

Hawks Claim Thumb B Loop Title with Two Victories

Cass City clinaxed the Thumb B Conference basketball title Tuesday night with a victory over Bad Axe at the high school gymnasium. The win, coupled with Marlette's third defeat of the year, wrapped up the loop crown for the Hawks who are undefeated in league competition.

Tuesday night's victory was the second of the week for Cass City. On Friday they set a new school and conference scoring record when they racked up a 96-67 victory.

They play at Marlette tonight and next Friday face Vassar in the final regular season game of the year.

The Hawks might have easily passed the hundred mark against Caro if they had played with their regulars all the way. They ranged for 53 points in the first half and then with many of the reserves seeing action in the final two stanzas, they scored 43 more.

The huge score indicated the nature of the game. Caro's defense was negligible and Cass City poured in for buckets almost at will.

Tim Burdon, who is setting scoring records for the school, had the biggest first half of his career as he scorched the hoop for 26 points in the first two quarters. He finished with a total of 39 points for the evening.

High scorers were numerous in the game. Caro's Don Hoyer whipped in 30 and Bob Wallace netted 20 for Cass City. Willard Dickerson scored 19 to take second place honors in Caro's individual scoring race.

Cass City dropped the reserve contest in a close game, 50-43.

Tuesday night, against Bad Axe, the Hawks started rolling after a slow first period to register an easy victory.

The Huron quintet opened the game with a slow, controlled ball offense and it kept the score close during the first stanza.

The lead changed hands several times in the opening few minutes before Cass City opened up a narrow margin. At the end of the period they were in front, 16-12.

In the first minutes of the second quarter, the Hawks registered three quick baskets and Bad Axe changed tactics. In an effort to close the gap, they went into a free shooting game and Cass City took advantage of their type game to whip in 26 points before the intermission, while holding Bad Axe to 14.

In the final two quarters, Cass City pulled farther into the lead. They scored 17 in the third and 21 in the fourth, while Bad Axe was able to register only 12 in the third and six points in the final quarter.

The Cass City reserves gained an even split for the week by dumping the Bad Axe seconds, 62-48. Although Cass City led all the way, the game was close most of the way. In the final minutes, the Hawks pulled away for their commanding lead.

Comment scored 17 points in the victory effort.

Churchill Explains Future Area TV To Local Rotarians

Kenneth Churchill, Cass City, told members of the Cass City Rotary Club what to expect from television in this area in the near future. Speaking at the luncheon meeting Tuesday noon, Mr. Churchill said that in the near future, 15 stations will be available to set owners in the Cass City area.

Among these will be a station at Saginaw that is expected to be operating in the near future and is expected to give the area good TV reception.

Some Detroit stations are improving their equipment, Mr. Churchill asserted, and should move Cass City into what is termed a class "B" reception area. "Class B" reception is reception similar to that received in Imlay City and is good reception," Mr. Churchill said.

According to Mr. Churchill, television is making gigantic strides in the United States. Permits have been issued by the government for 2,000 stations and sales of sets have increased each year.

Turning to the technical side of the picture, he said that nearly any nationally advertised set will provide good reception.

Mr. Churchill said that off-brands probably work all right in primary television areas, but could well cause trouble in fringe areas such as Cass City.

Alfred Freeman Loses Battle With Infantile Paralysis

Funeral services for Alfred William Freeman, 14, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Alfred Freeman, were held at the Deford Methodist Church Thursday.

Alfred died Sunday of infantile paralysis in the Saginaw County Contagious Hospital. He had been battling the disease for 3½ months and died after seemingly being on the road to recovery.

His condition was so much better that he no longer needed an iron lung.

Alfred was born in Kingston Township Feb. 2, 1939. He attended the Wilmot School where he was in the eighth grade.

Surviving, besides his parents, are: Two brothers, Donald, at home, and Pfc. Gilbert Freeman, stationed in Germany, and two sisters, Mrs. John Borek of Kingston and Miss Jacklene Freeman, at home.

At the March meeting, new secret pals will be drawn.

Guests for the club's February meeting were: Miss Flossie Crane, Mrs. Clare Carpenter and Mrs. Fred Darbee.

Re-count Sure in Huron - Sanilac Race

A re-count seems assured in the Sanilac-Huron race for Circuit Judge, Leonard J. Paterson, Applegate, was narrowly beaten by Charles W. Rigney and Arthur M. Bach, Bad Axe attorney.

Mr. Paterson said that he felt he owed it to his supporters to ask for a re-count. The official canvass in both counties is completed. The totals show Bach with 3,659; Rigney, 3,648, and Paterson, 3,641.

The canvass of Sanilac County resulted in one additional vote for Mr. Paterson and disqualification of one vote for Mr. Rigney.

At the present time, only seven votes difference is recorded between Mr. Rigney and Mr. Paterson.

Thumb EUB Men Meet in Cass City

About 40 men from 11 Evangelical United Brethren Churches in the Thumb district attended a men's workshop in Salem Evangelical U. B. Church here Tuesday.

The meeting was sponsored by the state brotherhood, president of which is Mr. Ralph C. Klump of Blissfield, Michigan.

The main speaker was Dr. W. R. Montgomery of Dayton, Ohio, the adult director of Christian education of the general board.

