

From the Editor's Corner

According to information supplied by the Secretary of State's office, there are 16,842 registered voters in Tuscola County now. That this is a small fraction of the number of citizens who are eligible to vote is common knowledge.

Of the registered voters in the county in the 1954 election, 8,005 persons voted. . . a little less than 50 per cent of the persons registered.

In a presidential election this figure might well be doubled, but still will be only a partial representation of citizens with voting franchises in this county.

Keith McConkey, president of the Cass City Chamber of Commerce, announced this week that membership in the organization now stands at 100. This is another new record for the organization. A list of the firms will be published in an early issue of the Chronicle in recognition of what this writer believes to be an outstanding achievement of the Chamber board.

Orr-Moore School Ordered Repaired By Circuit Court

The Orr-Moore School, four miles east of M-81 on Deckerville Road, cannot be opened this fall until necessary alterations are completed as required by the state for adequate fire protection.

This was the decision handed down in Tuscola Circuit Court Wednesday by Judge T. C. Quinn. School authorities must build in addition to the building to house the heating system for the school and a fire wall must be erected between the heating equipment and the main school building.

State Police Commissioner Joseph A. Childs was the plaintiff for the state in the case.

In second place is a registered Holstein cow, owned by Dolan Sweeney, of Uby, producing 1044 pounds of fat; in third place is a registered Holstein cow, Sharon, owned by Werner List of Vassar, producing 102 pounds of fat; in fourth place is a registered Holstein cow, owned by Herman Kern of Reese, producing 98 pounds of fat; in fifth place, a registered Holstein cow owned by Clayton Rohlf & Sons of Fairgrove produced 96 pounds of fat. The registered Holstein herd of Elmer Kern, Reese, leads the list of herds producing 90 pounds of fat or more per cow during May. Mr. Kern's herd produced an average of 60.6 pounds of fat and 1553 pounds of milk. In second place is the 21-cow registered Holstein herd of Herman Kern, Reese, averaging 55.0 pounds of fat and 1484 pounds of milk; in third place stands the 20-cow registered Holstein herd of Clayton Rohlf & Sons of Fairgrove which produced an average of 51.2 pounds of fat and 1400 pounds of milk; in fourth place is the 21-cow registered Holstein herd owned by Dolan Sweeney of Uby, which produced an average of 60.3 pounds of fat and 1416 pounds of milk.

In another case Thursday before Judge T. C. Quinn, a divorce trial between Mrs. Myra Ann Kritzman and Henry A. Kritzman, both of Cass City, was dismissed as testimony indicated that there were not adequate grounds for divorce.

Cass City Drops 3-Star League Tilt to Otisville

Otisville made the most of 10 hits and seven Cass City errors to hand the Merchants their first loss of the season in the 3-Star League Sunday at the Cass City Recreational Park. The score was 11-4.

Both teams made 10 hits, but Otisville played errorless ball behind their pitcher, Shade. Besides committing the seven misplays, Cass City played careless ball and many of the visitors' hits were fly balls that dropped in front of outfielders and should have been easy outs.

Gerald Whittaker started on the mound for Cass City and went seven innings before being relieved by John Ellis who pitched the eighth and ninth.

In other games in the league, Vassar topped North Branch and Mayville defeated Gilford. Vassar, the doormat of the league last season, is now in first place with a 3-1 record. In second place is Mayville with a 2-1 record. Otisville is tied for third with Cass City. Otisville has won two and lost two, while the Merchants are 1-1 for the season.

In the league basement is Gilford with a 1-3 record.

PROTESTS DUST—Mrs. Elsie McBurney of Cass City stands behind her homemade sign protesting the dust caused by traffic on Doerr Road. A group of citizens living on the road had appeared before the council at its last regular meeting and asked that something be done about the dust which they said forced them to keep their windows closed and prevented them from drying clothes out-of-doors.

The sign was erected Saturday. The council, following previous plans, poured brine on the road Saturday afternoon.

The Tuscola County Sheriff's Department removed the sign on the road because it was illegal.

The bottom photo shows the dust on the road before the brine was poured. A second application of brine Monday had the road dust free as late as Thursday morning.

Community's Oldest Resident Dies Tuesday

Mrs. Elizabeth Koepfgen, 100 years old, died Tuesday, June 12, at the home of her daughter, Miss Beryl Koepfgen of Midland. She was Cass City's oldest resident.

