

From the Editor's Corner

A new angle for parking on Main and parts of Seeger Streets has been established by the Village with the completion of the yellow painted lines or the parking area of the streets.

The new angle results in room for more cars, but has caused considerable comment from persons using the space.

The complaint is that the angle makes it hard for persons to enter and leave their cars. After hearing complaints, we tested the new parking and found it difficult to enter our car.

In instances where vehicles are parked close to the yellow line as possible on either side, it is nearly impossible to open doors wide enough to place larger parcels inside the car.

Perhaps it would be better to re-establish the former angle when the time comes to again repaint the parking lanes.

A news release from the Michigan Department of Conservation says that Boy Scouts in Grayling have completed their annual cleanup of a 48-mile stretch of the AuSable River. While completing their task the boys gathered an estimated six tons of debris from litterbugs who use the facilities.

We have noticed the same tendency by persons in the Cass City area. On Main Street and streets adjoining Main Street, empty beer bottles and other trash is a familiar sight. The litter is not confined to Cass City but is evident on roads leading into the village from all directions. Perhaps a crackdown by authorities will help to alleviate the situation.

Ruth C. Silva, associate professor of political science at Pennsylvania State University, has written an article that she says is the real story of Davy Crockett.

While she explodes some of the myths about the popular western hero, she falls of his service in the House of Representatives, saying that "he generally fought all projects which didn't directly benefit his constituents."

All of which goes to show that politicians have changed very little. The Hoover Commission charged that the government is "infringing free enterprise by competing 'actively and unfairly' with private business. The commission cited almost 3,000 examples of the competition. Once established, senators and congressmen from districts involved oppose liquidation of government operated business in their district and the taxpayers' dollars go on and on paying for them. Practically none are abolished. Not much different than Davy Crockett."

Herbert Newton, 21, of Cass City paid a fine and costs totaling $29.30 Wednesday, June 27, for furnishing beer to minors.

He pleaded guilty to the charge before Justice Mrs. Ruth Tennant in Caro.

Clinic Examines 39 Children in Caro

Thirty-six children from Tuscola County and three from Sanilac County were examined by Dr. Hugh Sulfridge of Saginaw at the clinic conducted by the Michigan Crippled Children's Commission, Thursday, June 22, at Murray Hall, Caro State Hospital.

Miss Marie Daggett and Mrs. Betty Compton of Lansing and two medical secretaries from the Commission formed the staff and they were assisted by the two Tuscola County health nurses, Mrs. Lucy Miller and Mrs. Amelia Gunnell, and several volunteers from Caro and Wahjamega.

The Caro Rotary Club had a man on duty all day to furnish transportation from the clinic to the x-ray room. The Tuscola County Crippled Children's Society cooperated in this project.

Two Churches Plan Special Vacation Schedule

The official boards of the local Methodist and Presbyterian churches announce an experimental plan in union worship during the vacations of the respective pastors.

During July, while Rev. Ernest Robinson is vacationing, the Methodists have been invited to attend the services of worship on Sundays at 11:00 a. m. in the Presbyterian Church.

In August there will be no services in the Presbyterian Church, but the members are especially invited, by the reciprocal plan, to worship in the Methodist Church during the pastor's vacation.

On Sunday, July 8, the Rev. Melvin R. Vender will preach on the subject, "Launching into the Deep," as the opening sermon in the inter-church schedule.

Special music is being arranged by Roger Parrish, organist and choir director.

Avoiding Accidents Pays Farm Families

The average farm accident in Sanilac County last year cost $60 for medical treatment and three weeks of work, reports County Agricultural Agent Keith C. Sowerby.

He points out that fact in calling attention to Farm Safety Week, July 22-28.

"We need only to look around the county to recognize the seriousness of accidents and fires on the farm," declares Sowerby. "It's fitting that the theme of Farm Safety Week is 'Safety Pays All Ways!'"

Richard Pfister, extension farm safety specialist at Michigan State University, points out that farm accidents cost the nation's farmers one and a half billion dollars per year. "And this does not include the value of priceless hands, arms, feet, eyes—and lives," he adds.

Every farm family should have a good discussion of hazards and how to avoid them, Pfister urges. A good place for this, he suggests, is mealtime, and it might be one of the most important discussions in which the family ever will participate.

Picnic Trip Slated for Area Children Tuesday

Tuesday, July 10, the second annual trip to Sleeper State Park, Caseville, will be held under the direction of the recreation department, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Yedinak announced this week.

The group will leave from the playground at 9 a. m. Children are required to bring 25¢ for bathroom use and must furnish their own food. Drinks will be furnished.

A variety of games have been scheduled and prizes will be awarded winners. Mothers who have the time are asked to accompany children to the picnic and help supervise the children.

Official hours for the playground are from 9 a. m. to 12 noon daily. Every Tuesday night a free dance is held from 8:30 to 11 on the tennis courts at the park. Music is provided by records.

Every Thursday evening swimming for adults only from 7 to 9 p. m. is scheduled. The evening has been set aside as a special attempt to encourage more use of the facilities by adults, the Yedinaks said. Anyone over 21 can attend. There is a 25¢ admission charge.

Due to scout camps and vacations attendance has dropped to about 75 children daily for the recreation program.

Eleven Scouts Now At Camp Rotary

Eleven scouts are attending Camp Rotary this week at Clare. Scoutmaster Keith McConkey announced today.

They were driven to the camp by Dan DeLong on a school bus. Attending are: Assistant Scoutmaster Ronald Fleenor, Jim Hutchinson, Leslie Schram, Irvin Schram, Billy Bliss, Robert Farmer, Dean Hutchinson, Jim Ross, Roger Parker, Ed Mark and Grant Hutchinson.

The Annual Meeting of the Bird School District No. 2 will be held at the school Monday, July 9, 1956, at 8:15 p. m. John W. Marshall, director. —Adv. 6-29-2

The "Diamond Jubilee" edition of the Tuscola County Fair, celebrating its 75th anniversary August 20-25 at the Caro Fairgrounds, will boast an entirely new division of exhibits for this year's commemorative six-day run. Carl Mantey, manager of the fair, announced today that premiums will be offered for the best and oldest collection of articles related to any of the previous 74 annual Tuscola County Fairs.

The special "Diamond Jubilee" premium awards will be made for the best-preserved and oldest Tuscola County Fair premium book... the largest collection of consecutive years of Tuscola County fair premium books... the oldest ribbon award, regardless of placement or category... the largest collection of ribbon awards prior to 1930... the oldest Tuscola County Fair gate admission ticket... and the best collection of Tuscola County Fair photographs or snapshots taken at the Fair prior to 1930.

Mr. Mantey, in announcing the new "Diamond Jubilee" exhibit division, also stated that a Sweepstakes Award will be given for the best over-all exhibit of Tuscola County Fair awards and souvenirs. It is the opinion of the Fair officials that this new division of exhibits will prove immensely popular with exhibitors and spectators alike.

Nelson Willy and C. U. Brown explained the new sewage disposal plant in Cass City to members of the Cass City Rotary Club Tuesday noon at the New Gordon Hotel.

