

Expect Record Crowd At Home-coming

Appoint Roy N. Wagg New FHA Committeeman

Roy N. Wagg of Cass City is the new member of the Farmers Home Administration County Committee in Tuscola County. Robert B. Abbott, county supervisor, announced this week.

Mr. Wagg's appointment became effective July 1. The committee on which he will serve determines the eligibility of local farmers who apply for Farmers Home Administration loans.

The new committeeman operates a 120-acre farm near Cass City and is engaged in dairying and general farming. Mr. Wagg succeeds George W. Foster of Mayville, whose term expired June 30, 1956.

The other two members are Harry Russell of Gagetown and Bruce Ruggles of Kingston. Each member is named for a three-year term and one appointment expires each year. A member completing his three-year term cannot succeed himself. At least two of the members must be farmers.

The committee works with the county supervisor in connection with all types of loans. These include farm operating loans and loans to buy, improve, or enlarge efficient family-type farms in this area. They also include loans to farmers or their nonprofit associations to establish and carry on approved soil and water conservation practices including improving permanent pasture, terracing, soil erosion measure, farmstead water systems, irrigation, drainage and many other conservation practices.

Slate Rehearsal

There will be a rehearsal Monday, July 30, at 9 a. m. at the Cass City High School Band Room for all senior band members and students who will be in the ninth grade this fall. Director Ron Phillips announced this week.

The rehearsal will be to prepare for the band's part in the home-coming parade.

Demonstration at Bath Tuesday

A deep-tillage demonstration and application of the air-blast sprayer to field crops will be highlights of the annual Muck Farmers' Field Day, July 31, at the Muck Experimental Farm near Bath, according to Alden E. Orr, Sanilac County Agricultural Agent.

In the deep-plowing demonstration, a disc-type plow will go down to two feet. This deep plowing is expected to deepen the root zone and improve plant growth. It could also be used in applying lime where there is an acid sub-soil problem.

In another demonstration, an air-blast sprayer will be used in field work. This type of sprayer, which has been used successfully for a number of years in orchard work, needs only about two-thirds as much water as the conventional sprayer. The test is intended to find out how well this type of sprayer will cover field crops.

Specialists from the various departments will be on hand to explain their experiments and tests will be conducted over the 44 acres of demonstration plots.

Besides the equipment demonstrations, this year's field day also features expanded work in plant breeding. New varieties of carrots, celery and onions are being tested by the horticulture department, and the farm crops department has almost twice as

Wheat Quotas Heavily Favored In Tuscola County

Tuscola County was ahead of the state average in voting in favor of retention of wheat acreage controls in the national wheat referendum vote held Friday.

The county posted 244 votes for the measure and 65 against retaining controls for an average of 74.3 per cent. State-wide the vote was 4,340 in favor and 2,060 against for an average of 67.8 per cent.

In the nation an overwhelming 88.7 per cent voted for the wheat acreage control.

In voting in Elmwood and Ellington townships, 22 votes were cast in favor of the measure and nine against it. In Elkland and Novesta the vote was 19 for and two against, while Dayton, Kingston and Koylton voted 17 for and three against.

Local Scouts Tell Of Camp Rotary

Six scouts who recently returned from Camp Rotary told Rotarians of the facilities and activities at the camp, Tuesday noon at the New Gordon Hotel.

Introduced by Scoutmaster Keith McConkey, the boys each told of a phase of activities at the camp. Described were swimming, hiking, scout advancement work, handicraft, boating and fishing.

On the scout panel were Dean Hutchinson, Jim Hutchinson, Bill Bliss, Bob Palmer, Ed Mark and Roger Parker.

Girl Scout Day Camp Open Monday

The annual Girl Scout Day Camp is scheduled to start Monday, July 30, at the Caro Boy Scout Camp.

Girls attending will meet at the scout rooms at 8:45 a. m. Authorities said the girls should bring a nosebag lunch, drinking cup and doctor's certificate.

Plans call for the girls to be returned to Cass City daily at 4 p. m. The Cass City girls will not attend Day Camp Thursday, Aug. 2, because of the home-coming.

Different leaders are slated to attend each day. At the camp the first day will be Mrs. Don MacLachlan, Mrs. Ernie Seeley, Mrs. Andrew Barnes Jr., Mrs. James Seals, Mrs. Gilbert Albee and Mrs. Tom Dobbs.

George Holshoe Dies In Nursing Home

George Holshoe, 77, lifelong resident of the Thumb, died Wednesday in Stevens Nursing Home where he had been a patient since April.

He was born in March 1879 in Bad Axe.

Funeral services will be held Friday at 2 p. m. at Little's Funeral Home. Rev. S. R. Wurtz, pastor of the Salem Evangelical United Brethren Church, will officiate. Burial will be in Elkland Cemetery.

Surviving are: his widow, the former Mrs. Elizabeth Manuel, a patient in Jackson Rest Home at Vassar; a sister, Mrs. Harvey Brock, Rose City, and a brother, Frank, of Osceola.

Little Damage In Fire at Jay Hartley Farm

A fire, discovered by Mrs. Ben Ritter, in an old barn on the Jay Hartley farm, southwest of Cass City, was quickly extinguished Tuesday evening by the Cass City Fire Department. Damage was slight.

When the blaze broke out, the Hartleys were not at home. The barn is situated near a 20-acre field of wheat and the Hartleys credit Mrs. Ritter's alertness in discovering the fire with saving the field.

The fire was believed to have been started by cigarettes.

Mrs. Letha Scharich, 39, of Cass City was killed and three persons were injured in a two-car collision Monday evening at the corner of Dodge and Hoppe roads, five miles northwest of Cass City.

The injured persons are reported to be in good condition in Cass City hospitals. Injured were: Richard Fields, 20, Caro, back injuries; Miss Sally McGrath, 18, Cass City, cuts and bruises on head and arms, and Donna Scharich, 12, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Scharich, back injuries.

The girls were taken to Pleasant Home Hospital and Fields to Cass City Hospital. All are recovering.

Mr. Fields was driving west on Hoppe Road and Mrs. Scharich south on Dodge Road when the accident occurred. Miss McGrath was in the Fields' automobile and Mrs. Scharich's daughter was riding with her.

Mrs. Scharich was born in Caro Mar. 23, 1917, the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Humes. She married Carl Scharich Nov. 9, 1938, in Unionville. They have lived in the Cass City community since their marriage.

Surviving, besides her husband, are: a son, Wayne, and her daughter, both at home; a brother, Leonidas Humes of Caro; a sister, Mrs. Henry Scharich of Caro, and a stepson, Richard Scharich.