There were two workshops; one on a workable program of stewardship and tithing for the church, under the direction of Dr. Montgomery, the second on increasing attendance in the worship and Sunday School through visitation evangelism. The program was under the direction of Rev. Stanley Forkner, director of Christian education of the Michigan conference of the E. U. B. Church.

Hard to Believe; Hawks Once Won Tournament, 6-4

The record scoring game against Caro Friday evening when Cass City scored 96 points and Caro netted 67, sent the Chronicle staff through old editions trying to find the lowest scoring game in the history of the school.

While thumbing through the old editions, we came across scores that resemble a baseball game.

In February of 1922, Cass City won a thriller from Caro, 10-9. The rock-ribbed defense of the local quintet shutout Caro without a point in the last half.

Victory scores like 19-9, 16-14, 23-41 were fairly common in the editions around 1930.

Lowest scoring game that researchers found came in the district tournament when Cass City defeated Bad Axe, 6-4.

The score probably wouldn't have been so gigantic if the game hadn't gone into double overtime. At the end of the regulation distance, both teams were tied at four-all.

After a scoreless first overtime, Gowan scored Cass City's only field goal of the game to win the Class "C" title for Cass City.

The box score lists Gowan, Ruhl, Edgerton, Ross, Pinney, Kelly and Crandell on the team.

Although that game was the lowest scoring contest we could uncover in the Chronicle files, Supt. Willis Campbell says that in 1922, the Hawks defeated Pigeon, 2-0, for what undoubtedly is the lowest scoring game ever played by Cass City and possibly by any two basketball teams anywhere.

Group Tours Ford Plants in Detroit

The Cass City Young Farmers Class toured the Ford tractor assembly plant and an assembly plant of the Ford Motor Company Monday.

The group saw Ford tractors and cars assembled and then took a bus tour of many of the other Ford plants in the Detroit area.

The trip was sponsored by Larry Roberts of the Cass City Tractor Sales. Those making the trip Monday were: Roy Benson, Fred Milligan, Milton Hnatuck, Eugene Kloc, Wayne Peddie, Chester Dord, Duane Rushlo, Eldon Stoutenburg, Stanley Anker, Howard Anker and Fred Mathews.

The program will be presented free by the Saginaw group. Connected with the chorus is Don Borg, formerly of Cass City, who, together with Jack Peterson, is an assistant director of the choir.

According to Alma P. Golsterer, publicity director for the organization, a complete program and picture will be sent here in time for publication in next week's paper.

Two Parties For Matthew Pisarek On 100th Birthday

Matthew Pisarek, retired Gagetown farmer, was feted on his 100th birthday this week when relatives and friends gathered at the home of his son, Michael, to honor him with two birthday parties.

A pre-birthday dinner was served to 40 guests, the children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren of Mr. Pisarek.

At the dinner were relatives from Wayne, Dearborn and Detroit.

The second party celebration of Mr. Pisarek's 100th birthday was staged Tuesday evening, when friends and neighbors attended for a buffet lunch and card party.

Mr. Pisarek was born in Germany. He lived there until he moved to the United States when 45 years old.

He saved enough money while working for a construction company for two years to purchase a small farm in Wayne County near Detroit and move his family to this country.

He converted his land into a truck farm and for 42 years continued to do a great share of the work. He directed the operations of the farm until he was well past his 80th birthday.

Six years ago he moved with his son and family to Tuscola County after purchasing the Purdy farm near Gagetown.

Ten children were born in the family—seven are now living. Six of the seven are boys. They are: Joseph, Matthew, Jr., Frank, John, Harold and Michael. The only daughter living is Mrs. Francis Coopersmith.

Mr. Pisarek has 10 grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Presbyterians Hear Gross - Little Speak

James Gross and Harry Little, delegates to the National Council of Presbyterian Men meeting in Chicago recently, were lay preachers at the Cass City Presbyterian Church Sunday.

Their speech marked the second successive Sunday that lay leaders had taken the pulpit at the church. Arthur Holmberg was the first lay preacher and he told of the series of calls which came to men of the Bible.

Mr. Gross commented on the meeting in Chicago and spoke on the convention theme, "Come and See."

He said that the meeting showed the deeper reality of the Christian life and the broader program of the church and its call and challenge to men.

He told the congregation of the need to enlist the manpower of the church. He pointed out that the present and potential manpower of the church must be enlisted.

Briefly reviewing the history of the church, Mr. Gross quoted convention speaker, Dr. William Meyer.

"The first century church was strong in its outreach because we in the ranks were at work," He pointed out that manpower is

Libbers, Quinn Win Nomination For Circuit Judge

Area townships strongly supported the two Tuscola County candidates for circuit judge of the Lapeer-Tuscola district at the primary election Monday.

Five townships, Ellington, Elmwood, Kingston, Novesta and Elkland, totaled 338 votes for Timothy C. Quinn, 186 votes for Roland O. Kern, 69 votes for Judge John G. Libbers and 33 votes for Kenneth H. Smith.

Despite the huge pluralities for Quinn in this area, he ran second to Judge Libbers in the two-county race.

The unofficial vote count gave Judge Libbers 2,417 votes and Quinn 2,230 votes for the full term judge nomination.

The two men will be on the ballot for the April 6 final election. Eliminated as candidates were Kern and Smith. Kern polled 1,689 votes and Smith was given 846 votes.

