

From the Editor's Corner

If you live in Cass City and sometimes thought that you would like a display for your yard but could never find the time to build one, contact the Chamber of Commerce.

The organization has been erecting several of the displays built in recent years at Christmas time. Included are the Merry Christmas sign, Santa and the elves and several others.

These displays will be available next year free to anyone who will erect them. The Chamber of Commerce wants to see them erected and kept by individual home owners.

Besides adding a Christmas touch to your home and helping with the village program, taking the displays from the Chamber will greatly reduce the work load for members.

Without the individual displays, the Chamber of Commerce could then devote more time to Main Street in the village. For instance next year the group has talked about trying for two more stars across the east and west entrances of the community and the lighting of the evergreen ropes on the Main and Seeger streets intersection.

If you are interested, just contact any member of the Chamber of Commerce or Bill Jolly, Chamber president.

We received a card several weeks ago from Fred Ryan who is spending the winter in Florida. He asked that we publish the weather report each week. Though it is not practical for a weekly paper, we will report this week for Mr. Ryan and other area residents in Florida that unofficial reports Thursday morning listed the weather at about five degrees above zero.

Hawks Top Marlette In Home Opener

Cass City rolled past its first important obstacle in its drive to retain the Thumb B Conference basketball title by registering a convincing 76-63 victory over Marlette Friday at the Cass City School gym.

Paced by veteran Jack Clara and rapidly developing Bob Martus, the Hawks overcame an early Red Raider lead in the first quarter to win easily.

For the first time in at least three seasons, Coach Irv Clasen figures that he has bench strength. In the opening two games this year he has used seven men interchangeably. Starting with Jim Ellis, Clara, Martus, Gordon Drouillard and John Meininger, he has used Jim Johnson and Brent Connell almost as much as the starting five.

Against Marlette, Connell came off the bench in the second period to provide a spark that sent the Hawks into the lead. He counted four quick field goals as Cass City overcame the three-point Marlette margin and roared into a 40-38 lead. In the period, Cass City posted a 23-18 margin.

Clara kept the Hawk attack in high gear in the third quarter. He racked up eight points on four field goals and added two charity tosses to account for 10 of Cass City's 18 points in the quarter.

At the end of the third quarter, Cass City led 58-46. Coach Clasen emptied his bench in the last quarter, but still outscored Marlette by a single point, 18-17.

Part of Marlette's early lead in the game was accounted for by a phenomenal showing from the free-throw line in the first quarter. The team converted 14 of 15 free tosses, including six in a row by Dan Reidel. Reidel racked up 10 straight free throws in as many tries during the evening.

Ellis Mallory Slightly Injured In Freak Accident

Ellis Mallory suffered what may have been a mild concussion Tuesday morning when he struck his head after being knocked over with a cable on West Main Street.

Mr. Mallory was standing beside the road when a truck with the cable dragging behind was passing. The cable hit him across the legs and he was thrown to the ground, striking his head.

He was taken to Cass City Hospital and released later in the day.

The cable the truck was dragging was snapped from a wrecker in front of Southside Auto Parts on South Seeger. Evidently, the hook had caught in the back of the truck when it went by the wrecker. After running the cable off the winch it snapped and dragged behind until the accident occurred.

Yule Display Opening Set for Friday Night

Cass City's official opening of the 1955 Christmas displays has been set for tonight (Friday) by the Cass City Chamber of Commerce board.

The date was designated at a meeting of the board Monday evening at the Municipal Building. At the same time, the Chamber announced Christmas store hours for most stores in the village.

Starting Friday, Dec. 16, stores will be open every evening until the night before Christmas. Christmas Eve all stores will close at 6 p. m. Stores in the village will also be closed at 6 p. m. New Year's Eve.

Again this year the Chamber will furnish maps for visitors showing where the home displays are located.

Four persons have been asked to judge the displays for the prizes offered by the Chamber of Commerce.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Soni, from the Thumb bureau of the Port Huron Times Herald, and Mr. and Mrs. Neil Smith, from the Thumb bureau of the Bay City Times, have been asked to determine the winners.

Prices Down at Junior Show

Perry Receives $5.50 Per Pound for Lamb

Jack Perry, who exhibited the grand champion lamb at the Detroit Junior Livestock Show, received $5.50 a pound for his champion.

The price was considerably below the amount paid for last year's champion. Local observers said the strike of the three Detroit papers was thought to be one of the major reasons.

