Musical selections for the afternoon and evening sessions will be provided by past grand organist. Miss Lois Kelly of Yale, Mr. and Mrs. Maynard Kent of Kinde and Mrs. Arlington Hoffman, Cass City.

The afternoon session will include the formal opening, introductions, honoring of past matrons and patrons of Echo Chapter by this year's officers and the presentation of the Memorial.

In the evening session, grand officers will confer the degrees of the Order on two candidates and Mrs. Arthur Little, chapter secretary, will present three gold certificates and three life memberships.

Looks Good

According to a letter from the State Highway Department that was read before trustees Monday night, the long-awaiting resurfacing of Main Street is practically certain to be done this year. The department explained that the delay was caused because they were waiting for other work in the area. The department thanked the council for its continued interest in the project.

The event starts the graduation festivities for the senior class which will be culminated with commencement, June 8.

The juniors have selected "A Gypsy Serenade" for their decorating and banquet program theme. Starting the festivities will be a banquet at 6:30 p.m. prepared by mothers of members of the junior class and served by 25 sophomore girls.

Among the speakers slated for the banquet program is Bob McEachern, toastmaster, and Ed Fox and Russell Foy, presidents of junior and senior classes. Miss Thelma Hunt will speak for the faculty and a group of juniors will present vocal and instrumental music. The prom will begin at 9:30. father. It showed that he moved
