Kickoff Dinner
For Chest Drive
Slated Thursday

Final plans for the Elkland Township Community Chest Drive will be set at the annual kickoff dinner slated at the New Gordon Hotel Thursday, Oct. 7.

The dinner, sponsored by the Cass City State Bank and the Pinney State Bank, will bring together all volunteer workers who will receive their instructions and campaign cards so that the drive can quickly pass this year's quota of $6,000.

Heading the campaign this year will be Dale Kettler, who will be responsible for village collections, and Jack Esau, in charge of collections in the township outside of the village limits.

Members of the board for the community chest recently elected officers for 1954-55. Mrs. Wilma Fry was re-elected president of the organization. Other officers are: Mrs. Andrew Bigelow, vice-president; C. M. Wallace, secretary, and Robert Keating, treasurer.

The officers and the drive chairman pointed out that with just a little more effort this year, the drive can go over the top. Last year the drive netted $5,819.05. Members pointed out that is less than $200 under the quota for this year.

Survey Reveals
Amount Spent for Food in County

Among housewives in Tuscola County, food occupies the number one spot on the budget. Out of every dollar they spend in the local retail stores, 25 cents goes to buy food for the family table. This is brought out in the current, copyrighted study made by sales management of the spending habits of people in all 48 states.

The local spending pattern shows more emphasis on food than is evident in most other counties throughout the country. Nationally, compared with Tuscola County's 25 per cent, less than 24 per cent of retail spending is for food. In the east north central states, it is 23 per cent, and in the State of Michigan, 24 per cent.

This ability to spend more for food is one of the indicators of higher living standards. In Tuscola County in 1953, the food bill came to a tidy $8,708,000. This sum, apportioned equally among local residents, represents purchases in the meat markets, grocery stores, bakeries and other establishments of the sort of $764 per family.

The present generation in America is eating higher on the hog than any other in history. More and better food is being consumed by a public whose net disposable income last year was at a near-peak level.

The good earnings accounted for by Tuscola County residents. Concluded on page ten.

Authorities pointed out that the average of 22.3 was, in most cases, for beans that had been pulled and not threshed because of the rainy weather.

Beans that had not been pulled were generally good, although yields were low. Samples at the elevator ranged from one to 36 and the excess moisture average was four per cent. In the beans with excess moisture the average was five per cent.

Authorities at both elevators said that beans that were pulled, but not raked, were better than beans that were pulled and raked.

Although no accurate figures are available, a yield of 25 bushels to the acre is the highest the elevators have heard reported. Low yields per acre go down as far as only five bushels.

If the favorable weather farmers enjoyed early this week continues, the best beans in the area will be those planted late and due to ripen this week end. Although the pick has been heavy in the early beans, farmers have not been plagued with "liners" . . . beans that are only slightly off color. In 1950, the crop was loaded with this type of bean. Beans this year will be much less profitable than they were in 1953, when the area experienced one of the best crops in recent years.

Farmers selling their beans now are receiving $7.10 per hundred pounds. The support price is $7.36 per hundred pounds.

Arrest Two in
Drunken Brawl
In Unionville

James Kelley, 18, of Bay City and Earl Hammond, 19, of Sebawaing were arrested for staging a drunken brawl on the Main Street of Unionville this week.

Kelley was fined a total of $75 and costs of $16.70 with another charge still pending. Hammond was fined $35 and costs of $25.05 and was sentenced to jail for 30 days.

Kelley pled guilty to driving under the influence of alcohol and illegal transportation of beer. He pled not guilty to an alleged charge of being a disorderly person and was released on bail.

Hammond pled guilty to malicious destruction of property after he drove his fist through the rear window of a parked automobile, cutting his hand and arm. Other charges he pled guilty to were illegal possession of beer and being a disorderly person.

Jail Jenkins. Richard Jenkins was sentenced to 60 days in jail after he pled guilty to a charge of drunk driving Saturday. It was the second time in 10 months that he had been convicted on the same charge.

In addition to the jail sentence, Mr. Jenkins was fined $100 and costs of $10.90. Concluded on page 10.