Funeral services were held at 2 p. m. Thursday at Little's Funeral Home. Rev. Melvin R. Vender officiated and burial was in Almer Cemetery in Caro.

Many Prizes Awarded in Water Carnival

The last formal event of the recreation season was held last week when an estimated 50 children enjoyed a water carnival at the Cass City pool. The recreation program ends for the season today. Mr. and Mrs. Mike Yedinak, directors, announced.

A total of 22 different events was held including a penny scramble which saw children drive for a host of pennies and a silver dollar. The dollar went to Jim Rawson.

By divisions, prizes were awarded to the following children: (Children listed in order that they placed.)

Seven years and under: under-water endurance, Bonnie Lapp, Dorothy Yedinak and Eugene Nicholas.

Seven and eight-year-olds: in-nubute race, Jim Ballard, Diane Yedinak and Shirley Root; under-water distance, Jim Ballard, Christine Mark and Dean Hulien.

Nine to 11 division, boys' ball and spoon race, Jim Rawson, Gordie Bigham and Marty Yedinak; girls' ball and spoon race, Kay Mark, Kathy Ballard and Carol Root; boys' dog paddle race, Sam Wells, Marty Yedinak and Emory Orto; girls' dog paddle race, Kathy Ballard and Kay Marks; length of pool race, Sam Wells, Marty Yedinak and Delbert Fisher; duck race, Kathy Ballard, Susan Mark and Susan Coykendall.

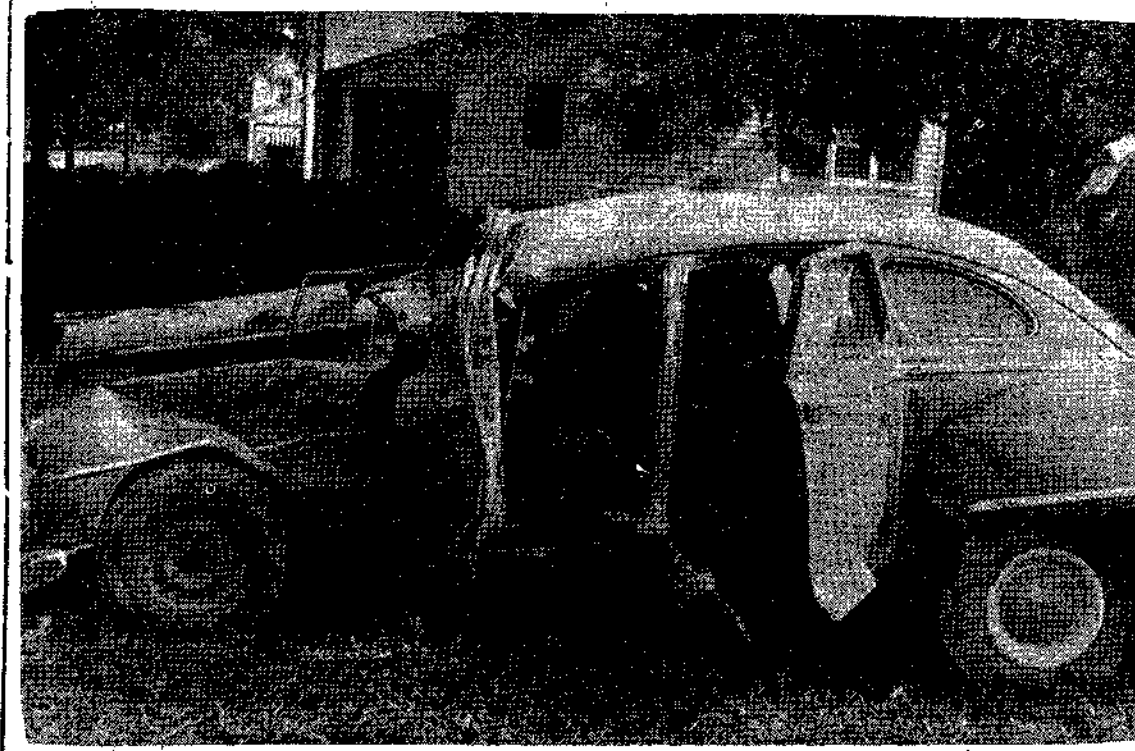

Twelve and 13-year-old division: boys' length of pool race, Gary Hutchinson and Jim Ross; girls' length of pool race, Doty Jo Ballard and Bonnie Copeland; wheelbarrow race, Bonnie Copeland and Doty Jo Ballard and Jim Ross and Dick Albee.

Twelve and 14-year-old division: balloon race, Jerry Pelton, Forrest Walpole and Bill Ross; balloon head bumping race for boys, Jim Ross and Gary Hutchinson; balloon head bumping race for girls, Bonnie Copeland and Joyce DeLong; boys' length of pool race, Fred Leeson, Bob Holcomb and Ken Matthews; length of pool race for girls, Katherine Rutkoski, Doty Jo Ballard and Judy Mantz.

All age groups: comic dive, Jim Ross and Paul Holmberg (tie), Bob Holcomb and Emory Orto; good diving, Fred Leeson, Roger Spencer and Bob Holcomb.

Synchronized swimming, Kathy Ballard and Joyce DeLong and Doty Jo Ballard and Bonnie Copeland.

Theater passes will be presented to the following for their performances: Fred Leeson, Katherine Rutkoski, Bob Holcomb, Doty Jo Ballard, Paul Holmberg, Jim Ross and Jerry Pelton.

DEATH CAR—Mrs. Letha Scharich was killed in this car Monday evening when she collided with an automobile driven by Richard Fields of Caro. Three others were injured in the accident. The car is a total wreck.

From the Editor's Corner

With the coming primary election less than two weeks away voters should now be deciding for whom they wish to cast their votes.

Most of the competition in the election is in the nonpartisan contest for judge of probate of Tuscola County and in the nomination for the Democratic and Republican nominees for congress from the Seventh District.

You should be making up your mind whom you want for these offices now.

Evidently school records back around the turn of the century weren't too accurate. We reported on the "first" annual ever published last week. We took the information from the annual itself. However, since the story appeared Mrs. Wilma Fry came up with an annual dated in 1899 which will stand as the first unless an earlier one is brought to our attention.

Simmons Building Seventh Home Here

Although the building boom in Cass City is a development of the last two years, Mr. and Mrs. William Simmons have been building and selling houses since 1941.

Since retiring from their farm in Gagetown, the couple has completed six homes and are working on the seventh. They have sold all except the one in which they now live.