The grand champion pen of lambs exhibited by Linda Severance brought $1 a pound, while Jack Perry's reserve champion pen brought 50 cents.

Other prices paid for local lambs were: Arthur Severance's Southdown, 30 cents; Larry Goodall's crossbred, 32½ cents; Wilbert Goodall, Corriedale, 25 cents; and Virginia Perry, Southdown, 27 cents.

Prices for steers were also low in comparison to last year. David Matthews received the highest amount per pound of all Cass City entries. His Angus brought 27½ cents. Other Angus steers sold for the following amounts: Ed Profit, 24½ cents; Gordon Goodall, 24½ and 23½ for two steers; and Linda Goodall, 23½ and 24 cents for two steers.

Top price for Herefords from Cass City went to Lyle Schember who sold two for 23½ cents per pound. Linda Bielew sold two Herefords and Riner Schember sold one for 21½ cents per pound.

Thorpe New Prexy Of Community Club

Ray Thorpe was elected president of the Cass City Community Club for 1956 by the board of directors of the organization. Announcement of the results of the voting was made at the regular monthly meeting of the club at Cass City High School Tuesday.

Mr. Thorpe was named to the board as a representative of the Fraser Presbyterian Church.

Other directors named were: Orion Cardew, vice-president, representing the Cass City Presbyterian Church; Dick Hampshire, secretary, representing the Evangelical United Brethren Church; and Noah Farmer, treasurer, representing the Catholic Church.

Other directors were named: Louis Bartz, Lutheran Church; Claude Peasley, Church of Christ; and Herbert Ludlow, member-at-large.

After the supper, served by the ladies of the Presbyterian Church, the group was entertained by H. Tubbs, district conservation officer from Caro. Mr. Tubbs traced the history of conservation from early Biblical times and explained the need for better conservation practices.

After his discussion, he showed the film, "The Michigan Deer Story." The film explained the history of the deer herd in Michigan and how controlled hunting with "any deer" seasons produces better bucks and helps eliminate deer starvation.

Early Morning Fire Destroys Eisingers' Home

Fire razed the trailer home of Mr. and Mrs. Ken Eisinger, four miles east of Cass City, early Wednesday morning, destroying not only the trailer but much of the contents of the home.

Members of the Elkland Township Fire Department answered the alarm at about 5:30 a. m. Wednesday morning. When they arrived the fire was well started. Although the cause of the fire was not determined, firemen thought that it may have started in some straw under the trailer.

A few of the clothes of the Eisingers were carried from the trailer, but firemen said that the items salvaged were badly smoke-damaged.

Extent of the loss was not determined. The Eisingers were living in the trailer until spring when they planned to build a home.

The trailer was housed a short distance from the gas tanks of Fuelgas Co., which Mr. Eisinger manages.

After leaving the fire apparently extinguished, the fire-fighters were called back at about 11:30 a. m. to quell a blaze that broke out after smoldering.

St. Agatha Church $70,000 Remodeling Completed

St. Agatha Catholic Church of Gagetown has a substantially new church after remodeling of the church built in 1914 and 1915 by Father Patrick J. Dwan was completed last week at a cost of $70,000.

The church, which seats 700, is 125 feet long and 50 feet wide of Gothic architecture in the shape of a cross. It is the result of a long series of progress steps by the parish since the first church was built in 1880 while Father Clement T. Krebs was pastor.

Work started on the remodeling May 15 and the building was renovated on the inside and out. Masonry joints of the entire building were ground out and replaced with non-shrinking, moisture-proof mortar. The slate roof was repaired and lifetime copper gutters, valleys and cornice installed.

Other changes to the exterior of the building included the installation of non-skid quarry tile steps and four pairs of white oak doors that replaced original doors. Extensive repair was completed on the church's large stained glass windows and all exterior wood and steel were painted.

An equally complete remodeling job was completed on the interior which included redesigning of the sanctuary and altar setting.

The high-ceilinged church was completely replastered. Vestibules, sacristies and other rooms in the church were painted. Decorations include a rose buff dado around the entire church on the newly plastered white walls. The same color was used around the window wells to complete the simple pleasing effect.

One of the most noticeable changes in the church is the work completed on the sanctuary. A massive canopy of oak was erected. Extending from the Gothic pillars which support it is oak-paneled wainscoting which covers the entire sanctuary wall. In the paneling on either side of the altar are two doors which have been constructed so that they seem part of the paneling. The woodwork is in natural oak color with a satin finish and new altar-side furniture is in matching wood and upholstery.

