The boy was at home alone when the accident occurred. He went to the home of a neighbor, Roland Greenfield, who brought him to the Pleasant Home Hospital.

Mrs. Lewis is a patient in the hospital here, having been admitted Saturday. James suffered the loss of sight of his right eye, injuries to his face and left hand. It was necessary to undergo partial amputation of his thumb and one finger of his left hand.

Hawks Complete Baseball Season With Two Wins

The Cass City Red Hawks closed out an extremely successful baseball season last week with two victories in non-league games played at Cass City Recreation Park Thursday and Friday.

Thursday, the Hawks had little trouble with Elkton, pounding out a 15-2 victory. Cass City pounded out 16 hits to back some excellent pitching by Mel Rienstra.

Bob Walpole opened the bottom half of the first inning and rapped a triple. Jim Johnson followed with a three-bagger and scored on a single by Perry Hoagg as Cass City went into a 2-0 lead.

Elkton tied the score in the top of the second. Rienstra issued three bases on balls and gave up a single in the frame.

Cass City took the lead for good in their half of the inning. Deering singled, Bob Holcomb walked, a hit batsman and Walpole's single, his second straight hit, pushed two runs across.

In the third and fourth, Cass City turned the game into a rout. Singles by Bob Behr, Holcomb and Rienstra, coupled with a walk, hit batsman and an error accounted for three runs in the third.

In the fourth, Cass City scored three more times to make the score 10-2. A walk, singles by Dave Wilson, Ray Fox, Art Severance, another walk and an infield hit by Holcomb did the damage.

RECEIVES PLAQUE—Roy Chisholm of Cass City Post Office Clerks. He is the oldest living charter member of the local Mrs. Chisholm also attended the anniversary meeting.

A Clerk for 40 Years

Roy Chisholm Tells Of Postal Service

Although in the last several years modernization has taken place in Detroit post offices, Roy Chisholm said that in his 40 years as a postal clerk substantially the same methods were used to sort the mail.

Mr. Chisholm recalled some of the early days in the post office with an article written especially for the 40th anniversary of Local 295 of the National Federation of Post Office Clerks held May 17 at the Labor Temple in Detroit.

He described the local's start and affiliation with the national organization and the problem of rising costs in 1918 immediately after World War I.

He pointed out that the salary for clerks started at $300 yearly and the maximum was $1,200.

At the same time, prices for food had soared almost out of sight. Eggs were bringing a dollar a dozen. Potatoes sold for a dollar a peck and average rents were $60 per month.

The situation was partially relieved when starting salaries went to $1,000 with a top of $1,500 yearly in the latter part of 1918. Another boost was received in 1920, Mr. Chisholm wrote, when it was possible to earn $2,100 as a regular clerk. It was at this time that categories for special clerks were originated with wages of $2,200 and $2,300 yearly.

Mail Backlog
In 40 years you see just about everything that happens in the mail room. Mr. Chisholm recalled that because Detroit grew so rapidly the mail facilities were never adequate. Despite many new buildings and increasing personnel, it seemed as if the postal department could never catch up with the exploding population.

During the Christmas rush the situation was always the worst. During one holiday season hurried clerks were so deluged with mail that it was packed to the ceiling. It jolted against the sprinkling system in the building and the room was drenched, Mr. Chisholm said.

The veteran clerk said that he saw only one piece of obscene mail in his career with the department. It was a post card and

Two-year-old Kenneth Hampshire, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Hampshire of Kingston, was admitted to Cass City Hospital Friday with a fractured right leg, between the knee and hip. The fracture was sustained when he was run over by a two-wheel trailer, drawn by an automobile driven by the child's grandfather.

Bad Axe State Police are investigating the demolition of a car owned by Floyd Luettkie of Cass City.

According to Cpl. Carl Harrison, vandals used a pickax to puncture fenders, body and tires of a 1933 Plymouth.

They also tore wires from motor and broke all of the car's lights.

Representatives from three Cass City auto agencies were present to discuss the purchase of a new police car for the village.

Vehicles are sold to the village by local dealers at 10 per cent above cost and the agencies have an agreement that when a sale is made to the village the dealer involved is ineligible to sell another municipal unit until the remaining dealers have sold to the village or Elkland Township.