Mrs. Simmons designs the homes, helps with the building and is the chief decorator. Mr. Simmons is the carpenter and does most of the construction work.

The Simmons went into building when they retired from farming near Gagetown. At that time Mr. Simmons was only 53 but he had been farming for 40 years. He left the farm so that his son, Elmer, could have it. The son has now purchased the farm.

Mrs. Simmons designed her first home during the war years when lumber was in short supply. Mr. Simmons purchased an abandoned church building, tore it down and used the lumber to build with.

The couple has learned from experience... they feel that each house they build is a little better than the last.

Mr. Simmons likes building as well as farming. Mrs. Simmons comes by the work naturally... her father was a carpenter.

Mr. Simmons does the cabinet work in the homes they build. He found that he could do the work after he built them in the first home constructed.

The couple does not chain themselves to the building business. They work when they feel like it and take off when they want to.

The Simmons are now living in the sixth home they built in the community and they say that they do not intend to move. They will sell the one presently under construction.

Besides her part of the work on the new homes, Mrs. Simmons keeps a large garden in their back yard that she keeps in "tip-top" shape.

Play-off Berth in Doubt

Merchants Lose to Gilford Sunday, 8-1

The Cass City Merchants baseball nine continued their steady drop in 3-Star League play this week when they dropped an 8-1 decision to Gilford Sunday. Just two weeks ago the club was in first place but their losing streak has placed them in a position where they will have to sweep a double-header at North Branch Sunday to squeeze into the play-offs. The first game starts at 1:30 p. m. The club has a four won, four lost record.

Sunday at Gilford the club was sloppy in the field and could garner only four hits off the slants of Heinline. Joe Kilbourn smashed out two and Irv Clasen, filling in for absent players, collected the other two.

Cass City took a brief lead in the first inning when Alexander and Carl Kolb walked and Kilbourn beat out an infield hit. Bird tapped back to the pitcher, but he couldn't decide where to throw the ball and Alexander streaked home. That was Cass City's last scoring threat.

Gilford tied the game in the third and went ahead in the fifth, 2-1. In the seventh they iced the game with four runs. They added two more in the eighth to turn the contest into a rout. Gerald Whitaker was the losing pitcher. Gilford pounded out 13 hits and committed three errors while Cass City committed five misplays.

Detroit Edison Co. Appoints Bixby to Board of Directors

H. G. Bixby, 53, of Detroit and former Cass City resident, was recently named as a new member of the board of directors of Detroit Edison Co., Walker L. Ciesler, Detroit Edison president, announced recently.

Dr. Harlan H. Hatcher, president of the University of Michigan, was also appointed.

Mr. Bixby is a graduate of the U of M and rose through the ranks of Ex-Cello-O Corporation to the position of president in 1951. In addition, he is a board member of the Manufacturers National Bank and of several industrial concerns.

Mr. Bixby is active in civic affairs. He is a director of the United Foundation, a trustee of Grace Hospital and a member of the board of trustees of the Detroit Institute of Technology and Kalamazoo College.

Mr. Bixby was in Cass City a few years ago when he spoke at a combined meeting of the Gavel and Rotary Clubs at Parrott's Dairy Bar.

Mr. Bixby also serves as regional vice-president of the National Association of Manufacturers and vice-president of the Aero Club of Michigan.

Show Little Interest In Closing Hours

Evidently there is little interest among the majority of shoppers in the Cass City area over closing hours of local stores. A check Tuesday afternoon with Keith McConkey, Chamber of Commerce president, revealed that only 21 votes had been cast.

Of the total, 19 favored staying open Saturday evening and two, the new Friday evening hours.

WSWS Meets at Homer Hower Home

The Woman's Society of World Service of the Evangelical United Brethren Church was entertained in the home of Mrs. Homer Hower Thursday afternoon with her daughter, Helen, the program leader.

A playlet entitled "The Good or the Best" was presented by Mrs. Harry Young, Mrs. Stanley Kirm, Miss Muriel Addison and Miss Hower and two topics, "What the Church Means to Me" and "How the WSWS Has Helped Me," was discussed by several members.

Mrs. Kirm, president, conducted the business session after which the hostess served dessert, cookies and coffee and tea.

The August meeting will be held with Mrs. Lawrence Buehrly and Miss Addison will be the leader.

Candidates Speak at Democrat Meeting

William B. Elmer, member of the Michigan Public Service Commission, spoke at a meeting of the Tuscola County Democratic Club on Thursday evening, July 19. The meeting was held at the Coffee Cup Cafe in Caro. After outlining his work on the commission, Mr. Elmer pointed out the difference in the goals and aims of the Democratic party as contrasted with the Republican party. He urged local Democrats to go out among the people and by personal contact tell the Democratic story.

Special guests at the meeting were Jacob S. Theut and Roy E. Vismaw, both Democratic candidates for U. S. Representative in Congress from the 7th District. Each spoke on the program he would work for, if elected.

Deckerville Editor Lion Zone Chairman

Lloyd F. Buhl, Deckerville newspaper publisher and prominent Lion for 17 years, was this week named zone chairman of Lions clubs in this area, by District Governor Rudolph Todd of Caro.

This will mark the second time that Buhl has served as zone chairman, having been appointed in 1953 to fill out a term.

A charter member of the Deckerville club and one of its organizers, Buhl also helped in the organization of the Carsonville Lions Club. He is a past president of the Deckerville club and was a member of the first State Sports Committee of the Lions of Michigan.

Clubs in the zone Buhl will cover include Carsonville, Crosswell, Lexington, Port Sanilac, Sandusky, Mariette and Deckerville.

Change Date for Annual Reunion

Authorities announced this week that the date of the annual Decker-Smith reunion has been changed. It will be held Sunday, July 29, at the Sheridan Hall. There will be a potluck dinner at noon.

All Free Program Ready for Residents

The seventh annual free home-coming sponsored by the Cass City Chamber of Commerce will be presented Thursday, Aug. 2, and members of the Chamber board announced that final details have been completed in readiness for the largest feature-packed event ever to be presented in the community.

Starting with the enlarged livestock show in the morning, through the free dance that concludes the day's long activity in the evening, special events have been prepared.

Best of all, persons attending can enjoy all of the features without spending a penny... a rule that has been followed since the home-coming was adopted seven years ago.

Visitors will be able to spend money only at the locally sponsored refreshment and novelty booths and for the various rides provided for the kiddies. The charge for the rides has been set to just cover the expense of bringing them to the community.