Side altars, previously partially obscured, have been brought forward into full view of the congregation and lowered one step. The space previously occupied by the side altars has been converted into a candle room on the left and a private priest chapel on the right.

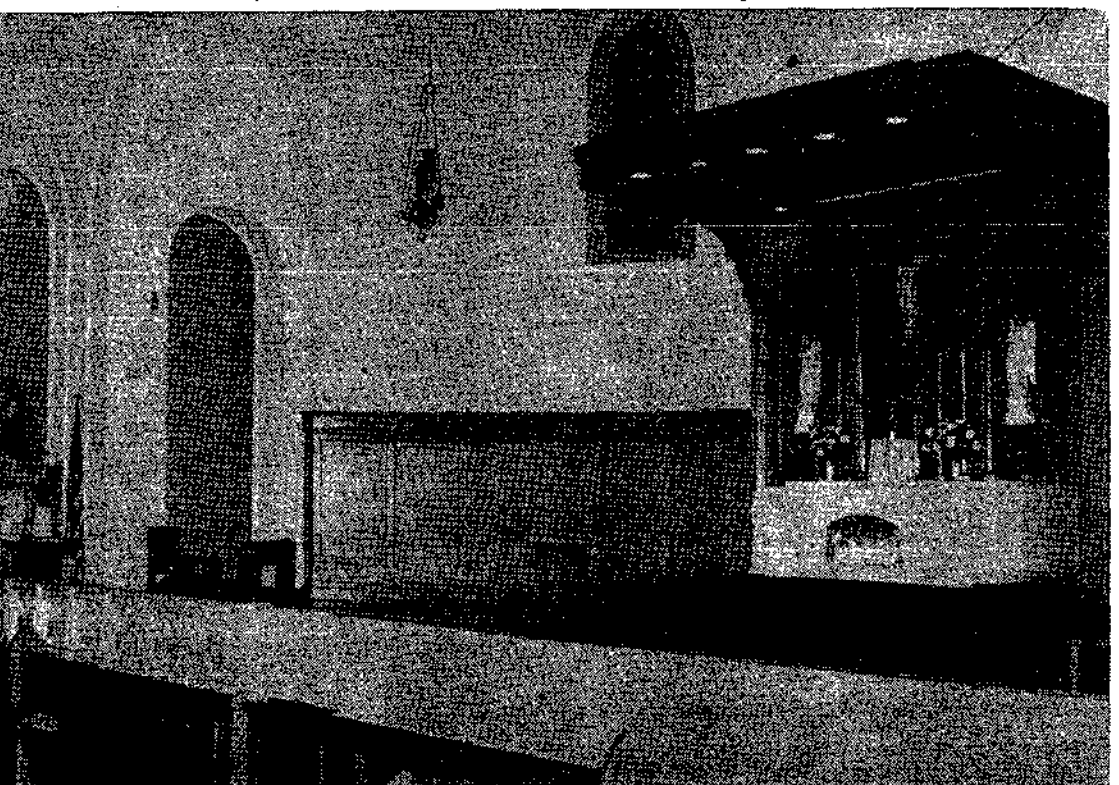

Father Glenn W. Cronkite, under whose direction the work was completed, said that enough pledges have been received to pay off the debt in five years, although the mortgage on the building is for 10 years.

Father Cronkite said that the parish Altar Society and Holy Name Society have made possible the redecoration of altars, railing and statuary; the replating of candlesticks and replating and redesigning of the main altar portion of the church before remodeling began and the other photo shows the sanctuary as it appears today. Note that two doors in the photo at the right cannot be seen now. Still there, they are camouflaged in the paneling behind the altar. Note full view of the congregation and the new plaster on the walls.

Donald Hanby in Army Field Exercise

Pvt. Donald W. Hanby, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hanby, Cass City, recently took part in an Army overnight field exercise in France.

The maneuver was staged by the Advance Section of the European Communications Zone.

Private Hanby, a member of the 731st Army Unit's Storage Company, entered the Army in November 1954 and received basic training at Fort Leonard Wood, Mo. He arrived in Europe in March 1955.

Hanby is a 1953 graduate of Cass City High School.

It is said that truth will out—and it is true that it is everlastingly out of some people.

If a man expects to keep on the square he has to be careful with whom he makes the rounds.

Down Memory Lane

FROM THE FILES OF THE CHRONICLE

Thirty-five Years Ago

Under a new law, people using sleighs must see that they "track" the same as wheeled vehicles. This is to help keep the highways open to all kinds of traffic.