Council Has Busy Night

Grant Ball Asks
For Curb and Gutter

Grant Ball made a determined bid for a start on curb and gutter work on Seed Street in Cass City Tuesday night, when he appeared before the council to see if he could get a "definite commitment" for the work.

Mr. Ball said that he would like to see the proper drainage put in this year by the village so that the curb and gutter could be installed next year if it works in with the council's plans.

Property owners along Seed Street had petitioned the council for the work to be done early this year. According to present tentative plans, the property owners would pay for the entire cost of the curb and gutter, while the village would take care of drainage and resurfacing the road to the curb.

Although the council would like to see the work done, they did not make any definite commitment Tuesday night. They would like to have Seeger Street with curb and gutter when it is resurfaced. Present plans call for the resurfacing work to be done next year.

Before the curb and gutter could be installed, over 50 per cent of landowners on Seeger Street would have to sign a petition indicating that they desire

The Cass City School safety patrol has an enviable record since the group was organized in Cass City over 15 years ago. In the 15 years the group has been operating, there has never been a fatal accident while a patrol boy or girl was on duty. Besides guarding the corner, the group escorts the grade pupils from the school across Main Street each day. Authorities in charge of the program pointed out that success for the program depends a great deal on the cooperation the patrol receives from persons in the area.

Editor's Corner

With a general election just a little over 30 days away, there seems to be a decided lack of interest in the event.

Despite the fact that the fight for control of the congress on the national level and the governorship on the state level will have a decided effect on policies, we have heard very little about the election in Cass City.

Many persons in the Cass City area are yet to be registered and the deadline is Monday, Oct. 4.

It would be a nice gesture on the part of Cass City football fans to have a large representation at the Yale game Friday night. After absorbing a bad beating in their first conference game, perhaps normal support would be more appreciated now than when the team is in the midst of a long winning streak.

Gross Urges Club
To Adopt Project

Jim Gross, discussion chairman for the Cass City Gavel Club, told members that they had been on a four-year "vacation" and said it was time that a new project was started.

Speaking at the regular meeting of the club at Parrott's Dairy Bar, Mr. Gross then asked members for suggestions for a project the club could sponsor.

Arlan Hartwick, toastmaster, had members of the club tell what they did on their vacations. Guests of the club were Dick Carroll and Thomas Lee, teachers at Cass City High School.

Hawks Look Inept
In 31-13 Lacing

End Bill Spezia caught a short pass over the center of the line early in the first quarter and scampered 80 yards for a touchdown for Crosswell-Lexington Friday night at the Cass City Recreation Park and Cass City was never in the game afterwards.

The Hawks, 31-13, and were ahead 31-0 before Cass City was able to score.

The Hawks showed a defensive weakness in the line and lack of coordination in the backfield as frequent fumbles through most of the game kept them from staging a sustained attack until the final quarter.

After scoring their initial touchdown via the air, Crosswell counted a second marker on the ground. Lloyd Smith dashed 37 yards around end to score.

With just 35 seconds left in the half, line backer Robert Steele intercepted a Hawk pass and went 35 yards untouched for the third marker. A jump pass was good for the extra point.

At the half, the score was 19-0 in favor of Crosswell-Lex.

The visitors started where they left off in the third quarter. Steele rammed for 16 yards through the center of the Hawk line for touchdown number four and Robert Benko slashed over center for 10 yards to cap the final touchdown march for the Pioneers. When Benko entered the end zone the score was 31-0 in favor of Crosswell-Lex.

In the final quarter, Cass City scored twice. Jack Clara, who had been used sparingly in the first three periods, was pressed into full time duty, despite a bad right arm.

The fleet halfback took a Pioneer punt and cut to the sidelines and out ran the entire Crosswell-Lex team for a 65-yard touchdown run.

Late in the final quarter, the Hawks staged their only drive of the game. They moved the ball down to the Pioneer 16-yard line and Dick Hanby rammed 16 yards to score.

When the extra point kick split the uprights, the final score stood 31-13.

Girl Recovers in Saginaw Hospital

Helen, eight-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth St. Charles, who lives at the west city limits of town, was taken ill Friday and by Sunday was unable to walk. She was taken by ambulance to Saginaw contagious hospital and doctors there diagnosed her illness Tuesday as meningitis with an acute infection of the throat and neck. Her condition was much improved Tuesday, however. The family moved here three months ago from Wayne.