As expected, a light vote was cast in the non-partisan election. Total vote in Tuscola County was 3,653.

In the balloting to name the candidates to fill the unexpired term of the late Judge George W. DesJardins, Judge Libbers received 2,383 votes; Quinn, 2,068; Kern, 1,496, and Smith, 846.

The person elected to the short term will serve from the time of the election to Jan. 1, 1954.

Elkland Supports Quinn.

Quinn received very strong support from Elkland Township. He polled twice as many votes as all of the other three candidates combined. His total in the township was 161. Kern received 47; Judge Libbers, 27, and Smith, 6.

In the race to fill the vacancy, Quinn did nearly as well. He picked up 133 votes while Kern had 50, Libbers 28 and Smith 5.

Novesta Township.

Voting in Novesta Township for full term: Kern, 21; Judge Libbers, 10; Quinn, 41, and Smith, 4.

To fill the vacancy: Kern, 20; Judge Libbers, 9; Quinn, 36 and Smith, 2.

Ellington Township.

Vote for full term: Judge Libbers, 4; Quinn, 31; Smith, 1, and Kern, 35.

In Elmwood Township the voters favored Quinn by a narrow margin. The results: Judge Libbers, 18; Quinn, 67; Smith, 19, and Kern 48.

Kingston Township results were as follows: Judge Libbers, 10; Quinn, 38; Smith, 3, and Kern 35.

From the Editor's Corner

Persons in townships who have yet to hold their caucus could do well to emulate the enthusiasm shown by voters in Sebawaing recently.

Two-hundred and forty-two persons turned out to help nominate the village slate. Sebawaing has a population of a little over 1,300—about 400 persons less than Cass City, where 40 attended.

If nothing unforeseen occurs, Clerk Wilma Fry reports that a quiet council meeting is slated for next week. On the agenda Tuesday will be accepting the assessor's roll, setting the board of review day and a report from the Water Resources Board. However, many times the most interesting items at the council come from complaints or suggestions from citizens that are not on the regular agenda.

The Cass City area can be proud of its record in donating blood. Your editor learned Thursday morning that 106 persons contributed blood Wednesday. In addition, 18 volunteers were rejected as donors—a total of 124 persons who were willing to help the cause. Authorities from the department of health said that it was an outstanding record for a community the size of Cass City. You are to be congratulated.

Many Local Scouts Honored at Court Of Honor in Caro

More than 120 boys and parents from Cass City attended the annual Court of Honor and potluck dinner at the Caro High School gym February 11. They represented the Cub Pack for boys 8-10 years old, the Scout Troop for boys 11-13, and the Explorer Crew for boys 14 and older. The meeting was a part of the scout week celebration of the 43rd anniversary of the Boy Scouts of America.

The rank of Star Scout, the highest given at this meeting, was awarded to four members of Troop 194: Stuart Little, Douglas Gingham, Jack Perry and Ron Fleenor. Four Cass City boys were awarded First Class rank: Charles Patterson, Fred McConkey, Robert Hunter and James McCarthy.

Six boys from the local troop were among those given Second Class rank: Don Lorenzen, Clayton Neiman, Roger Spencer, Brent Connell, Billy Freeman and Edward Freeman. The Polar Bear award, a special recognition in the Valley Trails Council to boys who demonstrate winter camping skill by sleeping out overnight between December and March without a tent or cabin and doing their own cooking, was given to Bob Baker, Stuart Little, Jack Perry and Ron Fleenor.

Merit badges were awarded to Stuart Little, James McCarthy, Dick Dillman, James MacTavish, Dick Hanby, Ron Fleenor and Jack Perry from Cass City.

Among the scouters who assisted in making the presentations were: Edward Baker, council vice-president; Dr. E. C. Fritz, pack committee chairman, and Harold Oakley, scoutmaster, from Cass City.

Both the Cass City units, Troop 194 and Pack 194, led by Cubmaster John Ryan, were given the Presidential award streamer for highest efficiency rating during 1952.

Guests of honor included many professional football stars and Muddy Ruel, director of the Detroit Tiger Farm Clubs.

Better Milking Clinic Scheduled Tuesday

February 21 will be a "big day" for Tuscola County dairy farmers, advises Alfred E. Ballweg, county agent and member of the general committee in charge of the county event. It will be a big day because dairymen will learn how to make more money by mastering mastitis. Come to the Silver Bell Skating rink, Caro, on Tuesday, February 21, to "The Better Milking Clinic." The doors open at 9:30 a. m., close at 4:00 p. m. Coffee and donuts will be served by the sponsoring committee. The morning program will be all as important as that in the afternoon. The dairy department of Michigan State College is leading up the show. Eight milking machine companies are helping. There will be talks—short ones—by members of the dairy department and the veterinary department. There will be a demonstration on why and how to clean a vacuum line. There will be a road movie showing how to milk cows to keep mastitis down. There will be ample chance to visit with a representative of your milking machine company as to the most efficient use of your machine. The representative will not try to sell you anything, just try to help you realize the best use out of your present equipment, said Ballweg.