Rev. Frederick J. Libby, brother of Mrs. L. B. Auten, who has been doing relief work in Poland as a representative of the American Friends Service Committee since April, is expected to spend Christmas in Cass City with his sister and family.

The Deford School took in $36 at the pie social Dec. 10.

The cost of manufacturing farm products will soon bring about a revolution by farmers if conditions do not change soon. To illustrate, Charles Krager of East Novesta, has been offering 175 pounds of wool in the fleece for a six-pound suit of wool clothes with no takers.

Miss North will furnish a Christmas pie as large as a wash tub for the little folks of Gagetown at their Christmas party.

Twenty-five Years Ago

Eight members of the Cass City Livestock Club sold their eight steers at Fairs for $1896.15. Those selling were Lynn Spencer, Romney Horner, Alison Milligan, Paul Moore, George Clara, Jim Milligan, Clayton Moore and Gerald King.

George Robinson, living 9 1/2 miles east of Cass City, had a narrow escape from death Tuesday evening, Dec. 9, when he was attacked by a bull.

The following officers of the Upper Thumb Athletic Association were elected at a meeting at Kingston Tuesday night: president, Howard Davis, Caro; secretary-treasurer, Russell Hilbert, Sebawaing; vice-presidents, Supt. Hemestra, Crosswell, Kenneth Kelly, Cass City and Russell LeCronier, Bad Axe.

Elkton suffered the loss of its school in a fire Sunday night. The loss was estimated at $15,000. The gymnasium erected four years ago was saved.

Saturday, Dec. 13, William Ashmore lost a valuable horse which had been injured several days before. It was the fifth horse Mr. Ashmore had lost in the past two years.

Ten Years Ago

The Cass City High School band begins its fall term with 85 members, 25 of whom are new members. Officers of the band chosen early in the year are:

Florence Hillman, president; Louella Hartley, vice-president; Betty Ann Krizman, secretary-treasurer; Amie Deneen, librarian; and Laura Beardsley, custodian.

At a meeting in the courthouse, Caro, Tuesday the following committee was named to head the Tuscola Farm Bureau roll call for 1946: George Foster of Fostoria, Harry Burns of Millington, Robert McFarlane of Wisner, Norwood Eastman of Cass City and Jesse Triebler of Unionville.

The districts that have made their "E" bond quotas in Tuscola County are Cass City, Reese and Richville.

A crop of 52.02 bushels per acre won the corn growing championship of Tuscola County in the 1945 national DeKalb hybrid corn growing contest, it was learned this week. Frank Seurnyk of Gagetown is the corn grower who made this record in competition with thousands of farmers from 19 principal corn producing states.

Five Years Ago

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Hutchinson of Caro, the parents of Mrs. Wm. Simmons of Cass City, will celebrate their 60th wedding anniversary Sunday, Dec. 17.

The Aberdeen Angus steer shown by Jack Gallagher of Cass City was judged second in class and reserve champion of the breed at the Detroit Junior Livestock Show last Thursday.

Mrs. O. H. O'Neil won the grand award of a Hoover vacuum sweeper at the third distribution of Christmas awards sponsored by the Cass City Chamber of Commerce Wednesday. A crowd of 3500 shoppers gathered at the corner of Main and Seeger Streets for the event.

George Dillman was elected president of the Community Club at a board of directors' meeting Tuesday evening at the high school. Other officers elected for 1951 are Howard Wooley, vice-president; Fred Auten, secretary, and Dan MacLachlan, treasurer.

Shooting a 160-pound buck made Arnold Langmaid of Decker the winner of a deer-hunting contest sponsored by Hulien's Clothing store, it was announced Tuesday.

HEART-FELT

It isn't necessary to wear a stony face to be considered a pillar of the church.

Dig—These Crazy Christmas Gifts

Even Christmas has caught up with the atomic age. A sign of the times is the increasing demand for Geiger counters as Christmas gifts.

Manufacturers say people from all over the country are giving as presents the miracle instrument that noses out uranium.

If you're buying a gift for a prospective uranium prospector you can get him one of these radioactivity detection devices at prices ranging from $24.95 to $2000. Most popular model, manufacturers say, is about the size of a miniature camera and retails for about $35.

Uranium "hounds" are as varied as the instruments they buy. They range from housewives with infants in their arms to geologists and business tycoons, clerks, laborers and society women. An amateur uranium prospectors' club in the East, composed entirely of women, is known as the "Geiger Widows."

Last year gift Geigers were mailed all over the United States.

