

From the Editor's Corner

The alley in back of the business block that runs between Seeger and Leach streets was cleared last week of brush and other obstructions to provide room for parking.

Our attention was called to the area this week on Tuesday afternoon when most of the space was occupied with parked cars.

We didn't check, but we feel sure that many of them belonged to merchants. The number of cars parked in this area naturally leaves that many more parking spaces for customers which should please both the customer and the merchant. Perhaps the use of the alley parking can be traced to the efforts of the Chamber of Commerce which is conducting a drive to keep merchants' and their employees' cars off Main Street.

In the story of progress of the community this week, the advance of the community's businesses wasn't mentioned. Without attempting to enumerate all of the changes, it's safe to say that the majority of the stores have been improved, enlarged or remodeled in recent years... which of course indicates progress as much as a new home or other additions to the village.

We realize that conservation is of vital interest to most persons in this age of shorter work weeks and more leisure time. So we'll pass on this information from the Michigan Department of Conservation.

The department has prepared a free 48-page publication, "Cover on the Land," which discusses forests, marshlands, dunes country, wildlife habitat, wild land management and other topics.

The booklet is a collection of articles from the department's bimonthly magazine, "Michigan Conservation," and is both interesting and educational. Copies are available by writing to the Conservation Department Publications, Lansing, 28.

If you've been in the habit of reading the weekly column published by Buell Motors that has run in every issue of the Chronicle for over two years, you'll be pleased to note that the column will appear again next week. Horace Buell had the copy prepared in advance to send to the paper but it disappeared at the last moment and he was unable to meet the deadline for this week's issue.

Rotarians Seek Ways to Raise Hospital Funds

Members of the Cass City Rotary Club discussed plans for a way that they could help promote the proposed community hospital in the village, in the club's regular Tuesday meeting this week.

Although no definite vote has been taken, the club is likely to go on record in the near future with a pledge to furnish a room in the new building.

To have a room dedicated costs $5,000.

To implement the club's decision to help build the hospital, President A. J. Stevens appointed a ways and means committee to suggest fund-raising projects to raise the needed money. Serving on the committee will be James Bauer, Willis Campbell, Cliff Croft, John Haire and Dr. H. T. Donahue.

Galaxy of Gifts for Home-coming Queen

A cedar chest full of gifts is promised for the girl who is judged queen of the Cass City home-coming Thursday, Aug. 1, Keith McConkey announced this week.

The galaxy of prizes is offered so that every eligible girl in the area will sign at McConkey Jewelry to enter the competition.

There are few restrictions for contestants. They must be between 15 and 23 years old and unmarried. Semiformal or formal attire is required and all contestants must be entered by July 27.

All girls that ride in the parade will be queen contestants and they must attend the evening performance when the winner is announced and gifts awarded.

Parade

Children who will enter the children's parade must report in front of the Mike Yednak home at 12 noon on parade day. It is not necessary to call Mrs. Yednak to make arrangements to be in the parade. Arrangements will be made to place children in the parade when they report.

The parade this year will feature many of the attractions of recent years together with new floats and horses of the Tuscola County Riding Club.

Cass City Brownies and Girl Scouts will leave by bus from the scout rooms. All scouts attending are asked to be there by 9 a. m.

Each girl must have a doctor's permit Monday, stating that she may engage in all camp activities.

Millington Youth Drowns in Tractor Accident Monday

Louis Schlosser, 14, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Schlosser of near Millington, was killed late Monday afternoon when he was pinned under his overturned tractor in a water-filled ditch on Birch Run Road.

Investigating officers said that the tractor went out of control as it was driven down the road and pinned the youth in the ditch as it rolled over.

With the boy was his six-year-old cousin, John Schlosser, who was thrown from the tractor into the water. He scrambled out of the ditch and called for help.

Three area farmers attracted by the cries were unable to release him in time to save his life. Death was said to have been caused by drowning as Louis was pinned beneath the tractor.

The youth was born Feb. 23, 1943, and had resided in Tuscola County most of his life. Final rites were to have been held at the Hanlin Funeral Home in Millington Thursday afternoon and burial in Thetford Cemetery in Millington.