Livestock Show

The Junior Livestock Show will open the home-coming at 9 a. m. There will be divisions for all breeds dairy cattle, beef cattle, all breeds sheep and, for the first time this year, a swine division.

Cash awards in the dairy and beef divisions will be $2 for "A" group placings and $1.50 for "B" group placings. Group "C" placings will be worth $1.

In the sheep division, "A" groupings will receive $1.50; "B" groupings, $1.00, and "C" groupings, $.50. Awards in the new swine division will be the same as in the sheep division.

Each grand champion and reserve grand champion in each division will receive a ribbon.

In addition special awards have been donated by merchants. The first three placings in the Hereford division and the champion animal in each of the other beef and steer divisions will receive a rope halter donated by Bigelow Hardware.

Elkland Koller Mills will donate a trophy for the grand champion dairy animal. Other trophies will be donated for the following champions: champion beef animal, from Farm Produce Co.; champion sheep, from Frutchey Bean Co., and champion swine, from Eria Food Center. Parrott's Ice Cream Co. has donated $10 for a showmanship award.

Another new special award was announced last week when the Curtiss Candy Improved Stud Service established a free $25 selected mating for the grand champion and junior champion female of the dairy breeds. Certificates for the free matings will be awarded by Don Koepfgen, local inseminator.

Giant Parade

The feature of the day for many visitors is the annual parade that follows the livestock show. The parade will start at the west end of Cass City and the route of march will be down Main Street to Ale Street and down Ale Street to the park.

Through the cooperation of businesses and civic groups who are providing floats, the parade will be the largest in history. Many local girls will ride the

Sanilac Fair Share To Meet Monday

Sylvester Bukowski, Sanilac County chairman of the Fair Share Milk Bargaining Association, announced this week that there will be a meeting of the group Monday, July 30, to discuss the progress of the association since it was organized this spring.

The meeting is scheduled at the Sandusky High School gym at 8:30 p. m. Homer Martin, president, will be the speaker. The meeting is open to the public.

Babe Ruth Team Sure of Spot In Play-offs

The regular season for the local Babe Ruth team has ended and the club lost only one game, a 5-4 loss to Cassville. The record insures the club a spot in the play-offs for the second straight year.

Just who the youngsters will play has not been determined. Coach Irv Clasen said, as a couple of rained-out games still remain to be played as part of the regular schedule.

There is a good chance, Clasen said, that a play-off game will be played as part of the Cass City home-coming celebration Thursday, Aug. 2.

Coming Auction

Saturday, July 28—Adam J. Walkowski will sell implements, tools and household goods at the farm, nine miles north and a quarter of a mile east of Marlette.

This is to announce that I will be a candidate for the office of coroner on the Republican ticket primary election Aug. 7, 1956. Your support will be appreciated. Melvin Weissborn.—Adv. 2t.

Horse-pulling Contest

One of the features that always attracts the interest of nearly all who attend the home-coming is the horse-pulling contest. The event is limited to one class for teams 3,200 pounds and under. Teams will start competing for prize money at 1:30 p. m. First place will be worth $50. Other prizes are: second, $25; third, $20; fourth, $15; fifth, $10, and $5 prizes to all others who compete.

While the horse-pulling is in progress, kids will gather at the stage at 2:30 p. m. to compete in the variety of events scheduled for all ages. Prizes will be awarded to every contest winner.

Promptly at 3:30 p. m., the attention of visitors will be drawn to the riding demonstration given by the Tuscola County Boots and Saddle Club for the second straight year. The outstanding show presents riding at its best and includes many feats of precision group horse riding. Like the rest of the attractions, the show is free.

Baseball Game

Cass City's Babe Ruth team will play a team from Bad Axe, if tentative plans are completed. A scheduled game between Cass City Merchants and North Branch was cancelled when the North Branch team players were unable to leave work on Thursday afternoon.

Evening Entertainment

The evening show will open when Chamber of Commerce President Keith McConkey crowns the queen at 8:10 p. m. After the crowning, L. H. DeRemer from WBCM radio in Bay City, will take charge and present his "Spotlight on Youth" amateur show.

When the show is completed the crowds will go to the tennis courts where a free dance will conclude the day's entertainment. Music will be furnished by Fred Gussell and his orchestra.

Gross President of New Church Men's Club

James Gross was elected president of a newly formed chapter of the Council of Presbyterian Men at a breakfast meeting held Sunday at the Presbyterian Church in Cass City.

Besides Mr. Gross, other officers named were: Robert Schuckert, vice-president; George Davy, secretary, and Dr. K. I. MacRae, treasurer.

John Bayley reported on the history of the National Council and John Sommers extended greetings from the Methodist Men's Club.

At Rev. M. R. Vender's suggestion, the name, "The Ambassadors," was adopted.

An application for membership was signed by the session and officers-elect and forwarded to the National Council.

At a District III and charter night meeting, Sept. 9, the charter will be presented and officers installed.

Forty men attended the breakfast which was in charge of Mrs. Arthur Holmberg and Mrs. Orion Cardew. They were assisted by several other women.

TWO CHAMPIONS OF THE ROAD...
both Chevrolets!
To the eye, the new Corvette and the new Chevrolet are far different. But these two champions have one superb quality in common—both were born to cling to the road as though they were part of it!
Chevrolet's astonishing roadability is a big reason why it's America's short track stock car racing champion. It can and does out-run and out-handle cars with 100 more horsepower. When you wed rock-solid stability to superb engines such as the 225-h.p. V8 that flashed the Corvette to a new American sports car record—then you get a real championship combination. BULEN TALKS Cars

While the auto engineers were providing us with shatter-proof glass, all-steel bodies and four-wheel hydraulic brakes, there remained a safety problem that often used to give me a nervous twang at the pit of my stomach.

On the open highway sometimes, I used to think that with all the power and safety around you in a modern car, there still was the almost haunting thought of: What will I do in a blowout?

Safety tubes and self-sealing tubes came along and took most of the danger and the worry away.

They were wonderful advances, but I still couldn't quite relax. Unless you watch the tires closely, for instance, there is still a chance of having a blowout with self-sealing tubes. Nails or sharp objects in the tire treads can work around and eventually tear the tube.

In recent weeks, I've felt much better. The reason? Tubeless tires. They have self-sealing features, too, but in the event of a bad cut you get a "slow-out" instead of a blowout. Their safety features are important, but they have many other advantages too.

They're cooler running, repairs are much simpler because ordinary punctures can be fixed without taking the tire off the rim and they give a more consistent and comfortable ride because there is less "unsprung" weight under the body of the car.