One woman telephoned the New York office of a leading manufacturing firm from Florida to order a $1,995 unit as a Christmas surprise for her husband.

Harvesting Trees Big Christmas Business

While the sale of Christmas trees to the consumer is conducted entirely in the few weeks just prior to Christmas, the harvesting, processing and shipping of the trees may begin as much as three months before Christmas.

Approximately 25 per cent of the retail price of a Christmas tree is the stumpage price; trees retailed for about 25 cents per lineal foot will be worth about 6 cents on the stump and could wholesale for from 10 cents to 15 cents per lineal foot. Total number of trees distributed in the United States is about 30 million.

There are at least 10 important Christmas tree associations and groups representing the industry in the United States and approximately 5,000 individuals and firms are registered as retailers and wholesalers of Christmas trees in the United States.

SINGING SANTA... It seems that Santa Claus is everywhere this time of year. In this photo he is shown unloading some of the more than 11,000 Christmas trees shipped from Canada to the United States.

The fellow who discovered that honesty is the best policy evidently experimented with them all.

The man who offers you so-called good advice doesn't know it is good or he would use it himself.

Proper Woods Care Can Increase Profits

The old saying slightly changed to read, "there's gold in them thar woodlots," can well express the value of farm timber.

Over $54,000 worth of woodland products were harvested in 1954 from 87 reporting Tuscola County farms. However, states assistant county agricultural agent Don R. Kobler, there are more timbered areas not being economically cropped in the county.

To better assist the woodlot owners in harvesting their tree crop, the county agricultural agent's office and the district forester, Allen Boelter, have arranged a woodlot management and sawmill demonstration. This demonstration will be held at Ted Keinath's sawmill and Gertrude Parish's woodlot on Friday, December 16, from 1:30 to 4:00 p. m. Both are located on Buell Road, just 1/2 mile south of Murphy Lake Road, or 1/4 mile north of the Millington Road, in section 10 of Arbela Township.

Professor Lester Bell, forestry extension specialist, Michigan State University, will be present to assist in the program.

The demonstration will show the correct practices in selection and cutting timber, values and methods of tree girdling, timber scaling, economic log sawing, lumber grading and piling, and home use of lumber on the farm.

The public is invited to attend this demonstration as this is the first time such a program has

Michigan Mirror News Briefs

Educators have launched a campaign to remove the last state-level tinge of politics from the Michigan system of public schools.

They are going about it with the encouragement and the support of the man whose job they want to abolish.

He is Dr. Clair L. Taylor, superintendent of public instruction, who, along with his last two predecessors, wants to make the post appointive by an expanded state board of education.

Spearheading the latest attempt is the powerful Michigan Education Association and its executive director, Dr. A. J. Phillips.

"I think we can do it this time," he said.

The plan is to put before the voters in November, 1956, proposals to change the Michigan Constitution to create an eight-member state board of education (from the present six members) which would then appoint the superintendent.

Dr. Phillips said details are being worked out to elect the board on a non-partisan basis.

At present, the board controls Michigan's teacher colleges and fixes policy for the superintendent's office, works on curricula and other matters.

The superintendent, himself, is a schoolman first, then, of necessity, a politician. He is nominated by political conventions and must campaign like the rest.

"I am in full support of this movement to take the job out of politics," said Taylor.

The reform has arisen and vanished several times in the past decade. One of its latter-day advocates was the "Little Hoover" commission which also wanted to abolish the auditor-general's post.

School districts already are working out the details of distribution for the $13,500,000 bonanza of sales tax moneys earmarked for salaries and wages by the legislature a month ago.

How the plans are finally developed will be a gauge of political battles yet to come.

Gov. Williams lost his fight for the legislature to specify that each of Michigan's 51,000 teachers get a flat $200 increase, when Republicans turned the money over to local school boards with that recommendation.

Taylor made a special plea to local officials to keep the per teacher increase as near $200 as possible. First reports indicated they would.

Detroit, adding money of its own, said each teacher would get $200, the same went for Muskegon Heights and Berkley.

"When the final reports are in, I am confident people will be pleased with the distribution," Taylor said.

The extra money came from increased sales tax collections which are earmarked for the schools—two of every three cents. The release of the funds pushed the $134,000,000 school aid bill to $197,500,000, the most ever turned over to schools in one year.

Movies are going to patrol Michigan highways.

That was the promise of State Police Commissioner Joseph A. Childs as he planned a "saturation patrol" of the high-accident areas in the state.