Roger Parrish at Fred Waring School

Roger Parrish, vocal music teacher grades 1-12, was among a select group of more than 100 professional musicians attending the Fred Waring Music Workshop at Delaware Water Gap, Pennsylvania, last week. The six-day, highly concentrated course is taught by the same instructors who train the famous Waring Pennsylvanians and is personally headed by Fred Waring.

Demonstrations of choral conducting, microphone and tape recording sessions, lectures on choral arranging, program building, lighting and staging techniques and other practical information of help to the director of school and church music organizations are given by this professionally experienced staff of Waring singers, pianists, conductors and arrangers.

Rehearsal provided extensive experience with a wide variety of choral literature suitable for use by school, college, church, community and industrial groups. That was all for Cass City. They wasted a triple by Joe Kilbourn in the fifth and a single by Geiger in the seventh. A walk, a triple by Weise and a circuit clout by Kern settled the issue in the eighth as the Merchants dropped their fourth game of the season.

Next week the team will be on the road when they play at Frankenthum. There are now just three regular season games left in the Thumb All-Star League.

Wednesday, July 31, the team will play Marietta and Wednesday, Aug. 7, the last game of the season will be in Cass City when Mayville will furnish the opposition.

OPEN HOUSE—The 45th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. John Kennedy will be commemorated Saturday, July 27, with an open house at their home in Cass City. Friends and relatives are invited from 2 to 5 and 7 to 9 p. m.

The couple was married July 31, 1912, at the parental home of the former Cecile Auslander of Evergreen Township. Rev. George M. Shinn, now of Ohio, officiated.

Mr. Kennedy, 70, was born in Ontario and Mrs. Kennedy, 66, was born in Evergreen Township. They spent most of their lives in the township where they were married.

They made their living farming until 1947 when they moved to Ann Arbor for two years before returning to Cass City to retire.

The couple has three children, Mrs. Ted (Wilma) Wahl of Ann Arbor, Floyd of Decker and Emerson of Cass City. There are eight grandchildren.

Overtime Tilt Lost By Merchant Nine

Cass City Merchants lost an overtime decision to Frankenthum Wednesday at the Cass City Recreation Park after they had come from behind to tie the score in the regulation distance. The score was 5-2.

The Merchants' outthit the visitors 7-2 but were unable to make their blows count while Frankenthum used all three of its safeties to best advantage.

The visitors took a two-run lead in the first inning with a double, hit batsman, walk and an error. After the first, they were held hitless and scoreless until their winning rally in the eighth.

Cass City got one of the runs back in the second on hits by Tom Schwaderer, Dan Erla and Ron Geiger. In the third a single by Frank Creason and a double by Carl Kolt tied the score.

That was all for Cass City. They wasted a triple by Joe Kilbourn in the fifth and a single by Geiger in the seventh.

A walk, a triple by Weise and a circuit clout by Kern settled the issue in the eighth as the Merchants dropped their fourth game of the season.

Next week the team will be on the road when they play at Frankenthum. There are now just three regular season games left in the Thumb All-Star League.

Wednesday, July 31, the team will play Marietta and Wednesday, Aug. 7, the last game of the season will be in Cass City when Mayville will furnish the opposition.

Progress, the theme for this year's parade at the home-coming Thursday, Aug. 1, is an apt slogan that is supported by the facts compiled this week by Bernard Ross, president of the Cass City Chamber of Commerce.

Cass City in the last 10 years has shown outstanding growth and progress. Perhaps the best measure of its growth is the increase in valuation.

With no increase in mill rates the tax revenue has increased from $16,079.64 in 1947 to a total of $39,286.50 this year... a double the amount of revenue in 10 years.

A check of some of the reasons for the increase in worth reveals that there have been a total of 185 new homes erected in Cass City in the last 10 years. Peak years for home construction were immediately following World War II when 24 homes were built in 1947 and 21 in 1948.

Construction again boomed in recent years as 19 new homes were built in 1956 and 12 have been erected already this year.

Many of the new homes have been built in subdivisions. In 1946 the Garden Center subdivision was formed and Hills and Dales was started the same year.

Last year three new subdivisions were approved by the council. They are The Meadows, The Lane and Gowen subdivisions.

New Plants In recent years, four new plants have come to the village while one plant, Nestles Company, left the community. The upsurge in factories and employment was started by Anrod, which came to the community from Crosswell.