Members of the sponsoring committee and in general charge of all arrangements are: George Berth, of Berth Implement Company, Caro; Perry Gramm, Western Auto Supply, Caro; Jim Hyde, International Harvester Company, Caro; Harold Stetshol, Perfection Milker, Caro; Floyd Ducker, area representative for Sarge milker, Mayville; Clarence Jones, Hines Farm Supply, Caro; and Wes Hagen, Farm Service Advisor, Detroit Edison Company, Caro.

Other individuals and business concerns in Caro and surrounding area who have helped to sponsor the clinic will be listed in a later issue of this paper.

Gagetown Soldier On Leave in Japan

Army Cpl. Edward J. LaPave, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. LaPave, Gagetown, recently spent a five-day vacation from Korea on a rest and recuperation leave in Japan.

He stayed at Nara, one of Japan's most famous resort cities, where the Army has set up an extensive recreational center for combat soldiers enjoying a respite from battle.

LaPave arrived in the Far East last June and is currently assigned to a security platoon in the 2d Infantry Division's 38th Infantry Regiment.

He entered the Army in January, 1952, and received his basic training at Fort Belvoir, Va.

The corporal is a graduate of Gagetown High School and a former employee of the Meffer Heer Distillery in Pontiac.

He has been awarded the Combat Infantryman Badge for excellent performance of duty under enemy fire.

It's a toss-up which are the most pathetic—has-beens, or going-to-be's.

4 powerful reasons why you get more of what you want...

- more engine power
Advanced Loadmaster engine—standard equipment on 5000, 6000 Series heavy-duty and forward-control models, optional on 4000 Series heavy-duty trucks. Light- and medium-duty models, with Thriftmaster engine, provide extra economy.
- more staying power
Now, heavier, stronger, more durable frames increase rigidity, add to ruggedness and stamina of all 1953 Chevrolet trucks.
- more braking power
Chevrolet trucks up to 4000 Series heavy-duty models are equipped with "Torque-Action" brakes. Series 4000, 5000 and 6000 heavy-duty trucks use extra-large "Torque-Action" brakes in front, "Twin-Action" type in rear.
- more economy
Greater stamina of 1953 Chevrolet trucks, extra gasoline economy in heavy-duty models with Loadmaster engine, reduces hauling costs.

They Multiply in Rabbit Succession

With American sportsmen and game administrators in many parts of the country the problem is how to increase the rabbit population; in Australia it is how to get rid of those they have. Rabbits were introduced to the island continent by well-meaning sportsmen many years ago. Their numbers increased so greatly that they soon became a serious pest not only to farmers but to the sportsmen themselves by destroying feed that would normally be used by desirable native or introduced wildlife.

To check the tremendous buildup of numbers, Australian authorities have inoculated and released live-trapped rabbits with a virus disease called myxomatosis. This disease, which is known to attack only rabbits, is transmitted by mosquitoes and fleas. Earlier attempts to introduce the disease met with little success, but the sickness recently flared up again and within a few weeks the rabbit population was reduced by some "tens of millions." Australian animal pathologists state that there is no danger of the disease exterminating the rabbit but that it will serve to prevent the almost unbelievable increases in numbers that have occurred in past years.

Rabbits increased phenomenally in Australia because they were introduced into an area of ideal habitat where predators, disease, and competitive species were almost completely absent.

Remember better schools build a stronger America.

The school and community forest movement has grown steadily in Michigan since 1931 when the conservation department was allowed to give away pine seedlings for planting on publicly owned land. Nearly 18 million trees have since been given for this purpose.

The conservation department's "general creel census" is a random sampling of sport fishing conditions over the entire state. Conservation officers regularly collect fishing information from most of the principal waters; these are compiled and analyzed by the department's institute for fisheries research.

There's DANGER in a Snowflake!

"Heart attacks" and cases of heart failure occur more frequently during the windy, frost-bitten, and snow blanketed winter months. The Michigan Heart Association prescribes a general health program of regular medical checkups, avoidance of over-exertion, overweight, infections, and worry, with positive emphasis on proper rest and relaxation especially during the winter season. Finding out the facts about your heart from your doctor of medicine was recommended as the best way to avoid needless anxiety, and to permit proper treatment to begin immediately if a heart condition is discovered. Appropriately, the heart associations have chosen February, one of the critical months, to be observed as American Heart Month.

The annual father and son banquet held in the Methodist Church Tuesday night was well attended.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Ruhl and boys of Pontiac spent last week end with relatives here.

Farmers using electric welders should make sure the wiring is adequate, floors dry and the welder properly grounded, urges David G. Steinicke, safety specialist at Michigan State College.

When planning new farm buildings or remodeling, remember that electricity has more and more uses each year, advise Michigan State College agricultural engineers. Put in enough wiring and outlets.

Cull trees in a woodlot can be stripped of bark, treated with pentachlorophenol and made into fence posts, advise extension foresters of Michigan State College. The cost is about 20 cents per post.

The meat and fur provided by Michigan's wildlife taken during one recent year was estimated as worth more than $12 million.

More Cows Bring Milk Price Problem

Causes for the current milk production surplus in Michigan and other states in the nation's "milk-bucket area" are very evident. But the cures are well hidden and rather complicated, Michigan State College agricultural economists find.

Gerald Quackenbush, dairy economist at MSC, points to increased production per cow and more cows in the herds as a prime reason for 9.3 per cent greater milk production now than a year ago in the north central states.