Officers already are working on an inexpensive camera mount for police cars and determining whether the operation can be handled by one trooper alone or will need two men.

At the same time Childs said he would assign his 200 new troopers to the high-accident areas for the "saturation patrol"—which he defined as one police car every 10 miles around the clock.

"A speeder just gets out of the range of one of our cars when he gets into the range of another," he said.

All this will happen before next Memorial Day when the extra troopers are graduated. Schools in the winter and spring will train the troopers in patrol duties and they will be sent on the road immediately. They will go back to school next fall to finish.

Childs, asked the purpose of the motion picture cameras, said that the films could be used in cases in which motorists contest tickets in court.

"Besides, if a driver believes he is being watched by a camera, he's going to be more careful," Childs said. "It's psychological but we're ready to try anything to cut down accidents."

Planning money for two new state office buildings—one to house the Michigan Supreme Court and another to house state agencies still renting from private landlords—has been released.

The $105,000 for plans for the buildings was delayed for months when Atty. Gen. Thomas M. Kavanagh objected to placing the law library in another building, away from his office.

The new arrangement keeps Kavanagh and the law books in the same building.

Farmers' Tax Guide Now Available

A farmers' tax guide booklet explaining income tax rules which apply to farmers is now available at the Tuscola County extension office, located in the courthouse, Caro, according to Alfred Ballweg, county agricultural agent. Anyone may obtain a copy by calling or writing to the office. It does not discuss all the finer points of the law, but you will find in it the answers to most of your more difficult income tax problems, said Ballweg.

Evergreen Pioneer Buried Tuesday

Mr. George Caister, 72, died Saturday night, Dec. 10, at Pleasant Home Hospital where he had been a patient for two weeks. He had been ill the past three weeks.

Mr. Caister was born in Canada May 12, 1883, the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Caister. He came to this country with his parents as a child when they settled in Evergreen Township.

He and Miss Edith McKee were married in Evergreen Township Dec. 18, 1906, where they made their home following their marriage.

Mr. Caister was a member of the Shabbona Methodist Church for the past 25 years. For over 19 years he served as justice of the peace.

Surviving are one daughter, Mrs. Merle (Esther) Kritzman of Detroit; three sons, Mr. Wilford Caister, Mr. Allen Caister and Mr. Maurice Caister, all of Decker; eight grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Caister died in March, 1940, and two brothers and one sister also preceded him in death.

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Shabbona Methodist Church with Rev. George Marshall officiating. Burial was in the family lot in Elkland Cemetery.

Little's Funeral Home had charge of funeral arrangements.

Wheat Support Prices Lower in '56

Tuscola County farmers can look for wheat to average about 25 cents lower than 1955 support prices for the rest of the marketing season. The 1955 support price for Tuscola County is $2.11 per bushel.

Alfred Ballweg, county agricultural agent, passes along this price outlook from farm economists at Michigan State University. For next year, wheat prices at the farm will be closely tied to the support price. The national average support price set for the 1956 crop is not less than $1.81 per bushel or down 27 cents from 1955 support level.

Agent Ballweg also reminds growers that 23 wheat varieties will be discounted 20 cents per bushel in the 1956 price support program. These varieties have inferior milling or baking qualities. Two varieties grown in Michigan are included—Henry and Burko.

Farmers should keep in mind that price drops at harvest time have been heavy the past few years. Farmers who could qualify for the price support program have found it paid off. There's no reason to expect next year to be an exception, according to the MSU farm economists.

Nowadays it is easy enough to buy luxury goods on time—the trouble comes in paying on time.

News from Deford Area

F. B. Christmas Meeting

Because this was the Christmas family night of the Deford Farm Bureau group, 30 enjoyed a roast chicken supper at 7:30 p. m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Burton Allen and family in Deford.

During the short business session presided over by Harold Chapin, it was agreed to have the Farm Bureau area feeds representative come to a meeting in the near future. The group will meet with the Chapins in January.

The discussion leader, Kenneth Churchill gave a resume of the topic, "Who Should Speak for the Farmers?" As a result a committee of three, Harold Chapin, Lewis Babish and Kenneth Churchill met at the Churchill home Dec. 10, to answer the questions raised. Six topics were checked for future group discussions, and two suggested topics were given. (1) A uniform location for traffic signs, and signal lights, and (2) Should the state be made responsible for damage to cars when in collision with game animals?