Constable Steve Orto reported that he had inspected all trailers within the village limits. He said that they were all unoccupied except one. Owners of the occupied trailer have secured a temporary permit as required by ordinance, he said, to stay in the trailer.

Sign Contract The council signed a maintenance contract with the Michigan State Highway Department, where they will receive 78.2 per cent of their costs for work done on Main Street in Cass City.

Tiny Tot Contest
Slated in Village

Children in Cass City under the age of six are invited to enter in a contest to select the king and queen, the prince and princess and duke and duchess of toyland, says Miss Jackie Buerkle, director of the event.

The contest will be held in conjunction with the Rotary show, "You Can't Beat Fun," slated at Cass City High School Wednesday and Thursday, Oct. 6-7.

There is no fee for entering and no special costumes required. The contest is one of popularity and the winners will be determined by the number of votes they receive. Voters can cast their votes at many of the Cass City stores.

Pictures of the children entered will be placed in the window of Detroit Edison.

All contestants will be introduced to the show audience and a special coronation ceremony will be held the last night of the show. Winners will receive crowns and gifts.

Persons desiring more information can contact Miss Buerkle by calling Cass City 121.

Robert Warner
Celebrates 80th
Birthday Tuesday

Robert Warner, a pioneer resident of Cass City, celebrated his 80th birthday quietly at his home Tuesday. A formal celebration of the event is scheduled Sunday when his family will help him commemorate the event.

One of a family of 13 children of the late Mr. and Mrs. Henry Warner, he was born Sept. 28, 1874, in Novesta Township. He has spent all but two or three years of his life in the Cass City vicinity.

Mr. Warner and his brother, Stanley, of Pontiac are the only surviving members of the family. Mr. Warner received his formal education at Quick School. He attended the school until he was 16 and returned when 18 years old to study bookkeeping for one year under Mrs. A. J. Knapp, the teacher at that time.

When 19, Mr. Warner went to Cheboygan by horse and buggy where he was promised a job. He and the late Duncan Gillis averaged 55 miles a day on the 255-mile trek.

While in Cheboygan, he drove a dray for three years and received the then excellent wages of $35 a month and board.

Reminiscing about the early days in Cass City, Mr. Warner says that he can remember when more farmers tilled their land with oxen than any other way. Concluded on page 10.

Self-Inflicted Wounds Fatal
For H. E. New

The body of H. Edward New, 44, father of eight children, was found Monday noon in a tenant house near his farm home at Kingston with a self-inflicted shotgun wound in the chest.

Tuscola County Coroner Dr. H. T. Donahue and Deputy Clarence Schroeder ruled the death a suicide.

Mr. New was reported to have been despondent because of ill health.

He was born in Blairville, Pennsylvania, Jan. 14, 1910, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry and Rose Bradley New.

He was united in marriage to Miss Thelma Curtis September 11, 1938, in Crownpoint, Indiana. Following their marriage, they made their home in Rochester, Mich., later moving to Caro, where they lived for seven years. The past year they moved to their present home in Kingston Township.

Mr. New was employed at the Saginaw Steering Gear Company.

Surviving besides his wife are: one son, Frederick; seven daughters, Rosalia, Patricia, Sharon, Barbara, Su Ann, Marleen and Sandra, all at home; his mother, Mrs. Harry New of Pennsylvania. Concluded on page 10.

Thieves Steal $60
At Bulen Motors

Unidentified thieves broke into Bulen Motor Sales Thursday, Sept. 23, and stole about $60 in silver, but ignored valuable tools and other items in the garage.

In fact, the thieves were so orderly that the theft was not noticed until the company went to make change in the morning.

Investigation revealed that the thieves broke into the garage through the bump shop after climbing over the fence in back of the building.

To Let Contract Oct. 13

Village Signs Contract

The department is advertising for bids for the work to be done and the contract for the work in Cass City will be let in conjunction with work to be done in Port Austin, Bad Axe and Harbor Beach.