Mrs. Koepfgen died quietly from infirmities of old age.

At her home here she was famous for her flower garden.

The former Miss Elizabeth Morton, she was born in East Wawanah, Ont., March 26, 1856, and celebrated her 100th birthday in March.

She spent her girlhood in Belgrave, Ont., and met her husband, Philip, on a visit to Cass City in 1880 to visit two sisters who were living in the community. The following year they were married in Belgrave.

They lived on their farm here until 1924 when Mr. Koepfgen died. Mrs. Koepfgen remained on the farm until her eyesight became poor and she moved to her daughter's home in Midland in 1931.

Surviving are two daughters, Miss Beryl Koepfgen of Midland and Miss Beatrice Koepfgen of Kalamazoo; two sons, Leslie of

Park, Pool Programs To Open Monday

Driver Training Course Explained To Rotarians

Robert Stickle, driver training instructor at Cass City High School, told Rotarians that the course was "trying to mold attitudes" in students at the school.

Speaking Tuesday at the New Gordon Hotel, he said, for that reason we regard the classroom instruction as more important than the actual time spent behind the wheel of the training car by students.

The new program is subsidized by the state and will be required for all students 16 to 18 years old in Michigan who wish to obtain a driver's license.

The new law becomes effective Jan. 1, 1957, and Michigan is the first state in the union to pass legislation of this type.

Outstanding traffic safety records in other states where the courses have been held prompted Michigan to pass the law, he said. Fatalities have been reduced 50 per cent among drivers who have taken the course, he pointed out. That results in Michigan will probably not be as good. In other states where results were tabulated, the course was on a voluntary basis and authorities assume only students who are safety conscious enrolled. With the program compulsory for a license, drivers who are poor risks will be taking the course and may push the average down, he pointed out.

Mr. Stickle brought his classroom equipment and ran a few of the reaction tests given students for the benefit of members.

In the business meeting, the club decided to hold the annual ladies' night June 22 at the Pigeon Country Club. A letter was read from Klaus Schulze, German exchange student who spent a year in Cass City as a guest of the club.

A request for funds for the Babe Ruth League was tabled until profits from the club dance are tabulated and the money left in the treasury ascertained.

Sanilac County Largest Dairy Producer in State

Although Tuscola County is a large dairy county in the state, it ranks far behind Sanilac County in dairy income.

Sanilac is the top county in the state for dairy products. Its annual income runs well up in the millions of dollars yearly and is over second place Lapeer County by over two million dollars annually.

About 43 per cent of the county's agricultural income comes from the sale of dairy products.

This information was released by the dairy industry as a feature of "June is Dairy Month."

If increased consumption can raise the demand for bottled milk and other dairy products enough, an increased milk check will go to farmers, dairy authorities said.

An increase will help not only Sanilac, but all Thumb counties which are big dairy producers.

File for Farm Gas

You will find it a simple job to file your application for the new 2-cent-a-gallon federal gasoline tax refund, according to Alfred Ballweg, county agricultural agent. All that is needed is your name, address, gallons of gasoline purchased and used for farming purpose, amount of refund and your signature. Definitions and instructions needed to fill out your claim are on the back of the application.

Who can request a refund? Any owner, tenant or operator of a farm who uses gasoline for farming purposes may file a claim for the federal tax paid on gasoline used on the farm. No refunds are allowed on gasoline used off the farm, such as on the public highway in transporting family members, equipment or livestock.

When should the claim be filed? The first claim for refund must be filed between June 30 and October 1, 1956, and will cover gasoline purchased and used between January 1 and July 1, 1956. No claims should be made before July 1, 1956. The claims filed in subsequent years will cover each one-year period ending June 30.

Tax Refund Money

Where can application forms be obtained? Applications for refund—Form 2240—are available from local internal revenue offices, Tuscola County extension office and local banks.

Where should applications be sent? All farmers in Michigan should mail their requests to the District Director of Internal Revenue, Federal Building, Detroit 81, Michigan.

Are gasoline bills needed? No invoices, bills or statements should be attached to the application for refund. Although this evidence is not required to be sent in, the Internal Revenue Service warns all farmers making claims to keep adequate records to enable agents to verify the accuracy of the amount claimed.