A short program consisting of singing of carols and some recitations was given and a gift exchange for all ages ensued under the direction of Mrs. Harold Rayl. The group secretary was also presented with a towel set gift. Those present all felt that absent members missed a worth while evening, both in learning more about the problems that confront us as citizens, and a good time of fellowship at this Christmas season.

Mr. and Mrs. Newell Hubbard, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hartwick, Mr. and Mrs. John Zawrowski and Mr. and Mrs. J. Pariseau, all employees of the Frutchey Bean Co., attended a banquet given by the company at Zehnder's hotel in Frankfort Friday evening, Dec. 9.

William Zemke, Jr., went to Selfridge Air Force Base, Detroit, for the week end. Sunday afternoon, he went to St. Louis, Mo., and also visited Scott Field Air Force Base at Bellevue, Ill. While he was gone, Mrs. Zemke and son went to Rochester to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs.

Basil Hartwick. Mr. and Mrs. John Pringle visited Mr. and Mrs. Peter Greer and Mrs. Dena Bonsteel of Otisville Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Carlos Vader of Wayne were Saturday evening callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gail Parrott and sons.

Mr. and Mrs. John Henderson of Uby and Mrs. Edna Malcolm were Sunday dinner guests at the George Roblin home.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Templeton and son of Flint were Sunday evening luncheon guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rock and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Wright and family of Cass City and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Gomyer and son, Johnnie, of Kingston visited Mr. and Mrs. Grant Pringle and sons Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Stewart and baby son of Decker called Sunday on Mr. and Mrs. Earl Rayl, Sr. and family. Mr. and Mrs. Clark Zinnecker and sons spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Adrian and daughter, Johanna, of Davison.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Vandemark a son, Daniel Joe, on Friday, December 2, at the Caro Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Babish, Jr., and family of Manton were weekend guests at the Louis Babish home.

Alfred Fuhrman of Redford called on friends and relatives here Friday.

Mrs. Louise Withey of Center Line was a guest the past week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Norris Boyne.

James Jacoby of Pontiac was a Saturday visitor at the George Jacoby home.

Mrs. Robert McArthur and children of Tower came Sunday to make their home at the McArthur farm for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Kelley were Sunday visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Kritzman.

Any car will last a man a lifetime if he is careless enough.

Local Club Holds Christmas Party

Many expressions of surprise were heard when secret pals were revealed at the meeting of the Cass City Home Demonstration Club in the high school building Monday evening. It was the Christmas party of the group and gifts were exchanged.

During a short program which had been arranged by Mrs. Harold Greenleaf and Mrs. Ben Kirtin, "Jingle Bells," "Silent Night" and "Hark the Herald Angels Sing" were sung and Donald Greenleaf contributed two selections with bells.

In the business session, Mrs. Max Agar was welcomed as a new member, names for secret pals for the ensuing year were drawn, and $5.00 were voted to be presented to CARE for sending surplus food of the United States to the needy in Korea.

Miniature Christmas trees and red candles, in groups of three, decorated the tables when a luncheon was served at 6:30 by the following committee: Mrs. Albert Gallagher, Mrs. E. Croft, Mrs. Ed Rusch, Mrs. F. L. Morris, Mrs. John West, and Mrs. Keith McConkey. Poinsettia table mats and napkins also added to the holiday motif. A larger, lighted tree centered the table upon which gifts had been placed.

A "Christmas Thought" was the response to roll call and rhymes accompanied the secret gift gifts.

The January meeting will be based on "Civil Defense" as a lesson study.

The lesson people most easily learn as they grow older is that the older they grow the harder it is to learn.

WORDS ARE CHEAP
Some folks find it easier to make a new promise than to try to mend a broken one.

SOUNDS EASY

HOW WE MAKE OUR GROUND BEEF AT IGA

IGA Table-Rite

GROUND
BEEF

lb. 39c

We take care when we grind our ground beef. Ground Beef, like any other commodity, can be made to sell for any price.

Excess fat is only worth about 2½ cents per pound, so, naturally, the more fat that is included, the lower the price.

There are lean meat items, such as Beef and Pork Hearts that cost less than the pure top grade beef . . . that may be included in Ground Beef . . . and, of course, if they are included, ground beef may be offered to the consumer at lower retail.

However, whenever you see ground beef offered for sale at your favorite IGA Market, you can be sure it is made from pure top quality beef. Our expert IGA buyers see to that.

Serve IGA Ground Beef with confidence. Priced for better value.

Tips on Choosing Christmas Tree That Will Last

If your Christmas tree shed needles all over the living room last year, chances are you weren't careful enough in buying a "fresh" tree.