The contracts will be let Oct. 13 in Lansing. Completion date is scheduled in 1955.

The work in Bad Axe will be bituminous concrete surfacing on M-53 and M-142 through the city on the two trunklines as they travel north from Huron Avenue. For Harbor Beach the project

Of Oil Well Test
On Marshall Farm

Whether or not the oil well on the Neil Marshall farm, north of Getageton in Grant Township, will be a commercial producer will not be known until this week end when results of a 4,000-gallon acid test is completed.

The well was treated with the acid Monday night and, after the pressure was released Tuesday afternoon, drillers were making preparations to swab the well.

A good showing of oil was found from 3,362 feet to 3,425 feet, according to Mickey Spidel, drilling contractor for the well.

The well is a half mile north of the Blondell well which is one of two commercial producers in Huron County. The other producing well is located near Kinde.

Examine Stored Grains Frequently

Don't forget that stored grain. Examine it often, cautions Quentin R. Ostrander, Tuscola County assistant agricultural agent. Extension Entomologist Ray James of Michigan State College has warned that early fall can be a time of great insect damage to stored grain—as long as the weather stays moderate.

Fumigation is the only method to control the grain pests, he says. Some grain storers use a mixture of ethylene dichloride and carbon tetrachloride and others use this same mixture with the addition of ethylene dibromide.

Both are effective, James indicates, and can be purchased at an elevator or farm supply house. And follow manufacturers' directions to the letter, he warns, because the mixture can harm the person using it.

Be sure to check the upper portion of the grain to see if it's matted, James suggests. If it is matted, treat that area carefully because damage is being done by moths. And he adds this other precaution: Be sure the sides and bottom of your grain bin are tight before fumigating.

cars ARE MY Line

By H. M. Bulen

Several years ago the automobile horn was outlawed in Memphis, Tenn. A special ordinance made it illegal to sound the slightest beep inside the city limits because police and safety officials thought horn blowing was more of a nuisance than a necessity. It had some surprising results.

Many taxicabs disconnected their horns. Drivers said the temptation to blow their horn in traffic was always great and it was safer to remove them. An elbow might touch the horn accidentally which could prove both costly and embarrassing.

Fines for violation of the anti-horn blowing law ranged from $10 upwards. It was effective, and visitors to the city often commented on how quiet Memphis was.

A group of women in the East Memphis Women's Club asked the city to install an automobile horn in the museum or set one up in a park so children would know what one looked and sounded like.

A visiting motorist from Mississippi evaded the ban on horn blowing. He attached an electric doorbell to the side of his car and drove through the heart of Memphis ringing his bell merrily. Police scratched their heads, but allowed him to proceed. Motorists and pedestrians guffawed.

If all the motorists in the world were wide awake and all the pedestrians watched where they were going, there would be no need for automobile horns. But I know many a tight spot a polite beep-beep of the horn has got me out of. All the cars on our used car lot have horns, a wide variety of sounds because we have a wide variety of used cars. All the horns work, because we don't sell any cars in Memphis, Tenn., and everything else in the cars we sell works too.

Question: How did our recent "Nocturnal Visitors" gain entrance, after tearing their sox (and hides) getting over the fence? All doors locked. Prize for correct answer - one coke.

Suggestion: Next time try Auten's. They're loaded!

Lack of damage (which we appreciated) kept us from discovering the robbery for several hours.

Cut Costs With Lime on Fields

One of the best ways to reduce costs on a farm is to use lime where it's needed.

Quentin R. Ostrander, Tuscola County assistant agricultural agent, points out that if lime is needed, an application will return $8 to $10 for each dollar spent for the liming material.

E. D. Longnecker, extension soil scientist at Michigan State College, cites cases:

An Antrim County experiment on alfalfa showed that one ton of limestone meal per acre boosted alfalfa production by a total of 2,200 pounds during three years.

If you figure $4.50 for the lime and $1 per hundred-weight for the hay, there would be a return of $22 per acre in three years for the $4.50 investment. The soil had been medium to slightly acid before the lime was applied.

And the benefits probably will continue for another six to eight years, according to Longnecker.