Starting here in 1954, the company has provided some 25 persons with steady employment. Through the cooperation of the Cass City Development Association and other Cass City residents, Walbro was lured to the village.

The company moved into a building with 6,400 square feet of floor space and listed 10 persons on the payroll. Today the company has 16,000 square feet of floor space and a peak employment of 215.

Peak production at the beginning was about 210 units and today the company can average 5,000 carburetors a day with peak production of 7,000.

Currently the company is diversifying its product by working for contracts that call for

MMPA Seeks Boost in Price Of Drinking Milk

Action to boost the price of Class I (drinking milk) 85c per hundred in the Detroit market was taken up by the sales committee of Michigan Milk Producers Association this week.

The sales committee ordered the price committee of the organization to obtain $5 per hundred when present price agreements expire Aug. 1. Current price is $4.65 per hundred. The new price would apply for a six-month period.

In its meeting the sales committee rejected an amendment which called for a price of $5.50 per hundred. After a thorough discussion it was defeated by a 22-5 vote.

Members of the committee felt that $5 per hundred was a realistic, competitive price which would not open the door to sales losses to surrounding markets, particularly Toledo and Chicago. The $5 price will average about 8c per hundred over Toledo and 75c or more over Chicago. Final action was approved by a 24-7 vote.

In taking the action the sales committee approved a previous action of the price and order committee which made the original recommendation of $5 per hundred.

The new price formula must be accepted by Detroit market dairies before it will become effective. Preliminary negotiations with Detroit dairies began July 16.

Michigan Milk Producers Association represents over 10,000 of the 12,472 farmers in the Detroit market.

Parents Worry As Kids Enjoy Float Down Cass River

A float down the Cass River on a raft by two 12-year-olds caused some anxious moments for worried parents this week.

The two youngsters, Bruce Avery and his cousin from Detroit, decided to float down the river from Cass City to Caro.

They entered the stream at about 3 p. m. When parents failed to hear from them as darkness was approaching, a hunt was instigated and authorities notified.

However, before they could be found they had left the river near the bridge at Ellington to call home.

Because at the first two farms the youngsters stopped there was no one home or they had no phones, it was well after dark before the children called their parents.

When the relieved parents promptly picked them up, the pair reported a very pleasant afternoon of floating down the river.

Coming Auctions

Saturday, July 20—Howard Gregg will sell household goods at the house located across the street from the Deford School.

Tuesday, July 23—Mrs. John Bachur will sell cattle, dairy equipment, feed and machinery at the farm, four miles east, nine miles south and a half mile east of Cass City.

Richard Mallory, 21, driver of the car in which Mr. Nye was a passenger, has been accused of reckless driving. Trial of his case will be deferred because he entered the Army Monday, Orto said.

Kenneth Nye, 20, of Cass City pleaded guilty of disorderly conduct Monday before Justice Reva Little. He was fined $10 and costs of $4.30. He was arrested by Marshal Steve Orto Sunday evening.

Churches have been improved in the community. Work is under way now on the Methodist Church. The Lutherans completed a basement for a new church in the future and the Church of the Nazarene recently held a formal opening of its new building. The Presbyterian Church, The Baptist Church and Novesta Church of Christ have been extensively remodeled.

School Growth Keeping step with the growth of the community has been the school system. Despite the erection of a grade school and a grade addition in recent years, the district has managed to maintain a favorable debt structure that shows a bonded indebtedness of only $192,000 on a state equalized valuation of some $8,000,000.

The comparatively low indebtedness has enabled the district to assess only 2.7 mills for debt this year. A shop will be added this year and the building will be paid for out of a building and site fund without added indebtedness to taxpayers.

A total of 1,115 students is taught at the school and the plant is valued at about a million dollars.

The village has been active in creating a progressive community. In recent years Main and Seeger streets have been resurfaced and four miles of village streets blacktopped.

Storm sewers have been installed for adequate drainage of the southeast and southwest sections of the village and approximately three miles of new water main have been installed.

A new disposal plant was placed in operation in February of 1956 at a cost of $165,000. The debt has been reduced to $147,000.