It was H. M. Bulen's turn to sell to Cass City and he appeared before the council to explain the provisions of his bid.

He explained his offer for the present car by quoting current prices from auction sales and the amount of work needed on the police car. Charles Auten and Lee Rabideau told trustees that Mr. Bulen had presented the facts accurately and fairly.

After hearing the discussion, Continued on page ten.

Officers were elected for 1953-54 at the final meeting of the year of the Cass City Home Demonstration Group at Cass City School Tuesday, May 20.

An interesting lesson, "Knowing Your Meats," was presented by Mrs. Fred Maier and Mrs. Avery.

Members decided to hold a dinner June 4 at 8:30 p. m. at the Methodist Church.

In charge of serving the meal were Mrs. H. Greenleaf, Mrs. Arthur Moore, Mrs. William McKinley, Mrs. Albert Whitfield, Mrs. Max Agar, Mrs. Reatha Hughes and Mrs. Ella Croft.

The group enjoyed recordings of the band's performances at the State Festival and Spring Concert.

Rev. Howard Woodard presided as officers and committees were selected for 1953-54.

Mrs. Willard Dobbs is the president. Secretary is Mrs. Laurence Bartie and treasurer is Mrs. Gilbert Albee.

Seven committees were also named. Mrs. Arthur Kelley, chairman of the Poppy sale for the American Legion Auxiliary, conducted here last week by members of the Legion post and the Auxiliary, reports gross sales receipts of $424.66. Poppies cost $66.50, leaving $179.08 as profit from the sale for each organization. The sale of the 2,000 little red flowers grossed more than $30.00 over the receipts of 1952 sales.

From the Editor's Corner

We received a letter this week from a former resident describing some of his or her experiences when in Cass City. Unfortunately, the letter was not signed so we cannot print it.

The writer suggests that we publish a column telling about persons who have moved from the community.

We believe that the writer has a good suggestion, but point out that we are at a loss to figure a way to secure the information. Even this subscriber, who took the trouble to write, was unwilling to sign the letter and if we wanted to let other people know what became of him we would be unable to do so.

Meanwhile, we point out that we are always open in our regular news columns to information of this type and will print it whenever it becomes available.

Tate Car Damaged In Pigeon Accident

A car owned by Raymond Tate of Pigeon, formerly of Cass City, was damaged when struck by a car driven by Dale H. McArdle, Pigeon.

Mr. Tate's car was driven 32 feet from its parking place on Main Street in Pigeon.

Bad Axe State Police ticketed Mr. McArdle for failure to report a property damage accident and for reckless driving.

He told police that he fell asleep and the car swerved to the left side of the road.

The work is expected to cost some $57,000 and calls for approximately 12 miles of multiple rural distribution wire, a new type wire used when more than one circuit of wire is needed. In addition there will be 18 miles of new pole line and 58 circuit miles of line wire.

Mr. Janson said that it is doubtful whether the work will be completed in 1958.

TROPHY PIKE—It takes a boy to catch the big ones. David Dearing, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jay Dearing, caught this big 37-inch, 11-pound pike Saturday morning in the Cass River. Using a daredevil, he landed the fish after about a 20-minute battle. His brother, Jerry, was fishing with him and said that he kept giving advice during the battle. "Mostly I was telling him not to lose it," Jerry said with a grin.

The Cass City village council voted for parallel parking on Main Street Tuesday night at its regular session at the Municipal Building.

The surprise move by trustees came when it was disclosed that the present parking lines are becoming faded and repainting is necessary.

On a motion by C. R. Hunt the council voted unanimously for the change. It is estimated that the change in parking will allow two less cars to be parked in each block.

Provision will be made under the new system for clear vision at each corner. There will be no parking near the corners of each street.

The council also voted to change the parking limitation on Main Street. The traditional two-hour limit will be replaced with one-hour parking. Trustee Cliff Ryan said that he felt that the two-hour provision was adequate but the remainder of the council approved the measure. Trustee Warren Wood was not present Tuesday.

Parking on the remainder of the streets will remain as it is.

Rodeo Site
B. A. Calka, president of the Cass City Chamber of Commerce, appeared before the council to ask for a site for the rodeo to be held in conjunction with the Cass City Home-coming.