Mr. Willy told members of the operation of the present plant and Mr. Brown added his explanation of the process. Mr. Brown traced the history of sewage disposal in the village from its inception to the present day.

The men were introduced by James Bauer, program chairman. After the discussion a guided tour of the disposal plant was held for members of the club.

New officers of the club took charge of the meeting for the first time Tuesday. Jack Hulien presided as president. William Profit assumed the secretary's duties and Louis Bartz is the treasurer. Albin J. Stevens is the vice-president and John Haire is the sergeant-at-arms.

Annual Wheat Vote Slated July 20

How wheat farmers vote in the July 20 referendum on wheat marketing quotas will actually affect only two parts of the 1957 wheat program, according to Chas. B. Eckfeld, county office manager of the Tuscola County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee.

Whether or not quotas are approved, acreage allotments will remain in effect for the crop, the county office manager declared.

The two points at issue in the vote are: whether marketing quotas shall be in effect, with penalties on "excess" wheat from farms (with more than 15 acres of wheat harvested as grain) not in compliance with the acreage allotment, and the level of price support available to those who comply with their farm acreage allotments.

If quotas are approved by at least two-thirds of those who vote in the referendum, the quotas and penalties for excess production will be in effect, and price support on the crop will be available at a level between 75 and 90 per cent of parity to those who comply with the farm wheat allotments.

If more than one-third of the voters disapprove the quotas, there will be no marketing quotas and no penalties for excess production, and the available price support will drop to 50 per cent of parity, as provided by law.

Whether or not quotas are in effect, acreage allotments will remain in effect for the 1957 wheat crop.

County Office Manager Eckfeld explained that wheat marketing quotas and acreage allotments operate only in commercial wheat states, including Michigan. Since the quotas affect only those growers in the commercial area who will have more than 15 acres of wheat for harvest as grain on a farm in 1957, these growers are the only ones eligible to vote in the referendum.

Pick Winners in 4-H Judging Demonstration

The Tuscola County 4-H Clubs have completed their judging elimination contest for clothing and food preparation, according to Mrs. Frances T. Clark, county home demonstration agent.

The 4-H club clothing judging placements are: Betty Schemp from the Busy Workers 4-H; Ruth Karr, Gagetown 4-H; Bonnie Englehart, Millington 4-H; Sharon Kester, Millington 4-H; and Pamela Koch, Millington 4-H. The project leaders that assisted in the judging of the clothing contest were Mrs. Preston Karr, Mrs. Fred Taylor and Mrs. Albert Schemp.

The 4-H club food preparation judging placements are: Grace Donnelly, West Elkland; Charlene Beckett, Gagetown; Patty Finkbeiner, Gagetown; Sue Black, Wisner; Marilyn Ruppert, Wisner and Elaine Lounsbury, West Elkland.

The project leaders that assisted in the judging of the food preparation contest were Miss Marian Pike, Mrs. John Krauss and Mrs. Preston Karr.

There will be a judging elimination contest for 4-H club home improvement and food preservation on July 27 at the Wilber Memorial 4-H Building.

Plans Complete for Chesaning Showboat

With the 15th renewal of the famous night spectacle, the Chesaning Showboat, slated July 9-15, it seems that every detail—the famed TV and radio professional acts—the upwards of 20 village presidents, all six mayors of eastern Michigan cities, the rollicking end men and gorgeous 75-member chorus, is set and ready to go.

The beautiful 80-foot boat has been towed from its winter headquarters and is being gorgeously decorated for the half-mile trip it will make each night just at dusk.

Ready, too, is the brand new $20,000 all-steel dock stage built out over the river, fronting the 7,000-seat stadium carved out of the hillside.

Tickets all reserved for the last six nights of Showboat are now on sale.

Area School Elections Slated Monday Evening

Lester Ross will be unopposed for re-election to the Cass City Public School Board of Education Monday in an election to be held at the high school auditorium. The polls will be open from 7 a. m. to 8 p. m.

Persons who voted in the last general election or who registered prior to June 29 are eligible to vote.

Annual school meetings will also be held Monday for Gagetown and Deford schools. Gagetown voters will elect two trustees. Deford Consolidated Schools will also elect two members to the school board. At the Deford meeting the disposal of schoolhouses not now in use and the sale of the Quick school bus will be discussed.

Elect New Officers At Annual Reunion

About 100 attended the Hinton-MacCallum reunion at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sheufler in Grant. A potluck dinner at noon was followed by a program and election of officers.

New officers elected were: president, Kenneth Parker of Grant; vice-president, Olson MacCallum of Elkton; secretary and treasurer, Mrs. Frank Sheufler, and recreation, Mrs. Robert Brookins of Saginaw and Mr. and Mrs. Olson MacCallum of Elkton. Next year the reunion will be held the last Sunday in June.

A prize was given to Mrs. Pauline MacCallum, 83, as the oldest present; Mary Lou Parker, young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Parker, received the prize as the youngest present. Other prizes were awarded as follows: to the family of Israel Good with 17 members present as the largest number from one family and to Dean Gimmel of Racine, Wis., who came the greatest distance.

Others were present from Kalamazoo, Detroit, Farmington, Gagetown, Elkton, Bad Axe and Rescue.

WSWS Hears Report of Meeting

Mrs. Fred Jaus was hostess and Mrs. Walter Anthes was the program leader when the Woman's Society of World Service of the Evangelical United Brethren Church met in the social rooms of the church Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Ray Silvernail, who was the delegate of the local society to the state convention of the WSWS, held recently at Riverside Park, near Buchanan, gave her report of that meeting. A short business meeting was conducted by Mrs. Stanley Kim, newly-elected president.

At the close of the meeting, the hostess served tea and strawberry and cherry pie a la mode.

Reckless Driving Brings Jail Term

Andrew M. Wise, 21, of Port Huron, formerly of Cass City, was sentenced to pay fine and costs of $105.60 and sentenced to serve 10 days in jail Monday by Justice Harry Bahloff.

He pleaded guilty to a reckless driving charge. State Police at the Sandusky post said their troopers pursued Wise at speeds up to 110 miles an hour before he abandoned the car in Kings-ton.

He was arrested shortly after in Kings-ton.

Third Salk Shots Ready in Sanilac

Sanilac County's health department announced this week that vaccine is now available in the county for third polio inoculations.

All children one to 14 years old and pregnant women who received their second shots at least six months ago are eligible for the third and final inoculation, the department said.

Merchants Swamp Mayville Nine 20-5

The Cass City Merchants baseball team likes to play under the lights. Judging by Saturday's game with Mayville the team hits better under the stars than they do in the daytime. The team projected its league lead Saturday at Mayville with a crushing 20-5 victory.

Cass City scored three runs in the first inning and was never behind, although the game was close until the sixth inning when the local nine went ahead 6-2.

In the opening frame, a walk, error and Joe Kilbourn's booming triple accounted for the runs. Mayville bounced back with counters in the third and fourth and at the end of the fifth the score was 3-2 in favor of the Merchants.