For Injuries in Area Accident

Mrs. Lichon Seeks $16,500 in Damages

Now under consideration in Tuscola County Circuit Court is a damage suit for $16,500 resulting from an automobile accident on the corner of Bay City-Forrestville and Cemetery roads, Oct. 11, 1953.

Mrs. Betty Phelan Lichon, formerly of Gagetown, was a passenger in a car driven by Kathleen Shine Yaroch of Port Crescent, a daughter of Mrs. Theresa Shine, owner of the car. The car collided with a car driven by James Dean.

Mrs. Lichon is seeking damages from Mrs. Shine for injuries suffered in the accident. She claims permanent injuries to her right ankle and left leg.

Actual expenses for hospitalization and other direct expenses totaled some $3,500 while the remainder of the damage money has been asked for pain and suffering encountered.

Mrs. Lichon claims to have paid $1 to Mrs. Shine for the ride in the car and that the money was accepted. Lawyers debated whether or not Mrs. Lichon was a guest passenger in the car or a passenger for hire because of the payment.

Request FHA to Survey Thumb as Disaster Area

Rep. Alvin M. Bentley, Republican, said this week that he has asked the Farmers Home Administration to survey parts of Michigan to see if they are eligible for flood disaster relief.

Bentley said he asked the FHA to check crop damage in the Saginaw Valley and Thumb areas of the state where high waters have done considerable damage in recent weeks.

The FHA makes low interest loans to flood victims in areas it declares eligible for disaster relief.

There are 11 alto saxophones in the 180-piece band and Miss Winters now occupies the second chair. She moved from third to second chair in "challenges" held at the camp.

Nye Fined for Disorderly Conduct

Kenneth Nye, 20, of Cass City pleaded guilty of disorderly conduct Monday before Justice Reva Little. He was fined $10 and costs of $4.30. He was arrested by Marshal Steve Orto Sunday evening.

Richard Mallory, 21, driver of the car in which Mr. Nye was a passenger, has been accused of reckless driving. Trial of his case will be deferred because he entered the Army Monday, Orto said.

During their visit to the Capitol building, Vice-president Richard Nixon was photographed with the group following a breakfast in the Speaker's dining room which was attended by Sen. Charles E. Potter of Cheboygan and Congressman Robert J. McIntosh of Port Huron.

Cass City on Top in Thumb Babe Ruth Loop

Cass City clinched at least a share of the West Division crown in the Thumb Babe Ruth League with a 12-6 decision over Pigeon and a forfeit victory over Sebewaing Monday. The team is undefeated with only a game with Bay Port left on the regular league schedule.

Another brilliant pitching performance was turned in by Newell Harris against Pigeon. The right-hander worked the first five innings, permitted but two hits and fanned 10... an average of two an inning.

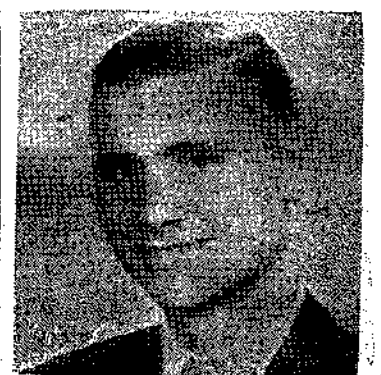

Coach Irv Claxman says that Newell looks like a real pitching prospect. The last two innings were pitched by Larry Robinson, who gained valuable game experience.

Leading sticklers for Cass City were Les Severeance, Dave Wilson, Phil Robinson, Tim Anthes and Larry Robinson.

Cass City scored four times in the first inning and was never behind. They added seven more in the fourth and their final counter in the sixth. Everyone on the team got into the game, Claxman said.

The club is hampered by lack of funds for needed equipment and this will probably be the final season for Babe Ruth baseball unless some money is made available or the boys find a sponsor.

Fox Named to MSU Honor Society

Robert Dean Fox, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Fox of Cass City was initiated into the Michigan State University chapter of Phi Kappa Phi, national honor society devoted to the promotion and recognition of scholarship. Mr. Fox is majoring in engineering.

The women from the Moreland group who went on the tour of Northland had a very enjoyable day. It is a tour I would recommend any of the Extension groups to consider for a spring or summer tour. The Mrs. Gerald and George Dunham, Kenneth Culbert, Harold Pike, Morris Scott and William Tonkin were the lucky women who went.

