. Bake in a moderate (350° F.) oven 10 to 15 minutes. Unmold onto serving plate. Serve with creamed eggs, or any desired sauce.

Tamale Pie (Serves 6)

- 1 pound ground beef
- 1 large onion, chopped
- 1 can tomato soup
- 2 cups water
- 1 teaspoon salt
- ½ teaspoon pepper
- 1 tablespoon chili powder
- 1 cup whole kernel corn (drained)
- ½ cup chopped green pepper

Topping:
½ cup corn meal
1 tablespoon flour
1 tablespoon sugar
1½ teaspoons baking powder
½ teaspoon salt
1 beaten egg
½ cup milk
1 tablespoon melted shortening

1 cup sliced prunes
½ cup sliced figs

¼ teaspoon nutmeg
¼ teaspoon cloves
¼ teaspoon allspice
½ cup nut meats
½ cup grape juice (about)

Put prepared fruit through meat grinder. Add salt, spices and nuts and blend in grape juice to moisten. Form into small cones and roll in granulated sugar. Serve garnished with candied cherries and with flavored whipped cream.

Pudding Sauce*

- 1 cup sugar
 - 2 tablespoons cornstarch
 - 1 cup boiling water
 - Pinch ground mace
 - Dash nutmeg
 - 2 tablespoons butter
 - 1 tablespoon wine vinegar
- Mix sugar and cornstarch. Gradually stir in the boiling water. Cook over low heat, stirring gently, until sauce becomes clear and glossy which indicates that cornstarch is perfectly cooked. Add spice and simmer 1 minute. Add butter and wine vinegar. A delicious sauce for all kinds of hot puddings.

Hard Sauce

- ½ cup butter or substitute
 - ½ teaspoon nutmeg or ground mace
 - 1 cup confectioner's sugar
 - 2 tablespoons orange or lemon juice
- Beat butter or substitute until soft. Mix sugar and spice and add a small amount at a time, beating as you add. Add orange juice as needed to make sauce easy to beat. Serve over puddings.

The rosy complexion of this rice ring comes from the tomato juice in which the rice is cooked. It may be served with creamed eggs or meat, spiced with a garnish of ripe olives.

Lynn Says:

Place pans in oven in a way that will allow heated air to circulate freely about them. Never arrange pans so that they touch each other, the side walls or the back of the oven.

Canned vegetables should be cooked in their own juices. Bring quickly to boiling point, then decrease heat. It requires about 10 minutes to reheat food.

A wide spatula is an excellent utensil for turning food, as a fork which pierces the food tends to release valuable juices.

Follow Safety Theme To Avoid Accidents

"You can't go wrong if you follow the advice given in the theme of the new national traffic safety campaign, 'Know and Obey the Traffic Laws,'" according to Sgt. John C. Carstensen, commander of the Bad Axe post of the Michigan State Police, and Steve Orto of the Cass City Police Department.

"That's the title selected by the National Safety Council and a good one it is," said Carstensen. "And the campaign slogan fits right in, 'Don't Learn Traffic Rules By Accident!'"

In Michigan the campaign is sponsored by the State Safety Commission, with municipal, county and state police cooperating as well as safety organizations and others.

"Just knowing the traffic rules is not enough," he stated. "You've got to obey them. Even the unintentional and thoughtless violator causes just as bad a smashup as does the deliberate, reckless driver. And seven out of every 10 fatal accidents are the results of violations on the part of one or more drivers."

"Last year 49,000 persons were killed or injured on Michigan streets and highways. That's equal to the population of a good sized city. There were 165,000 accidents."

Dairy Profit Future Bright for Farmers

Production of Milk Level for 10 Years

Profit prospects are reported the brightest in years for dairy farmers who boost milk production per herd and cut output costs.

Some dairy specialists are predicting scarcities of fluid milk in many markets this fall, with rising price trends.

Milk production has shown practically no increase in the past 10 years, whereas the nation's population has increased by more than 20 million.

The U.S. Department of Agriculture's bureau of agricultural economics points out that the output of milk per person has reached a record low of about 730 pounds for 1952, compared with the 1935-39 average of 820 pounds. For every 5 farmers selling milk or dairy products in 1945, only 4 farmers were selling these products in 1950.

Good pastures make full milk pails. It is the one means available to the American farmer to increase the nation's static milk supply.

"All things considered, dairy farmers who keep operating costs low should make money in months to come," say dairy specialists of the Middle West Soil Improvement Committee.

"One of the best opportunities for cutting milk production costs lies in good pasture management. Economists figure that feed represents about 50 per cent of the cost of producing milk. Pasture is the cheapest feed a farmer can grow."

"Getting succulent, cow-filling pasture involves several steps. Liming, where needed is the No. 1 step."

Sufficient Protein

Doctors point out that even a quart of milk a day will not provide sufficient protein for adequate growth and development, and added: "The consumption of this much milk at certain ages is likely to spoil the child's appetite for the solid foods, such as meat, eggs and cheese, that make a much greater protein contribution in proportion to their bulk."

Traffic Fatalities

Last year, 37,100 Americans were killed in traffic accidents.

Color Touches

Smart women add thrilling color touches to their clothes by the simple expedient of putting scarves into unusual accessory roles. A low cut dress or one with a bolero can be made more effective with a scarf manipulated around the neckline. You might want to slit a belt so that a smart scarf can be tucked in there.

terranean and plans to spend some time in Italy, making an extensive visit of Rome.

She leaves the cruise at Lisbon, taking the grand tour of Europe.

Mrs. Champion will spend some ten days or more in the Holy Land where she plans to get a closer and more authentic picture on the Christmas Holy Scene, which she has the past two years so beautifully portrayed in Cass City. This, she believes, is like painting a picture, to know your subject well before beginning to paint. Her plans are, thru observing and studying at close range, to get a more authentic and accurate picture of that First Christmas so that next year she may convey that thought in her display and bring the story even closer to the many observers.

"Grandma Champion's Christmas Story," in book form, was enjoyed by hundreds of children as well as grownups this last Christmas.

Mrs. Champion will be coming home on the S. S. United States, embarking from Southampton and arriving in New York the latter part of April.