His request invoked one of the most lengthy debates in recent years. Trustee Andrew Bigelow was against allowing a site because he said that he felt that the event would not be good for the Home-coming. He objected to a charge for any of the attractions of the show.

All of the available sites in the park were discussed and the meeting briefly adjourned while several trustees looked over possible sites.

It was finally decided to hold the rodeo at the baseball diamond section of the park, off the infield. The trustees secured a pledge from the Chamber representatives present. They said that the field would be returned to its good shape as it was before the program was held.

Representatives from three Cass City auto agencies were present to discuss the purchase of a new police car for the village.

Vehicles are sold to the village by local dealers at 10 per cent above cost and the agencies have an agreement that when a sale is made to the village the dealer involved is ineligible to sell another municipal unit until the remaining dealers have sold to the village or Elkland Township.

Schedule Rodeo For Annual Cass City Home-coming

At a special meeting Monday evening at the Cass City Municipal Building, members of the Chamber of Commerce board voted to sponsor a rodeo at the annual home-coming this summer.

The rodeo is staged by professional riders and investigation has shown, the board said, that it is an outstanding show.

To arrange for the show in Cass City, it will be necessary to stage the performance for two nights instead of the traditional one-night show.

A charge to cover the cost of the rodeo will be made. Members of the board said that it was impossible to secure a show of the type planned without a charge. They said that the rest of the annual event will be free, as always.

Follmans Observe 50th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Adam Follman celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary Saturday when 40 relatives and friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Meininger to honor the couple.

Mr. Follman and the former Mrs. Anna Hillier were married in Ambridge, Penn., May 23, 1903. They came to Gageton in 1925 and have lived in their present farm home for 28 years.

Mr. Follman was born in Rumania Dec. 16, 1888, and Mrs. Follman was born there Aug. 20, 1891.

The couple have a daughter, Mrs. Meininger of Gageton, and two sons, Michael of Gageton and Adam of California. There are 13 grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

The Meininger home was decorated with gold streamers and yellow flowers. The bridal table was centered with a three-tier wedding cake decorated in white and gold. It was made by a granddaughter, Mrs. Edward Burnhoffer of Elkton. Also decorating the table were yellow flowers and gold candelabra.

A Mass of Thanksgiving was celebrated in St. Agatha Church Friday morning for the Follmans, who renewed their marriage vows.

Uncle Tim From Tyre Says:

Dear Mister Editor:

I don't think we'll ever get any place discussing things with them Russians either at the summit or at the base. The routine they got fer handling a diplomatic situation is hard to beat. They make a complaint, then they refuse the explanation. You can't beat that system fer results. If we carried it out like that in private life, fer instant, it would run about like this. I get a bill from the doctor, and then I write him and ask fer a explanation. He sends me a itemized account. Then I reject it and call fer an explanation of the itemized account. We keep this up until me or him dies of old age.

But I think the real reason Russia stays mad at us all the time is because they owe us money. The maddest my neighbor ever got with me was the time he owed me ten dollars fer helping him do some ditching. He said the ditch filled back up anyhow, and he stayed mad at me fer three years over that ten dollars he never paid me. I don't think we'll ever git together with them Russians till we mark off what they owe us.

And we got our problems here at home as well as over yonder. Fer instant, last night on television they was introducing a new color fer wimmen's dresses. This woman that was giving the commercial called it "Tiger Rose," and allowed as how it was "so electrifying it changed the tiger's stripes, so vibrant you can hear the jungle drums." I think the Senate investigating committee ought to look into some stuff just as soon as they git through decking who stole what with that television station down in Miami.

I don't know where this thing of wimmen's clothes is going to end. I see where some feller has designed a bathing suit that works like venetian blinds. If the gal wants a little more sun she can yank a string and the flaps come open. And if she don't want no more sun she yanks the string the other way and the flaps close. And I see where they is discussing a new evening gown that has a top made out of transparent plastic. In short, the gal has got on clothes but she ain't got on any. It's a great pity, Mister Editor, that folks with such brains ain't working on somepun useful. Fer instant, if they'd develop a hog that has four hams instead of two we'd be getting some place.

I used to worry about such things a heap, but styles change even in worrying. When a feller has got a problem now, he just takes a pill. I'll knock off now, Mister Editor, and go take a couple.