4-H Service Club Installs Members

Twice each year the Tuscola County 4-H service club highlights its yearly program by initiating services for new members.

At this time all eligible 4-H members are invited to share in the service club programs. Only those who have achieved outstanding accomplishments of leadership and ability in 4-H work will meet the eligibility requirements.

Jim White, president from Silverwood, asks that eligible members be present at the Wilber 4-H Memorial building at 8 p. m. Thursday, June 21. Jim urges all members to attend and welcome the new members.

Following the initiation will be an evening of square dancing under the direction of Quentin Ostrander with refreshments being served by Ann McKenzie, Mary Moyer and Shirley Colosky of Mayville.

The service club's summer schedule is as follows:

June 21: Initiation and square dance.
July (to be announced): day at 4-H summer camp.
July 28: Boblo Island.
August 9: Fair plans.
September 14: Going-away party for college students.

Christmas Tree Demonstration Set For June 20

Proper management can well decide the success or failure of Christmas tree plantations, remarks assistant county agricultural agent Don Kehler.

Now more than ever good management is becoming a must, as the acreages in pine tree plantations are rapidly expanding. The plantation owners who neglect to follow the proper practices may find their time, money and labor wasted.

In order to familiarize the public with proper management techniques, a demonstration will be held on Wednesday, June 20, from 1:30 to 3:30 p. m. The place will be the Dean Thompson farm, located 1/2 mile east of English Road on Snover Road. A good way to come is to take Mayville Road, east from Mayville to English Road. Turn north and go to Snover Road, and then east on Snover about 1/2 mile.

Dean Thompson and his partner, Herbert Muller, have had their plantation for several years, and it is an excellent site for this demonstration.

Allen Boelter, district forester from Saginaw, will explain proper planting practices, thinning, pruning and shaping and controls for disease and insects. An aerial spraying demonstration will be included in the program.

This is another in a series of educational meetings, promoted by the combined efforts of Ed Cole, vo-ag instructor at Mayville, the Soil Conservation Service, your county agricultural agent's office, and the district forester.

Information about this demonstration can be obtained by contacting anyone of the above-named organizations.

A swine field for the state's hogmen is slated for Aug. 27 at MSU.

Boy Scout Camp Preps for Summer

Summer camping time is almost here and the Camping Committee of the Valley Trails Council, Boy Scouts of America, is rapidly completing all preparations for the reception of the first Scouts at Camp Rotary on June 24. Training of the camp staff will be completed the week of June 17.

Cass City Scouts will be at the camp for the week of July 1 to July 7.

Camp Rotary is located nine miles north of Clare on U. S. 27. It covers 480 acres of land that harbors wild life in abundance to interest and challenge the young camper. The property completely surrounds Lake Rotary, a sixty acre spring-fed lake, which teems with bluegills, perch and bass.

Scouts thrill to the wonders of nature as they hike through the woods. They learn new handicrafts and earn outdoor Merit Badges. They participate in games, contests, stunts, outdoor cooking, campcraft, singing, swimming and a multitude of fun and skills. Of particular interest are the field sports, such as archery, riflery, Mo-Skoot-O, canoeing and boat handling. The fishing at camp can hardly be beat. These and other activities are a real challenge to the Scout's skill and ability, and these and the experience he has in group participation and group living, will be valuable to him the rest of his life.

"The Explorer campsite known as 'Fort Scott' is located on the north side of the lake. This site accommodates 24 Explorers with their own cooking, aquatics and program facilities. Highlights of the program at the 'Fort' include three to five-day canoe trips on Michigan rivers, archery, riflery, aquatics activities and other Scoutcraft skills.

Six Troop sites are located on the southwest side of the lake, arranged in a semi-circle around the main camp area. Each site has twelve two-man wall tents with cots, straw ticks and platform floors. The camp dining hall, where most meals are eaten in camp, is a large building fully equipped to assure sanitary care of the food for the boys from receiving and storage to the preparation and clean-up.

The Dr. Carney Health Lodge is carefully equipped to meet any emergencies that may arise and doctors are available, on call, to the camp.

The waterfront area is equipped with an "L" type swimming dock, diving board and platform, and 17 canoes and 20 rowboats make up the Rotary fleet.

