Our used car lot on busy afternoons often resembles a teenagers' jive contest. A lot of people are around jumping on bumpers to test shock absorbers.

Everybody knows you should bounce on a car's bumpers to test the shocks but I find a lot of people (and, confidentially, a lot of automobile people too) who don't know exactly what to look for.

The job of shock absorbers is to stop the springs from bouncing the car up and down when you go over a bump. #### What Social Security Means to Farm Workers 🛓

The extension of Social Security to 3,600,000 farm operators and an 2.100,000 more farm workers became effective January 1, 1955, but a lot of rural residents aren't yet informed on what the new coverage means.

Basically, it means monthly payments after age 65 and retirement ranging from $30 to $108.00 a month; payments also to wives or widows and children under 18 years of age up to a family maximum of $200 per month.

Eligible farm operators and workers are required to invest in Federal old-age insurance, startfarm workers on income or wages the animal husbandry department less than $4200 a year.

Employers must also pay a 2 per whose income is $400 or more. You're entitled to earn up to $1.200 a year or receive any amount of income for which you have not "rendered substantial service" and still get full insurance payments. Farmers or workers already 65 or more can get more benefits after retirement by working one and a half years-or until July 1, 1956-and paying Social Security Taxes for that veriod.

Defense Test

City folks found out recently that domestic - type LP - Gas ranges like those used on American farms cook a fine meal. More than 11,500 Chicagoana were served during mass feeding exercise staged by civil defense volunteers. In the nation's first big city test of emergency feeding plans in case of atomic bombing, everything was done as though city utilities - gas, water, light-had been knocked out. Mrs. Jack Griffin, girl scout leader, serves John H. Hurley, national director, mass care di vision of Civil Defense Administration.

Sam smiled weakly.

Jim looked stern. "It's this way, pal," Sam went on. "Seems Miss Coburn has discovered (he dropped his voice guiltily as Miss Coburn looked his way, sternly) a ... er ... ah ... slight error ..." his voice trailed off.

Sam continued. "Seems she figures the department owes her $4.73 for last year . . . simple mistake on our part . . . addition." Jim was beginning to feel sorry

"But here's the payoff!" Sam was really disturbed. "She IN-SISTS we check our records for OTHER MISTAKES DURING PAST YEARS!"

Sam mopped his brow. Jim's laugh startled Miss Coburn. The school marm looked at him for one long moment, seriously. Then she smiled with that thin lipped smile of hers. It was so obvious that nobody, but nobody, could work with fig-ures like Miss Lucy Coburn, retired teacher of the fifth grade.

GONE FOREVER Any man can trade his reputation for money—but he will find he can't trade back.

ROUGH ROAD It's easy to go wrong, but strength of character is needed to take the back track.