Yours truly,
Uncle Tim

Tuscola County's light horse judging team of Lillian Gretch and Alice Gerou of the Hill and Gully Riders and Bonnie Atkins and Larry Prime of the Junior Horseman 4-H Club placed eighth among 26 competing teams at the May 17 4-H Light Horse Field Day held at Michigan State University.

The team total of 798 points was compiled by Eaton County. Tuscola County's team compiled a total score of 753.

The competing teams judged Morgans, Quarterhorses, and grades and gave oral reasons on the registered horse rings.

Judging is one of the many activities that Saddle Club youngsters have an opportunity to compete in under 4-H Club work, says Bill Muller, County Extension Agent in 4-H Club work.

At present there are six organized Saddle Clubs in the county, enrolling well over 100 youngsters. Boys and girls who would like to become a member of this organization may do so by contacting this office.

I never pry into other people's business, especially our customers' business.

But it often helps our sales representatives and myself when our customers who are shopping around for a car let us know what they're going to use it for.

For instance, a family that's going to be using their car pretty well exclusively for city driving, finds a car with automatic transmission a tremendous advantage.

And anybody finds power steering a great relief, especially a wife who uses the car to come downtown.

With these things in mind, we often find we can outfit a family with a used car featuring these advantages when they feel they couldn't afford a new one with the optional extras.

Or maybe the husband likes a good, firm, heavier car from the middle and upper price brackets. He can find a used car from the higher-priced brackets that will give him the luxury and feel he wants at an economy price.

More and more these days, people are buying used cars as the family's "second" car for the wife and members of the family. In cases like this a four or six cylinder car often fits the bill perfectly.

By all means shop around when you're thinking of trading or buying. And when you come in to see us, it may help if you explain to our sales representatives, or myself personally, what you want to use the car for.

CHOICE - USED CAR

Lucy Starmann's 1936 Buick 4-Door Sedan. This car has only 37,000 actual miles on it. Equipped with Dynaflo Transmission, Radio, Power Steering, Power Brakes and Heater. Painted a Powder Blue with Blue Trim. Runs like a new car and surely has many unused trouble-free miles still in it. Don't delay if you are interested. It won't be here long (we hope). Come in, See it, Drive it (or any other). Listen to our deal. We think you'll be surprised.

Small Spaces Are Tiring, Says Agent

Space — or rather, the lack of it — can make you tired, says Mrs. Frances Clark, County Home Demonstration Agent. A recent study by Michigan State University home management specialists, reveals that homemakers who need more storage space for children's wraps and toys are apt to be more tired at the end of the day.

Children need plenty of room to play, too, both inside and out, says Mrs. Clark. About one-fifth of the homemakers interviewed said that they didn't have enough.

Few women feel their house is perfect. What change would they make first? Add a room, replied most of them, such as another bedroom or a family activity room.

Even the neighborhood you live in can tend to wear you out, continues Mrs. Clark. About one-fifth of the women would have liked more harmonious neighbors; one-sixth wanted more space for children's outdoor play, and one out of nine wanted less bother from traffic and dirt.

These are all things to think about when you're in the market for a home. Buying or building a home which has enough space for storage and children's play, and is built in a pleasant neighborhood, may help make you less tired when bedtime rolls around.

Frances T. Clark County Home Demonstration Agent

After you saw the children off to school and your husband off to work this morning, did you make a mental plan of your activities and leave out time for lunch? I find that many women seem to do this and thereby miss almost as much as one-third of the day's supply of protein, vitamins and minerals. Lunch every day is important.

A good lunch should provide some good source of protein, such as cheese, eggs, meat and milk. Besides this, the midday meal should provide the number of calories for the energy necessary for the afternoon job.

Salads are a favorite with many women; and, cottage cheese can form the base of a salad with many varieties of fruits, fresh or canned. Vegetables also make a nice contrast with the cheese in texture and flavor. Tomatoes, grated carrots, or perhaps just a combination of raw vegetables makes a tasty plate.

If you use tuna, chicken or meat for your children's or husband's packed lunch, you can save out enough of the tuna, chicken or meat and make a tasty salad for yourself. A chef's salad is easy and quick to make. Just shred some lettuce, add strips of chicken, ham, meat or cheese to the lettuce and mix with your favorite salad dressing. Then serve with a sweet pickle, crackers or hot bread. In addition, you may enjoy a bowl of that hot soup, even in warm weather. Remember to plan for lunch because lunch is very important to you and will give you that extra pep and zip needed to finish the day's work.