A Barbecue

New tricks for the cook, anyone? Tired of the same old routine of three meals a day? Heat-wilted appetites need a bit of joggling? Be original. Try different cuts of meats. Specialize in seasonings such as herbs, meat sauces, or combinations of seasoning in tall shakers.

Create an unusual sauce or two. Have one hot spiced, the other mild and subtle. Use the sauce before, during, or after the cooking. That is, let meat or poultry chill in the sauce two or three hours before the cooking, or serve a pitcher or bowlful of the sauce with the cooked meat.

Have you found the million dollar flavor in barbecued chuck? Barbecuing a chuck roast takes a bit of doing. You need to start the night before the barbecue. Moisture is the tender touch for chuck roast, and the moisture is a marinade. Mix a half cup of vinegar and a half cup of salad oil, plus herbs and a combination of seasonings. Pour this mixture over the chuck and let it stand in the refrigerator overnight. By barbecue time, the chuck will be tender.

Choose the arm cut chuck for your barbecue. It handles easily on the grill. A chuck that is one or one and a half inches is best thickness for barbecuing, so choose carefully. Chunks are a little more trouble than the popular steaks, but they are the answer to the big barbecue at low cost.

Make guests wait and watch. Let them help tote and carry. Serve crisp vegetable relishes and help-yourself appetizers. Have steak knives sharp, use throw-away plates, encourage finger foods, keep menus simple, serve hot foods hot, make clean-up time a cooperative project.

FROM THE FILES OF THE CHRONICLE

Five Years Ago

An estimated 30 persons attended the annual school election of Cass City School Monday evening and re-elected Frederick Pinney and Mrs. Edward Baker to three-year terms as trustees on the school board.

Janice Kamrad, 12, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Steve Kamrad, was severely injured when she fell on the blades of a cultivator while attempting to climb into a hay mow to see some kittens.

The Chamber of Commerce has arranged to present another variety show at the Cass City Home-coming this year. Comedian Jack Terry will act as master of ceremonies.

Mrs. Fred White of Inlay City was killed and four others injured in a three-car crash on M-58 two miles north of M-81 Tuesday at 6:30 p. m.

Ten Years Ago

Gerald Whittaker, 13, son of Mr. and Mrs. Freeman Whittaker, has returned to his home after undergoing surgery for removal of a piece of bone which was pressing on the brain. He was badly injured last week, presumably kicked by a horse he was leading to pasture.

Robert Keppen and G. W. Landon were presented with certificates of award from the American Bowling Congress at the Rotary Club luncheon Tuesday. Landon had a three-game record of 736 and Keppen a one-game standing of 227 points.

One hundred thirty-four attended the annual school meeting Monday evening when it was decided to give the school board authority to purchase the land east of the school building to the Cass City park.

The year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. William Spencer of Manila, P. I., crossed the Pacific by plane for the second time when he came with his parents to visit Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Sharrard of Cass City.

Twenty-five Years Ago

Within two nights thieves stole two wheels and tires from the car of Roney Laucello, who rooms at the B. A. Elliott home. Several others in the village have reported wheels and tires stolen within the last two weeks.

About 100 persons attended the annual Evangelical Sunday School picnic at Caseville Friday.

The Fritz softball team, due largely to the pitching of Kehoe and the heavy hitting of Sherman, Brown, Wilson, Winegarden and Mellick, won the first half season championship. Because of the competition shown, the original six teams will continue for another round of games.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Kercher and sons, Ferris and Gerald, left Cass City July 10 and have been enjoying a trip to Rathdrum, Idaho, where they will visit their son, Charles Kercher.

Thirty-five Years Ago

Edward Webber, 38, a brakeman employed by the Grand Trunk Railroad, was fatally injured in an accident at the railroad yards at Cass City Saturday afternoon and died early the following morning.

Mrs. Herbert Houghton and family were awakened Sunday morning by a loud explosion and found their garage in flames. They were unable to get the car out. The house caught fire in two places but the flames were quickly extinguished.

An interesting collection of old coins is owned by Dr. and Mrs. S. B. Young. The oldest one in their possession is a British one dated 1771. J. D. Funk, also a coin collector, has a British coin dated 1769.