In the sixth, hits by Bob Alexander, Eli Holes, Kilbourn and Lee Hartel, plus an error, accounted for the runs.

In Damage Suit Tuscola Jury Rules No Cause for Action

A Tuscola County jury found no cause for action against John Markert in a trial held Thursday, June 28, in circuit court in Caro.

The suit for damages of $616.44 was brought by the Wolverine Insurance Company following an accident on M-25 and Pringle Road Oct. 3, 1955. The insurance company represented Clarence Lindenbergh.

The jury deliberated only about a half hour before returning the verdict.

Jurors serving were Nina Rohlf, Frank Balcer, Mrs. Howard Harrison, Norma McNeal, Clarence Fowler; Dwight Hill, Claude Westfall, Rollo Darbee, Fred Crawford, Robert Kirk, Albert Gruber and Ernest Gruber.

Criminal Cases

Allen Ewald, who had pleaded guilty to indecent liberties June 20, was sentenced to three years' probation, fined $200 and costs of $300 at $15 a month.

Donald and Elwin Stewart, brothers, appeared before the court on a charge of breaking and entering. They allegedly broke into the store of George Moser in Denmark Township, June 13.

The brothers asked for attorneys and date of arraignment will be set.

Domestic Case

Harold E. Walker appeared in court for failure to pay alimony. He was remanded to the county jail while his case was taken under advisement.

The following day he was released because he was promised a job.

Partaka Pinned For Six Hours Under Car

Ernest A. Partaka, 34, of Cass City was pinned for six agonizing hours under the wreckage of his overturned car Friday on a rural road in Sanilac County.

Mr. Partaka swerved 300 feet off the road into a field and overturned just after 6 p. m. There was little travel on the road and he was unable to attract the attention of the few passing motorists until shortly after midnight when two persons heard his cries.

With the help of a couple of other motorists who were stopped, the wreckage was lifted upright. Mr. Partaka's right leg was still jammed in the car door and the rescuers had to get a crowbar to pry him loose.

He was taken to Cass City for treatment. He suffered only minor injuries and was released.

Investigate for Safer Vacations

A little "fact-finding" while you are vacationing this summer will go a long way toward insuring a happier stay and, more important, getting you back home again as fit as when you left.

It doesn't have to be an elaborate process—just a quick check into the possibility of unlooked for hazards in the spot you have selected—whether it be for a two-week stay or a two-hour picnic.

A bit of this inquisitiveness, for instance, would have spared one family a load of unwanted excitement and possible serious injury. It seems they had selected an inviting looking spot alongside a sparkling "little brook" to enjoy a picnic lunch. What they didn't know—and could have learned from the filling station operator down the road—was that the owner of the property was a slightly deranged person who delighted in taking after visitors with a trusty shotgun. Fortunately his aim was as bad as his reason and they escaped badly frightened, but unharmed.

This business of looking into places before you stay can be summed up in a paraphrase of a famous slogan: "Ask the man who's been there," according to F. W. Braum, vice-president in charge of accident prevention for Employers Mutuals of Wausau.

What are some of the things your quick check for safety should include? Here is a seven-point check list suggested by Braum:

1. The presence of snakes, ticks or other dangerous or bothersome insects.
2. Poison ivy and other irritating plants.
3. Water supply—is it plentiful and pure?
4. Underwater hazards that may not be apparent to a first visitor.
5. Vicious animals pastured or running wild on public lands.
6. The reputation of the area for freedom from holdups and crimes against campers and picnickers.
7. Temperature and the extremes of weather that may be encountered.

Braum points out that a family shouldn't assume that danger is always present and spoil their long-anticipated vacation fun, but add that it is equally foolish to assume that there is no danger and have a vacation—or a life—cut short.

"Simply do what explorers and travelers have been doing since the beginning of time: Ask advice from people who have been there before," is Braum's advice to the 1956 vacationer in search of new places to visit.

Paul Burdon Shows Promise in Babe Ruth League

It looks as if Cass City High School might have a real good pitcher for the next few years if Paul Burdon, showing in the Thumb Babe Ruth League is any indication of his ability.

In Cass City's lopsided 24-3 victory over Bay Port this week, Paul pitched shutout ball for the five innings he worked and allowed only one hit. He fanned nine and walked only one. It was his second impressive showing in two games.

Marv McCormick hurled the sixth inning and Ray Fox the final inning. Bay Port picked up only two hits and committed eight misplays during the game.

Coach Irv Claxman said that practically all of the 26 youths saw action for Cass City.

Bob Holcomb, Ray Fox and Fred Leeson each got two hits for Cass City. John Dunlap smashed a round tripper.

Others who picked up safeties in the 15-hit attack were: Bob Copeland, Mel Rienstra, Larry Maharg, Burdon, Dave Wilson, Jim Smithson, Dick Albee and Gary Hutchinson.

The next game will be with Bad Axe, Tuesday, July 10, at 5 p. m. at the Recreation Park.

Fifty Attend Annual Hartsell Reunion

The Hartsell family reunion was held at Indianfields Park at Caro Sunday, June 24. A delicious potluck picnic dinner was enjoyed by approximately 50 persons. After the dinner an election of officers was held. Roland Hartsell Sr. was elected president; Carl Thane, vice-president; Thelma Hartsell, secretary-treasurer; and Alice and Pat Knight and Janet Hartsell were named as the program committee.

People were present from Saginaw, Marlette, Deford, Cass City, Bad Axe and Caro. All enjoyed a fine time until rain broke up the gathering.

The reunion will be held next year in Indianfields Park the last Sunday in June.

WOMAN'S WORLD

Old Favorites

Turn Delightful With Seasonings

IT'S the extra touch that often brings back old favorites to popularity. Take broiled tomatoes, for example. It's easy to add some American blue cheese to them just before broiling. How wonderful they'll be with hamburgers, chops or steaks, all of which can be broiled, too.

- Cheese-Broiled Tomatoes (Serves 4)
- 1/2 cup crumbled American blue cheese
 - 2 tablespoons fine dry bread crumbs
 - 4 medium tomatoes, halved
 - Garlic salt
 - Pepper
 - 2 onions, thinly sliced
- Combine cheese and crumbs; mix well. Sprinkle tomatoes with garlic salt and pepper. Top with onions, then sprinkle with cheese mixture. Broil 3 to 4 inches from source of heat about 5 minutes or until cheese is lightly browned and tomatoes thoroughly heated.
- Don't stop at touching up your tomatoes. Go right ahead adding subtle seasonings to your salads now that gardens are coming into their own with all kinds of wonderful salad makings. You may like this cucumber version, spiced with blue cheese:

Simplicity with a touch of glamor is the keynote for this broiled dinner. American Blue cheese tops the tomatoes while hamburger gets wrapped in bacon. Complete the meal with celery and carrot sticks and glasses of iced tea.