Behind this is the mild winter weather, more liberal feeding of concentrates and the failure to send low-producing cows to slaughter. Poor cattle prices cause less culling.

A Flint dairy firm surveyed and found its producers with an average of 16 cows in the herd compared with 11 two years ago.

Southern dairymen are feeding 15 per cent more concentrates than a year ago and despite the drought cutting hay and pasture yields, herds in those areas are producing more than a year ago. That's true everywhere in the United States.

Although "beefing" prices are off from one-fourth to one-third from peak prices, economists believe closer culling is the answer. Too much surplus, which must be turned into butter, cheese and dried milk for government purchase at support prices, could hurt the dairy industry.

Farmers are encouraged to aspire for maximum production per animal. But MSC economists feel that culling out marginal producers is always a sound dairy management practice.

Chicks Now for Profits on Big Eggs

Chicks must be ordered immediately if they are to get into egg production and have large eggs when the prices are best, reminds J. M. Moore, extension poultryman at Michigan State College.

Best prices for large eggs are paid from July to December and it takes eight months to bring a baby pullet to the large-egg stage. Chicks ordered today may not be delivered for three or four weeks, or more, or between March 15 and 30; this means they can lay big eggs by Nov. 15 to 30 and you can catch a few weeks of the top price period.

The big corn crop, plus a big cut in numbers of early-hatched pullets, indicates very favorable egg prices for the last half of 1953, Moore points out. The January 1 crop report from the U. S. Department of Agriculture shows 22 per cent less early hatched chicks than a year before.

Bowling

News and Views

George A. Dillman, Sec.

In a roll-off Saturday evening to determine winners of the second round of bowling in the City League, the Landon pin spillers were successful in defeating the Lapp team who were in a first place tie with the Landon team at the end of the second eleven weeks of bowling. It was a close match. Your reporter was scorer for the match and the winner was not determined until the last frames of the third game. By A. B. C. rules, the winner of two out of three games decides the match. The first game went to Landon's by 14 pins. The second game was won by the Lapp team with 57 pins advantage, thus the third game had to be rolled to decide a winner. At the end of the fifth frame of the final game, Landon led by four pins; at the end of the 6th, Lapp led by 14 pins; end of the 7th, Lapp was in the lead by only nine pins; end of the 8th frame, Lapp led by 11 pins, this was when Doug Salgot, the dark horse of the Landon team, went to work. He rolled a strike in the eighth, ninth and tenth frames and a strike with the first ball after the tenth. While Doug was performing his part of the act, the Lapp boys were so overwhelmed by this array of strikes that not one of them marked in their last frame and the Landon team won the game by a margin of 20 pins.

Miss Jane Dillon Wed in Gagetown

Before an altar decorated with white gladioli, ferns and lighted candelabra in St. Agatha's Church at 9:00 a. m. Saturday, Miss Jane Dillon became the bride of James Kamrad. Rev. Glenn Cronkite performed the ceremony.

The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Dillon of Unionville and Mr. and Mrs. Steve Kamrad are the parents of the groom.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose for her wedding a floor-length, strapless gown of white nylon tulle over satin with a fitted bodice, a lace jacket with wrist-point sleeves and peplum and a bouffant skirt. Her fingertip veil was fastened with a coronet of seed pearls and she carried a bouquet of white carnations.

The matron of honor, Marie Goka, wore a chartreuse net over taffeta dress and Joan Dillon, bridesmaid, wore a gown of orchid net over taffeta. They both wore bandeaus to match their gowns and their flowers were yellow and pink carnations.

Peggy and Karen Bedore were flower girls and they wore satin gowns with bolero jackets and lace hats.

Best man was Robert Kamrad, brother of the groom, and Richard Dillon, brother of the bride, was the other attendant. Tim Sheridan of Fairgrove and Richard Kamrad were the ushers.

Mrs. Dillon chose for her daughter's wedding a gray suit and the groom's mother wore a blue dress. They each wore a corsage of carnations.

A wedding breakfast was served at the Heidelberg Inn at Sebawaing and a reception was held for 600 guests at the Arbeiter Hall, Sebawaing.

The couple will live in Flint, where the groom is employed.

Freeze 'Egg Cubes,' Farm Wives Told

An Economical Trick When Supply Is Up

Egg cubes are a product of the farm-home freezer.

Farm wives may profit from the suggestion that "egg cubes," prepared in the farm home freezer will make cooking with eggs easier and more economical.

Mrs. Jessie Cartwright, director of the Norge Home Institute, advises freezing fresh eggs in ice cube trays right in the freezer. The trays make handy measuring units. If your tray holds 14 cubes, use 14 eggs, then one cube will equal approximately one egg. You can thaw one or more of the cubes as needed.

Here is the Norge Home Institute's method for preparing egg cubes: Use absolutely fresh eggs when they are low-priced or when surplus production on the farm makes them plentiful.

Eggs should be removed from the shells. Break the required number for one ice cube tray into a bowl and mix with a fork until yolks and whites are well-blended. Do not beat nor make frothy.

Pour the mixture into ice cube trays, leaving about one-half inch at the top of the tray for expansion. Place on racks in the freezer immediately, allowing ample space for air circulation around each tray. Freeze at zero degrees, and when the eggs are frozen, remove from the tray and put into polyethylene bags. Twist top of bag and put a freezer rubber band around it. Return bag to the freezer for storage.