I'll admit I'm a tire-worrier, but it doesn't stop at my own car. Every tire on every car out on our used car lot gets my personal look-see to make sure that stones and glass have been removed. There has to be a lot of wear left in those tires, too, or we won't sell them with the car.

It's just a little extra that makes our used cars worth a lot more to the people who buy them.

A fine example of a Used Car that meets that description is Reverend Porter's 1953 Chevrolet 4 Door Sedan. Painted Dark Green with a Beige top. Equipped with Air Flow Heater and Defroster, Undercoating and Deluxe Radio. The Seat Covers were installed when the car was purchased new. Mileage, 23,000. Tires, excellent. If you want a really nice car, this is the one.

FROM THE FILES OF THE CHRONICLE

Five Years Ago
The long awaited improvements for the Cass City post office are now a reality. Workmen started Tuesday morning to modernize the facilities here and were to be through in a few days. Besides the new boxes replacing the old ones, 45 additional new ones will be installed.

Wednesday, Aug. 1, William Noble, son-in-law of J. D. Turner, Cass City, will take over the reins of a weekly newspaper and monthly magazine at Coachella, Calif.

Cash Asher, son of Mrs. Louise Asher Hartwick and the late Frank Asher, distinguished himself recently by having a volume of poems, "Sidewalks River," published.

Mr. and Mrs. George Spencer will celebrate their 60th wedding anniversary with an open house Sunday afternoon at their home near Deford. The Spencers have lived in this territory 44 years.

Ten Years Ago
Twenty-eight of the employees of the Ripley Manufacturing Co. were guests of the company at a chicken dinner Wednesday evening to celebrate the first anniversary of the establishment of the Ripley factory in Cass City.

E. B. Schwaderer and Co. were the lowest of five bidders on 4.86 miles of highway on M-81 between Caro and Cass City.

A ton of beef and 2,500 bones have been ordered for the barbecue celebrating V-J Day at Caro, Aug. 14.

Paul Murray had the misfortune to have five valuable Holstein cows killed by lightning during a recent storm.

Mrs. John Reagh and Mrs. Roy Waggoner of Cass City were among the Tuscola County delegates who attended Farm Women's Week at Michigan State College this week when 400 women from home economics extension clubs of the state met on the college campus.

E. L. Anthony, dean of agriculture at Michigan State College, will be the principal speaker at the annual Sanilac County farmers' picnic to be held Tuesday, July 30, at the county park at Forest.

Twenty-five Years Ago
Guy W. Landon of Cass City was re-elected president of the Michigan Rural Letter Carriers' Association for his third term at the 29th annual convention at Port Huron last week.

The remodeled Kroger Grocery will have its formal opening this week. Henry Tate is the local manager.

Orlo McDarmion has received a check of $59.70 from the state to be placed in Tuscola County's general fund. This represents the fees collected by the sheriff's department for writing automobile drivers' license applications. The fee is fixed at 15c for each application.

In proportion to the population of the school district, the Cass City school received a greater amount of tuition than any public school in the villages and cities of the Thumb of Michigan, a review of financial reports for the past year as published in the community newspaper of the Thumb district revealed.

Thirty-five Years Ago
Thursday, July 21, Jack Cook sold his garage business in Cass City to Edward Langell and F. E. Langell of Detroit. Mr. Cook has leased the Amos Webster building in Deford and will open a garage at that place.

The Misses Mary and Isabelle McIntyre, Irene Frutchev and Thelma Nettleton returned Tuesday from a three weeks' motor trip to the east. The entire trip was 2,200 miles.

Harry Land, grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Greenleaf, spent a few days visiting here before leaving for China where he will enter the missionary work of the South China Boat Mission at Canton. He expects to sail from San Francisco Aug. 13.

Fire of undetermined origin completely destroyed the barn on the farm of Wm. J. Schwegler Sunday night. Besides the barn, a strawshed and silo were also destroyed. This season's hay and grain crop and one calf were also lost.

When about to ford the Cass river Tuesday, Glen Tuckey's team became frightened and ran away. Mr. Tuckey was thrown from the wagon which ran over him breaking his leg and injuring his back.

County 4-H Girls Place High at 4-H Club Week

Eighteen Tuscola County 4-Hers joined with more than 1,000 other members and leaders from all over the state and watched Alice Bradley, Mary Jane Young and James White of the county group win special honors last week.

All this happened at the 38th annual Michigan 4-H Club Week held at Michigan State University, July 10-13. At the four-day educational and recreational event all 68 counties from the lower peninsula were represented.

4-H Club Week is described by Bill Muller, Tuscola County 4-H club agent, as an award trip to those 4-H members who have done outstanding work during the past year. The only competition events during the week were the dress revue in which 36 finalists were chosen to return to the state 4-H Club Show in September to compete for the state winner; the selecting of eight achievement booth winners who also compete for final honors at state show; and the selection of Danforth and Prairie Farmer award winners and State Service

Club members.

About 150 leaders and county extension agents and over 900 members attended the event. Representing Tuscola County were: Alice and Barbara Bradley, Fairgrove; Mary Jane Young, Janet Albrecht, Richard Findlay and Gary Haske, Reese; James White, Silverwood; Alicia Tittsworth, Carol Tinglan, Marie Colman, Calvin Keinath and John Tulloch, Vassar; Harriette Forshee and Lyle Higgins, Akron; Jack Laurie, Cass City; Karl DeSimpelare and Jeanette Sharp, Unionville; and Robert Janks, Caro. Mrs. Joe Young, Reese, was the leader attending.

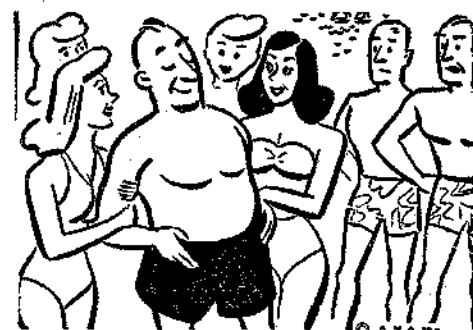

Moshier Reunion At Sickler Home

The 34th annual Moshier reunion was held Saturday, July 21, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Sickler. Sixty-two members of the family were present from Cass City, Sebawaing, Unionville, Lapeer, Wahjamega, Oxford, Lake Orion, North Branch and Toledo, Ohio.

Eldest guest was Arthur Perry of Cass City and the youngest, Sharon Gaeth, four-month-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norbert Gaeth of Sebawaing.