The camp is maintained by the Rotary Club, and operated for the registered Scouts and Explorers of the Valley Trails Council, by a camping committee of volunteer Scouters, headed by Lyle Turner, chairman. Bernie Toland will be the camp director this year, and Pete Vincent the business manager. The staff of approximately 35 is selected from outstanding Scouters and Explorers, and trained in advance.

There is still plenty of room for Scouts or Explorers to sign up for Camp Rotary this summer. Scouts and Explorers should forward their registration fee of $2.00 through their Troop or Explorer leader, to the Valley Trails Council office.

BULEN TALKS Cars

Hullo Folks!

A lot has been written lately about the so-called horsepower race among automobile manufacturers. And rightly so, because it has been one of the most important and interesting developments in the auto business.

A lot of people will probably argue about this, but the horsepower race has been one of the most important recent steps towards greater comfort and safety. Hold on a minute and we'll see why.

Speed, first of all, is not the goal in this race. There was an earlier horsepower race in the car business that was much more spectacular but attracted much less interest. Between 1930 and 1942, automobile horsepower went up 53 per cent. Between 1942 and 1954 it went up only 19 per cent.

The point that catches my eye is that the fastest car in 1954 will go only six miles-an-hour faster than the fastest car of 1952.

That added reserve of horsepower lets you skin out of the inevitable tight spots with a reassuring surge of energy. And the engine is working without strain. It is easier to break into a run when you're walking than to increase your pace when you're already running hard. It's the same way with engines.

Because modern engines don't have to work so hard, they last longer. Engineers have told me that today's powerplant in a car has a life expectancy FIVE TIMES that of the engine of 30 years ago.

To get that life expectancy, of course, an engine has to be cared for. That's why we're always so happy to pass on cars from our used car lot that we've known for a long time, cars that we've serviced and shined ourselves since they were new. It's this kind of car that's the real bargain in our used car buying, because we both know what you're getting.

Come sit on our new porch one of these hot nights. We like to show off our new Office. And, of course, if you are interested, our fine line-up of "OK Used Cars and Trucks."

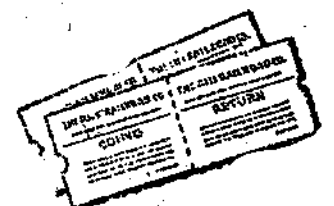

And, after you buy from us (we hope), if you ever feel you are not receiving everything you have coming, PLEASE TELL ME PERSONALLY. Then, if I don't satisfy you, SCREAM. But give me a chance first. We satisfy 98%.

FROM THE FILES OF THE CHRONICLE

Five Years Ago

William J. Profit has been appointed Register of Deeds for Tuscola County to fill the unexpired term of the late Ernest G. Luder, it was announced recently by county officials at Caro.

Mrs. Mary Holcomb, teacher in the local school for 30 years, is retiring from teaching this spring.

The lumber department of the Farm Produce Co. has sold its interest in Cass City to the Brinker Lumber Co.

Robert Neil McLarty and Carl Reagh will be among the 3,814 graduates of the University of Michigan this year.

Pvt. Robert S. Vargo Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Vargo, has qualified as one of the finest soldiers in the U. S. Army, a hard-hitting paratrooper.

Over 1,000 persons crowded into the Cass City High School Auditorium Tuesday evening for the 65th annual commencement program here.

Edgar A. Wright of Saginaw is the new Tuscola County Field Scout executive.

Ten Years Ago

Dr. James Ballard, grandson of the late Prof. and Mrs. J. Henry Smith of Cass City, is now working with Dr. F. L. Morris and is establishing an office at the Morris Hospital.

Mrs. Max Agar narrowly escaped death by electrocution in her home Tuesday afternoon when she received a terrific shock while churning by electricity. Lt. and Mrs. Gerald Kercher are spending a few days with their parents here before leaving for Germany where Lt. Kercher will be stationed.

Officers to serve the newly organized Tri-county Post of the American Legion were elected at a meeting here last week. Arthur Little was elected post commander. Other officers chosen were: vice-commander, Archie Mark; adjutant, Alex Tyo; finance officer, Jos. Clement; historian, Philip Doerr; chaplain, Eldon Hall; sergeant-at-arms, Irving Parsch.