- Cucumber Blue Cheese Salad (Serves 4)
- 1/2 cup vinegar
 - 1/4 cup sugar
 - 1/4 teaspoon salt
 - Dash of pepper
 - 2 medium cucumbers, thinly sliced
 - 1 medium onion, thinly sliced
 - 1 cup soured cream
 - 1/2 cup crumbled blue cheese
- Combine vinegar, salt, sugar and pepper; stir until sugar is dissolved. Add cucumbers and onion. Chill for 1 to 2 hours. Drain. Combine soured cream and cheese. Mix well and combine with cucumber mixture. Serve on crisp lettuce greens.

Use Silverware To Beautify It

Have you ever looked closely at really old silverware? You'll see millions of tiny, very fine scratches in it that seem to give it a mellowness and deep rich color.

All this is due to long use and careful care. It might well give you a tip for beautifying your own silverware which may at this moment be carefully wrapped and put away in moth balls.

Fine scratches give silverware a durable and practical finish as well as beauty which can be acquired in no other way.

Rotate Usage

If you have a set of twelve, for example, and need six place settings, then use six one week and the other six on another week. In this way you even out its use and can keep all of it looking beautiful.

There's nothing much to the daily cleaning of silverware. Simply scrub or wash it in hot, sudsy water, rinse with clear hot water and dry with a soft towel.

When washed promptly after the meal, you can cut down the tarnish from foods like eggs, salt, etc. A good idea is to place the silverware in a dish with sudsy warm water as soon as it's cleared from the table.

Polishing Tips

Do be orderly when you do the polishing job, whether it's once a week or once every two weeks. It isn't necessary to plop the silverware all into a single pile for polishing. It's delicate and slapping around may cause dents.

Using a good silver polish, rub the silver briskly and energetically in lengthwise or circular fashion. Crosswise rubbing goes against the grain and is apt to give the silverware a splotchy appearance.

Place the silverware in hot suds and scrub or wash off the polish. Rinse under clear hot water.

The next step is most important: polish the cloth to soft brilliancy with a soft cloth like flannel or challis. Don't try to meet this situation with cast-off piece of lingerie or sock as it simply isn't adequate to bring out the best in the silverware. This polishing is as important to good looks in silverware as is the removal of tarnish.

The critics would be out of a job if nobody accomplished anything to criticize.

Freedom of speech has enabled many a man to give it to himself in the neck.

Money may furnish the house, but it takes love to furnish a home.

Folder for Control Of Berry Diseases At Extension Office
Control measures for raspberry anthracnose and strawberry fruit rots are described in new Michigan State University extension folders just received in Tuscola County extension office.
These are two of the most important small fruit diseases in Michigan, according to county agricultural agent, Alfred Ballweg.
The folder on raspberry anthracnose calls it the most important fungus disease of raspberry, dewberry and blackberry in Michigan. Author Robert H. Fulton, plant disease control specialist at MSU, tells how to recognize the disease, what conditions favor anthracnose and the proper control measures. A spray program is listed in detail in the folder, F-219.
Fulton points out in the folder about strawberry fruit rots that these diseases cause by far the greatest loss to growers. The rot can infect a berry in any stage of development, from green to ripe. Instructions for identifying the various rots and a detailed spray control program are major points covered in the folder, F-220.

happy vacations begin in a Chevy

You'll love to travel in it, because it loves to travel! When you get this Chevrolet out on the road, you'll want to keep going—and so will the whole family.

Of course, even in a Chevrolet the happiest vacations may involve one or two minor problems. Like fidgety small fry who want gallons of water and keep asking if you're almost there. The big things, though, are beautifully taken care of by this roomy Chevrolet's smooth and easy way of going. That's for sure.

The fact is, few cars at any price hold the road with Chevy's grace, with its solid feeling of stability. And with horsepower up to 225, Chevrolet moves out like a whiplash, for safer passing. It's no wonder that so many people who used to buy higher priced cars are changing to Chevrolet! Stop by soon for a ride.

News from Greenleaf

The Ladies' Aid of Fraser Church met Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Clayton Root for dinner and quilting. One quilt was finished. The next meeting will be July 11 at the church. The committee in charge of the dinner is Mrs. Glen Profit, Mrs. Arthur Battel and Mrs. Rodney Karr.

Fraser Vacation Bible School closed Friday afternoon, after a ten-day session. There was an average daily attendance of 45 with six teachers and three helpers. After the lessons on Friday, the teachers served ice cream and cake to the children. On Sunday the children gave a program at the church for parents and friends.

Supper guests on Thursday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Pete Rienstra were Mr. and Mrs. Al

Franklin and family of Marysville, Ohio. Mr. and Mrs. Harold Ballough left early Sunday morning for a trip through eastern states. They expect also to visit Washington, D. C. Mrs. Wm. Ballough assisted by Maxine Root is caring for the children and the restaurant.

Miss Hila Wills of Detroit was a week-end guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rayford Thorpe. Patty Hoadley stayed Saturday night in Cass City with her grandmother, Mrs. Tom Flint. Mr. and Mrs. Morris Sowden and little daughter were Sunday visitors at the John Battel home. Judy, Betty and Linda Ballough were Sunday afternoon guests of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Wills.

4-H Club Week Slated July 10-13

The kick-off of the 4-H Club season starts next week when 18 4-H Club members from Tuscola County attend the annual Club week, July 10-13, at Michigan State University.

The award trip to the four-day event sparks a summer of activities which will mean a lot of work and fun for members, leaders, agents and parents, predicts Bill Muller, Tuscola County 4-H club agent.

Representing Tuscola County will be: Alice Bradley, Fairgrove; Mary Jane Young, Reese; Alicia Titsworth, Vassar, Marie Colman, Vassar; Jeanette Sharp, Unionville; Barbara Bradley, Fairgrove; Carol Tinglan, Vassar; James White, Silverwood; Calvin Keimath, Vassar; Robert Janks, Caro; Richard Pindlay, Reese; Lyle Higgins, Akron; Gary Haske, Reese; John Tulloch, Vassar; Mary Lou Habdas, Caro; Harriette Forshee, Akron; Jack Laurie, Cass City; and Karl Desimpelare, Unionville. The trip to Club Week is awarded on the basis of excellent project work and an outstanding record, explains Muller. Each county sends a certain number based on a quota system which works out to be about one delegate for every fifty enrolled members.

Outdoor evening programs are planned for the first time this year. Tuesday night will be devoted to getting acquainted; Wednesday night the 1,200 members will go inside the big University auditorium to see the State Service Club initiation and hear a report of National 4-H Club camp in Washington D. C. Thursday afternoon will feature the annual style revue in which finalists are selected to compete in the state-wide show in September. On Thursday night will find the whole group turning the whole campus into one big square dance.

Educational tours of the Oldsmobile assembly plant and the campus and college farm are again being planned this year for the club members attending Club Week.

Down Memory Lane

FROM THE FILES OF THE CHRONICLE

Thirty-five Years Ago.

At a meeting of the stockholders of the Cass City State Bank Wednesday afternoon, the following gentlemen were chosen as members of the board of directors: M. E. Auten, B. F. Benkelman, E. W. Jones, A. J. Knapp, J. A. Sandham and J. H. Striffler. The bank is incorporated for $40,000 and members of the board will elect officers of the bank today.