Michigan Mirror News In Brief

A record inmate population is rapidly filling Michigan prison facilities beyond normal operating capacities.
Latest prisoner counts show a new high of 10,129 men held by the state, says Gus Harrison, director of the State Corrections Department.
Increased Michigan population is the primary cause of the rise in prisoners, according to Corrections Department figures. There are now 140 inmates for every 100,000 persons living in the state.
Each time the state's population increases by 100,000, past experience has shown that approximately 140 more inmates boost the prison totals.
During the past five years Michigan population increased by 150,000 each year. Should this trend continue, department spokesmen assert that a potential yearly increase of 210 prisoners could arise.
Present prisons were constructed to hold 9,375 men. Special purpose facilities, hospitals, quarantine and segregation, can accommodate another 800 men, but are not part of the useable general cells.
An additional 600-man medium security prison at Ionia, currently in the construction stage, is being held up by workers who walked off the job July 6 in protest to the proposed use of inmate labor on the project.
Requests to the legislature for facilities are being considered by the department. According to Harrison there is a need for another medium security prison for youthful offenders and "medical" facilities for epileptics, homosexuals and handicapped cases.

Think you have financial headaches? Consider the job held by James W. Miller, controller of the state of Michigan. As executive head of the Administrative department, it is his duty to see that the "business" of government functions smoothly.
The controller's position is somewhat comparable to the job of city manager. Only as "state manager" the problems are more complex.
Michigan citizens rarely come into direct contact with the operation headed by Dr. Miller. But much of the department's work assures that tax dollars are spent wisely and well.
Biggest tasks assigned the controller include preparation of the yearly state budget, supervision and operation of a uniform accounting system and administration of a centralized purchasing system.
In addition, all building construction undertaken by the state, management of state buildings and vehicles, and a multitude of services to other state agencies are charged to the controller's care.
How is a state budget prepared? Each of the state agencies submit its proposed budget to the controller. Viewing the total needs of government with considerations of how much money will be available for the coming year, he makes adjustments, usually downward.
The state budget as recommended by the controller then goes to the governor. Particular portions of the governor's program usually are emphasized in the budget through larger proposed appropriations.
These proposals are then submitted to the legislature, which can pass the budget as requested, or make considerable change.
When you receive service from any of the 117 state agencies in Michigan, you can be certain that they function better and more economically because of Dr. Miller's department.

Until 1948, when the Department of Administration was authorized by the legislature, a patchwork assortment of state boards and agencies handled the services which are now completely centralized. The old system was less efficient than the new. Many necessary functions were duplicated, others were neglected.
Men of professional stature mark Governor Williams' choices for controller. Avoiding candidates with close political or party ties, he turned to Michigan's universities to make selections three times.
Dr. Miller, state controller for the past 18 months, is presently on leave from Michigan State University. His two predecessors are Robert F. Steadman of Wayne University and John W. Lederle from the University of Michigan.
The first controller, John A. Perkins also from the U-M, was appointed by former Governor Sigler and served three months before Governor Williams took office.
Proof that a professor can handle the complex administrative tasks demanded of a state controller is demonstrated by every one.
Dr. Miller says, "I'm not an expert on any particular division assigned to our department. I have capable men handling each division. But, I believe a liberal arts training provides the best background for service in the executive capacity controlling the overall actions of the department."
No career politician, Dr. Miller does not intend to continue as a political or governmental employee when his present work is concluded.

"My training and background are welded to an academic career," he comments.
At Michigan State he was a full professor in the political science department until 1954 when he assumed the administrative role as head of the Department of Teacher Education.
As an expert on state government, he is co-author of a book "State Administrative Reorganization," and has contributed articles to the American Political Science Review, Agriculture History and many other publications.

Mrs. Jackson, 65, Dies in Hospital

Funeral services for Mrs. William G. Jackson, 65, lifelong resident of the Cass City area, were held Monday at 2 p. m. in the Douglas Funeral Home. Rev. M. R. Vender officiated and burial was in Elkland Cemetery.
Mrs. Jackson, in poor health for a long period of time, died Friday forenoon in Cass City Hospital where she had been a patient for four days.
The former Jennie Little, daughter of the late William J. and Margaret Little, she was born in Novesta Township, April 21, 1891. She graduated from Cass City High School at the age of 16 in 1907 and early in 1908 began teaching school which she continued to do until her marriage to Mr. Jackson on August 10, 1915.
They had three daughters, Mrs. Lloyd Finkbeiner (Wilma) of Cass City, Mrs. James Sowden (Janetta) of Drayton Plains and Margaret Ann, who died in 1927 at the age of four days.
Besides her husband and daughters, she leaves four grandchildren, William and Patricia Finkbeiner and Carolyn and Barbara Sowden; two sisters and two brothers, Arthur and Mack Little of Cass City, Mrs. George Bergen (Mae) of Fenton Lake and Mrs. Ralph Chaffee Sr. (Sarah) of Ferndale. Mrs. Jackson was a member of Ellwood Grange No. 1650, of the Ellwood Missionary Circle and the Presbyterian Church.

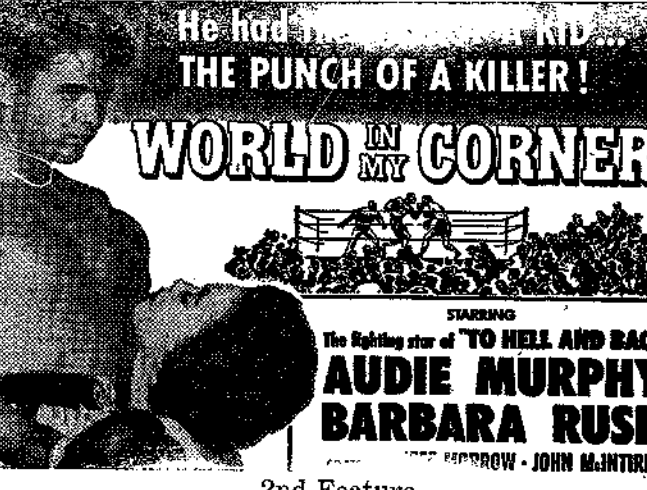

100 4-H'ers at Summer Camp

Information received from the Cooperative Extension Office revealed that over 100 boys and girls attended the three-day camp at SLEEPER STATE PARK last week.
Camp for the 4-H'ers attending started off on Sunday afternoon on July 15. The next three days saw the youngsters participating in group singing, games, swimming and evening vesper and camp services.
Mr. Vincent Tait, of the Detroit Edison Company, attended camp on Tuesday and presented a very interesting program on "How and Why to Give a Demonstration on Electricity in the Home."
Highlighting the camp session was the Tuesday evening fun night program planned and executed by the boys and girls and the twelve counselors in charge of the various groups.
The 4-H Service Club made up of older youngsters in the many 4-H clubs of the county presented the "Candle Lighting Service" which was initiated as a part of the 4-H Club program during the Chicago World's Fair.
The setting of this impressive service was around the camp fire where only candlelight was visible. The program ended with all the campers having their candles lighted by the service club members.
While rain did make its appearance during the camp, Bill Miller, county 4-H club agent, states that it never affected the spirit and enthusiasm of the boys and girls attending.
Plans for a full week of camp, with a junior and senior camp scheduled for a three-day period are in the making, as thirty 4-H'ers were unable to go this year due to the increased interest in this event.