Due to the efforts of Mason A. Wright, former MAC student, a series of muck soil experiments is being conducted in Grant Township.

Market Wheat
Near Support Price

Prospects are for a smaller difference between wheat market price and support price this year. An expanded export program for wheat is the reason, according to farm economists at Michigan State University.

As in the past, wheat prices will fall substantially below the loan rate during harvest season. The loan rate for Tuscola County will be $2.01 per bushel this year, according to Alfred Ballweg, county agricultural agent.

Wheat prices will move up again after harvest season and the average return to farmers for the 1967-68 crop year will be about the same as last year, near the support price of $2 per bushel.

Carry-over of wheat this coming July 1 will be about 7 per cent below last year. Production is expected to be about 11 per cent below last season. Although this will be a reduction from the 1956 crop, total supplies will still be about 5 per cent above the 1951-55 averages.

Homemakers Await
3-Point Program

Tuscola County homemakers are giving last minute instructions to their families as they get ready to attend the 30th annual Homemakers' Conference at Michigan State University. The conference, which is being held July 23-26, is open to all Michigan homemakers regardless of whether or not they belong to a home demonstration group.

A three-point program of education, inspiration and recreation awaits the homemakers, says Mrs. Frances T. Clark, county home demonstration agent. Twenty-two classes covering a variety of subjects will be taught by M. S. U. instructors during the three days.

You can learn to "be your own efficiency expert", how to banish wash-day blues and how to take it easy in the kitchen. All you have to do is attend the classes in Easy Ways With Housework.

Or, if you want to learn what plants are suited to your home garden, how to care for your house plants and have a look at the horticulture gardens on the M. S. U. campus, just enroll in the flower gardening class, suggests Mrs. Clark.

Other classes offered are those on photography, landscaping, food marketing, public speaking, money management, school-family relationships and community responsibilities. You can also learn how to write for the mass media, learn the techniques of parliamentary procedure and discover the importance of good design in crafts.

Noted speakers will spark the conference, and a variety of entertainment has been planned for you homemakers.

You can make your reservation by contacting Mrs. Clark at her office in the Courthouse. The cost of the four days will be $22.00.

As the search for cash started, the state faces a deficit of more than $16,000,000 next year under a budget that does not include much needed new buildings.

A partially-completed 600-man prison at Ionia will stand unused for lack of money. It will house inmates, but the main functions of the training and educational phases will be shelved.

Both Democrats and Republicans agree Michigan's colleges and universities must have more money.

There are needs in mental health that must be met.

This year's legislature failed to find a way to provide for these needs, which means that they will become more acute next year.

industry is feeling the pangs of a heavy tax burden.

For a year, they have been saying they would like to stay and expand in Michigan, but the "tax climate" of other states gives them more of a chance at a profit.

Some already have left or have expanded in other states, Republicans charge.

They claim that business and industry is carrying its limit in tax burdens now and the threat of a new six per cent corporation profits tax proposed by Gov. Williams is the last straw.

Republicans have set up two tax studies, one, headed by Rep. Rollo G. Conlin (R-Tipton) to revamp the state's entire tax structure and spending policy.

The second, headed by Senator Clyde H. Geerling (R-Holland), will investigate the effect on business and industry of present and proposed taxes, including Williams' idea.

Williams is critical of the Republican tax studies and is preparing to name his own "blue ribbon" citizens' committee to make an "impartial, unbiased" study.

He said he would cooperate with the Republicans, but noted that their committees are both headed by legislators.

Conlin said he would name a citizens' advisory committee to make the investigation, turning over its findings to the legislature for action on policy matters.

Williams prefers the whole job to be done by a "blue ribbon" group.

He charges that any group named by Republicans would not be critical of Republican past or future ideas. Republicans retort that a Williams commission would not turn thumbs down on a corporation profits tax.

The voter gets a chance to tell them who is right at the next election in 1958.

The stalemate continues.

The last tax study by an outside group developed as the "Princeton Report" four years ago. It recommended a series of tax ideas, including levies on hotel bills, soft drinks, beer and others.

Williams has passed up no opportunity to mention it was financed by Republicans and that there was no mention in the report of a corporation profits tax.

There will probably be three sets of facts for the legislature to study next year and use to find answers to another mounting deficit.

The result after the 1958 legislative session a year from now will have more than academic interest.