If you wish, freeze whites and yolks separately.

Miss Iva Biddle Dies In Lansing

Miss Iva Biddle died at her residence in Lansing Saturday, February 14, after a long illness.

Miss Biddle was born July 15, 1900, in Evergreen Township, Sanilac County, the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Biddle.

She lived in this community until 1934, when she moved to Saginaw where she lived sixteen years. For the past two and one-half years, she has made her home in Lansing with her sister, Mrs. Martha Kelly.

Miss Biddle was a member of the Novesta Baptist Church for several years and later a member of the Saginaw Gospel Center, where she was secretary for a number of years.

Surviving are: one sister, Mrs. Martha Kelly of Lansing; three brothers, Mr. Leigh Biddle and Mr. Harold Biddle of Decker and Mr. Lyle Biddle of Lake Orion, and several nieces and nephews. One sister and one brother preceded her in death.

Funeral services were held Tuesday at 1:00 p. m. at Little's Funeral Home. Rev. Ralph Didier of Lansing and Rev. Bernard F. Didier of Clio officiated and burial was in Novesta Cemetery.

Heavier Fertilizer Applications Noted

Corn Yields Raised By Increased Use

Many midwestern farmers report they have doubled or tripled their corn yields by changing from "salt and pepper" applications of fertilizer to "shovel" or heavier applications.

University of Missouri agronomists disclose that in one test, 25 bushel corn land produced 124 bushels per acre when 1,100 pounds of nitrogen, phosphate and potash fertilizer was plowed down, before planting and a complete starter fertilizer was added at planting time.

These soils men report that full fertilizer treatments are the most profitable. They have demonstrated that the kind or type of soil is less important than the management methods used. When poor Ozark soils were fed a full fertilizer treatment, they yielded within eight bushels per acre of the top production from the best farm land in that state.

What's true of fertilizing corn is true of other crops, says the Middle West Soil Improvement committee.

"In Wisconsin, the use of 700 to 1,000 pounds per acre of 0-20-20, 0-9-27 or 0-10-30 fertilizer, has boosted alfalfa hay yields 2 to 2½ tons per acre. The full-fertilized fields have produced ample forage and high quality hay."

In many instances, says the committee, the heaviest fertilized applications are the most economical.

Quick's Holstein

Completes Testing

With 545 pounds of butterfat and 16,268 pounds of milk to her credit, H J C Montvic Rag Apple Doris, a registered Holstein-Friesian cow owned by A. B. Quick, Caro, has completed a 365-day production test in official Herd Improvement Registry.

She was milked two times daily, and was six years, 11 months of age when she began her testing period.

Her record averages approximately 21 quarts of milk daily for the period covered by her test.

Testing was supervised by Michigan State College, in co-operation with The Holstein-Friesian Association of America.

Chlorine Can Lose

Its Effectiveness

Protect that chlorine solution you use for wiping cow's udders, advises Alfred P. Ballweg, county agricultural agent. Under certain conditions, such as excess dirt or milk added to the chlorine solution, it loses its effectiveness. When this happens, it should be discarded and a new solution of about 100 part per million made up. If the solution is stronger than 200 parts per million, there is quite apt to be some chapping of the teats and skin of the udder.

One of the demonstrations at the Better Milking Clinic on February 24 at Silver Bell Skating Rink, Caro, is keeping the chlorine solution effective. This is an all day program. The doors open at 9:30 a. m. and close at 4 p. m. Make your plans now to attend this better milking clinic.

MICHIGAN MIRROR NEWS BRIEFS

Michigan highways will soon receive heavy travel of outstate vacationers.

According to Charles M. Ziegler, state highway commissioner, the coming construction season will see more detour signs than in recent years as a mark of progress.

Here's the prospect.

The state treasury expects to collect a trifle more in 1953 for highway building and maintenance than the $125 millions which it received last year. Revenue comes from the state gasoline tax (average in all states is now six cents), from a graduated weight tax on commercial vehicles weighing 8,000 pounds or more, and from federal aid to the tune of $16 millions.

Of this amount the state highway department will get 44 per cent. Michigan, the tax collector for local governments, will return 56 per cent. back to counties and cities. The 83 county road commissions will get 37 per cent and the 488 cities and villages are counting on 19 per cent.

Commissioner Ziegler expects to spend about $19 million maintaining Michigan's 9,318 miles of state roads. About $28 million will be set aside for construction of new roads and bridges; $2½ million will be earmarked to retire bond issues in Detroit expressways and another million and a half for bonds in the Detroit-Toledo expressway.

There are 5,073 miles of state concrete highways, 3,085 of bituminous surfaced roads and 1,160 of gravel.

Two big question marks in the highway department for next year are toll roads in Michigan and the bridge across the Mackinac Straits. Commissioner Ziegler's view on toll roads is a "middle of the road" stand: improved roads are needed so badly that any legal method is better than no attempt to raise funds.

Although he favors a free highway system, he would not oppose the creation of a tax road authority.

Ziegler said he favors the Mackinac bridge idea after making sure of two factors. One was that the project was practical from an engineering standpoint—this has been established by technical authorities. The second is that it is financially sound. This seems satisfactory also, for there is indication that bonding companies will be ready to finance the venture. Present schedules call for work to begin on the bridge in the spring of '54 with completion the fall of '56.