Members of the Watson family visited Mrs. Watson's brother-in-law, Tom Ramsey and family, at Red Oak, before and after the reunion.

Among those who were called here by the death of Mrs. Wm. G. Jackson, most of whom attended the funeral on Monday, were the following relatives and friends: Mr. and Mrs. George Bergen of Fenton Lake; Mrs. Ralph Chaffee Sr. and son Bill of Ferndale and Mrs. Chaffee's daughter, Mrs. Hubert Park of Royal Oak; Mrs. Carl Stoner of Flint; Mr. and Mrs. Sam Little of Alger and their daughters, Mrs. John Seader of Waterford and Mrs. Ralph Yarger of Pontiac; Europe McLarty and son Angus of Pontiac; Glen Jackson of Essexville; Mrs. Warren Datto, Mrs. Herbert Volz and Mr. and Mrs. Olin Zeller of Saginaw; Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Horner of Pontiac; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Little of Marlette; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Putnam and Vilas Moore of North Branch; Steven Moore of Kingston, and Mr. and Mrs. Don Roberts of Center Line.

WOMAN'S WORLD

Use Care When Treating Fabrics For Discoloration

NEW fibers, mixtures of "old fibers" with synthetic ones and new finishes have led to many questions about the care of currently used materials.

One of the big problems that has confronted homemakers has been the changes of shade in whites. After a few launderings these whites may show tinges of gray, pink, tan, blue or a number of other colors.

Treatment of discoloration depends upon the type of material. Care should be observed because the fabric can be damaged if harsh measures are observed.

New Materials. It's always easier to prevent discoloration than to treat the damage.

You can achieve complete individuality in decorative effects easily with inexpensive, washable velon plastic. No water, paste or tools of any kind are needed to attach these die-cut decors. Merely peel off the paper backing to reveal an adhesive backing. Remove and replace as desired.

age. Thus, when the material is new, and you wash it, use a powdered sodium-perborate type bleach in the washing water. It prevents white from discoloring and keeps fast colors bright.

If materials are heavily soiled, wash them with a heavy duty soap solution rather than a detergent. If your water is heavily laden with mineral deposits, treat the water with a conditioner, rather than using something on the material.

Specific Fabrics. Nylon, dacron, dnyel, orlon and acrilan fibers should be bleached when heavily discolored with perborate bleach or a water conditioner and hypochlorite.

When any of the above fabrics are to be washed the water should be around 100°F. for best results. Use either soap or synthetic detergent. Any ironing or pressing should be done with a very cool iron as heat from the pressing may cause discoloration.

Labels, each marked with the garment with which it came, will usually give any specific washing and ironing directions. Place these in an envelope and keep them tacked on the wall near your washing machine.

Star Vegetables In Crisp Salads. With a wealth of fresh vegetables on hand and the family wanting lighter foods during warm weather, why not play up salads? They aren't as heavy as a cooked meat and potato supper, but they are nourishing, too.

Crisp salads with fresh garnishes can make a hit with any group because they are appetizing and spirit-lifting. Here are hearty salads to serve as main dishes:

Dagwood Salads
2 avocados
Salad greens
4 medium tomatoes
Cooked asparagus spears
Celery curls
Carrot curls
Ripe olives
1/2 cup mayonnaise
1 tablespoon vinegar
1 teaspoon dry mustard
2 tablespoons tomato catsup
Garlic salt

Cut each avocado into quarters lengthwise and remove seeds and skin. Cube and pile in center of salad bowls garnished with salad greens. Arrange tomato wedges, asparagus spears, celery and carrot curls around avocado. Blend together mayonnaise, vinegar, mustard, catsup and garlic salt to taste. Pour over salad and garnish with olives.

Tuna Lima Salad
(Serves 4)
2 cups cooked large, dry lima beans
1 7-ounce can tuna, flaked
1 cup sliced celery
2 tablespoons diced pimiento
2 tablespoons chopped parsley
1/2 cup mayonnaise
1/4 cup drained pickle relish
Lettuce cups

Drain lima beans after cooking (they will measure 1 cup before cooking). Combine all ingredients together mixing lightly. Serve in lettuce cups.

Lon Decker and the former Carole Hill are making their home in Cass City following their marriage recently at the Salem Evangelical United Brethren Church. Complete details of the wedding appeared in an earlier edition of the Chronicle.

Pair Speak Vows in Bad Axe Saturday

Miss Helen Wills and Elwyn A. Hartwick were united in marriage in the First Presbyterian Church in Bad Axe, Saturday. Rev. Robert L. Morton conducted the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elgin Wills, Bad Axe. Mr. and Mrs. Clayton A. Hartwick, Tyre, are the parents of the bridegroom.

Given in marriage by her father, Miss Wills chose a floor length gown of rosepointe lace and tulle for her marriage.

A scooped neckline accented the fitted bodice of the bridal gown, which was made with a chapel length train. The bride wore pearl jewelry, gift of the bridegroom, and a finger tip veil secured to a tiara trimmed in iridescent sequins and pearls. She carried a cascade of Stephanotis centered with a white orchid on a white ribbon.