Touch-typing will help you pick a choicy tree. You can tell by the feel which trees are better able to withstand the hot stage indoors.

If twigs and foliage aren't reasonably resilient or needles feel dry and crumbly, better pass up the tree. Chances are it will look like a hattrack before Christmas day.

And if you're not quite sure by the touch method, bang the butt of the tree sharply on the floor. A shower of needles will tell you if the tree's drying out, even before you get it home. Of course, the way the tree looks is an important factor, but an attractive tree that will lose its beauty in short order is hardly a bargain.

The ideal holiday tree boasts the traditional pyramid shape, with lush branches reaching to the base. The two favorites in the market places are Balsam fir and Norway spruce. The slower-growing Balsam fir is more expensive than the spruce, but it retains its beauty longer indoors.

Christmas Tree Industry Aids Forestry Programs

That beautiful Christmas tree you've purchased for your living room this Christmas needn't cause any qualms of conscience if you're the type who worries about the effect of the Christmas tree business on our forests.

The fact that yours is one of 31 million trees used for holiday decorations this year makes it seem that our forests are in great peril, but such is not the case. In fact, at least half of these trees are coming from sources that did not harm or actually improved the forest land they occupied when cut.

Foresters who grow saw-log trees generally divide cut-over land into four classes and Christmas-tree land is the lowest classification. It won't grow good forests, but is ideal for Christmas trees since it barely supports tree life. The tree, in its struggle to exist, throws out quick and frequent branches.

On such land are the Christmas-tree farms, such as one operated at Tacoma, Washington, by Paul Kirk, the "Christmas-tree king." Kirk distributes 4 to 5 million trees a year and keeps several times that number growing.

The last two or three weeks before Christmas are about the busiest of the year for Paul Kirk, for his carefully grown trees must arrive at their destinations on time. It isn't unusual for him to tour dozens of cities checking on shipments before he gets home at the last moment to gather with his family around the Kirks' huge white-sprayed tree.

Bethlehem: Many Languages Join Together In Holy Praise

As the angels sang on that first Christmas night, so will there be singing in the village of Bethlehem in this year of 1955.

Bethlehem caroling is in many languages. An Arab choir will join with the voices of tourists and pilgrims in a simple outdoor service. In a grotto which might have been the sheepfold for the watching shepherds, the Christmas story will be read from the Gospel of St. Luke.

The stone buildings and churches of Bethlehem will be filled with thousands of pilgrims who have journeyed here for a pontifical mass at midnight in St. Catherine's Chapel and the procession which later leads down a flight of stone stairs to the grotto beneath the Church of the Nativity.

According to tradition, nearly 2,000 years old, the grotto is the site of the stable where Jesus was born when Joseph and Mary could find no room at the inn.

During the ceremony an infant figure of Christ is placed first on a silver star, then in a manger in a wooden crib where it will remain until the feast of Epiphany.

On both sides of the Israel-Jordan border, a short distance from Bethlehem, tent cities are set up to facilitate border crossing formalities for almost 2,000 Christians living in Israel and temporary Christian residents of Israel traveling to Bethlehem for Christmas. The formalities do not take much time. In one tent, pilgrims get stamps for their permits; in another, their luggage is checked; finally their money is changed.

Then they cross the border, Bethlehem-bound, just as was Mary and Joseph on a similar night long, long ago, and just as are fervent travelers from all parts of the world in this year of 1955.

Economy is one tune that can't be played without practice.

The road to success has a hard surface, but is not always smooth.

There is plenty of parking space on the straight and narrow path.

50,000th Buyer Gets Farm from United

B. A. Calka, local representative for United Farm Agency, said that his company had contributed $10,000 to the purchase of a farm for Mr. and Mrs. Bob Sells of Peach Orchard, Mo., this week because the Sells were the 50,000th sale of farm land by the company.

The idea was formulated two years ago by Roscoe L. Chamberlain of Kansas City, chairman of the board of the real estate organization.

For the past several months each agent has been placing the hour and minute, as well as the date, on every sales contract, Mr. Calka said. This was done so that the 50,000th sale would be earmarked without dispute.

The 50,000th sale made to the Sells came to only $3,000. Mr. Chamberlain thought that the Sells and their seven children deserved a better one.

So he helped them select a better farm with 80 acres, six-room house partly furnished, livestock, feed and extra lumber to build a garage. In addition, they were helped in finishing paying the contract on their first farm. The Sells now have two farms clear of debt.