Keith Little was one of 18 Tuscola County 4-H members who have been placed on the state 4-H honor roll. Since there are about 40,000 4-H Club members in the state, this honor is indeed creditable.

Twenty-five Years Ago

The building committee of the board of supervisors met Thursday and awarded the contract for architectural services on the new court house for Tuscola County to Wm. H. Kuni of Detroit. The estimated cost of the new court house completely equipped and ready for use is $200,000, according to the architect's figures. Members of the committee are Carl Keinath, chairman, Bert M. Perry, Ernest Haas, Ed R. Purdy, Stephen W. Morrison, E. A. Dillon and Walter Heckroth.

Neighbors of Ensign Dutton, farmer near Bad Axe, who was injured in a car accident several weeks ago, put on an old-fashioned plowing bee on the Dutton farm this week. Fourteen teams of horses were engaged in the work and about 30 acres of land were plowed at the bee.

Two Cass City High School students, Miss Johanna Sandham and Albert Warner, have been awarded a four-week scholarship in Northwestern University summer school.

The village council in session Monday night, voted to spread a tax of nine mills for the village tax which will make the summer taxes about one fourth less than that of last year.

Thirty-five Years Ago

Wednesday evening, June 22, 37 seniors will graduate from the Cass City High School. This is the largest number in the history of the school.

Cass City High School was again honored when Miss Ruby Marshall, member of the class of 1921, won second place in the oratorical contest at Howell.

Eight thousand pounds of wool were brought to the elevator of the Farm Produce Co. Monday and graded by representatives of the Farm Bureau.

When John Walk moved the little building that has stood just west of Croop's store in Deford for a generation past, a land mark went its way. It was built in 1884, the first building erected for a store, but not the first store. Fred Osburn sold the first goods in Deford.

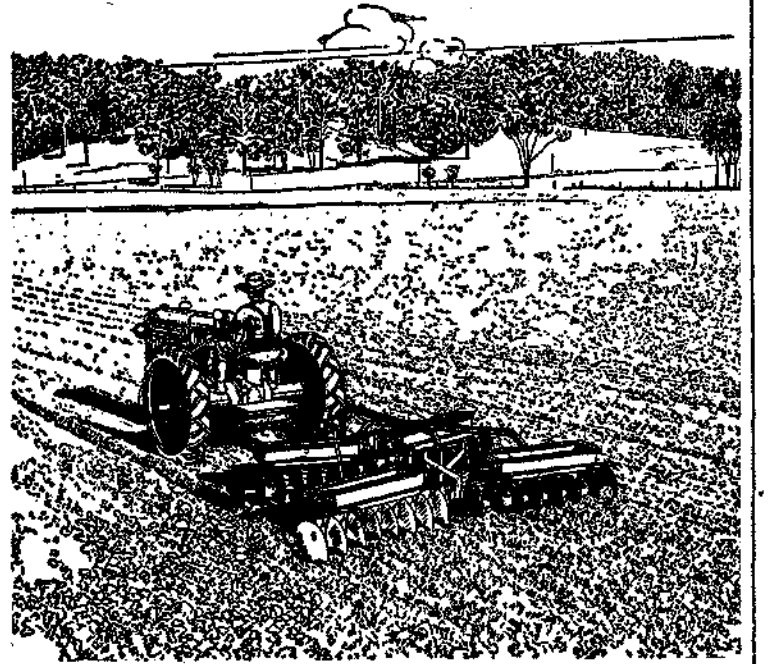

C. J. Malcolm who lives near Deford has had ripe red strawberries for sale since May 28.

Dry weather in May has made the outlook for all crops except wheat, rye and alfalfa, considerably below the national average and the ten-year Michigan average.

BETTER PENETRATION IN ALL SOILS

The new MM Disc Harrows have an exceptional combination of light weight and strength . . . light enough so you can work in soft ground without too much reduction in angle and sacrifice of quality work; strong enough so you can add as much weight as needed to give you good penetration in hard soils. The new MM deep pan weight boxes enable you to use soil from the field you are working in for needed weight.

The harrow is designed so that all discs penetrate at a uniform depth and follow the contour of the ground. Disc bearings never require lubrication, and the disc gang assembly is designed to protect the bearings against wear and to assure long-life trouble-free performance.

Let us tell you all about these outstanding new harrows.