Another big problem is that of safety. The first 11 months of 1952 recorded 1,541 fatalities on Michigan highways, an increase of 34 over the same period in 1951. Economic loss resulting from personal injuries and property damage in the state from January through November in 1952 amounted to $145 million.

The commissioner was recently elected chairman of the Michigan State Safety Commission. This body is responsible under the law for highway safety programs. Seminars have been held and other methods are being used to analyze Michigan's problems so that legislative and administrative reforms designed to lead to greater safety can be recommended. The press of Michigan has cooperated with these activities.

Other activities for 1953 include studies to determine improved and more economic road design and the possible uses of radioactive materials to improve testing and research procedures.

In 1953 we can look for biggest year in our highway department's 48 years of existence with something more than $50 million being spent to maintain or build new roads and bridges, as well as the installation of warning, directional, distance and other safety signals along our roads. Commissioner Ziegler a little proud of the Bureau of Public Roads report which shows Michigan is building comparable units of highway construction at least 15% less cost than surrounding states.

While oldsters follow the birds to the south, Michigan youth are becoming winter-wise. Sport centers in North Michigan and the Upper Peninsula are attracting thousands to the North each week end; you'll be surprised.

We stopped at Cadillac's Caberfae, in the Manistee national forest, on the occasion of its sixth annual interclub meet. The place was jammed with young men and women, all attired in gay sports clothing of the ski world.

Contestants included skiers from Aspen, Colo.; Hartford, Conn.; New Jersey Ski Club and such Michigan clubs in Detroit, Dearborn, Saginaw, Rochester, Pontiac, Albion and Midland.

How to replace state funds which are now diverted by constitutional amendment to local governments—schools, cities, townships—is still the A-1 problem before the Michigan state legislature. Deficits have accumulated to a total of 90,000,000.

Governor Williams and the legislature have been in a deadlock for two years over a proposed corporation profits tax. The governor insists the tax would be paid by corporations, not by consumers. The legislature's attempts to enact other levies have been blocked, in part, by the governor's vetoes. A stalemate now exists.

The governor is now seeking some agreement with legislative leaders on a tax solution. The Higgins tax study commission's report was unveiled Monday, Feb. 16. Rep. Lewis Christman (R-Ann Arbor) proposes a five per cent state income tax, repeal of the present three per cent state sales tax, and local tax powers to municipalities. Christman believes an income tax on individuals and corporations would yield $60,000,000 more than the present 3% sales tax. This sum would cover the state's needs, he says.

A majority of legislators are resigned to the prospect of a NEW tax.

What will it be? That's the $64 question.

Native copper was mined in Michigan by prehistoric man but copper mining as an industry did not actually begin until 1845. Evidences of early mining in Michigan are preserved in the old "Indian Pits" found scattered through the region of Isle Royale and the Keweenaw Peninsula.

MARSHALL WELLS*FARM DIGEST

When the first successful mechanical beet harvesters appeared in the beet fields of Michigan in 1945 and 1946, they were such a novelty that beet growers thronged to the fields to see them work.

One beet grower, evidently resolved to the fate of working long, back-breaking hours harvesting his beets, grew enthusiastic. He turned to a sugar beet technician who also had been observing the machine at work, and with a voice filled with emotion said, "At last it's here! I never thought I'd live to see the day when a machine in one fast operation would eliminate all the back-breaking drudgery we go through every time we harvest by hand. All these years we have had to do four different things: lift, pull, top and load. I thought there'd never be a machine that could do it for me. But now I've seen it for myself. This sugar beet harvester will revolutionize the crop!"

And really, the sugar beet harvester has revolutionized the crop. Mr. Andrew Schwab, 82 year old Bay City farmer with whom I visited recently, reported harvesting beets today is comparatively easy.

It doesn't take an old timer like Mr. Schwab to remember the hard work connected with harvesting sugar beets. All of us remember back to the days before the beet harvester. Too many of us became discouraged with the work connected with the crop and quit raising sugar beets. But the growers who stayed with the crop have reaped the profits year after year and in the last few years have cut labor costs in half.

Nine hundred and sixty-one mechanical beet harvesters are at work helping Michigan beet growers harvest this highly profitable cash crop. With little effort, the beets were taken from the ground, cleaned, loaded and trucked to the factory. Growers tell me they like this new set-up.

Truly, the mechanical beet harvester has revolutionized the crop. By reducing the man hours of labor by 80% and saving 50% on costs for the grower who owns one, the mechanical beet harvester has become an important factor why more farmers in Michigan are looking with favor toward sugar beets... a profitable crop for you to raise.

Hormone for Cows Boosts Milk Output Possible to Increase Marketing "Quotas"

Feeding dairy cows a hormone this fall may help farmers solve the "surplus milk" problem which cuts their milk checks in the spring and summer.

The hormone, synthetic thyroxine, works like the natural secretions of the cow's thyroid gland. Cows getting thyroxine in their feed give 10 to 20 per cent more milk, says Dr. W. R. Graham, Jr., of Chicago. Butterfat production also jumps.