A. A. Jones' golden bantam sweet corn did not wait until the 4th to be knee high, but on the first day of July was not only 5 feet high but tasseled and silked out.

The Cass City Fair offers a strong program in racing events next month. Lester Bailey, superintendent of the speed department, has added more money to make the purses more attractive in the various events.

Crop conditions in the Thumb district are the best in the state according to County Agent McVittie and Tuscola County will have a county exhibit at the State Fair.

Twenty-five Years Ago.

Leslie P. Koepfgen, son of Mrs. P. A. Koepfgen of Cass City, was elected commander of the Michigan Department of the American Legion at the closing session of the annual convention of that society Saturday afternoon.

After a service of seven years as a member of the board of education at Cass City, Dr. S. B. Young does not seek reelection and A. A. Ricker, who has been a member for nine years, is also resigning.

A number of business men of Cass City will furnish 16 boys 10 to 16 years of age with work so that they may earn money for their expenses at the YMCA camp in the Huron National Forest from July 20 to Aug. 3.

Groups Interested In Highway Safety

Safety is everybody's business and soon it will be the big business of Michigan's 40,000 home demonstration women.

Adopting highway safety is a state wide extension club project. And the women will attend a special class to be held during Homemakers' Conference, July 17-20, on the Michigan State University campus, announces Mrs. Frances T. Clark, county home demonstration agent.

Representing Tuscola County at the three-day training session will be Mrs. William Tonkin. She and delegates from every county in Michigan have been invited to learn how to promote the highway safety project. According to Mrs. Leona MacLeod, state home demonstration leader, "every delegate to the special class should return home with a definite plan of action."

The 8:45 to 10 a. m. classes will be jointly sponsored by the MSU Highway Traffic Safety center, Michigan State Police and Michigan State Safety commission. The Thursday session will be highlighted with the talk, "Women's Role in Driver Licensing and Driver Improvement," by Secretary of State James Hare. He will tell how women can help with improvements of local licensing.

The special safety class is just one of the many events of the 29th annual Homemakers' Conference when about 1,800 women will travel to the campus to hear nationally known speakers, attend their choice of a variety of 20 classes, attend entertaining and inspirational programs and hear the business report of the Michigan Home Demonstration Council.

Referring to the special safety class, Mrs. Clark discloses the scheduled speaker for the Wednesday session. "The Road Ahead for Homemakers" will be told by Gordon Sheeche, director of the MSU Highway Traffic Safety center. Explaining the facts about Michigan highway accidents and future needs of enforcement will be Sgt. Charles Holtman of the Michigan State Police. Wayne County Engineer Oscar Gunderson will explain "Engineering and Improvement of Traffic Control." Concluding the first session will be a judge telling how a traffic court may set the pattern for safety.

On Thursday, following Secretary of State Hare, will be Leslie Silvernale, driver education teacher at MSU, who will explain the new driver education law and its effect. Gerald Shipman, Michigan State Safety Commission, will tell how "Women Can Do a Man-Sized Safety Job Through Community Organization."

The Friday class will be devoted to summary, question period and explanation of the take-home action programs. The women will have most of the class period to ask questions of all the previous speakers.

BULEN TALKS Cars

It has always seemed obvious to me that the cowboy driver, the smart alec and the jack-rabbit starter will get fewer miles to the gallon than the easy and more cautious driver.

But after all, I thought, the cowboy gets where he's going faster, and maybe it's worth it.

I never knew, until I saw the results of some engineers' tests the other day, how expensive it is to be a cowboy behind the wheel and how little you get in return.

These engineers sent two identical cars over the same route through a city, one driven by an easy driver who didn't pull away from stop signs like he was shot from a gun, and the other driven by the sort of jack-rabbit you see on the streets every day.

The easy driver got 60 per cent more miles to a gallon of gas. That really surprised me — 60 per cent! If, for instance, the cowboy was getting 12 miles to the gallon, the easy driver was getting 19.2 miles.

And the easy driver sacrificed almost nothing in return for his greater economy. His average speed was 2 per cent less than the cowboy's, and his time on the road to go the same distance was only 2 per cent more. When it took the cowboy 30 minutes to go a certain distance, the easy driver did it in 30.6 minutes — and saved all that gas.

All the wear and tear on the nervous system of being a cowboy driver seems hardly worth it.

It's certainly not worth it in terms of engine wear and tear. The signs of the cowboy driver soon show up in a car, that's why we take extra care in looking over the cars that are sent in to us for resale.

We much prefer to take the car of an easy driver. Let the cowboy go stick someone else for his worn out bronc.

Have you been waiting to buy a new car? Don't wait too long if the Steel Strike continues as predicted. Manufacturers have a good supply on hand, enough probably for 2-4 weeks production. After that obviously there will be no more cars. We have a fairly good stock on hand, others on order to build it up after good June sales.

So, if you intend buying ANY car, don't delay and risk disappointment. It's also a good bet that with the price of steel up, cars will follow.

On Saturday, June 23, in St. Valentines Church in Redford Township, Carolyn A. Lukasek, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Lukasek of 15017 Sumner, Detroit, became the bride of James L. Blades, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack C. Blades of Livonia.

Lovely in her floor length bridal gown and carrying a colonial style bouquet of white carnations and red roses, Carolyn walked down the aisle on the arm of her father.

Her maid of honor was her twin sister, Catheryn, who wore a pale green gown. Bridesmaids were Patricia Felter and Carol McCloy, who wore coral and orchid gowns respectively. They carried wedding sprays of yellow flowers.

Newlyweds to Live In Gagetown After Wedding Trip

Mr. and Mrs. John R. Downing will reside on N. State St., Gagetown, when they return from a week's wedding trip to northern Michigan and LaCrosse, Wisconsin.

Mrs. Downing, the former Harriet M. Russell, and John R. Downing were united in marriage at 11 o'clock in a double ring ceremony Saturday morning in St. Agatha's rectory with the Rev. Fr. Glenn Wm. Cronkite officiating at the ceremony. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Russell and her husband's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Downing.

Mr. Russell gave his daughter in marriage a French lace, tulle and tulle featured by a molded lace over satin bodice with a square neckline and capped sleeves. Nylon tulle over satin with panel of French lace formed the bouffant skirt. Her finger-tip veil was secured by a tiara of white leaves centered with rhinestones. She carried a cascade bouquet of white carnations centered with an orchid.

Mrs. Ralph Doyen of Deford, sister of the bridegroom, was the bridesmaid. She chose a green lace over taffeta ballerina length gown with a fitted bodice and pleated skirt and she carried a cascade bouquet of pink carnations.

Jack Hool, cousin of the bride, was best man. Immediately following the ceremony a dinner was served the families and bridal party at Frits' Country Home near Bad Axe.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents from two to five p. m. for which the bride's table covered with a linen cloth, was centered with a three-tiered decorated wedding cake topped by a miniature bride and groom flanked by candles in silver holders and low bowls of American Beauty roses. Palms, baskets of gladioli and roses were the house decorations.