Suggest Moving Bean Festival

Reid Kirk of Fairgrove, one of the originators of the Michigan Bean Festival, told some 50 members of the bean industry that he was serving his tenth and last year as chairman of the event, at a planning meeting in Fairgrove, Tuesday, June 5.

Because of the work involved he also suggested that the festival be rotated annually among the bean counties in the Thumb and Saginaw Valley area.

Several speakers praised Kirk for his work and said they were reluctant to have him give up the job. However, his suggestion for rotating the festival and moving it from Fairgrove met with almost solid opposition.

Other speakers who reviewed the work involved in staging the celebration suggested that if the program is to remain in Fairgrove the work of committees should be expanded and some of the responsibility be shared by planners outside of the village.

The festival program this year will start the Sunday before Labor Day when the centennial celebration will open with a home-coming picnic at the school grounds. The Michigan bean queen will be selected on Labor Day, along with other traditional entertainment that features the day.

Allow a man the little he wants in this world and he'll kick himself for not asking for more.

NOW Give your chicks a Super-Start!

Your chicks should grow up to 5.4% faster on 7.6% less feed per pound of gain than ever before on Purina Startena!

Purina scientists have done it again! They have improved even last year's wonderful formula so much that you can see the faster growth—the better coloring—the extra fine feathering.

97% LIVABILITY. Last year over 11,000 folks who kept records on 2,364,891 chicks proved that they could get 97% livability. This is 97 chicks raised out of every 100 bought.

LOW IN COST. It costs so little to give your chicks a wonderful start on Super Startena. Feed just 2 lbs. per small breed chick or 3 lbs. for heavier. That's all it takes—just a few pennies—to grow big, well-feathered young pullets about 5 weeks old.

MICHIGAN MIRROR NEWS BRIEFS

A grandstand play appears in the making at the National Democratic convention next August by the Michigan delegation.

The recent Democratic state convention in Grand Rapids outwardly spent most of its time passing the "Michigan Declaration" and several resolutions for members to present to the national platform committee. These should focus national attention on Governor Williams.

The "Michigan Declaration" basically is a listing of goals covering a wide variety of human relations as seen by the state Democratic party. According to Democratic spokesmen it will be circulated nationwide. Concerning fields ranging from automation through agriculture and social security, it offers "something for everyone."

Its terms are expected to be subject for much argument in coming campaigns.

Even more controversial within the national party organization are resolutions the Michigan delegation will present for adoption into the national platform.

Interest centers around the strongly worded civil rights resolution, an issue which has always met violent opposition from Southern delegates. It is considered doubtful that the Democratic party can adopt a strong civil rights plank without splitting the party wide open.

In such a party battle, Governor Williams might emerge a strong leader.

The state is asking local governments what it can do to help them get ready for the St. Lawrence Seaway.

A special legislative committee started a series of hearings in prospective port cities and in Lansing, calling in the experts for advice.

Senator Carlton H. Morris (R-Kalamazoo), chairman of the committee expressed surprise at the many problems to be solved if best advantage is to be realized from Seaway operation.

What the state can do to help is still uncertain, but the legislature will welcome ideas. A bill passed last year already gives a property tax break to goods stored in dockside public warehouses.

The picture in Lansing remains confused. Detroit, the number one port, has growing pains. People closest to the scene are involved in political squabbles over responsibility and jurisdiction.

Muskegon is certain to be another port. Plans are in the making to create a port in the Saginaw-Bay City area. Two more are planned in the Upper Peninsula to draw trade as far west as North and South Dakota.

Years in thinking and planning have gone into the Seaway. It is scheduled to be finished in 1959 when ships with a 14-foot draft can negotiate the channels.

By 1962, the experts foresee completion of the Seaway to handle ships with 25-foot drafts. This will bring commerce to Great Lakes ports in volume for the first time in history.

Smaller ships with specialized cargo have plied the route for some years.

To lighten their loads so they could get through shallow channels into the Great Lakes, larger ships had to schedule first shipments to Canadian ports.

Experts predict a vast economic boom when the Seaway is completed. Besides bringing in foreign goods at a lower cost, the system will move processing of raw materials closer to the consumer. The attraction of world transportation by water will lure new industries.