Any woman wanting help with refinishing of furniture, seat caning, lampshade making or upholstery, call my office (330) for an appointment.

Michigan's 1958 legislature will return June 12-13 still in confusion over the kind of record it will write in an election year.

Still hanging fire are the State Police budget and a change in unemployment compensation benefits.

Strangely, the fights on both points are among Republicans with the Democrats waiting on the sidelines for campaign issues if Republicans fail to answer the needs of the state.

Major issues of the budget are all settled: the state will cut services and layoff employees in a time of desperate need for economy.

There remains the most delicate area of all, the State Police. The Senate says the state must slash the budget equally among agencies or face financial disaster.

House members, headed by Rep. Harry J. Phillips (R-Port Huron) are insisting on the restoration of the slashed funds as administrative sources say it will mean 100 less troopers.

"The Senate just doesn't understand the need," said Phillips.

The State Police have achieved a national and world reputation as a top law enforcement agency. Troopers work an average of nine hours a day. They must write their reports that extra hour after eight of patrolling highways, answering trouble calls, fighting crime.

Perhaps most important is the enviable record in reduction of death and accidents on the highways since the State Police Department was expanded two years ago. While it is not claimed that the entire improvement can be credited to the State Police, it is easy to see they played an important part.

Reduction of death from traffic accidents began to improve immediately.

In 1956, when more State Police took to the highways, there was an improvement of 269 in the death records. This is 13.3 per cent. In 1957, there were 209 fewer deaths than in 1956. Through May 1 this year, there is another improvement of 93, or a 21 per cent gain.

Since State Police ranks were increased, 571 people are alive who would have been killed if the death rate from accidents had continued its 1955 pace.

After weeks of dispute, the House and Senate are $116,000 apart on the State Police budget. Phillips said the House would stick with the higher figure, the Senate insists on the cut.

The Senate position represents a compromise while the House figure is its original demand. Even if the House wins, the State Police will get less than last year.

The issue must be settled in the June 12-13 session. The fiscal year ends June 30 and the State Police will have no funds with which to operate if no action is taken.

Unemployment compensation is the second issue of the session June 12-13.

Republicans have been holding off on anything definite, waiting for Congress to act. They hope to make the best use of money which may be available in federal plans not yet determined.

There is controversy about the federal plan: whether to send the lump-sum money to the states for distribution or whether to use it as a supplement bearing the federal tag.

Republicans in Michigan have sponsored a maximum nine-week extension of benefits at 75 per cent of the rate of present benefits.

Now a behind-the-scenes move is expected to produce a new Republican bill at the two-day session in June. It will propose extending 100 per cent benefits for 13 weeks.

"We're still hopeful that Congress will act before the legislature re-convenes," said Senator Frank D. Beadle (R-St. Clair).

If Congress delays action, the legislature will be forced into action without knowing what adjustments will be necessary if a flood of federal money becomes available.

Included in the same budget bill with the State Police is a $25,000 budget for the State Safety Commission.

The Commission is composed of top state officials, including Gov. Williams, but most of the money goes for the state safety director, Gerald E. Shipman, and his staff.

"If this is cut out, I believe the state will pay in the number of lives lost on the highway," said Gov. Williams.

The Senate cut out the entire budget for the commission, but political seers about the Capitol believe it will be restored before the final version goes to Williams. The expenditure is so small and the benefit so dramatic, it is hard to believe the issue will be lost.

Highway maps, the victim of a whimsical amendment in the Senate, will not be printed by the state after June 30.

The development occurred after Republicans rammed through amendments barring the expenditure of highway money for a new radio system some claimed would cost several million dollars and a $135,000 state airplane for the department.

Senator George C. Steeh (D-Mt. Clemens) then proposed that highway maps be included in the bill. Everybody agreed.

The House kept the amendment and the final issue of official state maps will be made June 30. There has been an indication gasoline companies are willing to bid for the official map.

If it goes through, the motorist will still get the more accurate state map—but from the gasoline stations.