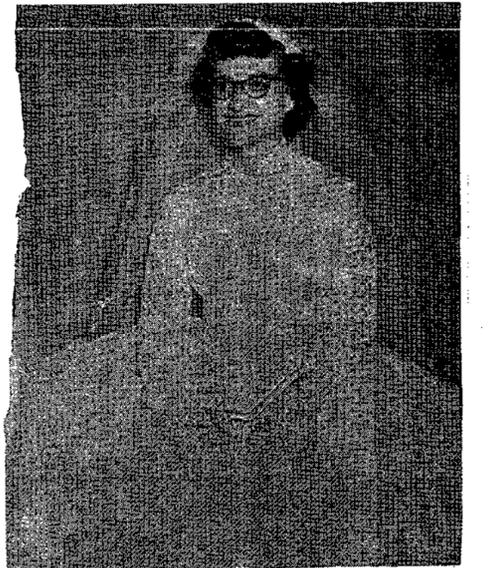

The bride's mother chose for her daughter's wedding a blue lace mesh frock with white accessories and the groom's mother was gowned in a pink dress with green accessories. Both wore corsages of pink roses.

When the newlyweds left for their wedding trip, Mrs. Downing was wearing a white pique one-piece dress with an aqua blue duster and white accessories and she pinned the orchid from her wedding bouquet to her coat.

The bride graduated from the Unionville high school, and the Northeastern School of Commerce, Bay City, and for the past five years has been employed at the Chrysler Corporation, Plymouth Division in Detroit.

The groom graduated from the Gagetown high school and spent four years in the Air Force of which two and one half years were spent in Alaska. He now operates a gas station.

Guests came from Detroit, Pontiac, St. Clair Shores, Port Huron, Flushing, Capac, Cass City, Owendale, Caro, Bay City, Ypsilanti.

Potted palms, candelabra and baskets of white gladioli formed the setting in Salem Evangelical U. B. Church for the mid summer wedding, June 30, when Miss Janice Louise Bartle became the bride of Robert A. Jones of Snover. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Bartle of Cass City and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Jones Sr. of Snover are the parents of the bridegroom. Rev. S. R. Wurtz officiated at the double ring ceremony at 8 p. m.

Miss Joan Caister as the vocalist sang "Walk Hand in Hand," "O Promise Me" and "The Lord's Prayer." She was accompanied by Mrs. Raymond McCullough who also played the wedding marches.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a waltz length gown of white lace and net. The bodice featured a net yoke, Peter Pan collar and wrist point full length sleeves. Tiny net ruffles edged the scallops of lace in the skirt. Her veil was fingertip length of illusion net and was held in place by a sequin trimmed tiara. Her only jewelry was a strand of pearls.

A white orchid and filies of the valley topped a white Bible which the bride carried.

Miss Donna Ware was maid of honor and her gown was white and yellow net over yellow satin. Miss Connie Bartle, cousin of the bride, and Miss Judy Howell were bridesmaids. Miss Bartle's gown was of taupe nylon net over satin and Miss Howell's gown was similar but orchid in color. All attendants wore matching net stoles and headbands. Their flowers were colonial bouquets of yellow roses and white carnations.

William Jones Jr. was best man for his brother and the 150 relatives and friends were seated by Dick Schmidt and Jim Brown of Snover, friends of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Bartle chose for her daughter's wedding a gray and pink print dress with which she wore white accessories. White accessories complemented the black sheer dress over white, worn by the bridegroom's mother. Both wore corsages of pink carnations. Gardenia corsages were worn by the attending grandmothers, Mrs. George Bartle of Cass City and Mrs. Herbert Graham of Mar-lette.

A reception in the church basement followed the ceremony where a beautiful four-tiered wedding cake trimmed in yellow and green was served with punch.

Upon their return from a northern Michigan wedding trip the couple will make their home in Snover where a new house has been built for them.

Relatives and guests were present from Detroit, St. Clair Shores, Brown City, Pontiac, Saginaw, Sandusky, Bay City, Cass City and vicinity.

In a recent candlelight service at the St. Johns Lutheran Church in AuGres, Miss Donna Dewald, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Dewald of Turner, became the bride of Robert Walmsey, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Walmsey of Flint. The Rev. Edward Azzam performed the double ring rites at the altar banked with palms and white gladioli in the presence of 200 guests.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length gown of Chantilly lace and tulle over satin. A crown of pearls held her finger-tip veil. She carried a cascade bouquet of red roses and white carnations.

Miss Doris Dewald, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Mrs. Melvin Garrett of Midland, a friend of the bride, and Miss Lorraine Dewald of Saginaw, sister of the bride, were bridesmaids.

The bridesmaids wore floor-length, light blue, crystaletta gowns. The maid of honor's gown was styled identically in Persian blue crystaletta. They all wore picture hats to match their gowns, and all carried cascade bouquets of white carnations and red roses.

Terri Rabideau, cousin of the bridegroom, was flower girl. Her dress was styled identically to the maid of honor's with a matching picture hat. She carried a basket of rose petals.

Jerry Little of Cass City, friend of the groom, was best man. Donald Finkbeiner of Cass City, friend of the groom, and Tom Reeder of Bay City, cousin of the bride, seated the guests.

A buffet supper for friends and relatives was served in the church basement immediately following the ceremony.

At 9:00 p. m. a reception was held at the Omer Community Hall for 400 guests.

Mrs. Laurence Geda, vocalist, sang "O Perfect Love" and "The Lord's Prayer." Mrs. Jay Dearing accompanied her at the organ.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Dewald wore a light blue print silk dress with white accessories. Mrs. Walmsey wore a turquoise dress with white accessories. Both mothers wore corsages of red roses.

New Insecticide For Cotton Growers Treated Plants Carry Built-In Protection

A new insecticide, which if applied to cotton seeds produce plants that kill early season insects, has been accepted by the U.S. Department of Agriculture and is now being produced commercially.

Named Thimet by its developers, American Cyanamid Company, the insecticide will be marketed this year to seed treaters in Mississippi and Texas only. Commercial distribution throughout all cotton growing areas in the United States and several foreign countries is planned for 1957.

Cotton seeds which have absorbed Thimet, a systemic insecticide, grow into plants that carry "built-in" insect protection through the early weeks of growth. A systemic is a chemical that finds its way into the growing plant, and is carried in the sap stream in sufficient quantities so that insects which feed on the plant are killed.

The cotton plant at right in the photo was protected by Thimet; the one on the left was not and shows typical insect damage.

Advantages to cotton growers in using Thimet-treated seed are these: It replaces two to four early season spray or dust applications that are usually applied to growing plants to control pests; it eliminates uncertainties as to the proper time for these spray or dust applications.

Research by Federal and State agricultural scientists has shown that when cotton is treated with Thimet, the insecticide stays in the growing plant and continues to kill insects for up to seven weeks after the plant has come through the ground.