Recognizing what will happen, leaders in the legislature from both parties are working to reserve recreational areas for the people before they are captured to serve the booming industrial development.

Some ideas propose a state port commission to coordinate local port activities and developments, state grants to help finance port systems, a state code for the conduct of port business.

"I still like the idea of local trusts running their own businesses," Senator Morris said.

An important victory has been won over State Banking Commissioner Maurice C. Eveland by organizers of a new Detroit bank.

The group went to court to force Eveland to approve the application for a state charter. He had refused because there was no guarantee the deposits would be insured.

Judge Louis E. Coash, of the Ingham County Circuit Court, ruled that Eveland could not make the condition as a requirement to organization and chartering of the bank.

Eveland's powers permit him to determine the charter of the organizers, the need for the bank and whether it has "a likelihood of success." He based his argument on the last provision.

He said that no bank could hope to be successful without deposit insurance in competition with others who had insurance.

Coash said that the group could apply for Federal Deposit Insurance only after receiving a state charter. Organizers of the new bank said they would take this step.

Novesta Community 4-H Club Meeting

On June 7, the regular monthly meeting of the Novesta Community 4-H Club was held at the Crawford School. The meeting was called to order by the president, Pat Crawford. Old business was discussed. For new business, a motion was made that we have a hayride and wienie roast this month. It was decided to have it June 22 but due to other obligations the date has been changed to June 28.

The motion was voted on and passed.

The meeting was adjourned. Games were enjoyed by all.

Sanitation standards for stored grain become more strict July 1. Inspection authorities will seize market grain not meeting the new regulations.

Census Indicates Farm Income Up

The value of all farm products sold, according to the 1954 census of Tuscola County, is $19,049,846 or a $3,527,331 increase over 1949 farm income, said Alfred Ballweg, county agricultural agent.

The total agricultural income for 1949 was $15,522,515. The increase is about 23%. This increase shows that farmers through increased efficiency in methods of production have produced more dollars worth of agricultural produce in spite of declining prices on some commodities.

This increased efficiency and greater income can be attributed to several factors, such as, improved know-how on the part of farmers, better seed, higher producing dairy animals, better feeding methods, improved drainage and conservation practices and greater use of improved farm machinery have all contributed, this increased dollar income said Ballweg.

Sanilac, a new bush-type navy bean that's superior to all other varieties, has been developed by two MSU scientists.

RUPTURED?

The DOBBS TRUSS is better than most trusses, it has NO BULBS — NO BELTS — NO STRAPS. It holds the rupture with a soft concave pad. It is light in weight, presses body in but two places. Reason should tell you not to place bulb or ball in opening of rupture, which keeps muscles spread apart. This truss is sanitary and can be washed. It will hold a reducible rupture with SECURITY and COMFORT.

A factory representative having three hernias will demonstrate this truss. You may see this demonstration without obligation.

School Milk Program Skyrockets

Serving milk more often in more schools is becoming more popular. That's the gist of what government figures tell with a whopping 62,000 schools enrolled in the special school milk program. It accounts for a 67 percent increase in school milk consumption over the amount used prior to the program, less than 2 years ago—and the percentage is increasing.

Here is a program which concerns agriculture and which is non-controversial, points out the National Milk Producers Federation. The program has the dual purpose of making milk more readily and more widely available to children, and of reducing milk supplies which otherwise would contribute to excess stocks of dairy products. It was a major factor last year in increased milk consumption.

Available for the program under the recently-enacted legislation is $75 million for each of the next two school years. This will make possible its expansion in regular schools and its extension to child-care centers, nursery schools, settlement houses, summer camps, and other non-profit institutions caring for underprivileged children.

Tuscola 4-H Camp At Sleeper Park

Tuscola County 4-H club members will again have an opportunity to go to camp at Sleeper Park says Bill Muller, county 4-H club agent. The dates scheduled are from 3:00 p. m. Sunday, July 15, to Wednesday noon on the eighteenth.

Boys and girls who were enrolled in a winter project or are currently enrolled in summer 4-H club work are eligible to attend. Registrations are filling up fast, so it's first-come-first-serve.

A camp fee of $6.75 must be deposited by each camper upon registering. This fee covers all camp expenses including insurance and craftwork.

The present camp is capable of handling 120 campers and counsellors and the agent reminds us to register early.