Dr. Graham, research director of The Quaker Oats company, pioneered experiments in hormone feeding. Hormone dairy feeds are specially profitable in the fall and early winter when marketing "bases" or "quotas" are being set, he says.

Under the quota system of milk marketing, a farmer's "base" for the year is determined by the number of cans he ships daily in the fall and early winter, when milk output is low. If he ships 10 cans a day now, he is assured of full price for only 10 cans next spring and summer—although he may be shipping 13 cans then.

By feeding a hormone supplement now, Dr. Graham explains, this same farmer can raise his base as much as 20 per cent—or to 12 cans instead of 10. So only one of his 13 cans next spring would sell at the half-price rate.

Milking Machines Should Be Checked

Keep an eye on the milking machine, advises Alfred P. Ballweg, county agricultural agent. Follow the manufacturer's directions as to pulsation rate and inches of vacuum. Don't forget that a dirty vacuum line can cut down the efficiency of your milking machine.

At the Better Milking Clinic to be held February 24 at Silver Bell Skating Rink at Caro you will see a demonstration on cleaning vacuum lines.

One of the feature attractions at this clinic will be the actual demonstrations by the milking machine companies to answer your questions and show you how to maintain maximum efficiency in your milking machine.

Nearly all the members of the troop wore their uniforms in school one or more days of the scout anniversary week.

Mr. Gross commended the men of the church for their work in the remodeling program, but estimated that only 30 per cent of the membership was at work.

He stressed the need for active effort in the missionary program, educational program and Sunday worship service.

Harry Little explained to the congregation the Every-Man Plan. There are four features to the plan. They are:

1. Reaching every man in the church and establishing a personal relationship.

2. Using the talents of every man according to his ability to contribute.

3. Strengthening every man's faith through regular habits of worship, discussion groups and study.

4. Producing manpower for the church by emphasizing a job for every man, regular church attendance, support of church program and budget and work for unity among laymen as the opportunity affords.

The National Council of Presbyterian Men seeks a chapter in every church. Mr. Little stressed the need of men and parents setting a proper example with regular church attendance, Bible study and Christian service.

The Session met Tuesday evening to consider ways of implementing the ideas presented by the lay speakers.

On Sunday at 10:30 a. m., the regular choir will sing and Rev. M. R. Vender will preach on a text from 1 Peter. He has asked the worshippers to read the epistle before Sunday, as the sermon will constitute a study of the apostle and his epistle.

Gene is shown here with Bess, one of his Holstein cows in production. Bess is from Gene's original dairy project animal, Agnes, a consistent winner at the Tuscola County Fair. In the five years he has been in 4-H dairy club work, Gene has accumulated eight cows and heifers.

four of these are in production. Included are one purebred Holstein he won with his grade cow project and one purchased animal. In rounding out his program, he has maintained production records, participated in 4-H dairy judging and demonstrations and junior leadership.

Awards in this contest are made available by the Detroit Creamery Company.

World Shrinking

It's not surprising that the world is shrinking—anything in hot water all the time will shrink. Temptations are much easier to find if you are looking for them.

There is nothing better than a balanced budget except a surplus.

Chickens need a good supply of Vitamin D to make use of the calcium in oyster shells, point out Michigan State College poultrymen. Fish oil provides both vitamins A and D.

Fertilizer production increases annually, but demand keeps ahead of it, remind Michigan State College soil scientists; it pays to order and accept delivery early.

Reform Via Old Age

A good many think they have reformed when as a matter of fact they've merely grown too old for sinning.

Poultry Industry In Price-Cost Vise Efficient Operation Means More Profits

Because of the price-cost squeeze in the poultry industry, it is imperative that every farmer get the most money out of his laying flock. But producing quality eggs begins long before the pullet lays her first egg.

The first requirement of any flock owner is good disease-free foundation stock with satisfactory egg-laying records.

Near the top of the lists of "musts" that bring top egg prices is the elimination of stained, dirty eggs. The producer can eliminate most of the dirty eggs by keeping hens confined to the laying house when the ground is wet and muddy.

the number of cracked eggs, another item that reduces the poultryman's profit.

If eggs are left in a hot henhouse for more than half a day, they will start to lose their freshness and moisture. The sooner the eggs are gathered after they are laid, the better.

The eggs should be taken to a cooling room immediately and allowed to cool overnight before they are packed.

Final Rites Tuesday For J. E. Paul

Funeral services were held Tuesday for J. E. (Jack) Paul, Bad Axe businessman and prominent Pigeon resident. Mr. Paul died Saturday afternoon after suffering a heart attack two weeks ago.

He was born in Pigeon Feb. 23, 1909. He was a graduate of Pigeon High School and Central Michigan College at Mt. Pleasant.

He spent three years coaching at Roscommon and one year at Lake City High School.

He left Lake City to enter business. He held several manager's positions with the International Harvester Co.

Six years ago he returned to Pigeon and ran an automobile agency. Three years later he entered the farm machinery business in Bad Axe.

He married the former Miss Beatrice Haist in 1934.

Surviving are his widow; a son, Kent, at home; a brother, Harold, of Pigeon, and a sister, Mrs. C. J. Millikin, of Detroit.

Soil scientists at Michigan State College point out that some soil conditions can do a good job of improving soil tilth and conditions. The trouble so far, they explain, is that the soil conditioners are too expensive for general farm use.