Beef Marketing Costs Subject of Study

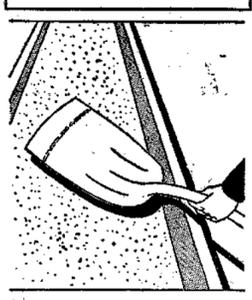

Charges for marketing beef advanced about the same amount from the last quarter of 1954 to the last quarter of 1955 as they did in the seven years ending in 1955—about one-fourth in each instance.

The farm value of choice grade beef averaged over 9 cents per pound lower in the last quarter of 1955 than a year earlier, whereas retail beef prices were down only about 3.5 cents per pound. This means that approximately three-fifths of the drop in farm value was absorbed by higher marketing costs.

These relationships are brought out in a report "Beef Marketing Margins and Costs," published by the USDA. The publication is one of a series being issued by the Agricultural Marketing Service in response to a request by the Congress for intensive studies of costs of marketing farm products. A recently issued publication, "Marketing Costs for Food," presented an overall view of recent changes in the spreads in prices between producer and consumer.

The report shows that the farmer got 70 per cent of the consumer's dollar spent for beef in 1949; and only 62 per cent in 1955. The difference between what the farmer gets and the consumer pays—the "marketing margin"—represents the return to marketing agencies for their services, including such costs as labor, supplies, and transportation. Such costs have risen substantially in the last seven years.

Faster Feeding

One farmer found that feed moved twice as fast when he added "S" to his aluminum scoop. For farmers who don't feed by hand, such a bigger scoop speeds churning work.

Pipe lines sometimes carry the natural gas of as many as 100 different producers.

Ask Yourself These Questions

If you are approached by an unknown company offering a "bargain" on a new roof for your home, or an insulation, siding, painting or repair job, ask yourself these important questions.

1. Do I know anything about the salesman or his company?
2. Have I asked the salesman or his company for references?
3. Have I reason to believe that the company will be in existence and financially able to fulfill its guarantees five or ten years from now?
4. Have I obtained a price on this job on exactly the same specifications from my own dealer?
5. Does the company provide liability and compensation insurance to protect me in case of an accident?
6. Do I know the brand and grade or quality of material I am getting?
7. In the event I pay for the job on an installment basis, do I know what finance company will have my note?

If the answer to any of these questions is "no"—be careful. Watch out for misrepresentation and watch out for "tricky" contracts. Play SAFE. Before you purchase material or enter into a contract with an unknown firm, consult your LUMBER and BUILDING MATERIAL DEALER who is RELIABLE AND RESPONSIBLE.

MICHIGAN MIRROR NEWS BRIEFS

Big question of the day will be answered by next fall. How valid are claims by Gov. Williams and labor leaders that Michigan's economic structure is in danger of collapse unless unemployment benefits are drastically increased?

What are the facts? There were approximately 207,000 Michigan residents out of work. Unemployment benefits now pay a maximum of $54 weekly, to a person with dependents, for 26 weeks.

During March, unemployment payments to Michigan workers, both married and single employees, averaged $34 per week, the highest in the nation, according to the US Department of Labor. In nearby states only Ohio came close with payments of $31.08. Wisconsin averaged $29.77, Indiana $26.19 and Illinois $25.54. The national average benefit payment was $27.12, almost $7 a week less than was paid in Michigan.

Governor Williams, with the backing of labor unions, wants to raise the maximum payments to $85 per week, for a 39-week period.

How to pay for such a large increase is another matter. Williams gave no clear cut answer to his own proposal. He feels that most of the increase should be passed on to business.

Labor supports this view on the basis that if unemployment benefits are raised there will be money in circulation to keep the economy on an even keel.

Manufacturing representatives contend, however, that this is unsound. They claim both political parties know all unemployment benefits must be calculated as a share in the cost of doing business. Therefore if benefits are raised, it will not allow Michigan manufacturing to compete equally with products coming from other states. In the long run, they say, this would force many smaller businessmen out of business and discourage new industry from building in Michigan.

GOP leaders are not convinced that money for increased benefits can be found. Rep. George Van Peursen (R) of Zeeland, chairman of the labor committee reported to the House: "We feel the program is financially unsound. Unemployment compensation benefits are paid out of a trust which belongs to all of Michigan's labor force—to the 2,300,000 who are employed as well as to the 407,000 out of work. We cannot so spend the trust fund that the first man in line would get everything and there would be nothing left for the last man in line."

The GOP statement declared that the governor's program would increase costs by at least 100 per cent and consume the $340 million account now held in trust.

As it stands now, Republicans are still asking the Governor to be as specific about cost of his plan as he is about the benefits.

Governor Williams is waiting for July 17 when the legislature reassembles, before making his next move.

Both parties are taking a calculated risk. If the unemployment situation eases, the "gloom and doom" philosophy of unions backing the governor will appear empty and unwarranted.

If, on the other hand, unemployment continues to increase, the Republican position will be greatly weakened.

The final answer will be available for examination by voters this fall.

"Sour" crude oil found in some wells in northern Michigan counties is forcing scores of wells to shut down. "Sour" crude is oil with a high sulphur content. Refineries in the state find it costly to process this oil because of the high corrosive action on equipment.

Particularly affected are wells in Ogemaw, Arenac, Roscommon and Tuscola counties where a concentration of "sour" wells are located.

According to the Michigan Geological Division, 114 of the 4,223 producing wells in the state, are pumping sour crude. Spokesmen for refineries handling this oil state that further acceptance of this oil must be put on a pro-rate basis to compensate for equipment costs.

Farmers Can Visit Grain Test Plots

On Wednesday evening, July 11, a twilight meeting beginning at 7 p. m. will be held for farmers and others interested in observing the barley and oats variety plots under test at the E. C. Korthals farm in Denmark Township, located 1 1/4 miles south of the junction of M-81 on Bradleyville Road.

Varieties of spring and winter barley as well as a large number of oat varieties are under test by Michigan State University on the Korthals farm. Those attending this meeting will include Michigan State University plant breeders, John Grafius, representatives of the Midwest Barley Improvement Association, Fickel Malting Company and the farm crops department of MSU.

This twilight meeting has been arranged by county agricultural agent Alfred Ballweg and he invites anyone interested to attend.

Former Resident Dies in Pontiac

Mrs. Alton Mark was advised of the death of her cousin, Mrs. Charles E. King, 63, of Pontiac Sunday in St. Joseph's Hospital there. Mrs. King had undergone surgery in the hospital June 6. Mrs. King was the former Miss Nina Willis of Cass City, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Willis, and was married to Mr. King in November 1913.

Their only child, a son, Russell, died in 1930 when four years old. Mrs. King is survived by her husband and a number of cousins. Funeral services were held at the Robertson Funeral Home in Pontiac Tuesday evening and the body brought to the Douglas Funeral Home here where funeral services were held Wednesday at 3 p. m. with Dr. Frank Savage, pastor of Pontiac's First Baptist Church of which Mrs. King was a member, officiating.

Burial was in Elkland Cemetery here.

Feed Costs Must Be Kept Down

Improved Pastures Can Aid Profits

The formula for successful farming and dairy management in this modern world is essentially the same as the formula for success in any business undertaking. In either case, the object is to return a fair and equitable profit and in this regard the most important factor is the cost of production.