Democrats are out to take over the Michigan legislature.

It is the stated aim of the party, through its state chairman, Neil Staebler, to concentrate on the House and Senate in 1958, after winning almost everything else.

This year, the Democrats had 51 of the 110 House seats and 11 of the 28 Senate seats.

To tip the balance, the Democrats are going to have to go into the smaller towns, the hamlets, and some of the smaller of the large cities, like Kalamazoo, Battle Creek, Saginaw.

Staebler is a master at local organization and pace.

The areas Staebler will have to hit are Republican strongholds.

The battle will be on next year.

Final Rites Held for Dennis Whittaker

Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon at the Michigan United Missionary Church for Dennis H. Whittaker, who died Tuesday, July 9, at a nursing home in Lincoln, Mich.

Prayer services were held at the home of his son, Freeman Whittaker, Rev. Louis Surbrook officiated. Committal services at Hemans Cemetery were under the auspices of Decker Lodge F & A M 479, of which he was a member.

Mr. Whittaker was born in Speaker Township July 22, 1866, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. James M. Whittaker. He was a member of the Baptist Church of Curran. In 1947, he married Mrs. Lucy Lence, who survives.

Other survivors include his son, Freeman of Evergreen Township; one daughter, Mrs. George Boehmer of Garden City; 16 grandchildren; 34 great-grandchildren; four stepdaughters, Mrs. Marshall Briley and Mrs. Fred Lawrence, both of Alpena, and Mrs. R. C. Lange and Mrs. Harold Pernie, both of Ossineke; six stepsons, Martin Lence of Upland, Calif., James Lence of Wilson, Gilbert Lence of Standish, Alex Lence of Alpena, Marcus Lence of Pontiac and Phillip Lence of Curran, and one stepdaughter by a previous marriage, Mrs. Phillip DeBack of Detroit.

Father is a built-in banker—thoughtfully provided by nature.

History wouldn't have to repeat itself so often if people tried to understand it the first time.

The kind of success that turns a man's head always leaves him facing in the wrong direction.

A SUPER FREEZER called a cryostat can create coldness of nearly 459 degrees below zero Fahrenheit, or close to the lowest possible temperature (absolute zero), in a physics laboratory at Michigan State University. Because atoms and molecules move more slowly in extreme cold, M.S.U. scientists are able to study them more accurately. At the machine's control panel is Dr. Harold Forst, an M.S.U. physicist.

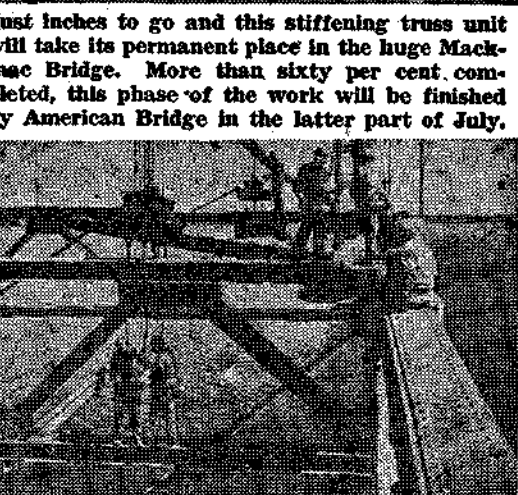

The Mackinac Bridge is framed in the distance by the steel members of this big, pre-assembled section, called a stiffening truss unit, which is towed by tugboats out on the Straits of Mackinac to the job site. Floating the 100-ton sections by barge is a ticklish operation, requiring near perfect surface and weather conditions.

Lifting struts on the 24 1/2-inch diameter main cables raise large sections slowly upward from the barge toward its appointed position, where it will fill an 80-foot gap in the one and a half mile suspended portion of the bridge being erected by U. S. Steel's American Bridge Division.

Just inches to go and this stiffening truss unit will take its permanent place in the huge Mackinac Bridge. More than sixty per cent completed, this phase of the work will be finished by American Bridge in the latter part of July.

Working at a dizzying height of nearly 200 feet, American Bridge men insert suspender rope fittings into sockets in the stiffening truss unit to wind up another of the 86 separate sections and lifts that must be made before this last major operation in the Mackinac Bridge is finished.