And in a Cass County experiment, running from 1913 to 1934, two tons of lime per acre on a strongly acid soil returned additional crops amounting to $79.

The two tons of lime cost $8.25.

Longnecker points out that the lime cost is approximately the same as it would be today but crop prices at that time were one-third to one-half of today's.

Ostrander points that the only sure way to tell whether or not a soil needs lime is with a reliable soil test.

People who have a right to boast usually prefer not to.

ALL-WINTER ANTIFREEZE ... PROTECTS AGAINST CORROSIVE RUST!

CONTAINS

TRI-PRO

TRIPLE PROTECTION

- controls seepage
- rust-corrosion
- foaming

When you buy antifreeze this winter, be sure you buy all the protection your engine needs. Many antifreeze formulas only protect you against a frozen engine. A really good antifreeze should do far more. International Harvester All-Winter Antifreeze contains TRI-PRO®, a special ingredient that will give you excellent freeze-up protection but also will guard against:

(1) RUST—the killer which clogs your cooling system, impairs operating efficiency and may eventually ruin your engine.

(2) SEEPING—penetration of antifreeze into the combustion chamber may result in a dangerous coating of "varnish" on cylinder walls.

(3) FOAMING—foaming of antifreeze in the cooling system reduces engine cooling efficiency and may push the antifreeze out the overflow pipe. Don't be satisfied with cold-weather protection that leaves your engine unfit for summer driving. Get International Harvester All-Winter Antifreeze with TRI-PRO and enjoy safe winter driving that will leave your engine in perfect shape when it's drained in the spring.

She's also doing the laundry

The modern housewife can be busy as a bee elsewhere—and still be doing the wash. All the time she needs to spend in the laundry room is just the few moments it takes to load or unload her electric washer and dryer.

Best of all, dryer-dried clothes come out soft, fluffy, and remarkably wrinkle-free. And, remember, an electric dryer is the lowest priced, the cleanest, most modern there is.

New Children's Books at Library

New arrivals at the Cass City and Elkland Township Public Library according to the librarian, Mrs. Arthur Little, are: for the young reader: "Read to Yourself Storybook," two science fiction books, "Island in the Sky" by Arthur Clarke and "Five Against Venus" by Philip Latham. Included in the selection is one new mystery, "The Murder Pool" by Eric Heath, two light fiction numbers, "Two in Tampa" by Carol Holliston and "Nurse Greer" by Joan Garrison. "Good-bye, My Lady," a delightful dog story by James Street, is suitable for youth or adult reading.

Four other books for the youth are two horse stories, "Thunder" by Page Cooper and "Black Renegade" by Dana Farall and "Linda Kent, Student Nurse" by Dorothy Deming and "A Man for Marcy" by Rosamond DuJardin.

Eight novels, several of which are currently on the best seller list include: "Katherine" by Anya Seton, "Mary Anne" by Daphne DuMaurier, "The Cheerful Captive" by Louise Field Cooper, "The Living Earth" by Shelia MacKay Russell, "Marriage for Three" by Elizabeth Seifert, "Sidestreet" by Robert O. Bowen, "Speak to Me, Brother" by Anne Miller Downes and "Never Victorious, Never Defeated" by Taylor Caldwell.

You will get the most food value from fresh fruits and vegetables if you prepare them correctly, say nutritionists at Michigan State College. Cook quickly and only until tender. Cook vegetables in their skins whenever possible. Chop fresh foods for salads JUST before serving.

The want ads are news, too.

Before you do your fall wardrobe shopping, take inventory of the clothes on hand, urge M. S. C. clothing specialists. Women's wardrobe inventories need to be detailed because they want many combinations and lots of variety. Men can inventory more quickly and it is a practical way to make the most of every garment for the masculine side of the family, too.

Latest figures leave little doubt that National Guardsmen performed a valuable public service when they joined hands with local and state police departments to patrol streets and highways during the Labor Day weekend.

The record is now accumulated and speaks for itself.

Under the plan 682 volunteer guardsmen offered to help from Friday to Tuesday morning. Of these 51 were assigned to cities, villages and townships; 156 to sheriff's department. The balance worked with Michigan State Police.