The best thing about worries is that most of them never happen.

Examine Pine Trees Now for Sawflies

Pine plantation owners should examine their trees for the presence of the European pine sawfly, and spray accordingly, advises District Forester Allen H. Boelter.

In its present stage the sawfly is a grayish-green worm about one-half inch long. These worms feed in clusters on previous year's needles and can completely defoliate the tree. They are most commonly found on red, scotch and austrian pine and are seldom found on white pine.

The sawfly larvae (worms) are easily killed by spraying with either arsenate of lead or 50 per cent wettable DDT at the rate of 3 pounds per hundred gallons of water or 3 tablespoons per gallon of water.

Hay, Corn Silage Best for Heifers

Oat silage apparently doesn't make a very good feed for growing dairy heifers, according to feeding trial results at Michigan State University, says Alfred Ballweg, County Agricultural Agent.

Dairy scientist Charles Lassiter reports this finding after comparing heifers fed alfalfa hay, corn silage and oat silage on a short 46-day trial.

Heifers on oat silage not only gained less weight during the 46 days, but they consumed less silage than did heifers on corn silage. Heifers getting corn silage gained an average of 1.13 pounds per day while heifers on oat silage gained .53 pounds a day.

Animals on hay consumed the most dry matter in their roughage per day. It totaled 12.1 pounds for heifers on hay. Dry matter consumption dropped to 9.6 pounds and 9.2 pounds for heifers on corn and oat silage respectively.

one of the Michigan VA hospitals, where each man is paid a few cents for each poppy he makes. The making of the flowers by the hospitalized veterans is good occupational therapy.

The use of net proceeds from Poppy sales is limited to helping in many ways the hospitalized or needy veteran or his family. Any other contributions, from either the Legion or Auxiliary, to other projects, must come from general funds in the treasury of the organization.

Mrs. Arthur Little was rehabilitation chairman for the local Auxiliary during the past year and a partial list of expenditures of Poppy funds included: $50.00 spent for gifts for the Christmas gift shop project which went to Fort Custer hospital; the payment of Gold Star mothers' dues in the Auxiliary; the purchase of a grave marker for a Gold Star mother who died during the year; $10.00 for the Saginaw Veterans' hospital to purchase canteen books for the hospitalized patients; $10.00 and a basket of food to a local sick disabled veteran and his family; cigarettes to a local veteran who was hospitalized, and payment of state voluntary funds of $31.45 which went to the hospital cigarette fund, the canteen fund and to the children's Bilet at Otter Lake.

The Auxiliary and Legion post members expressed appreciation for the response from Cass City and vicinity to the sale just completed.

To two World War I men goes the distinction of having collected the most in the sales. Vernon McConnell was top man with Stanley Wojtowicz a close second. Mrs. Doris Klinkman, auxiliary treasurer, led collections among Auxiliary members who worked.

Set Wheat Price Support at $1.81

The price of 1959-crop wheat will be supported at a minimum national average rate of $1.81 per bushel, Charles B. Eckfeld, County Office manager of the Tuscola County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee, announced today.

This support will apply if at least two-thirds of the growers who vote in the June 20 referendum approve marketing quotas for the 1959 wheat crop. The support of $1.81 per bushel will not be reduced but may be increased if the wheat parity price and supply situation as of July 1, 1959, indicates a higher support price.

If quotas are not approved by the necessary two-thirds vote, support for the 1959 wheat crop in the commercial wheat-producing area will drop to 50 per cent of parity, or about $1.20 per bushel. Compliance with allotment would continue to be a condition of eligibility for the lower support price.

The County Office Manager said that the $1.81 per bushel represents 75 per cent of the estimated modernized parity price.

108 at WSWS Birthday Supper

Sponsored by the Woman's Society of World Service, 108 members and friends of the Evangelical United Brethren Church attended a birthday supper in the church dining room Wednesday evening.

Persons whose birthdays occurred in the same month sat at tables together and appropriate emblems were used as decorations. After the potluck meal each table contributed a number for the program, emblematic of the month represented.

The highlight of the evening was the showing of colored slides of the Holy Land by Rev. Logan Weaver of Chesaning. These were taken by Mr. Weaver on a trip to Bible lands and he related Biblical stories connected with each picture.

The want ads are newswy, too.