Deanna Parker, accompanied by Mrs. Clyde Dave, sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

MSU Drill-Harrow Saves Time, Money

Here's the way to plant small grain after plowing—without disking. This three-bar, spike-tooth harrow under the drill nitch saves one time over the field. Leveling blades on the harrow fill in the tractor wheel marks and the entire harrow is raised by the drill's power lift. A soil pulverizer is hitched tandem on the drill to firm the soil and finish covering the seed. This leaves the field smooth for combining. The combination machine has attracted nationwide attention since it was developed at Michigan State University by Ray Cook, head of the soil science department, and H. P. McColly of the agricultural engineering department. Charles Bruffy, a graduate student who helped build the machine, shows how the combination operates. Plans for attaching the harrow to the drill are available by writing the agricultural engineering department, Michigan State University, East Lansing. (M.S.U. Photo)

Couple Wed in Ypsilanti Parsonage

The marriage of Miss Elizabeth Barrett and Clifford D. Wright of Ypsilanti was solemnized in a Baptist parsonage in Ypsilanti Saturday evening, July 21, at six o'clock. Rev. Bush officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Barrett Sr. of Conran, Mo. Roy Wright of Ypsilanti and Mrs. Lela Wright of Cass City are the parents of Clifford Wright.

Attendants at the ceremony, at which only close relatives of the couple were present, were Mr. and Mrs. Richard Holcomb of Cass City, sister and brother-in-law of the bridegroom.

The bride chose a white summer suit with which she wore white accessories and an orchid corsage. Mrs. Holcomb wore a light blue suit-dress with white accessories and a corsage of red roses.

The bride's mother wore a printed lawn dress and Mrs. Lela Wright, a figured white nylon dress. Both mothers had white accessories and wore corsages of white carnations.

A reception for the newly-weds was held later that evening at the Eagles' Hall in Ypsilanti and was attended by 40 relatives and friends. The bridegroom's sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Thorp of Caro, will give the couple a reception at the Thorp home this Saturday evening.

Among those attending the wedding were relatives of the couple from Conran, Mo., and Ypsilanti, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Thorp of Caro, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Holcomb and Mrs. Lela Wright.

Mr. and Mrs. Wright will make their home in Ypsilanti where both have been employed.

Ice cream-filled cream puffs complete many a summer meal in fine style. Make tiny cream puffs and fill them with two or three kinds of ice cream. Use three or four for a serving and top with chocolate sauce and serve.

Every time history repeats itself some people find themselves short changed.

THE FEET YOU SAVE SHOULD BE YOURS

Ever think about the abuse your feet have to take? They are locked up all day in tight sagging shoes. Your feet will take you further if you give them a kind of a break they need in a pair of Foot-So-Port shoes. See Joe today for free shoe consultation.

We carry sizes in stock to size 15.
We are closed Thursday afternoon.

RESCUE

Mrs. Ervin Kreh returned recently after spending some time with her daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rapson, (Lois Kreh) of Upland, Ind., and new grandson, Paul Dennis. Mr. and Mrs. Kreh have two granddaughters besides the new grandson.

Mrs. Ottomar Sting recently spent a day in Marlette with her daughter, Mrs. Al Smiley, and daughter.

Zion Home Builders Class of the Canboro Latter Day Saint Church met Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Heck. Games were played and prizes given. Potluck lunch was served.

Bridal Shower—

Twenty-five friends and relatives attended a bridal shower for Miss Marilyn Osborne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Osborne, of Grant Sunday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Anton Peters Sr. Mrs. George Peters, Mrs. Kenneth Wissner, Miss Janice Knowlton and Miss Margery Stung gave the shower. Games were played and prizes were won by Mrs. Archie MacLachlan and Miss Delores Monkda. Miss Osborne and Anton Peters Jr. will be married Saturday, July 28.

Mr. and Mrs. Norris E. Melendorf and son Milton were supper guests Monday evening at the home of her brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Francis E. Quinn, in Kinde. Their daughter Arlene returned home with them. She had spent the past week at her uncle's home.

It's a good idea to become so accustomed to looking on the bright side of things that you can't see the other.

OUR READERS ARE NOT—

THE LIGHT STEP FOR EASIER WALKING

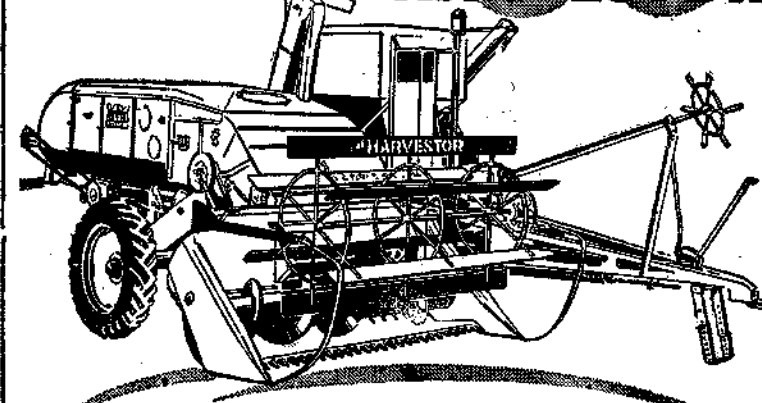

You feel like you are walking on a pillow because of the natural arch fitting wedge cushion crepe sole in this popular Red Wing oxford.

1/2 pound lighter per pair. Mellow elk leather that shines easily. "Sweat-Proof" leather insoles.

Meet the NEW "88" HARVESTOR

PACKED WITH NEW MM FIRSTS
TO CUT YOUR HARVEST COSTS!

Here's new capacity... new low-cost threshing efficiency... for the most profitable harvest you've ever known! It's the new MM "88" Harvester, loaded with new MM advantages to give you faster harvesting, cleaner grain, more thorough threshing. See the "88" in action... you'll know that here's the harvester that gives you the jump on production costs... guarantees you top profits from every crop you raise.

ONE-PIECE HEADER—7-FOOT CUT

This new one-piece, hinged header makes a clean, fast 7-foot cut, plus 4-inch gather, lowers to 2 inches, raises as high as 24 inches. Extra advantages: 15-inch retractable finger conveyor auger; 3-chain riddle feeder conveyor choice of Uni-Matic Power or bandy filler for raising and lowering.

NEW ADJUSTABLE TREAD

No need to run the "88" with one wheel on the row when harvesting row crops. The outer wheel adjusts outward up to 16 inches in stages of 4 inches. You set tread to keep the Harvester running level with both wheels between the rows.

PLUS
• 8 CYLINDER SPEEDS—300 TO 1400 R.P.M.—WITH HANDY SPROCKET FOR SPEED SELECTION.
• FAMOUS MM 48" RASP BAR CYLINDER—ONE-PIECE WELDED STEEL CONCAVE.
• FULL LENGTH SEPARATION WITH 79" STRAW RACK.
• 7.50-24 TIRES AND TIMKEN WHEEL BEARINGS.
• AVAILABLE WITH ENGINE, OR FOR PTO DRIVE.