Guardsmen, who received a daily pay allowance according to rank and expenses, worked the same shift as police officers.

State Police totals show that rural trunklines, where 20 people were killed last year in 14 accidents, had only four deaths in four accidents this year. Of the four killed this year, two were in an isolated area in the Upper Peninsula. None of the fatal collisions occurred in the most heavily policed areas known as the "29 high-accident sections".

The 22 killed in 1954 compares with the 31 killed in 1953. It looks more impressive when compared with average highway death during the summer of 1953-23.5 dead people per each Friday through Sunday. The Labor Day week end total was slightly lower and included an additional 24 hour period.

Nearly twice as many arrests were made for violation of highway regulations. In 1953 there were 2,802 drivers ticketed. This week end 5,209 violators had reason to wish they had been more careful. This increase of 2,407 resulted from the higher number of police officers and from a policy in force since spring that called for more arresting as well as cautioning of traffic violators.

Violations during the Labor Day period fell into the same pattern of percentages as other periods; 46% speeding; 15% disregarding stop signs or signals; 10% driving on wrong side of road; 7% improper passing; 5% drunk; the balance for miscellaneous reasons.

Not one adverse criticism reached state police headquarters. Questionnaires sent to sheriffs were returned with glowing compliments. One sheriff from a sparsely populated county pointed out gratefully that his force without guardsmen would have consisted of himself and one deputy.

State Police Commissioner Joseph A. Guilds, was also warm in his comments. He explained that use of guardsmen permitted twice as many state police cars at night. Troopers patrol in pairs after dark. A guardsman could act as the second officer.

During the day, when troopers work alone, the second man increased efficiency because only one car needed to be called to a collision. Since it takes two officers to handle an accident, two cars are summoned in usual procedure.

"Our experience with National Guard was good," said the Commissioner. "They stayed on the job, worked about 10 hours per shift and didn't complain."

Interesting angle to campaigning, now in full force, is the tendency of Governor Williams to give Highway Commissioner Charles M. Ziegler a hard time. Ziegler, who was also elected by the people of Michigan, is not a candidate for anything right now. His term does not expire for three years.

Requests for special reports by the chief administrative official keep the highway staff busy. Ziegler is in a delicate position regarding the Governor's request for information. Accumulating the facts takes staff people off other important duties; costs money that wouldn't need to be spent otherwise. In addition, the Commissioner seems a little suspicious about the governor's motives. He appears to worry that Williams is applying pressure for reports because of political reasons rather than an actual desire for knowledge.

Answer to the latest such request was sent in a letter to the governor. The first paragraph read: "This will acknowledge your letter of September 15, in which you request an enormous amount of detailed information and maps to supplement reports which I have previously made in complete accordance with the provisions of Act 61, P. A. of 1951."

Other sentences describe the busy activity in the department. The letter ends with a reference to a report now being accumulated and the curt information that it will be ready for the 1955 Legislature.

More sales tax per person is collected from Michigan residents than from any other state except Wyoming according to Louis M. Nims, State Revenue Commissioner. In 1953-54 Michigan people paid an average of $42.21 each. The per capita rate for Wyoming is $42.98, only 77c higher than the Wolverine state.

In 27 states which have sales tax, the average collection per person averaged to $28.58. California was third with $38.04.

Nims said Michigan's rate is high because the state's income is very high, the tax base is very broad, and his department works very hard to collect it.

Sales tax income for August increased over previous months for the first time in many months reported Clarence W. Lock, deputy state revenue commissioner. Collections (for July business) amounted to $23,538,551. This is $105,000 above July, 1944.

A tri-county airport to serve Macomb, Oakland and eastern Wayne is subject for a campaign of the Detroit Board of Commerce. A committee of leading citizens of the three counties has been formed with Roy Fuehauf, commercial trailer manufacturer, as chairman.

He reminds Detroiters that "the city that is without the foresight to build the ports for a new traffic may soon be left far behind in the race of competition."

More potatoes are ruined in harvesting and grading than any other way, note MSC specialists; equipment should be put in place before the harvest rush.