Production costs are vitally important to the dairyman, since Wisconsin soils specialists estimate that feed takes 60 cents out of every dollar a dairyman spends on milk production.

High feed costs present a problem that must be looked by every successful dairyman.

Recognizing this fact, the Middle West Soil Improvement Committee recommends that dairymen cut costs of producing milk by growing high quality, low cost feed in the form of improved pasture.

High quality pasture can produce up to 100 pounds of total digestible nutrients for about 75 cents, according to Ohio State University farm economists. It would take between $3 and $3 worth of corn to produce the same amount of nutrients, they say.

These economists estimate, also, that a cow can obtain 70 to 80 per cent of its nutrient requirements from pasture and hay.

Getting high yields of good quality pasture and hay involve three steps, says the MWSIC: (1) a soil well stocked with plant nutrients including nitrogen, phosphate and potash; (2) the use of well-adapted legume-grass mixtures; (3) good grazing management.

Dr. Rollin H. Baker, director of the Michigan State University Museum, recently was elected to a two-year term on the board of directors of the American Society of Mammologists. His 210-page bulletin on the "Mammals of Coahuila, Mexico," has just been published by the University of Kansas.

Pair Speaks Vows In Cass City

St. Pancratius Church was the site of Miss Patricia Ann McGarry's marriage to Richard Reineit in a double ring ceremony Saturday, June 30. The Rev. Fr. Isadore Mikulski celebrated the 10 o'clock Mass before an altar decorated with white mums, snapdragons and gladioli.

The bride's parents are Guy McGarry and the late Mrs. McGarry. Frank Reineit of Argyle is father of the bridegroom.

Given in marriage by her father the bride wore a gown of nylon over taffeta, featuring short gathered sleeves, and a molded draped bodice with organza applique flowers outlined in iridescents. The back bow accent fell into a full sweeping skirt and a modified lace pill box headpiece, studded with iridescents of seedpearls was secured to a fingertip length veil of English illusion. She carried an arrangement of pale pink rosebuds among white roses with lily-of-the-valley streamers.

Miss Colleen McNamara of Niles served as maid of honor for her aunt; Mrs. Gerald Reineit of Argyle, sister-in-law of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Lyle Scott of Detroit, the bride's cousin, were bridesmaids. Diane Freiburger was a flower girl.

The maid of honor and attendants were dressed alike in soft print, nylon organza over taffeta frocks with draped bodices and waltz length skirts of Nile green, pink and orchid respectively. The flower girl wore pink and carried a basket filled with white daisies.

Gerald Reineit was best man for his brother, Clarence Erla and Lyle Scott, both of Detroit, were groomsmen. Ushers were Donald and Frederick Morel, cousins of the bride.

Immediately following the ceremony, breakfast was served for members of the wedding party at the Gageton hotel. In the evening a reception was held for 300 guests at Argyle parish hall before the couple left for a one-week trip to northern Michigan and Wisconsin.

Frank McComb Dies In Portsmouth

Frank "Fleety" McComb, 73, died at Portsmouth, Ohio, June 24 after an illness of ten weeks. Funeral services were held in Portsmouth June 27.

He is survived by one son Charles, 28, at home.

Among those attending the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Hobart, Mary Ann and Sally of Gageton and Elaine Hobart Norfleet of Washington, D. C.

Though Mr. McComb had lived in Ohio for many years, he will be remembered by some of the older folks as one of the best athletes ever turned out at Cass City High School and Alma College.

TFA FIELD CULTIVATOR

MINNEAPOLIS MOLINE MODERN MACHINERY

The TFA field cultivator is specially designed for digging out tough deep-rooted and shallow-rooted weeds like quack grass and bindweed. Sturdy, all-steel construction assures best possible penetration. Rigid frame prevents teeth from moving sideways when striking tough weeds or hard clumps of sod. Fast-acting power lift raises or lowers TFA cultivator and a lever controls cultivating depth. Tire tracks are removed.

Normal 6-inch spacing of spring teeth can be changed to 9-inch spacing for working trashy fields. Regular spring teeth have 2-inch double-pointed reversible shovels; six-inch duck-foot points are optional. Smooth-riding 26-inch steel wheels are regular equipment; pneumatic tires are optional. Two sizes: 21 tooth, 10 1/2 ft.; 17 tooth, 8 1/2 ft.

In a double ring ceremony at the Methodist Church in Cass City on Saturday evening, June 23, at 8 o'clock, Irene June Dearing became the bride of Robert Duane MacKay. The Rev. F. E. Porter officiated.

Irene is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jay Dearing of Snover, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. Robert MacKay and Mrs. Evelyn MacKay of Cass City.

The bride was given in marriage by her father before an altar decorated with palms, white gladioli and lighted candelabra.

She chose a gown of white Chantilly lace and nylon tulle over satin. The strapless fitted gown featured a bouffant tulle skirt with wide bands of lace and a fitted lace jacket which buttoned down the front with a mandarin collar and wrist point sleeves. A coronet crown of lace embroidered with iridescent sequins and seed pearls held her veil of silk illusion. She carried a white orchid and lilies of the valley over a white Bible.

June Toner of Bad Axe was maid of honor and Dana B. Duckwitz of Snover was bridesmaid. Both wore ballerina length princess style gowns of aqua crystalette over satin fashioned with a fitted bodice, square neckline and brief sleeves with matching gauntlets. Their hats were matching bands of braid and lace and they carried colonial bouquets of yellow roses and white carnations. Nancy Jane Dearing, sister of the bride, was junior bridesmaid. Another sister, Wendy Sue, was flower girl. Both girls were dressed in pink crystalette fashioned after the bridesmaids' gowns. Nancy carried a colonial bouquet of pink roses and white carnations while Wendy had the traditional basket of rose petals.

Wilbert Neiman of Cass City acted as best man. Perry Dearing and James MacKay were other attendants and seated the guests.

For her daughter's wedding the bride's mother chose an ice blue dress with white accessories and corsage of white carnations. The bridegroom's mother wore a light blue dress with white accessories and a corsage of pink and white carnations.

Mrs. Nancy Halliand sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer" accompanied at the organ by the bride's mother who also played the wedding march.

A reception was held in the church social parlors for 250 guests after which the couple left for a week's tour of the Upper Peninsula.

ALL CHALMERS by JULIUS NOVAK

HERE'S FASTER CHOPPING... FOR LESS MONEY

When you consider capacity in forage harvesters, you'll be mighty surprised by the Allis-Chalmers Forage Harvester. In fact, a demonstration on your farm will prove its capacity. Built into this compact machine is Allis-Chalmers' simplified design for big tonnage with low power requirements... low first cost and low upkeep.

Unusual capacity results from 12 feet of cutting edge on the yard-long, 200-pound, "cut-and-throw" cylinder. Curved, cupped knives are protected by stone stopper clutch — can be sharpened without removal from machine. Slide-lock fastening permits quick changeover from grass to row-crop attachments.

Let us show you how you can fill your silo fast and at lower cost than ever before.