News from Deford Area

Arleone Retherford and family took his mother, Carrie Retherford, to Saginaw Sunday to visit her granddaughter and family. Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Robinson, for a week.

Mrs. Grant Pringle entertained Thursday afternoon at a birthday party in honor of Ronnie's sixth birthday. Nine little boys were present. Ice cream and cake were served and pictures were taken. For entertainment, the boys played games and had a treasure hunt.

The Torch-bearers Meet—

Nine members of the Torch-bearers' Class of the Novesta Baptist Church Sunday School met for a party at the home of their Sunday School teacher, Mrs. Harriet Rayl, on Monday night. Pastor Walsh and family were guests also.

At the close of the recreation period, St. John, chapter fifteen, verses one through eight, were read. Then an object lesson, using a plant, the vine and its leaves to represent humans in their choices of life, was given by their teacher, Mrs. Walsh. Then challenged each youth to a deeper Christian walk and Pastor Walsh closed with a few remarks followed by prayer.

Refreshments, which were pot-luck, were enjoyed together, after Mrs. Walsh said grace.

Sunday, Oct. 3rd, will be promotion day and you are all invited to fellowship with us if you haven't a regular church home.

10 a. m. is the time and church 11 a. m.

When ironing use long rhythmic strokes, ironing with the thread of the fabric. Iron each section perfectly dry before starting the next. Let heat and moisture do the work; then no pressure is needed. Michigan State College clothing specialists also suggest you sit while ironing; it's much easier on you.

Bowling

"The first City League Bowling Team in history to go through the season with no defeats." That is the statement made by M. B. Auten, lead-off man of the Asher Team, as they pounded out a three game victory over the team from Gagetown. The Asher Team has won nine games in a row to lead the League. Our observance of the Monday night scores of the Asher Team shows them winning one of their games by only four pins with the score, 694 to 690. The element of luck wins many sporting events. If we didn't know the fellows on the Gagetown Team as we do, they might be accused of "laying down." Wait until you meet that powerful Dillman squad. They bowled a total of 632 pins in the third game.

The City League offers sincere wishes for speedy return to good health to Jack Spencer and Tom Hendrick who were victims of accidents recently. The scoring tempo is beginning to increase as several members rolled good scores as the following results show:

Clara was a decided handicap to the team Friday. Whether or not the return to full time duty of two of the veterans will be enough to pull the team into competition with the remaining squads in the league remains to be seen. Latest reports indicate that Evans will be lost for the season.

The squad goes to Yale tonight (Friday) for their first road trip and second conference game of the season. Tuckey will undoubtedly play but is still limping. Clara is rapidly returning to normal.

OFFICIAL PROCEEDINGS Tuscola County Board of Supervisors

(3) The Roads and Bridges Committee recommended that the same procedure be followed as last year with regards to base construction; namely, that all base construction costs be paid by the township with the exception of subject charges.

(4) A flat charge for construction of 2-in. compacted bituminous aggregate surface and for prime and seal surface was discussed. This matter was tabled for further consideration.

(5) The Roads and Bridges Committee requested the Road Commission to contact the Railroad companies relative to the widening of track crossings, at locations where the width of the approach is wider than the present planing.

(6) The Roads and Bridges Committee was informed by the Road Commission that they plan to weigh gravel for township road resurfacing during the coming season. This would make a slight increase in the cost of gravel.

Note: It was decided by the Road Commission after the close of the meeting with the Roads and Bridges Committee, that in any case where a township might choose to put their gravel on the road at present, others do not seem to be present.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

made themselves evident in other retail lines used in the study as indicators.

Sales of automotive equipment locally, including new and used cars and trucks, farm machinery and accessories, amounted to $7,053,000 in the year, equal to 20 per cent of the retail dollar.

Also reflecting the good local conditions were sales of general merchandise which reached a volume of $1,876,000. This represented five per cent of the dollar.

Stores selling furniture, household equipment and radios had a $1,450,000 year, taking four per cent.

Drug store business in the city came to $780,000, an additional two per cent.

The volume of business done by all the local retail stores during 1953 was $34,482,000. In addition, a big spending potential now exists locally and in most other parts of the country, the economists agree. They find that more cash savings are now salted away than ever before.
